Kuntz's newest play, whose working title is My Life with the Kringle Cult, is one of many to make its debut in Boston in recent years. In the 2002-03 season alone, Boston theater companies workshopped or produced nearly 30 brand-new works. The Huntington Theatre Company and the American Repertory Theatre, for example, both peppered last season's schedule of stalwarts and classics with world premieres. And a scan of this fall's offerings proves that despite the financial risks of producing a show without the lure of a familiar title or playwright—a David Mamet or Neil LaBute—more and more companies are hitching their wagons to rising stars and integrating new plays into their lineups.

"Boston is not going to become a theater destination until people start producing new plays here," says Kuntz. "The problem is we're still thought of as being in the shadows of big theater towns. We have to start growing our own plays here and having them go to New York rather than the other way around."

The robust economy of the 1990s fed the growth of several theater companies in Boston, many of which now have the financial means to secure rights to the plays that cause a stir off-Broadway. But the increased number of bidders vying for the same prime property has led artistic leaders to look elsewhere and to seek treasures closer to home. Producing new plays and showcasing homegrown writers are both crucial to putting Boston on the national theatrical radar screen, giving the city a reputation for developing plays that are exported for production in other major cities. With the Boston Center for the Arts gearing up to open its new theater complex next fall, new works are also critical to feeding local audiences. The BCA's new performance spaces will serve as the Huntington Theatre Company's second stage and provide more stage time for the many companies that use the BCA's stages. That means increased opportunity for companies to spotlight local talent in other departments—from actors to directors to designers—which can only mean a boon to the theater community in general.

NEXT STAGES
Jump/Rope

Any talk of producing new works in Boston must start with the companies that have been doing it all along. The Boston Playwrights' Theatre is a hotbed of fresh voices where new material has been produced under the auspices of Boston University since 1981. BPT, in fact, runs the playwriting component of the graduate creative writing program at BU. It not only produces as many as three plays each fall by alumni of the program but also offers space to other companies during periods between productions. There is just one stipulation: The company must present a new work—or at least a Boston premiere. Jake Strautmann, managing director, gauges the proliferation of new works by how many requests BPT receives from professional and nonprofit companies to stage new works.

"Kate [Snodgrass] likes to make the point that you can't do Shakespeare and Chekhov forever," Strautmann says of BPT's artistic director. "As many new ways as there are to stage these plays, we need to tell our own stories. As far as the future of Boston theater, if it is to continue to thrive, it's going to need new plays. That's where the excitement is."

The BPT's three debut plays for the Fall 2003 season form a triad of sorts, as each is based on an episode in American history. Bill Lattanzi, founder of the Boston Theater Marathon, the BPT's annual 10-hour carnival of 10-minute plays, launches the season with Pictures of Patty Hearst, which dramatizes the many mysteries surrounding the heiress. Then Zayd Dohrn travels back to 1880s Chicago in Haymarket. Based on the lives of anarchist activists Lucy and Albert Parsons, the play is set during Albert's trial for participating in an act of terror at a labor demonstration. Russell Lees, whose Nixon's Nixon was part of the Huntington's season in 2002, wraps up the season with Monticel', an account of Thomas Jefferson's tryst with Sally Hemmings and her brother's interference in the affair.

Though rooted in history, the plays have an uncanny resonance with present-day events. "I've never written a political play [before Haymarket], but in the last three years, politics has been closer to our daily lives, so I started thinking about how to address that," says Dohrn. "It wouldn't work to do it head-on in 2003. We don't have enough distance on it to understand it in a play. Haymarket centers on the first major act of terrorism on American soil. I thought it would be interesting to consider terrorism 120 years ago and how society reacts, all the fear and lashing out and anger that goes along with it."

By showcasing new plays, and the playwrights who pen them, BPT offers a peek at who may emerge as the next big thing. A production here, says Strautmann, "is an opportunity to get their name out there. The best possible setup is that an alumni's plays will get noticed by the theater community here—and hopefully by a theater community elsewhere." That can happen if a production goes on to the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival, an annual event in Washington, D.C., where BU alum Ronan Noone's The Lepers of Baile Baste won the 2002 student playwriting award after its BPT student production in 2001. Or perhaps a staged reading of a student's play will pique the interest of an area artistic director.

"Boston has long been an echo chamber of what's happening somewhere else. Maybe we're tired of that," says Carmel O'Reilly, artistic director of Súgán Theatre Company, a resident company of the BCA. "Theater is, by nature, risky anyway, so why not take that risk to do something new?" O'Reilly asks. "Now that we've established credibility and developed an audience, we're more secure, and there's validation to our feeling that we can take that risk."

Since its founding in 1992, Súgán's mission has been to produce contemporary works from or related to Ireland. Naturally, O'Reilly has scouted for talent in the Emerald Isle, where young writers who have yet to be heard in the United States are upholding the rich legacy of Irish drama.

"Our journey might be different from other theater companies in that most writers aren't American and not known here. We've probably put some Irish writers on the map here because it's the first chance for audiences to see their work," O'Reilly says. Súgán's production of Tom Murphy's Bailegangaire, for example, was deemed "best of 2002" by several Boston critics. "He had never been done here, but he's giant in Ireland," says O'Reilly. "That gave us the strength to say, 'If we can make good judgment calls about this then perhaps [we can] take a leap of faith to take on a completely new script.'"

That new script was Jon Lipsky's Molly Maguire in 2002. Súgán then gave Noone's Lepers its professional premiere and will do the same this February with the third installment of Noone's Ireland-based Baile trilogy, The Gigolo Confessions of Baile Breag. (The middle installment, The Blowin' of Baile Gall, premiered at the BPT this past spring.)

The New Repertory Theatre, a regional theater accustomed to working with budding playwrights, takes the leap this year with a world premiere of A Girl's War, by BU alum Joyce Van Dyke. The story follows a New York model who returns to her Armenian hometown when her brother is killed in the country's ethnic conflicts; she begins an affair with his friend, a soldier with politically ambiguous leanings. Producing artistic director Rick Lombardo says the play's resonance is what prompted him to produce it.

"If you look around the world at burning conflicts, you see people of different ethnicities and faiths each claiming pieces of earth," Lombardo says. "It's the essential international issue of the 21st century. I think it's important that theater deal with it in interesting ways and ask questions."

Boston Theatre Works spotlights new talent in Unbound, an annual spring festival of new plays in which actors perform staged readings of five to six works, selected from submissions from playwrights nationwide. The event is an opportunity for a director and playwright to work together on a script with the aim of prepping it for a future production on BTW's stage or elsewhere. Last season's Veronika Vavoom, Volcanologist came from such a script. Another show BTW workshopped, Emily Mann's Meshugah, which was staged in 2002, thrived beyond Boston. A New York production by Naked Angels Theater Company starred Ned Eisenberg, who originated the role here. In February, BTW premieres Steven Bogart's Conspiracy of Memory, another play that premiered at Unbound, about a Holocaust survivor suffering from Alzheimer's.

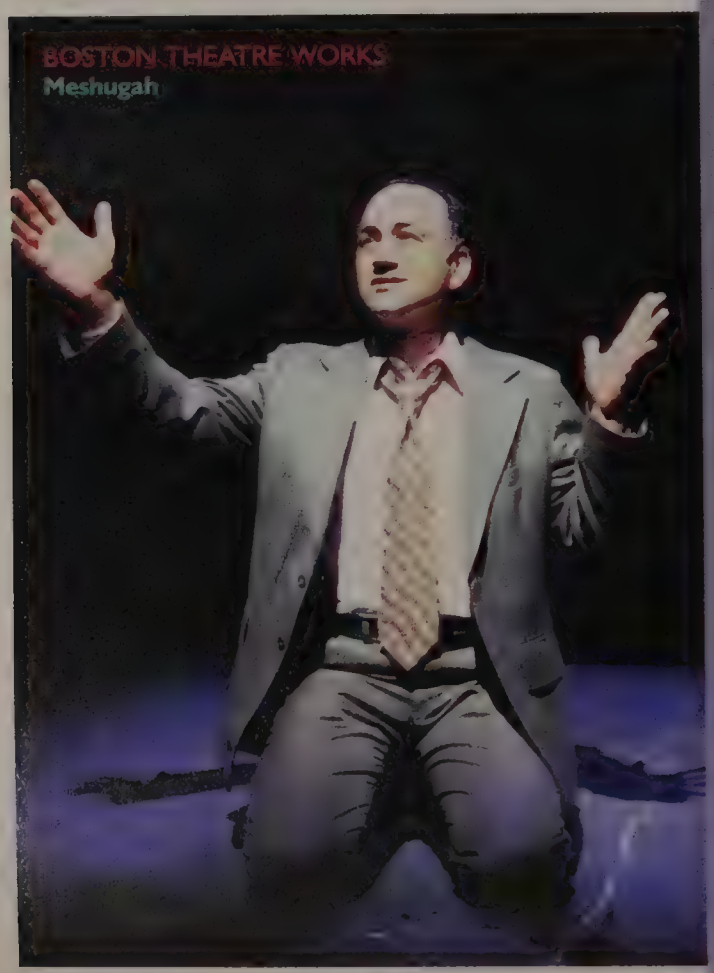
BTW has also made a break from its usual search methods. This fall marks the first time that artistic director Jason Southerland has commissioned a work: John Kuntz's holiday play. Though some could point out that Kuntz is already well established, the move still reflects a mission that took shape while Southerland worked at Playwrights Horizons, a leading theater for developing new work. "I knew that there was a wealth of playwrights out there who aren't being seen. That's why it was important to start a company that gives them exposure," Southerland says.

Another company launched more recently with a similar focus is Next Stages, the brainchild of Justin Waldman, assistant to the Huntington's artistic director, Nicholas Martin. To Waldman, producing new plays is an opportunity "for audiences to say 'I saw this play when.' I firmly believe these writers are going to be the next household names."

Waldman discovers many of those names through his work at the Huntington Theatre Company, which, with the new theaters slated to open at the BCA next fall, has been revving up its new-play initiatives. Though The Paris Letter, a play commissioned from Jon Robin Baitz, whose works are produced all over the country, has been postponed this season, the company is preparing for the opening of the new theater spaces, which will be dedicated primarily to new works. The effort has recently begun with the commissioning of four local scribes: Kuntz, Noone, Melinda Lopez and Sinan Unel.

"They're commissioned to become part of artistic fabric of the Huntington," says Ilana Brownstein, the theater's literary manager. "Rather than commission specific plays as we've done in the past, we're commissioning their participation in a process. Unlike most commissions at most theaters, this gives us chance to build relationships with them and provide them with artistic and dramaturgical support as they pursue their work. By investing in local writers, we're strengthening the arts scene in Boston instead of importing it from other cities." iB



IN THE WINGS

FALL'S THEATER LINEUP MIXES NEW OFFERINGS WITH THE TRIED-AND-TRUE

Out on the Edge Festival

The Theater Offensive presents its 12th annual banquet of performances, staged readings and artist workshops showcasing who's who and who's next in lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender theater. The event assembles performers and playwrights from across the country with a special emphasis on works by artists of color. Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Sept. 26. $18–$27.

Ain't Misbehavin'

This tribute to stride pianist extraordinaire and jazz pioneer Fats Waller is a musical revue set in the Harlem Renaissance and covers rhythmic hits like "Honeysuckle Rose" and others from Waller's catalog of more than 450 songs. The production honors the show's 25th anniversary. Huntington Theatre Company, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. Sept. 12–Oct. 19. $14–$69.

Lady with a Lapdog

The eminent Russian director Kama Ginkas has racked up honors throughout Russia and Europe with his clever adaptations and stagings of Chekhov's famed short stories. His visit to the ART marks his first time working with American actors. In this tale of a summer fling turned into a passionate affair, characters interact with the audience and blend burlesque and tragedy to reveal their complex inner lives. American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 13–Oct. 11. $35–$69.

A Girl's War

An Armenian fashion model who is successful in America returns home where family affairs and personal identities take on overwhelming proportions in the context of the region's brutal ethnic clashes. This is the world premiere of area playwright Joyce Van Dyke's provocative work. New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands (617-332-1646). www.newrep.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Sept. 17–Oct.19. $27–$45.

A Man of No Importance

It's no surprise that the first joint effort between Súgán Theatre Company, purveyors of Irish works, and musical specialist SpeakEasy Stage Company is the area premiere of this award-winning off-Broadway musical by Lynn Ahrens (lyrics), Stephen Flaherty (music) and Terrence McNally (book). Based on the 1994 film with Albert Finney, it's about a Dublin bus driver who wants to stage Oscar Wilde's Salome and the hullabaloo his plan sets off with church officials. Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.sugan.org or www.speakeasystage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 3–Nov. 9, $30–$35.

Hairspray

The Broadway hit that swept the Tony Awards last year sockhops to town on a Broadway in Boston bill. Based on John Waters' cult film classic, with Bruce Vilanch in the role that won awards for Harvey Fierstein, the show flashes back to 1962 for big boppers, big hair and the obsessions of a teenage girl with a big heart. Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.broadwayinboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 7–Nov. 1. $30-$97.

Pictures of Patty Hearst

The co-founder of the Boston Theater Marathon, Bill Lattanzi, shows his long-form capabilities. His new dramatization of the life of the kidnapped heiress/convict/model explores what happened around the media circus of 1974. This play has been selected to compete in the 2004 Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival. Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St. Oct. 9–19. $5–$15.

Haymarket

Zayd Dohrn, a graduate of BU's creative writing program, sets his historical play about free speech and rebellion in 1880s Chicago. A terrorist act at a labor demonstration leads to the trial of Albert Parsons and to full-throttle organizing and demonstrating by Parsons' wife, Lucy. Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St. Oct. 30-Nov. 16. $10-$20.

The Silent Movie Play

Rough & Tumble Theatre, the area's chief source for "cutting-edge physical theater," reprises its first collectively developed, original show, about the life of a lowly shop boy. Attending to devious villains, crotchety bosses and lovely maidens is just part of a day's work, and it all plays out to live piano accompaniment. Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.rough-and-tumble.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 31–Nov. 22. $10–$12.

Chicago

Roxie Hart and Velma Kelly prove with hip-swinging certainty that crime does pay. The 1975 musical enjoys a sizzling renaissance following last year's film version. Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 4–9. $28–$75.

As You Like It

The Huntington Theatre Company teams up with Broadway in Boston to import Sir Peter Hall and his company in the Theatre Royal Bath's production of Shakespeare's shimmering comedy of roguish forest dwellers, cross-dressing schemers and lovesick fools. Wilbur Theatre, 246 Tremont St., Boston, (617-931-2787). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 11–Dec. 21. $25-$67.

My Life with the Kringle Cult

Actor/playwright John Kuntz, local master of the madcap, unveils his tale of Christmas outlandishness. (Note that this is a working title and it may change.) It's a comic confection involving a cult of fanatic toy makers, their fraudulent leader, an undercover reporter and a giant ball of bellybutton lint. Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.bostontheatreworks.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Nov. 28–Dec. 13. $20-$25.

Monticel'

Russell Lees, a Boston-area playwright, follows his Nixon's Nixon, a satire of the president on the eve of his resignation, with another political portrait. This one traces Thomas Jefferson's business and pleasure with his slave and mistress, Sally Hemmings. Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Commonwealth Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.–Sat. 8 pm; Sun. 2 pm. Dec. 4–21. $10–$20.

Introducing VOX® Raspberry

An Irresistible Act of Smoothness

Excite your senses with delicious, new VOX® Raspberry Flavored Vodka. The incomparable smoothness of VOX® Vodka is blended with the essence of fresh raspberries for an alluring aroma and irresistible flavor.

"★★★★½"

"Much fruitier, fresher, and fuller in taste and texture (than the competition)."

-Richard Carleton Hacker, Spirits Connoisseur (Playboy, The Robb Report)

"★★★★½"

"Possibly the finest raspberry flavored spirit I've tried to-date."

-Robert Plotkin, Spirits Connoisseur (Bon Appétit)

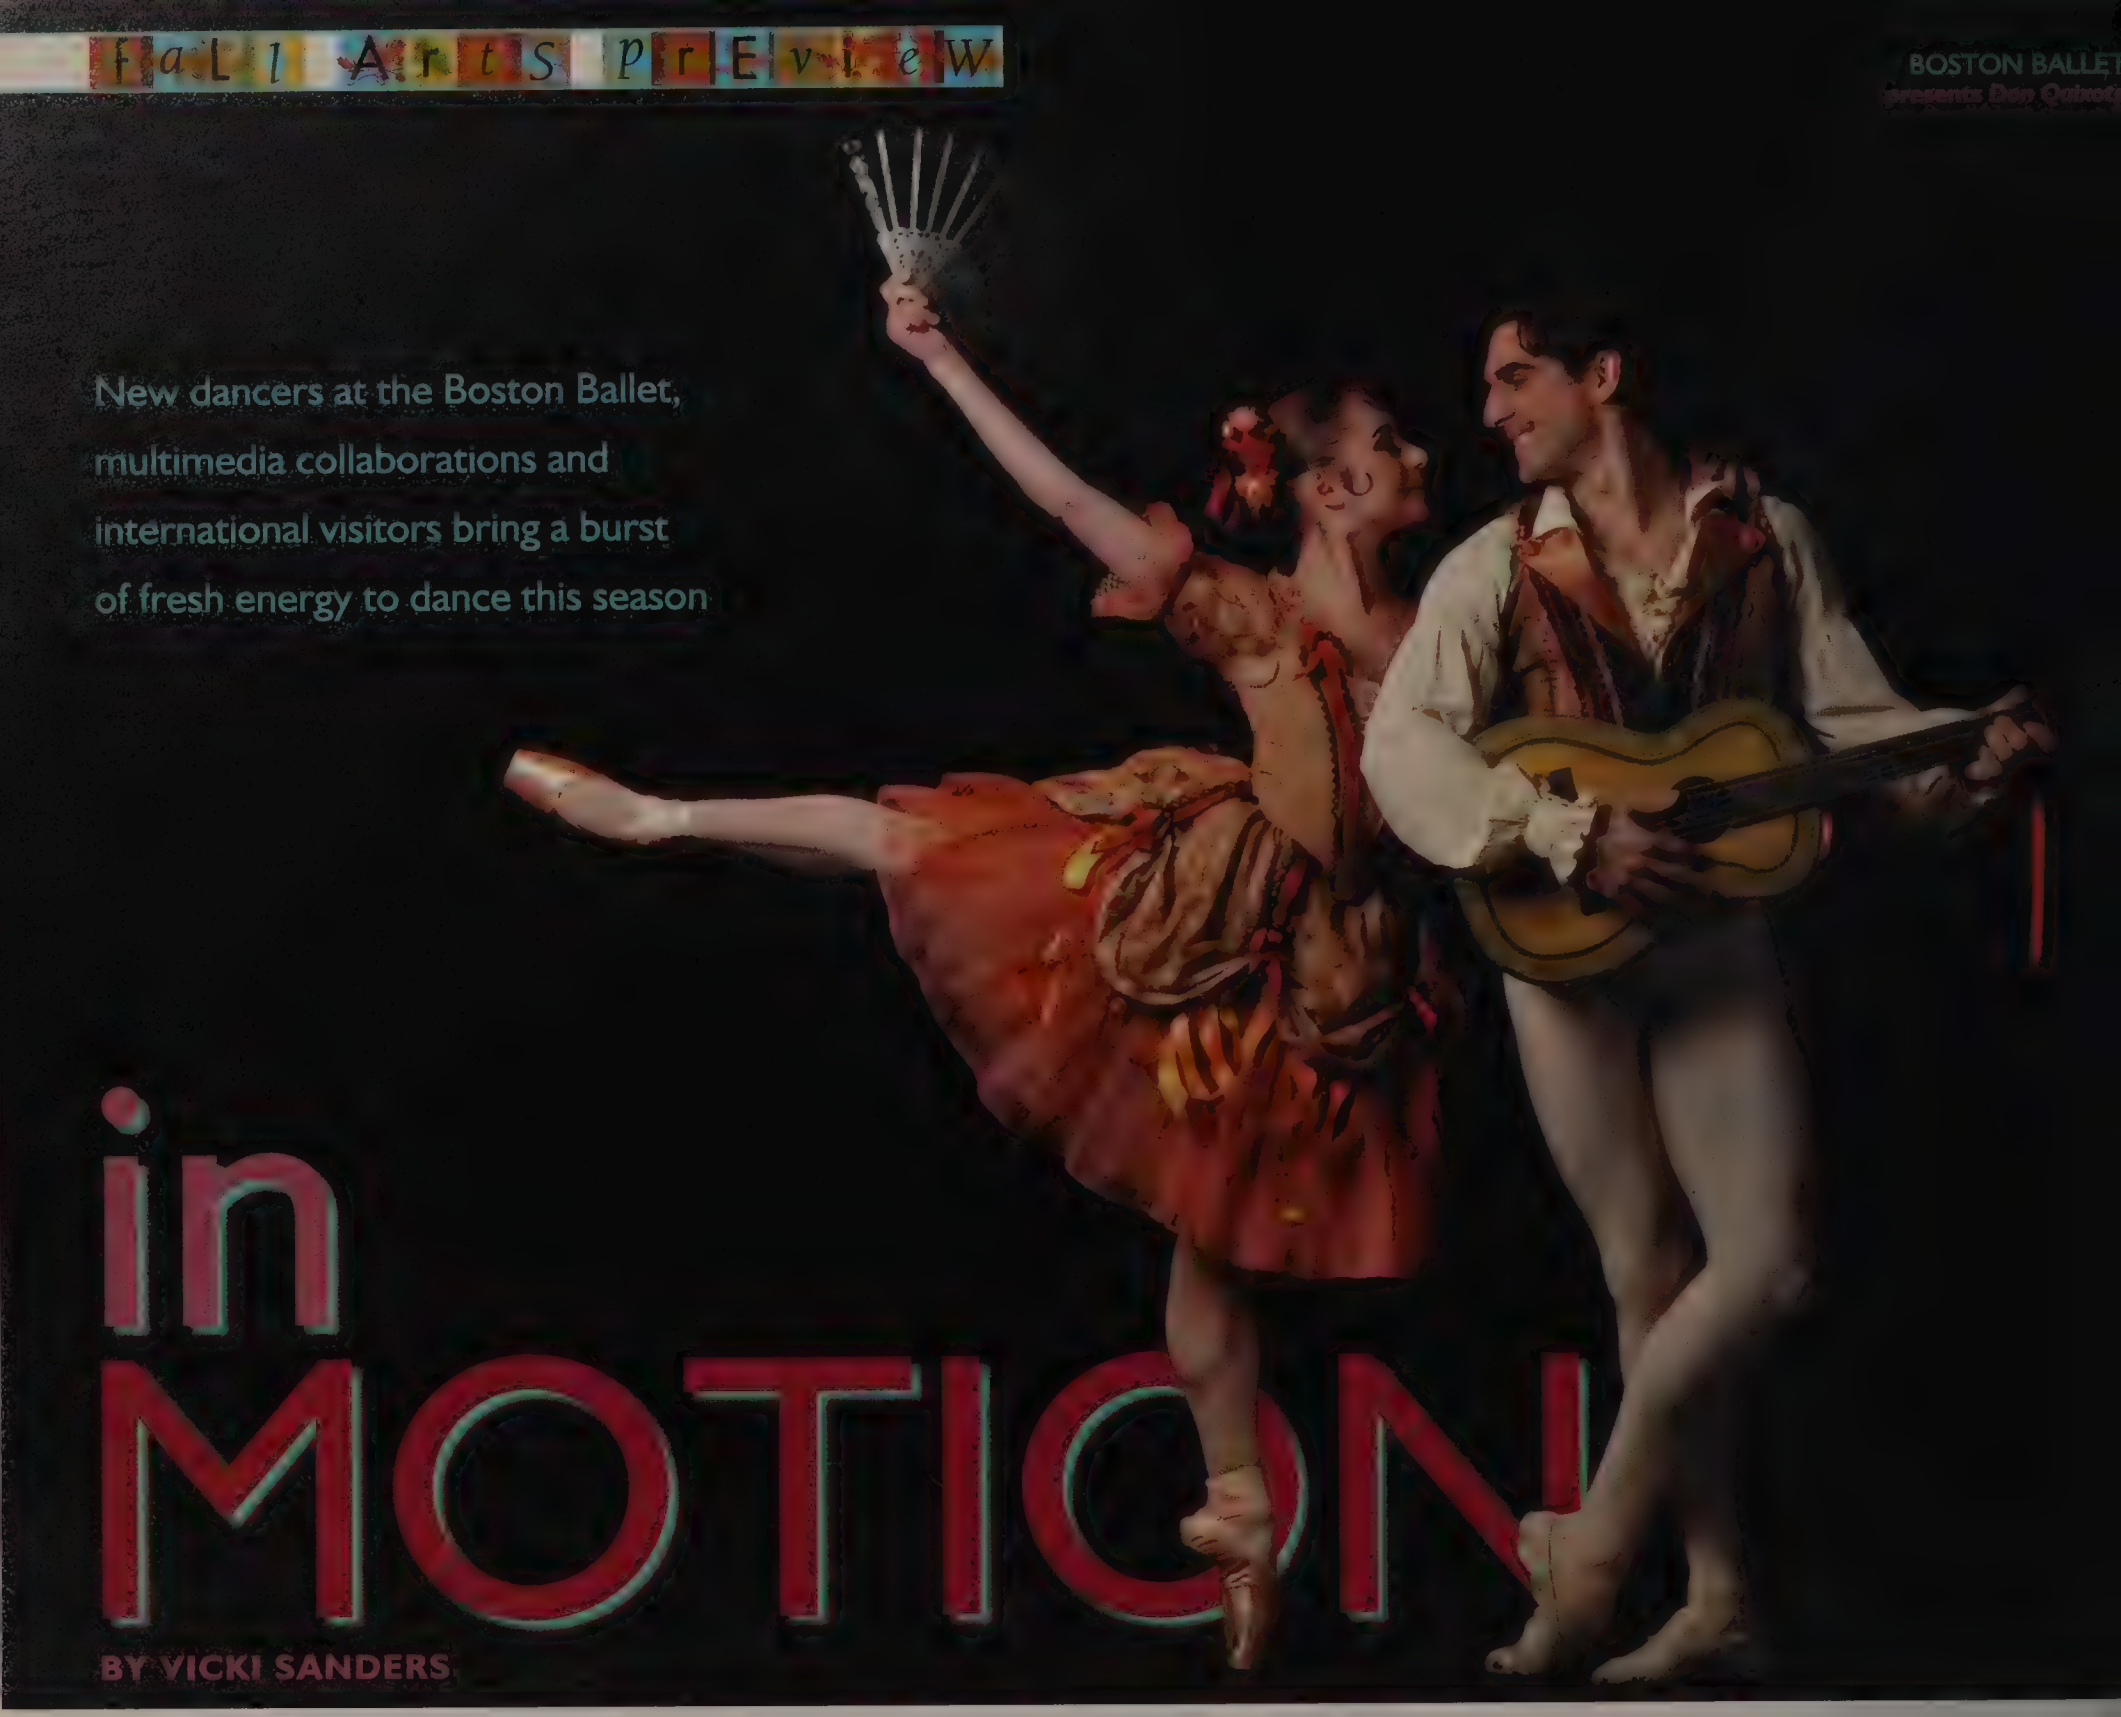
smart



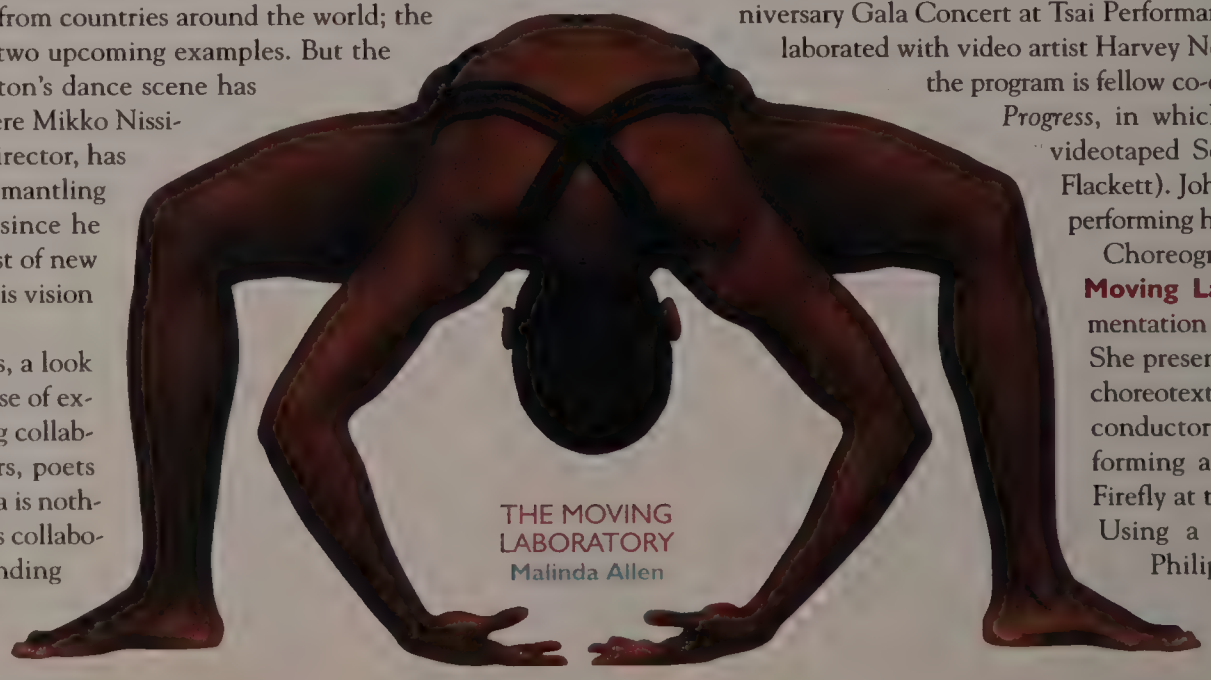
New dancers at the Boston Ballet, multimedia collaborations and international visitors bring a burst of fresh energy to dance this season

in MOTION

BY VICKI SANDERS

hanges have been afoot in the Boston dance scene for some time now, and the fall season is a prime time to find out where the trends are heading. Some of the shifts have been rather subtle. In the modern-dance arena, for instance, multimedia collaborations have become increasingly popular. On another front, local venues have been providing a widening array of exotic offerings from countries around the world; the Kirov Ballet and Noche Flamenca are two upcoming examples. But the most noticeable transformation in Boston's dance scene has been occurring at the Boston Ballet, where Mikko Nissinen, in his second full year as artistic director, has made some radical moves, essentially dismantling the troupe (13 dancers have departed since he came on). This season, armed with a host of new dancers, Nissinen will begin to show us his vision of the company's future.

For Boston's smaller dance companies, a look at the autumn lineup shows a healthy dose of experimentation and innovation, including collaborations with the likes of videographers, poets and visual artists. The mixing up of media is nothing new, of course—dance by its nature is collaborative—but some choreographers are finding that crossing such boundaries is a way to lure new, often younger audiences.



Collaboration, says Micki Taylor-Pinney, artistic co-director of the Dance Collectiv of Boston, "is a way to target a larger market, bring together different genres, generat some excitement and open dance to new audiences." For her Forest to Trees, a piece pr miering Sept. 19 and 20 at Dangling by a Thread, the collective's 30th An niversary Gala Concert at Tsai Performance Center, Taylor-Pinney co laborated with video artist Harvey Nosowitz and a jazz trio. Also o the program is fellow co-director Dawn Kramer's Walk Progress, in which Kramer dances live with videotaped Sean Curran (shot by Anton Flackett). John Clark accompanies the pie performing his jazzy bass score.

Choreographer Malinda Allen of th Moving Laboratory is pushing exper mentation in a slightly different directio She presents her In Telling, Tell Apart, choreotext for eight dancer/vocalists and conductor" at a new Thursday night pe forming arts series in Arlington call Firefly at the Regent Theatre on Oct. 1 Using a poem by Marlene Nourbe Philip as a basis for the piece, All assigns each dancer a word a a corresponding movemen

As conductor, she directs their expanding series of looped utterances and movement phrases until all the elements coalesce into an audiovisual poem and all the pieces find unison in the ending line, "...in whose language am I, if not in yours, beautiful?"

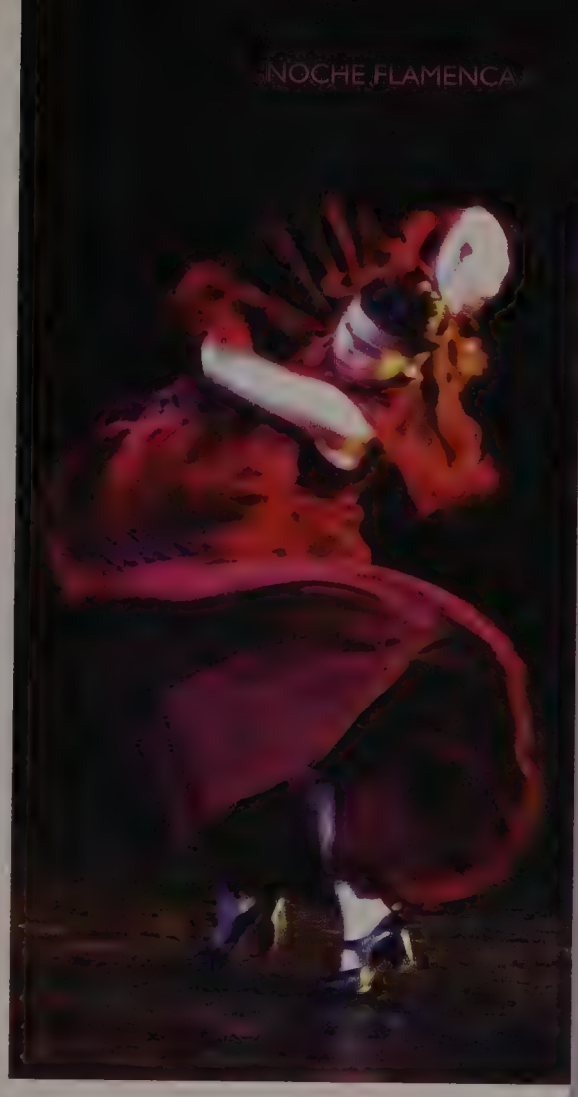
Arts audiences have developed a greater appetite in recent years for international performers of every ilk, and this trend holds true for dance performance as well. Since the demise of Dance Umbrella several seasons ago, World Music has done its part to bring culturally diverse dance programming to Boston with its Crash Arts series. According to World Music's Susan Weiler, ethnic dance can open doors to a broader appreciation of all types of dance and may be a factor in the growing diversification of Boston's dance audiences. "We're hoping that international performers also bring new audiences to modern dance," she says. "Dance is so expressive. If somebody enjoys flamenco, maybe they'll experiment with something different next time." This fall, World Music's offerings include a return engagement by Spain's Noche Flamenca Oct. 2-4.

The joint effort by the FleetBoston Celebrity Series and the Wang Center for the Performing Arts to bring the Kirov Ballet to Boston Nov. 13-16 is an important milestone in Boston arts. It marks a renewed commitment to putting the city back on the itinerary of the top international touring companies, despite the high cost of bringing them here. "It's of great value to the community to have the Kirov, to see this extremely high level of dancing," says Martha H. Jones, president and executive director of the Celebrity Series. "Why should audiences have to go to New York? Why shouldn't Boston be able to have the gifted Kirov? It raises the standard for everybody."

Including the Boston Ballet. The company's upcoming 40th anniversary season is both a look back into history and a look forward, Nissinen says, but next year's focus will be on "forward, forward, forward."

This fall, the company remembers its past with a staging of Rudolph Nureyev's production of Don Quixote (Oct. 16-19 and Oct. 30-Nov. 2), complete with refurbished sets and costumes. Nissinen's touch can be seen in his selection of French dance artist Aleth Francillon to stage the production, a choice that reinforces his intention to expand European influences in Boston Ballet's programming. Another mission, Nissinen says, is to move away from the company's academic classical repertory and toward a more neoclassical one. To that end, he's presenting (Oct. 23-26) George Balanchine's Stars and Stripes and Mozartiana and a dance called The Grey Area, an award-winning contemporary work by English dancer and choreographer David Dawson.

Both programs are an opportunity to catch Nissinen's team of new dancers. Of audience members who've followed the company's veterans for years and will miss them, Nissinen says, "they will get to fall in love again in the same right with new people." With 25 new faces, there will be a lot to love. IB



IN STEP

SAMPLER OF FALL'S BEST DANCE PERFORMANCES

by Vicki Sanders

Dangling by a Thread

Revivals, surprise appearances and premieres (including Micki Taylor-Pinney's Forest to Trees and Dawn Kramer's Walk in Progress) mark Dance Collective's 30th-anniversary concert. Tsai Performance Center at Boston University, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8725). http://dancecollective.org. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston University East. Sept. 19 and 20. $15–$30.

Noche Flamenca

World Music presents one of Spain's leading troupes, bringing the raw power of flamenco to the stage. Cutler Majestic Theatre at Emerson College, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-876-4275). www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 2–4. $25-$45.

Undercurrents

The intimate surroundings and cabaret-style seating make the Sanctuary Theatre in Harvard Square a ballet venue unlike any other in town. It's a rush to be so close to the dancers that you can practically touch them. Such is the setting for the Jose Mateo Ballet Theatre's program in which the company explores "a new level of abstraction" with Courtly Lovers, a revival of The Last Circus and a premiere of a new work by Mateo. Sanctuary Theatre, 400 Harvard St., Cambridge (617-354-7467). www.ballettheatre.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Square. Oct. 3–26. $28.

Dance Showcase

A virtual smorgasbord of Boston talent, this annual choreographic rumble is a great way to see a variety of dance styles in a single program. It features Boston University faculty and alumni, including five who now dance professionally. Sargent Dance Studio/Theatre, 1 University Road, Boston (617-353-1597). www.bu.edu. MBTA: Green B Line to Boston University East. Oct. 4 and 5. $15.

In Telling, Tell Apart

Malinda Allen presents her critically acclaimed work based on poet Marlene Nourbese Philip's poem "Meditations on the Declensions of Beauty by the Girl with the Flying Cheekbones." If that title isn't enough to get you to the new Firefly at the Regent series, nothing is. Regent Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (617-592-5980). www.fireflyatnight.com. MBTA: 77 bus from Harvard Square, 80 bus from Lechmere. Oct. 16, 8 pm. $16.

Boston Ballet

Classical and neoclassical dance meet in a season that celebrates the 40-year-old company's past and offers a glimpse of its future. Don Quixote, Oct. 16–19 and Oct. 30–Nov. 2. George Balanchine's Stars and Stripes and Mozartiana and David Dawson's The Grey Area, Oct. 23–26. Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www. bostonballet.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. $38–$95.

Facing Mekka

Rennie Harris, the king of hip-hop choreography, combines 17 dancers, three vocalists, three DJs, live percussion and collage projections in Facing Mekka. This new work traces the African lineage of hip-hop, fusing break, freestyle club, Aboriginal, ceremonial African and Brazilian capoeira dance. Cutler Majestic Theatre at Emerson College, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-876-4275). www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 17–19. $25–$45.

Kirov Ballet

Quite simply, Kirov is one of the world's finest dance companies and the standard-bearer of the classical form. During its Boston visit, it will present three works by the legendary Russian choreographer Michel Fokine, who was noted for bringing greater naturalism to the form. The company performs Schéhérazade, Chopiniana and Firebird. Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 13–16. $45–$90.

Missa Brevis, plus Two Premieres

The José Limón–trained Jennifer Scanlon revives her mentor's 1958 classic, Missa Brevis, a rarely performed majestic work for 21 dancers. Set in a bombed-out church in Poland during World War II, the ballet celebrates the human spirit's capacity to transcend adversity. On a program with premieres by former Boston Ballet dancer Laszlo Berdo and modern dancers Diane Arvanites-Noya and Tommy Neblett. The Boston Conservatory Theatre, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-912-9222). www. bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Nov 13–16. $5–$16.

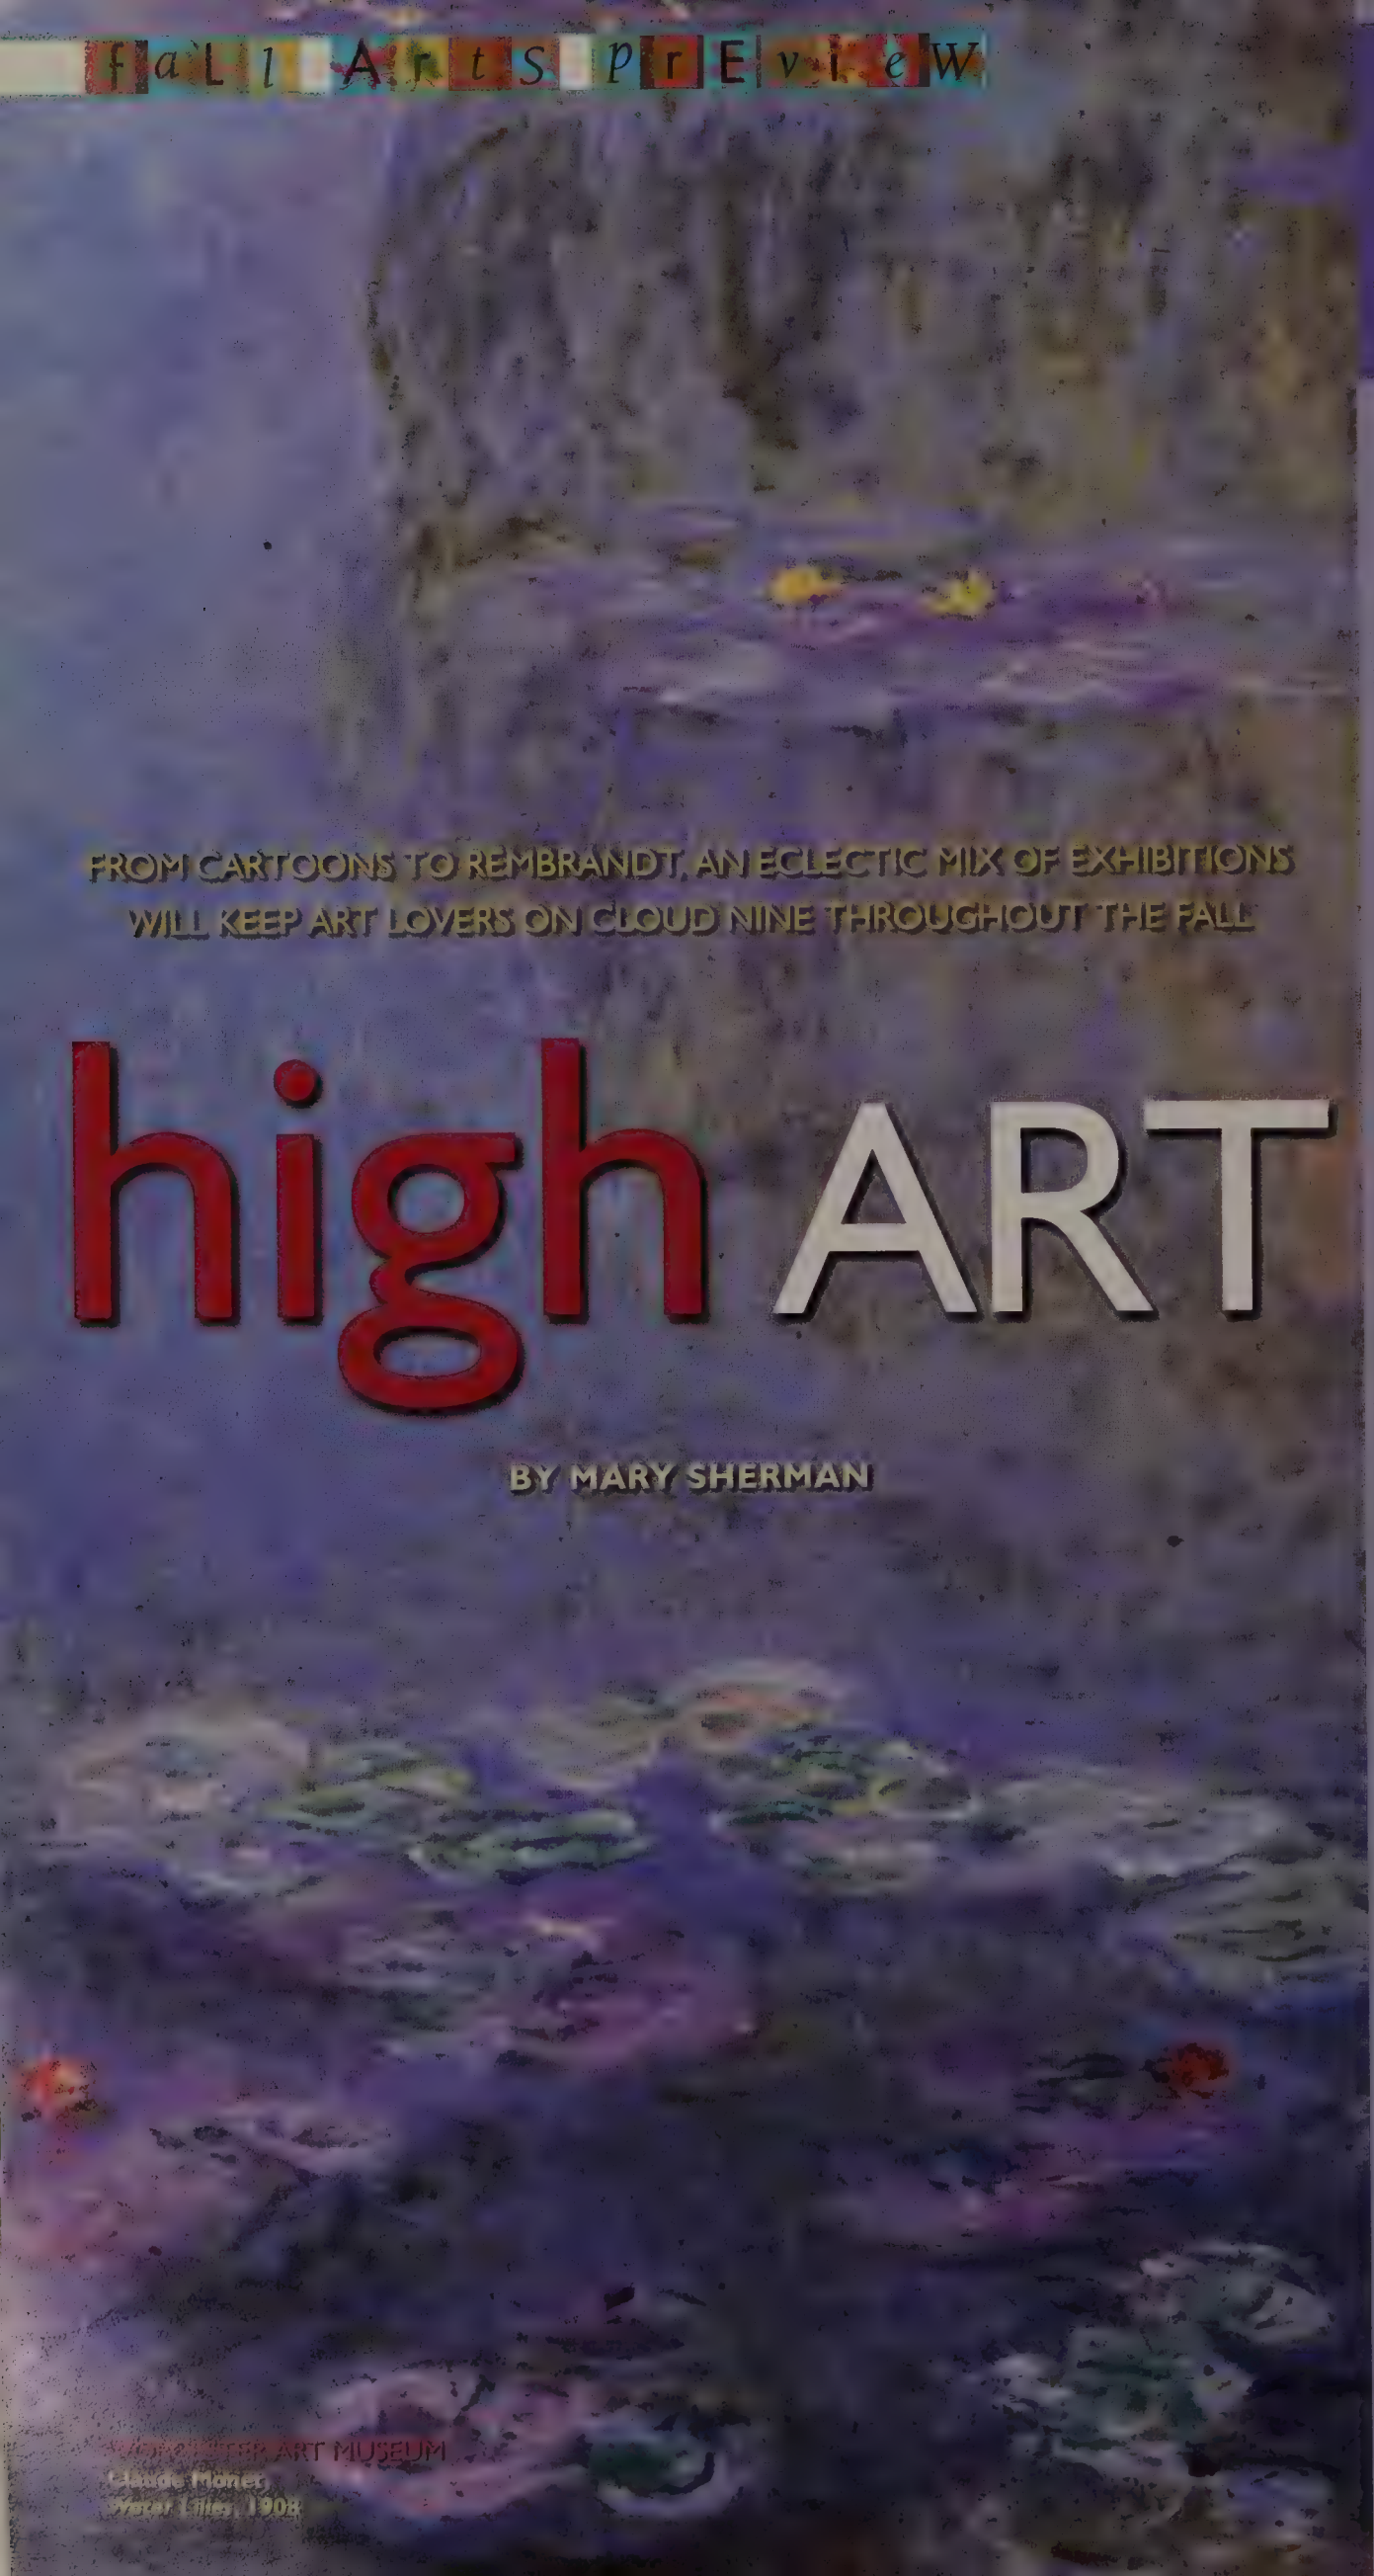
Caitlin Corbett Dance Company

The choreographer known for her quirky explorations of form and structure presents two premieres. Cowboy, Red is a quartet set to a backdrop of old films; the "visual score" choreographs the movement in the way that a musical score would in a traditional ballet. No Rain propels nine women in space to the wildly romantic music of a Mexican string ensemble. Tower Auditorium, Massachusetts College of Art, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood Medical Area. Dec. 13–14. $15.

FROM CARTOONS TO REMBRANDT, AN ECLECTIC MIX OF EXHIBITIONS WILL KEEP ART LOVERS ON CLOUD NINE THROUGHOUT THE FALL

high ART

BY MARY SHERMAN



For the past two seasons, the Boston visual arts scene has enjoyed a swell of attention and activity: Brandeis University's Rose Art Museum unveiled a new hangar-size space for contemporary art; the Museum of Fine Arts announced a majo expansion project; the Institute of Contemporary Art unveile plans for a new museum on the Boston waterfront; and th
Peabody Essex Museum opened an impressive new wing tha includes a 200-year-old house transported from China and re assembled—timber by timber—within the museum.

Boston's arts scene also caught the eye of a number of out side institutions that lured away some of the area's brightes stars. The Harvard University Art Museums lost one of thi country's most brilliant directors, James Cuno, to London' Courtauld Institute Galleries. New York's Frick Collectio snapped up the MFA's curator of European decorative arts an sculpture, Anne Poulet, to serve as its director; and the Whit ney Museum of American Art in New York just announce that the talented director of the Addison Gallery of America
Art, Adam Weinberg, will become its new director.

Such a flurry of activity can't last forever, of course. But thi season's exhibition lineup may keep us in a state of bliss fo some time.

The Institute of Contemporary Art jump-starts the sea son with a bang: Splat, Boom, Pow! The Influence of Cartoons i Contemporary Art. From Sept. 17 through Jan. 4, 2004, the ex hibition examines the high art craze for all things cartoon from the pop art movement of the 1960s to Takashi Mu rakami's infatuation with Japanese comic books.

A similar tendency runs through the work of Andover na tive Pat Keck, whose figurative sculptures are on view at th
DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park from Sept. 13 t
Jan. 18. Although more inspired by marionettes and automa tons, the works play on our alternating attraction to and fear humanoid figures, hovering between creepy kitsch and un nerving psychological tableaux.

For those who prefer their art a bit more calming, from Oct ber 8 to January 11, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museu will be presenting *Raphael, Cellini, and a Renaissance Banke
The Patronage of Bindo Altoviti*. Bringing together a painting
Raphael and sculptures by Cellini—including Cellini's bron bust of the better-known collector Cosimo de'Medici and a other of Altoviti—the show will examine the fascinating ar complex relationship between artist and patron.

Also, the Worcester Art Museum offers a variation on th ever popular impressionist theme with Paths to Impressionis French and American Landscape Painting. Just in time for fall f liage, the show opens Oct. 5 and runs through next June. Wi 42 paintings by artists such as Monet, Corot and Pissarro, chronicles the evolution of landscape painting from the Barbizo school's unsentimental look at nature to the impressionists' e ploration of light.

Meanwhile, the Museum of Fine Arts is trading in its fo mer diet of impressionist shows to focus on another of strengths, Rembrandt prints. Co-organized with the Art Ins tute of Chicago, *Rembrandt's Journey: Painter, Draftsma
Etcher* premieres at the MFA Oct. 26 and runs through Jan. 1
Including more than 200 works from every period of Re brandt's career, the show will be the first American exhibiti in decades focusing on Rembrandt's prints in relation to paintings and drawings.

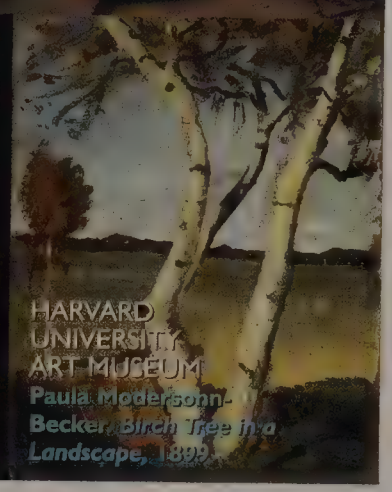
Harvard University's Busch-Reisinger Museum is al drawing on its strengths. To celebrate its 100th anniversa the museum is presenting Before Expressionism: Art in Ge many circa 1903, Oct. 24 through Feb. 15. With its focus the art of German-speaking countries, the Busch-Reising has a vast collection of works from late medieval art through the most comprehensive array of multiples in t world by postwar artist Joseph Beuys. (Multiples are wo that are reproducible, rather than one-of-a-kind, and Be considered the form crucial to his work.) This show focu on a lesser-known era in German art, although it includ works by such popular artists as Emil Nolde and Paul Klee



The Busch-Reisinger also has a virtual show at www.artmuseums.harvard.edu/sites/eoed/history.html. Although it can be viewed only online, this interactive look at the legendary Bauhaus art and design school, through film clips, archives, furniture, architecture and art works, is a must-see for anyone interested in either modern art or design.

Meanwhile, the Peabody Essex Museum continues to pursue its global view of art by drawing on its renowned collection of Native American works to create a major show, Uncommon Legacies, running Sept. 19 through Dec. 3. Including more than 100 pieces from a number of artistic cultures, the exhibition aims to reveal the majestic beauty of one of this country's most important collections of early Native American art.

For those hungering for more contemporary work, the Rose Art Museum is the venue to hit. The museum kicks off its season with the first exhibition by new curator Raphaela Platow, Painting^{4}, opening Sept. 11 and running through Dec. 7. Instead of reinforcing easel painting's status quo, Painting^{4}, finds ways to reinvent it. The exhibition's four artists take painting beyond the confines of the flat picture plane and expand it out into world—literally. Ingrid Calame makes stencils of found patterns (such as those made by stains) and transfers the images directly to the exhibition space, where the walls become the background. Michael Lin's paintings spread across floors that visitors can sit on; Jimmy O'Neal uses reactive paint to include the images of viewers in the work; and Katharina Grosse paints diaphanous films of intense colors that extend from walls to ceilings, blurring the boundary between the two and transforming the space.

For those who couldn't get to Venice this summer for the art world's most prestigious event, the Venice Biennale, the Addison Gallery of America is currently showing Fred Wilson: Objects and Installations, 1979–2000, a midcareer survey of the artist who was chosen to represent the United States in Venice this year. Wilson is known for his provocative "mock" museum installations, and the Addison show traces his use of art to question the so-called objectivity of most museums' presentations, exhibitions and didactic texts.

Similarly, from Oct. 16 to Jan. 6, MIT's List Visual Arts Center will present a survey of work by Michael Joo, the New York–based sculptor who represented Korea at the 2001 Venice Biennale. Typically combining scientific theory and artistic practices to create sculptures that look like a cross between biological dioramas and traditional figurative work, Joo demonstrates how commonplace actions, like eating, can transform both individuals and cultures. Along with such works, the show will include the world premiere of Joo's three-screen digital video shot in Alaska, Circannual Rhythm(pibloktok).

MIT is actually one of the best-kept secrets in the Boston area for major contemporary art pieces. Its Percent-for-Art program sets aside a percentage of each new building's budget for art. Last year, the university commissioned Matthew Ritchie to create an engaging walk- and see-through installation in a glass corridor in its new gym. MIT also will soon unveil a pavilion, Yin/Yang, designed by the conceptual artist Dan Graham, in its new dormitory, Simmons Hall (which itself is a unique piece of sculpture). This year there is talk that the school is looking to commission a work by Sarah Sze. (Sze is the artist whose recent installation at the MFA, RSVP, greeted viewers in the museum's West Wing with a dangling piece of paper that swept up to the second floor and across a hallway to create a complex meditation on a spring breeze.)

But perhaps the most exciting art news at MIT is—surprise!—another new building. Opening this winter, this structure is not a museum. The Stata Center, which is nearing completion and can already be seen off Vassar Street, will house the university's artificial intelligence laboratory and other departments. Designed by Frank Gehry, the architect of the famous Guggenheim Bilbao, the building is marked by the kind of dizzy, undulating curves that have made Gehry a household name.

Like the rest of the local art scene this year, developments of last year's magnitude—new acquisitions, directorial changes and museum expansion plans—may be within sight, but it's still too early to start uncorking the champagne. For now, we'll have to be satisfied with the museums' lineups of tantalizing treats for the eyes. iB

VISUAL FEASTS

FALL'S FULL OF TREATS FOR THE EYES

Fred Wilson: Objects and Installations, 1979-2000
Addison Gallery of American Art
Phillips Academy, 180 Main St., Andover (978-749-4015). www.andover.edu/addison. Through Nov. 9. Free.

Painting^4
Rose Art Museum
415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA Commuter Rail: Fitchburg/South Acton Line to Brandeis/Roberts. Sept. 11–Dec. 7. $3; under 16 free.

Puppets, Ghosts, and Zombies: The Sculpture of Pat Keck
DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. Sept. 13–Jan. 18, 2004. Free. (Cost to enter the museum is $6; $4 seniors, students and children 6-12.)

Splat, Boom, Pow! The Influence of Cartoons in Contemporary Art
Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Sept. 17–Jan. 4, 2004. $7; $5 seniors and students; under 12 free.

Uncommon Legacies
Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. MBTA Commuter Rail: Newburyport/Rockport Line to Salem. Sept. 19–Dec. 13. $12; $10 seniors; $8 students; under 16 free.

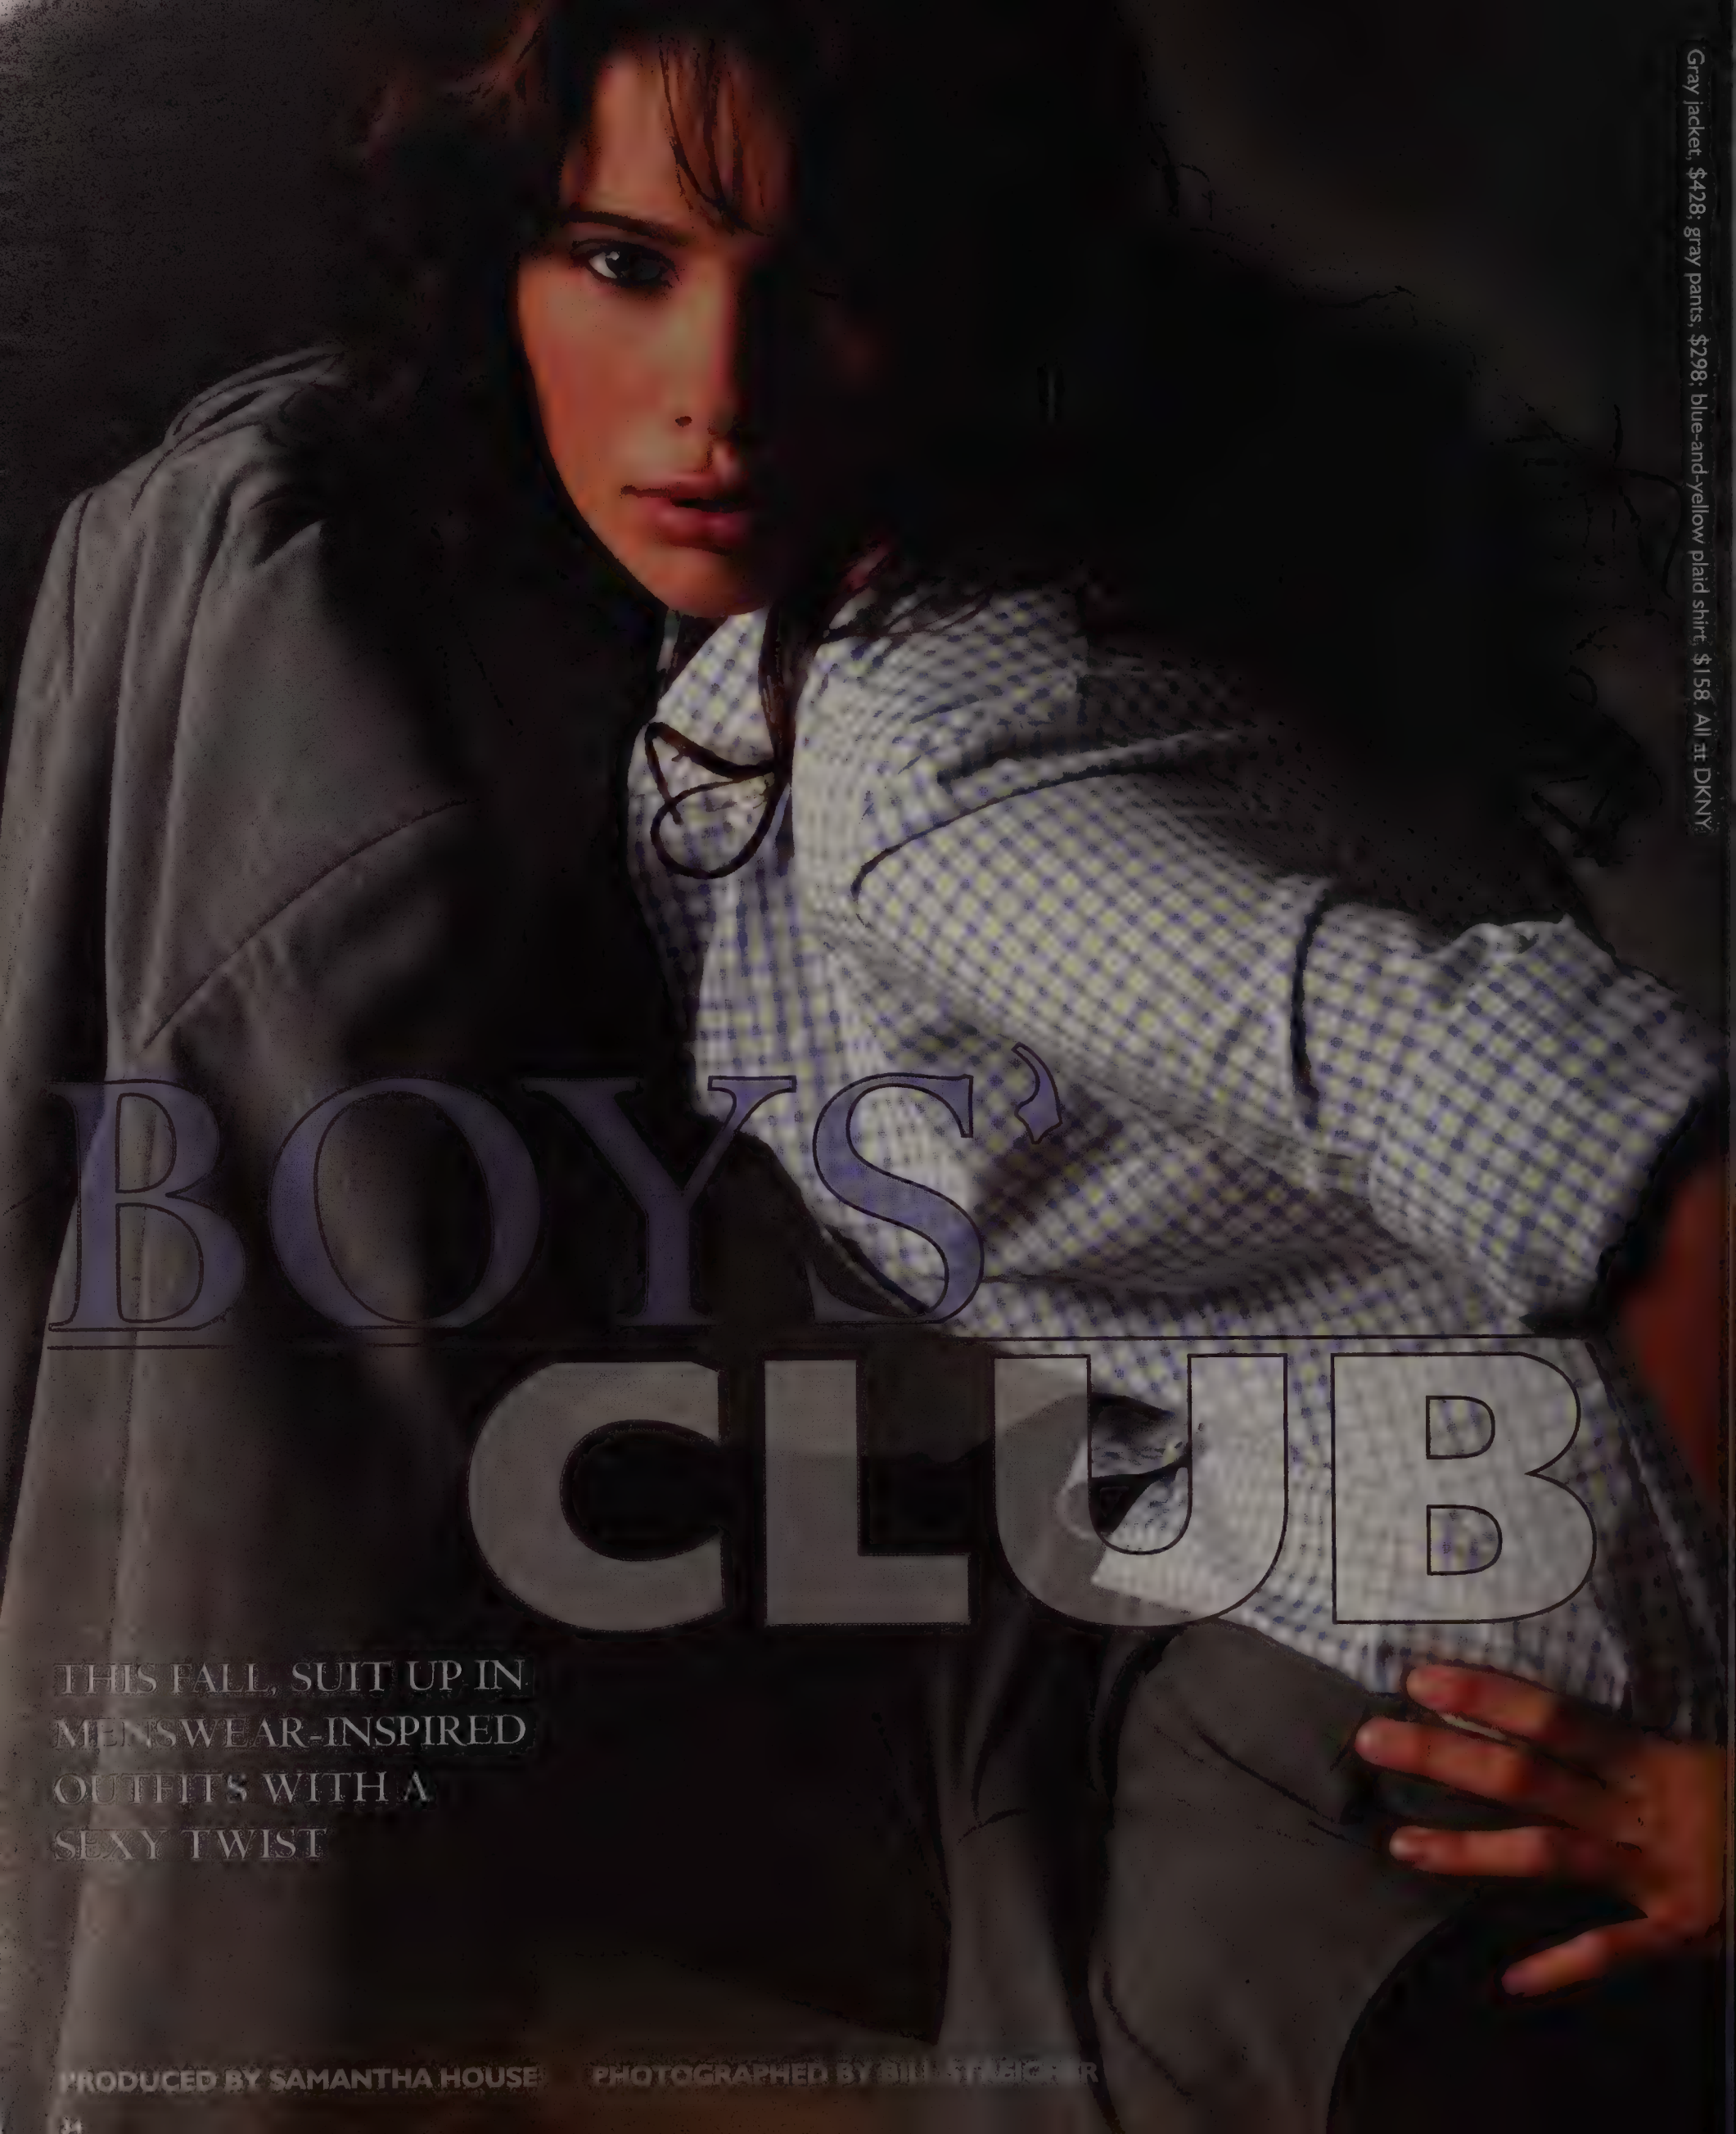
Paths to Impressionism: French and American Landscape Painting
Worcester Art Museum
55 Salisbury St., Worcester (508-799-4406). www.worcesterart.org. Oct. 5–June 27, 2004. $8; $6 seniors and students; under 17 free.

Raphael, Cellini, and a Renaissance Banker: The Patronage of Bindo Altoviti
Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401), www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 8–Jan. 11, 2004. $10; $7 seniors; $5 students; under 18 free.

Michael Joo
MIT List Visual Arts Center
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). www.mit.edu/lvac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Oct. 16–Jan. 6, 2004. Free.

Before Expressionism: Art in Germany circa 1903
Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-405-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 24–Feb. 15, 2004. $6.50; $5 seniors and students; under 18 free.

Rembrandt's Journey: Painter, Draftsman, Etcher
Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 26–Jan. 18, 2004. $15; $13 seniors and students; $6.50 children 7–17.



BOYS' CLUB

THIS FALL, SUIT UP IN MENSWEAR-INSPIRED OUTFITS WITH A SEXY TWIST

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHED BY BILL STEIGERWALD

Gray jacket, $428; gray pants, $298; blue-and-yellow plaid shirt, $158. All at DKNY.

Gray wool tweed suit with snap detailing, $15,535, at Neiman Marcus. Leather leggings, $890, at the Chanel Boutique.

Dark gray wool jacket, $428; dark gray wool pants, $298; pale yellow shirt, $198. All at DKNY.

White denim jacket, $1,365, at the Chanel Boutique. Silver snap necklace, $1,100, at Bloomingdale's.

Bloomingdale's
55 Boylston St
Chestnut Hill
617-630-6784

Chanel Boutique
5 Newbury St
617-859-0055

DKNY
37 Newbury St
617-236-0476

Neiman Marcus
Copley Place
617-536-3660

Hair by Charles Maksou for Maksou Salon

Makeup by Don Rockiki

Black-and-white pin-striped suit jacket, $448; matching pin-striped pants, $298; white button-down shirt, $148. All at DKNY.

I LOVE MONDAYS.

THE OFFICIAL MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL PARTY FEATURING WEEI BIG SHOW HOSTS GLEN ORDWAY AND FRED SMERLAS. EVERY MONDAY NIGHT AT 7PM. COME AND WATCH THE FIRST HALF WITH GLEN, FRED AND SPECIAL WEEKLY GUESTS TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN WIN A TRIP TO THE BIG GAME.

BUDWEISER

ESPN SPORTS MONDAY NIGHT MATCH-UP

COLLEGE FOOTBALL FANS, WATCH YOUR FAVORITE TEAM PLAY ON A BIG SCREEN AT ANY ONE OF OUR LOCATIONS

FOR DETAILS CALL: 617.451.7400

WEEI 850AM SPORTS RADIO

SMIRNOFF Twist

Glynn HOSPITALITY GROUP

the Purple Shamrock

The Black Rose

José McIntyre's

CLERYS

Coogan's

HURRICANE O'Reilly's

BENEFIT PARTY FOR FRAN PAPASEDERO AT HURRICANE O'REILLY'S ON SEPTEMBER 19TH FROM 7-11PM WITH DJ MIKE LYNCH AND FEATURING LIVE MUSIC BY THE CHAD LAMARSH BAND.
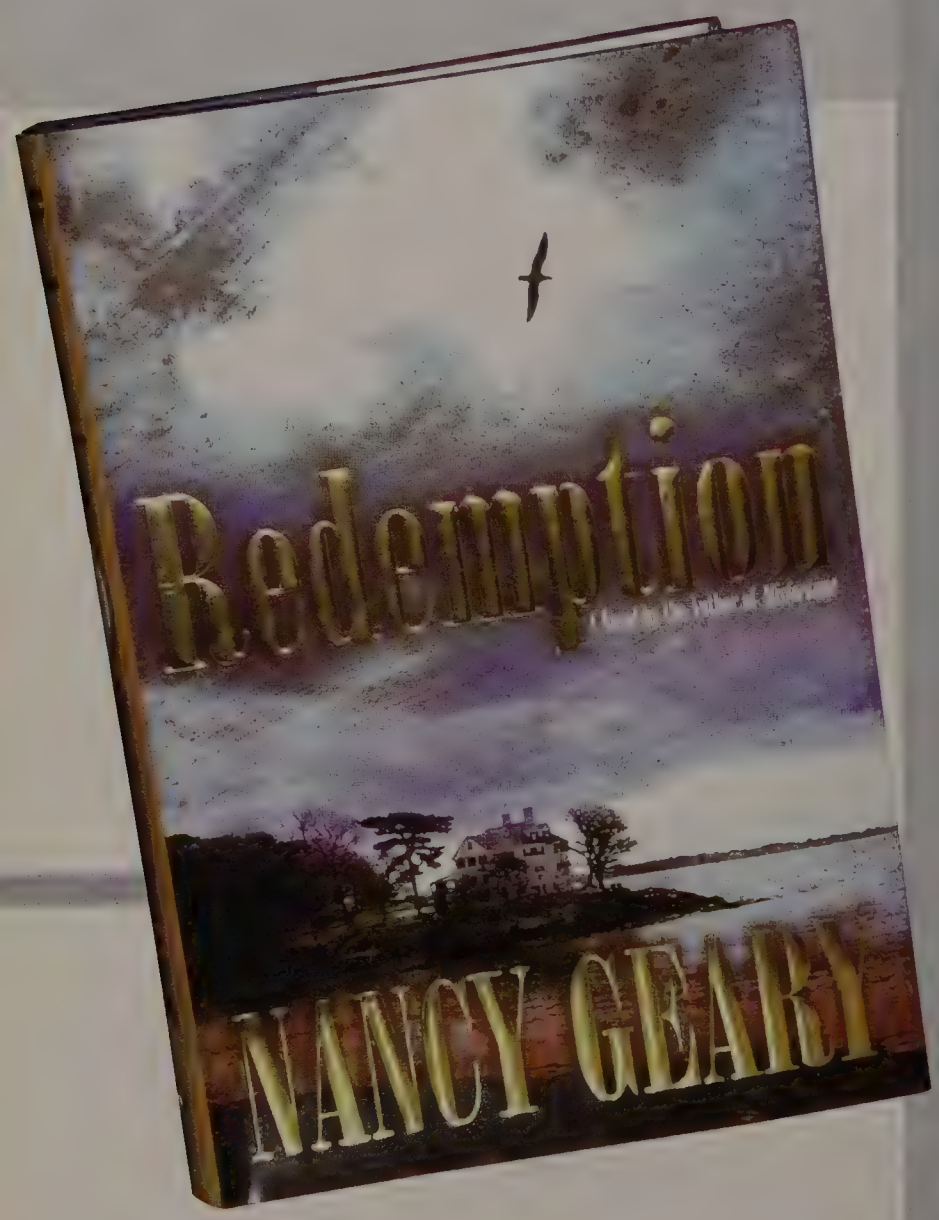
PROCEEDS TO BENEFIT THE FRANCIS PAPASEDERO MEMORIAL TRUST FOUNDATION.
TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR $25 IN ADVANCE BY CALLING 617.451.7400 OR PAY AT THE DOOR.

150 CANAL STREET BOSTON • 617.722.0161 • www.IRISHconnection.com

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



CABOTS SPEAK ONLY TO GOD

Redemption*, Nancy Geary's second mystery novel, is set in Manchester, Mass.

Nancy Geary plays with the fine distinctions of Boston social class in her second mystery, Redemption (the first was Misfortune). Hope, from a striving Lawrence family, is about to marry into the wealthy Cabot clan. This makes Hope's parents a lot happier than it does the father of the groom, who brandishes a prenuptial agreement. Hope is a brooding, troubled character, her life filled with issues that include an eating disorder, a flight into religion and an ongoing affair with a Portuguese lobster-fisherman. Horribly, her wedding day finds her dead by hanging. Hope's cousin Frances, formerly with the DA's office and a domestic-violence specialist, snoops from a cool insider-outsider position. Is this murder disguised as suicide? Does the desire to maintain blue bloodlines constitute a motive? The Episcopal clergy also figure in the mystery. Family politics and sibling rivalry roil in this book, and Geary manages to slice the cake of privilege into varied, and amusing, pieces.

ALL THE LONELY TABLES

Advertising executive and photographer Cheryl Heller has turned a series of photographs chronicling the rituals of the table into haunting, arty placemats called Table Manners. For sale at Louis Boston and soon available at www.hellercommunicationsinc.com.

Cheryl Heller, a New York advertising executive, has focused her mind and lens on a weirdly compelling subject: the landscape of meals, or what she calls "the rituals of the table." She has turned her black-and-white images into high-class laminated, felt-backed placemats that further multiply the concept: pictures of tabletops on your tabletop. Heller pursued her quarry worldwide, from northern Sweden to South Africa. The food, the plates, the glasses, the pretty little desserts she's captured on film often look hopeful, while at the same time, there's something lonely and melancholy about many of the images. In one, half-empty glasses sit on a deserted porch overlooking the water; in another, a French ashtray on a white table dominates the foreground, while a woman bikes and crowds roam about in the background. Someone on a train—we see only his folded hands—has a tray of bright white cups before him, while a kind of sepia sadness colors the half-shaded window. These artful accessories are like a form of dark, foreign-flavored mood music.

A BRIGHTER SHADE OF GREEN

Financing Your Dreams is a workshop for women run by Adelaide Aitken, CFP, and Miriam Hawley, LICSW. At Christ Church, Cambridge, September 26, 9:30 am-4 pm. $195. Call 617-661-6393 or 617-876-9400. A private session with either or both leaders at a later date is included with the workshop.

Money is probably on a par with love in the irrationality department. Our own internal Dow fluctuates with the real one in response to real-life and imaginary factors. Adelaide Aitken, financial planner and co-author of Money Order, The Money Management Guide for Women, and Miriam Hawley, co-author of The New Our Bodies Ourselves, have experience in helping women explore the roots of their money philosophies. They approach the matter along two dimensions—the checkbook and the psyche. Their workshop encourages participants to explore their beliefs about money, financial fears and spend-and-save tendencies, locating their actual and imagined place along the scarcity-to-abundance spectrum. "Silly" questions will be answered sympathetically. The workshop's goal: to increase knowledge of the workings of investments, and generally to increase confidence. Participants will write a financial autobiography and learn 10 laws of financial planning.

Get caught in the moment...
STREGA
RISTORANTE
379 Hanover St., North End, Boston 617.523.8481 www.stregaristorante.com

REVIEW

CATCH OF THE DAY

Fine seafood and efficient service are on the docket at Great Bay

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA A. DANIELS

Michael Schlow has done it again. Having made his mark as a chef more than a decade ago at Café Louis, Schlow moved into the front ranks of Boston restaurateurs in 1999, when with partner Christopher Myers he opened Radius on the fringe of the Financial District. Then, less than two years ago, Schlow teamed again with Myers to create Via Matta, which from its opening has drawn enthusiastic crowds with its fresh, well-prepared Italian cuisine.

But Schlow and Myers refused to quit while they were ahead. They apparently could not resist the challenge of starting up an upscale seafood restaurant in a troubled Boston economy, and in the shadow of Fenway Park to boot. Will the demographics of Kenmore Square support such a venture? The prognosis looks excellent, because Schlow and Myers have recruited experienced executive chef Jeremy Sewall—whose credentials range from Boston's own L'Espalier to the Lark Creek Inn in Larkspur, California—to create some of the best seafood dining in Boston.

Upon entering Great Bay, one is almost overwhelmed by the massive scale of its physical dimensions. When the sun is up, ceiling-height windows dressed with sheer curtains flood the main dining room with natural light, augmented by long-stem brushed stainless steel light fixtures with cone-shaped shades suspended from the ceiling. Stainless-steel-bordered, red stained-glass tables set with absorbent napkins, elegant tableware and large white plates and bowls contribute to the upscale ambience. Legions of servers, knowledgeable and bustling about with purposeful gait, promise attentive, efficient service, with occasional overkill—on a slow night their number and kinetic energy made them a hovering presence.

Great Bay's clam chowder ($10) was world-class. My waitress brought an oversized bowl that held a mound of cubed, firm potatoes, minced shallots, chunks of smoky-salty pancetta, fresh parsley, thyme and chervil, and three kinds of clams—chopped quahogs, whole razor clams and whole littlenecks. Then, in a flourish of culinary theater, she decanted a small black kettle of hot, intensely flavorful broth, light but somehow creamy, into the bowl, rendering the most exquisite clam chowder I have ever encountered—the gold standard against which all future clam chowders could be measured.

A tasty selection from the raw bar is the Maine lobster roll, which includes avocado, pickled onions and crème fraîche.

GREAT BAY

500 Comm. Ave., Boston

617-532-5300

HOURS Sun.-Wed., 11:30 am-2:30 pm and 5-10 pm; Thu.-Sat., 11:30 am-2:30 pm and 5-11 pm.

RESERVATIONS recommended

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING valet

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

An order of steamed mussels ($11) with green garlic yielded small, sweet, impeccably clean shucked mussels served in a small bowl with a sauce of chopped fresh tomatoes, broad-leaf parsley and an aromatic an fruity olive oil. Organic tomato salad ($12 featured four kinds of tomatoes: thick slice of red and green heirlooms and tiny yello pear and red cherry tomatoes. With th larger slices stacked sandwich style, accom panied by an array of fresh basil, arugula an balsamic vinegar, the ensemble made a re freshing prelude to the main course.

Great Bay's main courses included th first local halibut I have encountered in long time ($27). North Atlantic halibut firmer and inevitably fresher than the Pa cific halibut usually served (even in an Ea Coast fishing bastion like Boston). Grea Bay's preparation, a generously thick file was seared brown and then broiled, pr serving its first-rate texture, and serve mounted on thick slices of heirloom tom toes, one red, one yellow. Perched on tc of the halibut was a tempura squash blo som stuffed with pesto, a clever gamb that yielded a delightful sauce that dril bled onto the fish and tomatoes when or cut into it. Unfortunately, the precarious tall and unstable structure made such cu ting problematic—even Schlow and h acolytes are not immune to the tall-foo affectation. Crunchy, julienned strips fennel and a fresh basil leaf completed th garnish of this estimable dish.

One evening, Great Bay offered a fill of sashimi-quality, grilled ivory salmo ($26), pale in color as its name denote but rich in flavor. The interior was rar almost raw, and resilient in texture, wi fresh, pristine flavor; the exterior w cooked through, but still moist and su culent. An accompaniment of tir sweet, earthy beets and thin slices of fi gerling potatoes was delicious and vis ally appealing.

Although seafood is the name of the gar at Great Bay, I could not resist the app wood smoked pork chop ($24), and I w glad I tried it. This carnivore's delight, most two inches thick, arrived juicy, ten and medium-rare as ordered. Small pe onions, shallot-and-mushroom marmala a hefty cylinder of dauphine potatoes, an mound of silky, moist, pleasantly bit spinach made this a delightfully varied a satisfying dish.

Great Bay's reasonably priced wine l featured pleasant, serviceable whites the low 20s. For example, an Alsatian pinot blanc ($24) of the 2002 vintage, fruity and slightly off dry, roasted decent structure and sufficient acid to provide a good pairing with Great Bay's seafood.

Chilled seafood salad is topped with carrot vinaigrette and sprigs of mint.

Great Bay co-owner Michael Schlow (left) with executive chef Jeremy Sewall

Great Bay's cavernous interior boasts a lounge, two dining rooms and a raw bar.

Great Bay's desserts included a chocolate tart ($9), substantial in size, served with very slightly sweetened crème fraîche, swirls of cajeta (a caramelized condensed-milk sauce) and a hazelnut tuile (a wafer-thin, crisp cookie). While the tart satisfied the primordial chocolate urge that takes over at dessert time, even better was the summer plum crumble ($8), served in a ramekin with a crunchy almond topping and a dividend of vanilla bean ice cream. The crumble's slightly tart, succulent sliced plums contrasted nicely with pastry crumble, that inevitably sweet combination of butter and sugar.

Michael Schlow has been mocked for small, nouvelle cuisine–sized servings at Radius. Whether that is a fair criticism or not, large portions are the order of the day at Great Bay, and a three-course meal will challenge even the heartiest of appetites. That attribute by itself may enhance the restaurant's popularity and increase its chances of success in the increasingly difficult and competitive restaurant environment of Boston. And in that environment, if any team can make the grade, it is one managed and directed by Schlow and Myers, with a field general as talented as Jeremy Sewall. IB

Up on the Roof.
THE HOTTEST SPOT IN
THE NORTH END
RISTORANTE
FIORE
AUTHENTIC. ITALIAN. CUISINE.
THE NORTH END'S ONLY
ROOFTOP DINING
3 DISTINCTIVE DINING ROOMS
CHARMING SIDEWALK CAFE
250 Hanover Street
Boston, MA 02113
www.ristorantefiore.com
617.371.1176
RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED.

TASTINGS

BY JULIE SURATT

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Art of Beer Festival: Stammtisch
The Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston. www.beeradvocate.com. Sept. 13, 12-11pm. $20. Enjoy a wide range of local and imported German-style beers, authentic German music and traditional Bavarian cuisine.

Barbecue at the Farm
Verrill Farm, 11 Wheeler Road, Concord (978-369-4494). Sept. 20, 12-6 pm. Feast on barbecue from Firefly, enjoy live music by the Pine Hill Ramblers and learn the secrets of grilling with members of the New England Barbecue Society.

Boston Oktoberfest
The Castle at Park Plaza, 130 Columbus Ave., Boston (888-945-2337). www.beersummit.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Sept. 20, 12-10 pm. $10 (includes one pint of beer). Sample German beers and enjoy German music.

Celebrity Chef Event
Radius Restaurant, 8 High St., Boston (617-236-8060). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept. 21, 6-9 pm. $125 (or two for $200). Taste creations from such chefs as Joanne Chang of Flour, Barbara Lynch of No. 9 Park, Brian Reimer of Radius, Luis Morales of Via Matta and Jeremy Sewall of Great Bay at this benefit for the Big Sister Association of Greater Boston.

Farm Dinner
Elements, 689 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-643-7203). Sept. 10, 6 pm. $55. Chef Bill Flumerfelt prepares a four-course meal based on the late-summer harvest from Verrill Farm in Concord.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Square. Every other Saturday, 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts experts who share knowledge on everything from fine American wines to seasonal New England foods and microbrews. •Sept. 13: Pinot grigio/viognier.

Great Steaks, Great Wine
Grill 23, 161 Berkeley St., Boston (800-432-5520). Sept. 13, 11 am-1 pm. $50. Chef Jay Murray offers advice on preparing meat at home. Learn which wines should be paired with different meats.

Le Cirque 2000 at 33
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Sept. 18, 7 pm. $75. Chef Joshua Botsford and guest chef Anthony Cinicola of Le Cirque 2000 prepare a four-course wine dinner.

Moroccan Wine and Tapas
Argana, 1287 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-868-1247). Sept. 16, 6:30-9:30 pm. $10. Celebrate Argana's first anniversary with Moroccan tapas, a wine tasting and entertainment.

Moueix Wine Dinner
Jer-Ne, 10 Avery St., Boston (617-912-3355) MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 12, 6:3(pm. $169. This four-course vertical wine dinne features Chateau Magdelaine's great vintages o the last half century. Edouard Moueix discusse the winery's history in Bordeaux.

A Night in Provence
Gallia, 1525 Washington St., Boston (617-247 4455). Sept. 16, 5:30-10 pm. A la carte. Che David Silva creates a special menu of Provença dishes paired with wines of Cotes de Provence.

Peter and the Buzzard
Westport Rivers Winery, 417 Hixbridge Road Westport (508-636-3423). Sept. 20, 4-6:30 pm $50. Tour Buzzards Bay Brewing's facility, the enjoy a beer tasting and a dinner prepared b chef Peter Davis of Henrietta's Table.

Summer Tasty Cruise
Yacht Integrity, World Trade Center, 164 Seapo Ave., Boston (617-242-7837). MBTA: Red Lin to South Station. Sept. 17, 6 pm. $37. Represer tatives from the Wine Bottega pour and discu wines, and Carmen Restaurant provides ho d'oeuvres aboard this sunset cruise of the harbo

Taste Boston
Grotto, 37 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-367 8142). www.taste-boston.com. MBTA: Gree Line to Government Center. Sept. 16, 7:30 pm $65. Chef/owner Scott Herritt creates a fou course menu paired with wine.

Taste of Boston
City Hall Plaza, Boston. www.tasteofboston.con Sept. 20, 11 am-6 pm; Sept. 21, 12-6 pm. $1 p meal ticket. Taste food from local restaurant watch chef demonstrations and listen to li music at this benefit for the Greater Bosto Food Bank.

Trinchero Wine Dinner
Le Soir, 51 Lincoln St., Newton (617-965-3100 MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Sep 22, 7 pm. $95. Le Soir chef Mark Allen a Chuck Parker of Trinchero Family Winery Napa Valley host this five-course dinner.

Wine and Dine
75 Chestnut, 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-22 2175). MBTA: Green Line to Park. $85. Limit to 12 guests, this biweekly wine table offers three-course food and wine pairing men •Sept. 15: Rioja.

Wine and Oyster Tasting
McCormick & Schmick's, Faneuil Hall Mark place, Boston (617-720-5522). MBTA: Gre Line to Government Center. Sept. 23, 6-8 p $30. This monthly eve features East and W Coast oysters and a sele tion of wines.

Wines of South Afri
Tremont 647, 647 Tremo St., Boston (617-26 4600). MBTA: Oran Line to Back Bay. Sept. 2 6:30 pm. $65. Sou African wines are pair with a four-course dinne

Wines of Spain Dinner
Solea, 388 Moody S Waltham (781-894-180 Sept. 23, 7 pm. $60. T evening includes a s course tapas dinner an variety of wines from t Rioja region of Spain.

Le Soir chef Mark Allen (right) and pastry chef David James prepare a Trinchero wine dinner.

DISH

A Man, A Pan, A Plan

Basket case solved...Restaurant Week extended...

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Four Seasons Hotel chef Steve Roginski is a winner.

What would you do if someone gave you a basket of random raw ingredients—ranging from baby fennel and Dover sole to unripe peaches and a half ounce of white chocolate—and ordered you to whip up a three-course meal using every last item?

Steve Roginski, saucier chef at the Four Seasons Hotel, faced this challenge and won the 2003 national Jeune Commis Competition. He is currently honing his skills for the international finals of the contest in Cape Town, South Africa. Roginski, a marvel of focused, talented resourcefulness behind the stove, exudes confidence in the kitchen. Outside the kitchen, however, his organizational skills falter: En route to one of the regional competitions, he had to make a quick stop at a department store when he realized he'd forgotten his knife.

That won't happen next time, says Roginski. "My wife says she'll staple my tools to my ass before I go," he laughs. Roginski also plans to pack a surgical mask, to protect himself from a potential allergen in the mystery basket: bananas. "It's just the fragrance [that I'm allergic to]," he explains. "I can touch them."

The contest, also known as the Young Chef Rotisseur Competition, is organized by the Chaine des Rotisseurs, an international gastronomic society founded in Paris in 1950 and inspired by the old French royal guild of (them) goose roasters. A quick perusal of the website (www.chaineus.org/general.htm) reveals an esoteric system of special badges and ribbons, titles, programs, and policies, a phonetic guide to French pronunciation ("table" is "tahb leuh")...there may even be a secret handshake somewhere. It's like a fabulous conglomeration of Boy Scouts, Iron Chefs and the Loyal Order of Mousse. It's hope Roginski brings home the merit badge of victory!

Restaurant Week rumblings: The best reason to stay around Boston in August lasted a little longer than usual this summer. After a scrifically successful five-day run, more than a dozen restaurants extended their participation in the event for an additional week of $30.02 lunches and/or $30.03 dinners.

Although the prices were the same everywhere, each restaurant devised its own menu and policies. Most offered a special menu for the week, with two or three choices for each course. The Independent in Somerville, however, invited diners to choose a starter, a main course and a dessert from the regular menu. On the other end of the spectrum, UpStairs on the Square took a more streamlined approach, with two entrees and one designated dessert.

Dish heard from several disgruntled diners who complained about the prevalence of the chicken-or-salmon main course choice. Also sparking grumbles was the unusual, possibly unique, policy implemented by Mistral for the second year. Diners were informed that an 18 percent gratuity "based on the actual value of the meal" (calculated at $45) would be added to each check.

It's all about protecting the waitstaff, according to Mistral general manager Mark D'Alessandro. "We don't think it's fair to the staff to take a cut in pay for the week," he says. "They work just as hard."

Sure they do, and they are justifiably renowned as some of the finest waitstaff in Boston. Dine at Mistral and you will be professionally pampered just short of being tucked in and read a bedtime story. But people make their reservations planning in good faith to spend (and tip on) $30 for dinner. What if the restaurant itself "ate" the difference?

"I never thought about it that way," says D'Alessandro. "It may be something to think about in the future." On the other hand, he points out, "it wasn't an issue with most people. There were less than a handful of people who questioned it, and everyone I spoke to was cool about it. If anybody objected to it, of course, we [didn't] expect them to pay it." iB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

WHAT'S YOUR REQUEST?℠ Unique, creative and healthy cuisine is yours to enjoy at Caliterra Restaurant and Bar. Caliterra blends the natural ingredients of Northern California, with classic Tuscan cooking and the freshest New England seafood. Seasonal specialty menus and a superb wine list make it a "must" on your Boston restaurant itinerary. Reservations are recommended and valet parking is available. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner daily. Sunday brunch from Noon–2:30 p.m. Conveniently located one block from the Boston Harbor and Quincy Marketplace.

Mention this ad to get a free appetizer or dessert with purchase of a dinner entrée.*

CALITERRA
CALIFORNIA BAR & GRILLE
89 Broad Street, Boston, MA 02110
617-348-1234
Located in the Wyndham Boston

*Offer valid through 12/30/03. Must mention this ad to redeem offer.

Some say, there is no good restaurant in this city with good food, a great patio & a fun atmosphere.

We say, that's a bunch of blarney.

rhode island style fried calamari with hot cherry peppers & marinara

grilled apples & blue cheese salad with walnuts, blue cheese & sweet balsamic vinaigrette

grilled "chipotle rub" sirloin steak with yukon gold potato chips

the BlarneyStone

1505 Dorchester Avenue
Dorchester, Massachusetts 02122
617-436-8223

★ BEHIND ★

THESE DOORS

There's Only

ONE PARTY

★ ★ THE 21ST AMENDMENT ★ ★

Beer. Food. Politics. ★ Next to the State House ★ 150 Bowdoin St. Boston

MPROPER PICKS

september 10 - 23

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			10 This is the last week you can see the Thomas Gainsborough exhibition at the Museum of Fine Arts. See Art on page 84.	11	12 Tufts University alums Guster return to Boston to play at the FleetBoston Pavilion. See Music on page 70.	 13 The US Open Squash Championship is held at Symphony Hall (that's right, Symphony Hall). See CityScope on page 50.
 14 Lug your great aunt's wooden rocker to Antiques Appraisal Day at Gore Place. See CityScope on page 50.	15	 16 Pulitzer Prize–winning author Jhumpa Lahiri reads from her new novel at the First Parish Church. See Books & Poetry on page 88.	17	 18 The Samples rock the Paradise with their unique jazz-pop sound and hypnotic grooves. See Music on page 72.	19	20 The Boston Folk Festival features traditional and cutting-edge folk music at UMass Boston. See CityScope on page 50.
21	22	23

Sister Sledge performs at the Taste of Boston.

SAT./SEPT. 20–SUN./SEPT. 21

Tastings: Get a Taste of This

This year's Taste of Boston, sponsored by the IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and produced by Entercom Boston, features an amazing lineup of chefs offering demonstrations—Chris Schlesinger of East Coast Grill, Robert Fathman of Azure, Jasper White of the Summer Shack, Ming Tsai of Blue Ginger, Daniel Bruce of Meritage and Thomas John of Mantra, among others—and a 21+ tent with beer, wine and live music. Pick up some cooking tips from the experts, fill up a plate with cuisine from more than 40 restaurants, and groove to the tunes of Jessica Simpson and Sister Sledge on the Star 93.7 main stage. City Hall Plaza, Boston. www.tasteofboston.com. Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. $1 per meal ticket.

THE CALENDAR GIRLS' GUIDE TO WHAT'S UP, IN AND AROUND BOSTON

CITYSCOPE 50
PERFORMING ARTS 54
MOVIES 58
MUSIC 68
CLASSICAL MUSIC 76
DANCE CLUBS 78
ART 84
BOOKS & POETRY 88
EDUCATION 89
GAY & LESBIAN 90
BODY & MIND 92
SPORTS 92
CHILDREN 93
AROUND TOWN 93

EDITED BY:
ERIN HAGEDORN
Art, Books & Poetry, Gay & Lesbian, Movies, Music, Museums
JULIE SURATT
Around Town, Children, Education, Performing Arts
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY:
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Film Capsules
Ezra Dyer CityScope, Dance Clubs, Sports

ERIN

JULIE

WED./SEPT. 17

Music: Turbocharge It

Monstrous offspring of the Village People and Alice Cooper, the band Turbonegro stokes sweaty passion in the hearts of underground rock fans. Ferociously hard-rocking and ragingly homosexual, the Norwegian sexports have been storming the stage since the mid-1990s, releasing a string of brilliant, heavy albums along the way. These princes of the power chord climbed back in the saddle last year after disbanding "forever" in December of 1998; earlier this year the band released Scandinavian Leather to a legion of fans rabid with anticipation (their fan clubs are international; check out www.bostonjugend.cjb.net/ for the local chapter). Better get tickets early—these boys will pack the place. The Middle East, 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-2327). 8 pm. $15, 18+.

Turbonegro rocks the Middle East.

Celebrate Boston Oktoberfest Sept. 20.

Maria and the gang sing the praises of their favorite things during The Sound of Music.

TUE./SEPT. 16–SUN./SEPT. 21

Performing Arts: When You're Feeling Bad...

If you can sing the words to "Sixteen Going on Seventeen"; if you can't climb a hill without bursting into "The hills are alive..."; if you've ever eyed a pair of curtains and considered making a dress; or if you've ever attended the Sing-A-Long Sound of Music at the Coolidge Corner Theatre, then we don't need to convince you to head to the Wang Theatre for the stage version of The Sound of Music, Sept. 16–21. If you haven't done any of those things... well, you're missing out. Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 16, 7 pm; Sept. 17, 7 pm; Sept. 18, 8 pm; Sept 21, 7 pm. $28-$68.

SAT./SEPT. 13 AND SAT./SEPT. 20

Tastings: Their Cups Runneth Over

'Tis the season to drink beer. This month, beer fests on back-to-back Saturdays try to one-up the competition with their suds-soaked options. The first, called the Art of Beer Festival, or Stammtisch, is sponsored by BeerAdvocate.com and promises 11 hours of fun—enough time to sample many of the 60 promised brews, including Pilsners, Weissbiers, Kellerbiers, Altbiers, Oktoberfestbiers, Schwarzbiers, Rauchbiers and Bocks. Lustige Musikanten des Heimatlandes (otherwise known as the Mad Bavarian Brass Band) cranks out some German tunes. The second event, Boston Oktoberfest, sponsored by BeerSummit.com, features such tasty options as Spaten Optimator, Spaten Lager, Franziskaner Hefe-Weisen, Spaten Oktoberfest, Spaten Maibock, Franziskaner Dunkel Hefe-Weisen and, new this year, Dinkel Acker Pilsner—not to mention knockwurst and sauerkraut by Jacob Wirth and music by the Oberlaendler Hofbrau Band and the Jolly Kopper Schmidts. Prost! See Tastings on page 44 for more information.

SAT./SEPT. 20

CityScope: A Wild Walk

We're such suckers for dog-related events. It's partly that we can't resist hanging with big-eyed, floppy-eared pups. But it's mostly because we love imagining all of the things that can go wrong at an event that brings together hundreds of dogs. Chan for disaster are decreased with the mandatory leash policy at the sixth annual Walk in Jamaica Plain, where dog owners bring their pooches to the sprawling Fo Hills Cemetery for a guided tour. Amid the cemetery's 275 acres of trees, Victo monuments and a lake, historian Dee Morris leads a tour of the 19th- and 20th-c tury statues that feature dogs on them, telling stories along the way. BYO poo scooper. 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). 10 am. $10.

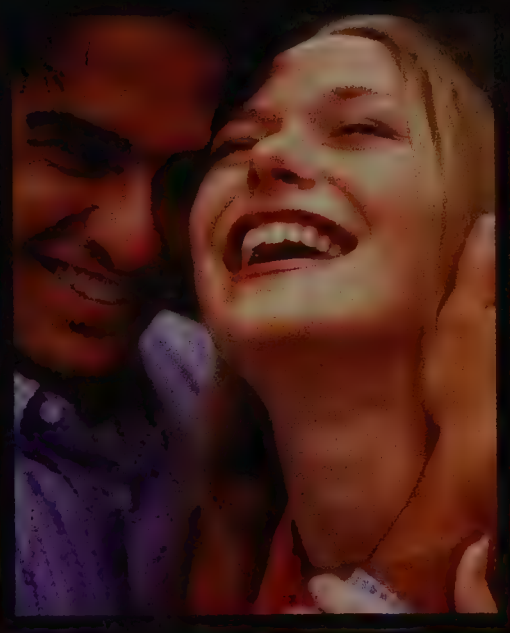
116 Brighton Ave., Allston 617.254.6633

WHITE HORSE TAVERN

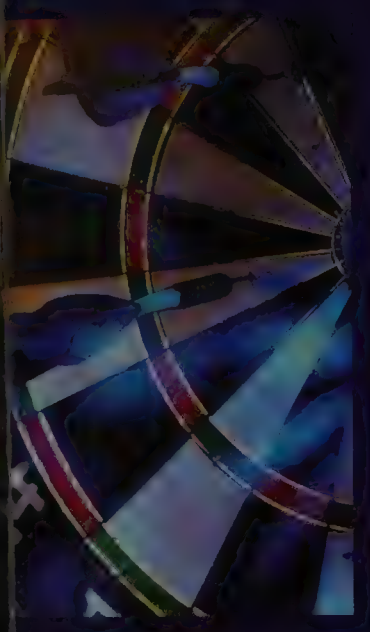
Mon.-Sat. 11:30 -2am

Sun. 10-2am

Food until midnight



NEVER A COVER CHARGE



THE LAST DROP

a Neighborhood Bar

596 Washington St., Oak Square, Brighton 617.787.1111

421 Marlborough St., Back Bay, Boston 617.262.5555

LEGAL SEA FOODS

Come Taste the Legal Difference

We could tell you our seafood is the freshest.

We'd rather prove it.

LEGAL SEA FOODS
established 1950
RESTAURANT • OYSTER BAR

If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!

Park Square · Long Wharf · Prudential Center
Copley Place · Kendall Square, Cambridge
Now open at the Plaza at the Charles Hotel in Harvard Square
800-EAT-FISH www.LEGALSEAFOODS.com

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for festivals, events and benefits by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Festivals, Benefits & Events

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11

One Day's Pay Comedy Benefit
Comedy Connection, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-248-9700). 8:30 pm. $12. Frank Santos, the R-rated hypnotist, headlines this comedy show to benefit the USO of New England.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 12

Singles Dance
First Unitarian Hall, 1326 Washington St. (Route 16), West Newton (508-620-7138). 8-11:30 pm. $10. Singles are invited to learn a few twists and turns with dance instruction from 8-9 pm, then put tho moves to use with swing, salsa and contempora music. Casual attire.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13

(ähts): The Boston Arts Festival
Christopher Columbus Waterfront Park, North En Boston (617-635-3689). www.cityofboston.gov. am-6 pm. Rain date: Sept. 14. Boston kicks off the a season with a juried showcase of more than 75 visu artists' work. The event also features performanc from the Boston Lyric Opera, Boston Jazz Reperto Orchestra, Boston Ballet and Chu Ling Dance.

South End Open Studios
Various studios around the South End, Boston (61 267-8862). www.useaboston.com. Sept. 13-14, am-6 pm. Artists in nearly 40 South End buildin open their doors for visitors to view (and possib purchase) their work. Free parking available at 4 and 560 Harrison Ave.

US Open Squash Championships
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (877-52 5685). www.usopensquash.com. Sept. 13-16. Tic ets start at $20. The US Open Squash Champ onships return to Symphony Hall, where the t players in the world square off on a 32-by-21-fo glass-enclosed court.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14

Antiques Appraisal Day
Gore Place, 52 Gore St., Waltham (781-894-279 www.goreplace.org. 12:45 pm. $10 per item or $

FRESH-AIR FUND-RAISERS

Help your favorite cause and get some exercise at benefit golf tournaments, bike rides and walks

The Ride for Hunger takes cyclists on either a 25-mile or 75-mile route around Natick.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 12

Hospitality Homes Charity Golf Classic
Widow's Walk Golf Course, Scituate (617-482-4338). www.hosp.org. Registration and breakfast at 7:30 am. $150. Break out the clubs at one of Golf Digest's "Best New Courses" to benefit Hospitality Homes. The day includes breakfast, lunch and dinner.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13

Harbor to the Bay Bike Ride
Boston to Provincetown (617-630-9567). www.harbortothebay.org. $50 registration fee, $1,500 fund-raising minimum. Bicyclists pedal 125 miles from Boston to Provincetown to raise money for Fenway Community Health and the AIDS Support Group of Cape Cod. A 68-mile route beginning in Sandwich is also offered.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14

Project Bread Ride for Hunger
Start/finish in Cochituate State Park, Natick (617-723-5000). www.projectbread.org. Choose to bike either a 25-mile or 75-mile route to raise money for Project Bread's hunger-relief programs.

MONDAY, SEPT. 15

Mike Cameron Golf Classic
Weston Golf Club, 275 Meadowbrook Rd., Weston (781-893-6620). www.walthambgc.org. Registration at 11 am. $275. Tee off to raise money for the Waltham Boys & Girls Club. Fee includes a cart, lunch, dinner and gifts.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

MTC Scholarship Golf Tournament
Shaker Hills Golf Club, Harvard (781-684-0880) www.masstel.org. 1-7 pm. $175. This golf tournament benefits technical scholarships at Massachusetts schools and includes lunch, a postgame reception and several prizes.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 20

Boston Heart Walk
Start at Lederman Field, Charles River Esplanade, Boston (508-392-3974). www.heartwalk.kintera.org/bostonma. 9 am. $100 fund-raising minimum to receive a Heart Walk T-shirt. This pledge walk along the Charles River benefits the American Heart Association. Rain or shine.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21

Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk
Start at Hopkinton, Wellesley, or Harvard Medical School; finish at Copley Square, Boston (800-632-3562). www.jimmyfund.org. Start time at 7 am, 11 am or 2 pm, depending on route. $200 fund-raising minimum. Walk the Boston Marathon route (or a portion) to benefit cancer research at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

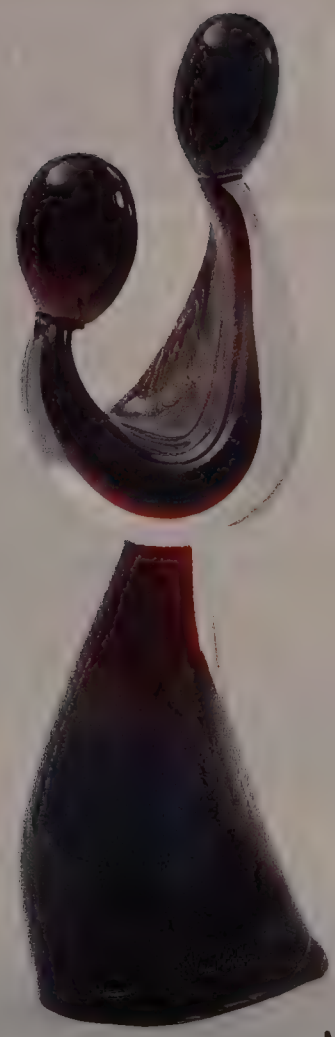
Fine Diamond Jewelry
by Alex Zamsky

Exclusively at

Alex & Co.

CREATORS OF FINE JEWELRY

100 Needham Street, Newton MA 02464 617.965.8777



Murano Glass Sculpture
by Dino Rosin

275 tremont street theatre district
reservations 617.292.0080
capricelounge.com

CAPRICE

restaurant-bar-lounge

french mediterranean
cuisine

full menu served
daily until 1 am seven days a week

GROTTO

Beacon Hill's neighborhood subterranean dining destination

SEPTEMBER MENU

[1]

Fresh tomatoes and mozzarella, basil, and aged balsamic vinegar 8

Pumpkin-ricotta cavatelli pasta, house course ground sausage, mushrooms, and fresh peas 9

Applewood smoked bacon, figs, gorgonzola dolce, and baby spinach 8

Roman style tripe alla parmigiana and roasted garlic country bread 8

Fonduta...A Piedmont style fondue with grilled steak tips and mushrooms 10

Peach and ricotta ravioli, aged balsamic vinegar, amaretti and brown butter 8

Nonna's tomato soup and a petite grilled cheese sandwich ...8

Baby spinach, goat cheese, spiced walnuts, beets and raspberry vinaigrette 8

Mussels on a beach in Sicily 10

[2]

Hand crafted potato gnocchi, braised shortribs, gorgonzola, and onion agrodoce 17

Tagliatelle pasta, lobster, fresh peas, and lobster cream 20

Grilled rare side up tuna, olives, capers, hand crafted ziti, and a lady of the evening sauce 21

Pan roasted veal, roasted potatoes, mushrooms, spinach, and marsala sauce 19

Grilled proscuitto wrapped beef tenderloin, Reggiano risotto, grilled asparagus, and a red wine sauce 22

Pan roasted halibut, artichokes, preserved tomatoes, asparagus, and lemon garlic brodo 21

Spaghetti, small meatballs, and Brady's insanely fabulous tomato sauce 15

Pan roasted chicken "under a brick", whipped roasted garlic potatoes, and a warm artichoke vinaigrette 18

Something New on the Hill

Hours: Monday-Friday lunch 12-3pm

Dinner every night 5-10pm

37 Bowdoin Street • 617.227.3434

www.grottorestaurant.com

for three items. Kaminski Auctioneers and Appraisers examines your antiques and collectibles to help you figure out whether you own a treasure or a piece of junk. Proceeds benefit Gore Place.

The Bikers' Barbecue

Start at Roller Kingdom parking lot, 5 Highland St., Hudson; finish at Jake's Dixie Roadhouse, 220 Moody St., Waltham (617-267-5828). www.strength.org. Ride begins at 9 am, barbecue at 12:30 pm. $40 fund-raising minimum. Barbecue tickets $25 in advance, $30 at the door. Motorcyclists embark on a 65-mile pledge ride to benefit Operation Frontline's Share Our Strength antihunger programs. The ride concludes with an all-you-can eat barbecue with food from local restaurants, including Tremont 647 and Bonfire.

Cars, Planes and Exciting Research

The Collings Foundation Estate, 137 Barton Road, Stow (617-916-5436). www.cureautoimmunity.org. 12:30-6 pm. $100. Munch hors d'oeuvres and get private tours of the Collings Foundation's historic airplanes and cars at this event to raise money to fight autoimmune diseases. The afternoon also includes a silent auction and a presentation by researcher Dr. Denise Faustman.

Set Sail 2003

The pier at Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital, 125 Nashua St., Boston (617-573-2920). 3-6 pm. $75 in advance, $100 at the door. This riverside benefit for Spaulding Rehab includes a barbecue, live and silent auctions, canoeing and kayaking, and music.

MONDAY, SEPT. 15

Wine and Tapas II

Bricco, 241 Hanover St., Boston (617-227-2270). 6-9 pm. $50. This benefit for the North End Music and Performing Arts Center features tapas and wine accompanied by guitar music.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

Bostonians at Home: Twilight House Tour

Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities, Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617-227-3956). www.spnea.org. 6 pm $5-$15. Five of Boston's historic house museums, including the Paul Revere House and the Otis House Museum, are on the itinerary for the fourth annual Twilight Tour, sponsored by the House Museum Alliance of Downtown Boston.

Free Roses for Good Neighbor Day

B & G Sawin Florist, 238 Faneuil St., Brighton (617-254-4454). 8 am-5 pm. Anyone who stops by B & G Sawin Florist today receives a dozen free roses, with the caveat that you must keep one and give the other 11 away to spread a little cheer. Voluntary contributions go to the Franciscan Hospital for Children.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18

BCAE Volunteer Fair

Boston Marriott Copley Place, third floor, Boston (877-865-3247). 4-8 pm. Nearly 200 nonprofit organizations help interested people learn how to start volunteering.

Benefit Barbecue

Behind Cambridge Community Television, 675 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6900). 5:30 pm. $35. This benefit barbecue for CCTV's youth programs features food from area restaurants and live music by Dub Station.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

Boston Folk Festival

UMass Boston, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617 287-6911). www.bostonfolkfestival.org. Sept. 19, 7 10 pm; Sept. 20-21, 11 am-7 pm. $35 for one-da pass. Performers at this annual music festival includ Emmylou Harris, Tom Rush and Koko Taylor. Th festival also features food and crafts vendors, danc workshops and harbor cruises.

A Tribute to Neil Shapiro

Fortunado Hall, Winthrop High School, 400 Main St Winthrop (617-755-8892). Sept. 19-20, 8 pm; Sep 21, 2 pm. $20. The Winthrop High School dram society alumni present a musical revue and week end-long silent auction to raise money for the Ne Shapiro Scholarship Fund.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 20

Forest Hills Cemetery Dog Walk

Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamai Plain (617-524-0128). 10 am. $10. Bring yo pooch for a guided tour of the cemetery's dog-relate statues.

Franklin Park Zoo Clean-Up and Fund-Raiser

The Giraffe Entrance of the Franklin Park Zoo, Bosto www.starbucks.com. 9:30 am-1 pm. Starbucks d nates $10 per volunteer hour for every person wh shows up to help clean Franklin Park Zoo. Coffe pastries and lunch are free for volunteers.

Taste of Boston

City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-778-5763). www.tas ofbostoncom. Sept. 20, 11 am-6 pm; Sept. 21, 12 pm. $1. Taste samples from a slew of Boston resta rants at this two-day foodie-fest. The events inclu celebrity chef cooking demonstrations, concer from Sister Sledge and Jessica Simpson and a WE sports area with batting cages and putting green Presented by Entercom Boston and sponsored THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21

Celebrity Chef Big Sister Benefit

Radius, 8 High St., Boston (617-236-806 www.bigsister.com. 6-9 pm. $125, two tickets $200. Taste the creations of top chefs from arou the city to benefit the Big Sister Association Greater Boston. The evening also includes live a silent auctions.

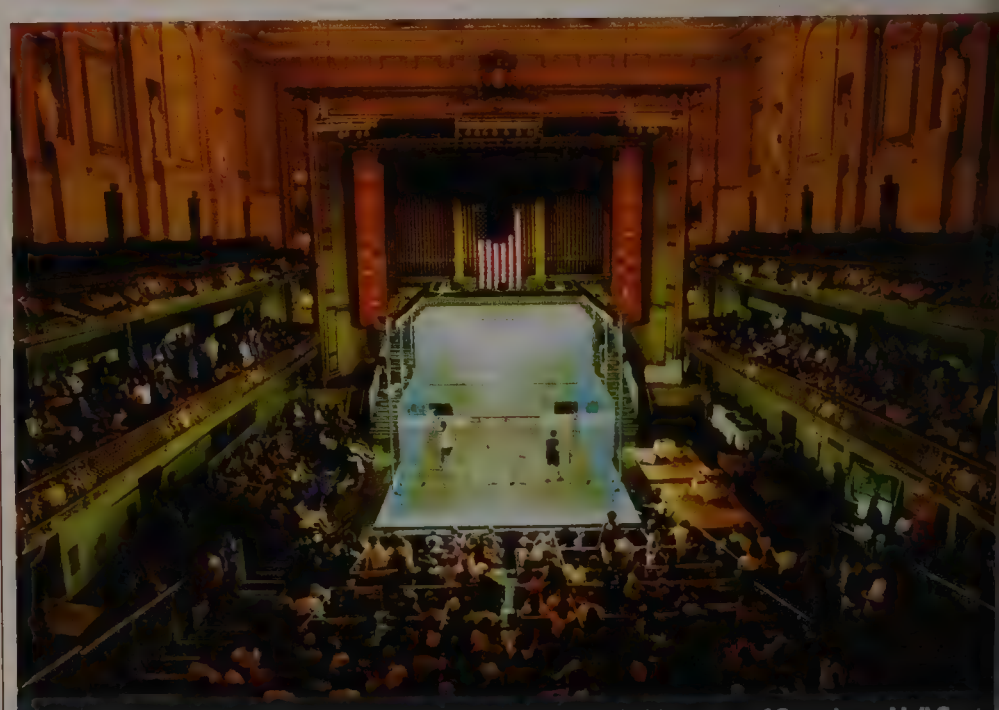
Rachel Molly Markoff Foundation Benefit Concert

Sanders Theater, Harvard University, Cambri (617-496-2222). www.fas.harvard.edu/tickets pm. $27 or $42; $125 including a postconcert dess buffet. The Empire Brass Quintet and pian Carol Arschin Levy play Gershwin's "Rhapsody Blue" and other selections to raise money for br tumor research.

MONDAY, SEPT. 22

Boston Young Professionals Clambake

Legal Sea Foods, 26 Park Plaza, Boston (617-5 1400, ext. 5). www.bostonypa.com. 7 pm. $7 advance, $85 at the door. Professionals ages 21 are invited to join the Boston Young Profession Association for a traditional New England cla bake, including chowder, steamers and lobs Cash bar.



The US Open Squash Championships come to the improbable venue of Symphony Hall Sept.

MANTRA

What all the buzz is about. Exhibit A.

Private parties encouraged.

NTRA, named among the "Top 75 Tables in the World" by Conde Nast Traveler Magazine, 2003

52 Temple Place, Boston, MA 02111 • 617.542.8111 • www.mantrarestaurant.com

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts. Or e-mail information to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Get tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Booths located at Faneuil Hall (on the south side of the hall) and Copley Square (at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth). Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Purchase tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.coolguitars.com/tickets.htm. Open seven days a week, Ticket City sells tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater

JUST OPENED

Ain't Misbehavin'
Huntington Theatre Co., 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 2 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Sept. 12-Oct. 19. $14-$69. Marcia Milgrom Dodge directs and choreographs this tribute to Fats Waller, showcasing music from the Harlem Renaissance.

Antony and Cleopatra
Tremont Theatre, 276 Tremont St., Boston (617-939-9939). www.bostontheatreworks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Sept. 19-Oct. 12. $25. Shakespeare's classic tale of love and intrigue, directed by Jason Slavick, gets its first professional staging in Boston in more than 20 years.

A Girl's War
New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton (617-332-1646). www.newrep.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Wed., 2 and 7 pm; Thu., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Sept. 17-Oct. 19. Joyce Van Dyke's play tells the story of a young Armenian girl who is torn by the competing desires of love and vengeance in an age-old ethnic clash.

Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris
Gloucester Stage Company, Gorton Theatre, 267 East Main St., Gloucester (978-281-4433). www.gloucesterstage.com. Wed.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 5 pm. Sept. 10-14. $30. Eric Blau and Mort Shuman's show featuring the music of Belgian composer Jacques Brel returns to Gloucester for a limited engagement.

Lady with a Lapdog
American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue., Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm.; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm.; Sun., 2 pm. Sept. 13-Oct. 11. $12-$69. Russian director Kama Ginkas combines burlesque and tragedy in his adaptation of Anton Chekhov's short story about a summer flirtation that unexpectedly becomes a passionate relationship.

Memphis
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (617-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., Thu., Fri., 8 pm; Wed., Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Sept. 23-Oct. 12. $16.25-$47.25. Joe DiPietro's new musical tells the story of a white DJ who introduces his listeners to African-American music during the 1940s.

Nunsense II
Turtle Lane Playhouse, 283 Melrose St., Newton (617-244-0169). www.turtle-lane.com. Thu.-Sat., 8pm; Sun, 2 pm. Sept. 12-Oct. 5. $22. This sequel to the hit musical Nunsense follows four energetic nuns living under the watchful eye of Mother Superior.

Howard Crabtree's gay musical revue, When Pigs Fly, opens at the Lyric Stage Co. Sept. 12.

Preview

Hog Heaven

The Lyric Stage Co. revives When Pigs Fly

On the set of Lyric Stage's production of When Pigs Fly, musical director Steven Bergman is in the minority: He's straight. "It's like Queer Eye for the Straight Guy," Bergman jokes, "I'm the straight one. Maybe I'll get a makeover."

This in-your-face musical comedy conceived by Howard Crabtree and Mark Waldrop is about a gay man's coming-of-age. Based in part on Crabtree's own life, it follows a young man whose nasty high school guidance counselor tells him that he might achieve success on Broadway "when pigs fly." The show garnered rave reviews when it premiered at the Lyric Stage Co. in 1999. "A doctor friend of mine said it was the funniest show he'd ever seen," says Bergman. "I knew then that if it appealed to the most straight-line guy I know, it will appeal to everyone."

So when it came time to choose a show to help celebrate the theater's 30th anniversary season, Bergman says, "When Pigs Fly was the obvious choice. People haven't stopped asking us to bring it back." The show has been revamped slightly since its first run, but gay jokes still abound, and campy songs, high-energy dances, shameless wordplay and gaudy costumes give the audience plenty to feast on. The updated show includes commentary on the recent gay marriage controversy and current political figures.

Crabtree, a costume designer, did not live to see the show's premiere in New York. But, Bergman says, his spirit lives on through the show. "Howard always believed that the show must go on—with a smile. He really emphasized keeping the humor in life." 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay. Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 pm and 8 pm; Sunday, 3 pm. Sept. 12-Oct. 18. $22–$43. —Heather MacNeil

Pete 'n' Keely
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Wed., Thu., 7:30pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Sept. 28. $32. James Hindman's musical tells the story of two singing sweethearts who reunite for a live television special and relive their illustrious career in Las Vegas showrooms.

The Sound of Music
Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 16, 8 pm; Sept. 17, 7 pm; Sept. 18, 8 pm; Sept 21, 7 pm. $28-$68. This classic musical tells the story of Maria, a nun in training sent to be governess to the seven children of a widowed Austrian aristocrat just before the onset of World War II.

Stones in His Pockets
Gloucester Stage Company, Gorton Theatre, 267 East Main St., Gloucester (978-281-4433). Wed.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 5 pm. Sept. 17-Oct. 5. $30. Zoya Kachadurian directs this comedy by Marie Jones about a small Irish town that's forever changed when a Hollywood film company arrives to shoot a movie.

NOW RUNNING

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-6912). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed., 8 pm; Thu., 5 and 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 3 and 6 pm. Ongoing. $43 and $53. This multimedia production abandons all dialogue and instead focuses on making an impact through tribal rock music, humorous antics, props and three men painted blue.

Old Soldiers
The Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-1300). www.theatrecoop.org. Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Through Sept. 13. $10. On Armistice Day, 1965, three veterans of the World Wars exchange stories, lament the vagaries of old age and wait for the arrival of an old army buddy. Martin Jones' play about friendship, loyalty and the personal realities of war will be followed by performances by local singer/songwriters.

Out on the Edge: Festival of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Theater
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-436-2787). www.thetheateroffensive.org. Sept. 6-27 (call for event schedule). $18-$27. The Theater Offensive's LGBT festival hosts a range of events from interactive discussions with performers, playwrights and directors to workshops, panels and community events.

Pacific Overtures
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (617-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., Thu., Fri., 8 pm; Wed., Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Sept. 14. $16.25-$47.25. This musical about the clash of cultures following Japan's first contact with America combines the music of composer Stephen Sondheim with the ancient Japanese arts of Kabuki theater, haiku, dance and masks.

The Producers
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-9366). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 and 8 pm. Extended through Sept. 13. $87-$97. Mel Brooks' musical that swept the 2001 Tony Awards, winning the most awards in Broadway history, stars Brad Oscar and Andy Taylor.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6:30 and 9:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Ongoing. $30-$34. This comedic whodunit set in a unisex hair salon holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

Twelfth Night
Publick Theatre, Christian Herter Park, 1175 Soldiers Field Road, Brighton (617-332-0546). www.publictheatre.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed., Thu. and Sun., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Through Sept. 14. $30. Enjoy an evening outdoors along the Charles River as the Publick Theatre presents Shakespeare's romantic comedy featuring a shipwreck, a case of mistaken identity, gender confusion and other complications.

UNIVERSITY THEATER

Into the Woods
Kresge Little Theatre, 48 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-253-6294). web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sept. 4-6 and Sept. 11-13, 8 pm. $9. MIT's Musical Theatre Guild presents James Lapine and Stephen Sondheim's musical based on several fairy tales, including Cinderella and Little Red Riding Hood.

Twilight: Los Angeles, 1992
Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/theater. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Sept. 16-21. $16-$20. Candice Brown directs this play about the civil disturbances in Los Angeles after the Rodney King trial in 1992.

Dance

Dangling by a Thread
Tsai Performance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8725). www.dancecollective.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Sept. 19 and 20, 8 pm. $15-$30 (patrons born in 1973 are admitted free). Dance Collective is celebrating its 30th birthday with the anniversary gala concert that features new works, revivals, live music and surprise appearances.

Stomp
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.stomponline.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat.5 and 9 pm; Sun. 3 and 7 pm. Ongoing. $45-$55. In its ongoing run in Boston, this percussion hit continues its tradition of no plot or dialogue. Performers use everyday objects such as brooms, garbage lids and their own bodies to create music for their dance numbers.

The American Repertory Theatre presents Anton Chekhov's Lady with a Lapdog.

THE comedy CONNECTION FANEUIL HALL

617•248•9700

SEPTEMBER 12-13

JAKE JOHANNSEN

SEPTEMBER 19-20

JEFFREY ROSS

SEPTEMBER 26-27

ADAM FERRARA

OCTOBER 3-4

BOBBY SLAYTON

OCTOBER 17-18

PAULY SHORE

NOVEMBER 7TH

TOMMY DAVIDSON

See why Frank Santos has been a hit with fans for over 10 years!

EVERY THURSDAY!

ALWAYS IMITATED! NEVER DUPLICATED!

"The R-Rated Hypnotist"

FRANK SANTOS

Validated Parking at 75 State Street Garage

www.comedyconnectionboston.com

BOSTON ROCKS

(617) 726-1110

A unique blend of entertainment 7 days a week!

Come relax after work on our plush leather couches on "Martini Mondays" featuring open mike poetry from 6-8PM and DJ Sensae spinning smooth R&B and Hip Hop all night long!

Fridays at the LOFT features DJ Sensae & DJ Johnny Walker Black combining their talents in interactive music and dance!

Boston Rocks' Saturdays!

Saturdays Make You Happy! Start the night with great food! Hands from 9PM-11PM then DJ Johnny Walker Black plays the best in Top 40 and Hip Hop!

(Next to The Comedy Connection on the 2nd Floor of the Quincy Market Bldg.)

Open 7 Days a Week • www.boston-rocks.net

the Daily Catch® restaurants
est. Boston's North End...1973
Sicilian Style Seafood and Pasta
Paul and Maria Freddura invite you to enjoy our offerings.

Celebrating our 30th Anniversary

NOW OPEN at the Harborwalk
at the Moakley U.S. Courthouse
2 Northern Avenue 617.772.4400

Visit our other locations at:
323 Hanover St., Boston's North End 617.523.8567
441 Harvard St., Brookline, JFK Crossing 617.723.2700
124 Broadway, Rte. 1N, Saugus 781.231.3280

www.dailycatch.com

Ain't Misbehavin', at the Huntington Theatre, pays tribute to musician Fats Waller.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy. Or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault at Remington's features local stand-up comedians. •Fridays and Saturdays: Dick Doherty's Comedy Pro Tour •Sundays: Open-mike night.

Comedy Connection
245 Quincy Market Place, Faneuil Hall, Upper Rotunda, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center; Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Wed., 8 pm, $12; Thu., 8:30 pm, $12; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm, 10:15 pm, prices vary; Sun., 7 pm, $12. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •Sept. 11: Frank Santos, the R-Rated Hypnotist •Sept. 12, $20: Jake Johannsen •Sept. 13, $20: Jake Johannsen •Sept. 14: Joe Carroll •Sept. 15: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox, "The Wildman of Comedy" •Sept. 16: Paul Nardizzi and Robbie Printz •Sept. 17: Harrison Stebbins •Sept. 18, $12: Frank Santos, the R-Rated Hypnotist •Sept. 19 and 20, $20 and $22: Jeffrey Ross •Sept. 21: Dave Rattigan •Sept. 22: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox •Sept. 23: Paul Nardizzi and Robbie Printz.

The Comedy Studio
The Hong Kong, 1236 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $7-$9. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •Sept 10: Kelly McFarland, Tony V., Andy O'Fish, Malissa Hunt, Tome Dustin and Chris Hammon • Sept. 11: Tim McIntire, Mindi Fay, Malissa Hunt and Dan Sulman •Sept 12: Chris Walsh, Larry Murphy, Malissa Hunt and EJ Murphy •Sept. 13: Erin Judge, EJ Murphy, Malissa Hunt and Ben Murray •Sept. 14: Sam Walters, Ira Proctor, Michael Della Penna, Malissa Hunt, Jesse Shapiro, Bob Hagearty, Lois McCormack and Jeremy Turoff •Sept. 17: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland and Jessica Casiano •Sept. 18: Tim McIntyre, Christine Herman, Joe Randazzo •Sept. 19: Larry Murphy, Chris Walsh, Steve Calechman and Mike Whitman •Sept. 20: Steve Calechman, Erin Judge and Jesse Shapiro, Dan Sulman and Mike Whitman •Sept. 21: Sam Walters, Erin Judge, Erik Charles Nielsen, Tim Kaelin and Dan Sulman

Nick's Comedy Stop
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. $10-$22. •Sept. 11 (free admission), 8:30 pm: Kevin Knox, Mike McCarthy and Steve Bjork •Sept. 12 and 13, 8:45 pm: Mike McCarthy, Steve Bjork and George DeMartino •Sept. 18 (free admission), 8:30 pm: Kevin Knox, All-Star Comedy

•Sept 19 and 20, 8:45 pm: Chance Langton, Ir Proctor and Steve Scarfo.

IMPROV COMEDY

Faces for Radio
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617 510-4447). www.faces4radio.com. MBTA: Red Lin to Central. Thu., 8 pm. $8. Improv comedians pok fun at everything, including themselves.

Improv Asylum
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.impro asylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Ha market or Government Center. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm Fri., 8 and 10 pm; Sat., 6, 8 and 10 pm. $15-$2 Dinner packages also available. Improvisation an sketch comedy in the North End. •Wed. an Thu., $15, and Fri. and Sat., $20: Improv Asylu comedians present their summer main-stage sho The Brand Ambition Tour. •Thu., 9:45 pm, fre Improv Jam featuring main-stage performers an special guests.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Cambridge (61 576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: R Line to Central or Harvard. $5-$12. Boston's longes running improvisational comedy troupe creat everything on the spot: the characters, the stori the settings—even the songs and dances. •We 8 pm, $5: The Hump. This fringe series features li provBoston's Expansion Teams. •Thu., $1 Micetro; 10 pm, $5: The Great and Secret Come Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perfo stand-up and music, play short films and do chara ter sketches in a display of sibling rivalry •Fri pm, $12: Agent Spy. Leave your cell phone on help a secret agency uncover the truth in t thriller complete with chase scenes, romance a backstabbing; 10 pm, $12: Theatre Sports. T teams of improvisers face off. •Sat., 6 pm, $12: I provBoston Family Show; 8 and 10 pm, $12: Impr Boston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music, dience participation and joyful chaos, a cast improvisers creates a show that changes with ev performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $5: Sgt. Culpepper's provisational Jamboree features visiting troupes combines three shows in one.

COMEDY SHOWS

Joey & Maria's Comedy Italian Wedding
Tremont Playhouse in the Tremont Hotel, 275 Trem St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Lin Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm. Through Nov. $49. This interactive dinner show follows Maria Joey through their wacky wedding.

Open Mike Night
Lizard Lounge, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (6 547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon pm. Open mike for creative talent.

Stash's Comedy Jam
All Asia Cafe, 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617- 1544). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. www.stashcon jam.com. First and third Sunday of the month. 8 Enjoy standup comedy at this open mike host Stash.

Quaint, charming, cozy, larger, comfortable,
cheery, expanded, authentic, attractive, picturesque, loungier.

m.j. O'Connor's
irish pub

Outdoor Patio Dining
Dinner Served until 11:00pm
Now Two Bars Open until 2:00am
Available for Private or Corporate Functions

27 Columbus Ave. At the Boston Park Plaza Hotel • 617.482.2255

JAMES LEVINE MUSIC DIRECTOR DESIGNATE
BERNARD HAITINK PRINCIPAL GUEST CONDUCTOR
SEIJI OZAWA MUSIC DIRECTOR LAUREATE

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

2003 – 2004 SEASON
OCTOBER 2 THROUGH MAY 8

SUBSCRIPTIONS ON SALE NOW FOR SERIES RANGING FROM 3 TO 25 CONCERTS.
CALL (617) 266-7575.

FOR INDIVIDUAL TICKETS CALL
(617) 266-1200 OR VISIT www.bso.org

UBS SEASON SPONSOR

CLASSICAL 102.5 WCRB BOSTON
WGBH 4
MEDIA SPONSORS

STEINWAY & SONS
SELECTED EXCLUSIVELY AT SYMPHONY HALL

EMC²
where information lives
WEB SPONSOR

PHY: CONSTANTINE MANOS

Rheally Smooth

"The #1 Rum I tasted during the previous decade." – F. Paul Pacult
Editor, The Spirit Journal

Highest Recommendation
Rated 96-100 • Top 50 Spirits 2002
– Wine Enthusiast

The Saveur 100 Top 100
Discoveries From Around The World
– Saveur Magazine

Aged 15 years in oak casks.
Still the only rum made directly from the juice of pure sugar cane.

Rhum Barbancourt, 43% Alc./Vol., Imported from Haiti by Crillon Importers Ltd., Paramus, NJ 07652 Ad: Gigante Vaz Partners crillonimporters.com

Heartbreak Hotel

Murray and Johansson try to check out in Lost in Translation

BY PAUL SHERMAN

In Groundhog Day, a Bill Murray character found amusement in monotony. In Lost in Translation, Murray's character isn't so lucky.

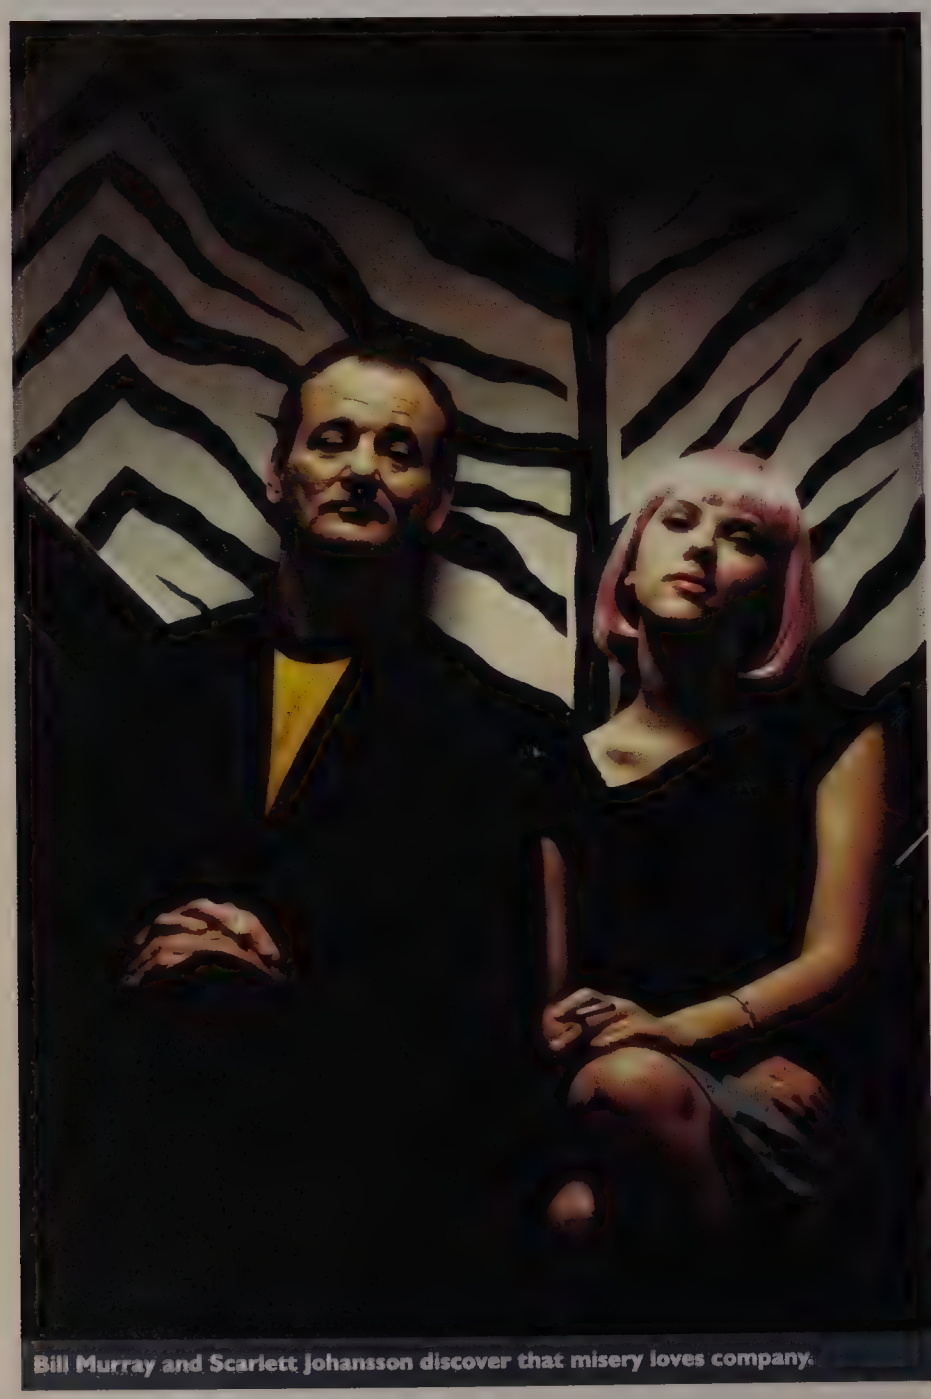
Murray plays Bob Harris, a washed-up movie star who's in Tokyo to do TV commercials and billboard ads for a Japanese whiskey. He's also taking the opportunity to distance himself from his wife of 25 years and his kids. He's grown almost as tired of them as he has of himself.



Bill Murray and Scarlett Johansson discover that misery loves company.

The one time we see Bob's work, it's in a clip of an amusingly lame buddy-cop action-comedy from the 1980s in which Bob's partner is played by a chimp. The animal-cop clip provides the perfect shorthand for understanding Bob's career: He's a Tom (Turner and Hooch) Hanks who never graduated to better movies, or a Jim (K-9) Belushi who stayed, alas, Jim Belushi.

Bob sees the clip when he's channel-surfing in his hotel room. When he's not shooting a TV commercial or doing a photo shoot for the whiskey—and trying to figure out just exactly what the demanding, English-challenged director and photographer want from him—he's usually holed up in his room or the hotel lounge. Those are the same places where a traveler can usually find another uncomfortable American, and Bob meets Charlotte (Scarlett Johansson). She's the young wife of a rock and roll photographer (Giovanni Ribisi) who's more interested in his work than in her, and who leaves her for hours and eventually days at a time while he's off shooting bands. While Bob is burned out, Charlotte is just confused about her life. She makes forays outside the hotel to religious shrines, hoping to feel a spiritual pull, but returns disappointed. (The movie perfectly captures Japan's blend of the disposably schlocky and the traditionally spiritual, of instant gratification and quiet solitude.)

Bob and Charlotte notice each other around the hotel and sense each other's alienation from their own lives, and from being in a strange country where they don't speak the language. The 50-ish actor and the 20-ish recent college grad start hanging around together. They go to a club with some Japanese people she knows, sing circa-1980 songs karaoke-style ("What's So Funny About Peace, Love and Understanding?" and "More Than This" for him, "Brass in Pocket" for her) and romp around the Tokyo hospital he takes her to after he sees her stubbed toe. "Does it get better?" she asks of life during one chat. "No," he immediately answers, before unconvincingly trying to backpedal.

Writer-director Sofia Coppola dealt with shared pain in her unforgettable 2000 debut, The Virgin Suicides, which she adapted from Jeffrey Eugenides' novel and which perfectly captured the heartache of being 13. Working from an original screenplay this time, Coppola conjures up a similar funny-sad tone for these adults, who haven't figured out much more about life than her earlier movie's teens had. But if misery loves company, Bob and Charlotte make a great movie couple, and their relationship, though platonic, has its share of sexual tension. Part of the sadness in Lost in Translation is that each of these lost souls knows they'll have to part when Bob flies back to Los Angeles.

Murray gives a Buster Keaton–like, sad-clown performance built mainly around physical and especially facial reactions to absurd situations, like trying to decipher the motormouth TV commercial director when his translator relays next to nothing, or trying to control a machine in the hotel health club that "speaks" Japanese to him. Bob's career may or may not be inspired by that of Jim Belushi, but fortunately Bob has a lot of Murray's humor and underlying warmth, and recalls Murray's Rushmore sad-sack. Johansson, from Ghost World and The Man Who Wasn't There, gives a sweet, smart, heartbreaking performance as a young woman slightly older than the actress. You'll be thinking about both of them days after you see Lost in Translation. iB

Lost in Translation ★★★½

Written and directed by Sofia Coppola. With Bill Murray, Scarlett Johansson, Anna Faris and Giovanni Ribisi. Rated R. Focus Features.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

American Splendor ★★★
The movie version of Harvey Pekar's autobiographical comic book series sticks to the comics' realism to such a degree that, in addition to scenes with pitch-perfect Paul Giamatti as cranky Pekar, it also includes narration by and interviews with Pekar himself. That hybrid is clumsy at times, but the movie captures Pekar's search for the extraordinary in the everyday, as well as his hard-headed individualism, with precision and affection. We see Pekar at his humble file clerk job and in his legendary appearances on David Letterman's shows. (At Kendall Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Bend It Like Beckham ★★½
Though it can seem like the formulaic story of a woman caught between two cultures (the formula that gave us My Big Fat Greek Wedding), Parminder Nagra gives a winning performance as Jess, the Indian-English girl with soccer skills and two Sikh parents who won't let her pursue such a nontraditional endeavor. When Jess is recruited to play for a local women's team, with the possibility of discovery by an American pro team, the scene is set for lots of running around behind the parents' back and comic mishap and nauseum. It's all pretty predictable, but Nagra, Anupam Kher (as Jess' father) and Pirates of the Caribbean's Keira Knightley (as her teammate and sometime rival) help dignity fight caricature to a standoff. (At Copley Place, Kendall Square and suburbs.)

Cabin Fever ★★½
The old spam-in-a-cabin premise of a group of college kids going into the woods and finding horror play out with less cliché than usual here. The big twist this time is that the rednecks who are trying to kill the kids aren't the only danger. The real threat is a flesh-eating virus that one of the kids catches, and which seems headed for the others. There's the obligatory horny girl, doofus guy and hero for us to identify with, but this is a lively, decent creepshow. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Camp ★★
Actor turned writer and now director Todd Graff's unconvincingly feel-good indie movie features a gung ho teen cast playing the aspiring singers, dancers and actors at Camp Ovation, a performing arts camp. There's some novelty in seeing talented teens play adults in fully staged production numbers of Sondheim or Bacharach-David songs (this is the Terror of Tiny Town of musicals). But the comedy-drama is such a superficial after-school special, with all its dilemmas miraculously resolved without fuss or muss, that it has no emotional credibility. Despite all the unrequited love, sexual dilemmas and backstage bickering, it's a trifle. (At Kendall Square.)

Freddy vs. Jason ★★
OK, first of all, that big stiff Jason Voorhees doesn't deserve to be witty Freddy Krueger's manservant, let alone be presented as his equal in a matchup. And the Nightmare on Elm Street series is vastly superior to the Friday the 13th series (I'm still waiting for one good movie from the latter one). Both series closed weakly, and this Celebrity Boxing–style showdown can't revive them. Jason is his dour self, Freddy is disappointingly bland, the teen characters caught in the middle of their battle are forgettable, and all the unconvincing plot clutters the movie more than its dead bodies. As usual, little that happens in the film really matters, because it ends in a slate-wiping sequel setup. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Hell's Highway: The True Story of Highway Safety Films ★★★
Long before Scared Straight, some Ohio filmmakers hit upon a way to try to make people drive more safely: by producing highway safety movies spiked with gory footage of real accidents. Thus was born Highway Safety Films Inc., the subject of this fun and informative documentary. With such lurid films as Wheels of Tragedy and Highways of Agony, Highway Safety Films offered a sometimes creepy, sometimes amusing blend of Midwestern earnestness and lurid voyeurism, especially when the company branched out to movies like The Child Molester. Hell's Highway includes great comments by Something Weird Video's Mike Vraney (who likens safety films' grisly narration to "the uncle you never wanted") and educational-film archivist extraordinaire Rick Prelinger. (At Coolidge Corner.)

The Magdalene Sisters ★★★½
Actor turned writer-director Peter Mullan's tense movie about Ireland's brutal Magdalene asylums is the best argument for the separation of church and state since the Taliban. It was in the asylums, which existed until the mid-1990s,

READY FOR A COLD ONE?

Coors LIGHT

Pre-game with an Ice Cold Coors Light!

HERE'S TO BEING BACK IN BOSTON!

Be seen around campus...
...with an Italian model.

Vespa®

Vespa Boston 22 Brighton Avenue, Boston, MA 1.866.768.1871

HERBCHAMBERS.COM

HOURS: MON - THURS 10AM-7PM FRI - SAT 10AM-6PM SUN NOON-5PM

© PIAGGIO 2001 VESPA AND PIAGGIO ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS OF PIAGGIO GROUP.
ALWAYS WEAR A HELMET, APPROPRIATE EYEWEAR AND PROPER APPAREL

COOKING FOR A CAUSE

October 4th
7—10 pm
8 Park Street • Boston

For tickets and more information call
617-876-4444

Enjoy the 'best of the best' in culinary art.

• • •

Taste fine wines and liquors while enjoying the swinging sounds of the Winiker Orchestra.

• • •

Bid on one-of-a-kind items in the Silent Auction.

East End House has been making a difference in the lives of children, families and individuals in the Greater Boston area since 1875. Come and help us celebrate their continued success!

COOKING FOR A CAUSE

An evening of food and wine to benefit

East End House

Come and taste the best!

featuring

THE VAULT — Chef Carmen Quagliata, Cooking for a Cause Culinary Chair
FIREPLACE — Chef Jim Solomon
GALLIA — Chef David Silva
BAMBARA — Chef Tom Berry
JAE'S GRILL BROOKLINE — Chef Ben Lin
BEACON HILL HOTEL & BISTRO — Chef Benjamin Knack
ROUGE — Chef Andy Husbands
BIRCH STREET BISTRO — Chef Steven Oliveto
RUSTIC KITCHEN — Chef Bill Bradley
BRASSERIE JO — Chef Antoine Camin
SAGE — Chef Anthony Susi
CENTRO — Chef Ben Nathan
TEMPLE BAR — Chef Dan Pogue
CHEZ HENRI — Chef Paul O'Connell
TORCH — Chef Evan Deluty

Featuring wine and liquor tastings by LONG VINEYARDS · CHATEAU LAFAYETTE RENEAU
DOMAINE CHARBAY · EDISON LIGHT BEER

Paul Giamatti plays the cranky Harvey Pekar, and Hope Davis plays his third wife, in American Splendor.

the Catholic Church used to take in "wayward" girls and force them to work, under the premise of rehabilitating them, all with the tacit approval of the government and society. Unlike so many movies that portray cruelty and violence, such things actually have great consequence in Mullan's movie. He makes you care about his three victimized heroines, and his movie is a chilling look at abuse of power on many levels—in family and community as much as the church. (At Kendall Square.)

The Medallion ★
The Tuxedo was just about the worst movie of Jackie Chan's career. So what does he do? A year after that Hollywood-made stinker, he has his own production company make another vehicle in which a lame gimmick is responsible for enhancing Jackie's crime-fighting skills. It's still a lousy idea, and the new movie's clunky script, cheesy visual effects and weak characters are no help either. (At Loews Boston Common, AMC Fenway and suburbs.)

Open Range ★★½
Costner's Last Stand is an oddball of a movie. If you compare it solely with today's movies, it's certainly more involving than most, and it boasts a sturdy Robert Duvall appearance. But if you judge it against what constituted a good western back in the genre's heyday, it's longwinded and heavy-handed. Of course, you can't blame director and star Costner that our culture has lost the storytelling shorthand that enabled western moviemakers to tell their stories so economically, but why must every western these days be an epic? Costner's tale about a team of free-grazing cattlemen fighting a powerful rancher (Michael Gambon) who won't let them use their land—and wants to kill them and steal their cattle—surely works. But it sometimes dotes on details it should devote seconds to, and could well lose the emotion-cueing music and the shots that are mere scenery. Annette Bening and the late Michael Jeter, both giving strong performances, round out the cast. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Rivers and Tides ★★★
Director Thomas Riedelsheimer's visually striking movie about Scottish artist Andy Goldsworthy, who makes sculptures in nature that are often swept away by the elements, is among the year's amazing crop of documentaries. (At the Museum of Fine Arts, Sept. 13, 14, 21, 26 and 28.)

Seabiscuit ★★
Writer-director Gary (Pleasantville) Ross struggles to bring Laura Hillenbrand's unforgettable book about the 1930s racehorse to the screen. He veers from Ken Burns–like documentary sequences to comic relief from a fictional radio personality played by William H. Macy. He also repeatedly whacks us over the head with the same point: Owner Charles Howard (Jeff Bridges), trainer Tom Smith (Chris Cooper) and jockey Red Pollard (Tobey Maguire) all excelled at second chances in life, just like the late-bloomi horse. The movie might have had more oomph w it earthier, but it's just a well-crafted, generic piece uplifting sports moviemaking. Read the book. (Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Shaolin Soccer ★★½
Hong Kong action-comedy star Stephen Chow (God of Cookery) plays a Bruce Lee–loving Shao kung fu disciple who gathers a soccer team made his former martial arts classmates and enters a to nament. The comedy is an odd combination of of special effects and lots of vaudeville-style sl stick. To add to the oddity, sometimes it's cringin unfunny, while other times it's clever, tongue-cheek and very funny. It's like a live-action carto and the airborne soccer matches have little to with the earthbound version the Revolution p Add the Mighty Ducks–like story, and the movie comes mainly kids' stuff. (At Kendall Square.)

Thirteen ★★★
In the spectrum of movies about troubled teen girls, Catherine Hardwicke's debut falls somewh between the cliches of the recent Blue Car and unique emotional eeriness of The Virgin Suici Evan Rachel Wood, who has a Kirsten Dunst–l mix of sweetness and naughtiness, is convincin the initially girlish seventh-grader who yearn hang out with the popular, more physically ma girls—and gets to, by taking drugs, shoplifting pushing her budding sexuality just as they do. Me while, her frazzled mom (Holly Hunter) trie straddle the line between being firm and frien while her new best friend (Nikki Reed, who co-w the script with Hardwicke) manipulates everyon sight. Although the movie can sometimes come as a pat cautionary tale, its emotional messine awfully realistic, with most everyone obliviou their own faults. (At Boston Common, Co Place, Kendall Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors
Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), ma Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

ALLSTON CINEMA UNDERGROUND
Features
•Opening Sept. 12. Beyond Re-Animator 200 12-year-old boy who found a serum to revivi dead has grown up to be an obsessed doctor. I Yuzna directs.
•Opening Sept. 19. Southlander: Diary of a perate Musician 2001. Steven Hanft's dark co

MAKSOU

HAIR & MAKE UP ARTISAN • DAY SPA

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Charles Maksou
Women's Haircut

"Charles Maksou is the man responsible for bringing John Sahag's celebrated dry-cut method to Boston...Women who go to him once are instantly addicted to the quality of his cuts."

Renée Christopher
Eyebrow Shaping

"...her advice and expertise are always worth following. Let her do that voodoo that she does so well, and Christopher will give you brows that bless your face."

Bring in this ad for 20% OFF
first time hair and spa services

125 Broad St., Boston 617/443/8633 www.maksou.com

Sam's Café at Cheers®

There's a new party place in Faneuil Hall Marketplace!

Every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night the party starts at 9pm

- Great music, dancing, and lots of FUN
- Entertainment by Willow Entertainment
- Thursday Features The Brian Walkley Band & The Real Deal Horns

Validated Parking at 75 State Street • Proprietor: Thomas A. Kershaw • 617-227-7579 • www.cheersboston.com follows an unknown musician whose big break comes via an unusual synthesizer keyboard.

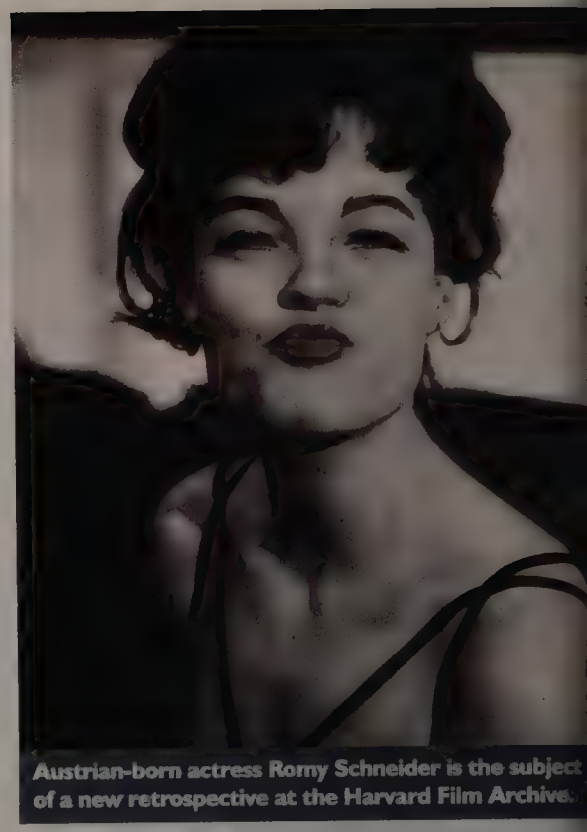
BOSTON FILM FESTIVAL

•Through Sept. 14. More than 50 independent and feature-length films screen at Loews Boston Common and Loews Copley Place. Go to www.bostonfilmfestival.org for a schedule.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Faces of a Star: A Romy Schneider Retrospective

•Sept. 22, 6 pm, Ludwig (part 1) 1972. The first half of Luchino Visconti's chronicle of Bavarian king Ludwig chronicles the beginning of his short and tormented reign. Starring Romy Schneider.



Austrian-born actress Romy Schneider is the subject of a new retrospective at the Harvard Film Archive.

BRATTLE THEATRE

The Man with No Name Trilogy

•Sept. 19 and 20. The Good, the Bad, and the Ugly 1966. Clint Eastwood stars as "the Good" in Sergio Leone's film about three men searching for treasure in the desert. •Also showing Sept. 19. A Fistful of Dollars 1964. In the first installment of the trilogy, Eastwood plays a lone gunfighter who offers his services to two local gangs. Sergio Leone directs. •Also showing, Sept. 20. For a Few Dollars More 1965. Eastwood returns as the man with no name. This time he joins forces with his former enemy to capture a homicidal bandit. Call for show times.

Special Features

•Sept. 10 and 11, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 pm. A Woman Is a Woman 1961. Jean-Luc Godard's film stars Anna Karina as a stripper who dreams of becoming a mother. •Sept. 12 and 13. A Mighty Wind 2003. Christopher Guest's mockumentary features three folk music groups who reunite for a tribute concert in New York City's Town Hall. •Also showing. Waiting for Guffman 1996. An inept group of actors stages an amateur production in their small town while awaiting the arrival of a theater critic. Christopher Guest directs. Call for show times.

•Sept. 14 and 15. Sunset Blvd. 1950. A bankrupt screenwriter narrates the events leading up to his death. Billy Wilder directs. Call for show times.

•Sept. 16. Il Conformista (The Conformist) 1970. Bernardo Bertolucci's film is the story of a Mussolini follower who is sent to assassinate one of his former professors. Call for show times.

•Sept. 17. Le Peuple migrateur (Winged Migration) 2001. Jacques Perrin, Jacques Cluzaud and Michel Debats' documentary captures the migration of flocks of birds around the globe. •Also showing. Microcosmos: Le peuple de l'herbe (Microcosmos) 1996. Claude Nuridsany and Marie Pérennou's documentary captures the lives of insects in nature. Call for show times.

•Sept. 18. To Sleep with Anger 1990. A drifter (Danny Glover) shows up on the doorstep of an old friend and assumes the role of man of the house when his friend has a stroke. Director Charles Burnett is present for the screening. Call for show times.

•Sept. 21 and 22. Dark City 1950. A bookie tricks an out-of-towner into a bogus poker game and finds himself the target of a personal vendetta. William Dieterle directs. Call for show times.

•Sept. 23. Le Notti di Cabiria (Nights of Cabiria) 1957. A naive prostitute remains hopeful after being taken advantage of. Federico Fellini directs. •Also showing. Il Grido (The Outcry) 1957. A man becomes unstable when his lover rejects his marriage proposal and admits to having an affair. Michelangelo Antonioni directs. Call for show times.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

Coolidge Selects

•Opening Sept. 12. Hell's Highway: The True Story of Highway Safety Films 2003. See film capsules for a description.

Features

•Now playing. American Splendor 2003. See film capsules for a description.

Meet the Director Screening

•Sept. 16, 7:30 pm. The Pink Satin Suit. Directors Anastasia and Will Lyman take questions after a screening of their film, which documents one self-made man's struggles.

Midnights: '80s Sci-Fi

•Sept. 12 and 13, 12 am. Something Weird 1972. In Herschel Gordon Lewis' film, a masked murderer preys on strippers at a Miami nightclub.

•Sept. 19 and 20, 12 am. Beyond Re-Animator 2003. A 12-year-old boy who found a serum to revive the dead has grown up to be an obsessed doct Brian Yuzna directs.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Film Architectures

•Sept. 23, 6 pm. Metropolis 1927. Fritz Lan silent film is a skeptical look at the future, focusi on an underground city that is built below a boo ing metropolis.

From Cinematic to Digital Culture

•Sept. 21, 7 pm. Paisan 1946. In this the second i stallment of his war trilogy, director Robe Rossellini pieces together newsreels and intervie from Sicily during the Allied invasion.

The New German Cinema

•Sept. 22, 7 pm. Die Mörder sind unter uns (T Murderers Are Among Us) 1946. Director Wolfga Staudt produced this postwar German film, whi addresses the state of a nation coming to terms wi its dark recent history.

Remembering Romy

•Sept. 12, 7 pm. Le Procés (The Trial) 1962 Orson Welles' film adaptation of Franz Kaf novel, a man wakes up to find he is on trial fo crime never explained to him. Starring Ro Schneider. •Also showing, 9:15 pm; Sept. 15 pm. La Passante du Sans-Souci (The Passer 1982. A respected leader of an international or nization stands trial for murdering a Paraguay ambassador. Jacques Rouffio directs. •Sept. 13 pm. Les Choses de la vie (The Things of Li 1969. In Claude Sautet's film, a dying architect alizes his wife, son and friends are more meani ful to him than money. •Also showing, 9 p Sept. 22, 9 pm. La Piscine (The Swimming Po 1970. A couple enjoying their poolside villa visited by an old friend and his 18-year-old dau ter. A four-way sexual entanglement ens Jacques Deray directs.

•Sept. 14, 7 pm; Sept. 19, 9 pm. Ludwig 19 Luchino Visconti's chronicle of Bavarian king L wig is shown in the condensed, 137-minute versi •Sept. 19, 7 pm; Sept. 21, 9 pm. Sissi 1955. Ba ian princess Sissi falls in love with and eventu marries Austrian emperor Franz Josef. Directe Ernst Marischka.

•Sept. 20, 7 pm. The Cardinal 1963. Otto minger's adaptation of Henry Morton Robins novel follows a young priest through his caree the church.

(Re)screening Shakespeare

•Sept. 17, 7 pm. Richard III 1995. Richard craine transforms Shakespeare's classic play in film about a 1930s Hitleresque dictator.

Screening Modern China

•Sept. 23, 8:30 pm.Wong Fei-hung (Once Up Time in China) 1991. Jet Li stars in Tsui Hark's about China's transition to modern times.

LOEWS THEATRE COPLEY PLACE

Sundance Film Series

•Sept. 19-Oct. 3, at 1, 4, 7 and 10 pm. In World 2002. Michael Winterbottom's film fol two Afghan refugees as they travel through Turkey, Italy, France and the UK in searc refuge.

Felt is proud to host
Vogue Magazine and Cointreau's
BE COINTREAUVERSIAL™ event,

Thursday, September 18.

Invite only event from 7pm - 9pm

FELT BOSTON

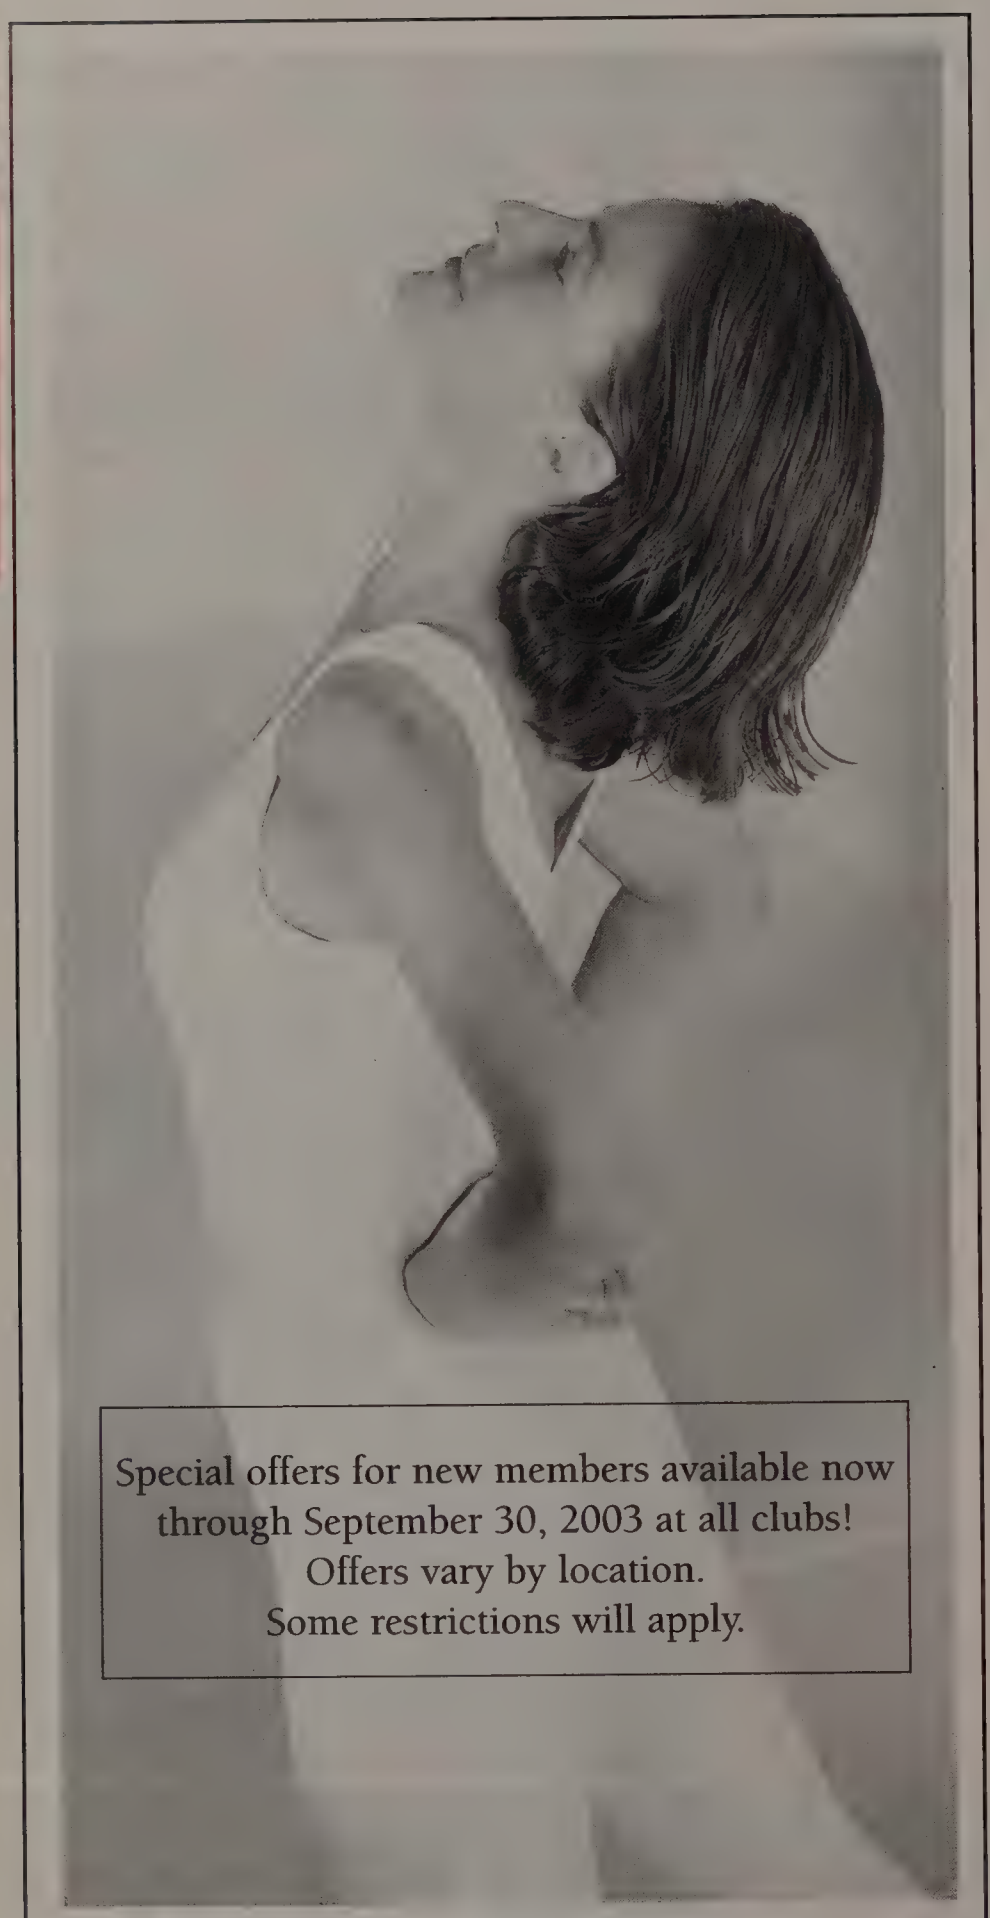
COINTREAU®

Vogue

SPECIAL GUEST DJ FRANK DELOUR:
RESIDENT DJ at LOTUS NYC and from HBO's "Da Ali G Show"
Doors Open at 9pm

FELT 533 WASHINGTON STREET 617.350.5555

Cointreau Corp. COINTREAU® Liqueur. 40% alc./vol. Remy Amerique, Inc. New York, NY. Cointreau Bottle Design®. Banderole Design®. E. Cointreau Seal Design®.E.Cointreau Signature®. Cointreau Label Design®.
BE COINTREAUVERSIAL™. www.becointreauversial.com



Special offers for new members available now through September 30, 2003 at all clubs!
Offers vary by location.
Some restrictions will apply.

Healthworks is coming to Chestnut Hill this fall–convienently located at 1300 Boylston Street.
(Rte. 9, across from Legal Seafoods)
Pre-opening rates available.
Visit our presale office in the Atrium Mall or call 617.383.6100.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

Back Bay	Brookline	Cambridge	Chestnut Hill	Salem
617.859.7700	617.731.3030	617.497.4454	617.383.6100	978.745.7390

www.healthworksfitness.com

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Art on Film

•Sept. 13, 4 pm; Sept. 14, 10:30 pm; Sept. 21, 10:30am. Rivers and Tides: Andy Goldsworthy Working with Time 2002. See film capsules for a description.

The Films of Aki Kaurismäki

•Sept. 11, 6:15 pm; Sept. 13, 10:30 am. I Hired a Contract Killer 1990. A suicidal Londoner hires an assassin to kill him, but changes his mind when he finds love. •Also showing, 8 pm; Sept. 13, 12 pm. La Vie de bohéme (Boheemielämää) 1992. Adapted from the Henri Murger novel, this film follows a French playwright, an Albanian artist and an Irish musician whom live on the Left Bank during the 19th century.

•Sept. 17, 7:45 pm; Sept. 20, 1:45 pm. Pidä huivista kiinni, Tatjana (Take Care of Your Scarf, Tatiana) 1994. Two drunk men discuss frustrations regarding intimate relationships with two Russian women whom they met on the road. •Immediately following, Total Balalaika Show 1994. Kaurismäki's documentary captures a concert in Helsinki by the Leningrad Cowboys and the Alexandrov Red Army Choir and Ballet.

•Sept. 18, 8:20 pm. Leningrad Cowboys Meet Moses 1994. A band leaves Mexico for Coney Island, where they run into their devious manager who promises to take them to Siberia.

French Film Series

•Sept. 11, 4:15 pm. Cet amour-lá 2001. Josée Dayan chronicles Yann Andrea's tempestuous affair with his mentor, French novelist Marguerite Duras.

•Sept. 12, 6 pm. Ma vraie vie á Rouen (My Life on Ice) 2002. A teen comes to terms with his homosexuality and develops an obsession with figure skating and filming the lives of his friends and family. Olivier Ducastel directs.

New England Film Artists Present

•Sept. 10, 7:15 pm. Touched 2003. Laurel Chiten documents former Harvard University professor and psychiatrist Dr. John Mack and the patients he believes have been abducted by aliens. •Also showing, 8 :45 pm. The Jew in the Lotus 1990. Laurel Chiten follows author Rodger Kamenetz as he records the spiritual journey of eight Jewish delegates traveling to India to meet the Dalai Lama.

Susan Sontag's Most Favorite Japanese Films

•Sept. 10, 5:30 pm. Gion no kyoudai (Sisters of Gion) 1936. Two geisha sisters, one conservative and the other modern, struggle to get by. Keenji Mizoguchi directs.

•Sept. 11, 2 pm; Sept. 20, 11:30 pm. Waga seishun ni kui nashi (No Regrets for Our Youth) 1946. Akira Kurosawa presents the reality-based story of a Kyoto University professor persecuted by the Japanese government for his liberal beliefs.

•Sept. 12, 8 pm. Anjo-ke no butoukai (A Ball at the Anjo House) 1947. Kozaburo Yoshimura directs this film about a noble family who, devoid of fortune and nobility after World War II, throw a party on the eve of their eviction.

•Sept. 13, 2 pm; Sept, 18, 1 pm. Entotsu no mieru basho (Where Chimneys Are Seen) 1953. Heinosuke Gosho adapts Rinzo Shiina's novel about the trials of two working-class couples in Tokyo.

•Sept. 14, 12:30 pm; Sept. 18, 3:10 pm. Nijushi no hitomi (Twenty-Four Eyes) 1954. Based on Sakae Tsuboi's novel of the same name, Keisuke Kinoshita's film tells the story of a teacher and her 12 pupils secluded on an island during World War II.

•Also showing, Sept. 14, 3:30 pm. Ukigumo (Floating Clouds) 1955. In Mikio Naruse's film, a young woman pursues a married man.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Mugar Omni Theater

•Through Sept. 20. Coral Reef Adventure. Discover Australia's Great Barrier Reef, the reefs of Fiji and Tahiti and the Rangiroa Atoll in French Polynesia. Call for show times.

•Through Sept. 20. Pulse: A Stomp Odyssey. Travel from New York City to the American Southwest, Africa, South America, Asia and Europe with percussion artists from Stomp. Call for show times.

•Through Sept. 20. Top Speed. Tim Allen narrates this look at all things fast, from Olympic gold medalist Marion Jones to Le Mans champion race car driver Lucas Luhr. Call for show times.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

Simons IMAX Theater

•Now Playing. Bugs! 3D. This film features a bug's-eye view of the fascinating world of insects in the tropical rain forests of Southeast Asia. See bugs magnified up to 250,000 times their normal size. Call for show times.

NEWTON FREE LIBRARY

•Sept. 16, 6:45 pm. Offspring 2001. Directe
Barry Stevens documents his search to discover h biological father and unknown siblings, who we among the first people conceived by artificial in semination.

WOMEN IN FILM AND VIDEO/ NEW ENGLAND

Chicks Make Flicks

Monthly screenings celebrate female filmmakers an feature local directors.

•Sept. 10, 7 pm. My Father, the Genius 2002. Loc filmmaker Lucia Small's documentary is a biograph of her neglectful father, a successful and career-o sessed architect.

Cinema Venues

ALLSTON

Allston Bombay Cinema 2

*214 Harvard Ave. (978-671-9212). MBTA: B Gre
Line to Harvard Ave.*

Allston Cinema Underground

*214 Harvard Ave. (617-912-8626). MBTA: B Gre
Line to Harvard Ave.*

BELMONT

Studio Cinema

376 Trapelo Rd. (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Public Library

666 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Gre Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Copley Place (Loews/Sony)

*100 Huntington Ave. (617-266-1300). MBT
Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.*

Fenway 13 Theatre

201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Loews Boston Common

175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Gre Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science

Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line Science Park.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf (866-815-IMAX or 4629). MBT Blue Line to Aquarium.

BROOKLINE

Circle Cinema

*399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA
Green Line to Cleveland Circle or D Green Line Reservoir.*

Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Gr Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre

40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Lin Harvard.

Fresh Pond

*168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MB
Red Line to Alewife.*

Harvard Film Archive

*24 Quincy St. (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Lin
Harvard.*

Kendall Square Cinema

One Kendall Square (617-494-9800). MBTA: Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony

*10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Lin
Harvard.*

Women in Film and Video/New England

MIT Building 4, Screening Room (617-612-00 www.wifvne.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MI

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema

*27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D G
Line to Chestnut Hill.*

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St. (617-796-1360).

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony

*35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: O
Line to Sullivan Square.*

Somerville Theatre

55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Li Davis.

MARKETPLACE CENTER

NEXT TO FANEUIL HALL

BOSTON

AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS GAP BANANA REPUBLIC CLARKS

Let us host your next meeting, conference or cocktail party – groups of 10 to 200.

Plan ahead for your Holiday Parties... Book function space now!

161 Devonshire Street

Boston, MA 02110 {Between Milk & Franklin Sts.}

617-350-9977 • Fax: 350-0299 • gmboston@elephantcastle.com

ELEPHANT & CASTLE®

PUB & RESTAURANT

THIS SUMMER WAS SHORT ENOUGH SO WE'RE NOT CLOSING THE PATIO 'TIL THE FIRST SNOWFLAKE FALLS!

The Miller Lite girls Tanya Ballinger and Kitana Baker sandwich New York Islander Shawn Bates.

inside RACK

Every Monday Night, 6-9:30pm

NOT just your average Monday Night! Featuring The Rack's All-Star jazz jam!
DJ Mike Janedy 9:30pm-2am.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday Night, 6pm

After work Jazz with Boston's Best Jazz bands, Black Sole & Zeke Martin.
DJ Ricky spins every Wednesday night 10pm - 2am!

Every Thursday Night, 6-10pm

Get a JUMP START on your weekend! In fact, blow off work on Friday with R&B, Jazz and Soul bands like Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin' Horns and Uneek Approach! Dance the night away with DJ Littles 10pm - 2am.

Every Friday Night, 6pm

Join us right after work with the best band in Boston, Central Basement!
Hosted by Kiss 108's Artie the One Man Party! DJ Johnny C will keep you dancing 'til 2am!

Every Saturday Night, 8pm

The Saturday Night Dance Party just got bigger in a little way!
DJ Littles spins while Star 93.7's Vinnie Peruzzi broadcasts live, 8pm-2am.

Every Sunday Night, 8pm

Join Nate Watkin from 8 - 11pm then dance 'til 2am with DJ Mike Janedy.

BOSTON'S BEST 1997 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1998 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1999 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2000 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2002 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2003 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Audio & Visual Courtesy of
Tweeter

Dining Room Open 11:30am - 7 days a week!

MONDAY NIGHTS WILL NEVER BE THE SAME!
JOIN NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS LONIE PAXTON AND FRIENDS!
WHERE THE PLAYERS MEET THE PLAYERS! 9PM-2AM

High Crimes actress Julia Mendoza with Colleen, Maureen and Christina.

Dance, party Southern Cal style and bang in sick on Tuesday! This is definitely the night you don't want to miss! To benefit the Active Force Foundation

New England Patriots Cheerleaders kick back!

Seattle Mariners Gilbert Meche and Freddy Garcia with Sarah and Nicole.

24 Clinton Street, Boston 02109 617.725.1051 www.therackboston.com

WATCH US LIVE ON WWW.THERACKBOSTON.COM!

THE RACK

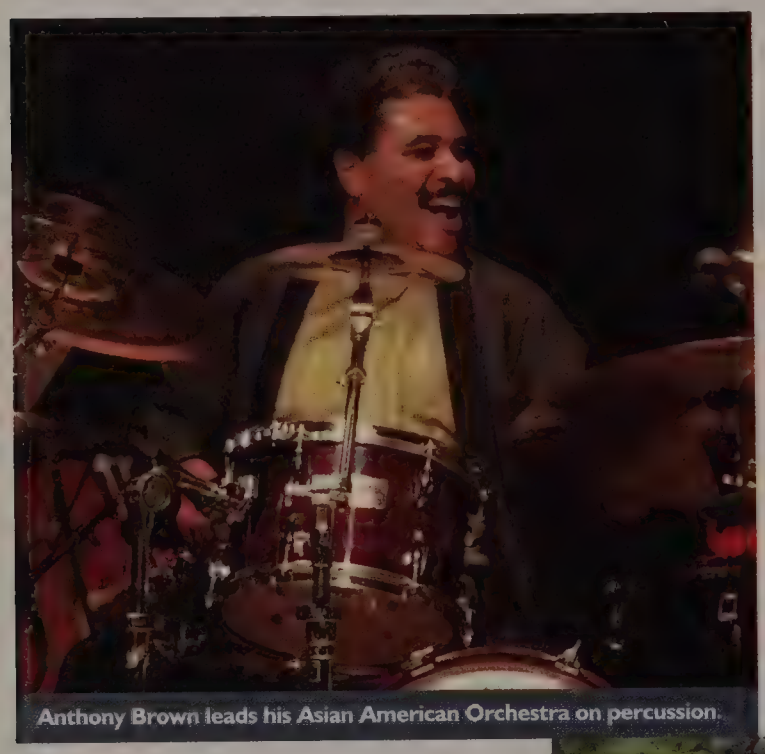
Different Colors

From jazz orchestra to fusion trio, Anthony Brown and Hiromi bring Asian sensibilities to an expansive Equinox Music Festival

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

From the traditional to the avant-garde, from the sounds of the West to the sounds of the East, Boston's jazz world will expand this month when the third annual Equinox Music Festival stages its most adventurous lineup yet.

The main events are the 26th annual John Coltrane Memorial Concert, with Coltrane peer Pharoah Sanders, at Northeastern's Blackman Auditorium, Sept. 20, and the first local concert in several years by maverick pianist Cecil Taylor, fronting the Sound Vision Orchestra at the Somerville Theatre Sept. 24.



Anthony Brown leads his Asian American Orchestra on percussion.

But the closing weekend boasts the Boston debut of Anthony Brown's Asian American Orchestra with soprano sax great Steve Lacy at the Berklee Performance Center, Sept. 26, and a free City Hall Plaza finale that includes Japanese piano hotshot Hiromi Sept. 28.

24-year-old piano star Hiromi

The Bay Area–based Asian American Orchestra will be playing music from its CD Monk's Moods—an impressionistic disc with Boston resident Lacy, who played with Thelonious Monk—plus two pieces by Duke Ellington, to whom the orchestra paid tribute on its Grammy-nominated 2000 CD Far East Suite.

"Sidney Bechet playing Ellington's 'The Mooche'—which is one of the tunes we play—is what inspired Steve to play soprano," says Brown, the orchestra's percussionist leader. "The whole relationship with Steve is not only built around his taste in music, but his own personal experience. And he has worked in other Asian-oriented projects, so he was very comfortable with those different sensibilities."

"This is familiar material, but it's presented in a whole new way," says Brown, whose cross-cultural group includes Chinese viola and dulcimer soloists along with standard big-band instrumentation. "It's hopefully helping to break down stereotypes about Asians not being able to play American pop music or jazz and only participate in the classical realm, which is ludicrous. But it's also to show that this music can be sung in a lot of different voices and languages."

The ensemble was launched in 1997 with Big Bands Behind Barbed Wire, a federally funded multimedia project that promoted education about Japanese internment in World War II. The subject interested Brown, both because his mother was a Tokyo native and his father had African/Native American lineage. "I saw a pattern there," says the 50-year-old drummer, who also holds a doctorate in ethnomusicology.

At the other end of the jazz spectrum from Brown's orchestra is Hiromi, who brings a fresh energy to jazz fusion with her high-powered trio sporting bassist Mitch Cohn and drummer Dave DiCenso.

"Even though I'm not really conscious about it, my Asian part is being expressed," says the 24-year-old Berklee grad, who was born Hiromi Uehara. Her dynamic debut, Another Mind, bristles with inspiration that spans Bach, King Crimson and the original Woodstock era, as well as piano mentors Oscar Peterson, Ahmad Jamal and Chick Corea.

"I get energy from everywhere," she says, "listening to people's stories, walking in the trees and seeing nature, and going to see concerts and sports games."

Hiromi knows her music proves similarly active for listeners. "You can play Frank Sinatra when you're eating dinner, for the mood—like you'll have a romantic mood—but my music can't be played in that room," she says. "It's too much."

Recalling her first piano lessons at age 5 with teacher Noriko Hikida, Hiromi says, "She always told me, 'Play by heart and feel your music…' Music should always be heart-to-heart communication, not finger-to-ear or brain-to-brain.

"I love improvisational music," says Hiromi, who also returns to play Scullers Jazz Club Nov. 11. "Every day I can play differently, with my own mood, and pure communication and interplay between me and my band and also the audience."

Hiromi's teacher also urged her young pupil to think in colors rather than technique, a concept Hiromi holds true to this day. "I see color when I improvise, and sometimes I see scenery," she says. "Blue stands for sadness or can be the ocean, red is passion, yellow maybe happiness, and white pure. It all comes through emotions. I'm playing music to deliver my emotions to an audience."

A visual approach also works for Brown, who started out as a visual artist—as did his idol Ellington. "We've just added more colors to the palette as far as bringing in those different sonorities and timbres of the Asian instruments," Brown says. "When Ellington talked to his musicians, he talked in visual terms, like 'Imagine a solitary flower in the middle of the deepest jungle in Africa…' I look at music that way, so thinking in terms of tonal colors and shapes and balances, I see the parallels. That's why orchestration like Ellington is one of the things I really enjoy." iB

Anthony Brown's Asian American Orchestra plays the Berklee Performance Center Sept. 26.

Hiromi
plays City Hall Plaza Sept. 28 and Scullers Nov. 11.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by email to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from different sources. Although we make every effort to provide accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead to double-check dates and times (see complete list of venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Black 47, Seven Nations and Young Dubliners
Sept. 18, the Roxy (617-931-2000)
Black Rebel Motorcycle Club
Sept. 20, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Boston Folk Festival
Sept. 19-21, UMass Boston (617-287-6911)
Dandy Warhols
Sept. 10, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Edwin McCain Band
Sept. 18, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Evanescence, Finger Eleven and Revis
Sept. 14, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Guster
Sept. 12, FleetBoston Pavilion (617-931-2000)
Juliana Hatfield
Sept. 17, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Alan Jackson
Sept. 20, FleetCenter (617-931-2000)
Kings of Leon
Sept. 12, Axis (617-423-NEXT)
Brian McKnight
Sept.10, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
A Mighty Wind, the Tour
Sept. 22, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
My Morning Jacket and the Sleepy Jackson
Sept. 16, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Randy Newman
Sept. 20, Berklee Performance Center (617-93 2000)
Red Hot Chili Peppers
Sept. 10, Tweeter Center (617-931-2000)
Josh Ritter
Sept. 12, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
The Samples
Sept. 18, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Stereophonics
Sept. 21, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Neil Young & Crazy Horse and Emmylou Harris
Sept. 10, FleetBoston Pavilion (617-931-2000)

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

Asgard Down Dog.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well.
Breezeway Bar & Grill Paulo Danay, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Bert Seager, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Rubyhorse, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Howard Armstrong Tribute, 8 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Ricky and the Giants, 7:20 pm
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGr 9:30 pm.
FleetBoston Pavilion Neil Young & Crazy Ho and Emmylou Harris, 7 pm, $37.50-$85.
House of Blues OM Trio with Mister Rourke, 9 pm.
Johnny D's Galatic Fractures and PJ Gray, 8:30 $5.
Kendall Café The eMericans, 9 pm; the Weisst nauts, 10 pm; Charlie Chesterman, 11 pm. $5.
Kinsale Brehan Law.
Lizard Lounge The Chandler Travis Philharmo 8:30 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Cancer to the Stars, the In mation, This Blue Holiday and Emergency Mu $8, 18+.
Orpheum Theatre Brian McKnight, Rhian Ben and David Corey, 7:30 pm, $31.50-$36.50.
Paradise Rock Club The Dandy Warhols, 8 $15, 18+.
Paradise Lounge Blackout Bar, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
The Rack BlackSole.
Regattabar The Kate McGarry Quartet, 8:30 $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Daryl Lowery and Instant! Gro and the Tim Miller Group, 7:30 pm, $9.
Scullers Jazz Club Kurt Elling and the Laure Hobgood Trio, $16, 8 and 10 pm.

Miller Lite

TRUE PILSNER BEER

Tell it over a great tasting, less filling Miller Lite.

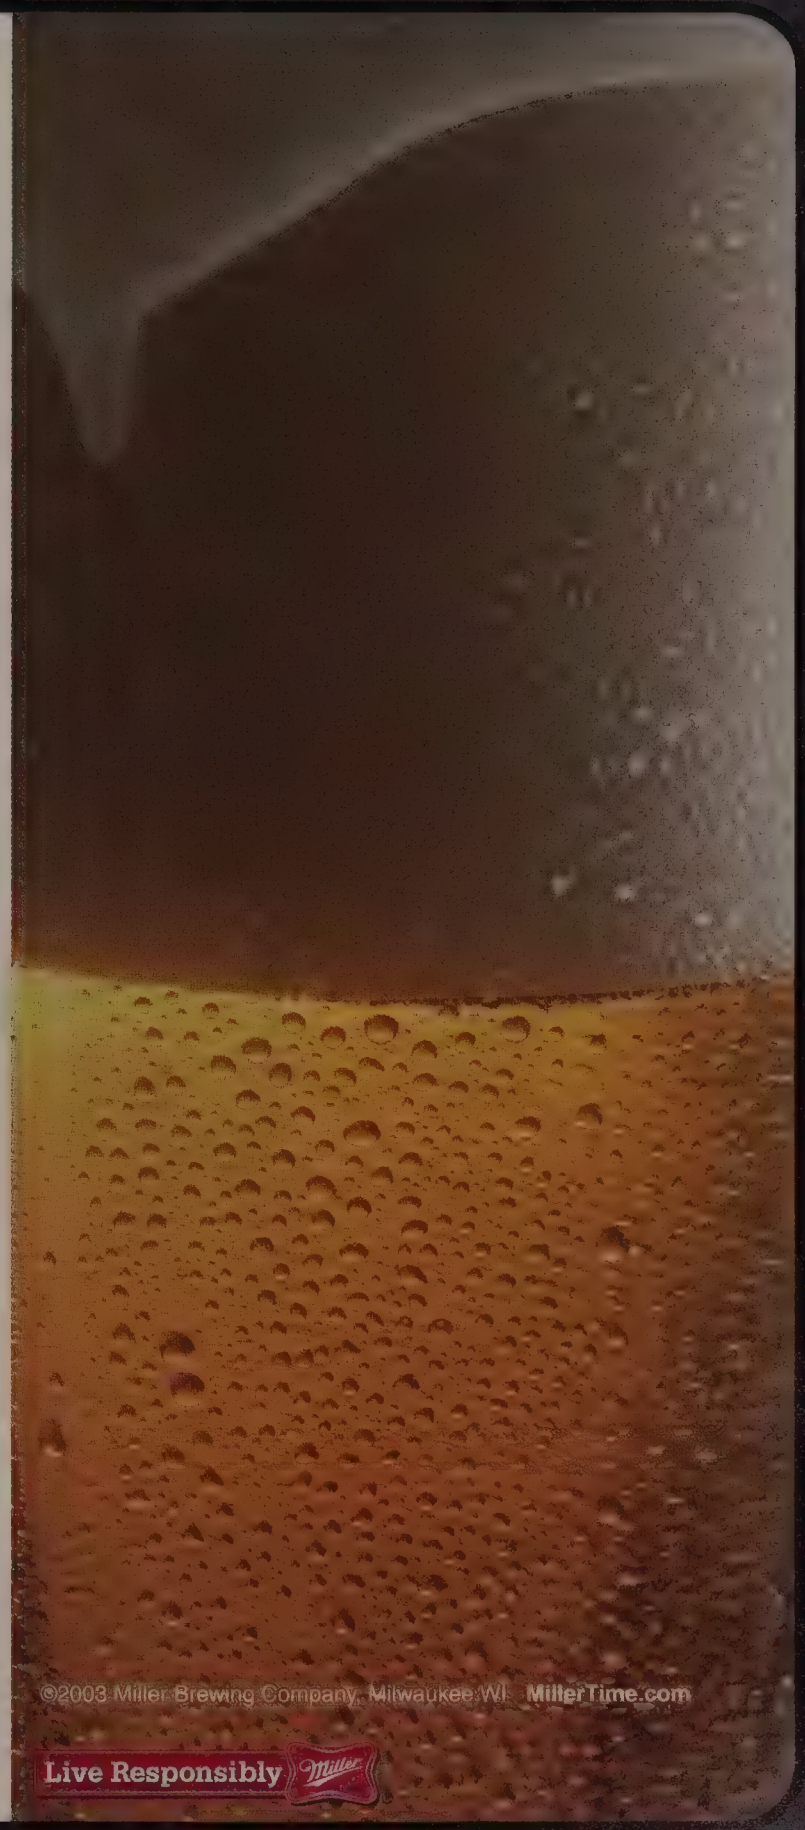
CHARLIE'S KITCHEN

10 Eliot St., Cambridge
617-492-9646

Sally O'Brien's

335 Somerville Ave., Somerville
617-666-3589



Sky Bar Just Another Victim, Trip Society and Nobody's Heroes, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad The Heygoods and the Armadillos, 7 pm.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, featuring pianist Joe Mulholland, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Damon and Naomi with Kurihara of Ghost, Dredd Foole and Nmperign, $8.
Tweeter Center Red Hot Chili Peppers, 7 pm, $36.50-$46.50.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries.
Les Zygomates David Eure and the Latin Explosion.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Asgard Nate Watkins.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well.
Bob the Chef's Black Sole Ensemble, 7:30 pm.
Breezeway Bar & Grill Margo Thunder R&B Live Night, 8:30 pm, $10.
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Swingin' Johnsons, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cambridgeside Galleria Flynn, 5 pm.
Cantab Lounge Bobby Mack and New Day, 9 pm.
Club Passim Beppe Gembetta, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort The Rockhoppers, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Marcy Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm.
Harper's Ferry Benevento Russo, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
House of Blues Wishbone Ash with Illuminada, 10 pm.
Johnny D's Nikulydon, 9 pm.
Kendall Café John Haydon, 9 pm; Jess McDonough, 10 pm; Duke McVinnie, 11 pm. $5.
Lizard Lounge Club D'elf, 9 pm, $10.
Matt Murphy's 'Round Midnight Jazz Session, 21+, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: The Cignal, the Static Age and Kind of Like Spitting, $9, 18+. Downstairs: the Ex, Erase Errata, Numbers and Neptune, $10, 18+.
Paradise Lounge Fritter, Starr Fathfull, Amusia and Eileen Rose, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Dave Osoff, Mosaic and the Vykki Vox Band, 7:30 pm, $8.
Scullers Kurt Elling and the Laurence Hobgood Trio, 8 and 10 pm, $16.
Skellig Sonic 761, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Sky Bar Union Label, Brian Kenney Fresno and the Vegas Valentinos, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, Billy Blocks Western Beat Roots Revival with the Carl Ryder Band, Warren Hood and the Blue Light Specials, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, featuring pianist Joe Mulholland, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place World Apocalypse Revival with Blackstone Valley Sinners, the Family Jewels and Jimmy Ryan, $7.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

Abbey Lounge The Tampoffs, the Real Kids and Napalm Stars.
Asgard Ryan McHugh.
The Attic Marie's Children.
Axis Kings of Leon, 22-20s, Jet, 6:30 pm, $12.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Celtic Clan.
Bob the Chef's Jose Ramos and the Special Blend, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Three Day Threshold, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm.
Club Passim Pastures of Plenty, 8 pm, $15.
Common Ground Joint Chiefs of Reggae, 10:30 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 8:30 pm.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm.
FleetBoston Pavilion Guster, 8 pm, $27.50.
Grand Canal Pig Pen.
Harper's Ferry Topaz with Megalodon, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Me and Julio, Pie Alley,5 pm.
House of Blues Johnny A., 9:30 pm, $15, 21+.
Institute of Contemporary Art John Butcher/Rhodri Davies Trio, 8 pm, $16.
Johnny D's Michigan Blacksnake and Jen Kearney, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Carla Ryder Band with Evangeline the Baker, $7.
Kirkland Café Twisted Rico Review, $5.
The Linwood Sarah Rabdau, 10 pm, $7.
Lizard Lounge The Coots, 9 pm, $6.
Matt Murphy's Jay Pun, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Ted Leo, Rebecca Gates and Rosa Chancewell. Downstairs: Nebula, the BellRays and Shikasta, $10, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Tony's.

The Tarbox Ramblers play at the Boston Folk Festival at UMass Boston Sept. 20.

Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8 pm, 21+.
O'Leary's Four Piece Suit, 9:30 pm.
Paradise Josh Ritter, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Paradise Lounge The Pill with DJ Ken, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Parris Drop Dead Sexy and the Zone, 9:30 pm, $10.
Porters Bar and Grill Nate Watkins, 9 pm.
The Rack Sugarfoot.
Redline The Shadowkings, 9 pm, no cover.
Regattabar Lyambiko CD-release show, 7:30 and 10 pm, $16.
Ryles Jazz Club Mark Elf Trio, 7:30 pm, $10.
Sanders Theatre Youssou N'Dour, 8 pm, $30-$35.
Scullers Arturo Sandoval, $24, 8 and 10:30 pm.
Sky Bar Hum Machine and Tricycle, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Black Eggs, no cover.
Top of the Hub Maggie Galloway Group with Phil Grenadier on trumpet, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place DJ Vadim, Emcee Blurum 13 and DJ First Rate, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMahon.
Les Zygomates Ronny Ron Trio.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

Abbey Lounge Jay Allen.
Asgard Jack and Present Co.
The Attic Lovewhip.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle and Celtic Clan.
Bob the Chef's Antonio Jackson, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Los Amigos Invisibles Oct. 9, Roxy (617-423-NEXT)
Built to Spill and the Solace Brothers Sept. 29 and 30, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Capercaillie Oct. 3, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000)
Celebrity, Count the Stars, Hopesfall and the Juliana Theory Oct. 4, Axis (617-423-NEXT)
George Clinton & Parliament/Funkadelic Oct. 8, Roxy (617-423-NEXT)
Bruce Cockburn Oct. 24, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000)
Cowboy Mouth and Cracker Oct. 10, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Evan Dando and Vic Chesnutt Oct. 17, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Howie Day and Jump Little Children Sept. 29, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Dresden Dolls Sept. 26, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Fleetwood Mac Sept. 24, FleetCenter (617-931-2000)
Peter Frampton and Joe Bonamassa Sept. 28, Roxy (617-931-2000)
Gov't Mule and Chris Robinson Oct. 17, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
Shirley Horn Oct. 10, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000)
Jewel Sept. 27, FleetBoston Pavilion (617-931-2000)
Mix 98.5 Mixfest with Tori Amos, Barenaked Ladies, Michelle Branch, Dido, Duran Duran, Jason Mraz, Train and Vertical Horizon Oct. 3, FleetCenter (617-931-2000)
Meshell Ndegeocello and Soulive Oct. 22, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
The Pietasters, River City Rebels and Voodoo Glow Skulls Oct. 1, Axis (617-423-NEXT)
Reverend Horton Heat, Southern Culture on the Skids and Throw Rag Sept. 25, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Road to Voodoo Tour with DJ Swamp, Fuel and Smile Empty Soul Oct. 23, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Sheila Divine Oct. 10 and 11, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT)
Songwriter Tour with Mary Chapin Carpenter, Shawn Colvin, Patty Griffin and Dar Williams Oct. 3, Wang Center (617-931-2000)
String Cheese Incident Oct. 10 and 11, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
Shania Twain Oct. 7, FleetCenter (617-931-2000)
Lucinda Williams and the Jayhawks Oct. 7, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)

The Burren The Troubadors, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm
Club Passim Ramblin' Jack Elliot, 8 pm, $20.
Dick's Last Resort Death by Marriage, 8:30 pm.
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm.
Grand Canal Incidence.
Harper's Ferry Fighting Gravity with Suspect and the Low Life, $10, 21+.
House of Blues Jim's Big Ego, 8 pm, $10; 10:30 pm $12, 18+.
Johnny D's Milo Z, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Blue Tree, 9:30 pm; Blue Horizon 10:30 pm; Natural Toy, 11:30 pm. $7.
Kinsale Black Thorn Band.
Kirkland Café Twilight Rhythm Ranchers, Loca Jack, Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, $5.
The Linwood Dreadnaught, Specimen 37, 23 Skee doo and Graze, 10 pm, $7.
Lizard Lounge The Electric Logs and BJ Snowden, pm, $6.
Matt Murphy's The 2240's, 10:30 pm, no cove 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Baby Strange, the Goo North, Soviet, the December Sound and Val Em mich, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Tommy Stinson, th Figgs and Confidence Men, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Tony.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8 pm, 21+.
O'Leary's Paul Rishell and Annie Raines, 9:30 pm
Paradise Damien Rice, 9 pm, 18+, $15.
Paradise Lounge Stymie with Tony Roberts, 10 pm $5, 21+.
Parris Drop Dead Sexy and the Zone, 9:30 pm, $10
Purple Shamrock Moo Tycoon, 9:30 pm, $5.
Scullers Arturo Sandoval, $24, 8 and 10:30 pm.
Skellig Big Delicious Band, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Sky Bar Living Inward, M-Lab, Redletter and Vac tionland, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad Greg's Saturday Showcase, 7 pm; the Blandi gos, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Maggie Galloway Quartet, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Helicopter Helicopter, Dres Bessy, the Collisions and Superlow, $9.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet featuring Haro Layne
Les Zygomates Marianne.
Zeitgeist Gallery Second annual piano festival, pm, $10.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

Avalon Evanescence, Revis, Finger Eleven, 6 pm $26.25.
Axis Five Iron Frenzy, Bleach, Holland, 4:30 pm, $2
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle.
Bob the Chef's Nat Simpkins Jazz Quartet, 10 am
Breezeway Bar & Grill Hakim Law.
The Burren Singer-Songwriter series with Daniel 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Jake Armerding, 8 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort The Bibletones, 10 am; Time, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm.
Harper's Ferry NBFB and Logan, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Tucker and the Vibe Tribe Re gae Band, 9 pm.
House of Blues Jon Butcher with James Mor gomery, Johnny Kalishes, Steven Paul Perry, D Kenny and John Troy, 8:30 pm, $15, 18+.
Kendall Café Jimmy Ryan, Ad Frank, Jason Hatfi and the Marmalade, Elgin James and Cubby. $5.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Lizard Lounge Poetry slam, 7 pm; poetry jam, f turing the Jeff Robinson Trio and featured p Bassey Ikpi, 9 pm, $5.
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct.
Middle East Upstairs: the Carlsonics and EXO, 18+. Downstairs: the Slackers and Mass Hyste $12, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Frank Vardos, 10 am, no cover.
Sky Bar Sort, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad Paul Ahlstrand Band, 7 pm; the Sunday Ni Band, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bourbon Street Paraders, 11 Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Why?, featuring member cLOUDDEAD, and Dosh, $8.
Tweeter Center Sprite Liquid Mix Tour, featur N.E.R.D., O.A.R., the Roots, Talib Kweli, Rob Randolph and the Family Band, 4 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Abbey Lounge Live blues jam, 8 pm, no cover.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan
Cantab Lounge Jim Rader, 10 pm.
Club Passim Arabesque, 8 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:20 pm, cover.

The Place

WHERE PEOPLE MEET

AFTER WORK,

BankNorth enjoys
Customer Appreciation Day

AT NIGHT,

THE BEST ATTRACTION IS OUR CUSTOMERS

SUNDAY TAILGATE BRUNCH! 12-3PM

heer on The Patriots and get in on all the NFL action at The Place!

NFL SUNDAY TICKET

ONLY $9.99, ALL YOU CAN EAT!

TERIYAKI STEAK TIPS,
BBQ SPARE RIBS,
BUFFALO CHICKEN WINGS,
SMOTHERED SAUSAGES,
EGGS, BACON, AND MUCH MUCH MORE!

FANTASY FOOTBALL HEADQUARTERS

GET ALL YOUR UPDATES!
HALFTIME REPORTS!
STAT HANDOUTS!
PLAYER PROFILES!

ET DENIS LEARY AND BOBBY ORR!

STS ON SPORTSPLUS LIVE WITH BOB LOBEL! 6pm
LEARY: 9/10 BOBBY ORR 9/17

EARY
IREFIGHTERS
OUNDATION

THE LIBRARY IS BACK!

WEDNESDAYS 9PM-2AM

JOIN US WEDNESDAY NIGHTS, 9PM TO 2AM STARTING SEPTEMBER 3RD. SHORT SKIRTS, BRAIDS, AND BOBBY SOCKS. OUR SCHOOLGIRL-INSPIRED STAFF WILL HAVE YOU PARTYING LIKE IT'S THE WEEKEND. IT'S OKAY TO MISBEHAVE – WE WON'T REPORT YOU!

AKE A DIFFERENCE

URDAY SEPT 13TH 6PM-9PM

DRAISER TO BENEFIT RHODE ISLAND NIGHTCLUB FIRE SURVIVOR JOE KINAN
D BY WBZ-TV 4 SPORTS DIRECTOR BOB LOBEL
ONATION AT THE DOOR * ENTERTAINMENT * RAFFLES * APPETIZERS
G PEOPLE HELP EACH OTHER ... AT THE PLACE

SUNDAY STYLIN' PARTY

SUNDAY SEPTEMBER 14 9PM-2AM

IF YOU SPEND YOUR DAYS PAMPERING EVERYONE ELSE, THIS PARTY IS FOR YOU! HAIR STYLISTS, PEDICURISTS, MANICURISTS AND FELLOW STYLE COLLEAGUES, COME ENJOY COMPLIMENTARY CHAIR MASSAGES, EXTREME VODKA DRINKS, AND ENTER OUR RAFFLE TO WIN A FANTASTIC GIFT PACKAGE!

Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Joe Carson
House of Blues Hobex with John Cate and the Van Gogh Brothers, 9:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Johnny D's Whirlybirds, 8 pm.
Kendall Café Stolie with Kellie Lin Knott, 9 pm; Joe DeVeau, 10 pm. $5.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell
Lizard Lounge Comedy hour open mike, hosted by Kim Davis, 7-9 pm, no cover.
McGann's Pub Pressure Sessions: DJs Illux, Mathius and Guests, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: The Vanishing, the Faux, Young Sexy Assassins and Cathy Cathodic, 18+.
Paradise Lounge Chris Korwin Band with Brent Newcomb, Pj Shapiro and Joshua Csehak, 9 pm, 21+, no cover.
The Rack ZMQ.
Toad Shwang, featuring Anita Suhanin, 8 pm; the Tim Gearan Band, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place CD-listening party for Kim Paula Kelley, no cover.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

The Black Rose Sunday's Well.
The Burren Open Mic with Hugh McGowan, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm; Adam Dewey and Crazy Creek, 10 pm.
Club Passim Open Mic, 8 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Brian Locher, 7:20 pm.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
House of Blues Kill Hannah with Tripside and Silvertide, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
Johnny D's Rafter Bats, 8:30 pm.
Kendall Café Kelly Buchanan, 8:30 pm; Bajuco, 9:30 pm; Jennifer Matthews and the Sons of Jupiter, 10:30 pm. $5.
Kinsale Houghie Purcell.
Lizard Lounge The Mobius Band, Violent Nine and Torrez, 8:30 pm, $6.
Matt Murphy's Public House with Geoff Scott, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Lake Trout, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club My Morning Jacket, 7 pm, 18+, $15.
The Rack Mike Valeres.
Regattabar Rick McLaughlin Trio, 8:30 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Frank Vardaros, 7:30, $8.
Scullers Bud Shank Quartet, 8 and 10 pm, $20.
Sky Bar The States and Stop Plate Techtronics, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad Rachel McCartney, 7pm; Jon Nolan and Hokum, 9 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Ton Perez Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Jason Liebman, $5.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry.
Zeitgeist Gallery Trio Chroch.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Asgard Tom Groleau
The Black Rose Sunday's Well .
Breezeway Bar & Grill Sherry Eatmon, $5.
Bristol Lounge Bert Seager, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Rubyhorse, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Halali CD-release show, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGraff, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
House of Blues Witness Protection Program with DJ Icculus, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Johnny D's Deb Talan, 8:30 pm.
Kendall Café Scott Janovitz, 9 pm; Steve Poltz CD-release show, 10 pm. $10.
Kinsale Symbolics.
Lizard Lounge The Chandler Travis Philharmonic, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: The Common Cold, Disband, Invercaron, Your Black Star and Riddle of Steel, 18+. Downstairs: Turbonegro, $12.50, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Juliana Hatfield, Freda Love and Heidi Gluck, 8 pm, 18+, $14.
Paradise Lounge Black Bar, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
The Rack U-Nek Approach.
Regattabar Jack Donahue Record Release, 8:30 pm, $12
Ryles Jazz Club Mahavishnu Project, 7:30 pm, $15.
Scullers Greg Osby, $18, 8 and 10 pm.
Sky Bar Riding Shotgun, Greystreet and Rane, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad The Heygoods, 7 pm; the Coachmen, 10 pm, no cover
Top of the Hub Tony Perez Trio, 8:30 pm.

Pasta fanatics and Tufts grads Guster perform at the FleetBoston Pavilion Sept. 12.

T.T. the Bear's Place Mark Gardener with Goldrush and Charlene, $10.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford.
Les Zygomates David Eure and the Latin Explosion.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Asgard Brogue.
Avalon Edwin McCain, Will Hoge, 7 pm, $18.25, 18+.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well.
Bob the Chef's Joe Barger and the Soul Providers, 7:30 pm.
Breezeway Bar & Grill Margo Thunder R&B Live Night, $10.
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Swingin' Johnsons, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cambridgeside Galleria Spookie Daly Pride, 5 pm.
Cantab Lounge Cheryl Aruda and New Day, 9 pm.
Club Passim Don Ross, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Marcy Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
House of Blues Robert Walter's 20th Congress with the Greyhounds, 9:30 pm.
Johnny D's Old Blind Dogs, 9 pm, $12.
Kendall Café Bruce Grover, 9 pm; Summer Villains, 10 pm; Clear Blue, 11 pm. $5.
Lizard Lounge Benefit for Lexi Kahn, featuring Bleu, Paula Kelley, the Irresponsibles, Rocketscience, 3-Day Threshold, Ramona Silver, Dave Johnston and Ad Frank, 9 pm.
Matt Murphy's 'Round Midnight jazz session, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Kabir CD-release show, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Cursive, the Blood Brothers and Eastern Youth, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Samples, the Skills of Ortega and Jim's Big Ego, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
The Rack U-Neck Approach.
Regattabar The Dominique Eade Quartet, 8:30 pm, $12.
Roxy Black 47, Seven Nations and Young Dubliners, 8 pm, $17.
Ryles Jazz Club Ken Clark Organ Trio, 7:30 pm, $10.
Scullers Acoustic Alchemy, 8 and 10 pm, $22.
Skellig Boston Horns, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Sky Bar Slumberfunk and Chocolate Milk, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad The Family Jewels, 7 pm; the Dwight Richter Band, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Tony Perez Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Aberdeen City CD-release show with Godboxer and the Washington Square Social Club, $8.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Abbey Lounge Coffin Lids.
Asgard Oneside.
The Attic Fivewise.
Axis The Distillers and the Bronx, 6:30 pm, $12.
The Black Rose Sundays Well and Celtic Clan.
Bob the Chef's Tracey Rose, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover.
The Burren Boston Horns, 10 pm, $3, 21+
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm.
Club Passim Dulcie Taylor and Bill Staines, 8 pm, $15.
Common Ground Dwight Ritcher Band, 10:30 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm.
Grand Canal Brick Park.
The Harp Chorduroy, 10:30 pm, $10.
Hennessy's Me and Julio.
House of Blues Antibalas Afrobeat Orchestra, 10 pm, $15, 21+.
Johnny D's Superhoney, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Amorphous Duo, 9:30 pm; Ethan Bessey Band, 10:30; Tractor Trailer, 11:30 pm, $7.
The Linwood Siamese Triplets CD-release show, Moose and the Mudbugs, Kenne Highland and His Vatican Sex Kittens, 10 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Spookie Daly Pride, 9 pm, $7.
Matt Murphy's The Thing, 10:30, 21+, no cover.
Mr. Dooley's Brogue.
O'Leary's Tom Carroll, 9:30 pm.
Paradise Rock Club Seeking Homer, 9 pm, 18+, $10.
Paradise Lounge Ryan Montbleu, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Porters Bar and Grill Jim Devlin Trio, 9 pm.
The Rack Planet Groove.
Redline The Shadowkings, 9 pm-2 am, no cover.
Regattabar The Joe Lovano Nonet CD-release show, 7:30 and 10 pm, $18.
Ryles Jazz Club Ezra Weiss Sextet, 7:30, $15.
Scullers Acoustic Alchemy, $22, 8 and 10:30 pm.
Sky Bar Spike Emerson Society, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad David Johnston, no cover.
Top of the Hub The Bertram Lehman Group, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place T.T.'s 30th-anniversary celebration with the Gravel Pit, Kings of Nuthin', the Raging Teens, the Konks, Last Stand, Jules Verdone, the So & So's, the Charms, Mistle Thrush, Ad Frank & the Fast Easy Women, Aaron Perrino, Thalia Zedek, Mary Lou Lord and Paula Kelley, $10.
UMass Boston Boston Folk Festival, featuring Tom Rush, Joel Mabus and performances by the winners of the songwriting contest, 7-10 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMahon.
Les Zygomates Ronny Ron Trio.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

Abbey Lounge The Downbeat 5.
Asgard Sunset.
The Attic Cocteau Twins celebration.
Avalon Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, the Warlocks, 7 pm, $15.
Berklee Performance Center Randy Newman, 7:30, $32.50-$40.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle and Celtic Clan.
Bob the Chef's Herman Johnson Jazz Quartet, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm,no cover.
The Burren The Well, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm.
Club Passim Charlie Farren, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort The Big 80's, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm.
FleetCenter Alan Jackson, 7:30 pm, $29.50-$59.50.
Grand Canal Thomas Park.
The Harp Chorduroy, 10:30 pm, $10.
Harper's Ferry Carbon Leaf with Cardinal Direction, $10, 21+.
House of Blues Antibalas Afrobeat Orchestra, 10 pm, $15, 21+.
Johnny D's Mike Welch, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Phil Aiken, 9:30; Winterboy, 10:30; The Screaming Sellouts, 11:30. $7.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
The Linwood Bonescrew, the Foundation, Drinkfist, Stratejacket, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Spookie Daly Pride, 9 pm, $7.
Matt Murphy's Andy Volker, 10:30 pm, 21+, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: WZBC 30th-anniversary show, with Bardo Pond, Cul de Sac, Devil Music and Neptune, 18+. Downstairs: WZBC 30th-anniversary show, with Quasi, Out Hud, Hella and Tunnel of Love, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Brogue.
O'Leary's The Dave Foley Band, 9:30 pm.
Paradise Rock Club Goldfrapp, 9 pm, 18+. $15.
Paradise Lounge The Adam Ezra Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Syndicate, 9:30 pm, $5.
Regattabar The Joe Lovano Nonet CD-release show, 7:30 and 10 pm, $20.
Ryles Jazz Club Storms and Nocturnes, 7:30 pm, $20.
Skellig Jim Ambrose, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Toad The Hayseed Prophets, featuring John Haydon and the Splendid Nobodies, 10pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub The Bertram Lehman Group, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place WZBC's 30th-anniversary show with No Neck Blues Band, Nautical Almanac, Action Quintet, featuring Thurston Moore.
UMass Boston Boston Folk Festival with Scott Alarik, Kate Campbell, Chantey Boat Singers, Ho Soup, Les Samprou, Carol Noonan, Tom Rush, Tar box Ramblers, Koko Taylor, Tony Trischka and more, 11 am-7 pm, $35.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet, featuring Harold Layne.
Les Zygomates Marianne.
Zeitgeist Gallery Pete Robbins, Mark Dresser, Randy Peterson, Nate McBride Group, 8 pm, $10.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Axis Delerium, Conjure One, 7 pm, $15.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle.
Bob the Chef's Wanetta Jackson, 10 am.
Breezeway Bar & Grill Hakim Law.
The Burren Singer-songwriter series with Daniell 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Alix Olson and Pamela Means doubl CD release, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort New Revelation, 10 am; B Time, 7:20, no cover.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm.
Harper's Ferry NBFB with Pocket Sauce, $5, 21+
Hennessy's Nanny Tucker and the Vibe Tribe Re gae Band.
House of Blues Antibalas Afrobeat Orchestra, $1 10 pm, 18+.
Kendall Café Meg Toohey and the So & So's, Jasc Hatfield and the Marmalade, Chilly Kurtz wi Allen Devine and Meaghan McLaughlin, $5.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Lizard Lounge Poetry slam, 7 pm; poetry jam, fe turing the Jeff Robinson Trio and featured poet Ab Smith, 9 pm, $5.
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct, 10:30 pm, cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Mappari, New Invisible J and New Blood Revival, $8, 18+.
Paradise Lounge Stereophonics, Leaves, 9 pm, $1 18+.
Regattabar The Joe Lovano Nonet, 3 and 7 pm, $1
Ryles Jazz Club Yoko Miwa, 10 am, no cover.
Sky Bar Suckapunch, Nitro Nine, 8 pm, 21+, $5.
Toad Kelly Riley, 7-9 pm; the Sunday Night Bar 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bourbon Street Paraders, 11 a Paul Schmeling Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Koroli Shut and Shiva, $25.
UMass Boston Boston Folk Festival with P Brady, Greg Brown, Captain Stan and Daisy N Chantey Boat Singers, Anni Clark, Catie Curt Danu, Emmylou Harris, Mercy Brothers, Richa Shindell, Kevin So, T.J. Wheeler, Don White a more, 11 am-7 pm, $35.

THE LEARY FIREFIGHTERS FOUNDATION

THE FOURTH ANNUAL CELEBRITY HAT TRICK

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2003

3:00 PM, FLEETCENTER

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

HOCKEY'S GREATEST SKATE

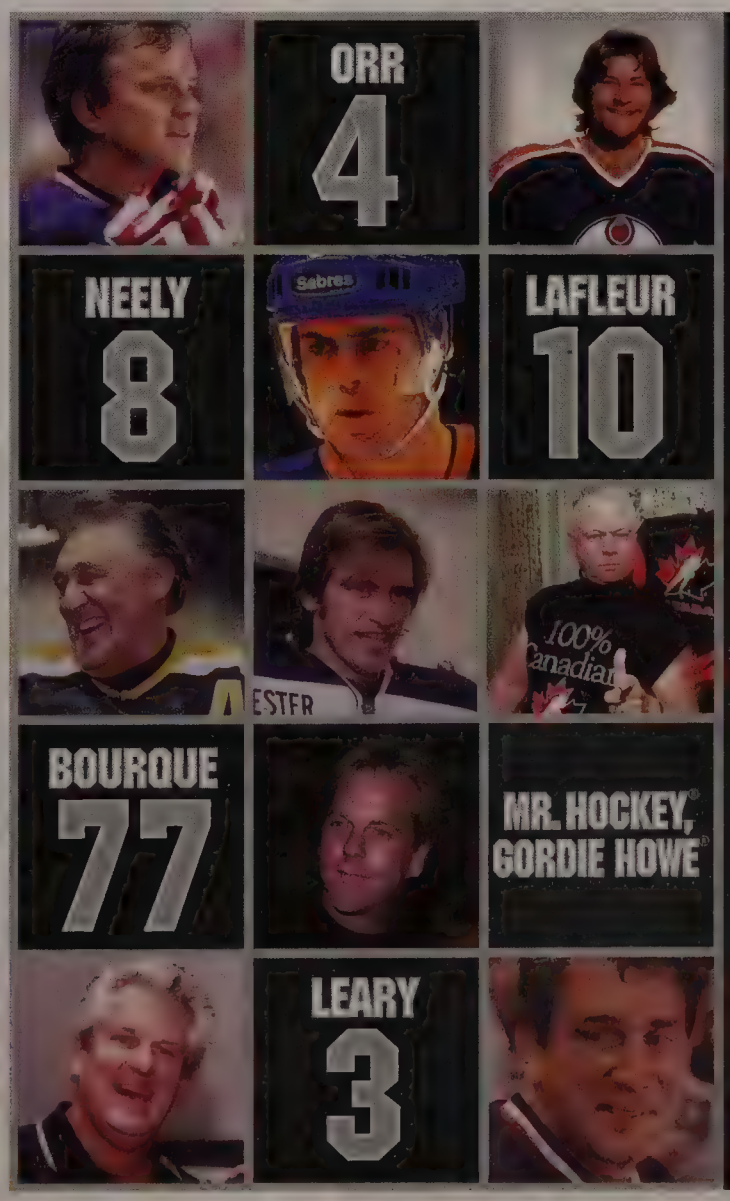
FOR AMERICA'S BRAVEST!

The Fourth Annual Celebrity Hat Trick
Presented by EMC Corporation to Benefit
The Leary Firefighters Foundation

EMC²

VS.

MasterCard



Watch hockey legends and Hollywood stars play together on two "Hockey's Greatest" teams — EMC Corporation vs. MasterCard International.

Ray Bourque, Glenn Anderson, John Bucyk, Phil Esposito, Cam Neely, Guy LaFleur, Stan Mikita, Bryan Trottier, Boston Bruins Captain Joe Thornton, and more!

Hollywood supporters who will skate with Leary include Tim Robbins, Kiefer Sutherland, and Michael J. Fox. Coaching the game will be #4 Bobby Orr, Mr. Hockey,® Gordie Howe,® Don Cherry and Derek Sanderson.

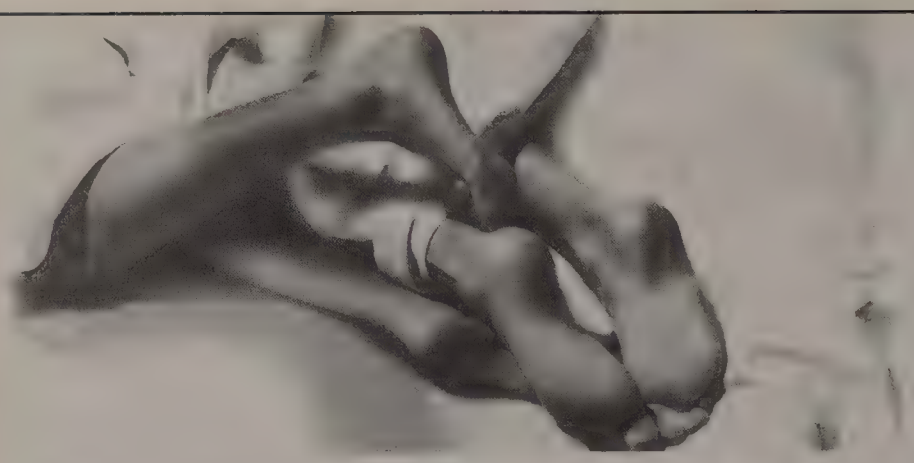
TICKETS: $25 & $50

CALL: 617.931.2000

WWW.TICKETMASTER.COM

WWW.LEARYFIREFIGHTERS.ORG

INTERCONTINENTAL REAL ESTATE CORPORATION · IMPROPER BOSTONIAN · TUDOR INVESTMENT CORPORATION · AmericanAirlines · FleetCenter · CAREY · Star 93.7 · WEEI 850AM SPORTS RADIO · WRKO · WMF 101.7 FM · HM



The most commonly reported side effect of Laser Hair Removal

Fast, safe, and affordable! Eliminate unwanted hair from your chest, back, face, legs, arms, and bikini line. FDA approved for permanent hair reduction.
Ask about our no hair guarantee.
Schedule your free consultation today!

SLEEK™
LOOK GOOD. FEEL GOOD.

228 Newbury Street in Boston | 800-SLEEK-USA | www.sleekusa.com

BOSTON NEWTON WOBURN WESTBORO WEYMOUTH

SCULLERS JAZZ CLUB

VOTED BOSTON'S #1 JAZZ CLUB!

Weds-Thurs, Sept. 10-11
KURT ELLING & THE LAURENCE HOBGOOD TRIO
One of the most interesting male vocalists on the scene.

Mon-Tues, Sept. 22-23
RICK BRAUN with Jimmy Roberts on sax, Randy Jacobs on guitar, Andy Berry on bass, Mitch Forman on keyboards and Rayburn Griffin on drums

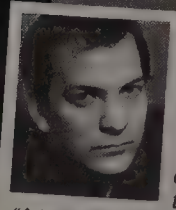
Fri-Sat, Sept 12-13
ARTURO SANDOVAL
Fasten your seat belts for this incredible musician who is probably one of the greatest trumpet players in the world. And has demonstrated his equally amazing talents on piano.



Weds-Fri, Sept. 24-26
BRAD MEHLDAU
This outstanding pianist has created his own unique style of playing which continues to evolve with each performance. His dedication to the trio format is evident on his "Art of the Trio" series. Joining Brad will be Larry Grenadier on bass and Jorge Rossy on drums.

Tues, Sept. 16
BUD SHANK QUARTET
An exciting visit from a legendary West Coast saxophonist

Weds, Sept. 17
GREG OSBY

Thurs-Fri, Sept. 18-19
ACOUSTIC ALCHEMY

Special Dinner/Show Packages
A 3-course gourmet dinner in the Boathouse Grille plus preferred seating the Club.

Overnight Packages

Terrace Lounge
With TV, snack menu, and fine beverages. The perfect meeting spot.

In-Club Snack Menu
A variety of tasty favorites.

RESERVATIONS: (617) 562-4111 • ON-LINE TICKETING: www.scullersjazz.com
SHOW TIMES: Tu-Thu 8 & 10 pm • Fri-Sat 8 & 10:30 pm

DOUBLETREE GUEST SUITES
(617) 783-0090 • Storrow Drive & the Mass Pike Exit

Juliana Hatfield plays the Paradise Sept. 17.

Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan.
Cantab Lounge Jesse Gage, 10 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:20 pm.
Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
House of Blues Crossfire, 9:30 pm, $8, 18+.
Kendall Café Lemonstone, 9 pm; Great American Music, 10 pm, $5.
Kinsale Eamon Sheehan.
Lizard Lounge Comedy hour open mike, hosted by Kim Davis, 7-9 pm, no cover.
Matt Murphy's Michael Cain, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
McGann's Pub Pressure Sessions: Lenore, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Orpheum A Mighty Wind, the Tour, 7 pm, $30-$46.50.
Paradise Lounge Chris Korwin Band with Mickey Bones, Lydia Warren, Semipure, 9 pm, 21+, no cover.
The Rack ZMQ.
Regattabar The Richie Hart Trio, 8:30 pm, $12.
Scullers Jazz Club Rick Braun, $30, 8 and 10 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Other Side of the Bear with New Blood Band, $3.
Toad Shwang, featuring Anita Suhanin, 8 pm; the Tim Gearan Band, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Paul Schmeling Trio, 8 pm.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

The Black Rose Eugene Bryne.
The Burren Open mike with Hugh McGowan, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Old School Freight Train, 10 pm.
Club Passim Open mike, 7 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Brian Locher, 7:20, no cover.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
House of Blues Jesse Cook, 10 pm, $25. 18+.
Johnny D's JP Cormier, 8:30 pm.
Kendall Café Justin Purtil, 8:30 pm; Putnam Murdoch, 9:30 pm; Jennifer Matthews and the Sons of Jupiter, 10:30. $5.
Kinsale Tom Courtney.
Lizard Lounge The Mobius Band, Verona Downs and Hello Attack!, 8:30 pm, $6.
Matt Murphy's Public House with Geoff Scott, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Rack Mike Valeres.
Regattabar Felipe Salles Group, 8:30 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Frank Varados conducts the Ryles Jazz Orchestra, 7:30 pm, $8.
Scullers Jazz Club Rick Braun, $30, 8 and 10 pm.
Toad Rachel McCartney, 7 pm; Jon Nolan and Hokum, 9 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, featuring pianist Joe Mulholland, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Stars, the Essex Green and California Stadium, $8.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee College of Music 1140 Boylston St., Boston (617-747-8820). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Bob the Chef's 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Breezeway Bar & Grill 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400) MBTA:Orange Line to Ruggles.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Choppin' Block 724 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-734-4177). MBTA: Green Line to Brigham Circle.
City Hall Plaza MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Dick's Last Resort 55 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Encore Lounge 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
FleetBoston Pavilion 290 Northern Ave., Boston (617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
FleetCenter One FleetCenter, Suite 200, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Gillette Stadium One Patriot Place, Foxborough (800-543-1776).
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617 789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harper's Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254 9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
House of Blues 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-491-BLUE). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
The Independent Union Square, Somerville (617-440-6022).
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Julien Bar 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900). MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Way, Cambridge (617-661-0993). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

MOLSON
CHILLER BEACH
PARTY

and

WBCN

Get HOT at Molson Chiller Beach

Bringing the Best of South Beach to Boston

Thursday, September 18th at The Matrix Nightclub
275 Tremont Street, Boston

Featuring: New York City's Own DJ Eli and Molson Twin Label Mates competing in the Miss Chiller Beach
Swimwear competition, sponsored by J.Lo swimwear.

Select Hors D'oeuvres and Molson Canadian /
Canadian Light specials all night long

Win a trip for 2 to South Beach Florida for the final Chiller Beach event!

Other prizes and giveaways throughout the night

The only way to get in is to win tickets from WBCN and Molson at the following events:

9/10 THE THIRSTY SCHOLAR
70 Beacon Street, Somerville 9-11pm

9/11 OUR HOUSE EAST
52 Gainsborough Street, Boston 10pm-12am

9/12 THE POINT
147 Hanover Street, Boston 9-11pm

9/13 THE TAP
19 Union Street, Boston 9-11pm

9/17 THE BELL IN HAND
45 Union Street, Boston 9-11pm

or hit wbcn.com for more details

the BIG DIG

Cactus Club

939 Boylston St. Boston 617.236.0200

www.bestmargaritas.com

Boston's Best Margarita — Improper Bostonian
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003

Best Margarita — Citysearch 2001, 2002, 2003

Iguana Cantina

313 Moody St., Waltham 781.891.3039
www.theiguanacantina.com

Best Mexican — Citysearch 2002

Gin.

LOOSELY YET BRILLIANTLY interpreted.

Instilled with juniper, coriander, citrus peel, then deliciously infused with rose petal and cucumber, HENDRICK'S® does not taste like any other gin — so is it? We'll leave it up to you.

HENDRICK'S®
A MOST UNUSUAL GIN
CUCUMBERGIN.COM

44% ALC. BY VOL. ©2003 IMPORTED BY WILLIAM GRANT & SONS INC., NEW YORK, NY 10118. DRINK THE UNUSUAL RESPONSIBLY

Linwood 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-267-8644). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Porter or Harvard.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washinghton St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Avenue, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Orpheum Theatre Hamilton Place, Boston (617-482-0650). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street.
Paradise Rock Club 967 Comm. Ave., Boston, (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Plough and Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-441-3455).
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-661-5000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Regent Theatre 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife, 79 or 350 bus to Arlington Center.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to Chinatown.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Central.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Skellig 240 Moody St.,Waltham (781-647-0679).
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300).
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-BEAR). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Tweeter Center for the Performing Arts 885 South Main St., Mansfield (508-339-2333). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Mansfield.
UMass Boston 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617-287-6911). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass.
Wang Center 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-532-1224). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central Square.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Zeitgeist Gallery 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060).
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

Tom Rush plays at UMass Sept. 19 and 20.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Conductor Lorna Cooke deVaron and the Longy Chamber Singers host a community sing of Mozart's Coronation Mass and Brahms' Liebesleider Waltzes, Opus 52.

Parish of All Saints
209 Ashmont St., Dorchester (978-283-1909). 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Jean-Christophe Geiser performs a selection of works by Bach, Séjean, Brahms and others on the C.B. Fisk organ.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11

WCRB Classical Concert Series
Copley Place, Boston (781-893-7080). www.wcrb. com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 12 pm. Free. 102.5 WCRB continues its classical concert series with a performance by pianist Lara Downes.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 12

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Longy's annual SeptemberFest commences with piano and string performances of works by Weinberg, Infante and Shostakovich.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. SeptemberFest continues with a faculty-pianists performance of works by Fauré, Scriabin, Copland, Ravel and Sousa.

Music for Viols & Friends
First Church, 11 Garden St., Cambridge (617-776-0692). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $12-$16. The Ensemble Chaconne performs music by Bach, Abel, Giardini and Straube in A Musical Portrait: Thomas Gainsborough and His Circle.

Zeitgeist Gallery
Zeitgeist Gallery, 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060). www.zeitgeist-gallery.org. 12 pm-1 am. $5-$10. The Zeitgeist Second Annual Piano Festival features various local pianists in a 13-hour showcase.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (866-468-7619). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $10-$15. Pianist Vassilis Varvaresos, winner of the 1998 Young Concert Artists International Auditions, performs works by Beethoven, Bach and Ravel.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Musicians perform Brahms' Sonata in F-Minor and Trio in E flat Major, Villa-Lobos' Chôros No. 2 and Muczynski's Duos for Flute and Clarinet.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Eleanor Perrone performs works by Albeniz, Gershwin, Scarlatti and Chopin.

Somerville Museum
1 Westwood Rd., Somerville (617-666-9810). www.ci.somerville.ma.us. 3 pm. $9-$14. The Ensemble Chaconne performs works by Bach, Abel, Giardini and Straube in A Musical Portrait: Thomas Gainsborough and His Circle.

Pianist Vassilis Varvaresos performs Sept. 14 at the Gardner.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18

WCRB Classical Concert Series
Copley Place, Boston (781-893-7080). www.wcrb.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 12 pm. Free. 102.5 WCRB continues its classical concert series with a performance by the Boston Classical Orchestra.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

Boston Classical Orchestra
Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www.boston classical orchestra.org. MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. 8 pm. $23-$45. The orchestra's season opens with guest flutists Robert Stallman and Fenwick Smith in a performance of works by Boccherini, Mozart, Persichetti and Shubert.

Handel and Haydn Society
Emerson Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 8 pm. $42-$74. Grant Llewellyn leads the chorus and orchestra in a fully staged production of Monteverdi's Vespers of 1610, which features a troupe of Asian dancers. The show is staged directed by Chen Shi-Zheng.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. SeptemberFest continues with this performance of Mozart's String Quartet in D Major, the premiere of Howard Frazin's From Sonnet to Song, and Franck's Sonata for Piano and Viola in A-Major.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 20

Handel and Haydn Society
Emerson Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 8 pm. $42-$74. Same program as Sept. 19.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. In this program of early music, musicians and vocalists perform works by Guillaume de Machaut and Bach and new interpretations of Occitan folk songs, medieval cantigas and seguidillas.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21

Boston Classical Orchestra
Fanieul Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www.boston classicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. 3 pm. $23-$45. Same program as Sept. 19.

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 11 am. Free. Emmanuel Music performs Bach's BWV 173.

Handel and Haydn Society
Emerson Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org.MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 3 pm. $42-$74. Same program as Sept. 19.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (866-468-7619). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $10-$15. The Borromeo String Quartet performs works by Kurtag, Szervansky and Brahms.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. SeptemberFest concludes with performances of Dvorák's String Quartet No. 3 and Piano Trio in F Minor and selections from the Harvey Diamond Trio and Quintet's repertoire.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 2 pm. Free. Soprano Leslie Goldberg joins composer/pianist Robert Polansky in a performance of Polansky's own work, as well as selections by Prokofiev, Adams and Pinkham.

Wellesley College
Houghton Memorial Chapel, Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2028). www.wellesley.edu/Music/concerts.html. 7 pm. Free. The Anonymous 4 performs works by Hildegard of Bingen.

this fall experience

NY Nightlife

right here in boston's #1 nightclub

Roxy

the name on all their lips

starting saturday september 27th dance around the empire state building visit our times square bar have drinks at central perk

free admission w/this ad b4 11pm
any friday or saturday

fridays dj bruno hip hop saturdays dj adilson house/techno roxy 279 tremont street in boston's theater district

617-338-roxy

Chippendales®
THE SHOW

every friday in september for tickets call 617-426-0121 or ticketmaster 617-931-2000

8pm show
ask about our group rates

THE COURT SQUARE
PRESS BUILDING

Because You Need Your Space

Photos Courtesy of LoftsBoston.com

- Located @ the Broadway T Stop
- Spectacular Unobstructed Views of the Back Bay and Boston Skyline
- Immediate Access to the Mass Pike and I-93

CONDOMINIUMS FEATURING

- 24/7 Staffed Lobby
- Custom Kitchens with Granite Tops
- Top Line Stainless Steel Appliances
- 11-Foot Ceilings
- On-Site Private Fitness Facility

OVER 70% SOLD

- Parking Available
- Studios, 1, 2, and 3 Bedrooms
- Penthouse Condos from $474/sq. ft.
- Priced from $343,000-1.5 Million
- An Affiliate of the Boston Athletic Club

ON-SITE SALES OFFICE
617-268-9699
(Enter at the Corner of West 4th Street and Dorchester Ave.)
WWW.COURTSQUAREPRESS.COM
A Development of Pappas Properties, Inc.

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Celebrate A night of gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $5, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJ Jay Ine spinning house, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Monsta Mondays DJ Kaptain Krunch spins rock, and live bands perform, 9 pm, $6, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Martini Mondays DJ Sensae spins R&B and hip-hop, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Buddha Lounge DJ Kamel and DJ Christophe spin a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats. Classy dress, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Scott Damgaard, live music, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Dance Party with DJ Mike Janedy, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 15, live music with Ray Brown, 6-9:30 pm, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 22, ZMQ performs, 6-9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Each week two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJs spinning top-40 tunes, R&B and dance. Downstairs: live acoustic music with Justin Beech.

Vertigo
DJ's G-Squared and Steve Austin spin hip-hop, house, old-school and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 19+ (ladies), 21+ (guys).

TUESDAYS

Aria
One Nation DJ Chubby Chub spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Bill's Bar
Phat Tuesdays Old-school hip-hop with DJ D Sharp, 9 pm, $10, 19+, college ID required.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm, followed by the live-music series, $5, 18+.

Felt
Den'm Tuesdays DJ Ghost spins vocal house and DJ Eddie Lee spins hip-hop. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Kells
Orange DJs Tim Ryan and John Davis bring the house music, and weekly guest DJs drop by for a spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee spins house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Phoenix Landing
Spectrum DJs Flack, Verbnine and C combine dub, retro-futurism and breakbeats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
•Sept. 16, Blacksole performs live, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 23, live music with Mike Valeres, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins top-40 and R&B. Downstairs: Stu Sinclair, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, $21+.

Tonic
Splash Industry Night Sir Isaac Phillips accompanies the DJ with live percussion, $5, 21+.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Preview

Shameless on You

One of New York's hottest new parties hits Boston when Shameless lands at Pravda 116

On September 12, GLO Fridays at Pravda 116 hosts a visit from New York City's Shameless party (or, as the organizers prefer to write it, "Shame<"). Led by Jason Swamy, the Shameless DJ collective takes over the Sullivan Room in Greenwich Village every Saturday for an all-night, all-out clubbing affair. Over the past year, Shameless has grown into one of the hottest weekly events in Manhattan—and the party's burgeoning popularity has helped to establish the Sullivan Room as one of the city's best new venues.

Shameless founder and Hong Kong native Swamy, known for his wild antics outside the DJ booth, describes his own sound as "bass-heavy, sex-drenched house." For the Boston premiere of Shameless, he'll team up with local DJ and monthly Pravda resident Joe Musser (who also goes by the DJ moniker Joe Mama) and another Bostonian, DJ Arsit. Fellow Shameless conspirators Steven Lee Cabrera and duo AstroGlyde will also join Swamy for the Boston road trip.

Based on his experience with Shameless in New York, Musser says he expects a big night to unfold at Pravda. "The first time I checked out their party at the Sullivan Room, it was Steven Lee's birthday bash," he says. "The party went nonstop for two days." Instead of griping that a bash like that could never happen with Boston's early curfew, let's just think of Shameless as a two-day party distilled into one night.

116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799). 10 pm-2 am. $15. 21+. —Daniel Spurling

WEDNESDAYS

Aria
Lust DJ John Morris spins progressive house for a gay and lesbian dance party. Proper dress, 11 pm, $10, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Caprice
DJ Vagellis spins Greek and international tunes. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
What a Way to Go-Go Mod Night with DJ Vin, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Emily's
DJs pump up the After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Bobby B spins top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up R&B, top-40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Matrix
Lively A cast of DJs spin underground garage, 10 pm, $8.

Milky Way
Mercury Lounge DJs Nomadik and Timmy Allen host this evening of soul, funk and house, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
DJs Shalako, Caseroc and Skye spin deep house, trance and grassroots techno, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Beach Party night with DJs spinning top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
International Wednesdays DJ JC is in the Latin Lounge; DJs Alex and Felix are in the back. Proper dress, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
DJ Sean spins a retro mix of '70s and '80s tunes.

The Rack
DJ Steve Anderson spins dance, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 10, live music with Blacksole, 6-10 pm. •Sept. 17, Uneek Aproach performs, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Cabin Stabbin' Wednesdays Dub and DJ Boogie Ba Do start the party reggae-style, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins dance and R&B. Downstairs: Live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop and top-40 hits, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Vertigo
Downstairs: Psychedelic trance music by DJs Dino, Mathwin and Dave Henshaw. Upstairs: Analog Lounge with DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tain
DJs spin hip-hop, progressive, tech and funky house, 6-11 pm, no cover, 21+.

An Tua Nua
Fizzle DJ McFly spins techno, top-40 and hip-hop 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Aria
Fashion House Weekly fashion shows; DJ Roger M spins vocal house. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Avalon
International Thursdays DJ Gee Spin and guests pump out rap and progressive Eurohouse tunes, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Axis
Square One Thursdays Resident DJs Ali Ajami and John Debo host a night of progressive dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

Big Easy
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40 in this New Orleans–themed nightspot, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
College MegaPlex One cover gets you into Bill's and Jake Ivory's with DJ Ren Justice spinning tunes, 9 pm, $8, 18+, 21+ with college ID.

Boston Rocks
On the Rocks DJ Mike spins top-40 dance and hip-hop, 7 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Everything '80s DJ Brian's Love Night mix features tunes of the '80s, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Red Velvet DJs Geespin and Master Jay spin hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, 19+, women; 21+, men.

Embassy
Latin Lounge with DJ JC playing Latin dance and house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm; live funk, jazz and electronica, 8 pm, $5, 18+.

Felt
Plush Live jazz and music from DJ Greg, hosted by KISS 108's Randy. Proper dress, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Nonstop music and dancing with DJs Christian, Massi, Joshua Carl, Damon and Push, ladies free; guys $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Spend Resident DJs Nailz, Taner and Tasty cue up the beats, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Rhythm Nights hosts karaoke downstairs 8-11 pm, 21+. DJ Massi gets the dance party started upstairs, 11 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJ Edgar and DJ Mike Giosci spin dance tunes and old school, 10 pm, no cover 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Doc spins the latest tunes, 21+.

La Boom
Privilege DJ Felix cranks the noise, 11 pm-2 am 21+.

Level
Life DJ Adilson pumps house, trance and progressive and DJ NFerna spins hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Matrix
Club Candela DJ Michael Mercado spins Latin dance, 10 pm, 18+ ladies, 21+ men. •Controversy Thursday Aug. 21, DJ John Morris spins progressive house for the bi/gay/curious party crowd. 9 pm 2 am, $8, 21+.

The Modern
Soma DJ Omar spins house music. No cover before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 19+.

Parris
10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Rando present drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Place
DJ Mike Janedy spins top-40 and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ David Mee spins deep house, progressive techno, downtempo and soul classics in the front lounge a night, $10, 21+.

ANNO 1366.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett performs live, 9 pm, 21+.

Q
Superstar Thursdays DJs Manolo, Paul Dailey, Rick Naples and Josh Carl share a weekly rotating residency.

The Rack
DJ Lenny C spins from 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 18, live music with Uneek Aproach, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali and Ross spin a mix of electro, Funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
•Sept. 11, Commemorate 9/11/01 with Boston Bands Together, featuring Jon Butcher, Charlie Farren and Farrenheit, Tom Hambridge and the Wreckage, James Montgomery and John Troy, $25. The World Keeps Spinning kicks off with Elevation 74, Meet the Day, and Earthworm Justice, 11 pm, $11, 21+.

711 Boylston
Play Thursdays DJ trio Groovefire spins house music with special guests Beat Khemistry, 6 pm-2 am.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins new dance and R&B; Downstairs: Justin Beech, 9 pm-1 am, 21+.

Sophia's
DJ JR Vega hosts Latin Night with live music by the Latin Party Boys; free salsa lessons with Dan Marshall, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Sweetwater Café
Dance to top-40 tunes, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

SW1
DJ Renel and guest MCs spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $5, 18+.

Venu
Nu-Lite Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Sender plays hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 10 pm, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night, proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tain
TGIF DJ David spins hip-hop, progressive tech and funky house, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Vinney spins disco and top-40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Floss DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 18+.

Atlas
DJs spin top-40 dance music, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest and global DJs spin progressive dance music, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, old-school and dancehall, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
F Night WBCN's Bradley J spins '80s classics, and alternative and rock tribute bands perform live, 9 pm, cover varies, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft DJs Sensae and Johnny Walker Black spin top-40 dance and hip-hop tunes accompanied by interactive video shows, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Eddie K spins international, Latin and house music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Circuit Girl
Anything Goes Melinda Ancillo hosts this women's night with DJ Kris Kono spinning house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Tom spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
Revolution Fridays DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour (5-8 pm) is followed by DJ Renell spinning top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
DJ Bells spins house, lounge and dance. Proper dress.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Bob Gallagher spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstairs with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, $10, 9 pm, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Big Daddy spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins top-40, R&B and dance while DJ Mike Gioscia or DJ Edgar spins house and old favorites, $5, ladies free before midnight, 21+.

La Boom
Fashion Fridays Firefly Promotions hosts this fashion night featuring DJ Rick Naples, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Level
Secret Society DJ Hoff spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B on the fourth and fifth floors, and DJ Niko spins Greek and international tunes on the third floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Adilson of Roxy Saturdays spins high-energy house, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

The Modern
DJ JC plays Latin rhythms, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 am, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, proper dress, $15, 18+; $5 21+. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; no cover 21+. •Rockpile WAAF's Jay Ferrera broadcasts live and rotating bands perform, 9 pm, $15, 18+; $5, 21+ •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Shake What Your Mama Gave You DJ Ren Justice spins disco, hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
Hang out with VJ Laptop and enjoy Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
Glo Promotions hosts weekly guest DJs. Proper dress required, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Craig spins the latest hits, 10 pm.

Q
DJ Josh Spitaleri spins house, 9 pm.

The Rack
DJ Johnny C with KISS 108's Artie, 10:45 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 12, live music with Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin' Horns, 6-10:45 pm. •Sept. 1 Planet Groove perform live, 6-10:45 pm.

River Gods
Lite Nite DJ Easy spins retro mixes, mellow techno and French House, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
Hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins dance; Downstairs live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover before 10 pm, 21+

Sophia's
Sangria and Salsa Salsa and merengue lessons, 10 pm, followed by the Latin Party Boys and DJ Mike C and Zino spinning Latin dance, 9 pm, $1 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows on two floors, 5 pm, $5, 21

SW1
DJ Littles spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Upstairs Lounge
The Pill DJ Ken spins U.S. and U.K. indie, Brit pop, mod, British invasion and '60s soul.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international hot while DJ Roger M kicks things up with Latin vibe. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs spin hip-hop, house and vocals, 10 pm, $10, 21

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play fu and top-40 all night. Proper dress a must, 10:30 p 21+.

3P's
Pool
Pizza
Pitcher
$19.99
Sunday
Monday
& Tuesday
138
Brighton
Ave.

BIG CITY
"WANTS YOU"
BOSTON'S BEER FORCE!
PIZZA KITCHEN . BEER BAR . POOL HALL

NOW OPEN
SUNSET CANTINA * 916 COMM. AVE.
617.731.8646
SO MANY BEERS
SUNSET
SO LITTLE TIME
BOSTON
130 BRIGHTON AVE, ALLSTON VILLAGE
617.254.1331

COYOTE UGLY
RESTAURANT & SALOON
BOSTON
OFFICIAL GRAND OPENING
Friday September 12, 2003
let the girls from COYOTE UGLY turn your world
UPSIDE DOWN
Book your Bachelorette Party at Coyote Ugly Saloon!
BACHELORETTE HEADQUARTERS
234 Friend Street • Boston, MA 02114
617.854.7300 • fax 617.854.7305
Located across from the Fleet Center near the North Station T Stop www.coyoteuglysaloon.com

SATURDAYS

An Tain
Old-school house with DJ Steve, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Ren Justice mixes top-40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
International Saturdays DJ Roger M spins vocal house and international hits, proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Atlas
DJs play top-40 dance, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Resident DJ Nailz plays house, techno and trance, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Kevin Munroe spins house and trance, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Start! DJ Gibby spins alternative rock and '80s hits, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Dance Night DJ Rob Nockshis spins dance music all night, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. VJ Johnnie Walker presents top-40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows, 11 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
Masai-Latin International Lounge DJ Franklin creates a lounge atmosphere with his international, Latin and house sounds. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
The Let Down DJs Brian, Ken and Boothnavy, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Hollywood It's women's night at Hollywood with two floors of hip-hop and house music, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Embassy
Classic Saturdays DJ Eddy K spins Eurohouse, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
DJ Rennel spins top-40 dance tunes, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
DJ Roland spins dance and house. Proper dress.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins retro favorites, disco, Motown and the latest top-40, hip-hop and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hannah's
Dance, house and top-40 hits from DJ Artie V, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstairs with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis McCarthy cues up top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren Drag spins dance, R&B and top-40, while downstairs DJ O'Toole plays top-40, 10 pm, 21+.

La Boom
Wild on @ La Boom DJ Tim Collins and KISS 108 host a night of music and dancing, 10 pm, 21+.

Level
•Red Square Russian Lounge DJ Albertik spins Russian and international music on the third floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+. •Suspended Saturdays DJ Peter D and DJ Rob D spin mainstream, vocal house, travel and funk music on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Pedro Gonzales plays high-energy house while the back room features dance favorites from the '80s and '90s and top-40 tunes, 9 pm, $10, $21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night. DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 10 pm, $7.

The Modern
DJ Ricky Fatts plays downtempo and house, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dance music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Willie D. Proper dress. Ladies free, men $5 before 10:30 pm; $15, 18+; $10, 21+ after 10:30 pm. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 am, $15, 19+; no cover 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins top-40 and hip-hop mixes. Proper dress, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Underground DJs spin hip-hop, top-40, dance, techno and reggae for the under-21 crowd, 7-11 pm, $14. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins 80s, new wave and disco, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ Rick Naples spins high-energy dance. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Tom Hogan spins the groove, 10 pm, $5, 21+. •Sept. 13, Moo Tycoon performs live. •Sept. 20, live music with Syndicate.

Q
DJ Josh Carl spins house, hip-hop, top-40 and R&B.

The Rack
Star 93.7's Vinny Peruzzi and DJ Littles host the dance party, 8 pm, 21+, no cover.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
DJ Adilson spins high-energy house and techno, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

711 Boylston
Fever DJ Yorgo spins a mix of ethnic and international music. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Tom McKenna spins dance, 8 pm; Downstairs: Kevin Kirrane, 9 pm, no cover before 10 pm.

Sophia's
DJ Zino spins salsa and merengue while a Latin band plays on the first floor and DJ Edwin Matos spins Latin dance on the second floor, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin blends hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows, two floors, 8 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Bruno plays house, hip-hop, reggae and '70s funk, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Ron Stell plays R&B, hip-hop and light house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SUNDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Adrienne spins Brit pop and new wave tunes, 9 pm-1 am, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJ Roger M. spins international house and Latin pop. Proper dress, 11pm, $15, 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ K-Don, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Felt
Play DJ Eddy K spins the tunes at service industry night. Proper dress, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Fluid Sundays DJs Joshua Carl and Paul Dailey spin tribal and deep house, breaks, techno and jungle beats, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Aving It DJs John Davis and B-Coy spin top-40, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.

La Boom
Futurebeat: Alien Disco DJ Addambombb spins a mix of retro progressive tracks, trip-hop and synth-pop, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Level
Rotating DJs spin Latin and international on the third floor and hip-hop, reggae R&B and house on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Milky Way
Mystic Reggae DJ Junior Rodigan spins reggae, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump This house-music night has a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $3, 19+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
Red Square Lounge The front bar becomes a lounge, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi tops the weekend off with an array of tunes, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
In the Biz Night DJ Johnny C spins top-40 hits.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins hip-hop and top-40 tunes, 11 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Nate Watkins, 8 pm-midnight.

River Gods
Reverie Boston DJ Shannon and weekly guest DJs spin goth, industrial and lounge, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Dave Jordan plays an array of top-40 tunes; then check out Greg Lattrell, 9 pm, 21+.

Trio
Vibe Lounge DJs provide the vibe, 10 pm, 21+.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian night as DJ Leandro spins Brazilian beats, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and world beats. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Whiskey Park
Cherry DJ Ricky Fatts spins rock classics, hip-hop, house and R&B.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Atlas 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Bill's Bar 5 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Circuit Girl Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dad's 911 Boylston St., Boston (617-296-3237).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Ekco Lounge 41 Essex St., Boston (617-417-0186).
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Emily's 48 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
The Exchange 148 State St., Boston (617-726-7601).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Hannah's 499 Broadway, Somerville (617-623-5302).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-9082).
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
La Boom One Boylston Place, Boston (617-357-6800).
Level 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Matrix 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Palace (El Copa, Male Encounter, Officers' Club, Oxygen, Rio, Underground and Uptown) 1500 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
711 Boylston 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-7001).
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Sugar Shack 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Sweetwater Café 5 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-2515).
SW1 43 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-6699).
Trio 174 Lincoln St., Boston (617-357-8746).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Vivid Lounge 148 State St., Boston (617-726-7600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

Kiss 108 fm
KISS 108 PRESENTS wild on @ laboom
www.laboomboston.com
saturdays
DJ
Tim Collins
LA BOOM:Boston
25 Boylston Place Boston
617-357-6800

Straight to the Experts.
Bumble and bumble.
AVEDA
Bio-Ionic
Japanese Hair Straightening
East Coast Center
BOSTON'S best '03
LORD'S&LADY'S
INTERNATIONAL SALON
Locations throughout New England
450 Belgrade Avenue • One Lord's & Lady's Way • West Roxbury, MA 02132
617.323.4700 • fax 617.323.4059 • Locations throughout New England
www.LordsandLadys.com
www.Biolonic.com

art

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Arts. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •Medardo Rosso: Second Impressions, a collection of the sculptor's work, shows through Oct. 26. •Where Traditions Meet: Paintings in India from the 14th Century shows through Dec. 7. •Buddhist Art: The Later Tradition shows through Jan. 4.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun. 1-5 pm. •Julia Zhogina shows photographs in Almost Forgotten Russia. Through Sept. 30. •Outdoor Murals of Boston features photographs by Joel Kershner. Through Sept. 30.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. •Debra Weisberg: (Sub)Surface features an architectural installation along a 40-foot elevator shaft. Through Jan. 2004. •Joseph Wheelwright: Stone Heads and Tree Figures, a sculpture exhibit, shows through May 16, 2004. •Landscapes Seen and Imagined: Sense of Place, Part II features paintings by various artists. Through summer 2004. •Gifts from Stephen and Sybil Stone, an exhibition of more than 150 paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures from the Stones' collection, shows Sept. 13-Jan. 18, 2004. •Puppets, Ghosts, and Zombies: The Sculpture of Pat Keck shows Sept. 13-Jan. 18, 2004. •Ron Kuivila: An Outgoing Message is a sound-art exhibition of dial tones, busy signals and rings from telephone systems. Sept. 13-Jan. 18, 2004.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •George Bellows: The Tragedies of War displays through Oct. 26. •Marcel Breuer: A Special Installation of 1930s Furniture shows through Nov. 2. •The City of Sardis: Approaches in Graphic Recording displays through Nov. 16. •Harvard Collects American Art shows through Feb. 22, 2004.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sun., 9 am-12 pm. •The Glass Flowers features the Ware Collection of glass models of plants, including more than 830 plant species by glass artists Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka. Ongoing. •Romancing the Stone: The Many Facets of Tourmaline showcases the museum's collection of fine jewelry and rough tourmalines. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat. and Sun., 11 am-5 pm. Free admission Thu. after 5 pm. $7, $5 students and seniors. •Douglas R. Weathersby: 2003 ICA Artist Prize shows temporary installations Weathersby created using materials he gathered while cleaning. Sept. 17-Jan. 4, 2004. •Splat Boom Pow! The Influence of Cartoons in Contemporary Art features more than 60 multimedia works that examine the influence of cartoons on contemporary art. Sept. 17-Jan. 4, 2004.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, $7 seniors, $5 students, free for those under 18. Guided tour Fridays, 2:30 pm. •The permanent collection includes more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, furniture, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces, including works by Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Raphael, Botticelli and Degas. •Elaine Reichek's embroideries, which depict Biblical images borrowed from Dürer, Michelangelo and other artists, display online in the virtual exhibition Madam I'm Adam. Ongoing.

Roy Lichtenstein's Forget it! Forget Me! displays in Splat Boom Pow! at the Institute of Contemporary Art

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri. 10 am-5 pm; weekends 12-5 pm. $5, $3 students and seniors, $1 children. •Winning Hand: Images from the MIT Radiation Laboratory Negative Collection displays through Nov. 2. •Knowing Where to Stand: Photographs by Anne Whiston Spirn shows 50 color landscapes. Sept. 22-Jan. 30, 2004. •The interactive exhibit Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT is ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers explores student life and learning over the past 150 years. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic displays selections from the world's largest hologram collection. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm; Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the West Wing is open. $15 adults, $13 students and seniors, free for children 17 and under. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, admission is reduced by $2. Wed., 4-9:45 pm, admission is free. Special exhibitions are an additional cost. •Thomas Gainsborough, 1727-1788 features 100 of the British artist's paintings and drawings. Through Sept. 14. •Visions and Revisions: Art on Paper Since 1960 includes drawings, prints, photographs and illustrated books from the late 20th and early 21st centuries. Through Sept. 21. •John Currin Selects is an exhibition of works from the museum's collection, chosen by the associate curator. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Works by French printmaker Jacques Callot and artists that he influenced show in Callot and His World: Princes, Paupers and Pageants. Through Jan. 25, 2004. •More than 200 jades dating from the Neolithic period to the Qing Dynasty display in Chinese Jades from the Hartman Collection. Through Aug. 2004. •18th Century French Royal Furniture from the Swan Collection features the only complete set of 18th-century French royal furniture in the United States. Ongoing. •Arts of the Colonial Americas displays historical American masterpieces. Ongoing.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13 adults, $11 seniors, $10 children. •A Bird's World explores the behavior and calls of birds in the wild. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of the computer from the electronic giants of the 1940s to today's smallest laptops. Ongoing. •Dinosaurs: Modeling the Mesozoic showcases the museum's collection of dinosaur models, including the giant T. rex. Ongoing. •Making Models, an interactive exhibition, features full-scale models of Mount Everest, a wave tank and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum
33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •New England Neon features more than 20 neon signs from the 1920s through the 1970s. Through Sept. 14. •Children's Favorites: Candy-Filled Glass Toys shows through Nov. 16. •Coming Up on the Season: Migrant Farmworkers in the Northeast traces the lives of the workers who harvest produce in the Northeast. Through Feb. 1, 2004. •The Enchanted Clocks of George McFadden is ongoing. •Lexington Alarm'd is an exhibition of 18th-century local history. Ongoing. •Made in Massachusetts features household objects from the past three centuries. Ongoing. •To Build and Sustain: Freemasons in American Community. Ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. Sun.-Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-9 pm. Adults $12, seniors $10, students $8; children 16 and under and residents of Salem free. •Family Ties displays contemporary art. Through Sept. 21. •Masterpieces of Asian Nineteenth Century Photography, an exhibition of photographs from China, Japan, India and Tibet, displays through Sept. 28. •Uncommon Legacies features more than a hundred 18th- and 19th-century Native American works. Sept. 19-Dec. 13. •Under the Imperial Gaze features two large-scale Chinese scrolls. Through May 2, 2004. •Men Plow, Women Weave displays images of weaving and plowing by Chinese artists. Through May 30, 2004.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50 adults, $6 seniors and students, $5 children. •Portrait from China, 1923 - 1946: Photographers and their Subjects features the work of Hedda Morrison, Owen Lattimore and Frederick Wulsin. Sept. 19-Jan. 15, 2004. •These Shoes Were Made for...Walking?, a collection of 49 pairs of shoes from ancient to contemporary times, shows through Feb., 2004. •Painted by a Distant Hand: Mimbres Pottery from the American Southwest features artifacts from New Mexico's Swarts Ranch Ruin. Through Dec. 2004. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monuments features the museum's large Mesoamerican cast collection. Ongoing. •Encounters with the American is an ongoing exhibition featuring original sculpture and plaster casts of Mesoamerican cultures. •Hall of the North American Indian: Change and Continuity features art depicting the response of Native Americans across the continent to the arrival of Europeans. Ongoing. •Pacific Islands Hall, another ongoing exhibition, displays artifacts from the Pacific Islands.

Somerville Museum
One Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.losttheatres.org. Thu., 2-7 pm; Fri., 2-5 pm and Sat. 12-5 pm. •The Lost Theatres of Somerville combines oral histories, photographs, memorabilia and interactive media to explore the rise and fall of Somerville's 14 historic movie theaters, only one of which operates today. Through March 28, 2004.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Kenneth Stubbs shows paintings in Cape Cod Shorescapes from the 1950s and 1960s. Through Oct. 4.

Alianza Gallery
154 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-2385). www.alianzagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Clockwork shows sculptural clocks by 12 artists. Sept. 13-Nov. 1.

Alpha Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Kathy Kissik shows mixed media assemblages made from photos, found objects, plaster and paint. Through Oct. 4.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Paul Balnis shows oil paintings in New Works. Through Sept. 27.

Art Interactive
130 Bishop Allen Drive, Cambridge (617-498-0100). www.artinteractive.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm. •Engaging Characters is an interactive robot- and computer-based exhibition. Through Oct. 5.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Michael Beatty's Low Fat shows Sept. 13-Oct. 22. •Jenny Barlett shows her work in Print Publisher's Spotlight: Brand X Editions. Sept. 13-Oct. 22.

Taste of Boston℠ 2003

Boston's Premiere Food, Music & Family Festival
Boston City Hall Plaza
Saturday and Sunday, September 20th and 21st
For more details visit: tasteofboston.com restaurants | celebrity chefs | music | fun

Presented By:

shaw's

WAAF 107.3 FM

Star 93.7 The Rhythm of Boston

WEEI 850 AM SPORTS RADIO

WRKO The Talk Station/AM 680

Boston Herald

FOX 25

Improper Bostonian

Boston Event Guide

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Shining Stars: Celebrating 30 Years of Gateway Arts showcases 30 years of 20 artists' work. Sept. 10-Nov.1.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Sculpture by Jill Levine and drawing by Tom Burckhardt displays Through Sept. 27.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4 pm. •The Art of Batik: George Summers and His Students shows through Sept. 30.

Chappell Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-2255). www.chappellgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •New Insights features glass art by Alex Gabriel Bernstein and Kait Rhoads. Through Oct. 4.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •In the Moment features mixed-media paintings by Bernd Haussmann. Through Sept. 28.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Florence Robinson in Italy, paintings, Prints of the Roman High Renaissance and The Power of Myth, sculpture, lithographs, paintings and engravings show Sept. 15-Nov. 16.

Copley Society
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Close to Home: The Hand-Worked Photograph features photographs by Mary Elizabeth Manz. Through Sept. 27. •Carole Chisolm Garvey and Ann M. Murphy show their work in Landscapes in Pastel. Through Sept. 27.

Crump Gallery
622 East Broadway, Boston (617-268-8050). MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •An exhibition of works by Jeff Eldredge, Dan McCole and Norman Crump is ongoing.

Eclipse Gallery
164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •In Search of Nurturing Light showcases black-and-white photography by Peg O'Connell. Through Oct. 4.

Equator Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4110). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. www.equatorgallery.com. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The gallery specializes in Latin American fine art, including paintings, textiles and ceramics.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www. fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-3 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. •Hidden Language features recent works by Claudia Ravaschiere and Jesseca Ferguson. Through Oct. 4.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •An ongoing exhibition of paintings, sculpture and fine prints from the 15th to 20th centuries focuses on Rembrandt, Pissarro, Renoir, Picasso, Matisse and Chagall.

Gallery AA/B
2535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617- 574 - 0022). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.,12-6 pm; Fri., 11 am-3 pm •Mark Vonnegut, son of author Kurt Vonnegut, shows recent paintings. Through Oct. 31.

The Gallery at Black and White
295 Huntington Ave., Suite 205 (617-266-2641). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony or Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Mon.-Fri.-10 am-5 pm. •Linda Rutenberg shows infrared photographs in Landmarks. Through Sept. 26.

Gallery Katz
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.gallerykatz.com. •Jessica Hess shows paintings in Industrial Landscapes. Through Sept. 27.

Genovese/Sullivan Gallery
23 Thayer St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-426-9738). Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Ellen Rich shows new paintings. Through Oct. 1.

Gibbs Gallery
Arlington Center for the Arts, 41 Foster St., Arlington (781-648-6220). www.acarts.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •The Art of Teaching Art features the work of art educators and their students, grades K-12. Through Oct. 3.

Mark Vonnegut's watercolor Rose Garden shows at Gallery AA/B through Oct. 31.

Haley & Steele
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6339). www.haley steele.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •The gallery displays 18th- and 19th-century antique prints. Ongoing.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www. howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Katarina Andersson displays paintings on linen, and Lalla A. Essaydi shows large photographs of Moroccan culture in Converging Territories. Through Sept. 30.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www. internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection showcases a variety of vintage posters.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Sleek features works by Dorothy Krause, Martin Cooper, Jacob Kulin, Jennifer Liston-Munson, Patricia Peacock and Philip Spinks. Through Sept. 29.

Kaji Aso Studio
40 St. Stephen St., Boston (617-247-1719). www. kajiasostudio.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue. and Thu., 4:30-6:30 pm; Sat., 3-5 pm, and by appointment. Closed through Sept. 19.

Kathryn Schultz Gallery
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www. cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, Sun., 1-5 pm. •The 59th Annual Fall Salon features works by members of the Cambridge Art Association. Through Sept. 29.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •James Holmberg's abstract paintings display through Sept. 27.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Wide Turns and Frequent Stops, a group show of 19 artists, shows through Sept. 27.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Duet: Harmony in Oil and Bronze features the abstract oil paintings and bronze sculptures of Tom and Carol Odell. Sept. 19-Oct. 31.

Mark Gallery
141 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6275). www. markartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed. and Fri.,4-7 pm; Thu. and Sat., 12-6 pm; and by appointment. •Longing for Height features paintings, alabaster sculptures and encaustic works by Jane Deutsch and Chad Erpelding. Through Oct. 10.

Martin Lawrence Gallery
77 Newbury St., Boston (617-369-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. www.martinlawrence.com. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. •The gallery's ongoing exhibition includes works by Chagall, Erté, Hallam, Kondakova, Lichtenstein, Picasso and Warhol.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www. mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Pastoral features landscape art by Adolph Gottlieb, Harry Gottlieb, Jon Marshall, Philip Jones, Daniel Robinson, Joseph Solman, Lucette White and Karl Zerbe. Through Sept. 24.

Miller Block Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4650). www. millerblockgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10:30-5:30 pm. •Lines, Dots and Curly Qs, a group show of paintings, drawings and installations, displays through Sept. 30.

Mills Gallery
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-7700). MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Wed. and Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri. and Sat., 12-10 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •South Enders 2, a juried exhibition of South End artists, displays through Sept. 26.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Richard Shaw shows still-life ceramics, Roy deForest displays paintings and drawings and Jennifer Trask shows linked metal jewelry. Through Sept. 30.

NAO Project Gallery
535 Albany St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-451-2977). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Copley. Wed., Fri. and Sat., 11-4 and by appointment. •Juan Perdiguero shows mixed-media-on-photo-emulsion works.Through Oct. 25.

New Art on Newbury
285 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7727). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Snooze and You Could Lose the Next Toulouse, a group show of local artists, displays through Oct. 5.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www. nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •A Parable in Mark and Ritual: Work by Porfirio DiDonna. Sept. 13-Oct. 18.

108
108 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-3833). www. gallery108.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Porter. Wed.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. •Summer in the City, a group show, displays through Sept. 14.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., #304, Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11am-5 pm. •Jacob El Hanani shows his work in Recent Drawings. Through Sept. 27.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •A local-artists showcase is ongoing.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www. peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Marja Lianko shows sculptures and paintings.Through Oct. 4.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www. puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Brother Thomas' ceramics are on display in The Creator of Luminaries. Through Oct. 10.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •The gallery showcases an ongoing exhibition of 19th- and 20th-century American and European paintings.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www. robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Sally Gall's Subterranea features black-and-white images of caves. Through Oct. 4.

Rolly-Michaux Galleries
290 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-536-9898). Tue.-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. •20th Century Master Graphics, a collection of lithographs and aquatint etchings by Sonia Delaunay, Joan Miro and Marino Marini, displays through Sept. 30.

The Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www. societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Word Text Stories features works by various artists in glass, wood, clay and fiber. Through Oct. 26.

Studio Soto
63 Melcher St., Boston (617-426-7686). www.studio soto.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Fri.-Sat., 2 pm-5 pm and by appointment. •Between Constraint features works by Masako Kamiya, David Palme and Jennifer Riley.

Upstairs at Johnson's Art Gallery
355 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4065). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-5:30 pm. Sat., 10 am-1 pm. •Expressions of Light and Shadow, group show of painting and photography, display through Sept. 27.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
59 Beacon St., Boston (617-523-0661). www. munroefineart.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Porfirio DiDonna Drawings shows Sept. 13-Oct. 18.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www. vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 8:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •The Artists of Fenway Studios shows works by local artists. Through Sept. 20.

Wentworth Gallery
73 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-8770). Mon-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •The Traveling Master's Show features works by Picasso, Miro and Dali. Through Sept. 18. •Charles Fazzino shows 3-D pop art. Through Oct. 10.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www. griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. •Babet Hines displays discarded photo-booth portraits spanning 75 years. Visitors can have their photo taken in working booth and add it to the collection. Through Sept. 12. •Mustang: The Lost Tibetan Kingdom shows images by Don Gurewitz. Through Oct. 31.

New England School of Photography
Gallery One, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •Mim Adkins shows photographs in The Evolution of Affection. Through Oct. 17.

Panopticon Inc.
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). Commuter Rail to Waltham. www.panopt.com. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-6 pm. •B.A. King shows his work in About Children. Sept. 11-Oct. 25.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Jamaica Plain Open Studios
(617-524-3816). www.bostonopenstudios.org. Sept. 20 and 21, 11:30 am-6 pm. The 10th annual JP Open Studios features 150 local artists displaying their work at more than 50 locations.

South End Open Studios
(617-267-8862). www.useaboston.com. Sept. 13 and 14, 11 am-6 pm. The 17th annual South End Open Studios features more than 250 local artists showcasing their work in lofts, warehouses, brownstones and galleries throughout the community.

Ravi Shankar
& Anoushka Shankar

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 7:30PM
SYMPHONY HALL, 301 Massachusetts Ave., Boston

FOR TICKETS & INFORMATION CALL
WORLD MUSIC (617) 876-4275 OR BUY ONLINE AT WWW.WORLDMUSIC.ORG
PRESENTED BY WORLD MUSIC www.WorldMusic.org

Boston Butler, Inc.

Special Events Planning at Your Service

Just a few of the services we offer:

- Office Holiday Parties in your office, at your home or at an outside venue
- Themed Holiday Parties...We will deliver The Santa, The Helpers and the Carolers
- New Years Eve Celebration (including private Yacht Charters on Boston Harbor)
- Ski Weekends (Transportation, Accommodations, Lift tickets, Private Chef and More)
- Tailgate Parties - New England Patriots/Boston College
- Corporate Destination Packages

921 Washington Street, Boston p: 617.282.7200 f: 617.288.7058 www.bostonbutler.com
email info@bostonbutler.com

Boston Athletic Club

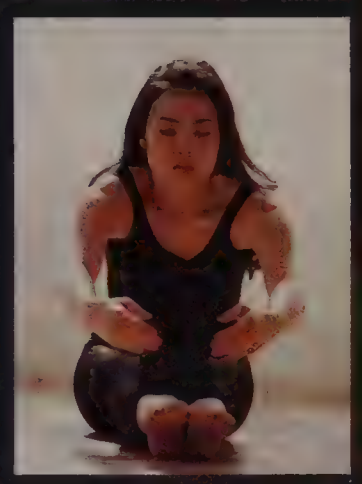
BAC

bostonathleticclub.com

30 years experience
30 dollars to join.

The Boston Athletic Club is celebrating its 30th Anniversary ...30 years of tradition, community and authentic sports and fitness.

30 days of special events begin on September 10th, including fitness/wellness evaluations, contests and prizes, an Open House and Health Fair on September 27th, and an Anniversary Reunion Celebration featuring 'Motor Booty Affair' on October 10th, 2003.



The best part is that you can join the largest, most authentic sports club in Boston until October 10th* for just $30.

Be part of the celebration. Be fit, be strong, be here!

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

653 Summer Street, Boston
617 269 4300

*Must be 21 years old. Expires 10/10/03

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry or e-mail to books@improper. com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Boston Herald sportswriter Howard Bryant reads from his book, Shut Out: A Story of Race and Baseball in Boston, which examines the Red Sox's history of race relations.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. 7:30 pm. Free. Jake Halpern reads from Braving Home: Dispatches from the Underwater Town, the Lava-Side Inn and Other Extreme Locales, his collection of essays about places where people live despite danger or hardship.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 11

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. Free. Chuck Palahniuk reads from his new novel, Diary, about a painter whose husband is in a coma following a suicide attempt.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 12

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Psychiatrist Howard Cutler reads from The Art of Happiness at Work, the second book he has cowritten with the Dalai Lama. The book aims to help people find happiness in the workplace.

MONDAY, SEPT. 15

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Vendela Vida, co-editor of The Believer magazine, reads from her new novel, And Now You Can Go, about a grad student whose life changes when she is held up at gunpoint. Also, Julie Orringer reads from How to Breathe Underwater, her collection of short stories about people learning to deal with loss.

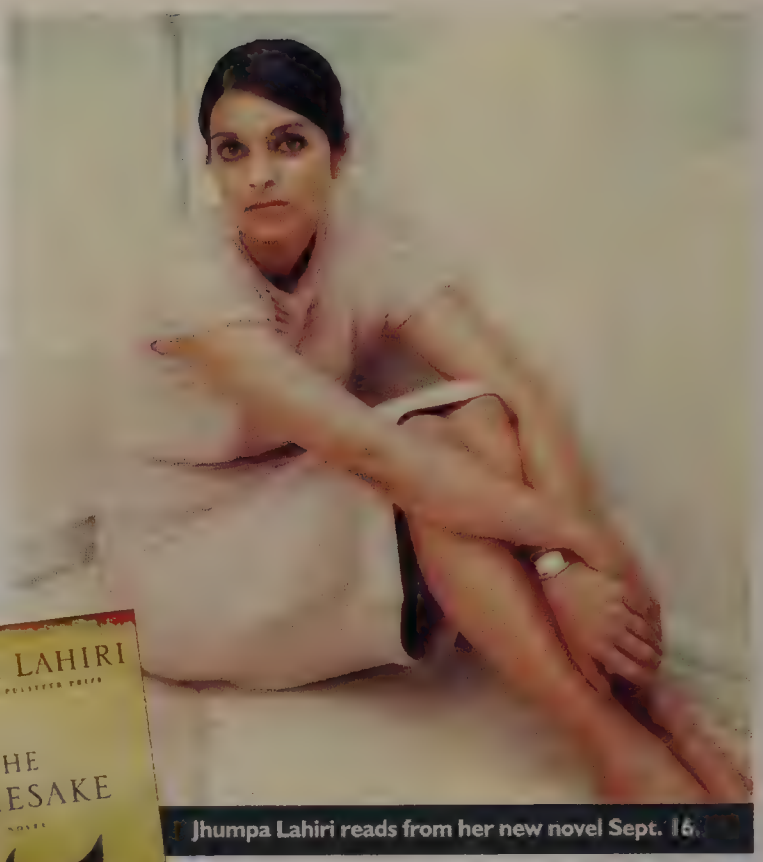
TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

Barnes and Noble at Boston University
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: B, C or D Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Edward MacKenzie and co-writer Phyllis Karas read from their book, Street Soldier: My Life as an Enforcer for Whitey Bulger and the Boston Irish Mob.

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Sarah Turnbull reads from her memoir, Almost French, in which she describes falling in love with a Frenchman, moving to France and adjusting to the new culture.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Science writer Amir Aczel reads from Pendulum: Leon Foucault and the Triumph of Science, his book about the life and work of the French physicist whose invention of the pendulum helped to prove that the Earth rotates.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.newwordsbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Indian journalist Anita Pratap reads from Island of Blood: Frontline Reports from Sri Lanka, Afghanistan and Other South Asian Flashpoints, her memoir about her experiences reporting on the consequences of natural disasters, war and prejudice in South Asia.



Jhumpa Lahiri reads from her new novel Sept. 16.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard. com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Mark Zanger reads from The American History Cookbook, a history of American cooking from the pilgrims' time to the present.

Newtonville Books and Brews Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. newtonvillebooks.com. 7:30 pm. Free. Joanna Hershon reads from The Outside of August, her novel about a young woman trying to understand her mother's wanderlust. The audience is invited to join the author for food and cocktails after the reading.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:15 pm. $5. Howard Bryant reads from Shut Out: A Story of Race and Baseball in Boston. See Sept. 10 for a description.

WordsWorth Books
The First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Pulitzer Prize winner Jhumpa Lahiri reads from her new novel, The Namesake, about an Indian family trying to adjust to an American lifestyle.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17

Barnes and Noble at Boston University
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: B, C or D Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Sarah Smith reads from her novel Chasing Shakespeares, a story of two scholars searching for the truth about who really wrote Shakespeare's plays.

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Historian Stephanie Schorow reads from her book, Boston on Fire: A History of Fires and Firefighting in Boston.

Harvard Book Store
Longfellow Hall, Askwith Lecture Hall, 13 Appian Way., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard. com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Tracy Kidder discusses Mountains Beyond Mountains: Healing the World, his biography of Dr. Paul Farmer, a Massachusetts doctor who discovered a treatment for tuberculosis while working in Haiti.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. newtonvillebooks.com. 7:30 pm. Free. Sportswriter Jane Leavy reads from Sandy Koufax: A Lefty's Legacy, her biography of the legendary Dodgers pitcher.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18

Barnes and Noble at Boston University
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: B, C or D Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. MIT scientist Karl Iagnemma reads from On the Nature of Human Interaction, his collection of short stories that examine the irrational forces of love and the need for order in people's lives.

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Sabin Willett reads from Present Value, her social commentary–filled novel about a well-to-do couple who suddenly lose everything.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith. com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Julianna Baggott reads from The Madam, her fictional account of a 1920s brothel in West Virginia. Also, Joy Fielding reads from Lost, in which a woman whose daughter is missing must deal with the police, the media and her ex-husband.

Center for New Words
Simmons College Alumnae Hall, 321 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-876-5310). www.newwords books.com. 7 pm. Free. Jennifer Finney Boylan reads from her novel She's Not There: A Life in Two Genders, about a man named James who becomes a woman named Jenny.

Grub Street Writers
561 Windsor St., Somerville (617-623-8100). www. grubstreet.org. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 7 pm. $8. Claire Cook reads from Must Love Dogs, her novel about a divorced preschool teacher who takes a chance on a canine-themed personal ad.

Harvard Book Store
Longfellow Hall, Askwith Lecture Hall, 13 Appian Way, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard. com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Harvard professor Robert Putnam and public policy expert Lewis Feldstein read from Better Together: Restoring the American Community, which gives examples of new community-building activities and organizations.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci. newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Newton-based author Jonathan Wilson reads from his novel A Palestine Affair, about a young couple who witness a murder in 1920s British Palestine.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www. harvard. com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Harvard librarian Matthew Battles reads from his book, Library: An Unquiet History, which details the historical significance of libraries, and how the role of libraries has changed.

Harvard Book Store
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. 6 pm. Free. New York Times columnist Paul Krugman reads from his book The Great Unraveling: Losing Our Way in the New Century, in which he gives his opinions on America's economic state and his recommendations for the future.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8:30 pm. Free. Contributors to Quick Fiction, a local literary magazine, read from their "microfiction"—short stories that are fewer than 500 words. Readers include Steve Almond, Beth Bayley and Brian Ruuska.

MONDAY, SEPT. 22

Barnes and Noble at Boston University
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: B, C or D Green Line to Kenmore. 5:30 pm. Free. Sportswriter Allan Wood reads from his book, Babe Ruth and the 1918 Red Sox, which describes the season that led to Red Sox's most recent World Series victory.

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. U.S. Ambassador Madeleine Albright reads from her memoir Madame Secretary, which describes her emigration from war-torn Eastern Europe, her ascension through the American political system and her years as President Clinton's secretary of state.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 23

Barnes and Noble at Boston University
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: B, C or D Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. David J. Loftus reads from Watching Sex: How Men Really Respond to Pornography, in which he interviews men about how they use pornography.

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Historian Stephen Puleo reads from his book Dark Tide: The Great Boston Molasses Flood of 1919, which recalls the infamous molasses tank collapse that sent 2.3 million gallons of the liquid rushing through the North End, killing 21 people.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Brendan Halpin reads from Losing my Faculties: A Teacher's Story, his memoir about the years he spent working in the Boston public school system.

Harvard Book Store
Rabb Lecture Hall, Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-661-1515). www.harvard. com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Stephen Puleo reads from his book Dark Tide: The Great Boston Molasses Flood of 1919. See today's Borders Boston listing, above, for a description.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci. newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Contributors Sonia Sanchez and Katherine Butler Jones and editor Herb Boyd read from the anthology The Harlem Reader: A Celebration of New York's Most Famous Neighborhood from the Renaissance Years to the 21st Century.

Newtonville Books and Brews Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. newtonvillebooks.com. 7:30 pm. Free. Shona Rajmaya reads from Operation Monsoon, her collection of stories about her native India and its position at the cultural crossroads.

Ongoing

Boston Poetry Slam (Wednesdays)
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $5. Every Wednesday night, the Cantab Lounge hosts a poetry slam downstairs in the Third Rail.

Harvard Square Coop (Sundays)
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Hear what other Boston-area poets are doing; every Sunday the Harvard Coop hosts a poetry exchange on Level Two.

Lizard Lounge Poetry Jam (Sundays)
1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.poetryjam.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Poetry slam, 7 pm. $5. The Jeff Robinson Trio plays background tunes for the featured poet of the week.

O'Brien's Pub (Mondays)
3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: Green Line to Harvard Ave. 9 pm. A mix of rock and spoken word is presented one Monday a month. The performers are all predetermined.

Out of the Blue Poetry (Saturdays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $3. Every Saturday is poetry night—the evening is titled Open Bark—and a spoken-word event takes place on the fourth Saturday of each month.

Stone Soup Poetry Night (Mondays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-227-0845). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. $4. Since 1971, the Stone Soup Poets have held weekly readings.

Tapestry of Voices (Second Thursday)
Borders Boston, 10-24 School St., Boston (617-574-4995). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. The second Thursday each month offers a selection of featured poets and an opportunity to take the open mike.

education

Advice to Contributors

Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Education, or e-mail information to education@improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10

Introductory Writing Workshop

Brookline Booksmith, 279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-23-8100) www.grubstreet.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Join other aspiring writers of all experience levels for a session of inspirational exercises hosted by Grub Street Writers.

19th & 20th Century Decorative Arts

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sept. 10, 6 pm, and Sept. 20, 12 pm. Free with museum admission ($13-$15). Meghan Melvin presents this gallery talk.

The Paul Family of Boston: Faith and Fortitude on Beacon Hill

Old South Meeting House, Boston (617-482-9621). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Dr. Lois Brown lectures on this family of leaders in Boston's African-American community.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 13

Curiosity Fair

MCA, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-547-6789) www.ccaa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central.11 am. Free. Visitors can investigate a variety of employment options and ask questions of industry professionals in such fields as the arts, health sciences and technology.

Trimmings and Trappings: Colonial Clothing

Paul Revere House, 19 North Square, Boston (617-523-1775). www.paulreverehouse.org. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center. 1 pm. $1-$3. Costume historian Lynne Wilkinson provides a glimpse into the lives of Colonial Bostonians through the garments they wore.

Walking Tour of Olmsted's Brookline Neighborhood

Frederick Law Olmsted National Historic Site, Dudley Way and Lee Street, Brookline (617-566-1689) MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 10:30 am. Free. National Park Service rangers lead free guided tours of this picturesque neighborhood designed by architect Frederick Law Olmsted.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 14

Victorian Sculpture Tours

Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Boston (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Keeper of collections Rebecca Reynolds leads a walking tour of the masterpieces of Victorian sculpture in Forest Hills Cemetery.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 16

Bostonians at Home: Twilight House Tour

Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities, Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617-227-3956). www.spnea.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 6 pm $5-$15. Five of Boston's historic house museums, including the Paul Revere House and the Otis House Museum, comprise the fourth annual Twilight Tour, sponsored by the House Museum Alliance of Downtown Boston.

The Future for Women in Business

Colonnade Hotel, 120 Huntington Ave., Boston MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. This seminar presented by Forte Forums explores opportunities for women in the business world.

Improving Sexual Function

Boston Medical Center, Conference Room C-D, 88 East Newton St., Boston (617-638-8576). 7-9 pm. Free. Dr. Irwin Goldstein, professor of urology and gynecology and director of the Institute for Sexual Medicine, discusses androgens as treatments for both men and women with sexual health issues.

Neuroscience and the Soul: How Free Are We?

McIntyre & Moore Booksellers, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-629-4840). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7:30 pm. Moderator Tom Clark engages participants in a discussion of science and free will during this installment of the Davis Square Philosophy Café.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17

Modern Art in America

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 6 pm. Free with admission ($13-$15). Heather Cotter gives this gallery talk on 20th century American art.

The Quincys of Massachusetts

Old South Meeting House, Boston (617-482-9621). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. John Quincy Jr., an 11th-generation descendant of the famous Boston family, lectures on the family's many prominent members.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 18

Japanese Stencils

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 11 am. Free with admission ($13-$15) Angie Simonds discusses the history and techniques of Japanese stencil art.

19th-Century Asian Photography

Peabody Essex Museum, East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. 7:30 pm. Assistant curator Leslie Laufer shares the stories behind the museum's large collection of rare photographs.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 19

Floral Design Styles and Today's Trends

Gore Place, 52 Gore St., Waltham (781-894-2798). 4 pm. Also daylong sessions Sept. 19-21. $15. Learn the importance of color, texture and design in creating floral arrangements. Internationally known designer Michael J. Skaff, floral designer for both the 1993 Clinton inauguration and the 2001 Bush inauguration, reveals the latest design trends and techniques.

Floral designer Michael Skaff discusses trends Sept. 19-21.

Invasive Plant Summit

New England Wild Flower Society at the Sheraton Hotel, Framingham (508-877-3658.) www.newfs.org. $90. Register in advance. Join biologists and horticulturists from around the country for this discussion and investigation into threats to native plant populations worldwide.

Photography Salon

Brookline Arts Center, 86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. 6:30 pm. Free. Photographers Edua Wilde and Ivo Vermeulen discuss their exhibition of photographs. This discussion is part of a continuing series for both novice and experienced photographers.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 21

A Conversation with U.S. Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum, Columbia Point (617-514-1643). Sept. 21, 4-5:30 pm. Free. National Public Radio's legal affairs correspondent Nina Totenberg moderates this conversation with U.S. Supreme Court Justice Stephen Breyer, who discusses some of the judicial issues facing the nation today and in recent decades.

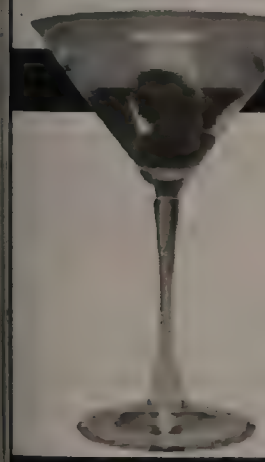
Observations: Jewelry of Our Time

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 2 pm. Free with admission ($13-$15). Craft scholar and dealer Helen Drutt English discusses a collection of modern jewelry featuring the works of 57 different artists.

McCORMICK & SCHMICK'S
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

"A lively bistro-type place where impeccably fresh fish reigns."
– USA Today

- Menu printed twice a day
- More than 30 varieties of fresh seafood



The FRESH Seafood Authority

"McCormick & Schmick's is a seafood heavyweight."
– Improper Bostonian

$1.95 SOCIAL HOUR
• Select Menu Items •

THE BOSTON PARK PLAZA HOTEL
34 Columbus Avenue
(617) 482-3999

FANEUIL HALL MARKETPLACE
North Market Building
(617) 720-5522

Perfection is our Purpose

SERGE'S FINE JEWELRY
333 Washington Street
Suite 416
Boston, MA 02108
617-742-6118
www.sergesdesign.com

gay & lesbian

If you want to be listed
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest T-stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
214 PI Alley, Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center. Nightly, 5 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Boston's new leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as regular theme nights.

Aria (Wednesdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park Street. DJ John Morris spins progressive house for Lust, the Wednesday night gay and lesbian dance party. 10 pm, $8 for 19-20; $5 for 21+.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. For 20 years, these folks have cranked out Sunday-night parties for the boys of Boston. Enjoy three separate dance floors plus drag acts. DJ Darrin Friedman spins house. 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. The glamorous Mizery hosts a drag show, and DJ Jay Ine spins progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of every month. 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. On Saturdays, Buzz's two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—pool room and lounge keep the men busy until at least 2 am. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

CityGirl Caffé (Daily)
204 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-864-2809). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue.-Fri., 11 am- 9 pm; Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. This small (five tables) laid-back café in Inman Square, lesbian owned and operated, draws a mixed gay/hetero crowd for lounging and sandwiches. Brunch is served every weekend.

Club Café and Moonshine Bar (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.club cafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat., 2 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This South End spot draws a dressy bunch for dining and unobtrusive music in the front room or video entertainment in the back at Moonshine. •On Wednesdays, join VJ Cliff Cunningham. •On Thursdays and Fridays,VJ Tom Yaz hosts a nonstop show featuring new and classic music videos. •On Saturdays, it's Boys' Night Out with VJ Cliff Cunningham. No cover, 21+.

Dedo's Lounge & Bistro (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. A predominantly gay crowd frequents this bar to check out clips from classic movies and the latest music videos—compiled by the bar's own VJ. No cover, 21+.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). Mon.-Fri., 3 pm-2 am; Sat., 1 pm-2 am; Sun., 12 pm-2 am. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. This quiet, friendly neighborhood bar starts hopping as it gets closer to 2 am.

Fritz Lounge (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 12 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 10:30 am-2 am. TV sets show satellite sports broadcasts, and Fritz is home base to a softball league. No cover, 21+. Brunch is served until 3:30 pm on weekends.

Here at 711 Boylston (Tuesdays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5502)). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Boston's Tuesday night gay dance party features disco and pop music, guest DJs and weekly contests. 9 pm-2 am, $4-$7, 21+.

Hollywood at the Ekco Lounge (Saturdays)
41 Essex St., Boston (617-338-8283). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown. 10 pm-2 am. This lesbian bar has two floors with go-go girls and live music all night. $8, 21+.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Patrons relax with a friendly crowd and mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Tue., Thu.: Avalon bartender Miss Kris performs. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: Drag-on Showgirl Showcase produced by Diamond Dunhill. 10 pm, $5. •Mon.: Cabaret drag show. 10 pm, $5 weekdays; $8 weekends, 21+. 10 pm, $5-$8.

Machine (Tuesdays, Thursdays-Saturdays)
1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition with PJ McWhiskers. •Fri.: Best Night Out with NYC DJ/producer Darrin Friedman spinning deep house. 10 pm-2 am, $6, 21+. •Sat.: Machine with DJ Brad Gwynn playing house music. 10 pm-2 am, $7, 21+. •Tue.: Service Industry Night with DJ Afrodite.

ManRay (Wednesdays-Saturdays)
21 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-864-0400). www.manrayclub.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Wed., 9 pm-1 am; Thu. and Fri., 9 pm-2 am; Sat.,10 pm-2 am. Catering to a young, alternative clientele, ManRay features two dance floors. •Wed.: Crypt features DJ Chris Ewen in the cage and DJ Mothra in the front room. 9 pm-1 am, 18+. •Thu.: Campus is a testosterone night with DJ Brad Gwynn and DJ Chris Ewen. $12, 19+; $8, 21+. •Fri.: Rotating themes include Sin, Hell, Fantasy Factory, Ooze and scheduled special events. •Sat.: New Wave Dance Party with DJ Chris Ewen and Disco Inferno with DJ Gary Conzo. $12, 19+; $8, 21+.

Midway Cafe (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green Street. 9 pm-2 am. On Thursday nights, the Midway hosts Kristen Porter's Dyke Night, with rotating DJs, pool and dancing. $5, 21+.

Milky Way Lounge (Sundays)
401 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). www.milkywayjp.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Gay men and women, transgenders and their allies are welcome to start the night early at Candy-Land; live entertainment includes Drag Bingo, spoken-word events and jazz. Finish the night with a dance party hosted by resident DJ Jamila. 7:30 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Night Games (Fridays)
Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000). www.circuitgirl.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square. Resident DJ Kris Kono pumps the dance tunes at Circuit Girl's Anything Goes night. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-494-0700). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features top-40 tunes Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday. No cover, 21+.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billing itself as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is obligatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Thu.: Fire and Ice with DJ Dan Leavey. •Fri.: Leather Cruise with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Sun.: Mandance with house music. •Mon.: Pool tournament and pizza. •Tue: DJ Scott Thinsdale.

Vapor (Tuesdays-Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •Tue.: Lounge with DJ Michael. 19+, no cover. •Wed.: Latino night with DJ Adilson and host Evian Waters. 19+. •Thu.: The Music Factory with DJ KC spinning deep house and DJ Ron Stele spinning R&B, hip-hop, reggae and funk. $5, 21+. •Fri.: Inner Circle. $8, 19+. •Sat.: Evolution with DJ Jay Ine. •Sun.: T-Dance party with DJs Danae and Michael Sheehan. 21+.

Books

Calamus Bookstore
92B South St., Boston (617-338-1931). www.calamusbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-7 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Boston's bookstore for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgendered people.

The Alley is a new leather-and-Levi's bar located downtown.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Fri., 12-8 pm; Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The New Words Live series features an array of feminist and lesbian author events. •Sept. 16, 7 pm: Anita Pratap reads from Island of Blood: Frontline Reports from Sri Lanka, Afghanistan and Other South Asian Flashpoints, her memoir about her experiences reporting on the consequences of natural disasters, war and prejudice in South Asia. •Sept. 18, 7 pm: Author Jennifer Finney Boylan reads from her book She's Not There: A Life in Two Genders, a memoir of a man named James who becomes a woman named Jenny. At Simmons College Alumnae Hall, 321 Brookline Ave., Boston. •Sept. 19, 7:30 pm: New Voices Open Mic night, for women and their allies, features Letta Neely.

We Think the World of You Bookstore
540 Tremont St., Boston (617-574-5000). www.wethinktheworldofyou.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-7 pm; Sat., 10 am-6:30 pm; Sun., 11:30-5:30 pm. Opened in 1994, this community-centered gay and lesbian bookstore stocks literature, art books, DVDs and videos.

Shows & Events

Childbirth Class for Lesbians
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Sept. 13 and 20, 9 am-1 pm. $125. The class is taught by a Certified Childbirth Educator and provides snacks for each pregnant woman and her partner.

Fall Fling
Provincetown Inn, One Commercial St., Provincetown (781-891-9325). Sept. 19-21. $75. The Tiffany Cl of New England hosts this annual weekend and fu raiser in Provincetown.

Fever! Fall Ball for Women
Sons of Italy, Winchester, 117 Swanton St. Winchest Sept. 20, 8 pm-12 am. $10. www.djdee.com. Practi swing, Latin and country dance moves from 8-9 p Then, DJ Dee spins Motown, disco, house and t 40 dance until midnight.

Harbor to the Bay
www.harbortothebay.org. (617-274-4560). Sept. Registration fee of $50. This one-day, 68- or 125-m bike ride from Boston to Provincetown benefits Fe way Community Health and the AIDS Supp Group of Cape Cod.

Out on the Edge Festival of Lesbian Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Theat
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Trem St., Boston (617-436-2787). www.thethea offensive.org. Through Sept. 27. Call for ev schedule. $18-$27. The Theater Offensive's LG festival hosts a range of events, from interact discussions with performers, playwrights and rectors to workshops, panels and commun events.

Ongoing

BAGLY
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin Boston (617-227-4313) www.bagly.org. MB Green or Red Line to Park. Wednesdays, 6-9 pm. Boston Alliance for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Tra gendered and Questioning Youth hosts a weekly ries of meetings and social events for young pe seeking community, support and a place to dis relevant issues.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
oston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-552). 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesians in the Boston area meets Wednesdays.

Bi-Curious Men's Group
enway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston 617-927-6032). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: reen Line to Hynes. 7 pm. This group meets the sec-nd Tuesday of every month for a discussion with bi-xual men.

Bi Rap
he Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., ambridge (617-354-8807). Tuesdays, first and third eek of the month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group is pen to all bisexual, bi-friendly and questioning omen.

BOSS
enway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston 617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: reen Line to Hynes/ICA. 6-8 pm. This group for ay and bisexual men of color meets the last Friday f each month to discuss culture, lifestyle, creativity nd health.

Boston Bay Blades
ww.bayblades.org/boston. All are welcome to join is competitive, recreational group of rowers and ullers.

Boston Boasts Squash
617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue. 7-9 n; Sat. 10 am-12 pm, 9-10 am beginners. MBTA: E reen Line to Symphony. The league comprises gay nd lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
617-424-8990). www.bgbl.com. The league offers full regular season and playoff schedule each ear.

Boston GLASS Community Center
3 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: reen Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm, Fri, 5 pm. The center provides social activities for gay, sbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning oung people, ages 13-25.

Boston Ironsides Rugby Football Club
loakley Field, South Boston (617-524-5814). MBTA: Red Line to JFK. Mon. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 n. Rugby players of any level, age, race and orien-tion are welcome to play.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. www.lesbianavengers.org. Thu., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain. www.lcfd.org/bu. Wednesdays. A gay and lesbian square dancing group.

Cambridge/Boston Volleyball
(617-633-2180). www.gayvolleyball.net. This drop-in, play-when-you-can league costs $6 per session.

Chiltern Mountain Club
(888-831-3100). www.chiltern.org. A 1,400-member gay club with outdoor activities.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. First Wednesday and third Thursday of every month. 7-8:45 pm. An informal support group for bisexual individuals.

Cosmetically Correct
Masa, 439 Tremont St., Boston. This social group for lipstick lesbians meets on the first Friday of each month, 6:30-10 pm. Lipstick encouraged.

Dagger
Cambridge Multicultural Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-542-4214). The Theater Offensive's guerrilla theater group, Dagger, gathers on Wednesdays from 6:30-9:30 pm to create performances representing women's perspectives.

The Down Low
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA First Friday of the month. 7-9 pm. A discussion group for gay and bisexual men of color to address heritage, lifestyle, culture and health.

East Coast Wrestling Club
(401-467-6737 or 617-937-5858, ext. 6). www.pride sportsboston.com. This club for gay male wrestlers has more than 160 members.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated (and 40 or older) for get-togethers with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Explore Gender in a Safe Place
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. An ongoing support group for people born into female bodies or who have grown up being viewed as biologically female, and who wish to explore gender in a safe place.

FLAG Flag Football
www.flagflagfootball.com. Saturday mornings. Join Boston's GLBT Flag Football League for a casual spring season, followed by a formal fall season. All are welcome, regardless of skill level.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). Tue., Wed., Sat. Get in shape and have some fun with this running club.

Gay and Lesbian Helpline
(617-267-9001) or (888-340-4528). Mon.-Fri., 6-11 pm; Sat. and Sun., 5-10 pm. This toll-free hotline is confidential and provides support for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning callers.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games, singles mixers and a date-matching system.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgendered Professionals Building Community
(617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business-networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals.

Gaymes Group
(508-339-4250). Gaymes is a social group for gay men and lesbians. Members get together on a regular basis to play board, card and parlor games.

Greater Boston Business Council
PO Box 1059, Boston (617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals for monthly meetings.

HIV Counseling and Testing
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Anonymous HIV testing and pre- and post-test counseling.

Liquid Assets Swimming
(617-937-5858, #8). Tuesday/Thursday evenings, Sunday mornings. Gay and lesbian swim team for both fitness and competitive swimmers of all ages and abilities.

Meow Boston
groups.yahoo.com/group/Meow_Boston. This social group caters to feminine bisexual women and lesbians in the Boston community.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Peer Listening Line
(800-399-PEER). Trained GLBT volunteers provide information, referral and support confidentially.

Project 10 East
402A Highland Ave., Somerville (617-864-GLBT). GLBT youth and their straight allies meet regularly to organize projects, which include making communities safe.

Support Group for HIV-Negative Gay and Bisexual Men
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-967-6231). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. First three Tuesdays of each month. Discuss new safe-sex practices, strategies for managing risk and communicating with sexual partners.

Support Group for Partners of Lesbians with Cancer
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6243). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Meets twice a month. Learn to cope with a partner's illness.

Swingtime Boston
Brookline Academy of Dance, 185 Corey Rd., Brookline (617-364-7207). MBTA: C or B Green Line to Washington Street. First Saturday of each month. 8-9 pm, lesson; 9-11:30 pm, dancing. $8. Swing, Latin and ballroom dancing classes are offered.

Wonder Women Boston
Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston. groups.yahoo.com/group/wonder_women_boston. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. First Thursday of every month. 8 pm. This casual social group for lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s meets once a month.

CALL FOR YOUR FREE GIFT, $75 VALUE (No Obligation)

Now you can wear white all year long!

Decadent™ Full Mouth Teeth Whitening
in ONE HOUR!

$275 Compare at $600-$1000

Special with this ad

Without trays, hassle, or UV radiation like Zoom!
Results last up to 2 years • 10-12 shades whiter guaranteed
Won't etch enamel • Nearly twice as efffective as laser whitening

@Exclusive Skin Solutions
1244 Washington Street, in the "New" South End, Boston, MA
617.728.0077 781.413.4680
FREE CONSULTATION PRIOR TO TREATMENT

CALL FOR YOUR FREE GIFT, $75 VALUE (No Obligation)

As seen in People magazine, March 17, 2003

EXCLUSIVE SKIN SOLUTIONS, PC
Just Say No To Wrinkles!

$250 BOTOX® Introductory Offer

Limited to first 500. (Compare at $600-1200)

Skin Pampering by Faza
- Double Oxygenating Facials
- Hydrating Facials
- Detoxification
- Hydrating Eye Treatments
- Alloderm for Lip Augmentation
- Facelift/Browlift

Raffi Der Sarkissian, MD,
Board Certified
Director of the Division of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at Boston Medical Center
• Plastic Surgery Consultation

Gina Caruso
Founder & President

- LASER HAIR REMOVAL
- MASTER HAIR STYLIST & COLORIST GREGORY WRIGHT
- REFLEXOLOGY & MASSAGE
- PERMANENT MAKEUP BY MONICA CALVO

"Due to season allergies and hypersensitive skin, permanent makeup seemed the perfect solution. I never wore a lot of eyeliner or lipstick, so I wanted my results to be conservative. The result was just how I imagined, very natural.
The effect on my life is dramatic, though. I wake up looking less tired, and I spend far less time getting ready in the morning. My experience was pain free and the work was perfect.
Thank You, Monica!"
Catherine D, Law Enforcement, 38 years (young)

FREE Consultation with mention of this ad. ($100 value)

Hablamos español
1244 Washington Street, in the "New" South End, Boston, MA 02118
www.eskinsolutions.com 617.728.0077

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail, fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/ Mind, or electronically to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, time, date, location and directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least 4 weeks in advance.

Events

The Dalai Lama
FleetCenter, Boston (617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com or www.dalailamaboston.org. Sept. 14, 5 pm. Tickets priced at $100, $60, $40, $18 and $12. The Dalai Lama comes for a rare visit to talk about compassion, practices that encourage a peaceful mind and positive ways to live during difficult times. Tibetan musician Nawang Khechog will perform.

Mystical Art and Talent Show
Swedenborg Chapel, 50 Quincy St. Cambridge (617-864-4552). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Square. www.soulstirring.org. Sept. 20, 7-9:30 pm. $5-10, sliding scale. This evening presents of a variety of original paintings, readings and songs by local artists who gather their inspiration from dreams, meditations, religion, nature and other sources.

Lectures

Holistic Cleansing and Rejuvenation with Ayurveda
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101). www.tsboston.org. Sept. 12, 7:30 pm. $5. Jonathan Glass, acupuncturist and ayurvedic practitioner, leads a lecture on ayurvedic philosophy and teachings. The talk covers the roles of nutrition and cleansing in improving wellness.

Workshops

Alexander Technique
Boston Learning Society, 1089 Great Plain Ave., Needham (781-453-9800). www.bostonlearningsociety.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Needham Center. Sept. 18, 7-9 pm. $35. This class aims to restore good posture by teaching how to recognize and unlearn poor postural habits.

Beginners Meditation Workshop
Cambridge Insight Meditation Center, 331 Broadway, Cambridge (617-441-9038). www.cimc.info. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sept. 13, 10 am-4 pm. $40. This workshop includes meditation instruction along with group discussion and is designed for people with no meditation experience or who are relatively new to vipassana (insight meditation). Bring your own vegetarian lunch.

Get Started with Neuromuscular Integrative Action
The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave. Arlington (781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org. Sept. 20, 3-5pm. $25. In this workshop, participants explore the basic movement forms of neuromuscular integrative action, also called NIA. This holistic fitness program combines Eastern and Western healing arts, martial arts and dance.

Kundalini Yoga
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes Convention Center. Sept. 20, 2-4:30 pm. $25. Learn to awaken and cultivate kundalini energy through movements, asanas, breathing and deep relaxation. The technique is designed to promote elevated consciousness using mudras, meditation and visualization.

Living Space, Style and Success
Armani Café, 214 Newbury St., Boston (617-983-1111). Sept. 18, 6-8 pm. $65. Self Esteem Boston presents this workshop on empowering yourself with the energies of feng shui. Feng shui expert and interior designer Lidia Scher shares techniques and ideas that participants can use to change their home or work environment according to feng shui's principles for creating harmonious energy.

Outdoor Improvisational Movement
The Fells, West Medford (781-395-9428). Carpooling available. Sept. 13, 2-5 pm. $25-$80, sliding scale. Please register in advance. Get out into the wind and woods to explore improvisational movement.

Overcoming Fears, Phobias and Trauma
Judith A. Swack, 56 Pickering St., Needham (781-444-6940). Sept. 14, 1-5 pm. $49. Phobia and trauma expert Dr. Judith A. Swack presents this workshop to help participants learn natural ways to deal with irrational fears, phobias and traumas.

Psychic Development Workshop
Ross Miller, 1075 Washington St., Newton (617-527-3583). www.themysticway.com. Sept. 20, 10 am-5 pm. Call to register. Psychic and healer Ross Miller discusses how to identify your guardian angels and spirit guides and receive their guidance. Participants also try to feel their aura, rediscover past lives, give psychic readings to others and more.

Reiki Clinic
Arlington Reiki Associates, 366 Mass Ave #304, Arlington (781-648-9334). www.arlingtonreiki.com. Sept. 12, 6:30-9:30 pm. $10. Experience a reiki energy healing treatment. Admission includes treatments from reiki practitioners. Call ahead.

The Seven Steps of Change
Austen's, 115 Newbury St., Boston (617-731-2290). www.namoliving.com. MBTA: Green line to Copley. Presentation: Sept. 19, 7:30-9:30 pm. Free. Workshops: Sept. 21 or 22, 10am-4:30 pm. $80. This workshop provides an introduction to mental exercises intended to change how you handle everyday life. Participants will learn tips for increasing awareness of the connection between external and internal experiences and for transforming stress into positive, personal progress.

Stress Reduction and Wellness
Veggie Planet/Club Passim, 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-824-4225). http://boston.earthsave.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Sq. Sept. 14, 3 pm. Free. Dr. Eva Selhub, director, trainer and researcher at the Mind/Body Medical Institute in Chestnut Hill, speaks about the mind/body connection, the physiology of stress and coping, the relationship of stress to illness, and spirituality within the healing process. Selhub specializes in the integration of Eastern and Western philosophies with her practice. A vegan dinner will be offered afterwards for $10. RSVP for the food.

Ten Steps to Health
Charles River School of Shiatsu,180 Mass Ave., Arlington (781-643-1545). www.charlesrivershiatsu.com. Sept. 18, 7-8:30 pm. $15. Natural-foods cooking teacher and health counselor Warren Kramer teaches tips for maintaining basic wellness.

The World Series: Sex Tips for Guys
Grand Opening Sexuality Boutique, 318 Harvard St., Suite 32, Arcade Bldg., Brookline (617-731-2626). www.grandopening.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Sept. 16, 7:30-9:30 pm. $34. Men only. Grand Opening proprietrix Kim Airs shares tips on pleasuring women. Learn about female anatomy, toys and tricks that will make you a team player.

Yoga Workshop: What Is Devotion?
Center of Light Yoga Studio, 663 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-522-4411). www.centeroflightyoga.com. MBTA: Buslines #39. Sept. 13, 1:30-4:30 pm and/or Sept. 14, 1-3:30 pm. $60 for both, $35 per class. Preregistration is required. This class features meditation and chanting along with vigorous asana practice. The goal is to channel energy to attain a blissful state.

Your Big Life Workshop
Break the Tape Coaching, Weston Copley Place, 10 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-795-0576). www.breakthetape.com. Sept. 10, 6:30-8:30 pm $45. This workshop is designed to help individuals develop achievable goals. Learn exercises to help you look at your life in new ways and find out what you value most.

The Dalai Lama visits Boston Sept. 14

Ongoing

Yoga for Fitness of Body, Mind & Spirit
YWCA, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (781-648-0722). www.innerfocusyoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue., 7:30-8:45 pm. Suggested donation: $10. All levels welcome. Kripalu-certified yoga instructor Dee Greenberg teaches participants to experience the breath as the body's link with the mind.

sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Sports. Or e-mail information to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, dates and times, and a brief description of the league or event. Deadline is four weeks before publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Home Games

Boston Red Sox
•Fenway Park. Tickets: 877-733-7699
Sept. 12, 7:05 pm vs. Chicago White Sox
Sept. 13, 7:05 pm vs. Chicago White Sox
Sept. 14, 2:05 pm vs. Chicago White Sox
Sept. 15, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
Sept. 16, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
Sept. 17, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
Sept. 18, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
Sept. 22, 7:05 pm vs. Baltimore Orioles
Sept. 23, 7:05 pm vs. Baltimore Orioles

New England Patriots
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 800-543-1776
Sept. 21, 1 pm vs. New York Jets

New England Revolution
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 877-438-7387
Sept. 18, 7:30 pm vs. Colorado Rapids

New England Storm Women's Professional Football
•Hormel Stadium, Medford.
Tickets: 781-395-8326
Sept. 13, 7:30 pm vs. Colorado Rapids

Events

Marino Foundation Autumn Classic
Spend a day on the links to raise money for the Marino Foundation's health centers. Walpole Country Club, Walpole (617-661-6225, ext. 230). www.marinocenter.org. Sept. 22. $1,200 per foursome.

New England Firefighters Big City Five & Dive Road Race
Run in 5-mile, 10-mile individual, or 10-mile team relay races to benefit the Somerville Gridiron Club. Start and finish at Tufts University, Medford-Somerville (617-625-2140). www.clydesdale.org. Sept. 21, 9 am. $20 for 5-mile race, $22 for 10-mile race.

To Play

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Ages 17-40. Seeking players for the 2003 season.

BASKETBALL

BSSC Basketball
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Coed year-round basketball. All levels. Leagues exist in Watertown, Brookline and Dedham. Teams and individuals welcome.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333) www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. The club offers amateur Olympic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

FENCING

Boston Fencing Club
110-112 Clematis Ave., Waltham. Adult classes evenings and Saturdays (781-891-0119). www.bostonfencingclub.org. Learn the basics of fencing.

FLOOR HOCKEY

BSSC Coed Floor Hockey
Leagues are held in Newton and Brighton (617-789-4070, ext. 238). www.bssc.com. All levels, individuals and teams are welcome.

FOOTBALL

BSSC Coed Indoor Flag or Touch Football
Games are played in Brighton. (617-789-4070, ext.

BSSC outdoor soccer is looking for players.

242). Sign up individually or with a group o friends.

KICKBALL

BSSC Kickball
Games are played Tuesdays in Brighton. (617-789 4070). Relive your grade-school glory by playin kickball. Teams and individuals welcome.

RUGBY

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.bostonirishwolfhounds.com Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New and experi enced players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is lookin for players for its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Clul
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seek new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mysti rugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club we comes both new and experienced players who war to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. ar Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Saturdays. New an experienced players are welcome to tape up the ears and jump in the scrum.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostc hash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. yea round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singi bawdy songs, then consider joining these self-pr claimed "serious drinkers with a running problem."

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First S Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Week runs on Friday nights, 6 pm.

Khoury's Thursday Four-Mile Fun Ru
Khoury's Pub, 118 Broadway, East Somerville (78 275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Thursd nights, 7 pm.

SAILING

Community Boating
21 David Mugar Way, Boston (617-523-103 www.community-boating.org. Mon.-Fri., 1 p sunset; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-sunset. Membership price vari Beginners and experienced sailors alike are welco to come to the Esplanade and sail boats from 15- feet long, as well as go windsurfing and kayaking.

SOCCER

BSSC Indoor and Outdoor Soccer
(617-789-4070). Teams forming now. Games play in Charlestown, Cambridge, Brighton, Reading a Canton. Individuals and teams are welcome.

VOLLEYBALL

BSSC Volleyball League
Boston Ski & Sports Club (617-789-4070, ext. 22 Sun.-Thu. Coed teams forming in Cambridge, W tertown, Brookline and Newton. Teams and in viduals are welcome to set and spike their way glory.

WRESTLING

Boston Union Wrestling Club
(617-868-8379). bostonwrestling@yahoo.com. A ateur folk-style wrestling group open to all skill l els. Weekly practices held year-round.

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Things to See

Family Sing Out!
Cambridge Center for Adult Education, 56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 21, 3 pm. $3-$5. The CCAE hosts this family concert with guitarist Vanessa Trien, featuring original songs and old favorites to sing and dance to.

Nigel Pepper
Arlington Street Church, 351 Boylston St., Boston (617-842-7927). www.pocketfulloftales.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Sept. 13, 11 am. $8, $5 children. Travel around the world with Nigel Pepper and his grandfather's magical globe that can transport him anywhere he wants to go.

Puppet Showplace Theatre
2 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $8.50. Reservations recommended. •Sept. 20 and 21, 1 and 3 pm: The Tanglewood Marionettes perform the classic fairy tale Cinderella.

World Cultures Day
Newton Free Library, 330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). http://www.ci.newton.ma.us/Library/default.asp. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Sept. 16, 3:30 pm. Ages 5 and older. Celebrate Mexican Independence Day with a story, crafts and a treat.

Things to Do

Borders Books and Music
Cambridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere or Red Line to Kendall, transfer to free shuttle. Saturdays, 12 pm. Gather in the children's department to listen to staff members read from new and classic storybooks.

Boston by Little Feet
Faneuil Hall, 77 North Washington St., Boston (617-367-2345). www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Sun. 2 pm. $6. Walk the Freedom Trail and learn about the history and architecture of Boston's neighborhoods in a one-hour tour tailored for kids.

Boston Public Library Children's Tour
Abbe Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-8855). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat. 11 am. Free. Ages 5 and older. Take a tour of the art and architecture of the Boston Public Library, and then enjoy an art activity in the Sargent Gallery.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. $8, $7 children. •Mon.-Fri., 11 am-2 pm. Visit the Japanese house. Roam the hallways of a Kyoto townhouse and play Japanese games. •Sat. and Sun., 11:30 am, 12:30, 2:30 and 3:30 pm; Mon.-Wed., 11:30 am and 12:30 pm; Thu., 11:30 am; Fri., 11:30 am, 12:30, 6:15 and 7:15 pm. Professional instructors introduce kids to performing arts by creating short plays on a real stage. •Sept. 10, 12 pm: The Club Passim American Music Series features Roots Rock with Todd Thibaud. •Sept. 13, 12 pm: Kitchen Science. Experiment with items you don't normally find in your own kitchen. •Sept. 14, 1 pm: The Equinox Music Festival, with a special prefestival family performance by Lisa Yves and the Young Beboppers. •Sept. 17, 12 pm: The Club Passim American Music Series features the fiddling talents of Hanneke Cassel and Jake Armerding. •Sept. 20, 10 am: The Family Musical Celebration is a day for families to watch music performances, make musical art and learn dances of the '50's and '60's.

Children can get an earful of the new Making America's Music exhibition at the Children's Museum.

Fenway Park Tours
Fenway Park, Gate D, Lansdowne St., Boston (617-236-6666). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Through Sept. 30. Every hour from 9 am-4 pm, except on scheduled game days. $9. Tour the press box, field, dugout and more at Fenway Park.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. $5, $1 children. •Holography, the Light Fantastic: The MIT Museum displays the largest collection of holograms in the world and describes the artistic and scientific facets of the medium. •Robots and Beyond: Take a look behind the scenes of MIT's artificial intelligence research labs in this interactive exhibit.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3448). www.mfa.org/calendar. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. $15, children under 17 free. •Tue. and Wed., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Art Alive. Museum instructors read books, poems and stories to bring the paintings to life and encourage kids to talk about what they see.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm, Fridays 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 children. •Sat. and Sun., 11 am-12 pm. The museum's Science Theater Program offers Animals and Stories Alive!, featuring professional storytellers who combine folk tales and myths with visits from live animals. •Charles Hayden Planetarium: Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 3:30 and 7 pm; Sun., 1:30 and 4 pm. Free. Learn to identify the stars, planets, constellations and celestial events during the presentation, The Sky Tonight. •Gilliland Observatory: Fri., 8:30-10 pm (weather permitting). Free. Use the observatory's two telescopes to find the moon, stars, constellations and planets. •Mugar Omni Theatre: Mon.-Sun., 12 pm, 4 pm, 7 pm and 9 pm. $8.50, $6.50 children. Travel from Brazil to Japan to North America and beyond, exploring the regions' percussion beats and cultures in Pulse: A Stomp Odyssey, directed by the creators of the Stomp stage production. •Theater of Electricity: Daily at 12 and 2 pm. The Van de Graaff generator provides a risk-free lightning show.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.org. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5. The Museum of Transportation includes a large collection of rare and antique cars as well as exhibits on automobile history. •The Evolution of Speed exhibit explores the history of American auto racing with race cars and displays. •Racing of Our Youth lets kids explore the world of slot cars, Hot Wheels and soapbox racing with go-carts to climb in, tracks to build and races to compete in. •Daily: Join the Family Scavenger Hunt through the museum and receive a free prize.

Story Hour at the JFK Library
Smith Hall, John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Dorchester (617-929-1250). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Sat., 10:30 am. Ages 5 and older. Free. The JFK Library holds a weekly story hour for kids and adults.

Story Time
FAO Schwarz, 440 Boylston St., Boston (617-262-5900). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 1 pm, 3 pm and 5 pm. Free. Ages 2-7. Kids can listen to stories read by Mother Goose, Raggedy Ann and other characters.

around town

Sights to See

Boston University Observatory
725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wednesdays (on clear nights), April-Sept., 8:30-9:30 pm; Oct.-March, 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept.-June, Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm, Fri., 10 am-9 pm; June-Aug., daily, 10 am-5 pm, Fri. until 9 pm. $5, $3.

Dreams of Freedom
One Milk St., Boston (617-338-6022). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 9:30 am-6 pm. $7.50.

Forest Hills Cemetery
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Daily, 7:30 am-sundown. Free. Tours: May-Oct., 2 pm on the last Sunday of the month, $5.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, students and seniors $5, children $4; free to all Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

John F. Kennedy Library & Museum
Columbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $8.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-2 pm. Free.

Mount Auburn Cemetery
580 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-8 pm.

Museum of Afro-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-739-1200). www.afroamericanmuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park Street. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm. $5, $3 students, seniors.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-Thu., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $10, $7 seniors and children.

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5, $3 children.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Sept. 2-June 30: Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-6 pm. July 1-Sept. 1, Mon.-Thu., 9 am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.50, $8.50 children.

Old Faneuil Hall
Boston (617-635-3105). MBTA: Blue Line to State; Green Line to Haymarket; Green Line to Government Center. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Tours start at 9 am. Free.

Old North Church
193 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. $3 donation requested.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm; weekends, 10 am-5 pm. $3.

Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-3290). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $3.

Prudential Center Skywalk
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-10 pm. $6, $4 seniors.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Open daily 8 am-6 pm. $3.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-242-5671). Museum open daily, 10 am-5 pm. Summer ship hours: Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AIDS Action Committee
(617-450-1235). Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers
(617-956-0281). www.bbmb.org. Be a big brother.

Clean up Franklin Park Zoo Sept. 20.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Information sessions: Sept. 10, 12-1 pm; Sept. 15, 6-7 pm; Sept. 22, 6-7 pm. Befriend a girl.

Boston Cares
(617-263-2273). More than 70 volunteer opportunities are available.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012). HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen, office work, special events.

Call to Action Project
(781-395-8307). Donate quilt blocks to be pieced into quilts and placed on auction to benefit the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation.

Cambridge Cares About AIDS
(617-661-3040, ext. 213). Volunteers are needed to educate the public about HIV.

Cambridge Family & Children's Services
(617-876-4210). Sept. 16. Learn how to adopt a child.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support to children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). Help adults living with cancer.

Everybody Wins Power Lunch
livmates@rcn.com. Spend your lunch hour reading at an elementary school in Cambridge or Somerville.

Franklin Park Zoo Cleanup
Franklin Park Zoo, Giraffe Entrance, One Franklin Park Road, Boston. www.starbucks.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Sept. 20, 9:30 am-1 pm. Clean up the zoo, while raising money for Zoo New England. Starbucks will donate $10 per hour per volunteer.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900). Play with homeless children.

Hospice Home Volunteers
(617-972-1702). Support terminally ill patients.

House Rabbit Network
(781-431-1211). Care for homeless rabbits.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). Share your time with an elderly individual, mentor children or teach an adult to read.

Jimmy Fund Walk
(866-539-4376). www.jimmyfundwalk.org. Help walkers at the Sept. 21 Jimmy Fund Walk.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). Teach an adult to read.

Mass. Association for the Blind
(800-852-3029). Read or shop with a blind person.

Mass. Substance Abuse Info Helpline
(617-536-0501, ext. 201). Talk over the phone with people affected by alcoholism and substance abuse.

MATCH-UP Interfaith Volunteers
(617-536-3557). Assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

Parental Stress Line
(617-528-5800). Telephone counselors are needed.

Pine Street Inn
(617-521-7626). Serve breakfast to homeless guests.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111). Record textbooks in digital formats.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). Work at a battered-women's agency.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). Volunteers needed for the dining room, clothing room and groceries program.

SafeLink
(617-521-0114). Volunteers needed for 24-hour domestic-violence program.

Samaritans of Boston
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship to lonely people over the phone.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young professionals.

StandUp for Kids
(800-365-4543). Help rescue homeless children.

VNA Care Network
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.

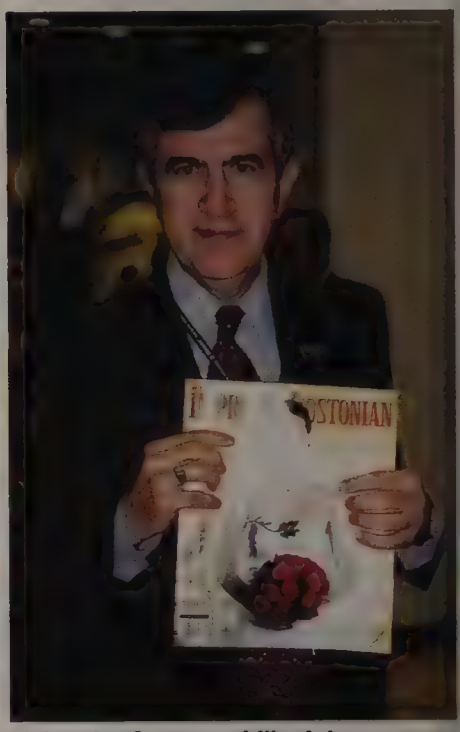
IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Qadir Wahid introduces locals Tereza and Tatiana to the IMPROPER in Prague, Czech Republic. They wanted to buy it, but he wouldn't take a personal Czech.

Joan Jacobs, Kristen Carlson, Mark Siegrist and Alison Gregian acquaint Carlos the waiter with the IMPROPER at the Tall Club International Convention aboard a Caribbean cruise. At one point Carlos got snippy, but he apologized for being short.



Nebraska Governor Mike Johanns always reads his IMPROPER. We bet the Comedy Issue was big in Oma...ha.

Maurice Thomas upholds the law with the 42nd Military Police Co. in Hohenfels, Germany. Yield, soldier!

Merisa Titlow and Adriane Kilar took some reading to Denali National Park in Alaska. They wanted to drive through Denali Park, but there was no place to park their Denali.

Philip Ketchian and his wife, Elsa Ronningstam (second and third from right, respectively), scaled Mount Ararat in Turkey. From the length of their shadows, they must Noah it will be ark soon.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER: Buying some locally made wares at the Festival of the Pot (which, despite the name, has nothing to do with Snoop Dogg) in La Quiaca, Argentina, in late October.

Send color or b&w prints (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116.
Please include your name, address, phone number, e-mail and photo location. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned.

MACHINE AGE
20TH CENTURY DESIGN

NEW ENGLAND'S LARGEST COLLECTION OF VINTAGE & DESIGNER FURNISHING

HUGE WAREHOUSE SALE
PRE-OWNED 20TH CENTURY
FURNITURE AND PROPS.

40's
50's
60's
70's

FINE CONTEMPORARY + DESIGNER FURNITURE

DESKS, LAMPS, CHAIRS, SOFAS, TABLES, COLLECTIBLES, PROPS
HERMAN MILLER • KNOLL • DANISH MODERN • AND MUCH MORE.
HRS: 12-5 TUE-SAT
354 CONGRESS ST.
BOSTON, MA 02210
617.482.0048
herman miller for the home

ANNa's TAQUERIA

Burritos & Tacos To Go!

Boston's Best Burrito
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—The Improper Bostonian

Best Burrito in Boston
1998, 1999, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—Boston Magazine

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

- 20 years on Beacon Hill
- Hatha, Iyengar, Dynamic Vinyasa, Svaroopa & Viniyoga styles
- Most experienced teachers in Boston
- Free Meditation Classes
- Teacher Training
- Barbara Benagh, director

74 Joy Street
Boston, Massachusetts 02114
www.yogastudio.org

Call for more information
617.523.7138

Hot food. Cool scene.
Smokin' Patio.
Full menu 'til midnight.
Cold martinis anytime.
food • drinks • music • life
The living room
BOSTON'S BEST 2003
The Improper Bostonian
101 ATLANTIC AVE • BOSTON • 617.723.5101
www.thelivingroomboston.com

rockie horoscope

SEPTEMBER 10 – 23, 2003 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

VIRGO AUGUST 23-SEPTEMBER 22

The Virgo-Pisces full moon highlights a personal goal, a close relationship, your parents and last, but not least, where you're living. If revelations come creeping out of the primeval ooze that is your past when the Virgo sun challenges Pluto, Lord of the Underworld, use what suits you now and stuff the rest back in the closet until a later date. You may be especially eager to look a lot more attractive while beautifying Venus merges with your Mercury ruler in Virgo. If this be vanity, make the most of it.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23-OCTOBER 22

Pangs of remorse after a jealous outburst, a stronger sense of community involvement or payback for being bitchy to a "poor me" Pisces can keep you occupied until your Venus ruler finds safe haven in Libra. But until the 15th arrives, try to fulfill your commitments and provide for the needy without stepping into the spotlight. The weeks before the equinox are best spent renewing your energy, tweaking the image you want to project so that, come Libra, you'll shine. Meanwhile, continue sifting and sorting.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23-NOVEMBER 21

The Harvest full moon can be surprisingly enjoyable if you spend it with clever, articulate pals who have something intelligent to impart. No doubt plenty of sloppy drunks and druggies will bob to the surface during the mystical, musical Pisces lunar event, but an intuitive water sign like yours will become aware of the danger signs before you actually see them. Did you know that while the sun is applying pressure to your Pluto co-ruler in your Sagittarius money house, a friendship could cost you dearly? Who's paying for rehab?

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

Although career and family concerns come to the fore during the annual Virgo-Pisces full moon, you can probably postpone making a decision until after Mercury turns direct in your midheaven on the 20th. But don't downplay any information you manage to acquire or allow anyone to twist your arm too hard to get what they want. There's bound to be blatant manipulation when the Virgo sun tests Pluto in your sign. However, tit-for-tat doesn't really work for a Centaur; better to sense what's coming and cut the competition off at the pass.

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22-JANUARY 20

Make the adjustment, already. Since you're not in the line of fire, and the harvest full moon is being kind to all the earth signs, why not agree to whatever your favorite Cancer, Pisces or Aquarius is asking? Shifting your focus and looking further into the future, even if it means diverting some funds, could do more for your entrepreneurial spirit than you're aware of right now. Although Mercury is retrograde, you can still benefit from what foreign publications, talking heads and bloggers are conveying.

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21-FEBRUARY 18

If you're feeling pressured by a group of friends or an organization (the IRS?) to contribute more than you'd like, try to renegotiate. One of the advantages of Mercury retrograde is the breathing space it affords us—you'll have the time to reconsider a prior decision. Since Mercury and the Virgo-Pisces full moon are focused on your finances, why not try to save both bucks and aggravation? This is also a good time to get more serious about creating or acquiring artwork. Channel your muse of choice.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19-MARCH 19

This month is primarily about communicating. While the planets offering goodies, goodness and growth converge in your Virgo house of partners, get ready to share your wealth of knowledge and be willing to receive as much in return. The full moon in Pisces could make you even more receptive to the undercurrents in cosmic consciousness than ever before. However, like the other mutable signs, you should beware of sneaky attempts by the manipulative boss, a politician with a hidden agenda or a controlling parent to exert undue influence.

ARIES

MARCH 20-APRIL 19

You'll get another growth opportunity—probably in mid-November when your Mars ruler faces enthusiastic, entrepreneurial Jupiter again—similar to the one you're being offered right about now. Since retrograde is hardly the time to "carpe diem," it makes sense to wait and see what else develops during this month of madness. The Harvest full moon will shed light on a crucial matter; so after Mercury turns direct on the 20th and Mars flips forward on the 27th, you'll be much better informed, especially about work and health matters.

TAURUS

APRIL 20-MAY 20

Try tapping into your unconscious via hypnosis, automatic writing, meditation or dreams to unleash more of your creative potential. Virgo can be a very powerful period for Bulls who aspire to excel at their art form, also for those who want to mend romantic fences. Somehow you'll know just how hard to press forward and when to lie back so that can you achieve exactly the effect you desire. Around the 15th, when your Venus ruler moves into Libra, you're liable to have another, more socially aware, politically savvy agenda entirely.

GEMINI

MAY 21-JUNE 20

Whether or not you elect to pick up, you're getting beeped from beyond. There's a message waiting for Twins whose moment of decision has arrived. At first you'll grow acutely aware of what suits you best and what'll make you popular, but the crucial choice might not come until just after the Pisces full moon on the 10th. Make sure you have the latest information, the dirtiest dish before taking action. And remember that your Mercury ruler is in retrograde, so you'll be reconsidering and reevaluating until it flips forward on the 20th.

CANCER

JUNE 21-JULY 22

During this year's "shine on" Harvest moon, consider getting away from it all and nurturing your inner hermit Crab instead. Not only is the full moon light very bright, there's also a powerful cosmic force urging you to reveal secrets from your dark side and communicate them to far too many others. If you feel caught between the critical Virgo sun and the sacrificial Pisces moon, manipulated by a co-worker or exhausted by the ups and downs of a financial matter, take a dive. Come up for air when this wave is spent.

LEO

JULY 23-AUGUST 22

It's time for serious fun, a secret desire to please a loved one or the passion to create something memorable. When your sun ruler rises to a challenge issued by powerful Pluto, major changes take place. Trace the arc yourself: What began in December, faced its first challenge in March and reached a critical point in June is about to be tested again. Afterwards, it's clear sailing until December. The Virgo-Pisces full moon focuses attention on a money matter or possibly something else you value.

Curious about the future? Order a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months. Send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405, www.rockiehoroscope.com. Read my daily forecast online at www.laweekly.com.

JACOB WIRTH RESTAURANT
Celebrate Oktoberfest at Jakes.
Oktoberfest 2003
With more Oktoberfest beers than ever before including:
Warsteiner Paulaner Harpoon
Ayinger Hofbrau
Spaten Sam Adams Newport Storm
Join us for an exclusive
Oktoberfest Dinner
SEPTEMBER 29, 8 PM
Sample from a special seasonal menu prepared by Executive Chef Phylis Kaplowitz matched with our hearty Oktoberfest Beers
Space is limited. Call for reservations.
"Jacob Wirth vigorously soars into its third century."
- Alison Arnett -
The Boston Globe
JACOB WIRTH
33 - 37 Stuart St.
Boston, MA 02116
617.338.8586
proud recipient of:
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

THE BARKING CRAB
RESTAURANT

Access by land or by sea
On Boston Harbor
Lunch & Dinner 10:00 AM to 10:30 PM
Over the Northern Avenue Bridge
88 Sleeper Street, Boston 617 426 CRAB

upcoming issues

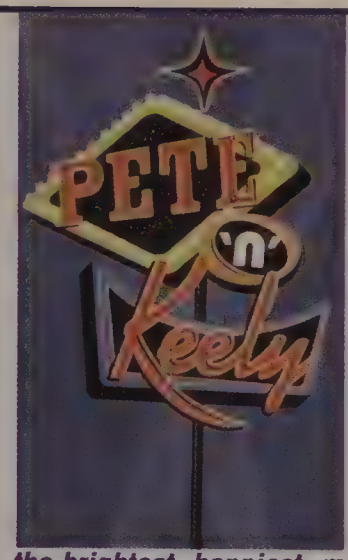
September 24, 2003
Newcomer's Guide

October 8, 2003
Literary Boston

October 22, 2003
Dining Issue

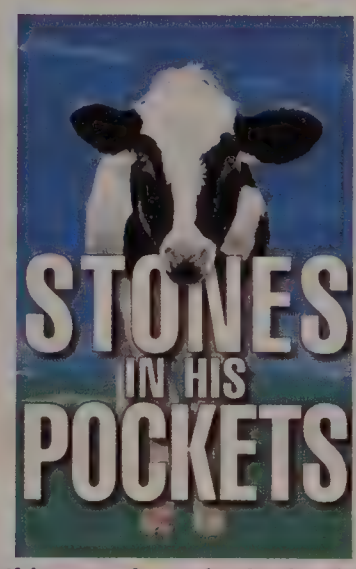
November 5, 2003
Winter Fashion

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE
Call 617-859-1400 ext. 280 to advertise



"...the brightest, happiest, most entertaining show in town!" -Rex Reed

Now through September 28



"Everrything you hope for in the theatre." -The Best Read Guide, London

October 9-26

In his lonely 9-to-5 world, she's a perfect 8"x10".

October 30-November 9

Just 8 miles north of downtown.
Easy access to I-93 and I-95.
Free parking right across the street.
Simple.

Tickets $32.
Seniors $5 off. Students 1/2 price.

StonehamTheatre.org • (781) 279-2200

Future Media Concepts

Training a New Generation of Digital Artists

Maintaining a competitive edge in today's markets is challenging, especially when trying to impress your current and future clientele. With the many unique manufacturer-authorized courses FMC offers, you can be sure that your skills will be state-of-the-art.

All FMC classes are:
Manufacturer authorized - Taught by certified trainers - Hands-on - Limited to 6 students - Taught on state-of-the-art equipment - Offered at beginner, intermediate and advanced levels

Boris · macromedia AUTHORIZED TRAINING PARTNER · SOFTIMAGE | XSI · discreet Authorized Training Center · Avid Authorized Education Center · Adobe Solutions Network Certified Training Provider · QUARK

ONSITE TRAINING AVAILABLE

*Mention this ad and receive 10% OFF your next registration!
Offer valid for new registrations only and expires on 10/31*

www.FMCtraining.com

43 Thorndike Street • Cambridge MA 02141 • 617-621-1155
Located 1 block from Lechmere T Stop

Let Us Be Your Jewish Mother...

ZAFTIGS

BREAKFAST • LUNCH
DINNER • CATERING

335 HARVARD ST.
COOLIDGE CORNER, BROOKLINE
617-975-0075

Boston's Best 2002 The Improper Bostonian

improperimpersonals

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

NASCAR Twit

To the besotted waste of a NASCAR fan I found sprawled in my garden last weekend: It seems that the general hooting and cacophony of beer belches wasn't sufficiently spoiling each and every Sunday in our neighborhood. After all, the rest of us had grown used to obscenities and plumes of marijuana smoke emanating from your apartment, piled-up pizza boxes stuffed in the community trash receptacle, and hordes of revelers coming and going, dressed in clown-suit regalia to support their racing heroes. So, we were enthralled that you decided to add trespassing to your repertoire, wrapping yourself in your favorite Tony Stewart blanket and staking out my flowerbed for a mid-afternoon slumber. Thanks for the continuing knucklehead-fest.
—Revved Up in Somerville

This film Is Not Suitable for Children

It was Aug. 25. Me: A handsome, dark-haired clerk at Mike's Movies. You: A buxom brunette with beautiful green eyes and very soft hands. I recall that you rented Glitter, starring Mariah Carey, and we locked eyes—time stopped. I have to see you again. You haven't been back here since, and I wonder if it was something I said or if I came on too strong. I was rendered speechless by your beauty. Please forgive me and remember Tuesday is rent one, get one free!
—Filmloverboy

Hey Silver Saturn Girl

You gave me a very funny face and a great smile after I (in the red Jeep) let you into traffic in Newton on Aug. 25. I've never seen someone so happy to be let in, especially in Boston. That smile and the Vermont plates made me wonder who you are.
—newtonjeepguy@yahoo.com

In Gratitude

To the staff of the Charles Playhouse who helped out when my daughter, Ariel, became ill on Aug. 16. A special thank you to nurse Kristie, who took time away from attending the performance to assist. Your knowledge and compassion were much appreciated.
—Drake

Green-Line Girl

At the Brookline Village stop we let the train go by while we talked. After boarding the next train you stood near, but alas, there was soon only one stop to go. I should have stayed on to the end of the line. It was like an old-time film with Judy Garland singing the "Trolley Song." When I was leaving the train and said, "I'll see you again," I really meant that you're a beautiful girl. But when you said, "I hope so," I nearly fell. I can't wait to see you again at the Brookline Village stop.
—Jeffrey from Las Vegas

Hi Bob

It's been a while and I've been back to the Black Rose several times following our meeting in hopes to find you again. You know, I can't seem to convince others about the merits of (or frankly, the existence of) extra-cold ice. I admit, I was suspicious of it myself, but now my Tanqueray and tonic just doesn't taste the same without it. Thanks to the Green Line our conversation was cut short that night before the 4th of July. I was wearing a white V-neck tank top and jeans and had my hair pulled back in a ponytail. I gave you my number after we joked about how best to spell my name. We only had a short while to talk but you had a great smile and kept making me laugh. I was forced to leave you there to finish your pint, but I left smiling and awaiting a phone call. Maybe it was because we didn't get to make our introductions past first names, maybe it was because my number was for another state (I had only just moved here), but I had wanted to get that phone call. Perhaps I still can? Or maybe via e-mail?
—alissacb_03@hotmail.com

Green Monsters on the Green Line

I know why the Red Sox will never win the series: karma. Ever been on the Green Line on game day? Droves of fans mob the T, pushing aside the elderly, handicapped, children and pregnant women, and generally forgoing all human decency. Last week I saw a child nearly crushed by three big guys too concerned with screaming "Yankees suck" to help make room on the train. And yes, I did (politely but assertively) say something to them, and yes, they did obnoxiously harass me for it. Last month I had to ask half the train before someone agreed to give up their seat to an elderly man with a cane—I'm not exaggerating, people actually refused! Why is it that on game day, normal people turn into such monsters? When you get on the T (anytime, not just game day), look around. Does anyone need a seat more than you do? Is there room for you to move into the train? Can you make this trip a little more pleasant for those around you? I guarantee if you take the New York subway to Yankee Stadium, the ride is a lot better. And maybe it's not karma—but if the Yankees suck as much as you say, there must be some reason the Sox can't beat them. We won't reverse the curse until people start being a little more considerate of each other, and there's no better place to start than on the way to the game. Be a true fan and spread the word.
—reversethekarmacurse@yahoo.com

In Search of Bus No. 7 Cutie

I can't believe I am doing this, but it's worth a shot: I have seen you walking to and from work on Devonshire Street in the Financial District a bunch of times and some of those times we have caught eyes and exchanged smiles. One time it was after work and you got on the bus on the corner at Summer Street. I think it was the No. 7 bus. The Friday before Labor Day weekend, I saw you in the morning (around 8 am) and wanted to say hi, but you were on your cell phone. You are tall, with blondish hair and brown eyes. I am 5' 7" with long black hair. E-mail me if you are interested in actually meeting. If not, I will still enjoy seeing that smile every now and then.
—downtowncrossinggirl@yahoo.com

For Mark with "Nice Teeth"

Paris is a jewel but you may be a gem! I hope so. I was looking at the Fall Fashion issue of the Improper on the C Line and introduced you to the Impersonals! We both got off at Coolidge Corner. I was headed to the bookstore, you had plans, so we exchanged numbers on the taxi cab bench. It was the "highlight-er" of my day! My last words to you were, "Maybe I'll write about you in the Impersonals." Venice sparkles but I hope I don't have to travel so far for another Italian treasure.
—Susan, RDH

Blue Bimmer Man

Regrettably, I do not know of any parking rulebook that allows your friends to stand in a parking spot and save it for you. To swear at me and scream for taking "your space" is quite revealing of your utter lack of class. Consider yourself fortunate that I am a nonviolent person who gets her frustrations out through punching meat, like Rocky, otherwise you would have been the recipient of a rather nasty kick to your nether regions. At times, I regret not going with my first impulse and throwing my parking meter change in your face. You lucked out. Perhaps instead of a Bimmer, you should drive a car that is a true indicator of your character, i.e. a Yugo.
—Bimmer Hater

119 Newbury Street Boston 617.536.7700 f 617.536.7117
www.119salongroup.com

Clientele Seeking Stylists

Chair Rental Opportunities

- competitive rates
- insurance quotes
- make your own schedule
- be your own boss
- take 75% of your own income
- management services
- sign on bonus
- assistants available
- 10% commission: product sales
- spa services available
- graphic design for P.R.

Employment Opportunities

- beautiful salon atmosphere
- education and training
- competitive comm./salary
- top of the line products
- portfolio management
- build your own business
- spa services available
- benefit package available
- 10% comm.: products sales
- assistants available
- experienced design team

SUMMER MAY BE OVER,
BUT THE FUN IS ABOUT TO BEGIN...

OCTOBER 29, 2003, BEGINNING AT 6 PM

CELEBRATING THE STYLE AND COMMITMENT OF AUDREY HEPBURN
SPECIAL GUEST SEAN HEPBURN FERRER

RECEPTION • SCREENING OF FUNNY FACE • AFTER-PARTY

FOR TICKETS, PLEASE CALL 617 277 3334 x32
OR EMAIL BOSTONEVENTS@UNICEFUSA.ORG

A great Mexican taqueria

BOCA GRANDE

The Best Burrito in Boston

BEST OF BOSTON

BURRITOS
TACOS
ENCHILADAS
QUESADILLAS

3 Locations:
1728 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 617.354.7400
149 First St., Cambridge, 617.354.5550
1294 Beacon St., Brookline, 617.739.3900

GROUP DRINK.
The Tradition Continues

BAR RESTAURANT - VIETNAMIEN
PHO RÉPUBLIQUE
1415 WASHINGTON ST. (IN BOSTON'S SOUTH END BETWEEN DARTMOUTH ST. & UNION PARK)
617.262.0005
DINNER • COCKTAILS • LIGHT FARE • SERVED DAILY 5:30 - 1:00 AM

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Friday, August 22, the Miller Lite Catfight girls experienced the nightlife of Boston visiting bars such as Whiskey's, Vox, Ned Devine's, Parris, and The Rack.

1. Jamie Hale, promotional specialist for Team Entertainment; Andrew Quesnel, strategic marketing team manager for Team Entertainment; and Amanda Cukrier, promotional specialist for Team Entertainment.
2. Standing: Rob Goodyear, merchandising salesman for Burke Distributing; Mark Doogue, on-premise manager for Burke Distributing; Paul Mead, sales manager for WAAF; Mike Braccia, on-premise manager for Burke Distributing; Brendan Dalton, general manager of the Northeast market for Miller Brewing Company; Morgen Miller-Jones, account executive for Miller Brewing Company; and Brian Murphy, merchandising salesman for Burke Distributing. Front: Tanya Bellinger and Kitana Baker, Miller Lite Catfight Girls.
3. Kate Sansomi, PR representative for Burson-Marsteller and Eddie Webb, on-air personality for WAAF.

On Wednesday, August 27, Black Rhino hosted the "Taste of the Financial District." The food, drink and cigar tasting event helped to benefit the South Boston Collaborative Center.

1. Kim Bilderback, VP of sales, and Sara Libin, sales, both of AT&T, and David Moon, chief underwriter for John Hancock.
2. Amy Blanco, scotch brand ambassador for Pernod Ricard USA; Bill Star, attorney; and Paige Reed, sales manager for Grill 23.
3. Betsy Carroll, senior director, human resources for Reed Business Information, and Kevin Gorham, senior consultant for Hollister Associates.
4. Paige Brewster and Leslie Smith, promotional representatives for Results Publications & Marketing.

On Wednesday, August 20, Ciroc Vodka held their launch party at Saint.

1. James Tye of United Liquors, LTD, Stephen Rust, executive VP of sales for Schieffelin & Somerset Company.
2. Andy Brown, on-premise marketing manager for Schieffelin & Somerset; Danny Cox of United Liquors LTD, Indus Johnson of Andonia Inc.; and Efren Puente, senior brand manager of Schieffelin & Somerset.
3. Eleicea Brandolini of US Concepts; Mike Milne, market manager MA for Schieffelin & Somerset; Holly McWilliams and Erin Pickering, both of US Concepts.

PHOTOS: MILLER LITE, KAREN DANA; BLACK RHINO, MIKE BURNS; SAINT, WENDY SEMON

Fresh on the Scene

Newcomers to Boston—and even longtime Bostonians looking to add excitement to their social lives—will want to read The Improper Bostonian's Newcomer's Guide. This issue will steer newly proper Bostonians through the party scene, showing them the hottest places to meet people and offering insiders' tips for making friends in Boston. This issue will help everyone navigate the city social scene, with real-life accounts from some of Boston's newest residents.

Don't miss this chance to advertise and reach your future loyal repeat customers!

The Improper Bostonian* reaches more than 392,900* readers every two weeks!

96% purchased a product or service advertised as a direct result of reading The Improper Bostonian.

86% use The Improper Bostonian to entertain guests from out of town.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 280, to book advertising space now.
Issue Date: September 24
Advertising Deadline: September 10

*Per Media Audit June-July 2003

Restaurants, Bars, Clubs & Brunch

RESTAURANTS

75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston, 617-227-2175, www.75chestnut.com. Providing regional American cuisine served in an intimate setting. Bar opens at 5pm. Dinner served from 5:30pm - 10pm.

Backstage 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. Faneuil Hall's hottest restaurant and nightclub offers the very best in Americana food. Located adjacent to the Comedy Connection you can dance the night away every Wednesday through Sunday with Top 40 and dance classics by DJ's Jonny and Freddi C. For more information call 617-726-1110.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For more info, please call or e-mail info@theblackrhino.com

Blue Cat Cafe 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. A hip restaurant with a jazz-infused atmosphere, the Blue Cat Cafe's signature it it's cool jazz tunes and American classics menu. Select from items such as the Grilled Portabella-Paninni or Pan-Seared Tuna with Wasabi Aioli. The Blue Cat Cafe also makes it's mark with unique martini selections such as the now-famous Blue Cat Cosmopolitan and City Search's Best of Boston Espresso Martini. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC, V.

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston, 617-262-9874. South End bistro offering Contemporary American cuisine in a comfortable European-style setting. Menu features grilled gourmet pizzas, handmade pasta and unique entrees.

The Elephant and Castle 161 Devonshire St., Financial District, Boston, 617-350-9977. English style Pub offering over 100 types of beer, great food and the financial district's most comfortable bar. Specialties include beer battered fish and chips and shepherd's pie. We also offer a great selection of single malt scotches and a variety of cigars. We have two levels of operation with our lower level providing private rooms for both business meetings and after work parties.

Henrietta's Table Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. Chef Davis, whose motto is "fresh and honest", creates a lively menu that features the freshest market produce daily. Food at Henrietta's Table is fresh, pure and wholesome. Full bar, casual dress. Outdoor dining in season. Reservations strongly recommended. Breakfast, Mon-Fri 6:30am-11:00am, Saturday 7:00am-11:00am, Sunday 7:00am-10:30am; Brunch, Sat-Sun noon-3:00pm; Lunch, Mon-Fri noon-3:00pm; Supper, Daily 5:30pm-10;00pm. For reservations and information, please call 617.661.5005.

Iguana Cantina 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

Legal Sea Foods Park Square at the MotorMart - 617-426-4444, Copley Place 617-266-7775, Long Wharf (outdoor dining) 617-742-5300, Prudential Center 617-266-6800. Indulge in Boston's freshest raw bar, our inaugural clam chowder, a succulent lobster or any of your favorite dishes in a relaxed yet sophisticated atmosphere. Legal also offers an award-winning wine list at the best value in town. Stop by for a taste of Boston's Best - our chefs have a table waiting for you.

Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., South Boston, 617-357-5825. www.luckyslounge.com. Located in the trendy artist district of Fort Point Channel, Lucky's is a den of cocktail cool with swanky spirits, traditional fare, and live music featuring the soothing sounds of Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Bobby Darrin and more. Open seven days a week, Lucky's also hosts Sinatra Sundays, a weekly tribute to "Old Blue Eyes" by the Al Vega Trio.

McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurant Boston Park Plaza Hotel ,34 Columbus Ave, Boston 617 482-3999; Faneuil Hall Marketplace, North Market Bldg. 617-720-5522. Recognized nationwide for its fresh seafood and lively atmosphere, McCormick & Schmick's offers over 40 varieties of fresh seafood, and a unique menu that changes daily. The bar is also a popular destination where all cocktails are made fresh and hand-shaken. $1.95 Bar menu served Monday through Friday 3:30-6:30 p.m. and late night every night from 10 p.m - midnight.

M.J. O'Connor's 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11 am - 2am 7 days a week.

Ned Devine's Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11 am - 2am 7 days a week.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of Improper's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. Whether you choose to dine in our streetside greenhouse, at the bar, in the dining room enjoying live entertainment, or snack at your pool table, expect nothing less than a first class meal from The Rack. We serve lunch and dinner from 11:30 am - 1 am. From fresh, homemade pastas and blackened center-cut tuna steaks to grilled pizzas, tasty burgers and Faneuil Hall's most original sandwiches.

Ristorante Fiore 250 Hanover St., Boston, 617-371-1176. One of the true gems of Boston's Historic North End is the fine casual dining of Ristorante Fiore...this authentic Italian experience features central-southern cuisine served in three distinctive dining rooms as well as the charming sidewalk cafe. The rooftop at Fiore's is the hottest spot in the North End...it's also the North End's only rooftop dining. A great place for dinner and cocktails any night of the week. Valet parking available.

Solas 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 380 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

Temple Bar 1688 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 02135 617-547-5055. Open Mon.-Sun. 5pm-1am, Brunch Sat. and Sun. 11am-5pm. Located just outside of Harvard Square, Temple Bar has been both a destination and a local for the educators, professionals and students of Cambridge and its surrounding towns. It's colorful European/American menu, home style Ala-Carte weekend brunch and funky interior, complete with a solid copper bar stretching the length of the restaurant, have won many awards and accolades from many local publications.

Trio Restaurant and Lounge 174 Lincoln Street, Boston, 617.357.TRIO. A unique dining experience located in Boston's Leather District. Executive Chef David Perrier, formerly of The Federalist and Grill 23, presents a new approach to creative American cuisine. Tuesday - Friday, please join us after work for cocktails 5:30 p.m. - 2:00 a.m. and dinner 6:00pm. Saturday evenings cocktail & dinner 6:00 p.m. Call for reservations. Also fully equipped for corporate functions and events. View menu and wine list at www.Trioboston.com. Excellent 2002/03 Zagat review.

BARS/CLUBS

Beer Specialty

Boston Beer Works 112 Canal St., near the Fleet Center, 617-896-BEER, 61 Brookline Ave., across from Fenway Park, 617-536-BEER and 278 Derby St., in Historic Salem, 978-745-BEER. Boston's oldest and largest restaurant brewery with 3 locations! Bold American Food. Award Winning Beer. 15 microbrewed beers always on tap. 16 American wines by the glass. 15 championship billiards tables at our Canal Street location. Complete party planning capabilities. Private Rooms. Customizeable menus. Lunch. Dinner. Late Night. Always a good time. Check out the BIGGER and BOLDER menu.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 30 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 380 microbrews and exoic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

Felt 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. Felt is located in the shadow of the new Ritz Carlton, in the heart of the buzzed about Ladder District. A tri-level venue offering sophisticated billiards, New York style lounge, a hip bar scene and fine dining. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth; while listening to a DJ accompanied by live jazz rifts. The perfect setting for a romantic dinner for two or for a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere combined with the delicious creative entrees is the perfect blend to satisfy all your cravings. American Eclectic cuisine by Chef Casey Lloyd.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers 22 gorgeous Brunswick Gold Crown tables. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Clubs

Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston, 617-482-7799. Located in Boston's trendy Theater District, Pravda 116 is a chic restaurant, bar and club. The menu focuses on contemporary American cuisine with specialties like roasted pork medallions. DJs in the bar and dance club keep the energy level high. Restaurant open Tuesday-Saturday, 5:30-10pm, bar, 5pm-2am and dance club Wednesday-Saturday 10pm-2am. AE, CB, DC, MC, V.

Roxy 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Doors at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Comedy

The Comedy Connection 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. The Comedy Connection located in the heart of historical Faneuil Hall features the biggest names in comedy with apearances by Jon Stewart, Chris Rock, Wendy Liebman and Jay Mohr. Located on the second floor of the Quincy Market Building, the Connection offers the best in local and national stand-up seven nights a week.

Dance

Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston 451-9460 Boston's only Irish/Mexican cantina is a great escape in the financial district! Two floors, three bars, open-air dining, pool tables upstairs and live bands downstairs.

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-208 www. theplaceboston.com. Drink. Dance. Mingle. Let your hair down; see and be seen on the big screen. Simply the hippest way to spend a night of all-out fun in Boston's Financial District. Come after work. Come to dance. Come to go wild with your friends. There's always something exciting happening – and you never know who you'll bump into. Join us and experience what the buzz is all about.

The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston, 617-227-2060. Known for its great food, live entertainment and relaxing atmosphere! Menu includes American and Irish specialties. Live cover bands nightly.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 200 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of poo Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine ciga Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live banc 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Bla Sole and Zeke Martin.

Irish

The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston, 617-742-2286. Boston's legendary Irish Pub celebrates its 25th year! Considered one of the best Irish pubs in America, the menu features American and Irish specialties. Live Irish music nightly.

Hennessy's of Boston 25 Union St., Boston, 617-742-2121. Boston's most authentic Irish pub next to Faneuil Hall serves a great menu with daily specials and Irish traditions. A huge bar with an extensive beer and wine list, Hennessy's has Boston's best appetizer menu. Enjoy live entertainment five nights a week with pop bands direct from Ireland. Hennessy's of Boston, "Purveyor's of Fine Food and Spirits," are part of the Somers' Pubs Fleet.

The Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston, 617-523-1112. Hailed as the "crown jewel in the Irish pub empire of John Somers," this premiere Irish Bar features over fifty micro brews, an extensive wine list, a full international menu, and Boston's best appetizer menu. The Grand Canal hosts "Boston's Best Bands," and features Boston's only 12 foot video screen playing Bruins, Celtics, Patriots and Red Sox games. Enjoy a true "Irish Pub Experience."

Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am - 1am 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

The Green Dragon 11Marshall St., Boston, 617-367-0055. Hailed "Headquarters of the Revolution," this favorite after work meeting place is famous for it's "giant cocktail drink special menu." A comfortable place serving lunch and dinner and highly acclaimed Irish breakfast every Sat. & Sun. from 11 am to 3pm. The tavern boasts over 15 beers on tap, 20 different bottled "brewskies" and imported Irish brews. Live music and entertainment every Thursday through Sunday night.

Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11 am - 2am 7 days a week.

Mr. Dooley's Boston Tavern 77 Broad St., Boston, 617-338-5656. Hailed by the Globe as "the gem of the Financial District," Mr. Dooley's is a favorite meeting place for young professionals. The authentic Irish pub with over 13 imported beers on tap has been voted "Boston's Best Burgers" and "Best Cheap Eats." Open daily until 2am, featuring live bands every Fri. through Sun. night. "A great place for a pint and a chat."

General

The Alley Boylston Place, Boston, 617-351-7000. www.alleyboston.com. The Alley brings the best of Bourbon Street to Boston with the hottest live bands and DJs, specialty drinks, billiards, two patios and a wrap around balcony for plenty of people watching. The Big Easy, Sweetwater Café, Bishop's Pub and the Sugar Shack have something for every mood, so grab your beads and head to The Alley where it's Mardi Gras every night!

Aqua 120 Water St., Boston, 617-720-4900. Boston's newest place to be seen is now open in the heart of the Financial District. Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita on our roof deck or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV. Aqua has what you're looking for after work and late night with our resident and guest DJs spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-227-0150, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Offering pub fare until 11:45pm. Live entertainment every Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Cheers Beacon Hill 84 Beacon St., Boston, 617-227-9605, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Full menu available until 11:45pm. Watch your favorite team on DirecTV.

Downtown Lounge 138 Portland St., Boston 617-523-8383. Tempting tapas, modern martinis and contemporary cocktails are just a few of the elements awaiting your arrival. A distinctive destination in the heart of North Station, located just one block from the Fleet Center. Share crab taquitos, shaved portobello mushrooms or grilled white pizza. Revive with a specialty martini while sinking into soft curvy seating. Spacious and sublime, Dowtown Lounge is an attractive meeting place for business, luncheons, social, after work cocktails and events.

Encore Lounge 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699 A new twist on Boston's Cabaret Tradition! Live Music 7 nights a week 9:30pm-1am (til 2am on Saturdays). Always open mike! Party where the Stars go after the Show! Tuesday: Bobby Femino (Piano Bar), Wednesday: Brian Nash & Stacey Baker (Standards/Pop), Thursday: Mary Callahan (Contemporary Cabaret), Friday: Jan Peters (Contemporary Cabaret), Saturday: Clara Lofaro (Standards/Pop), Sunday: Dorothy Miller & Michael Larson (Contemporary Cabaret).

The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston 617-722-0161. The newest edition to Boston's night scene. This New Orleans style bar is just steps away from the Fleet Center. Hurricane O'Reilly's serves up the best that Boston nightlife has to offer. Come dance the night away with the hottest music around. We will leave you yearning for Bourbon Street.

Jillian's Boston 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring more than 200 high tech games, six full bars, 50 pool tables, racing simulators, Black Jack for Fun and much more. Atlas Bar and Grill on Jillian's first floor offers full service dining featuring innovative American cuisine, a giant screen video wall and dancing every Friday & Saturday night. www.jilliansboston.com.

Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters ans steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring Live Music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesay - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

Roxy 279 Tremont St., (in the Tremont Hotel), Boston, 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Jazz

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live jazz afterwork and bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Regattabar Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. The Regattabar is the only place to hear top-flight live jazz Tuesday-Saturday nights and occasional Sunday afternoons. It's the "Diva" of Boston's Jazz Clubs at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square. Shows at 8:30pm Tues-Thurs, 7:30pm & 10:00pm Fri. & Sat. Full bar and bar menu, casual dress. Parking available at the Charles Hotel garage. Call 617.876.7777 for tickets and information, 800.881.1818 for hotel reservations and information.

Latin

Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston 617-351-7001. A multistory Latin-themed restaurant and club, Sophia's treats guests to a tantalizing Tapas-style menu, live Salsa bands and hi-energy Latin dance. From a romantic dinner and salsa lessons to hi-energy dance and mingling on the roof deck over sangria and Salsa, an evening at Sophia's is always Hot! Hot! Hot

Sports Bar - Upscale

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www.theplaceboston.com. Voted Boston's Best Sports Bar 2 years in a row by The Improper Bostonian! Mingle with your favorite sports celebrities: Brady, Thornton, Walker, Garciaparra. You never know who you'll run into. Enjoy the wildest party atmosphere in the heart of the Financial District. It's never the same experience twice – we've got exclusive sports video productions and game coverage on our state-of the-art flat screen TVs. So join us to see what the buzz is all about and find out why people in-the-know feel right at home.

BRUNCH

Dick's Last Resort Prudential Center, 55 Huntington Ave., Boston, 617-267-8080, www.dickslast-resort.com. On Sunday, Dick's has live gospel music for brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The buffet includes salads, hot entrees, carved beef and ham stations, an omelet station, waffles and desserts. Adults $15.99 and children $6.99. Live music - no cover, no dress code and definitely no class. Open daily, Dick's Last Resort is billed as "The shame of Boston."

Harvard Gardens 315 Cambridge St., Beacon Hill, Boston, 617-523-2727. www.harvardgardens.com. Cozy up to the beautiful mahogany bar or slip into a comfy booth and enjoy Harvard Gardens' menu of cool cocktails and comfort food. Brunch serves up eggs and pastrami hash, thick-cut French toast with caramelized bananas, specialty pizzas and Boston's best Bloody Mary. Harvard Gardens serves brunch Saturday and Sunday, 11:30am - 3:00pm.

Henrietta's Table Located in the Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge. It's "Boston's Best" brunch Saturdays and Sundays at Henrietta's. Saturday's a la carte brunch features mouthwatering entrees. Sunday's buffet brunch is flat-out lavish with everything from Salad of Smoked Duck to Oysters to Waffles to Omelettes. The menu changes every week so it always features what's freshest and best on the market. Outdoor dining in season. Saturday brunch: Appetizers from $5-$9; entrees $14 or all 3 courses for $21. Sundays: $42 adults; $25 ages 12 and under. Reservations strongly recommended. 617-661-5005.

Museum of Science – Skyline Room Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston. Enjoy Sunday Brunch in the beautiful Skyline Room overlooking the Charles River at 12 p.m., then check out the latest Omni film. Combination tickets start at $32 and include on-site parking when available. Brunch only, $24. Reservations recommended. For more information call (617)723-2500 or visit mos.org.

Sunset Grill & Tap 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112 taps, 380 microbrews.

Tonic 1316 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, 617-566-6699. We've created the perfect summer setting in our open-air café with comfort food and music to ease you through the weekend. Start off with a custom cocktail you make yourself at our Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar. Traditional Irish breakfast and a-la-carte American favorites served Saturdays. We roll out the works on Sundays with a truly brilliant buffet including the spectacular desserts of pastry chef Andrea Furtado. Weekends 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ENTERTAINMENT MASSAGE

MATRIX MASSAGE
Metro Boston's Premier Massage Facility. Specializing in Swedish full body sensational relaxation. Open 7 days, walk-ins or appointments. All credit cards accepted. Quincy T accessible. Call 617-472-2990.

FENG SHUI

THE NEW ENGLAND SCHOOL OF FENG SHUI
Learn from an eclectic world-renown faculty offering a range of topics related to creating supportive spaces and personal transformation. Next certification program begins 9/18/03. For brochure: 203.272.3765 or susan@neschoolfengshui.com. www.neschoolfengshui.com

HEALTH PRODUCTS

49 PEOPLE NEEDED
To lose weight. All natural/guaranteed. Doctor approved. All products ephedra free. www.heathy-products. net/onlinemall 413-458-5992. healthyalternative@aldephia.net

HELP WANTED

COPLEY FLAIR
Unique and fun cards and gifts. 3 Boston locations. Now accepting applications for assistant managers and sale associates. Room for advancement. You must be vibrant, outgoing, and professional. Call Bob 781-237-4372.

OMNI PERSONNEL
Seeking restaurant managers-jobs from 35k-120k. See display on this page. 1- 888-86-MY-JOB.

HOME BUSINESS

WORK FROM HOME
FT/PT Earn $500-15,000 a month. www.healthier-lifestyle.net. 413-458-5992. healthyalternative@aldephia.net.

MASSAGE THERAPY

ABSOLUTE MASSAGE
Massage Therapist of professional athletes and two American presidents now available to you! Strong, sensitive, focused work. For deep relaxation, stress relief, injury treatment and prevention. Very convenient downtown Boston location, just steps from the T. 617-460-0342.

OXYSSAGE
508-424-0664. See our display on this page.

MEDICAL RESEARCH STUDIES

MCLEAN HOSPITAL
617-855-2359 See our display ads page 105.

MGH/MIT
For more information please see display on page 105.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZING

ORDER BY DESIGN
Has your clutter gotten out of control? Maximize your space or get help with moving, filing, and more.Call Order By Design and speak to Abi for all of your organizing needs: 508-668-6519.

YOUR AD HERE
Call 617.859.1400
ext. 280

REAL ESTATE

CD REAL ESTATE
No. Andover, MA-Serving Metro North Buying? Selling? Too tired to come to my office? I'll come to you! I make house calls (in area) FREE! For fast, convenient service call Carmela Previti 978-975-4055 * 978-729-0847 www.cdrealestate.net over 23 yrs. experience.

COLLEGEPADS.COM
Collegepads is able to provide top quality leasing services to area students.
www.collegepads.com.

GRAND CENTRAL APARTMENTS
617-342-7118. For more information see our display below.

PARK ASSOCIATES INC. LEASING
Park Associates Inc. has a database of over 18,000 apartment listings. 1216 Comm. ave. Boston. 617-566-2000.

SUBLET.COM
All prices; All areas Long & Short; Furnished & Unfurnished Studio, 1 & 2 bedroom $500 $3000 WWW.THE SUBLET.COM 1-877-FOR-RENT.

WERENTBOSTON.COM
WRB is the newest search engine for the Greater Boston Area. Search the largest database online. WRB, your key to the city.

ICE SKATING CLASSES
15 M.D.C. Rinks
CHILDREN AND ADULTS
Starts Soon
(781) 890-8480
Register online @
www.baystateskatingschool.org
Bay State Skating School

All Red Sox Home & Away Games
TICKET CITY
Red Hot Chili Peppers 9/10
Guster 9/12
OPEN 7 DAYS
(617)787-2370
128 Harvard Ave • Allston • www.coolguitars.com
OPEN 7 DAYS

Applying to a top MBA program?
Craft compelling essays with a Top 5 admissions officer
connect²
(781) 646-5687
connecttwo.com/MBA

ARE YOU
a healthy woman of normal weight?
• ages 18-35?
• have normal periods
• not on birth control pills

Massachusetts General Hospital and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology are conducting a 6-day inpatient research study on the effects of fasting and nutritional hormones in women

Qualified participants receive a comprehensive medical evaluation. You will receive up to $500 at the completion of the study and will be reimbursed for transportation.

PARTNERS HEALTHCARE SYSTEM
For more information, contact Sunita Schurgin, MD at (617) 724-9027.
All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Pour Vous
Personal Assistant Services
{Lacking time?}
✦We can change that!✦

Here are a few of the ways we can help you:
✦Shopping, from groceries to gifts
✦Home service appointments
✦Errands, research and reservations
✦Pre-party assistance and set-up
✦Much more

Please see our website or contact us for a full list of services available:
Visit us at www.pourvous.net OR
Email us at info@pourvous.net OR
Call us at 617.407.5998

Permanent & Corrective Cosmetics
By Debra
"Wake Up with Makeup"
Cosmetic Tatooing
For information call:
781-820-5442

Eyeliner
Lips
Eyebrows
Scar Camouflage
Areola Micropigmentation
by Appointment
www.permanentcosmetics4u.com
Member AAM/Member SPCP
38 Montvale Ave. Stoneham
MA 02180

Tried Cocaine?
A McLean Hospital research group is studying the effects of cocaine and other drugs on the brain and behavior. You may qualify for this study and earn up to $800 if you:
• are a male 21 – 35 years old
• are willing to give blood samples
• use cocaine occasionally
• can come to McLean for 5 visits
(transportation is provided)
For more information call:
617-855-3823

Ecstasy Research
Earn up to $675
A McLean Hospital research group is studying the effects of ecstasy and other drugs on the brain and behavior. You may qualify for this study if you:
• are 18 - 40 years old
• use ecstasy regularly
• are able to come to McLean for 15-30 minutes 1x per week for 7 weeks (transportation provided)
For more information call:
617-855-3823

Permanent & Corrective Cosmetics
Angelbare.com
Eyebrows Blush
Eyeliner Full Lip
Areola Restoration
Scar Camouflage
617 - 527 - 0002
by Advanced Permanent Cosmetic Instructor
Featured on Chronicle, Channel 4, 25, and 56
193 Walnut Street Newton MA 02461

ATTENTION RESTAURANTS, BARS, HOTELS
The Improper Shopper is the best place to recruit help in the hospitality industry.
Call 617-859-1400 x280

"Expediting Quality People"
OMNI PERSONNEL
ATTENTION RESTAURANT MANAGERS!
Looking for a Change?
For a Civilized Recruitment experience call OMNIPERSONNEL at
1-888-86-MY-JOB
or log on to WWW.OMNIPERSONNEL.COM

Single?
Meet for lunch, coffee, or drinks after work
Call 617-254-3000
or take the free survey
www.lunchdates.com
Our 21st year!
LunchDates™

Quinex™
Private study - psychology "classes" designed just for you!
Experiences in Personal Development℠
Popular psychology, facts, and theory. Fun stuff, also serious scholarship and practical tools for hi - level health, work, social, & family functioning. Your pace via one to one teaching. Lavish attention to your interests & needs. Relaxed, Private, Confidential.
Days or Evenings
Lic. Psychologist, Dr. Robert Azrak, Quincy.
www.quinex.info
tel. 617.773.9209
www.Quinex.info

FREE ADMISSION WITH THIS AD
Aga's
Highland Tap of Boston
PRESENTING...
Modern Expressive Dance
LIVE SHOW GIRLS
Food ~ Cocktails
Entertainment ~ Relaxed
Comfortable Intimate
Atmosphere
Open 7 days a week until 2am 21+
617-427-6514
2128 Washington St. Boston

Boston's nightlife just got a whole lot hipper.
HOP ON THE BUS!
1-866-GO-BUS-GO
www.BUSTONIAN.com

You need us.

Spend your money wisely, and good things will happen.

Our Classified Section offers you the opportunity to reach 392,900 readers every two weeks.

What are you waiting for?

Call today @ 617.859.1400 ext 280

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

BostonCourier.Com

24 Hour Customer Service/Dispatch: 617-457-7800

Drink Responsibly Drive Safely

...But know your rights before it's too late!

www.bostonDUIlawyer.com

~ JACK DIAMOND ~

Toll Free 24 hours 866-770-1100

Boston • Quincy • Plymouth

For Information About

The Massachusetts Drunk Driving Law:

Field Sobriety Tests • Breath Tests

License Suspensions • Penalties

PRINT

Quality offset printing. It's your competitive edge.

alphagraphics®

DESIGN, COPY, PRINT, MIRACLES.™

74 Canal Street • Boston, MA 02114

tel: (617) 742-9585 • fax: (617) 742-9584

www.boston541.alphagraphics.com

Free 500 Letterhead with order of 500 or more call for details

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the Freaky Tiki Party, top: Christine Glynn, Anne Marie Boursiquot and Jodi Wolin. Second row, from left: Melissa Knowles, Debbie Cawley, Nicole Ross, Islande Icart, John Bonavita and Lisa Nappi. Third row, from left: John Podwal, Anne Harrel and Drew Podwal; Maurice Rucker and John Guastella; Andrea Brown and Tom Conigliaro. Bottom: Kristin Wright, Jen Bauer, Randace Rauscher-Moore and Tom Rasku

SOUSED PACIFIC...

Remember that Brady Bunch episode where they went to Hawaii, and Greg found the idol, and zany adventures involving much madcap hilarity ensued? Well, minus a special guest appearance by Vincent Price, that was the general vibe at the Freaky Tiki Party—a cocktail reception and silent auction hosted by the Boston Young Professionals Association to raise money for the Rogerson Communities (a nonprofit that provides affordable housing to the homeless and elderly).

Held amid the high-kitsch, faux–South Seas splendor of Lansdowne Street's Tiki Room (you've gotta love any bar that shows continuous video clips from Gilligan's Island), the event attracted an attractive and impressive crowd (especially for a sweltering Monday night) who imbibed tropical drinks, grazed from pu-pu platters and otherwise made merry. Looking positively Polynesian and having a wonderful time were Rogerson head honcha Anne Smith and her husband, jazzman extraordinaire Maurice Rucker; talented artist and tireless philanthropist Randace Rauscher-Moore; mutual fund babe Christine Klemme; adorably upbeat development doll Jodi Wolin; super-smooth software hepcat Travell Perkins of State Street; fun-loving Fidelity financiers Jen Bauer (who's also an artist and photographer) and Tom Rasku (guitarist for the band Henry); Rogerson board member Anne Marie Boursiquot; the sibling tag team of Drew and John Podwal; perpetual partygoer John Guastella; the very fabulous Christine Glynn; affable investment adviser and inveterate volunteer Bi Le; groovy Zipcar folks Tom Conigliaro and Morgan Stockmeyer; and the irresistible Kristin Wright of the Children's Trust Fund.

In keeping with the evening's theme, guests sported flowered leis, prompting the following double entendres:

"Hey, no fair! That guy got lei'd twice, and I only got lei'd once."

"I didn't get lei'd at all."

"Well, look at your shirt."

However, the evening's most memorable quip occurred when a waitress approached a table to take drink orders.

"I'll have a Suffering Bastard," said one guest, to which another replied, "How nice—they finally named a cocktail after me."

HOW MUCH IS THAT HOT GUY IN THE WINDOW?

Bachelor auctions are to charity events what reality programming is to TV—strangely compelling to watch but wildly humiliating for those involved.

Such was the scenario at Summer Nights, City Lights—a festive soiree to benefit Boston Cares (an organization that promotes volunteerism), held under a huge white tent at the New England Aquarium on a deck overlooking Boston Harbor.

On hand on a hot August night were such august personages as stunning interior designer Suzanne Logan and a gaggle of her girlfriends, including the lovely Jen LaVin and Kathy Gay; twinkletoed playboy Lance Kussel; city councilor and man-about-town Mike Ross; tantalizing tech trainer Karen O'Neill; software siren Cathy Baird; and numerous good-looking and big-hearted 20- and 30-somethings, who bid on assorted stuff in both a silent and live auction.

However, the evening's main event was the bachelor auction, which featured (in the words of one) "a veritable stable of stallions." Among them: Harvard internet law guru Jonathan Zittrain; graduate film student and former minor league baseball player Russ Chambliss; executive compensation consultant Alex Cedro; Harvard admissions officer Logan Powell; and Boston Beer Company IT guy Tim Baker.

"I gave a friend 50 dollars to bid on me, just in case..." confided one bachelor, while another said, "I don't know my fair market value—maybe 20 bucks?"

As for how they got roped into doing it, all of them mentioned some variation of the phrase "worthwhile cause," while one offered an additional explanation: "I thought it would be useful to get the most embarrassing moment of my life out of the way, in a controlled and safe environment."

To their credit, all of the bachelors netted more than they predicted they would, with the exception of the cocky guy who bragged that he'd bring in "twice what anyone else did."

Summing the whole thing up, one of the men gave a philosophical shrug and said, "Now I know how the pigs at Hormel feel." iB

At Summer Nights, City Lights, from top: Cathy Baird, Logan Powell and Karen O'Neill; Alex Cedro (left); Russ Chambliss (right); Suzanne Logan, Jen LaVin and Kathy Gay; Jim Baker (left); Mike Ross (right).

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call J.S. at 617-859-1400 ext. 303 or e-mail at jonathan@improper.com

BVLGARI

BVLGARI

ALPHA OMEGA

AMERICA'S WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS

DIAMONDS SINCE 1976

ship at harvard square - natick mall - burlington mall - prudential center - tel (617) 864-1227

IN ESTONIA WE SAY:

Pole vaja uhket kuube, kui hing on puhas.

IN AMERICA YOU SAY:

ONE NEED NOT WEAR A FANCY VEST WHEN ONE IS PURE OF SPIRIT.

WE PROUDLY INTRODUCE OUR FINE ESTONIAN VODKA.

THE

IMPRO BOSTONIAN

BOSTON'S NEIGHBORLY
ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE
SMOKIN' SOCIAL LIFE

T'S
GOOD
O BE

DONNIE
WAHLBERG

IS THIS A FRIENDLY CITY?

SOROFF EXPLAINS
BOSTONIANS' BIZARRE BEHAVIOR

50 WAYS TO MEET
NEW PEOPLE

the
NEWCOMERS
ISSUE

24-OCTOBER 7, 2003
SIDE OF METRO BOSTON
37
70 79832 3

In any bar in Boston, you know someone by name.

Your friends at Jack Daniel's remind you to drink responsibly.

the puma store

NEW YORK BOSTON SANTA MONICA
SAN FRANCISCO SOUTH COAST PLAZA
BELLEVUE LONDON PARIS ROME
TOKYO MELBOURNE

newbury street boston 617 369 7091

PUMA®
puma.com

BOSTON BALLET

MIKKO NISSINEN Artistic Director

40TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

Rudolf Nureyev's

DON QUIXOTE*

Oct 16–19 / Oct 30–Nov 2

"...A SUMPTUOUS PRODUCTION!.."
—Christine Temin, The Boston Globe 1985

ONE WEEK ONLY!

STARS AND STRIPES

Oct 23–26

MOZARTIANA, STARS AND STRIPES
Choreography George Balanchine

THE GREY AREA
Choreography David Dawson

This production is funded in part by a grant from the Rudolf Nureyev Dance Foundation.*

TICKETS $39-96

CALL TELECHARGE AT 1.800.447.7400

or The Wang Theatre Box Office, open Mon-Sat, 10 am-6 pm.

Student Rush Tickets $15, 2 hours before curtain.

Groups 15+ Call 617.456.6343. TTY 1.888.889.8587

www.bostonballet.org

Fidelity INVESTMENTS
2003-2004 SEASON SPONSOR

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS!

ASK ABOUT U-35

Our exciting program for the 35-and-under crowd

WHAT DO YOU GET?

- Three thrilling evenings of ballet in great seats at a discounted p
- A cocktail reception (must be 21+)
- A special Boston Ballet gift!

CALL 617.695.6955

Go to www.bostoneventguide.com/bostonballet.htm to sign

The Nutcracker is not part of a regular subscription or U-35. Photos of Larissa Ponomarenko and Yury Yanowsky; Sabi Varga, Raul Salamanca, Jared Redick; and Luke Luzicka by Marty Sohl; Photos of The Wang Theatre by Ken
Photo of Pollyana Ribeiro and Yury Yanowsky by Marty Sohl Photograph from Stars and Stripes, Choreography by George Balanchine, ©1958 The George Balanchine Trust. Photo by Steven Caras, courtesy of Miami City Ballet.

VICHY
LABORATOIRES

Now available in Boston for the 1st time in the U.S.

The No.1 skincare brand in European pharmacies

Created in 1931 in France, Vichy Laboratoires offers unique skincare products including:

- Vichy Thermal Spa Water to soothe and help reinforce the skin's natural protective function
- Latest dermatological ingredients

Vichy products are 100% allergy-tested and dermatologist recommended for sensitive skin.

Come visit us to receive your free personalized skincare analysis by our trained advisors and free samples.

Come see us at
Tufts Health Plan 10K for Women:
October 13th
from 9am - 3pm
at Boston Common

Available at select pharmacies

Brooks Pharmacy
710 East Broadway, South Boston, MA
350 Cambridge Street, Woburn, MA
393 Highland Avenue, Somerville, MA
135 Pitman Street, Providence, RI
655 Warren Avenue, East Providence, RI
1193 Boston Neck Road, Narragansett, RI

CVS Pharmacy
8 Washington Street, North Attleboro, MA
186 County Road, Barrington, RI
527 Main Street, East Greenwich, RI
1998 Mendon Rd., Cumberland RI
1188 Pontiac Ave., Cranston, RI
684 Kingstown Road, Wakefield, RI

VICHY. HEALTH IS VITAL. START WITH YOUR SKIN.

For more information, call toll-free 1-877-37-VICHY
or log on to www.vichy.com

MANTRA

Dessert anyone?

Cure your chocolate craving once and for all.

MANTRA, named among the "Top 75 Tables in the World" by Conde Nast Traveler Magazine, 2

52 Temple Place, Boston, MA 02111 • 617.542.8111 • www.mantrarestaurant.com

I FOUND EXACTLY WHAT I WAS LOOKING FOR.

BOSTON INTERIORS HAS BEAUTIFUL FURNITURE, GREAT IDEAS, EXPERT ADVICE AND UNBELIEVABLE PRICES. IT'S MY STYLE...ON A BUDGET!

OSTON'S
BEST

KS FOR MAKING US
ON'S BEST" IN THE OPER BOSTONIAN.

YOUR STYLE...ON A BUDGET!

Boston Interiors

WWW.BOSTONINTERIORS.COM

Boston Interiors

90 DAYS
NO INTEREST
NO PAYMENTS
NO DEPOSIT

BROOKLINE VILLAGE
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND

HANOVER
RTE. 3 EXIT 13

NATICK
RTE. 9 EASTBOUND

WESTBOROUGH
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND

NOW OPEN!
CAPE COD
MASHPEE RTE. 28

contents

SEPTEMBER 24 – OCTOBER 7, 2003

FEATURES

18 SOROFF/ON JAY HARRINGTON
Wellesley native Jay Harrington talks about his breakthrough role on NBC's Coupling, the pressures of fame and the story he'd most like to read about himself in a tabloid.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

20 FROM BOSTON TO BOOMTOWN
Donnie Wahlberg has made the transition from pop-music stardom to acting on the critically acclaimed NBC crime drama Boomtown, and at age 34 he's exactly where he wants to be.
BY SUSAN ABBATTISTA

28 New York transplant Mike Hodgson at the 1369 Coffee House in Cambridge

ANTHONY TIEJU

NEWCOMERS SECTION

24 EVERYTHING YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT BOSTON... BUT WERE TOO AFRAID OF PISSING SOMEONE OFF TO ASK
Ten important guidelines for learning how to interact with that most enigmatic of creatures, the native Bostonian. BY JONATHAN SOROFF

28 NEW TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD
Newcomers to the city reveal the frustrations and the pleasant surprises they've found in the Hub of the Universe. BY CAITLIN O'NEIL

32 JOIN THE CLUB
From arts clubs to sports teams to volunteer organizations, joining a group can be a great way to meet—and keep—new friends. BY JULIE SURATT

36 FASHION: UNDRESS
Lingerie that proves the old adage about quality, not quantity. PHOTOGRAPHS BY BILL STREICHER

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by Greg Henry/LaMoine Photo Group

Grooming: Laurie Jones/Solo Artists; stylist: Renee Howard/EIC Agency; clothing: black suit, Giorgio Armani; pink dress shirt, Hugo Boss

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Bravo and Novel; sports bars 'round the city; fiv minutes with Lou Merloni; Lush

14 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured
BY MARGARET BRETT

16 EZRA
A moving experience
BY EZRA DYER

42 MOPSY
Rachel Ann Payne, reflexologist; Hidden Swee Dawn Clifton Tripp's Moon Tide
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

60 MOVIES
A neurotic con man turns out to be the perfect role for Nicolas Cage in Matchstick Men.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

70 MUSIC
R.E.M. prepares to tour with new material and portfolio of old favorites.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

116 LAST SCENE HERE
What I did on my summer vacation
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

44 DINING
The unpretentious Red House awaits discovery in Harvard Square.
BY CHARLES MOKRISKI

46 TASTINGS
The Taste of Cambridge and other delectable delig
BY JULIE SURATT

47 DISH
Toast opens in Union Square; dining deals for
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

48 WINE
Reds from Tuscany
BY SANDY BLOCK, MW

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Girls, Erin and Julie.
Complete listings follow page 51.
Miss Saigon • the Taste of Cambridge • Boston Undergroun Film Festival • Chocolate Bar opening at Le Meridien • MixFest • Hairspray • Denis Leary's Celebrity Hat Trick • Cooking for a Cause • the BeanTown Jazz Festival

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Sightings
Improper Impersonals
Rockie Horoscope

Circulation 82,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XII, ISSUE 19

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

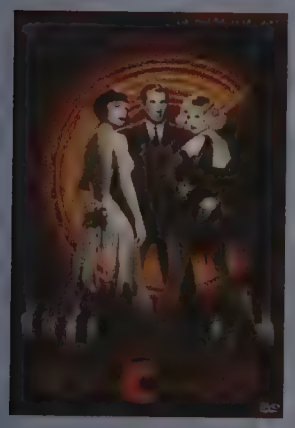
Boston's Best Selection of DVDs!

Buy 1 DVD Get 1/2 off the 2nd*

*Of equal or lesser value, select titles only. 8/19-9/29

The Largest MOVIE SALE In The Land!

Hundreds and Hundreds of DVDs, Oh My!



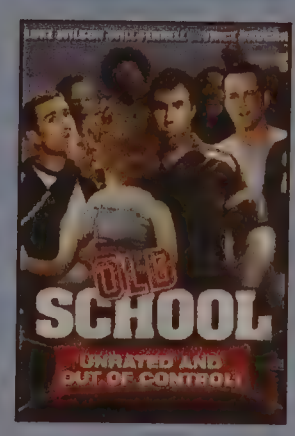
Chicago
DVD

Bulletproof Monk
DVD

The Commitments
DVD

Brown Sugar
DVD

Desperado
DVD



Old School
DVD

Boston • 360 Newbury Street 617-896-0950

Great Selection. Part of The Complete Collection.

Virgin MEGASTORE

VIRGINMEGA.COM

Located above the Hynes Convention "T" Stop Green Line.

Open Monday 10am - 12:30am Tuesday - Saturday 10am - Midnight

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

NEW IN TOWN

Though we've designed most of this issue's feature stories for Boston newcomers, I hope longtime Bostonians will find them fun reading too. Certainly Jonathan Soroff's 10 truisms about Bostonians (page 24)—from the question they consider rude to their fashion sense and their feelings about the weather, New York and driving—are fodder for happy-hour conversation and might even spark a self-realization or two. Newcomers will find the story a useful field guide to the local population's behavioral quirks.

While Soroff gives us the insider's view of Bostonians as a species, Caitlin O'Neil gets newcomers' take on their new neighbors and the social scene here (page 28). Does Boston really deserve its reputation for standoffishness? Newbies have some interesting tales and observations about this city's friendliness quotient.

Finally, in "Join the Club," (page 32), IMPROPER staffer Julie Suratt turns a practical eye to the important matter of making friends. She explores some of the many social, special interest and volunteer groups that can connect you with people who'll make you feel this city is home. Anyone whose social life could use a little boost will find ideas here.

As Boston newcomers acclimate to this town, this issue's cover boy, Dorchester-native Donnie Wahlberg, continues to build a life on the Left Coast. He talks to IMPROPER staffer Susan Abbattista about Hollywood and his enduring feelings for his hometown (page 20).

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

EYE FOR ARTS

I just wanted to thank you guys for keeping us informed about all the great cultural offerings in Boston this fall (Sept. 10). Now that The O.C. is on hiatus until Oct. 30, maybe my friends and I will be motivated to try something other than the usual weekend plans of eating, drinking and shopping.

STEPHANIE BROWN
BEACON HILL

Congratulations on the very informative and beautifully designed Fall Arts Preview issue. It is wonderful to see our bountiful arts offerings given as much attention as any of the hot bartenders in town. And special mention must go to the gorgeous photo of Yo-Yo Ma in the lead story. It is gracing my wall right now. I'm looking forward to many more arts previews to come.

—KATI MITCHELL
DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC RELATIONS, AMERICAN REPERTORY THEATRE

CORRECTION

On page 43 in the Sept. 10 issue, a photo of Chris Myers was misidentified as Michael Schlow.

"IT IS WONDERFUL TO SEE OUR BOUNTIFUL ARTS OFFERINGS GIVEN AS MUCH ATTENTION AS ANY OF THE HOT BARTENDERS IN TOWN."

—KATI MITCHELL
AMERICAN REPERTORY THEATRE

CONTRIBUTORS

GREG HENRY

Greg Henry was born in Oklahoma but now lives in Los Angeles with his much photographed pug, Buster. His photography has appeared in Cosmopolitan, Details, Entertainment Weekly, Glamour, Maxim and numerous other U.S. and European publications. Henry also works in advertising with clients that include Disney, DreamWorks, MGM and Sega, and his photographs have won placement in the Advertising Photographers of America Awards. Henry's latest work for the IMPROPER is this issue's cover, which he shot on location in Los Angeles.

SCOTT MAGOON

By day, Scott Magoon designs children's books for Candlewick Press in Cambridge. By night, he's a freelance illustrator and designer. In his other life, you might find him singing jazz standards with his septet. A Bostonian for 13 years, Magoon currently lives in Somerville. His work graces "Everything You've Always Wanted to Know About Boston... but were too afraid of pissing someone off to ask," on page 24.

YO-YO MA COVER: STEPHEN DANELIAN/SONY CLASSICAL

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITORS Erin Hagedorn, Julie Surat

COPY CHIEF Susan Abbattista

COPY EDITOR David Plunkett

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

STAFF WRITER Ezra Dyer

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Jessica Iredale

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, Daniel Spurling

EDITORIAL INTERNS Kelli Acciardo, Kate Hedgpeth, Sarah Korval

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Rita Greeley

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

ART DEPARTMENT INTERNS Marilyn Chung, Vanessa Earl

FASHION & BEAUTY EDITOR Samantha House

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER Alison Morant

SENIOR ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Julie Kane, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Michael Burns, Nicole Mahoney

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT EXECUTIVE Sherry Riccio Atamian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Katie Schmid

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

V.P. PRODUCTION Jeff Gill

TRAFFIC MANAGER Karen Dana

MARKETING MANAGER Martha Brown

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Melina Lugaki, Sarah McManus, Victoria Segal

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Bill Marks

OPERATIONS MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian

RECEPTIONIST/SALES ASSISTANT Gretchen Bostro

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3RD Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc.
Copyright©2003 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

Dior

ALPHA OMEGA

DIAMOND SPECIALISTS

NATICK MALL • PRUDENTIAL CENTER

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE

617.864.1227

Dior

JOAILLERIE

new in town

BRAVO TO NOVEL

Appreciating art and literature at two of Boston's beloved cultural institutions, the Museum of Fine Arts and the Boston Public Library, broadens the mind and liberates the spirit. But let's be honest: It can also be mentally and physically taxing. So when you just can't absorb anymore Rembrandt or Kant, it's time to rest your weary head and refuel. Now you can, at two new eateries—Bravo at the Museum of Fine Arts and Novel at the Boston Public Library.

Sample cocktails at Bravo's bar or grab a bite to eat in the dining room (right).

Housed in the former Fine Arts Restaurant, Bravo features updated decor by architect Peter Niemitz, who originally designed the space 10 years ago. He's made the space more cozy, adding banquettes, intimate lighting and warm colors. "Usually museum curators don't like anything to compete with the art; they discourage signage or bold design statements," says Bravo's director of restaurant associates Robert Platner. In other words, "very beige and white." But MFA director Malcolm Rogers was "very amenable to changing the feel of the room," Platner says. Hence the burnt-tangerine walls and upholstery that give the room a soft glow at night, and the artwork that adorns the walls, selected from the museum's collection. And while the name is more likely to conjure up images of staged performances than art exhibitions, it actually refers to contemporary Latin American artist Claudio Bravo, whose paintings currently decorate the space.

Chef Benjamin Cevelo's seasonally inspired and locally flavored menu includes entrées like Vermont goat cheese tart with heirloom tomato and basil salad, and Chatham line-hooked cod with a potato-feta cake and salsa verde. We can already imagine art lovers inspired by Georgia O'Keefe ordering up an Angus cheeseburger with chipotle-tomato ketchup. 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474).

The Boston Public Library's Novel restaurant, which opened in May, is most certainly a novel idea—given that we've been warned since we were kids not to eat or drink in the library.

The spacious dining area is hushed and relaxed, with a view of the library's Italian courtyard. And as one might expect, many patrons read while they eat—there's even a stack of novels and nonfiction to borrow while you sup upon the upscale buffet offerings (soup, gourmet salads, sandwiches and savory entrées). Novel also serves afternoon tea, with scones, tea breads, bite-size sandwiches and miniature desserts.

Sebastian's Map Room Café is more casual...

...while Novel offers a more formal dining experience.

For a more casual dining experience, there's the new Sebastian's Map Room Café, which offers breakfast and lunch items—at lower prices—in a space that used to serve as an actual map room in the late 1800s. Here, patrons can read, write and eat among the giant maps that hang on the walls. And best of all, you can talk without getting shushed. 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-385-5660).

—Erin Hagedorn and Julie Suratt

improper reports

SPORTS BARS

With the Red Sox and Patriots vying for valuable sports-viewing time, it's even more crucial to find a place where you can get your baseball and football fix in one sitting. Belly up to these bars and set your gaze on a large-screen TV.

- Atlas Bar & Grill: 145 Ipswich St, Boston, (617-437-0300). 40 TVs.
- Big City: 138 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-2020). 11 TVs.
- Boston Beer Works: 61 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-2337). 12 TVs.
- Champions Sports Bar: 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-937-5658). 33 TVs.
- Coolidge Corner Clubhouse: 307-309 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-4948). 20 TVs.
- Hurricane O'Reilly's: 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161). 14 TVs.
- Jillian's: 145 Ipswich St., Boston (617-437-0300). 20 TVs.
- Kings: 10 Scotia Street, Boston (617-266-2695). 22 TVs.
- The Place: 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081). 6 TVs.
- The Rack: 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). 9 TVs.
- White Horse Tavern: 116 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-6633). 10 TVs.

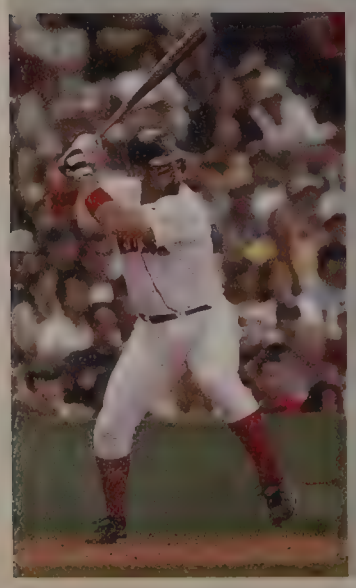
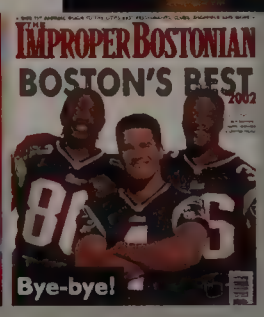
The Place

inner view

FAREWELL LAWYER, WELCOME BACK LOU





It was a tumultuous summer for two pro-athlete IMPROPER cover boys. Lawyer Milloy, who appeared on our 2002 Boston's Best cover, is now playing for the suddenly competitive Buffalo Bills, and this past spring the Red Sox traded Framingham native Lou Merloni, who graced our Jan. 22 cover, to the San Diego Padres. Happily, Lou has since been reacquired by the Red Sox, and we recently caught up with him to find out how a San Diego summer treated one of Boston's 10 Hottest Bachelors.

IB: First of all, what happened to your mustache? Did the airline lose it on the way back to Boston?

LM: I left it in San Diego. Actually, I had a similar look going last year.

IB: So how big a role do you think your title as one of Boston's hottest bachelors played in the Red Sox's decision to bring you back to the team?

LM: I'm not sure that was one of the main reasons they brought me back—but if it helped, it helped.

IB: Compare the nightlife in San Diego and Boston.

LM: Boston is something I grew up with and became accustomed to, and San Diego's definitely different. You're going out in La Jolla and it's a big show. It's more dressy, more of an L.A. scene. You don't go out wearing jeans and a button-down shirt like you can here.

IB: What about the nightlife from the point of view of a single guy?

LM: It doesn't suck, that's for sure. There are some beautiful women out there. It was a fun four months.

IB: Did they ever get the hang of the "Lou" chant in San Diego?

LM: They started getting the "Lou" chant going there. Red Sox fans seem to be everywhere. People would come up to me in bars and get the chant going. There are a lot of people from Boston out there.

IB: What do you think of the chances for the current Red Sox team compared with the one you left in the spring?

LM: The team was good from the beginning of the season, but Theo did a good job of answering the questions, particularly with the bullpen. This team right now is primed for the stretch run. Everyone's excited about it.

—Ezra Dyer

MONT BLANC

THE BEST WAY TO SHAPE THE FUTURE IS TO INVENT IT.
STARWALKER. THE NEW GENERATION OF WRITING
INSTRUMENTS CRAFTED BY THE MIND.

ALPHA OMEGA

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE - 617.864.1227
SHOPS AT THE PRUDENTIAL CENTER - 617.424.9030
BURLINGTON MALL - 781.272.4016
NATICK MALL - 508.655.0700

tasty tidbits

NEW ON THE SCENE

Spaghetti to the Stars...There's a new restaurant in the North End and (surprise!) it's Italian. Strega opened May 29 with a bang—or was it a bada bing? The Italian cuisine (and the persuasive powers of manager Nick Varano) drew in a slew of Sopranos stars for the grand opening, including John Ventimiglia (Artie Bucco) and Vincent Pastore (Big Pussy). Since then, several other celebs have stopped in for a taste, among them, Tori Spelling and Joey Fatone. And b-ball überkind LeBron James is a repeat customer. Could it be the Ivy of the North End? 379 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-8481).

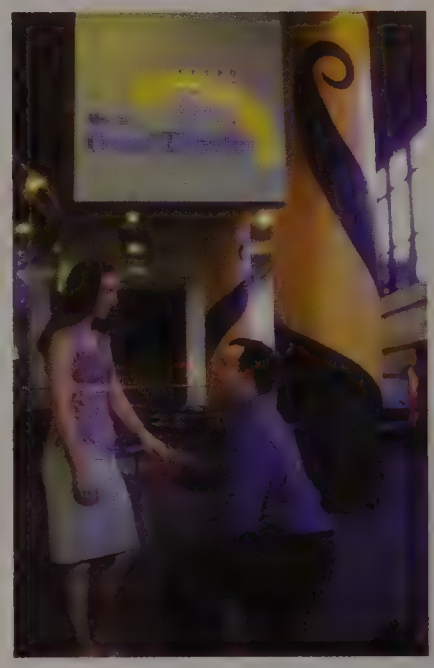
New Eats...Vinalia is set to open in the Downtown Crossing digs formerly occupied by Dakota's Oct. 14. The new restaurant will feature a menu by former Boston Harbor Hotel executive sous chef Justin Villa, as well as a martini bar. In the spirit of the BHH's Meritage, Vinalia will have a strong focus on wine and offer weekly aprés-work tastings. 101 Arch St., Boston (617-737-1777).

Chain Reaction...Kenmore Square will sport two tried and true additions in mid October. Italian eatery Bertucci's moves into the Beacon Street spot the Gap cleared out (seems the denim and khaki giant couldn't hack it without a food court and a Banana Republic nearby). Meanwhile, Toscanini and Sons opens in the Hotel Commonwealth. It will feature the Cambridge creamery's delish ice cream and coffee, as well as gourmet sandwiches prepared by former Daddy-O's sous chef Andrew Platt.

—E.H., J.I. and J.S

engagement story

AN ENGAGEMENT STORY



It was a match made in big-screen heaven. No, not the Jumbotron at Fenway. The latest creative engagement was more egghead than meathead. Paralegal Michael Goodwin, 27, popped the question to his honey, librarian Michelle McHugh, 23, via a large projector at the Museum of Science Omni Theater.

The story starts six months ago, when Goodwin came up with the idea to revisit the museum (the site of their first date)—this time with an agenda and a diamond. After extensive e-mailing with the head projectionist and a heck of a lot of coordinating, Goodwin was ready. He asked his mother, a school teacher, to invite McHugh to see Coral Reef under the pretense that they were screening the film for a future field trip. McHugh didn't suspect a thing. Meanwhile, Goodwin and his father, who cleverly beefed up their alibi with a fictitious trip to a casino, were behind the scenes. When the credits were about roll, the phrase "Michelle, let me ask you a question. Love, Mike" appeared on the screen. Michael took his cue, assumed the one-kneed position in front of the theater audience, and the rest is history. The "I do" date is set for spring 2005.

around town

WHAT'S THAT BUZZ?

Have you ever read a book, gone to see a movie or tried a beer because a friend told you about it? If the answer is yes, then you have unofficially participated in buzz marketing. In June 2002, entrepreneur Dave Balter founded BzzAgent to turn this kind of word-of-mouth advertising into a business in itself.

BzzAgent members, or "agents," get to try new products, and in turn they inform BzzAgent how they may have talked up said product. However, agents aren't required to be pure pitchmen. "If people have something they don't like about a product, we want them to tell people that too," says Balter. "People don't believe all positives." So far, Boston-based BzzAgent counts about 1,000 members in Boston, with thousands more throughout the country. So the next time someone encourages you to see Austin Powers 7, beware: You might be in the presence of an agent. To become an agent, visit www.bzzagent.com.—Ezra Dyer

sam says

JUST OUR LUSH

Eight-year-old British body-and-bath chain Lush debuts on Newbury Street Sept. 27—one of only two Lush stores in the United States (the other's in San Francisco). The 200-store chain—known for "Trader Joe's"-like interior similar to a high-end supermarket with products that look like something you'd get from your local deli. Chunks of solid shampoos, conditioners and facial cleansers are carved off larger blocks and wrapped up like cheese and priced by the ounce (prices range from $4–$50). All products are hand-made with natural ingredients. There's even a face and body mask bar where the ingredients are packaged like little tubs of ice cream. But Lush's best selling product is the Sex Bomb, a four-inch "bath ball" that combines aphrodisiacal herbs and essential oils and has a small flower embedded in it that deflowers—it dissolves. 166 Newbury St., Boston (781-375-5874).

—Samantha House

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Fenway Feng Shui...How far will Bostonians go to "reverse the curse"? Pretty darn far—consider the guy who recently climbed Mount Everest and burned a Yankees cap. But local feng shui experts Daphne Weld Nichols and Diane Dalpe decided to take matters into their own hands, stationing themselves outside of the Green Monster to "refocus" the park's energy, especially the "blockage in the success area of the wall." After some chanting, burning of incense and waving of crystals, the demons were declared exorcised. An 83-year-old curse and that's all it took? Dalpe doesn't promise immediate results. She says, "I think the Red Sox could use one more treatment. It usually comes in threes." See their story featured on the Ben Affleck–narrated HBO special, Curse of the Bambino, which plays through Oct. 8.

Renaissance Woman...In addition to being one of the top commercial fishing and charter boat captains on Martha's Vineyard and the wife of comedian/TV star Lenny Clarke, Jennifer Clarke is a singer-songwriter. Over the summer, when she wasn't taking the rich and famous fishing for striped bass on her boat, she found time to finish recording her debut CD, Time Flies. The style is pure rock, and Clarke's voice is like a bluesy Chrissy Hynde. She played the basic piano and guitar tracks, and she's accompanied on the album by guitar greats Stu Kimball and Duke Levine. Although she has no major label to back her, having Clarke's CD has become something of an insider's status symbol on the island. If you get your hands on a copy, you'll find yourself saying, "This woman fishes for a living?!"

Real Love...Will the ladies fall as hard for Ken Oringer as they did for Andrew Firestone on ABC-TV's The Bachelor? If all goes well, they'll have the chance. That's right, the hunkalicious chef/owner of Clio is in the running for ABC's next installment of the voyeuristic race to the altar. Network execs approached the culinary whiz kid, and he's now in the midst of what he calls "a very long process." What does Oringer think of possibly finding the Barbie of his dreams on national TV? "It's intriguing," he says. "I've never seen the show. I think it's probably better that way." Alas, we won't find out if he makes the cut until February. Stay tuned.

Ken Oringer

A Quicker Fixer-Upper...Sleek USA, a medical spa, is set to unveil its fifth location, on Newbury Street. The medically supervised spa (plastic surgeons and registered nurses run the show) offers such services as weight-loss management, microdermabrasion, vein and hair removal and Botox and collagen treatments without the clinical feel of a hospital. With its ultra-luxe spa environment and highly visible Newbury locale, it looks like getting "enhancements" is no longer so hush-hush. 228 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-4444).

Upstairs Downstairs...Dedo, Park Square's year-old gay bar, has expanded its MO as well as its borders. It's now two floors—upstairs is still the predominately gay lounge, but there's a new swank bistro downstairs, in the former digs of restaurant Mario's. Dedo owner James Conforti, also of Gargoyles on the Square, bought the downstairs space and hired executive chef Michael Scelfo and pastry chef Lee Napoli, both formerly of Arlington's Tea Tray in the Sky, to provide an alternative to the neighborhood's handful of chain restaurants. 69 Church St., Boston (617-338-9999).—E.H., J.I. and J.S

Got scoop?

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

Why should Saturday and Sunday have all the fun?

Take a few days off this week and experience the East Coast's premier getaway destination. Enjoy our brand new luxury hotel, pool, sun terrace and spa, spectacular gaming, gourmet restaurants, unique shops and unparalleled entertainment. For hotel reservations call 1.888.777.7922. For more information, visit mohegansun.com, or call 1.888.226.7711. Come play.

Mohegan Sun

a legendary getaway experience

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY MARGARET BRETT

The Samuel Adams Celebrity Draw Party and Auction for the Sean McDonough Charitable Foundation was held Sept 14 at the Boston Harbor Hotel. Close to 400 sports enthusiasts gathered for the second annual live and silent auction, and $200,000 was raised to benefit the foundation, which supports Massachusetts Children's Charities, Dana-Farber, Children's Hospital, Project Step, Boys & Girls Club of Waltham, Summer Search and the Joey Fund. Tickets were $150.

1. From left: Sean McDonough, ABC and NESN sports broadcaster; Bob Costas, NBC sports broadcaster; and Jim Koch, brewer and founder of Sam Adams.
2. From left: Kent Damon, father of actor Matt Damon; Rich Cicetti, an independent consultant from Santa Monica, Calif.; and Bob Hillson, investment banker for American Express.
3. Chris Sanzone, attorney at Testa, Hurwitz & Thibeault, and his wife, Annika, portfolio manager for HDCM.
4. Joseph Abboud (left), clothing designer, and Frank Goldstein, owner of Pacific Packaging Products.
5. Tom Coughlin, former head coach of the Boston College football team and the Jacksonville Jaguars; and Billy Packer, CBS Sports broadcaster.
6. Mike Eruzione, captain of the gold medal–winning 1980 US Olympic Hockey team, and his wife, Donna.
7. Matt Davison (left), former University of Nebraska wide receiver, and Eric Crouch, quarterback for the Green Bay Packers.
8. Pro golfer Brad Faxon, and his wife, Dory.

The Fidelity Investment Jumper Classic was held Sept. 7 at Myopia Hunt Club in South Hamilton. Guests at the IMPROPER-sponsored event watched the Grand Prix competition, which was won by Ainsley Vince riding Catch-22. The day also featured a VIP luncheon and a ladies' hat contest.

9. Ted Clark (left), director of public relations for the Animal Rescue League, and Lee Ostrowski, finance assistant for Bain Capital.
10. Jennifer Sciolto and Allen Nissim, sales manager and director, respectively, at Tiffany & Co. in Chestnut Hill.
11. Paul Girard, investment broker for A.G. Edwards, and Barbara Erickson, vice president of business development for Fleet Boston.
12. Judy Hill, independent specialty chemical sales marketer in Ipswich, and her father, Harry Cobb.

TYCOON CUT™

The Only Diamond with A Diamond On Top

Chicks Love it.

ALPHA OMEGA

AMERICA'S WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS

DIAMONDS SINCE 1976

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE • NATICK MALL • BURLINGTON MALL • PRUDENTIAL CENTER • 617.864.1227

Boston Athletic Club
BAC
bostonathleticclub.com

30 years experience
30 dollars to join.

The Boston Athletic Club is celebrating its 30th Anniversary ...30 years of tradition, community and authentic sports and fitness.

30 days of special events begin on September 10th, including fitness/wellness evaluations, contests and prizes, an Open House and Health Fair on September 27th, and an Anniversary Reunion Celebration featuring 'Motor Booty Affair' on October 10th, 2003.

The best part is that you can join the largest, most authentic sports club in Boston until October 10th* for just $30.

Be part of the celebration.
Be fit, be strong, be here!

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

653 Summer Street, Boston
617 269 4300

*Must be 21 years old. Expires 10/10/03

ezra

BY EZRA DYER

A MOVING STORY

Moving to a new apartment breeds new respect for nomads, turtles and Gentle Giant

Before this year I hadn't moved into an apartment on Sept. 1, but I can now say that Labor Day is the most aptly named holiday on the calendar, at least until Columbus Day is renamed Blatant Excuse to Take a Day Off Day.

In a case of less-than-ideal timing, I had to go to New York for a bachelor party two days before Moving Day. So when I returned on the 31st, I sported a hangover that rendered my efforts to prepare for the move quite fruitless. Every time I looked at all the crap that I had to pack up, my headache mushroomed and I began pondering extreme measures, like arson or hiring movers.

On the appointed day, my parents and brother arrived to help with the move. My mother no doubt expected to see the apartment neatly stacked with boxes and the furniture covered with bubble wrap, but instead found Scott and me frantically sweeping entire shelves of belongings wholesale into whatever containers we could find, including trash bags and empty 12-pack boxes. "Oh my God," she declared.

Personality clashes surfaced almost immediately. In fact, the first dispute involved bubble wrap, which my mom loves. Mom brought enough bubble wrap to safely transport a brontosaurus skeleton, and damned if she wasn't going to use it. "Let's bubble-wrap the TV," she commanded. "Let's just plan on not banging the TV into any walls on the way out," I countered. Given the state of disaster in our apartment and the fact that the new people were waiting for us to leave before they could move in, I didn't see much time for frivolous pursuits like protecting fragile items from destruction.

The bubble-wrap debate was soon eclipsed by larger issues, such as how to get our enormous sectional couch down the stairs. The fact that the couch was in the apartment was evidence that it could be done, but my brother and I soon discovered that maneuvering the couch down the stairwell required a keen spatial awareness because it would only fit around the newel posts in a particular way. Rotating a heavy couch around obstacles while descending stairs is never easy, and it's even harder when one of the obstacles is your mother, who has jammed herself between the couch and the wall to dictate the proper couch-spinning technique.

The situation became extremely heated on the second landing when the couch got lodged between the wall and newel post. It seemed no amount of jiggering would free it, but once again Mom took charge to overcome the impasse.

"Go get your saw," she said. "We'll sa off the top of the post."

"We're not sawing off the post," I said thinking of my cherished security deposi "The couch came up these stairs just th way they are, so it'll go back down."

"No it won't. It's stuck. We've got to sa off the post." Answering the next obviou question, she added, "We can glue the to back on after the couch is out."

I successfully vetoed any amateur ca pentry, and eventually we birthed th couch from the stairwell and loaded it int the truck, where my father stood guar against the ever-diligent Boston Police Earlier a scowling cop had attempted t have my car towed, a process I thwarted b getting in and driving away.

The couch continued to antagonize me While we were carrying it down to my ne "garden level" (or "in the basement with th machinery") apartment, momentum pushe me slightly past the door and into a piece flypaper loaded with insect carcasses. As welcome to the neighborhood, I would' preferred a fruitcake.

MOVING IS AN ODD MIX OF TEDIUM, PHYSICAL DISTRESS AND UNPLEASANT TASKS—SORT OF LIKE HIGH SCHOOL

My new neighbor John, who lives acro the hall, came out and removed the flyp per from its hook and me. I've sinc learned that John is quite, shall we sa particular about insects. He doesn't lik them. He also doesn't like when peop leave the hallway door open and let the in, even if it's only for a minute whi those people carry in groceries. As an ind cation of John's commitment to insec cide, his piece of flypaper is hung outs the building's door. I'm sure it's making significant dent in the Massachusetts mo quito population.

I don't have space to describe the mo ing process in full, but suffice it to say tha was an odd mix of tedium, physical distr and unpleasant tasks—sort of like hi school. At least my old foe the chan thief doesn't know where I live. Yet. IB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send a bubble-wrapped e-mail to ezra@improper.com

IF YOU GRADUATED HIGH SCHOOL IN THE 90'S COME RELIVE YOUR GLORY DAYS AT:

JOSÉ HIGH

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 2ND 6-9 PM.

FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY EVERYONE IS ENCOURAGED TO PASS NOTES AND RAISE THEIR HAND WHEN THEY HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY... PRIZES AND RAFFLES FOR HOMECOMING KING AND QUEEN. DON'T MISS OUT OR SOMEONE MIGHT START TALKING ABOUT YOU BEHIND YOUR BACK.

United Way of Massachusetts Bay
uwmb.org

BACARDI

Kiss 108 fm

The Glynn Hospitality Group

the Purple Shamrock

The Black Rose

Coogan's

CLERYS

HURRICANE

José McIntyres
Boston's only Irish Mexican Pub

160 MILK STREET • 617.451.9460 • IRISHCONNECTION.COM

Soroff ON

JAY HARRINGTON

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Up-and-coming actor Jay Harrington, 31, was raised in Wellesley and studied theater at Syracuse University. Already familiar to TV viewers from his recurring role on Lifetime's cop drama, The Division, he's poised to become one of the biggest new stars of the fall TV season thanks to his role as Steve on Coupling, the hotly anticipated show on NBC's Thursday night lineup. Adapted from a wildly popular British sitcom, Coupling is a provocative urban comedy that explores the lust and love in the intertwined lives of six thirty-somethings. Harrington's other TV credits include appearances on the FX hit The Shield, NBC's A.U.S.A. and Fox's Time of Your Life, and he has appeared in such films as Whatever It Takes, Anywhere but Here and the independent features Hourly Rates and A Little Inside. On stage, he has starred in off-Broadway productions of Barefoot in the Park and Tony and Tina's Wedding. He currently lives in Los Angeles and is an avid sports fan who plays in the NBA Entertainment League and dons skates for an amateur hockey team.

Jonathan Soroff: Do we really need another TV show about attractive thirty-somethings and their relationships?
Jay Harrington: Absolutely! Especially since I'm on this one.
JS: So Coupling is a British sitcom that's been retooled for an American audience?
JH: Yes, and in the past, like with Sanford and Son, it's worked, and sometimes it's failed miserably, like with Ab Fab or Men Behaving Badly. But with Coupling, it didn't feel specifically British. There isn't a very strong sense of place. It's more about the characters and the ways they interact, and I think everyone will relate to it in one way or another.
JS: People are comparing your show to Friends. Any comments?
JH: Well, it's obviously hugely flattering, since Friends has been so phenomenally successful, and it's an easy comparison to make because of the three guys and three girls. But there are major differences. For instance, on Coupling, not everyone likes each other.
JS: Which Friend would you most like to couple with?
JH: I guess Joey. [Laughs.] Just kidding. I remember when I was young, everyone was talking about a kid from Newton who did a Heinz commercial. It was Matt LeBlanc.
JS: Are you looking at this as your big break?
JH: Of course. I've been out here working for a while, and getting jobs, but this is the first time I've felt like it was going to be really big.
JS: I've heard that Coupling is really racy. What's the naughtiest thing you've done on the show?
JH: Well, in the pilot, my character wants to break up with his girlfriend, but he ends up with her, in a stall in the ladies room, completely naked, and they go at it. That's the chemistry on the show—every time my character wants to break up with his girlfriend, she tells him what she is or isn't wearing, or about the time she got together with another woman…

> I'VE BEEN WORKING AT THIS FOR A WHILE, AND I STILL CAN'T BELIEVE IT'S HAPPENING. I MEAN, I GREW UP WATCHING THE NBC THURSDAY NIGHT COMEDIES. NOW I'M ON ONE. IT'S KIND OF STRANGE.

JS: What is it with straight guys and lesbian fantasies?
JH: Well, women are just incredibly beautiful.
JS: So that's the math—if one woman is good…
JH: Then two are better. Yeah.
JS: But you do realize that when women tell you stuff like that, most of them are just making it up to get your engine revving.
JH: Yup. Doesn't matter.
JS: So who's your fantasy love scene partner?
JH: Probably Michelle Pfeiffer dressed as Catwoman.

JS: Kinky. One sex act you'd never perform on-screen?
JH: Well, I'd worry that I wouldn't be convincing doing a man-to-man kiss, but the way our show's going, it's a possibility.
JS: Three reasons why Coupling is Must See TV?
JH: Well, the writing is incredibly smart. There's an excellent ensemble cast…which leads me to number three: Jay Harrington.
JS: Thing that scares you most about becoming famous?
JH: That it actually might happen. The fact of it. I've been working at this for a while, and I still kind of can't believe it's happening. I mean, I grew up watching the NBC Thursday night comedies. Now I'm on one. It's kind of strange.
JS: Thing you think will change the most?
JH: Probably my living arrangements. Instead of sharing a three-bedroom apartment with a few friends, I actually might be able to move into a nicer place.
JS: Biggest indulgence since you got your new job?
JH: I actually went to a gas station and told the guy to fill it up. It was the first time I'd done that in a while.
JS: OK, answer that annoying job interview question. Where do you see yourself in 10 years?
JH: Hopefully, still acting on television and doing an occasional movie. I'd like to have a career that sustains.
JS: Finish this sentence: I knew I was the new it-boy when…
JH: I haven't felt that way yet, but I'll let you know when I do.
JS: How about your best feature?
JH: Ooof, these questions are meant for someone with a big ego, aren't they?
JS: C'mon! You're an actor, for God's sake! You're supposed to be egotistical!
JH: OK, I guess my eyes.
JS: Worst feature?
JH: My interview skills.
JS: When you finally pose for the cover of Vanity Fair, what will you be wearing?
JH: A tuxedo. No tie.
JS: You're the oldest of three boys. What's the worst thing you ever did to one of your little brothers?
JH: While he was sleeping, I held my younger brother's nose closed and put my hand over his mouth to see how long he could go without breathing.
JS: And he's still alive?
JH: Yup. And hopefully he's forgiven me.
JS: Worst audition story?
JH: There are millions, but I guess the time I went to an audition for a role that I really thought I had a chance at, and while I was reading, I overheard someone in the next room offering the job to another actor.
JS: One role you wish you'd turned down, or one piece of film you wish didn't exist?
JH: I don't really have one. There's been nothing that I'm hugely embarrassed about.
JS: One adjective to describe growing up in Wellesley?
JH: Very lucky.
JS: Thing you'd most like to read about yourself in a supermarket tabloid?
JH: [Laughs.] Um, caught cheating on J.L. with Tara Reid.
JS: Thing you like least about Celebrityville?
JH: I don't live there, so I don't know.
JS: Oh, please. You've at least seen a glimpse of it.
JH: Sure. And I guess the least attractive thing is the people who feel they're owed something or entitled to it.
JS: Now that you're a big huge star, what one thing would you like to say to the folks back home in Boston?
JH: This is the year that the Red Sox will win the World Series and the Bruins are gonna take the Stanley Cup. It's a lock. Oh, and also: watch Coupling every Thursday night on NBC. IB y your moment responsibly.

ur. 21-50% Alc. by Volume. Southern Comfort Company, Louisville, KY ©2003 www.southerncomfort.com

FROM BOSTON TO BOOMTOWN

DONNIE WAHLBERG HITS THE STREETS OF L.A. IN THE SECOND SEASON

OF NBC'S ARTFUL (AND ADDICTIVE) CRIME DRAMA

BY SUSAN ABBATTISTA
PHOTOGRAPHS BY GREG HENRY/
LAMOINE PHOTO GROUP

We know him by his many incarnations: teen pop star, record producer, older brother of Mark, movie actor who made us stop and say "That was Donnie Wahlberg?" and now, prime-time TV star. If there's anyone who proves that cats aren't the only creatures with nine lives, it's Donnie Wahlberg.

Nearly two decades have passed since the Dorchester native found fame by singing, dancing and hangin' tough with the New Kids on the Block. Now an actor in full stride at age 34, Wahlberg stars in the NBC crime drama Boomtown, which kicks off its second season Friday, Sept. 26, at 10 pm. He plays Joel Stevens, a smart, hard-working detective who seeks out the home invaders, kidnappers, meth-lab operators and other deviants on the streets of L.A. On the surface, his character is cool, thoughtful and determined. On the inside, he carries emotional baggage—grief over the recent death of his newborn baby, distance from his depressed wife and romantic longing for a friendly paramedic he sees on the job.

So far, Boomtown has been something of an enigma. The show has received consistent praise from TV critics who are impressed by its unusual nonlinear format. Stories are pieced together from the multiple points of view of the central characters, who include two detectives, two cops, an assistant DA (played by fellow Boston boy Neal McDonough) and the paramedic. The crime drama has also received several awards and was named one of the 10 best shows of the year by the American Film Institute. But even though critics have called the series "engrossing" and Wahlberg's performance "a revelation," Boomtown has thus far failed to make enough noise in the all-important network ratings.

Wahlberg, who says he is proud to work on such a quality production, has his own theory about last season's surprisingly mediocre ratings. "People watch TV for consistency, for formula. When something comes out that's really different, it can scare people," he says. "If critics really like your show and use certain words like 'smart,' 'unique' and 'different,' it can alienate people. So the show has to be a little less smart to open itself to a greater viewership."

It seems likely that Boomtown's creator and writer, Graham Yost, will tinker with the format in upcoming episodes. Its new time slot on Friday nights rather than Sundays may also affect the ratings, for better or worse. Regardless of the changes, Wahlberg says those who follow the show—the 11 million viewers who tuned in each week last season—will find the new episodes as involving as last season's. Detective Stevens, who normally conveys his feelings with faraway eyes and a tightly set jaw, may begin to open up, whether he likes it or not. "He's going to get a big surprise," Wahlberg says. And the flirty, guilt-inducing infatuation he has with paramedic Teresa Ortiz (Lana Parrilla) will intensify, he adds.

Like his character, Wahlberg is entrenched in the Los Angeles experience—the superfast freeways, the regular parade of oddballs and the glittery-yet-gritty, surreal quality of everyday life. Unlike his character, he's an open book, willing to talk candidly about the current chapter of his life.

"I'm a small fish in a huge ocean," he says. "I quite enjoy it." But as comfortable as he feels right now, Wahlberg misses the familiarity of a much smaller ocean. "I think about Boston every day. I went to do the Jay Leno show last year for Boomtown, and I'm there, and I'm thinking of Boston. I'll be honest. I care about what the city thinks of me. Boston is such a part of who I am, and it means so much to me, the city. It's always there, always with me."

What about those days, back in the '80s, when he would step onstage with the New Kids and be greeted by thousands of screaming fans? Surely there are few experiences as ego-inflating as that. "I don't miss it. I don't," he says. "It's funny, like, I look at those American Idol kids. I look at the grind they're in—flying here, flying there, doing those cornball commercials for the show—and just thinking about what they do is enough to scare me away from the music business for another 10 years."

With the intoxication of pop stardom now firmly behind him, replaced by a zen-like appreciation for the here and now, Wahlberg says he's content with life just as it is. "This is the hardest job I've ever had. I go to work for 16 hours, and it's grind, grind, grind. But right now I'm exactly where I'm supposed to be. It's really weird. I don't know if I would have traded in every dime from the New Kids to feel the sort of respect that I feel now from people, but I'd have traded a good chunk of it." IB corporate events . holiday parties . birthdays . reunions . bachelorette part

Unique Venues

Live Entertainment & DJs

Professional Catering

Friendly Staff

BostonsBestEvents.com

(617) 351-2510

the NEWCOMERS ISSUE

What do you need to know when you're new in town? Everything. Where to live, eat, shop, get a cold beer, a hot coffee and a decent haircut. If we do say so ourselves, the IMPROPER's pages can help you with all those practical matters every issue. For our first Newcomers Issue, however, we've turned the full focus of our feature stories to the concern that's most crucial to your happiness in this strange new land—your social life. Understanding the natives can be a challenge. So we kick off our newcomers section with longtime Bostonian Jonathan Soroff's insights into the social behavior that passes for normal in this town. Next up, a little camaraderie in the form of interviews with newcomers who've gone before you. They talk about how they befriended the locals and built social lives here. Finally, a guide to the groups of every type that offer immediate access to people who'll make you feel you belong. Longtimers, don't tune out. All this stuff is good for you too. After all, who couldn't stand a little more self-awareness or a few more friends?

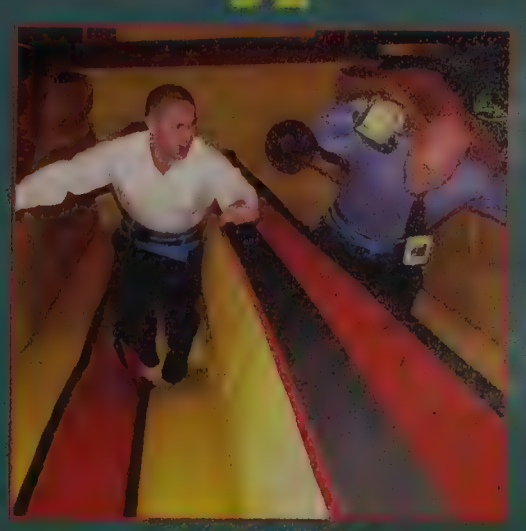
24

EVERYTHING YOU VE ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT BOSTON BUT WERE TOO AFRAID OF PISSING SOMEONE OFF TO ASK

28

NEW TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

32



JOIN THE CLUB

H
ΦBK shop open
?
Yankees
SUCK
Donuts

EVERYTHING YOU'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT BOSTON . . . *

BY [redacted] ILLUSTRATED BY SCOTT MAGOON

Here's a little something most people don't learn until after they've already moved here: Boston isn't the friendliest city in the world. The natives, like the winters, tend to be chilly, especially compared with the saccharine sweetness of Southerners, the phony familiarity of Californians or the "How d'you do; sure, you can marry my sister" openness of people from the Midwest. Bostonians don't say hello to strangers on the street. We avoid eye contact, even in social situations. We smile only when provoked and communicate largely through heavy sarcasm. New Yorkers, by contrast, seem warm and welcoming. "Hell is other people," Jean-Paul Sartre famously observed. He could easily have been describing the attitude of the average Boston native.

Yet for all our crustiness, there's a genuine lack of bullshit that makes winning us over worth the Herculean effort. Like gaining the trust of a dyspeptic pit bull, befriending a born-and-bred Bostonian offers the reward of knowing that once he or she is on your side, you possess a staunch ally. Misanthropic? Perhaps. But we're also brutally honest, meaning that unlike, say, your college roommate from Little Rock, we won't spare your feelings and lie when you ask if those jeans make your ass look big.

As for how to gain our confidence, forget all that crap Dale Carnegie wrote about winning friends and influencing people. He was talking about dealing with dipsticks from Turnipville, not the denizens of a city whose primary claim to culinary fame—baked beans—has the antisocial side effect of flatulence. With Bostonians, it's best to dispense with the pretense. In addition, we suggest you keep these 10 helpful pointers in mind:

We don't care how you did it back home.

We're sure there are things that people do better in Nebraska, like livestock auctions or landscaping a double-wide trailer. However, a born-and-bred Bostonian won't hesitate to tell a Mexican how to make a taco. This attitude applies to everything from the latest medical procedures to celebrating St. Patrick's Day. For that reason, it's unwise to point out to a Bostonian that, say, Savannah, Ga., has the biggest St. Patty's Day parade in the United States, or that Dublin might be an interesting place to be on March 17. The response is likely to be a vaguely disgusted "So what are you doing here?" Interestingly, this habit also holds true when Bostonians travel. For instance, if you meet someone from Roslindale on the most magnificent beach in Bora-Bora, they're bound to compare it unfavorably with Cape Cod.

Bitching about the weather is both a God-given right and a civic responsibility.

In many cultures, talking about meteorological matters is considered trite or tedious. Not here. Minnesota might get more snow, and northern Maine is certainly colder, but the Boston winter inspires those of us who have lived here our entire lives to wax rhapsodic about how much it sucks, even when the skiing is excellent. This remains equally true when the weather turns unexpectedly nice. No day of glorious sunshine and low humidity can be complete without a lengthy recollection of how wet and dismal the spring was or how catastrophic the coming hurricane season is likely to be. Just how deeply ingrained this habit is in the local psyche is evident in the fact that last winter, all the Boston news stations produced elegiac 25th anniversary specials to commemorate the Blizzard of '78.

Making fun of a Boston accent is only funny when we do it.

Remember Robin Williams' Oscar-nominated performance in Good Will Hunting? It's a miracle an angry lynch mob from Southie didn't storm the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion. If a gifted mimic like Williams can't capture the local inflection, the likelihood that you can is slim-to-none. "Pahking the cah in Hahvid Yahd" may be funny in Pocatello, Idaho, but it's "retahdid" to us, so save your "wicked pissah's" for visits home. The strange caveat to this is that we expect you to find it uproariously funny when we make fun of the way you talk. In other words, it's fair dinkum for us to do a bad Crocodile Dundee impression for a group of Australians, but the second they call one of us a "chowdah head," it's time to take it outside.

Discussing New York in general—and, more specifically, how anything there might be superior—is verboten.

It goes beyond the patently obvious fact that the Yankees suck. Far beyond, in fact—all the way down to the deep-seated inferiority complex that Boston has harbored toward the Big Apple ever since it became bigger, richer and more important than us. Bostonians prefer to think of New York as a trading post that was settled by the Dutch and became overbuilt, overcrowded, overpriced and inhabited exclusively by smug, silly people who slavishly follow trends. By this reasoning, the Boston Symphony Orchestra is not only better than the New York Philharmonic but plays in a better concert hall (in fact,

...but were too afraid of pissing someone off to ask the most acoustically perfect in all of North America). That maestro James Levine has agreed to leave the Metropolitan Opera to become the BSO's conductor only proves this point, as do a zillion other examples: Harvard kicks Columbia's Ivy League ass; our subway system is not only older but cleaner; Larry Bird left French Lick, Ind., to come here, not Manhattan. And—oh, yes—the Yankees do suck.

Asking someone what they do is considered rude.
In some places, asking what line of work someone is in is a perfectly acceptable icebreaker, even, surprisingly, in one-industry towns like Washington, D.C., or Los Angeles, where the answers have an inevitable sameness. It's a sociological idiosyncrasy of Boston that this line of questioning is frowned upon, especially when one considers that other personal questions, no matter how inappropriate or intrusive, are not. So, it's not OK to ask an OB-GYN what he does for a living, but it's perfectly fine to ask pointed questions about his sex life.

If you go to Harvard, don't be coy.
The following conversation takes place in Boston every day, ad infinitum and ad nauseum:

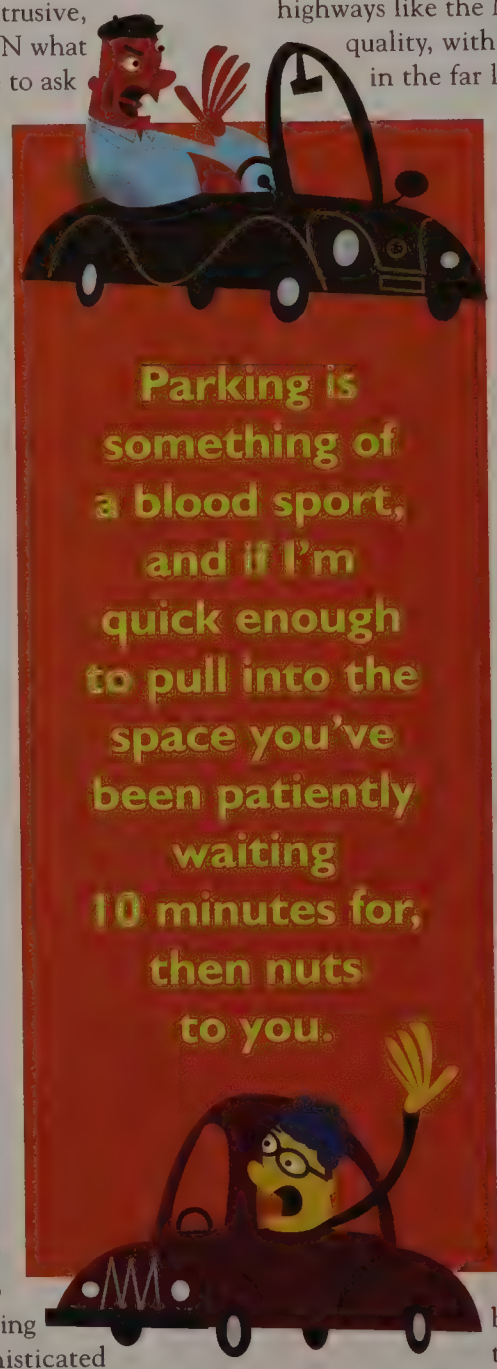
"I go to school here."
"Oh, where?"
"Cambridge."
"Oh. Where?"
"Ummm...Harvard?"

The local's response is liable to be something like, "Never heard of it" or "Didn't get in anywhere else, huh?" And rightly so. What's less becoming than false modesty in a know-it-all? So you scored 1,600 on your SATs. We're not impressed. Greater Boston probably has more Nobel laureates per capita than any other city in the world, so drop the pretense. That goes for MIT students as well.

A Phi Beta Kappa key will get you further than fake tits or overdeveloped pecs.
While we're on the subject of intellect, it's a good time to point out that just as offensive as the demure Ivy League Ph.D. candidate is the proudly ditsy girl or willfully ignorant guy. Not that we don't have our fair share of mental pygmies and troglodytes here, but Boston is a smart city. Pretending you don't know it's stupid to flick your cigarette butt into a flower bed at the Public Garden or saying something like "Europe is such a sophisticated country" is neither cute nor sexy. In places like Miami, where people walk around in nothing but thongs, being anatomically perfect but cerebrally deficient might be acceptable. Here, it's lame. In other words: Being blond is perfectly OK; acting blond isn't.

Having fashion sense is an eccentricity.
Yes, there are those anomalous individuals who make Boston look stylish with their tragically hip street wear or up-to-the-minute designer duds. But beyond the boutiques of Newbury Street and the odd fashion plate, Boston, at its core, is defiantly backward in sartorial matters. At the theater or an elegant restaurant, you'll probably encounter woefully underdressed people in jeans and sneakers. Anywhere else, this would be an abomination, but in Boston, it's not uncommon to see a prominent socialite arrive at a black-tie event wearing a ball gown and gardening clogs. If questioned about this, she will wave her hand dismissively and offer some excuse about the weather or a complete non sequitur like "I came straight from the office" (as if that were an excuse). This is because we want you to believe we're too high-minded to concern ourselves with such trivialities or that we're shabby-chic. The sad fact of the matter is that we're just clueless and cheap.

You may be my best friend, but if I'm behind the wheel, all bets are off.
Much has been said about the driving habits of Bostonians, and all of it is true. "Erratic" would be the charitable way to describe the observance of basic laws, and it wouldn't take a board-certified psychiatrist to see that this is a city in the grip of a collective and chronic case of road rage. As a result, highways like the Mass. Pike have taken on an oddly British quality, with maddeningly slow drivers crawling along in the far left lane, and cars going 80 mph whizzing past them on the right, their drivers extending a middle-finger salute. Parking, meanwhile, is something of a blood sport, and if I'm quick enough to pull into the space you've been patiently waiting 10 minutes for, then nuts to you. Similarly, the most common way in which new arrivals to Boston take their lives into their own hands is to park in a spot that someone else has dug out after a snowstorm. These are clearly marked with stolen orange traffic cones, lawn chairs or other household detritus, and violating this uniquely Boston rule will earn you anything from key marks in your paint job to a trip to the emergency room. As for parking tickets, they're an unavoidable fact of life here, and our meter maids make Cruella De Vil look like Mary Poppins.



Don't ask for directions if you expect to be able to follow them.
Unless you were born hardwired with an internal global positioning system, you'll never find your way around here, but asking for directions won't help. What you'll hear is advice like "Don't pay any attention to the sign that says 128—it's Route 95, and if you want to go north, head south." Or, if you happen to ask one of our many Irish citizens, their points of reference will consist entirely of Roman Catholic landmarks, as in "Pass St. Agnes on the left and the convent where my buddy Fitzy's sister is the mother superior, then look for the big bathtub Mary on the corner. If you get to Our Lady of Perpetual Suffering, you've gone too far." Contrary to the way this sounds, we're not a bunch of incoherent lunatics. It just happens that we live in a city where it makes perfect, logical sense to say "the corner of Tremont and Tremont."

There are numerous other ways in which Bostonians differ from everyone else, but we hope these basic rules will help newcomers acclimate. Three final bits of advice: If someone asks "Wanna spucky?" they're not proposing that you join them in the latest dance craze; they're asking if you'd like a submarine sandwich. When you hear someone ask for a "shadnay," they're ordering a glass of the white wine varietal known elsewhere as chardonnay. And finally: "Scrod" is not the past tense of "screw." Keep these things in mind, and you'll fit in just fine around here...in about 30 or 40 years. iB

10 GREAT PLACES TO MEET PEOPLE IN BOSTON

1. First Fridays at the MFA
On the first Friday of every month, the Museum o Fine Arts hosts a party that's like a cross between sorority mixer and a singles bar. The art provides natural topic of conversation; just don't ask th woman you're trying to pick up if she looks like on of Gaugin's subjects without her clothes on.

2. Group therapy or 12-Step programs
In these sessions, you're guaranteed to have at leas one thing in common, such as a tortured childhoo or an addiction. And all the probing and soul-search ing that goes on guarantees that you'll hear th worst about each other directly from the sourc rather than hearing it from your friends later on.

3. The Bristol Lounge at the Four Seasons
The high-and-mighty go to this super-swanky pian bar to tipple before and after social engagement It's a happy hunting ground for anyone in search of rich spouse, and it's also remarkably cozy for som place so fancy.

4. The Esplanade
Whether you're taking in a concert at the Hat Shell, biking, blading or running along the path sailing with Community Boating or just catchi some rays on the grass, Boston's backyard is outstanding place to meet people, and the view are spectacular.

5. Charity work or event committees
What better way to win friends than to show ever one what a wonderful person you are by donati your time and energy to a worthy cause? Be for warned, though: You will be judged by the compa you keep.

6. The Sports Club/LA
If you like 'em fit and financially secure, Boston's pr mier gym is the spot to meet the person of yo dreams. As social as it is luxurious, there's an ou door patio for warm-weather schmoozing, a café a quick bite to eat, and a bar and fine-dining esta lishment for more substantial socializing.

7. Laundromat or laundry room
At least you'll know how they look at their v worst, since most folks don't do laundry until th absolutely have to. Added bonus: the ability to p view sheets and undergarments.

8. Jury duty
Few things bring people together like a summon serve on a jury. By doing your civic duty, which u ally means sitting on uncomfortable furniture large, stuffy room until someone tells you to home, you can meet people from all walks of Just don't expect much from anyone who is brou into the building wearing handcuffs.

9. Adult education classes
The continuing-education courses offered by a ed centers include classes on networking and flir but any subject, from cooking to pottery, will you in touch with new people.

10. The Enormous Room
The entertainment at this funky Central Sq hangout ranges from jam bands to poetry rea to performance art, and lots of it is provoc enough to spark conversation.

Home. Your home is a reflection of your own unique sense of style. Each piece of furniture, every fabric, drapery or pattern is a statement of your individuality. That's why interior designer William Hulsman created Bill Hulsman Ready-to-Wear Home Fashions. He's filled his showroom with beautifully designed furniture, lighting, rugs, bedding and home accessories just waiting for you to make your own. Choose from the nearly limitless supply of fabrics to custom upholster that sofa or chair, or to create that drapery or pillow. Reasonably priced and available in 30 days, they're created for you and can't be found anywhere else. So, let Bill assist you in creating your own unique environment. After all, there's only one you.

22 Elkins Street, Third Floor, Boston, Massachusetts (617) 464.7920 home

BILL HULSMAN

ready to wear home fashions

Mike Hodgson, who mov
Cambridge from New York, e
the company of strangers a 1369 Coffee H

NEW to the NEIGHBORHOOD

DO BOSTONIANS DESERVE THEIR REPUTATION FOR STANDOFFISHNESS AND INDIFFERENCE TO "OUTSIDERS"? NEWCOMERS TO THE CITY TELL IT LIKE THEY SEE IT.

BY CAITLIN O'NEIL PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

ike people, cities get reputations: shallow, glamorous Los Angeles; sophisticated, fast-talking New York; bohemian San Francisco. Boston is known as both brash and clannish, a place where people are as loyal to their cronies as they are to their families. But is the city still the insular enclave of John Collins Bossidy's 1910 toast, "Where the Lowells talk to the Cabots/And the Cabots talk only to God?" r do the natives look more kindly on newcomers these days? To find out, we spoke to me men and women who've moved to Boston in recent years.

THE WELCOME WAGON

ewcomers quickly learn that Boston is a town of tradition, tight ties and testiness. The lo-ls' loyalty to the way it's always been can make them seem off-putting and old-fashioned, t it's often this same pride of place that many newcomers hope to share eventually.

For California native Kerry Williams, 32, Boston has more historic value than the est Coast. "It has a sense of community and seems to combine the old with the w," she says. But her fellow Golden Staters couldn't see the draw. "When I told ople back home that I wanted to move here, they said, 'Why do you want to go to ew England? It's cliquey and rude and not open.'" She moved here from San Jose Labor Day 2001 and quickly found the opposite to be true. "People often go out of eir way to bust the stereotype. I met a guy at a garden party who is also a runner. fore the night was over, he'd invited me to run with a group that meets at Nike-wn on Wednesday nights."

"I thought people would be rude, fast paced and disrespectful," adds chiropractor Je-ny Tietgen, 26, from Kansas City, Kan. But he wound up feeling welcome even before 'd moved in. Taking a break from apartment hunting one afternoon, he stopped into Waterfront Bar in the North End. "I was trying to decide between two studio apart-nts, one $1,200 and one $1,030. Apartments are $300 a month in the Midwest, so I d no way to know what might be better. The owner of the bar had me read out the ings and told me which was the better neighborhood for my money."

Williams has a similar story from her first day on Beacon Hill. "I had trouble getting a ce of furniture into my apartment," she says. "I went to the True Value on Cambridge eet looking for a saw. The owner was very friendly. When he found out what I needed it he said, 'Why don't you just borrow it and bring it back?' That surprised me."

Many newcomers from the larger cities of the South and West say they were surprised ind how easily they made connections here and credit Boston's small neighborhoods l walkable streets.

I didn't realize how 'small town-y' it really was for a big-name city," says recent icago transplant Samar Sen, 24. He says he immediately liked "the narrow, cobbled ets and the fact that you could walk everywhere. It reminded me of my days in Lon- and traveling around Europe."

Laura Howenstine, 34, arrived in June 2001 from Houston, where "you have to drive rywhere," she says. "Houston is a place where there's not a lot of community. I nted to live in a real, traditional city." The Oklahoma native says that Boston has ed the bill. "If I'm out running in the morning, people chat on the street and shout 'Five miles, way to go!' I think the South End is a very friendly place; there's a lot of mmunity in general. I feel like I know more of my neighbors here."

People will tell you differently, but I've had good experiences in Boston," says wenstine. "I was in the South End one day, hanging around looking at places, and I t to the Garden of Eden for a cup of tea and a baguette. I started chatting with the waiter. I told him I was looking for a job, looking to live in the South End. He wouldn't let me pay for breakfast. Another morning this past winter, I was walking to my car and a middle-aged woman driving past rolled down her window and said, 'Do you need a ride somewhere? You look really cold.'"

Others find the scale of a colonial city familiar but haven't found the community connections they left behind. "The street where we lived in Philadelphia was small, out of the way, and everyone knew each other. People would meet on the street and look through your front window and say, 'I like what you've done with the place,'" says Greg Durkin, 39, who moved to the South End in June 2002 with his partner, Jeff Goldsmith, 33. "People talk of the South End being a real community. We've found that people are friendly within our building but it ends at the door. You'll see the same people on the street every day, walking their dogs and going to the store, and they don't say hi."

Durkin and Goldsmith say that they don't consider Bostonians to be unfriendly; rather, they don't seem especially outgoing. "An acquaintance of ours told me people in Boston won't talk to you for three years. Then, bang! After three years, they start talking to you," says Goldsmith. "Because people have been here forever, they have well-established friends and don't need new ones."

"People are definitely not as friendly here as they are in the South. I've had several people here tell me that I am incredibly friendly, and I'm not even trying to be," says Lauren McDonald, 22, who moved east from Dallas last July.

Mike Hodgson, 31, a New Yorker who has been living and working in Cambridge for the past year and a half, says that Bostonians are a tough crowd to befriend because they're out of practice. "My impression is that few people in New York stay there for their whole lives. So in a sense, everyone is new," he says. "In Boston, people have been here forever. There is a tendency to stick to people and places they know, stick to traditions, stick with their friends. They're all set."

OUT ON THE TOWN

When it comes to friends and lovers, what newcomers find in Boston can depend on where they're looking. With a social scene that runs the gamut from bar crawl to charity ball, Boston's love of tradition is always apparent. Familiar faces and favorite bars rule the day.

"From the little I've seen, [Boston]'s more down-to-earth than D.C.," says Bessmarie Moll, 26, who moved here from Washington, D.C., to take a job at The Atlantic Monthly. "People don't go to get drinks and ask, 'What are you doing now? Where are you working? It's more, 'What's going on with your family?' It just feels so much more human."

"In Boston, I expected to find people with ducks on their pants, in plaid shorts, with 'Jr.' and 'Sr.' and numbers after their names, people who summered in Woonsocket. Preppy, WASPy folks wearing their Docksiders out to the boating party," says Hodgson. "There is an element of that, but it's more eclectic than I expected."

Still, he finds people in Boston are also "less jokey, less open than people in New York," where people are ready for the strange, the odd, the unexpected. But he also enjoys what he sees as a challenge. "People are so not used to talking to strangers here that it's kind of fun to throw people off."

Sen agrees that Bostonians aren't big on change. "The bar and club scene here is very strange, I have to admit," he says. "It's always Tia's after work, Caprice on Monday, Pravda on Wednesday, Venu on Friday. Because of this, you seem to run into people all the time. This was never the case for my network in Chicago, because we would go to a different place every weekend of the year and not know anyone."

Such lockstep partying patterns can even make it difficult for newcomers to meet new people. "The dating scene leaves a little to be desired because everyone knows everyone," says Sen, who says he finds Boston women unapproachable. "I have noticed a lot of 'old money' princess types who project a very stuck-up and intimidating stance." But one man's ice princess is another man's straight shooter. "People are more honest here," says Tietgen. "You buy a girl a drink and talk to her, and she will be direct about whether she really wants to talk to you or not."

Women who are new to Boston, on the other hand, say they find Boston men more accessible. "I've found men more outgoing here than in San Francisco," says Katie Eagan, 27, a survivor of the Silicon Valley technology boom and bust. "Here they'll come right out and ask for your number."

Williams says that in her experience it's been easier to meet men than women. "Women are more competitive in Boston. They see you as the competition. But generally I find that if you are friendly to people, they will open up."

How friendliness turns into friendship is a more complex question. Durkin tells of a promising meeting at Laurel in the Back Bay on a crowded Friday night. "We sat at the bar with a group of guys, chatted and exchanged business cards. They said, 'Let's get together sometime.' But we never heard from them."

"A friend of mine years ago said that the older you are when you move somewhere, the more urgency you have to settle down and make friends," says Goldsmith. "But the people already living wherever you've moved don't have that urgency. And we've found that to be true in Boston."

Until new friendships are formed, newcomers can always fly solo. "I feel very comfortable doing stuff alone here," says Hodgson, who frequents Cambridge haunts like the Enormous Room, the B-Side Lounge and the 1369 Coffee House in Central Square. "There are lots of weird, loner academics in Cambridge. So there's a quirk factor that makes it OK to be alone."

Jeremy Tietgen, a transplant from the Midwest, got some friendly apartment-hunting help at the North End's Waterfront Bar.

"PEOPLE ARE MORE HONEST HERE. YOU BUY A GIRL A DRINK, AND SHE WILL BE DIRECT ABOUT WHETHER SHE REALLY WANTS TO TALK TO YOU."

FITTING IN

But what is a Bostonian anyway? In a city that has attracted so many "outsiders," so-called natives may be shouldering too much of the credit or blame for the impression that the city makes on newcomers. "When people say people are unfriendly in the Northeast, I think that's less true in big cities because they attract people from everywhere," says Howenstine. In Boston, she says, "chances are you're talking to someone who's not from Boston. If you're talking to me, you're talking to someone from Oklahoma."

Mark Schwitau, an Air Force first lieutenant and a transplant from San Antonio, Texas, has also found the city more varied than he expected. "Actually, I don't know many people in Boston who are from Boston," he says. "Eighty percent of my friends aren't from here." Which raises the question: If newcomers are befriending each another, where else could the locals be but together? Have they succeeded in closing themselves off without anyone being the wiser?

Katie Martin, 33, who returned to the East Coast after living in Boulder, Colo., and Menlo Park, Calif., believes that there is an old Boston network, but with some effort newcomers can gain entry. "You have to get into the network somehow, and once you're in, you can meet lots of people," says Martin. "I feel that I'm just as guilty, going out with my friends from Colby [College] and not branching out. It's like a bad habit we all fall into."

But Eagan disagrees. "I don't feel that I'm left out because I didn't go to school around here," she says. "I think it's harder to make friends in general at my age. I don't think it's particular to Boston."

"People in Boston are set in their ways," says Goldsmith. Finding the social scene a bust, Durkin and Goldsmith have enrolled in a French class they heard about through one of Durkin's colleagues. They hope that by doing what they enjoy, they'll eventually find like-minded people who will become close friends.

Schwitau also endorses that strategy. "There's so much to do, so many hobby groups to join. Bongo drums or French classes. You just need to take the first step," he says. "If you're friendly, you can turn anywhere into a good place to meet people."

Howenstine recently started lessons at the Boston Sailing Center, where she "met another whole group of people. I had a beer with my instructor and another classmate after class last night," she says. She's also met people through the Wharton Club of Boston, where she is now on the board. "If your school has an alumni club in Boston, that's helpful because you can plug into the scene. There's an instant connection."

"What I've always found really helpful is finding people that were in the same boat I was," says Martin of her many moves to new cities. "It's not like you have to be lifelong best friends with them; you can explore the city together and find new things and be open to new things. If you can find a group of people who share your interests, I'd say that's the most important thing." iB

"My building is like Melrose Place," says Kerry Williams (center), shown here with fellow tenants on their Beacon Hill rooftop.

TAKE IT FROM US

How does a newcomer make friend and develop a satisfying social life i Boston? Here's advice from those wh have done it.

"In a big city like this, it's easy to fin roommates, and that's one way t meet tons of new people. I'd also sa going to church or playing a sport lik basketball are good ways to get ou there. As I told my buddies i Chicago and Denver, be outgoing, b approachable. Don't be afraid to sa 'Hi, I just moved here...' People sta home and complain they're no meeting people, but if you don't tr you won't."
—Jeremy Tietgen, South Boston

"Know the activities that interest yo and get involved. If you like interna tional relations, get involved in th Kennedy School. If you like sailing, joi one of the sailing clubs. Get involved your alumni group. It's not any on thing; it's all these things together."
—Laura Howenstine, South End

"Always try to get contacts before yo move—friends of current friends, fam ily friends, anything—so that when yo arrive you have someone to talk t about where it's safe to live. The through roommates, or work buddie you can start sampling the local scen slowly. Go out with all the differe groups you can."
— Samar Sen, Brookline

"I found my roommate on Craigslis org. She's lived here five years an has taken me out and introduce me to her friends. I would say th greatest thing to have when yo move here would be a great room mate. She's been a total suppo system."
—Lauren McDonald, Back Bay

"When I first got here, I attended mee ings of the Young Friends and Neig bors Club in Beacon Hill. I also went charity events like the Black and Whi Ball and the Commonwealth Coura Foundation fund-raiser. I recomme getting involved in networking even or a sporting group where you'll me like-minded people. I've met so great people through soccer at t Boston Ski & Sports Club."
—Kerry Williams, Beacon Hill

"Don't take people personally right the bat, because there's such a diff ent culture of behavior from city city. People here are more dire They scream a lot more. There more fights in bars, hands down. very entertaining. Here it's nothing fensive if someone says, 'What the are you doing that for?' They're s ous. They want to know."
—Bessmarie Moll, North End

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Parris

Central Basement
Every Thursday Night

JOIN THE PATRIOTS IN PARRIS
EVERY GAME ON THE BIG SCREEN

AVAILABLE FOR PRIVATE OR CORPORATE FUNCTIONS

QUINCY MARKET BUILDING
FANEUIL HALL
617-248-9900

JOIN THE CLUB

GROUPS OF EVERY STRIPE OFFER BOSTONIANS AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONNECT WITH LIKE-MINDED SOULS

BY JULIE SURATT

Loner or joiner: Most of us fall into one category or the other. If you're reading Atonement for your book club, helping plan a fund-raiser at a local bar, playing volleyball twice a week or sorting canned food at the Greater Boston Food Bank, chances are you're a joiner. You seek the camaraderie that group activities provide.

Whether you're a newcomer to the city or your best friends have moved away, gotten married or started families, joining a group can be a great way to meet new people and make friends. Thousands of groups exist around the city—from social, charitable and educational to cultural and recreational. The focus of each may be different, but the groups all share a similar goal: to provide a forum for people with similar interests to gather on a regular basis to socialize, go on outings, plan events, host parties, help others or simply play games.

Groups offer their members a sense of connection to the community, something that's not always easy to find in Boston, according to many city dwellers. "When I first moved here, I met a lot of people right away at parties and by going out with coworkers," says Tara Sanders, 27, an administrative assistant from Toledo, Ohio. "But after a year had passed, I realized that most of them were still just acquaintances. I'd see them out every once in a while, but there was no sense of continuity."

Without a regular excuse to gather with the same group of people, or the familiar social interactions we once enjoyed in a college environment, it may be tough to turn acquaintances into friends, given many Bostonians' penchant for working long hours and their reputation for being "rather aloof," as Sanders puts it.

It's not that Bostonians aren't interested in making friends; rather, some people say they don't make the effort or find the opportunities necessary to maintain friendships. Joining a group forces you to interact with others when your inclination might be to retreat to the couch after a long day at work. Ph.D. student Naomi Wernick, 28, joined Jewish InterAction—a social group that helps people in their 20s and 30s connect with the city's Jewish community—after ending a long relationship. "I needed to get out and meet new people," Wernick says.

Stacia Zukroff, 34, chair of the Appalachian Mountain Club Young Members Committee, joined the AMC when she moved back to Boston from Washington state and discovered all her friends were married with children. "They didn't have a lot of time for me," she says. Fast-forward five years and, "It's insane. I have more friends now than I know what to do with," she laughs. "The AMC is the best thing that's happened to me."

So have we piqued your interest? Join us as we take a look at some of the organizations that can keep you active and in touch.

A BIT OF ART AND CULTURE

Banish the thought of stodgy men and women standing around pretentiously discussing the merits of Jackson Pollock or the finer points of Mozart. Most of the local museums, theaters, dance companies and music organizations sponsor groups that cater to young professionals, offering not only preferential viewing privileges but also fun social events.

The Museum of Fine Arts Museum Council regularly brings together adults ages 21 to 45 to introduce them to the departments of the museum and provide networking and social opportunities. Unlike MFA Fridays, a weekly gathering for singles featuring live music and cocktails (with a little bit of art on the side), the council is geared toward patrons who desire greater involvement with the museum. "Members of the council are interested in art and want to support the museum philanthropically," says Teryn Weintz, the council's development officer. By contributing $500 in dues per year—a substantial discount from the $2,500-per-year contribution of museum patrons—council members have an opportunity to go behind the scenes of traveling exhibitions, for example, and talk to the curators about the paintings. The dues provide vital annual operating funds for the museum.

The same is true for the Museum of Science Museum Council, a group of young professionals ages 20 to 40. For $200, members get a behind-the-scenes view of museum exhibitions and invitations to attend museum social functions that make science a lot more fun than it was in high school physics. During the recent Science Behind Wine dinner, for example, participants learned how

IN THE LOOP

The following are just some of the ways to get involved and meet others. Many groups are free. Prices are for one-year membership, unless otherwise indicated.

ARTS/CULTURAL GROUPS

Boston Ballet's U35
The Boston Ballet's U35 program—aimed at the under-35 audience—features discounted tickets to three ballets and one pre-performance cocktail reception. 617-695-6955. www.bostonballet.org. $195.

Boston Philharmonic's Encore
The Philharmonic's young-members program is geared toward classical enthusiasts ages 25 to 45. Encore members attend two concert receptions and this season's cocktail event organized with the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum's Courtside Circle (see below). 617-236-0999. www.bostonphil.org. $150.

Boston Symphony Orchestra's Repartee
See story for more details. 617-266-7575. www.bso.org. $96-$184.

Huntington Theatre Company's Night Club
Theatergoers ages 21 to 35 meet for a pre- or post-theater reception the first Thursday of each Huntington main-stage production. The Out and About Club—the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender version of Night Club—gathers for the second Wednesday performance of each production. 617-266-0800. www.huntingtontheatre.org. $26-$41 for Night Club; $14-$69 for Out and About.

Institute of Contemporary Art's New Group
Young professionals and art enthusiasts engage in Boston's contemporary-art scene through social, educational and fund-raising events. 617-927-6612. www.icaboston.org/membership. $100.

Isabella Gardner Museum's Courtyard Circle
Young members (roughly 21 to 40) partake in private exhibition tours, interact with curators and visiting artists, and receive priority seating at concerts. 617-278-5136. www.gardnermuseum.org. $500-$1,500.

Museum of Fine Arts' Museum Council
See story for more details. 617-369-3268. www.mfa.org/council. $500 council members; $1,000 fellows.

Museum of Science's Museum Council
See story for more details. 617-589-0473. www.mos.org/council. $200.

SERVICE/CHARITABLE GROUPS

Boston Cares
See story for more details. 617-563-0452. www.bostoncares.org. $10-$30.

Boston Jaycees
The Jaycees (Junior Chamber of Commerce) offer young professionals ages 21 to 40 the opportunity to participate in charity events and social activities and develop business contacts. 617-367-5710. www.bostonjaycees.org.

Franciscan Children's Hospital's Young Professional Council
See story for more details. 617-779-1414. www.fchrc.org.

Junior League of Boston
The JLB is a 1,500-member volunteer association for women. Community activities focus on mentoring teenage girls and include serving on foster-care review panels, staffing the Women's Lunch Place and one-day volunteer projects. 617-536-9644. www.jlboston.org.

Single Volunteers Boston
See story for more details. www.svboston.org.

SPORTS/RECREATIONAL GROUPS

Appalachian Mountain Club Young Members Committee
See story for more details. 617-523-0655. www.amcboston.org/youngmembers/index.html. $25-$40.

Boston Amateur Golf Society
Open to golfers of all skill levels, this group offers tournaments for golfers who want to compete in organized events. 617-327-3698. www.bagsgolf.com. $165.

Boston Ski & Sports Club
The BSSC has athletic leagues including soccer, kickball and softball and organizes weekend skiing and hiking trips. 617-789-4070. www.bssc.com. $60.

Boston Ultimate Disc Alliance
See story for more details. www.buda.org. $40 per season.

Cambridge Sports Union
This group hosts weekly events, mostly running but also softball, hiking, skiing and orienteering, for participants ranging from beginners to nationally competitive athletes. www.csurun.org. $15.

Charles River Wheelmen
This group of men and women gets together for weekly bike rides and social events. Cyclists at all levels are welcome. 617-964-5727. www.crw.org. $20.

Community Boating
See story for more details. 617-523-1038. www.communityboating.org. $175.

ETHNIC/RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

African American Federation of Greater Boston
The Federation supports community-based organizations that serve the social, educational, health and community-relations needs of the African American community in Boston. www.massagenda.com/afamfed. $10.

Arab-American Young Professionals in Boston
AAYP-Boston is part of a national nonprofit organization for young professionals of Arab descent who live in the United States. Events include networking socials, volunteering at the Greater Boston Food Bank, picnics and ski trips. 617-970-5517. www.aaypboston.org.

Arlington Street Church
This Unitarian church offers worship as well as programs like a social justice group, yoga classes and gay and lesbian support groups. 617-536-7050. www.ascboston.com.

Jewish InterAction
See story for more details. 617-457-8666. www.jinteraction.org.

Latino Professional Network
The LPN's main mission is to create career, educational and social opportunities for Latinos. Events include workshops, volunteer days and networking parties. 617-247-1818. www.lpn.org.

National Association of Asian American Professionals Boston
This organization promotes the career advancement and leadership development of Asian American professionals in all fields through networking and by promoting community service and diversity. 781-937-7072. www.naaap.org. $35.

Park Street Church
See story for more details. 617-523-3383. www.parkstreet.org.

Continued on next page

Museum of Science Museum Council

Boston Symphony Orchestra's Repartee

wine is made and then tasted samples. Every year, the museum hosts an evening called the S-Games, where members team up and visit problem-solving stations around the museum. At one station, the entire team had to climb on a seesaw and keep it balanced. Drinks flow liberally during these events, but first and foremost, "it's an intellectual organization," says Kimberly Slater, president of the council. "We're not nerdy techies, but we're all really committed to science and understanding."

The Boston Symphony Orchestra offers a subscription program, called Repartee, for music enthusiasts from ages 21 to 38. Members can choose to attend three or four concerts, which are preceded by a cocktail reception and a brief talk by an orchestra member or a guest artist. "It's for people who want to learn more about music," says Sarah Manoog, BSO director of marketing and programs.

Ronda Brands, 38, felt compelled to join Repartee for the reduced ticket prices. "Plus, the group seating makes you feel more comfortable if you're attending a show by yourself," she says. While the focus is on the performance, Brands says she's made a few acquaintances, and she even found her current job by networking at a BSO event.

HELP OTHERS, HELP YOURSELF

If you're looking to meet people and give back to the community at the same time, try volunteering at one of the city's many local nonprofit organizations. Single Volunteers Boston (SVB) connects singles ages 25 to 35 who share an interest in volunteerism. Sign up on the organization's Web site to receive e-mail updates about the group's outings. For example, you can rake leaves or weed the gardens at Waltham Community Farm; scoop ice cream at WGBH's Ice Cream Fun Fest fund-raiser; or sort food at the Greater Boston Food Bank. "I try to keep an even male-female ratio at all events," says co-founder Stephanie Hayes. Each event is followed by a social activity at a local restaurant. "Our first goal is to provide one-shot volunteer opportunities for people who might not otherwise have the time for a longer commitment," says Hayes. "The second is to help people meet new friends. A lot of people are shy at first, but once they volunteer and then go out with the group afterward, they find conversation much easier."

Although SVB has nearly 1,000 members, participants begin to see familiar faces at events. Boston Cares, a larger organization, has more than 6,000 volunteers and publishes a list of more than 100 volunteer opportunities around the city every month. Susan Goldstein, 28, a volunteer with the nonprofit organization, says it can be more difficult to make friends at Boston Cares events due to the sheer number of participants. "The people I meet are great, but I haven't made any friends," Goldstein says. "You don't really exchange names. We volunteer, and then we all go home."

Goldstein has had more success meeting friends through the Franciscan Children's Hospital's Young Professionals Council (YPC), whose 500 members, young professionals ages 22 to 35, gather four times a year at fund-raising events held at local bars or restaurants. "Most of us can't afford to pay a lot of money to attend a gala or an awards dinner, but we want to give back to the community," says Megan Lynch, the council's special events manager. So the events, held at restaurants like Tonic or Abe & Louie's, rarely cost more than $25. Goldstein, an organizational development manager, joined shortly after quitting a job that required her to travel out of state Monday through Friday. "I had some friends in the area, but I only saw them on weekends," Goldstein says. "I joined YPC and met loads of people. It's a very welcoming group."

A WIDER PLAYING FIELD

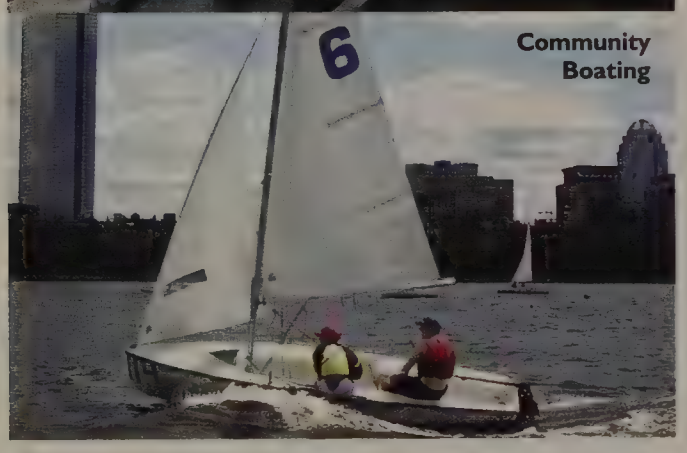
If making the strenuous climb up New Hampshire's Ammonoosuc Ravine Trail to the Lake of the Clouds Hut and then walking the ridge along scenic Crawford Path with eight other outdoor enthusiasts sounds like heaven, you're a perfect fit for the Appalachian Mountain Club Young Members Committee.

"The committee sprang out of a few AMC members' desire to do activities with people their age who have similar professional and career interests and similar life experiences," says Stacia Zukroff, chair of the AMC Young Members Committee. The group offers everything from kayaking, biking and skating trips to barbecues, potlucks and picnics, but "the number of outdoor activities far exceeds the social activities," says Zukroff. "Seventy five percent of our trips are hiking." Every month, the 2,000 members, who are in their 20s and 30s, receive an e-mail list of trips hosted by the Young Members. "Most people sign up for trips individually," says Megan Reilly, 26, an elementary school teacher who's gone on four excursions with AMC.

Single Volunteers Boston

Franciscan Children's Hospital's Young Professionals Council

Appalachian Mountain Club



Community Boating

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

Boston Young Professionals Association

If what you really want is just to have some fun and meet new people in a social setting, you're not alone. In fact, two young entrepreneurs have zeroed in on that urban yen and launched social-events groups this year.

Boston newcomer Anne Harrell founded the Boston Young Professionals Association this spring. Working as an accountant and planning events as a side job in Washington, D.C., Harrell got the urge to launch a young professionals' group like the one she was involved with in D.C. She moved to Boston and threw her first BYPA party in April at Felt—"We packed the top two floors," says Harrell. Since then, the group's membership has grown to more than 3,000 people, all professionals between the ages of 21 and 40. With the goal of introducing its members to new people, BYPA hosts three to eight events per month, and Harrell's proud that her group gives back to the community. Ten percent of the proceeds from her events—singles parties, theater outings, a Fourth of July cruise, a martini tasting, and even employment and financial seminars, to name a few—go to that month's designated charity. Membership's free, and event prices range from $5 to $200. Harrell says newcomers to the group are pleasantly surprised by its fun-loving, welcoming spirit: "People come to my events and say 'I can't believe how friendly everyone is.'" www.bostonypa.com.

Even newer than BYPA is Boston Unlisted, the brainchild of Kim Wallins, who, when we spoke to her, was poised to launch her first event—a margarita party Sept. 23 at Cottonwood Café with a guest list of 50. Wallins' concept is an upscale social group for 30-somethings, both single and married, who are looking to make new friends. "Boston is a younger city, and it can be difficult to find other 30-somethings," says Wallins, a Peabody native and tech salesperson by day. She emphasizes that her group "will not be a singles thing—I wanted to steer away from that. I have so many married woman friends who just want to meet girlfriends, for example." Upcoming Boston Unlisted events include Monday night football parties at Lir, The Bachelor viewing parties at Vox Populi, and a Bustonian field trip to a cornfield maze. Membership is free, and events range from $5 to $45. www.bostonunlisted.com.

The only downside Reilly cites is the lack of sustained, long-term contact with her fellow hikers. She finds that kind of connection as a member of the Boston Ultimate Disc Alliance, whose 70 or so teams accept beginners as well as more experienced players. The teams meet once or twice a week for games and practices in the fall and spring. "You're more likely to make close friends if you're on a team and see your teammates regularly than if you're going on one-day hiking trips," Reilly says.

BSO Repartee member Ronda Brands, who also enjoys the outdoors, recommends trying Community Boating, on the Esplanade. She learned how to sail by accompanying an experienced sailor on Charles River outings. "Usually there are a few other beginners with you in the boat, and you have time to chat," she says. "I met friends and went on a few dates through my experience at Community Boating."

SPIRITUAL AWAKENINGS

Founded nine years ago, Jewish InterAction provides social opportunities for Jewish people in their 20s and early 30s, who may not be as active in their synagogue or local Jewish Community Center as young adults of previous generations. The group hosts two or three events per week—from billiards to Shabbat dinners to tutoring underprivileged teens. Program associate Melissa Norman stresses that it's not just a singles program—JI boats 3,000 members, both single and married, straight and gay. "It's for people who want to meet other Jews, through volunteering, by celebrating Shabbat or by joining groups of people with common interests like film or folk dancing," says member Naomi Wernick. "If you want to go to a Friday night service or celebrate a holiday, you always have someone to go with."

The Park Street Church, a conservative congregational church, has two young-adult groups: Café, for people in their 20s, and Crosswalk, for those in their 30s. Both host small Bible study groups and organize monthly assemblies with guest speakers, and social and service projects throughout Boston—not to mention sports teams and dining clubs. Melissa Audette, 25, who moved to Boston from Nevada last summer, says she heard about the church from some Boston natives she met out west. "My main motivation was to find some kind of religious fellowship," she says, "but it's clearly a great social outlet as well. You know you're going to find people with similar interests."

SPECIAL INTERESTS

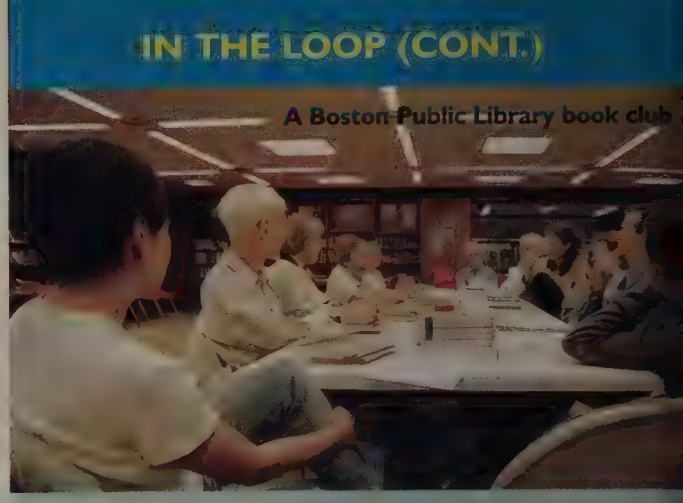
Does the thought of feasting on savory barbecue paired with a pint of a locally brewed lager make your mouth water? Are you looking for companions to discuss whether an ice age 600 million years ago paved the way for complex organisms to evolve? Are you a novice photographer looking to take your hobby to a new level?

If you answered yes to any of the above, there's a group for you. City living might be tough when it comes to finding parking or affordable housing, but the upside is that there's always at least a handful of other people who share your interests—no matter how obscure. For example, BeerSummit.com, a Web-based group for local lagerheads, sponsors beer-pairing dinners at Boston brew houses. Members of Café Scientifique, meanwhile, meet at a local bar to discuss hot topics in science. The Boston Camera Club meets weekly with the goal of advancing photography as an art and a science.

If none of those groups floats your boat, it's simply a matter of doing a quick search on the Internet to find an organization that matches your interests. Or, if you're really motivated, you could always start your own group. Wine Sisters USA, for example, is a Web site started by Weston resident Kindra Spector that can help you start a monthly wine-tasting group with fellow oenologists. Soon enough, your phone will be ringing off the hook and your Blackberry will be filled with appointments. Go forth, get connected and conquer! iB

Jewish InterAction

IN THE LOOP (CONT.)



A Boston Public Library book club

SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

BeerSummit.com
See story for more details. E-mail info@beersummit.com.

Boston Camera Club
See story for more details. www.photo-ne.com/BostonCC/.

Boston Public Library Book Clubs
Most of the Boston Public Library's branches host adult book discussion groups that meet monthly. The main branch's book group meets one Monday of the month at 7 pm. 617-536-5400, ext. 2339. www.bpl.org.

Café Scientifique
See story for more details. www.newscientist.com/hottopics/cafescientifique/us.jsp.

Philosophy Café
This philosophy discussion group, held on the third Tuesday of each month, is modeled on philosophy cafés in other cities in the U.S. and Europe. The informal discussion focuses on a range of topics in philosophy and its real-world applications. No expertise is required to participate. McIntyre & Moore Booksellers, 255 Elm St., Somerville. 617-629-4840. www.mcintyreandmoore.com.

Stitch 'n' Bitch
This knitting group for both women and men offers experienced and novice knitters a chance to meet and knit together. Get-togethers range from six to 12 people and meet Wednesday nights from 6-8 pm. Redline, 59 JFK St., Cambridge. 617-491-9851.

Stitch 'n' Bitch

Wine Sisters USA
See story for more details. www.winesisters.com. $100 one-time cost to register a club with the national group.

HARPOON BREWERY®

Harpoon Octoberfest

Boston, MA

Friday, October 3rd, 5:30 - 11:00 pm
Saturday, October 4th, 3:30 - 9:00 pm

★ NEW SATURDAY HOURS ★

Entrance closes by 9:30 pm Friday & 7:30 pm Saturday

At the Brewery, 306 Northern Ave., Boston. Come celebrate the fall season Harpoon-style with fresh Harpoon and UFO beers, German Oompah bands, live local rock bands, and great food including traditional German fare. Admission: $10 per person, includes a souvenir cup. Cash bar. Free shuttle from South Station. Parking available. MUST BE 21 YEARS OR OLDER WITH PROPER ID. LIMITED CAPACITY, SO COME EARLY. TICKETS NOT SOLD IN ADVANCE. For more information, call 888-HARPOON ext. 3, or visit www.harpoonbrewery.com

Love Beer. Love Life. Harpoon.®

Boston, MA & Windsor, VT

BE THE BELLE OF THE BOUDOIR IN THESE MEMORABLE UNMENTIONABLES

UN

Black Label Kama Sutra pink print camisole, $184; matching thong, $84. Both at La Perla. Bracelet, $3.50; earrings, $2.50. Both at H&M

DRESS

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE
PHOTOGRAPHED BY BILL STREICHER

Memories bustier in black, $432, matching brief, $108; black gloves, $22. All at Claire's Boutique.

Black Label lace slip in gold and pink, $238 at La Perla. Gold shoes, $69.99 at Lord & Taylor.

Black Label lace soft bra in white and black, $129; Black Label thong in satin white, $49; Virgo stockings, $61. All at La Perla.

H&M
350 Washington St.
617-482-7001

La Perla
250 Boylston St.
617-423-5709

Lord & Taylor
760 Boylston St.
617-262-6000

Makeup and hair:
Robbie Nelson

Model: Jennifer for Reinhard

Garden terrace now open

New Bar Menu

Perfect portions at perfect prices
Nightly after 5:30 at the Bar

House Smoked BBQ'd Chicken Wings
Harvest Buffalo Burgers with Tobacco Onion Jam
Twice "Baked" Calamari, Thai Basil, Honey-Cherry Pepper Glaze
and more...

Wine &

Featuring our special After Nine Wine List
of value priced bottles

Dine

The New Harvest Bar Menu of the season's favorite flavors

After Nine

Available in the bar and dining room
Sunday through Thursday after 9pm

CONTEMPORARY CUISINE
INSPIRED BY AMERICAN CLASSICS

HARVEST HARVEST HARVEST

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

best outdoor dining

Lunch, Dinner, Bar Menu & Sunday Brunch 617.868.2255
[ON THE WALKWAY] 44 Brattle Street, Harvard Square
EVENING VALET PARKING ON MOUNT AUBURN STREET

Thank You Boston

for recognizing us as Boston's Top Steakhouse,
Top Seafood Restaurant &
Top American Restaurant.

2002/2003 Zagat Survey

GRILL 23 & Bar

The Classic Steak & Seafood Grill.

161 Berkeley Street 617.542.2255 www.grill23.com

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

EXCELSIOR

Cuisine & Cocktails

The Bar at Excelsior

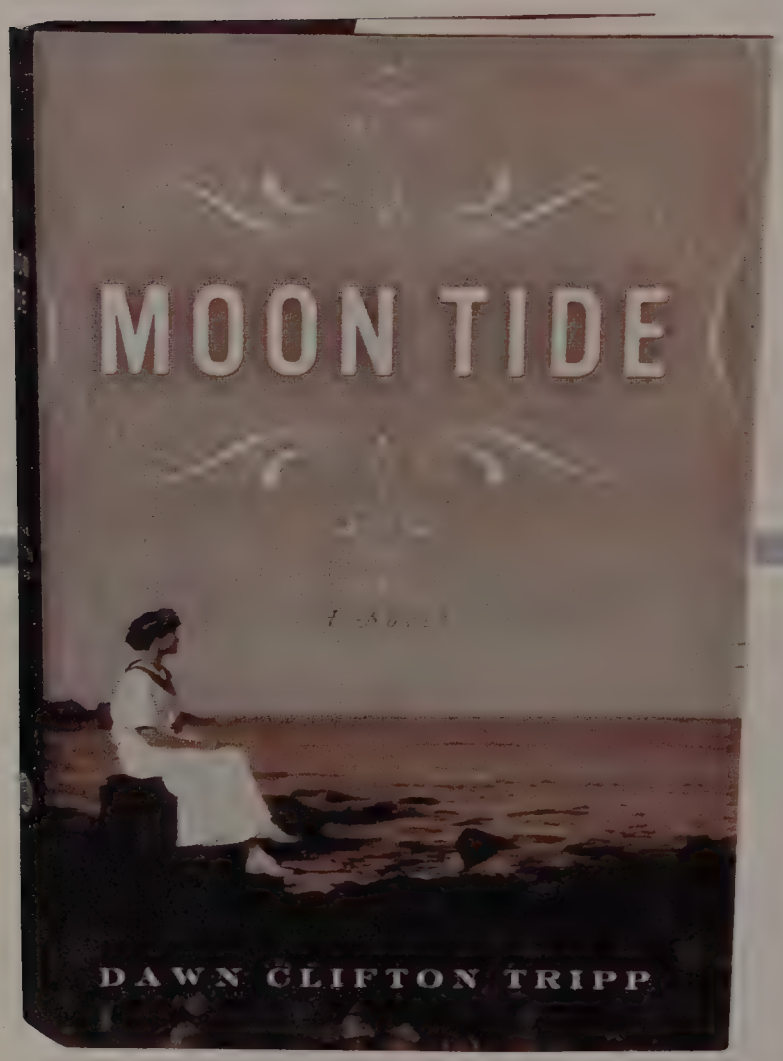
The Heritage
LUNCH
On The Garden
DINNER
272 Boylston Street
BAR MENU
617.426.7878

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



STORMY WEATHER

Moon Tide*, the first novel by Harvard graduate Dawn Clifton Tripp, poetically chronicles various strata of a largely Irish community in the early 20th century in Westport, Mass.

"Down below, at the bottom of the hill, the river is silver, its surface hammered in the light," writes Dawn Clifton Tripp in Moon Tide. Silver is the color, almost the substance of this dreamy novel set in early-1900s Westport, Mass. Drifting poetically in and out of the minds of her characters, Tripp weaves together the lives of the people in the town, masters and their servants, many of them Irish. Elizabeth—who lives in a big house with her widowed son and his daughter, Eve—is tended to by the earthy, mysterious Maggie. There's a magic-herbalist witchiness to Maggie, giving the character an almost Colonial flavor. The men in the book love her, and one of the roiling themes of the story is the parallel, class-crossing romances that unfurl over long stretches of time in the lives of Elizabeth and Eve. The climactic 1938 hurricane is the perfect vehicle for conveying near-mysticism, and that watery onslaught, dangerous and beautiful, dramatically alters the lives of all concerned.

THE FOOT BONE'S CONNECTED TO EVERYTHING

Rachel Ann Payne, board certified reflexologist, gives treatments to your feet, hands or both. Traditional treatment and the more aggressive Rwo Shur method are available. Prices range from $35 to $80. Her Wellness Gardens practice has locations in Harvard Square and Marblehead. Call 781-789-1344.

According to reflexology, the foot is a microcosm of the body, a sort of Mini-Me where the toes correspond to the head and the heel represents the pelvis. Reflexology's roots are ancient, found in such places as Egypt, China and India. And like that other paradigm-shifting approach, acupuncture, it's both intriguingly different from Western medicine and complementary to it. The intricate manipulations of the art include a corkscrew kneading gesture called "thumb walking" and "the wave," which soothingly yet stimulatingly moves your feet in ways you can't do yourself. Different from massage, Payne's various techniques include imprinting a kind of intricate fingertip hieroglyphics on the 7,000 nerve endings in the feet. At a distance from the heart, and away from the actual organs and glands, the foot becomes a sort of metaphor for the rest of the body, an ambassador t those places. Payne says that by stimulating energetic pathways and breaking up toxic "congestion treatments may relieve conditions ranging from everyday stress to debilitating illnesses. Her footsic manner is respectful, responsive, and soothing—you just lie there with a lavender pillow on your eyes.

MANY PENNY CANDIES, TONS OF CARDS

Hidden Sweets, a store offering candy, cards and gifts, has opened a bigger location at 25 Brattle St., Cambridge. Th movie-side store still hides at 6 Church St. Call 617-497-2600.

Hidden Sweets has expanded with a second, larger location. While the old store occupies a hidden sp on Church Street, the new store's planted prominently on Brattle Street, with doors opened wide Harvard Square's bustling streetlife. True to its name, bins and bins of bulk candy, 300 varieties in a line an enormous wall. Among the polyglot yummies: chocolate-covered Oreos and orange peel, Bost Baked Beans in a crock, Gummi Bears and peanut butter pretzel balls, plus eight feet of sugar-free goo ies. The store has many nooks and you can browse the vast card sections as at a bookstore. There are holiday sections (it's already black-cat Halloween, and you can still get that Rosh Hashanah card). T sympathy-card area has sad music playing. Hysterically funny cards abound, and gay-themed cards here too. Upstairs, T-shirts of the Harvard persuasion, surprisingly cheap, sate tourist hunger for 021 ness. Comic tchotchkes—Grow a Girlfriend, Freud bobbleheads—satisfy the jokey-gift urge. See, t the more serious items, including dreamy, pretty resin angels, Christmas-themed or generally "spiritu and picture frames, many of which cost only $20.

I LOVE MONDAYS.

THE OFFICIAL MONDAY NIGHT FOOTBALL PARTY FEATURING WEEI BIG SHOW HOSTS GLEN ORDWAY AND FRED SMERLAS. EVERY MONDAY NIGHT AT 7PM. COME AND WATCH THE FIRST HALF WITH GLEN, FRED AND SPECIAL WEEKLY GUESTS TO LEARN HOW YOU CAN WIN A TRIP TO THE BIG GAME.

BUD LIGHT

WEEI 850AM SPORTS RADIO

SMIRNOFF Twist

COLLEGE FOOTBALL FANS, WATCH YOUR FAVORITE TEAM PLAY ON A BIG SCREEN AT ANY ONE OF OUR LOCATIONS

FOR DETAILS CALL: 617.451.7400

HURRICANE O'Reilly's

Glynn HOSPITALITY GROUP

the Purple Shamrock

The Black Rose

José McIntyre's

CLERYS

Coogan's

150 CANAL STREET BOSTON • 617.722.0161 • www.IRISHconnection.com

IN THIS SECTION: Review: The Red House Dish: Autumnal offerings Wine: Tuscan wines
Tasty Tidbit: A Taste of Cambridge

REVIEW

(RED) HOUSE PROUD

Tucked away in a small, early-1800s house in Harvard Square, the Red House turns out well-rendered, value-packed offerings in a cozy setting

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA A. DANIELS

What makes travel invigorating, restorative and even exciting is the occasional encounter with a vista, an architectural masterpiece or a picture-perfect town or village that is a total surprise, unheralded by reporters and guidebooks, wholly unexpected and therefore that much more delightful and satisfying. The same result can enliven the explorations of a restaurant reviewer. Jaded by compulsory visits to restaurants for which hype has created elevated expectations, I am relieved and refreshed to run across an understated restaurant, where lack of pretension is combined with refined culinary instincts, professionalism and value, and which draws patrons on its merits (not because self-appointed arbiters of taste and fashion have designated it as the place to go). Such a restaurant is the Red House in Cambridge, one of the most engaging eateries this reviewer has visited in some time.

The Red House inhabits a small, red (surprise) house tucked into Winthrop Street in Cambridge, next door to the recently closed House of Blues and across the street from the justly heralded UpStairs on the Square. On entering this small, but pretty property, a handsome bluestone floor leads to a bar and cocktail lounge on the right and to a small dining room in the rear. Outdoors, just beyond the bar, alfresco seating beneath large, dark-blue umbrellas offers a glimpse of Harvardian comings and goings in the fading light and cool air of a late summer evening.

Grilled fillet of salmon is served over sautéed ginger-glazed asparagus.

The dining room seats almost 60 at white paneled booths and upholstered banquettes littered with an assortment of throw pillows. A large octagonal skylight dominates the dining room, mitigating the effect of an otherwise low ceiling. White wood paneling extends two-thirds of the way up the walls, while dark wood molding frames small windows. A scattering of potted plants and a small tree strung with twinkling lights, lovely wooden tables and two attractively illuminated framed paintings complete the appointments in the dining room. While the napkins are heavy paper rather than cloth, and the red wine glasses are undersized, the table settings are otherwise respectable, with salt and pepper mills, a bottle of extra virgin olive oil and generous bowls of variegated olives, ranging from tiny black Nicoise to large green.

The Red House boasts a remarkably varied and versatile menu, with eight appetizers and 10 main courses, augmented nightly by another dozen or so specials. Among the appetizers, the Caesar salad ($5.95) was an ample portion of first-rate quality: a large bowl of impeccably crisp Romaine lettuce, whole wheat garlic croutons, mustardy dressing with just a hint of anchovy, and shaved Asiago cheese. Grilled vegetable Napoleon ($7.95)—layered slices of eggplant, yellow squash, zucchini, peppers, Vidalia onions and Bufala mozzarella—provided a toothsome mélange of summery vegetable flavors offset by muted garlic and fruity olive oil. The potato torte ($7.95) combined thin potato slices, scallions and Westphalian ham with tangy Gruyere cheese.

Following the lead, perhaps, of the Boston Harbor Hotel's Meritage, the Red House offers its main courses in large or scaled-down, "appetizer" portions, so that diners interested in sampling a larger arra of menu choices can graze. The dinner-siz portion of roasted baby chicken ($17.95) almost a whole small bird, had been rubbe with herbs, garlic and lemon. It emerge from the broiler with crisp skin and succu lent flesh, accompanied by sautéed spinach garlic and tomatoes—a rich and fillin ragout. Veal tenderloin ($19.95 as a mair $12.95 as an appetizer), pan roasted to tender and juicy turn, came with luscious tart plums chopped and grilled into a chut ney that complemented the mild flavor o the veal. Whipped potatoes and sautée broccolini, both enlivened with a restraine dose of garlic, accompanied the veal.

An appetizer-sized portion of grille salmon ($12.95), an ample fillet of good textured, moist fish, was served over gin ger-honey-glazed sautéed asparagus, whos crunchy texture and bright green colo added a tactile and visual dimension to th dish. A garland of roasted cherry tomatoe crowned a moist, firm-textured fillet haddock ($17.50), a special one evenin turning the dish into a summery deligh The same sautéed broccoli and whippe potatoes that had accompanied the ve reappeared with the haddock.

In contrast to its finely prepared fish impeccable texture, the Red House disap pointed with its grilled porterhouse stea ($22.95). I had expected a thick cu since the waitress advised that the diffe ence between the appetizer and full-si steak was thickness (not surprising sinc apart from the thickness, a porterhou steak comes in a standard size, with t tenderloin on one side of the T-bone a the sirloin on the other). At any rate, t lack of heft combined with inadequa grilling that failed to sufficiently sear t steak, resulted in a texture deficit. thought perhaps that despite our orderi the main course size, the thinner app tizer size was brought, but I was so sat fied with the remainder of the meal, i cluding the savory porcini mushroo relish that accompanied the steak, tha kept the thought to myself.

The Red House's well-rendered a value-packed offerings continued throu dessert. In view of the double-digit pri that desserts command at many Bos restaurants, the $5.50 tariff for the

THE RED HOUSE
98 Winthrop St., Cambridge
(617-576-0605)

HOURS Tue.-Sat., 12-3 pm and 5-11 pm; Sun., 1-9 pm
RESERVATIONS recommended
CREDIT CARDS all major
HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes
PARKING validated for Charles Hotel Garage and University Place Garage
LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

An appetizer of grilled day-boat sea scallops is topped with a tropical fruit salsa.

Chef Marc Plourde stands by the Red House's white picket fence.

House's confections provided ncomparable value. The key ime pie, with sweet, crunchy raham cracker crust; tart, reamy, intensely limey filling; nd semisweet whipped cream vas one of the best key lime ies I have ever had. Rasp-erry white chocolate cake ombined pleasant raspberry housse with moist white cake, ut better was the "ultimate hocolate," a multilayered ex-ravaganza of dark chocolate ake alternating with creamy, infully rich mousse.

The Red House's wine list eatured bottles ranging in rice down into the low $20s, s well as credible choices by he glass for as little as $6, in-luding a decent Napa Valley inot noir ($6.50). Of the bot-es, the 1997 Vetrice Chianti ufina Reserva ($27) was fruity ut well balanced, with a full, ch bouquet and a fine finish. read baked on the premises ncluded rich olive bread and ard-crusted baguettes. Service as informed, attentive, effi-ient and unobtrusive. And sing the French standard of rapport prix-qualité"—rela-onship of price to quality—he Red House shined with rices 25 to 30 percent below hat comparable meals would tch elsewhere in Boston and ambridge. The irony of a self-facing, unpretentious estab-shment within a stone's throw Harvard Square merely in-nsified my enjoyment of this spitable hostelry. IB

Diners relax with cocktails in the lounge.

A slice of savory meat pie with green tomato piccalilli

TASTINGS

BY JULIE SURATT

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Chocolate Bar Opening Reception
Le Meridien, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900, ext. 7099). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Sept. 30, 5:30-7:30 pm. $45. This reception benefitting Children's Hospital features a chocolate buffet, plus signature creations by local pastry chefs. The event concludes with a runway fashion show of Denise Hajjar's fall/winter collection.

Cigar and Smoke Dinner
Bomboa, 35 Stanhope St., Boston (617-236-6363). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Sept. 24, 7 pm. $70. This four-course, steakhouse-style dinner prepared by chef Felino Samson features port wine from Churchill Graham Ltd. and cigars from Cigar Masters.

Cooking for a Cause
The Union Club, 8 Park St., Boston (617-876-4444). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Oct. 4, 7-10 pm. $125. This IMPROPER BOSTONIAN–sponsored benefit for the East End House features local chefs, entertainment and a silent auction. Taste food from the Vault, Bambara, Chez Henri, Rustic Kitchen and Torch, among others.

Cooking with Lumiere
Lifelong Learning, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). Sept. 30, 6-9 pm. $150. Chef/owner Michael Leviton of Lumiere in West Newton teaches you how to use French techniques to prepare Mediterranean foods.

Cornucopia Dinner
Caffé Umbra, 1395 Washington St., Boston (617-867-0707). Sept. 30, 7 pm. $65. This multicourse dinner prepared by chef Laura Brennan has a corn-inspired theme.

Doggy Happy Hour
Gallia, 1525 Washington St., Boston (617-247-4455). Tue., 5-7 pm. Bring your pooch and enjoy two-for-$1 tapas. Polka Dog Bakery provides dog treats. The owners of Four Paws and a Leash offer training trips and advice.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Square. Every other Saturday, 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts experts who share knowledge on everything from fine American wines to seasonal New England foods and microbrews. •Sept. 27: Chenin blanc/pinot gris.

Harpoon Octoberfest
The Harpoon Brewery, 306 Northern Ave., Boston (888-427-7666, ext. 3). MBTA: Red Line to South Station, transfer to shuttle. Oct. 3, 5:30-11 pm; Oct. 4, 3:30-9 pm. $10. Sample a wide selection of Harpoon beers and enjoy live entertainment by German-style oompah bands under the tent.

L'Espalier's 25th Anniversary Dinner
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-262-3023). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sept. 25, $185. Chef Frank McClelland prepares an eight-course menu paired with wine. A portion of the proceeds benefits the Copley Society and the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Martini March
Register at Vox Populi, 755 Boylston St., Boston www.themartinimarch.com. Sept. 25, 6:30 pm. $20 with donation of three cans of food; $25 without donation. Travel from Vox Populi to Bar Code to Pravda 116 to the Pour House and other martini bars and sample each bar's offering.

Murder Cacciatore
Ristorante Marino, 2465 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (800-697-2583). Sept. 27, 7 pm. $49 (includes dinner and show). Take one savory Italian love story, add a pint of spicy passion and two tablespoons of bitter jealousy, stir in a pinch of opera and an abundance of fine cuisine, and you have the recipe for this interactive murder mystery.

Oktoberfest Dinner
Jacob Wirth Restaurant, 31-37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 29, 8 pm. $50. Enjoy a four-course meal by chef Phyllis Kaplowitz paired with Oktoberfest brews.

Rustic Cuisine and Rustic Wine
Lifelong Learning, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). Oct. 1, 6-8 pm. $50. Chef Bi Bradley of Rustic Kitchen and the IMPROPER wine columnist Sandy Block offer Mediterranean-inspired creations paired with wine.

Stars of Land and Sea
Westport Rivers Vineyard & Winery, 417 Hixbridge Road, Westport (508-636-3423). Oct. 4, 12-2:3 pm. $60. Taste sparkling wines during this three-course pairing menu with Cape Cod oysters and seafood prepared by the Naked Oyster.

Taste of Cambridge
Technology Square at MIT Courtyard, Main and Albany streets, Cambridge. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Sept. 25, 5-8 pm. $25, $35 at the door. This fund-raiser for the Cambridge Licensing Advisory Board, a nonprofit organization dedicated to preventing underage drinking, features tasting-size portions of signature dishes from local restaurants and samples from local breweries and wineries. The band Four Piece Suit performs.

Wine and Dine
75 Chestnut, 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Green Line to Park. $8 Limited to 12 guests, this biweekly wine tasting offers a three-course food and wine pairing menu. •Oct. 6: Southern Rhone (France).

Wine and Oyster Tasting
McCormick & Schmick's, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-720-5522). MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. Tue., 7-9 pm. A la carte. Chef Eric Naruszewicz and general manager Paul Tietge offer shucking lessons, sample tastings and explanations of a wide array of oysters and host a question-and-answer session on wine and oyster pairing.

DISH

Fall Forecast

Variations on a theme...Toast of the town...

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

So far, this fall is mostly quiet on the dining front. Instead of big splashy openings and glitzy all-out events, restaurants are fine-tuning their marketing and their menus to draw new diners and keep regulars coming back.

Deep-pocketed diners will always have new options—Bravo has opened at the Museum of Fine Arts, and Excelsior is now serving lunch—but if you're tightening your belt and looking for added value without clipping Outback coupons, read on.

In Cambridge, Craigie Street Bistrot is continuing its Sunday Chef's Choice menu, originally limited to August, indefinitely. For just $29.95 per person, chef/owner Tony Maws will cook up an ad hoc three- or four-course dinner for you and your tablemates. The bad news: The deal is only available after 9 pm. The good news: Maws will accommodate food allergies and/or vegetarian preferences, and you don't need a resident permit to park on Cambridge streets on Sundays.

Also in Cambridge, Harvest is presenting savory seminars, monthly five-course tasting events, priced at $35, that will feature the finest offerings from New England's farmers, fishermen, foragers, purveyors, cheesemakers and more. The Sept. 17 "Harvest Review," for example, featured five oyster courses prepared by chef Eric Brennan paired with wines selected by wine director Stephen Sink. Upcoming: cheese, mushrooms, and bluefin tuna.

Over in Jamaica Plain, the diminutive Ten Tables has begun a series of Tuesday night wine dinners. The price is a mere $35 for four courses plus four glasses of wine. Not only are the dinners, which spotlight a different geographic region each week, a terrific value, says owner Krista Kranyak, but "you get your personalized sommelier service as opposed to classroom style." So you can put away your No. 2 pencils and relax.

Excelsior is now serving lunch.

SECOND COURSE

Double (trouble?) entendre department: What's in a name? Opening a new restaurant is a risky business in the very best of economic times. So it's rather curious to learn of a restaurant dubbed Toast. Not only is it tempting fate to christen your eatery with the same name traditionally used to describe the Red Sox in late September, but check out the location: Toast is set to open in the Union Square (Somerville) space that formerly housed the now-defunct Macondo and Rauxa. Certainly names have more than one definition ("excelsior" is also a kind of packing material), but it's prudent to avoid any potential negative connotation. When a survivor of the Donner Party opened a restaurant in San Francisco, he didn't call it Donner Deli. Let's raise a glass to Toast and hope nobody gets burned.

Then again, even a wonderful name doesn't guarantee endless success. Eat—which opened back in 1996 in Union Square on a shoestring budget, attracted a devoted clientele including Julia Child, and was one of the first restaurants to feature regular guest chef nights—closed its doors in August.

Seasonal etc.: The Chocolate Bar at Le Meridien reopens for its 15th year... Brunch is back at various restaurants, including the Hampshire House's jazz brunch (a great place to take out-of-town visitors)...and Meritage at the Boston Harbor Hotel has introduced the perfect solution for those of us who'd rather not commit to a big plate of pancakes, yet don't care to graze from a buffet: a "small plates" brunch...Adam Halsberg is the new sous chef at Caffé Umbra. IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

Up on the Roof.
THE HOTTEST SPOT IN THE NORTH END
RISTORANTE FIORE
AUTHENTIC ITALIAN CUISINE
THE NORTH END'S ONLY ROOFTOP DINING
3 DISTINCTIVE DINING ROOMS
CHARMING SIDEWALK CAFE
250 Hanover Street
Boston, MA 02113
www.ristorantefiore.com
617.371.1176
RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED

HENRIETTA'S TABLE
FRESH & HONEST

Home cooking was never this good at home.

Enhance your recollections of farm-fresh favorites and casual surroundings with dishes as sophisticated as our Braised Elysian Farm Lamb Shank and as unpretentious as our Red Flannel Hash.

Henrietta's Table at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square
One Bennett Street | Cambridge, MA 02138 | 617.661.5005

WINE

Under the Toscano Sun

BY SANDY BLOCK MW

Italy remains far and away our number one source of imported wine, with twice as much volume as the closest contender, Australia. Part of the reason is our enduring love affair with Italian food, which the wines naturally complement, part relates to the pinot grigio juggernaut (the largest single category of wine imported into the U.S.); but most has to do with the amazing flavor impact that the country's red wines deliver at reasonable prices. If there's one zone within Italy that epitomizes the revolution in quality and image that Italian wines have undergone in the past decade, it's the ruggedly hilly, almost inconceivably beautiful region of Tuscany.

The Sangiovese grape is the heart and soul of Tuscan wine, producing a versatile range of wines that go seamlessly with everything from pizza to pasta in red sauce to veal chops or grilled steak. People often have an immediate reaction to Sangiovese: It makes them hungry. The grape's tangy cherry fruit and earthy, sometimes smoky, flavor edge endow Tuscan Sangiovese with an appetizing openness that, while anything but mild, rarely overshadows food.

Chianti in all its glorious variety is the primary wine we associate with Sangiovese. This area has undergone a dramatic transformation in the past few decades, with newly improved clones of the Sangiovese grape planted closer together than ever before in the vineyards, to encourage the production of grapes with greater flavor concentration and color. Chianti enjoyed an unprecedented string of great dry sunny weather from 1995 until 2001, so the extra ripeness needed to smooth the sometimes-tart Sangiovese flavors has been abundantly available to grape growers. The wines may now be made from 100 percent Sangiovese, although there are often other local grapes (Canaiolo, Mammolo, Colorino, Malavasia Nera) or imported grapes (cabernet sauvignon, merlot and, increasingly, syrah) blended in small quantities to add flavor interest.

The two best areas within Chianti are the historic center of production between Florence and Siena, the Classico zone, and the smaller Rufina zone to the east, which is slightly cooler in climate, producing wines that are alluringly aromatic and savory in flavor, often showing red fruit, clove, bitter almond and tobacco nuances. In both areas only hillside vines qualify to produce grapes and the soil must be composed primarily of sandstone, limestone, marl, clay schist, or pebbles. The highest official classification for a Chianti is Riserva, which refers to higher standards of ripeness for the grapes, lower yields per acre and a mandatory minimum of two years' aging, either in cask or bottle, after harvest.

The most ubiquitous among the many fine Sangioveses produced outside the Chianti zone are now labeled as Sangiovese di Toscana, IGT, a recently authorized legal category that gives winemakers the flexibility to experiment with blending grapes from different parts of Tuscany to achieve greater balance. Many of these wines are fresh and fruity, although some top-quality producers' IGTs rival the best Chianti Riservas. Vino Nobile di Montepulciano is another outstanding Sangiovese originating from high-altitude vineyards in Tuscany's southeast corner, where the climate is slightly warmer and therefore the wines are often a bit richer in flavor. Further south and toward the coast, in an area known as the Maremma, there is a rustic, somewhat harder-edged wine known as Morellino di Scansano, which I have enjoyed immensely with stews and other slow-cooked meat dishes. Morellino is rarely polished but can deliver outstanding mushroomy, spicy aromas and the fiery, roasted flavors we associate with peasant cooking.

The most prestigious Sangiovese wines, and perhaps the most celebrated wines of all Italy, originate near the walled fortified hill town of Montalcino, nestled in the southern part of the Chianti zone, and are distinctive enough to be classified separately as either Rosso or Brunello di Montalcino. In this hot, arid climate 70 miles south of Florence, summer evenings are cool, bringing balance to the deeply colored and richly flavored grapes. The rocky soils produce vines that yield only meager quantities of the Brunello, the local clone of the Sangiovese grape. Rosso is produced in smaller quantities than the Brunello and is aged for a year. About a third of the price of the more famous Brunello di Montalcino, it often shows suggestions of leather and spice, tends to be medium-full in body and is enjoyable upon release. Brunello di Montalcino ages for 50 months (including at least 24 in cask) before sale and then is best enjoyed after softening further in the bottle for another few years. It's not that the wine is dryly tannic, it's just that its incomparable violet-scented aromas and lush, velvety black-cherry flavors remain concealed in youth.

Brunello is not cheap, but there are two magnificent vintages on offer now, 1997 and 1998, that are produced in tiny quantities compared with, say 2000 Bordeaux, and are equally delicious but available at a fraction of the price of the more famous French wines. IB

One of only 18 Americans certified as a master of wine, Sandy Block is assistant vice president of wi for Horizon Beverage.

THE LAST DROP

HE LAST DROP 258 WASHINGTON ST. OAK SQUARE, BRIGHTON 617.562.1111 ✦ 421 MARLBOROUGH ST. BACK BAY, BOSTON 617.262.5554

WHITE HORSE TAVERN

Now offering FREE wireless internet to our customers

3 NEW 50″ PLASMA TV'S

Watch all the fall match-ups here!

Never a cover charge

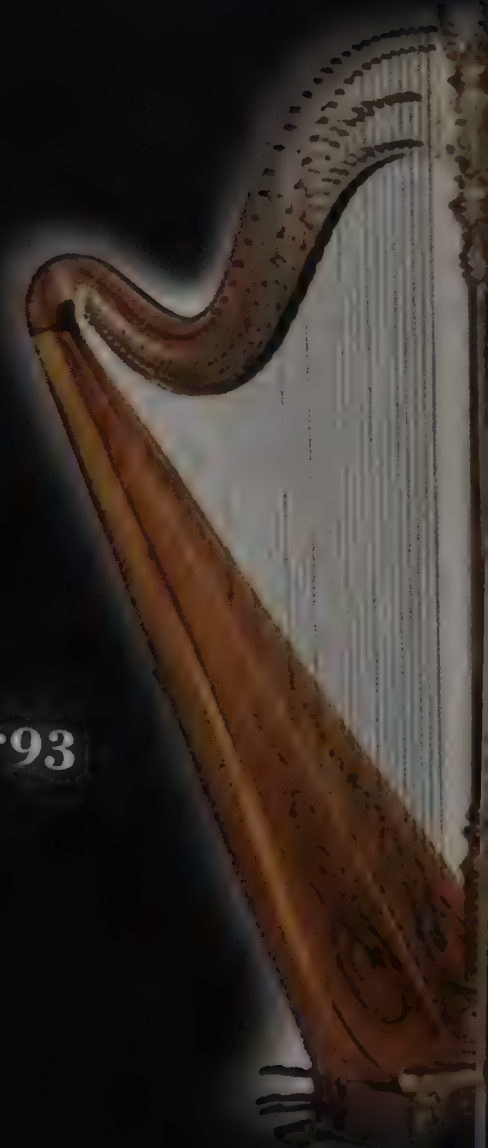
HITE HORSE TAVERN 116 BRIGHTON AVE. ALLSTON 617.254.6633 MON-SAT 11:30-2AM SUN 10-2AM FOOD UNTIL MIDNIGHT

‘00 ‘01 ‘02 ‘99 ‘03 ‘98 ‘97 ‘96 ‘95 ‘94 ‘93

the Harp 10 YEARS DECADE

www.HARPDECADE.com

85 Causeway Street Boston 617.742.1010



10 days celebrating 10 years at The Harp

Celebration starts 10.08.03

The Harp has evolved from what started as an Irish “pub” to a “popular club!” Live Music, DJs, Dancing, Nightlife. Mark your calendars to join the Harp Decade celebration.

agenda

MPROPER PICKS

september 24 - october 7

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			24	25 Sample signature dishes from more than 40 restaurants at the Taste of Cambridge. See Tastings on page 46.	26	27 The Boston Underground Film Festival is in full swing at several theaters around town. See Film on page 62.
28	29	30 Feast on more than 35 chocolate desserts at the opening reception for the Chocolate Bar at Le Meridien Hotel. See Tastings on page 46.	1 Aesop Rock, Akrobatik, EL-P, Mr. Lif, Fakts One and SA Smash play at the Paradise Rock Club. See Music on page 76.	2	3  MixFest at the FleetCenter features Tori Amos, the Barenaked Ladies, Michelle Branch, Dido, Duran Duran, Train and Vertical Horizon. See Music on page 76.	4 Harpoon Brewery hosts its annual Octoberfest under a giant tent. See Tastings on page 46.
5	6	7 The Tony Award–winning musical Hairspray opens at the Colonial Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 56.

SUN./SEPT. 28

CityScope: Fire on Ice

As casual hockey fans, we have to admit that (much to the chagrin of our significant others) our main motivation for attending the IMPROPER-sponsored Celebrity Hat Trick isn't to see Bobby Orr, Cam Neely or Ray Bourque sneak a slapshot through the five-hole. No, we're really there to see Kiefer Sutherland, Michael J. Fox and Tim Robbins play with and against 25 of hockey's all-time greatest to benefit the Leary Firefighters Foundation. And that doesn't count the host of Hollywood celebs that are sure to be in the audience—in previous years, Robert DeNiro, Linda Evangelista, Mick Jagger, Harrison Ford and Elizabeth Hurley have made appearances. When you're not ogling your fellow audience members, cheer on players Gordie Howe, Phil Esposito, Pat LaFontaine and Guy Lafleur, among others (including Senator John Kerry). FleetCenter, Boston (617-931-2000). 3 pm. $25 and $50.

THE CALENDAR GIRLS' GUIDE TO WHAT'S UP, IN AND AROUND BOSTON

CITYSCOPE 54
PERFORMING ARTS 56
MOVIES 60
MUSIC 70
CLASSICAL MUSIC 80
DANCE CLUBS 82
ART 90
BOOKS & POETRY 94
EDUCATION 95
GAY & LESBIAN 96
BODY & MIND 98
SPORTS 98
CHILDREN 100
AROUND TOWN 100

EDITED BY:
ERIN HAGEDORN
Art, Books & Poetry, Gay & Lesbian, Movies, Music
JULIE SURATT
Around Town, Children, Education, Performing Arts
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY:
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Film Capsules
Ezra Dyer CityScope, Dance Clubs and Sports

SAT./SEPT. 27

Music: Dancing In the Streets

It's become one of our favorite fall rituals. For the past few years, the South End has dedicated a late-September Saturday to bringing music, food and fun to Columbus Avenue. This year, the BeanTown Jazz Festival line-up includes jazz greats Pieces of a Dream and the Average White Band, along with Wannetta Jackson, Paulo Danay, Just 4 Praise, the Boston Horns, Herman Johnson, Jose Ramos, Myanna, and Tracey Rose. The bands play on four stages, and as you wander between them, you can sample food from nearby restaurants Bob the Chef's Jazz Café, Tremont 647 and others. There's also a family area with arts and crafts and children's entertainment. Columbus Avenue between Mass. Ave. and Burke Street. $5 suggested donation (goes to Prostate Cancer Awareness). (866-442-7995). ww.beantownjazz.org. 12–6 pm.

Pieces of a Dr
erforms a BeanTown
Fes

Former Brat Packer Judd Nelson stars in He She Them.

TUE./SEPT. 30–SUN./OCT. 12

Performing Arts: Mr. Playwright, Esq.

Countless attorneys have put aside their JDs to write books, perform on stage, tend bar or work in marketing. But it's unusual to find law school grad Irwin M. Heller (to be more specific, who's not only still a practicing attorney (with the firm Mintz Levin) but also CEO of a chemical company (Twin Rivers Technologies) and, most recently, a playwright. Heller's play He She Them debuts at the Shubert this fall. What's more, this isn't a crime thriller but a touchy-feely play about relationships. (Who knew lawyers had a soft side.) Former Brat Packer Judd Nelson and actress Tasha Lawrence star in this intimate emotional ride directed by the artistic director of the Commonwealth Shakespeare Company, Steven Maler. Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). Tue.–Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $25–$39.

SAT./OCT. 4

Tastings: All the Best

Perhaps when you were flipping through the pages of this year's Boston's Best issue, you thought to yourself, "I ought to try Boston's best Southern food," or "I should sample the cuisine of Boston's best up-and-coming chef." Haven't gotten around to it yet? Here's your opportunity: Chefs Andy Husbands of Rouge (Southern Food) and Tom Berry of Bambara (Up-and-Coming Chef), as well as Carmen Quagliata of the Vault (Best-Kept Secret), Bill Bradley of Rustic Kitchen (Best Casual Dining) and a dozen other chefs will be at THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN–sponsored Cooking for a Cause. This benefit for the East End House features fine food and wine and entertainment by the Winiker Orchestra, plus a silent auction, on five floors of Beacon Hill's Union Club. Join the IMPROPER gang for a night o feasting. The Union Club, 8 Park St., Boston (617-876-4444). 7-10 pm. $125.

From left, chefs Antoine Camin of B lo, Tom Berry of Bambara and Dan Temple Bar cook for a caus Oct. 4

THU./OCT. 2 & TUE./OCT. 7

CityScope and Books: The Un Nobel Prize

The sad truth is you'll probably never win the Nobel Prize, so you'll most likely never attend the Nobel Prize ceremony. But that's OK. The Ig Nobel Prize ceremony, a spoof of the real deal, is a lot more fun—and it's open to the public. The wacky Ig Nobel prizes (the "Igs") are doled out by the science humor magazine Annals of Improbable Research (AIR), which honors those who've conducted research that "cannot or should not be reproduced." To wit: A study of electric shock treatment's effects on rattlesnake bites received an award. Another went to the Southern Baptist Church of Alabama, which devised a formula to determine how many Alabamans will go to Hell. Get the idea? The keynote speaker this year is Edward A. Murphy III, son of the air force engineer who formulated Murphy's Law. Surprisingly, the Ig Nobels are doled out by honest-to-goodness Nobel laureates (some brainiacs do, it seems, have a sense of humor). Winners are pelted with paper airplanes, and baseball umpires strictly enforce a 30-second limit on acceptance speeches. If you can't make the ceremony, you can listen to AIR editor Marc Abrahams read from his book, the Ig Nobel Prizes: The Annals of Improbable Research, a compendium of the awards, at the Harvard Book Store, at 1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, Oct. 7, at 6 pm. The ceremony takes place at Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). 7:30 pm. $16-$25.

AQUA

bar • grill • music

Boston's newest place to be seen
is now open in the financial district.

Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV,
Aqua has what you're looking for.

Perfect spot for corporate luncheons, functions and private parties.

Open for lunch and dinner daily.

Aqua is perfect for after work or late night with our resident and guest DJ's spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

1½0 WATER STREET BOSTON

617.720.4900

www.aquaboston.com

THE BLACK RHINO

The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club
is located just one block from Faneuil Hall at 21 Broad Street in the heart of the Financial District.

Open for lunch and dinner daily.

It is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning with four floors, roof deck, patio.

Top resident DJ's
Thursday through Saturday night.

617-263-0101
21 BROAD STREET
BOSTON, MA 02109
www.theblackrhino.com

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for festivals, events and benefits by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Festivals, Benefits & Events

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24

Greater Boston Business Council Awards for Excellence
Westin Copley Place, Boston (617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. $75. WHDH-TV anchorman Randy Price hosts the Greater Boston Business Council's annual dinner, silent auction and awards ceremony honoring businesses and community organizations that exemplify respect for diversity.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25

The Altered Bride Silver Soiree
The Altered Bride, 376 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-8289). www.alteredbride.com. 1-5 pm. The Altered Bride celebrates its grand reopening in a new location with wine, food and prizes. Visitors qualify to win prizes by making a $15 donation to the Ellie Fund to fight breast cancer.

Ideology Fashion Event
Filene's, 426 Washington St., Boston (617-563-8142). 6-8 pm. $25. Filene's and In Style magazine host a fall Ideology collection fashion show and bachelor auction to benefit the volunteer group Boston Cares.

Rock for RAINN: A Benefit to Unlock the Silence
The Matrix, 279 Tremont St., Boston (800-656-4673). http://boston.rainn.org. 7:30 pm-12 am. $15. This concert benefits the Rape, Abuse and Incest National Network and the Save Massachusetts Rape Crisis Centers Campaign. Performers include Alice Peacock, Flynn, Rachel McCartney and Barbara Kessler, and an auction offers the chance to bid on music memorabilia.

Taste of Cambridge
Technology Square at MIT Courtyard, Main and Albany streets, Cambridge. www.clab.org. 5-8 pm. $25 in advance, $35 at the gate. This fund-raiser for the Shelter Inc. and the Cambridge Licensee Advisory Board's outreach programs features tastings from 40 Cambridge restaurants, including the East Coast Grill, the House of Blues and Bambara.

World Team Tennis All-Star Smash Hits
FleetCenter, Boston (617-509-9412 or 617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com. 7:30 pm. Reserved seats start at $25; $300 for VIP pre-event celebrity reception attended by the players. Elton John and Billie Jean King host this celebrity tennis match to benefit the Elton John AIDS Foundation and the Massachusetts Community AIDS Partnership. Play begins with a doubles match featuring Elton John and King. Andre Agassi, Anna Kournikova, John McEnroe and Chanda Rubin also compete.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 27

Beantown Jazz Festival
Columbus Ave., between Mass. Ave. and Burke St., Boston (866-442-7995). www.beantownjazz.org. 12-6 pm. $5 donation suggested. National and local jazz performers take the stage at this annual festival, which also features food and arts and crafts. Performers include Pieces of a Dream, Average White Band and Wannetta Jackson. Donations benefit Prostate Cancer Awareness.

Four Seasons Run of Hope
Start at the lagoon near the Hatch Shell, the Esplanade, Boston (617-338-4400). 8 am registration, 10 am start. $20. This 5K run/walk along the Charles River raises money for Mass. General Hospital and pediatric cancer research.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28

Denis Leary's Celebrity Hat Trick
The FleetCenter, Boston (617-931-2000). www.learyfirefighters.org. 3 pm. $25 and $50. Denis Leary is joined by 25 hockey greats and celebrities in a benefit hockey game for the Leary Firefighters Foundation. Players include Michael J. Fox, Bobby Orr and Keifer Sutherland. Sponsored by THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.

Preview

Clear the Runway

Paul Pierce and Tommy Hilfiger team up for a fashionable fund-raiser at the Runway 34 fashion show

Paul Pierce's work attire isn't exactly cutting-edge fashion (although the Celtics have made great progress in lengthening their shorts since the '80s), but the C's star likes to look dashing when he's not dashing down the court. So it makes sense that Pierce is partnering with Tommy Hilfiger and GQ to unveil the Hilfiger fall collection in a benefit fashion show at Avalon Sept. 30. The IMPROPER-sponsored event raises money for Pierce's Truth Fund—which provides educational opportunities for disadvantaged youth—and the Mark Wahlberg Youth Foundation.

In keeping with the high-style, high society tone of the night, DJ Cassidy—a New York stalwart who has DJ'ed the MTV Video Music Awards and P. Diddy's private parties—provides the music. You don't have to be in Diddy's entourage to get the VIP treatment, as $250 gets you a pass to the pre-event celebrity reception, complimentary food and drinks, valet parking, reserved seating for the show and access to the VIP area. If that's still a little rich for your blood, general admission tickets to the show cost $100 (and include an open bar)—and in either case, it's not a shabby way to help a pair of good causes.

Avalon, 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-423-6398). www.nextticketing.com. 6:30 pm. $250 VIP, $100 general admission.—Ezra Dyer

TUESDAY, SEPT. 30

Art 4 Kids' Sake
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jimmytingle.com. 5:30 pm. $50. Comedian Jimmy Tingle hosts a benefit night of comedy in honor of Somerville alderman Jack Connelly's 20 years of service. The show and preshow reception at the Burren benefit the Art 4 Kids' Sake children's performance series.

Chocolate Bar Opening Reception
Le Meridien, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900, ext. 7099). 5:30-7:30 pm. $45. This reception benefitting Children's Hospital Boston features a chocolate buffet, plus signature creations by local pastry chefs. The event concludes with a runway fashion show of Denise Hajjar's fall/winter collection.

Fall for the Arts!
The Institute of Contemporary Art, 955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). 6-8 pm. Free. Various arts organizations, including Boston Ballet, the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Peabody Essex Museum, participate in an open house at the ICA. The event features wine and food, as well as raffles and discounts to upcoming shows.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1

Poliform-Boston Grand Opening
Poliform-Boston, Boston Design Center, Suite 634, 1 Design Center Place, Boston (617-896-2700). www.poliformboston.com. 6:30 pm. Poliform-Boston celebrates the grand opening of its new showroom with a reception and auction. A portion of the proceeds benefit the Boys and Girls Club of Boston.

Tedeschi House Tours
55 Tara Drive, Norwell (877-746-4687. www.showhousemedia.com. Tue.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. Through Oct. 31. $30. The former home of Tedeschi grocery stores magnate Ralph Tedeschi is open for tours throughout the month to raise money for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

THURSDAY, OCT. 2

Evening of Stars
Hyatt Regency Hotel, Cambridge (617-731-5600). www.newfund.org. $150, $250 VIP. The Evening of Stars awards ceremony honors LPGA hall-of-famer Nancy Lopez and other prominent New England women to benefit the New England Women's Fund.

Jose High: Relive Your Glory Days
Jose McIntyre's, 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460). 6-9 pm. $2. School is back in session, so peg your pants and don your best '90s high school attire to vie for the title of homecoming king and queen at this benefit party for United Way.

The 13th First Annual Ig Nobel Prizes
Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). 7:30 pm. Tickets start at $19. The annual Ig Nobel prizes, awarded for funny and often thought-provoking achievements, are presented by actual Nobel laureates in 10 categories. The evening also includes the "Win a Date with a Nobel Laureate" contest, the Nano-Lectures (each is seven seconds long) and a keynote address by Edward A. Murphy III, son of the man who discovered Murphy's Law.

Welcome Back to Fall Bash
Sophia's, 1270 Boylston St., Boston (617-591-1400, ext. 5) www.bostonypa.com. 9 pm. $10 in advance, $15 at the door. The Boston Young Professionals Association hosts a fall party, with 10 percent of proceeds going to the Ellie Fund Breast Cancer Foundation. Fashionable dress, open bar.

FRIDAY, OCT. 3

Boys & Girls Club of Middlesex County's 30th Anniversary Celebration
Hyatt Regency Hotel, Cambridge (781-925-3459). 6:30 pm. $150. This benefit for the Boys & Girls Club of Middlesex County includes a cocktail reception, live and silent auctions, dinner and dancing.

Harpoon Octoberfest
Harpoon Brewery, 306 Northern Ave., Boston (888-427-7666). www.harpoonbrewery.com. Oct. 3, 5:30-11 pm; Oct. 4, 3:30-9 pm. $10. Get your autumn Teutonic party started with knockwurst, oompah bands, chicken-dancing contests and Octoberfest brew.

Nnenna Freelon Benefit Concert
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). 8 pm. Tickets begin at $23. Five-time Grammy nominee Nnenna Freelon plays to raise money for the Cambridge Housing Assistance Fund.

Singles Dance
Burlington Four Points/Sheraton, 30 Wheeler Road, Burlington (781-721-5844). www.funfunfun.org. 9:30 pm-1 am. $15. FunFunFun.org sponsors this singles dance, which features a DJ playing dance music and a cash bar. Business or cocktail attire.

FRIDAY, OCT. 4

Art Around Every Corner
Sites throughout Roxbury and Mission Hill (617-541-3900). www.actroxbury.com. 11 am-6 pm, through Oct. 5. More than 100 Roxbury artists open their studios to the public. A shuttle bus to the studios leaves from the Orange Line's Roxbury Crossing T station.

Chelsea Historic Home Tour
Tour leaves from the Chelsea City Cafe, 173 Washington Ave., Chelsea (617-884-5821). 11 am-4 pm. $10. Eleven homeowners open their doors for a self-guided tour of some of Chelsea's historic residences. The tour includes houses ranging from a restored Victorian to an Arts and Crafts–era home.

Cooking for a Cause
Union Club, 8 Park St., Boston (617-876-4444). 7-10 pm. $125. Boston's top chefs cook up an evening of food and wine to benefit East End House. The event also features a silent auction and music by the Winike Orchestra. Sponsored by THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.

Passport to Boston
Parkman Bandstand, Boston Common, Boston (617-254-3800, ext. 1414). 10 am-4 pm. $10. This self-guided tour and scavenger hunt takes participants to Boston landmarks. Entertainment, snacks and prizes provided. All proceeds benefit the Franciscan Hospital for Children and the Genesis Fund.

SUNDAY, OCT. 5

An Evolution of Style Gala
World Trade Center, 200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-867-9484). www.salonsoca.com. 7-10 pm. $100. Soci Salon and Salon Soca host a black-and-white ball to raise money for the National Breast Cancer Foundation. The evening includes a fashion show, silent auction and dancing.

Workout in the Park
Boston Common, Boston (888-844-7353). 11 am-3 pm. $10. Self magazine hosts this annual health-and-fitness event, which includes a climbing wall, fitness classes and sampling of new health and beauty products. Proceeds benefit the Big Bam! and the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

MONDAY, OCT. 6

Boston Park Rangers Fall Fund-Raiser
Jacob Wirth's Restaurant, 31 Stuart St., Boston (617-635-4505, ext. 3039). 6-8 pm. $125. Jacob Wirth's hosts a benefit dinner for the Boston Park Rangers.

TUESDAY, OCT. 7

East Boston Social Centers' $10,000 Dinner
Spinelli's Function Facility, Route 1, Lynnfield (617-569-3221). www.ebsoc.org. 6:30 pm. $125 raffle tickets, $25 dinner only. This benefit for the East Boston Social Centers includes dinner, open bar and a raffle with a $10,000 grand prize.

Ralph Beach's Daniel is one of the works on display at Art Around Every Corner Oct. 4-5.

UPSTAIRS ON THE SQUARE

TWO LEVELS OF EXTRAORDINARY DINING

.....

ONE OF THE WORLD'S TOP TEN
NEW RESTAURANTS — Food and Wine

BEST NEW RESTAURANT
— Boston Magazine

BEST RESTAURANT REINCARNATION
— The Improper Bostonian

.....

91 Winthrop Street · Harvard Square
617 864.1933 · upstairsonthesquare.com

MARKETPLACE CENTER

NEXT TO FANEUIL HALL

BOSTON

AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS GAP BANANA REPUBLIC CLARKS

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts. Or e-mail information to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Get tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Booths located at Faneuil Hall (on the south side of the hall) and Copley Square (at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth). Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Purchase tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.coolguitars.com/tickets.htm. Open seven days a week, Ticket City sells tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater

JUST OPENED

Baby with the Bathwater
The Community Church of Boston, 565 Boylston St., Boston (781-424-8592). Thu.-Sat., 8pm. Through Oct. 11. $20. Christopher Durang's absurdly comical tale shows how the sins of our parents come back to haunt us when we have children.

Dublin Carol
Nora Theatre Company at the Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Commonwealth Ave., Boston (617-491-2026). Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 5. $25. In this Conor McPherson play, Christmas revelry pits a middle-aged Dublin undertaker against his past, offering him a shot at redemption.

Fall for the Arts
Institute of Contemporary Art, 955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Sept. 30, 6-8 pm. This evening features wine, food and entertainment from local cultural organizations, including the American Repertory Theatre, Boston Ballet, Boston Lyric Opera, Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum. Representatives from each organization will be on hand to discuss special packages geared toward young professionals.

The Fire of Life (A New Rock Opera)
The Cambridge Family YMCA Theater, 820 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-536-9772). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Sept. 25-28, Oct. 2-4. $10. This new rock opera by Eben Portnoy and Ben Spiegelman melds science fiction, Greek tragedy and rock and roll. It describes a not-so-distant future in which an experimental treatment allows humans to absorb energy from sunlight.

Hairspray
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. Oct. 7-Nov. 1. It's 1962 in Baltimore, and 16-year-old Tracy Turnblad sets out to dance her way onto television's most popular show. Can a big girl with big dreams—and even bigger hair—change the world...and still have time to win the boy she loves? Bruce Vilanch stars in this Tony Award–winning musical about a young girl's struggle with self-acceptance.

He She Them
The Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (888-889-8587). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm.; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun. 1 and 7 pm. Sept. 30-Oct. 12. $25-$39. Judd Nelson and Tasha Lawrence star in this new play by Irwin M. Heller, directed by Steven Maler. "He" is a successful real estate developer. "She" is a married architect designing one of his buildings. Flirtation grows to friendship, and then to the possibility of love.

Miss Saigon, a musical about the relationship between an American GI and a Vietnamese prostitute, is at the Wang Theatre Sept. 23-28.

Hooray for Hollywood
Fiddlehead Theatre Co., 109 Central St., Norwood (781-762-40460). Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Sept. 27-Oct. 5. $21. Performers pay tribute to singing stars—everyone from Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers to Richard Gere and Renée Zellweger—and their films.

A Man of No Importance
SpeakEasy Stage Company, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat. 4 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. Oct. 3-Nov. 9. Based on the 1994 film starring Albert Finney, this show with music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahrens follows a Dublin bus driver's attempts to stage Oscar Wilde's Salome at his church in the 1960s, despite the protests from parish officials.

Miss Saigon
Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 23-28, 8 pm. $28-$68. Mitchell Lemsky directs this musical about an American GI and a naive Saigon prostitute separated by war but bound by love and the future of their son.

Private Lives
Boston Church of the New Jerusalem, 140 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-361-3828). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Sept. 26-27, 8 pm; Sept. 28, 3 pm. $17. Theatre on the Hill presents Noel Coward's farce about divorce and remarriage.

Toccata: A Nocturne About Robert Schumann
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-731-6400). www.figuretheater-wildevogel.de. Sept. 27-28, 8 pm; $20. This night of adult puppetry by Wilde & Vogel of Stuttgart, Germany, mixes music, puppetry and the lyrics of composer Robert Schumann.

Tongue of a Bird
Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-1300). www.theatrecoop.org. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 3-25. $25. This lyrical play by Ellen McLaughlin tells the story of a search-and-rescue pilot who finds herself confronting losses of her own as she sets out on the trail of a kidnapped young girl.

NOW RUNNING

Ain't Misbehavin'
Huntington Theatre Co., 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 2 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Through Oct. 19. $14-$69. Marcia Milgrom Dodge directs and choreographs this tribute to Fats Waller, showcasing music from the Harlem Renaissance.

Antony and Cleopatra
Tremont Theatre, 276 Tremont St., Boston (617-939-9939). www.bostontheatreworks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 12. $25. Shakespeare's classic tale of love and intrigue, directed by Jason Slavick, gets its first professional staging in Boston in more than 20 years.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-6912). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed., 8 pm; Thu., 5 and 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 3 and 6 pm. Ongoing. $43 and $53. This production abandons all dialogue and instead focuses on making an impact through tribal rock music, humorous antics, props and three men painted blue.

Ethan Frome
Founders' Theatre, Shakespeare & Co., 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-637-3353). www.shakespeare.org. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 26. $10-$45. In this play by Dennis Krausnick, adapted from Edith Wharton's novella, a young engineer looks into the past of Ethan, a beaten and withered figure who has reached middle age before his time.

A Girl's War
New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton (617-332-1646). www.newrep.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Wed., 2 and 7 pm; Thu., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 19. Joyce Van Dyke's play tells the story of a young Armenian girl who is torn by the competing desires of love and vengeance in an age-old ethnic clash.

Lady with a Lapdog
American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue., Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm.; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm.; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 11. $12-$69. Russian director Kama Ginkas combines burlesque and tragedy in his adaptation of Anton Chekhov's short story about a summer flirtation that unexpectedly becomes a passionate relationship.

Memphis
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (617-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., Thu., Fri., 8 pm; Wed., Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 12. $16.25-$47.25. Joe DiPietro's new musical tells the story of a white DJ who introduces his listeners to African-American music during the 1940s.

Nunsense II
Turtle Lane Playhouse, 283 Melrose St., Newton (617-244-0169). www.turtle-lane.com. Thu.-Sat., 8pm; Sun, 2 pm. Through Oct. 5. $22. This sequel to the hit musical Nunsense follows four energetic nuns living under the watchful eye of Mother Superior.

Out on the Edge: Festival of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Theater
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.thetheateroffensive.org. Through Sept. 27 (call for event schedule). $18-$27. The Theater Offensive's LGBT festival hosts a range of events from interactive discussions with performers, playwrights and directors to workshops, panels and community events.

Pete 'n' Keely
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Wed., Thu., 7:30pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Sept. 28. $32. James Hindman's musical tells the story of two singing sweethearts who reunite for a live television special and relive their illustrious career in Las Vegas showrooms.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6:30 and 9:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Ongoing. $30-$34. This comedic whodunit set in a unisex hair salon holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

Some Like It Hot
The Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (866-811-4111). Sept. 28, 7 pm. $20. Enjoy an evening of Broadway music and popular songs to benefit the Freedom to Marry Coalition of Massachusetts.

Stones in His Pockets
Gloucester Stage Company (co-produced by the Stoneham Theatre), 267 East Main St., Gloucester (978-281-4433). Wed.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 5 pm. Through Oct. 5. $30. Zoya Kachadurian directs this comedy by Marie Jones about a small Irish town that's forever changed when a Hollywood film company arrives to shoot a movie.

When Pigs Fly
Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 11. $22-$43. Garish costumes and double entendres mark this campy musical conceived by Howard Crabtree and Mark Wardrop about a gay man's coming-of-age. Based in part on Crabtree's own life, it follows a young man whose nasty high school guidance counselor tells him that he might achieve success on Broadway "when pigs fly."

UNIVERSITY THEATER

The Black Panther Suite
Blackman Auditorium Center for the Arts, Northeastern University, 360 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-373-2249). Oct.3, 8 pm. Composer, producer, musician and political activist Fred Ho and martial artist Jose Figueroa compare and contrast the social struggles of the 1960s and '70s (including sexual and racial oppression, Third World liberation, police brutality, environmental concerns and corporate greed) with those we face today.

A Midsummer Night's Dream
Kresge Little Theatre, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-6294). web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sept. 29 and 30, 7:30 pm. $9. This Shakespeare comedy explores the constraints placed on love and sexuality in 17th-century England.

Dance

Dance Showcase
Sargent Dance Studio, One University Road, Boston (617-353-1597). www.bu.edu/perd/dance. MBTA: Green Line to BU Central. Oct. 4 and 5, 8 pm. $8-$15. Boston University alumni, faculty and guest artists return to perform new works, revivals and live music.

Noche Flamenca
Cutler Majestic Theatre at Emerson College, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-876-4275). www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm. Oct. 2-4. $25-$45. Director Martin Santangelo brings Spain's finest dancers, musicians and singers together, evoking the raw, steamy atmosphere of Spain's café cantantes.

Stomp
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.stomponline.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat.5 and 9 pm; Sun. 3 and 7 pm. Ongoing. $45-$55. In its ongoing run in Boston, this percussive hit continues its tradition of no plot or dialogue

THE comedy CONNECTION FANEUIL HALL

617•248•9700

SEPTEMBER 26-27

ADAM FERRARA

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 The Improper Bostonian

OCTOBER 3-4

BOBBY SLAYTON

OCTOBER 10-11

DAVID BRENNER

OCTOBER 17-18

PAULY SHORE

OCTOBER 24TH

JOHN VALBY

See why Frank Santos has been a hit with fans for over 10 years!

EVERY THURSDAY!

ALWAYS IMITATED! NEVER DUPLICATED!

"The R-Rated Hypnotist"

FRANK SANTOS

Validated Parking at 75 State Street Garage

www.comedyconnectionboston.com

BOSTON ROCKS

(617) 726-1110

A unique blend of entertainment 7 days a week!

Come relax after work on our plush leather couches on "Martini Mondays" featuring open mike poetry from 6-8PM and DJ Sensae spinning smooth R&B and Hip Hop all night long!

Fridays at the LOFT features DJ Sensae & DJ Johnny Walker Black combining their talents in interactive music and dance!

Boston Rocks Entrance!

Saturdays MAKE YOU HAPPY! Start the night with great cover bands from 9PM-1AM then DJ Johnny Walker Black plays the best in Top 40 and Hip Hop!!

(Next to The Comedy Connection on the 2nd Floor of the Quincy Market Bldg.)

Open 7 Days a Week • www.boston-rocks.net

Performers use everyday objects such as brooms, garbage lids and their own bodies to create music for their dance numbers.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors

Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy. Or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault

Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault at Remington's features local stand-up comedians. •Fridays and Saturdays: Dick Doherty's Comedy Pro Tour •Sundays: Open-mike night.

Comedy Connection

245 Quincy Market Place, Faneuil Hall, Upper Rotunda, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center; Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Wed., 8 pm, $12; Thu., 8:30 pm, $12; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm, 10:15 pm, prices vary; Sun., 7 pm, $12. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •Sept. 25, $12: Frank Santos, the R-Rated Hypnotist •Sept. 26, $20: Adam Ferrara •Sept. 27, $22: Adam Ferrara, co-star of The Job •Sept. 27 and 28, $25: Sommore, former host of BET's Comic View •Sept. 30: Paul Nardizzi •Oct. 3-4: Bobby Slayton, the Pitbull of Comedy.

The Comedy Studio

The Hong Kong, 1236 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $7-$9. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •Sept. 24: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland, Paul Day, Arielle Goldman, John Keating, Chrissy Lavoie, Max Silvestri and Jeremy Turoff •Sept. 25: Tim McIntire with Tissa Hami, Ben Boime, Eric Cheung, Janet Cormier, Nicole Luparelli and Ira Proctor •Sept. 26: Mike Bent, Jessica Casiano, Michael Della Penna, EJ Murphy, Larry Murphy and Erik Charles Neilsen •Sept. 27: Mike Bent, Michael Della Penna, Erik Charles Neilsen, Denise Robichau, Bethany Van Delft and Brian Gordon •Sept. 28: Sam Walters, Tom Dustin, Mindi Fay, Michael Herman, Dan Sulman, Greg Thibideau and Craig Zeltsar •Sept. 30: The Mystery Lounge comedy/magic show with David Oliver and Mike Bent •Oct. 1: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland, Mike Whitman, Chris Tabb, Dan Hirshon and Tommy Morello •Oct. 2: Erik Charles Neilsen, Tim Kaelin, Steve Calechman, Denise Robichau and Brian Longwell •Oct. 3: DJ Hazard, Brian Longwell, Larry Murphy and Chris Walsh •Oct. 4: DJ Hazard, Chris Coxen, Brian Longwell and Brian Gordon •Oct. 5: Bob Hagearty, Michael Della Penna, Joe Randazzo, Adam Pearlman and Amanda White.

Nick's Comedy Stop

100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. $10-$22. •Sept. 25, 8:30 pm, free admission over 21: Joe Yannetty, All-Star Comedy •Sept. 26 and 27, 8:45 pm: Mike Donovan, Jim Coliton and John Keating

IMPROV COMEDY

Faces for Radio

Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-510-4447). www.faces4radio.com. MBTA:Red Line to Central. Thu., 8 pm. $8. Improv comedians poke fun at everything, including themselves.

Improv Asylum

216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA:Green or Orange Line to Haymarket or Government Center. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 8 and 10 pm; Sat., 6, 8 and 10 pm. $15-$20. Dinner packages also available. Improvisation and sketch comedy in the North End. •Wed. and Thu., $15, and Fri. and Sat., $20: The Brand Ambition Tour •Thu., 9:45 pm, free: Improv Jam featuring main-stage performers and special guests. •Sept. 28, Oct. 5, 7:30 pm, $10: Postmortem. This improvisational drama, based on a real-life obituary taken from the daily newspaper, explores the life of a recently deceased person.

ImprovBoston

1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central . $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: the characters, the stories, the settings—even the songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm, $5: The Hump. This fringe series features ImprovBoston's Expansion Teams. •Thu., $12: Micetro; 10 pm, $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and music, play short films and do character sketches in a display of sibling rivalry •Fri. 8 pm, $12: Luv Boat. Instead of washed-up celebrities setting sail, the audience members are the passengers on this cruise; 10 pm, $12: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers face off. •Sat., 6 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Family Show; 8 and 10 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music, audience participation and joyful chaos, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $5: Sgt. Culpepper's Improvisational Jamboree features visiting troupes and combines three shows in one.

Improv Asylum presents Postmortem, an improvisational drama based on real-life obituaries.

COMEDY SHOWS

Comedy at the Isle

Emerald Isle Bar, 1501 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-288-3481). MBTA: Red Line to Fields Corner. Sat., Sept. 27, 8:30 pm, $10. Kenny Rogerson and Mike Donovan perform.

Joey & Maria's Italian Wedding

Tremont Playhouse in the Tremont Hotel, 275 Tremont St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm. Through Nov. 29. $49. This interactive dinner show follows Maria and Joey through their wacky wedding.

Maria's Bachelorette Party

Tremont Playhouse in the Tremont Hotel, 275 Tremont St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sept. 26 and Oct. 24, 7 pm. $42. At this dinner theater show, Maria's friends and bridesmaids throw her a bash she won't forget.

Open Mike Night

Lizard Lounge, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon., 8 pm. Open mike for creative talent.

Stash's Comedy Jam

All Asia Cafe, 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. www.stashcomedyjam.com. First and third Sunday of the month. 8 pm. Enjoy standup comedy at this open mike with host Stash.

Monday Night Football at The Grand Canal

Down some Wings And Pound some Beers
Watching your favorite Team on our 72" Big Screen with Surround Sound!

Free Oyster Bar Amazing Beer Specials
Great Half time Games with Unbelieveable Prizes

The Grand Canal
57 Canal Street,
Boston, PH: 617 523 1112
www.SomersPubs.com

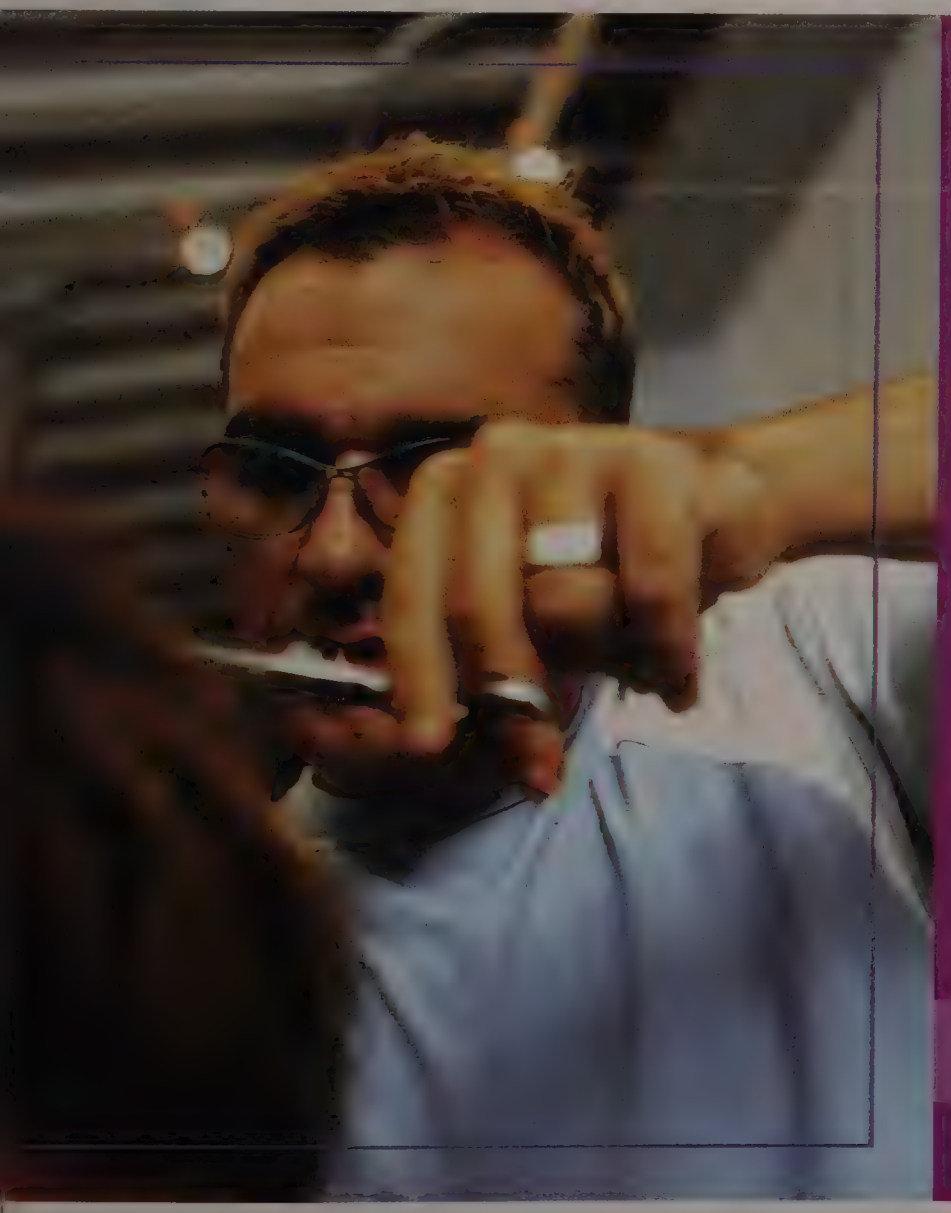
Every neighborhood
has its hangout, come visit ours.

Great atmosphere, better food

Convenient to the South End, Back Bay and the Theater District
Late night menu

dedo
lounge & bistro

69 Church St., Bay Village 617 338 9999 www.dedo.biz
Validated parking at the Radisson Hotel



MAKSOU

HAIR & MAKE UP ARTISAN • DAY SPA

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Charles Maksou
Women's Haircut

Charles Maksou is the man responsible for bringing John Sahag's celebrated dry-cut method to Boston. Women who go to him once are instantly addicted to the quality of his cuts."

Renee Christopher
Eyebrow Shaping

"...her advice and expertise are always worth following. Let her that voodoo that she does so [illegible] and Christopher will give you brows that bless your face."

Bring in this ad for 20% OFF
first time hair and spa services

125 Broad St., Boston 617/443/8633 www.maksou.com

Caged Heat

Nicolas Cage lights up Ridley Scott's Matchstick Men

BY PAUL SHERMAN

If it's a Nicolas Cage movie, the more neuroses the better. After playing a self-loathing, hallucinating writer in last winter's Adaptation, Cage scores again with an obsessive-compulsive, chain-smoking con man trying belatedly to be a parent in Ridley Scott's Matchstick Men. Roy, Cage's uneasy character, is the sort of guy who gets literally shaken when Frank (Sam Rockwell), his partner in crime, doesn't remove his shoes before coming into Roy's immaculate house. Don't ask what happens when Frank starts leaving a trail of crumbs on Roy's carpet.

Nicolas Cage plays an obsessive-compulsive con man in the new comedy Matchstick Men

About the only time Roy seems comfortable is when he and Frank are pulling scams, like the telemarketing con in which the duo tells someone they've won a trip to Paris, and if the winner spends $300 for a water filter (that Roy and Frank have bought for $50), then no taxes will have to be paid to the IRS on the lucrative prize, which now becomes a gift included with the purchase. Roy and Frank clear $250 quick profit, the "winner" never gets a trip and Roy has more money to buy cleaning products with which to scrub his house. Sometimes the pair even pretends to be federal agents investigating the crime, so the victim thinks the authorities are looking for the swindlers.

But Roy can't even handle con jobs after he accidentally knocks his bottle of tranquilizers down the drain. Frank convinces his partner he needs to go see a shrink (Bruce Altman), and it's in these sessions we learn the three things eating at Roy: the break-up of his last meaningful relationship 15 years earlier; the mystery over whether his ex-girlfriend had the child she was expecting; and Roy's festering inability to connect with other people because of his phobias. After he learns that he has a 14-year-old daughter, Roy, armed with a supply of pill samples and bolstered by his weekly meetings with the psychiatrist, asks the doc to help him set up a meeting with the child.

Tomboy Angela (Alison Lohman) arrives in Roy's life as his opposite. He has a routine, she's impulsive. He's neat, she's a slob. He's weary, she's lively. But Roy is determined to make this new relationship work, even after Angela shows up unannounced at his house for a few days and then wants him to teach her his trade. Instead of being disappointed he's not "in antiques," as he'd said, she's impressed he's a criminal and eager to help out.

Roy walks Angela through a small con on a friendly woman (Beth Grant) at a laundromat, and the teen ends up helping him and Frank out in a more involved scheme to defraud a shady businessman (Bruce McGill). This plot, in which Roy's newly tapped paternal instincts might threaten his criminal ways, and vice versa, recalls the bittersweet Ryan O'Neal–Tatum O'Neal comedy Paper Moon, but the comedy in Matchstick Men (the title is slang for con men) is less screwball, and the crime has more of a lingering impact on the father-daughter relationship.

Of course, it would spoil the movie if I spilled what happens after Roy's professional and personal lives intertwine more than he'd wanted. In a sense, the climax is a comeuppance for Roy, but it's also a liberation. As in Adaptation, a Cage character learns the value of loosening up, and the mix of pain and joy is once again all over Cage's expressive face. For an actor who had such trouble fitting his quirks into the mainstream early in his career, and recently had such a hard time picking good movies, Cage has impressively found purpose again.

Even more surprising is that Matchstick Men is directed by Ridley Scott, whose work lately—in Gladiator, Black Hawk Down and Hannibal—has been blustery and unsubtle. His direction of this emotionally intricate and clever comedy is no con job. IB

Matchstick Men ★★★

Directed by Ridley Scott. Written by Eric Garcia. With Nicolas Cage, Sam Rockwell, Alison Lohman and Bruce McGill. Rated PG-13. Warner Bros.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

American Splendor ★★★
The movie version of Harvey Pekar's autobiographical comic book series sticks to the comics' realism to such a degree that, in addition to scenes with a pitch-perfect Paul Giamatti as cranky Pekar, it also includes narration by and interviews with Pekar himself. That hybrid is clumsy at times, but the movie captures Pekar's search for the extraordinary in the everyday, as well as his hard-headed individualism, with precision and affection. We see Pekar at his humble file clerk job and in his legendary appearances on David Letterman's shows. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Cabin Fever ★★½
The old spam-in-a-cabin premise of a group of college kids going into the woods and finding horror plays out with less cliché than usual here. The big twist this time is that the rednecks who are trying to kill the kids aren't the only danger. The real threat is a flesh-eating virus that one of the kids catches, and which seems headed for the others. There's the obligatory horny girl, doofus guy and hero for us to identify with, but this is a lively, decent creepshow. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Camp ★★
Actor turned writer and now director Todd Graff's unconvincingly feel-good indie movie features a gung ho teen cast playing the aspiring singers, dancers and actors at Camp Ovation, a performing arts camp. There's some novelty in seeing talented teens play adults in fully staged production numbers of Sondheim or Bacharach-David songs (this is the Terror of Tiny Town of musicals). But the comedy-drama is such a superficial after-school special, with all its dilemmas miraculously resolved without fuss or muss, that it has no emotional credibility. Despite all the unrequited love, sexual dilemmas and backstage bickering, it's a trifle. (At Kendall Square.)

Casa de los Babys ★★
Writer-director John Sayles' movies either have narrative thrust (Lone Star, Sunshine State) or they don't. His latest just sits there in search of purpose. This story of a half-dozen American women in Mexico (waiting to adopt babies from a local agency) and the Mexicans they come into contact with feels like a first draft: The characters are sketchy, the action is tentative and the point is fuzzy. The relationship between parenting and imperialism bubbles under the story, but never hits home. Too bad, because Sayles assembled an eclectic cast of actresses—including Lili Taylor, Marcia Gay Harden, Maggie Gyllenhaal and Mary Steenburgen—who interact well together but are let down by the script. (At Kendall Square.)

Dickie Roberts, Former Child Star ★½
Hasn't Gary Coleman's campaign for governor of California rendered this David Spade movie obsolete? If it hasn't, the lack of laughs will, in this story of a 35-year-old former sitcom star who tries to experience the childhood he never had by renting a family for a month. The scary part is that he does all this to try to get a role in a movie directed by Rob Reiner! I guess he hasn't seen Reiner's last few movies. There's no salvation there, Dickie. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

The Fighting Temptations ★★★
Here's a big surprise. Although it stars Cuba Gooding, Jr. (he of the painful Snow Dogs and Boat Trip) and it's a formula film about a jaded yuppie who sees the light when he returns to his small home town, this is actually an enjoyable ensemble comedy with great musical performances. Gooding plays a New York ad exec who's not above advising a liquor company to market malt liquor to blacks. Then he returns to his Georgia hometown for a great aunt's funeral and, as stipulated in her will, has to get her church's choir into a local competition in order to collect his inheritance. The cast is filled with singers (Beyonce, the O'Jays, Melba Moore), and the songs are often knockouts, while Mike Epps and Steve Harvey are very funny and Gooding's Jack Lemmon facial expressions of disbelief are just right for his character. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Lost in Translation ★★★½
Sofia Coppola dealt with shared pain in her 2000 directorial debut, The Virgin Suicides, and she conjures up a similar funny-sad tone in her tale of two Americans (Bill Murray, Scarlett Johansson) adrift in Tokyo. He's a washed-up movie star making a bundle endorsing Japanese booze, while she's the wife of a work-consumed photographer (Giovanni Ribisi). They're staying at the same hotel and killing time

Miller Lite

TRUE PILSNER BEER

Tell it over a great tasting, less filling Miller Lite.

Orleans

Bar & Restaurant

65 Holland St., Davis Square, Somerville
617-591-2100

GUIDO'S EST. 1942

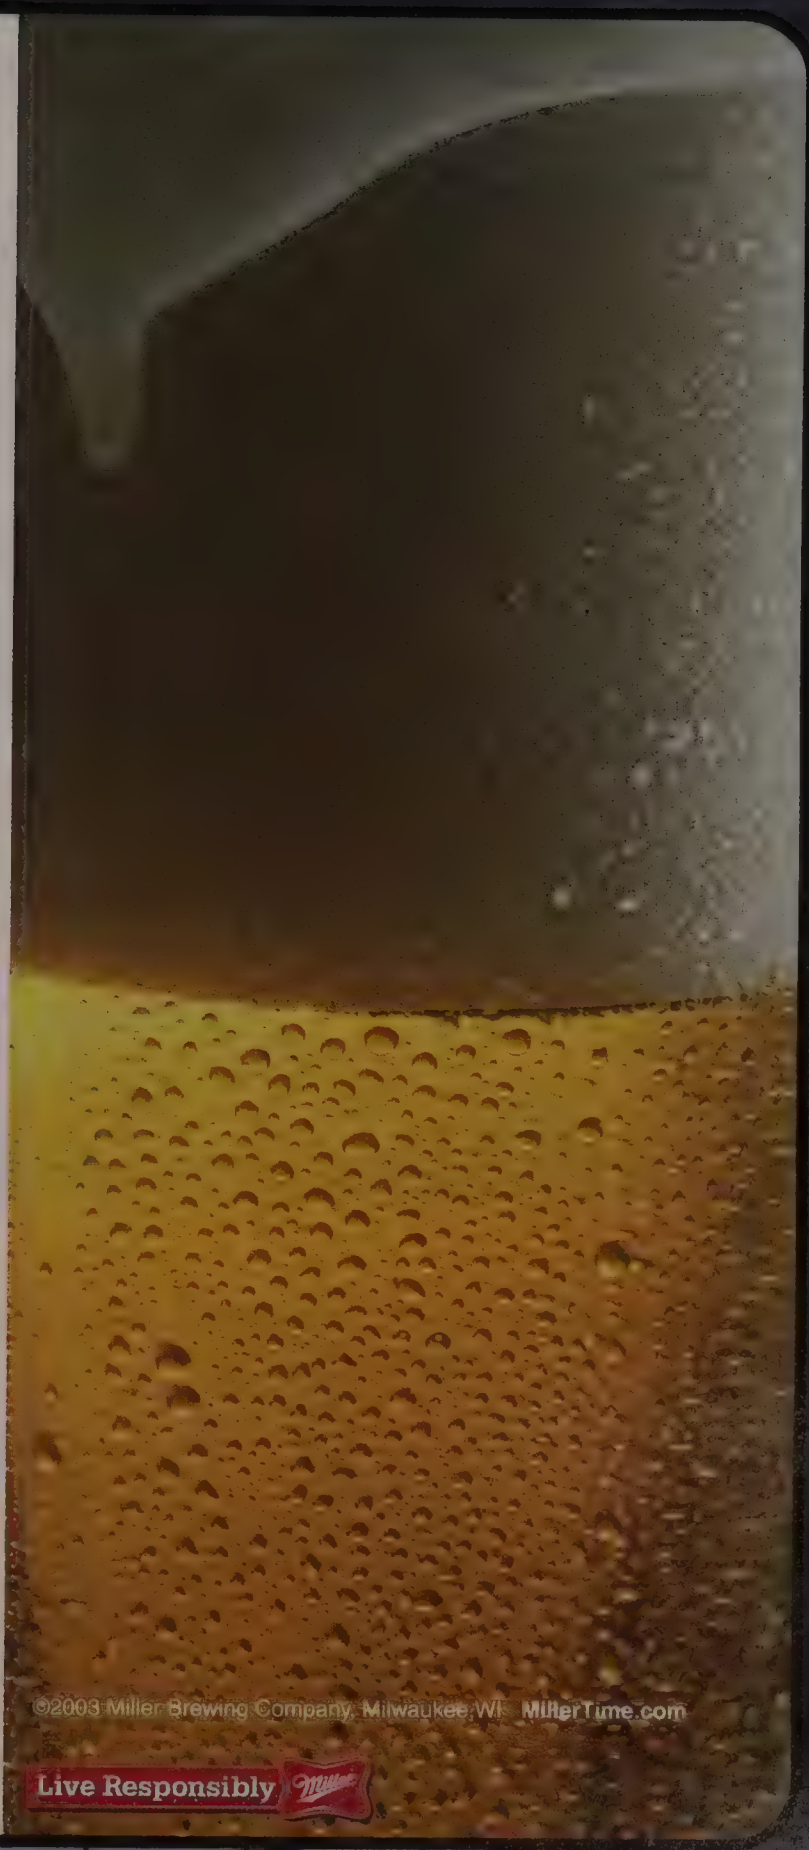
13 Belmont St., Cambridge
617-492-9782

Sligo Pub

237A Elm St., Somerville
617-623-9651

An Tua Nua

835 Beacon St., Boston
617-262-2121



the same hotel bar, and their misery loves company. The characters make a great movie couple, although their relationship is platonic (with its share of sexual tension). Murray gives a Buster Keaton–like, sad-clown performance built mainly around physical and especially facial reactions to absurd situations, and Johansson is a little heartbreaker. (At Boston Common and Harvard Square.)

The Magdalene Sisters ★★★½
Actor turned writer-director Peter Mullan's intense movie about Ireland's brutal Magdalene asylums is the best argument for the separation of church and state since the Taliban. It was in these asylums, which existed until the mid-1990s, that the Catholic Church used to take in "wayward" girls and force them to work, under the premise of rehabilitating them, all with the tacit approval of the government and society. Unlike so many movies that portray cruelty and violence, such things actually have great consequence in Mullan's movie. He makes you care about his three victimized heroines, and his movie is a chilling look at abuse of power on many levels—in family and community as much as the church. (At Kendall Square.)

Out of Time ★★½
Nearly a decade ago, director Carl Franklin and star Denzel Washington made Devil in a Blue Dress, an evocative 1940s-set neo-noir that should have launched a series featuring author Walter Mosley's hero, 'Easy' Rawlins—if only audiences hadn't been so indifferent. Franklin and Washington's new collaboration is another thriller involving sex, money and deceit. This one is competent but much less layered and much more conventional (I guess the generic title is a tip-off). Washington plays a small-town police chief who's about to be divorced from one woman (fellow cop Eva Mendes) and is sleeping around with another (married woman Sanaa Lathan). A splashy crime involving the lover, and a trail of evidence incriminating the chief, perk the attentions of the fellow cop, and the chief has to scurry to clear his name. There are a few thrills, but there's also a ridiculously sunny ending. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

The Same River Twice ★★★
A fascinating, intimate documentary that dispels the myth that the generation that tuned in, turned on and dropped out later sold out. Robb Moss' movie finds him revisiting some of the friends with whom he'd been a Colorado River guide during the 1970s. The 1970s footage, which Moss filmed during one of the group's last outings together, makes the group seem like a counterculture Outward Bound. The present-day footage finds the one-time outsiders more entrenched in mainstream society, yet navigating life's bumps like those on the rapids they used to ride down. These baby boomers are still questioning their life choices. (At Coolidge Corner.)

Scarface ★★
Written by Oliver Stone, directed by Brian DePalma and overacted by Al Pacino, the 1983 remake of Howard Hawks' classic 1930s gangster drama continues to inspire generations of gangsta rappers with its excesses. But it's still ridiculously long and ludicrous, and its 20th-anniversary rerelease can't change that. (At Boston Common through Sept. 25.)

Seabiscuit ★★
Writer-director Gary (Pleasantville) Ross struggles to bring Laura Hillenbrand's unforgettable book about the 1930s racehorse to the screen. He veers from Ken Burns–like documentary sequences to comic relief from a fictional radio personality played by William H. Macy. He also repeatedly whacks us over the head with the same point: Owner Charles Howard (Jeff Bridges), trainer Tom Smith (Chris Cooper) and jockey Red Pollard (Tobey Maguire) all excelled at second chances in life, just like the late-blooming horse. The movie might have had more oomph were it earthier, but it's just a well-crafted, generic piece of uplifting sports moviemaking. Read the book. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Thirteen ★★★
In the spectrum of movies about troubled teenage girls, Catherine Hardwicke's debut falls somewhere between the clichés of the recent Blue Car and the unique emotional eeriness of The Virgin Suicides. Evan Rachel Wood, who has a Kirsten Dunst–like mix of sweetness and naughtiness, is convincing as the initially girlish seventh-grader who yearns to hang out with the popular, more physically mature girls—and gets to, by taking drugs, shoplifting and pushing her budding sexuality just as they do. Meanwhile, her frazzled mom (Holly Hunter) tries to straddle the line between being firm and friendly, while her new best friend (Nikki Reed, who co-wrote the script with Hardwicke) manipulates everyone in sight. Although the movie can sometimes come off as a pat cautionary tale, its emotional messiness is awfully realistic, with most everyone oblivious to their own faults. (At Boston Common, Copley Place, Kendall Square and Coolidge Corner.)

David Spade (left) plays Dickie Roberts, and (clockwise from Spade) Dustin Diamond, Corey Feldman, Danny Bonaduce, Barry Williams and Leif Garrett play themselves in Dickie Roberts: Former Child Star.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors
Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
The Faces of a Star: A Romy Schneider Retrospective
•Sept. 29, 6 pm. Ludwig (part two) 1972. The s ond half of Luchino Visconti's chronicle of Bavari king Ludwig's life captures his short but torment reign. Oct. 6, 6 pm. Good Neighbor Sam 1964. mild-mannered man helps his wife's best friend herit her grandfather's fortune by pretending to her husband.

BOSTON UNDERGROUND FILM FESTIVAL
•Sept. 25-Oct. 10. The fifth annual Boston U derground Film Festival moves to the fall with 16-day schedule of independent and experimen film, as well as discussion panels and receptio with the local film community. Venues inclu the Allston Cinema Underground, Brattle Th atre, Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, Mi Way, MIT, Museum of Fine Arts, Oni Gallery a

"One cannot think well, love well, sleep well if one has not dined well." - Virginia Woolf

photography: Darlene DeVita

the paramount

44 charles street | beacon hill | boston | paramountboston.com

Breakfast & Lunch Monday-Friday 7AM to 4:30PM, Saturday & Sunday 8AM to 4:30PM
Dinner Nightly 5PM to 10PM | Open Friday & Saturday nights until 11PM

THE ONLY THING BETTER
THAN SPEAKING
OFF THE RECORD

Is A Reporter

TOO DRUNK TO WRITE

★ ★ THE 21ST AMENDMENT ★ ★

Beer. Food. Politics. ★ Next to the State House ★ 150 Bowdoin St. Boston

more. See www.bostonundergroundfilmfestival.com for schedule.

BRATTLE THEATRE

Sundays and Mondays—Shades of Noir

•Sept. 28 and Sept. 29, 1:30, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Shockproof 1949. A paroled murderess is torn between life with her parole officer–turned–romantic interest and her shady former flame. Douglas Sirk directs. •Also showing, 3:30 and 7:30 pm. Johnny O'Clock 1947. Two gamblers who run a casino are suspected in the murder of a cop's sister. Robert Rossen directs.

•Oct. 5, 2:15 and 7 pm; Oct. 6, 7 pm. Chinatown 1974. Roman Polanski's film stars Jack Nicholson as a private investigator on a case of murder, incest and adultery. •Also showing, 4:45 and 9:45 pm. The Manchurian Candidate 1962. In John Frankenheimer's film, a group of Korean War vets are brainwashed and turned into mercenaries by Russian and Chinese agents.

Tuesdays—Pasolini and His World

•Sept. 30, 5, 7:30 and 10 pm. Il Decameron 1970. Pier Paolo Pasolini directs the film adaptation of nine stories from Bocaccio's Decameron.

•Oct. 7, 5 and 10 pm. I Racconti di Canterbury (The Canterbury Tales) 1971. Pasolini adapts Geoffrey Chaucer's classic novel. •Also showing, 7:30 pm. Il Fiore Delle Mille e Una Notte (Arabian Nights) 1974. A young man searches for his lost love and encounters travelers who tell their stories along the way.

Wednesdays—Recent Raves

•Sept. 24, 5:15, 7:30 and 9 :45 pm. Northfork 2003. Michael Polish's drama follows the residents of a small 1950s Montana town who are forced to move to make way for a dam.

•Oct. 1, 5:30 and 8:30 pm. Le Cercle Rouge (The Red Circle) 1970. Trouble ensues in Jean-Pierre Melville's film when an ex-thief enlists a murderer and an ex-police sharpshooter to pull off a jewel heist.

Thursdays—Selected by Charles Burnett

•Sept. 25, 5, 7:30 and 10 pm. Ganja & Hess 1972. A doctor's assistant becomes bloodthirsty after being stabbed with an ancient, germ-infested knife in Bill Gunn and Fima Noveck's horror movie.

•Oct. 2, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 pm. Bush Mama 1979. A welfare mother struggles to raise her daughter in an L.A. ghetto. Haile Gerima directs.

Fridays and Saturdays—Special Engagements

•Sept. 26 and Sept. 27, 5, 7:30 and 10 pm; Sat. matinee, 2:30 pm. Donnie Darko 2001. A teenage boy grapples with religion, mental instability and visions of a giant, evil rabbit. Richard Kelly directs.

•Oct. 3, 2 and 7 pm; Oct. 4, 12:45, 3, 5:15, 7:30 and 9:45 pm. To Catch a Thief 1955. Cary Grant plays a retired burglar who might be up to his old tricks. Alfred Hitchcock directs. •Also showing, 9:15 pm. Boston Cinema Census III. The Brattle's third installment of the BCC features locally produced films by emerging filmmakers. See www.centralproductions.org.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

Coolidge Selects

•Now playing. Etre et Avoir (To Be and to Have) 2003. Nicolas Philibert documents a classroom in a small French village where students ages 4 to 10 learn together.

•Opening Oct. 3. The Same River Twice 2003. See New Releases for a description.

Midnights: '80s Fantasy!

•Sept. 26 and 27, 12 am. Conan the Barbarian 1982. Arnold Schwarzenegger plays a gladiator seeking to avenge the death of his parents. John Milius directs.

•Sept 26 and 27, 12 am. Beyond Re-Animator 2003. A 12-year-old boy who found a serum to revive the dead has grown up to be a doctor obsessed with working alongside his mentor. Brian Yuzna directs.

Video Screening Room: Bank Busters Film Festival

•Sept 26, 7 pm; Sept. 27, 8:30 pm. Lifting the Veil. Shonali Bose's documentary follows contemporary Indian workers, politicians, students, teachers and housewives who speak about policies of liberalization, privatization and globalization. •Also showing, Sept. 26, 8:30 pm; Sept. 27, 7 pm. The New Rulers of the World. John Pilger and Alan Lowery's film examines several large multinational corporations and the institutions that back them.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Directors in Focus: Fassbinder!

•Oct. 3, 7 pm. Fassbinder in Hollywood 2002. Robert Fischer's documentary compares contemporary Hollywood with Rainer Werner Fassbinder's films and includes interviews with the German cinematographer's company of workers. •Also showing, 9 pm, Oct. 5, 9 pm. Liebe Ist Kälter Als der Tod (Love Is Colder Than Death) 1969. Fassbinder's first film follows the efforts of a small-time pimp who resists recruitment by a powerful Berlin crime syndicate.

•Oct. 4, 7 pm. Der Amerikanische Soldat (The American Soldier) 1970. Fassbinder's film about a charismatic but disillusioned hitman returning home from Vietnam hearkens back to the cinematic era of Humphry Bogart and the great American directors of the 1940s and '50s. •Also showing, 9 pm. Despair—Eine Reise ins Licht (Despair) 1978. A restless chocolate factory owner plans to switch identities with a struggling artist in the film adaptation of Vladimir Nabokov's novel. Fassbinder directs.

•Oct. 6, 9 pm. Die Dritte Generation (The Third Generation) 1979. Fassbinder's controversial film looks at the connections between terrorism and capitalism, focusing on a group of disenchanted citizens who are manipulated by industrialists.

Film Architectures

•Sept. 24, 6 pm. Metropolis 1927. Fritz Lang's classic, silent film is a cynical look at the future.

•Oct. 5, 7 pm. Dong (The Hole) 1998. The future looks bleak for the tenants of a run-down urban housing project. Ming-liang Tsai directs.

•Oct. 7, 7 pm. Ni Neibian Jidian (What Time Is It There?) 2001. Director Ming-liang Tsai appears in person for a screening of his most recent film, which presents contrasting portraits of Paris and Taipei through the lives of a grieving Taipei man and a young Parisian vacationer. •Immediately following. Tien Chao Bu Jien Le (The Skywalk Is Gone) 2002. Ming-Liang's continuation of Ni Neibian Jidian follows the Parisian traveler on her return to a changed Taipei, where she combs the city searching for a particular street vendor.

From Cinematic to Digital Culture

•Sept. 28, 7 pm. Berlin: Die Sinfonie der Grobstadt (Berlin: Symphony of a Great City) 1927. Walte Ruttmann's silent impressionistic vision of pre World War II Berlin follows city dwellers throug the routine events of a spring day. Live piano mus accompanies the screening. •Also showing, 8:30 pm Los Olvidados (The Young and the Damned) 195 Surrealist director Luis Bañuel's examination poverty and violence depicts the descent of a Mex can street urchin.

The New German Cinema

•Sept. 29, 7 pm. Machorka-Muff 1962. Jean-Mar Straub and Daniéle Huillet direct this story about reactivated West German officer.

•Oct. 6, 7 pm. Massnahmen Gegen Fanatiker (Pr cautions Against Fanatics) 1968. An old man ded cates himself to protecting racehorses against th abuses of fanatical trainers. Werner Herzog directs.

Remembering Romy

•Sept. 26, 7 pm. The Cardinal 1963. Otto Pr minger's adaptation of Henry Morton Robinson novel follows a young priest through his career the church. Romy Schneider plays a student wh tests the priest's virtue.

•Sept. 29, 9 pm. Le Procés (The Trial) 1962. Orson Welles' adaptation of Franz Kafka's novel, man wakes up to find he is on trial for a crime nev explained to him.

(Re)screening Shakespeare

•Sept. 24, 9 pm. Romeo + Juliet 1996. Director B Luhrmann transports Shakespeare's tale of st crossed lovers to 1990s Florida, where the characte have handguns, drop acid and receive advice fro disco-dancing drag queens.

Screening Modern China

•Sept. 30, 7 pm. Yuen Ling-Yuk (Center Stage) 199 Scandal, torrid affairs, turbulent romantic and fa ily relationships define the final years of actre Ruan Lingyu's life in Stanley Kwan's biopic.

•Oct. 1, 7 pm. Xin Nüxing (New Woman) 1934. teacher becomes a successful fiction writer, only be confronted with the realities of sexual hara ment and discrimination.

LOEWS THEATRES COPLEY PLACE

Sundance Film Series

•Through Oct. 3, 1, 4, 7 and 10 pm. In This Wo 2002. Michael Winterbottom's film follows

CAPRICE

restaurant-bar-lounge

french mediterranean
cuisine

full menu served
daily until 1 am seven
days a week

275 tremont street theatre district
reservations 617.292.0080
capricelounge.com

TAVERN on the CHARLES

Steamers & Beer

"Ice Cold Beer & Boston's Best Quahog"

1234 Soldiers Field Road • Boston • 617-782-4391

Afghan refugees as they travel through Iran, Turkey, Italy, France and the UK in search of refuge in London.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Art on Film
•Sept. 28, 10:30 pm; Oct. 2, 1:30 pm. Rivers and Tides: Andy Goldsworthy Working with Time 2002. Thomas Riedelsheimer's documentary follows sculptor Goldsworthy as he creates art out of natural materials.

The Films of Aki Kaurismäki
•Sept. 25, 6 pm; Sept. 27, 4:15 pm. Juha 1999. This silent film is the story of a farmer's wife who leaves the country for an urban brothel. •Also showing, 4 pm and Sept. 27, 2:15 pm. Kauas Pilvet Karkaavat (Drifting Clouds) 1996. Amid widespread unemployment in mid-1990s Helsinki, a married couple struggles to stay together.

New England Film Artists Present
•Also showing, 8:45 pm. The Jew in the Lotus 1990. Director Laurel Chiten follows author Rodger Kamenetz as Kamenetz records the spiritual journey of eight Jewish delegates traveling to India to meet the Dalai Lama.

World Cinema
•Sept. 26, 8 pm; Oct. 3, 8 pm; Oct. 5, 3:45 pm. Im Juli (In July) 2000. Faith Akin's film follows a young physics teacher who leaves his monotonous life to traipse around Europe in search of true love.
•Oct. 2, 3:30 pm, Oct. 4, 11 am. Whale Rider 2002. After the death of her twin brother, a headstrong 12-year-old Maori girl strives to become the next tribal chief. Niki Caro directs.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Mugar Omni Theater
•Opens Oct. 4. Jane Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees. Enter the playful world of the wild chimpanzees of Africa's Gombe Stream National Park. Call for show times.
•Opens Oct. 4, Africa: The Serengeti. This film depicts some of the 1.5 million animals that migrate across the African plains. Call for show times.
•Opens Oct. 4, Space Station. Blast into space with the astronauts and cosmonauts of the International Space Station. Call for show times.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

Simons IMAX Theater
•Now Playing. Bugs! 3D. This film focuses on the world of insects in the tropical rain forests of Southeast Asia. See bugs magnified up to 250,000 times their normal size. Call for show times.
•Through Oct. 2. Ghosts of the Abyss 3D. Academy Award–winning director James Cameron takes audiences two miles beneath the sea to explore the wreckage of the Titanic. Call for show times.
•Through Oct. 2. The Matrix Reloaded: The Imax Experience. In the sequel to The Matrix, Neo and the rebel leaders battle the machines that have overpowered the human race. Call for show times.
•Through Oct. 2. Ocean Wonderland 3D. Dive in and explore the ocean floor of the Bahamas and Australia's Great Barrier Reef to search for sharks, sting rays and rainbows of tropical fish. Call for show times.
•Through Oct. 2. Space Station 3D. Take a trip to the International Space Station and experience life in zero gravity with the astronauts from Florida's Kennedy Space Center and Russia's Baikonur Cosmodrome. Call for show times.

PEABODY ESSEX MUSEUM

African Film Series
•Oct. 3, 7:30 pm. Faat Kiné 2000. Despite her difficulties, an unwed mother who is betrayed by several men emerges a self-reliant business woman.
•Oct. 4, 4:30 pm. La Petite Vendeusede Soleil (The Little Girl Who Sold the Sun) 1999. A 12-year-old beggar transcends the cruel realities of Dakar's bustling marketplace. •Also showing , 7 pm. Le Franc 1994. In this film directed by Djibril Diop Mambéty, a penniless musician whose instrument is confiscated for back rent pins his hopes on a lottery ticket. •Also showing, 9 pm, Hyènes (Hyenas) 1992. Mambéty satirizes the hopes of African independence through the story of a once prosperous African village that has fallen into poverty.

WANG CENTER

Classic Film Series
•Sept. 29, 7 pm. Free. Breakfast at Tiffany's (1961). The film adaptation of Truman Capote's novel stars Audrey Hepburn as Holly Golightly, a girl about town who falls for the handsome writer upstairs. Blake Edwards directs.

Cinema Venues

ALLSTON

Allston Bombay Cinema 2
214 Harvard Ave. (978-671-9212). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.

Allston Cinema Underground
214 Harvard Ave. (617-912-8626). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Rd. (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Film•Video Foundation
1126 Boylston St. (617-783-9241). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Copley Place (Loews/Sony)
100 Huntington Ave. (617-266-1300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

BROOKLINE

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline. (617-566-5715); MBTA: C Green Line to St. Marys.

Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle or D Green Line to Reservoir.

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square (617-494-9800). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060).

PEABODY

Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876).

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square.

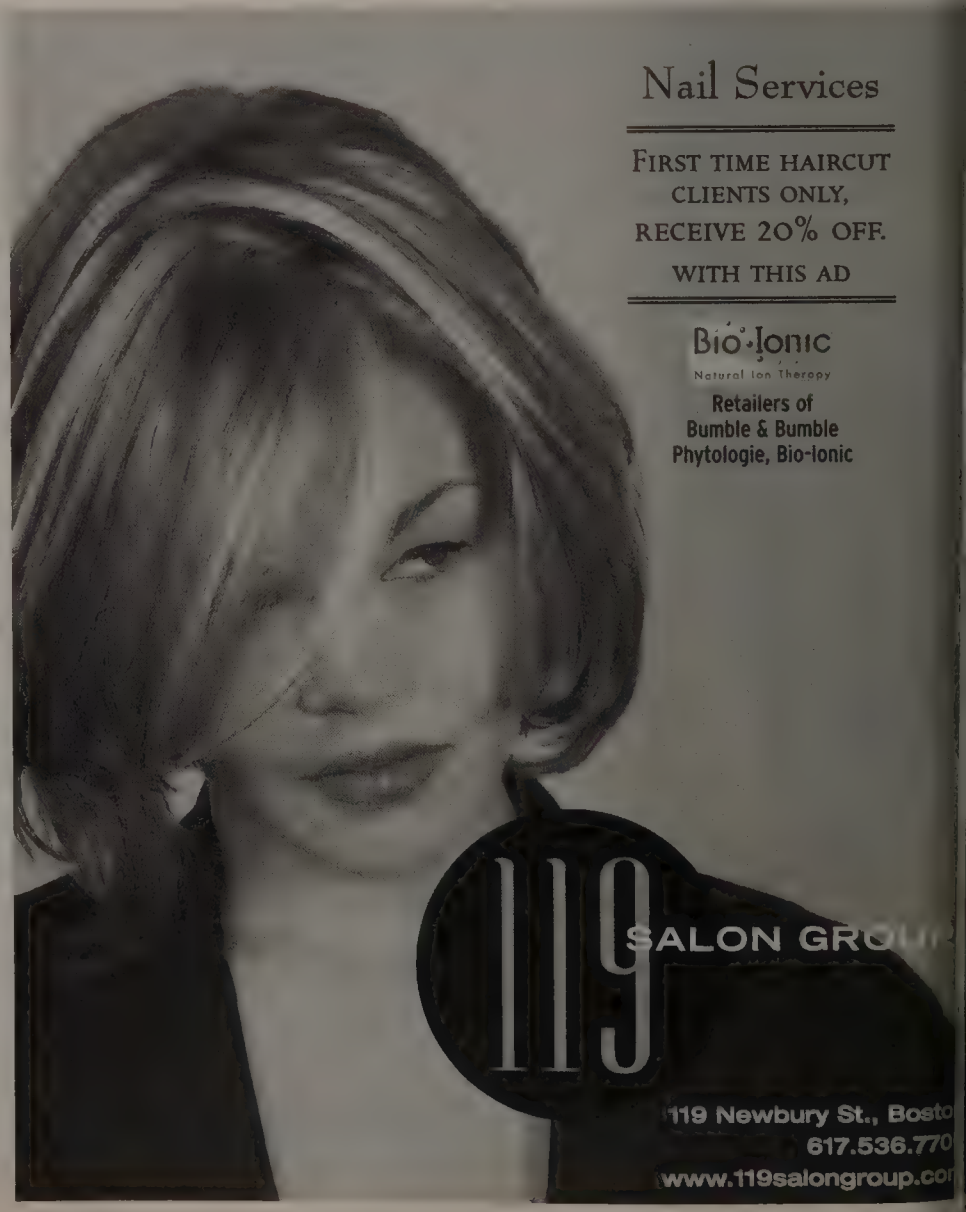
Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

119 Newbury Street Boston 617.536.7700 f 617.536.7117
www.119salongroup.com

Clientele Seeking Stylists

Chair Rental Opportunities
- competitive rates
- insurance quotes
- make your own schedule
- be your own boss
- take 75% of your own income
- management services
- sign on bonus
- assistants available
- 10% commission: product sales
- spa services available
- graphic design for P.R.

Employment Opportunities
- beautiful salon atmosphere
- education and training
- competitive comm./salary
- top of the line products
- portfolio management
- build your own business
- spa services available
- benefit package available
- 10% comm.: products sales
- assistants available
- experienced design team



achieve exceed excel

HOW COMMITTED
ARE YOU?

Train Boston isn't just the best kept fitness secret in the area. We are the future of sport and fitness training in New England. Used by professional athletes, teams and dedicated individuals of all ages, we are now taking new clients to benefit from our unique, functional and progressive training system. Anyone seeking to achieve their fitness goals can benefit from our state-of-the-art facility that makes our experience with the pros work for you.

At Train Boston we are committed to your success. How committed are you? Come see for yourself what a smarter workout looks like. We're conveniently located just minutes from Routes 128, Route 9 and the Mass Pike.

Contact us today to arrange for a tour or a free one-week trial membership.
34 Washington Street Wellesley / phone 781.263.9993 www.trainboston.com

TRAINBOSTON

THIS SUMMER WAS SHORT ENOUGH
SO WE'RE NOT CLOSING THE PATIO
'TIL THE FIRST SNOWFLAKE FALLS!

Boston Bruins Hal Gil and Joe Thornton.

inside RACK

Every Monday Night, 9pm - 2am

Monday nights will never be the same! Join New England Patriots Lonie Paxton and friends! Where the Players meet the Players! Dance, party Southern Cal style and bang in sick on Tuesday! This is definitely the night you don't want to miss! To benefit the Active Force Foundation.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday Night, 6pm

After work Jazz with Boston's Best Jazz bands, Black Sole & Zeke Martin. DJ Ricky spins every Wednesday night 10pm - 2am!

Every Thursday Night, 6-10pm

Get a JUMP START on your weekend! In fact, blow off work on Friday with R&B, Jazz and Soul bands like Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin' Horns and Uneek Approach! Dance the night away with DJ Littles 10pm - 2am.

Every Friday Night, 6pm

Join us right after work for with Kiss 108's Artie the One Man Party featuring live music and DJ Johnny C.

Every Saturday Night, 8pm

The Saturday Night Dance Party just got bigger in a little way! DJ Littles spins while Star 93.7's Vinnie Peruzzi broadcasts live, 8pm-2am.

Every Sunday Night, 8pm

Dance 11pm - 2am with DJ Mike Janedy.

SEPTEMBER 26TH
THE TAYLOR BROTHERS!

BOSTON'S BEST 1997 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1998 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1999 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2000 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2002 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 20[illegible] IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Audio & Visual Courtesy of
Tweeter

Dining Room Open 11:30am - 7 days a week!

MONDAY NIGHTS WILL NEVER BE THE SAME!
JOIN NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS LONIE
AND FRIENDS! WHERE THE PLAYERS
MEET THE PLAYERS! 9PM - 2AM.

JOIN NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS
MIKE VRABEL AND OTHER PATRIOTS
FOR A CELEBRITY POOL TOURNAMENT
TO BENEFIT DARE!
MONDAY, OCTOBER 6TH, 8PM!

Boston Bruin PJ Stock with Sarah Letendre and Nicole Hirtle.

Paradise Island's Dave Kerpen with Christina and New England Patriots cheerleader Heidi Fielek.

24 Clinton Street, Boston 02109 617.725.1051 www.therackboston.com

WATCH US LIVE ON WWW.THERACKBOSTON.COM!

THE RACK

In Time

R.E.M.'s return to touring includes new material along with '80s and '90s hits

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

For a band that's grown from rehearsing in an abandoned church to gradual superstardom to a renewed work ethic in its third decade, R.E.M. realizes, according to guitarist Peter Buck, that some lucky forces haven't changed.

"Being in a band is such a strange thing, because there's a symbiosis that happens, this synergy thing where it's more than you are as a person," Buck says as R.E.M. rolls toward an Oct. 5 date at the Tweeter Center on its first U.S. tour since 1999. "It just seems like a shame to give that up.

R.E.M, from left: Peter Buck (guitar), Michael Stipe (vocals) and Mike Mills (bass)

"Whenever I talk to young people in bands—'cause I'll always give advice to younger groups—and they have this great chemistry and they're arguing, I'll say, 'You know, this chemistry thing doesn't always happen,'" says Buck, 46. "Sometimes you lose one person and it totally changes. I've seen that happen. But you can't really give it up."

That was what Buck, bassist Mike Mills and singer Michael Stipe realized after drummer Bill Berry's 1997 retirement from the group the four launched in the Georgia college town of Athens in 1980. A tough year of retrenchment yielded 1998's semi-experimental Up, followed by 2001's Reveal, which sold only 400,000 copies in the U.S. but did better in Europe. But R.E.M. is revving up; the group has nearly completed a new studio album to follow In Time: The Best of R.E.M. 1988–2003 (in stores Oct. 28) and is planning another tour next year.

"We just felt like going out [on tour]," says Buck, whose band is supplemented on the road by drummer Bill Rieflin (ex-Ministry) and multi-instrumentalists Ken Stringfellow (ex-Posies) and Scott McCaughey, who also plays with Buck in the Minus 5 and the Young Fresh Fellows. "We're thinking about where we are in our ages, being in a band. If we want to do a lot of work, we should do it now. It seems that people in their fifties don't go out as much.

"I don't want to be just an oldies touring band, and we're not," he says from his Seattle home. "We're continuing to work on new stuff."

Two new songs—"Bad Day" (which targets politics and the media as bad bedfellows) and psychedelic rocker "Animal"—have been included on In Time and are in the band's live repertoire. But the tour is noteworthy for its range of retrospective, dipping beyond the band's 1988–2003 Warner Brothers catalog to include a rotation of such '80s nuggets as "Pilgrimage," "Sitting Still," "Feeling Gravity's Pull," "Maps and Legends," "These Days," "Cuyahoga" and "Exhuming McCarthy," as well as the '90s hits "Losing My Religion," "Everybody Hurts" and "Man on the Moon."

"We ended up learning somewhere around 75 or 80 songs and we felt, 'Let's just throw in whatever we're feeling at whatever time,'" says Buck, whose band is fielding requests at www.remhq.com. "We did 'Pilgrimage' a few times. That was one of the ones we played and I looked at everyone and said, 'Jeez, could we have put one more part in the song?' It's got like 20 chords, four different sections and two bridges, and it comes out of the bridge in a different key. You can tell that's our first record. We thought we'd never get to do another one, so we had to stick everything in.

"We tend to do pretty much the album versions," Buck adds. "Little things might change, but my feeling is, if you get tired of the way the song is, rather than make it a reggae version, just don't play it for a while. That's one of the reasons we change the set around. I love Bob Dylan, but I remember those tours where you'd hear a reggae version of 'Don't Think Twice, It's Alright,' then a metal version of 'Mr. Tambourine Man,' and go, 'That doesn't mean anything to me.'"

Indeed, Buck was a clerk in a used record store when R.E.M. began, and he takes some old-school views: "I don't care about the downloading thing one way or the other. I've never done it. I prefer to buy records and support the bands I like, but I'm not going to say it's wrong if someone does it."

At least R.E.M.'s renewed activity should get the band back in the headlines for its music rather than Buck's infamous "air rage" incident. In 2001, he was charged, then cleared by a jury, of attacking British Airways staff during a 2001 flight. Buck says he blanked out from a sleeping pill and wine.

"I woke up in jail and didn't know where I was," he says. "It's not my proudest moment. It will be in my obituary. But if I can laugh about it, everyone else should be able to also." iB

R.E.M.
plays the Tweeter Center Oct. 5.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by email to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from different sources. Although we make every effort to provide accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead to double-check dates and times (see complete list of venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Addison Groove Project
Sept. 27, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Aesop Rock, Akrobatik, EL-P, Mr. Lif, Fakts One and SA Smash
Oct. 1, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
BeanTown Jazz Festival, with the Boston Horns, Herman Johnson, Myanna, Jose Ramos, Trace, Rose and Stan Strickland
Sept. 27, Columbus Avenue (617-471-7990).
Regina Belle
Sept. 27, Berklee Performance Center (617-93[illegible] 2000).
Bowling for Soup, Lucky Boys Confusion and Never Heard of It
Oct. 7, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
Built to Spill and the Solace Brothers
Sept. 29 and 30, Paradise Rock Club (617-42[illegible] NEXT).
Capercaillie
Oct. 3, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Mary Chapin Carpenter, Shawn Colvin, Patty Griffin and Dar Williams
Oct. 3, Wang Center (800-447-7400).
Howie Day, Jump Little Children and Charlotte Martin
Sept. 29, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Dresden Dolls
Sept. 26, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Fleetwood Mac
Sept. 24, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Peter Frampton and Joe Bonamassa
Sept. 28, Roxy (617-931-2000).
John Gorka and Mary Gauthier
Oct. 4, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Reverend Horton Heat, Southern Culture on the Skids and Throw Rag
Sept. 25, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Hoobastank, Diffuser and All-American Rejects
Oct. 4, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Jewel, Josh Kelley and Susan Greenbaum
Sept. 24, FleetBoston Pavilion (617-931-2000).
Jonny Lang and Indigenous
Oct. 1, Orpheum Theatre (617-423-NEXT).
The Juliana Theory, Hopesfall, Count the Stars and Celebrity
Oct. 4, Axis (617-931-2000).
Matchbox Twenty
Sept. 30, Tweeter Center (617-931-2000).
Mixfest, with Vertical Horizon, Jason Mraz, Dido, Tori Amos, Michelle Branch, Train, Barenaked Ladies, Duran Duran and Mark McGrath
Oct.3, FleetCenter (617-931-2000)
No Use for a Name
Sept. 30, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
R.E.M.
Oct. 5, Tweeter Center (617-931-2000).
Shania Twain
Oct. 7, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Lucinda Williams and the Jayhawks
Oct. 7, Orpheum Theater (617-423-NEXT).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24

Abbey Lounge Biopop.
Asgard Down Dog.
The Attic A Northern Chorus, 9 pm.
Bill's Bar Imprint, Breathe, Dryft and Stoic, 9 p[illegible] $9, 19+.
Bristol Lounge Bert Seager, 7 pm.
Cantab Lounge Blues jam, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Monster Mike Welch and Barrie A[illegible] derson, 8 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort The Shauntrelles, 7:20 pm, no co[illegible]
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGr[illegible] 9:30 pm, no cover.
FleetBoston Pavilion Jewel, Josh Kelley and Su[illegible] Greenbaum, 8 pm, $35.50-$45.50.
FleetCenter Fleetwood Mac, 7 pm, $49.50-$125.
The Green Dragon Tavern Say When.

HOW LONG CAN YOU HOLD ON?

Enjoy an ice cold Coors Light at Home of the 24 oz.

Prime Rib

Outdoor patio

the Harp & Bard

18 TVs for all your sporting event
and keno needs

1099 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester • 617-265-2893

Coors LIGHT
COLD·DOWN·EASY

21 and over

ROCK ON

©2003 Coors Brewing Company, Golden, Colorado 80401

Pane. Amore. Fantasia.

Boutique Italian cuisine

"...Boston's best Italian restaurant." - Travel & Leisure
"...one of the top 10 Italian restaurants in the country." - Bon Appetit

antica Bricco

241 Hanover St. • 617.248.6800 • www.bricco.com

Dinner seven nights - Complimentary Valet

Experience a true Greek cuisine

Live entertainment
Friday, Saturday and Sunday

777 Memorial Drive, Cambridge

Overlooking the Charles River

Open 7 nights a week • 617.661.6800

DIONYSOS

Fine Greek Cuisine

Fleetwood Mac has been going strong for decades. They perform Sept. 24 at the FleetCenter.

Harper's Ferry An evening of arena rock, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Julian Kasper and Kevin Grudecki, 8:30 pm.
Kendall Café Rosanna Lee, 8:30 pm; 4 Way Street CD-release, 9:30 pm; Sarah Pierce, 10:45 pm, $8.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Lizard Lounge The Chandler Travis Philharmonic, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Easy Action, 25 Suaves, White Trash Deluxe and Deny Everything, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Ambulance Ltd., $9, 18+. ZuZu: Fully Celebrated Orchestra, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Nick Jones and Public, 21+.
Milky Way Artful Words open mike with Momentum.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm-10:30 pm.
Plough and Stars Bad Art Ensemble, 9 pm.
The Rack BlackSole.
Regattabar The Felipe Salles Group, 8:30pm, $12
Ryles Jazz Club Bruce Bartlett Trio, 8 pm, $10.
Scullers Brad Mehldau, $18.
Sky Bar Bucky Spins, Goldman and West View, 8 pm, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Boris McCutcheon.
Toad The Heygoods, 7 pm; Woodpile, 10 pm.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio with Joe Mulholland, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Oneside, 9 pm; Asteroid No. 4, 10 pm; Barn Burning, 11 pm, $6.
Virgin Megastore Dennis Shafer, 1 pm.
Western Front Dan Blake Ensemble.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries.
Les Zygomates David Eure and the Latin Explosion, 8 pm.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25

Abbey Lounge Dave Derby.
Asgard Nate Watkins.
Bill's Bar The Fever Movement, Thea Wolfe and Blizzard of '78, 9 pm, $10, 19+.
Black Horse Tavern Alan Goodrich.
Bob the Chef's Brandon Sanders Quartet, 7:30 pm
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 7 pm.
Cantab Lounge Chris Waller and New Day, 9 pm.
Club Passim James O'Brien and the Church of the Kitchen Sink CD-release show and Nathan Pyritz, 8 pm, $12.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Los Amigos Invisibles Oct. 9, Roxy (617-423-NEXT).
Joan Baez Oct. 11, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
George Clinton & Parliament/Funkadelic Oct. 8, Roxy (617-423-NEXT).
Bruce Cockburn Oct. 24, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Cowboy Mouth and Cracker Oct. 10, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Evan Dando and Vic Chesnutt Oct. 17, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Chris Delmhorst and Peter Mulvey Oct. 18, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Ani Difranco Nov. 16, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Gov't Mule and Chris Robinson Oct. 17, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Herbie Hancock Nov. 2, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Shirley Horn Oct. 10, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Interpol and Elefant Oct. 16 and 17, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Lyle Lovett Nov. 9, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Marilyn Manson Oct. 23, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Maroon 5 and Gavin DeGraw Oct. 30, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Leona Naess Oct. 18, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Meshell Ndegeocello and Soulive Oct. 22, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Robert Randolph and the Family Band Nov. 19 Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Road to Voodoo Tour with DJ Swamp, Fuel and Smile Empty Soul Oct. 23, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Sheila Divine Oct. 10 and 11, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Soledad Brothers Oct. 11, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
String Cheese Incident Oct. 10 and 11, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Travis Oct. 26, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
Ween Oct. 29, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Keller Williams Oct. 24, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Steve Winwood and the North Mississippi Allstars Oct. 8, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).

The best beauty treatments of Newbury Street are now on Columbus Avenue.

Put Your Best Face Forward. with Microdermbrasion

The new "Micro-Dermabrasion" treatment is a painless dermatological technique that performs "mini-peels" for the treatment of age spots, fine lines, uneven skin texture, sun damage, enlarged pores, and aged skin. The results after just one treatment are ASTONISHING!

The Skin You've Always Wanted. with Electrolysis

Remove unwanted hair in a safe, sterile environment. Permanent hair removal through electrolysis results in a well-pleased clientele with beautifully, smooth, hair free skin!

HAIR in motion

THE SOUTH END HAS A BEAUTY SPA OF ITS OWN

65 Columbus Avenue • South End • 617-236-7826 www.hairinmotion.com

ARIA

SAT OCT 18 THROUGH SAT OCT 25

FASHION WEEK @ ARIA

Fashion shows every night

THURSDAY OCTOBER 25

FASHION HOUSE

"Fashion Uncensored"

Conrad Lamour Fall '03 Collection

Show begins @ midnight prompt

ONE NATION TUESDAYS

97.7 's DJ Rocsi hosts Hip Hop and R&B

LUST WEDNESDAYS

DJ John Morris spins high energy house

Boston's greatest alternative evening

FASHION HOUSE THURSDAYS

DJ Roger M. spins

FLOSS FRIDAYS

DJ Th

CLASSIC SPIN BACK SATURDAYS

246 Tremont St. Below the Wilbur Theater
Reservations & Private Party Information 617.338.7080
www.ariaboston.com

Traditional & Contemporary Greek Cuisine

MEZE

ESTIATORIO

Even the gods never ate so well...
Mezé is open!

100 City Square, Charlestown
617.242.MEZE (6393)
www.mezeboston.com

Where the locals meet to eat

ASSAGGIO

Open noon to midnight
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

29 Prince Street (in the North End)
Located off of Hanover 617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
Reservations accepted

Common Ground '80s Love Night with DJ Brian. 10 pm, $3.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Mary Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Harper's Ferry Uncle Sammy, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm-10 pm.
Johnny D's Boston Blues Festival Kick-off Bash, 9 pm, $10.
Kendall Café The Basil Exposition and Yoni Gordon and the Goods, $5.
Lizard Lounge Club D'Elf, 9:30 pm, $10.
Matt Murphy's 'Round Midnight jazz session.
Middle East Upstairs: Black Eyed Snakes, Antler, Kid Dakota, Jordan Carp and the Subterranians, $9, 18+. Corner: Stretch, no cover, 18+. Zuzu: Supergoo, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Dyke night, 21+.
MIT Wong Auditorium Peggy Seeger, 7:30 pm.
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30 pm-10:30 pm.
Paradise Toots and the Maytals, 8 pm, $18.
Plough and Stars Classic Ruins and Kenne Highland, 9 pm.
The Rack Uneek Aproach.
Regattabar Steve Wilson Quartet, 8:30 pm, $16.
Roxy Rock for RAINN: A Benefit to Unlock the Silence, with Alice Peacock, Flynn, Rachel McCartney and Barbara Kessler, 7:30 pm, $15.
Ryles Jazz Club Marta Gomez, 7:30 pm, $10.
Scullers Brad Mehldau, $20.
Sky Bar Juniper's Daughter and Hidden Soul, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn.
Toad The Family Jewels, 7 pm; the Steve Mayone Band, 10 pm.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio with Joe Mulholland, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Drexel, Kicked In the Head, Digger and Random Acts of Violence, $8.
Western Front Mang Dub and the Well.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 26

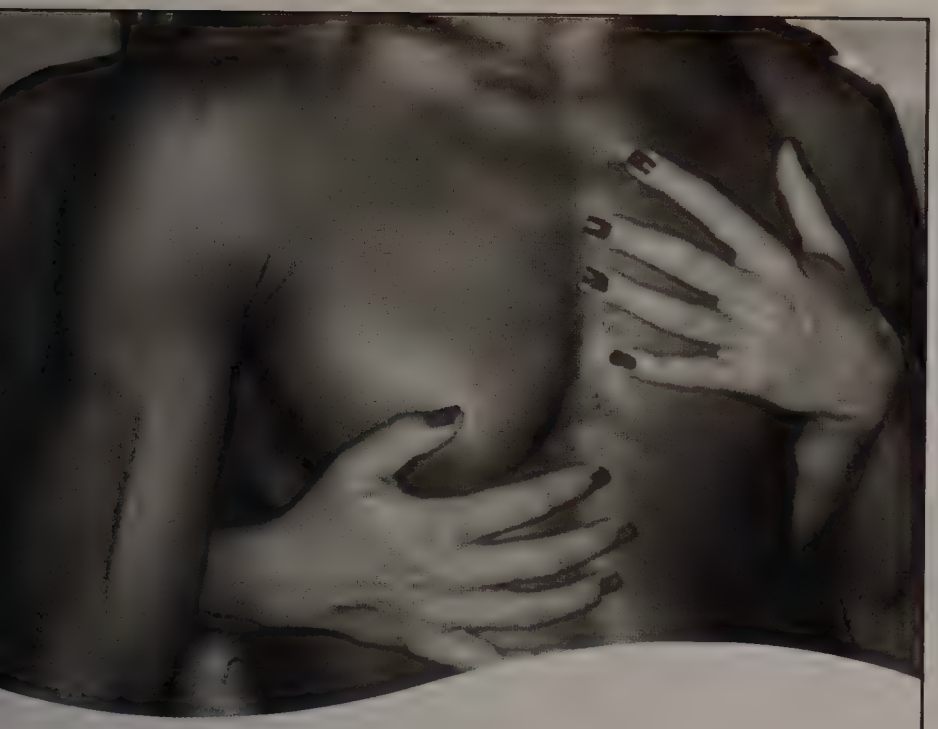
Abbey Lounge Red Zone Cuba and Auto Interiors.
Asgard Ryan McHugh.
Atrium Lounge Dave Phillip, 5:30 pm; Gilad Barkan, 9 pm.
The Attic Three Tree.
Bill's Bar Badfish, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern The Chicken Slacks Soul Review.
Bob the Chef's Tall Richards, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim The Paperboys, 8 pm, $14.
Common Ground The Pressure Cooker, 10 pm, $4.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal Syndicate.
Harper's Ferry Aaron Katz Band and Violet Nine, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Six Shot Brody.
Jacob Wirth Sing-along night, 8 pm-12 am.
Johnny D's Bruce Katz, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Lloyd Thayer, Matt Keating and Chris Elliot and the Goods, $5.
Kirkland Café Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, 22-40's, The RPM's and Just Another Victim, $5.
The Linwood Benefit for the ACLU with the Jack McCoys, Bender X, the Spoilers and Max Heinegg.
Lizard Lounge The Ware River Club, 9 pm.
Matt Murphy's Rachel McCartney.
Middle East Downstairs: Nada Surf, Ozma and Dear Leader, $10, 18+. Corner: Sam Hooper, no cover, 18+. Zuzu: Latin with Giancarlo Buscaglia, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Zu and Lazer Lazer, 21+.
Milky Way Jake Brennan.
Mr. Dooley's Paul Duffy.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm-12:15 am.
O'Leary's The John Cate Band, 9:30 pm.
Paradise Dresden Dolls CD-release party, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
PA's Lounge Papermoon, $5, 21+.
Plough and Stars Los Diablos, 9 pm.
Porters Bar and Grill Greytone.
The Rack Taylor Brothers Band.
Redline The Shadowkings, 9 pm-2 am, no cover.
Regattabar The Latin Jazz All Stars, 7:30 and 10 pm, $20.
Ryles Jazz Club Bebop Guitars, 8 pm, $10.
Scullers Brad Mehldau, $22.
Sky Bar Meet the Day and Boatyard Resin, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Connelly.
Toad Bangalore, no cover.
Top of the Hub Maggie Galloway Group with Phil Grenadier, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Dirty Truckers, 9:30 pm; Lenny and the Piss Poor Boys, 10:30 pm; Robbie Fulks, 11:30 pm. $10.
Western Front Joint Chiefs.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMahon.
Les Zygomates Ronny Ron Trio, 7 pm.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 27

Abbey Lounge Seana Carmody.
Asgard Jack & Present Co.
Atrium Lounge Dave Phillip, 5:30 pm; Gilad Barkan, 9 pm.
Berklee Performance Center Regina Belle, 8 pm, $28-$58.
Bill's Bar Paisley Project and DJ Rob Nockshis, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Groove Authority.
Bob the Chef's Pat Loomis, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim What I Like About Jew, 8 pm, $14.
Columbus Avenue BeanTown Jazz Festival, 12-6 pm, free.
Common Ground The Let Down w/ DJs Brian and Ken, 10 pm, $3.
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm, no cover.
FleetBoston Pavilion Jewel, Josh Kelley and Susan Greenbaum, 8 pm, $35.50-$45.50.
Grand Canal Dick and Jane.
The Green Dragon Tavern Fenian Sons.
Harper's Ferry Entrain and the Alternate Routes, $12, 21+.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm-11 pm.
Johnny D's Cool Side of the Pillow, 9:45 pm.
Kendall Café Hector on Stilts, 9:30 pm; Henry CD-release show, 10:30 pm; Photoflash, 11:30 pm, $7.
Kinsale Symbolics.
Kirkland Café Shotz, $5.
The Linwood Give, Linus, Seemless and Fuser.
Lizard Lounge Cul de Sac, John Sinclair with the Devil Gods and the Shelley Winters Project, 9 pm, $7.
Matt Murphy's Blasto.
Middle East Upstairs: Pilot to Gunner and Retisonic, 9 pm, $9. Downstairs: Kotter, Missing Joe, Labb and CPM, $10, 18+. Corner: Jennifer Matthews Band, no cover, 18+. ZuZu: Ready Steady, Go-Go!, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café The Jumblies and the Arrangements, 21+
Mr. Dooley's Paul Duffy.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm-12:15 am.
O'Leary's Four 'n' More, 9:30 pm.
Paradise III Kings, Vibewise and Foundation, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Plough and Stars The Bag Boys, 5 pm; Kevin Connolly, 9 pm.
Regattabar The Latin Jazz All-Stars, 7:30 and 10 pm, $22.
Ryles Jazz Club Megawatt Blues Crushers, 8 pm, $10.
Somerville Theater Addison Groove Project, 7:30 pm, $15.
Tír na nÓg DJ Derek.
Toad Greg's Saturday Showcase, 7 pm; the Splendid Nobodies, 10 pm.
Top of the Hub The Maggie Galloway Quartet, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Triple Thick, the Konks and the Limes, 9 pm; Mr. Airplane Man CD-release show, 11:50 pm, $10.
Virgin Megastore Jones One, 7 pm.
Western Front King Dubious.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet.
Les Zygomates Marianne Sullivan, 7 pm.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28

Berklee Performance Center Mercedes Sosa, 7 pm, $30-$60.
Bill's Bar Dub Station, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
Bob the Chef's Sunday jazz brunch with Paul Danay Hazz Quartet, 10 am.
Cantab Lounge Blues jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Kate Taylor, 6 and 9 pm, $17.
Dick's Last Resort Silver Lining, 10 am; Big Tim, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnsons.
Harper's Ferry Weekend Extension with NBF and Otis Grove, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Trucker and the Vibe Tribe.
Johnny D's Jazz brunch with Matt Dorko and Lar K., 9 am-2:30 pm; Blues Jam and Salsa Dancing w/ Rumba NaMa.



The most commonly reported side effect of Laser Hair Removal

Fast, safe, and affordable!
Eliminate unwanted hair from your chest,
back, face, legs, arms, and bikini line.
FDA approved for permanent hair reduction.
Ask about our no hair guarantee.

Schedule your free consultation today!

SLEEK™
LOOK GOOD. FEEL GOOD.

228 Newbury Street in Boston

800-SLEEK-USA | www.sleekusa.com

BOSTON NEWTON WOBURN WESTBORO WEYMOUTH

Kendall Café Sleepyhead, Monique Ortiz, Jason Hatfield and the Marmalade, Chris Colbourn and Jim Buni, $5.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct Bud E. Green.
Middle East ZuZu: Jimmy Fox, no cover.
Midway Café Sensorium and guests, 21+.
Plough and Stars The Young Ones, 9 pm.
Roxy Peter Frampton and Joe Bonamassa, 8 pm, $25.
Ryles Jazz Club Sunday jazz brunch, 10 am.
Sky Bar O, Infinity Clip, Zerogodz and Tung, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Johnny Come Latelies.
Toad The Paul Ahlstrand Band, 7 pm; the Mercy Brothers, 10 pm.
Top of the Hub The Big Easy, 11 am-3 pm; Tim Ray Trio, 8 pm.
Western Front Arturo Stable Band.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

MONDAY, SEPT. 29

Abbey Lounge Live blues jam, 8 pm, no cover.
Avalon Howie Day, Jump Little Children and Charlotte Martin, 8 pm, $18.75.
Bill's Bar Cannae CD-release party, 9 pm, $9, 19+.
Cantab Lounge Geoff Bartley's open mike, 8 pm; Kinloch Nelson, 10 pm.
Choppin' Block Jazz jam session, 8 pm to 12 am, 21+
Club Passim Story Lab: the Black Humor Show, 8 pm, $10.
Common Ground Karaoke, 10 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Open mike night.
Harper's Ferry Best bands showcase, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
Johnny D's Benefit for Greyhound Friends, 8 pm.
Kendall Café Aaron Shadwell and Slycee Jenkins, $5.
Kinsale Eamon Sheehan.
Matt Murphy's Meowskers.
Middle East Downstairs: Polysics and Freezepop, $9, 18+. Zuzu: Unhappy Hour with Milo Jones, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Built to Spill and the Solace Brothers, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Plough and Stars Kelly Riley, 9 pm.
The Rack Ray Brown.
Sky Bar Yo Flaco!, 8:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg The Out Side.
Toad Shwang, 8 pm; the Tim Gearan Band, 10:30 pm.
Top of the Hub Tim Ray Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Hrvatski, Blood on the Wall and Black Dice, 9 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.
Les Zygomates Todne Texiera, 9 pm.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 30

Abbey Lounge Dead Platinum Rings and Naomi Sommers, 8:30 pm.
Axis No Use for a Name, 9 pm, $13.
Bill's Bar Old school hip-hop with DJ D-Sharp, 9 pm, $10, 19+, College ID required
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass pickin' party, 8 pm; the Bagboys, 10 pm.
Club Passim Open mike, 7 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Brian Locher, 7:20 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Harper's Ferry Jiggle, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
Johnny D's Pat Burtis and Patrick Fitzsimmons, 8:30 pm, $7.

Peter Frampton plays Sept. 28 at the Roxy.

Lizard Lounge Mobius Band residency and the Solace Brothers, 8:30 pm, $6.
Matt Murphy's Public House and Geoff Scott.
Middle East ZuZu: Frank Morey, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Built to Spill, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Plough and Stars Michael Tarbox, 9 pm.
The Rack Groove Authority.
Regattabar Bruno Raberg CD release, 8:30 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Big Band Tuesdays with the Ryles Jazz Orchestra, 7:30 pm, $8.
Scullers Avishai Cohen Quartet, $18.
Sky Bar Joe Mazzari Band and Rude Toys, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Smoke Out!
Toad Rachel McCartney and Jon Nolan and Hokum, 7 pm.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Group, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place American Car, the Spaceshots, Runner and the Thermodynamics, and Damn Personals, 9 pm, $8.
Tweeter Center Matchbox Twenty, 7 pm, $25-$45.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry, 8 pm.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1

Abbey Lounge The Drags.
Axis The Pietasters, Voodoo Glow Skulls and River City Rebels, 8 pm, $12.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
Club Passim Brian Webb, Rachel McCartney and Bill Deasy, 8 pm, $14.
Common Ground Mod night with DJ Vin, 10 pm, $3.
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGraff, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Chixie Dicks.
Harper's Ferry Graham Colton Band and Rueben, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Galactic Fractures with PJ Gray, 8:30 pm, $5.
Middle East Upstairs: The Beatings, the Autumn Rhythm, the Eyesores and the Big Huge, $9, 18+.
Midway Café Tom Lawlor's Open Jam
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm-10:30 pm
Orpheum Theatre Jonny Lang, 7:30 pm, $30-$35.
Paradise Aesop Rock. El-P, Mr. Lif, Akrobatik, Fakts One, and SA Smash, 8 pm, $20, 18+.
The Rack BlackSole, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar Laszlo Gardony Trio, 8:30 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club James Merenda's Masked Marvels, 7:30 pm, $8.
Scullers Jane Bunnett and the Spirits of Havana, $18.
Sky Bar Ochmoneks and Melodram, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
T.T. the Bear's Place Decadence, the Gasolines and Luke the Band, $5.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries.
Les Zygomates Latin Explosion and the David Eure Band, 7:30 pm

THURSDAY, OCT. 2

Abbey Lounge Sunburned Hand of the Man.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
Choppin' Block Johnny Most.
Club Passim Girlyman CD-release show and the Dolly Ranchers, 8 pm, $12.
Common Ground 80's Love Night with DJ Brian, 10 pm, $3.
Encore Lounge Mary Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm-10 pm.
Johnny D's Liz Carroll, 9 pm, $16.
Jorge Hernandez Cultural Center Carla Ryder, 7 pm, $25.
Kirkland Café Decadence, the States and Public, $5.
Milky Way Booty Juice.
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30-10:30 pm.
Paradise Pat Green, Honeybrowne, 8 pm, $15.
PA's Lounge Greystreet, International Pen-Pal, $5, 21+.
The Rack Boston Horns, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Kurt Rosenwinkel Band, 8:30 pm, $18.
Ryles Jazz Club Seth Kaufman, 7:30 pm, $12.
Sky Bar Gallery, Purchase Order, and Dali, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad Todd Thibaud, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Sharon Jones and the Dap-Kings, 10:15 pm, $10.

Celtic pop group Capercaillie performs at the Somerville Theatre Oct. 3.

Wonder Bar Grant Langford.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm.

FRIDAY, OCT. 3

Abbey Lounge Caged Heat, Delta Clutch and the Coots.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan and Inchicore.
Club Passim Teddy Goldstein CD-release show and Milton, 8 pm, $12.
Common Ground The Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover.
FleetCenter MixFest X, 6 pm, $39.50-$87.50.
The Grand Canal Random Axis.
The Green Dragon Tavern Freeze Pop.
Harper's Ferry The Joshua Tree: A Tribute to U2, with the Nine, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Ransom.
Jacob Wirth Sing Along Night, 8 pm-12 am.
Kirkland Café Rollo Tomasi Quartet, The Local Motive, $5.
Matt Murphy's Bangalore.
Middle East Downstairs: Joint Custody CD-release show, the Goodbyes CD-release show, Topheavy CD-release show and Heather Bright, 8 pm, $9, 18+.
Milky Way Akrobatik, Edan, Insight, the Foundation and Pangea Pham.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm-12:15 am.
Paradise Reid Genauer and the Assembly of Dust, Ryan Montbleau 9 pm, $16.50, 18+.
PA's Lounge Nancy Mroczek, $5, 21+
Porters Bar and Grill Nate Watkins.
The Rack Uneek Aproach, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Redline The Shadowkings, 9 pm-2 am, no cover.
Regattabar The Kurt Rosenwinkel Band, 7:30 and 10 pm, $18.
Ryles Jazz Club Soul Kitchen, 8 pm, $10.
Sanders Theatre Nnenna Freelon, Benefit for Cambridge Housing Assistance Fund, 8 pm, $23-$28.
Scullers Danilo Perez, $16.
Sky Bar Spacecake, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Somerville Theatre Capercaillie, 8 pm, $22-$28.
T.T. the Bear's Place Moonraker, Illuminada, Annie Clark, 10:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Wang Center Mary Chapin Carpenter, Shawn Colvin, Patty Griffin and Dar Williams, 7 pm, $38-$53.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMahon.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm.

SATURDAY, OCT. 4

Abbey Lounge WMFO Benefit; Downbeat 5.
Avalon Hoobastank, Diffuser and All-American Rejects, 6 pm, $20.25.
Axis Juliana Theory, Hope Falls, Count the Stars and Celebrity, 6:30 pm, $15.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan and Inchicore.
Club Passim Geoff Bartley and Rick Yost, 8 pm $14.
Common Ground The Let Down w/ DJs Brian an Ken, 10 pm, $3.
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal Incadence.
The Green Dragon Tavern Swinging Johnsons.
Harper's Ferry The Sweet and Tender Hooligar and Chris Emerson Band, $8, 21+.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm-11 pm.
The Linwood Trendkill, Kevorkian and White.
Matt Murphy's The Inbetweens.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm 12:15 am.
Paradise The Mavericks, 9 pm, $20, 18+.
PA's Lounge Big Top Vertigo, the Stereobirds an the Verge, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Pig Pen.
Regattabar David Maxwell's Maximum Blues, 7: and 10 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Five O'Clock Shadow, 8 pm, $10.
Sanders Theatre The Dianne Reeves Quartet, pm, $22.50-$27.50.
Scullers Danilo Perez, $16.
Somerville Theater John Gorka and Mary Ga thier, 8 pm, $21.50-$25.50.
T.T. the Bear's Place Certainly Sir, 10:50 pm; t Fly Seville CD-release show, 11:45 pm, $8.
Virgin Megastore Abby & Norm, 7 pm.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet.
Les Zygomates Marianne Sullivan, 7 pm.

SUNDAY, OCT. 5

The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
Club Passim Ferron, 7:30 pm, $22.50.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm, cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnson
Harper's Ferry Weekend Extension with NB and Red Pill, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Trucker and the Vibe Tribe.
Johnny D's Jazz brunch, 9 am-2:30 pm; blues ja and Salsa dancing with Rumba NaMa.
Middle East Downstairs: Rainer Maria, $12, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Sunday jazz brunch, 10 am.
Sky Bar The Weigh Down and the Close , 8 pm,
Tír na nÓg Johnny Come Latelies.
T.T. the Bear's Place Fragile Alex, $5.
Tweeter Center R.E.M., 7 pm, $28.50-$65.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

MONDAY, OCT. 6

The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan.
Choppin' Block Jazz jam session, 8 pm to 12 am, 21
Common Ground Karaoke, 10 pm.
Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm, cover.

The Place

Where People Meet

Comedian Denis Leary joined Bob Lobel and SportsPlus! commentators Nick Cafardo and Michael Smith on Wednesday, September 10th.

A fundraiser for RI Station nightclub fire survivor Joe Kinan raised over $7,000. Pictured above, event host WBZ-TV's Bob Lobel is surrounded by Kinan's family and friends.

THE BEST ATTRACTION IS OUR CUSTOMERS

UNDAY TAILGATE BRUNCH! 12PM

er on The Patriots and get in on all the NFL action at The Place!

NFL SUNDAY TICKET

ONLY $9.99, ALL YOU CAN EAT!

TERIYAKI STEAK TIPS,
BBQ SPARE RIBS,
BUFFALO CHICKEN WINGS,
SMOTHERED SAUSAGES,
EGGS, BACON, AND MUCH MUCH MORE!

FANTASY FOOTBALL HEADQUARTERS
GET ALL YOUR UPDATES!
HALFTIME REPORTS!
STAT HANDOUTS!
PLAYER PROFILES!

nswer Sports Trivia and compete to win a grand prize trip to Super Bowl XXXVIII!

THE LIBRARY IS BACK!

WEDNESDAYS 9PM-2AM

JOIN US WEDNESDAY NIGHTS, 9PM TO 2AM THROUGHOUT THE FALL. SHORT SKIRTS, BRAIDS, AND BOBBY SOCKS. OUR SCHOOLGIRL-INSPIRED STAFF WILL HAVE YOU PARTYING LIKE IT'S THE WEEKEND. IT'S OKAY TO MISBEHAVE – WE WON'T REPORT YOU!

WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

Place 2 BROAD ST. BOSTON, MA (FANEUIL HALL) 617.523.2081 VISIT OUR WEBSITE AND WIN PATRIOTS TICKETS WWW.THEPLACEBOSTON.COM

Special offers for new members available now through October 31, 2003 at all clubs!
Offers vary by location.
Some restrictions will apply.

Healthworks is coming to Chestnut Hill this fall–
conveniently located at 1300 Boylston Street.
(Rte. 9, across from Legal Seafoods)
Pre-opening rates available.
Visit our presale offices in the Atrium Mall, Floor 4 or on-site.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

Back Bay	Brookline	Cambridge	Chestnut Hill	Salem
617.859.7700	617.731.3030	617.497.4454	617.383.6100	978.745.7390

www.healthworksfitness.com

The Green Dragon Tavern Open mike night.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
Johnny D's Bruhaha comedy night, 8 pm, $5.
Middle East Upstairs: Tony Goddess, the Sixth Great Lake and James Hindle, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Peaches and Electrocute, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Tír na nÓg The Out Side.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon.

TUESDAY, OCT. 7

Axis Bowling for Soup, Lucky Boys Confusion and Never Heard of It, 8 pm, $12.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well.
Club Passim Open mike, 7 pm, $5.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover.
FleetCenter Shania Twain, 7:30 pm, $45-$80.
Harper's Ferry Jiggle, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
Johnny D's Rob Gonzales, 8:30 pm.
Middle East Upstairs: Deminer and Jericho, $8, 18+.
Orpheum Theater Lucinda Williams, 7:30 pm, $26.50-$39.
Paradise The Black Keys and Magic Magicians, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
The Rack BlackSole, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Dave Weckl Band, 7:30 pm, $25.
Sky Bar Earth Defense Force, Mystechs, and Robotzen, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Resophonics, no cover.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee College of Music 1140 Boylston St., Boston (617-747-8820). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Bob the Chef's 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Choppin' Block 724 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-734-4177). MBTA: Green Line to Brigham Circle.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Dick's Last Resort 55 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Encore Lounge 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
FleetBoston Pavilion 290 Northern Ave., Boston (617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
FleetCenter One FleetCenter, Suite 200, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
The Good Life Cambridge 720 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-8800). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park Street.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harper's Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Independent Union Square, Somerville (617-440-6022).
Jacob Wirth 31 Stuart St.,Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jorge Hernandez Cultural Center 85 West Newton St., Boston (617-927-0061).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Julien Bar 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900). MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Way, Cambridge (617-661-0993). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Linwood 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-267-8644) MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Porter or Harvard.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
MIT Wong Auditorium 2 Amherst St., Cambridge (617-253-8844). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656) MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
North Shore Music Theatre 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7203).
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Avenue, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Leary's Pub and Restaurant 1010 Beacon St., Brookline (617-734-0049). MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's.
Orpheum Theatre Hamilton Place, Boston (617-482-0650). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street
Paradise Rock Club 967 Comm. Ave., Boston, (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-8800) MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
PA's Lounge 345 Union Square, Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Plough and Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-441-3455).
Porters Bar and Grill 173 Portland St., Boston (617-742-7678). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2069) MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051) MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-661-5000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Regent Theatre 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife, 79 or 350 bus to Arlington Center.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Central
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-4595). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300).
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-BEAR). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Tweeter Center for the Performing Arts 885 South Main St., Mansfield (508-339-2333). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Mansfield.
Virgin Megastore 360 Newbury St., Boston (617-896-0950). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Wang Center 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-532-1224). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central Square.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

FELT
BOSTON

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Available For Special Events.

Book your Holiday Party at FELT
Prime Dates still Available

533 Washington Street, Downtown. 617.350.5555

3P's

Pool
Pizza
Pitcher

19.99

Sunday
Monday
Tuesday

138
Brighton
Ave.

BIG CITY

"WANTS YOU"

BOSTON'S BEER FORCE!

PIZZA KITCHEN . BEER BAR . POOL HALL

NOW OPEN
SUNSET CANTINA * 916 COMM. AVE.
617.731.8646

130 BRIGHTON AVE, ALLSTON VILLAGE
617.254.1331

classical music

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Bassoonist Richard Svoboda and guests perform Joseph Bodin de Boismortier's Suite, Op. 40, Michel Corrette's Le Phénix Concerto; Francois Devienne's Sonata in G Minor, Op. 25, No. 5, Edward Elgar's Romance, Op. 62 and William Hurlstone's Sonata in F Major.

New England Conservatory

Williams Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. German pianist and composer Steffen Schleiermacher performs a program of new music with works by Pierre Boulez, Stefan Wolpe and Giacinto Scelsi.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 26

Berklee Performance Center

1140 Boylston St., Boston (617-747-2261). www.berkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8 pm. $20.50-$35.50. Composer and percussionist Anthony Brown leads his Grammy-nominated Asian American Orchestra in this performance, part of the third annual Equinox Music Festival.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Violinists Frederic Bednarz, Judith Lee and Rimma Yermosh, pianist Winston Choi and violist Shannon Farrell perform a selection of works by Chausson, Mendelssohn and Mozart.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 27

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $10, $5 students and children. The Radius Ensemble performs works by Zorn, Berio, Mozart and Ginastera.

Longy School of Music

Rey-Waldstein Building, Recital Room N1, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $16, $12 students and seniors. Cambridge Opera performs duets for voice and piano by Brahms, Goddard and Purcell.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. $5. Music Alive! presents Bach, a fully-staged musical that traces the composer's life from a young orphan to adulthood.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5 pm. Free. Flutist Elizabeth Ostling, oboist John Ferrillo, violinist Elita Kang, violist Carol Redland and pianist Hugh Hinton perform works by Bach, Barber, Debussy, Messiaen and Schumann in a musical tribute to the survivors of clergy sex abuse.

Tsai Performance Center

855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8725). www.bu.edu/tsai. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 3pm. $25, $25 students. Armenian cellist Suren Bagratuni performs a concert to benefit the Build a Healthy Armenia Project.

MONDAY, SEPT. 29

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Guest conductor Joseph Silverstein leads NEC's Philharmonic in a performance of works by Berlioz, Stravinsky and Tchaikovsky.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1

Music in the Cathedral

Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-5800). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street. 12:15 pm. $2. Organist Mark Englehardt performs a 35-minute recital.

Music on Marlborough

First and Second Church, 66 Marlborough St., Boston (781-237-0153). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 12:15 pm. $8. Mezzo-soprano D'Anna Fortunato and pianist Lucienne Davidson perform works by Berlioz.

The BSO season opens with a concert conducted by Bernard Haitink at Symphony Hall Oct. 2.

THURSDAY, OCT. 2

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 6:30 pm. The opening performance of the BSO's 2003–04 season features conductor Bernard Haitink and the Tanglewood Festival Chorus in a performance of Beethoven's Choral Fantasy.

MIT Chapel Concert Series

MIT Chapel, opposite 77 Mass Ave., Boston (617-253-2826). MBTA: Red Line to Central, 12 pm. Free. Bayreuth performs the baroque music of Kleinknecht with baroque flute, violin, cello and harpsichord instruments.

FRIDAY, OCT. 3

Boston Lyric Opera

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-542-4912). www.blo.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 6 pm. The BLO performs a short selection of Italian arias as part of the Museum of Fine Arts' First Friday series.

Boston Musica Viva

Tsai Performance Center, Boston University, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8724). www.bmv.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 7 pm. $18. Composers Arnold Schoenberg, John Adams and Fabio Vacchi present their works in an all-string chamber orchestra performance.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $26-$86. Bernard Haitink conducts an all-Beethoven program, featuring a preconcert talk by Marc Mandel.

FleetBoston Celebrity Series

Symphony Hall, Higginson Room, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $42-$87. Vocalist Marilyn Horne and Broadway singer Barbara Cook perform Just Between Friends, a program of selections from the American songbook. A cocktail reception and dinner precede the concert.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Violinist Jack Glatzer performs J.S. Bach's Sonata No. 1 in G Minor, Ernest Bloch's Suite No. 1, Pietro Locatelli's Three Caprices and Paganini's Eight Caprices.

New England Conservatory

Keller Room, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 9:30 am. $15. Pianist Russell Sherman performs a program titled Musical Roots and Branches.

SATURDAY, OCT. 4

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$95. Same program as Oct. 3.

Chameleon Arts Ensemble

First and Second Church, 66 Marlborough St., Boston (617-472-8200). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 8 pm. $15-$30. The Chameleon season opens with a program of work by Brahms, Schoenberg and Gorecki.

Foundation for Chinese Performing Arts

Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (781-259-8195). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $20-$25. This performance features Ning An on piano, Joseph Lin on violin, and Wen Law on cello.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. The Vietnamese Culture Society presents a recital by pianist Quynh Nguyen.

Lydian String Quartet

Slosberg Recital Hall, Brandeis University 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-4204). 8 pm. $15. The Lydian, in a series of four concerts, this performance includes Webern's Bagatelles and Slow Movement, Harbison's String Quartet No. 2 and Beethoven's Rasoumoffsky.

New England Conservatory

Williams Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Leonid Dudochkin Memorial Concert features performance of works by Bloch, Brahms, Gliere, Rachmaninoff, Shostakovich, Tchaikovsky, and Dudochkin's friends Roman Yakub and Jakov Jakoubi.

SUNDAY, OCT. 5

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext., 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. Free. Composer Eric Sawyer presents the Boston premiere of his String Quartet No. 3.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Christopher O'Riley hosts young musicians in a recording of the national radio show From the Top.

MONDAY, OCT. 6

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Cellist Lawrence Lesser and NEC faculty and friends perform Bach's Sonata in G Minor, Grant Beglarian's Of Fables, Foibles, and Fancies and Dvorák's Trio in E Minor, Op. 65.

NOW OPEN

Designer chef coats...Million dollar décor...

Celebrity owners...Corporate chain...

Traded on stock exchange...

Waiters with a minimum of 15 pieces of flare...

The "new" fusion cuisine...

Gucci forks?

Enough already.

Fabulous Italian-inspired food in a down-to-earth neighborhood setting?

Definitely.

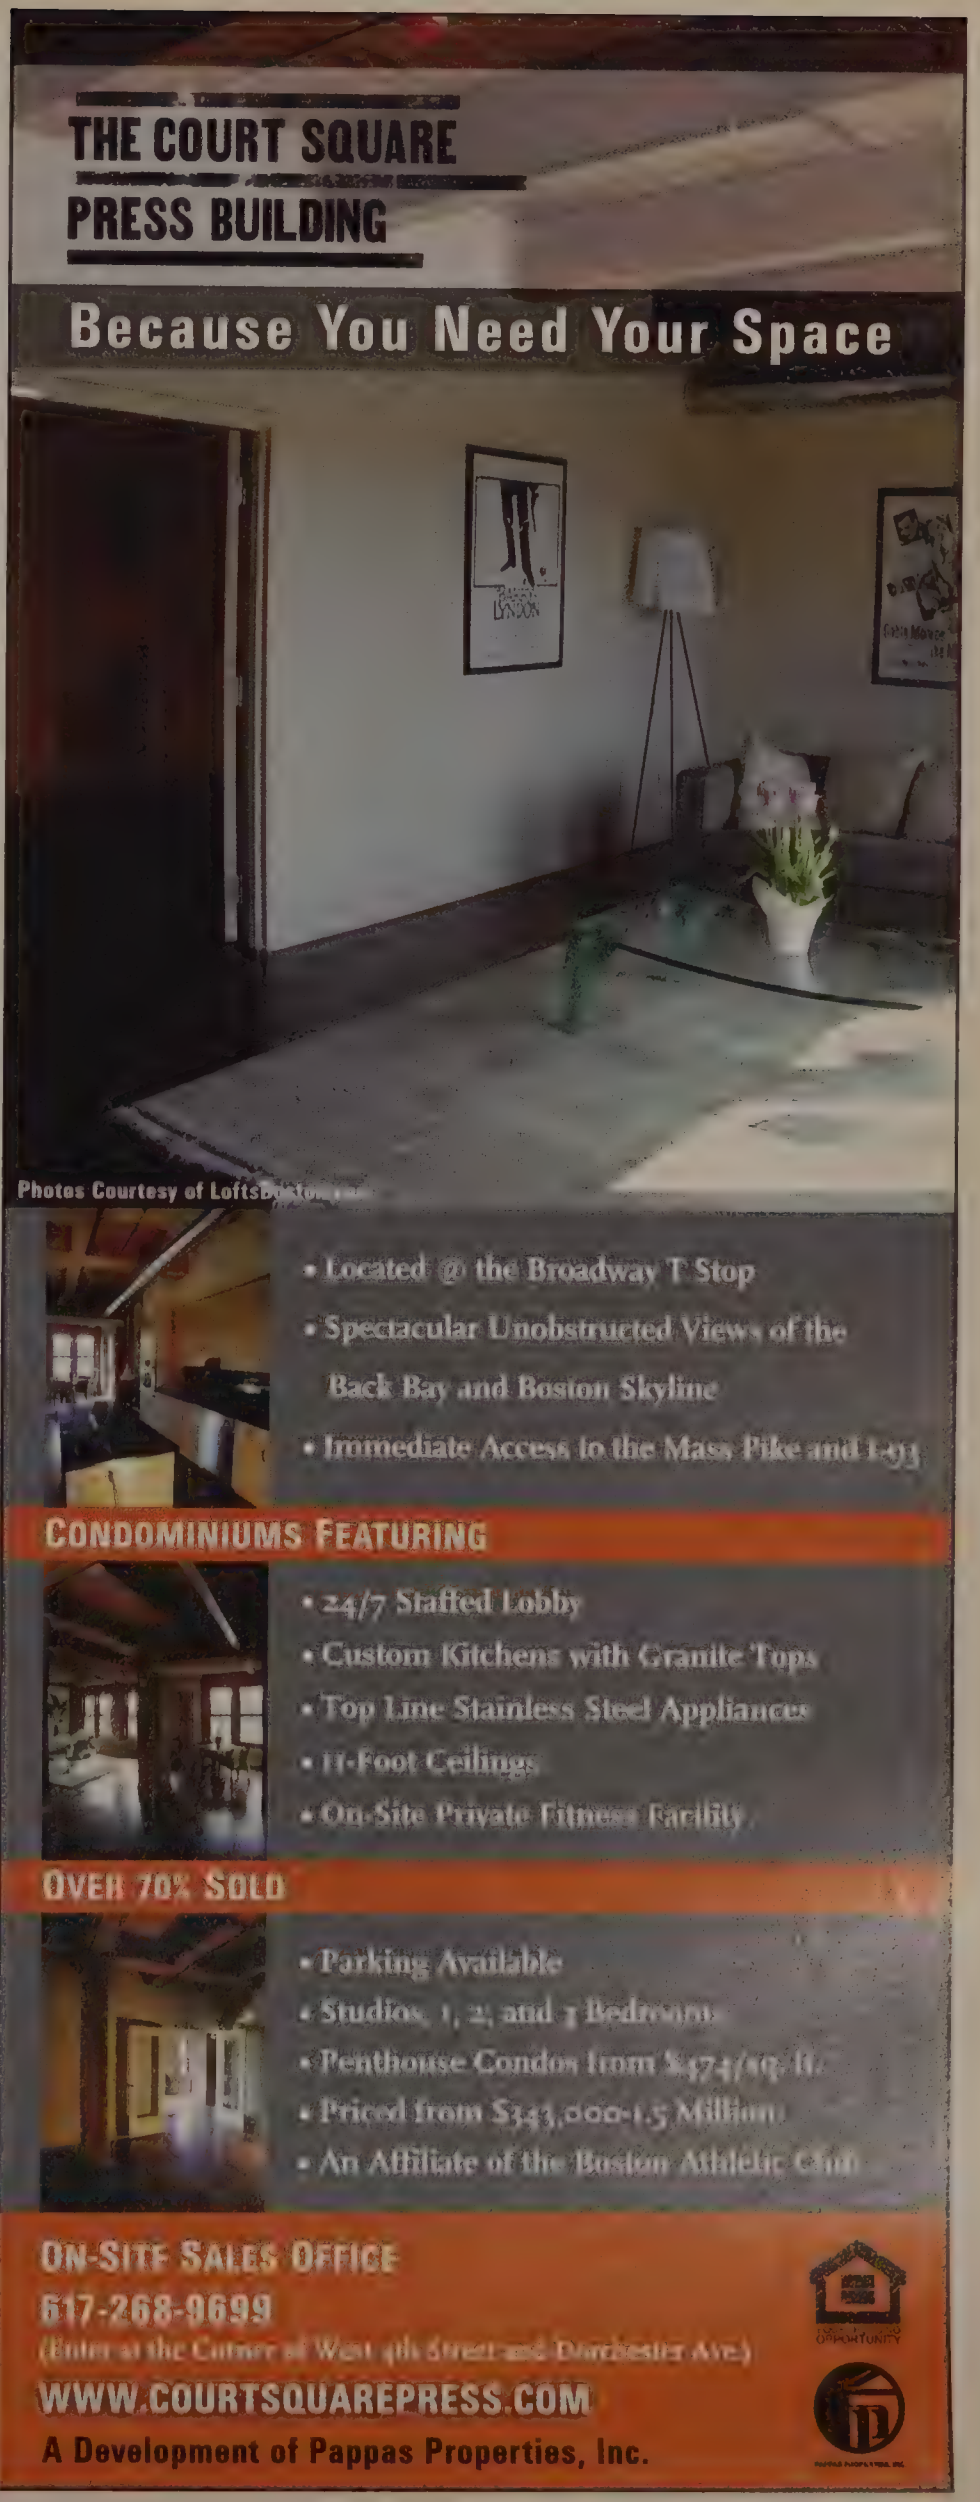
Are you picking up what we are putting down?

GROTTO

Beacon Hill's subterranean dining destination

Hours: Monday-Friday lunch 12-3pm
Dinner every night 5-10pm

37 Bowdoin Street • 617.227.3434
www.grottorestaurant.com



dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Celebrate A night of gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $5, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJ Jay Ine spinning house, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Monsta Mondays DJ Kaptain Krunch spins rock, and live bands perform, 9 pm, $6, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Martini Mondays DJ Sensae spins R&B and hip-hop, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Buddha Lounge DJ Kamel and DJ Christophe spin a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats. Classy dress, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Scott Damgaard, live music, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Dance Party with DJ Mike Janedy, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 29, live music with Ray Brown, 6-9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Each week two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJs spinning top-40 tunes, R&B and dance. Downstairs: live acoustic music with Justin Beech.

Vertigo
DJ's G-Squared and Steve Austin spin hip-hop, house, old-school and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 19+ (ladies), 21+ (guys).

TUESDAYS

Aria
One Nation DJ Chubby Chub spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Bill's Bar
Phat Tuesdays Old-school hip-hop with DJ D Sharp, 9 pm, $10, 19+, college ID required.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm, followed by the live-music series, $5, 18+.

The Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Kells
Orange DJs Matt Diamond and John Davis bring the house music, and weekly guest DJs drop by for a spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee spins house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Phoenix Landing
Spectrum DJs Flack, Verbnine and C combine dub, retro-futurism and breakbeats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
•Sept. 30, Groove Authority performs live, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 7, live music with Blacksole, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins top-40 and R&B. Downstairs: Stu Sinclair, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, $21+.

Tonic
Splash Industry Night Sir Isaac Phillips accompanies the DJ with live percussion, $5, 21+.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

Aria
Lust DJ John Morris spins progressive house for a gay and lesbian dance party. Proper dress, 11 pm, $10, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Caprice
DJ Vagellis spins Greek and international tunes. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Mod Night with DJ Vin, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Emily's
DJs pump up the After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm.

Felt
Weekly Therapy Party Guest DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Bobby B spins top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up R&B, top-40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Matrix
Lively A cast of DJs spin underground garage, 10 pm, $8.

Milky Way
Mercury Lounge DJs Nomadik and Timmy Allen host this evening of soul, funk and house, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
DJs Shalako, Caseroc and Skye spin deep house, trance and grassroots techno, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Beach Party night with DJs spinning top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
International Wednesdays DJ JC is in the Latin Lounge; DJs Alex and Felix are in the back. Proper dress, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
DJ Sean spins a retro mix of '70s and '80s tunes.

The Rack
DJ Steve Anderson spins dance, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 24 and Oct. 1, live music with Blacksole, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Cabin Stabbin' Wednesdays Dub and DJ Boogie Ba Do start the party reggae-style, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins dance and R&B. Downstairs: Live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop and top-40 hits, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Vertigo
Downstairs: Psychedelic trance music by DJs Dino, Mathwin and Dave Henshaw. Upstairs: Analog Lounge with DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tain
DJs spin hip-hop, progressive, tech and funky house, 6-11 pm, no cover, 21+.

An Tua Nua
Fizzle DJ McFly spins techno, top-40 and hip-hop 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Aria
Fashion House Weekly fashion shows; DJ Roger M spins vocal house. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Avalon
International Thursdays DJ Gee Spin and guests play rap and Eurohouse tunes, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Axis
Square One Thursdays Resident DJs Ali Ajami and John Debo host a night of progressive dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

Big Easy
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40 in this New Orleans–themed nightspot, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
College MegaPlex One cover gets you into Bill's and Jake Ivory's with DJ Ren Justice spinning tunes, 9 pm, $8, 18+, 21+ with college ID.

Boston Rocks
On the Rocks DJ Mike spins top-40 dance and hip-hop, 7 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Everything '80s DJ Brian's Love Night mix features tunes of the '80s, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 p 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $ 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Red Velvet DJs Geespin and Master Jay spin hi hop and R&B, 10 pm, 19+, women; 21+, men.

Embassy
Latin Lounge with DJ JC playing Latin dance a house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm; live funk, jazz a electronica, 8 pm, $5, 18+.

Felt
KISS 108's DJ Randy hosts the night and spi Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spi acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Nonstop music and dancing with DJs Christi Massi, Joshua Carl, Damon and Push, ladies fr guys $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Spend Resident DJs Nailz, Taner and Tasty cue the beats, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Rhythm Nights hosts karaoke downsta 8-11 pm, 21+. DJ Massi gets the dance party star upstairs, 11 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJ Edgar and DJ Mike Gios spin dance tunes and old school, 10 pm, no co 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Doc spins the latest tunes, 21+.

La Boom
Privilege DJ Felix cranks the noise, 11 pm-2 21+.

Level
Life DJ Adilson pumps house, trance and progressi and DJ NFerna spins hip-hop, R&B and reg 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Matrix
Club Candela DJ Michael Mercado spins La dance, 10 pm, 18+ ladies, 21+ men. •Controve
Thursday Aug. 21, DJ John Morris spins progress house for the bi/gay/curious party crowd. 9 p 2 am, $8, 21+.

The Modern
Soma DJ Omar spins house music. No cover bef 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 19+.

Parris
10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Rando pres drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 21+

The Place
DJ Mike Janedy spins top-40 and dance, 9 pm, $5, 2

Pravda 116
DJ David Mee spins deep house, progressive tech downtempo and soul classics in the front lounge night, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett performs live, 9 pm, 21+.

Q
Superstar Thursdays DJs Manolo, Paul Dal Rick Naples and Josh Carl share a weekly rotat residency.

The Rack
DJ Lenny C spins from 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 2 •Sept. 25, live music with Uneek Aproach, 6 pm, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 2, Boston Horns per live, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali and Ross spin a m electro, Funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no cover, 2

711 Boylston
Play Thursdays DJ trio Groovefire spins house m with special guests Beat Khemistry, 6 pm-2 am

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins new dance R&B; Downstairs: Justin Beech, 9 pm-1 am, 21

Sophia's
DJ JR Vega hosts Latin Night with live music by Latin Party Boys; free salsa lessons with Dan B shall, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 10:30 pm cover, 19+ with college ID.

Sweetwater Café
Dance to top-40 tunes, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

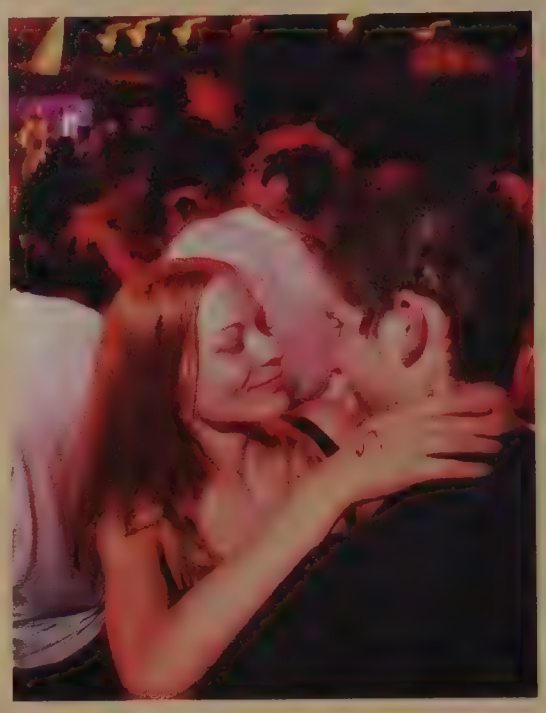
SW1
DJ Renel and guest MCs spin hip-hop, R&B reggae, 10 pm, $5, 18+.

Venu
Nu-Lite Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15

Preview

New York State of Mind

The Roxy brings New York to Boston with a new Manhattan-themed night this fall



In the realm of nightlife, as in baseball, New York always seems to trump Boston. But, as the saying goes, if you can't beat 'em, emulate 'em. With a tip of the hat to the Big Apple, the Roxy kicks off a lavish new Manhattan-themed night for the fall. Called "The Roxy Goes Manhattan, or I Love NY (But the Yankees Still Suck!)," the night begins Saturday, Sept. 27.

"I think that Saturday nights at the Roxy have been so successful for so many years because we're always gradually reinventing ourselves—the music, the lights, the themes and our promotions," says Roxy promotions director Jeff Delpidio. To that end, the club's new Manhattan modifications include a 20-foot-tall Empire State Building, a Chrysler Building, an elevated 42nd Street and other NYC-related props—although clubgoers might prefer to get their caffeine from Red Bull instead of coffee at the miniature re-creation of the Central Perk cafe from Friends. With Roxy resident DJ Adilson spinning a blend of New York–style vocal house and techno, clubbers may forget that they're still four hours north of the city that never sleeps.

127 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). Saturdays starting Sept. 27, 9 pm-2 am. $15. 21+. Jeans allowed, no athletic wear. —Daniel Spurling

ANNO 1366.

OUR
NO-SMOKING SECTION
IS CLEARLY MARKED.

EXIT

- Excellent Selection of Fine Cigars
- Wines, Beers, Ales & Ports
- Televised Sporting Events
- Cigar Lounge
- Open Mon. - Sat. 10-am - Midnight
- Open Sunday Noon - 11pm

CIGAR MASTERS
BOSTON

Boston's First "Cigar Cafe"
745 Boylston Street • Boston, MA 02116
Tel: (617) 266-4400 • Fax: (617) 266-8388
Toll Free 1 (888) 95-CIGAR

SCULLERS JAZZ CLUB
VOTED BOSTON'S #1 JAZZ CLUB!

Weds-Fri, Sept. 24-26
BRAD MEHLDAU

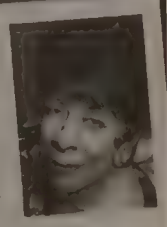
Thurs, Oct. 9
GEORGIE FAME

Tues, Sept. 30
AVISHAI COHEN QUARTET

Weds, Oct. 1
BOMBAY JIM & THE SWINGING SAPHIRES

Thurs, Oct. 2
JANE BUNNETT & THE SPIRITS OF HAVANA

Fri-Sat, Oct. 10-11
SHIRLEY HORN
Ms. Shirley Horn, widely regarded as the premiere singing pianist in jazz since Nat "King" Cole, and renowned for her inimitable ability to negotiate melodies and lyrics at an exquisitely unhurried pace returns to Scullers for two special evenings. She will be celebrating her new Verve CD "May the Music Never End" with her great trio.



Fri-Sat, Oct. 3-4
DANILO PEREZ
One of Sculler's favorite pianists returns with his trio featuring Ben Street on bass and Adam Cruz on drums. He will be celebrating the release of his his new CD "Till Then".

Special Dinner/Show Packages
A 3-course gourmet dinner in the Boathouse Grille plus preferred seating the Club.

Overnight Packages

Terrace Lounge
With TV, snack menu, and fine beverages The perfect meeting spot

In-Club Snack Menu
A variety of tasty favorites

Weds, Oct. 8
THE MIKE CLARK QUARTET Feat. Donald Harrison, Michael Wolff, and Nat Reeves

RESERVATIONS: (617) 562-4111 • ON-LINE TICKETING: www.scullersjazz.com
SHOW TIMES: Tu-Thu 8 & 10 pm • Fri-Sat 8 & 10:30 pm

DOUBLETREE GUEST SUITES
(617) 783-0090 • Storrow Drive & the Mass Pike Exit

Vertigo
DJ Sender plays hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 10 pm, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night, proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tain
TGIF DJ David spins hip-hop, progressive tech and funky house, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Vinney spins disco and top-40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Floss DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 18+.

Atlas
DJs spin top-40 dance music, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest and global DJs spin progressive dance music, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, old-school and dancehall, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
F Night WBCN's Bradley J spins '80s classics, and alternative and rock tribute bands perform live, 9 pm, cover varies, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft DJs Sensae and Johnny Walker Black spin top-40 dance and hip-hop tunes accompanied by interactive video shows, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Eddie K spins international, Latin and house music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Circuit Girl
Anything Goes Melinda Ancillo hosts this women's night with DJ Kris Kono spinning house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Tom spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
Revolution Fridays DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour (5-8 pm) is followed by DJ Renell spinning top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
After-work live jazz, 5-9 pm. Kiss 108's Billy Costa hosts the party and DJ Ricky Phatts spins high-energy dance, hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Bob Gallagher spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstairs with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, $10, 9 pm, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Big Daddy spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins top-40, R&B and dance while DJ Mike Gioscia or DJ Edgar spins house and old favorites, $5, ladies free before midnight, 21+.

La Boom
Fashion Fridays Firefly Promotions hosts this fashion night featuring DJ Rick Naples, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Level
Secret Society DJ Hoff spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B on the fourth and fifth floors, and DJ Niko spins Greek and international tunes on the third floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Adilson of Roxy Saturdays spins high-energy house, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

The Modern
DJ JC plays Latin rhythms, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 am, $15, 18+; no cover 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, proper dress, $15, 18+; $5, 21+. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Rockpile WAAF's Jay Ferrera broadcasts live, and rotating bands perform, 9 pm $15, 18+; $5, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15 18+; no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Shake What Your Mama Gave You DJ Ren Justice spins disco, hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
Hang out with VJ Laptop and enjoy Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
Glo Promotions hosts weekly guest DJs. Proper dress required, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Craig spins the latest hits, 10 pm.

Q
DJ Josh Spitaleri spins house, 9 pm.

The Rack
DJ Johnny C with KISS 108's Artie, 10:45 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Sept. 26, live music with Taylor Brothers Band, 6-10:45 pm. •Oct. 3, Uneek Aproach performs live, 6-10:45 pm.

River Gods
Lite Nite DJ Easy spins retro mixes, mellow techno and French House, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
Hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins dance; Downstairs live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover before 10 pm, 21+.

Sophia's
Sangria and Salsa Salsa and merengue lessons, 7 10 pm, followed by the Latin Party Boys and DJ Mike C and Zino spinning Latin dance, 9 pm, $10 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows on two floors, 5 pm, $5, 21+

SWI
DJ Littles spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Upstairs Lounge
The Pill DJ Ken spins U.S. and U.K. indie, Brit pop, mod, British invasion and '60s soul.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international hou while DJ Roger M kicks things up with Latin vibe Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs spin hip-hop, house and vocals, 10 pm, $10, 21

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play fu and top-40 all night. Proper dress a must, 10:30 p 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tain
Old-school house with DJ Steve, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Join

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

For

comedy & cocktails

at

The Harp

Thursday, October 9, 2003
The merriment begins at 7 pm
Comedians take the stage at 8 pm

Come on down to The Harp, where we will tickle your funny bone all night with the comedic stylings of:

Kelly MacFarland

Sam Walters

Larry Murphy

Tim McIntyre

Ben Boime

Tony Moschetto

Enjoy music by Tim Crandell
Stick around for DJ Nailz

Be a part of The Harp Decade celebration…Laughter is good for the soul!

BUD LIGHT

85 Causeway Street, Boston 617.742.1010

the Harp 10 YEARS
DECADE
10 days celebrating 10 years at The Harp

the Daily Catch® restaurants
est. Boston's North End...1973
Sicilian Style Seafood and Pasta
Paul and Maria Freddura invite you to enjoy our offerings.

Celebrating our 30th Anniversary

NOW OPEN at the Harborwalk
at the Moakley U.S. Courthouse
2 Northern Avenue 617.772.4400

Visit our other locations at:
323 Hanover St., Boston's North End 617.523.8567
441 Harvard St., Brookline, JFK Crossing 617.723.2700
124 Broadway, Rte. 1N, Saugus 781.231.3280

www.dailycatch.com

Matrix

An Tua Nua
DJ Ren Justice mixes top-40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
International Saturdays DJ Roger M spins vocal house and international hits, proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Atlas
DJs play top-40 dance, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Resident DJ Nailz plays house, techno and trance, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Kevin Munroe spins house and trance, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Start! DJ Gibby spins alternative rock and '80s hits, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Dance Night DJ Rob Nockshis spins dance music all night, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. VJ Johnnie Walker presents top-40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows, 11 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
Masai-Latin International Lounge DJ Franklin creates a lounge atmosphere with his international, Latin and house sounds. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
The Let Down DJs Brian, Ken and Boothnavy, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Hollywood It's women's night at Hollywood with two floors of hip-hop and house music, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Embassy
Classic Saturdays DJ Eddy K spins Eurohouse, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
DJ Rennel spins top-40 dance tunes, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
DJ Ghost spins hip-hop and house, 9 pm, no cover

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins retro favorites, disco, Motown and the latest top-40, hip-hop and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hannah's
Dance, house and top-40 hits from DJ Artie V, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstai with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 9 p $10, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis McCarthy cues up top-40, R&B and hi hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren Drag spins dance, R&B and top-40, wh downstairs DJ O'Toole plays top-40, 10 pm, 21+.

La Boom
Wild on @ La Boom DJ Tim Collins and KISS 1 host a night of music and dancing, 10 pm, 21+.

Level
•Red Square Russian Lounge DJ Albertik spi Russian and international music on the third flo 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+. •Suspended Saturdays Peter D and DJ Rob D spin mainstream, vocal hous travel and funk music on the fourth and fifth floo 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Pedro Gonzales plays high-energy house whi the back room features dance favorites from the '8 and '90s and top-40 tunes, 9 pm, $10, $21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night. DJ Antonio Ortíz spi merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 10 pm, $7.

The Modern
DJ Ricky Fatts plays downtempo and house, $15, 19

The Palace
•Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dan music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Will D. Proper dress. Ladies free, men $5 before 10: pm; $15, 18+; $10, 21+ after 10:30 pm. •The Ma Encounter New England's longest-running all-ma dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 a $15, 19+; no cover 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spi top-40 and hip-hop mixes. Proper dress, $15, 18 $10, 21+. •Underground DJs spin hip-hop, top- dance, techno and reggae for the under-21 crowd, 11 pm, $14. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins ma stream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18 no cover, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up h from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18 no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins 80s, new wa and disco, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ Rick Naples spins high-energy dance. Prop dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Tom Hogan spins the groove, 10 pm, $5, 21 •Oct. 4, live music with Brick Park.

Q
DJ Josh Carl spins house, hip-hop, top-40 and R&

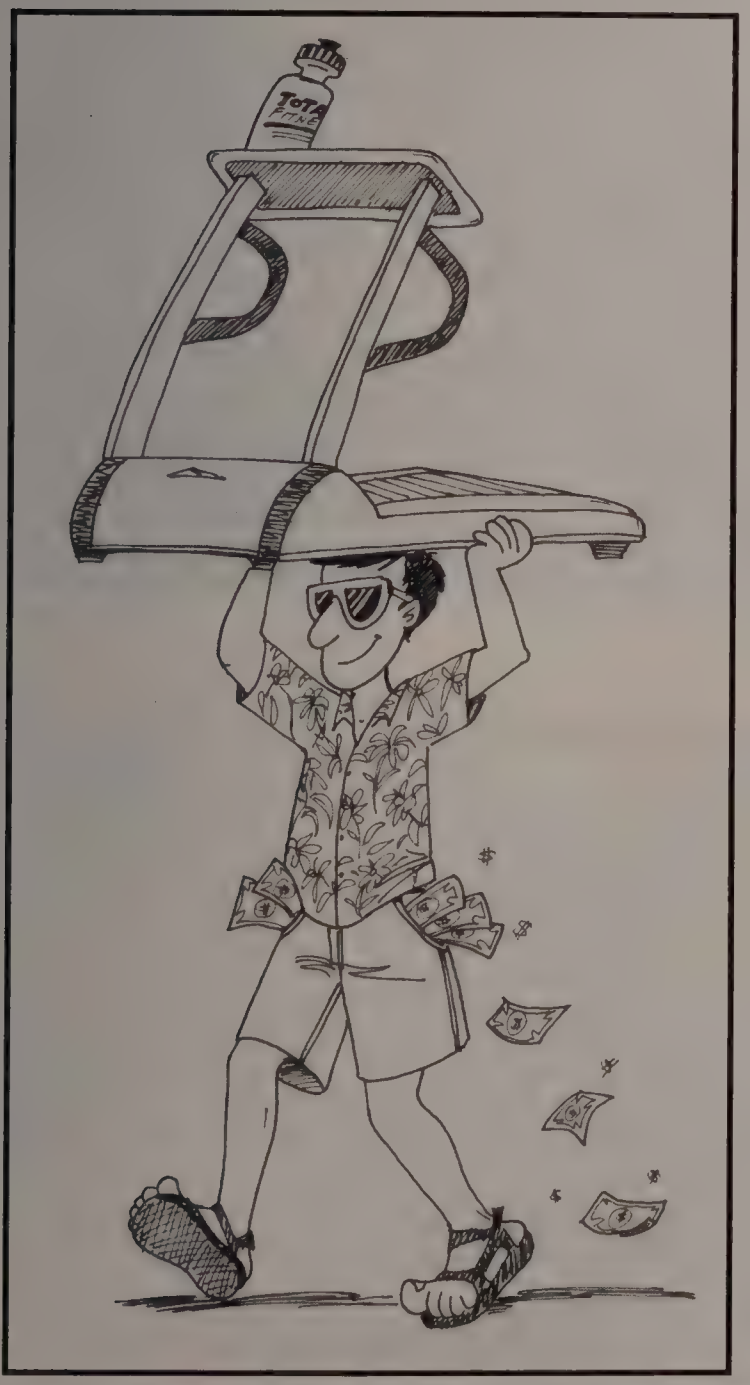
The Rack
Star 93.7's Vinny Peruzzi and DJ Littles host t dance party, 8 pm, 21+, no cover.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins, 9 pm, cover, 21+.

IT'S BA-ACK.

PRECOR'S ANNUAL REBATE SALE IS HERE

From 9/19 through 9/30 save up to $550 on the best name in fitness.* (Instant rebate redeemable day of purchase.)



PRECOR TOTAL FITNESS

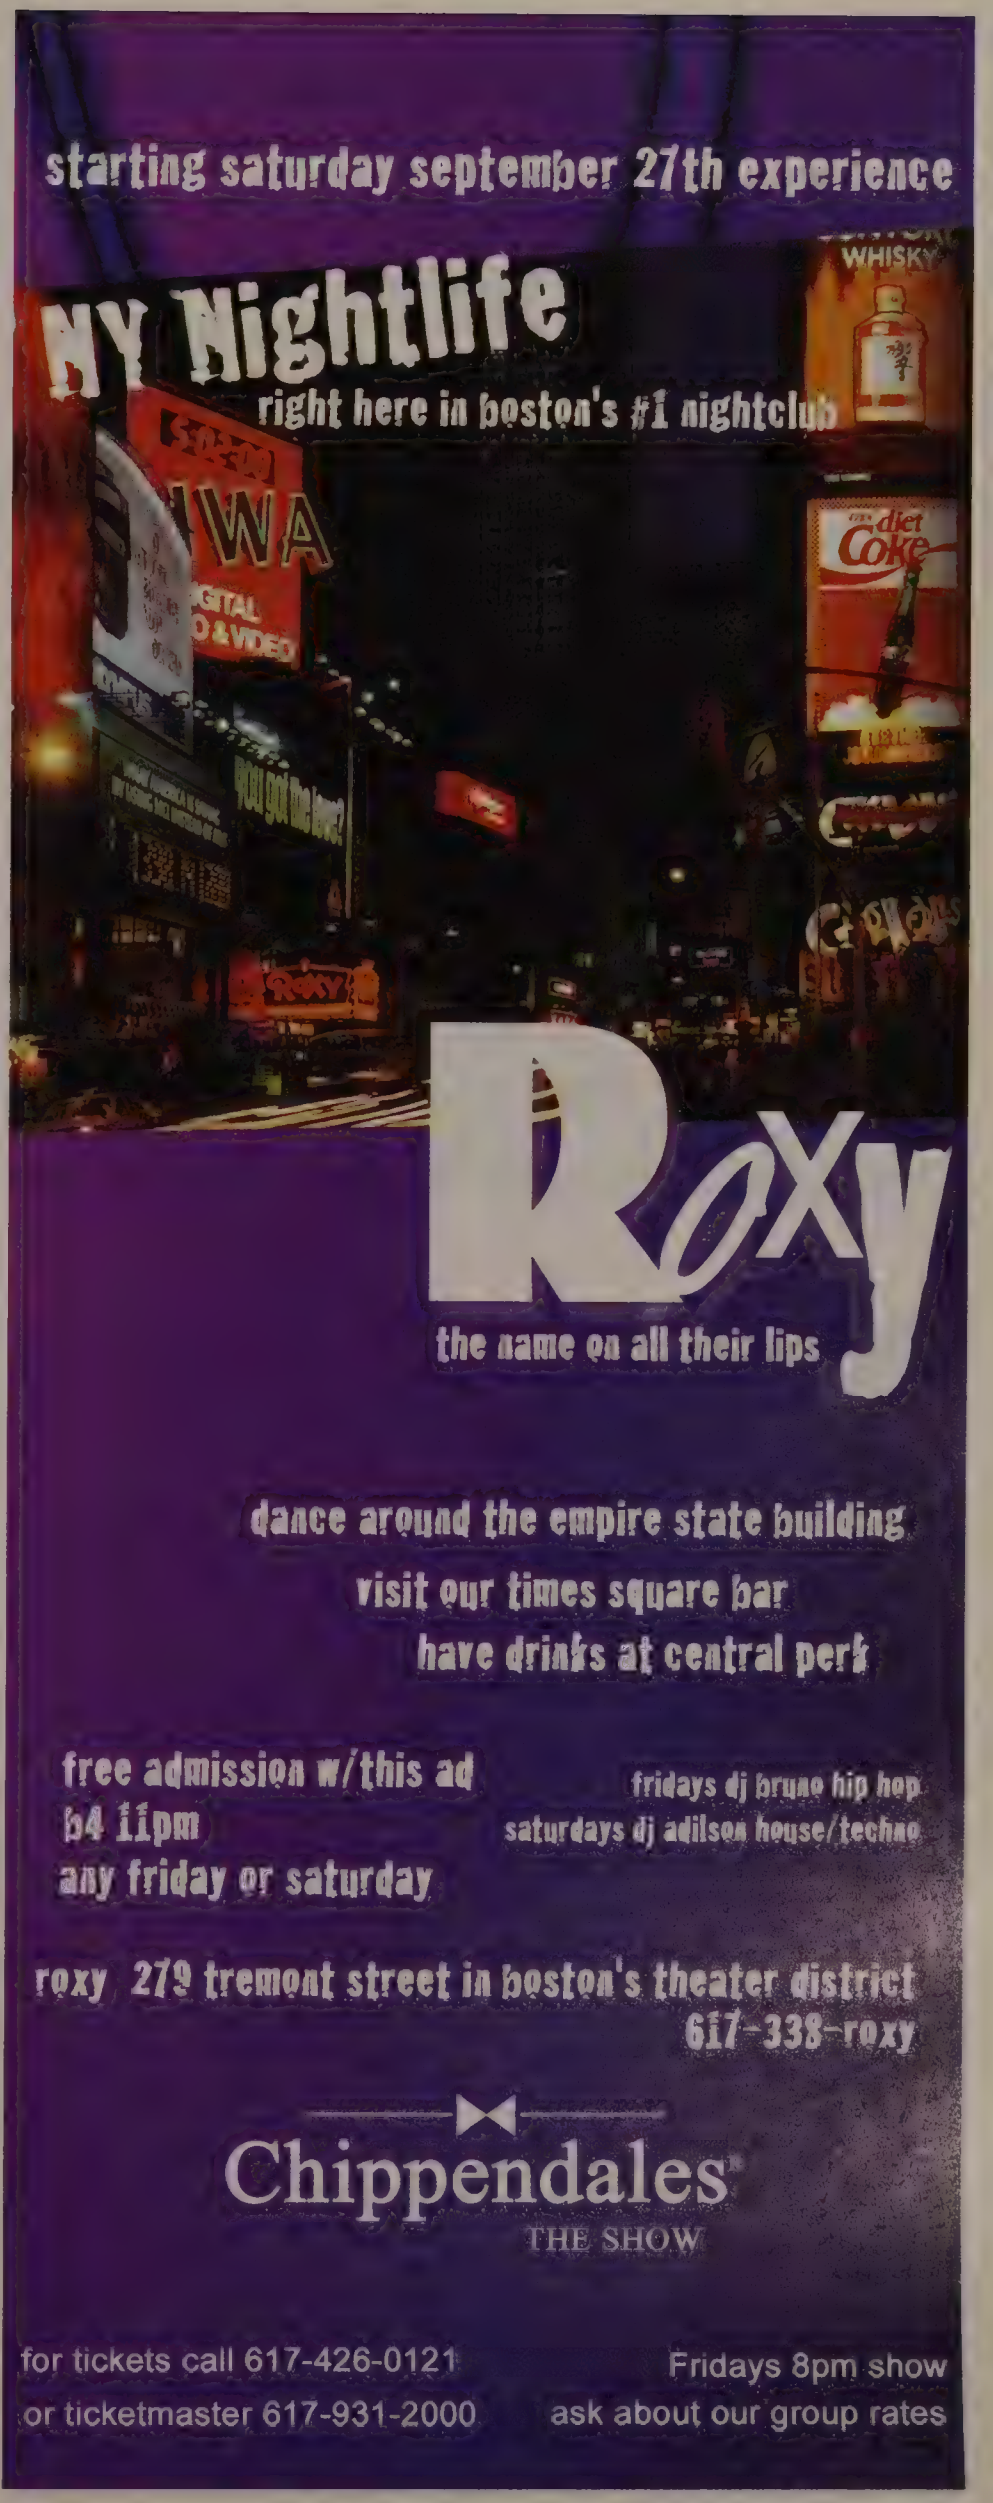
3 Newbury Street • Boston • 617-236-1742

www.totalfitnessequipment.com

OPEN 7 DAYS

NCING AVAILABLE

*Rebates apply to MSRP only.

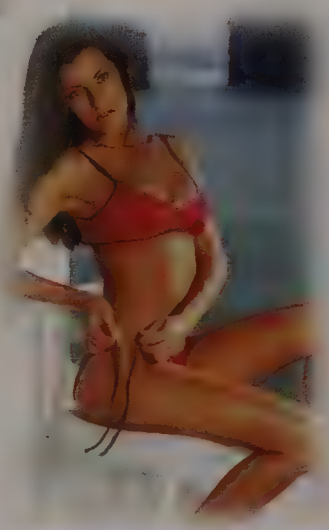


Before and After Mystic Tan®

Before Mystic Tan®

After One Mystic Tan®

MYSTIC TAN®
UV-Free Tanning



After Two Mystic Tan® Sessions

TanningEtc.
suntanning center

485 Commonwealth Avenue
[on the Green line at Kenmore]

617-267-7744

McCORMICK & SCHMICK'S
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

October is NATIONAL
SEAFOOD MONTH

Explore our DAILY Changing Menu
Featuring the FRESHEST
Seafood Available

• The Fresh Seafood Authority •

"McCormick & Schmick's is a seafood heavyweight."
~ Improper Bostonian

Boston Park Plaza Hotel
34 Columbus Avenue
(617) 482-3999

Faneuil Hall Marketplace
North Market Building
(617) 720-5522

The Roxy
The Roxy Goes Manhattan DJ Adilson spins house and techno at this Big Apple-themed night, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

711 Boylston
Fever DJ Yorgo spins a mix of ethnic and international music. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Tom McKenna spins dance, 8 pm; Downstairs: Kevin Kirrane, 9 pm, no cover before 10 pm.

Sophia's
DJ Zino spins salsa and merengue while a Latin band plays on the first floor and DJ Edwin Matos spins Latin dance on the second floor, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin blends hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows, two floors, 8 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Bruno plays house and funk, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Ron Stell plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SUNDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Adrienne spins Brit pop and new wave tunes, 9 pm-1 am, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJ Roger M. spins international house and Latin pop. Proper dress, 11pm, $15, 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ K-Don, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Felt
Play DJ Eddy K spins the tunes at service industry night. Proper dress, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Fluid Sundays DJs Joshua Carl and Paul Dailey spin tribal and deep house, breaks, techno and jungle beats, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
DJs Doc and Kieran spin top-40, 11 pm, no cover.

La Boom
Futurebeat: Alien Disco DJ Addambombb spins a mix of retro progressive tracks, trip-hop and synth-pop, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Level
Rotating DJs spin Latin and international on the third floor and hip-hop, reggae R&B and house on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Milky Way
Mystic Reggae DJ Junior Rodigan spins reggae, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump This house-music night has a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $3, 19+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
Red Square Lounge The front bar becomes a lounge, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi tops the weekend off with an array of tunes, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
In the Biz Night DJ Johnny C spins top-40 hits.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins hip-hop and top-40, 11 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Nate Watkins, 8 pm-midnight.

River Gods
Reverie Boston DJ Shannon and weekly guest DJs spin goth, industrial and lounge, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Dave Jordan plays an array of top-40 tunes; then check out Greg Latrell, 9 pm, 21+.

Tequila Rain
Grand Opening Party • Oct. 4, Playboy Playmate Trishelle Cannatella hosts the grand opening of Lansdowne Street's newest club, 10 pm, $5.

Trio
Vibe Lounge DJs provide the vibe, 10 pm, 21+.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian ni
as DJ Leandro spins Brazilian beats, 11 pm, $ 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae a world beats. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Whiskey Park
Cherry DJ Ricky Fatts spins rock classics, hip-h house and R&B.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-212
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Atlas 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424)
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-700
Bill's Bar 5 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-11
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080)
Circuit Girl Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-987
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dad's 911 Boylston St., Boston (617-296-3237).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Ekco Lounge 41 Essex St., Boston (617-417-018
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Emily's 48 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
The Exchange 148 State St., Boston (617-726-760
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-7 4100).
Hannah's 499 Broadway, Somerville (617-623-530
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-101
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-946
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-90
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
La Boom One Boylston Place, Boston (617-357-680
Level 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Matrix 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (61 524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Palace (El Copa, Male Encounter, Officers' Club, Oxygen, Rio, Underground and Uptown) 15 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-77
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051)
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
711 Boylston 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-651
Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-700
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Sugar Shack 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-70
Sweetwater Café 5 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-2515).
SW1 43 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-03
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-669
Trio 174 Lincoln St., Boston (617-357-8746).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-806
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Vivid Lounge 148 State St., Boston (617-726-76
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-03
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

an endless selection of beverages
and mouth watering entrees
BLUE WAVE
bar & grill
345 congress street • 617/790/0720 live music, dj • call for weekly events www.bluewaverestaurant-bar.com

Open for lunch, dinner
and Sunday brunch
Late night bar menu
Thurs. - Sat. nights
65 Holland St.
Davis Square
Somerville
Parking available
P: 617-591-2100
F: 617-591-0166
www.orleansrestaurant.com
Orleans
Bar & Restaurant
Great Food
Amazing Cocktails

FILL'er UP
16 microbrews on tap.
Take 'em home a half gallon at a time.
GOTTA
GET A GROWLER!
FRESH BEER
1/2 BEER WORKS BEER-TO-GO 1/2
GAL. SLESAR BROS. BREWING COMPANY, INC., BOSTON, MA GAL.
BEER BREWERY TRADEMARK BEER WORKS
BOLD AMERICAN FOOD. AWARD WINNING BEER.

DINNER COCKTAILS MUSIC
Devlin's
Bar & Bistro
KITCHEN OPEN UNTIL MIDNIGHT, 7 DAYS
332 Washington Street, Brighton • Parking Available
P: 617-779-8822 • F: 617-779-0028 • www.edevlins.com

art

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Arts. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •Medardo Rosso: Second Impressions, a collection of the sculptor's work, shows through Oct. 26. •Where Traditions Meet: Paintings in India from the 14th Century shows through Dec. 7. •Buddhist Art: The Later Tradition shows through Jan. 4.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun. 1-5 pm. •Julia Zhogina shows photographs in Almost Forgotten Russia. Through Sept. 30. •Outdoor Murals of Boston features photographs by Joel Kershner. Through Sept. 30. •Photographer's View of the Art of Teaching Musicians features the work of Diane Griliches. Oct. 1-31.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. •Debra Weisberg: (Sub)Surface features an architectural installation along a 40-foot elevator shaft. Through Jan. 2004. •Gifts from Stephen and Sybil Stone, an exhibition of more than 150 paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures from the Stones' collection, shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Ron Kuivila: An Outgoing Message is a sound-art exhibition of dial tones, busy signals and rings from telephone systems. Through Jan. 18, 2004. •Puppets, Ghosts, and Zombies: The Sculpture of Pat Keck shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Joseph Wheelwright: Stone Heads and Tree Figures, a sculpture exhibit, shows through May 16, 2004. •Landscapes Seen and Imagined: Sense of Place, Part II features paintings by various artists. Through summer 2004.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •George Bellows: The Tragedies of War displays through Oct. 26. •Marcel Breuer: A Special Installation of 1930s Furniture shows through Nov. 2. •The City of Sardis: Approaches in Graphic Recording displays through Nov. 16. •Harvard Collects American Art shows through Feb. 22, 2004.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sun., 9 am-12 pm. •Into the Mountains, features the photography of mountaineer Bradford Washburn. Oct. 4-spring 2004. •The Glass Flowers features the Ware Collection of glass models of plants, including more than 830 plant species by glass artists Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka. Ongoing. •Romancing the Stone: The Many Facets of Tourmaline showcases the museum's collection of fine jewelry and rough tourmalines. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat. and Sun., 11 am-5 pm. Free admission Thu. after 5 pm. $7, $5 students and seniors. •Douglas R. Weathersby: 2003 ICA Artist Prize shows temporary installations that Weathersby created while cleaning at the ICA. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Splat Boom Pow! The Influence of Cartoons in Contemporary Art features more than 60 multimedia works that examine the influence of cartoons on contemporary art. Through Jan. 4, 2004.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, $7 seniors, $5 students, free for those under 18. Guided tour Fridays, 2:30 pm. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, furniture, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces, including works by Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Raphael, Botticelli and Degas. •Elaine Reichek's embroideries, which depict Biblical images borrowed from Dürer, Michelangelo and other artists, display online in the virtual exhibition Madam I'm Adam. Ongoing.

Jennifer Amadeo-Holl's Small Things Gone Missing shows at the Judi Rotenberg Gallery.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri. 10 am-5 pm; weekends 12-5 pm. $5, $3 students and seniors, $1 children. •Winning Hand: Images from the MIT Radiation Laboratory Negative Collection displays through Nov. 2. •Knowing Where to Stand: Photographs by Anne Whiston Spirn shows 50 color landscapes. Through Jan. 30, 2004. •The interactive exhibit Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT is ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers explores student life and learning over the past 150 years. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic displays selections from the world's largest hologram collection. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm; Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the West Wing is open. $15 adults, $13 students and seniors, free for children 17 and under. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, admission is reduced by $2. Wed., 4-9:45 pm, admission is free. Special exhibitions are an additional cost. •John Currin Selects, an exhibition assembled by the MFA's associate curator, displays works from the museum's collection. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Works by French printmaker Jacques Callot and artists that he influenced show in Callot and His World: Princes, Paupers and Pageants. Through Jan. 25, 2004. •More than 200 jades dating from the Neolithic period to the Qing Dynasty display in Chinese Jades from the Hartman Collection. Through Aug. 2004. •18th Century French Royal Furniture from the Swan Collection features the only complete set of 18th-century French royal furniture in the United States. Ongoing. •Arts of the Colonial Americas displays historical American masterpieces. Ongoing.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13 adults, $11 seniors, $10 children. •A Bird's World explores the behavior and calls of birds in the wild. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of computers from the electronic giants of the 1940s to today's smallest laptops. Ongoing. •Dinosaurs: Modeling the Mesozoic showcases the museum's collection of dinosaur models, including the giant T. rex. Ongoing. •Making Models, an interactive exhibition, features full-scale models of Mount Everest, a wave tank and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum
33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Children's Favorites: Candy-Filled Glass Toys shows through Nov. 16. •Generals, Admirals, and American War Leaders, an exhibition of personal and official autographs from famous American leaders, shows through Jan. 11, 2004 •Coming Up on the Season: Migrant Farmworkers in the Northeast traces the lives of the workers who harvest produce in the Northeast. Through Feb. 1, 2004. •The Enchanted Clocks of George McFadden is ongoing. •Lexington Alarm'd is an exhibition of 18th-century local history. Ongoing. •Made in Massachusetts features household objects from the past three centuries. Ongoing. •To Build and Sustain: Freemasons in American Community. Ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. Sun.-Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-9 pm. Adults $12, seniors $10, students $8; children 16 and under and residents of Salem free. •Masterpieces of Asian Nineteenth-Century Photography, an exhibition of photographs from China, Japan, India and Tibet, displays through Sept. 28. •Uncommon Legacies features more than a hundred 18th- and 19th-century Native American works. Through Dec. 13. •Under the Imperial Gaze features two large-scale Chinese scrolls. Through May 2, 2004. •Men Plow, Women Weave displays images of weaving and plowing by Chinese artists. Through May 30, 2004.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50 adults, $6 seniors and students, $5 children •Portraits from China, 1923-1946: Photographers and Their Subjects features the work of Hedda Morrison, Owen Lattimore and Frederick Wulsin. Through Jan. 15, 2004. •These Shoes Were Made for...Walking?, a collection of 49 pairs of shoes from ancient to contemporary times, shows through Feb., 2004. •Painted by a Distant Hand: Mimbres Pottery from the American Southwest features artifacts from New Mexico's Swarts Ranch Ruin. Through Dec. 2004. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monuments features the museum's large Mesoamerican cast collection. Ongoing. •Encounters with the Americas is an ongoing exhibition featuring original sculpture and plaster casts of Mesoamerican cultures. •Hall of the North American Indian: Change and Continuity features art depicting the response of Native Americans across the continent to the arrival of Europeans. Ongoing. •Pacific Islands Hall, another ongoing exhibition, displays artifacts from the Pacific Islands.

Somerville Museum
One Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.losttheatres.org. Thu., 2-7 pm; Fri., 2-5 pm and Sat., 12-5 pm. •The Lost Theatres of Somerville combines oral histories, photographs, memorabilia and interactive media to explore the rise and fall of Somerville's 14 historic movie theaters, only one of which operates today. Through March 28, 2004.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Kenneth Stubbs shows paintings in Cape Cod Shorescapes from the 1950s and 1960s. Through Oct. 4.

Alianza Gallery
154 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-2385). www.alianzagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm •Clockwork shows sculptural clocks by 12 artists. Through Nov. 16.

Alpha Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Kathy Kissik shows mixed-media assemblages made from photos, found objects, plaster and paint. Through Oct. 4. •Wlodzimierz Ksiazek displays large-scale abstract paintings. Oct. 4-29.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Paul Balmer shows oil paintings in New Works. Through Sept. 25. •Lynda Lowe displays mixed-media works on wooden panels in New Paintings. Oct. 2-30.

Art Interactive
130 Bishop Allen Drive, Cambridge (617-498-0100). www.artinteractive.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm. •Engaging Characters is an interactive robot- and computer-based exhibition. Through Oct. 5.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Michael Beatty's Low Fat shows through Oct. 22. •Jennifer Barlett shows her work in Print Publisher's Spotlight: Brand X Editions. Through Oct. 22.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Shining Stars: Celebrating 30 Years of Gateway Arts showcases 30 years of 20 artists' work. Through Nov. 1.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Sculptures by Jill Levine and drawings by Tom Burckhardt are on displays through Sept. 27. •Preview/Review group show by David Hilliard, Jocelyn Lee, Abelardo Morell, Deborah Bright, Virginia Beahan, and Laura McPhee, shows Oct. 2-Nov. 9.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thurs.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Homemade: Images of Home (Architectural, Domestic, and Historical) group show of photography, sculpture, painting and mixed-media work, displays through Oct. 25.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5711). www.brooklineartscenter.com. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4 pm. •The Art of Batik: George Summers and His Students shows through Sept. 30. •100 Weaves of India displays Oct. 7-Nov. 17.

Chappell Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-2255). www.chappellgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington

An Evening of Food, Fashion Furnishings title sponsors

Boston Design Center
&
Bon Appétit

Improper Bostonian
is proud to participate in
Don't Dessert Us!

Don't Dessert Us!

A benefit for Community Servings

Boston's only free, home-delivered meals program for individuals and families ill with AIDS

Feast on a bounty of hors d'oeuvres and cocktails

Sample tastings of dessert wines and liqueurs

Enjoy the experience of a live fashion show and bid on one-of-a-kind evening wear and accessories by local designers

Delight in the sweet creations of Boston's most acclaimed chefs

featuring

Azure • blu • Blue Ribbon BBQ • Davio's • Excelsior
Gargoyles on the Square • Gourmet Caterers • The Harvest
Le Meridien Hotel, Julien Restaurant & Bar
Rouge & Tremont 647 • Tosca • UpStairs on the Square

Thursday, October 9, 2003
6:30—9:30pm

Boston Design Center • One Design Center Place • Boston, Massachusetts

$100 per person
For tickets and more information call Marlene at 617·445·7777

Leo

PAUL WEISS PHOTOGRAPHY
B&W Portraiture for the visually discerning www.paulweissphotography.com

617-296-7779

Paul Weiss is a former portrait artist for Andy Warhol

JACOB WIRTH RESTAURANT

Celebrate Oktoberfest at Jakes.

Oktoberfest 2003

With more Oktoberfest beers than ever before including:

Warsteiner · Paulaner · Harpoon
Ayinger · Hofbrau
Spaten · Sam Adams · Newport Storm

Join us for an exclusive
Oktoberfest Dinner
SEPTEMBER 29, 8 PM

Sample from a special seasonal menu prepared by Executive Chef Phylis Kaplowitz matched with our hearty Oktoberfest Beers

Space is limited. Call for reservations.

"Jacob Wirth vigorously soars into its third century."
- Alison Arnett -
The Boston Globe

JACOB WIRTH
33 - 37 Stuart St.
Boston, MA 02116
617.338.8586

proud recipient of:
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •New Insights features glass art by Alex Gabriel Bernstein and Kait Rhoads. Through Oct. 4.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •In the Moment features mixed-media paintings by Bernd Haussmann. Through Sept. 28. •Danna Ruth Harvey shows paintings in Time and Other Times. Oct. 1-28.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA:Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Florence Robinson in Italy (paintings) Prints of the Roman High Renaissance and The Power of Myth (sculpture, lithographs, paintings and engravings) show through Nov. 16.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Close to Home: The Hand-Worked Photograph features photographs by Mary Elizabeth Manz. Through Sept. 27. •Carole Chisolm Garvey and Ann M. Murphy show their work in Landscapes in Pastel. Through Sept. 27. •Fall Members Show: A Juried Exhibition shows Oct. 2-18.

Crump Gallery
622 East Broadway, Boston (617-268-8050). MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •An exhibition of works by Jeff Eldredge, Dan McCole and Norman Crump is ongoing.

Eclipse Gallery
164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •In Search of Nurturing Light showcases black-and-white photography by Peg O'Connell. Through Oct. 4. •Gretje Ferguson's black-and-white photography shows Oct. 7-Nov. 1.

Equator Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4110). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. www.equatorgallery.com. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The gallery specializes in Latin American fine art, including paintings, textiles and ceramics.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www. fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-3 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. •Hidden Language features recent works by Claudia Ravaschiere and Jesseca Ferguson. Through Oct. 4.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •An ongoing exhibition of paintings, sculpture and fine prints from the 15th to 20th centuries focuses on Rembrandt, Pissarro, Renoir, Picasso, Matisse and Chagall.

Gallery AA/B
2535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617- 574 - 0022). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.,12-6 pm; Fri., 11 am-3 pm •Mark Vonnegut, son of author Kurt Vonnegut, shows recent paintings. Through Oct. 31.

The Gallery at Black and White
295 Huntington Ave., Suite 205 (617-266-2641). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony or Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Mon.-Fri.-10 am-5 pm. •Linda Rutenberg shows infrared photographs in Landmarks. Through Sept. 26. •Photographs from the gallery's collection show through October.

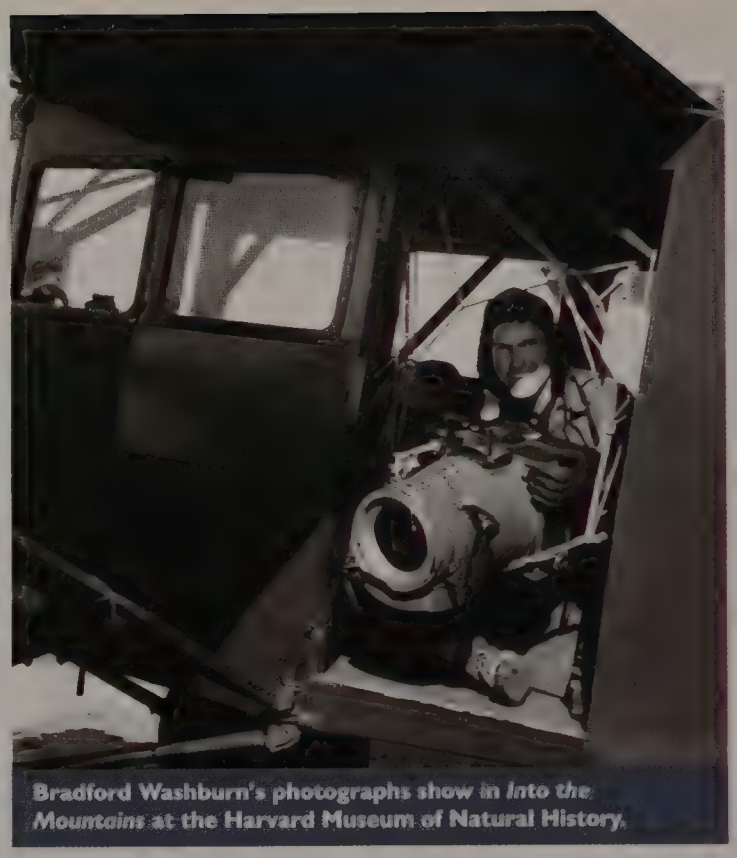
Gallery Katz
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.gallerykatz.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Jessica Hess shows paintings in Industrial Landscapes. Through Sept. 27.

Genovese/Sullivan Gallery
23 Thayer St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-426-9738). Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Ellen Rich shows new paintings. Through Oct. 1. •Craig Stockwell shows new paintings in Monogamy and Painting. Oct. 3-Nov. 4.

Gibbs Gallery
Arlington Center for the Arts, 41 Foster St., Arlington (781-648-6220). www.acarts.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •The Art of Teaching Art features the work of art educators and their students from grades K-12. Through Oct. 10.

Haley & Steele
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6339). www.haley steele.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •The gallery displays 18th- and 19th-century antique prints. Ongoing.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www. howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Katarina Andersson displays paintings on linen, and Lalla



Bradford Washburn's photographs show in Into the Mountains at the Harvard Museum of Natural History.

A. Essaydi shows large photographs of Moroccan culture in Converging Territories. Through Sept. 30. •Catherine McCarthy shows new paintings in We Walk on Jewels. Oct. 3-Nov. 4.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www. internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection showcases a variety of vintage posters.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Sleek features works by Dorothy Krause, Martin Cooper, Jacob Kulin, Jennifer Liston-Munson, Patricia Peacock and Philip Spinks. Through Sept. 29. •Icons: Jankowski and Amadeo-Holl features paintings by Zygmund Jankowski and Jennifer Amadeo-Holl. Oct.2-26

Kaji Aso Studio
40 St. Stephen St., Boston (617-247-1719). www. kajiasostudio.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue. and Thu., 4:30-6:30 pm; Sat., 3-5 pm, and by appointment. •Local artists display paintings and ceramics in Open Studios 2003.

Kathryn Schultz Gallery
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www. cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, Sun., 1-5 pm. •The 59th Annual Fall Salon features works by members of the Cambridge Art Association. Through Sept. 29. •Pushing the Envelope, a juried exhibition, shows Oct. 7-30.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •James Holmberg's abstract paintings display through Sept. 27. •Cheryl Goldsleger shows architecturally based encaustic work. Sept. 30-Nov. 1.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Wide Turns and Frequent Stops, a group show of 19 artists, shows through Sept. 27. •Elif Soyer shows paintings in Flowers and Germs. Sept. 30-Nov. 1.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Duet: Harmony in Oil and Bronze features the abstract oil paintings and bronze sculptures of Tom and Carol Odell. Through Oct. 31.

Mark Gallery
141 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6275). www. markartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed. and Fri.,4-7 pm; Thu. and Sat., 12-6 pm; and by appointment. •Longing for Height features paintings, alabaster sculptures and encaustic works by Jane Deutsch and Chad Erpelding. Through Oct. 10.

Martin Lawrence Gallery
77 Newbury St., Boston (617-369-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. www.martinlawrence.com. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. •The gallery's ongoing exhibition includes works by Chagall, Erté, Hallam, Kondakova, Lichtenstein, Picasso and Warhol.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercury gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Pastoral features landscape art by Adolph Gottlieb, Harry Gottlieb, Jon Marshall, Philip Jones, Daniel Robinson, Joseph Solman, Lucette White and Karl Zerbe. Through Sept. 24. •Philip Jones: Boston, a photography exhibition, shows Oct. 11-Nov. 5.

Miller Block Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4650). www.millerblock gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10:30-5:30 pm. •Lines, Dots and Curly Qs, a group show of paintings, drawings and installations, displays through Sept. 30. •Joe Kievitt: Recent Drawings features charcoal/graphite compositions. Oct. 11-Nov. 12

Mills Gallery
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-7700). MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Wed. and Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri. and Sat., 12-10 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •South Enders 2, a juried exhibition of South End artists, displays through Sept. 26.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Richard Shaw shows still-life ceramics, Roy deForest displays paintings and drawings and Jennifer Trask shows linked metal jewelry. Through Sept. 30. •Botanical Jewelry, a group exhibition, shows Oct. 4-Nov. 1.

NAP Project Gallery
535 Albany St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-451-2977). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Copley. Wed., Fri. and Sat., 11-4 and by appointment. •Juan Perdiguero shows mixed-media-on-photo-emulsion works.Through Oct. 25.

New Art on Newbury
285 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7727). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Snooze and You Could Lose the Next Toulouse, a group show of local artists, displays through Oct. 5.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www. nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •A Parable in Mark and Ritual: Work by Porfirio DiDonna shows through Oct. 18.

108
108 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-3833). www. gallery108.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Porter. Wed.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. •Iraqi artist Nedim Kufi shows ceramics, etchings and sculpture. Through Oct. 12.

Oni Gallery
684 Washington St., 5th floor, Boston (617-542-6983). www.onigallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown. Wed.-Sun., 2-6 pm. •Overhung, a juried exhibition, shows through Oct. 11.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., #304, Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11am-5 pm. •Jacob El Hanani shows his work in Recent Drawings. Through Sept. 27. •A group show of work featured in the 2003 New American Paintings MFA Annual is on display Oct. 3-Nov. 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •A local-artists showcase is ongoing.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www. peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Marja Lianko shows sculptures and paintings. Through Oct. 4.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www. puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Brother Thomas' ceramics are on display in The Creator of Luminaries. Through Oct. 14.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •The gallery has an ongoing exhibition of 19th- and 20th-century American and European paintings.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www. robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Sally Gall's Subterranea features black-and-white images of caves. Through Oct. 4.

Rolly-Michaux Galleries
290 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-536-9898). Tue.-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Free. •20th Century Masters Graphics, a collection of lithographs and aquatint etchings by Sonia Delaunay, Joan Miro and Marino Marini, displays through Sept. 30. •Robert Sweeney: The Italian Campaign II features recent paintings and pastels of Tuscany. Oct. 3-31.

The Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www. societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Word Text Stories, a group show of glass, wood, clay and fiber, shows through Oct. 26.

Soprafina Gallery
99 Beacon St., Somerville (617-498-0999). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sat., 12-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Lori Warner shows new woven prints. Through Oct. 5.

Studio Soto
63 Melcher St., Boston (617-426-7686). www.studio soto.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Fri.-Sat. 2 pm-5 pm and by appointment. •Between Constraints shows work by Masako Kamiya, David Palmer and Jennifer Riley. Through Oct. 5.

Upstairs at Johnson's Art Gallery
355 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4065). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-5:30 pm. Sat., 10 am-1 pm. •Expressions of Light and Shadow, a group show of painting and photography, displays through Sept. 27. •Elusive Form features painting and sculpture by Amanda Annis, Virginia Peck and Guillermo Velasco. Oct. 6-27.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
59 Beacon St., Boston (617-523-0661). www. munroefineart.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Porfirio DiDonna Drawings shows through Oct. 18.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www. vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 8:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •David Brega shows contemporary works. Oct. 4-Nov. 15

Washington Allston Gallery
Sts. Luke and Margaret Episcopal Church, St. Luke Rd., Allston (617-782-2029). MBTA: B Green Line to Packard's Corner. Mon., 5-8 pm; Wed., 4:30-7:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm and by appt. •Satori features new paintings by Beth Walsh-Bolstad. Through Oct. 12.

Wentworth Gallery
73 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-8770). www.wentworthgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •Charles Fazzino shows 3-D pop art. Through Oct. 10.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www. griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. •Mustang: The Lost Tibetan Kingdom shows images by Don Guntz. Through Oct. 31.

New England School of Photography
Gallery One, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •Mim Adkins shows photographs in The Evolution of Affection. Through Oct. 17.

Panopticon Gallery
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). Commuter Rail to Waltham. www.panopt.com. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-6 pm. •B.A. King shows his work in About Children. Through Oct. 25.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Roxbury Open Studios
(617-541-3900, ext. 223). MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing. www.actroxbury.org. Oct. 4 and 10 am-6 pm. •The fifth annual Roxbury Open Studios features more than 100 local artists showcasing their work throughout the neighborhood.

ZAGAT SURVEY®

2003 BOSTON RESTAURANTS

F	D	S	C
22	24	22	$55

Hungry i

71 1/2 Charles St. (bet. Mt. Vernon & Pinckney Sts.), 617-227-3524

■ "Step off of Beacon Hill and into a tiny village" in France when you descend the townhouse stairs to this "absolutely romantic" "jewel" that may be the "ultimate date place" ("don't let the name fool you"); the trio of fireplaces makes it "perfect on a cold winter night", while the "beautiful garden" is ideal for alfresco dining in the summer, but at any time an "attentive" staff brings forth "rich" Country French fare in a "softly lit" room; it's a très "transporting place" to take "your loved one" for any "special occasion."

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry or e-mail to books @improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Christopher Castellani discusses A Kiss from Maddalena, his novel set in 1943 in Italy about a young man courting the town beauty. Also, Kristin Duisberg discusses her novel The Good Patient, about a young woman with self-destructive tendencies.

Borders Cambridgeside
Cambridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.borders.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 6:30 pm. Free. Rachel Greenwald reads from her new book, Find a Husband After 35 Using What I Learned in Harvard Business School: A Revolutionary 15-Step Action Program, which gives marriage-bent women marketing tactics on how to find a husband.

Center for New Words
Cambridge Public Library, 45 Pearl St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.com. 7 pm. Free. Filmmaker Saira Shah screens parts of her documentary, Beneath the Veil, and reads from her memoir, The Storyteller's Daughter, about her trip to her homeland in Afghanistan.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Brian Herbert and Kevin Anderson read from the book they cowrote, Dune: The Machine Crusade, the 11th installment in the Dune science fiction series.

Harvard University
Lamont Forum Room, Lamont Library, Harvard University, Cambridge (617-495-2454). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5 pm. Free. Poet Peter Gizzi reads from Jack Spicer's works. Also, poet Sharon Olds reads poems by George Oppen.

Newtonville Books and Brews Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Karin Slaughter reads from her thriller A Faint Cold Fear, about a series of suicides in a small college town.

UMass Boston
University Club, Healy Library, 11th Floor, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617-287-6700). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 2:30 pm. Free. Adrienne Rich discusses her new collection of poetry, Fox, and reads poems from her compilation The Fact of a Doorframe: Poems 1950-2001.

Wild Women Outfitters
397 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-641-5776). 7 pm. Free. Kathy Elliott discusses the book she co-wrote, The Old Girls Network, a guide for women who want to start their own business.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Harvard law professor Elizabeth Warren reads from her book The Two-Way Income Trap: Why Middle-Class Mothers and Fathers Are Going Broke, which addresses problems that families face when both parents work.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 25

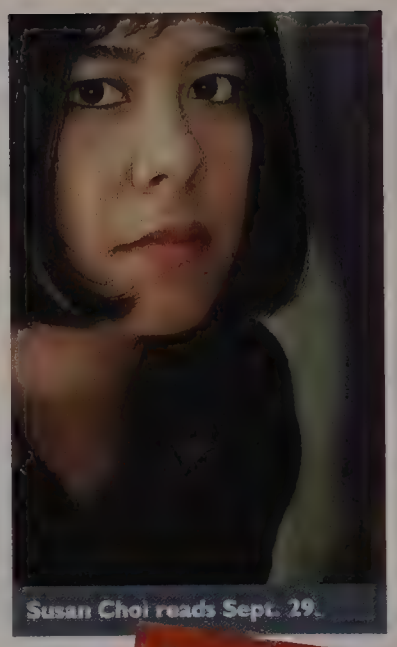
Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Vicki Robin reads from the book she co-wrote, Your Money or Your Life: Transforming Your Relationship with Money and Achieving Financial Independence, which analyzes overspending habits.

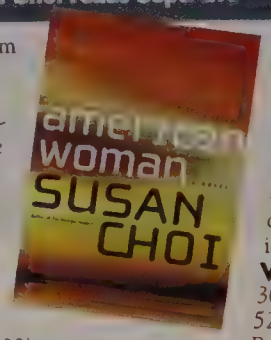
Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.borders.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Kathleen Doherty discusses the new Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, 11th Edition, which she helped edit.

Boston Public Library
Mezzanine Conference Room, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Diane Darling discusses networking strategies based on her new book, The Networking Survival Guide.

Boston Public Library
Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. New York Times foreign correspondent Stephen Kinzer reads from his new book, All the Shah's Men: An American Coup and the Roots of Middle East Terror, which examines the CIA's 1953 overthrow of Iranian leader Mohammad Mossadegh.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Restaurant critic Mark Zanger reads from his book The American History Cookbook, a look at American cooking from the pilgrims' time to the present.





Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Trauma expert Dr. Kaethe Weingarten reads from her book, Common Shock: Witnessing Violence Every Day—How We Are Harmed, How We Can Heal, which offers tips on how to cope with acts of violence.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Tufts University professor Sheldon Krimsky discusses the book he cowrote with Ralph Nader, Science in the Private Interest: Has the Lure of Profits Corrupted Biomedical Research?

Poetry@Gallery Diablo
1514 Tremont St., Boston (617-417-5750). MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing. 7 pm. Free. The Women's Voice in Poetry event features local poets Elizabeth Doran, Ann Killough and Shin Yu Pai, who read their poems as well as poetry by other writers.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Dick Lehr and Mitchell Zuckoff discuss the book they co-authored, Judgement Ridge: The True Story Behind the Dartmouth Murders, which traces the events leading up to the 2001 murders of two Dartmouth professors.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 26

Harvard Book Store
Askwith Lecture Hall, 13 Appian Way, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Slavoj Zizek reads from his new book, The Puppet and the Dwarf: The Perverse Core of Christianity, a critical examination of the current state of Christianity.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 28

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David J. Loftus reads from his book Watching Sex: How Men Really Respond to Pornography, in which he interviews men about how they use pornography.

MONDAY, SEPT. 29

Borders Boston
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 7 pm. Free. Susan Choi reads from her novel American Woman, based on the 1974 kidnapping of Patty Hearst.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Adam Haslett discusses his short story collection, You Are Not a Stranger Here, about people affected by loss.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Evie Blaikie reads from her memoir, Magda's Daughter: A Hidden Child's Journey Home, about her experiences as a Holocaust survivor.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 30

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Janine Roberts reads from her book Glitter and Greed: The Secret World of the Diamond Cartel, an examination of the diamond industry.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Susan Choi reads from her new novel, American Woman. See Sept. 29 for a description.

Harvard Book Store
Askwith Lecture Hall, 13 Appian Way, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. National Public Radio foreign correspondent Anne Garrels reads from her book Naked in Baghdad: The Iraq War as seen by NPR's Correspondent, an account of her experiences during the war.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Yemi Ogunyemi discusses his new book, The Melodrama of the Last Word, a story of a woman who wants to make a difference in the world before agreeing to marriage.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Tibetan writer Lama Surya Das reads from his new book, Letting Go of the Person You Used to Be: Lessons on Loss, Change and Spiritual Transformation, which offers advice on how to deal with difficult experiences.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Victoria Abbott Riccardi reads from her memoir, Untangling My Chopsticks, which details her experiences studying Japanese culinary culture.

Center for New Words
Durrell Hall, Cambridge Family YMCA, 820 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.newwordsbooks.com. 8 pm. Free. Political commentator Molly Ivins reads from her new book, Bushwacked: Life in George W. Bush's America, her take on the Bush administration.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Jenny Barber and Don Share read from their work.

THURSDAY, OCT. 2

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Dorothy C. Buck reads from her book Dialogues with Saints and Mystics: In the Spirit of Louis Massignon, a collection of stories about people who are inspired by the divine.

The Bostonian Society
Old State House, 206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). MBTA: Blue Line to State Street. 6:30 pm. Free. Historian Stephen Puleo discusses his book, Dark Tide: The Great Boston Molasses Flood of 1919, about the molasses tank that collapsed in the North End, killing many Bostonians.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Louis Begley discusses his new novel, Shipwreck, about a writer who is suddenly plagued by doubts about the merits of his work.

Harvard Bookstore
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Newton author Emily Franklin reads from her debut novel, Liner Notes, the story of a young woman who inadvertently ends up driving across country with her mother.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Roanne Weisman reads from her new book, Own Your Health: Choosing the Best from Alternative and Conventional Medicine, which discusses various Chinese medicines and exercises that may help cancer patients and those with spinal cord injuries.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Nelly Reifler reads from See Through, her collection of short stories that focus on adolescents' experiences.

SATURDAY, OCT. 4

Brookline Booksmith
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. 2 pm. Free. Kathryn Lasky reads from her new children's book, The Guardians of Ga'Hoole, about two young owls who discover an evil force that threatens their kingdom.

Center for New Words
Jamaica Plain Public Library, 12 Sedgwick St., Jamaica Plain (617-876-5310). www.newwordsbooks.com. 7 pm. Free. Harlyn Aizley reads from her memoir Buying Dad: One Woman's Search for the Perfect Sperm Donor, about her and her life partner's experiences searching for a sperm donor.

TUESDAY, OCT. 7

Brookline Booksmith
79 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Adrienne Eisen reads from her novel Making Scenes, about a troubled young woman deciding between cities, careers and lovers. Also, Steve Almond reads from his collection of short stories, My Life in Heavy Metal.

Harvard Bookstore
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Mark Abrahams reads from his book The Ig Nobel Prizes, a compendium of the annual awards given by the science humor magazine Annals of Improbable Research.

Harvard University
Houghton Library, Cambridge (617-495-2454). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5:30 pm. Free. Alice Fulton reads from Felt, her collection of poems revolving around the theme of privacy.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David Guterson reads from his novel Our Lady of the Forest, about a teen runaway who becomes a symbol of hope for a tiny logging town when she has visions of the Virgin Mary.

Ongoing

Boston Poetry Slam (Wednesdays)
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $5. Every Wednesday night, the Cantab Lounge hosts a poetry slam downstairs in the Third Rail.

Harvard Square Coop (Sundays)
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Hear what other Boston-area poets are doing; every Sunday the Harvard Coop hosts a poetry exchange on Level Two.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway (Tuesdays)
255 Elm Street, Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jimmytingle.com. $10. 8 pm. Eight local poets perform their own work in a two-hour theatrical show every third Tuesday of the month. Directed by Michael Brown.

Lizard Lounge Poetry Jam (Sundays)
1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.poetryjam.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Poetry slam, 7 pm. $5. The Jeff Robinson Trio plays background tunes for the featured poet of the week.
•Sept. 28: Lanelle N. Moise.

O'Brien's Pub (Mondays)
3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: Green Line to Harvard Ave. 9 pm. O'Brien presents a mix of rock and spoken word one Monday a month. The performers are all predetermined.

Out of the Blue Poetry (Saturdays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $3. Every Saturday is poetry night—the event is titled Open Bark—and a spoken-word event takes place on the fourth Saturday of each month.

Stone Soup Poetry Night (Mondays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-227-0845). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. $4. Since 1971, the Stone Soup Poets have held weekly readings.

Tapestry of Voices (Second Thursday)
Borders Boston, 10-24 School St., Boston (617-4995). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. The second Thursday each month offers a selection of featured poets and an opportunity to take the open mike.

education

dvice to Contributors
ubmit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Cal-ndar: Education, or e-mail information to educa-on@improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks ior to publication.

VEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24

he Real Family Behind Little Women: he Alcotts, a Family of Reformers ld South Meeting House, Boston (617-482-6439). ww.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red or Or-nge Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Jan rnquist, executive director of the Orchard House, e original home of the Alcott family, shows slides d lectures about this 19th-century family cience in the News arvard Medical School, 200 Longwood Ave., Boston 00-699-2466). www.hms.harvard.edu/sitn. MBTA: Green Line to Longwood. 7 pm. Free. The first pre-ntation in this nine-week lecture series focuses on e Human Genome Project and genetic testing.

/riting Workshop
llage Books, 751 South St., Roslindale (617-623-00). 7 pm. Free. This introductory writing class is osted by the Grub Street Writers. Learn how to put ords on paper by participating in writing exercises.

RIDAY, SEPT. 25

aymarket Riot of 1886
ld South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., oston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeeting ouse.org. MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. pm. The Boston Playwrights' Theatre presents a ading of playwright Zayd Dohrn's play, which ex-pres the struggle for free speech and civil liberties 1880s Chicago, as embodied by the infamous aymarket riot in 1886 (during which eight police fficers were killed). A panel discussion follows th Dohrn; director Adam Zahler; executive di-ctor for Massachusetts Advocates for the Arts, iences and Humanities Dan Hunter; and profes-r of public and community service at UMass oston James Green.

ATURDAY, SEPT. 27

olonial Tea Bowls and Coffee Cups ul Revere House, 19 North Square, Boston (617-3-1775). www.paulreverehouse.org. MBTA: reen or Blue Line to Government Center. 1 pm. $1-. Potter Julia Smith discusses Europe's caffeine ze in the 1600s, and demonstrates the production cups and bowls specifically designed to hold the wly discovered beverages.

UNDAY, SEPT. 28

ventors and Industrialists: Walking Tour of Forest Hills emetery rest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Boston 17-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: range Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Guide Al ize gives this tour of the history, people and art of rest Hills, focusing on famous innovators of the th century.

ock Around the Block body Essex Museum, East India Square, Salem (866-5-1876). www.pem.org. 2-4 pm. Free. Follow geol-st and stone sculptor Ed Myskowski on a walking ir of Salem. See the rock and mineral types found local architecture, landmarks and cemeteries.

outh Boston Waterfront Tour
ets at Boston Bike Tour Stand, Boston Common, ston (617-308-5902). www.bcae.org. MBTA: d/Green Line to Park. 11 am. $25. This 15-mile cycle tour begins at Boston Common and jour-ys through the Big Dig to the South Boston wa-front. Examine local architecture and learn out the evolution of the area.

ONDAY, SEPT. 29

overing the War in Iraq
n F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Columbia Point, ston (617-514-1643). 5:30-7 pm. Free. National blic Radio's senior foreign correspondent Anne rrels discusses her experiences covering the war Iraq. NPR's correspondent Garrels and WBUR's k Gordon host the forum.

emocracy in the Age of Dubya mbridge Forum at First Parish, 3 Church St., Cam-dge (617-495-2727). www.cambridgeforum.org. BTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. Political irist and author Al Franken leads this discussion on the state of American democracy under George W. Bush's administration.

Entrepreneurship for Artists
Neighborhood Business Builders, 105 Chauncy St., Boston (617-737-0093). 6 pm. Free. This program helps creative professionals and artists go into business and reevaluate existing business practices by providing training, technical assistance, one-on-one mentoring and more.

Woodland Garden Design Seminar
New England Wild Flower Society, 180 Hemenway Road, Framingham (508-877-7630). www.newfs.org. All day. Horticulture director Cheryl Lowe and propagation manager Bill Cullina teach this seminar on native plant materials and design.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1

Iraqi Art and Archaeology: Looting, Losses and Lasting Treasures
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 7 pm. $13. A panel of experts share their knowledge of the ancient artifacts of Iraq. Join a discussion about the significance of the art, recent finds and feared losses related to the looting of the National Museum in Baghdad and of archaeological sites.

What in the World Should We Do?
Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-373-5800). www.fordhallforum.neu.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 6:30 pm. Free. The Ford Hall Forum hosts this discussion about current and future U.S. foreign policy led by lecturer Mickey Edwards from the Kennedy School of Government and professors Elaine Hagopian of Simmons College and Jeffrey Taliaferro of Tufts University.

THURSDAY, OCT. 2

Highlights from the American Collection
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 11 am. Free with admission ($13-$15). Curator of American Art Carol Troyen leads this gallery talk about the MFA's American Collection.

FRIDAY, OCT. 3

Important Bird Areas
Peabody Essex Museum, East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. 7:30 pm. Free. As part of the international effort to identify and protect the world's most important habitats for birds, Massachusetts Audubon Society's Andrea Jones unveils a list of 100 newly designated sites in the state. Jones discusses the results of this initiative on the North Shore and its implications for the future.

SATURDAY, OCT.4

John Currin Selects
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 11 am. Free with admission ($13-$15). Artist Gerry Bergstein leads this gallery talk about the exhibition curated by contemporary artist John Currin. It features Currin's own work and other pieces from the museum's American and European painting collection.

Printing Demonstration: Paul Revere's Political Cartoons
Paul Revere House, 19 North Square, Boston (617-523-1775). www.paulreverehouse.org. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center. 1 pm. $1-$3. R.P. Hale reproduces Paul Revere's lesser-known contribution to the American independence movement: inflammatory political cartoons.

SUNDAY, OCT. 5

Worshipping Stone
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 11 am. Free with admission ($13-$15). This gallery talk focuses on Southeast Asian religious sculpture.

TUESDAY, OCT. 7

Families for a Peaceful Tomorrow
Barnes & Noble, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-236-7448). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Barnes & Noble hosts a discussion about Families for a Peaceful Tomorrow, a group founded by relatives of September 11 victims who have united to turn grief into action for peace.

Shades of Light on Color and Texture
New England Wild Flower Society, 180 Hemenway Rd., Framingham (508-877-7630). www.newfs.org. 9 am. Chicago landscape designer Julie Siegel gives this seminar for designers, gardeners, horticulturists and wanna-be green thumbs at the NEWFS's Garden in the Woods.

A great Mexican taqueria

BOCA GRANDE

Get one FREE burrito with the purchase of a burrito grande. With this coupon. One coupon per person during promotional period
Expires 10/6/03

The Best Burrito in Boston

BEST OF BOSTON

BURRITOS
TACOS
ENCHILADAS
QUESADILLAS

3 Locations:
1728 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 617.354.7400
149 First St., Cambridge, 617.354.5550
1294 Beacon St., Brookline, 617.739.3900

"LUGE" - ISTICS

• Solid Block of Ice 10" x 5" x 40" Long •
• Re-Usable Drain Trays •
• Pick-Up or Delivered •

More Party Ideas...
* Cocktail Ice
* Keg Ice
* Dry Ice
* Snow Ice

* "Glow" Shot Glasses
* "Button-Light" L.E.D.'s
* Propane
* Flashing Ice Cubes

 While supplies last - FREE "glow" shot glass when you purchase and pick-up a luge with tray set-up and two 30 lb. bags of cocktail ice.

BROOKLINE ICE COMPANY
610 Brookline Ave., (off Rte. 9), Brookline
Open 7 Days 617.232.0941
Please be responsible, do not drink and drive

gay& lesbian

If you want to be listed
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest T-stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
214 PI Alley, Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center. Nightly, 5 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Boston's new leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as regular theme nights.

Aria (Wednesdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park Street. DJ John Morris spins progressive house for Lust, the Wednesday night gay and lesbian dance party. 10 pm, $8 for 19-20; $5 for 21+.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. For 20 years, these folks have cranked out Sunday-night parties for the boys of Boston. Enjoy three separate dance floors plus drag acts. DJ Darrin Friedman spins house. 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. The glamorous Mizery hosts a drag show, and DJ Jay Ine spins progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of every month. 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. On Saturdays, Buzz's two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—pool room and lounge keep the men busy until 2 am. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

CityGirl Caffé (Daily)
204 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-864-2809). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue.-Fri., 11 am- 9 pm; Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. This small (five tables) laid-back café in Inman Square, lesbian owned and operated, draws a mixed gay/hetero crowd for lounging and sandwiches. Brunch is served every weekend.

Club Café and Moonshine Bar (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat., 2 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This South End spot draws a dressy bunch for dining and unobtrusive music in the front room or video entertainment in the back at Moonshine. •On Wednesdays, join VJ Cliff Cunningham. •On Thursdays and Fridays,VJ Tom Yaz hosts a nonstop show featuring new and classic music videos. •On Saturdays, it's Boys' Night Out with VJ Cliff Cunningham. No cover, 21+.

Dedo's Lounge & Bistro (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. A predominantly gay crowd frequents this bar to check out clips from classic movies and the latest music videos—compiled by the bar's own VJ. No cover, 21+.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). Mon.-Fri., 3 pm-2 am; Sat., 1 pm-2 am; Sun., 12 pm-2 am. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. This quiet, friendly neighborhood bar starts hopping as it gets closer to 2 am.

Fritz Lounge (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 12 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 10:30 am-2 am. TV sets show satellite sports broadcasts, and Fritz is home base to a softball league. No cover, 21+. Brunch is served until 3:30 pm on weekends.

Here at 711 Boylston (Tuesdays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5502)). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Boston's Tuesday night gay dance party features disco and pop music, guest DJs and weekly contests. 9 pm-2 am, $4-$7, 21+.

Hollywood at the Ekco Lounge (Saturdays)
41 Essex St., Boston (617-338-8283). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown.

The Boston Bay Blades recently participated in the Stonewall Regatta in Washington, D.C. All are welcome to join this group of rowers and scullers.

10 pm-2 am. This lesbian bar has two floors with go-go girls and live music all night. $8, 21+.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Patrons relax with a friendly crowd and mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Tue., Thu.: Avalon bartender Miss Kris performs. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: Drag-on Showgirl Showcase produced by Diamond Dunhill. 10 pm, $5. •Mon.: Cabaret drag show. 10 pm, $5 weekdays; $8 weekends, 21+. 10 pm, $5-$8.

Machine (Tuesdays, Thursdays-Saturdays)
1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition with PJ McWhiskers. •Fri.: Best Night Out with NYC DJ/producer Darrin Friedman spinning deep house. 10 pm-2 am, $6, 21+. •Sat.: Machine with DJ Brad Gwynn playing house music. 10 pm-2 am, $7, 21+. •Tue.: Service Industry Night with DJ Afrodite.

ManRay (Wednesdays-Saturdays)
21 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-864-0400). www.manrayclub.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Wed., 9 pm-1 am; Thu. and Fri., 9 pm-2 am; Sat.,10 pm-2 am. Catering to a young, alternative clientele, ManRay features two dance floors. •Wed.: Crypt features DJ Chris Ewen in the cage and DJ Mothra in the front room. 9 pm-1 am, 18+. •Thu.: Campus is a testosterone night with DJ Brad Gwynn and DJ Chris Ewen. $12, 19+; $8, 21+. •Fri.: Rotating themes include Sin, Hell, Fantasy Factory, Ooze and scheduled special events. •Sat.: New Wave Dance Party with DJ Chris Ewen and Disco Inferno with DJ Gary Conzo. $12, 19+; $8, 21+.

Midway Cafe (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green Street. 9 pm-2 am. On Thursday nights, the Midway hosts Kristen Porter's Dyke Night, with rotating DJs, pool and dancing. $5, 21+.

Milky Way Lounge (Sundays)
401 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). www. milkywayjp.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Gay men and women, transgenders and their allies can start the night early at Candyland; live entertainment includes Drag Bingo, spoken-word events and jazz. A dance party hosted by resident DJ Jamila caps off the evening. 7:30 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Night Games (Fridays)
Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000). www.circuitgirl.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square. Resident DJ Kris Kono pumps the dance tunes at Circuit Girl's Anything Goes night. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-494-0700). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features top-40 tunes Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday. No cover, 21+.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billing itself as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is obligatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Thu.: Fire and Ice with DJ Dan Leavey. •Fri.: Leather Cruise with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Sun.: Mandance with house music. •Mon.: Pool tournament and pizza. •Tue: DJ Scott Thinsdale.

Vapor (Tuesdays-Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •Tue.: Lounge with DJ Michael. 19+, no cover. •Wed.: Latino night with DJ Adilson and host Evian Waters. 19+. •Thu.: The Music Factory with DJ KC spinning deep house and DJ Ron Stele spinning R&B, hip-hop, reggae and funk. $5, 21+. •Fri.: Inner Circle. $8, 19+. •Sat.: Evolution with DJ Jay Ine. •Sun.: T-Dance party with DJs Danae and Michael Sheehan. 21+.

Books

Calamus Bookstore
92B South St., Boston (617-338-1931). www.calamusbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-7 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Boston's bookstore for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgendered people.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Fri., 12-8 pm; Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The New Words Live series features an array of feminist and lesbian author events.

We Think the World of You Bookstore
540 Tremont St., Boston (617-574-5000). www.wethinktheworldofyou.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-7 pm; Sat., 10 am-6:30 pm; Sun., 11:30-5:30 pm. Opened in 1994, this community-centered gay and lesbian bookstore stocks literature, art books, DVDs and videos.

Shows & Events

Boston Bay Blades Erg-a-Thon
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont St., Boston. info@bayblades.org. www.bayblades.org/boston. Sept. 27, 7 am-7 pm. In a fund-raiser for the Somerville High School rowing club, participants raise money per meter rowed on a stationary machine (a.k.a. an erg) in the all-day Erg-a-Thon.

Controversy Thursday
Matrix B Room, 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-54 4077). Sept 24, 10 pm-2 am. $5 before 11 pm, $8 re ular admission. This gay and bi dance party featur DJ John Morris spinning progressive house musi No sneakers allowed.

The Credeaux Canvas
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont S Boston (617 426-2787). www.bcaonline.org. O 3-25. Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8 pm; Su 7 pm. $25, $20 seniors and students. The Zeitge Stage Company's production of Keith Bunin's T Credeaux Canvas follows three aspiring New Yo artists as they paint and attempt to quell a burgeo ing love triangle.

Out on the Edge: 12th Annual Festival of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Theater
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont S Boston (617-426-2787). www.theatermania.co Through Sept. 27. Call for event schedule. $18-$2 The Theater Offensive's LGBT festival host range of events, from interactive discussions w performers, playwrights and directors to wo shops, panels and community events.

Some Like It Hot
The Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (866-8 4111). www.ftmmass.org. Sept. 28, 7 pm. $20. En an evening of Broadway and popular music to ben the Freedom to Marry Coalition of Massachuse which works to make same-sex marriage legal.

Ongoing

Atención Latina Lesbians
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Bos (800-834-3242). www.fenwayhealth.org. MB Green Line to Hynes/ICA. FCH has collabora with the Elizabeth Stone House to provide safe, confidential space to discuss healthy relati ships, domestic violence and other issues.

BAGLY
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin Boston (617-227-4313) www.bagly.org. MB Green or Red Line to Park. Wednesdays, 6-9 The Boston Alliance for Gay, Lesbian, Bisex Transgendered and Questioning Youth h weekly meetings and social events for young p ple seeking community, support and a place to cuss relevant issues.

Beantown South G/L Bowling Leag
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-1552). 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and bians in the Boston area meets Wednesdays.

Bi Rap
The Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant Cambridge (617-354-8807). Tuesdays, first and week of the month, 7:30 pm. This discussion gro open to all bisexual, bi-friendly and questio women.

BOSS
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 6-8 pm. This group for gay and bisexual men of color meets the last Friday of each month to discuss culture, lifestyle, creativity and health.

Boston Bay Blades
www.bayblades.org/boston. All are welcome to join this competitive, recreational group of rowers and scullers.

Boston Boasts Squash
(617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue. 7-9 pm; Sat. 10 am-12 pm, 9-10 am beginners. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay and Lesbian Contra Dancers
First Church of Jamaica Plain, Jamaica Plain (617-522-2216). 7:30-11 pm. Square dancing and English country dancing lessons are available for lesbians, gays, bisexuals and their friends, $8.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-424-8990). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year.

Boston GLASS Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm, Fri, 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning young people, ages 13-25.

Boston Ironsides Rugby Football Club
Moakley Field, South Boston (617-524-5814). MBTA: Red Line to JFK. Mon. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Rugby players of any level, age, race and orientation are welcome to play.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. www.lesbianavengers. org. Thu., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain. www.lcfd.org/bu. Orange Line to Green St. Wednesdays, 7 pm A gay and lesbian square dancing group.

Cambridge/Boston Volleyball
(617-633-2180). www.gayvolleyball.net. This drop-in, play-when-you-can league costs $6 per session.

Chiltern Mountain Club
(888-831-3100). www.chiltern.org. A 1,400-member gay club with outdoor activities.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. First Wednesday and third Thursday of every month. 7-8:45 pm. An informal support group for bisexual individuals.

Coming Out Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. A short-term group for men and women to discuss issues related to coming out.

Cosmetically Correct
Casa, 439 Tremont St., Boston. This social group for lipstick lesbians meets on the first Friday of each month, 6:30-10 pm. Lipstick encouraged.

Dagger
Cambridge Multicultural Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-542-4214). The Theater Offensive's guerrilla theater group, Dagger, gathers on Wednesdays from 6:30-9:30 pm to create performances representing women's perspectives.

The Down Low
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. First Friday of the month. 7-9 pm. A discussion group for gay and bisexual men of color to address heritage, lifestyle, culture and health.

East Coast Wrestling Club
(401-467-6737 or 617-937-5858, ext. 6). www.pridesportsboston.com. This club for gay male wrestlers has more than 160 members.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Explore Gender in a Safe Place
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. An ongoing support group for people born into female bodies or who have grown up being viewed as biologically female.

FLAG Flag Football
www.flagflagfootball.com. Saturday mornings. Join Boston's GLBT Flag Football League for a casual spring season, followed by a formal fall season. All are welcome, regardless of skill level.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). Tue., Wed., Sat. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay and Lesbian Helpline
(617-267-9001) or (888-340-4528). Mon.-Fri., 6-11 pm; Sat. and Sun., 5-10 pm. This toll-free hotline is confidential and provides support for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning callers.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham. (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. First and third Tuesdays, 8-10 pm. $2. This group is for gay/bisexual fathers and men in child-nurturing roles, and their partners.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games, singles mixers and a date-matching system.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgendered Professionals Building Community
(617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business-networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals.

Gaymes Group
(508-339-4250). Gaymes is a social group for gay men and lesbians. Members get together on a regular basis to play board, card and parlor games.

Gender Questioning Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Biological males meet on Monday evenings. The groups are moderated by psychologist Randi Kaufman.

Girlz 2 Girlz
(617-482-1078). This mentoring program for girls aged 13-19 who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered or questioning meets the second and fourth Friday of each month, 6-8 pm. Contact Jayms Battaglia.

GLBT Seniors
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6272). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mondays. Support group for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered seniors ages 60 and over.

Greater Boston Business Council
PO Box 1059, Boston (617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals. The group meets on a monthly basis.

HIV Counseling and Testing
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Anonymous HIV testing and pre- and post-test counseling.

Liquid Assets Swimming
(617-937-5858, #8). Tue. and Thu. evenings and Sun. mornings. This gay and lesbian swim team is open to people of all ages and swimming abilities.

Meow Boston
groups.yahoo.com/group/Meow_Boston. This social group caters to feminine bisexual women and lesbians in the Boston community.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Peer Listening Line
(800-399-7337). Trained GLBT volunteers provide information, referral and support confidentially.

Project 10 East
402A Highland Ave., Somerville (617-864-4528). GLBT youth and their straight allies meet regularly to organize projects, which include making communities safe.

Support Group for HIV-Negative Gay and Bisexual Men
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-967-6231). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. First three Tuesdays of each month. Discuss new safe-sex practices, strategies for managing risk and communicating with sexual partners.

Swingtime Boston
Brookline Academy of Dance, 185 Corey Rd., Brookline (617-364-7207). MBTA: C or B Green Line to Washington Street. First Saturday of each month. 8-9 pm, lesson; 9-11:30 pm, dancing. $8. Swing, Latin and ballroom dancing classes are offered for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered community.

Wonder Women Boston
533 Washington St., Boston. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/wonder_women_boston. Wonder Women Boston (WWB), a social group for lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s, meets the first Thursday of every month at Felt.

body/mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Discovering Environmental Wisdom: A Sacred View
Boston Shambhala Center, 646 Brookline Ave., Brookline. www.primordialdot.org. Sept. 26, 7-10 pm. $15 suggested donation. Join Diana Mukpo for a talk on mindfulness.

Yoga Open House
Serenity Yoga and Wellness Center, 18 North Rd., Bedford (781-275-4092). www.serenityyoga.com. Sept. 28, 1-5pm. Free. Meet yoga teachers and wellness practitioners to discuss therapeutic massage, acupuncture and chiropractic services. Visitors receive a free chair massage and may participate in a yoga mini-class.

Lectures

Beyond the Birds and the Bees
Grand Opening Sexuality Boutique, 318 Harvard St., Suite 32, Arcade Bldg., Brookline (617-731-2626). www.grandopening.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 1, 7:30-9:30 pm. $25. Join Dr. Camilla Parham to learn about ovulation, hormones, menstruation, birth control, STD prevention and more.

Jung and the I Ching
The C.G Jung Institute, 116 St. Botolph St., Boston. (617-267-5984). www.cgjungboston.com. Begins Sept. 30 and runs for eight Tuesdays, 7-9 pm. $180. Explore the ancient Chinese divination tool of the I Ching, a book Jung used to discover his unconscious intentions and that provided the philosophical foundation for his principle of synchronicity.

Seeds of Deception Book Signing and Talk
Harvest Co-op Market, 581 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1580). www.harvestcoop.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 7, 6 pm. Jeffrey M. Smith, author of Seeds of Deception, speaks about the health dangers of genetically modified foods.

The Sweetest Addiction: Overcoming Sugar Dependency
The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave. Arlington (781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org. Oct. 4, 2-5. $35. Learn what can trigger sugar cravings and how you can overcome sugar addiction with a change of diet. Plus sample some snacks that can serve as healthy stand-ins for sugar.

Why Your Brain May Be Making You Fat
Boston Learning Society, 1089 Great Plain Ave., Needham (781-453-9800). www.bostonlearningsociety.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Needham Center. Sept. 30, 7-9 pm. $35. Learn how emotional needs, prescription medications and eating the wrong foods can cause excessive hunger. Participants are encouraged to develop a food plan to help avoid their personal pitfalls.

Diana Mukpo leads a talk on environmental wisdom at the Boston Shambhala Center Sept. 26

Workshops

Buddhist Eightfold Path and Koan Meditation
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101 or 617-498-5079). www.tsboston.org. Sept. 26, 7:30 pm. $5 suggested donation. Michael Hughes, a Buddhist monk from Japan, teaches the concept of Koan meditation and the Buddhist Eightfold path as a method of self-reflection.

Everyday Qigong
Brookline Tai Chi, 1615 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-2975). www.brooklinetaichi.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Square. Sept. 28, 12:45-4 pm. $40. This class features qigong exercises that can be incorporated into everyday activities like driving, standing or sitting.

Healing and Preventing Carpal Tunnel Syndrome and Other Repetitive Stress Injuries
Lexington Continuing Education, Minuteman Regional High School (781-648-9334 or 781-861-7150). Sept. 23, 7-9 pm. Learn how to avoid and treat carpal tunnel syndrome with exercises, supplements and workstation setup strategy, as well as how to find practitioners who treat the condition.

Let's Talk About Sex, Baby
Grand Opening Sexuality Boutique, 318 Harvard St., Suite 32, Arcade Bldg., Brookline (617-731-2626). www.grandopening.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Sept. 28, 6:30-9 pm. $25. Lynn Rosenbaum, certified sexuality educator and author of Our Bodies, Ourselves for the New Century, speaks about how to communicate clearly about sex while staying connected to your partner.

PreCautions Group
BCCA, 14 Green St., Brookline (617-738-2800). www.busseystyle.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 5, 2-3 pm. Free. This safety group meets every month to share stories, discuss issues, learn techniques and foster community. Snacks provided.

Yoga Basics for Beginners
Wellspace, 1 New St., Fresh Pond Mall, Cambridge (617-876-2660). www.wellspace.com or www.kimchilds.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Oct. 5, 12-2 pm. $30. This workshop introduces the fundamentals of yoga practice: breathing, centering, aligning, and tuning in to the body's wisdom. Learn classic Kripalu yoga warm-ups, postures and relaxation techniques, as well as the benefits of yoga practice. All levels welcome.

Retreat

Saturday Yoga Retreat
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Commonwealth Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 4, 10 am-3:30 pm. $68. Yoga practitioners can practice and learn more about yoga at this retreat. Open to all levels.

Ongoing

Breathwork
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Sun., 6:30-8 pm. $10 donation. Join David Vendetti, experienced breathwork facilitator and yoga teacher, for this relaxing class.

Silent Meditation
Living Yoga Center, 613 Mount Auburn St., Watertown (617-924-6085). www.livingyogactr.org. Sun., 7:15-7:45 pm. Doors open at 7 pm. Free. Silent meditation can enhance your peace of mind to let your intuitive voice be heard.

Yoga for Beginners/Allston
Beacon Light Yoga, 215 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-562-0717). www.beaconlightyoga.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave. or bus #57, 64, 66 and 501. Wed., 6:30-8 pm. $15-$20. Try the beginner's class in this peaceful environment. Call ahead if you're dropping in for the first time.

Yoga/Harvard Square
Portia Brockway in Cambridge (617-864-YOGA). www.yogainharvardsquare.com. MBTA Red Line to Harvard. Mon. 6-7:15 pm. $16. Drop-in. Beginners are welcome. To wind down after work, try a moderate, flowing yoga workout.

sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Sports. Or e-mail information to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, dates and times, and a brief description of the league or event. Deadline is four weeks before publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

The Red Bull Bike Battle rides (and jumps) into City Hall Plaza Sept. 27

Home Games

Boston Red Sox
•Fenway Park. Tickets: 877-733-7699
Sept. 24, 7:05 pm vs. Baltimore Orioles
Sept. 25, 7:05 pm vs. Baltimore Orioles

New England Patriots
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 800-543-1776
Sept. 21, 1 pm vs. New York Jets

New England Revolution
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 877-438-7387
Oct. 5, 1 pm vs. Tennessee Titans

New England Storm Women's Professional Football
•Hormel Stadium, Medford.
Tickets: 781-395-8326
Sept. 27, 7 pm vs. Orlando Fire

Events

Boston Athletic Club Open House
This open house includes food samples from the BAC's restaurant and fitness classes held on the basketball court with music by DJ C-Zone. Boston Athletic Club, 653 Summer St., Boston (617-269-4300). www.bostonathleticclub.com. Sept. 27, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

Golf and Gamble Trip
The Kowloon restaurant and Foxwoods pair up to offer a twist on the benefit golf tournament formula. Instead of playing 18 holes of golf, participants play nine holes and then trade the links for the casino tables for four hours. Proceeds benefit the Joey Fund and the Massachusetts Restaurant Association. Buffet lunch and transportation included. Buses leave from the Kowloon Restaurant, Route 1 North, Saugus (781-233-0077). Sept. 24, 7:15 am. $125.

Red Bull Bike Battle
Top mountain bikers from around the country converge on City Hall Plaza to ride the railings and steps and perform other tricks in this urban-riding competition. City Hall Plaza, Boston. www.redbullbikebattle.com. Sept. 27. 12-4 pm. Free.

To Play

BASEBALL
Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL
BSSC Basketball
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Coed year-round basketball. All levels. Leagues exist in Watertown, Brookline and Dedham. Teams and individuals welcome.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333) www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING
Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. The club offers amateur Olympic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

FENCING
Boston Fencing Club
110-112 Clematis Ave., Waltham. Adult classes evenings and Saturdays (781-891-0119). www.bostonfencingclub.org. Learn the basics of fencing.

FLOOR HOCKEY
BSSC Coed Floor Hockey
Leagues are held in Newton and Brighton (617-789-4070, ext. 238). www.bssc.com. All levels, individuals and teams are welcome.

FOOTBALL
BSSC Coed Indoor Flag or Touch Football
Games are played in Brighton. (617-789-4070, ext. 242). Sign up individually or with a group of friends.

KICKBALL
BSSC Kickball
Games are played Tuesdays in Brighton. (617-789-4070). Relive your grade-school glory by playing kickball. Teams and individuals welcome.

RUGBY
Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.bostonirishwolfhounds.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New and experienced players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players for its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mysticrugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club welcomes both new and experienced players who want to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Saturdays. New and experienced players are welcome to tape up their ears and jump in the scrum.

RUNNING
Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, then consider joining these self-proclaimed "serious drinkers with a running problem."

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Friday nights, 6 pm.

Khoury's Thursday Four-Mile Fun Run
Khoury's Pub, 118 Broadway, East Somerville (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Thursday nights, 7 pm.

SAILING
Community Boating
21 David Mugar Way, Boston (617-523-1038). www.community-boating.org. Mon.-Fri., 1 pm-sunset; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-sunset. Membership price varies. Beginners and experienced sailors alike are welcome to come to the Esplanade and sail boats from 15-2 feet long, as well as go windsurfing and kayaking.

SOCCER
BSSC Indoor and Outdoor Soccer
(617-789-4070). Teams forming now. Games played in Charlestown, Cambridge, Brighton, Reading and Canton. Individuals and teams are welcome.

VOLLEYBALL
BSSC Volleyball League
Boston Ski & Sports Club (617-789-4070, ext. 222). Sun.-Thu. Coed teams forming in Cambridge, Watertown, Brookline and Newton. Teams and individuals are welcome to set and spike their way to glory.

WRESTLING
Boston Union Wrestling Club
(617-868-8379). bostonwrestling@yahoo.com. Amateur folk-style wrestling group open to all skill levels. Weekly practices held year-round.

A fall fashion show in Boston so big, even New York will be there.

COME SEE THE LATEST NEW YORK FASHIONS AS PAUL PIERCE PRESENTS RUNWAY 34, A GQ AND TOMMY HILFIGER PRODUCTION. RUNWAY 34 WILL SHOWCASE TOMMY HILFIGER'S LATEST RUNWAY COLLECTION TO BENEFIT THE TRUTH FUND AND MARK WAHLBERG'S YOUTH FOUNDATION. JOIN US FOR AN UNFORGETTABLE EVENING OF FASHION AND MUSIC WITH DJ CASSIDY ON THE TURNTABLES.

SEPTEMBER 30TH AT AVALON

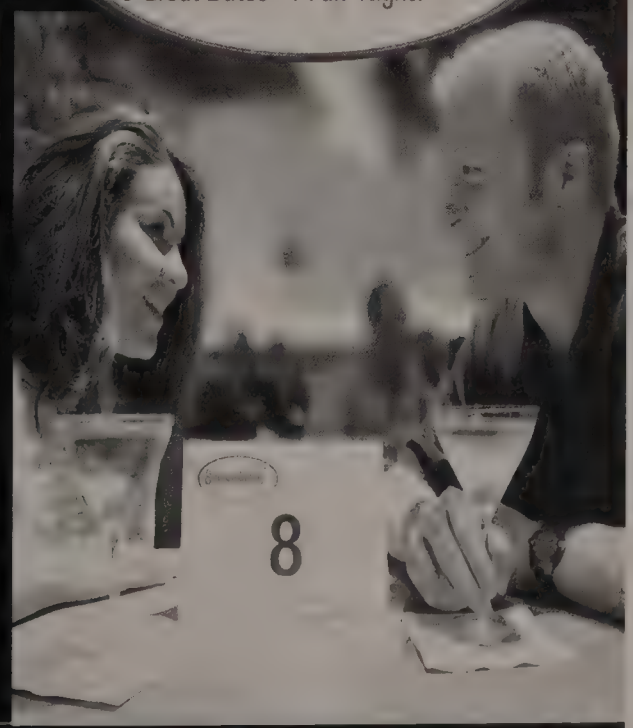
LIMITED TICKETS AVAILABLE THROUGH NEXT TICKETING AT 617-423-NEXT OR WWW.NEXTTICKETING.COM/RUNWAY34.HTML

TOMMY HILFIGER · The Truth Fund · GQ · The Improper Bostonian · Avalon · Nine Zero Hotel · Mario Russo · Comcast · Dsushi

Try the Fast, Fun & Guaranteed Way to Meet Someone!

8minuteDating.com

8 Great Dates - 1 Fun Night!



t 8minuteDating you'll have:

A room full of eligible, attractive singles who want to meet you!

8 Great Dates in 1 Fun Night!

Complimentary appetizers!

Door prizes!

And maybe... the love of your life!

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 The Improper Bostonian

Sign up now! Advance registration required www.8minuteDating.com

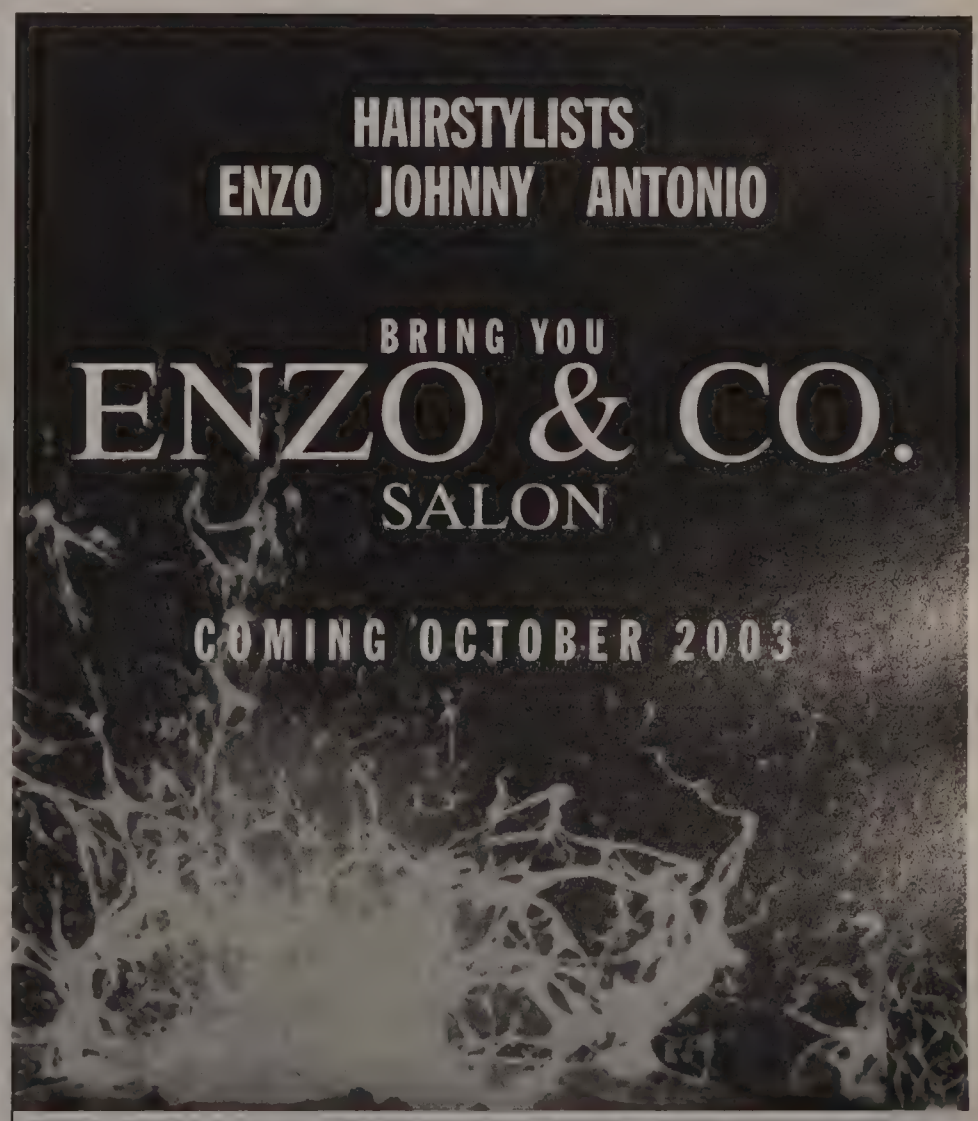
HAIRSTYLISTS
ENZO JOHNNY ANTONIO

BRING YOU

ENZO & CO.

SALON

COMING OCTOBER 2003



135 Newbury St., Boston

children

Join the Family Scavenger Hunt around the Museum of Transportation in Brookline's Larz Anderson Park

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Things to See

Fun with Folktales
Newton Free Library, 330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). http://www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Sept. 25, 4:15 pm. Ages 7 and older. Talk about folktales, make a craft and enjoy a snack.

The Knight Who Was Afraid of the Dark
Arlington Street Church, 351 Boylston St., Boston (617-842-7927). www.pocketfulloftales.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 4, 11 am. $8, $5 children. Fred is used to slaying dragons and catching spiders, but can he keep his biggest fear a secret?

Puppet Showplace Theatre
*32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400).*www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $8.50. Reservations recommended. •Sept. 24 and 25, 1 and 3 pm, ages 3-6: Raccoon Tales is performed by Paul Vincent Davis. •Sept. 27 and 28, 1 and 3 pm: Go on a Treasure Hunt with Jim, sea captain Mike, mermaid Jewel and the rest of the underwater gang during this tale performed by No Strings Marionettes. •Oct. 4 and 5, 1 and 3 pm: See Androcles and the Lion and The Golden Touch of Midas performed by puppeteer Paul Vincent Davis.

Things to Do

Borders Books and Music
Cambridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere or Red Line to Kendall, transfer to free shuttle. •Saturdays, 12 pm. Gather in the children's department to listen to staff members read from new and classic storybooks.

Boston by Little Feet
Faneuil Hall, 77 North Washington St., Boston (617-367-2345). www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Sun. 2 pm. $6. Walk the Freedom Trail and learn about the history and architecture of Boston's neighborhoods in a one-hour tour tailored for kids.

Boston Public Library Children's Tour
Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. •Sat. 11 am, through Nov. 29. Free. Ages 5 and older. Take a tour of the art and architecture of the Boston Public Library, and then enjoy an art activity in the Sargent Gallery. •Oct. 3, 10:15 am. Free. Ages 2-7 (accompanied by an adult). Kids' Cinema. Watch an animated film in the Rabb Lecture Hall.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. $8, $7 children. •Mon., Wed. and Fri., 11 am-12 pm. Come shake, wiggle and move around for music and movement. •Sat. and Sun., 11:30 am, 12:30, 2:30 and 3:30 pm; Mon.-Wed., 11:30 am and 12:30 pm; Thu., 11:30 am; Fri., 11:30 am, 12:30, 6:15 and 7:15 pm. Professional instructors introduce kids to performing arts by creating short plays on a real stage.

Fenway Park Tours
Fenway Park, Gate D, Lansdowne St., Boston (617-236-6666). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Through Sept. 30. Every hour from 9 am-4 pm, except on scheduled game days. $9. Tour the press box, field, dugout and more at Fenway Park.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. $5, $1 children. •Holography, the Light Fantastic. The MIT Museum displays the largest collection of holograms in the world and describes the artistic and scientific facets of the medium. •Robots and Beyond. Take a look behind the scenes of MIT's artificial intelligence research labs in this interactive exhibit.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3448). www.mfa.org/calendar. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. $15, children under 17 free. •Tue. and Wed., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Art Alive. Museum instructors read books, poems and stories to bring the paintings to life and encourage kids to talk about what they see.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm, Fridays 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 children. •Sat. and Sun., 11 am-12 pm. The museum's Science Theater Program offers Animals and Stories Alive!, featuring professional storytellers who combine folk tales and myths with visits from live animals. •Charles Hayden Planetarium: Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 3:30 and 7 pm; Sun., 1:30 and 4 pm. Free. Learn to identify the stars, planets, constellations and celestial events during the presentation The Sky Tonight. •Gilliland Observatory: Fri., 8:30-10 pm (weather permitting). Free. Use the observatory's two telescopes to find the moon, stars, constellations and planets. •Mugar Omni Theatre: Mon.-Sun., 12 pm, 4 pm, 7 pm and 9 pm. $8.50, $6.50 children. Travel from Brazil to Japan to North America and beyond, exploring the regions' percussion beats and cultures in Pulse: A STOMP Odyssey, directed by the creators of the STOMP stage production. •Theater of Electricity: Daily at 12 and 2 pm. The Van de Graaff generator provides a risk-free lightning show.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.org. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5. The Museum of Transportation has a large collection of rare and antique cars as well as exhibits on automobile history. •The Evolution of Speed exhibit explores the history of American auto racing with race cars and displays. •Racing of Our Youth lets kids explore the world of slot cars, Hot Wheels and soapbox racing with go-carts to climb in, tracks to build and races to compete in. •Daily: Join the Family Scavenger Hunt through the museum and receive a free prize. •Sept. 28, $5, $3 children: Volkswagen Van Day. Lawn Events offer participants a chance to look at vintage cars, sample food and participate in activities.

Story Hour at the Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 27, 11 am. Preschool age. Free. Listen to Sammy Spider's First Rosh Hashanah and make a spider during craft time.

Story Hour at the JFK Library
Smith Hall, John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Dorchester (617-929-1250). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Sat., 10:30 am. Ages 5 and older. Free. The JFK Library holds a weekly story hour for kids and their parents.

Story Time
FAO Schwarz, 440 Boylston St., Boston (617-262-5900). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 1 pm, 3 pm & 5 pm. Free. Ages 2-7. Kids can listen to stories read by Mother Goose, Raggedy Ann and other characters.

around town

Sights to See

Boston University Observatory
725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wednesdays (on clear nights), April-Sept., 8:30-9:30 pm; Oct.-March, 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept.-June, Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm, Fri., 10 am-9 pm; June-Aug., daily, 10 am-5 pm, Fri. until 9 pm. $5, $3.

Dreams of Freedom
One Milk St., Boston (617-338-6022). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 9:30 am-6 pm. $7.50.

Forest Hills Cemetery
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Daily, 7:30 am-sundown. Free. Tours: May-Oct., 2 pm on the last Sunday of the month, $5.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, students and seniors $5, children $4; free to all Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

John F. Kennedy Library & Museum
Columbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $8.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-2 pm. Free.

Mount Auburn Cemetery
580 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-8 pm.

Museum of Afro-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-739-1200). www.afroamericanmuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park Street. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm. $5, $3 students, seniors.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-Thu., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $10, $7 seniors and children.

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5, $3 children.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Sept. 2-June 30: Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-6 pm. July 1-Sept. 1, Mon.-Thu., 9 am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.50, $8.50 children.

Old Faneuil Hall
Boston (617-635-3105). MBTA: Blue Line to State; Green Line to Haymarket; Green Line to Government Center. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Tours start at 9 am. Free.

Old North Church
193 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. $3 donation requested.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm; weekends, 10 am-5 pm. $3.

Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-3290). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $3.

Prudential Center Skywalk
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-10 pm. $6, $4 seniors.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Open daily 8 am-6 pm. $3.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-242-5671). Museum open daily, 10 am-5 pm. Summer ship hours: Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AIDS Action Committee
(617-450-1235). Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers
(617-956-0281). www.bbmb.org. Be a big brother.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Info session Sept. 30, 6-7 pm. Befriend a girl.

Boston Cares
(617-263-2273). More than 70 volunteer opportunities are available.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012). HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen, office work, special events.

Call to Action Project
(781-395-8307). datalova@aol.com. Donate quilt blocks to be pieced into quilts and placed on auction to benefit the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation.

Cambridge Cares About AIDS
(617-661-3040, ext. 213). Volunteers are needed to educate the public about HIV.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support to children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). Help adults living with cancer.

Everybody Wins Power Lunch
livmates@rcn.com. Spend your lunch hour reading at an elementary school in Cambridge or Somerville.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900). Play with homeless children.

Hospice Home Volunteers
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.

House Rabbit Network
(781-431-1211). Provide foster care for homeless rabbits.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). Share your time with an elderly individual, mentor children or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). Teach an adult to read.

Mass. Association for the Blind
(800-852-3029). Read or shop with a blind person.

Mass. Substance Abuse Info Helpline
(617-536-0501, ext. 201). Talk over the phone with people affected by alcoholism and substance abuse.

MATCH-UP Interfaith Volunteers
(617-536-3557). Volunteers are needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

Parental Stress Line
(617-528-5800). Telephone counselors needed.

Pine Street Inn
(617-521-7626). Serve breakfast to homeless guests.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111). Record textbooks in digital formats.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). Work at a battered-women's agency.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). Volunteers needed for the dining room, clothing room and groceries program.

SafeLink
(617-521-0114). Volunteers needed for 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans of Boston
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship to lonely people over the phone.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young professionals.

StandUp for Kids
(800-365-4543). Help rescue homeless children.

VNA Care Network
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.

The USS Constitution & Museum in Charlestown

A Novel Idea

Literary Boston

Bostonians are extraordinarily passionate about books. They love to read them, collect them and many even write them! The Literary Issue of The Improper Bostonian will reach out to the heart of every bookworm. We will feature articles on bookish Bostonians, the changing face of book readings and interviews with well-known authors. The Improper will also announce the winner of our annual Literary Contest. More than 200 readers submitted original works of fiction to be judged by Boston author Perri Klass. The winning story will be published in the Literary Issue, and the writer will receive a slew of fun prizes!

Don't miss your chance to advertise in this bestseller!

The Improper Bostonian* reaches more than 392,900 readers every two weeks!

The Improper Bostonian*'s readers earn an average household income of $84,080.

96% purchased a product or service advertised as a result of reading The Improper Bostonian.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Call 617.859.1400 ext. 280 to book advertising space now.

Issue Date: October 8 Advertising Deadline: Sept 24

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Bill Blais (left) and Rob Peirce both sent in pictures from the same toilet in Alcatraz. Say, guys, you're not allowed to take photos in there. How'd you smuggle in your cameras?

Cyndi Schick brought 13 friends and several IMPROPERS to South Beach in Miami for her bachelorette party. This photo was taken by a thong-wearing man named Antonio.

Todd Stradford ate at a restaurant in Obi, Japan, that is a former samurai dwelling. The waiters are all ninjas and sneak up on you with your sushi.

Michaela M. Rudis stopped for this picture in Morocco. We suspect that "halfway between Casablanca and Marrakesh" will not be touted by Condé Nast Traveler as the next hot vacation spot anytime soon.

Kansas Governor Kathleen Sebelius reads the IMPROPER, which can be rolled up and used to fend off flying monkeys if necessary.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER: Reminding everyone that Frankenstein was the scientist and not the monster in Mary Shelley's novel, at the Frankenstein Festival, held in late October in Darmstadt, Germany.

Send color or b&w prints (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116.
Please include your name, address, phone number, e-mail and photo location. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned.

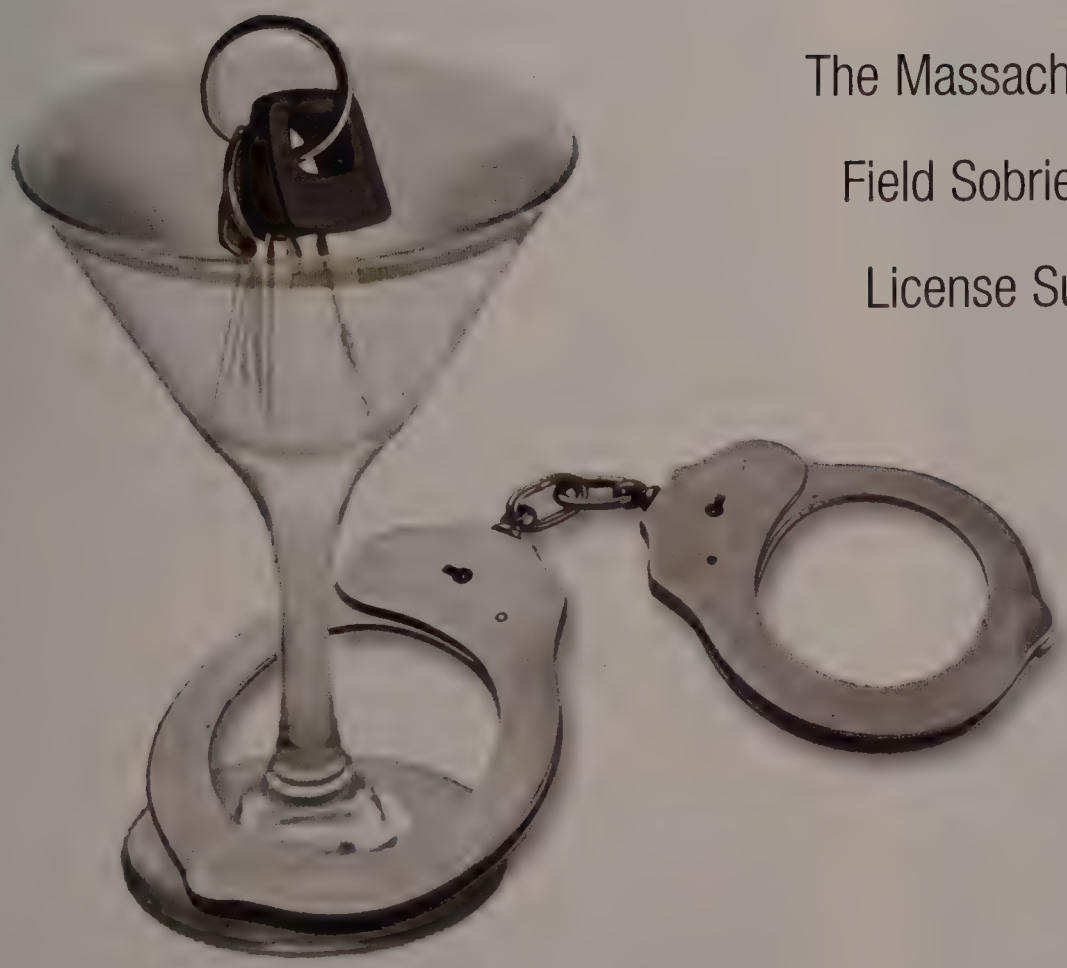
Drink Responsibly Drive Safely

...But know your rights before it's too late!

www.bostonDUIlawyer.com

JACK DIAMOND

Toll Free 24 hours 866-770-1100



For Information About

The Massachusetts Drunk Driving Law:

Field Sobriety Tests • Breath Tests

License Suspensions • Penalties

Boston · Quincy · Plymouth

The Air Clears October 1.

All restaurants and bars in Cambridge and Somerville will be smoke-free on October 1.

Now, the only thing circulating these establishments will be you.

Enjoy the Atmosphere.

Sponsored by Tobacco Free Mass, Cambridge Public Health Department and the Somerville Board of Health

Smoke-Free Cambridge/Somerville

Getting Fat?

Is a sports injury keeping you from working out?

Get your injury fixed and get back in shape.

Active Release Techniques© (ART) is a new and exciting method of treating sports and overuse injuries. With ART we are able to identify and reduce areas of scar tissue that often cause chronic pain and compromised performance.

Call or visit or web site to learn more.
www.run-better.com

run better
Revolutionizing Athletic Injury Treatment

15 Court Square, Suite 350
Boston, MA 02108
Phone: 617.367.3110

improperimpersonals

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

B.B.

Every time I see your smile you bring such joy into my heart. Just the chance to talk to you, to look into your eyes, to hear your thoughts and make you laugh or to bring a smile to your sweet face makes my day. I know your heart belongs to someone else: I hope someday your relationship will grow to bring you the happiness you deserve. I can never be the one for you—the age difference between us is too great. But I'll always be there for you when you need a friend to listen to you or a shoulder to cry on or arms to hold you. My fervent wish is that you grow to be stronger and have more faith in yourself, to love yourself and find happiness. If you could only see yourself the way I see you and know how special you are! You're a smart, sensitive, compassionate, funny and sexy man who has worked so hard and accomplished so much already. You are worthy of love and the one you love should know just how lucky she is to have you. Yes, I do adore you so; you are the light of my life. We don't see each other too often anymore; how I miss the time when I saw you every day! I look forward to each time I see you again and envy those lucky enough to see that impish smile or even that worried frown of yours every day.

—cambridgegrrl@yahoo.com

Why the Long Face?

To the blue-jeaned fake blond at Harvard Gardens on Sept. 6: You live in a Beacon Hill...no I'm sorry, a West End obnoxious high-rise. After lip-syncing to Radiohead, you told me I looked like Kiefer Sutherland (which is not so bad, I suppose; I've been called much worse). You are originally from Rhode Island (enter trailer park trash joke here). Your Wellesley friend was at least civilized...ambivalent, but civilized. My buddy and I were trying to think of what actress you looked like, but we couldn't come up with any with a long face and dumpy ass! Get over yourself! Heidi Klum wouldn't sport the 'tude that you do!

—Some Sutherland

Sweetest Jacqueline

Let this note find you well, wherever it is that you have gone. Know that you are forever in my thoughts and forever shall you pervade my dreams. For I am still in love with you and forever shall I be. All of my love, for you,

—Michael

Bow Wow

I was walking by the new waterfront park the other day with my labradoodle. You were playing catch with two blond girls and another guy with a red shirt. You were the shorter of the two men out there. I thought I saw you smile at me as I walked by. I was just wondering if you would like to play catch with me sometime? If you remember me, I had the hot pink sundress on. I thought I saw you again walking by the medical school near the Back Bay, but I could be mistaken. Whoever you are, you amaze me and make my insides feel like a butterfly factory. Let's not make the mistake the Pats made dropping Lawyer Milloy, and keep me on your team.

—Hotpinklabradoodle@hotmail.com

Great Short Conversation on the B Line Sept. 12

Hey, I struck up conversation with you on a Friday night as you were making your way to Park Street, while I was on my way to Kenmore. We talked a little about the Green Line construction and then went more to a personal level. All I know of you is that you are a 21-year-old Boston University student at the Sargent College of Health and Rehab. You are originally from Connecticut. I only got a first name from you, starting with letter "A." Mine starts with a "K." I am a 23-year-old UMass Amherst graduate still looking for a job. If you remember our conversation, which was cut short by the ride, then please e-mail me. I'd like to talk to you again sometime.

—funnytguy@yahoo.com

To the Red Socks RTB Team 2003:

Whoo-hoo. Lookin' good. Keep going! You're almost there! To my van one teammates (Chris, Jeremy, Siobhan, Marianne, Mike and Matt): You rock. To my van two teammates (Chris, Brett, Julie, Alethea, Chris, Courtney and Jason): You roll. Let's create blisters again next year.

—From your Leg 4, 16 and 28 teammate

Never Caught Your Name

I met you at Cheers. We scooted down a seat so you and your two friends could squeeze in at the bar. You bought us a round to thank us and we reciprocated. You: a manager at the swanky new hotel owned by the company of the guy I once dated. Me: the brunette you sat next to who was going to the comedy club later and who looks like your friend's patient. (Did his wife have her baby yet?) When I left, I thanked you again for the drinks and (jokingly) told you to say hi to someone. I gave you my name, but never got yours. Anyway, I thought you seemed pretty cool and I regretted not asking your name. How will I recommend your hotel to visitors if I don't have the manager's name to give them?

—thegirlatcheers@yahoo.com

Bumpin' at Dunkin

We bumped into each other at Dunkin Donuts behind Tufts. You're from Vermont. You asked about my T-shirt. You were stunning. I was at a loss for words. Drop me an e-mail. Let's see if we can't untie my tongue.

—uvmdunkindonut@yahoo.com

Has Anyone Seen "Big Rob"?

Missing: one large Italian/Irish-American gent, last seen in Polly Esther's in NYC. Believed to have recently relocated to the Boston area. Answers to "Bobby Shoulders." Drives an early-model Hyundai (from back when the name meant something) and is usually in the company of young co-eds. Likes beer and ice cream and appreciates the many uses of puppets. Approach with caution.

—Concerned

Tourist Trap

I have a few complaints about all the damn tourists in this city: They come into our neighborhoods and walk slow. They almost always make lines five times the length they should be. And how many times do people need to take pictures of an old church, anyway? All a guy did was yell from the top of it as a guy on a horse went nuts. How interesting can Quincy Market be? Aren't there food courts where you're from? The most ridiculous thing is tourists using the laundromat near my house. Who goes on vacation and does laundry? I was late to work this morning because a school bus full of anklebiters were excited about a graveyard! Save yourself the air/bus fare and learn about your own damn city.

—Aggravated Bostonian

Walk This Way

You walk to work every morning heading toward the Financial District and I always seem to walk behind you. Whether I'm running five minutes late or 10 minutes early, you seem to always leave at the same time. Who are you? I don't know where you end up because I always go my own way at the Common (despite writing an Impersonal, I'm not a stalker). You're a brunette with a red bag and you usually wear high heels. I'd like to actually talk to you sometime, so if you're interested in a nice guy who walks to work, e-mail me. You intrigue me.

—niceguywalking@yahoo.com

"I'm a Yoga Buff & often find myself in interesting Positions"

It's amazing what you can learn in 3 minutes!

25 THREE-MINUTE DATES IN ONE NIGHT!

Wednesday Nights 7:00

at Bars & Lounges Around Boston!

Get $5 off your first HurryDate when you enter the code "HURRY"

— Check Out —

www.HurryDate.com

For a full event schedule & to RSVP!

Never a bad hair day, the Bio·Ionic way.

Bumble and bumble. AVEDA Bio·Ionic™ Japanese Hair Straightening East Coast Center BOSTON'S best '03

LORD'S & LADY'S® INTERNATIONAL SALON

Locations throughout New England

450 Belgrade Avenue • One Lord's & Lady's Way • West Roxbury, MA 02132
617.323.4700 • fax 617.323.4059 • Locations throughout New England

www.LordsandLadys.com
www.Biolonic.com

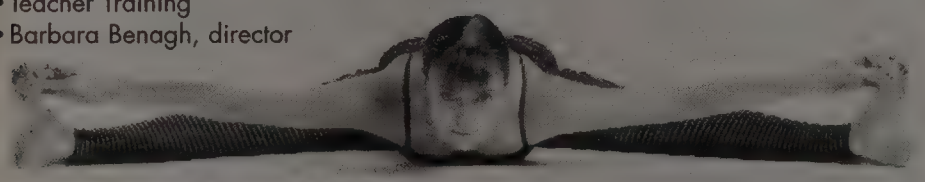
ANNa's
TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

Boston's Best Burrito
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—The Improper Bostonian

Best Burrito in Boston
1998, 1999, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—Boston Magazine

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.
1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

Learn YOGA!
• 20 years on Beacon Hill
• Hatha, Iyengar, Dynamic Vinyasa, Svaroopa & Viniyoga styles
• Most experienced teachers in Boston
• Free Meditation Classes
• Teacher Training
• Barbara Benagh, director



74 Joy Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02114 www.yogastudio.org
Call for more information 617.523.7138

Daniel Del Vecchio, MD
Plastic Surgery Cosmetic Skin Care

Botox Lip Enhancement
Breast Laser Peels
Liposuction Eyelid Lift
Facelift Spider Vein Rx

BOSTON
2 Newbury Street
617 262 8528

OSTERVILLE
23 West Bay Rd
508 420 8877

Harvard Trained ♦ Board Certified mdbeautycare.com

rockie horoscope

SEPTEMBER 24 – OCTOBER 7, 2003 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

LIBRA
SEPTEMBER 23-OCTOBER 22

Now is not the time to be shy or self-effacing. Although good manners will always matter, please feel free to elbow your way into the limelight. Since Libra brings out a more refined sense of enjoyment, an appreciation of civilizations and their cultures that the other signs crave, we instinctively turn to you guys for our seasonal fix. "In demand" hardly describes our need to be around you and the innate talents you possess. So, while your magnetic Venus ruler and musical Neptune are in sync, shall we dance?

SCORPIO
OCTOBER 23-NOVEMBER 21

If you felt disconnected while Mercury was retrograde in your house of friends, hopes and wishes, don't give it another thought. They'll soon be back in full force, hoping and wishing that now you'll give them what they want. However, you may have to wait until your Mars co-ruler changes direction on the 27th before you become sufficiently motivated. Actually, anything you've managed to accomplish since Mars went retrograde at the end of July should be considered a minor miracle. Congratulations.

SAGITTARIUS
NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

Dream on, because it's your imagination and connection to cosmic consciousness that'll bring in the bucks. Musicians, photographers and inventors build careers on this arcane bit of knowledge, but those of us who don't come by these talents naturally can promote and cash in on them now. However, you might encounter resistance from a partner, someone's attorney or even a regulatory agency. (Downloading files?) Meanwhile, once irritating Mars turns direct, a family matter or a problem with the house could resurface.

CAPRICORN
DECEMBER 22-JANUARY 20

First you're liable to feel a chill. Affectionate Venus may turn off her love light on the 25th when she squares your Saturn ruler in your Cancer marriage house. Then Goats get to bear the full brunt of the challenge when the Libra sun squares Saturn on the 6th. Even if you're not embroiled in a contest, you're apt to feel depressed or isolated simply because difficult aspects to restrictive Saturn stress the colder, harder facts of life. Once Mars turns around and the money starts flowing, you'll cheer up.

AQUARIUS
JANUARY 21-FEBRUARY 18

Most of the planets are focusing on close relationships and what you have in common (stocks, antiques, copyrights) with significant others. While the vibe is so harmonious, you can show more of your idiosyncratic self than usual. Originality and artistry are encouraged, but try not to step over the line; you know how quickly the worm turns. This is also a good time to make romantic overtures to a fresh object of desire. Your standby squeeze is probably more resistant, preoccupied or crankier than usual.

PISCES
FEBRUARY 19-MARCH 19

The high spots of this new-moon period come first on the 25th when you attract people with taste and refinement, not to mention appreciable good looks. The uber-romantic connection between affectionate Venus and your Neptune is sheer fantasy fulfillment. Enjoy. The other memorable date is the 27th as Mars in your sign turns direct and frees you from an irritating tie to the past. After that, you're in for a booster shot of energy and ambition, enough to keep you going through the office Christmas party season.

ARIES
MARCH 20-APRIL 19

Living on the edge? Not sure where you'll land? Maybe it's because your thrill-seeking Mars ruler is at a crossroads, returning you to the beginning of artistic, idealistic Pisces, yet close enough to Aquarius to feel the pull of the group ethic. If experience is still the best teacher, think back to mid-June and the way a similar situation was resolved. If you were somewhat successful then, do exactly what you did, but wait until the new moon on the 25th and retrograde Mars flips forward on the 27th before making your intentions known.

TAURUS
APRIL 20-MAY 20

The delicately romantic liaison between your sensual Venus ruler and melodic, mystical Neptune occurs smack in the middle of your autumnal equinox celebration on Tuesday. How can you not fall in love? But when Venus faces the stark reality Saturn brings to a situation, how can you continue to delude yourself? Bouncing between two poles—faith and fact—should keep you plenty busy, even if nothing crucial happens until the Libra new moon gets another cycle of desire, action and reaction under way.

GEMINI
MAY 21-JUNE 20

It must be magic. As soon as autumn officially arrives, the annoyances that have been bugging you lately and weighing down your ebullient spirit manage to disappear. Must be the fresh breeze blowing in with the Libra sun that is clearing the air of the tiresome and trivial. Even though your Mercury ruler finally is moving forward, helping you communicate more effectively, taking care of a tricky household or family matter, your social life needn't be compromised. Deal first, then date.

CANCER
JUNE 21-JULY 22

You could be under pressure to play Big Daddy or to act as if you're the leader of the pack. This way the folks around you won't be blamed if things become sticky or don't work out as planned. That's what happens when Saturn travels through your sun sign; you get to be the idiot responsible. The next two weeks can be particularly trying because both sociable Venus and the Libra sun are setting up tests for you to pass. If only you could laugh them off! But Saturn means serious business, so look for something positive to lift your spirits.

LEO
JULY 23-AUGUST 22

Each time their sun ruler crosses an equinox or solstice point, Lions embrace the seasonal change with gusto. Well, maybe the darkening of the light doesn't exactly thrill you, but this autumn promises mental stimulation and physical pleasures that the summer never delivered. The Libra new moon can also introduce an assortment of welcome attractions to your scene, beautiful goods and gracious services that'll enhance all sorts of social interaction. No kidding, romance is in the air. Dress accordingly.

VIRGO
AUGUST 23-SEPTEMBER 22

While the start of the fall season doesn't always mean there's money to be made, providing something that people currently value should fuel that vaunted Virgo sense of service. Not to mention your imagination. It may take a few more days, until your Mercury ruler picks up speed and ambitious Mars comes out of retrograde on the 27th, before the brainstorm hits. Be patient; because prosperous, protective Jupiter is in your sign, this is Virgo's year to grow wealthier and wiser. Healthier, as always, is up to you.

Curious about the future? Order a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months. Send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405, www.rockiehoroscope.com. Read my daily forecast online at www.laweekly.com.

Feast Upon Fall

The Improper Bostonian's Fall Dining Issue will take you on a culinary tour of autumn's finest cuisine.

First, we will cover extreme dining—the most outrageous food around town. Next, we will sample our way through local cheese farms…yes, cheese farms. We will also look at some area cooking classes that are being taught by Boston's greatest chefs!

This is an issue you will devour.

The Improper Bostonian reaches more than 392,900 readers every two weeks.

92% of our readers dine out on a regular basis.

Our readers consume an average of 16 meals per month in restaurants.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Issue Date: October 22

Advertising Deadline: October 8

To Advertise Please Call 617-859-1400 ext.280

STUDIO OPTICS

eyewear • eyecare

EYE EXAMS AVAILABLE

229 Berkeley St., Boston • 617.247.0012

659 Worcester Rd., Framingham • 508.872.2722

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Tuesday, September 9, the Chivas Regal VIP Lounge Party was held at the Fairmont Copley Oak Room. Guests enjoyed Chivas Regal cocktails and Jacob's Creek wines.

1. Michelle Princi, manager of the Improv Asylum, and Phil Hillman, sales specialist for United Liquors Ltd.
2. Paul Canavan, general sales manager for United Liquors Ltd., and Dani Campbell, model from Winthrop.
3. Patrick Cross, proprietor of the Thirsty Scholar, and the Overdraught with his wife, Karen Cross; Gerry Brennan, partner of Patrick Cross, and owner of the Brendan Behan with wife Marrion; and Tony Kim, financial services advisor.

On Thursday, September 4, The Improper Bostonian was a sponsor for the 16th annual Boston Music Awards at The Wang Center.

1. Dicky Barrett of The Mighty Mighty Bosstones, the emcee of the Boston Music Awards, with one of the evening's performers, singer Bleu.
2. Walter McCarty, forward for the Boston Celtics, and Keith Gainsboro, consultant for Regan Communications
3. Winner of Debut Album of the Year and Outstanding Male Vocalist of the Year, Howie Day.

On Friday, September 12, Alex & Co. celebrated the grand opening of a new location on Needham Street in Newton.

1. Alex and Sophia Zamsky, the owners of Alex & Co.
2. Priscilla Stumm, sales associate for Alex & Co., and Audrey Snyder of Newton.
3. Vikky Kahn, and Barbara Cohen, both sales associates for Alex & Co.

On Wednesday, September 10, Denis Leary made a special guest appearance with Bob Lobel on NESN's SportsPlus live at The Place.

1. Billy Fairweather, co-owner of The Place; Denis Leary of the Denis Leary Firefighters Foundation; Bob Lobel, host of SportsPlus; Errol Apostolopolous, co-owner of The Place; Michael Kalil, marketing an event manager for The Place.
2. Chris Coakley of the Department of Housing and Community Development, with Doug O'Neill, lawyer, and Jim Lynch, human resources for Fidelity Investments.

PHOTOS: THE OAK ROOM, ALISON MORANT; THE BOSTON MUSIC AWARDS AND ALEX & CO., JULIE KANE; THE PLACE, KAREN DAN

BostonCourier.Com
24 Hour Customer Service/Dispatch: 617-457-7800

upcoming issues

October 8, 2003
Literary Boston

October 22, 2003
Dining Issue

November 5, 2003
Winter Fashion

November 19, 2003
Holiday Shopping Guide

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
Call 617-859-1400 ext. 280 to advertise

PRINT

Quality offset printing. It's your competitive edge.

alphagraphics
DESIGN, COPY, PRINT, MIRACLES.

74 Canal Street • Boston, MA 02114
tel: (617) 742-9585 • fax: (617) 742-9584
www.boston541.alphagraphics.com

Free 500 Letterhead
with order of 500 or more
call for details

Restaurants, Bars, Clubs & Brunch

RESTAURANTS

75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston, 617-227-2175, www.75chestnut.com. Providing regional American cuisine served in an intimate setting. Bar opens at 5pm. Dinner served from 5:30pm - 10pm.

Backstage 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. Faneuil Hall's hottest restaurant and nightclub offers the very best in Americana food. Located adjacent to the Comedy Connection you can dance the night away every Wednesday through Sunday with Top 40 and dance classics by DJ's Jonny and Freddi C. For more information call 617-726-1110.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Blue Cat Cafe 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston,617-247-9922. A hip restaurant with a jazz-infused atmosphere, the Blue Cat Cafe's signature it it's cool jazz tunes and American classics menu. Select from items such as the Grilled Portabella-Paninni or Pan-Seared Tuna with Wasabi Aioli. The Blue Cat Cafe also makes it's mark with unique martini selections such as the now-famous Blue Cat Cosmopolitan and City Search's Best of Boston Espresso Martini. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC, V.

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston, 617-262-9874. South End bistro offering Contemporary American cuisine in a comfortable European-style setting. Menu features grilled gourmet pizzas, handmade pasta and unique entrees.

The Elephant and Castle 161 Devonshire St., Financial District, Boston, 617-350-9977. English style Pub offering over 100 types of beer, great food and the financial district's most comfortable bar. Specialties include beer battered fish and chips and shepherd's pie. We also offer a great selection of single malt scotches and a variety of cigars. We have two levels of operation with our lower level providing private rooms for both business meetings and after work parties.

Henrietta's Table Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. Chef Davis, whose motto is "fresh and honest", creates a lively menu that features the freshest market produce daily. Food at Henrietta's Table is fresh, pure and wholesome. Full bar, casual dress. Outdoor dining in season. Reservations strongly recommended. Breakfast, Mon-Fri 6:30am-11:00am, Saturday 7:00am-11:00am, Sunday 7:00am-10:30am; Brunch, Sat-Sun noon-3:00pm; Lunch, Mon-Fri noon-3:00pm; Supper, Daily 5:30pm-10;00pm. For reservations and information, please call 617.661.5005.

Iguana Cantina 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

Legal Sea Foods Park Square at the MotorMart - 617-426-4444, Copley Place 617-266-7775, Long Wharf (outdoor dining) 617-742-5300, Prudential Center 617-266-6800. Indulge in Boston's freshest raw bar, our inaugural clam chowder, a succulent lobster or any of your favorite dishes in a relaxed yet sophisticated atmosphere. Legal also offers an award-winning wine list at the best value in town. Stop by for a taste of Boston's Best - our chefs have a table waiting for you.

Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., South Boston, 617-357-5825. www.luckyslounge.com. Located in the trendy artist district of Fort Point Channel, Lucky's is a den of cocktail cool with swanky spirits, traditional fare, and live music featuring the soothing sounds of Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Bobby Darrin and more. Open seven days a week, Lucky's also hosts Sinatra Sundays, a weekly tribute to "Old Blue Eyes" by the Al Vega Trio.

McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurant Boston Park Plaza Hotel ,34 Columbus Ave, Boston 617 482-3999; Faneuil Hall Marketplace, North Market Bldg. 617-720-5522. Recognized nationwide for its fresh seafood and lively atmosphere, McCormick & Schmick's offers over 40 varieties of fresh seafood, and a unique menu that changes daily. The bar is also a popular destination where all cocktails are made fresh and hand-shaken. $1.95 Bar menu served Monday through Friday 3:30-6:30 p.m. and late night every night from 10 p.m - midnight.

M.J. O'Connor's 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Ned Devine's Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of Improper's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. Whether you choose to dine in our streetside greenhouse, at the bar, in the dining room enjoying live entertainment, or snack at your pool table, expect nothing less than a first class meal from The Rack. We serve lunch and dinner from 11:30 am - 1 am. From fresh, homemade pastas and blackened center-cut tuna steaks to grilled pizzas, tasty burgers and Faneuil Hall's most original sandwiches.

Ristorante Fiore 250 Hanover St., Boston, 617-371-1176. One of the true gems of Boston's Historic North End is the fine casual dining of Ristorante Fiore...this authentic Italian experience features central-southern cuisine served in three distinctive dining rooms as well as the charming sidewalk cafe. The rooftop at Fiore's is the hottest spot in the North End...it's also the North End's only rooftop dining. A great place for dinner and cocktails any night of the week. Valet parking available.

Science Street Café Science Park, Boston, 617-723-2500, www.mos.org. Looking for something different to do this Friday night? Check out Boston's newest nightspot - The Science Street Café at the Museum of Science. Try our out-of-this world signature martinis, gourmet appetizers and decadent desserts - all while listening to live music. Perfect before or after an Omni film. Open 6-10pm. Parking available

Solas 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 380 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

Temple Bar 1688 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 02135 617-547-5055. Open Mon.-Sun. 5pm-1am, Brunch Sat. and Sun. 11am-5pm. Located just outside of Harvard Square, Temple Bar has been both a destination and a local for the educators, professionals and students of Cambridge and its surrounding towns. It's colorful European/American menu, home style Ala-Carte weekend brunch and funky interior, complete with a solid copper bar stretching the length of the restaurant, have won many awards and accolades from many local publications.

Trio Restaurant and Lounge 174 Lincoln Street, Boston, 617.357.TRIO. A unique dining experience located in Boston's Leather District. Executive Chef David Perrier, formerly of The Federalist and Grill 23, presents a new approach to creative American cuisine. Tuesday - Friday, please join us after work for cocktails 5:30 p.m. - 2:00 a.m. and dinner 6:00pm. Saturday evenings cocktail & dinner 6:00 p.m. Call for reservations. Also fully equipped for corporate functions and events. View menu and wine list at www.Trioboston.com. Excellent 2002/03 Zagat review.

BARS/CLUBS

Beer Specialty

Boston Beer Works 112 Canal St., near the Fleet Center, 617-896-BEER, 61 Brookline Ave., across from Fenway Park, 617-536-BEER and 278 Derby St., in Historic Salem, 978-745-BEER. Boston's oldest and largest restaurant brewery with 3 locations! Bold American Food. Award Winning Beer. 15 microbrewed beers always on tap. 16 American wines by the glass. 15 championship billiards tables at our Canal Street location. Complete party planning capabilities. Private Rooms. Customizeable menus. Lunch. Dinner. Late Night. Always a good time. Check out the BIGGER and BOLDER menu.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 30 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 380 microbrews and exoic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1 am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

Felt 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. Felt is located in the shadow of the new Ritz Carlton, in the heart of the buzzed about Ladder District. A tri-level venue offering sophisticated billiards, New York style lounge, a hip bar scene and fine dining. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth; while listening to a DJ accompanied by live jazz rifts. The perfect setting for a romantic dinner for two or for a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere combined with the delicious creative entrees is the perfect blend to satisfy all your cravings. American Eclectic cuisine by Chef Casey Lloyd.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers 22 gorgeous Brunswick Gold Crown tables. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Clubs

Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston, 617-482-7799. Located in Boston's trendy Theater District, Pravda 116 is a chic restaurant, bar and club. The menu focuses on contemporary American cuisine with specialties like roasted pork medallions. DJs in the bar and dance club keep the energy level high. Restaurant open Tuesday-Saturday, 5:30-10pm, bar, 5pm-2am and dance club Wednesday-Saturday 10pm-2am. AE, CB, DC, MC, V.

Roxy 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Comedy

The Comedy Connection 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. The Comedy Connection located in the heart of historical Faneuil Hall features the biggest names in comedy with apearances by Jon Stewart, Chris Rock, Wendy Liebman and Jay Mohr. Located on the second floor of the Quincy Market Building, the Connection offers the best in local and national stand-up seven nights a week.

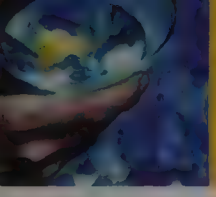
Dance

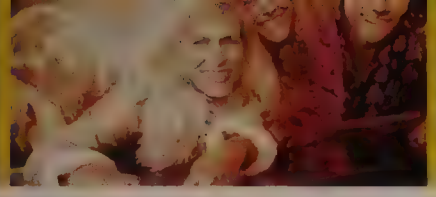
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston 451-9460 Boston's only Irish/Mexican cantina is a great escape in the financial district! Two floors, three bars, open-air dining, pool tables upstairs and live bands downstairs

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www.theplaceboston.com. Drink. Dance. Mingle. Let your hair down; see and be seen on the big screen. Simply the hippest way to spend a night of all-out fun in Boston's Financial District. Come after work. Come to dance. Come to go wild with your friends. There's always something exciting happening – and you never know who you'll bump into. Join us and experience what the buzz is all about.

The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston, 617-227-2060. Known for its great food, live entertainment and relaxing atmosphere! Menu includes American and Irish specialties. Live cover bands nightly.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 200





Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Irish

The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston, 617-742-2286. Boston's legendary Irish Pub celebrates its 25th year! Considered one of the best Irish pubs in America, the menu features American and Irish specialties. Live Irish music nightly.

Hennessy's of Boston 25 Union St., Boston, 617-742-2121. Boston's most authentic Irish pub next to Faneuil Hall serves a great menu with daily specials and Irish traditions. A huge bar with an extensive beer and wine list, Hennessy's has Boston's best appetizer menu. Enjoy live entertainment five nights a week with pop bands direct from Ireland. Hennessy's of Boston, "Purveyor's of Fine Food and Spirits," are part of the Somers' Pubs Fleet.

The Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston, 617-523-1112. Hailed as the "crown jewel in the Irish pub empire of John Somers," this premiere Irish Bar features over fifty micro brews, an extensive wine list, a full international menu, and Boston's best appetizer menu. The Grand Canal hosts "Boston's Best Bands," and features Boston's only 12 foot video screen playing Bruins, Celtics, Patriots and Red Sox games. Enjoy a true "Irish Pub Experience."

Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11 am - 1 am 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

The Green Dragon 11Marshall St., Boston, 617-367-0055. Hailed "Headquarters of the Revolution," this favorite after work meeting place is famous for it's "giant cocktail drink special menu." A comfortable place serving lunch and dinner and highly acclaimed Irish breakfast every Sat. & Sun. from 11 am to 3pm. The tavern boasts over 15 beers on tap, 20 different bottled "brewskies" and imported Irish brews. Live music and entertainment every Thursday through Sunday night.

Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Mr. Dooley's Boston Tavern 77 Broad St., Boston, 617-338-5656. Hailed by the Globe as "the gem of the Financial District," Mr. Dooley's is a favorite meeting place for young professionals. The authentic Irish pub with over 13 imported beers on tap has been voted "Boston's Best Burgers" and "Best Cheap Eats." Open daily until 2am, featuring live bands every Fri. through Sun. night. "A great place for a pint and a chat."

General

The Alley Boylston Place, Boston, 617-351-7000. www.alleyboston.com. The Alley brings the best of Bourbon Street to Boston with the hottest live bands and DJs, specialty drinks, billiards, two patios and a wrap around balcony for plenty of people watching. The Big Easy, Sweetwater Café, Bishop's Pub and the Sugar Shack have something for every mood, so grab your beads and head to The Alley where it's Mardi Gras every night!

Aqua 120 Water St., Boston, 617-720-4900. Boston's newest place to be seen is now open in the heart of the Financial District. Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita on our roof deck or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV. Aqua has what you're looking for after work and late night with our resident and guest DJs spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-227-0150, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Offering pub fare until 11:45pm. Live entertainment every Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Cheers Beacon Hill 84 Beacon St., Boston, 617-227-9605, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Full menu available until 11:45pm. Watch your favorite team on DirecTV.

Downtown Lounge 138 Portland St., Boston 617-523-8383. Tempting tapas, modern martinis and contemporary cocktails are just a few of the elements awaiting your arrival. A distinctive destination in the heart of North Station, located just one block from the Fleet Center. Share crab taquitos, shaved portobello mushrooms or grilled white pizza. Revive with a specialty martini while sinking into soft curvy seating. Spacious and sublime, Dowtown Lounge is an attractive meeting place for business, luncheons, social, after work cocktails and events.

Encore Lounge 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699 A new twist on Boston's Cabaret Tradition! Live Music 7 nights a week 9:30pm-1 am (til 2 am on Saturdays). Always open mike! Party where the Stars go after the Show! Tuesday: Bobby Femino (Piano Bar), Wednesday: Brian Nash & Stacey Baker (Standards/Pop), Thursday: Mary Callahan (Contemporary Cabaret), Friday: Jan Peters (Contemporary Cabaret), Saturday: Clara Lofaro (Standards/Pop), Sunday: Dorothy Miller & Michael Larson (Contemporary Cabaret).

The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston 617-722-0161. The newest edition to Boston's night scene. This New Orleans style bar is just steps away from the Fleet Center. Hurricane O'Reilly's serves up the best that Boston nightlife has to offer. Come dance the night away with the hottest music around. We will leave you yearning for Bourbon Street.

Jillian's Boston 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring more than 200 high tech games, six full bars, 50 pool tables, racing simulators, Black Jack for Fun and much more. Atlas Bar and Grill on Jillian's first floor offers full service dining featuring innovative American cuisine, a giant screen video wall and dancing every Friday & Saturday night. www.jilliansboston.com.

Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters ans steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring Live Music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesay - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

Roxy 279 Tremont St., (in the Tremont Hotel), Boston, 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Jazz

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live jazz afterwork and bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Regattabar Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. The Regattabar is the only place to hear top-flight live jazz Tuesday-Saturday nights and occasional Sunday afternoons. It's the "Diva" of Boston's Jazz Clubs at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square. Shows at 8:30pm Tues-Thurs, 7:30pm & 10:00pm Fri. & Sat. Full bar and bar menu, casual dress. Parking available at the Charles Hotel garage. Call 617.876.7777 for tickets and information, 800.881.1818 for hotel reservations and information.

Latin

Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston 617-351-7001. A multistory Latin-themed restaurant and club, Sophia's treats guests to a tantalizing Tapas-style menu, live Salsa bands and hi-energy Latin dance. From a romantic dinner and salsa lessons to hi-energy dance and mingling on the roof deck over sangria and Salsa, an evening at Sophia's is always Hot! Hot! Hot

Sports Bar - Upscale

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www.theplaceboston.com. Voted Boston's Best Sports Bar 2 years in a row by The Improper Bostonian! Mingle with your favorite sports celebrities: Brady, Thornton, Walker, Garciaparra. You never know who you'll run into. Enjoy the wildest party atmosphere in the heart of the Financial District. It's never the same experience twice – we've got exclusive sports video productions and game coverage on our state-of the-art flat screen TVs. So join us to see what the buzz is all about and find out why people in-the-know feel right at home.

BRUNCH

Dick's Last Resort Prudential Center, 55 Huntington Ave., Boston, 617-267-8080, www.dickslast-resort.com. On Sunday, Dick's has live gospel music for brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The buffet includes salads, hot entrees, carved beef and ham stations, an omelet station, waffles and desserts. Adults $15.99 and children $6.99. Live music - no cover, no dress code and definitely no class. Open daily, Dick's Last Resort is billed as "The shame of Boston."

Harvard Gardens 315 Cambridge St., Beacon Hill, Boston, 617-523-2727. www.harvardgardens.com. Cozy up to the beautiful mahogany bar or slip into a comfy booth and enjoy Harvard Gardens' menu of cool cocktails and comfort food. Brunch serves up eggs and pastrami hash, thick-cut French toast with caramelized bananas, specialty pizzas and Boston's best Bloody Mary. Harvard Gardens serves brunch Saturday and Sunday, 11:30am - 3:00pm.

Henrietta's Table Located in the Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge. It's "Boston's Best" brunch Saturdays and Sundays at Henrietta's. Saturday's a la carte brunch features mouthwatering entrees. Sunday's buffet brunch is flat-out lavish with everything from Salad of Smoked Duck to Oysters to Waffles to Omelettes. The menu changes every week so it always features what's freshest and best on the market. Outdoor dining in season. Saturday brunch: Appetizers from $5-$9; entrees $14 or all 3 courses for $21. Sundays: $42 adults; $25 ages 12 and under. Reservations strongly recommended. 617-661-5005.

Sunset Grill & Tap 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 1[illegible] taps, 380 microbrews.

Tonic 1316 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, 617-566-6699. We've created the perfect summer setting in our open-air café with comfort food and music to ease you through the weekend. Start off with a custom cocktail you make yourself at our Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar. Traditional Irish breakfast and a-la-carte American favorites served Saturdays. We roll out the works on Sundays with a truly brilliant buffet including the spectacular desserts of pastry chef Andrea Furtado. Weekends 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ENTERTAINMENT MASSAGE

MATRIX MASSAGE
Metro Boston's Premier Massage Facility. Specializing in Swedish full body sensational relaxation. Open 7 days, walk-ins or appointments. All credit cards accepted. Quincy T accessible. Call 617-472-2990.

HELP WANTED

COPLEY FLAIR
Unique and fun cards and gifts. 3 Boston locations. Now accepting applications for assistant managers and sale associates. Room for advancement. You must be vibrant, outgoing, and professional. Call Bob 781-237-4372.

OMNI PERSONNEL
Seeking restaurant managers-jobs from 35k-120k. See display on page. 113. 1- 888-86-MY-JOB.

PORTERS BAR
Busy Fleet Center restaurant/ bar now hiring all positions. Apply in person at 173 Portland Street weekdays 2-5pm. You may also email your resume to jobs@portersbar.com.

MASSAGE THERAPY

ABSOLUTE MASSAGE
Massage Therapist of professional athletes and two American presidents now available to you! Strong, sensitive, focused work. For deep relaxation, stress relief, injury treatment and prevention. Very convenient downtown Boston location, just steps from the T. 617-460-0342.

OXYSSAGE
508-424-0664. See our display on page 114.

MEDICAL RESEARCH STUDIES

MCLEAN HOSPITAL
617-855-2359 See our display ads page 113.

PERSONAL CHEF

THE MAIN DISH
As featured in last issue's column by Ezra! Eating healthy has never been this easy! Special diets and veggie meals available. BACK TO SCHOOL/ NEWCOMERS special! 10% off with this ad! Call Karen Fabian 617-241-7635. www.themain dish.net.

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZING

ORDER BY DESIGN
Has your clutter gotten out of control? Maximize your space or get help with moving, filing, and more. Call Order By Design and speak to Abi for all of your organizing needs: 508-668-6519.

REAL ESTATE

CD REAL ESTATE
No. Andover MA-Serving Metro North Buying? Selling? Too tired to come to my office? I'll come to you! I make house calls (in area) FREE! For fast, convenient service call Carmela Previti 978-975-4055 978-729-0847. cdrealestate.net over 23 yrs. experience.

COLLEGEPADS.COM
Collegepads is able to provide top quality leasing services to area students.
www.collegepads.com.

EASY ROOMMATE / EASY RENT
Online rental service-providing privately owned and leased rentals easily viewed with photos at our website. Apts. or apt. shares will be auto emailed to you daily. It is safe & simple to use. Flexible payment plans & so much more at www.easyrent.com / www.easyroommate.com 1-888-531-6139.

GRAND CENTRAL APARTMENTS
617-342-7118. For more information see our display below.

PARK ASSOCIATES INC. LEASING
Park Associates Inc. has a database of over 18,000 apartment listings. 1216 Comm. ave. Boston. 617-566-2000.

SUBLET.COM
All prices; All areas Long & Short; Furnished & Unfurnished Studio, 1 & 2 bedroom $500 $3000 WWW.THESUBLET.COM 1-877-FOR-RENT.

WERENTBOSTON.COM
WRB is the newest search engine for the Greater Boston Area. Search the largest database online. WRB, your key to the city.

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN READERS ARE LOOKING FOR A PLACE TO LIVE.

The Improper Bostonian has a readership of 392,900*.

137,700* of our readers earn over $75,000 a year

62,400* make over $50,000 a year and plan to buy a house in the next two years

64,300* of our readers will be looking to rent an apartment within the next year.

Reach your target audience. Call 617-859-1400 x280.

E-LOAN™ A better way to get a loan™

NEW

E-Loan.com

- Lines of Credit
- Credit Cards
- Personal Loans
- Mortgages, etc.

Good Credit? Bad Credit?
Call today for fast approval.

1st Time Home Buyers as little as 5% DOWN or $5000.00

1-888-513-5230
1-613-263-5502

grandcentralapartments.com
617-342-7118
No broker fees, no wasted time. Just pure results.

Boston's safest, fastest, easiest way to find a roommate.
617-342-7172
grandcentralroommates.com

"Your easygoing manner and pleasant personality made what could have been a tedious process enjoyable."
Carl and Ann Frappaolo
Jamaica Plain

Real estate is a complicated business. When you are searching for a new home, Prudential Prime Properties can help you every step of the way. With reliable advice and thoughtful guidance, honest answers, and creative solutions. We judge our success not by the number of units sold, but by the enduring relationships we build.

Through our door, discover the key to yours.

2 Dartmouth Street
Boston, MA 02116
617 421 1600

673 Centre Street
Jamaica Plain, MA 02130
617 524 5431

www.pruprimeboston.com

Prudential
Prime Properties

ICE SKATING CLASSES
15 M.D.C. Rinks
CHILDREN AND ADULTS
Starts Soon
(781) 890-8480
Register online @
www.baystateskatingschool.org
Bay State Skating School

All Red Sox Home & Away Games
TICKET CITY
Jonny Lang 10/1
REM 10/5
Shania Twain 10/7
OPEN 7 DAYS
(617)787-2370
128 Harvard Ave • Allston • www.coolguitars.com
OPEN 7 DAYS

Applying to a top MBA program?
Find out how ready you are.
connect²
(781) 646-5687
connecttwo.com/MBA

My Fair Lady
Choice Consignments
jewelry • accessories • clothing
1739 Centre St., W. Roxbury, MA 02132 Phone: 617-325-0908

Trying to Kick the Habit?
Volunteers Needed to Test a New Quit Smoking Drug
If you are a healthy adult smoker who would like to quit, you may be eligible to participate in a new research study at Massachusetts General Hospital. To participate, you must be:
•A healthy volunteer
•18-75 years old
•Smoking 10 or more cigarettes per day
•Motivated to quit smoking
For more information, please call (617) 724-0736 or email: stopsmoking@partners.org
MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL

Permanent Cosmetics
Angelbare.com
• Eyebrows • Eyeliner
• Full Lips • Beauty Marks
• Scalp / Scar Camouflage
• Areola Restoration
617 527 - 0002
Certified Advanced Instructor
Featured on Chronicle, Fox 25
Channel 4, and 56

THOMAS LAWSON FINANCIAL ASSOCIATES
SMALL BUSINESS FINANCIAL PLANNING FOR ALL NEW ENTREPRENEURS. THOMAS LAWSON FINANCIAL ASSOCIATES OFFERS YEARS OF EXPERIENCE IN DEBT-CONSOLIDATION, PERSONAL LOANS AND OTHER FINANCIAL SITUATIONS.
Call 1-866-808-8358 for quality support!

Ecstasy Research
Earn up to $675
A McLean Hospital research group is studying the effects of ecstasy and other drugs on the brain and behavior. You may qualify for this study if you:
• are 18 - 40 years old
• use ecstasy regularly
• are able to come to McLean for 15-30 minutes 1x per week for 7 weeks (transportation provided)
For more information call:
617-855-3823

Permanent & Corrective Cosmetics
By Debra
"Wake Up with Makeup"
Cosmetic Tatooing
For information call:
781-820-5442
EYELINER
LIPS
EYEBROWS
SCAR CAMOUFLAGE
AREOLA MICROPIGMENTATION
by Appointment
www.permanentcosmetics4u.com
Member AAM/Member SPCP
38 Montvale Ave. Stoneham
MA 02180

We've Got It ALL
Enjoy the pleasures of Boston
BPA BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION
Offering young professionals
•Networking
•Socializing
•Education
•Entertainment
(617) 591-1400
www.Bostonypa.com

Tried Cocaine?
A McLean Hospital research group is studying the effects of cocaine and other drugs on the brain and behavior. You may qualify for this study and earn up to $800 if you:
• are a male 21 - 35 years old
• are willing to give blood samples
• use cocaine occasionally
• can come to McLean for 5 visits
(transportation is provided)
For more information call:
617-855-3823

Single?
Meet for lunch, coffee, or drinks after work.
Call 617-254-3000
or take the free survey
www.lunchdates.com
Our 21st year!
LunchDates™

Quinex™
Private study - psychology "classes" designed just for you!
Experiences in Personal Development℠
Popular psychology, facts, and theory. Fun stuff, also serious scholarship and practical tools for hi - level health, work, social, & family functioning. Your pace via one to one teaching. Lavish attention to your interests & needs. Relaxed, Private, Confidential.
Days or Evenings
Lic. Psychologist, Dr. Robert Azrak, Quincy.
www.quinex.info
tel. 617.773.9209
www.Quinex.info

FREE ADMISSION WITH THIS AD
Aga's
Highland Tap of Boston
PRESENTING...
Modern Expressive Dance
LIVE SHOW GIRLS
Food ~ Cocktails
Entertainment ~ Relaxed
Comfortable Intimate Atmosphere
Open 7 days a week until 2am 21+
617-427-6514
2128 Washington St. Boston

Boston's nightlife just got a whole lot hipper.
HOP ON THE BUS!
1-866-GO-BUS-GO
www.BUSTONIAN.com

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

HARVARD GARDENS
318 CAMBRIDGE ST., BOSTON

NOW HIRING ALL POSITIONS

Wait staff, hostesses, cooks, door staff, and managers

CALL 617-523-2727

Crowning Affair

join CROWNING AFFAIR
celebrate GLAMOROUS YOU!

September 23rd - October 7th - Photo Sessions
October 17th, 7pm - Dance Party
SuperShag Dance Studio, Waltham

Photo shoot ... Fantasy hats ... Glamorous jewelry ...
Fashion show ... Dance lesson ... Dancing ...
Details on the web or call Cynthia @ 781-354-9113

www.crowningaffair.com

LET US WORK FOR YOU!

Searching for reliable childcare or pet sitting?
Putting off those odd jobs?
Need help with last minute spring cleaning or yard work?
List your jobs with us FREE and have a member of the BU Quickie Job Service work for you.

For fast, capable, temporary help, contact the

Boston University Quickie Job Service

Phone: 617/353-2890 Fax: 617/353 9200
www.bu.edu/seo Post your jobs online

"Expediting Quality People"

OMNI PERSONNEL

ATTENTION RESTAURANT MANAGERS!

Looking for a Change?
For a Civilized Recruitment experience call OMNI PERSONNEL at

1-888-86-MY-JOB
or log on to WWW.OMNIPERSONNEL.COM

Pour Vous
Personal Assistant Services

Lacking time?

✦ We can change that! ✦

Here are a few of the ways we can help you:
- ✦Shopping, from groceries to gifts
- ✦Home service appointments
- ✦Errands, research and reservations
- ✦Pre-party assistance and set-up
- ✦Much more

Please see our website or contact us for a full list of services available:
Visit us at www.pourvous.net OR
Email us at info@pourvous.net OR
Call us at 617.407.5998

VOCAL COACHING

STAGE PRESENCE • CONFIDENCE
POWER • RANGE • CONTROL

Jeannie Deva® Voice Studios
The Deva Method® - A Non-Classical Approach for Singers

295 Huntington Ave - (617) 536-4553
www.DevaStudiosBoston.com

"I can't say enough good things about this method - it saved my voice!" - SM, Boston

Ask About our Private Lessons and Workshops!

AIMEE MANN • DAR WILLIAMS • PATTY GRIFFIN • CAST OF FAME • CAST OF JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR

Copyright 2003. All Rights Reserved. Studio independently owned and operated by instructors certified in the Deva Method. Jeannie Deva and The Deva Method are trademarks of Jeannie Deva Enterprises, Inc.

GRAND OPENING

Oxyssage Therapy

Massage Therapy with Oxygen Therapy

Breath pure O_2

with your favorite natural aromas to rejuvenate, while relieving pain and stress with a gentle deep tissue massage

Try the "Oxygen Room" in our relaxing setting:
breathe 96% pure oxygen as opposed to the 24% in the atmosphere

◆ $10 off first treatment with this ad ◆

RT9, Framingham
508-879-9400
www.oxyssage.com

A Natural High

Planning a PARTY, tradeshow or function to impress friends, bosses, clients and potential clients? Grab and hold their attention! Check out our elite O2 bars-we come to YOU with everything you need to be the BUZZ of the town! For info visit OxygenForce.com

OXYGEN FORCE
live forever...breathe pure O2

Owners Brian Napolean and Matt Robitaille with Steven Tyler.

As new business owners, making a choice in advertising avenues is a difficult decision. Regardless of the size of your advertising budget, you must be selective in choosing the medium that best reaches your target audience. At The Bustonian, we researched many avenues that appeared to be "Win-Win" situations, but when it came decision time, we chose to focus on the Improper Bostonian. Over the past few months, we've established a strong relationship with our Improper representative, Katie Schmidt, who has really helped us get the best response possible from our advertising dollars!!! We've found the entire Improper staff to be extremely nice and helpful. All in all, we're very pleased with the revenue that The Improper Bostonian has helped generate for our new business and we highly recommend investing in the Improper to work for you!!!

Brian Napolean &
Matt Robitaille - Owners

want to work at the

COOLEST MAGAZINE IN TOWN?

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

is looking for a classified account executive.

If you are a self-motivated "Bostonian" with a great attitude — send your resume to

The Improper Bostonian
142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor
Boston, MA 02116
attn: Robyn Sarkisian,

or email to

robyn@improper.com

exceptional SALES opportunity

If you're an EXCEPTIONAL SALES PERSON, you should be selling an

EXCEPTIONAL PRODUCT

A PRODUCT that's so hot, nearly one million New Englanders use it every single week and have for over twenty years.

A PRODUCT so effective, you can use it to influence the actions of hundreds of thousands of consumers to help your client's businesses soar to new heights.

IMAGINE SELLING FOR

KISS-108.

KISS-108

is seeking energetic, team-oriented, sophisticated professionals with at least two years of sales experience to join Boston's premier radio sales force.

IF YOU HAVE THE EXPERTISE TO DEVELOP WINNING MARKETING AND MEDIA SOLUTIONS THAT WILL "WOW" CLIENTS AND KEEP THEM COMING BACK FOR MORE,

WE WOULD LIKE TO TALK TO YOU.

Please e-mail your resume and cover letter to careers@kiss108.com

No phone calls please.

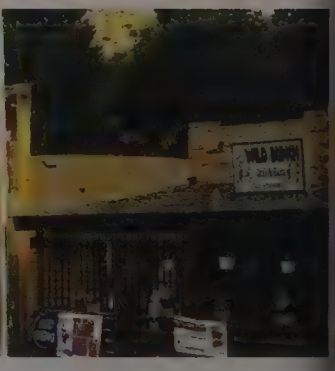
Clear Channel Radio is an equal opportunity employer.

SOLUTIONS in FREQUENCY • RESULTS in VOLUME

WXKS BOSTON Kiss 108 fm

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF



Clockwise from top center: Hawkeye and me; the Cowboy Cafe; Tom and Boyd scouting for game during lunch on the trail; downtown Dubois; hobbling the horses; Spencer begs. Center: a jackalope in Dubois

WHAT I DID ON MY SUMMER VACATION, OR "COYOTES AND COUGARS AND BEARS? OH, MY!"

Dubois, Wyoming, (population 1,034) is one of those wild-ass frontier towns, hours away from anywhere, that attracts eccentrics and oddballs from all over, like an intergalactic way station in a sci-fi movie. In the words of one local, "It's just like a big city, but without the normal people."

Pronounced "Doo-boyce," its biggest claim to fame is probably the National Bighorn Sheep Center. The local calendar of events includes the Bad Boys of Bull Riding Rodeo and the 4th of July Testicle Festival at the Ramshorn Inn. The sidewalks are wooden, and the main drag includes a giant plastic jackalope (a rabbit with antlers) in front of a gas station, a stuffed moose on top of a car wash, and businesses like the Rustic Tavern, Welty's General Store, and a Sotheby's real estate office that sells chunks of big-sky country to rich dropouts who consider Jackson Hole too civilized.

The night we arrived, we were invited to a cocktail party where we met a woman who races sled dogs in Alaska's Iditarod, a waitress who grew up in Brooklyn, an heir to the Remington firearms fortune, the French chef who runs the Cowboy Cafe and an Australian couple who train animals like the Budweiser Clydesdale that kicked a football during the Super Bowl.

The next day, we recovered from all the mojitos with a visit to the not-quite-famous and not-particularly-hot warm springs. After buying some last-minute things we'd need to go camping on horseback in the mountains for six days, we ate dinner and had a few drinks at the Outlaw Saloon, where we were lucky enough to watch the Red Sox spank the Yankees, 6 to 4, prompting the bartender, Marge, to say, "Everyone out here hates 'em, too."

The sun was barely up when we drove out past Mabel's Hill (where the chimney is all that's left of a whorehouse the townsfolk burnt down in a fit of Christian piety) to pick up the horses and get fishing licenses. Then it was a two-hour drive down an unpaved road, through jaw-droppingly beautiful country, to the trailhead, where we received lessons on how to use bear mace and availed ourselves of an outdoor toilet with one of the most spectacular views I've ever seen.

There were five of us on the trip: me and a friend; our guide, Tom Rose, who runs Emerald Creek Outfitters, the camp where we stayed; a wrangler/camp cook named Meredith Martin (a Mount Holyoke grad who grew up on a horse farm in Virginia); and Boyd Brown, a farrier and wrangler who wore his cowboy boots and hat even when he went swimming. In addition to the horses, we had three dogs: a golden lab named Kenya, an Airedale named Argus, and a blue healer (a breed of Australian cattle dog) named Spencer.

I ALSO GOT AN EDUCATION IN THE BASICS OF HORSEMANSHIP: HOW TO GROOM, SADDLE AND HOBBLE A HORSE, AS WELL AS WHAT IT FEELS LIKE TO GET KICKED BY ONE.

My mount, Hawkeye, was a big, dumb paint that loved to run downhill—the equestrian equivalent of a kid running with scissors. He was surefooted, though, for which I was thankful on the four-hour ride to camp (one of two that Emerald Creek operates in cooperation with the U.S. Forestry Service) through scenery that would make for an excellent 5,000-piece jigsaw puzzle.

We spent most of our time in the saddle, riding for four to five hours at a stretch. One day, we rode up to a mountain pass at 11,600 feet, where we had to dismount and lead our horses part of the way, and we ended up looking down at fields of snow. The next day, we made our way up the valley through meadows studded with lupine and Indian paintbrush, past fresh bear tracks and a waterfall that provided the week's only shower, to a pass overlooking a pristine valley brimming with elk and bighorn sheep. With the patience of Job, Boyd taught us to fly-fish, and I discovered that between the stream and camp, a brook trout can grow as much as 18 inches (at least in the retelling). I also got an education in the basics of horsemanship: how to groom, saddle and hobble a horse, as well as what it feels like to get kicked by one.

We slept under the stars, and on the first three nights were awakened by a pack of coyotes that entered camp and began howling, which got the dogs and horses going. At dawn on the last two mornings, a mountain lion stalked the edge of the meadow where we were sleeping. We also learned such salient aspects of western life as the fact that you "ain't a cowboy unless you're pushin' cows," and that Friday is the night to meet "ranch muffins" and "buckle bunnies" at the local bars.

By the time we returned to Dubois, the concept of indoor plumbing seemed strangely wonderful, and everything we owned smelled like horses and campfire smoke. On our last night in town, we opted against attending the National Rifle Association Ball, not having anything appropriate to wear, and instead went to a karaoke bar with a group of German models who were in town to shoot a European Marlboro ad.

It's good to be back home and all, but driving my Volkswagen can't compare with riding the range. I'll definitely go back to Dubois…just as soon as I get over the saddlesores. IB

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call J.S. at 617-859-1400 ext. 303 or e-mail at jonathan@improper.com.

ALPHA OMEGA

AMERICA'S WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS

DIAMONDS SINCE 1976

Flagship at Harvard Square
Natick Mall
Burlington Mall
Prudential Center
617-864-1227

Curtsee – Information: 1-877-777-EBEL – www.ebel.com

EBEL

SWISS WATCHMAKER SINCE 1911

GREEN LABEL FULL FLAVOR 18 mg. "tar", 1.3 mg. nicotine av. per cigarette by FTC method. For more product information, visit www.rjrt.com.

SURGEON GENERAL'S WARNING: Smoking Causes Lung Cancer, Heart Disease, Emphysema, And May Complicate Pregnancy.

stir the senses

SALEM

©2003 R.J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

RO BOSTON'S BIBLIOPHILIC GUIDE TO ERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND LOCAL LITERATI

UTHORS INTERVIEW
UTHORS

ameve Medwed on Elinor Lipman eve Almond on Tom Perrotta atthew Pearl on James Carroll

OOK READINGS
VITH AN EDGE

UTHOR PERRI KLASS
CKS OUR FICTION
ONTEST WINNER

EET BOSTON'S OOKWORMS

the literary ISSUE

OCTOBER 8-21, 2003
$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
0 74470 79832 3 39
www.improper.com

DRINK WET RESPONSIBLY

WET BY BEEFEATER IS A LESS DRY, MORE SENSUAL EXPERIENCE.

WET BY BEEFEATER™ GIN WITH NATURAL FLAVOR. 35% ALC./VOL. ALLIED DOMECQ SPIRITS, USA, WESTPORT, CT.

© 2003 ALLIED DOMECQ S[illegible] & WINE LIMITED. WET BY BEEFEATER™

BOSTON BALLET

MIKKO NISSINEN Artistic Director

40TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

Rudolf Nureyev's

DON QUIXOTE*

Oct 16–19 / Oct 30–Nov 2

"...A SUMPTUOUS PRODUCTION!.."
—Christine Temin, The Boston Globe 1985

ONE WEEK ONLY!

STARS AND STRIPES

Oct 23–26

MOZARTIANA, STARS AND STRIPES
Choreography George Balanchine

THE GREY AREA
Choreography David Dawson

*This production is funded in part by a grant from the Rudolf Nureyev Dance Foundation.

TICKETS $39-96

CALL TELECHARGE AT 1.800.447.7400

or The Wang Theatre Box Office, open Mon-Sat, 10 am-6 pm.

Student Rush Tickets $15, 2 hours before curtain.

Groups 15+ Call 617.456.6343. TTY 1.888.889.8587

www.bostonballet.org

GUEST STARRING*
ABT Principal Dancers:
Jose Carreño as Basilio in:
Don Quixote, Oct 17e, 19m

Ethan Stiefel, star of the hit movie Center Stage, in:
Mozartiana Oct 23, 24, 25e
Stars and Stripes Oct 25m, 26e

*Casting subject to change

YOUNG PROFESSIONALS!

ASK ABOUT U-35

Our exciting program for the 35-and-under crowd

WHAT DO YOU GET?

- Three thrilling evenings of ballet in great seats at a discounted price
- A cocktail reception (must be 21+)
- A special Boston Ballet gift!

CALL 617.695.6955

Go to www.bostoneventguide.com/bostonballet.htm to sign up!

Fidelity INVESTMENTS
2003-2004 SEASON SPONSOR

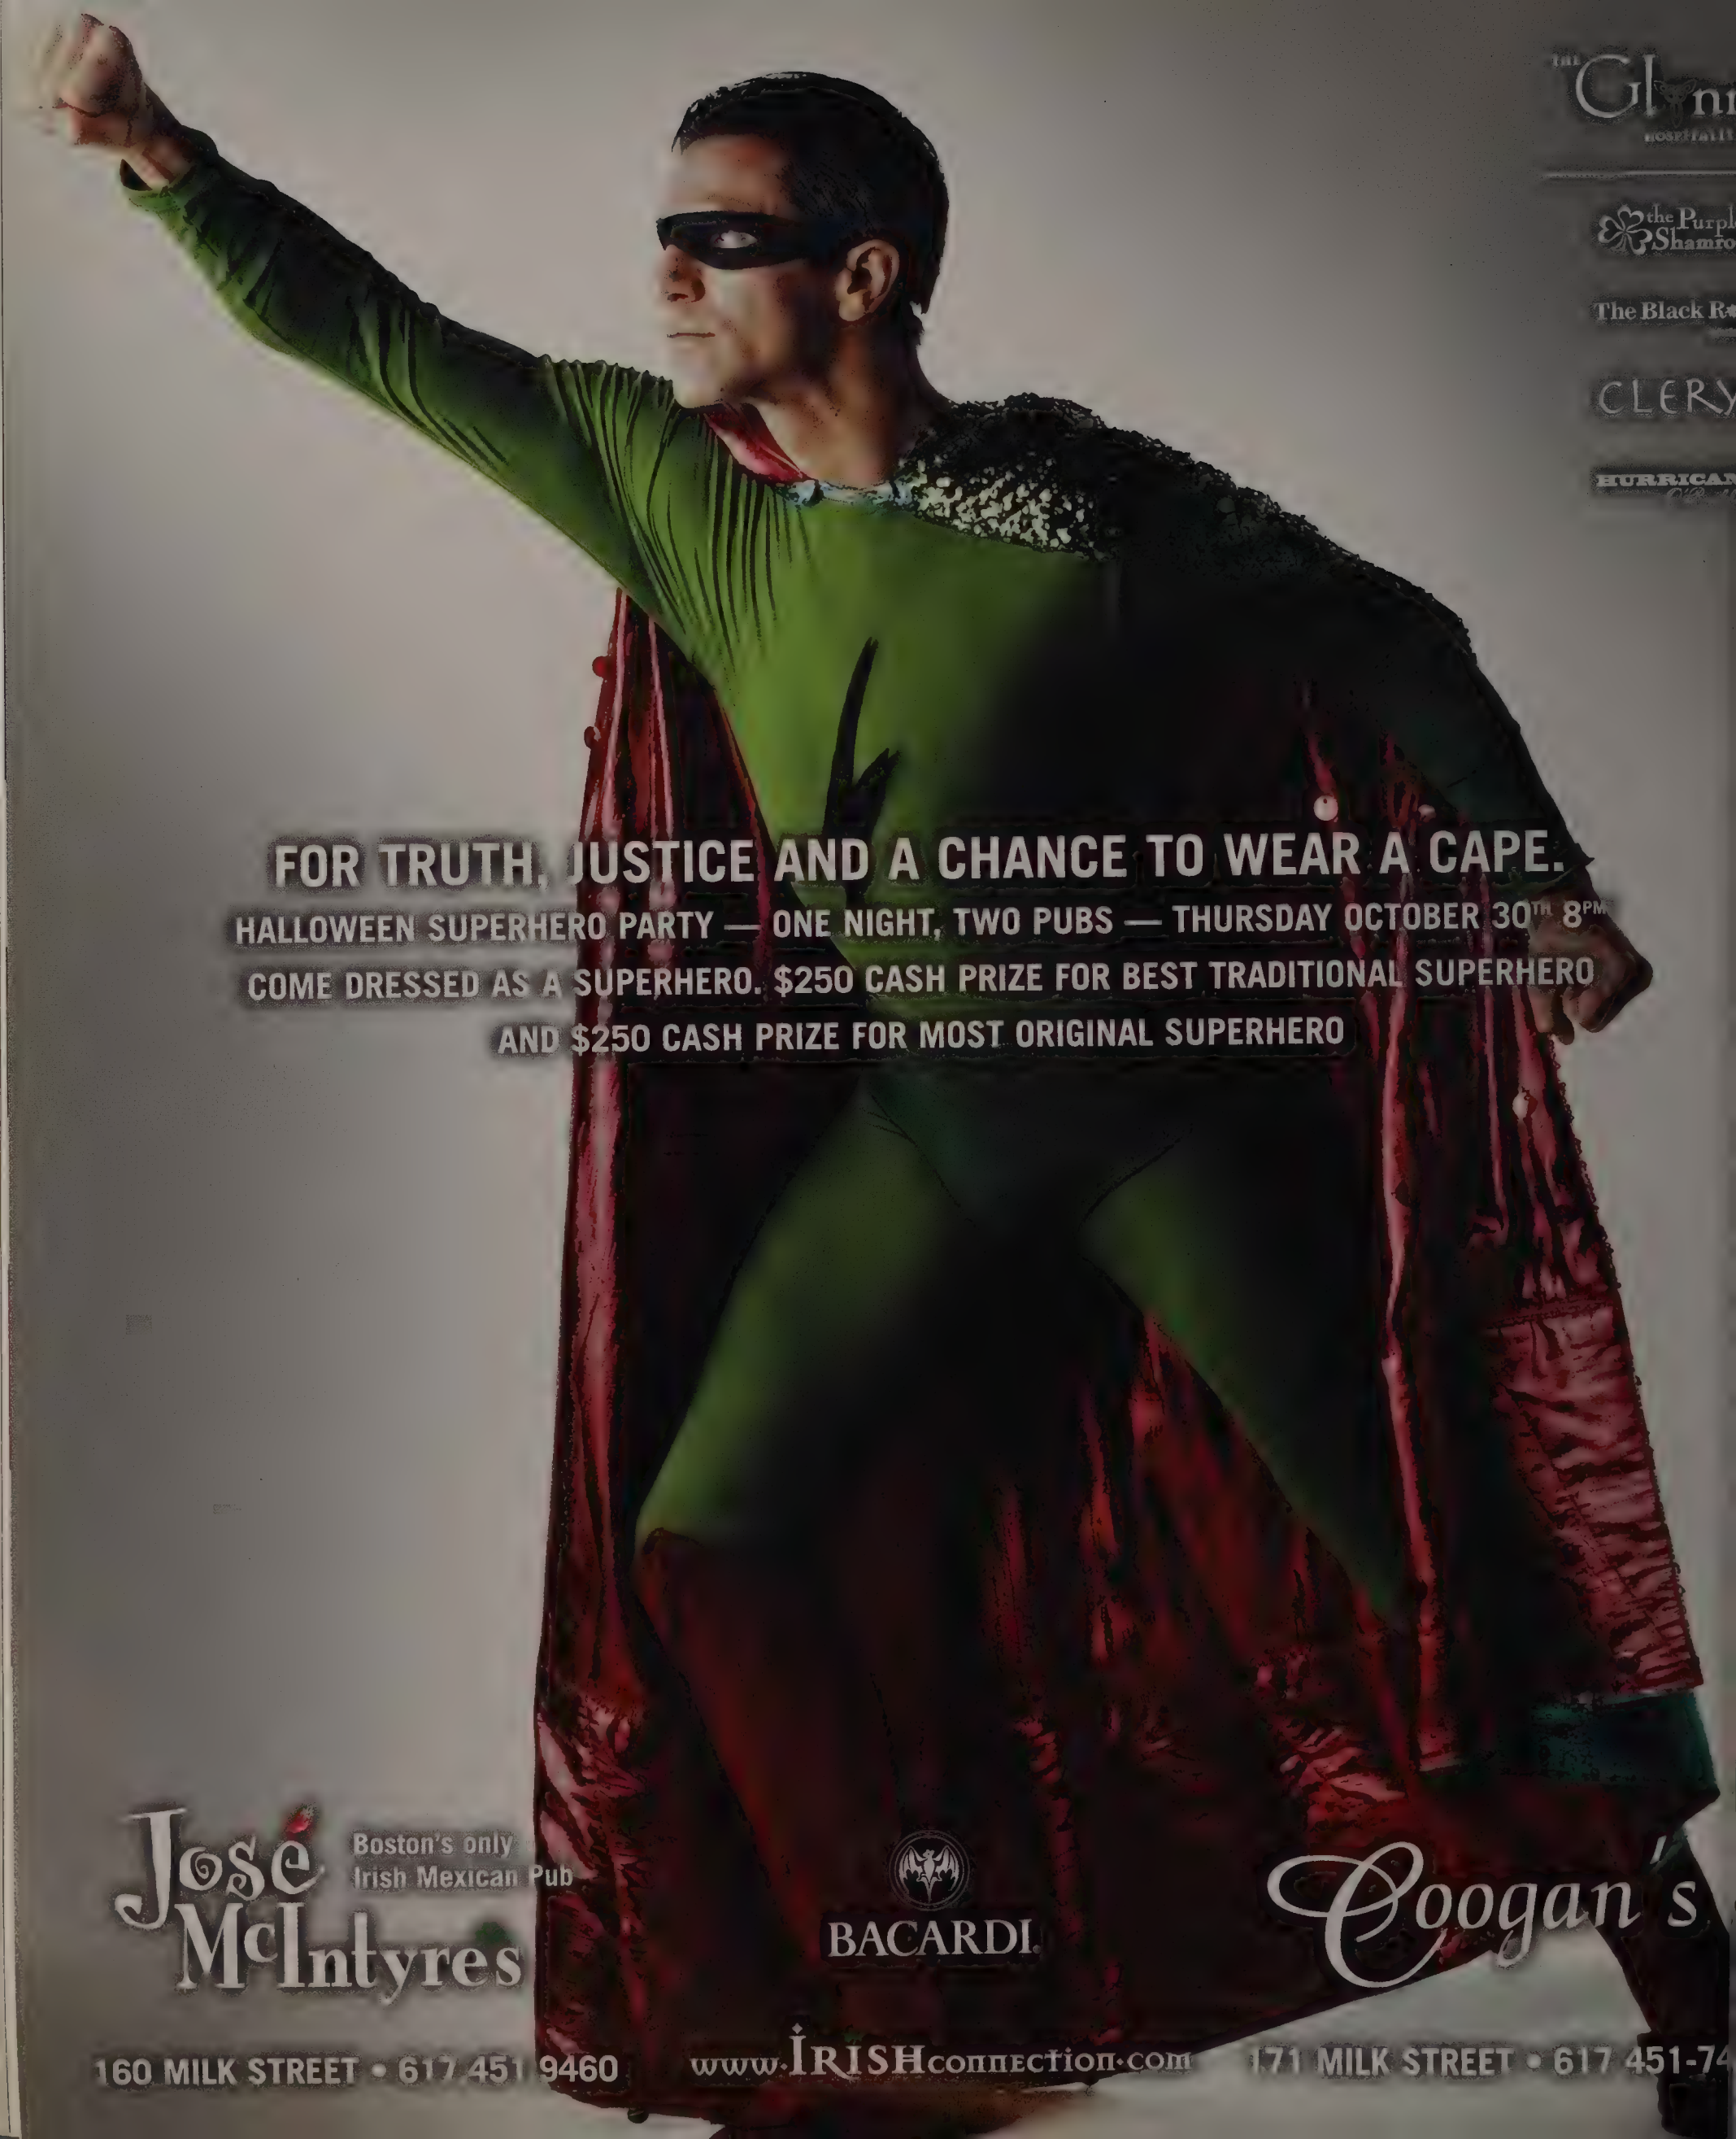
The Nutcracker is not part of a regular subscription or U-35. Photos of Larissa Ponomarenko and Yury Yanowsky; Sabi Varga, Raul Salamanca, Jared Redick; and Luke Luzicka by Marty Sohl; Photos of The Wang Theatre by Kent
Photo of Pollyana Ribeiro and Yury Yanowsky by Marty Sohl Photograph from Stars and Stripes, Choreography by George Balanchine, ©1958 The George Balanchine Trust. Photo by Steven Caras, courtesy of Miami City Ballet.

MONT BLANC

THE BEST WAY TO SHAPE THE FUTURE IS TO INVENT IT.
STARWALKER. THE NEW GENERATION OF WRITING
INSTRUMENTS CRAFTED BY THE MIND.

ALPHA OMEGA

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE - 617.864.1227
SHOPS AT THE PRUDENTIAL CENTER - 617.424.9030
BURLINGTON MALL - 781.272.4016
NATICK MALL - 508.655.0700



FOR TRUTH, JUSTICE AND A CHANCE TO WEAR A CAPE.
HALLOWEEN SUPERHERO PARTY — ONE NIGHT, TWO PUBS — THURSDAY OCTOBER 30TH 8PM
COME DRESSED AS A SUPERHERO. $250 CASH PRIZE FOR BEST TRADITIONAL SUPERHERO
AND $250 CASH PRIZE FOR MOST ORIGINAL SUPERHERO
Jose McIntyres
Boston's only Irish Mexican Pub
160 MILK STREET • 617 451 9460
BACARDI
www.IRISHconnection.com
Coogan's
171 MILK STREET • 617 451-74

Fall Home Sale

YOUR STYLE...ON A BUDGET!

Boston Interiors

WWW.BOSTONINTERIORS.COM

90 DAYS
NO INTEREST
NO PAYMENTS
NO DEPOSIT
WHEN YOU PAY WITH YOUR
BOSTON INTERIORS CHARGE CARD

BROOKLINE VILLAGE
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND

HANOVER
RTE. 3 EXIT 13

NATICK
RTE. 9 EASTBOUND

WESTBOROUGH
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND

NOW OPEN!
MASHPEE
RTE. 28

contents

OCTOBER 8–21, 2003

FEATURES

18 SOROFF/ON PERRI KLASS
Pediatrician and author Perri Klass discusses the similarities between practicing medicine and writing, tips for raising children and the lunchbox tyranny of parents.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

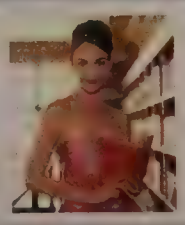
20 ONE-TO-ONE
Three authors interview three authors to gain insight into the mysterious process of putting words to the page. TOM PERROTTA, INTERVIEWED BY STEVE ALMOND; ELINOR LIPMAN, INTERVIEWED BY MAMEVE MEDWED; AND JAMES CARROLL, INTERVIEWED BY MATTHEW PEARL

24 EASY LISTENING
The latest variations of literary readings include music, cocktails and other embellishments that add a party element to the traditional formula of podium, book and reader.
BY RICCO VILLANUEVA SIASOCO

26 BOSTON'S BOOKWORMS
Think you're quite a reader because you own every Harry Potter book? For these Bostonians, reading is more than a pastime, it's a way of life. BY EMILY FRANKLIN

30 THE SHADOW OF MANNY RAMIREZ
Former IMPROPER fiction contest winner Adam Pachter helped us screen the entries, author Perri Klass made the final call, and so we give you our 2003 fiction contest winner.
BY RACHEL SOLAR-TUTTLE

34 FASHION: LUCK BE A LADY
Luxe designs for ladies of any means.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN



Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by Joel Benjamin

Photographer's assistant: Josh Campbell; model: Catherine/Maggie Inc.; makeup: Coco Grace/Team; hairstyling: Sunshine Barnett/Lord's & Lady's; location: Boston Public Library, Copley Square; dress: BCBG Max Azria; jewelry: provided by Vintage Jewelry, Gifts, Antiques, Brookline.

PHOTOGRAPHER: JOEL BENJAMIN. MODEL: CATHERINE/MAGGIE INC.; MAKEUP: COCO GRACE/TEAM; HAIRSTYLING: SUNSHINE BARNETT/LORD'S & LADY'S. LOCATION: BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY, COPLEY SQUARE. DRESS: BCBG MAX AZRIA. JEWELRY PROVIDED BY VINTAGE JEWELRY, GIFTS, ANTIQUES, BROOKLINE. GLOVES PROVIDED BY THE ALTERED BRIDE, BOSTON

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
B&G Oysters; clutches from car seats; Judd Nelson in He She Them; bookstore cafés

14 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured at An Evening of Fashion for Art and the John Kenneth Galbraith benefit for Mount Auburn Hospital
BY MARGARET BRETT

16 EZRA
Trials and tribulations of the new 'hood
BY EZRA DYER

40 MOPSY
Arclinea Boston; Karen Welling, creativity therapist; Loving Joe Gallucci
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

58 MOVIES
The School of Rock offers a lead role custom-made for Jack Black.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

68 MUSIC
Michael Franti and Spearhead deliver a message with their music.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

108 LAST SCENE HERE
From Fenway to the Runway and Roaring on the Roo
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT. DRINK.

42 DINING
Excelsior is a high-end showcase for the talents of Lydia Shire
BY CHARLES MOKRISKI

44 TASTINGS
The Boston Vegetarian Food Festival and other tasty tidbits
BY JULIE SURATT

45 DISH
Coming soon: La Morra
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Girls, Erin and Julie.
Complete listings follow page 47.
An Evening with Champions • Opening Our Doors Day • Eric Idle • Pauly Shore • Don't Dessert Us! • MIT's Great Glass Pumpkin Patch • Celebrity Bra Auction • Saks in the City fashion show • Hairspray • Walk About Boston's Design Distric

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Sightings
Improper Impersonals
Rockie Horoscope

Circulation 82,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XII, ISSUE 20

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

SIMON™

- Women's Wear
- Men's Casual
- Leather Goods
- Electricity

OPLEY PLACE

an Marcus / AIX Armani Exchange / Bailey, Banks & Biddle / Bally / Banana Republic / BOSS Hugo Boss / Christian Dior / Coach / Eileen Fisher / Gucci / Godiva
olatier / Karen Millen England / Montblanc / Kenneth Cole / Legal Sea Foods / Louis Vuitton / Lowes Cineplex / Polo Ralph Lauren / Stuart Weitzman / Tiffany &
Victoria's Secret / Williams-Sonoma / and more than 100 specialty stores and eateries / Parking available / Located in Boston's historic Back Bay /Conveniently cted to the Westin Hotel and the Boston Marriott Copley Place / Shopping Line 617.369.5000 / New shopping hours: Monday - Saturday 10am-9pm, Sunday
-6pm Ready, waiting and wrapped to go! The new Simon Gift Card. The perfect gift for all occasions.

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

THE READING LIFE

With about 2,000 books to her name and a personal mandate to read a book a week, managing editor Erin Hagedorn is a devoted reader worthy of inclusion in this issue's feature story on local bookworms. So it's no surprise that it was Hagedorn who conceived of and launched the IMPROPER's annual literary issue three years ago. "After editing the magazine's Books section for a few months, I realized how many amazing authors lived in Boston," she says. "The issue seemed a natural fit for a town with such a thriving literary scene."

We tapped local fiction writers for all the feature stories in this issue: Novelist Emily Franklin profiles some of Boston's most ardent bookworms, and three local authors (Mameve Medwed, Matthew Pearl and Steve Almond) interview other local authors (Elinor Lipman, James Carroll and Tom Perrotta). Meanwhile, Ricco Villanueva Siasoco explores some new frontiers in literary readings—creative events that add cocktails, music and unusual settings to enliven the traditional author-behind-the-lectern format.

Finally, we present the winning story in our annual fiction contest. Author and practicing physician Perri Klass (interviewed on page 18) kindly helped us select the winner, a story by Rachel Solar-Tuttle about a well-to-do woman's obsession with one of the Red Sox's most beloved players. Klass praises the story for its subtlety, humor and poignancy. "It's very much a Boston story," she says. "It resonates particularly this October."

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

SOME GOOD IDEARS

"Everything You've Always Wanted to Know About Boston…" (Sept. 24) was a very nice piece—it covered myths, misnomers and just plain truth. But let's fix a couple of errors, if you don't mind:

Jonathan Soroff really should recall that Robin Williams wasn't just nominated for an Oscar for his mediocre "Baahstan" accent—he actually won the darn thing. At least he was better than Cliff on Cheers.

And about comparisons with New York: The fact that the BSO is better than the New York Philharmonic is pretty passé. The best orchestra in New York is Jimmy Levine's MET Opera Orchestra, and they don't really cover the standard symphonic rep. Also, Levine isn't leaving the MET for the Boston Symphony. He's cutting back but will be music director of both organizations.

I enjoy your publication a lot.

—JAMES BODGE
Somerville

THIN CHOWDA

I am an Irish-American, and I have a sense of humor. However, Jonathan Soroff's "Everything You've Always Wanted to Know About Boston…" bothered me.

It wasn't energetic reading. It tried to be funny but didn't get to the meat of parodying Boston. It had some high points, but the ramblings about the New York Philharmonic, the waste of words about Harvard, the section about what's considered rude—yawn. And the Irish using Catholic landmarks to give directions? Who says that? If that's not offensive, it's certainly so old it's wearing platform shoes. For a tongue-in-cheek article, it was such a cop-out.

—ELLIOT MOORE
Brookline

BOSTON CARES CARES

Your coverage of Boston Cares in "Join the Club" (Sept. 24) was disappointing. Far from offering huge projects where individuals get lost in the crowd, most of Boston Cares' teams involve small numbers of volunteers who overwhelmingly report they have made friends through Boston Cares.

It's true that Boston Cares is the largest team-oriented volunteer organization in the region, and the variety and convenience of 140-plus monthly projects is attractive to our members, who are participating in record numbers. The fact that many of those volunteers will make personal, professional and civic connections along the way is a wonderful thing.

—PATRICE KEEGAN
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR,
BOSTON CARES

CORRECTION

In the Sept. 24 fashion spread, the model's name is Jessica, and the shoes are Manolo Blahniks, available at Saks Fifth Avenue.

CONTRIBUTOR

RACHEL SOLAR-TUTTLE

The winner of our annual fiction contest, Brookline resident Rachel Solar-Tuttle, is a published fiction and nonfiction author. She says she began work on her winning story, "The Shadow of Manny Ramirez"(page 30), a few years ago after writing to Ramirez when he first came to Boston. "I started imagining, what if Manny wrote back, but what if the person to whom he replied was at some sort of crossroads where the reply could have a major impact on her?"

Solar-Tuttle's prizes, all graciously donated, include a weekend stay for two at the Charles Hotel and brunch for two at Henrietta's Table, two tickets to Boston Ballet's production of Don Quixote, $50 gift certificates from both Zipcar and the Cactus Club, a tour from Boston Art Tours and tickets to a show at the Comedy Connection.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITORS Erin Hagedorn, Julie Suratt

COPY CHIEF Susan Abbattista

COPY EDITOR David Plunkett

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

STAFF WRITER Ezra Dyer

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Jessica Iredale

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, Daniel Spurling

EDITORIAL INTERNS Kelli Acciardo, Kate Hedgpeth, Sarah Korval

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Rita Greeley

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

ART DEPARTMENT INTERNS Marilyn Chung, Vanessa Earl

FASHION & BEAUTY EDITOR Samantha House

FASHION ASSISTANT Sara Schiano

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER Alison Morant

SENIOR ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Julie Kane, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Michael Burns, Nicole Mahoney

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT EXECUTIVE Sherry Riccio Atamian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Katie Schmidt

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

V.P. PRODUCTION Jeff Gill

TRAFFIC MANAGER Karen Dana

MARKETING MANAGER Martha Brown

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Melina Lugaki, Sarah McManus, Julie Milinazzo, Victoria Segal

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Bill Marks

OPERATIONS MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian

RECEPTIONIST/SALES ASSISTANT Gretchen Bostrom

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

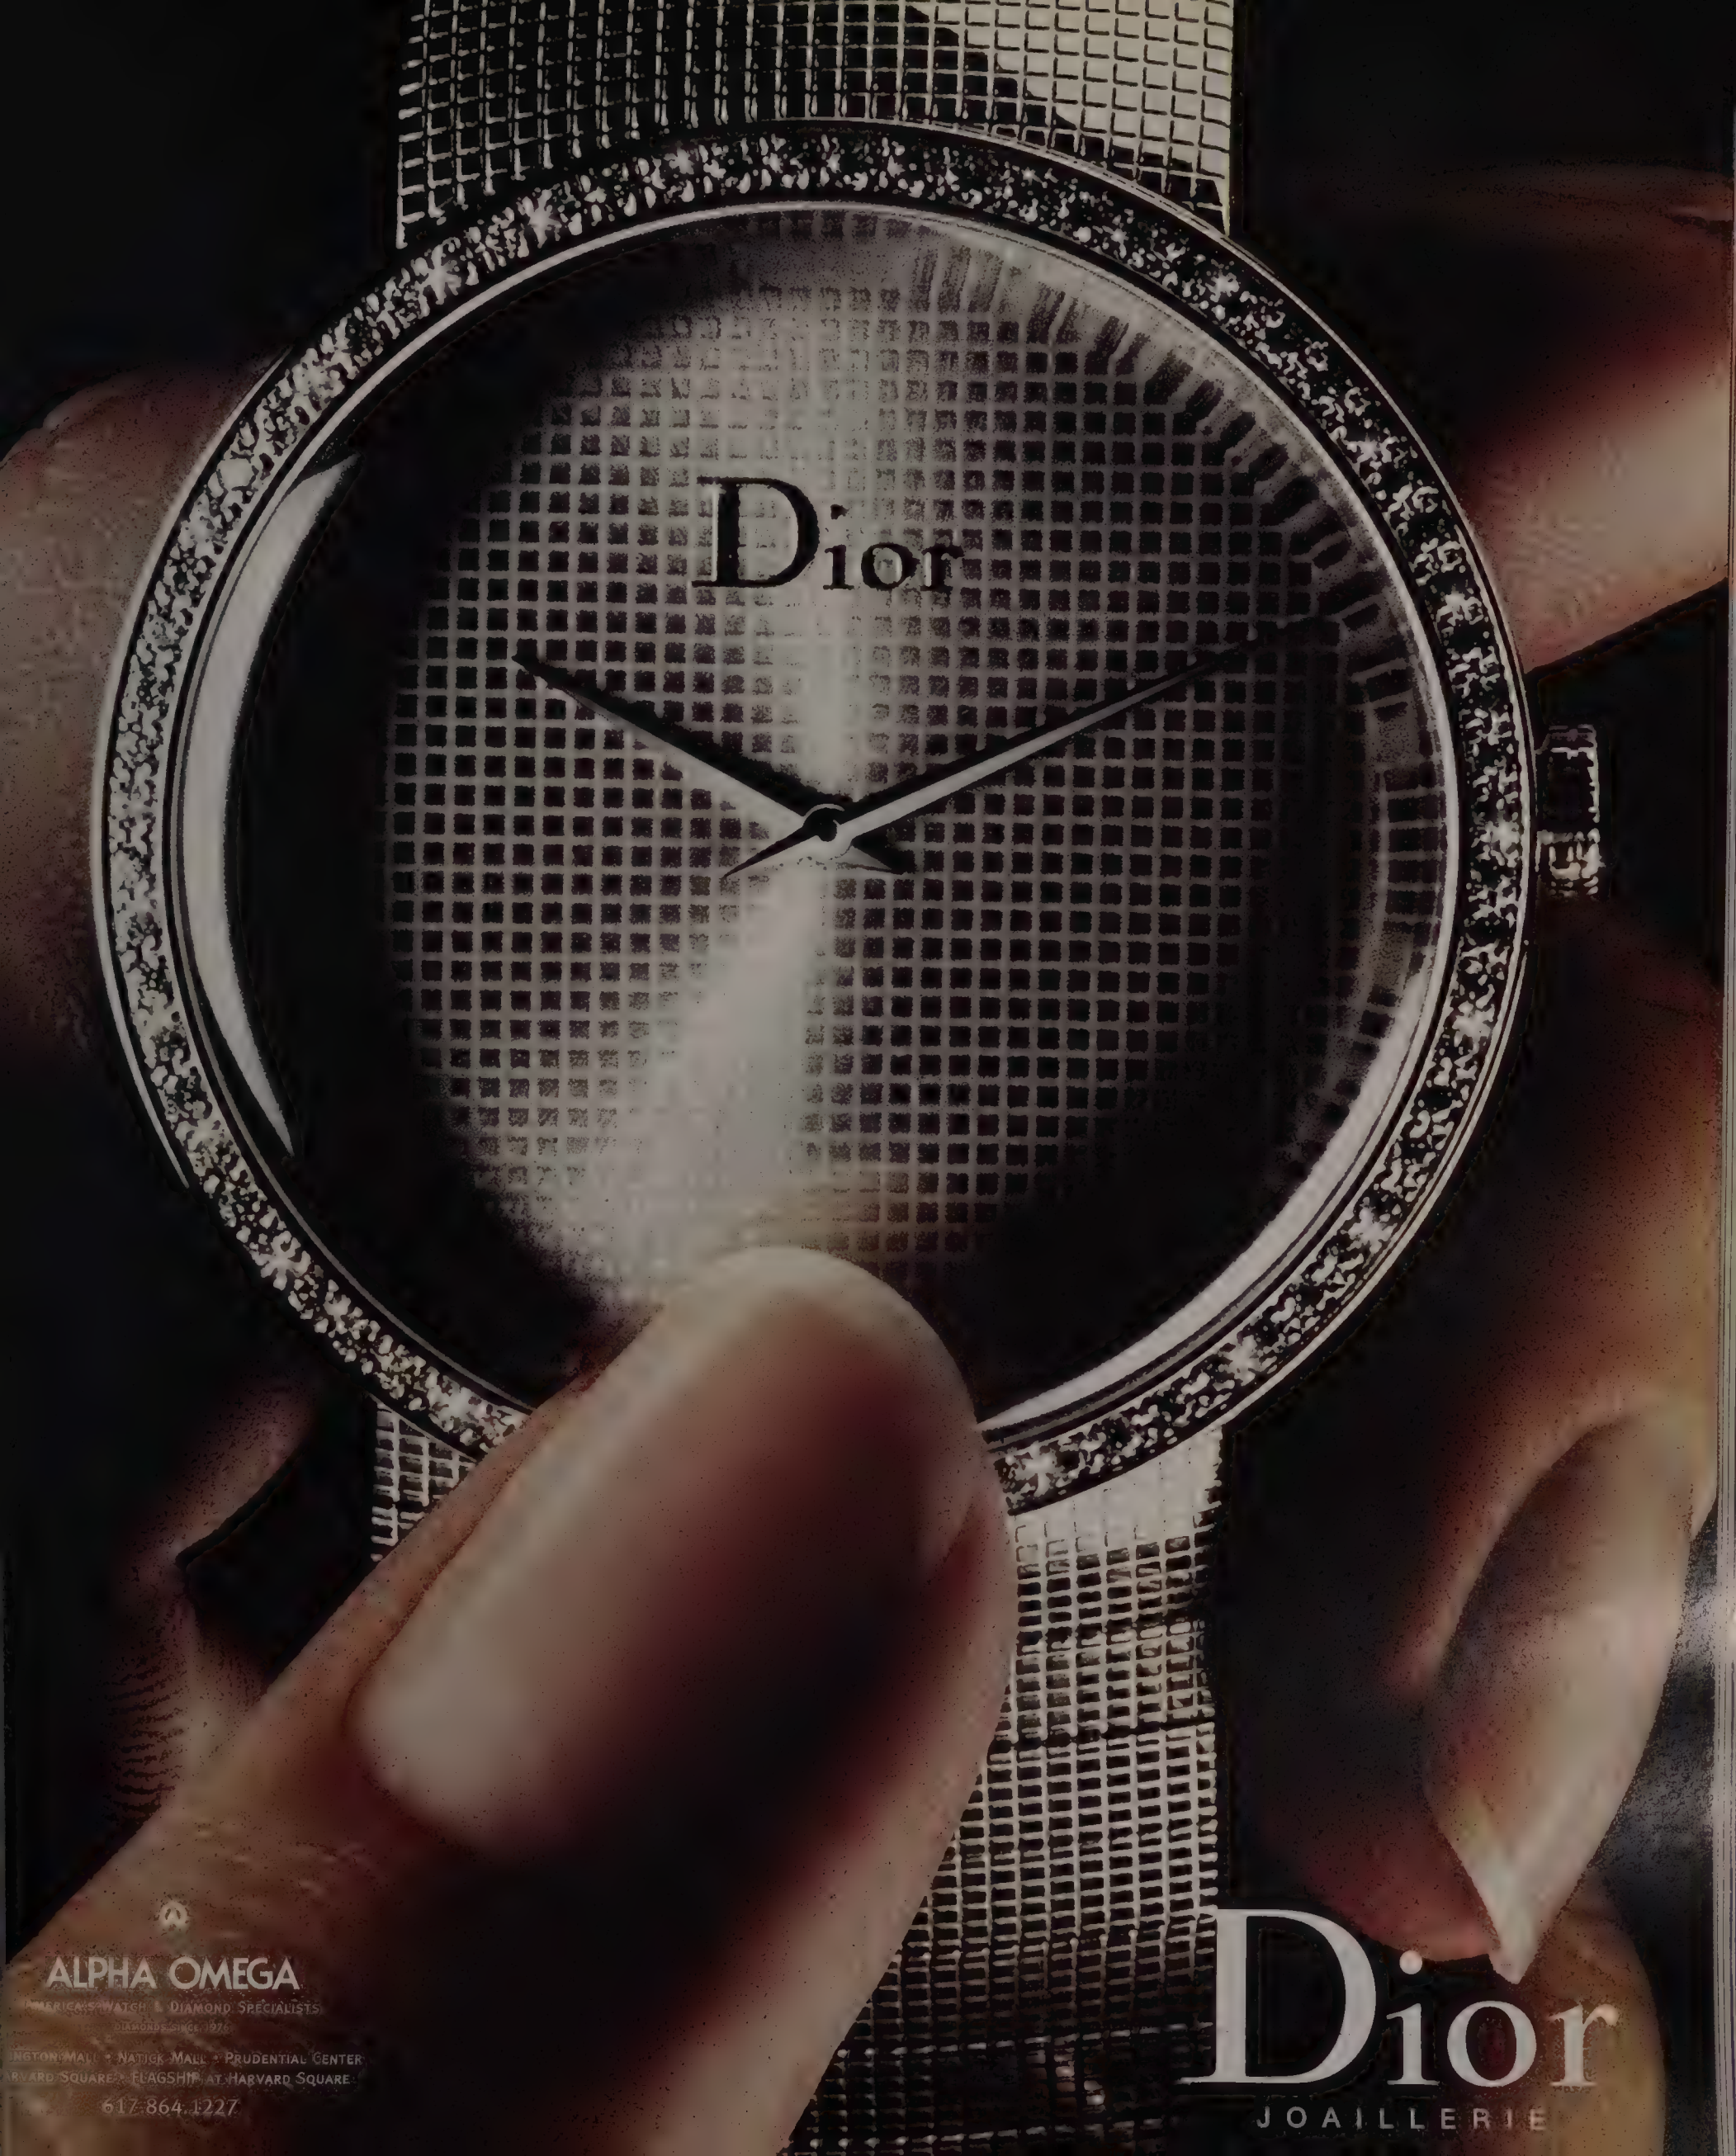
Published by Improper Publications Inc.

Copyright©2003 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations



Dior
ALPHA OMEGA
AMERICA'S WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS
DIAMONDS SINCE 1926
NGTON MALL • NATICK MALL • PRUDENTIAL CENTER
RVARD SQUARE • FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE
617.864.1227
Dior
JOAILLERIE

new in town

OYSTER-RIFIC!

It's such a fantastically fun idea, it's a wonder no one thought of it before: a cozy, South End boîte that serves a smattering of seafood entrées, but whose main focus is oysters on the half shell. Leave it to Barbara Lynch—the genius behind No. 9 Park—and her trusty manager, Garrett Harker, to come up with B&G Oysters Ltd., the new garden-level, 37-seat oyster bar on Tremont Street.

The restaurant is designed around an open kitchen surrounded by a semi-circular bar, where oyster shuckers garbed in white chef's coats practice their trade with impressive speed and agility. Patrons can pull up a stool and watch the team assemble a plate of oysters, harvested twice a day from local waters and beyond. On the day we visited, Lynch was offering six different varieties. We ordered one of each at $2 an oyster. Served on a silver platter that reflected the shiny, silver hue of the restaurant's decor, the oysters came on a bed of shaved ice placed around a saucer of mignonette (a tasty dipping sauce made from a mixture of prosecco, chardonnay vinegar, shallots and cracked black pepper). Although it was tough to choose, our favorites were the Wellfleet, a small, soft and supple oyster; the Bras d'Or from Nova Scotia, a firmer, slightly salty bivalve with the authentic touch of a dusting of sand; and the Cape Breton, also from Nova Scotia, which had a smooth texture and tasted like the ocean.

An extensive wine list, naturally heavy on the whites (the majority from France), offers a pleasing foil to the oysters' brininess. You can make a meal of oysters, or order up a plate of clam fritters (delicately fried with a crispy, non-greasy crunch and soft bellies), broiled scallops, fried oysters or Woodbury littlenecks. We could almost hear the surf crashing in the distance. 550 Tremont St., Boston (617-423-0550).—Erin Hagedorn and Julie Suratt

sam says

MOTOR CITY CHIC

While perusing the South End's offbeat shops the other day, I wandered into the relatively new women's clothing boutique Turtle. Among the racks, I found scarves, hats, clothes and accessories in an array of unique fabrics. I was particularly drawn to the funky, retro patterns of Kim White's handbag collection. Turns out White purchased a warehouse full of fabrics from '70s- and '80s-era American car interiors, and cut them into a line of purses. Styles range from a bold red and black, super-sized houndstooth clutch to an Aztec print tote. Each is tagged with the car's year and make, so you'll know if you walk away with a limited-edition Camaro or a Pacer. $97-$215. 619 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-2610). —Samantha House

inner view

JUDD NELSON

Putting his Brat Pack years behind him, 42-year-old Judd Nelson has managed to build an impressive resume (and avoid the '80s-star purgatory of Lifetime original movies) through consistent work in film, television and theater, including NBC's Suddenly Susan and the film Jay and Silent Bob Strike Back. Currently, Nelson is back on stage in the Shubert Theatre's production of He She Them. Here he chats with us about acting, hometown teams and interoffice lovin'.

IB: You're from Maine originally. Do you consider yourself a New Englander?

JN: Absolutely. Not just a New Englander, but a Bruins, Celtics and Patriots fan exclusively, which is great and also incredibly painful.

IB: If the Patriots have any more injuries, are you willing to suit up?

JN: Absolutely, I'm not fast, I'm not strong, but I have good hands.

IB: He She Them is about an interoffice romance. Have you ever dipped your pen in the company ink?

JN: It's about a real estate developer who falls in love with his architect and the problem is she's married. Absolutely not. No, no, no. I'm a big fan of that expression, "Don't blank where you eat."

IB: What do you like most about your character?

JN: He's reached his 40s, he's always been single, same as me, and he's reaching this slow decision that he really doesn't want to spend his life alone, and she helps him reach that decision because he falls head over heels for her. Unfortunately, he chooses a married woman, ergo the play. It's fun for me, the notion of the analysis that goes into the transformation from a single man to one who desires a full commitment. Granted, you might make the argument that he's choosing someone he can't be with.

Nelson (right) in a scene from He She Them

IB: What project are you most proud of?

JN: What's that saying? Pride's a sin 'cause it blinds us. I've chosen all the projects I've done for different reasons. The most interesting for me, in retrospect, was a small independent I did called The Dark Backward. I played a victim in that, and most of the time I play victimizers. I fought for the role and I got it, and if there was one that stood out by virtue of its uniqueness, it would be that one.

IB: Did you ever have interest in pursuing fields other than acting and writing?

JN: I've always liked landscaping, strangely enough. My father's an attorney, but I was not that interested in doing that kind of work—there's a lot of schooling involved.

IB: Do you prefer the stage or screen, film over television?

JN: I like them all. I was trained as a theater actor. I like the immediate response you get from an audience. A lot of film is created in post-production and the actor is left out.

IB: We recently interviewed Anthony Michael Hall and he said the Brat Pack is still the first thing people ask him about. Is that true for you?

JN: Some people believe that any news is good news. I don't think that's true. I would say the bad thing about the term "brat pack" is it portrays people as unprofessional. The truth is all the actors I've worked with in my generation have been on time, hardworking, completely professional. There was no real group that hung out together. It was a catchy phrase from an unimaginative writer. But my mother says if you can't take the heat get out of the kitchen. It was a long time ago, and even some people in the South have stopped talking about the Civil War.

IB: Any closing comments?

JN: This is the year for the Red Sox!

—Jessica Iredale

ALPHA OMEGA
America's Watch & Diamond Specialists
Diamonds Since 1976

Flagship at Harvard Square
Natick Mall
Burlington Mall
Prudential Center
617-864-1227

Ebel Tarawa - Information: 1-877-777-EBEL - www.ebel.com

EBEL
SWISS WATCHMAKER SINCE 1911

tasty tidbits

FLAMMEKUECHE?

Say What?..."God bless you" is not, in fact, the proper response to "Flammekueche." Nor is flammekueche the Flemish word for redhead. It's actually an Alsatian crispy flatbread, topped with fromage blanc and blended spices, baked to order in a brick oven. (Sounds a bit like something we call pizza.) Cambridge's Sandrine's Bistro fired up a flammekueche bar just over a week ago, offering a package deal of four roughly 8-inch flammes (traditionally prepared with hickory smoked bacon, fromage blanc and caramelized onion), a simple green salad and choice of Alsatian ice beer Tutz or Alsatian Domaine Schlumberger pinot blanc. All for $21. 8 Holyoke St., Cambridge (617-497-5300).

In the 'Hood... Two new neighborhood hangouts have opened recently. The first, Soleil Café, is a sibling-owned venture in Somerville's Teele Square. Co-owners Bryan McConnaughey and his sister, Beth Ann Dahan, opened the gourmet deli/cafe in July. McConnaughey mans the kitchen, whipping up breakfast, lunch, dinner and an array of prepared foods, while Dahan manages the front of the house. We hear the food is delish. Over in Jamaica Plain, the coffee shop Junebug Café swung open its doors Sept. 1 in Rhythm & Muse's old digs, offering light fare of sandwiches, homemade entrées and pastries, plus wireless Internet access. Co-owner June Nguyen hopes the 'Bug will begin screening independent films on two large-screen TVs, as well as secure a 3 am curfew from the licensing board. Here's to positive thinking. Soleil Café, 1153 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-0082). Junebug Café, 403A Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-522-2393).

Co-owner Beth Ann Dahan assists customer Noah Buffet at Soleil Café.

Dessert at the Junebug

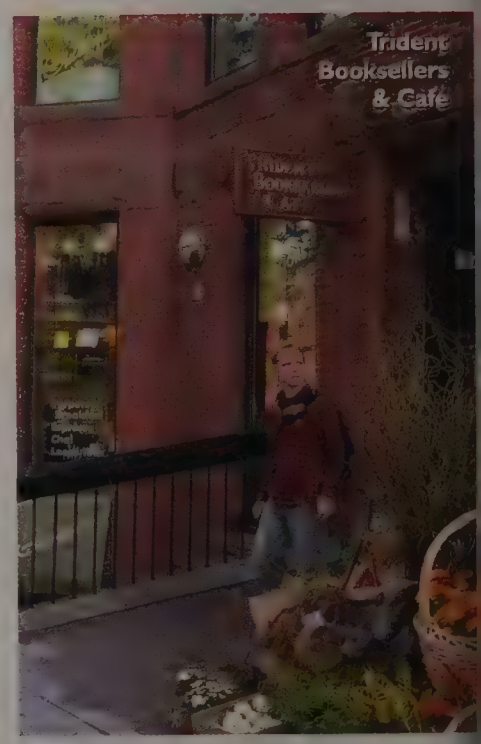
Competing with the Joneses... Dunkin' Donuts has ditched its no-frills attitude toward coffee, as evidenced by the recent addition of lattes, espresso and cappuccino to its menu. Needless to say, it seems like an attempt to compete with imperial Starbucks and its spawn. Old faithful Dunkin' Donuts promises to distinguish itself in the market by underpricing the competition, and it claims a faster turnaround time. Will DD lure Starbucks addicts away from their tall decaf nonfat vanilla latte with extra foam? Let the java wars begin.

American Anthem... Azure and City Bar chef Robert "Midas" Fathman is about to bring his golden touch to the North Station/FleetCenter area. What was formerly the Commonwealth Brewery and Downtown Lounge is now becoming one cohesive restaurant called Anthem. The joint venture between Fathman and the Briar Group is set to open in late October. The copper brewing cylinders and brew-pub feel have given way to a mahogany bar and velour beaded curtains—what a spokesperson describes as a "casual sexy" vibe. The lunch and dinner menu offers such quirky dishes as fried rock shrimp po' boy and fried Twinkies. "It's comfort food we all know and love," says Fathman. 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383).—E.H., J.I. and J.S.

improper reports

READ & NOSH

With sweater weather quickly approaching, our days of lazing in the park or at the beach with a good book are over. Here are some of the best indoor spots to buy or borrow a book and read while nibbling munchies.



Trident Booksellers & Cafe

✻Barnes & Noble Café: Sample goodies from the Cheesecake Factory in the store's two cafés. The Prudential Center, 111 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-247-6959).

✻Borders Café: Smoothies, sandwiches, desserts and snacks are served in the back corner of the bookstore, and there's a quieter space for reading that includes a glass room for people-watching. 100 Cambridgeside Place, Cambridge (617-679-0887).

✻The Harvard Coop: Read or study in the second-floor café, which serves sandwiches and pastries. 1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000).

✻Novel: The Boston Public Library's new restaurant offers afternoon tea, soup, gourmet salads and sandwiches, and entrées in its relaxed dining area, which looks out on the library's Italian courtyard. There's a selection of books to peruse while you eat. 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-385-5660).

✻Trident Booksellers & Café: Trident serves breakfast, lunch and dinner in its front dining room, where you can read a new release or gaze out onto Newbury Street. 338 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-8688).

✻Virgin Megastore Café: After you pick up the newest CD release, buy one of the store's many magazines or books and head upstairs to the window-lined cafe where you can savor a sandwich and soup while you read. 360 Newbury St., Boston (617-896-0950).

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Courier Kudos... Boston's crop of daredevil bike couriers has a champion among them. Adam Ford, an RS Express rider by day and Pho Republique bartender by night, recently took home top honors at the 11th annual Cycle Messenger World Championships in Seattle. The tour de dispatch draws riders from all over the world who compete for glory in skidding, cargo-carrying and urban navigation events. Ford swept three individual categories and departed Emerald City with a booty of trophies, bike supplies and parts. So what does this mean for the Lance Armstrong of alternative biking? "It's not really going to change anything for me," says Ford. It's just another day out of the office.

Stop the Presses!... Or shall we say, Start them? Okay, bad pun, but for what must be the first time in the history of print media, a New York daily has been inspired by one based in Boston. Former Boston Metro publisher Russel Pergament and the Chicago-based Tribune Co. are set to launch amNew York, a Big Apple version of the Metro, in the fall. The ADD sufferers' dream targets young urban commuters. Pergament is so confident in his grasp of the notoriously fickle audience, he reportedly plans to surpass the Metro's 166,000 daily circulation. Probably not that lofty a goal considering the population difference between the two cities.

A for Effort... It all comes down to money. As of Oct. 8, indie favorite the Allston Cinema Underground is no more. Clinton McClung, the man behind the celluloid mayhem that movie junkies have come to cherish at both the Allston Cinema and the Coolidge Corner Theatre, closes up the ACU with a big thank you to underground cinema junkies. Rest assured, he'll continue programming for the Coolidge and will look for new projects. "There will be more crazy, inventive programming elsewhere in town as we work to collaborate with other venues to find a permanent home for underground, cult, and subversive cinema," he says. Another positive note is that the Allston Bombay Cinema (in the same complex) will continue the Underground's Kung Fu Mania series on Wednesday Nights.

Mish vs. Isabel... When we heard WBZ-4's weather darling Mish Michaels was ditching the Doppler for a firsthand look at the eye of Hurricane Isabel, our first thought was, "Is she nuts?" Turns out, meteorologists all over the country were dying to get a one-on-one with Izzy. Michaels was one of three lucky stormchasers (out of 2,000 applicants) who got to ride in a C130 airplane into the eye on Sept. 17. So what was it like in the belly of the beast? According to Michaels, "We experienced moderate turbulence while I was up there, and I really began to get very nauseated." Luckily some pressurized wristbands nipped the nausea in the bud, and Michaels and company were saved from any upsets. Any glimpse of Dorothy and Toto? "No, they were in a tornado," says Michaels. "There were probably a lot of disturbed fish, but no mammals."

Daredevil Mish Michaels

Beacon Hill Bites... Attention local politicos. Last month marked the launch of a new Web site dedicated to sharing the blather of all things left and right on Beacon Hill. Former Boston Herald and Boston Business Journal political columnist Michael Segal launched www.massinsider.com to provide free "coverage on the coverage" of 50 Mass. newspapers, as well as some nationals. Segal models his advertising-funded service after such nationals as ABC News' e-mail newsletter The Note. Regular features include a point/counterpoint segment in which representatives Peter Larkin and James Marzilli square off on various issues, and Legleaks, which focuses on Hill gossip from State House insiders. "I want this to be a must-read for the public opinion–making people of Massachusetts—and I want to make some money," says Segal.

DIY Is Dead... If you haven't been to Cambridge's Grolier Poetry Book Shop in a while, and you're planning on stopping by, a word to the wise: Keep your hands to yourself. When we last stopped in to browse through books, we learned that owner Louisa Solano had declared that Grolier was "no longer self-service," meaning that customers are allowed to view the titles in their spots on the shelves, but handling of the wares is for personnel only. (This kind of bold watchdog policy is normally reserved for antiquarian book shops that specialize in pricey vintage tomes.) "People originally complained about it all the time," Solano says. "It just makes me more comfortable. I don't really think it's so terrible."

—E.H., J.I. and J.S.

Got scoop?

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

Why should Saturday and Sunday have all the fun?

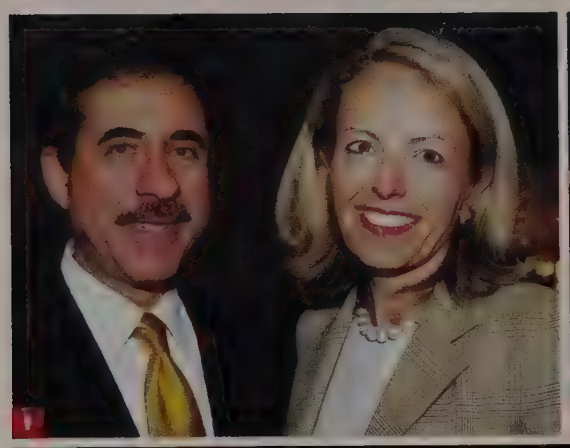
Take a few days off this week and experience the East Coast's premier getaway destination. Enjoy our brand new luxury hotel, pool, sun terrace and spa, spectacular gaming, gourmet restaurants, unique shops and unparalleled entertainment. For hotel reservations call 1.888.777.7922. For more information, visit mohegansun.com, or call 1.888.226.7711. Come play.

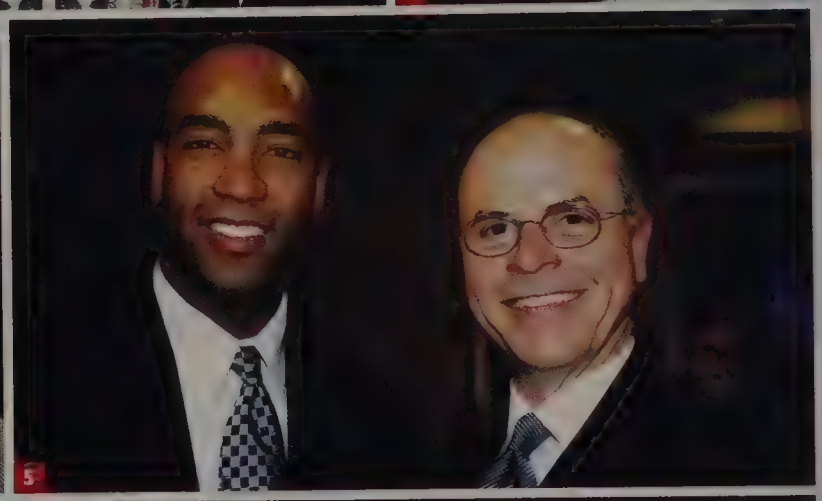
Mohegan Sun

a legendary getaway experience

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY MARGARET BRETT





An Evening of Fashion for Art with designer Giuliana Teso, was held Sept. 25 at Neiman Marcus. More than 150 guests attended the champagne reception and fashion show, which raised funds for the Boston Chapter of Save Venice Inc.

1. Juan Prieto, CEO of Cabot, Cabot and Forbes, and Dyan Goodwin, senior vice president of Fleet Private Clients Group.
2. From left: Anthony Orlando, director of the Giuliana Teso Luxury Division in New York; Giuliana Teso, designer; and Terry Thornton, divisional merchandise manager of furs for Neiman Marcus.
3. Victoria DiStephano (left), co-chair, and Sunne Savage, private art dealer.
4. From left: Hollis Colby, executive committee board member for Save Venice; Dr. Rick Spagnuolo, D.D.S, West Roxbury; and Jody Snider, director of new business development for Soup2Nuts in Watertown.
5. Darryl Anderson (left) and John Lovallo, human resource manager and merchandise manager, respectively, for Neiman Marcus.
6. From left: Jennifer O'Neil, student at UMass Medical in Worcester; her mother, Elinor; and her sister, Allison O'Neil Fischoeder, assistant district attorney for the Middlesex District Attorneys Office.
7. From left: Emily Webster, sales professional for Webster & Co.; Pierluigi Squillante, Italian consul general; and Jan Saragoni, president of Saragoni & Co. in Boston.

Mount Auburn Hospital honored John Kenneth Galbraith, professor emeritus of economics at Harvard University, at a dinner on Sept. 24 at the Royal Sonesta Hotel in Cambridge. More than 250 friends of the world-renowned economist gathered to celebrate his many accomplishments. Proceeds from the event benefited Mount Auburn Hospital's cardiac services, including the construction of a new electro-physiology treatment center. Tickets were $250.

8. From left: Thomas O'Neill, chairman of the Mount Auburn Hospital board of trustees; Nancy Derderian, event chair; and Kelam Derderian, contract administrator for the Boston School Department.
9. Leon Palandjian, Mount Auburn Hospital trustee, and his wife, Tracy, managing director for the Parthenon Group.
10. Lisa Compagnone (left), nurse anesthetist at Mount Auburn Hospital, and Monica Wu, occupational therapist.
11. John Kenneth Galbraith, economist, and Jeanette Clough, president and CEO of the Mount Auburn Hospital.

ALPHA OMEGA

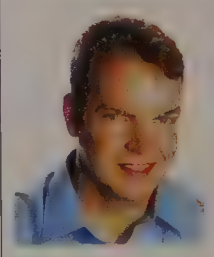
prudential center harvard square natick mall
burlington mall 617.864.1227

GUCCI

Up on the Roof.
THE HOTTEST SPOT IN
THE NORTH END
RISTORANTE
FIORE
AUTHENTIC. ITALIAN. CUISINE.
THE NORTH END'S ONLY
ROOFTOP DINING
3 DISTINCTIVE DINING ROOMS
CHARMING SIDEWALK CAFE
250 Hanover Street
Boston, MA 02113
www.ristorantefiore.com
617.371.1176
RESERVATIONS RECOMMENDED

ezra

BY EZRA DYER



PLAYER HATER

Despite a couple of minor issues with pimps and pee, the new digs are mighty nice

I moved into a new apartment about a month ago, and so far I don't regret the move. The new pad is a lot bigger than my old place, it's got a backyard garden area, and it's convenient to many downtown destinations. I'm really quite happy with it, but I'm still getting used to the neighborhood. Every area has its own unique attractions, be it Charles Street in Beacon Hill, the restaurants of the North End or Back Bay's ever-festive Commonwealth Avenue mall. Likewise, my new locale is a vibrant, bustling community offering everything a savvy young professional like myself could want, be it an eight-ball of crack, a couple of hookers or a dark, trash-strewn alley in which to enjoy either one.

There are upsides to living in a seedy neighborhood. For one thing, the abundance of pimps means that you never have to worry about ho's getting out of line. I know this is true because a few weeks ago I was awakened at 4 am by a pimp reprimanding one of his employees directly outside my bedroom window. I could only hear the pimp end of the conversation, but apparently he had a problem with her productivity—a classic management dilemma. At one point he said, "I don't care if you lookin' sexy, you out here to make money!"

There was subsequent debate over how much money was to be made and so on, and eventually I began wondering if I would be kept up all night by this here playa'. I'd never dealt with this scenario in Beacon Hill, so I wasn't sure how to proceed. Should I call the cops? Should I poke my head out the window and say, "Excuse me, Mr. Pimp? Would you mind keeping it down a bit? Trying to get a little shut-eye, thanks!...I'm sorry, I don't know anyone named Joe Mama."

Until my recent encounter, I'd always thought of pimps as fur coat–wearing individuals who drive money-green Cadillacs and wear platform shoes filled with goldfish (to reference the seminal film I'm Gonna Git You Sucka). But this pimp was just scary and probably wasn't even wearing a comical hat. If I were his ho', I'd be looking around for a new hustler with better people skills.

Having a lot of prostitutes in the area also makes me feel guilty whenever I'm driving around looking for a parking space. The other night I got home around midnight and ran into a traffic jam because of a drug deal going down at the end of the street. (I'm assuming that the guy in the car and the guy standing at his window were not exchanging recipes for delicious chocolate pudding.) So I was stuck sitting there as scantily clad ladies strutted past my car and stared at me. You know you don't live in the best part of town when you find yourself thinking, "I wish they'd hurry up with that drug deal so I could get away from these hookers."

At least the prostitutes don't bother me personally, which is in stark contrast to my upstairs neighbors. The people several floors above me like to party. That's OK—I enjoy getting drunk and screaming as much as the next guy. But on a recent Saturday morning at about 3 am, roommate Scott and I were eating late-night mac and cheese and watching Old School for the 300th time when a sudden downpour erupted outside. This downpour was extremely localized; in fact, it was hitting just one of our chairs outside. Yes, some cretin upstairs was standing on the fire escape and urinating all over our things. Worse, we couldn't get outside to take action because the deluge was directly in front of our door.

I'D ALWAYS THOUGHT OF PIMPS AS FUR COAT–WEARING INDIVIDUALS WHO DRIVE MONEY-GREEN CADILLACS.

For a moment I contemplated grabbing an umbrella, braving the storm and climbing the fire escape (an idea that I can only attribute to my having consumed excessive quantities of beer at the Beantown Pub earlier in the evening), but fear of getting leaked on kept me inside until the last drop had fallen. At that point we rushed outside and screamed obscenities toward the upper floors of the building, which didn't change the situation any but probably aggravated our neighbors who hadn't peed all over the patio. But if my friends upstairs are reading this, I'll have you know that we've wired the fire escape with 110-volt AC current, and if you pee on our chairs again you will be electrocuted through your johnson.

My neighborhood might be the model for Liberty City in Grand Theft Auto 3, and my fellow residents might think my backyard is a bathroom, but I've now got a bedroom that's big enough for me to approach the bed from either side, and that's pretty sweet. IB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

E-mail ezra@improper.com for a good time.

rporate events . holiday parties . birthdays . reunions . bachelorette parties

Unique Venues

Live Entertainment & DJs

Professional Catering

Friendly Staff

BostonsBestEvents.com

(617) 351-2510

Soroff ON

PERRI KLASS

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Perri Klass, who served as judge for the IMPROPER's fiction contest this year (see page 30 for the winning story), is a practicing pediatrician, an acclaimed author of fiction and nonfiction and a prize-winning journalist. Born in Trinidad (the daughter of a cultural anthropologist), she was raised mainly in New York and New Jersey, except for a year spent in India. After graduating from Harvard, she began graduate studies in zoology at Berkeley but then returned to Harvard to study medicine. Following a fellowship at Boston City Hospital, she began her clinical practice in Dorchester. As a writer, she published her first story in Seventeen magazine when she was 13. Since then, she has won five O. Henry Awards for her short stories, which have been published in the collections Love and Modern Medicine and I Am Having An Adventure. She has also published two novels, Recombinations and Other Women's Children, and two collections of essays about medicine, A Not Entirely Benign Procedure: Four Years as a Medical Student and Baby Doctor: A Pediatrician's Training. Her columns and articles have appeared in The New York Times Magazine, The Washington Post and Parenting. She recently won a James Beard Foundation Journalism Award for an article in Gourmet magazine. She lives in Cambridge with Larry Wolff, a Boston College history professor, and their children.

Jonathan Soroff: What's more important or gratifying to you—being a doctor or a writer?

Perri Klass: I could do other jobs. I could be something other than a doctor, or I could be a different kind, and I'd still be a writer. I can't imagine anything I would do with my life that didn't include writing. On the other hand, on a day-to-day basis, I'm much more deeply involved in being a doctor. What keeps me up at night, what worries me, often has to do with taking care of patients. I also have to acknowledge that the person I am, and the voice I have as a writer, are certainly shaped by being a doctor.

JS: So is writing an escape from the responsibilities of being a doctor?

PK: Sometimes. And it's a very particular kind of escape. If you think about the accusation that doctors like to play God, well, how much more can you play God than by being a novelist?

JS: Is that the biggest similarity between doctoring and writing?

PK: Well, that's probably the biggest connection between doctoring and writing fiction. For journalism, there's another similarity, which has to do with being a busybody. A lot of your clinical education as a doctor is learning to ask rude questions. You have to see someone who looks like your grandmother and go in five minutes from "Hi," to "It says here that you've been constipated," or "How many sexual partners have you had?" So the interest in other people's lives and the eagerness to ask questions outside the bounds of polite chit-chat are things doctors have in common with journalists.

> I COULD BE SOMETHING OTHER THAN A DOCTOR, AND I'D STILL BE A WRITER. I CAN'T IMAGINE ANYTHING I WOULD DO WITH MY LIFE THAT DIDN'T INCLUDE WRITING.

JS: Which pays better?

PK: [Laughs.] For me, medicine pays better and more regularly.

JS: Of the many doctors who were also writers—Arthur Conan Doyle, Robin Cook, Somerset Maugham—who's your favorite?

PK: Well, if I were choosing an ideal or a model, I'd want it to be someone who actually practiced medicine while writing, and the problem is many of the ones I admire most as writers, like Maugham or Chekhov, didn't practice. For them, doctoring was a detour. So the pediatric model would probably be William Carlos Williams, who had a busy practice but was also an incredible poet and writer.

JS: The only profession that seems to produce more writers is law. Why is that?

PK: With both professions, there's a surfeit of plot. You're surrounded by drama and conflict. There's also that curiosity, busybody factor for both, which I think is real, and probably some desire to escape the bounds of your profession.

JS: As a pediatrician, what one thing do you wish all parents knew?

PK: Probably the importance of books in young children's lives, and the importance of reading to them starting when they're very young. What that translates into is the fact that nothing takes the place of what parents can give their kids one-on-one, nothing compares to what kids get from books, and nothing links children to books like a parent reading to them.

JS: Isn't caring for other people's children extraordinarily difficult?

PK: Not half as difficult as dealing with adults.

JS: But I would think it would be tough to constantly see children in pain or suffering.

PK: That's true, and the interesting paradox of pediatrics is that we all go into it because we like children, but having chosen it, especially during residency, it involves actually causing pain, giving shots or running an IV. That's one of the hardest things about the training. On the other hand, if you're doing primary-care pediatrics, your patients are almost all going to grow up, for the most part they're healthy, and the good thing about working with kids is that as soon as they feel a little bit better, they act it. There's no such thing as a child sitting around saying, "Oh, boy, have I been sick." As soon as they feel a little bit better, they're bouncing around the room, and that's really satisfying.

JS: Top three parenting tips?

PK: To start with, every little thing isn't going to determine the outcome. I'm amazed by the level of agony some parents put themselves through over small decisions. The whole "Oh, no! He's wrecked for life!" mindset. He's not. You get seven million chances to screw it up or get it right, and it's going to be cumulative. The second would come back to books and reading. One of the great joys of child rearing is those moments when they go beyond you, and that seems to happen most often with books, as they learn things their parents might not know, or explore their own interests. And finally, I'd probably say, remember to have fun. Being brought up by someone who's doing it conscientiously or obsessively or neurotically is not helpful.

JS: You won a James Beard Award. Are you a good cook?

PK: Yeah, but that's not why I won. I wrote an essay called "The Lunch Box as Battlefield" for Gourmet magazine. I'm a veteran of many years of day care in Cambridge, and there are always some crazy parents in the group who are trying to bring up their children in some nutritionally pure zone, whatever that is. They say, "How does my child even know Gummi Worms exist? Because you put them in your child's lunchbox!" So then they try to make a rule like, "No white sugar," or "no flour," and my essay was a sort of grouchy "stay outta my kid's lunchbox" rant. I told a story, which was true, about a little boy who was being brought up with no white sugar of any kind, and he traded away his winter coat for an Oreo cookie.

JS: Where the hell do you find the time to write?

PK: A lot of the time, I don't. I'd probably write more if I weren't a doctor. But there's the cliché about pediatrics, that a lot of us have a touch of attention deficit. I think for me it's a nicer feeling that I have a lot more to write than time to do it in, as opposed to having a lot of time and not much to say.

JS: Three people from history you'd most like to have dinner with?

PK: Wow. I'm thinking of a bunch of people, and interestingly, they're all writers. I'm not sure why that is, since I'm not sure writers make the best dinner guests, but of the top of my head: Mary McCarthy, Barbara Pym, and from the point of view of really good conversation, Dorothy Parker.

JS: Is there a word or phrase you overuse, and if so, does it relate to medicine?

PK: All doctors, child-rearing experts and teachers overuse the words "appropriate" and "inappropriate," and I'm trying to eradicate them from my vocabulary. Within my family, I'm also notorious about my feelings for the word "share." I really can't deal with the usage: "Share your feelings," or "I'd like to share this with you," unless the person is talking about a box of cookies that's too big for him to eat by himself.

JS: What one adjective would you use to describe your writing?

PK: I might go with something like "good-humored."

JS: Would you use the same adjective to describe yourself as a doctor?

PK: I hope so. IB

IN ESTONIA WE SAY:

Ilust juba suppi ei keeda, viinaga on hoopis teine lugu.

IN AMERICA YOU SAY:

ONE CANNOT MAKE SOUP OUT OF BEAUTY, BUT VODKA IS ANOTHER STORY.

WE PROUDLY INTRODUCE OUR FINE ESTONIAN VODKA.

EMBRACE LIFE. DRINK RESPONSIBLY. TURIVODKA.COM ... TÜRI VODKA AND DEVICE ARE TRADEMARKS. ©2002 IMPORTED BY CASDON IMPORTING COMPANY, MIAMI, FL. VODKA • 40% ALC. BY VOL.

IN THREE INTERVIEWS, WRITERS ASK OTHER WRITERS ABOUT THE COMPELLING, SOMETIMES CURIOUS, INTERACTION BETWEEN WORK, LIFE AND THE CREATIVE FORCE WITHIN

TOM PERROTTA

Interview by Steve Almond

Tom Perrotta is the author of four books: the novels The Wishbones, Joe College and Election (which was made into a 1999 film) and a short-story collection, Bad Haircut: Stories of the Seventies. The 42-year-old New Jersey native is also an accomplished screenwriter who has written several original scripts. His next novel, Little Children, will be published in March by St. Martin's. He lives in Belmont with his wife and two children.

Steve Almond: What's the new book about?
Tom Perrotta: It's kind of a departure for me, because I think I've finally stepped away from coming of age and New Jersey. I'm trying to tackle what my life has become, so it's basically about young parents behaving badly. That's my tagline.
SA: But you don't behave badly, do you?
TP: Well, I'm writing fiction (laughs). Actually, what you have in Little Children are these two parents of 3-year-olds. They meet at the playground and begin this torrid affair that is made possible by the fact that their kids nap at the same time every day. In this same town is a child molester who's been released from prison and has come back to live with his mother. The parents in town know he's back, and there's a lot of agitation to try to get rid of him. So the main male character has this daytime secret life of having this intense affair and a nighttime secret life of teaming up with this ex-cop and trying to get rid of this child molester. And these two stories sort of collide. The comic tone is at odds with some of the dark material. I've always been interested in that.
SA: What was it like having Election made into a film?
TP: That was a great experience for many reasons. The first was that I couldn't publish the book. It had been sitting on my shelf for about four years before it got optioned for film, and that then drove the publication. Then they also made a great movie. I made a significant amount of money, and I hate to talk about money, but I wasn't making a living as a writer till then. It's funny, I used to go to writers' conferences and I'd tell people I wrote Bad Haircut and The Wishbones, and they'd go, "Well, that's nice." And now I say, "I wrote Election," and they say, "Oh! I saw that movie!"
SA: Do you find that depressing?
TP: No, only because it seems like a step up. The other reality was more depressing [laughs].
SA: How did you get into screenwriting?
TP: Partly to make money. But I have always loved movies. When I went on set for Election, I had a kind of revelation. I could see that films created this whole community, all these strangers converging to work like crazy for three or four months, and that seemed extremely appealing to me. If I had known at age 20 that working in that kind of community was a possibility, I might have gone in that direction. But I was so focused on becoming the kind of writer I am, I didn't see it.
SA: Was shifting to screenwriting hard?
TP: In a way it's been easy for me. As a fiction writer I've paid every kind of dues you can pay. I wrote three books before I got one published. I ghostwrote teen horror novels for money. I feel like I dove for every scrap. With film, because Election was a success, the doors just flew open. I know if I had gone to L.A. as a screenwriter I would have had to bang my head against the wall for 10 years. But there's a certain kind of respect you get out there as a book writer, because at some moment you have material that people want. But once you become a screenwriter, it doesn't matter who you are. You're not in charge anymore, you're an employee.
SA: Are the two forms similar?
TP: No, I definitely see screenwriting as a different craft. I remember when I first started writing fiction, someone told me, "In Hollywood they insist that a certain thing happen by page 27," and I was appalled because it seemed like the antithesis of novel writing. When I write novels, I regularly start with only the thinnest sense of what I'm doing. I just need some little engine to get started, and I'll find out where I end up in a year or two. But with a script, you'd better not start writing unless you can pretty much outline it all scene by scene.
SA: Did you always want to be a writer?
TP: It's almost embarrassing when my kids ask me what I wanted to be at their age, because it was never a real career. It was always a path to glory: writer, baseball player, lead guitar player.
SA: What happened with music?
TP: Well, obviously it didn't work out [laughs]. Actually, it's a really interesting thing, because as a teacher I often meet students who are trying so hard, and I can see that it doesn't come easily to them. And I really feel for them because I was that way with music. I tried so hard, and there were things I could teach myself to do by sheer determination, but I just lacked some basic musicality.

SA: You're a Jersey guy. How'd you end up in Boston?

TP: I basically crawled my way up the East Coast. I taught for a couple of years at Yale after grad school; then I was offered a job in the Expository Writing program at Harvard. I stopped teaching after three years, when the screenwriting started, and at that point we could have moved anywhere. But we didn't want to go anywhere.

SA: Will you ever stop writing?

TP: I hope not. If I had become a rock and roll star, or an athlete, I guess I would have had to stop. But if you're a writer, there's nothing that says you have to stop, and nothing to keep you from getting better.

Steve Almond's story collection, My Life in Heavy Metal, is out in paperback. Algonquin will publish his next book, Candyfreak: A Journey Through the Chocolate Underbelly of America, in spring 2004.

Elinor Lipman (left) and Mameve Medwed

ELINOR LIPMAN

Interview by Mameve Medwed

Elinor Lipman is the author of seven novels, including The Inn at Lake Devine, Isabel's Bed and, most recently, the widely acclaimed Pursuit of Alice Thrift. She says she most certainly does not tire of the frequent Jane Austen comparisons—what writer would?—and has been described by Publishers Weekly as "as close as you can get to that oxymoron, an unneurotic writer." She lives in Cambridge.

Mameve Medwed: First things first—in the interest of full disclosure, would you like to quote the dedication to The Pursuit of Alice Thrift?

Elinor Lipman: "For Mameve Medwed, dear and exemplary friend."

MM: Now onto the heavy-duty stuff. Your hair is longer—can you tell us about that?

EL: It's been really short since I was 28, and my son started saying on a regular basis, "Mom. It's so 1980s." The defining moment was seeing pictures of myself taken at a Curry College event about 18 months ago. I was horrified by the pixie-ish tendril effect. I began growing my hair that day. No one recognizes me, though.

MM: Beauty angst aside, I guess we should move on to the "w" word. Why did you become a writer?

EL: I hate that question. Although I usually have to answer it politely.

MM: What's your polite answer?

EL: Lots of encouragement early on starting with my father. He actually brought my "How I Spent My Summer Vacation" essay, which I wrote the first day of sixth grade, to his nightly rocking-chair-on-the-veranda club and read it aloud to his friends Sam McElroy, Bill Corbett and Eddie Reeney. In college I majored in something then called publications at Simmons, where I wrote for the school newspaper and penned a few satires, such as "How to Be a Freshman," but wrote not a word of fiction until I was 28.

MM: The same year you cut your hair? Maybe your biographers will make a big deal over that.

EL: Free advice to future biographers: Leave that topic out of your book proposal.

MM: To return to how you started writing, what was the catalyst?

EL: I had just read Anne Sexton: A Self-Portrait in Letters, which gave me the idea to sign up for a creative writing workshop. [Sexton took a course] at BU, taught by Robert Lowell. After class, the whole group went to the Ritz for martinis. [Within two months] I enrolled in a beginning fiction workshop at Brandeis adult ed, run by Arthur Edelstein, who I always say taught me to write.

MM: I am duty bound, journalistically, to ask if one can go to school to learn how to write.

EL: I can only answer for myself. He taught me some basics, corrected mistakes and hammered in fundamentals about point of view, dialogue and voice. Mostly, he saw something there underneath the beginner's efforts.

MM: How did you get from adult ed to Random House?

EL: The briefest summary—and I'm known for my economy—is: a couple of short stories published, a Viking short-story collection in 1987. Then I followed my editor to Pocket for three more novels. Finally to Random House and Vintage for the last four, and, I hope, however many more I squeeze out.

MM: What other questions do you hate?

EL: "Where do you get your ideas?"—which is unanswerable and usually asked by someone who doesn't understand how real life pushes a button in the brain and produces an idea that inspires a novel. They want a concrete answer like "The Wall Street Journal" or "Filene's Basement." I also dread the question, Whom do you like to read? because my mind goes blank and because in almost every case I can't recommend an author's entire oeuvre—present company excluded. I've started keeping a li with me: 10 books I've recently read and loved that th audience writes down dutifully to report to their boo groups, which is the whole point of their question.

MM: So I shouldn't ask you to name names?

EL: I name my buddies: You, Anita Shreve, Stacy Schif Steve McCauley, Tom Perrotta, Haven Kimme Madeleine Blais, Meg Wolitzer, Margot Livesey, Carolir Preston, Anthony Giardina, Roland Merullo, and I ways begin with Carol Shields. Is this name-droppin Because when pressed, I can name strangers.

MM: Let's stick with the buddies since it's a great segue to th next question. You're thanked, acknowledged, exalted by other writers in their books, interviews, essays, poems, etc., extolling your generosity and help—present company include

EL: It's viewed as generosity but I look at it as a selfi act because I get so much pleasure out of seeing a wo derful manuscript turned into a book. People think help every newcomer, but I don't. I only take up th cause of terrific writers.

MM: Which you made so clear in your "Writers on Writin essay in The New York Times where you talked about blu promiscuity.

EL: Some grouch once said you should judge the value a blurb by how many times that author's name appears a book jacket in a given year. I disagree. My sense is th people who blurb a lot remember what's it's like to for for quotes and how good it feels to get the blessing c published author.

MM: Another dreaded question must be, What are you working on now?

EL: Not so dreaded. I have five chapters of a new novel set in, of course, greater Boston. At this point I don't say what it's about because several of my beginnings have ended up in my own junk pile.

MM: Any news from the undependables in Hollywood?

EL: Actually, I just signed a contract for The Inn at Lake Devine, not with Hollywood, which had no appetite for a movie about anti-Semitism, but with two English blokes. There's interest in a few other titles, but until I sign the contract, I consider it pie in the sky.

MM: Do you think I should ask about your hobbies?

EL: I read. I knit. I just bought Pilates for Dummies. I walk if the weather conditions are ideal. I write e-mail. I'm a trustee at the Williston Northampton School, my son's alma mater, so I'm pretty involved there. I cook a lot.

MM: What's for dinner tonight?

EL: [Long pause] Do you think that casts us in a serious enough light?

MM: Probably not.

EL: Then say "madeleines."

Mameve Medwed is the author of three novels: Mail, Host Family, and her just-published The End of an Error. Her short stories, essays and book reviews have appeared in, among others, Yankee, Redbook, Playgirl, The Boston Globe and Newsday. Mail, her first novel, has been optioned by Archer Street Films and will be directed by Sharon Maguire (Bridget Jones's Diary). Born in Bangor, Maine, she and her husband have two sons and live in Cambridge. She met Elinor Lipman 24 years ago in a creative writing workshop, and they have been friends, through publishing thick and thin, ever since.

AMES CARROLL

nterview by Matthew Pearl

mes Carroll is the acclaimed author of numerous fiction nd nonfiction books and a winner of the National Book ward for An American Requiem: God, My Father, and the Var That Came Between Us. His new book, Secret Father, his first novel in nine years. Carroll also writes a weekly o-ed column for The Boston Globe. He lives in Boston.

atthew Pearl: You're a poet and a columnist as well as author. What's your answer when someone asks what you , and how do you prefer to think of yourself professionally?

mes Carroll: I take pleasure in identifying myself as a iter. My work has me on the margins of several institutons and professions (the press, religion, politics, fiction). y marginal status is precisely what gives me the way into merous worlds—although never with the power of nure. Such access is a privilege. Orwell says that free play the mind is key to the art of fiction, but it is necessary for good writing. And in my case, the various forms stimure each other. My preoccupations as a weekly op-ed lumnist inform my longer works of history; my responsiities as a political writer and as a citizen inspire aspects my fiction. My religious interest pushes me toward self-ticism (how can a Catholic not be self-critical?) and to nsider the great questions of death, loss, hope. All of s, in my case, defines the vocation of writer.

?: It can be awkward when someone you meet hasn't urd of your writing, or perhaps even more awkward when y have. Or when they think you've written something that haven't. Do people ever confuse you with Jim Carroll he Basketball Diaries*) or Lewis Carroll?*

Instead of assuming that strangers are familiar with work, I am, frankly, always somewhat surprised if they are. After all, to be a writer is to imagine, first, that there are readers out there. Readers become the ultimate figment of a writer's imagination. Then, when a writer actually encounters readers as real, it can seem a wondrous surprise, almost as if one is encountering, on the street, the characters in one's fiction. Any interaction with readers, whether through mail or in person, is precious.

MP: Many authors complain about touring to promote their books. You're in the middle of a tour to promote Secret Father. Are you enjoying it?

JC: Since the work of writing is intensely solitary, the quite unsolitary work of promotion poses a real challenge. It's not enough to simply throw one's finished book out of one's room, as it were. The book deserves to be led somewhat gently into the world, where it will then find its fate. I rather like the brief chore of the book tour. I especially value the chance to meet booksellers and librarians, who are the true heroes of this business.

MP: Speaking of interaction, have you considered having a Web site?

JC: I'm actually a bit shy about interacting with the public through the computer. That has less to do with my somewhat awkward relationship to the new technologies (I still think of my computer mainly as a typewriter) than with my rather desperate wish to maintain a zone of privacy. I still depend on my publishers to serve as the mediators between me and the public, and I hope to continue doing so.

MP: From your vantage point, what has changed most about book publishing since the start of your career?

JC: I began my professional novel-writing life at Little, Brown when it was still run by Arthur Thornhill Jr., who had taken over [in the 1960s] from his father. A great American publisher, yet it still had the spirit of a family business. And its main concern was not profit, but quality publishing. It was a privilege to begin my career in such a place, and though the much-noted takeover of publishing by profit-driven conglomerates has increased, American publishing still has islands of quality and seriousness. Houghton Mifflin remains one of them. Its devotion to quality publishing draws sustenance from its being in Boston.

MP: Has the literary community in Boston changed or evolved in the years you've lived here as a professional writer?

JC: There is a thriving literary community in Boston, centered in PEN New England. PEN is especially impressive in its work for literacy and its defense of free expression. The joyous celebration of writing is at the heart of this community, as, more than ever, it becomes apparent what a marvel good writing is. That there is so much in America—and Boston—is less appreciated than it should be.

MP: As a columnist for the Globe, you often express strong political, though not partisan, views. How do you feel about politics as part of fiction?

JC: Partly through accidents of family and age, I'm a politically preoccupied person, which affects my writing. Opposition to war defines my life. That provides me with an obvious theme for my columns, but how could it not show up in my fiction as well? Secret Father takes up the question of what story we tell about the Cold War. Was it "won" by America, through the brandishing of its weapons? Or was it, perhaps, brought to its mainly nonviolent conclusion by nonviolent movements on both sides of the Wall, but especially in the East? There are political implications to memory, grief, loss and even love. The characters in my fiction—because it's mine—must make their ways through that thicket, even if they do it in their own ways.

MP: Do you pay close attention to critical reactions to your work?

JC: Critics can help a writer to be better. I've published 10 novels, and the most important reviews I've received are the ones that, first, grasped my intentions for the book, and second, helped me see how I'd fallen short of them. To be measured against Proust can be profoundly disheartening for all but the most gifted writers. To be measured against one's own potential can be profoundly useful. Of course, in that case, one is always falling short. That is why the main impulse I have when I complete a novel is to get to work on the next one. To do it better.

MP: Fiction and nonfiction are seen as separate universes, though they seem to me to swirl together in so many important ways. As someone accomplished in both forms, do you see fiction and nonfiction writing as being connected?

JC: It's important to maintain the distinction between fiction and nonfiction, for the sake of the integrity of both forms. I referred earlier to Orwell's note about the free play of the mind in fiction. Nonfiction requires an expansive imagination too, but the firm discipline that's required by faithfulness to facts can itself be a source of a liberated imagination. In fiction, the free play can be far more unbounded, which is why reading a novel can be so exhilarating. Of course, a work of fiction is bound too, but bound by itself. Thus, in a novel, anything can happen—but only as long as it's true to the character whose action makes it so. The greatest moments in fiction come when the infinite possibilities of an unfolding story lead to outcomes, however surprising, that alone—the exact right ending—fulfill those possibilities. IB

Matthew Pearl is the author of the historical thriller The Dante Club, a New York Times bestseller now being translated into more than 15 languages. He will appear at the Concord Festival of Authors Nov. 2. He lives in Cambridge.

easy LISTENING

New literary events mix old-fashioned readings with a party atmosphere

BY RICCO VILLANUEVA SIASOCO
PHOTOGRAPHS BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

"Writers with Drinks" may sound like the name of a whacked-out reality TV show hosted by a slurring Charles Bukowski or a raucous roundtable of larger-than-life figures like F. Scott Fitzgerald, Ernest Hemingway and Dorothy Parker. But just outside Harvard Square, down a steep flight of stairs and into the smoky air of a red-lit bar, it is exactly this—real writers with stiff drinks—that's drawn four dozen audience members to this basement room. The crowd of 20- and 30-something hipsters, who form a fashion menagerie of black leather, nerdy-chic glasses and striped socks, are here for the latest evening of Writers with Drinks, a kind of literary reading/vaudeville show/cocktail party. People lounge at café tables with studied poses, or stand as if in a police lineup against the mirrored wall.

"Every reading should have alcohol and music—the more the better," says Karl Iagnemma, author of the short-story collection On the Nature of Human Romantic Interaction and a fan of literary events like this one that combine reading with other diversions. "They tend to relax listeners and readers and basically guarantee that everyone's going to have a good time."

In smoky (or smoke-free) bars, busy four-star restaurants and opulent hotel lobbies, a flurry of new reading events like Writers with Drinks are mixing the literary with the loungelike. Other notable series include Books & Brews, hosted by the indomitable Newtonville Books, and the new Weekly Readings at the Marlowe (the brainchild of best-selling author Sue Miller with PEN New England), an elegant cocktail and hors d'oeuvres event that takes place monthly at Cambridge's Hotel Marlowe. All aim to transform the traditional readings that have been de rigueur for Boston's literary scene into something a little more lively and social.

It's not just drink that contributes to the relaxed atmosphere. In the one-of-a-kind Cover 2 Cover series, organizers Steve Almond and Tim Huggins have put writers and musicians on the same bill, the writers "covering" their favorite authors (imagine witty Election author Tom Perrotta reading from Raymond Carver's What We Talk About When We Talk About Love or best-selling author Laura Zigman reading a work in progress by indie rocker Jen Trynin) and the musicians doing the same (like Buffalo Tom's Bill Janovitz covering country legend George Jones). The result? An intoxicating hybrid of literature, music and entertainment.

Newtonville Books owner Tim Huggins was the first in the Boston area to pair writers and drinks through his two popular series, Books & Brews and Earfull, which were designed to break the form of the traditional literary reading. "Other readings were only an hour," says Huggins—a recipient of PEN New England's Friend to Writers award—"and I was trying to create an event that was a little longer and larger, to get people out of the house and try to extend that social experience of hiring a babysitter and going to a movie."

Earfull, which had been held at the Kendall Café and combined literary readings with performances by local musicians, is on temporary hiatus. Huggins and fellow founders Jen Trynin and Mike Denneen, of the recording studio Q Division, hope to relaunch it early in 2004 in a new venue.

Fred Marchant re
at the Wee Readings serie
the Hotel Marlo

Meanwhile, the ever-popular Books & Brews series is going strong, pairing literary reading and bookselling with socializing. After a reading at the bookstore, the writer and audience members walk to a nearby pub like the Karoun. Huggins picks up the tab for the first round of drinks, and the pub supplies complimentary appetizers. In this laid-back atmosphere, book lovers can relax and chat with the author.

For many of Huggins' loyal followers, Books & Brews has become an institution; it's presented nearly every week and features locals such as MIT writers/scientists Alan Lightman and Karl Iagnemma, as well as other writers on tour. This fall's roster includes the likes of nonfiction writer John Shattuck talking about his Freedom on Fire: Human Rights Wars and America's Response, and Heidi Jon Schmidt reading from her anticipated first novel, The Bride of Catastrophe.

"Books and authors stand on their own," Huggins says. "I wanted to extend the performance part of a reading to make it a full night out." Then, with a smile, he adds, "also I liked the idea of underwriting my drinking."

SUBTERRANEAN SUBTEXT

Back in the red-lit basement room of the Lizard Lounge, novelist and short-story writer Elizabeth Searle—wearing a smart dress, a white button-down shirt and a man's necktie—approaches the spindly microphone with an impish smile. The crowd seems to lean forward as she speaks.

"I'm here to read porn about gay men," she proclaims, and a conspiratorial laugh erupts from the crowd. Searle is one act at this evening's edition of Writers with Drinks (cleverly subtitled "Writers in Drag"). At this event, Searle joins four other writers who will read from work they've written that's outside their normal genre. Among them: The Exes author and zine publisher Pagan Kennedy, who reads a children's story, and budding talent Toni Amato, who reads a stream-of-consciousness rant about young love.

Billed alternately as the "cocktail of colloquy" or "remix of rhetoric," transgendered writer-huckster Charlie Anders' eclectic, bicoastal series is part stand-up comedy, part vaudeville performance and, tonight, part drag show. "Writers in Drag was a chance to celebrate genre differences in another way," says Anders. "I thought it would be fun to see if a horror piece written by a poet who didn't usually write horror would be different than a typical horror piece."

Standing on the ragtag oriental carpet that separates the reading space from the crowd, Searle waves a glossy issue of Genre, a gay men's magazine that published her story. "I promised you gay porn, and here goes," she announces. As she reads, the crowd falls silent, and the only sounds are those of highball glasses being filled with ice, and lighters being flicked for cigarettes.

Part of the panache of this user-friendly trend in literary readings comes from the change in venue from rigid, theater-style seating to cushy sofas, café tables or even the plush surroundings of a luxury hotel.

PEN New England, the writer's association that counts Maxine Kumin, Saul Bellow and Elie Wiesel among its esteemed membership, has removed some of the stuffiness from its events. During the annual PEN Eros Night, held at the Boston Playwrights' Theatre, local novelists, poets and short-story writers read their erotica on a black box stage and then invite the audience to join them for chocolates and wine in the theater's green room. This past summer, PEN built on the success of this informal spring gathering with its new Weekly Readings at the Marlowe series, in which authors join hotel guests, literary locals and other writers for a weekly wine hour and informal reading in the hotel's lounge. Local favorites featured in the series so far include literary critic Sven Birkerts, poet Fred Marchant and popular novelists Doug Bauer, Jill McCorkle and Michael Lowenthal.

"When I read at the Hotel Marlowe, the majority of the folks in the crowd were hotel guests who had simply come for the free wine and had no idea that someone would be reading," Lowenthal, author of the indie-bookstore favorite Avoidance, says about the Weekly Readings series. "I took it as a challenge to see if I could engage them and keep them engaged with my story against the competing distractions of the drinks table and the other hotel guests arriving in the nearby lobby. Much to my delight, they all stayed put, listening intently, and I felt sort of triumphant—much more so than when I read to the usual literary crowd."

Lowenthal's a fan of the lounge setting, too. "It has this sort of I Dream of Jeannie harem-in-the-palace decor, very conducive to storytelling," he says.

Across the Charles from PEN's refined gathering, smack dab in the middle of downtown, members and friends of the Writers' Room of Boston also see a reading's setting as being critical to success. Their monthly reading series, open to the public, is held once a month at Kennedy's Midtown bar.

Bob Dall, coordinator of the Writers' Room series, says, "We have our own room, but it's folks sitting at tables, not in auditorium-style seating. There's plenty of time just to chat before and afterward, and there's food and drink to be had." Dall says the laid-back feel of Kennedy's produces a different kind of reading: "It's not quite revolutionary, but it is decidedly relaxed."

THE BEAT GOES ON

Long before pop songstress Jewel sullied the poetry section at Barnes & Noble with her bland verse, there were knock-your-socks-off poet-musicians like Patti Smith taking the stage at St. Mark's Church in the Bowery, paying tribute to influential writers like Allen Ginsberg by reciting his epic "Howl" before enthralled crowds of writers and musicians alike.

But everybody knows Boston isn't Manhattan and the Athenaeum isn't St. Mark's Church. Still, local lit guy Steve Almond always sensed there was a way to bring out this kind of natural symbiosis between literature and music. One night while having a beer with his friend Huggins (who had already launched Books & Brews and Earfull), Almond saw his opportunity.

"As a writer and reader, I love going to readings. And I love going to see live music," says Almond. "Our hope with Earfull and Cover 2 Cover was simply to cross-pollinate those scenes, to connect authors and musicians and the fans of those art forms. It's not that we want to 'spruce up' literary readings with booze and food so much as we want to celebrate words and music in a relaxed, social setting."

Both men were interested in somehow bringing together two Boston constituencies that seemed performance spaces apart: the literary folks (say, habitués of the Grolier Poetry Book Shop) and the grungier rock fans who hung out down Mass. Ave. at the Middle East. From this conversation the notion of Cover 2 Cover was born; Almond and Huggins spent the next few months planning the logistics, and the series premiered this past spring at the Paradise Lounge.

What makes these hybrids of readings and concerts so popular? Is it just the booze that's greasing both writers and audience members into a rollicking time? For Sue Rosenkranz, a fledgling novelist who lives in Somerville and regularly attends Writers with Drinks, the reasons for the rise of the hybrid reading and social events are many. "You can laugh, hoot, hiss at the villains, and the readers can play off each," she says. "It's my favorite thing—serious play."

Though planners like Almond are looking to attract new audiences with an atmosphere of fun, the content remains important. "At Cover 2 Cover, folks really do listen to the readings," he says. "It's not just a party. We're not just trying to promote a particular book, though there's nothing wrong with that. We're trying to get people to realize how funny and sad and moving the best literature is." IB

Ricco Villanueva Siasoco has published fiction in The North American Review, Flyway, Drunken Boat and Genre. His essays and reviews have appeared in the Boston Globe, Boston Magazine and ArchitectureBoston, among others. He teaches writing at Boston College and is working on a novel.

Elizabeth Searle's among the local writers who participate in readings.

Writers with Drinks organizer Charlie Anders at the Writers in Drag event

Amie M. Evans at Writers with Drinks at the Lizard Lounge

A Books & Brews event at Ariadne

LISTEN HERE

BOOKS & BREWS
Newtonville Books, 296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com.

COVER 2 COVER
Paradise Lounge, 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8814). www.newtonvillebooks.com.

EARFULL
www.earfull.org. Relaunch planned for early 2004.

WEEKLY READINGS AT THE MARLOWE
Hotel Marlowe, 25 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge (617-868-8000). www.pen-ne.org. Meets Wednesdays, 5:30 pm.

WRITERS' ROOM OF BOSTON SERIES
Kennedy's Midtown, 42 Province St., Boston (617-523-0566). Meets the third Sunday of each month, 5 pm.

WRITERS WITH DRINKS
Lizard Lounge, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.writerswithdrinks.com.

Carol Trauner's Somerville apartment is overflowing with books arranged in sections like grammar, 17th-century English history and old hardbacks.

BY EMILY FRANKLIN
PHOTOGRAPHS BY TRACY POWELL

boston's BOOKWORMS

Here's how I knew my relationship with Clark was doomed: The oceanside retreat he called home contained not one single book. I had ways of coping with his feline companion (namely, Benadryl), and I actually didn't mind that his music collection was largely late-1970s. One issue that wouldn't fade into the background, however, was the fact that Clark's house was bare of all books—and that was the breaking point for me, for us. Suffice it to say that the relationship didn't last, though I did leave behind my old copy of Great Expectations, possibly so he might read it or, more likely, so I could leave some trace of myself behind.

Book lovers. Reading fanatics. Bookworms. If the first image that springs to mind is someone so deeply connected to books that they shrug off most modern conventions, then Jerry Sullivan is the bookworm poster child. An English and Latin teacher in East Boston during the academic year and a librarian at Harvard's Widener Library during the summer, Sullivan lives for his love of books—and he doesn't have a credit card or an e-mail account.

While many people find occasional solace in a novel, bookworms are fanatical fans of the written word. Perhaps one of the defining characteristics of a 'worm is the sheer volume of…volumes. Sullivan's house in Stoneham is a testament to this. "When I sit down on my chair to grade papers or write, I have to move books," he says. "When I sit on my bed, I move books. There are piles everywhere. I just move the stacks from one place to another."

Unattached, except for the constant grip on his books, Sullivan tries to read for at least an hour and a half a night and finishes about a book a week throughout the year. So deep is his connection to the objects of his affections, he's even planned trips to hunt for that special one. "I've been to Maine, the Cape and New York City, looking for books almost the whole time," he says. In New York, Sullivan favors the Strand, with its cluttered piles and endless stacks of treasures waiting to be claimed.

Bibliophiles find that life is sweeter when surrounded by books.

Lots of them.

Rob Meltzer, an attorney who lives in Framingham, is just as extreme in his love for books. "I'd say they are a part of my family," he says. "Another way of putting it—an analogy my wife finds distasteful—is that it's like the relationship between an addict and his drug of choice." Meltzer's house is brimming with books, so much so that he and his wife are "about to engage in a massive home remodeling project that will create a library with stacks to accommodate the books."

Meltzer devotes hours to reading each day and doesn't own a television."We live in a democracy in which we are asked to make decisions on complicated issues," he says. "Television has done a terrible job of providing context for complex problems. Books give a far greater opportunity to delve into something."

Over the top? Perhaps. But bookworms wouldn't have it any other way. Book-obsessed folks like Sullivan and Meltzer are a determined lot. The quest for that particular novel, biography or obscure out-of-print collection is akin to searching for the Holy Grail. "Some people think it's an eccentricity, but I don't mind," Sullivan says. One of his favorite activities is wandering around the Avenue Victor Hugo bookshop on Newbury Street. While on vacation, he doesn't stop searching for books; the Cape's Isaiah Thomas Books lures him with the possibility of stumbling upon an early Signet or Bantam paperback classic. "I like discovering something I didn't know about, like a rare Henry James collection," he says. Sullivan's collection of books is well into the hundreds, so he resists the urge to buy every interesting volume he finds. "I only buy a book if it's a keeper." And keep is what all bookworms do—the typical bibliophile's shelves are stuffed with books picked up in bargain basements, used and new bookstores. And the collection is ever growing.

The idea of being surrounded by books is one that every fanatical bookworm relates to—and part of the need to collect books must stem from this desire for stacks upon stacks of hardcovers and paperbacks. Meltzer's volumes are so numerous that he keeps them "maintained in Library of Congress order," complete with a card catalog that's housed in the main library area. Meltzer moonlights as a book reviewer, which only fuels the fire. "I've found a convenient way to get my supply at low cost," he says.

Though reading is usually a solitary activity, some bookworms find friends through their love of literature. Book groups have grown in popularity over the years, and collectors of books might link up with other lurkers frequenting the stacks of used bookstores and street stalls. "I've made a tremendous number of friends through my book review columns," Meltzer says. "I get a great deal of feedback from both readers and authors. I'm on a first-name basis with a huge number of bookstore proprietors between Boston and San Francisco. It's not uncommon for them to call me asking for a good book on a subject." Connecting through books can help balance frenzied days spent sending instant messages and e-mails, all the while glued to our cell phones and Blackberries. "As we become more and more dependent on technology, I find that books create a continuity with our past and a sense of being prepared for the future," Meltzer says.

Boston is full of bookworms of all shapes and fashion senses, not only the quiet and refined, or the bookish and tweed-clad. Take Tania Rodriguez, for example. Perhaps an unlikely bookworm—trendy and self-assured in her black pants and fitted top—she admits to being "unable to stop" buying books. She teaches Pilates and just got married. While she's happy to gush about her recent nuptials, she's also thrilled about the new addition to their household. "We just got a huge new bookshelf!" she says. "It's dark metal and already totally overflowing with books." Rodriguez's Cambridge apartment holds double rows of books on most shelves, and now that she's married to another book lover, there's an even more desperate need for shelving. So although Rodriguez might not fit the clichéd image of a bookworm, she's got the lifestyle and furnishings to qualify.

This defining decor is typical of the bookworm. Not content merely to borrow a book from a library or friend, one characteristic is the need to own the texts. "I certainly wouldn't refuse to read a book if I didn't own it," says Carol Trauner, publications director for Chefs Collaborative, a national network that promotes sustainable agriculture. "[But] I prefer to own the book." Trauner's one-bedroom Somerville apartment is overflowing with books. "It was a little less embarrassing when I lived with roommates, and people didn't immediately know that all of them were mine." She admits to getting "in real trouble" if she wanders into Harvard Book Store's used section after a drink or two. "The next day I discover that I've bought a 17th-century Italian novel, a biography of an English poet, a cookbook, a reference book and another Russian novel." Trauner, who reads about a book a week, is literally never without a book. She reads during her hour-and-a-half commute, at night and even when she's waiting in line. "All of my bags need to be big enough to fit a book," she says.

Most rabid book lovers become avid readers at an early age. Rather than spending time at the baseball park or playground, young bookworms lurk for hours in the library, or anywhere they can get their hands on a book. "I can't remember a time before books," Meltzer says. Sullivan, meanwhile, has "loved books forever. I was always reading as a kid—always." And Trauner's childhood memories include being in the back seat of the car, reading, even as she traveled in Germany with her parents. "I read past the great sights of Europe," she says. "I was also carsick a lot. Didn't stop me."

But what to do with all the books? When the piles and stacks become overwhelming, some use them for other purposes. Forced to come to terms with their overgrown, oversized art-book collection, one bookworm pair, Nicolas and Katherine Franklin, came up with a functional (if Seinfeldian) solution—a coffee table made of coffee table books. Four thigh-high stacks of hardcovers serve as the legs, supporting a large piece of framed glass.

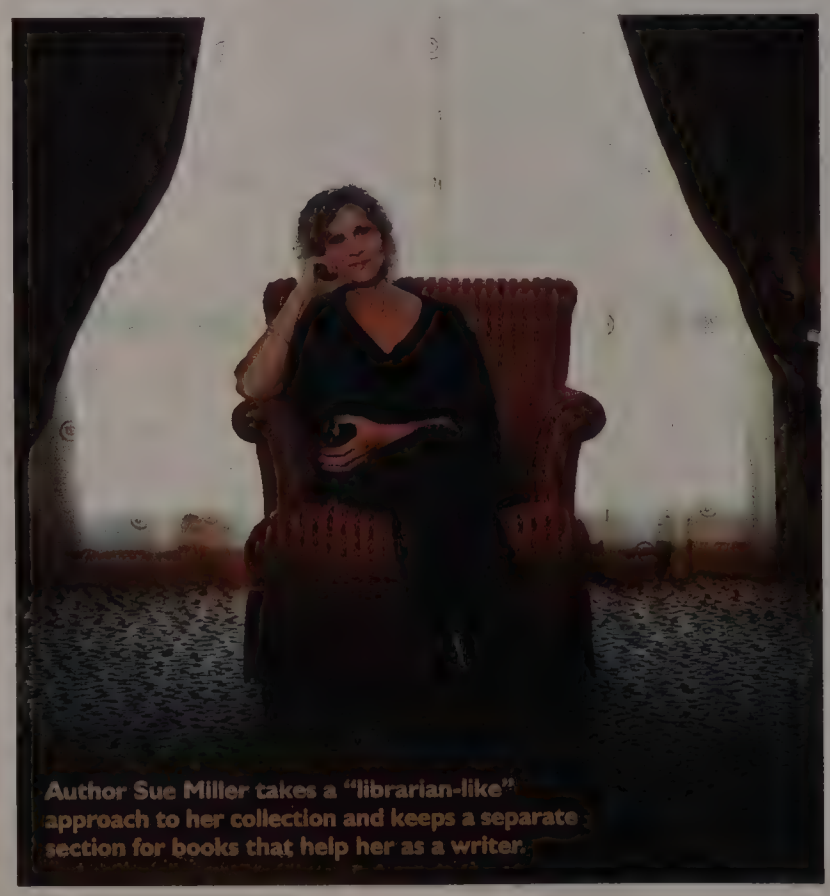
Bookworm Robert Meltzer, an attorney who lives in Framingham, says books are "part of my family."

For many bookworms, cataloging their conquests is a must—lists, files, alphabetized by rows. Meltzer's collection is categorized: "It's almost entirely nonfiction, specializing in history, politics, sociology, philosophy, architecture, criminology, urban studies, ethnic studies, geography, travel, biography, technology, the history of the date palm industry to the 19th century sort of thing."

Trauner organizes her books by subject and keeps the fiction in alphabetical order. There are also separate sections for grammar, 17th-century English history, old hardbacks and, she says, "assigned reading from classes that for some reason I'm convinced I need to keep—you know, in case I suddenly need to know something about early 20th-century Russian painting or German politics between the wars."

Local bibliophile Sue Miller, author of The Good Mother, Inventing the Abbotts and Other Stories and many other books, also prefers the alphabetical approach. "I'm librarian-like," she says. Miller's books are crammed on shelves, although she keeps one group separate from the others. Her "special books" are ones that help her as a writer. Miller refers to them while she writes, choosing to reread those that "thrill" and "encourage" her.

As a writer and reader, Miller enjoys what many of us do—being taken away by the story. "I am interested in being transported." The escape provided by reading stories is certainly part of the lure. In an instant we can be whisked away to Tolstoy's Russia or inside the mind of Bridget Jones. Many people read just for this escapism, longing to be swept off to a Shangri-la of sorts, or to trek Nepal, or travel back to an English drawing room in the late 1800s. For many bookworms, it doesn't matter what the subject is—the only thing of importance is that there are ample hours to read. The act is so integral to the daily life of a bookworm that one reader muses, "I'm not sure what people who don't read are doing all the time. Are they just sitting there?"



Author Sue Miller takes a "librarian-like" approach to her collection and keeps a separate section for books that help her as a writer.

Most bookworms like to revisit their treasures. Miller returns to her fondest books frequently. Part of the joy of being surrounded by books, bookworms say, is the ability to go back and find ones that they've nearly forgotten about. Another part of the allure is that books are a portable art form. Whereas carting around a Calder or a Kandinsky would be taxing (both physically and monetarily), you can take a book pretty much anywhere. What other art form can be carried into the sanctuary of the bathroom? Unlike televisions that have a fixed place in the house, books are free to roam with us wherever we go—on the T, on vacation, the doctor's waiting room. Books—without so much as flirting with us—can wind up in our beds.

This intimacy connects the texts to us, and perhaps this is one reason why it's difficult for the bookworm to let any go. Books draw us in, lead us off to other places and planets, allow us, as Miller suggests, to be "transported," and yet they also provide for us what our lives cannot: Their endings are already written. Whether the tome in front of us is a John Grisham thriller, a Toni Morrison tale or a weighty historical biography, the outcome is decided. Unlike our daily lives that keep us guessing ("Is he the one?" "Do I take that job in Seattle?" "Fat-free or 1 percent?") indefinitely, books bring with them the solace that no matter how frantic the pacing, how much is at stake for the characters, we will know their fate in several hundred pages.

I remember stepping into the house of Clark (that old book-bare boyfriend), and even with its near-perfect location by the beach, I had a feeling of emptiness. As with music, our bookshelves help to reveal who we are. With our books on display, so are we telling all who see our shelves something about who we are: the preschool teacher who adores horror novels, the academic with a taste for "chick lit."

Books have always made me feel at home. As a young girl, I dreamed of being stuck overnight in a bookstore, and I suppose certain areas of my house have the same appeal, towered high with novels, poetry, histories. I am a lending library of sorts—forever doling out loans of favorite reads to friends who stop by for dinner and want a fix. In the evenings now, I read to my own children. Bunnies, moons and talking trucks lull the kids to sleep. The stories remind me of why I love books; the tales transport and comfort us, elicit reactions we can't predetermine and offer glimpses outside our own worlds. Book collections are road maps, markers for who and where we've been, each with its own memory and meaning, insisting you were here. ■

Emily Franklin's first novel, Liner Notes, was just published by Simon & Schuster/Downtown Press. She lives locally and is on the staff of the National Public Radio program Car Talk. Her book tour includes a stop at Brookline Booksmith on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at 7 pm.

Be seduced by a selection of Bordeaux's finest wines at the following restaurants during the month of October:

29 Newbury
29 Newbury Street
Boston 617-536-0290

75 Chestnut
75 Chestnut Street
Boston 617-227-2175

Aquitaine
569 Tremont Street
Boston 617-424-8577

Ariadne Restaurant & Bar
344 Walnut Street
Newton 617-332-4653

Beacon Hill Bistro
25 Charles Street
Boston 617-723-1133

Brasserie Jo
120 Huntington Avenue
Boston 617-425-3240

Caffe Umbra
1395 Washington Street
Boston 888-818-0025

Elements
689 Massachusetts Ave
Arlington 781-643-7203

Flora
190 Massachusetts Ave
Arlington 781-641-1664

Gallia
1525 Washington Street
Boston 877-785-2836

Great Bay
500 Commonwealth Ave
Boston 617-532-5300

Jer-ne
The Ritz Carlton
12 Avery Street
Boston 617-574-7176

Le Soir Bistro
51 Lincoln Street
Newton Highlands
617-965-3100

L'Espalier
30 Gloucester Street
Boston 617-262-3023

Locke-Ober
3 Winter Place
Boston 617-542-1340

Mantra
52 Temple Place
Boston 617-542-8111

Meritage
Boston Harbor Hotel
70 Rowes Wharf
Boston 617-439-3995

Mistral
223 Columbus Avenue
Boston 617-867-9300

Pigalle
75 Charles Street South
Boston 617-423-4944

Radius
8 High Street
Boston 617-426-1234

Sel de la Terre
255 State Street
Boston 617-720-1300

Spire
90 Tremont Street
Boston 866-737-5014

Torch
26 Charles Street
Boston 617-723-5939

Troquet
140 Boylston Street
Boston 617-695-9463

Upstairs on the Square
91 Winthrop Street
Cambridge
617-864-1933

BORDEAUX

Fine Wines. Be Seduced.

FICTION CONTEST WINNER

THE SHADOW OF

MANNY RAMIREZ

BY RACHEL SOLAR-TUTTLE

When I invite Manny Ramirez to dinner, Jack is skeptical. I tell him after I've already mailed the letter to Manny, in care of his agent. "Dear Manny," it says. "Everyone is so excited that you're coming to Boston. Don't worry, you'll do fine. And if you ever get homesick, my husband and I live in Brookline, right near the ballpark. Call us. You can come over for some home cooking!" I include our phone number.

"They probably put you on the list," Jack says.

"What list?"

"The list of suspicious fans. Psychos. People to watch."

"They did not," I say.

"There's probably a van outside our house right now. And FBI bugs."

"It is not a federal offense for one nice person to invite another nice person for dinner."

"What makes you think he's a nice person?"

"Hello! Did you not read the papers all week? His best friend was a clubhouse attendant. He has pictures in his locker of minor league players!"

"And this makes him a nice guy?"

"Yes. Quiet. Salt of the earth. Understated. Humble."

Jack shakes his head and walks out to the backyard with a cigar.

I don't seriously expect Manny to call. Except for that little part of me that does. Sure, he might be suspicious of me and my intentions. But it's equally easy (and feels much better) to believe that he just might look at my letter, my careful, looped script, and somehow see me, my earnestness. How much I need him.

Sometimes, days go by and I'm so consumed with daily life—or nonlife—that I lose Manny completely, stop reading three sports sections, stop letting his words—"Boston fans are nice. They're cool. They're pumped up"—come in and live in my mind, stop thinking of him as a sweet friend. But then I check voice mail and hear a male voice and feel a jolt, my heart skipping and unsteady. Hope like a dish I didn't order, a favorite meal from a long time ago.

At first, when Manny does call, I don't believe it. Actually, it isn't Manny per se. "This is a message for Ms. Levine," says the low, unfamiliar voice. "It's Gene Mato. I work with Jeff Moorad, Manny Ramirez's agent. Manny received from you an invitation to some sort of cookout, apparently? And he's asked me to get in touch with you to affirm that he will be in attendance. It is my understanding that there is no charitable component to this engagement. It's just an informal gathering, is that correct? Date and time TBD. Manny would like to schedule that for his upcoming off day, July 23rd, which is a week from Monday. If you could, please fax directions to the location and any other information he needs to my office. I'm sure you must be very excited, Ms. Levine. Manny is looking forward to it as well."

I try to put the phone back on the receiver, but my hands shake, and it falls to the floor. I can't sit, can't stand, so I just slide down the wall like water and pool there. I wonder how I ever breathed before when breathing is so, so hard. How do babies do it? And old people in nursing homes? I listen to the message over and over. Especially the part that says "Manny is looking forward to it as well." A few times, I try to get up, but something catches in my chest, a bubble springs up, sharp, and I just can't get a good breath. So I stay there for hours, just listening to the grandfather clock tick and the phone ring periodically and the mailman push Town and Country and Fortune and Baseball Digest through the mail slot below.

I say, out loud, just to hear it: "Manny Ramirez is coming to dinner." Manny Ramirez is coming in 10 days. Manny Ramirez will walk through our door. His fingertip (soft, yet somehow in itself athletic, the color of untoasted wheat bread, I imagine) will touch our doorbell! Normally, if someone important were coming, I'd panic about the menu and convince Mary to cook something complicated from The Olives Table cookbook. And then I'd end up ordering some little dress I don't need from Scoop in New York because Sophie, the salesgirl, who went to Spence or Dalton and has a white tattoo, says Kevin Bacon bought one for his wife, Kyra, and I imagine it will change my life.

But this is Manny Ramirez! Manny would see through all that. It would scare him. He'd probably say, in a quiet voice, devoid of even a shade of impoliteness, "What's with you, man?" After all, what he was drawn to in the first place was the exact opposite of any air—the glimmer of the real me I let him see. For once I didn't listen to those inside voices that say what's wrong, what's inappropriate, what's not allowed. I was real. And I offered Manny the possibility of home—real home—after a long road trip, and in the midst of his first season away from softer, homier Cleveland. What I have to do is distill down to that essence of me. Clip back all the weeds, relocate that girl inside, that person Manny might want for his friend.

"What's up?" Jack's always short when I call before the market closes.

"You're not going to believe this."

"Whoa. Slow down. You sound really strange."

"Manny—" But that's all I can say.

"Manny what, honey? I don't want to rush you, but I'm pretty crunched right now."

I drag in some air; it makes a rough, scraping sound inside my ears. "Manny—"

"What is it? Manny's number one in homers. Manny went three for four last night. Manny's going back to Cleveland."

"NO!"

"Whoa. OK, OK. Calm down."

"Manny is coming to dinner."

"Ha, ha. Very funny. That's cute, sweetie, but I really need to go. The market—"

"I'm serious. Manny is coming to dinner."

"OK, it's ceasing to be funny, because I really need to make a call now. And I'm worried about you, sweetie, and the extent of this whole—fantasy world you've invented. I mean, I know that you're a creative person, but at some point there's a danger to…"

"I am NOT being creative! Manny Ramirez is coming to dinner. A week from Monday."

"Shhhhh. Shhhhh. Honey, you need to breathe."

"Don't shush me. Just call voice mail. Listen for yourself."

I hang up, walk into my study and boot up the computer. Since I quit my job, I rarely use it. When I told Jack I was on the Internet researching at-home business ideas, I was just getting a break from him and reading about the Sox on ESPN.com. Now I go to MapQuest and punch in our address as the destination and "4 Yawkey Way" as the origin. Just typing "Yawkey Way" gives me a shiver. Maybe Jack's right. I need to breathe. I'm going to have to calm down before Manny comes to dinner.

As I print out the map, the phone rings.

"Oh my God," says Jack.

"You owe me a big apology."

"And you don't think it's someone playing a prank?"

"Do you?"

"Oh my God."

"You said that already."

"Jesus H. Christ."

"Wait a minute. You sound not happy."

"Well, honey, how do you want me to sound? It's the middle of the workday, and you drop this bombshell..."

"Bombshell? You act like having Manny Ramirez to dinner, a turn of events beyond my wildest dreams, is some kind of negative thing. "

"It's just...what do we have in common with Manny Ramirez? What could we possibly have to talk about?"

"You are such a snob. I'm getting off the phone."

"Hold on a second. I'm not a snob. And if I were, the subject of this alleged snobbery would not be a baseball player with a $252 million contract."

"You're thinking of A-Rod. Manny's contract is only for $160 million. "

"You're right. You got me. This is why I look down on him."

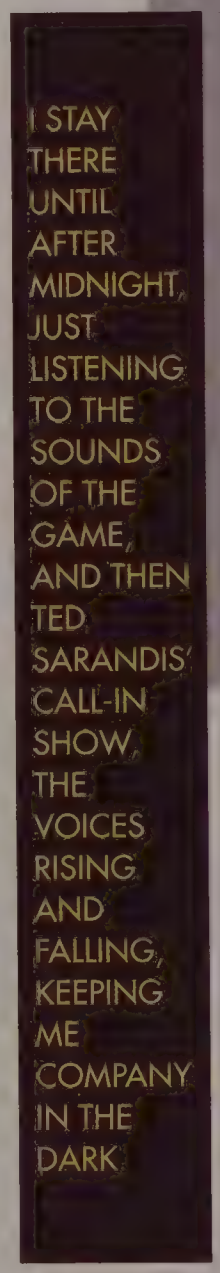
"No, it's because he's not old New England money like you and he didn't go to St. Paul's and he doesn't summer in Chatham."

"That's ridiculous. OK, you tell me. You're the one who's orchestrated this whole...shindig. What do you plan to talk about with a professional athlete? And how's his English, by the way?"

"You asshole! His English is perfect. He translates for Arrojo!"

"This is working out well," Jack says.

"I have to go." And he lets me.



Manny is coming just in time. I feel more energized than I have in months. I fax the directions and a note ("This is so thrilling!") to Gene Mato. I write a list of simple, homey comfort foods that a pretensionless, salt-of-the-earth type of person might want away from home: chicken, burgers, potato salad, Toll House cookies, lemonade, beer. When I read the list out loud to Mary, she laughs.

"What's so funny?"

"Just that you usually have me make all this fancy stuff. And now Manny Ramirez is coming to dinner and you want me to make...this?"

"No, I don't want you to make it. I'm going to make it. I just wanted your opinion."

"You're going to make all that stuff? Potato salad? Toll House cookies?"

"Mary, don't you have any confidence in me? I was a vice president at Andersen and I can't make a cookie? Even Hillary Clinton can make a cookie."

"No, no, of course I have confidence in you. I'm sure you can do anything you put your mind to. It's just..."

"Just what?"

"Well, I don't know. You're just not the cooking type. And the way you've been moping around here..."

"I know. I've been a little down. But I'm putting together a game plan."

"A game plan about what? Manny Ramirez and cookies?"

"Mary, can't you just be happy for me?"

"Of course I can," says Mary. "And instant oats."

"What?"

"Instant oats are the magic ingredient."

Is something on fire?" asks Jack, walking through the door and sniffing.

"What?" But I hear him. I'm on my third batch of test-run cookies. I don't know how Mary does this. I've already ruined a pan, set off the smoke alarm (when I couldn't get it to stop, I smashed it with a grooved wooden mallet I found in a kitchen drawer) and created something so salty it more closely resembles risotto than a batch of cookies. You need an MIT degree in advanced chemistry to bake Toll House cookies from scratch. How will I ever master this in time? I have egg yolk on my H belt and flour handprints on my best black T.

"Never mind." Jack starts up the stairs, and I know without needing to look that he's walking to his dressing room, emptying his pockets, separating the change by denomination. I turn the kitchen radio to WEEI for the pregame interviews. Lowe blew a save last night, and Joe Castiglione purports to ask Jimy about it, soft-pedaling as usual. "So, last night's outcome was unfortunate, Jimy. Lowe seemed to have a tough time. The sinker wasn't exactly sinking. Do you just pick up and move on?"

"Pretty much, Joe. Sometimes you need a little luck in baseball and maybe luck just wasn't on our side."

Slowly, I clean the kitchen from side to side, listening to the game, until only a small container full of my test-run potato salad, a half glass of test-run lemonade and three cookies from the best batch (the rest were burnt beyond repair) remain on the countertop. I stand at the kitchen doorway for a moment. Down the hall, the blue light from the television flickers as the ticker tape moves. I go back to the kitchen and sit down to the little meal I've made. The lemonade is good—cool and tart. I stay there until after midnight, just listening to the sounds of the game, and then Ted Sarandis' call-in show, the voices rising and falling, keeping me company in the dark.

The next day I don't sleep late. I've been sleeping late since the day I quit. Actually, that was the first thing I did when I got home. I quit in the morning, was home by 11, went upstairs, took off my shoes and stockings, pulled the drapes shut and climbed under the thick down duvet, the air conditioning prickling my shinbones. Every day since, I've heard all the normal Jack sounds each morning—the chime of change, the long, heavy breaths as he knots his tie in front of the mirror, the click of his briefcase—but only peripherally, a backdrop to my dreams of endless, endless falling.

But today the wink of light that pushes under the edge of the drape seems warm white instead of intrusive. I open my eyes. The Manny call has not evaporated the way some highs do, like some night in college when you thought you were finally alive that grows hazier and hazier, sliding even further out of your grasp every time you try to call it up again. No, this memory stays true, and the feelings come back even stronger when I play the message again or think of the weight of him, of Manny Ramirez standing on our doorstep, the promising shadow he will cast across our threshold.

"You're awake?" asks Jack, straightening his tie in front of the mirror.

We haven't spoken since the night before. Lately, we've been doing that, putting aside the old adage about going to bed angry. Sleeping back to back.

"I'm awake," I say.

"We never talked last night."

"I know." It hangs in the air for a moment.

"Did the Sox win?"

"Yeah."

"Tell me how Manny did."

I sit up in bed, prop the pillows behind my back, smile. "He went three for four with a homer and four RBIs."

"So how does he do it?"

"They say natural talent, but that underestimates how hard he works. First to the park, extra BP, hundreds of balls thrown at him a day, learning every carom. But it's also something else, I think. A love of what you do. Faith. Fate. Maybe magic."

Sometimes I make these little deals with myself. Sometimes I whisper these shocking little things in my head. If he makes fun of me now, I think, I'll just leave him. I'll move into a Holiday Inn, cash in my 401(k), road trip across the country.

"Magic, huh?"

I hold my breath.

"I guess I'll have to ask him about that at dinner," my husband says. He walks to the window and peeks out onto the park. "Wow, the sun is out already."

I get up out of bed to see for myself. IB

Brookline writer and ardent Red Sox fan Rachel Solar-Tuttle is the author of the novel Number 6 Fumbles and co-author of Table Talk: The Savvy Girl's Alternative Guide to Networking. Her work has been published in the Boston Globe and other publications.

THE LAST DROP

E LAST DROP 596 WASHINGTON ST. OAK SQUARE, BRIGHTON 617.787.1111 ✦ 421 MARLBOROUGH ST., BACK BAY, BOSTON 617.262.5555

WHITE HORSE TAVERN

Now offering FREE wireless internet to our customers

3 NEW 50″ PLASMA TV'S

Watch all the fall match-ups here!

Never a cover charge

TE HORSE TAVERN 116 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 617.254.6633 MON.-SAT. 11:30-2AM SUN. 10-2AM FOOD UNTIL MIDNIGHT

PLAY THE VAMP WITH RICH TEXTURES AND BOLD ACCESSORIES

Luck Be a Lady

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE
PHOTOGRAPHED BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

Black satin dress with ribbon detail, $148; black leather elbow-length gloves, $79. Both at Arden B. Sterling silver, cultured pearl and quartz necklace, $2,525; matching bracelet, $1,825; matching earrings, $810. All by Michael Dawkins, all at Shreve, Crump & Low Tweed jacket with velvet trim, $1,980; purple fur hat, $920. Both at Escada. Medici aquamarine crystal and sterling silver necklace, $2,295; matching bracelet, $995. Both by Baccarat; both exclusively at Shreve, Crump & Low.

"lady don't fail fan coat
Diamond, gold pearl earrings
Baccarat, $5, exclusively
Crump

luck,

me now”

a-dot dress,
0 Escada;
ging earrings,
Arden

White top with black bow detail, $49; black knee-length skirt, $78; black wrap with rhinestone clasp, $48; hanging earrings, $44. All at Arden B.

Arden
Prudential Cente
617-236-083

Escad
308 Boylston
617-437-120

Mi
www.millyny.co

Shreve, Crump & Lo
330 Boylston
617-267-910

Stylist: Paul Lu
Model: Chelsea for Dynas

Photographer's Assistan
John Rybi

Sleek™ Laser Hair Removal

GREATER BOSTON'S LEADING MEDICAL SPA

Never shave again. Ever.

Fast, safe, painless and affordable! Eliminate unwanted hair on all body parts, from all skin types.
FDA approved for permanent hair reduction.
Ask about our no-hair guarantee.

Schedule your free consultation by phone or on our website today!

VISIT US AT SLEEKUSA.COM

800-SLEEK-USA (800.753.3587)

SLEEK SPA

228 NEWBURY STREET · BOSTON

NOW OPEN!

OTHER AREA LOCATIONS: NEWTON · WESTBORO · WEYMOUTH · WOBURN

OTHER SLEEK SERVICES

SLEEK™ LASER HAIR REMOVAL · SLEEK™ VEIN REMOVAL
SLEEK™ SKIN REJUVENATION · SLEEK™ CHEMICAL PEELS · SLEEK™ BOTOX & COLLAGEN
SLEEK™ ACNE REMOVAL · SLEEK™ WEIGHT MANAGEMENT

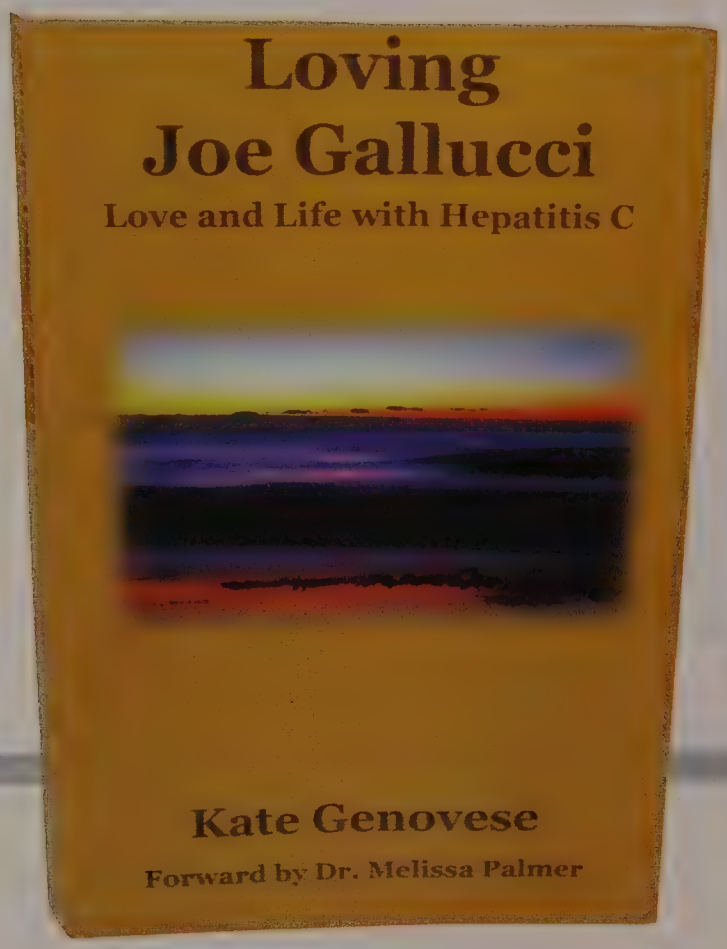
OCTOBER SPECIAL
20% OFF
ALL SERVICES*

*Not valid with any other promotions, coupons, or discounts

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



DRUGGING, A LOVE STORY

Loving Joe Gallucci*, by Kate Genovese, is a novel about love tortured by drugs and eventual hepatitis C. Some of the proceeds from the book will go to the Liver Foundation.

Surprising as it may seem, this novel about drugs and the long scar they leave on the lives of users is a good, almost upbeat read. Because writer Kate Genovese is a nurse, she knows the drug world of the 1960s from various standpoints. Genovese follows Meg Flaherty, daughter of a Massachusetts senator, through her bumpy yet steadfast relationship and marriage to the rough-cut, blue-collar Jimmy Romano—who is certainly not the kind of man the senator wants for his daughter. Meg plausibly segues from her exhausting nursing work to the hard partying that leads to early addiction, then a sobering up. Jimmy, who nicknames his drug-devil self Joe Gallucci, gets far more involved in heroin and cocaine, with all the sly shadiness, denial and sordidness they entail. But the rocklike Meg sticks by him, and they marry and have children. Not till decades later, their lives finally solidified, does the dark, dormant seed of hepatitis C germinate. This delayed punishment for a lifetime of dangerous sex and needles leads to a liver transplant. But Meg's grit and long-term devotion make these unwelcome consequences almost bearable.

A KITCHEN YOU COULD EAT OFF OF

Arclinea Boston, at 2014 Mass. Ave. in Cambridge, offers custom-made Italian kitchens. Call 617-876-9888 or go to www.arclineaboston.com.

Imagine a kitchen so sleek and elegant that its crucial elements seem at first barely there—it's a silver bird flying past. Italian designer Antonio Citterio designs truly custom kitchens that are at once cunningly complex in the arrangements of the components and chic to the point of professional kitchenism. Ergonomically designed pieces are stashed behind poker-faced stainless-steel designs of beautifully understated shininess. The various food-prep, cooking and cleanup units are arranged to tighten up the cooking dance; everything is close at hand. Placement is based, cleverly, on "rotation," or frequency of use. Shipshape tidiness is found in subtly recessed pulls, overhead metal drying racks and clear lines of visibility; even the trash buckets are stylish. All this dovetails with well-concealed enormity; shelves and bins you could almost swim in or a marvelously tall Dr. Seuss–like sink sprayer with real restaurant authority. Softness glows from gray Carrara marble countertops with rounded edges. The variety of ingenious, artistic solutions that bring "mental and physical" order invite a luxurious showroom stroll. Many appliances can be integrated with these designed spaces.

HIT THE HIGH NOTE

Karen Welling, a Somerville therapist and professional musician, offers sessions in creativity and performance enhancement for artists and writers. Call 617-623-3703.

Karen Welling is a performing musician who has experienced the paralyzing terror of stage fright. Happily, she has learned to apply the techniques of EMDR (Eye Movement Desensitization and Reprocessing) in the exhilarating emergency of the onstage moment. EMDR was discovered in the 1980s by a therapist named Francine Shapiro. While walking and mulling over a disturbing thought, Shapiro's eyes began moving in a particular way. Afterwards, amazingly, she felt cleansed of her worry. From this seed, Shapiro developed EMDR, based partly on those eye movements. The technique is said to help erase traumatic images and emotions. Specific protocols juxtapose negative, drag-you-down memories and feelings with empowering, "self-talking" messages. This internal, experiential technique has subsequently been applied to help artists reduce impediments and inhibitions, like stage fright. Weller helps artists reach into their particular memory swamp, first inquiring into those hopeless, shaming experiences, then making them more succinct and tight, like a balloon to be popped with a sharp needle of positive intention. What emerges is cleaner, braver artistic confidence.

a new concept in lounges

Toast

OPENING TUESDAY, OCTOBER 7

70 Union Square, Somerville 617.623.9211 www.toastlounge.com

REVIEW

A LOFTY ACHIEVEMENT

Biba diva Lydia Shire excels with her latest endeavor, Excelsior

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA A. DANIELS

Lemon oil–brushed rack of lamb with zucchini blossoms

The place: Boston. The time: the 1970s, the decade of Nixon and Watergate, Carter and Iran, as well as the resurgence of the hated Yankees. The bill of fare: baked beans, scrod, Indian pudding—upscale at Locke-Ober (hold the beans); down-market at Durgin Park. Suddenly, a voice crying out in the desert. John the Baptist? No. It was Lydia Shire, about to lead Boston out of the gastronomic wilderness to a new era.

From those early days in the 1980s behind the stove with Jasper White at the Bostonian Hotel, Shire eventually opened her own restaurant, Biba, overlooking the Public Garden. Biba appeared in the late '80s like a supernova—brilliant, audacious, provocative, exciting—attracting sybaritic pilgrims from across the Northeast. It burned brightly for more than a dozen years, closing several months ago to make way for Shire's latest extravaganza, Excelsior, a collaboration with accomplished restaurateur Tim Lynch of Grill 23.

The name says it all: Excelsior. Higher, better. And it is. Some would contend that "higher" applies primarily to Excelsior's prices, but that would be unfair. Don't get me wrong, Excelsior is not cheap. Its appetizers are particularly pricey, averaging over $17 even without considering the caviar outlier at $85. Main courses are more down-to-earth, almost half of them below $30. While wine prices range into the stratosphere, one can buy a decent bottle for under $30. Excelsior is clearly not among the most expensive restaurants in the region. More important, it delivers value for its substantial prices. When one pays a lot of money, one expects luxury. Excelsior delivers.

Soft-shell crab with green garlic and pistachio ($16) took my breath away. This late-summer treat, lightly breaded and fried to a crisp yet delicate turn, virtually exploded with flavor. Complemented by the tang of lemon aioli and crunchy pistachios, the crab shared a plate with a small avocado half stuffed with cubed cucumbers, flaky crabmeat and nuggets of potatoes. Shire is sometimes criticized as a mistress of excess—a practitioner of the Todd English, too-many-things-on-the-plate school—but this dish evidenced a discipline and focus that made it work as a whole. Flan of brûléed sugar and butter corn with chanterelle glaze ($16) brought a small, square shot glass filled to the brim with ambrosial corn custard, sweet but not cloying, with a garnish of velvety-textured chanterelle mushrooms of wild and woodsy flavor and al dente kernels of yellow and white corn.

EXCELSIOR

272 Boylston St., Boston
(617-426-7878)

HOURS Mon.-Thu., 11:30 am-2:30 pm and 5:30-10:30 pm; Fri., 11:30 am-2:30 pm and 5:30-11 pm; Sat., 5-11pm; Sun. 5:30-10pm

RESERVATIONS recommended

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING $14 valet

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

A pricier appetizer, the foie gras steak ($25), evidenced the same streamlined classicism, in which artistic flourishes and skillful use of well-chosen ingredients focused and framed the heart of the dish. Walnut halves, red and white currants, crispy slivers of fried leeks, a small dollop of mashed potatoes, and a crisped bay leaf provided flavor and texture counterpoints to the silky, luxurious foie gras. We ordered this dish as part of the tasting menu, and its scaled-down size—perhaps a quarter of the regular appetizer-size portion—was appropriate to its overwhelming richness. Four ounces of the stuff may have been lethal (but what a way to go!).

Excelsior's main courses included the best duck dish ($28) I have ever had this side of La Tour d'Argent in Paris. A product of the restaurant's vertical oven, the hefty half-duck had been roasted in a fashion that rendered most of the fat, leaving the skin crisp and the flesh underneath moist and succulent. While the hindquarters were cooked medium, the breast remained rare beneath its pleasantly charred, impeccably crisp skin. The marinade of jasmine tea and Asian five spice—cinnamon, ginger, clove, fennel seed and star anise—gave the duck a perfumed, almost exotic flavor, replicated in a delectable taro cake accompaniment, an unexpectedly light and flavorful garnish from this classic South American starchy root. A moist pineapple chunk surmounted by chopped duck giblets, with their concentrated, intense flavors, provided the perfect finishing touch.

Hacked ginger lobster tails with spiced rice and mango ($39) came bathed in an exquisite saffron-accented sauce, with slightly sweet, slightly bitter pea tendrils. Shavings of coconut and slices of mango contributed to the felicitous mélange of contrasting but compatible sweet, salty and savory flavors. Finally from the main course selections came the lamb ($39), a rack of small ribs with elongated bones, brushed with a lemon marinade and roasted in Excelsior's vertical oven, producing flesh that was tender and rare. Morsels of caramelized fat along the rib bones made for satisfying gnawing—etiquette be damned. A crisp fried zucchini flower redolent of parsley and sage shared the plate alongside small cylinders of baby zucchini, hollowed out and stuffed with pine nuts.

The grand dessert, the finale of Excelsior tasting menu, consisted of a handsomely presented rectangular plate, featuring on one side cocoa tart—two rich triangles garnished with crème fraiche and a large ripe strawberry—and on the other a refreshing mango sorbet served on a crispy pineapple chip and topped with a pine nut cookie.

From Excelsior's wine selections, on one night I enjoyed a half bottle of 1999 Ruffino Chianti Classico Riserva ($25), a refined and reliable Sangiovese, soft but not flabby with a full, rich bouquet and a fine finish. On my second visit, I ordered wine by the glass and was pleasantly surprised at both the generous pour (almost a full six ounces) and the quality of the 2001 Arbole Carmenere from the Colchaga Valley, Chile ($8). This well-structured red wi good acid made a splendid food wine. Less impressive was the 2001 Montes Cabernet Sauvignon Riserva, also from Chile, which lacked the structure and finesse of its Carmenere cousin.

Excelsior's bread basket contained toothsome, ethereal roti, a Malaysian bread similar to Indian poori, painted with garlic and anchovy butter; thick slices of rich, dark brown nut bread; and peppery grilled brioche. Hiding underneath was a length of French baguette, which proved to be the most serviceable vehicle for mopping up Excelsior's superlative sauces.

The stage on which Excelsior presents its formidable productions includes a three-story, climate-controlled wine tower that confronts one immediately upon entering the restaurant. To the right is a stylish bar with high-definition television screens mounted high. An elevator that bisects the wine tower takes diners to the second floor dining room. Divided into sectors by large, high-gloss columns, the dining room retains its priceless views of the Public Garden and swan boats. The reddish brown, glossy veneer ceiling seems a bit too low for the grandeur of the place, but the totality of the setting conveys refined elegance.

On both of my visits, the service shined, with what must be the highest server-to-patron ratio in the city. Legions of attendants vigilantly prowled the dining room, ready to respond to the slightest facial expression or gesture. When I carelessly dropped a morsel of food on my sports jacket and began dabbing it with a wet napkin, a server was at my side instantly, offering to bring bubbly water to more effectively control the damage.

A word about Excelsior's portions. On one evening I ordered one appetizer and one main course. The resulting servings were so rich and substantial that I could not finish them. On my second visit I chose the tasting menu ($85), which began with an extra, unannounced course, an amuse gueule of a fresh oyster on the half shell and a "pea shooter"—a shot glass of light-bodied, intensely flavorful pea soup. However, together with the next five courses, two from the appetizer side of the menu, two from the main course side, and dessert, this six-course tasting menu provided a smaller quantity of food than the five regular courses of my earlier visit.

While the small size of the tasting menu portions at first surprised me, by the time I finished the meal, leaving the table satisfied but not stuffed, I appreciated the wisdom of Excelsior's approach. The richness of the preparations and the pleasure of consuming an entire, carefully scripted meal showcasing different aspects of Lydia Shire's genius made the tasting menu portions "right-sized." The labor and artistry involved in preparing and serving six different dishes compared with two justified the higher price for the smaller quantity of food. Sometimes—perhaps often—less is more. iB

Tuna au poivre with Roman semolina gnocchi

Chef/owner Lydia Shire balances a plate of French cheese in the three-story wine tower.

Excelsior's dining room overlooks the Public Garden.

HENRIETTA'S TABLE
FRESH & HONEST

Home cooking was never this good at home.

Enhance your recollections of farm-fresh favorites and casual surroundings with dishes as sophisticated as our Braised Elysian Farm Lamb Shank and as unpretentious as our Red Flannel Hash.

Henrietta's Table at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square
One Bennett Street | Cambridge MA 02138 | 617.661.5005

The East Coast Center for Biolonic Japanese Hair Straightening.

Bumble and bumble. AVEDA Bio-Ionic Japanese Hair Straightening East Coast Center BOSTON'S BEST 2003 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

LORD'S & LADY'S® INTERNATIONAL SALON

Locations throughout New England

450 Belgrade Avenue • One Lord's & Lady's Way • West Roxbury, MA 02132
617.323.4700 • fax 617.323.4059 • Locations throughout New England

www.LordsandLadys.com
www.Biolonic.com

TASTINGS

BY JULIE SURATT

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Boston Vegetarian Food Festival
Reggie Lewis Athletic Center, 1350 Tremont St., Boston. www.bostonveg.org/foodfest. Oct. 18, 10 am-6 pm. Free. Taste free samples of a variety of vegetarian foods, talk to food exhibitors and learn about the latest veggie products. There's also a lineup of experts speaking on health, nutrition and cooking.

Cigar and Port Dinner
Bomboa, 35 Stanhope St., Boston (617-236-6363). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 15, 7 pm. $70. This four-course, steakhouse-style dinner prepared by chef Felino Samson features port wine from Churchill Graham Ltd. and cigars from Cigar Masters.

Don't Dessert Us!
Boston Design Center, One Design Center, Boston (617-445-7777). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct. 9, 6:30 pm. $100. At this benefit for Community Servings, 12 chefs create unique desserts that serve as the inspiration for 12 local and national designers to create one-of-a-kind evening gowns. Sample desserts, liqueurs and cordials at this IMPROPER BOSTONIAN–sponsored event, which concludes with a runway show.

East Coast Grill BBQ Night
East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-491-6568). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 20, 5:30 pm. $35. Sample classic and nouveau grilled cuisine.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Square. Every other Saturday, 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts experts who share knowledge on everything from fine American wines to seasonal New England foods and microbrews. •Oct. 11: Sauvignon blanc.

Lucy's First Anniversary Dinner
Lucy's, 242 Harvard St., Brookline (617-232-5829). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 14-17, 5-7 pm. Enjoy free gourmet pizzas at the bar in celebration of Lucy's first anniversary.

Market Tour with Ana Sortun
Lifelong Learning, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). Oct. 18, 10 am-2 pm. $100. Chef Ana Sortun of Oleana introduces food lovers to Watertown markets. Learn where to buy Mediterranean spices, olives, grains, nuts, yogurts, pastry and wines.

Monday Night Football Barbecue
Rouge [Red], 480 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-867-0600). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mondays. $19.95. Enjoy Monday night football while dining on all-you-can-eat baby back ribs, pulled pork and baked beans.

October Wine Series
Le Meridien, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900, ext. 7099). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Oct. 9. $165. Chef Daniel Kenney and France Posener of Opus One Winery host this four-course dinner paired with Opus One wines.

Pumpkin & Potato Harvest Day
Verrill Farm, 11 Wheeler Road, Concord (978-369-4494). Oct. 11, 12-4 pm. Pick your own pumpkins, taste roasted potatoes and cider, take a hayride and listen to live entertainment.

Radius Fall Cooking Series
Radius, 8 High St., Boston (617-426-1234). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct. 11, 11 am. $125. Join chef de cuisine Brian Reimer and wine steward Scott Fraley in the kitchen. •Oct. 11: Food & Wine of Gascony.

Sagra della Porchetta
Antico Forno, 93 Salem St., Boston (617-723-6733). MBTA: Green Line to Haymarket. Oct. 19, 2 pm. $35. Terramia Ristorante and Antico Forno celebrate their 10th and seventh anniversaries, respectively, with a meal of slow-roasted suckling pig served with rosemary focaccia and other Naples specialties. A portion of the proceeds benefits the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation.

Tapas Dinner
Tremont 647, 647 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-4600). Oct. 20, 6:30 pm. $65. Enjoy a reception and sit-down dinner of tapas, sangria and Spanish wines.

A Taste of History
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). Oct. 15, 6-8 pm. $50. This fund-raising event benefits the Old South Meeting House and honors patriot Samuel Adams. Boston Beer Company brewer Grant Wood and Gourmet Caterers chef Eddie Brit discuss beer and food pairings.

Wellfleet Oyster Festival
Wellfleet, Mass. (508-349-0330). Oct. 17-19. Elbow your way through the busy street fair, boogie at the disco dance party, test your skills in the oyster-shucking contest and learn about Wellfleet mollusks at educational talks and demonstrations. Proceeds benefit Wellfleet shellfishermen.

Wine and Dine
75 Chestnut, 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Green Line to Park. $85. Limited to 12 guests, this biweekly wine table offers a three-course food and wine pairing menu. •Oct. 20: Northern Rhone (France).

Wine and Oyster Tasting
McCormick & Schmick's, 34 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-482-3999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 7-9 pm. A la carte. Chef Eric Naruszewicz and general manager Paul Tietge offer shucking lessons, sample tastings and information on a wide array of oysters and host a question-and-answer session on wine and oyster pairing.

Wines of Spain Dinner
Caffé Umbra, 1395 Washington St., Boston (617-867-0707). Oct. 21. General manager Jim Becker, former chef at Taranta and Rauxa, among others, steps back into the kitchen to prepare a four-course dinner paired with Spanish wines.

Pig out at the pig-free Boston Vegetarian Food Festival.

DISH

...That's La Morra!

Busy in Brookline...A Rouge by any other name...Cable and table...

When you're opening your first restaurant, confidence and flexibility can be even more important than careful planning. That's why Josh Ziskin, who expects to open La Morra in Brookline the very same week his wife expects to give birth to their third child, sounds excited instead of stressed.

"I guess I forgot to tell her I was opening a restaurant, and she forgot to tell me she wanted a third kid," he quips.

Ziskin, most recently chef de cuisine at Tuscan Grill in Waltham for four years, says the 72-seat La Morra will focus on traditional northern Italian cuisine. He's especially enthusiastic about featuring cicchetti—Venetian-style tapas or small dishes—and a nightly four-course meal for $35 that will include appetizer, pasta, main course and dessert. Ziskin will prepare homemade pastas and breads, and the bar and lounge areas of the two-level spot will feature Italian wine and liqueurs. But wait, there's more: La Morra, which opens in mid-November in the former Fajitas & 'Ritas space in Brookline Village, will offer both on-street and valet parking.

Josh Ziskin will open La Morra in the former Fajitas & 'Ritas near Brookline Village in mid-November.

SECOND COURSE

Most restaurants don't undergo a name change unless there's a change of ownership. So it was intriguing to receive a press release from Andy Husbands that referred to Rouge as "Rouge [Red]." What's up with the subtitle, Andy?

"It's kind of a marketing move," he says. "Rouge is a French word, and I'm an American guy making a move toward barbecue." In fact, Husbands is featuring all-you-can-eat barbecue Mondays throughout the football season in his formerly New Orleans–themed South End eatery. That means ribs, pulled pork and brisket, along with football on satellite TV. Which begs the question: will Husbands add [Neck] to Rouge [Red]?

"No comment," laughs the pork rind–loving chef, who's also heading south—to Providence—to open a new restaurant. The as-yet-unnamed restaurant is slated to open its doors December 1 in the space formerly occupied by the highly rated Empire, which closed last May. Jason Santos, longtime executive chef at Tremont 647, has been promoted to the position of operating chef and business partner.

All you can watch: At the launch party for TV Diner, NECN's new restaurant show starring Billy Costa, a capacity crowd sipped "Costa-politans" (on all other nights, it's called a Telotus martini) and nibbled on colossal shrimp at Mantra. Unlike new Phantom Gourmet host David Robichaud, who jumped on a table and sang at that show's party, the famously good-natured Costa declined to perform. Another contrast: A guest who'd been invited to both parties lauded the "much better food" at the TVD bash. "I mean, Papa Gino's pizza and deep-fried Twinkies compared to this," he said, holding a plateful of oysters.

Sean Simmons, owner and executive chef of the Parish Cafe, now qualifies as an Extreme Pedestrian: He's also working with childhood buddy Gordon Wilcox as executive chef of George: An American Tavern, just a hop, a skip and a swerve across busy Boylston Street. iB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

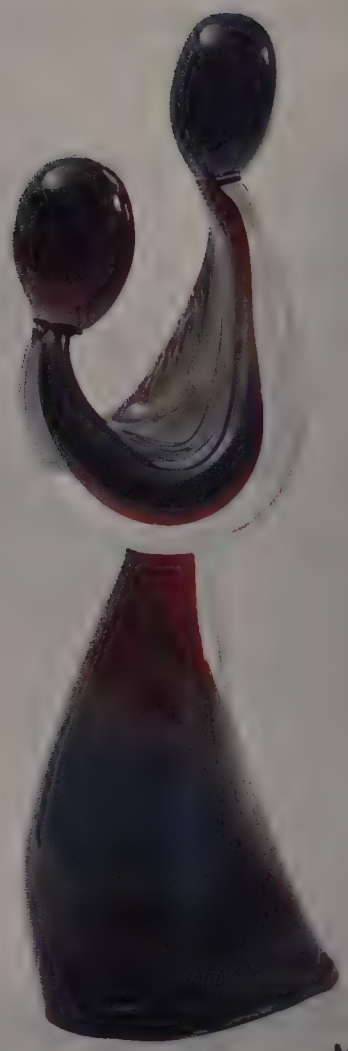
Exclusively at

Alex & Co.

CREATORS OF FINE JEWELRY

100 Needham Street, Newton MA 02464 617.965.8777

Fine Diamond Jewelry
by Alex Zamsky



Murano Glass Sculpture
by Dino Rosin

3P's

Pool
Pizza
Pitcher

$19.99

Sunday
Monday
& Tuesday

138
Brighton
Ave.

BIG CITY

"WANTS YOU"

BOSTON'S BEER FORCE!

PIZZA KITCHEN . BEER BAR . POOL HALL

NOW OPEN
SUNSET CANTINA * 916 COMM. AVE.
617.731.8646

130 BRIGHTON AVE, ALLSTON VILLAGE
617.254.1331

IMPROPER PICKS

october 8 - 21

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			8 Visit seven design showrooms during the Walk About Boston's Design District event. See CityScope on page 50.	9 The Boston Globe Book Festival continues this week at the Boston Public Library. See Books & Poetry on page 88.	10 World-class ice skaters perform at An Evening with Champions, a benefit for the Jimmy Fund. See CityScope on page 50.	11 100 Days, a film about the Rwandan government's genocidal reign of the 1990s, plays at Museum of Fine Arts. See Movies on page 64.
12 Thoroughly Modern Millie, a musical based on the 1967 Oscar-winning film, is at the Wang Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 52.	13 Opening Our Doors Day is Boston's largest free community cultural event. See CityScope on page 50.	14 Dziga Vertov's classic The Man with the Movie Camera screens with live piano accompaniment. At the Harvard Film Archive. See Movies on page 64.	15	16 In Rudolf Nureyev's Don Quixote, Boston Ballet recreates Miguel de Cervantes' 17th-century tale. See Performing Arts on page 54.	17 Pauly Shore performs at the Comedy Connection. See Performing Arts on page 54.	18 Facing Mekka, a celebration of hip-hop dance, is at the Cutler Majestic Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 54.
19 Eric Idle of Monty Python performs songs and skits at the Orpheum. See Performing Arts on page 54.	20	21 Frank Gorshin plays George Burns in Say Goodnight, Gracie at the Wilbur Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 52.

Gerald Pomeroy and his assistant, Juliana Hibbert, are among the designers creating gowns for Don't Dessert Us!

THU./OCT. 9

Tastings: Yum...Dessert

The Boston Design Center's annual Don't Dessert Us! benefit for Community Servings has a new twist. In past years, this IMPROPER BOSTONIAN-sponsored event has featured upholstered chairs with unique designs inspired by desserts. This year, it's one-of-a-kind evening gowns. Imagine a full-length, mint-green ball gown taking its design cues from a raspberry-infused, crème de menthe soufflé. A total of 12 local and national designers (including the IMPROPER's fashion and beauty editor Samantha House) will create gowns to match desserts prepared by Michael Leviton of Lumiere, Kristen Murray of No. 9 Park, Raymond Ost of Sandrine's and Rich Vellante of Legal Sea Foods, among others. Mingle with other foodies and design enthusiasts and sample the desserts along with liqueurs and cordials as you tour the design center's showrooms. The evening, which concludes with a runway show and silent auction of the gowns, brings new meaning to the phrase, "You look good enough to eat." Boston Design Center, One Design Center, Boston (617-445-7777). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct. 9, 6:30 pm. $100.

THE CALENDAR GIRLS' GUIDE TO WHAT'S UP, IN AND AROUND BOSTON

CITYSCOPE 50

PERFORMING ARTS 52

MOVIES 58

MUSIC 68

CLASSICAL MUSIC 76

DANCE CLUBS 80

ART 86

BOOKS & POETRY 88

EDUCATION 89

GAY & LESBIAN 90

BODY & MIND 92

SPORTS 92

CHILDREN 93

AROUND TOWN 93

EDITED BY:

ERIN HAGEDORN

Art, Books & Poetry, Gay & Lesbian, Museums, Movies, Music

JULIE SURATT

Around Town, Children, Education, Performing Arts

ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY:

Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind

Paul Sherman Film Capsules

Ezra Dyer CityScope, Dance Clubs, and Sports

SAT. AND SUN./OCT. 11 AND 12

Art: Pluckin' Pumpkins

Last October, we drove out to a farm in New Hampshire to bring home our pet pumpkin. After much hemming and hawing, our eyes fell upon little Gordon the Gourd, a pint-sized pumpkin—and we immediately fell in love. Until a month later when he rotted and his gooey innards got stuck to our mantle top. We vowed never to go through that kind of heartbreak again, so this year, we're going to MIT's Great Glass Pumpkin Patch to pick a pumpkin that's guaranteed not to go soft on us. At this annual event, more than 1,000 glass pumpkins, squashes and gourds, created by students in MIT's Glass Lab art program, are strewn throughout a grassy court in front of MIT's Kresge Auditorium. Visitors can (carefully) stroll through the pumpkin patch and choose their favorite autumnal orb to take home (prices range from $20-$200). Browsing is free. Kresge Auditorium, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4003). 10 am-5 pm each day.

THU./OCT. 16

CityScope: Saks It Up

The summer season of Sex and the City is all but a distant memory, and the next season of new episodes doesn't start for months. But here's an event that'll get you through the drought until you can get another fab-four fix. Tonic is hosting a Saks in the City fashion show, a party inspired by the HBO series, with cocktails, door prizes and hors d'oeuvres. The fashion show features models from Maggie, Inc., celebrity athletes and sports anchors, who will don Saks clothing and strut their stuff. The evening also includes trivia contests, raffle prizes and special drinks. Proceeds benefit Franciscan Children's Hospital. Tonic, 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-779-1130). 7-10 pm. $25.

TUE./OCT. 7-SAT./NOV. 1

Performing Arts: What a Tease

If you're a John Waters fan, here's an opportunity to see his crazy cinematic style performed live on stage. The King of Camp plays creative consultant to the stage remake of his 1988 cult hit film, Hairspray, at the Colonial Theatre Oct. 7-Nov. 1. This production is a bit more mainstream (a toned-down version of the over-the-top zaniness that cast members Sonny Bono, Deborah Harry, Ricki Lake, Ric Ocasek and Jerry Stiller lent to the film). But the musical, which opened on Broadway in August 2002 to rave reviews, garnered eight Tony Awards in 2003, which ain't half bad. For those unfamiliar with the show, it's set in Baltimore in 1962, and 16-year-old Tracy Turnblad sets out to dance her way onto television's most popular show. She earns a coveted spot, but the real question is: Can she win the heart of dreamy Link Larkin and integrate a television show at the same time? Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $30-$97.

The cast of Hairspray

This bra designed by Susan Sarandon is one of the undergarments up for bid at the Celebrity Bra Auction.

THU./OCT. 9

CityScope: Bra-vo!

With the outrageous amount that bras cost nowadays, do you ever feel like you should be wearing your bra over your shirt? If you make the winning bid on a bra designed by Pamela Anderson, Goldie Hawn, Billy Joel or Samuel L. Jackson at the first annual Celebrity Bra Auction, maybe you'll want to do so. At a similar event in Los Angeles, bras went for as much as $2,000. Conservative Bostonians may not shell out such big bucks for a bra by Reba McEntire or Susan Sarandon—but they might be tempted by designs from former Red Sox pitcher Bill Lee or the New England Patriots cheerleaders. Attendees can place their bids on "four of the biggest celebrity bras," according to Ellie Fund publicist Dan Karp (we're assuming he means bras designed by the biggest-name celebrities), or participate in a silent auction for the others. The evening concludes with a lingerie fashion show. Proceeds benefit the Massachusetts Breast Cancer Coalition, the Ellie Fund and the Expedition Inspiration Fund for Breast Cancer Research. Avalon, 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-376-6222). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 6-10 pm. $35; $45 at the door.

There's a new, independent hotel with the style and comfort of a bygone era, but with the amenities and features of the new millennium.

Featuring Great Bay, a fine dining seafood restaurant
by Michael Schlow and Christopher Myers

HOTEL COMMONWEALTH

For reservations, call 866-784-4000, or visit hotelcommonwealth.com
500 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA

BAY

GREAT

Great wine.
Great fish.
Miracles happen.

Great Bay Restaurant
500 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, MA 02215

For reservations:
617 532 5300

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for festivals, events and benefits by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Festivals, Benefits & Events

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8

Tee Off to Cure MS
Pinehills Country Club, 54 Clubhouse Drive, Plymouth (781-788-0227). www.bostoncure.org. 11 am. $300. This golf tournament raises money to fight multiple sclerosis. Fee includes a cart, a bucket of balls, dinner and prizes.

Walk About Boston's Design District
Park Square/upper Boylston Street area, Boston (617-778-5759). www.massart.edu/calendar. Retailers open 5-8 pm; party in the Galleria at 10 St. James St., 8-10pm. $15 in advance, $20 day of event. Seven home furnishing retailers introduce their fall collections in an event to benefit the Mass. College of Art. Attendees are eligible for raffle prizes, and a party with live jazz and food and drink from Davio's follows the stores' open house.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9

Alpha Omega/Gucci Benefit Party
Alpha Omega, 57 JFK St., Cambridge (617-864-1227, ext. 213). 6-9 pm. Alpha Omega and Gucci celebrate the new Gucci watch and jewelry line with a party and silent auction to benefit the Mass. Community AIDS Partnership. In addition, 10 percent of proceeds from Gucci items purchased that night (and through Nov. 31) benefits the Partnership. The evening also includes a performance by the Harvard Glee Club Lite.

BU Irish Scholarship Dinner
Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston (617-353-2238). www.bu.edu/alumni/events/shannongala. 6 pm. $150. Author Frank McCourt is the honored guest at this dinner to raise money for the William V. Shannon Memorial Fellowship Foundation, which sponsors Irish graduate students at Boston University.

Don't Dessert Us
Boston Design Center, One Design Center Place, Boston (617-617-445-7777). www.servings.org. 6:30-9:30 pm. $100. Twelve top chefs create unique desserts, and clothing designers stitch together gowns inspired by those sweet treats to benefit Community Servings, which delivers hot meals to people with AIDS. The evening includes hors d'oeuvres, wine and champagne, and the night concludes with a fashion show and silent auction of the gowns. Sponsored by THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.

Night of Champions Fund-Raiser
Lantana, 43 Scanlon Drive, Randolph (508-580-2445). 6:30-9:30 pm. $75. Boxing writer and historian Bert Sugar joins former heavyweight champ Leon Spinks and many others at this benefit for the Boxing Hall of Fame. The evening includes a buffet dinner, silent auction, cash bar and autograph opportunities.

100 Weaves of India Exhibition Opening Reception
Zeitgeist Gallery, 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060). www.zeitgeist-gallery.org. 6-9 pm. Exhibition runs through Oct. 12. Free. This exhibition and sale includes weaves, prints and embroideries from all over India. The opening reception includes an Indian classical dance performance. A portion of proceeds benefits the organization Funding Indian Rural Enterprise.

A Sancocho of Art
The Roxy, 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-7686). www.studiosoto.org. 6-10 pm. $25 general admission, $45 VIP. Grammy-nominated Venezuelan dance band Los Amigos Invisibles headlines this benefit performance for the Studio Soto arts space.

FRIDAY, OCT. 10

Chelsea Theatre Works Grand Opening
Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea Square (617-887-2336). www.theatrezone.org. Performances Oct. 10-Nov. 1, Thu.-Sat. at 8 pm. Grand opening benefit performance tickets, including preshow reception and dessert and champagne after the show, $50. Regular performances $12 in advance and $15 at the door. TheatreZone performs Donald Margulies' Pulitzer Prize–winning play Dinner With Friends to introduce its new performance space in the Chelsea Theatre Works.

An Evening With Champions
Harvard's Bright Hockey Center (617-493-8172). www.aneveningwithchampions.org. Oct. 10-11, 8 pm. $30. World-class skaters, including Paul Wylie, Oksana Baiul and Steven Cousins, put on an exhibition to benefit the Jimmy Fund.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus
One Fleet Center, Boston (617-931-2000). www.fleetcenter.com. Oct. 10-19. $10-$60. Witness the Greatest Show on Earth, with ringmaster Kevin Venardos, Sara the Tiger Whisperer, the Prince of Laughter and the Empress of Equilibrium.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12

Harvard Square Oktoberfest
Harvard Square, Cambridge (617-491-3434). www.harvardsquare.com. 12-6 pm. Harvard Square's annual Oktoberfest celebration attracts more than 100,000 people and includes five performance areas, a "Dare to be Bare" haircut-a-thon for the Alice Hoffman Center at Mount Auburn Hospital, international cuisine, crafts vendors and of course, a beer garden.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer
MDC Hatch Shell, the Esplanade, Boston (800-227-2345). www.cancer.org. Rolling start, 8-10 am. This annual 5-mile pledge walk along the Esplanade raises money for the American Cancer Society's programs to fight breast cancer.

Sunday Singles Dance
Raffael's Restaurant, One Enterprise Drive, State Street bank Building, N. Quincy (781-446-0234). Every Sunday, 7-11 pm. $10. Single professionals ages 35 and over are invited for an evening of dancing to music by Beau Paris. Complimentary buffet, proper business dress required.

MONDAY, OCT. 13

Fenway Opening Our Doors Day
Various Fenway locations (617-437-7544). www.fenwayculture.org. 10:30 am-4 pm. Free. Sixteen Fenway Cultural District organizations, including the Museum of Fine Arts, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum and others, host open houses, performances and classes.

Tufts Health Plan 10K for Women
Boston Common, Boston (888-767-7223). www.tuftshealthplan.com. 12 pm. $24. This race along the Charles River is the U.S. Women's 10K Championship and attracts 6,500 runners each year.

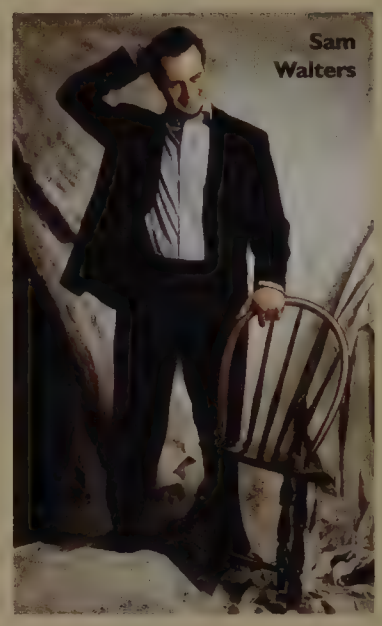
TUESDAY, OCT. 14

A Night of Pink Drinks
George, 384 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-8555). 6-8 pm. Free. This party celebrates the launch of Bartender magazine editor Jaclyn Wilson Foley's Pink Drink Book. Sales of pink drinks and the book benefit the women's cancer charity A Time for Me.

Preview

Hardy-Har-Harp

The Harp celebrates its 10-year anniversary with Comedy and Cocktails



Harp music is tranquil and sedate, but the bar by the same name near the FleetCenter tends to be quite the opposite. Whether there's a band upstairs or a DJ downstairs, whether the Celtics or Bruins are in town or away, a certain boisterous energy has defined the Harp's tenure on Causeway Street for the past decade. Thus it's fitting that on Oct. 9, Bud Light and THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN help the Harp celebrate its 10-year anniversary with a properly energetic party, Comedy and Cocktails.

As the name implies, Comedy and Cocktails features six Boston comedians taking turns cracking up the crowd. Host Sam Walters is joined by Kelly MacFarland, Larry Murphy, Tim McIntyre, Ben Boime and Tony Moschetto. When the joking around is over, DJ Nailz comes on to fire up the music until closing time—not a bad night out for the price, which is free. And that's no joke.

85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). Oct. 9, 7 pm. Free. —Ezra Dyer

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Amistad Replica Ship Visit
Fan Pier, Boston (508-875-5233). www.amistadboston.org. 2-5 pm weekdays, 10 am-1 pm and 2-5 pm weekends. Oct. 15-24, Oct. 26. $5. Bring two forms of ID to enter through Moakley Courthouse. A replica of the famous slave ship Amistad docks in Boston and is open to the public for tours.

Maxine Hong Kingston Benefit Reading
Cambridge Friends Meetinghouse, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-661-6130). 6 pm. Suggested donation $10-$50. Maxine Hong Kingston, author of Tripmaster Monkey and The Woman Warrior, reads from her latest book, The Fifth Book of Peace, to benefit the American Friends Service Committee's Peacework magazine.

A Taste of History
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). 6-8 pm. $50. This fund-raising event benefits the Old South Meeting House and honors patriot Samuel Adams. Boston Beer Company brewer Grant Wood and Gourmet Catererers chef Eddie Britt discuss beer-and-food pairings.

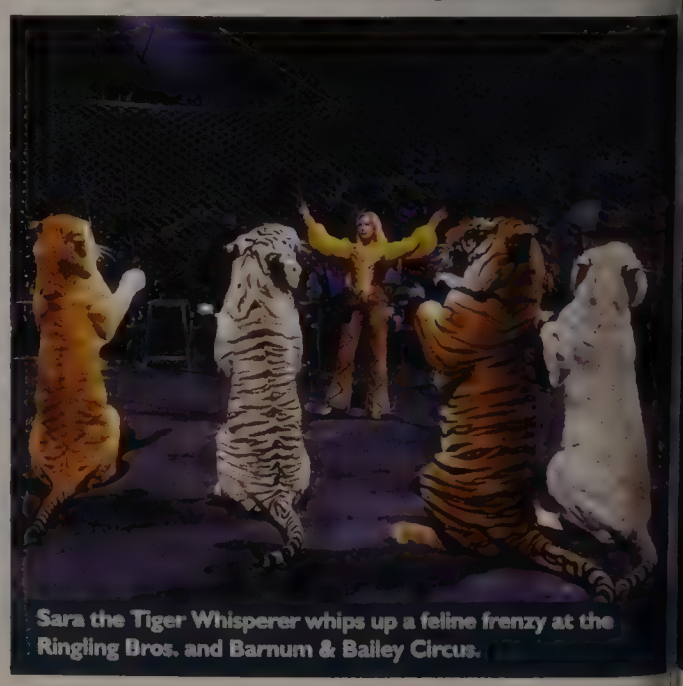
Tedeschi House Tours
55 Tara Drive, Norwell (877-746-4687. www.showhousemedia.com. Tue.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. Through Oct. 31. $30. The former home of Tedeschi grocery stores magnate Ralph Tedeschi is open for tours throughout the month to raise money for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

Women's Breakfast
The Westin Copley Place, 10 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-287-1900). www.horizonsinitiative.org. 7:30-9:30 am. $50. Author Barbara Ehrenreich speaks at this breakfast to raise money for the Horizons Initiative, an organization dedicated to improving the lives of homeless children.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16

Camille Cosby World of Children Gala
Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston (617-232-8390, ext. 2122). www.jbcc.harvard.edu. 6:30-9:30 pm. $225. This cocktail reception and dinner honors people who have improved the lives of children. Proceeds support the Judge Baker Children's Center in Mission Hill.

HOPE College Fair
Reggie Lewis Track and Athletic Center, Roxbury Community College, Roxbury (617-524-8888,ext.121). 9 am-1 pm. The Hispanic Office of Planning and Evaluation (HOPE) gathers more than 50 area colleges and universities to provide high school students with admissions and financial aid information.



Sara the Tiger Whisperer whips up a feline frenzy at the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Saks in the City Fashion Show
Tonic, 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-779-141[illegible] 7-10 pm. $25. This Saks Fifth Avenue fashion sh[illegible] benefits the Franciscan Hospital for Children. T[illegible] evening includes cocktails, appetizers, trivia conte[illegible] and raffle prizes.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17

Dance Lesson, Fashion Show and Part[illegible]
SuperShag Mega Dance Complex, 406 Moody S[illegible] Waltham (781-354-9113). www.crowningaffair.co[illegible] 7 pm. $70, includes makeup and photo session prior the event. Live out your catwalk dreams by parti[illegible]pating in a fashion show. Several days prior to t[illegible] event, participants get a makeup and photo sessi[illegible] Then, they model their look at the fashion sh[illegible] The evening also includes dance lessons, a prof[illegible]sional dance demonstration and hors d'oeuvres.

Regatta Ball
Hyatt Regency Hotel, 575 Memorial Drive, Cambri[illegible] (508-276-1200). www.sudiko.com. 8:30 pm-2 a[illegible] $40 in advance, $50 at the door. Motown band Soul[illegible] Out plays this annual Head of the Charles weeke[illegible] dance. A portion of the proceeds benefits the A[illegible] Foundation, which was founded in memory [illegible] Alexandra Zapp. Black tie optional.

Singles Party
Elephant & Castle, 161 Devonshire St., Boston (8[illegible] 945-2337). www.beersummit.com. 6-9 pm. $[illegible] Two hundred singles mingle at this party hosted [illegible] Beer Summit and Boston.com. The party inclu[illegible] appetizers and all the Oktoberfest beer you need [illegible] lower your social inhibitions.

Strictly Sinatra!
Boston Logan Airport Hilton Hotel, East Boston (6[illegible] 561-3201). www.italiaunita.org. 7 pm. $60, in a[illegible] vance only. Join Italia Unita and Al Natale's Clas[illegible] Swing Orchestra for dinner and a night of Sina[illegible] tunes. Proceeds benefit Italia Unita's 2004 festiv[illegible] Formal attire.

SATURDAY, OCT. 18

CitySprouts Harvest Festival
Haggerty School, 110 Cushing St., Cambridge (6[illegible] 491-0258). www.citysprouts.org. 10 am-3 pm. T[illegible] nonprofit garden education group CitySprouts ce[illegible] brates gardening and healthy food with cider maki[illegible] live music, a raffle, and food from local farmers a[illegible] chefs. Proceeds benefit CitySprouts.

PBNA Street Fair and Carnival
Harriet Tubman Park at Columbus Square in the So[illegible] End, Boston (617-262-6209). 10 am-3 pm. The Pi[illegible] Block Neighborhood Association hosts a fall fun[illegible] raiser featuring a white elephant sale, a bake sa[illegible] raffle and more. Proceeds benefit the PBNA's co[illegible] munity activites.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19

Hike for Health
Starts near Bloomingdale's at the Chestnut Hill M[illegible] Chestnut Hill (617-558-1881). www.medainc.org. [illegible] am-3 pm. This pledge walk along Hammond Po[illegible] Parkway raises money for the Massachusetts Eat[illegible] Disorder Association.

TUESDAY, OCT. 21

International Festival
Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Bos[illegible] (617-474-6000). www.one-1world.com. Thro[illegible] Oct. 24. This annual cultural festival features int[illegible] national music, dancing and games, and vend[illegible] offer ethnic foods and goods from around the wo[illegible] with a twist.

MARTINIS AND GAMBLING*
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 29
FROM 7-11PM
UPSTAIRS AT THE BLACK ROSE

please join us as we raise money for the susan komen breast cancer foundation. tables and prizes provided by mohegan sun and the pink libations provided by seagrams vodka
DOOR DONATION $5.00

The Black Rose

RÓISÍN DUBH

*denotes non-authentic money will be used

160 state street • boston • 617 742-2286

www.IRISHconnection.com

FRIDAY OCTOBER 31ST
$666.00 CASH PRIZE FOR BEST BOSTON RELATED COSTUME
PORTION OF THE DOOR PROCEEDS
TO BENEFIT THE BOYS AND GIRLS
CLUB OF BOSTON
PARTY STARTS AT 8PM

PURPLE SHAMROCK HALLOWEEN BOSTON STYLE.

One Union Street, Boston • 617 . 227 . 2060

the Purple Shamrock

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts. Or e-mail information to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Get tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Booths located at Faneuil Hall (on the south side of the hall) and Copley Square (at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth). Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Purchase tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.coolguitars.com/tickets.htm. Open seven days a week, Ticket City sells tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater

JUST OPENED

Accidental Death of an Anarchist
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 26. $22-$25. Playwright Dario Fo's political farce is based on the true story of an anarchist who was said to have fallen out the fourth floor window of police headquarters while under investigation. The play follows a character who poses as a judge in an effort to force the truth from the police.

The Credeaux Canvas
Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-0320). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Oct. 9-25. $25. Flat broke and newly disinherited, Jamie persuades his roommate to paint a portrait of Jamie's lover in the style of an obscure 19th-century painter. The plan: to pass the painting off as a newfound masterpiece and sell it to a wealthy art collector.

Dinner with Friends
TheatreZone at Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea Square (617-887-2336). MBTA: Green Line to Haymarket. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. Oct. 10-Nov. 1. $12-$15. Donald Margulies' comedy of "modern manners" tells the story of two married couples who have been best friends for years and the ensuing fallout when one couple splits up.

Fighting Words
Leland Center, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-0320). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3 and 8 pm, Sun., 3 pm. Oct. 16-Oct. 25., $20. The QE2 Players present the Boston premiere of this play by Sunil Kuruvilla about Welsh boxer Johnny Owen. The story—told from the perspective of three women—follows Owen's fight for the bantamweight world championship.

I Could Be Happy with You
Cambridge Center for Adult Education, 56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789, ext. 333). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 18, 8 pm. $15. Part of Jennie Mulqueen's Conscious Cabaret series, this musical features two women and three men exploring contemporary gender roles, marriage and family life.

Performance @ Large
37 Everett St., Hyde Park (617-276-3223). www.artistsatlargeinc.org. Oct. 12, 8 pm. $7. This performance of mime and poetry features Puppet Master Jake and spoken word artist Ian Thal.

Pictures of Patty Hearst
Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant Street. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 9-19. $5-$15. Kidnapped at gunpoint, held hostage in a closet, convicted of bank robbery and vilified in the press, heiress and cinema celebrity Patty Hearst remains an American media icon. But what really happened in 1974? Playwright Bill Lattanzi gives his interpretation in this new production.

Dinner with Friends, a comedy of "modern manners," plays at Chelsea Theatre Works.

Say Goodnight, Gracie
Wilbur Theatre, 106 Boylston, Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 21-Nov. 2. Take a guided tour through an American century as seen by George Burns (played by Frank Gorshin)—from his impoverished youth on New York's lower East side, to his career in Vaudeville, his marriage to Gracie Allen and the couple's rise to success on stage, screen, radio and television.

Sexuality in the City
The Devanaughn Theatre at the Piano Factory, 791 Tremont St., Boston (617-738-2967). Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. Oct. 17-Nov.1. $20. A Sex and the City parody, this play offers a voyeuristic glimpse into the sexual dynamics of today's relationships. Will love transcend age, intellect, impotence and gender?

Side Show
Riverside Theatre Works, 45 Fairmount Ave., Hyde Park (617-361-7024). Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Nov. 1. $21. Based on a true story, this Tony-nominated musical by Bill Russell portrays the lives of conjoined twins Daisy and Violet Hilton, who sought love and fame as they became Vaudeville stars during the depression.

Stones in His Pockets
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 9-26. $32. Two actors play more than a dozen roles in this comedy by Marie Jones. Discover what happens when a film crew descends upon a small Irish town to film a Hollywood blockbuster.

Thoroughly Modern Millie
Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue., 7 pm; Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 1 and 7 pm. Through Oct. 12. $28-$78. Based on the 1967 Oscar-winning film, this musical takes audiences back to the height of the Jazz Age in New York, when "moderns"—including a flapper named Millie Dillmount—were bobbing their hair, raising their hemlines, entering the workforce and rewriting the rules of love.

NOW RUNNING

Ain't Misbehavin'
Huntington Theatre Co., 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 2 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Through Oct. 19. $14-$69. Marcia Milgrom Dodge directs and choreographs this tribute to Fats Waller, showcasing music from the Harlem Renaissance.

Antony and Cleopatra
Tremont Theatre, 276 Tremont St., Boston (617-939-9939). www.bostontheatreworks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 12. $25. Shakespeare's classic tale of love and intrigue, directed by Jason Slavick, gets its first professional staging in Boston in more than 20 years.

Baby with the Bathwater
The Community Church of Boston, 565 Boylston St., Boston (781-424-8592). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Thu.-Sat., 8pm. Through Oct. 11. $20. Christopher Durang's absurdly comical tale shows how the sins of our parents come back to haunt us when we have children.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-6912). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed., 8 pm; Thu., 5 and 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 3 and 6 pm. Ongoing. $43 and $53. This production abandons all dialogue and focuses on making an impact through tribal rock music, humorous antics, props and three men painted blue.

Ethan Frome
Founders' Theatre, Shakespeare & Co., 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-637-3353). www.shakespeare.org. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 26. $10-$45. In this play by Dennis Krausnick, adapted from Edith Wharton's novella, a young engineer looks into the past of Ethan, a beaten and withered figure who has reached middle age before his time.

A Girl's War
New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton (617-332-1646). www.newrep.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Wed., 2 and 7 pm; Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Through Oct. 19. $27-$42. Joyce Van Dyke's play tells the story of a young Armenian girl who is torn by the competing desires of love and vengeance in an age-old ethnic clash.

Hairspray
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. Through Nov. 1. $30-$97. It's 1962 in Baltimore, and 16-year-old Tracy Turnblad sets out to dance her way onto television's most popular show. Can a big girl with big dreams—and even bigger hair—change the world and still have time to win the boy she loves? Bruce Vilanch stars in this Tony Award–winning musical about a young girl's struggle with self-acceptance.

He She Them
The Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri. 8 pm.; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun. 1 and 7 pm. Through Oct. 12. $25-$39. Judd Nelson and Tasha Lawrence star in this new play by Irwin M. Heller, directed by Steven Maler. He is a successful real estate developer. She is a married architect designing one of his buildings. Flirtation grows to friendship, and then to the possibility of love.

Lady with a Lapdog
American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue., Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm.; Fri., pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm.; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 11 $12-$69. Russian director Kama Ginkas combines burlesque and tragedy in his adaptation of Anton Chekhov's short story about a summer flirtation that unexpectedly becomes a passionate relationship..

A Man of No Importance
SpeakEasy Stage Company at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787) MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Thu., 7:3 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. Through Nov. 9. $25-$35. Based on the 1994 film starring Albert Finney, this show with music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahrens follows a Dublin bus driver's attempts to stage Oscar Wilde's Salome at his church in the 1960s, despite protests from parish officials.

Memphis
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverl (617-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., Thu., Fri., pm; Wed., Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 12. $16.25-$47.25. Joe DiPietro's new musical tells the story of a white DJ who introduces his listeners to African-American music during the 1940

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617 426-5225). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6:30 and 9:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:3 pm. Ongoing. $30-$34. This comedic whodunit in a unisex hair salon holds the record as Boston longest-running play.

Tongue of a Bird
Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617 625-1300). www.theatrecoop.org. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 25. $15-$25. This lyric play by Ellen McLaughlin tells the story of a search and-rescue pilot who finds herself confronting loss of her own as she sets out on the trail of a kidnapped young girl.

When Pigs Fly
Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (61 437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Li to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay. Fri., 8 pm; Sa 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 11. $22-$4 Garish costumes and double entendres mark th campy musical conceived by Howard Crabtree a Mark Wardrop about a gay man's coming-of-ag Based in part on Crabtree's own life, it follows young man whose nasty high school guidance cou selor tells him that he might achieve success Broadway "when pigs fly."

The Winter's Tale
The Devanaughn Theatre at the Piano Factory, 7 Tremont St., Boston (617-738-2967). Thu.-Sat., pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 12. $17-$19. D vanaughn presents a sexy and kinetic production William Shakespeare's play about betrayal, jealou destiny and love, set in the pre-Christian era.

UNIVERSITY THEATER

Blue Window
Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University, 415 So St., Waltham (781-736-3400). Commuter Rail to Bra deis/Roberts. Tue.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. Oct. 26. Craig Lucas' play is about nervous Libby who about to host a dinner party for virtual strangers, b to herself and each other. The strangers talk but do seem to communicate as an air of mystery hangs o the evening.

Carousel
Emerson Stage at the Greene Theatre, 10 Boylston Pl Boston (617-824-8369). MBTA: Green Line to Bo ston. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 16-19. $5 swaggering carnival barker falls in love with a mill in this musical by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

Dance

Body Languages
Green Street Studios, 185 Green St., Cambridge (6 864-3191). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 17-1 pm. $15. Seidman Says Dance presents this show turing modern dance works by choreographer Su

THE comedy CONNECTION
FANEUIL HALL
617•248•9700

OCTOBER 10-11

DAVID BRENNER

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

OCTOBER 17-18

PAULY SHORE

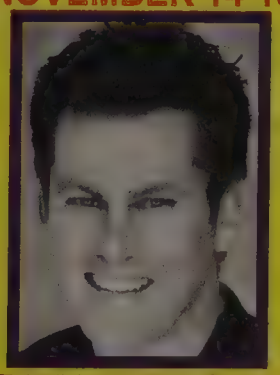
OCTOBER 25TH

STEVE SWEENEY

NOVEMBER 7-9

TOMMY DAVIDSON

NOVEMBER 14-15



BRIAN REGAN

See why Frank Santos has been a hit with fans for over 10 years!

EVERY THURSDAY!

"The R-Rated Hypnotist"

ALWAYS IMITATED!
NEVER DUPLICATED!

FRANK SANTOS

Validated Parking at 75 State Street Garage
www.comedyconnectionboston.com

BOSTON ROCKS

(617) 726-1110

(Next to The Comedy Connection on the 2nd Floor of the Quincy Market Bldg.)

A Unique Blend of Entertainment!

MARTINI MONDAYS!
*Lyrical Layups Open Mic Poetry @ 7:30PM
*Hot Video Mix
Guest DJs spinning Hip Hop and R&B from 10:30PM 'til 2AM

SMOOTH GROOVE TUESDAYS!
Live Jazz Music - 6PM-10PM
10PM Salsa Lessons - 11PM-2AM
Tequila Buffet

THURSDAYS on the ROCKS!
*Guest DJs spinning Top 40 Dance and Hip Hop
*No Cover!

THE LOFT FRIDAYS!
Featuring Top 40 Dance and Hip Hop
DJ Spinning Video & Dance Floor Mixes

SHOTGUN SATURDAY NIGHTS!
*Ladies Night for all Birthday and Bachelorette Parties
*Top 40 Dance and Hip Hop
*No Cover, No Wait!

Let Us Host Your Holiday Party! • VIP Room Available!

Open 7 Days a Week • www.boston-rocks.net • 21+

Seidman, as well as works by guest choreographers Susan Barnard and yoga-dance artist Stafani Reitter.

Facing Mekka
Cutler Majestic Theatre, Emerson College, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-876-4275). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 17, 7 pm; Oct. 18, 8 pm; Oct. 19, 2 pm. $25-$45. Rennie Harris journeys to the roots of hip-hop dance and celebrates dance as a universal language. This work features 17 dancers, three vocalists, three DJs, live percussion and collage projections. Tracing the African lineage of hip-hop dance, Harris fuses the styles of B-boy (breaking) and house (freestyle club) dance with elements from aboriginal dance, ceremonial African dances and Brazilian capoeira.

Fields of Vision
Regent Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-4849). Oct. 16, 8 pm. $16. The first part of the evening features the Morris-Sandvik Duo, inspired by historic recordings of ancient haunting field songs and spirituals. The second part features choreographer and dancer Malinda Allen of the Moving Lab, with local dancers.

Jose Mateo Ballet Theatre's Undercurrents
Sanctuary Theatre, 400 Harvard St., Cambridge (617-354-7467). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 4 pm. $28. Experience ballet with cabaret-style seating, cocktails during the show and a close-up view of the dancers. This show includes a revival of Mateo's The Last Circus (1990) set to Stravinsky's Concerto for Piano & Wind Instruments, Courtly Lovers set to Haydn's Surprise Symphony, and the premiere of Mateo's latest work, set to music by Robert Schumann.

Rudolf Nureyev's Don Quixote
Boston Ballet at the Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 16-19. $38-$95. This re-creation of Miguel de Cervantes' classic 17th-century tale is set in the heart of the Spanish countryside and features chivalry, passion and comical adventure. Principal dancer Jennifer Gelfand makes her farewell performance.

Shattered
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400, ext.10). MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. www.cmacusa.org. Oct. 9 and 10, 8 pm; Oct. 11, 2 and 8 pm. $15-$20. This showcase of inventive dance theater by GreenGlass Dance features the choreography of Lillian Carter.

Stomp
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.stomponline.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat.5 and 9 pm; Sun. 3 and 7 pm. Ongoing. $45-$55. In its ongoing run in Boston, this percussion hit continues its tradition of no plot or dialogue. Performers use everyday objects such as brooms, garbage lids and their own bodies to create music for their dance numbers.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy. Or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault at Remington's features local stand-up comedians. •Fridays and Saturdays: Dick Doherty's Comedy Pro Tour •Sundays: Open-mike night.

Comedy Connection
245 Quincy Market Place, Faneuil Hall, Upper Rotunda, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center; Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Wed., 8 pm, $12; Thu., 8:30 pm, $12; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm, 10:15 pm, prices vary; Sun., 7 pm, $12. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •Oct. 9 and 16: Frank Santos, the R-Rated Hypnotist •Oct. 10 and 11, $25: David Brenner •Oct. 12: Dave Rattigan •Oct. 13 and 20: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox, the Wildman of Comedy •Oct. 14 and 21: Paul Nardizzi and Robbie Printz •Oct. 15: Jim Lauletta •Oct. 17, $25: Pauly Shore. •Oct. 18, 8 pm, $17: Paul Nardizzi; 10:30 pm, $27.50: Pauly Shore •Oct. 19: Ira Proctor.

The Comedy Studio
The Hong Kong, 1236 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $7-$9. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •Oct. 8: Tony V Experiment with Kelly MacFarland, Rob O'Reilly, Norm Laviolette, Will MacNeill, Jeremy Turoff, Peter Dutton, Jen Ruelas and EJ Murphy •Oct. 9: Tim McIntire Experience with Dan Sulman, Greg Thibideau, JJ, Peter Dutton, Mandy Donovan, Myq Kaplan and Mary Beth Cowan •Oct. 10: Larry Murphy Chris Walsh, Chris Tabb, Tissa Hami, Max Silvestri and Rob Reuter, Jay Montepare and Dan Sally •Oct. 11: Pat O'Shea, Tissa Hami, Brian Gordon, Chris Tabb, Max Silvestri, Andy Wasif and Dan Sally •Oct. 12: Sam Walters, Tim Kaelin, Eric Cheung, Ben Boime, Jeff Hanna, Bethany Van Delft, Nicole Luparelli, Evan O'Television and Joe Meade •Oct. 14: The Mystery Lounge comedy/magic show with Jon Stetson and Steve Kradolfer •Oct. 15: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland, Jen Ruelas, Dan Hershon, Sandy Assai, Stece Hubbard, Mike Anthony and Jesse Gersten •Oct. 17: Chris Walsh, Larry Murphy, Deb Farrar-Parkman, Myq Kaplan, Chris O'Carroll and Baratunde •Oct. 18: Arielle Goldman, Brian Gordon, Deb Farrar-Parkman, Myq Kaplan and Baratunde •Oct. 19: Sam Walters, Denise Robichau, EJ Murphy, Joe Wong, Tammy Two-Tone, Walter Dixon, Dan Sulman and Steve Calechman •Oct. 21: The Mystery Lounge comedy/magic show •Oct. 22: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland, Rob Reuter, Jeremy Turoff, Evan O'Television, Larry Starr, Matt Winninger, Corey Manning, Tony Moschetto and Amanda White.

Thoroughly Modern Millie at the Wang Theatre takes audiences back to the height of the Jazz Age in New York.

Nick's Comedy Stop
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. $10-$22. •Oct. 9, 8:30 pm, free admission: Paul Gilligan, All-Star Comedy •Oct. 10 and 11, 8:45 pm: Paul Gilligan, Mark Scalia and Dave Greenberg •Oct. 16, 8:30 pm, free admission: John David, All-Star Comedy •Oct. 17 and 18, 8:45 pm: John David, Spike Tobin and Stephanie Peters.

IMPROV COMEDY

Faces for Radio
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-510-4447). www.faces4radio.com. MBTA:Red Line to Central. Thu., 8 pm. $8. Improv comedians poke fun at everything, including themselves.

Improv Asylum
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA:Green or Orange Line to Haymarket or Government Center. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $15-$20. Dinner packages also available. Improvisation and sketch comedy in the North End. •Wed. and Thu., $15, and Fri. and Sat., $20: Improv Asylum Announces the End of Major Hostilities, a new show on the mainstage •Sun., 8 pm, $10: Postmortem. This improvisational drama, based on a real-life obituary taken from the daily newspaper, explores the life of a recently deceased person.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central . $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: the characters, the stories, the settings—even the songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm, $5: The Hump. This fringe series features ImprovBoston's Expansion Teams. •Thu., 10 pm, $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and music, play short films and do character sketches in a display of sibling rivalry •Fri. 8 pm, $12: Luv Boat. Instead of washed-up celebrities setting sail, the audience members are the passengers on this cruise; 8 pm, $12: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers face off. •Sat., 6 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Family Show; 8 and 10 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music, audience participation and joyful chaos, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance.

COMEDY SHOWS

Comedy at the Isle
Emerald Isle Bar, 1501 Dorchester Ave., Dorchest (617-288-3481). MBTA: Red Line to Fields Co ner. •Oct. 11, 8:30 pm, $10. Tony V and Ji McCue •Oct. 18: DJ Hazard.

Eric Idle's Greedy Bastard Tour
Orpheum Theatre, One Hamilton Place, Boston (61 931-2000). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. O 19, 7:30 pm, $40-$55. Monty Python's Eric Id presents an evening of songs and skits with gue John Du Prez, Nigel Spasm, the Bruces and S Dirk McQuickly of the Rutles.

The Gulls
Machine, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-622 MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri. and Sat. 8 p Through Nov. 8. Ryan Landry's play The Gul loosely based on Alfred Hitchcock's film The Birds, the story of rebellious seagulls exacting revenge Provincetown developers.

Haunted Dinner Theatre
Three Cheers, 332 Congress St., Boston (800-69 2583). www.mysterycafe.com. MBTA: Green Line South Station. Oct. 10, 17 and 24, 7:30 pm; Oct. 7:30 pm; Oct. 18, 5:30 and 9 pm; Oct. 12, 19, 6 p $32.95-$42.95 for dinner and show. Mystery Ca and Haunted Dinner Theatre present Ghost of B Table Manor by Larry Blamire. Join Chives, Mast Chase and other suspects as they search for the ra million-dollar Tom Jones stamp.

Joey & Maria's Italian Wedding
Tremont Playhouse, 275 Tremont St., Boston (80 733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. a Sat., 7:30 pm. Through Nov. 29. $49. This intera tive dinner show follows Maria and Joey throu their wacky wedding.

Maria's Bachelorette Party
Tremont Playhouse, 275 Tremont St., Boston (80 733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. and Nov. 21, 7 pm. $42. At this dinner thea show, Maria's friends and bridesmaids throw he bash she won't forget.

Murder Cacciatore
Ristorante Marino, 2465 Mass Ave., Cambridge (8 697-2583). www.mysterycafe.com. Oct. 17, 7 pm; Oct. 18, 7:30 pm. $49 for dinner and show. T Gourmet Detective serves up Italian cuisine wit murder mystery.

Open Mike Night
Lizard Lounge, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (6 547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon. pm. Open mike for creative talent.

Sopranos' Last Supper
Tremont Playhouse in the Tremont Hotel, 275 Trem St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Lin Boylston. Oct. 17, 7 pm. $49, includes entrance Matrix. This interactive dinner theatre show has diences sitting in on a Mafia commission, getting augurated into a mob ceremony and gambling w laundered money.

Stash's Comedy Jam
All Asia Cafe, 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-4 1544). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. www.stashcom jam.com. First and third Sunday of the month. 8 Enjoy standup comedy at this open mike w host Stash.

ALL NEW

RINGLING BROS. AND BARNUM & BAILEY

THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

TICKETS $10

with Student ID

See details below!

AMERICA'S FAMILY TRADITION

The Jimmy Fund
DANA-FARBER CANCER INSTITUTE

www.jimmyfund.org/circus

OCT. 10 - 19

FleetCenter
WWW.FLEETCENTER.COM

Mon.	Tue.	Wed.	Thu.	Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
OCT. 13	OCT. 14 NO SHOWS	OCT. 15	OCT. 16	OCT. 17	OCT. 18	OCT. 19
1:00 PM		7:00 PM†	7:00 PM†	10:30 AM*	11:00 AM
				7:00 PM†	3:00 PM	1:00 PM
					7:00 PM	5:00 PM

Fri.	Sat.	Sun.
OCT. 10	OCT. 11	OCT. 12
	11:00 AM
	3:00 PM	1:00 PM
7:00 PM	7:00 PM	5:00 PM

Educational Performance - No Pre-Show Events

•TICKETS $10 (excluding Front Row and VIP Seats)
With Student ID at the FleetCenter Box Office

For the fastest and easiest way to order tickets, go to www.Ringling.com
Ticket Centers, FleetCenter Box Office or call (617) 931-2000

For Information call (617) 624-1000
Groups (617) 624-1805

Ticket Prices: $10 - $15 - $20 - $25
Limited number of VIP and Front Row seats available. Call for details.
(Service charges and handling fees may apply; no service charge at FleetCenter Box Office.)

MasterCard Preferred by eet the clowns and animals at the Three Ring Adventure®- one hour before showtime.

2003–04 SEASON

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

repartee

CLASSICAL MUSIC +
CONTEMPORARY PEOPLE

A PROGRAM FOR MUSIC ENTHUSIASTS

BETWEEN THE AGES OF 21 AND 38

To find out more about repartee or to subscribe...
Visit www.bso.org or call (617) 266-7575

2003–2004 SEASON

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

BSO COLLEGE CARD

PRESENTED BY UBS

Purchase a BSO College Card for $25 and attend twenty-seven concerts at no additional cost!

Experience the world-renowned BSO!

To purchase a BSO College Card, visit www.bso.org, or call SymphonyCharge at (617) 266-1200.

Students must show a valid student ID and will receive one free ticket per College Card. Tickets must be picked up by 6pm on day of concert, and are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

UBS

the Harp DECADE

10 days celebrating 10 years at The Harp

Celebration Starts 10.08.03!!

'00 '01 '02

10 YEARS

10 days

'99

October 8th - 18th

'03

Wednesday 8
HARP DECADE KICKOFF!!!
Sports Celebrity Ribbon Cutting Ceremony 6pm
Bruins First Season Game
Tim Crandell Live 10pm

Thursday 9
Federal Lunch 12pm-2pm
Improper Bostonian Comedy and Cocktails 7pm
Music by Tim Crandell 6-9pm
DJ Nailz Live 10pm

'98

Friday 10
Neighborhood Party 6-8pm
Music by Tim Crandell 6-9pm
The Zoo Live 10pm

Saturday 11
Notre Dame Alumni Game Watch
WZLX 9pm-Midnight
The Zoo Live 10pm

Sunday 12
Bills Football Club 4pm
The Zoo Live 10pm

Monday 13
"Harp"oon Fest!
Live Bands All Day 2-10pm
Brick Park, Joshua Tree.
Dick and Jane, Tim Crandell & More
Las Vegas Night 6-9pm

'97

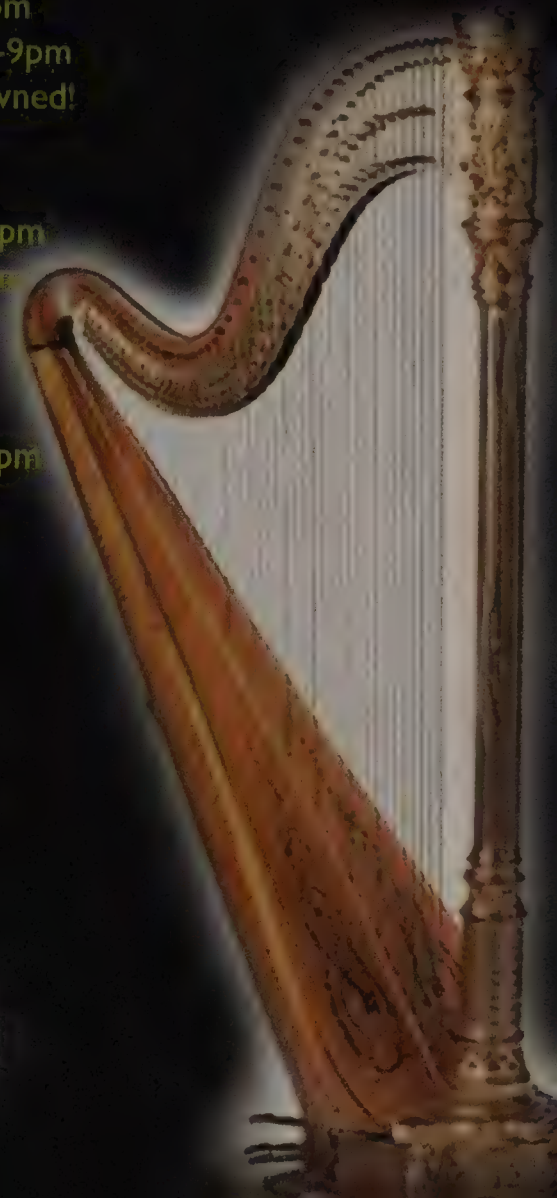
Tuesday 14
Las Vegas Night 9pm-Midnight
Adam Ezra Band 10pm

Wednesday 15
Kiss 108 Matty in the Morning Party with Danny Wood Live in Concert and Bahamas Trip Giveaway 8pm

Thursday 16
Stuff @ Night Party 6-8pm
Music by Tim Crandell 6-9pm
Queen of the Harp Crowned!
Flavor Live 10pm

Friday 17
Mr. Green Genes Live 10pm
Studio Kiss 108 11pm-2am

Saturday 18
Notre Dame Alumni
Game Watch 2:30pm
Mr. Green Genes Live 10pm



www.HARPDECADE.com

85 Causeway Street Boston 617.742.1010

'96

'95

'94

To Sir, with Rock

Jack Black aces The School of Rock

BY PAUL SHERMAN

The School of Rock is a great reminder that there aren't smart comedies and stupid comedies—just good ones and bad ones. The movie's plot could have been yanked from the lamest vehicle for a Saturday Night Live cast member: A self-centered guitarist gets kicked out of his band and, desperate for money, impersonates a substitute teacher and ends up schooling a class of fourth-graders into being his new band. That could be the plot of a Rob Schneider movie. Yet this premise that might have easily been a cringe-worthy formula film succeeds in The School of Rock because everyone involved decided not to settle for the formulaic and the obvious.

Jack Black jams with fourth-graders in the new comedy The School of Rock.

First off, there's Jack Black's performance as the arrogant rocker. The School of Rock is the movie breakthrough Black has been destined for ever since his scathingly funny record store clerk in High Fidelity. It's a breakthrough that was supposed to happen in Shallow Hal but didn't because Black had to play straight man to that movie's visual gimmicks. But he's all over Dewey, a fist-pumping guitar player who could see This Is Spinal Tap and not only believe it was all real, but come out of it worshipping England's loudest faux metal band.

Dewey's self-serving stage antics get him axed from his band. But when he's hard up for money and intercepts a phone call for his substitute-teacher roommate Ned (Mike White, who also wrote the script), he decides to take up the caller's offer of subbing for a suddenly hospitalized fourth-grade teacher at a posh private school.

Dewey shows up at the school in a scarf and bowtie, his amusingly cliched image of a teacher, and is ready to offer the kids days and days of no learning. But these 10-year-olds are stressed-out overachievers with demanding, rich parents. They don't want all-day recess, and it's up to Dewey to teach them how to "stick it to the man" with rock and roll. He passes along riffs from AC/DC, Black Sabbath and Deep Purple songs as if they were pearls of wisdom and divides the nonmusicians in the class into such rock essentials as roadies, techies, management and, yes, groupies.

Dewey draws heavily on Black's persona in Tenacious D, his tongue-in-cheek "acoustic heavy-metal duo" with Kyle Gass: the over-the-top guitar theatrics, the mythologizing (Dewey's "In the End of Time," co-written by Black, idealizes his lingering debts), the crusading zealousness and Black's rock-scat singing. You have to assume White, who also wrote Orange County, in which Black co-starred, conceived The School of Rock with Black in mind, since it's such a perfect fit.

But The School of Rock isn't just The Jack Black Show. White and director Richard (Dazed and Confused) Linklater, in his most mainstream movie yet, make many rewarding choices in telling the story here. For instance, the school's hard-nosed principal (Joan Cusack) isn't a villain, just someone who, like the kids, has lost her sense of fun and needs to loosen up. Similarly, Dewey's students are remarkably free of caricature. Sure, there are brains and nerds and fat kids in the classroom, but the movie treats them all with respect (not a fart joke in the entire film!), while the interaction between the mostly young cast comes across as easy and unforced. And the movie actually refrains from having one of those easily impressed, pretty and pretty bland love interests for Dewey.

All these elements combine to make The School of Rock a comedy that actually makes you feel good and a tale of underdogs for whom you gladly root. So many movies try to shove those qualities down our throats, but this one actually earns them. So the next time a lousy David Spade or Dana Carvey movie comes out, remember—it didn't have to be so bad. The School of Rock is proof that old formulas can get new life in the right hands. iB

The School of Rock ★★★½

Directed by Richard Linklater. Written by Mike White. With Jack Black, Joan Cusack, White and Sarah Silverman. Rated PG-13. Paramount Pictures.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

American Splendor ★★★
The movie version of Harvey Pekar's autobiographical comic book series sticks to the comics' realism to such a degree that, in addition to scenes with a pitch-perfect Paul Giamatti as cranky Pekar, it also includes narration by and interviews with Pekar himself. That hybrid is clumsy at times, but the movie captures Pekar's search for the extraordinary in the everyday, as well as his hard-headed individualism, with precision and affection. We see Pekar at his humble file clerk job and in his legendary appearances on David Letterman's shows. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Anything Else ★
Is Woody Allen surrounded by the most sycophantic "yes men" on the planet? Isn't there anyone there to tell him, "When every character who's in more than one scene is annoying, that makes for an annoying movie"? Evidently not, because Woody's done it again. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Cabin Fever ★★½
The old spam-in-a-cabin premise of a group of college kids going into the woods and finding horror plays out with less cliché than usual here. The big twist this time is that the rednecks who are trying to kill the kids aren't the only danger. The real threat is a flesh-eating virus that one of the kids catches, and which seems headed for the others. There's the obligatory horny girl, doofus guy and hero for us to identify with, but this is a lively, decent creepshow. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Camp ★★
Actor turned writer and now director Todd Graff's unconvincingly feel-good indie movie features a gung ho teen cast playing the aspiring singers, dancers and actors at Camp Ovation, a performing arts camp. There's some novelty in seeing talented teens play adults in fully staged production numbers of Sondheim or Bacharach-David songs (this is the Terror of Tiny Town of musicals). But the comedy-drama is such a superficial after-school special, with all its dilemmas miraculously resolved without fuss or muss, that it has no emotional credibility. Despite all the unrequited love, sexual dilemmas and backstage bickering, it's a trifle. (At Kendall Square.)

Casa de los Babys ★★
Writer-director John Sayles' movies either have narrative thrust (Lone Star, Sunshine State) or they don't. His latest just sits there in search of purpose. This story of a half-dozen American women in Mexico (waiting to adopt babies from a local agency) and the Mexicans they come into contact with feels like a first draft. The characters are sketchy, the action is tentative and the point is fuzzy. The relationship between parenting and imperialism bubbles under the story, but never hits home. Too bad, because Sayles assembled an eclectic cast of actresses—including Lili Taylor, Marcia Gay Harden, Maggie Gyllenhaal and Mary Steenburgen—who interact well together but are let down by the script. (At Kendall Square.)

Dopamine ★★★
John Livingston (brother of Ron from Office Space) and Sabrina Lloyd (TV's Sports Night) make a more compelling couple than any Hollywood romantic comedy has offered this year. This down-to-earth San Francisco story about the couple's up-and-down relationship also captures the bars and coffeehouses where they hang out without the overeager quirks that other indie films might have indulged in. (At Copley Place.)

Duplex ★★
Chances are, you've already seen Ben Stiller whacked around in Flirting with Disaster, There's Something About Mary or Meet the Parents. Now, you get to see him whacked around by a little old lady (Eileen Essel), but it's not so funny this time. He and Drew Barrymore play first-time homeowners who inherit the sweet-looking but nasty tenant who can't be kicked out of her rent-controlled apartment. The couple tries to force her out; the old lady tries to get under their skin; the comedy feels like a sitcom episode stretched too thin. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

The Fighting Temptations ★★★
Here's a big surprise. Although it stars Cuba Gooding Jr. (he of the painful Snow Dogs and Boat Trip) and it's a formula film about a jaded yuppie who sees the light when he returns to his small home town, this is actually an enjoyable ensemble comedy with great musical performances. Good plays a New York ad exec who's not above advising a liquor company to market malt liquor to bla

SOHO

"One of the top ten bars in the world"

OMKW Architecture

DJ Thursday through Saturday

Sunday Brunch with Live Jazz Band kitchen cocktails club

386 MARKET STREET | BRIGHTON | 617.562.6000 | www.sohoboston.com

Then he returns to his Georgia hometown for a great aunt's funeral and, as stipulated in her will, has to get her church's choir into a local competition in order to collect his inheritance. The cast is filled with singers (Beyonce, the O'Jays, Melba Moore), and the songs are often knockouts, while Mike Epps and Steve Harvey are very funny and Gooding's Jack Lemmon facial expressions of disbelief are just right for his character. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

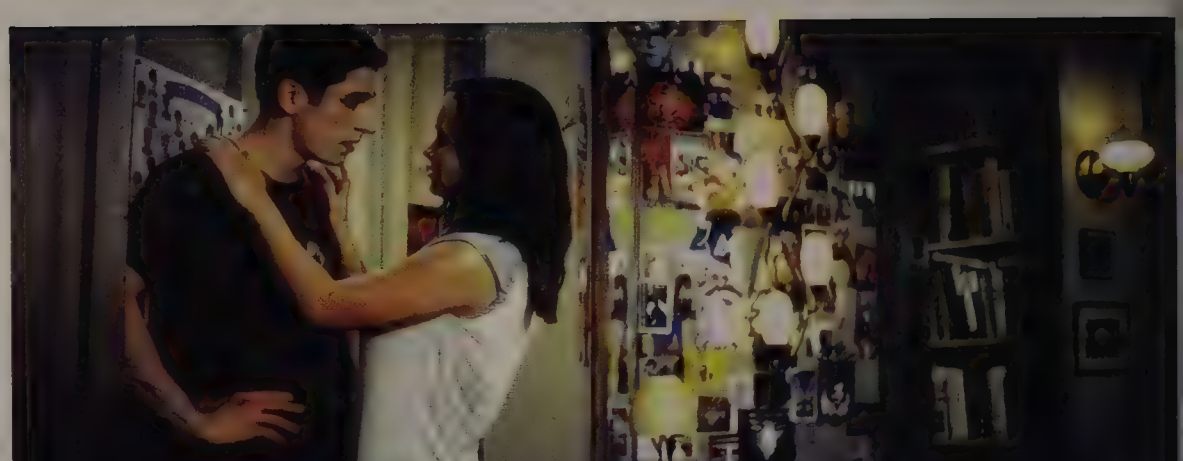
Lost in Translation ★★★½
Sofia Coppola dealt with shared pain in her 2000 directorial debut, The Virgin Suicides, and she conjures up a similar funny-sad tone in her tale of two Americans (Bill Murray, Scarlett Johansson) adrift in Tokyo. He's a washed-up movie star making a bundle endorsing Japanese booze, while she's the wife of a work-consumed photographer (Giovanni Ribisi). They're staying at the same hotel and killing time at the same hotel bar, and their misery loves company. The characters make a great movie couple, although their relationship is platonic (with its share of sexual tension). Murray gives a Buster Keaton–like, sad-clown performance built mainly around physical and especially facial reactions to absurd situations, and Johansson is a little heartbreaker. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and suburbs.)

The Magdalene Sisters ★★★½
Actor turned writer-director Peter Mullan's intense movie about Ireland's brutal Magdalene asylums is the best argument for the separation of church and state since the Taliban. It was in these asylums, which existed until the mid-1990s, that the Catholic Church used to take in "wayward" girls and force them to work, under the premise of rehabilitating them, all with the tacit approval of the government and society. Unlike so many movies that portray cruelty and violence, such things actually have great consequence in Mullan's movie. He makes you care about his three victimized heroines, and his movie is a chilling look at abuse of power on many levels—in family and community as much as the church. (At Kendall Square.)

Matchstick Men ★★★
If it's a Nicolas Cage movie, the more neuroses the better. He follows his self-loathing writer from Adaptation with an obsessive-compulsive neatnik in Ridley Scott's comedy. Cage's con-man can't function if there's a speck on the carpet, and he thinks that initiating a relationship with the 14-year-old daughter (Alison Lohman) he's never seen might help. The intertwining of his professional life and his strained attempt at fatherhood makes for some amusing moments, as does Cage's trademark twisted emotionalism. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Morning Sun ★★½
Brookline-based Carma Hinton and Richard Gordon's The Gate of Heavenly Peace (1995) is the definitive documentary about the Tiananmen Square uprising of 1989. Their latest, co-directed with Geremie R. Barme, covers the Chinese Cultural Revolution of the 1960s and is always involving, though it raises more questions than it answers. The Cultural Revolution was like an extreme version of American McCarthyism, a call to root out "enemies within" carried out with mob rule, but in China it resulted in a cycle of martyrdom and scapegoating even more tragic and absurd than what happened in the U.S. The movie offers some insight, with interviews from many who've never before spoken on camera about their experiences, but you couldn't say it actually makes sense of things. The main question that lingers is how Mao Zedong could manipulate so many people for so long; his apparent puppeteer's role in the events is never really explored. (At the Museum of Fine Arts, Oct. 17-19, 22-25.)

My Life Without Me ★★
Sometimes Canadian understatement, so appealing in such movies as Last Night or The Sweet Hereafter, backfires. This drama is about an ordinary young wife and mother (Sarah Polley, who costarred in those other two movies) who finds out she has two months left to live. Instead of telling anyone else, she makes a private to-do list and then tries to accomplish the items. Although she carries through on some of them, including "make someone fall in love with me," others (like "say what I'm thinking") are conveniently forgotten, and the movie never imparts any urgency or sense of liberation in the heroine's unusual path to death. It tries to tell her story in everyday terms, but writer-director Isabel Coixet manages to make death at 23 seem incredibly ordinary. (At Coolidge Corner and Kendall Square.)



Jerry Falk (Jason Biggs) finds unpredictability with Amanda (Christina Ricci) in Woody Allen's new comedy, Anything Else.

Once upon a Time in Mexico ★★
Johnny Depp has fun playing a CIA agent who blissfully mucks things up south of the border in Robert Rodriguez's third El Mariachi movie, with Antonio Banderas back as the guitar-slinging desperado. But the spoof is more ironic than funny, setting up ridiculously violent situations and then sitting back and smugly smiling. The film violates a basic movie violence rule, repeatedly: gunslingers with handguns or even rifles can seem cool, but when you start pulling out machine guns and assault weapons, you kill off any coolness. Rodriguez should know better. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Out of Time ★★½
Nearly a decade ago, director Carl Franklin and star Denzel Washington made Devil in a Blue Dress, an evocative 1940s-set neo-noir that should have launched a series featuring author Walter Mosley's hero, "Easy" Rawlins—if only audiences hadn't been so indifferent. Franklin and Washington's new collaboration is another thriller involving sex, money and deceit. This one is competent but much less layered and much more conventional. (I guess the generic title is a tip-off.) Washington plays a small-town police chief who's about to be divorced from one woman (fellow cop Eva Mendes) and is sleeping with another (married woman Sanaa Lathan). A splashy crime involving the lover and a trail of evidence incriminating the chief perk the attentions of the fellow cop, and the chief has to scurry to clear his name. There are a few thrills, but there's also a ridiculously sunny ending. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Pieces of April ★★★
Black humor and optimism blend surprisingly well in this story of the title character (Katie Holmes) fixing Thanksgiving dinner for her visiting family. While she deals with kitchen problems in her Manhattan apartment, like finding a neighbor who'll let her use a stove after she realizes hers doesn't work, we also see the family (including dad Oliver Platt and ill mom

Some say, there is no good restaurant
in this city with good food, great service
& a fun atmosphere.

We say, that's a bunch of blarney.

popcorn shrimp
with a chili lime sauce

shrimp or vegetable spring rolls with a ginger soy dip

quesadilla's served with guacamole & salsa

nachos with jalapeno cheese dip

buffalo nachos

honey hot, buffalo, bbq or teriyaki wings

panko chicken tenders with buffalo, bbq or honey hot to dip

rhode island style fried calamari with hot cherry
peppers & marinara

the BlarneyStone

fine fare & spirits

1505 Dorchester Avenue
Dorchester, MA 02122
617-436-8223

Peking Tom's

LONGTANG LOUNGE

Mai Tai
"A Classic"
Light Rum & Gosling's Rum, Orange
Curaçao, Orgeat, Fresh Lime Juice,
Bitters, O.J.

Barracuda
Breeze
Our version of a tropical lemonade
Tequila, Lemoncello,
Lemon Juice, Simple Syrup,
Guava Nectar, Soda Water

Zombie
WARNING:
These are addictive!
A blend of Dark
& Golden Rum,
Pineapple Juice,
Passion Fruit Syrup,
Crème de Banana,
Lime Juice,
Grenadine, Simple Syrup

Kumquat Mojito
East Meets South!
A delicious blend of Asian & Cuban Pleasures
Bacardi Limon Rum, Kumquats, Mint, Simple Syrup

WWW.PEKINGTOM.COM
25 KINGSTON STREET BOSTON
617 482 6282

2003 MMAC Award Finalist

食 飲 笑
EAT DRINK LAUGH

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
The Improper Bostonian

Patricia Clarkson) trekking their way downstate to see her. The feeling of dread is mutual for the black-sheep daughter and her disappointed parents, and the colorful cast pulls off the heightened reality in writer-director Peter Hedges' story. (At Coolidge Corner.)

The Station Agent ★★★

This comedy about a dwarf (Peter Dinklage) who moves into an abandoned train depot in a small New Jersey town might have been a cloyingly quirky indie film. Instead, it's a pretty special experience. Dinklage's deadpan performance as Fin wryly captures how his character's expectations of his fellow man have been pounded down by their reaction to his height. Broader comedy comes from Bobby Canavale, as a food-truck owner who tries to befriend Fin, and Patricia Clarkson as a woman escaping a fizzled marriage whom Fin tries to befriend. There's a wise and endearing clash of humanity here, and an unpredictable story to go along with it. Along with Pieces of April (see above), another brittle yet funny Clarkson performance. (At Kendall Square.)

Thirteen ★★★

In the spectrum of movies about troubled teenage girls, Catherine Hardwicke's debut falls somewhere between the clichés of the recent Blue Car and the unique emotional eeriness of The Virgin Suicides. Evan Rachel Wood, who has a Kirsten Dunst–like mix of sweetness and naughtiness, is convincing as the initially girlish seventh-grader who yearns to hang out with the popular, more physically mature girls—and gets to, by taking drugs, shoplifting and pushing her budding sexuality just as they do. Meanwhile, her frazzled mom (Holly Hunter) tries to straddle the line between being firm and friendly, while her new best friend (Nikki Reed, who co-wrote the script with Hardwicke) manipulates everyone in sight. Although the movie can sometimes come off as a pat cautionary tale, its emotional messiness is awfully realistic, with most everyone oblivious to their own faults. (At Boston Common, Copley Place, Kendall Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Veronica Guerin ★★

Unlike his previous movies, nothing blows up in producer Jerry Bruckheimer's latest, except his pretensions of getting an Oscar nomination for making something a touch more human than Bad Boys 2. In this forgettable thriller based on a true story, the last two years of the title character, a slain Irish journalist (played by Cate Blanchett), get the slick Hollywood treatment. The story called for the stripped-down grit of director Joel Schumacher's best and most uncharacteristic movie, Tigerland, but instead we get his usual gloss as Guerin makes enemies while digging into the Dublin drug underworld. The bad guys sneer, the addicts sport their gaunt make-up and the movie's overeager attempts to make Guerin a saint (she likes music! she likes soccer!) are comical. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Faces of a Star: A Romy Schneider Retrospective

•Oct. 6, 6 pm. Good Neighbor Sam 1964. A man poses as a woman's husband to help her meet the terms of her grandfather's will and inherit $15 million.

BOSTON UNDERGROUND FILM FESTIVAL

•Through Oct. 10. The fifth annual Boston Underground Film Festival continues with screenings of independent and experimental films, as well as discussion panels and receptions with the local film community. Venues include the Allston Cinema Underground, Brattle Theatre, Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, the Milky Way, MIT, the Museum of Fine Arts, Oni Gallery and more. See www.bostonundergroundfilmfestival.com for a schedule.

BRATTLE THEATRE

Boston Fantastic Film Festival

•Oct. 17-23. The Brattle and Steven Jay Schneider, editor of Fear Without Frontiers: Horror Cinema Across the Globe, team up for seven days of horror, science fiction, fantasy and cult films from around the world. See www.brattlefilm.org for a schedule.

Sundays and Mondays—Shades of Noir

•Oct. 12 and Oct. 13, 2:45 and 7:15 pm. Taxi Driver 1976. Robert DeNiro stars as a deranged New York taxi driver in Martin Scorsese's film. •Also showing, 5 and 9:45 pm. Taking of Pelham, 1-2-3 1974. Four criminals hijack a subway car and demand a million dollars ransom for its passengers. Joseph Sargent directs.

Tuesdays—Pasolini and His World

•Oct. 14, 5, 7:30 and 10 pm. Salò o le 120 Giornate di Sodoma (Salo, or the 120 Days of Sodom) 1975. Pier Paolo Pasolini's film adaptation of the Marquis de Sade's 120 Days of Sodom is set in 1940s Nazi-occupied Italy.

Wednesdays—Recent Raves

•Oct. 8, 5:30 and 7:30 pm. Friday Night 2002. A woman trapped in a Paris traffic jam invites a stranger into her car and, eventually, into her bed. Claire Denis directs.

•Oct. 15, 7:30 pm. 28 Days Later 2002. After a virus wipes out most of the planet, a handful of survivors try to save the human race from extinction. Danny Boyle directs. •Also showing, 5 and 10 pm. Versus 2000. In Ryuhei Kitamura's film, zombies torment the gangsters who killed them.

Thursdays—Selected by Charles Burnett

•Oct. 9, 5:30, 7:30, and 9:30 pm. Nothing but a Man 1964. A railroad lineman struggles to fit in with his coworkers. Michael Roemer directs.

•Oct. 16, 7:30 pm. Sugar Cane Alley 1983. With the help of his grandmother and an education, a young boy escapes the poverty of 1930s Martinique. Euzhan Palcy directs. •Also showing, 5 and 9:45 pm. Daughters of the Dust 1991. Julie Dash's film follows an African Gullah family's attempt to stay together at the turn of the 19th century.

Fridays and Saturdays—Special Engagements

•Oct. 10,7:30 pm; Oct. 11, 3 and 7:30 pm. Beauty and the Beast 1946. Jean Cocteau adapts the classic fairy tale for the big screen. •Also showing, 5 and 9:30 pm. Orpheus 1949. Jean Cocteau interprets the Greek myth in this story of a musician who makes a deal with Death to free his love from the Underworld.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

Balagan Film Series

Oct. 9, 7:30 pm. Charles and Ray Eames: Film an Apparatus for Modeling Ideas 1989. Balaga presents a collection of experimental films by th Eames brothers, two of the most influential Amer ican designers of the 20th century.

BF/VF Meet the Director

•Oct. 14, 7:30 pm. One in Nine 2001. Janet Va Ham's documentary follows nine women from acros the nation who come together to race in the Hea of the Charles regatta in Boston.

Channel Zero Presents

•Oct. 16, 7:30 pm. The Gorilla 1939. The Rit Brothers try to find a gorilla and a murderer wh are roaming around in a haunted house. Alla Dwan directs.

Coolidge Selects

•Opens Oct. 17. Tibet: Cry of the Snow Lion 2002 Tom Peosay's documentary examines Tibetan cul ture and the Chinese occupation through interview with Tibetans.

•Now playing. The Same River Twice 2003. Rob Moss' documentary follows a group of men who wer Colorado River guides in the 1970s.

Kids Variety Shows

•Oct. 11, 10:30 am. Babe 1995. A pig raised b sheepdogs learns to herd sheep with a little hel from Farmer Hoggett. Chris Noonan directs.

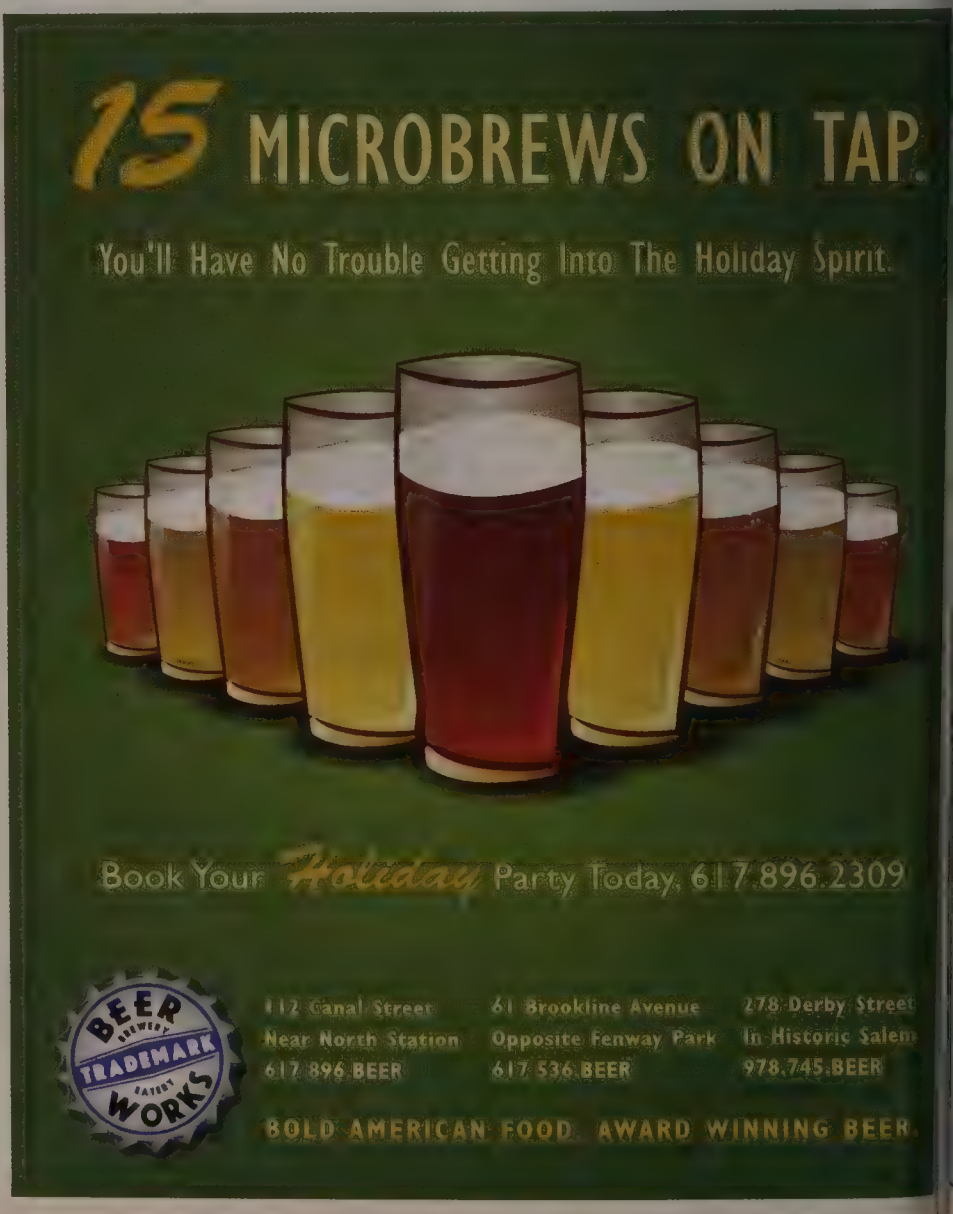
Midnight Movies: Vincent Price

•Oct. 10 and 11, 12 am. Conqueror Worm (als known as Witchfinder General) 1968. A 15th century witch hunter (Price) brings his reign o terror to an English village. Michael Reeve directs.

•Oct. 17 and 18, 12 am. The Abominable D Phibes 1971. Price plays a musicologist who is de formed in a car crash and exacts revenge on th doctors who failed to save his wife. Directed b Brian Etwell.

Relatively Speaking

•Oct. 20, 7 pm. A Thousand Clowns 1965. To and Ray Magliozzi of NPR's Car Talk are present fo this screening of one of their favorite films—Fre Coe's story of a writer who quits his job in order t enjoy himself, only to become the unexpecte guardian of his young nephew.



"One of the city's most anticipated new restaurants —Mat Shaffer, The Boston Herald, September 2003

VINALIA

RESTAURANT • LOUNGE • WINE BAR

OPENING OCTOBER 2003

617.737.1777

Now Booking

Holiday Parties 2003

Cheers™

TM & © 2003 Par. Pic.

Faneuil Hall Marketplace

Offering Three Different Rooms:

The Stage Bar and Café has the replica of the Hollywood set built by Paramount Pictures.
The Lower Bar resembles the bar at the Bull & Finch Pub on Beacon Hill that inspired the setting of the TV series.
Sam's Café was named after the Cheers character, Sam Malone, the Red Sox relief pitcher bar owner on the TV series.

Or use all 3 rooms for a party for up to 480 guests

An ideal place for

- Breakfasts
- Luncheons
- Cocktail Receptions
- Dinner Parties
- Late Night Parties

Contact
Jennifer LaBouliere
Private Event Sales Manager
617.227.1105

Since this is our first year offering these facilities for private parties,
No Room Rental.
Our Corporate Chef, Markus Ripperger, with 10 years of experience at the Hampshire House on Beacon Hill working with our catering staff, will design a function exactly to your liking to fulfill your needs.

If you mention this ad when booking an event, you will receive 10% off your food bill!

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace is located in the west end of the Quincy Market Building

Validated Parking at 75 State Street • Proprietor: Thomas A. Kershaw

www.cheersboston.com

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Directors in Focus: Fassbinder!

•Oct. 8, 9 pm. Der Amerikanische Soldat (The American Soldier) 1970. A hired gunman carries out his assignments while trying to reconnect with his old neighborhood and family.

•Oct. 10, 7 pm; Oct. 15, 9 pm. Angst Essen Seele Auf (Ali: Fear Eats the Soul) 1973. In Fassbinder's melodrama, a German cleaning woman marries a Moroccan mechanic 20 years her junior. •Also showing, 9 pm; Oct. 13, 7 pm. Der Händler der Vier Jahreszeiten (The Merchant of Four Seasons) 1971. A police officer is fired and must make a living as a street vendor.

•Oct. 11, 7 pm. Die Ehe der Maria Braun (The Marriage of Maria Braun) 1978. Fassbinder's film features an impoverished war bride who is transformed into a mercenary business woman. •Also showing, 9:15 pm. Lili Marleen (1980). Fassbinder directs this story of a love affair between a Nazi singer and a young Jewish-Swiss composer.

•Oct. 12, 7 pm. Warum Läuft Herr R. Amok? (Why Does Herr R. Run Amok?) 1969. An apathetic man with an ambitious wife eventually loses his cool. •Also showing, 9 pm. In Einem Jahr Mit 13 Monden (In the Year of Thirteen Moons) 1978. During the last five days of his life, a suicidal transsexual contemplates the past.

•Oct. 13, 9 pm. Ich Will Doch nur, Das Irh Mich Liebt (I Only Want You to Love Me) 1976. A German construction worker tries to compensate for his loveless childhood by buying extravagant gifts for others, while sinking into debt.

•Oct. 17 (parts 1-5), Oct. 18 (parts 6-10), and Oct. 19 (parts 11-14), 6 pm. Berlin Alexanderplatz 1980. Fassbinder's film, originally produced as a 13-part television movie, captures the decadence of the German Weimar Republic.

•Oct. 20, 9 pm. Nora Helmer 1973. Fassbinder adapts Henrik Ibsen's A Doll's House for the screen.

Film and Visual Representation

•Oct. 8, 7 pm. Sunrise 1927. In F. W. Murnau's first American film, an attractive woman from the city tempts a young, married farmer. The film screens with live piano accompaniment.

•Oct. 15, 7 pm. Viaggio in Italia (Voyage in Italy) 1953. Ingrid Bergman and George Sanders play a bored British couple who struggle to keep their marriage alive. Roberto Rossellini directs.

Film Architectures

•Oct. 14, 7 pm. Chelovek s Kinoapparotom (The Man with the Movie Camera) 1929. Dziga Vertov's documentary depicting a day in the life of a Soviet metropolis screens with live piano accompaniment.

•Oct. 21, 7 pm. La Notte 1961. Michelangelo Antonioni's film follows an novelist and his disenchanted wife from a visit with a dying friend to a book-launching party to the couple's separate nocturnal forays.

The New German Cinema

•Oct. 20, 7 pm. Jeder für Sich und Gott Gegen Alle (Every Man for Himself and God Against All) 1974. A young man without speech, reason or memory is gradually educated in the ways of Western civilization. Werner Herzog directs.

(Re)screening Shakespeare

•Oct. 21, 9:15 pm. My Own Private Idaho 1991. Gus Van Sant's update of Shakespeare's Henry IV stars Keanu Reeves and River Phoenix.

Screening Modern China

•Oct. 14, 9 pm. Huang Tu Di (Yellow Earth) 1984. A Communist soldier develops a relationship with a young girl in an unliberated village in the remote western highlands. Chen Kaige directs.

LOEWS THEATRES COPLEY PLACE

Sundance Film Series

•Opens Oct. 10, 1, 4, 7 and 10 pm. Dopamine 2003. See New Releases for a description.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Asian American Film Weekend

•Oct. 10, 8 pm. Contemporary Pan-Asian Film Shorts. A collection of new Asian short films includes Daniel Hsia's How to Do the Asian Squat, Michael Sandoval's The Good Son, Gurinder Chadha's What Do You Call an Indian Woman Who's Funny?, Joy Dietrich's Surplus and Jane Wong's Dim Sum (A Little Bit of Heart).

•Oct. 11, 4 pm. Long Life, Happiness and Prosperity 2002. A woman uses Taoist magic to bring happiness to her lonely, overworked single mom. Mina Shum directs.

Cinema India

•Oct. 9, 8:15 pm; Oct. 11, 2:10 pm. Manda Meyer Upakkhyan (A Tale of a Naughty Girl) 2001. A movie theater owner, a chauffeur and a prostitute's daughter try to improve their lives. Buddhadeb Dasgupta directs.

•Oct. 16, 7:45 pm; Oct. 18, 3:30 pm. Mr. and Mrs. Iyer 2002. A Tamil Brahmin woman and her child help a Muslim photographer escape an angry mob of Hindu extremists by posing as his family. Aparna Sen directs.

Directed by Dorothy Azner

•Oct. 8, 6 pm. Merrily We Go to Hell 1932. Azner's film is about a playwright whose marriage goes sour when his play becomes a Broadway hit.

•Oct. 9, 3 pm. The Wild Party 1929. Clara Bow stars as the most popular party girl at an exclusive women's college full of high-spirited flappers. •Also showing, 4:30 pm; Oct. 11, 12:30 pm. Working Girls 1931. Two girls from Indiana go to New York City to look for work and love.

•Oct. 12, 12:30 pm. Honor Among Lovers 1931. A young secretary rejects her boss' proposal of marriage and chooses a young stockbroker who turns out to be the wrong man.

Indie Hits

•Oct. 12 and 16, 2 pm. Spellbound 2002. Jeff Blitz's Academy Award–nominated documentary chronicles a National Spelling Bee, as seen through the eyes of eight young participants.

Local Filmmakers

•Oct. 17, 5:30; Oct. 18, 1 pm. All Men Are Sons: Exploring the Legacy of Fatherhood 2003. Five men from diverse backgrounds explore their relationships with their fathers. John Badalament directs. •Also showing, Wrestling with Manhood 2003. Sut Jhally and Jackson Katz explore the enormous popularity of professional wrestling among male youth.

New England Film Artists Present

•Oct. 17, 7:30 pm; Oct. 18 and 19, 10:30 am. Morning Sun 2003. Carma Hinton, Geremie Barmé and Richard Gordon's documentary explores some of the forces behind China's Cultural Revolution.

Short Films by Richard Massingham

•Oct. 16, 6 pm. This collection of Richard Massingham's British commercials, training films and government informationals spans 1933-1950.

World Cinema—Africa

•Oct. 8, 7:45 pm; Oct. 10, 6 pm; Oct. 11, 10:30 am; Oct. 16, 4 pm. 100 Days 2000. Nick Hughes' film follows a Tutsi family that tries to survive during the Rwandan government's genocidal reign of the 1990s.

World Cinema—Germany

•Oct. 9, 6 pm; Oct. 12, 3:50 pm. Im Juli (In July) 2000. A young physics teacher leaves behind his mundane existence to pursue the girl of his dreams in Istanbul. He ends up traveling with an attractive stranger. Faith Akin directs.

World Cinema—New Zealand

•Oct. 9, 1 pm; Oct. 12, 10:30 am. Whale Rider 2002. A 12-year-old Maori girl dreams of becoming the chief of her people. Niki Caro directs.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Mugar Omni Theater

•Through March 31, 2004. Jane Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees. Enter the world of the wild chimpanzees of Africa's Gombe Stream National Park. Call for show times.

Marco Leonardi, Antonio Banderas and Enrique Iglesias star in the new action-adventure Once upon a Time in Mexico.

•Through Dec. 16. Africa: The Serengeti. This Omni film depicts the 1.5 million animals that migrate across the African plains. Call for show times.

•Through Jan. 16, 2004. Space Station. Blast into space with the astronauts and cosmonauts of the International Space Station. Call for show times.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

Simons IMAX Theater

•Through Nov. 4. Ghosts of the Abyss 3D. Academy Award–winning director James Cameron takes audiences two miles beneath the sea to explore the wreckage of the Titanic. Call for show times.

•Through Nov. 4. Ocean Wonderland 3D. Explore the ocean floor of the Bahamas and Australia's Great Barrier Reef to search for sharks, sting rays and rainbows of tropical fish. Call for show times.

•Through Nov. 4. Rolling Stones: At the Max. The Stones perform 15 of their classic songs, with footage from their Steel Wheels/Urban Jungle tour. Call for show times.

•Through Nov. 4. Space Station 3D. Travel to the International Space Station and experience life in zero gravity with the astronauts from Florida's Kennedy Space Center and Russia's Baikonur Cosmodrome. Call for show times.

•Through November. The Matrix Reloaded: The Imax Experience. In the sequel to The Matrix, Neo and the rebel leaders battle the machines that have overpowered the human race. Call for show times.

•Through June 2004. Bugs! 3D. This film focuses on the world of insects in the tropical rain forests of Southeast Asia. See bugs magnified up to 250,000 times their normal size. Call for show times.

WOMEN IN FILM AND VIDEO/ NEW ENGLAND

Chicks Make Flicks

Monthly screenings celebrate female filmmakers and feature works by local directors, writers, producers and editors. •Oct. 8, 7 pm. Next Stop Wonderland 1998. Brad Anderson's film follows a lonely Boston nurse who dates a series of strange men after her mother places a personal ad for her. Producer Patricia Alvarado is present for the screening and discussion. MIT, Building Four, room 270, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-612-0091). www.wifvne.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Cinema Venues

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Rd. (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Film•Video Foundation
1126 Boylston St. (617-783-9241). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Copley Place (Loews/Sony)
100 Huntington Ave. (617-266-1300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

BROOKLINE

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline. (617-566-5715) MBTA: C Green Line to St. Marys.

Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle or D Green Line to Reservoir.

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square (617-494-9800). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060).

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square.

Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

'REMARKABLE. POWERFUL.

'MYSTIC RIVER' IS EASTWOOD'S BEST FILM."
KENNETH TURAN, LOS ANGELES TIMES

"IT IS A MASTERPIECE. EASTWOOD NAVIGATES HIS ACTORS TOWARD THE BEST PERFORMANCES OF THEIR CAREERS."
JOHN ANDERSON, NEWSDAY

"'MYSTIC RIVER' IS A MASTERPIECE THAT CAN STAND WITH 'UNFORGIVEN'. A MOVIE OF STARTLING POWER AND INTIMACY."
PETER TRAVERS, ROLLING STONE

"THE MOVIE IS A FINE AMERICAN HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY."
LISA SCHWARZBAUM, ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

"HOT. SEAN PENN PROVES AGAIN THAT HE IS ONE OF THE FINEST ACTORS ALIVE... AND HE'S MATCHED BY A PEERLESS CAST OF CO-STARS."
LEONARD MALTIN, HOT TICKET

"THE YEAR'S BEST FILM. WORTHY OF SEVERAL OSCARS®."
PAT COLLINS, WWOR RADIO

"A MASTERFULLY CRAFTED TALE."
CHARLES EALY, THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS

A FILM BY CLINT EASTWOOD

MYSTIC RIVER

WARNER BROS. PICTURES PRESENTS
IN ASSOCIATION WITH VILLAGE ROADSHOW PICTURES AND NPV ENTERTAINMENT
A MALPASO PRODUCTION SEAN PENN TIM ROBBINS KEVIN BACON LAURENCE FISHBURNE
MARCIA GAY HARDEN LAURA LINNEY "MYSTIC RIVER" EXECUTIVE PRODUCER BRUCE BERMAN
PRODUCED BY ROBERT LORENZ JUDIE G. HOYT CLINT EASTWOOD BASED ON THE NOVEL BY DENNIS LEHANE
SCREENPLAY BY BRIAN HELGELAND DIRECTED BY CLINT EASTWOOD

VILLAGE ROADSHOW PICTURES

R RESTRICTED
UNDER 17 REQUIRES ACCOMPANYING PARENT OR ADULT GUARDIAN
Language And Violence

WARNER BROS. PICTURES
©2003 Warner Bros. Ent. All Rights Reserved

www.mysticrivermovie.com Soundtrack Album on Malpaso/Warner Bros. Records

EXCLUSIVE ENGAGEMENT STARTS WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 8TH!
NO PASSES ACCEPTED FOR THIS ENGAGEMENT

LOEWS BOSTON COMMON
175 TREMONT ST.
1-800-FANDANGO #730

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT THIS MOVIE
America Online Keyword: Mystic River www.mysticrivermovie.com Moviefone.com moviefone

BOSTON'S BEST MARGARITA just got better!

Stop by and try our new drink menu

More Marvelous Margaritas
Tempting Tequilas
Scrumptious Martinis
Giant Bowl Drinks
Luscious Libations
Bartenders' Featured Shots

Shakin' Things Up until 2am Daily

Now booking Holiday Parties

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2002 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Cactus Club

939 Boylston Street, Boston 617.236.0200
www.bestmargaritas.com

Visit our suburban location
The Iguana Cantina
313 Moody Street, Waltham. 781.891.3039

MONDAY NIGHTS WILL NEVER BE THE SAME!
JOIN NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS LONIE PAXTON AND FRIENDS!
WHERE THE PLAYERS MEET THE PLAYERS!

inside RACK

Every Monday Night, 9pm - 2am

Monday nights will never be the same! Join New England Patriots Lonie Paxton and friends! Where the Players meet the Players! Dance, party Southern Cal style and bang in sick on Tuesday! This is definitely the night you don't want to miss!
To benefit the Active Force Foundation.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday Night, 6pm

After work Jazz with Boston's Best Jazz bands, Black Sole & Zeke Martin.
DJ Ricky spins every Wednesday night 10pm - 2am!

Every Thursday Night, 6-10pm

Get a JUMP START on your weekend! In fact, blow off work on Friday with R&B, Jazz and Soul bands like Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin' Horns and Uneek Approach! Dance the night away with DJ Littles 10pm - 2am.

Every Friday Night, 6pm

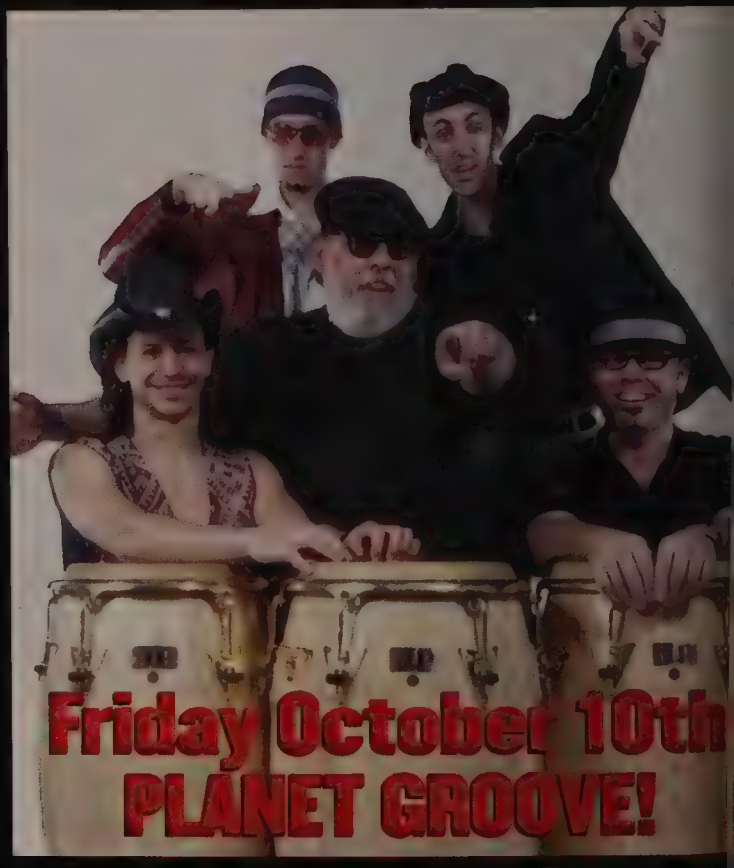
Join us right after work for with Kiss 108's Artie the One Man Party featuring live music and DJ Johnny C.

Every Saturday Night, 8pm

The Saturday Night Dance Party just got bigger in a little way!
DJ Littles spins while Star 93.7's Vinnie Peruzzi broadcasts live, 8pm-2am.

Every Sunday Night, 8pm

Dance 11pm - 2am with DJ Mike Janedy.



BOSTON'S BEST 1997 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1998 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1999 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2000 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2002 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2003 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Audio & Visual Courtesy of
Tweeter

Dining Room Open 11:30am - 7 days a week!

MTV's Tough Enough star and the WWE's Al Snow with Erin and Nicole.

Boston Celtic Walter McCarty with Heather, Sarah and Angie.

Mighty Mighty Bosstones' Dicky Barrett with Laura, Heather and Marta.

Ex-New Kid on the Block Jordan Knight with Melody.

24 Clinton Street, Boston 02109 617.725.1051 www.therackboston.com

WATCH US LIVE ON WWW.THERACKBOSTON.COM!

THE RACK

Power to the Peaceful

Michael Franti combines music and message with newfound accessibility on Spearhead's potent new release

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

It's not surprising that a politically active songwriter like Michael Franti of Spearhead sat down and did some heavy thinking in the aftermath of September 11.

"The Bush administration was saying, 'We're going to go chase down everybody who looks or thinks or smells like a terrorist, and we're going to kill them before they kill us,'" Franti says. "I just thought of the insanity of that practice, and that our bombing is probably going to do the opposite of what they have intended it to do, and create more tension and hostility toward America."

Michael Franti's politically charged music has prompted the government to investigate his band, Spearhead.

He came up with the song "Bomb the World," whose chorus, "We can bomb the world to pieces, but we can't bomb the world to peace," spread to signs at demonstrations and even a mural on the side of a restaurant in Northern California.

But what was surprising for Spearhead, which plays the Somerville Theatre Oct. 16, was the broad direction that the song took musically. It appears twice on the group's new CD, Everyone Deserves Music, first in a resolute gospel-funk version, then as a punchy dancehall track produced by the famed reggae duo Sly and Robbie, following earlier attempts that ranged from acoustic to psychedelic rock.

"Sly and Robbie's influence extends beyond the tracks they worked with us on," says Franti, who also got songwriting tips from Bill Bottrell, a producer recently known for his work with Sheryl Crow. "Their attitude is like every song should be a hit single. That's how it works in Jamaica."

The CD brims with radio-ready tunes that build on Franti's early influences (Marvin Gaye, Bob Marley and Stevie Wonder), pairing organic grooves with pop-savvy arrangements. "The ultimate goal is when you can make a song that moves people's hearts and it's also danceable," says Franti, 37.

The bouncy "We Don't Stop" recalls "The Magnificent Seven" by the Clash, the punk band that Franti first discovered through its work with reggae producer Mickey Dread. Franti was inspired by the way the Clash mixed rock with jazz, funk, hip-hop, reggae and Latin music on its 1980 album, Sandinista.

"They had brought it all into one sound that you could say was the Clash," Franti says from his San Francisco home. "That's what we've been working toward as a band, to draw on all these influences, but to have them be one sound."

The songs on Everyone Deserves Music make a natural mix. "In the past, we'd always write from the beat and work our way up," he says. "This time around, I wrote most of the songs from the acoustic guitar, and really worked on the melody and chord structures."

He also began doing more singing than rapping. "I've been doing a lot of spoken-word performing, and it's interesting that that's why I actually learned to sing," Franti says. "If I could just add a melody to one or two parts of the poem, it would become more interesting."

Franti also credits a 1999 artists' summit in Cuba that found him swapping songs with Bonnie Raitt, the Indigo Girls and Peter Frampton, in addition to hearing Cuban performers sing in Spanish. "I got this incredible feeling from the harmonies they were creating with their voices and guitar, and that transcends borders," he says. "It's international, and that's what I want to do."

Politics, of course, still drive his music as well. "I was adopted as a baby," Franti says. "I grew up in a family where I didn't feel like I fit in, so I had an affinity for the underdog and people who felt left out."

Franti's activism and music grew through his previous bands the Beatnigs and the Disposable Heroes of Hiphoprisy (the latter also featuring jazz guitarist Charlie Hunter). Then he launched Spearhead, which landed lots of airplay in 1994 with the laconic hip-hop parable "Hole in the Bucket."

In recent years, through both music and protests (including the band's annual Power to the Peaceful festival), Franti has raised his voice against such targets as the death penalty, the prison-industrial complex and corporate globalization. He says that in March, military intelligence dropped in on the mother of one of his Spearhead bandmates, inquiring about her son's Spearhead involvement while his sister was in the military.

"They had our flight records and pictures of us performing at demonstrations," Franti says. "It was unsettling as a band, and as a management team, because they had pictures and names of everybody who works in our office too."

Nonetheless, Spearhead stuck to its mission. "The power of music is not going to change the minds of leaders," Franti says. "But it's going to give everyday people the energy and inspiration to continue on with what they believe in strongly." IB

Michael Franti and Spearhead play the Somerville Theatre Oct. 16.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fa (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or b email to music@improper.com. Include dates, times prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not ac cepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from di ferent sources. Although we make every effort to provid accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahea to double-check dates and times (see complete list venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Los Amigos Invisibles
Oct. 9, Roxy (617-423-NEXT).
The Ataris and Vendetta Red
Oct. 14, Colleges of the Fenway (617-423-NEXT).
Joan Baez
Oct. 11, Berklee Performance Center (617-93 2000).
Barenaked Ladies
Oct. 21, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Bleu, Sleeping at Last and Switchfoot
Oct. 15, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
George Clinton and Parliament/Funkadelic
Oct. 8, the Roxy (617-931-2000).
Cowboy Mouth, Cracker and DJ Dan
Oct. 10, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Evan Dando, Vic Chesnutt
Oct. 17, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Chris Delmhorst and Peter Mulvey
Oct. 18, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Good Charlotte, Mest and Something Corporate
Oct. 12, Tsongas Arena (617-931-2000).
Gov't Mule and Chris Robinson
Oct. 17, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Shirley Horn
Oct. 10, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000)
Interpol and Elefant
Oct. 16 and 17, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Leona Naess
Oct. 18, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Boz Scaggs
Oct. 12, 13 and 14, Paradise Rock Club (617-42 NEXT).
Sheila Divine
Oct. 10 and 11, Paradise Rock Club (617-42 NEXT).
Soledad Brothers
Oct. 11, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
String Cheese Incident
Oct. 10 and 11, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000)
Steve Winwood and the North Mississippi AllSta
Oct. 8, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8

Abbey Lounge The Drags, Pelt, the Stoves and Tu nel of Love, 21+.
Avalon Sound Tribe Sector 9, LTJ Bukem, MC Co rad and Makoto, 8 pm, $17.25, 18+.
Axis Hot Hot Heat, French Kicks and Ima Robot pm, $16, all ages.
Bill's Bar Invisible Downtown, Renata and Da Cain, 9 pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Breezeway J-Vibes, 7:30, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Rob Laurens, 8 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGra 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Green Briar Dublin City Ramblers.
Harper's Ferry Code Talkers, Col. Bruce Hampt and Three Percent, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Cracow Klezmer Band, 8:30 pm, $1 21+.
Kinsale Michael Courtney.
The Linwood Trendkill, Kevorkian, Shutterbox a White, 10 pm, $8, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Amun Ra and Enuma Elish, 10: pm, $6, 21+.
Milky Way Open mike, 8 pm, $5.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Orpheum Steve Winwood and the North Miss sippi Allstars, 7:30 pm, $30-$35.
Regattabar Paul Im and Remember Rockefell 8:30 pm, $12.
Roxy George Clinton & Parliament/Funkadelic pm, $28.50, 18+.

READY FOR A COLD ONE?

Coors LIGHT

Come party with an Ice Cold Coors Light at

the Harp 10 YEARS DECADE

10 days celebrating 10 years at The Harp

85 Causeway Street
Boston
617-742-1010

Celebrating 10 Years at The Harp

Join us for

The Zoo - October 10, 11 & 12 @10pm

WZLX Live Remote - October 11

"Harp" Fest, Live Bands All Day - October 13, 2-10pm

Healthworks is coming to Chestnut Hill this fall–
conveniently located at 1300 Boylston Street.
(Rte. 9, across from Legal Seafoods)
Pre-opening rates available.
Visit our presale offices in the Atrium Mall, Floor 4 or on-site.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

Back Bay	Brookline	Cambridge	Chestnut Hill	Salem
617.859.7700	617.731.3030	617.497.4454	617.383.6100	978.745.7390

www.healthworksfitness.com

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Belle and Sebastian Nov. 13, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Bruce Cockburn Oct. 24, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Alice Cooper Oct. 25, Lowell Memorial Auditorium (617-931-2000).
Chris Delmhorst and Peter Mulvey Oct. 18, Somerville Theatre (617-931-2000).
Ani Difranco Nov. 16, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Echo & the Bunnymen Oct. 23, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Herbie Hancock Nov. 2, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Tom Jones Nov. 20, Lowell Memorial Auditorium (617-931-2000).
Ben Lee, Phantom Planet Nov. 14, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
Lyle Lovett
Nov. 9, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Marilyn Manson Oct. 23, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Maroon 5 and Gavin DeGraw Oct. 30, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Meshell Ndegeocello and Soulive Oct. 22, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Nickelback, Three Days Grace, and Trapt Nov. 2 Tsongas Arena (617-931-2000).
Robert Randolph & the Family Band Nov. 19 Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Road to Voodoo Tour with DJ Swamp, Fuel an Smile Empty Soul Oct. 23, Avalon (617-423 NEXT).
Saves the Day and Taking Back Sunday Nov. 21 Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Simon & Garfunkel Dec. 11 and 13, FleetCente (617-931-2000).
The Strokes Oct. 31, Tsongas Arena (617-931 2000).
Travis Oct. 26, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Ween Oct. 29, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
The White Stripes, Whirlwind Heat Nov. 21 Tsongas Arena (617-931-2000).
Keller Williams Oct. 24, Somerville Theatre (617 931-2000).
Steve Winwood and the North Mississippi All Stars Oct. 8, Orpheum Theatre (617-931 2000).

Ryles Jazz Club Alex Skolnick Trio, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Scullers The Mike Clark Quartet, 8 pm and 10 pm, $20-$55, 21+.
Sky Bar Annie and the Applepickers, Reason Being and Avatar, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
The Tap Bruce Jacques, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Toad The Heygoods, 7-9pm; Planet 3, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Frances Kim Band, Starr Faithful and Tristan da Cunha, 9 pm, $5.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries. 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates David Eure, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9

Abbey Lounge Slidepiece and the Humanoids, 21+.
Axis Hot Hot Heat, A.R.E. Weapons and Caesars, 6:30 pm, $16, all ages.
Bill's Bar Baby Strange, Median Sod, the Bocks and Stereo Soul Future, 9 pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Breezeway Margo Thunder R&B, 7:30, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge New Day, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Matt and Shannon Heaton CD-release show, 8 pm, $14.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Marcy Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Harper's Ferry Tantric and Sloth, $15, 18+.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm, no cover, all ages.
Johnny D's Fuzz from Deep Banana Blackout, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Kendall Café Garrin Benfield and Steve Poltz.
Kirkland Café Avatar and Polyethelene, $5.
Lizard Lounge Quick Release, Leo Blais and the Arrangement, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Grayson Farmer round midnight jazz session, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: 90 Day Men, the Panthers and the Cignal and Placer, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Del the Funky Homosapien, Souls of Mischief, Casual and Pep Love with Little Brother and Encore, $20, 18+.
Milky Way Grupo Fantasma.
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Calexico and the Frames, 9 pm, $16, 18+.
Parris Central Basement.
PA's The Franks, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Jim Plunkett.
The Rack Unek Approach, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Fully Celebrated Orchestra, 8:30 pm, $12.
Roxy Los Amigos Invisibles, 6 pm, $25-$45, 19+.
Ryles Jazz Club Yoron Israel and Organic CD-release show, 8:30 pm, $12, 21+.
Scullers Georgie Fame, 8 and 10 pm, $20, 21+.
Sky Bar Malachi Constant, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, 7-9 pm; Todd Thibaud, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Apollo Sunshine CD-relea show and the Lot Six, 10 pm, $8.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford, 9:30 pm, no cov 21+.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm, no cov 21+.

FRIDAY, OCT. 10

Abbey Lounge The Charms, Leisure Class a Aloud, 21+.
Avalon Cowboy Mouth and Cracker, 7 pm, $17 18+.
The Big Easy Dick & Jane, 10:30, $8, 21+.
Bill's Bar Vagabond Kings, 9 pm, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Cheryl Arena, 9 pm, cover.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well and Celtic Cl 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook and the Thriller pm, 21+.
Club Passim Daniel Pearl tribute, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City 8:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover ages.
Grand Canal Cape Fear.
Green Briar Ego System.
The Green Dragon Tavern Syptifo.
The Harp The Zoo.
Harper's Ferry Superhoney with Bluestring, 10 p $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5-7:30 pm; Sun Junk.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller, 8 pm, no cover, all ages.
Johnny D's Ronnie Baker Brooks, 9:45 pm.
Kirkland Café Prime Rib and Mickey Bliss Org Combo, $5.
The Linwood Ultravixen and Raven, 10 pm, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Ken Clark Organ Trio and Kierny, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Pub Mad Dog Trio, 10:30 pm, cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Quick Fix, Elkland and phatide, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Radio 4, Natural History and Read Yellow, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's McTaggerts.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, cover.
Orpheum The String Cheese Incident, 8 pm, $30
Paradise The Sheila Divine and Helicopter He copter, 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Parris Burnt Sienna.
The Rack Sugarfoot, 6 pm, $5, 21+.
Regattabar Lynne Jackson & Mike Palter, 7:30 10 pm, $16.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra and Sl Hampton, 9 pm, $20, 21+.
Sanders Theatre John McLaughlin and Zakir Hu sain, 8 pm, $35-$45.
Toad The Stacy Queen Band, 10 pm, no cov 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Handsome Family, J White and Jimmy Ryan, 9:30 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMah 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cov 21+.

FELT
BOSTON

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Available For Special Events.

Book your Holiday Party at FELT
Prime Dates still Available

533 Washington Street, Downtown. 617.350.5555 site59®

www.site59.com

Nashville from $283
Includes hotel and air. Go there for a song.

SAVE $59 WHEN YOU BOOK YOUR GETAWAY WITH YOUR MASTERCARD.® USE THE PROMO CODE SAVE59 AT SITE59.COM

Pile your hair into the biggest beehive this side of the Mason-Dixon Line and head off to catch the buzz in Music City this weekend. Thanks to the bigwigs at Site59,® it won't cost you big bucks. Stroll amidst the ancient oaks of the Belle Meade plantation or two step the night away at the Wildhorse Saloon. If you're not a Nashville cat, there are hundreds of other places you can escape to at the last minute via Site59. Our getaways start at under $200, and that includes airfare and hotel.

Promotional code will deduct $59 from your final price only when you purchase using your MasterCard® card. Code and offer expire 11/30/03 and cannot be combined with any other offer. Code valid for Last-Minute Getaways only. Not valid for Gift Certificates or Beef and Guns. Prices are in USD for one adult based on double occupancy and include all taxes and fees. Prices may vary by departure city and are subject to change and availability. Prices shown at site59.com are the most current and supersede advertised prices. ©2003 Site59.com, LLC. All rights reserved. CST 2066904-50. MasterCard® and the interlocking circles device are registered trademarks of MasterCard International Incorporated.

MasterCard

SATURDAY, OCT. 11

Abbey Lounge Jim Noland and Hokum, 21+.
Avalon Spiritualized and Soledad Brothers, 6:45 pm, $15.25, 18+.
Axis Street Dogs CD-release show, Lost City Angels, Dirty Water, the Briggs and the Marvels, 6 pm, $12, all ages.
Berklee Performance Center Joan Baez, 8 pm, $30-$37.50.
The Big Easy Dick & Jane, 10:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Bill's Bar Five Speed Blue, 9 pm, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Professor Harp, 9 pm, no cover.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle and Celtic Clan.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Rockwell Church, 7 and 10 pm, $14.
Dick's Last Resort Mojo Slim, 8:30 pm, no cover..
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Grand Canal Syndicate.
Green Briar Inchicore.
The Green Dragon Tavern Big Delicious.
The Harp The Zoo.
Harper's Ferry Babaloo, the Allstonians and Owen Plant, $10, 21+.
Institute of Contemporary Art Sunny Murray/Sabir Mateen/Oluyemi Thomas Trio, 8 pm, $12-$16.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm, no cover, all ages.
Johnny D's Luther Johnson, 9:45 pm.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Kirkland Café Red Dirt, $5.
The Linwood Midget Stereo, AM Stereo, Kodachrome and Cheaterpint, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jeff Harris Band, Kelly Buchanan, and the Sand Machine, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Pub Andy Voelker, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Quintron & Miss Pussycat, the Frogs and Baby Rosebud, 9 pm, $10, 18+; Downstairs: MoFro and Hi8us, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's McTaggerts.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Orpheum The String Cheese Incident, 8 pm, $30.
Paradise Sheila Divine and Aerial Love Feed, 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Parris Burnt Sienna.
PA's So and So, Whistle Jacket and the In Out, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock The Marcels.
Ryles Jazz Club Four Piece Suit, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
Sky Bar Knee Deep Shag, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad Greg's Saturday Showcase, 7-9 pm; the Cranktones, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Red Elvises, the Popgun Seven and Vegas Valentinos, 9:15 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet with Harold Layne, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Kim Trusty, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12

Axis E-Town Concrete, Candiria and God Forbid, 6 pm, $10, all ages.
Bill's Bar Reggae night, 9 pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Sunday's Well, Jim Coyle, 4:30, no cover, 21+.
Breezeway Hakim Law, 11-3 pm, $13, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues jam, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Members' party at Codman Farm, 3 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Green Briar Finbar Doyle, Celtic Clan and DJ Stelah.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnsons.
The Harp The Zoo.
Harper's Ferry Weekend Extension, NBFB and Space Station Integration, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Tucker and the Vibe Tribe Reggae Band, 9 pm.
Johnny D's Jazz Brunch, 9:30 am-2:30 pm; blues jam, 4:30-8:30.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East U: Deluxe, 18+. Corner: Bellydance show with Sahar and the Dancers and DJ Garabed 8pm, no cover,18+.
Paradise Boz Scaggs, 8 pm, $35, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Frank Vardaros, 10 am-3 pm, no cover; Sweet & Salty, 7 pm, $18, 21+.
Scullers Strunz and Farah, 7 and 9 pm, $24-$59, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Johnny Come Latelies, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Alternative pop singer/songwriter Leona Naess performs at the Paradise Rock Club Oct. 18.

Toad The Frank Morey Band, 7-9 pm; Session Americana, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bourbon Street Paraders, 11 am-3 pm, no cover; Tim Ray Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
Washington Square Tavern Jon Hazilla Trio, 11:30 am-2:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, OCT. 13

The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bill's Bar Monster Mondays, 9 pm, 19+.
Cantab Lounge Geoff Bartley's open mike, 8 pm; the Wiyos, 10 pm, 21+.
Choppin' Block Jazz session, 8 pm, $4, 21+.
Club Passim School of Music Showcase, 9 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Open mike.
Harper's Ferry Blues jam.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
Institute of Contemporary Art Available Jelly, 8 pm, $12-$16.
Middle East Upstairs: Anatomy of a Ghost, Bear vs. Shark, My Hotel Year and Fear Before the March of Flames, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Paradise Boz Scaggs, 8 pm, $35, 18+.
Purple Shamrock Scott Damgaard.
Roxy Beth Gibbons and Rustin Man.
Tír na nÓg Dangerous Brothers, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang with Anita Suhanin, 8-10 pm; Tim Gearan Band, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Tim Ray Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY, OCT. 14

Abbey Lounge Twisted Tuesday acoustic show, 8 pm, 21+.
Berklee Performance Center Greg Badolato, George Garzone, and Frank Tiberi, 8:15, $20-$30.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm; Boston City Limits, 10 pm. 21+.
Club Passim Open mike, 7 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Rob Gonzales, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Harper's Ferry Jiggle the Handle, 9:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
Johnny D's Annie Clark and Don Campbell, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Sean Cunningham.
Lizard Lounge Tommy Dempsey, 9 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Geoff Scott and Public House, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Anatomy of a Ghost, Bear vs. Shark, My Hotel Year and Fear Before the March. Downstairs: Fishbone and Kings X, 8 pm, $20, 18+.
Paradise Boz Scaggs, 8 pm, $35, 18+.
The Rack ZMQ, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Average White Band, 8 and 10 pm, $18-$53, 21+.
Sky Bar Twelfth of Never, Terminal Bliss and Platform One, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Resophonics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Over the Rhine, Steven Delopoulos and Susan Enan, 9:15 pm, $14.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Abbey Lounge The Drags, Brett Rosenberg, Problem, Mercury Charm, Offensive, and the Irreverends, 21+.
Avalon Mike Gordon and Kaki King, 8 pm, $22.75, 18+.
Axis Switchfoot, Bleu and Sleeping at Last, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Bill's Bar The Laura Glyder Band, Meiva Pauley and MAVE, 9 pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Breezeway Sherry Eatmon, 7:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues Jam, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim John McGann, Matt Glaser, Greg Liszt and Corey DiMario, 8 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGraff, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Chixie Dicks.
Harper's Ferry Liz and Jenn of Rusted Root, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Peter Case and Jeff Foucault, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kings Duke and the Drivers CD-release show, 7 pm.
Kinsale Symbolics.
Lizard Lounge Eileen Rose, Huck and Frank Morey Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Jucifer, Jet by Day and Medea Connection, $8, 18+. Downstairs: Blue Rodeo and the Sadies, $15, 18+.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
The Rack Groove Authority, 6 pm, no charge, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Boston Acappela Scene, 7 pm, $7, 21+.
Scullers Average White Band, 8 and 10 pm, $18-$53, 21+.
Sky Bar The Gasolines, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
The Tap Bruce Jacques, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Toad Weed, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place 20 Miles and Jedediah Parish & the Mother Tongues, 9:50 pm, $8.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates David Eure, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16

Abbey Lounge James the Viking, 21+.
Avalon Interpol, Elefant and the Occasion, 7 pm, $20, all ages.
Bill's Bar Crumble, Rubikon, Absolve, and Fuser, 9 pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Breezeway Margo Thunder R&B Live Night, 7:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge New Day, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim BMI night with Ari Hest, Miek Pauley and Stephen Kellogg, 7 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City,7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Marcy Callahan and Brian Patton 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm, n cover, all ages.
Kirkland Café B-Sides, Mister Sparkle and Mid night Moon, $5.
Lizard Lounge Club D'Elf, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Grayson Farmer Round Midnigh jazz session, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Downstairs: Jay Farrar and Canyon, pm,$15, 18+.
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Super Diamond and Tijuana Strip Club, pm, $20, 18+.
Parris Central Basement.
PA's Lemonstone and Eternity, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Jim Plunkett.
The Rack Part Time Lovers, 6 pm, no charge, 21+.
Regattabar The Aardvark Jazz Orchestra, 8:30 pm $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Jacob Fred Jazz Odyssey, 8:30 pm $10, 21+.
Scullers Randy Brecker Band, 8 and 10 pm, $1 $55, 21+.
Sky Bar Al Rock and Mike Boston, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 9 pm, no cove 21+.
Toad Diamond Platinum Rings, 7-9 pm; Tod Thibaud, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, n cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Iron and Wine, Charlene a Jesse Sykes & the Sweet Hereafter, 9:15 pm, $12.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford, 9:30 pm, no cove 21+.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm, no cover, 2

FRIDAY, OCT. 17

Abbey Lounge Fearsome Earsome, Goldenwest M torlodge and the Mittens, 21+.
Avalon Interpol, Elefant and the Occasion, 7 p $20, 18+.
Berklee Performance Center Leahy, 8 pm, $22-2
The Big Easy Syndicate, 10:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Bill's Bar Demolition Man, 9 pm, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Sweet Willie D, 9 pm, no cov
The Black Rose Celtic Clan; Upstairs: Tony O'Ri dan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers pm, 21+.
Club Passim Nerissa and Katryna Nields, 7 and pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort The Rockhoppers, 8:30 pm, cover.
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover, ages.
Grand Canal Dick and Jane.
Green Briar Infractions.
The Green Dragon Tavern 5 to the Face.
The Harp Mr. Greengenes.
Harper's Ferry Project Object, Ike Will Napoleon Murphy Brock and Don Preston, $ 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5-7:30 pm; Opito Obliv
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller, 8 pm, no cover, all ages
Kirkland Café Defacto, Bathtub Saints, and Mic Bliss Organ Combo, $5.
The Linwood The Kickbacks, 10 pm, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Shelley Winters Proj Arabyfever Monument, Cathal Coughlin, J*M pm, $8, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Pub James Merenda, 10:30 pm, cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: PW Long, Antler and Brought Low, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Pr Girls Make Graves, Cobra High and Jr. Ewing, 9 $10, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Christy O'Connell.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, cover.
Orpheum Chris Robinson, Gov't Mule, and N Earth Mud, 7:30pm, $25.
Paradise Evan Dando and Vic Chesnutt, 9 pm, 18+.
Parris Flavor.
PA's Local Radio and Verona Downs, 9 pm, $5, 2
The Rack First Class, 6 pm, $5, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Dave Valentin, 8:30 pm, $25, 2
Scullers Richard Bona, 8 and 10 pm, $18-$55, 2
Sky Bar Catapult and Madison Falls, 8 pm, $5,

CAPRICE

restaurant-bar-lounge

french mediterranean
cuisine

full menu served
daily until 1 am seven
days a week

275 tremont street theatre district
reservations 617.292.0080
capricelounge.com

100 PEOPLE SURVEYED,
TOP 5 ANSWERS ON THE BOARD...

LET THE FEUD BEGIN...

NOVEMBER, 2003

Hosted by Dan McCarthy

973 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617.254.0807 www.tspub.com

T's Pub

JACOB WIRTH RESTAURANT

Celebrate Oktoberfest at Jakes.

Oktoberfest 2003

With more Oktoberfest beers than ever before including:

Warsteiner Paulaner Harpoon
Ayinger Hofbrau
Spaten Sam Adams Newport Storm

Join us for an exclusive
Oktoberfest Dinner
OKTOBER 27, 8 PM

Sample from a special seasonal menu prepared by Executive Chef Phylis Kaplowitz matched with our hearty Oktoberfest Beers

Space is limited. Call for reservations.

"Jacob Wirth vigorously soars into its third century."
- Alison Arnett -
The Boston Globe

JACOB WIRTH
33 - 37 Stuart St.
Boston, MA 02116
617.338.8586

proud recipient of:
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

what's the most fun you've ever had on a couch?

food • drinks • music • life

The living room

101 ATLANTIC AVE • BOSTON • 617.723.5101
www.thelivingroomboston.com

The Barenaked Ladies come to the Orpheum Theatre Oct. 21.

Toad The Dwight Richter Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Gentlemen, the Downbeat 5, the Dents and Andrea Gillis, 9 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Chronic and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAY, OCT. 18

Axis The Fire Theft, 7 pm, $15, all ages.
The Big Easy Joe Rock Star, 10:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Bill's Bar Motha's Mistake, 9 pm, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Tony Gallo, 9 pm, no cover.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan. Upstairs: Tony O'Riordan, 4:30 pm, no cover, all ages, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Don White, 8 pm, $14.
Common Ground Octoberfest, 4-11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Clara Lofaro, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Grand Canal Brick Park.
Green Briar Inchicore.
The Green Dragon Tavern Scooby Snax.
The Harp Mr. Greengenes.
Harper's Ferry Holly Harris (of WBOS) 10th Anniversary Party, 21+.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm, no cover, all ages.
Johnny D's Holly Harris (of WBOS) 10th Anniversary Party, with Jay Geils, the Severn Allstars and others, 9:45 pm.
Kinsale North Street.
Kirkland Café Grey Street, $5.
The Linwood Give, Rocketscience, and Ross Phasor, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Andy Stochansky and 9 mile, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Pub The Weisstronauts, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Holly Golightly, KO and the Knockouts and Dame Fate, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Beulah, John Vanderslice and Matt Suggs, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Christy O'Connell.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Paradise Josh Rouse and Leona Naess, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Parris Flavor.
PA's The Inhale and Without, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Syndicate.
Regattabar Dane Vannatter and the Dick Johnson Quintet, 7:30 and 10 pm, $14.
Ryles Jazz Club The Mason Brothers, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Sky Bar Ganesh and Fixer
pm, $5, 21+.
Toad Gregg's Saturd
Showcase, 7-9 pm; Dav
Johnson, 10 pm, no cov
21+.
Top of the Hub The Ch
Taylor Quartet, 9 pm,
cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Kir of Nuthin, One Man Arr
and the Eyeliners, 9:55 p $10.
Wonder Bar Rusty Sc
Quartet with Harold Layn
9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Zeitgeist Gallery To Brunel & Co. and Pear, 9:
pm, $10.
Les Zygomates Danie
Schoechler Trio, 8 pm,
cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19

Bill's Bar Reggae Night
pm, 19+.
The Black Rose Celtic Cl
4:30 pm, no cover, all ag
Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm,
21+.
Breezeway Hakim Law,
3 pm, $13, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Blues Jam
pm, 21+.
Club Passim Steve Sesk
and Janet Feld, 7:30 p $12.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm,
cover, all ages.
Green Briar Finbar Doyle, Maxi Courtney and Stelah.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnso
Harper's Ferry Weekend Extension, NBFB a
Mang Dub, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Tucker and the Vibe Tribe R
gae Band, 9 pm.
Johnny D's Jazz Brunch, 9 am-2:30 pm; Blues Ja
4:30 pm-8:30 pm.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct, reggae DJ a bands, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Form of Rocket, New Trai
Direction, Dare Diablo and Pink Swords, 9 pm, 18+.
Paradise Bob Schneider, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Yoko Miwa, 10 am-3 pm, no cov
Paquito D'Rivera, 7:30 pm, $25, 21+.
Sanders Theatre Ronnie Gilbert, 3 pm, $22-$26
Sky Bar Hypersolid, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad Tim Hughes and Friends, 7-9 pm; Sessi
Americana, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bourbon Street Paraders, 11 an pm, no cover; Gordon Beadle Trio, 8 pm, no cov
Washington Square Tavern Jon Hazilla Trio, 11 am-2:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMah
9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, OCT. 20

Axis "The Girlz Garage Tour" with Brassy, Lil
Northern State, the Peak Show, and the Start, 7
$12, all ages.
Bill's Bar Monster Mondays, 9 pm, 19+ with coll
ID.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21
Cantab Lounge Singer-songwriter open mike, 8
Carl Cacho, 10 pm. 21+.
Club Passim Arabesque, 8 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:30 pm;
cover.
Encore Lounge Maggie Rose Quartet, 9:30 pm
cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Open mike.
Harper's Ferry Blues jam, $2, 21+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
Kinsale Eamon Sheehan.
Middle East Upstairs: Brian Jonestown Massa
the High Strung and Deathray Davies, 9 pm, $ 18+. Downstairs: Gorky's Zygotic Mynci and Kin bury Manx, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Purple Shamrock Scott Damgaard.
Sky Bar E3, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Dangerous Brothers, 9 pm, no co
21+.
Toad Shwang with Anita Suhanin, 8-10 pm;
Gearan Band, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Gordon Beadle Trio, 8 pm, no co

Tequila RAIN

Bar & Dancing

FRIDAY OCTOBER 10
Are you ready for the Twins?
Coors Light Twins at Tequila Rain

FRIDAY & SATURDAY OCT 17 & 18
CUERVONATION Weekend Party

THURSDAY OCTOBER 30
FNX LINGERIE BALL

FRIDAY OCTOBER 31 HALLOWEEN
Pajama Jam

EVERY FRIDAY & SATURDAY IN OCTOBER
CASH CASINO

3 Lansdowne Street 617.859.0030 www.TequilaRainBoston.com

infinitistyle

fashion models' competition

fifty of new england's most gorgeous women only one winner

thursday october 16
the roxy
279 tremont street boston

18+ fashionable dress doors @ 10pm
open bar 10-11

tickets
$25 door or $20 advance
http://infinitistyle.com/tickets
617.416.0891

BACARDI

MuseCube

BostonModels

clubvibes.com

karenbumsdance.com

Saks in the City Fashion Show

Thursday, October 16th
7:00 - 10:00 PM

To Benefit the Franciscan Hospital for Children

Join Saks Fifth Avenue, Maggie Models and Tonic for a night of couture, cocktails and cuisine

$25

Call Megan at 617-779-1414

100% Tax Deductible

Taste Sex and the City's hot new drink the Absolut Hunk and the Dalmore Saksatini Win Pine Hills Golf Outing, Sexy Hair Concepts Luxury Box, Red Sox Memorabila & More!

tonic

THE MET LOUNGE

1316 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton 617-566-6699

Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Sarah Brindell, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY, OCT. 21

Abbey Lounge Twisted Tuesday acoustic show 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon Kirk Franklin, tobyMAC, and Soul Jahz, 8 pm, $30.25, all ages.
Axis Bret Michaels and Cracktorch, 10 pm, $18, 18+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm; One Night Stand, 10 pm. 21+.
Club Passim Dan Bern.
Cottonwood Café Barbara Dolan's Jazz Therapy, 9 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Rob Gonzales, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Harper's Ferry Jiggle the Handle, 9:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
Johnny D's Ivo Papasov, 8:30 pm, $20, 21+.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Lizard Lounge Tommy Dempsey, 9 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Geoff Scott and Public House, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Drunkhorse, Bongzilla and On Trial, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Superchunk and the Rosebuds, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Orpheum Barenaked Ladies, 7:30 pm, $40.
The Rack Paolo Darnay, 6 pm, no charge, 21+.
Regattabar Charlie Kohlhase's CK5, 8:30 pm, $12.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Sky Bar Ashley Farrell, Michelle Lewis and Jen Shamro, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Resophonics, 10 pm, no cover. 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Lot Six, the Paper Lions, Fin Fang Foom and Those Who Wait, 9 pm, $8.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Steve Winwood and the North Mississippi AllStars play Oct. 8 at the Orpheum Theatre

classical music

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8

Music in the Cathedral

Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St., Bos (617-482-4826, ext. 1103). MBTA: Red or Gr Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $2 suggested donation. Org ist Nigel Potts performs.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-5 2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Stephen Lip conducts the New England Conservatory Symph Orchestra in a performance that includes Rossi Overture to La Gazza Ladra and Brahms' Symph No. 2.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9

Boston Philharmonic

Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-4 2222). www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Lin Harvard. 7:30 pm. $15-$63. The Boston Phil monic performs selections from Gustav Mahler w baritone William Sharp.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to S phony. 8 pm. $26-$86. Guest conductor Bern Haitink leads the orchestra in a performance o lections by Wagner, Debussy and Franck.

MIT Chapel Concert Series

MIT Chapel, opposite 77 Mass. Ave., Cambr (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. 12 Free. Joshua Millard performs works by Albe Dowland, Piazzolla and Brouwer.

FRIDAY, OCT. 10

Boston Chamber Music Society

New England Conservatory, Jordan Hall, Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). w bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: E Green Lin Symphony. 7:30 pm. $16-$42. Pianist Martin Ka violinist Elina Vähälä, cellist Ronald Thomas pianist Randall Hodgkinson perform works Fauré, Hall Overton and Dvorak.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to S phony. 8 pm. $29-$95. Same program as Oct. 9.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MB Red Line to Harvard. Free. Jeffrey Rink leads Longy Chamber Orchestra in a performance of w by Mozart, Brahms and Weber.

SATURDAY, OCT. 11

Boston Early Music Festival

First Church in Cambridge, 11 Garden St., Cambi (617-424-4232). www.bemf.org. MBTA: Red Li Harvard. 8 pm. $18-$52. Violinist Andrew M performs works by Tartini, Bach and Stokowski.

Boston Philharmonic

New England Conservatory, Jordan Hall, 30 Gains ough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.bo phil.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 $15-$63. Same program as Oct. 9.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 $29-$95. Same program as Oct. 9.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12

Boston Chamber Music Society

Sanders Theatre, Cambridge (617-536-2412). w bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 7:30 pm. $16-$42. Same program as Oct.

Boston Philharmonic

New England Conservatory, Jordan Hall, 30 Gains ough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.bo phil.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. $15-$63. Same program as Oct. 9.

Emmanuel Music

Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (6 536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MB Green Line to Copley. 11 am. Free. The Emma Music orchestra and chorus perform Bach's Meine Freude during Sunday church service.

Emmanuel Music

The Chamber Series, Emmanuel Church, 15 New St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emma music.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 4 pm.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Big Easy 1 Boylston Place., Boston (617-351-7000). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Bob the Chef's 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
The Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Boston (617-541-5400).
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Choppin' Block 724 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-734-4177). MBTA: Green Line to Brigham Circle.
City Hall Plaza MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Dick's Last Resort 55 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Encore Lounge 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
FleetBoston Pavilion 290 Northern Ave., Boston (617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
FleetCenter One FleetCenter, Suite 200, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
The Good Life Cambridge 720 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-8800). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park St.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harper's Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Independent Union Square, Somerville (617-440-6022).
Institute of Contemporary Art Theater 955 Boylston St., Boston (617-354-6898). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Jacob Wirth 31-37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Julien Bar 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900). MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Way, Cambridge (617-661-0993). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Linwood 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-267-8644). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Porter or Harvard.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Orpheum Theatre Hamilton Place, Boston (617-482-0650). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park St.
Paradise Rock Club 967 Comm. Ave., Boston, (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
PA's Lounge 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557).
Plough and Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-441-3455).
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-661-5000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Central.
Sanders Theatre 74 Mt Auburn St., Cambridge (617-495-8676). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
The Tap 19 Union St., Boston (617-367-0033). MBTA; Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300).
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Tsongas Arena 300 Arcand Drive, Lowell (978-848-6900.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-BEAR). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Washington Square Tavern 714 Washington St., Brookline (617-232-8989).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard St., Boston (617-351-2665) MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Zeigeist Gallery 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060).
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

THE BARKING CRAB
RESTAURANT

SEASIDE SUNDAY BRUNCH
FEATURING LIVE MUSIC

Live Music
Wednesday & Thursday Nights

New Seasonal Beers on Tap

Serving Lunch &
Dinner Daily

On Boston Harbor
88 Sleeper Street, Boston
617.426.CRAB

18
BAMBARA
Breakfast ✦ Lunch ✦ Dinner ✦ Private Dining
Global Wines ✦ Creative Cocktails
Edwin Land Blvd, Cambridge ✦ 617.868.4444
www.bambara-cambridge.com

Congratulations to The Harp on their 10 Year Anniversary.
Join them October 8th for a live broadcast event with WAAF.
Prizes and giveaways.

Labatt
America's Speciality Beer Company

the Harp 10 YEARS
DECADE
10 days celebrating 10 years at The Harp
85 Causeway Street, Boston 617-742-1010

BODYSCAPES

Experience One-on-One Personal Training in a Comfortable and Relaxed Environment.
No Membership Fee, State-of-the-Art Cybex Equipment,
Flexible Hours to Meet Your Needs, Modern Locker & Shower Facilities. Sessions by Appointment Only.

BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

Trinity Place, One Huntington Avenue, Boston
617.267.5766
Boston Newton Wellesley
www.bodyscapesinc.com

ANNa's TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

Boston's Best Burrito
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—The Improper Bostonian

Best Burrito in Boston
1998, 1999, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—Boston Magazine

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.
1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

Benjamin Zander leads the Boston Philharmonic in a series of performances Oct. 9, 11 and 12 patrons, $22 general admission, $18 students. The chorus and orchestra perform pieces by J.S. Bach and original works by Emmanuel Music's composer John Harbison.

MIT Heritage of South Asia Concert
Room 10-250, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-7971). web.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 4 pm. $14-$18. Hindustani singer Ashwine Bhide performs with Vishwanath Shirodkar on the tabla and Seema Shirodkar on the harmonium.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. Free. Faculty member Jean Rife accompanies the Boston Baroque Orchestra on the natural horn in a performance of works by Handel, Strauss and Beethoven.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Riverside. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Sayuri Miyamoto performs works by Bach, Beethoven, Mozart and Chopin.

MONDAY, OCT. 13

Boston Lyric Opera
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 2 pm. Free. The BLO and soprano Guiping Deng perform for the MFA's Columbus Day open house.

TUESDAY, OCT. 14

New England Conservatory
Brown Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. John Greer, the NEC's new director of opera studies, leads Perkin Opera Scenes.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy. edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Eda Mazo-Shlyam, Ludmilla Lifson, Peter Cassion, Stan Strickland and Sara Bielanski perform a piano arrangement of Gershwin's Porgy and Bess.

Music in the Cathedral
Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-4826, ext. 1103). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $2. Members of Renaissonics perform.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 6 pm. Free. The Borromeo String Quartet performs Kurtag's Officium Breve.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Founding member of the Orpheus Chamber Orchestra Donald Palma leads the NEC Chamber Orchestra.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $26-$86. Guest conductor Bernard Haitink leads a performance of Debussy's opera Pelléas et Mélisande.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Donna Roll directs arias and scenes from operas by Mozart, Kurt Weill, Berlioz, Rossini, Douglas Moore, Beethoven, Humperdinck and Massenet.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-53 2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBT E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Charles Peltz co ducts the NEC Wind Ensemble.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17

Boston Baroque
New England Conservatory, Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsb ough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.bost baroque.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony pm. $20-$62. Boston Baroque performs a semi-sta version of Handel's opera Alcina.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sy phony. 1:30 pm. $26-$85. Same program as Oct. 9

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden S Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBT Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Same program Oct. 16.

MIT Family Weekend Concert
Kresge Auditorium, MIT, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambri (617-253-2826). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 8 Free. The MIT Wind Ensemble and the MIT Fe val Jazz Ensemble perform symphonic music inspi by jazz and jazz music inspired by dance, includ works by Bernstein, Joplin, Ellington and Mingu

SATURDAY, OCT. 18

Boston Baroque
New England Conservatory, Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsb ough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.bos baroque.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphon pm. Same program as Oct. 17.

Goethe-Institut Boston
170 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-6050). MB Green Line to Copley. 7:30 pm. Free. Violinist Bili Voutchkova and cellist Agnieszka Dziubak perf works by Bartok, Ysaye and Kodely.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19

Emmanuel Showcase Series
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-5 3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: E G Line to Copley. 4 pm. $20. The trio Favella Lyrica forms motets by Schültz, Schein and Buxtehude.

FleetBoston Celebrity Series
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-5 2412). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E G Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $41-$61. Baritone Tho Hampson and pianist Wolfram Rieger perform.

King's Chapel Concert Series
King's Chapel, Tremont and School streets, Bos (617-227-2155, ext. 345). www.kings-chapel MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Cent pm. $12, $6 students and seniors. The King's Cha choir performs pieces from Berlioz's Messe Solenn

MONDAY, OCT. 20

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-5 2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MB E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Colin Dun leads the NEC Concert Choir and Chamber Sin in a concert including performances of Ja MacMillan's Changed, Weelkes' When David H and Buxtehude's Magnificat.

TUESDAY, OCT. 21

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-5 2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MB E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Malcom ton leads a bass-baritone and chamber ensemble performance of his composition Sonnets from Donne plus other works.

Blizzard of Beauty

When faced with yet another nor'easter, Bostonians will turn up their collars against the wind and look for something, anything, to cure their winter blues.

The Improper Bostonian's Winter Fashion Issue is the perfect remedy for those cold, blustery days. We will guide readers through winter's warm colors, rich textures and superb tailoring that give the colder months some of the most dignified clothing of the year. The Improper will also make people feel warm all over with cozy, colorful sweaters. We will also focus on quirky accessories that add fun and sparkle to a winter wardrobe. And fashion just wouldn't be the same without the season's most coveted shoes! (Just watch out for those puddles!)

Advertise now in this winter fashion wonderland!

The Improper Bostonian* reaches more than 392,900 readers every two weeks!

96% purchased a product or service advertised as a result of reading The Improper Bostonian.

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 280,
to book advertising space now.
Issue Date: November 5
Advertising Deadline: October 22

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Celebrate A night of gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $5, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJ Jay Ine spinning house, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Monsta Mondays DJ Kaptain Krunch spins rock, and live bands perform, 9 pm, $6, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Martini Mondays DJ Sensae spins R&B and hip-hop, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Buddha Lounge DJ Kamel and DJ Christophe spin a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats. Classy dress, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Scott Damgaard, live music, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Dance Party with DJ Mike Janedy, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Each week two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJs spinning top-40 tunes, R&B and dance. Downstairs: live acoustic music with Justin Beech.

Vertigo
DJ's G-Squared and Steve Austin spin hip-hop, house, old-school and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 19+ (ladies), 21+ (guys).

TUESDAYS

Aria
One Nation DJ Chubby Chub spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Bill's Bar
Phat Tuesdays Old-school hip-hop with DJ D Sharp, 9 pm, $10, 19+, college ID required.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm, followed by live music, $5, 18+.

The Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Kells
Orange DJs Matt Diamond and John Davis bring the house music, and weekly guest DJs drop by for a spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee spins house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Phoenix Landing
Spectrum DJs Flack, Verbnine and C combine dub, retro-futurism and breakbeats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
•Oct. 14, ZMQ performs live, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 21, live music with Paulo Danay, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins top-40 and R&B. Downstairs: Stu Sinclair, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, $21+.

Tonic
Splash Industry Night Sir Isaac Phillips accompanies the DJ with live percussion, $5, 21+.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

Aria
Lust DJ John Morris spins progressive house for a gay and lesbian dance party. Proper dress, 11 pm, $10, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

DJ Ziggy

Preview

Sun Rising

The Diplomat finds new success by staying up all night

As people stream out of Boston's clubs and bars at 2 am, the party is just hitting full stride at Sunrise, a few miles north of the city. From the outside, the Diplomat in Saugus looks like a rather unlikely venue to host the biggest weekly after-hours party in the Boston area. The building itself is an enormous banquet facility and function hall perched in the middle of a vast parking lot along Route 1 North.

In the wee hours of the morning, however, a long line of clubgoers stretches from the entrance, and plenty more are already inside. Resident DJ Taner K headlines in the club's main room, while resident DJ Manolo presides over the Green Room next door. The Green Room now opens at 10 pm, making Sunrise a true all-night club. Alcohol is served until 2 am, when the main room opens for Taner K to provide hard and funky tribal house rhythms well into Sunday morning.

On Oct. 11, guest DJ (and frequent Taner K collaborator) Matt "Tasty" Fonstein takes over the main room for an extended set to celebrate his birthday. Sunrise will also host a special Columbus Day edition on Sunday, Oct. 12, featuring New York's Shawn Ink and Ziggy in the main room. On Oct. 18, Manolo's birthday bash takes center stage. It's a good thing Route 1 also features restaurants that serve breakfast.

334 Broadway, Route 1 North, Saugus. www.sunriseafterhours.com. Saturdays, 10 pm-8 am. $20, 18+. No dress code. —Daniel Spurling

Caprice
DJ Vagellis spins Greek and international tunes. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Mod Night with DJ Vin, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Emily's
DJs pump up the After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm.

Felt
Weekly Therapy Party Guest DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Bobby B spins top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up R&B, top-40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Matrix
Lively A cast of DJs spin underground garage, 10 pm, $8.

Milky Way
Mercury Lounge DJs Nomadik and Timmy Allen host this evening of soul, funk and house, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
DJs Shalako, Caseroc and Skye spin deep house, trance and grassroots techno, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Beach Party night with DJs spinning top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
International Wednesdays DJ JC is in the Latin Lounge; DJs Alex and Felix are in the back. Proper dress, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
DJ Sean spins a retro mix of '70s and '80s tunes.

The Rack
DJ Steve Anderson spins dance, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 8, Jose Ramos Band performs, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 15, live music with Groove Authority, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Cabin Stabbin' Wednesdays Dub and DJ Boogie Ba Do start the party reggae-style, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins dance and R&B. Downstairs: Live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop and top-40 hits, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Vertigo
Downstairs: Psychedelic trance music by DJs Dino, Mathwin and Dave Henshaw. Upstairs: Analog Lounge with DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tain
DJs spin hip-hop, progressive, tech and funky house, 6-11 pm, no cover, 21+.

An Tua Nua
Fizzle DJ McFly spins techno, top-40 and hip-hop 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Aria
Fashion House Weekly fashion shows; DJ Roger M spins vocal house. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Avalon
International Thursdays DJ Gee Spin and gue play rap and Eurohouse tunes, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Axis
Square One Thursdays Resident DJs Ali Aja and John Debo host a night of progressive dan music, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

Big Easy
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40 in this New Orlean themed nightspot, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
On the Rocks DJ Mike spins top-40 dance and h hop, 7 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indi and hip-hop music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 2

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Everything '80s DJ Brian's Love Night mix featu tunes of the '80s, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 p 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Red Velvet DJs Geespin and Master Jay spin h hop and R&B, 10 pm, 19+, women; 21+, men.

Embassy
DJ JC spins international house, 10:30 pm, $ 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm; live funk, jazz a electronica, 8 pm, $5, 18+.

Felt
KISS 108's DJ Randy hosts the night and sp Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe sp acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Nonstop music and dancing with DJs Christi Massi, Joshua Carl, Damon and Push, ladies f guys $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Spend Resident DJs Nailz, Taner and Tasty cue the beats, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Rhythm Nights hosts karaoke downsta 8-11 pm, 21+. DJ Massi gets the dance party star upstairs, 11 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJ Edgar and DJ Mike Gio spin dance tunes and old school, 10 pm, no co 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Doc spins the latest tunes, 21+.

La Boom
Privilege DJ Felix cranks the noise, 11 pm-2 21+.

Level
Life DJ Adilson pumps house, trance and progres and DJ NFerna spins hip-hop, R&B and reg 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Matrix
Club Candela DJ Michael Mercado spins L dance, 10 pm, 18+ ladies, 21+ men. •Oct GrooveBoston plays dance music, 10 pm, $15, 1

The Modern
DJ Ricky Fatts spins house and hip-hop. 10:30 $15, 19+.

Parris
10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Rando pre drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 2

The Place
DJ Mike Janedy spins top-40 and dance, 9 pm, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ David Mee spins deep house, progressive tec downtempo and soul classics in the front loung night, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett performs live, 9 pm, 21+.

Q
Superstar Thursdays DJs Manolo, Paul Da Rick Naples and Josh Carl share a weekly rota residency.

The Rack
DJ Lenny C spins from 10 pm-2 am, no cover, •Oct. 9, Uneek Aproach performs, 6-10 pm cover, 21+. •Oct. 16, Part-Time Lovers perfor 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali and Ross spin a m electro, Funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no cover,

The Place

where people meet

MFS enjoys a Customer Appreciation Party on Sports Club throws a well bash for Amanda!

Bob Lobel was joined by Bruins legend Bobby Orr on SportsPlus Live! with commentators Dan Shaughnessy and Michael Smith. Join us every Wednesday after work.

THE BEST ATTRACTION IS OUR CUSTOMERS

Custom House enjoys ner Appreciation Party

elebrity Night!

MONDAYS 8PM

NFL MONDAYS ARE 'CELEBRITY NIGHT' AT THE PLACE, HOSTED BY PATRIOTS RICHARD SEYMOUR & KENYATA JONES

JOIN US EVERY MONDAY FROM 9PM 'TIL CLOSING FOR A CELEBRITY-STUDDED NIGHT OF NFL EXCITEMENT! YOUR $10 DONATION AT THE DOOR BENEFITS THE MASSACHUSETTS BOYS STATE FOUNDATION AND GETS YOU INTO THE HOTTEST PARTY IN TOWN! CHECK OUT WHO STOPPED BY LAST WEEK

atriots players Bobby Hamilton,
H Seymour & Ty Law -- and The Place
nders -- mix it up on Celebrity Night

ESPN's Steve Levy & Sal Paolantonio talk football with a fan of The Place.

Former Patriots QB Scott Zolak, NY Jets Wide Receiver Carl Morris, The Place Owner SJ Torres & WWE Wrestler Chris Nowitzki check out the NFL action.

SJ Torres and Bruins players Rob Zamuner, Glenn Murray & Joe Thornton try a new sport.

LIBRARY

IESDAYS 9PM-2AM

EDNESDAY NIGHTS, 9PM TO 2AM THROUGHOUT THE FALL.
TS, BRAIDS, AND BOBBY SOCKS. OUR SCHOOLGIRL-INSPIRED
HAVE YOU PARTYING LIKE IT'S THE WEEKEND.
O MISBEHAVE – WE WON'T REPORT YOU!

SUNDAY TAILGATE BRUNCH

SUNDAYS 12PM

CHEER ON THE PATS AND GET ALL YOUR NFL ACTION AT THE PLACE! ONLY $9.99 ALL YOU CAN EAT! DON'T MISS OUR SUNDAY SIGNATURE COCKTAILS!

NFL SUNDAY TICKET

Answer Sports Trivia and compete to win a grand prize trip to Super Bowl XXXVIII!

711 Boylston
Play Thursdays DJ trio Groovefire spins house music with special guests Beat Khemistry, 6 pm-2 am.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins new dance and R&B; Downstairs: Justin Beech, 9 pm-1 am, 21+.

Sophia's
DJ JR Vega hosts Latin Night with live music by the Latin Party Boys; free salsa lessons with Dan Marshall, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Sweetwater Café
Dance to top-40 tunes, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

SW1
DJ Renel and guest MCs spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $5, 18+.

Venu
Nu-Lite Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Sender plays hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 10 pm, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night, proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tain
TGIF DJ David spins hip-hop, progressive tech and funky house, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Vinney spins disco and top-40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Floss DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 18+.

Atlas
DJs spin top-40 dance music, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest and global DJs spin progressive dance music, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, old-school and dancehall, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
F Night WBCN's Bradley J spins '80s classics, and alternative and rock tribute bands perform live, 9 pm, cover varies, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft DJs Sensae and Johnny Walker Black spin top-40 dance and hip-hop tunes accompanied by interactive video shows, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Eddie K spins international, Latin and house music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Circuit Girl
Anything Goes Melinda Ancillo hosts this women's night with DJ Kris Kono spinning house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Tom spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Nailz and DJ Eddie Lee spin hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $20, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour (5-8 pm) is followed by DJ Renell spinning top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
After-work live jazz, 5-9 pm. KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts the party and DJ Ricky Fatts spins high-energy dance, hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Bob Gallagher spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstairs with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, $10, 9 pm, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Big Daddy spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins top-40, R&B and dance while DJ Mike Gioscia or DJ Edgar spins house and old favorites, $5, ladies free before midnight, 21+.

La Boom
Fashion Fridays Firefly Promotions hosts this fashion night featuring DJ Rick Naples, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Level
Secret Society DJ Hoff spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B on the fourth and fifth floors, and DJ Niko spins Greek and international tunes on the third floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Adilson of Roxy Saturdays spins high-energy house, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

The Modern
DJ JC plays Latin rhythms, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 am, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, proper dress, $15, 18+; $5, 21+. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Rockpile WAAF's Jay Ferrera broadcasts live, and rotating bands perform, 9 pm, $15, 18+; $5, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Shake What Your Mama Gave You DJ Ren Justice spins disco, hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
Hang out with VJ Laptop and enjoy Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
Glo Promotions hosts weekly guest DJs. Proper dress required, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Craig spins the latest hits, 10 pm.

Q
DJ Josh Spitaleri spins house, 9 pm.

The Rack
DJ Johnny C with KISS 108's Artie, 10:45 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 10, live music with Sugarfoot, 6-10:45 pm. •Oct. 17, first class performs, 6-10:45 pm.

River Gods
Lite Nite DJ Easy spins retro mixes, mellow techno and French House, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
Hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins dance; Downstairs: live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover before 10 pm, 21+.

Sophia's
Sangria and Salsa Salsa and merengue lessons, 7-10 pm, followed by the Latin Party Boys and DJs Mike C and Zino spinning Latin dance, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows on two floors, 5 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Littles spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Tim Collins spins top-40, hip-hop and house. • Oct. 10, the Coors Light Twins host, 10 pm, $5.

The Upstairs Lounge
The Pill DJ Ken spins U.S. and U.K. indie, Brit pop, mod, British invasion and '60s soul.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international house while DJ Roger M kicks things up with Latin vibes. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs spin hip-hop, house and vocals, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress a must, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tain
Old-school house with DJ Steve, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Ren Justice mixes top-40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
International Saturdays DJ Roger M spins vocal house and international hits, proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Atlas
DJs play top-40 dance, 10:30 pm, $7, 21+.

Avalon
Resident DJ Nailz plays house, techno and trance, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Kevin Munroe spins house and trance, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Start! DJ Gibby spins alternative rock and '80s hits, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Dance Night DJ Rob Nockshis spins dance music all night, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. VJ Johnnie Walker presents top-40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows, 11 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
Masai-Latin International Lounge DJ Franklin creates a lounge atmosphere with his international, Latin and house sounds. Classy dress, 10 pm, cover, 21+.

Common Ground
The Let Down DJs Brian, Ken and Boothna 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Hollywood It's women's night at Hollywood w two floors of hip-hop and house music, 10 pm, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Roger M spins international house, 10:30 p $15, 19+.

Emily's
DJ Rennel spins top-40 dance tunes, 10 pm, $5, 2

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $ 21+.

Felt
DJ Ghost spins hip-hop and house, 9 pm, no co

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins retro favorit disco, Motown and the latest top-40, hip-hop vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hannah's
Dance, house and top-40 hits from DJ Artie 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upst with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 9 p $10, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis McCarthy cues up top-40, R&B and h hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren Drag spins dance, R&B and top- while downstairs DJ O'Toole plays top-40, 10 21+.

La Boom
Wild on @ La Boom DJ Tim Collins and KISS host a night of music and dancing, 10 pm, 21+.

Level
•Red Square Russian Lounge DJ Albertik sp Russian and international music on the third fl 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+. •Suspended Saturdays Peter D and DJ Rob D spin mainstream, vocal ho travel and funk music on the fourth and fifth flo 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Pedro Gonzales plays high-energy house wh the back room features dance favorites from the and '90s and top-40 tunes, 9 pm, $10, $21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night. DJ Antonio O spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 10 $7.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee plays hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin da music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez Willie D. Proper dress. Ladies free, men $5 be 10:30 pm; $15, 18+; $10, 21+ after 10:30 pm. •Male Encounter New England's longest-runn all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show ru pm-1 am, $15, 19+; no cover 21+. •Oxygen Chaos spins top-40 and hip-hop mixes. Pro dress, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Underground DJs hip-hop, top-40, dance, techno and reggae for under-21 crowd, 7-11 pm, $14. •Rio DJ Don Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian mosphere, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Uptown Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s, '80s and Proper dress, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins 80s, new w and disco, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ Rick Naples spins high-energy dance. Pro dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Tom Hogan spins the groove, 10 pm, $5, 2 •Oct. 11, live music with the Marcels. •Oct. Syndicate performs.

Q
DJ Josh Carl spins house, hip-hop, top-40 R&B.

The Rack
Star 93.7's Vinny Peruzzi and DJ Littles hos dance party, 8 pm, 21+, no cover.

Vertu Collection

"The Love of Fine Things"

S&R DESIGNS

Arlene AND Roberta

Specializing in European jewelry, gifts & accessories

233 Needham Street • Newton, Massachusetts • 617.527.3344

Fireside Chats

TASTINGS - SATURDAYS AT THREE PM

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Saturday, October 11 - Sauvignon Blanc

Saturday, October 25 - Chardonnay

Saturday, November 8 - Pinot Noir

Saturday, November 22 - Merlot

Saturday, December 6 - Cabernet Sauvignon

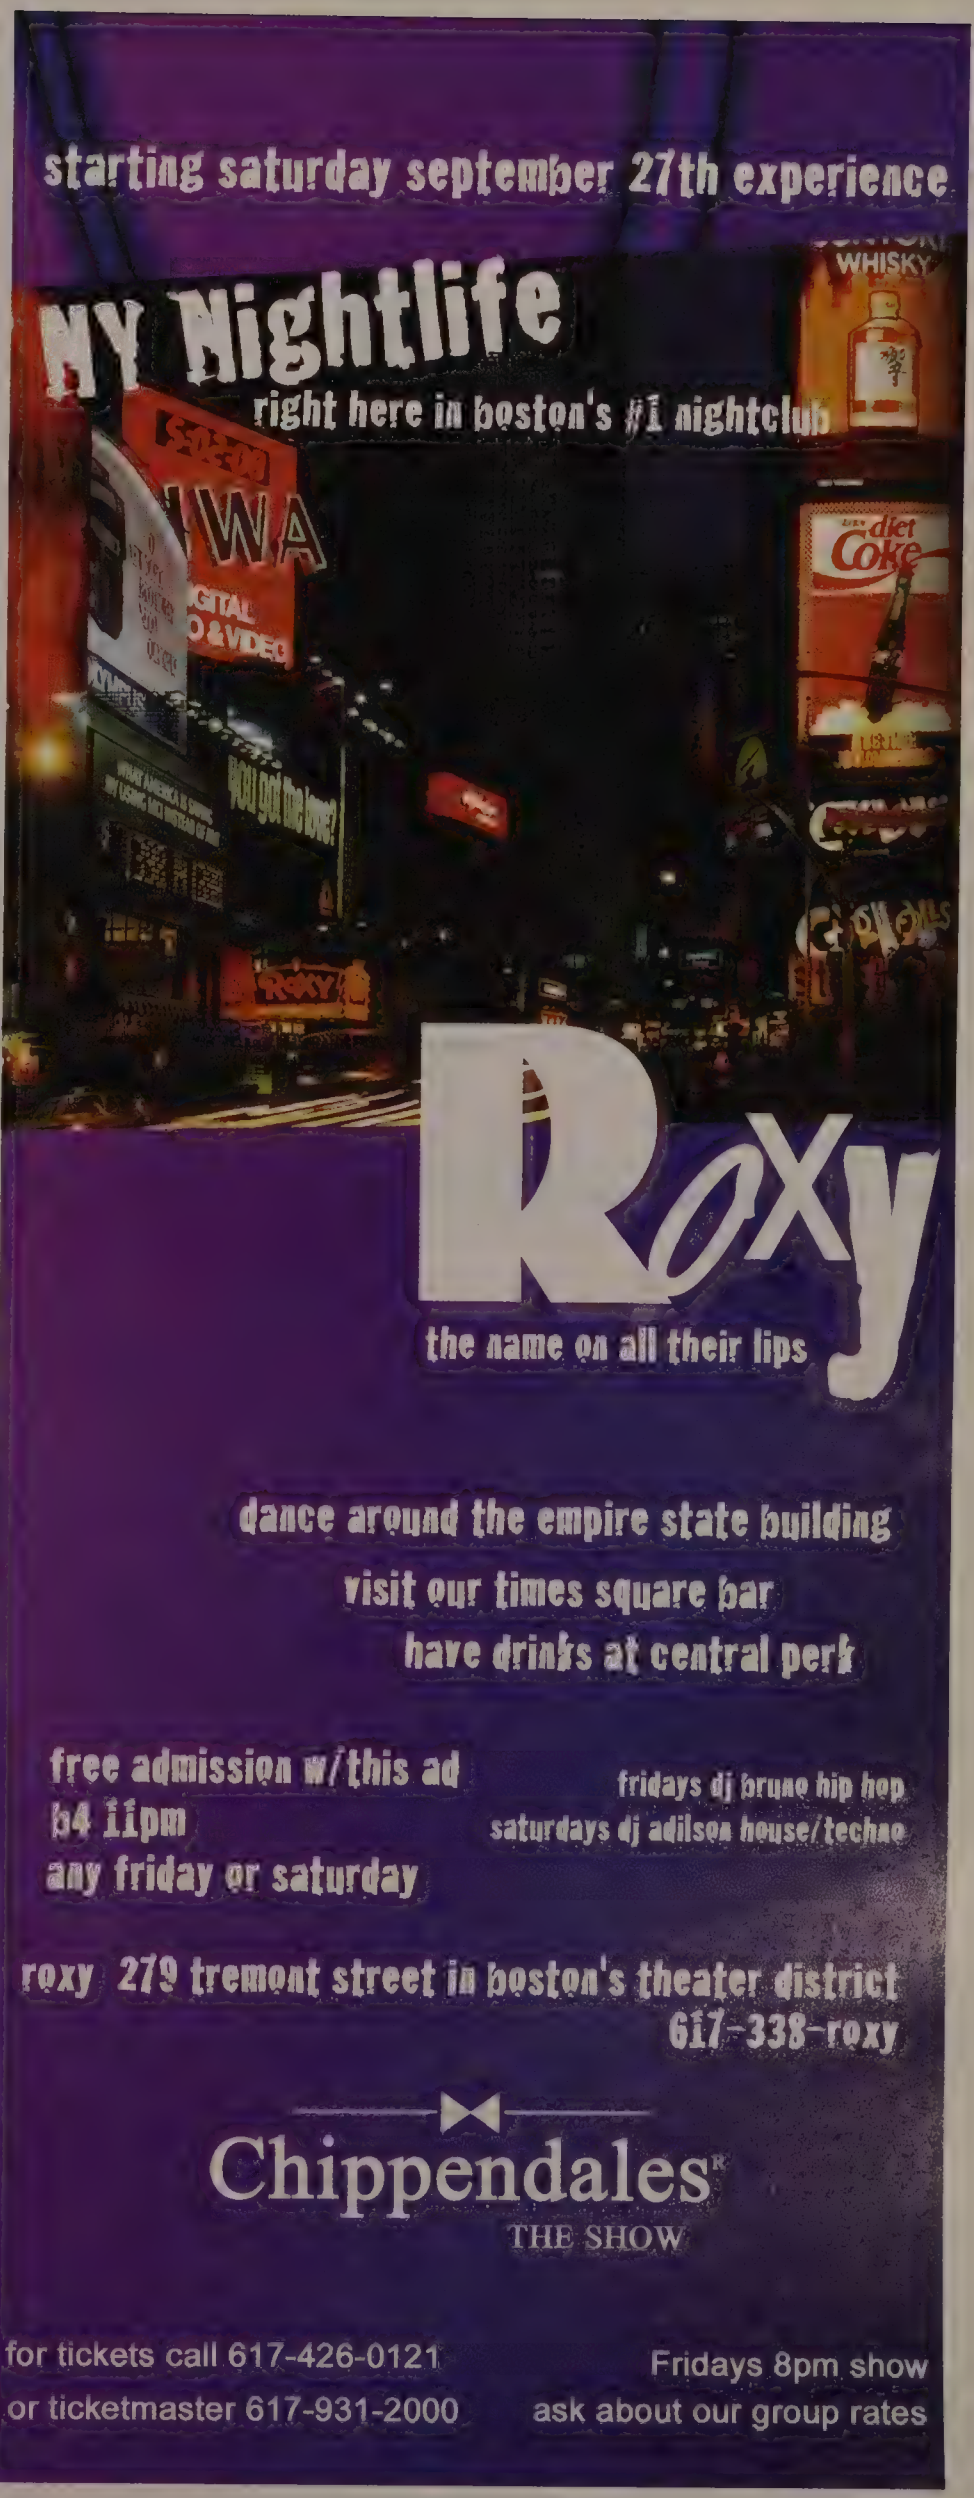
Saturday, December 20 - Sparkling Wine

the fireplace

New England Grill

1634 Beacon Street, Brookline, MA 02446 tel: (617) 975-1900

www.fireplacerest.com



LOOK YOUR BEST

COSMETIC DERMATOLOGY AND ADVANCED SKIN CARE

BOTOX • LASER HAIR REMOVAL • MICRODERMABRASION
CHEMICAL PEELS • FACIALS • LASER TATTOO REMOVAL
LASER COLLAGEN RENEWAL • FACIAL AND LEG VEIN TREATMENTS

Experience counts. Come visit our SkinHealth Centers™ and see why we have thousands of dedicated and satisfied clients.

SkinHealth CENTERS

CALL FOR A FREE SKIN ANALYSIS CONSULTATION
TOLL FREE 1-877-703-7546 www.skinhealthcenters.com

BOSTON – 100 CHARLES RIVER PLAZA, BEACON HILL
BROOKLINE – 1101 BEACON STREET
ANDOVER • FOXBORO • QUINCY • WELLESLEY • WESTFORD • AND MORE

44TH ANNUAL
ELLIS ANTIQUES SHOW
BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
presented by The Chubb Group of Insurance Companies

OCTOBER 30–NOVEMBER 2, 2003

GALA PREVIEW PARTY
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 6:00 TO 9:00 PM
Tickets $225 each ($250 at the door). Reservations essential.
Sponsored by Christie's and the Elizabeth B. McGraw Foundation

FOR BROCHURE OR TO ORDER TICKETS
Ellis Antiques Show Benefit, 27 West Cedar Street, Boston, MA 02108
617.248.8571 or visit our website at www.ellisantiques.com

SHOW HOURS
THURS. AND SUN., 11:00 AM TO 5:00 PM • FRI. AND SAT., 11:00 AM TO 8:00 PM

THE CASTLE AT THE BOSTON PARK PLAZA HOTEL & TOWERS
Columbus Avenue at Arlington Street, Boston, Massachusetts

A BENEFIT FOR MASSGENERAL HOSPITAL for CHILDREN AND ELLIS MEMORIAL & ELDREDGE HOUSE, INC.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
The Roxy Goes Manhattan DJ Adilson spins house and techno at this Big Apple–themed night, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

711 Boylston
Fever DJ Yorgo spins a mix of ethnic and international music. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Tom McKenna spins dance, 8 pm; Downstairs: Kevin Kirrane, 9 pm, no cover before 10 pm.

Sophia's
DJ Zino spins salsa and merengue while a Latin band plays on the first floor and DJ Edwin Matos spins Latin dance on the second floor, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin blends hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows, two floors, 8 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Bruno plays house and funk, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Ron Stell plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SUNDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Adrienne spins Brit pop and new wave tunes, 9 pm-1 am, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJ Roger M spins international house and Latin pop. Proper dress, 11pm, $15, 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ K-Don, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Felt
Play DJ Eddy K spins the tunes at service industry night. Proper dress, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Fluid Sundays DJs Joshua Carl and Paul Dailey spin tribal and deep house, breaks, techno and jungle beats, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
DJs Doc and Kieran spin top-40, 11 pm, no cover.

La Boom
Futurebeat: Alien Disco DJ Addambombb spins a mix of retro progressive tracks, trip-hop and synth-pop, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Level
Rotating DJs spin Latin and international on the third floor and hip-hop, reggae R&B and house on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Milky Way
Mystic Reggae DJ Junior Rodigan spins reggae, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump This house-music night has a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $3, 19+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
Red Square Lounge The front bar becomes a lounge, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi tops the weekend off with an array of tunes, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
In the Biz Night DJ Johnny C spins top-40 hits.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Reverie Boston DJ Shannon and weekly guest DJs spin goth, industrial and lounge, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Dave Jordan plays an array of top-40 tunes; then check out Greg Lattrell, 9 pm, 21+.

Trio
Vibe Lounge DJs provide the vibe, 10 pm, 21+.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian n
as DJ Leandro spins Brazilian beats, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae world beats. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Whiskey Park
Cherry DJ Ricky Fatts spins rock classics, hip-
house and R&B.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-21
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Atlas 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-70
Bill's Bar 5 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-967
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-11
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080
Circuit Girl Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-987
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dad's 911 Boylston St., Boston (617-296-3237).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Ekco Lounge 41 Essex St., Boston (617-417-018
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Emily's 48 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
The Exchange 148 State St., Boston (617-726-760
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-7 4100).
Hannah's 499 Broadway, Somerville (617-623-530
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-101
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-94
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-90
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
La Boom One Boylston Place, Boston (617-357-68
Level 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Matrix 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (61 524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Palace (El Copa, Male Encounter, Officers' Club, Oxygen, Rio, Underground and Uptown) 15 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-77
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051)
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
711 Boylston 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-651
Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-700
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Sugar Shack 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-70
Sweetwater Café 5 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-2515).
SW1 43 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-03
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-669
Trio 174 Lincoln St., Boston (617-357-8746).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Vivid Lounge 148 State St., Boston (617-726-76
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-03
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

Feast Upon Fall

The Improper Bostonian's Fall Dining Issue will take you on a culinary tour of autumn's finest cuisine. First, we will cover extreme dining—the most outrageous food around town. Next, we will sample our way through local cheese farms…yes, cheese farms. We will also look at some area cooking classes that are being taught by Boston's greatest chefs!

This is an issue you will devour.

The Improper Bostonian reaches more than 392,900 readers every two weeks.
92% of our readers dine out on a regular basis.
Our readers consume an average of 16 meals per month in restaurants.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

Issue Date: October 22
Advertising Deadline: October 8
To Advertise Please Call 617-859-1400 ext.280

art

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Arts. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •Medardo Rosso: Second Impressions, a collection of the sculptor's work, shows through Oct. 26. •Where Traditions Meet: Paintings in India from the 14th Century shows through Dec. 7. •Buddhist Art: The Later Tradition shows through Jan. 4, 2004.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun. 1-5 pm. •Fashion Week 2003 is an exhibition detailing historical women's wear for the workforce. Oct. 14-31. •Photographer's View of the Art of Teaching Musicians features the work of Diane Griliches. Through Oct. 31.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. •Debra Weisberg: (Sub)Surface features an architectural installation along a 40-foot elevator shaft. Through Jan. 2004. •Gifts from Stephen and Sybil Stone, an exhibition of more than 150 paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures from the Stones' collection, shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Ron Kuivila: An Outgoing Message is a sound-art exhibition of dial tones, busy signals and rings from telephone systems. Through Jan. 18, 2004. •Puppets, Ghosts, and Zombies: The Sculpture of Pat Keck shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Joseph Wheelwright: Stone Heads and Tree Figures, a sculpture exhibit, shows through May 16, 2004. •Landscapes Seen and Imagined: Sense of Place, Part II features paintings by various artists. Through summer 2004.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •George Bellows: The Tragedies of War displays through Oct. 26. •Marcel Breuer: A Special Installation of 1930s Furniture shows through Nov. 2. •The City of Sardis: Approaches in Graphic Recording displays through Nov. 16. •Harvard Collects American Art shows through Feb. 22, 2004.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sun., 9 am-12 pm. •Into the Mountains features the photography of mountaineer Bradford Washburn. Through spring 2004. •The Glass Flowers features the Ware Collection of glass models of plants, including more than 830 plant species by glass artists Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka. Ongoing. •Romancing the Stone: The Many Facets of Tourmaline showcases the museum's collection of fine jewelry and rough tourmalines. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat. and Sun., 11 am-5 pm. Free admission Thu. after 5 pm. $7, $5 students and seniors. •Douglas R. Weathersby: 2003 ICA Artist Prize shows temporary installations that Weathersby created while cleaning at the ICA. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Splat Boom Pow! The Influence of Cartoons in Contemporary Art features more than 60 multimedia works that examine the influence of cartoons on contemporary art. Through Jan. 4, 2004.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, $7 seniors, $5 students, free for those under 18. Guided tour Fridays, 2:30 pm. •Raphael, Cellini, and a Renaissance Banker: The Patronage of Bindo Altoviti features a painting by Raphael, sculpture by Cellini and busts of Cosimo de'Medici and Altoviti. Through Jan. 11, 2004. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, furniture, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces, including works by Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Raphael, Botticelli and Degas. •Elaine Reichek's embroideries, which depict Biblical images borrowed from Dürer, Michelangelo and other artists, display online in the virtual exhibition Madam I'm Adam. Ongoing.

Raphael's portrait of Bindo Altoviti shows at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri. 10 am-5 pm; weekends 12-5 pm. $5, $3 students and seniors, $1 children. •More than 1,000 hand-blown glass pumpkins display on the lawn in front of MIT's Kresge Auditorium (48 Mass. Ave.) in The Great Glass Pumpkin Patch. Oct. 11-12. •Winning Hand: Images from the MIT Radiation Laboratory Negative Collection displays through Nov. 2. •Knowing Where to Stand: Photographs by Anne Whiston Spirn shows 50 color landscapes. Through Jan. 30, 2004. •The interactive exhibit Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT is ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers explores student life and learning over the past 150 years. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic displays selections from the world's largest hologram collection. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm; Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the West Wing is open. $15 adults, $13 students and seniors, free for children 17 and under. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, admission is reduced by $2. Wed., 4-9:45 pm, admission is free. Special exhibitions are an additional cost. •John Currin Selects, an exhibition assembled by the MFA's associate curator, displays works from the museum's collection. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Works by French printmaker Jacques Callot and artists that he influenced show in Callot and His World: Princes, Paupers and Pageants. Through Jan. 25, 2004. •More than 200 jades dating from the Neolithic period to the Qing Dynasty display in Chinese Jades from the Hartman Collection. Through Aug. 2004. •18th Century French Royal Furniture from the Swan Collection features the only complete set of 18th-century French royal furniture in the United States. Ongoing. •Arts of the Colonial Americas displays historical American masterpieces. Ongoing.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13 adults, $11 seniors, $10 children. •A Bird's World explores the behavior and calls of birds in the wild. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of computers from the electronic giants of the 1940s to today's smallest laptops. Ongoing. •Dinosaurs: Modeling the Mesozoic showcases the museum's collection of dinosaur models, including the giant T. rex. Ongoing. •Making Models, an interactive exhibition, features models of a wave tank, Mount Everest and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum
33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Children's Favorites: Candy-Filled Glass Toys shows through Nov. 16. •Generals, Admirals, and American War Leaders, an exhibition of personal and official autographs from famous American leaders, shows through Jan. 11, 2004 •Coming Up on the Season: Migrant Farmworkers in the Northeast traces the lives of the workers who harvest produce in the Northeast. Through Feb. 1, 2004. •The Enchanted Clocks of George McFadden is ongoing. •Lexington Alarm'd is an exhibition of 18th-century local history. Ongoing. •Made in Massachusetts features household objects from the past three centuries. Ongoing. •To Build and Sustain: Freemasons in American Community is ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. Sun.-Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-9 pm. Adults $12, seniors $10, students $8; children 16 and under and residents of Salem free. •Uncommon Legacies features more than a hundred 18th- and 19th-century Native American works. Through Dec. 13. •Vanished Kingdoms: The Wulsin Photographs of China, Tibet, and Mongolia 1921-1925, an exhibition of color images taken by American explorers Janet E. and Frederick R. Wulsin, shows Oct. 17-Feb. 29, 2004. •Under the Imperial Ga features two large-scale Chinese scrolls. Throug May 2, 2004. •Men Plow, Women Weave displa images of weaving and plowing by Chinese artist Through May 30, 2004.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027 www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Ha vard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50 adults, $6 senio and students, $5 children •Portraits from China, 192 1946: Photographers and Their Subjects features t work of Hedda Morrison, Owen Lattimore and Frede ick Wulsin. Through Jan. 15, 2004. •These Shoes We Made for...Walking?, a collection of 49 pairs of sho from ancient to contemporary times, shows throu Feb., 2004. •Painted by a Distant Hand: Mimbres P tery from the American Southwest features artifacts fr New Mexico's Swarts Ranch Ruin. Through De 2004. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monume features the museum's large Mesoamerican cast colle tion. Ongoing. •Encounters with the Americas is an o going exhibition featuring original sculpture and pl ter casts of Mesoamerican cultures. •Hall of the No American Indian: Change and Continuity features depicting the response of Native Americans across t continent to the arrival of Europeans. Ongoing. •P cific Islands Hall, another ongoing exhibition, displ artifacts from the Pacific Islands.

Somerville Museum
One Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-981 www.losttheatres.org. Thu., 2-7 pm; Fri., 2-5 pm a Sat., 12-5 pm. •The Lost Theatres of Somerville co bines oral histories, photographs, memorabilia and teractive media to explore the rise and fall Somerville's 14 historic movie theaters, only one which operates today. Through March 28, 2004.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.ac fineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tu Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Lillian Orlowsky shows her a stract work in The Fifties. Oct. 9-Nov. 15.

Alianza Gallery
154 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-2385). ww alianzagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copl Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Clockwo shows sculptural clocks by 12 artists. Through Nov.

Alpha Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alp gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tu Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Wlodzimierz Ksiazek displ large-scale abstract paintings. Through Oct. 29.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). w ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mo Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Lynda Lowe plays mixed-media works on wooden panels in Paintings. Through Oct. 30.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-44 www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Lin Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Mich Beatty's Low Fat, a show of minimalist sculpture, plays through Oct. 22. •Jennifer Barlett shows work in Print Publisher's Spotlight of Brand X Editi Through Oct. 22.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). MB Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Shining Stars: Celebrating 30 of Gateway Arts showcases 30 years of 20 art work. Through Nov. 1.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). w bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Lin Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Previeu view, a group show by David Hilliard, Jocelyn Abelardo Morell, Deborah Bright, Virginia Bea and Laura McPhee, shows through Nov. 9.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410) brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to l mere. Thurs.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Homemade: Ima Home (Architectural, Domestic, and Historica group show of photography, sculpture, painting mixed-media work, displays through Oct. 25.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-57 www.brooklineartscenter.com. Mon.-Fri., 9 4 pm. •100 Weaves of India displays thr Nov. 17.

Chappell Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-2255). chappellgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arli

e.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Kath-n Holmes: Something to Say in Glass shows Oct. 9-ov. 11.

hase Gallery
9 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.asegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. on.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •Danna Ruth Harvey ows paintings in Time and Other Times. Through t. 28.

nilds Gallery
9 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.ildsgallery.com. MBTA:Green Line to Copley. e.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. lorence Robinson in Italy (paintings), Prints of the man High Renaissance and The Power of Myth ulptures, lithographs, paintings and engravings) ow through Nov. 16.

iifford-Smith Gallery
0 Harrison Ave., Suite 300, Boston (617-695-55). www.cliffordsmithgallery.com. MBTA: Or-ge Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5:30 pm. Marco Breuer shows color photographs. Through t. 25.

opley Society of Art
3 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.pleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. .-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Fall Members Show: uried Exhibition shows through Oct. 18.

rump Gallery
2 East Broadway, Boston (617-268-8050). MBTA: Line to Broadway. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •An ibition of works by Jeff Eldredge, Dan McCole Norman Crump is ongoing.

clipse Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: en Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •Gretje guson's black-and-white photography shows ough Nov. 1.

quator Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4110). MBTA: en Line to Copley. www.equatorgallery.com. .-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The ery specializes in Latin American fine art, in-ding paintings, textiles and ceramics.

rt Point Arts Community Gallery
Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fort ntarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. n.-Fri., 10 am-3 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. •Open dios Group Show features works in all media. . 10-Nov. 9. •The 24th Annual Fort Point n Studios features works by community artists. . 17-19.

lerie d'Orsay
Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.rie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. .-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •An ongoing bition of paintings, sculpture and fine prints from 15th to 20th centuries focuses on Rembrandt, Pis-o, Renoir, Picasso, Matisse and Chagall.

llery AA/B
Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617- 574 - 0022). TA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.,12-6 pm; 11 am-3 pm •Mark Vonnegut, son of author Vonnegut, shows recent paintings. Through 31.

e Gallery at Black and White Huntington Ave., Suite 205 (617-266-2641). TA: E Green Line to Symphony or Orange Line to s. Ave. Mon.-Fri.-10 am-5 pm. •Photographs the gallery's collection show through October.

llery Katz
Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.rykatz.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. -Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •David Scanavino shows aintings in Balloons. Through Nov. 1.

novese/Sullivan Gallery
Thayer St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-426-9738). -Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Craig Stockwell s new paintings in Monogamy and Painting. ugh Nov. 4.

bs Gallery
gton Center for the Arts, 41 Foster St., Arlington -648-6220). www.acarts.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- •The Art of Teaching Art features the work of ducators and their students from grades K-12. ugh Oct. 10. •ACA Open Studios Group Show ys Oct. 13-Nov. 7.

ey & Steele
ewbury St., Boston (617-536-6339). www.haley .com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., n-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. gallery displays 18th- and 19th-century an-prints. Ongoing.

vard Yezerski Gallery
ewbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.rdyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to gton. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Catherine arthy shows new paintings in We Walk on Jew-hrough Nov. 4.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www.internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection showcases a variety of vintage posters.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Emotional Moves, a video installation by Bebe Beard, shows through Oct. 25. •Icons: Jankowski and Amadeo-Holl features paintings by Zygmund Jankowski and Jennifer Amadeo-Holl. Through Oct. 26.

Kaji Aso Studio
40 St. Stephen St., Boston (617-247-1719). www.kajiasostudio.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue. and Thu., 4:30-6:30 pm; Sat., 3-5 pm, and by appointment. •Local artists display paintings and ceramics in Open Studios 2003. Through Oct. 16.•Art on Paper shows the work of Haruko Cho. Oct. 18-24.

Kathryn Schultz Gallery
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, Sun., 1-5 pm. •Pushing the Envelope, a juried exhibition, shows through Oct. 30.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Cheryl Goldsleger shows architecturally based encaustic work. Through Nov. 1.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Elif Soyer shows paintings in Flowers and Germs. Through Nov. 1.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Duet: Harmony in Oil and Bronze features the abstract oil paintings and bronze sculptures of Tom and Carol Odell. Through Oct. 31.

Mark Gallery
141 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6275). www. markartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Thu.,4-7 pm; Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 12-5; and by appointment. •Longing for Height features paintings, alabaster sculptures and encaustic works by Jane Deutsch and Chad Erpelding. Through Oct. 10. •Juan Jose Barboza Gubo and Bobbi Kovner show their work in Visions, Views and Vistas. Oct. 11-Nov. 14.

James Tellin's Wood Construction #135, part of the What If? exhibition at the Mills Gallery.

Martin Lawrence Gallery
77 Newbury St., Boston (617-369-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. www.martinlawrence.com. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. •The gallery's ongoing exhibition includes works by Chagall, Erté, Hallam, Kondakova, Lichtenstein, Picasso and Warhol.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Philip Jones: Boston, a photography exhibition, shows Oct. 11-Nov. 5.

Miller Block Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4650). www.millerblockgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10:30-5:30 pm. •Joe Kievitt: Recent Drawings features charcoal/graphite compositions. Oct. 11-Nov. 12

Mills Gallery
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-7700). MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Wed. and Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri. and Sat., 12-10 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •What If?, a group exhibition of video, installations, glasswork, paintings and sculpture, shows Oct. 10-Nov. 30.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobiliagallery.com. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Botanical Jewelry, a group exhibition, shows through Nov. 1.

NAO Project Gallery
535 Albany St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-451-2977). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Copley. Wed., Fri. and Sat., 11-4 and by appointment. •Juan Perdiguero shows mixed-media-on-photo-emulsion works. Through Oct. 25.

New Art on Newbury
285 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7727). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Find the Next Francis Bacon for Not a Lot of Bread, a group show of 20 local artists, displays Oct. 10-Nov. 9.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •A Parable in Mark and Ritual: Work by Porfirio DiDonna shows through Oct. 18.

108
108 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-3833). www.gallery108.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Porter. Tue.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm; Sun. by appointment. •Iraqi artist Nedim Kufi shows ceramics, etchings and sculpture. Through Oct. 12. •Melissa Davenport, Carly Weaver and Mary Kenny show paintings and sculpture. Oct. 16-Nov. 2.

Oni Gallery
684 Washington St., 5th floor, Boston (617-542-6983). www.onigallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown. Wed.-Sun., 2-6 pm. •Overhung, a juried exhibition, shows through Oct. 11.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., #304, Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11am-5 pm. •A group show of work featured in the 2003 New American Paintings MFA Annual is on display through Nov. 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outofthebluearts gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •A local-artists showcase is ongoing.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Phyllis Berman: Paintings shows Oct. 9- Nov. 15.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Brother Thomas' ceramics are on display in The Creator of Luminaries. Through Oct. 14. •Mark Davis shows metal work in New Work, and Zevi Blum shows etchings in Artistic Equilibrium. Oct. 18-Nov. 10.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •The gallery has an ongoing exhibition of 19th- and 20th-century American and European paintings.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Photography by Aaron Siskind and Carl Chiarenza displays Oct. 9-Nov. 15.

Rolly-Michaux Galleries
290 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-536-9898). Tue.-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Free. •Robert Sweeney: The Italian Campaign II features recent paintings and pastels of Tuscany. Through Oct. 31.

The Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Words Text Stories, a group show of glass, wood, clay and fiber, shows through Oct. 26.

Soprafina Gallery
99 Beacon St., Somerville (617-498-0999). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sat., 12-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Claudia Goulette shows ink on paper and Robert Markey shows paintings and drawings in Personal-Universal. Oct. 8-Nov. 2

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm; Mon. by appointment. •Kaleidoscope, a group show of paintings by William St. George, Anne Grandin, Sandra Mueller-Dick, Christina Keating and Judy St. Peter, shows through Oct. 31.

Studio Soto
63 Melcher St., Boston (617-426-7686). www.studiosoto.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Fri.-Sat., 2-5 pm and by appointment. •Latin Art Digital Diaspora, a collection of multimedia art curated by Adriana Barrios, shows Oct. 10-Nov. 2.

Upstairs at Johnson's Art Gallery
355 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4065). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-5:30 pm.; Sat., 10 am-1 pm. •Elusive Form features painting and sculpture by Amanda Annis, Virginia Peck, and Guillermo Velasco. Through Oct. 27.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
59 Beacon St., Boston (617-523-0661). www.munroefineart.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Porfirio DiDonna Drawings shows through Oct. 18. •Susan Walt shows drawings. Oct. 21-Nov. 15.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 8:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •David Brega shows contemporary works. Through Nov. 15

Wentworth Gallery
73 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-8770). www.wentworthgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •Charles Fazzino shows 3-D pop art. Through Oct. 10. •The gallery's collection shows through Nov. 1.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. •Mustang: The Lost Tibetan Kingdom shows images by Don Conniwitz. Through Oct. 31. •Jan Staller: A Retrospective shows through Nov. 28.

New England School of Photography
Gallery One, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •Mim Adkins shows photographs in The Evolution of Affection. Through Oct. 17. •Ruth S. Nickse Memorial Photographic Exhibit shows Oct. 20-Dec. 5.

Panopticon Gallery
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). Commuter Rail to Waltham. www.panopt.com. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. •B.A. King shows his work in About Children. Through Oct. 25.

SPECIAL EVENTS

East Boston Open Studios
(617-759-2492.). MBTA: Blue Line to Maverick. www.eastbostonartistsgroup.org. Oct. 11-13, Sat. and Sun, 12-6 pm; Mon., 12-4 pm.•The East Boston Artists Group presents the third annual East Boston Open Studios, a showcase of the work of community artists, with events taking place throughout the neighborhood.

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry or e-mail to books @improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 8

Boston Globe Book Festival
Boston Public Library, Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Sena Jeter Naslund reads from her novel Four Spirits, a story of life in Birmingham, Ala., in the early 1960s.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Nat Hentoff reads from his book The War on the Bill of Rights and the Gathering Resistance, which examines the recent increase of government access to private information.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Neal Stephenson reads from his historical novel Quicksilver: Volume One of the Baroque Cycle, in which three characters encounter legends of the Baroque Period, including Louis XIV, Isaac Newton and Ben Franklin.

Newtonville Books and Brews Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Amir Aczel reads from his book Pendulum: Leon Foucault and the Triumph of Science, the story of the French physicist whose pendulum helped prove that the Earth rotates.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Leonard Shlain discusses his book Sex, Time and Power: How Women's Sexuality Shaped Human Evolution, an exploration of archaic views of women's sexuality.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7:30 pm. Free. Tufts professor Sheldon Krimsky discusses the book he co-wrote with Ralph Nader, Science in the Private Interest: Has the Lure of Profits Corrupted Biomedical Research?

Boston Globe Book Festival
Boston Public Library, Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. National Book Award winner James Carroll reads from his new novel, Secret Father, about three students in Berlin during the summer of 1961.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Henry Petroski reads from his new book Small Things Considered, which examines the design of such everyday objects as duct tape and lightbulbs.

Center for New Words
Reading Room, 186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.com. 7 pm. Free. Claire Robson reads from her memoir, Love in Good Time, about her struggle with gender and identity.

Harvard Book Store
Ames Courtroom in Austin Hall, Harvard Law School, 1515 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Scott Turow reads from his book Ultimate Punishment: A Lawyer's Reflections on Dealing with the Death Penalty, in which the former prosecutor weighs the issues surrounding capital punishment.

McIntyre & Moore Booksellers
255 Elm St., Cambridge (617-629-4840). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. www.mcintyreandmoore.com. 7:30 pm. Free. The New Renaissance literary magazine celebrates its 35th anniversary with readings by local authors. A post-reading reception follows.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Charles Baxter reads from his new novel, Saul and Patsy, the story of an ordinary Midwestern couple and the troubled 16-year-old who is obsessed with them.

Step Up & Read
The Rashi School, 15 Walnut Park, Newton Corner, Newton (617-965-2026). www.thesecondstep.org. 7:30 pm. $20, $50 for dinner with the author at 6:30 pm. Michele Weldon speaks about her autobiography, I Closed My Eyes, which focuses on her tumultuous marriage.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Mark Salzman reads from his book True Notebooks: A Writer's Year at Juvenile Hall, about his experiences teaching a writing class to juvenile offenders.

FRIDAY, OCT. 10

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Jonathan Rosenberg reads from the book he co-wrote, Kennedy, Johnson, and the Quest for Justice: The Civil Rights Tapes, a collection of transcripts from recordings made by the two presidents during the writing of the Civil Rights Act.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Peter Hart discusses his book, The Oh Really? Factor: Unspinning the Fox News Channel's Bill O'Reilly, which challenges many of the opinions O'Reilly expresses in his cable news program.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-552-7145). 7:30 pm. Free. Matthew Battles reads from his book, Library: An Unquiet History, which examines the role of libraries, from ancient times to the current digital age.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Charles Baxter reads from his novel Saul and Patsy; see Oct. 9, Newtonville Books for a description.

SATURDAY, OCT. 11

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Susan Hood discusses her book Royal Roots-Republican Inheritance: The Survival of the Office of Arms, a historical account of the Office of Arms in Ireland.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12

Newtonville Books in the Attic Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Humorist Neal Pollack reads from Never Mind the Pollacks: A Rock and Roll Novel, a story about a rock critic told through a series of interviews with celebrity rockers.

TUESDAY, OCT. 14

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Heather Woodbury discusses her novel What Ever, based on her one-woman performance art show.

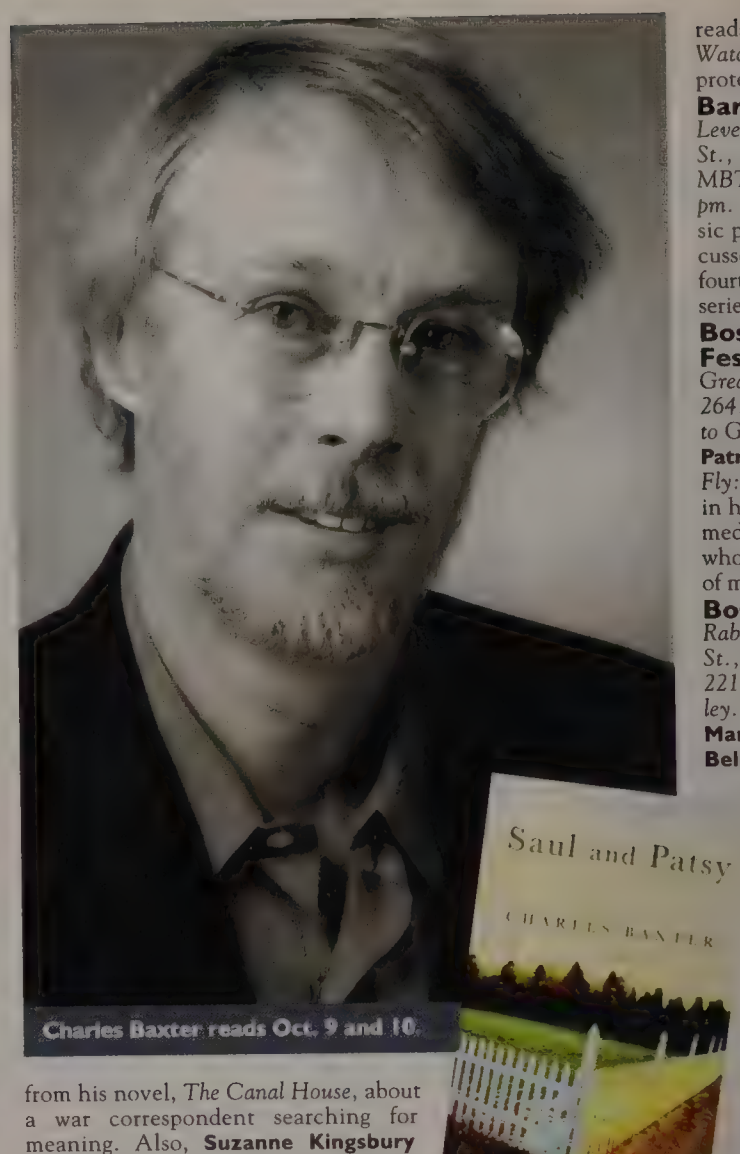
Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Gregory Maguire reads from his new novel, Mirror Mirror, a take-off of the fairytale Snow White, set in renaissance Italy.

Harvard Book Store
Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free with ticket, available at the book store. Hayden Herrera reads from her biography, Arshile Gorky: His Life and Work, about the modernist Armenian painter.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Michael West discusses his book, Immortal Cell: How Stem Cell Biotechnology Can Conquer and Extend Life, One Scientist's Quest to Solve the Mystery of Human Aging, which chronicles the breakthroughs scientists have made in biotechnology using stem cells.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-552-7145). 7:30 pm. Free. Poets Tim Gager, Gary Duehr and Ayelet Amittay read from their poetry.

Newtonville Books and Brews Series
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Mark Lee reads from his novel, The Canal House, about a war correspondent searching for meaning. Also, Suzanne Kingsbury reads from her novel The Gospel According to Gracey, which chronicles a day in the life of a woman formerly married to an Atlanta drug lord.



Charles Baxter reads Oct. 9 and 10.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Mary Pipher reads from her new book, Letters to a Young Therapist, in which she shares her advice from 30 years in the profession.

Cambridge Friends Meetinghouse
5 Longfellow Park., Cambridge (617-661-6130). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. $10-$50. Maxine Hong Kingston reads from her memoir, The Fifth Book of Peace, which relates stories as wide-ranging as losing one of her manuscripts in a wildfire and forming a writers' group with Vietnam-era veterans.

Harvard Book Store
Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Twyla Tharp reads from her book The Creative Habit: Learn It and Use It for Life, which offers tips on how to harness one's creativity.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Samuel Shem reads from his novel The House of God, about six medical interns' struggles to become doctors.

Newton Community Service Center
492 Waltham St., West Newton (617-868-7684). 7 pm. $10 with preregistration. Linda Mason discusses her book The Working Mother's Guide to Life: Strategies, Secrets & Solutions, which offers tips on how to balance work and parenting.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-552-7145). 7:30 pm. Free. Howard Blue discusses his book Words at War: World War II Era Radio Drama and the Postwar Broadcasting Industry Blacklist, about the role that radio played during World War II and the blacklisting that occurred after the war.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16

Arlington Center for the Arts
41 Foster St., Arlington (781-648-6220). www.acarts.org. 7:30 pm. Emily Franklin reads from her debut novel, Liner Notes. Also, Rachel Solar-Tuttle reads from her novel, Number 6 Fumbles, and the book she co-wrote, Table Talk: The Savvy Girl's Alternative to Networking. Also, Pamela Powell reads from her book, The Turtl Watchers, in which three siste protect turtle eggs from poachers

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beaco St., Boston (617-267-8484 MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. pm. Free. Local author and forer sic psychologist Keith Ablow di cusses his novel Psychopath, th fourth book in his Frank Cleveng series.

Boston Globe Book Festival
Great Hall, Faneuil Hall (617-92 2641). MBTA: Blue or Green Li to Government Center. 6 pm. Fre Patricia Cornwell reads from Blo Fly: A Scarpetta Novel, the late in her series of mysteries featuri medical examiner Kay Scarpett who this time investigates a strin of murders in Florida.

Boston Public Library
Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylst St., Boston (617-536-5400, e 2212). MBTA: Green Line to Co ley. 6 pm. Free. James Wood a Martin Amis speak about Sa Bellow's book The Adventures Augie March. The event ce brates the book's 50th niversary as well as B low's induction into t Library of America.

Center for New Words
Simmons College, 300 T Fenway., 3rd floor, Bos (617-876-5310). www.c terfornewwords.org. MBT E Green Line to Museum. 7 Free. Maxine Hong Kingst reads from her new book, Fifth Book of Peace. See C 15, Cambridgeside Frie Meetinghouse for a descripti

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-200 www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line Harvard. 7 pm. Free. W.R. Eubanks discusses memoir Ever Is a Long Time: A Journey Into Mi sippi's Dark Past, about his experiences growing u Mississippi during the Civil Rights era.

Newtonville Books and Brews Seri
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). w newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Lin Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Stephen Good reads from his novel Breaking Her Fall, a s about a divorced father dealing with paren and a troublesome affair. Carlo Rotella r from his collection of essays, Cut Time: An I cation at the Fights, about lessons learned in boxing ring.

Woodberry Poetry Room
Lamont Library, Level 5, Harvard University, C bridge (617-495-2454). hcl.harvard.edu/hough departments/poetry.html. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 5:30 pm. Free. Tom Sleigh reads from his collection of poetry, Far Side of the Earth, w deals with the theme of grief.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1 www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Har 3 pm. Free. Linguist John McWhorter reads his book, Doing Our Own Thing: The Degrad of Language and Music and Why We Should Care, a look at how English is being replac "street English."

Literary Lights for Children
Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Boston (617-536-3886). www.literaryligl children.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlingt pm. $25-$50. Children's books authors Av drea Davis Pinkney, Jon Scieszka and Jean head George are acknowledged during an a ceremony. Book signings follow with tea a freshments.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19

Jamaicaway Books
676 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-983-3 www.jamaicawaybooks.com. Bus #39. 3pm. Restaurant critic Mark Zanger reads fro book The American History Cookbook, a l American cooking from the pilgrims' time present.

education

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Education, or e-mail information to education@improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

THURSDAY, OCT. 9

Light and Black Comedy in Jewish-American Fiction
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7-8:30 pm. $5. Reviewing the work of such writers as Saul Bellow, I.B. Singer, Philip Roth, and Bernard Malamud, professor Arthur Weitzman discusses how novels and short stories bring to life such Jewish figures as the schlemiel, the toomler (stand-up comic), the overbearing mom, the kibbitzer and the luftmensch (penniless dreamer), among others.

New England Professional Organizers' Organizing U
Renaissance Bedford Hotel, 44 Middlesex Turnpike, Bedford (617-233-7166).www.nepo-organizers.com. 5:30-9:30 pm. $45. Learn how to get organized at home and at work. Professional organizers share tricks of the trade and offer advice on how to streamline your space, reduce your stress and save time.

Rebuilding Iraq
Lesley University, Alumni Hall, 29 Everett St., Cambridge (617-349-8525). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. www.lesley.edu/dir.html. 4 pm. Free. Aaron Williams of RTI International, the organization recently selected by the U.S. Agency for International Development to implement a local governance program throughout Iraq, speaks about reconstruction efforts.

Up Close and Personal: Embedded Reporter Gets Inside the War in Iraq
Northeastern University, Egan Center/Raytheon Amphitheater, 120 Forsyth St., Boston (617-373-5800). www.fordhallforum.neu.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Northeastern or Orange Line to Ruggles. 6:30 pm. Free. Brian MacQuarrie, a Boston Globe reporter who traveled to Iraq last March, discusses the question, "Can reporters enter a story in such a direct manner and still retain their objectivity?"

SATURDAY, OCT. 11

Caring for Your Treasured Books
New England Historical Geneaological Society, 99 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5740). www.newenglandancestors.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 10 am. Free. Conservation experts teach you how to preserve books and photo albums.

SUNDAY, OCT. 12

Piercing the Veil
Historic Forest Hills Cemetery, Jamaica Plain (617-542-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Historian Dee Morris discusses the world of the Victorian spiritualists during this two-mile walking tour of their burial sites.

Sitting Pretty: Anatomy of a Classic 18th-Century American Chair
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1-4 pm. Free. Steve Brown of the North Bennet Street School guides visitors through the making of an 18th-century chair, revealing the story behind pieces found in the MFA collection.

TUESDAY, OCT. 14

A Conversation with Richard Gephardt
John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1643). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 10am. Free. U.S. Representative Richard Gephardt, presidential candidate in 2004, discusses his positions on a range of domestic and foreign-policy issues facing the nation.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 15

Degas's Duchess: Three Views
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Art Museum. 11 am. $13. The MFA has just acquired Degas' 1876 masterpiece, The Duchess di Montejasi with Her Daughters, Elena and Camilla. Photographer Nicholas Nixon, whose own collection includes images of family members, and novelist Mary Gordon, whose books focus on family relationships, share their responses to this personal work, along with curator George Shackelford, who will place the painting in the context of Degas' overall career.

An Evening with James Hillman
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7-9:30 pm. $15. Jungian psychologist James Hillman discusses archetypal psychology.

Lowest Common Denominator: A Lecture by Frank Kozik
Massachusetts College of Art, 620 Huntington Ave., Boston (781-643-6990). http://boston.gag.org/events. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. 7-9 pm. $10. Rock poster artist Frank Kozik lectures on poster design, his influences, his record label and his past design work for such clients as Altoids, Slim Jim, Nike, MTV and the Hell's Angels.

Rights & Liberties in the Age of Biotechnology
Cambridge Forum, The First Parish, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-495-2727). www.cambridgeforum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. Free. Paul Billings, chair of the Council for Responsible Genetics, discusses growing concerns about privacy for people undergoing genetic screening for potential diseases.

THURSDAY, OCT. 16

The Queen of Sheba: Behind the Myth
Boston University School of Management, 595 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-1754). MBTA: B Green Line to Blandford. 6 pm. Free. Professor Carole Fontaine of Andover Newton Theological School discusses her new documentary on the Queen of Sheba and explores recent Hollywood portrayals of the queen.

FRIDAY, OCT. 17

What Animals Think: Dolittle's Dream and Darwin's Theory
Harvard Museum of Natural History, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Many animals are capable of actions beyond human reach, including echolocation, ultraviolet vision and flight. Harvard psychology professor Marc Hauser explores the evolution of animals' capacities for number sense, self-awareness and cooperative behavior.

SUNDAY, OCT. 19

Digging into the Back Bay: Technology and Transformation
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0419). MBTA: Green Line to Science. 2 pm. Free. Construction companies are digging out Trinity Church's dirt-floored undercroft, stabilizing its tower and drilling cutting-edge geothermal wells—all on highly unstable landfill. How does a cultural icon balance heritage and growth? Find out at this panel discussion.

MONDAY, OCT. 20

Graduate School Admissions 101
Boston Kaplan Center, One Congress St., Boston (617-591-1400, ext. 5). MBTA: Blue Line to State. 7 pm. $10. Learn to navigate the admissions processes for graduate, business, law and medical schools at this event sponsored by the Boston Young Professionals Association. Kaplan experts discuss such topics as finding and researching schools, how schools evaluate applicants and writing personal statements.

Remembering the Ladies
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston, Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Meredith Bergmann, designer and sculptor of the new Boston Women's Memorial; Henry Louis Gates Jr., director of the W.E.B DuBois Institute for Afro-American Research; and historian Andrea Moore Kerr discuss the new memorial honoring Abigail Adams, Lucy Stone and Phillis Wheatley that will soon be unveiled on Commonwealth Avenue.

TUESDAY, OCT. 21

A People Adrift: The Crisis of the Roman Catholic Church in America
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston, Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Peter Steinfels, former senior religion correspondent for The New York Times, asserts that the Roman Catholic church must embrace profound transformation or face irreversible decline. He examines the church's responses to changing understandings of sexuality, women's roles and the priesthood, as well as its struggles to renew worship and religious education.

Ongoing

Boston Poetry Slam (Wednesdays)
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-[illegible]-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $3. Every Wednesday night, the Cantab Lounge hosts a poetry slam downstairs in the Third Rail.

Harvard Square Coop (Sundays)
[illegible]0 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). [illegible]TA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Hear what [illegible]er Boston-area poets are doing; every Sunday the [illegible]vard Coop hosts a poetry exchange on Level Two.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway (Tuesdays)
[illegible] Elm Street, Somerville (617-591-1616). www.[illegible]mytingle.com. $10. 8 pm. Eight local poets per[illegible]m their own work in a two-hour theatrical show [illegible]ry third Tuesday of the month. Directed by [illegible]hael Brown.

Lizard Lounge Poetry Jam (Sundays)
[illegible]7 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.[illegible]tryjam.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Poetry [illegible], 7 pm. $5. The Jeff Robinson Trio plays back[illegible]nd tunes for the featured poet of the week.

O'Brien's Pub (Mondays)
[illegible]arvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B [illegible]en Line to Harvard Ave. 9 pm. O'Brien's presents [illegible] ix of rock and spoken word one Monday a [illegible]th. The performers are all predetermined.

Out of the Blue Poetry (Saturdays)
[illegible] of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge [illegible]7-354-5287). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 [illegible] $3. Every Saturday is poetry night—the [illegible]ning is titled Open Bark—and a spoken-word [illegible]nt takes place on the fourth Saturday of each [illegible]th.

Stone Soup Poetry Night (Mondays)
[illegible]of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge [illegible]-227-0845). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 [illegible] $4. Since 1971, the Stone Soup Poets have [illegible] weekly readings.

Tapestry of Voices (Second Thursday)
[illegible]ers Boston, 10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-[illegible]). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown [illegible]sing. 6:30 pm. Free. The second Thursday of [illegible] month offers a selection of featured poets and [illegible]pportunity for others to take the open mike.

Tapestry of Voices
Forsyth Chapel, Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.forest[illegible]illstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 [illegible]m. $4. In a tribute to E.E. Cummings, local poets Charles Coe, John Hildebidle, Robert K. Johnson [illegible]nd John Sturm read from his work as well as from [illegible]heir own. A walk to the poet's burial site follows.

MONDAY, OCT. 20

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
[illegible]6 Brattle House, Cambridge (617-547-6789, ext. [illegible]). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 [illegible]m. $3. Poets David Daniel and Peter Shippy read [illegible]heir work.

Harvard Coop
[illegible]400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). [illegible]ww.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Har[illegible]rd. 7 pm. Free. Ashmita Khasnabish discusses her [illegible]ook Jouissance as Ananda: Indian Philosophy, Femi[illegible]st Theory, and Literature.

TUESDAY, OCT. 21

Barnes and Noble at BU
[illegible]evel 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-[illegible]57-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. [illegible]ee. Amir Aczel discusses his book Pendulum: Leon [illegible]ducault and the Triumph of Science. See Oct. 8, New[illegible]nville Books, for a description.

Brookline Booksmith
[illegible]9 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.[illegible]ooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to [illegible]oolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Stewart O'Nan reads [illegible]om his novel The Night Country, about a car wreck [illegible]d the effect it has on a community.

Harvard Book Store
[illegible]56 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). [illegible]BTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Sherwin [illegible]uland reads from his book The Doctor's Plague: [illegible]erms, Childbed Fever and the Strange Story of Ignac [illegible]mmelweis, which chronicles the achievements of [illegible]e Austrian doctor who discovered the origin of [illegible]ildbed fever.

Harvard Coop
[illegible]00 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.[illegible]store.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 [illegible]. Free. Susan Neisuler discusses her book, Justice at [illegible] City Gate: Social Policy, Social Services, and the Law, [illegible]ich is based on her experiences interacting with the [illegible]partment of Social Services as a lawyer.

gay & lesbian

If you want to be listed
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest T-stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
214 Pl Alley, Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center. Nightly, 5 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Boston's new leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as regular theme nights.

Aria (Wednesdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park Street. DJ John Morris spins progressive house for Lust, the Wednesday night gay and lesbian dance party. 10 pm, $8 for 19-20; $5 for 21+.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. For 20 years, these folks have cranked out Sunday-night parties for the boys of Boston. Enjoy three separate dance floors plus drag acts. DJ Darrin Friedman spins house. 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. The glamorous Mizery hosts a drag show, and DJ Jay Ine spins progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of every month. 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. On Saturdays, Buzz's two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—pool room and lounge keep the men busy until 2 am. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

CityGirl Caffé (Daily)
204 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-864-2809). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. This small (five tables) laid-back café in Inman Square, lesbian owned and operated, draws a mixed gay/hetero crowd for lounging and sandwiches. Brunch is served every weekend.

Club Café and Moonshine Bar (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat., 2 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This South End spot draws a dressy bunch for dining and unobtrusive music in the front room or video entertainment in the back at Moonshine. •On Wednesdays, join VJ Cliff Cunningham. •On Thursdays and Fridays,VJ Tom Yaz hosts a nonstop show featuring new and classic music videos. •On Saturdays, it's Boys' Night Out with VJ Cliff Cunningham. No cover, 21+.

Dedo's Lounge & Bistro (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. Tuesday nights feature show tunes and Sunday is disco night. No cover, 21+.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). Mon.-Fri., 3 pm-2 am; Sat., 1 pm-2 am; Sun., 12 pm-2 am. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. This quiet, friendly neighborhood bar starts hopping as it gets closer to 2 am.

Fritz Lounge (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 12 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 10:30 am-2 am. TV sets show satellite sports broadcasts, and Fritz is home base to a softball league. No cover, 21+. Brunch is served until 3:30 pm on weekends.

Here at 711 Boylston (Tuesdays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5502)). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Boston's Tuesday night gay dance party features disco and pop music, guest DJs and weekly contests. 9 pm-2 am, $4-$7, 21+.

Hollywood at the Ekco Lounge (Saturdays)
41 Essex St., Boston (617-338-8283). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown. 10 pm-2 am. This lesbian bar has two floors with go-go girls and live music all night. $8, 21+.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Patrons relax with a friendly crowd and mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Tue., Thu.: Avalon bartender Miss Kris performs. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: Drag-on Showgirl Showcase produced by Diamond Dunhill. 10 pm, $5. •Mon.: Cabaret drag show. 10 pm, $5 weekdays; $8 weekends, 21+. 10 pm, $5-$8.

Machine (Tuesdays, Thursdays-Saturdays)
1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition with PJ McWhiskers. •Fri.: Best Night Out with NYC DJ/producer Darrin Friedman spinning deep house. 10 pm-2 am, $6, 21+. •Sat.: Machine with DJ Brad Gwynn playing house music. 10 pm-2 am, $7, 21+. •Tue.: Service Industry Night with DJ Afrodite.

ManRay (Wednesdays-Saturdays)
21 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-864-0400). www.manrayclub.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Wed., 9 pm-1 am; Thu. and Fri., 9 pm-2 am; Sat.,10 pm-2 am. Catering to a young, alternative clientele, ManRay features two dance floors. •Wed.: Crypt features DJ Chris Ewen in the cage and DJ Mothra in the front room. 9 pm-1 am, 18+. •Thu.: Campus is a testosterone night with DJ Brad Gwynn and DJ Chris Ewen. $12, 19+; $8, 21+. •Fri.: Rotating themes include Sin, Hell, Fantasy Factory, Ooze and scheduled special events. •Sat.: New Wave Dance Party with DJ Chris Ewen and Disco Inferno with DJ Gary Conzo. $12, 19+; $8, 21+.

Midway Cafe (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green Street. 9 pm-2 am. On Thursday nights, the Midway hosts Kristen Porter's Dyke Night, with rotating DJs, pool and dancing. $5, 21+.

Milky Way Lounge (Sundays)
401 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). www. milkywayjp.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Gay men and women, transgenders and their allies can start the night early at Candyland; live entertainment includes Drag Bingo, spoken-word events and jazz. A dance party hosted by resident DJ Jamila caps off the evening. 7:30 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Night Games (Fridays)
Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000). www.circuitgirl.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square. Resident DJ Kris Kono pumps the dance tunes at Circuit Girl's Anything Goes night. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-494-0700). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features top-40 tunes Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday. No cover, 21+.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billing itself as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is obligatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Thu.: Fire and Ice with DJ Dan Leavey. •Fri.: Leather Cruise with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Sun.: Mandance with house music. •Mon.: Pool tournament and pizza. •Tue: DJ Scott Thinsdale.

Vapor (Tuesdays-Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •Tue.: Lounge with DJ Michael. 19+, no cover. •Wed.: Latino night with DJ Adilson and host Evian Waters. 19+. •Thu.: The Music Factory with DJ KC spinning deep house and DJ Ron Stele spinning R&B, hip-hop, reggae and funk. $5, 21+. •Fri.: Inner Circle. $8, 19+. •Sat.: Evolution with DJ Jay Ine. •Sun.: T-Dance party with DJs Danae and Michael Sheehan. 21+.

Books

Calamus Bookstore
92B South St., Boston (617-338-1931). www.calamusbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-7 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Boston's bookstore for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgendered people.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Fri., 12-8 pm; Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The New Words Live series features an array of feminist and lesbian author events.

We Think the World of You Bookstore
540 Tremont St., Boston (617-574-5000). www.wethinktheworldofyou.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-7 pm; Sat., 10 am-6:30 pm; Sun., 11:30-5:30 pm. Opened in 1994, this community-centered gay and lesbian bookstore stocks literature, art books, DVDs and videos.

Shows & Events

The Credeaux Canvas
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.bcaonline.org. Through Oct. 25. Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. $25, $20 seniors and students. The Zeitgeist Stage Company's production of Keith Bunin's The Credeaux Canvas follows three aspiring New York artists ensnared in a love triangle.

The Gulls
Machine, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Through Nov. 8. Fri. and Sat. 8 pm. $25. Ryan Landry's play The Gulls, loosely based on Hitchcock's The Birds, is the story of rebellious seagulls exacting revenge on Provincetown developers.

Lambda Literary Festival
Multiple sites in Provincetown (202-682-0952). www.lambdalit.org. Oct. 10-12. $35-$125. The Lambda Literary Foundation's fifth annual festival honors gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender authors, poets and playwrights with three days of events, panels and workshops. Participants include Toni Amato, Anthony Bidulka, Lucy Jane Bledsoe, Nancy Boutilier, Mark Merlis and others.

Ongoing

Atención Latina Lesbians
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (800-834-3242). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. FCH has collaborated with the Elizabeth Stone House to provide the safe, confidential space to discuss healthy relationships, domestic violence and other issues.

BAGLY
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313) www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wednesdays, 6-9 pm. The Boston Alliance for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgendered and Questioning Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-825-1552). 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesdays.

Bi-Curious Men's Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6032). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 7 pm. This group meets the second Tuesday of every month for a discussion with bisexual men.

Bi Rap
The Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). Tuesdays, first and third week of the month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group is open to all bisexual, bi-friendly and questioning women.

Boston Bay Blades
www.bayblades.org/boston. All are welcome to this competitive, recreational group of rowers and scullers.

Boston Boasts Squash
(617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue. pm; Sat. 10 am-12 pm, 9-10 am beginners. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay and Lesbian Contra Dancers
1st Church of Jamaica Plain, Jamaica Plain (617-2216). 7:30-11 pm. Square dancing and English country dancing lessons are available for lesbians, gays, bisexuals and their friends, $8.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-424-8990). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year.

Boston GLASS Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm; 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for

A great Mexican taqueria

BOCA GRANDE

The Best Burrito in Boston

BEST OF BOSTON

BURRITOS
TACOS
ENCHILADAS
QUESADILLAS

3 Locations:
1728 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 617.354.7400
149 First St., Cambridge, 617.354.5550
1294 Beacon St., Brookline, 617.739.3900

The play The Credeaux Canvas is at the Boston Center for the Arts.

sbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning ung people, ages 13-25.

oston Ironsides Rugby Football Club oakley Field, South Boston (617-524-5814). BTA: Red Line to JFK. Mon. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 n. Rugby players of any level, age, race and orientation are welcome to play.

oston Lesbian Avengers
ston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston. MBTA: Green ne to Hynes/ICA. www.lesbianavengers. org. Thu., 8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly direct-action litical group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

oston Uncommons
ntral Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jaica Plain. www.lcfd.org/bu. Orange Line to Green Wednesdays, 7 pm A gay and lesbian square-ncing group.

ambridge/Boston Volleyball
17-633-2180). www.gayvolleyball.net. This drop-play-when-you-can league costs $6 per session.

hiltern Mountain Club 88-831-3100). www.chiltern.org. A 1,400-mber gay club with outdoor activities.

oming Out as Bisexual exual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston 7-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. First Wednesday and third Thursday of every month. 7-8:45 pm. An informal support group for bisexual individuals.

Coming Out Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. A short-term group for men and women to discuss issues related to coming out.

Dagger
Cambridge Multicultural Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-542-4214). The Theater Offensive's guerrilla theater group, Dagger, gathers on Wednesdays from 6:30-9:30 pm to create performances representing women's perspectives.

East Coast Wrestling Club
(401-467-6737 or 617-937-5858, ext. 6). www.pridesportsboston.com. This club for gay male wrestlers has more than 160 members.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Explore Gender in a Safe Place
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. An ongoing support group for people born into female bodies or who have grown up being viewed as biologically female.

FLAG Flag Football
www.flagflagfootball.com. Saturday mornings. Join Boston's GLBT Flag Football League for a casual spring season, followed by a formal fall season. All are welcome, regardless of skill level.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). Tue., Wed., Sat. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay and Lesbian Helpline
(617-267-9001 or 888-340-4528). Mon.-Fri., 6-11 pm; Sat. and Sun., 5-10 pm. This toll-free hotline is confidential and provides support for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning callers.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham. (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. First and third Tuesdays, 8-10 pm. $2. This group is for gay/bisexual fathers and men in child-nurturing roles, and their partners.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games, singles mixers and a date-matching system.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgendered Professionals Building Community
(617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business-networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals.

Gaymes Group
(508-339-4250). Gaymes is a social group for gay men and lesbians. Members get together on a regular basis to play board, card and parlor games.

Gender Questioning Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Biological males meet on Monday evenings. The groups are moderated by psychologist Randi Kaufman.

Girlz 2 Girlz
(617-482-1078). This mentoring program for girls aged 13-19 who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered or questioning meets the second and fourth Friday of each month, 6-8 pm. Contact Jayms Battaglia.

GLBT Seniors
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6272). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mondays. Support group for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered seniors ages 60 and over.

Greater Boston Business Council
PO Box 1059, Boston (617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals. The group meets on a monthly basis.

HIV Counseling and Testing
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Anonymous HIV testing and pre- and post-test counseling.

Liquid Assets Swimming
(617-937-5858, #8). Tue. and Thu. evenings and Sun. mornings. This gay and lesbian swim team is open to people of all ages and swimming abilities.

Meow Boston
groups.yahoo.com/group/Meow_Boston. This social group caters to feminine bisexual women and lesbians in the Boston community.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Peer Listening Line
(800-399-7337). Trained GLBT volunteers provides confidential information, referrals and support.

Project 10 East
402A Highland Ave., Somerville (617-864-4528). GLBT youth and their straight allies meet regularly to organize projects, which include making communities safe.

Somos Latin
somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com. The only social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the Boston area. Viernes Sociales take place every month. Email for more information.

Support Group for HIV-Negative Gay and Bisexual Men
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-967-6231). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. First three Tuesdays of each month. Discuss new safe-sex practices, strategies for managing risk and communicating with sexual partners.

Swingtime Boston
Brookline Academy of Dance, 185 Corey Rd., Brookline (617-364-7207). MBTA: C or B Green Line to Washington Street. First Saturday of each month. 8-9 pm, lesson; 9-11:30 pm, dancing. $8. Swing, Latin and ballroom dancing classes are offered for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered community.

860 Commonwealth Ave • Boston • 617.731.6100
For other locations and phone numbers visit www.skimarket.com
SkiMarket
LIFT TICKETS ONLY $30
Killington VERMONT endless adventures
Mount Snow VERMONT·USA
ATTITASH BEAR PEAK NEW HAMPSHIRE
Sunday River
sugarloaf/usa
$30 Lift Ticket Vouchers.
Limit 2 per customer. While supplies last.
32nd ANNUAL COLUMBUS DAY SALE
Everything's on sale • Best prices of the year
October 9-13 ONLY

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Be Here Now with Bhagavan Das
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes Convention Center. Oct. 10, 8 pm. $20. At this full moon kirtan, Yogi Bhagavan Das offers his perspective on blending Eastern consciousness with the Western lifestyle.

Charles River Shiatsu Open House
Charles River School of Shiatsu,180 Mass Ave., Arlington (781-643-1545). www.charlesrivershiatsu.com. Oct. 11, 3-5 pm. Free. Stop by to observe shiatsu and martial arts demonstrations and eat sushi.

O2 Yoga Open House
O2 Yoga Studio, 288 Highland, Somerville (617-354-6169). www.o2yoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Oct. 18, 8 am-8 pm. Free. O2 Yoga offers a day of free classes from beginning to advanced levels. A potluck dinner is served at 6:30 pm.

Tibetan Music Concert with Penpa Tsering
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101 or 978-897-7627). www.tsboston.org. Oct. 10, 8 pm. $12. Penpa Tsering performs traditional sacred songs, dances and chants on a variety of string and wind instruments and tells stories about Tibetan culture.

Lectures

The Soul in Our Culture: An Evening with James Hillman
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St. (617-730-2700 x107). www.brooklineadulted.org. Oct. 15, 7-9:30 pm. $15. Psychologist James Hillman, author of The Soul's Code and Re-Visioning Psychology, discusses thinking beyond traditional notions of therapy and cure, and the place of the soul in culture.

Workshops

Anxiety and Relaxation: An Introduction to Integrated Awareness
Cambridge Health Associates, 335 Broadway, Cambridge (617-661-3414). www.mfourman.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 17, 7-9 pm. $5. Explore the relationship between your mind, body and emotions to learn how to deal with personal issues.

The Art of Being Human
Shambhala Meditation Center, 646 Brookline Ave., Brookline (617-734-1498). www.primordialdot.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Oct. 17-19, 19.5 hours. $120. This weekend of Shambhala training introduces participants to the practice of sitting meditation and the basic principles of the Shambhala path of warriorship. The program includes meditation instruction, lecture, discussion and individual interviews with instructors.

Body Stories: Body Systems and Yoga
Cambridge Masonic Hall, 1950 Massachusetts Ave., Cambridge (617-523-7138). www.yogastudio.org. Oct. 11, 1-5 pm and Oct. 12, 11 am-4 pm. $150. This two-day workshop focuses on the skeletal system as a basis for efficiency in yoga postures. Lectures and movement explorations focus on how the brain and nervous system interact while practicing yoga.

Buddhist Meditation Class
All Saints Church, 1773 Beacon St., Brookline (508-999-6723). www.meditationinnewengland.org. Oct. 15, 7-8:30 pm. $10 suggested donation. American Buddhist nun Gen Kelsang Chöma speaks about finding contentment and how ancient Buddhist wisdom can help one realize their full potential. The lecture is followed by guided meditation and a question-and-answer session.

Dreams and Dreaming Seminar
The C.G Jung Institute, 116 St. Botolph St., Boston. (617-267-5984). www.cgjungboston.com. Oct. 16, 7-9 pm. $150. This seminar focuses on the Jungian view of dreams as bridges to consciousness and windows on the psyche. Participants learn several models of dream interpretation and study the many-layered meanings of dreams.

Kripalu DansKinetics
CasaNia Studio, 46 Porter Rd., Cambridge (617-876-9211). www.casania.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Oct. 17, 6-7:30 pm. $10. This class teaches Kripalu DansKinetics, a blend of dance and yoga.

Partner Yoga
Karma Yoga Studio, 1132 Mass Ave, Cambridge (617-547-9642). http://karmayogastudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Square. Oct. 18, 5:30-7 pm. $20. Learn yoga poses and stretches to perform with a partner. All levels welcome.

Reiki Energy Healing Clinic
Arlington Reiki Associates, 366 Mass Ave #304, Arlington (781-648-9334). www.arlingtonreiki.com. Oct. 24, 6:30-9:30 pm. $10. Experience a Reiki energy healing treatment.

The Secret Art of Seamm Jasani
Borders at the Atrium Mall, 300 Boylston St. (Route 9) Chestnut Hill (617-480-8237). www.boabom.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill. Oct. 11, 3pm. Free. Benjamin Kelley gives a demonstration of Seamm Jasani, an ancient Tibetan system of relaxation and self-healing that is similar to tai chi and yoga.

Tibetan Dance and Chant Workshop
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101 or 978-897-7627). www.tsboston.org. Oct. 11, 12-4pm. $40. Penpa Tsering teaches Tibetan dances based on yoga poses, as well as the polyphonic throat-singing technique used by the Tibetan monks of Gyuto.

Ongoing

Lunch Time Yoga on Beacon Hill
The Paulist Center, 5 Park St., Boston (617-970-5320). www.yogame.com. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park St. Tues. and Wed., 1-1:45 pm. $10. All levels are welcome at these short yoga classes held near Boston Common.

Personal Protection for Working Professionals
Brookline Community Center for the Arts, 14 Green St., Brookline (617-738-2800 or 781-405-1248). www.bccaonline.com or www.busseystyle.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Fri., 3-4:30 pm. This personal protection class teaches the Bussey style of self-defense for adults.

Yoga for Fitness of Body, Mind & Spirit
YWCA, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (781-648-0722). www.innerfocusyoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue., 7:30-8:45 pm. Suggested donation: $10. All levels welcome. Kripalu-certified yoga instructor Dee Greenberg teaches participants to experience the breath as the body's link with the mind.

Yoga/South End
South End House, 48 Rutland St., Boston (617- 522-7199). www.angelfire.com/ma/patrice. MBTA: Orange line to Mass Ave or Back Bay. Mon. and Tues., 7 pm. $15-$17. These mixed-level yoga classes are taught by certified Kripalu yoga instructor Patrice Flesch. Drop-ins and beginners welcome.

Penpa Tsering plays Tibetan music Oct. 10.

sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Sports. Or e-mail information to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, dates and times, and a brief description of the league or event. Deadline is four weeks before publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Home Games

New England Patriots
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 800-543-1776
Oct. 12, 1 pm vs. New York Giants

New England Revolution
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 877-438-7387
Oct. 11, 4 pm vs. DC United

New England Storm Women's Professional Football
•Hormel Stadium, Medford.
Tickets: 781-395-8326
Oct. 11, 7 pm vs. Dayton Rebellion

Events

Cape Cod Bike Trip
Group meets in Falmouth (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Oct. 17-19. $172 members, $202 nonmembers. The Boston Ski and Sports Club takes a weekend bike trip to the Cape and the Vineyard. The trip includes two nights in the Falmouth Inn, two breakfasts, round-trip ferry and bike transfer, and an escorted ride on Martha's Vineyard on Saturday. Bike rentals are available on the island. Helmet required.

To Play

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL

BSSC Basketball
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Coed year-round basketball. All levels. Leagues exist in Watertown, Brookline and Dedham. Teams and individuals welcome.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333) www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. The club offers amateur Olympic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

FENCING

Boston Fencing Club
110-112 Clematis Ave., Waltham. Adult classes evenings and Saturdays (781-891-0119). www.bostonfencingclub.org. Learn the basics of fencing.

FLOOR HOCKEY

BSSC Coed Floor Hockey
Leagues are held in Newton and Brighton (617-789-4070, ext. 238). www.bssc.com. All levels, individuals and teams are welcome.

FOOTBALL

BSSC Coed Indoor Flag or Touch Football
Games are played in Brighton. (617-789-4070, ext. 242). Sign up individually or with a group of friends.

KICKBALL

BSSC Kickball
Games are played Tuesdays in Brighton. (617-789-4070). Relive your grade-school glory days by playing kickball. Teams and individuals welcome.

RUGBY

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.bostonirishwolfhounds.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New and experienced players are welcome.

The Patriots take on the Giants Oct. 12.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looki for players for its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Clu
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club see new players for games in Brookline and Cambridg

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mys rugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club w comes both new and experienced players who wa to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Saturdays. New a experienced players are welcome to tape up th ears and jump in the scrum.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bos hash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. y round. If you enjoy running, drinking and sing bawdy songs, then consider joining these self-p claimed "serious drinkers with a running problen

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. We runs on Friday nights, 6 pm.

Khoury's Thursday Four-Mile Fun R
Khoury's Pub, 118 Broadway, East Somerville (7 275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Thur nights, 7 pm.

SAILING

Community Boating
21 David Mugar Way, Boston (617-523-10 www.community-boating.org. Mon.-Fri., 1 sunset; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-sunset. Membership price v Beginners and experienced sailors alike are welc to come to the Esplanade and sail boats from 1 feet long, as well as go windsurfing and kayaking.

SKATING

Bay State Skating School
Various area MDC rinks (781-890-8480). baystateskatingschool.org. $108.50 for a seven- class. Check Web site for schedules. Skating class adults and children teach the fundamentals either figure skates or hockey skates.

SOCCER

BSSC Indoor and Outdoor Socce
(617-789-4070). Teams forming now. Games p in Charlestown, Cambridge, Brighton, Readin Canton. Individuals and teams are welcome.

VOLLEYBALL

BSSC Volleyball League
Boston Ski & Sports Club (617-789-4070 222). Sun.-Thu. Coed teams forming in bridge, Watertown, Brookline and Newton. and individuals are welcome to set and spik way to glory.

WRESTLING

Boston Union Wrestling Club
(617-868-8379). bostonwrestling@yahoo.com ateur folk-style wrestling group open to all sk els. Weekly practices held year-round.

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) o Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to hildren@improper.com. Include address, phone umber, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a rief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks rior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over he telephone.

Things to See

Kids Variety Show
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline 617-738-6533). www.coolidge.kidsshow.info. MBTA: Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Sat., 10:30 am. $2. Oct. 18: Judith Black tells stories.

The Knight Who Was Afraid f the Dark rlington Street Church, 351 Boylston St., Boston 617-842-7927). www.pocketfulloftales.com. MBTA: reen Line to Arlington. Sat., 11 am. Through Oct. 5. $8, $5 children. Watch this knight slay dragons nd catch spiders (and keep his real fear a secret).

uppet Showplace Theatre
2 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.pup-tshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brook-he Village. $8.50. Reservations recommended. Oct. 8 and 9, 10:30 am. Ages 3-6. Sparky Davis ares her smart and sassy tales. •Oct. 15 and 16, 0:30 am. Ages 3-6. Sarah Lamstein performs unny Bone Tales. •Oct. 11 and 12, 1 and 3 pm. ges 4-9. The Spring Valley Puppet Theatre per-rms Puss in Boots.

eading Hour
1 South St., Roslindale (617-325-1994). Tue., 4 n. Free. Ages 5 and under. Watch children's book ustrators read and doodle.

ngling Bros. and arnum & Bailey Circus ie Fleet Center, Boston (617-931-2000). w.fleetcenter.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line North Station. Oct. 10-19. $10-$60. Witness the eatest Show on Earth, with ringmaster Kevin nardos, Sara the Tiger Whisperer, the Prince of ughter and the Empress of Equilibrium.

ie Star Keeper
gis College, 235 Wellesley St., Weston (781-768-70). www.regiscollege.edu. Oct. 12, 2 pm. $15. lebrate National Children's Day at Regis College, ere the Theatre de l'Ceil performs a tale about a ng wormlike being whose mission is to return a en star to its home hings to Do

rders Books and Music nbridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0887). w.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lech-e. Sat., 12 pm. Staff members read from new classic storybooks.

ston by Little Feet
euil Hall, 77 North Washington St., Boston (617-2345). www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Green to Government Center. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; 2 pm. $6. Walk the Freedom Trail and learn ut the history and architecture of Boston's ghborhoods.

ston Public Library Children's Tour
b Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-8855). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to ley. Sat. 11 am. Through Nov. 29. Free. Ages 5 older. Take a tour of the art and architecture of Boston Public Library, and then enjoy an art ac-y in the Sargent Gallery.

ildren's Museum
Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-5). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to h Station. $8, $7 children. •Oct. 13, 12, 1 and 2 See Ben Rudnick and Friends perform. •Oct. 12 pm: Kitchen Science. Experiment with gs you might find in your own kitchen. •Oct. 11:15 am, 12:15 pm, 1:15 pm and 2:15 pm: Crit-Day. Meet dogs who help people with disabili-and learn how you can get involved.

l Family Festival
England Wild Flower Society, 180 Hemenway Framingham (508-877-7630). www.newfs. Oct. 19, 12-4 pm. Free. Go on scavenger ts, see animal shows and listen to singers and tellers at this festival hosted by the New Eng-Wild Flower Society.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. $7.50, $5 children 3-18, Under 3, free. Open daily 9 am- 5 pm. •Sat. 9 am. $35. Preschool age: Saturday Scholars. Discover dinosaurs, animals, minerals, insects, oceans, ancient civilizations and the microworld in this class taught by museum science educators. Through Feb. 28. •Oct. 18, 9 am-12 pm. 2nd and 3rd graders: Discovering Dinosaurs. Take a safari back in time to meet various dinosaurs.

Harvest Festival
Haggerty School, 110 Cushing St., Cambridge (617-491-0258). www.citysprouts.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, bus #73 to Watertown. Oct. 18, 10 am-3 pm. Free.Join local growers and chefs to celebrate the fall harvest with pumpkin decorating, music, raffles, crafts, cider pressing and a parade.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. $5, $1 children. •Holography, the Light Fantastic. The MIT Museum displays the largest collection of holograms in the world and describes the artistic and scientific facets of the medium. •Robots and Beyond. Take a look behind the scenes of MIT's artificial intelligence research labs in this interactive exhibit.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3448). www.mfa.org/calendar. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. $15, children under 17 free. •Tue. and Wed., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Art Alive. Museum instructors read books, poems and stories to bring the paintings to life and encourage kids to talk about what they see.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 children. •Sat. and Sun., 11 am-12 pm. The museum's Science Theater Program offers Animals and Stories Alive!, featuring professional storytellers who combine folk tales and myths with visits from live animals. •Magic: The Science of Illusion. Discover how illusions come together through science, math, psychology and the art of performance at this new exhibition. Through Feb. 22. •Charles Hayden Planetarium: Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 3:30 and 7 pm; Sun., 1:30 and 4 pm. Free. Learn to identify the stars, planets, constellations and celestial events during the presentation The Sky Tonight. •Gilliland Observatory: Fri., 8:30-10 pm (weather permitting). Free. Use the observatory's two telescopes to find the moon, stars, constellations and planets. •Mugar Omni Theatre: Mon.-Sun., 12 pm, 4 pm, 7 pm and 9 pm. $8.50, $6.50 children. Jane Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees and Africa: The Serengeti •Theater of Electricity: Daily at 12 and 2 pm. The Van de Graaff generator provides a risk-free lightning show.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.org. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5. The Museum of Transportation has a large collection of rare and antique cars as well as exhibits on automobile history. •The Evolution of Speed exhibit explores the history of American auto racing with race cars and displays. •Racing of Our Youth lets kids explore the world of slot cars, Hot Wheels and soapbox racing with go-carts to climb in, tracks to build and races to compete in. •Daily: Join the Family Scavenger Hunt through the museum and receive a free prize.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. •Oct. 14, 3:30 pm, ages 5 and older: World Cultures focuses on Sukkot. •Fri., 10:30 am. Preschool Films. Through Oct. 24. •Thu., 7 pm. Ages 4 and older. Pajama Storytime. Through Oct. 30.

Story Hour at the Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Every Sat., 11 am. Preschool age. Free. Story hour for children.

Story Hour at the JFK Library
Smith Hall, John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Dorchester (617-929-1250). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Sat., 10:30 am. Ages 5 and older. Free. The JFK Library holds a weekly story hour for kids and their parents.

Story Time
FAO Schwarz, 440 Boylston St., Boston (617-262-5900). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 1 pm, 3 pm & 5 pm. Free. Ages 2-7. Kids can listen to stories read by Mother Goose, Raggedy Ann and other characters.

around town

Sights to See

Boston University Observatory
725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wednesdays (on clear nights), Oct.-March, 7:30-8:30 pm; April-Sept., 8:30-9:30 pm. Free.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept.-June, Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm, Fri., 10 am-9 pm; June-Aug., daily, 10 am-5 pm, Fri. until 9 pm. $5, $3.

Dreams of Freedom
One Milk St., Boston (617-338-6022). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 9:30 am-6 pm. $7.50.

Forest Hills Cemetery
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Daily, 7:30 am-sundown. Free. Tours: May-Oct., 2 pm on the last Sunday of the month, $5.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, students and seniors $5, children $4; free to all Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

John F. Kennedy Library & Museum
Columbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $8.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-2 pm. Free.

Mount Auburn Cemetery
580 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-8 pm.

Museum of Afro-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-739-1200). www.afroamericanmuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park Street. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm. $5, $3 students, seniors.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 seniors and children.

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5, $3 children.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Sept. 2-June 30: Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-6 pm. July 1-Sept. 1, Mon.-Thu., 9 am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.50, $8.50 children.

Old Faneuil Hall
Boston (617-635-3105). MBTA: Blue Line to State, Orange or Green Line to Haymarket, or Green Line to Government Center. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Tours start at 9 am. Free.

Old North Church
193 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange or Green Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. $3 donation requested.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm; weekends, 10 am-5 pm. $3.

Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-3290). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $3.

Prudential Center Skywalk
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-10 pm. $6, $4 seniors.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Open daily 8 am-6 pm. $3.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-242-5671). Museum open daily, 10 am-5 pm. Summer ship hours: Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-695-2441). Mentor an adopted or foster care child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-450-1235). Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers
(617-956-0281). www.bbmb.org. Be a big brother.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Befriend a girl.

Boston Cares
(617-263-2273). More than 70 volunteer opportunities are available.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012). HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen, office work, special events.

Call to Action Project
(781-395-8307). datalova@aol.com. Donate quilt blocks to be pieced into quilts and placed on auction to benefit the Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation.

Cambridge Cares About AIDS
(617-661-3040, ext. 213). Volunteers are needed to educate the public about HIV.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support to children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). Help adults living with cancer.

Everybody Wins Power Lunch
livmates@rcn.com. Spend your lunch hour reading at an elementary school in Cambridge or Somerville.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900). Play with homeless children.

Hospice Home Volunteers
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.

House Rabbit Network
(781-431-1211). Provide foster care for homeless rabbits.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). Share your time with an elderly individual, mentor children or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). Teach an adult to read.

Mass. Association for the Blind
(800-852-3029). Read or shop with a blind person.

Mass. Substance Abuse Info Helpline
(617-536-0501, ext. 201). Talk over the phone with people affected by alcoholism and substance abuse.

MATCH-UP Interfaith Volunteers
(617-536-3557). Volunteers are needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

Parental Stress Line
(617-528-5800). Telephone counselors needed.

Pine Street Inn
(617-521-7626). Serve breakfast to homeless guests.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111). Record textbooks in digital formats.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). Work at a battered-women's agency.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). Volunteers needed for the dining room, clothing room and groceries program.

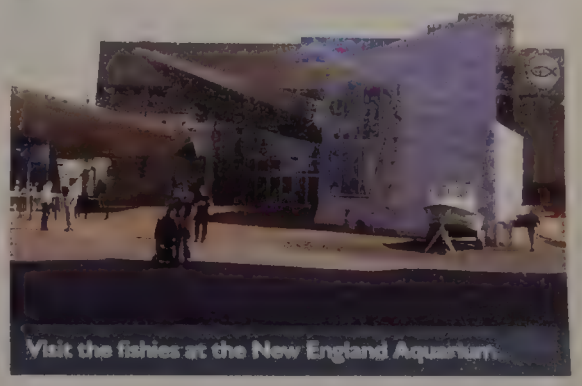
SafeLink
(617-521-0114). Volunteers needed for 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans of Boston
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship to lonely people over the phone.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young

StandUp for Kids
(800-365-4543). Help rescue homeless children.

VNA Care Network
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.



Visit the fishies at the New England Aquarium.

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Janet Burke and Mary Kakos hung out with Australian tennis great Roy Emerson in Gstaad, Switzerland. The Alps are famous for their Australian tennis greats.

Gregory and Elizabeth Manos spent part of their honeymoon in Chichen Itza, Mexico. They expected to find a nice resort there, but when they arrived the place was in ruins.

Matthew Maki visited the 18th hole at St. Andrews in Scotland. It's a venerable spot where Braveheart once disemboweled 1,000 enemies and shot four under par.

Russ Laky and Kyle Metzler are flanked by Aussie jumpers Tim and Wally minutes before skydiving near Airlie Beach, Australia. They report that skydiving is more fun in Australia because you fall up.

Debi and Tina Banerjee visited the Taj Mahal in Agra, India, during a balmy 115-degree day last summer. That Indian weather is sure agra-vating sometimes!

Virginia Governor Mark Warner reads th Real Estate issue, which featured a handy story on moving out of the way of hurricane

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Showing off some great yams at the Great Yam Festival, held during October in the Abron tribal areas of Ghana.

Send color or b&w prints (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116.
Please include your name, address, phone number, e-mail and photo location. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Presents the

9th ANNUAL HALLOWEEN FUN RUN

There's only ONE place to go for the best time this Halloween.
Join The Improper Bostonian, WBCN and The Rack for the 9th Annual Halloween Fun Run,

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30

t the West end of Faneuil Hall Marketplace. Following the three mile ghoulish jaunt around the Boston Common, join your fellow runners at The Rack for the official post-race party.
DON'T FORGET YOUR COSTUME!

REGISTRATION IS AT 6PM
FUN-RUN BEGINS AT 7PM.

$30 ($35 on October 30) includes T-shirt, goody bag & post party at The Rack. Post party includes buffet and one drink coupon.

Must be 21+

For more information please call 1-800-966-0444

COMPUTERIZED TIMING BY YANKEE TIMING
Prizes awarded to top three male and female times

Cystic Fibrosis Foundation · WBCN 104.1 FM · The Rack · Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston · The Improper Bostonian Magazine

BAR CLIF · Guinness Draught · Altus · Bayer · A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc.

Let Us Be Your Jewish Mother...

ZAFTIGS

BREAKFAST • LUNCH
DINNER • CATERING

335 HARVARD ST.
COOLIDGE CORNER, BROOKLINE
617-975-0075

BOSTON'S BEST 2002
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

HAIRSTYLISTS
ENZO JOHNNY ANTONIO

BRING YOU
ENZO & CO.
SALON

COMING OCTOBER 2003

135 Newbury St., Boston 617.369.4844 www.enzoandcompany.com

improperimpersonals

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Our Paths Cross Once Again

The first time I saw you, you were standing behind me in line. I was taken aback by your height. I'm 5' 10" and I rarely have to "look up" to men. You were the center of attention and tall jokes were being thrown at you from all directions. We exchanged glances and smiles as I exited the pizza shop. I've thought about the chance encounter throughout the years, wishing I had spoken up. I was shopping in Filene's after work today (Sept. 29) and you were scheduled to be there. I made the required purchase and waited in line for you to appear. I thought of so many things to say during our one-on-one, but when I stepped before you, I was rendered speechless. I didn't introduce myself when I "forced you" to shake my hand. I said thank you for the autograph and went on my way. I don't know when or if we will ever meet again, but I wanted to let you know that I admire you.

—lovesthetruth@hotmail.com

Riverfest Rapper

We spoke briefly as we left the weekend known as Riverfest. I thought there was a connection, but I remember your smile the best. I stopped next to your truck to drop off my recyclable. Perhaps you share the sentiment and another meeting was and is predictable.

—tranquiliti@aol.com

Carolyn

It's really happening now, isn't it? I've bought my ticket, I've landed an apartment and I'm on my way. You're Boston's best-kept secret even if you're only here three days a week. So as I leave I give you a short list of things I will and won't miss about Boston: I won't miss Red Sox game nights on the Green Line, ridiculously overpriced fashions on Newbury Street, being a receptionist, or the snow and windchill of New England winters. I will miss that whoosh of air when the Red Line pulls into Park Street, Anna's burritos, Jesse (the cute guy) at The Art Store, bread pudding at Trivia Night and being a short bus ride away from my sisters' houses. Oh, and one other little thing. You. You mean the world to me and if I could fold you up and stick you in my pocket and take you all the way to Seattle, you know I would. You're my best friend and I love you very much. I'll miss you like...well, like nothing else.

—Parker

Blue Eyes

On a recent Thursday night at the Cantab, I saw you downstairs at the Tribe Presents improv comedy show. You were sitting at a table with your friends, talking, laughing, lighting up the room with your smile. I was on the other side of the room with my friends. I'm sorry, I couldn't help staring at you. I was hoping you'd see me. After the show, our eyes met for a moment. I smiled at you and you smiled back. I wanted to talk to you. I think you wanted to talk to me, too, but you left before I had a chance to introduce myself. Give me a second chance. Meet me at the Cantab next Thursday. Let's improvise something together.

—laughingboy0919@yahoo.com

Good Samaritan in Porter Square

I had a seizure while walking near Porter Square on the night of Sept. 14. I have no recollection of any of it—but some good, civic-minded person found me and called the ambulance. I'm fine now, and extremely grateful for the help of this neighborly stranger. If you're reading this: Thanks—your kindness means so much to me!

—Dilantin Darling

Rudy

I know all Boston women can't be as rude as you were. I had the misfortune of crossing paths with you on the morning of Sept. 23 at 10 am in front of an ATM machine on Tremont Street, across from the Park Street T station. You were so wrapped up in your damn cell phone conversation that you couldn't see I was stopping to be polite and let you go first. Instead, you swore at me and told me to get out of the way. I should have smacked you with my umbrella. Please get over yourself.

—anonymous

Harpoonfest Hottie

Who'd've thought that we'd need more to drink after Octoberfest? Thanks for luring me to Lucky's, you minx. I always knew that you were out there; I just didn't think that I'd find you so soon. One year down, the rest of our lives to go.

—Andy

Butchie

The bear hug and the kiss on my cheek thrilled me down to the tips of my toes. Why I didn't follow you anywhere, I just don't know. We met on Park Drive, near the baseball field, on a Thursday afternoon in September. I was coming back from the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum. We saw each other and you came up to me. We wanted to exchange phone numbers but neither of us had a pen. You wanted to walk me home and I said no. You wanted to meet somewhere just so we could talk. We'd agreed to meet on Friday at noon, but...All I want is to see you again walking on Park Drive, so we can hug, kiss and talk. You have no idea what meeting you meant to me.

—Bbgirl562000C@aol.com

Chance Encounter at Brookline Marathon Sports

You: striking, 5' 8" (I'm bad at guessing height so you're probably even taller), shoulder-length blond hair, wearing a blue T-shirt-type top, jeans and a small backpack, trying out new running shoes at the Brookline Marathon Sports around 2 pm on Sept. 27. I walked in as you were doing a test run outside the store. I was in front of you at the cash register wearing a blue, button-down summer shirt and khaki shorts, and I'm about 6' 1" with brown hair. I was paying for a water bottle. You smiled as I was done paying, and on my way out I nearly tripped and fell over another customer like a nervous schoolboy. You have the most amazing blue eyes! Damn, do I wish I had said something! Let's go for a run sometime.

—runningincircles2003@hotmail.com

You Looked Just Like My Brother

I met you on the T as we were both getting off at the Harvard stop on Sept. 30. You look just like my brothe and I told you that, and we started talking but we were going in different directions, so we didn't get very far. You were wearing a cobalt-blue shirt and black pants, and your name was Caleb. Our conversation was cut off right when you were talking about starting your first job after college in the Copley area. I would like to continue our conversation someday.

—colacao55@hotmail.com

Three Glances at the Copley CVS

On Sept. 30 at 2:50 pm, it happened: accidentally brushed against you in the shampoo section. We both turnec and glanced at each other. I knew I was in a rush to buy things, but I decided to take another glance at yo and there you were looking back at me. And once again a couple second later. You're an attractive, petite blond-haired, blue-eyed young woman. You were wearing jeans and light-blue hooded sweatshirt. I was guy with short black hair, jeans and tight, white long-sleeved shirt. You when I was in line. E-mail me. I'd li to know if there was a spark betwee us or if was it the carpets at CVS.

—christophe.k@rcn.com

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

* writers & readers series

10/14 Tuesday 7 PM

GREGORY MAGUIRE Mirror Mirror

After a quick stint on Broadway, where his best-selling Wicked has been adapted into a hit musical, Gregory Maguire stops by to read from his compelling new tale. In the tradition of his earlier novels, Wicked, Confessions of an Ugly Stepsister, and Lost, Mirror Mirror is a retelling of the Snow White story set in Renaissance Italy.

10/21 Tuesday 7PM

STEWART O'NAN The Night Country

Granta has named him one of the Twenty Best Young American Novelists. Now the author who brought us Wish You Were Here, The Speed Queen, and A Prayer for the Dying ventures into horror literature with his scary and enthralling novel The Night Country.

10/28 Tuesday 7PM

EMILY FRANKLIN Liner Notes

LISA DIERBECK One Pill Makes You Smaller

A road trip and a box of old mix-tapes are the link between mother and daughter in Emily Franklin's debut novel Liner Notes. Lisa Dierbeck's debut is a modern retelling of Alice in Wonderland set in one 70's Manhattan summer amid drugs, sex, and art camp.

* Find out more about events online at www.brooklinebooksmith.com

USED BOOK CELLAR

Coming in October 2003

10,000 used books – mostly paperback
A great place to buy, sell and browse

WE BUY BOOKS!

USED BOOK CELLAR

Store Hours:
Monday thru Saturday: 9 am – 9 pm
Sunday: Noon – 6 pm

brookline booksmith
an independent bookstore for independent minds 279 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner • (617) 566–6660 www.brooklinebooksmith.com

McCORMICK & SCHMICK'S
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

October is
NATIONAL SEAFOOD MONTH

Explore our DAILY Changing Menu
Featuring the FRESHEST
Seafood Available

• The Fresh Seafood Authority •

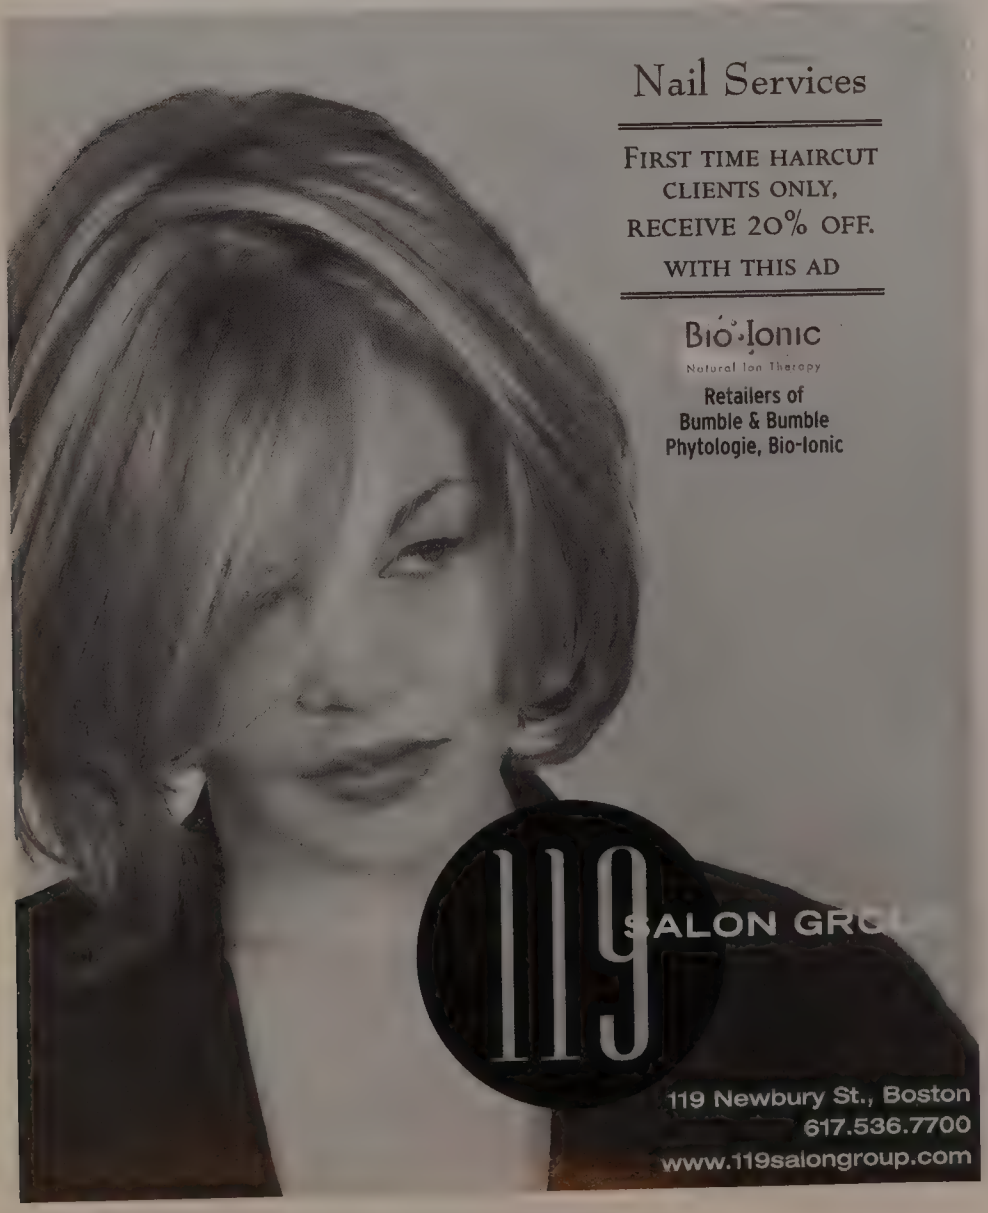
"McCormick & Schmick's is a seafood heavyweight."
~ Improper Bostonian

Boston Park Plaza Hotel
34 Columbus Avenue
(617) 482-3999

Faneuil Hall Marketplace
North Market Building
(617) 720-5522



rockie horoscope

OCTOBER 8 – 21, 2003

BY ROCKIE GARDINER

LIBRA
SEPTEMBER 23-OCTOBER 22

Easy come, easy go. Popularity or notoriety and the accouterments of local celebrity status may fade when your Venus ruler moves out of Libra. Even if you still have birthday celebrations to attend and gifts to open, once Venus enters sexy, secretive Scorpio on the 9th, you could become more furtive about your plans. More closed-mouthed? That's questionable. Having chatterbox Mercury in your sign encourages you to spill the beans simply to inform or entertain an appreciative audience. Good for writers.

SCORPIO
OCTOBER 23-NOVEMBER 21

Money might not flow with the speed or ease you'd like, but for that you should blame the seasonal sun-Saturn square. Like Leo, you may feel pressured to help out a friend financially, but you're not compelled to—there are no dire consequences. Instead, concentrate on looking good and attracting admirers so that when Venus enters your sign on the 9th, you'll be ready to receive them. A romantic relationship starts to heat up as the moon grows fatter, and reaches some sort of climax on the 10th, when the full moon peaks.

SAGITTARIUS
NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

This could turn out to be one of those interim weeks when nothing happens to you, only to a few people around you. Unless you're in an unstable environment, even the volatile Mars-Uranus conjunction might not turn your household upside-down. However, be aware that your landlord or a family member could be feeling testy. A friend or a renter's rights organization may help smooth the situation, but while we're in harmonious, sociable Libra, hardly any friction is directed your way. Enjoy.

CAPRICORN
DECEMBER 22-JANUARY 20

Students, primarily, benefit from the intelligence offered by the Libra planets, especially after Mercury jumps in. Travelers should have an easy time of it too. Executive types can come across more favorably because Venus is in your midheaven, helping you seem attractive, even if you're a ruthless shit. Venus is funny; sometimes the goddess is gentle, appreciative and diplomatic; sometimes she's the proverbial iron fist in the velvet glove. Either way, a reward or payoff is due to arrive around the full moon.

AQUARIUS
JANUARY 21-FEBRUARY 18

A life-altering thunderbolt may strike you about the time that loving Venus trines your erotic, electric Uranus ruler—currently back in your sign—and then, before you can recover, trines Mars as well. You're about to be rewarded for only the god (Uranus) knows what. If things in your life change radically, assume it's for the greater good. Another awakening experience could shake up your world on the 22nd when the sun completes the work that Venus began this week.

PISCES
FEBRUARY 19-MARCH 19

Love, not time, heals the wounds this week. And calms you down, too. Whether it also wounds the heels is hard to predict. Because gentle, romantic Venus rewards the disruptive, highly sexual coupling of Uranus and Mars, her affections can go either way. How close your birthday comes to the Aquarius/Pisces cusp determines if you'll be affected now or whether you must wait until Venus trines your Pisces sun some time before November 1. Mid-March babies should start planning for a very special Halloween.

ARIES
MARCH 20-APRIL 19

Independent Rams usually don't rely on other people, except to do the grunt work for them. However, during Libra, when the scales are tipped in favor of everything that is not you, you can't help but search out an equal. See what your mate, closest ally or business buddy has to offer before taking matters into your own hands. Because reconciliation and steamy romance are slated for the full moon weekend, you'd be a headstrong fool not to take advantage. Besides, your recently retrograde Mars ruler isn't fully revived until November.

TAURUS
APRIL 20-MAY 20

This week the choices you've been leaning toward can get codified and written in stone. But if you're feeling restricted and your Venus ruler offers an alternative, break free and claim a Uranian change of heart. Although work and career decisions may be uppermost in your mind, leave yourself leeway should lust suddenly enter the picture. And if you can combine the two, all the better. It's not often that Venus makes you ambitious and exceptionally erotic at the same time. What will this cost? Not as much as you think.

GEMINI
MAY 21-JUNE 20

Cosmic law, social conventions, renters' rights, the rules of the game—any and all can become more relevant once your Mercury ruler enters judicious Libra. Its shift may also increase your desire to voice your opinions, exchange information and play the mediator in family disagreements, but only if absolutely necessary. Whether your taste level will rise is open to discussion, but any immersion in the literate Libran mind-set should lighten up your life. Chasing culture and beauty is fun; more important are the people you meet along the way.

CANCER
JUNE 21-JULY 22

After Venus moves into Scorpio on the 9th, it may dawn on you that lately you've been thinking too much, trying to achieve a Libran sense of balance. Weighing your options is OK for some things—what to wear, what to see—but it can sorely complicate a romance. However, when Venus is in Scorpio, a water sign like your own, the goddess tends to emphasize gut reactions and animal instinct. Since matters regarding love and sex are bound to come up during the Libra-Aries full moon, make sure you listen to your heart and your head.

LEO
JULY 23-AUGUST 22

Be prepared to cough up some dough. Why a friendship wil soon cost you good money or something else you value highly isn't readily apparent, or a given, either. However, periodically, when your sun ruler is tested by stern Saturn, problem usually arises that only you (and your generosity) can fix. If a buddy isn't in trouble, then maybe an organization—social, political, professional—hits a nerv and scores. Emotional support from a significant other is available if you ask nicely.

VIRGO
AUGUST 23-SEPTEMBER 22

Your overall approach to things, and even your current interests, may change when your Mercury ruler exits Virgo After almost 10 weeks of enlightened self-interest, it's tim for the loftier and looser heights of Libra. Suddenly you st doing research and spouting stats, and, instead, seek out people to do fun things with. After you take your head out the books and shut down your computer, your sense of humor should improve, as will your sense of adventure. Charting new territory, charming worldly folks, courting a potential partner: That's your autumn agenda.

Curious about the future? Order a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months. Send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405, www.rockiehoroscope.com. Read my daily forecast online at www.laweekly.com

As seen in People magazine, March 17, 2003

EXCLUSIVE SKIN SOLUTIONS, PC

Now you can wear white all year long!

Decadent™ Full Mouth Teeth Whitening

$300 Compare at $600-$1000

in ONE HOUR!

Special with this ad

Without trays, hassle, or UV radiation like Zoom!
Results last up to 2 years • 10-12 shades whiter guaranteed

DAY SPA SERVICES AVAILABLE, INCLUDING:

Microdermabrasion - Acne, Pigmentation, Wrinkles
Lunch Time Peel
Laser Hair Removal

20% Off All Packages (series of 6)

$250 BOTOX® Introductory Offer

Raffi Der Sarkissian, MD
Board Certified Plastic Surgeon

Gina Caruso
Founder & President

1244 Washington Street, in the "New" South End, Boston, MA 02118
www.eskinsolutions.com 617.728.0077
FREE CONSULTATION PRIOR TO TREATMENT

Vespa®

VESPA BOSTON
22 BRIGHTON AVENUE
BOSTON, MA

1 866-768-1871

HERBCHAMBERS.COM

HOURS: MON - THURS 10AM-7PM FRI - SAT 10AM-6PM SUN NOON-5PM

© PIAGGIO 2001 VESPA AND PIAGGIO ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS OF PIAGGIO GROUP.
ALWAYS WEAR A HELMET, APPROPRIATE EYEWEAR AND PROPER APPAREL

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Tuesday, September 16, The Living Room hosted a launch party for Plymouth Gin.

1. Cheray Lane, bartender, John Hauck, owner, and Kyla Calcagno, bartender, all of The Living Room.
2. Kate Sturk, manager, and Aliz Csaki, manager, both of Preston Marketing.
3. Simon Ford, ambassador for Plymouth Gin; Jessica Sobel, manager for Preston Marketing; Terri Cronin, manager for Preston Marketing; and Kenneth Murphy, area manager, Massachusetts East Coast Division for Future Brands.

On Saturday, September 27, The Roxy packed it in for the kick-off party of "NY Nightlife," going on throughout the fall. Partygoers danced among tall buildings and a giant dancing Statue of Liberty.

1. Robyn Ryan, bartender; Sarah Getchius, bartender; and Katie Sullivan, hair stylist, all from Maine.
2. Mark Rideof, engineer at US Telecenters, and Kim Petzke, dance instructor from Saugus.
3. Joyce Correio, bartender at Barbosa's; Paula DeSilva, student at Fischer College; Hope DeMoranzeville, waitress at Ma Raffa's; Ana Bernardes, bartender at Barbosa's; and Robert Peterson, telemarketer at All Pro.

On Wednesday, September 24, Horizon Beverage hosted its Annual Fall Gala Wine Tasting at Gillette Stadium in Foxboro.

1. Doug Epstein, executive VP of Horizon Beverage Co; Jonathan Kraft, president and COO of the Kraft Group; and Bob Epstein, president of Horizon Beverage Co.
2. Richard Cordoza, president of Cordoza's Wine & Spirit, and Sandy Block, master of wine and wine columnist for The Improper Bostonian.
3. Glenn Lawler, on-premise sales manager for Horizon Beverage Co., and Tim Lynch, chief operations manager for Excelsior, Grill 23 and Harvest.

On Saturday, September 20, The Improper Bostonian sponsored A Taste Of Boston at City Hall Plaza. The annual event is presented by Entercom Media.

1. Ellis Garvin, head chef, Jillian Rosati, head waitress, Michael Germaine, manager, and Elizabeth Serverino, manager, all of Tavern O The Charles.
2. Jim Sheehan, marketing director; Ashley Hagler, Miss July for Mantown Calendar; Greg Hill, morning DJ; and Jamie Sugar – Butter, street team, all of WAAF Ra
3. Chris Langley, account executive; Caroline Ahn, account coordinator Saverio Mancina, senior account manager, all of Kortenhaus Communications, with singer Jessi Simpson.

PHOTOS: LIVING ROOM, JULIE KANE; ROXY, ALISON MORANT; GILETTE STADIUM, CARRIE WALLACE; TASTE OF BOSTON, JULIE

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

presents

the 4th Annual

Holiday Gift Guide

The gift of results this season, results for your business.

Holiday Gift Guide Issue Dates	Advertising Deadlines
November 19	November 5
December 3	November 19
December 17	December 3

Call today to reserve your space
617.859.1400 ext. 280

Restaurants, Bars, Clubs & Brunch

RESTAURANTS

75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston, 617-227-2175, www.75chestnut.com. Providing regional American cuisine served in an intimate setting. Bar opens at 5pm. Dinner served from 5:30pm - 10pm.

Backstage 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. Faneuil Hall's hottest restaurant and nightclub offers the very best in Americana food. Located adjacent to the Comedy Connection you can dance the night away every Wednesday through Sunday with Top 40 and dance classics by DJ's Jonny and Freddi C. For more information call 617-726-1110.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Blue Cat Cafe 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston,617-247-9922. A hip restaurant with a jazz-infused atmosphere, the Blue Cat Cafe's signature it it's cool jazz tunes and American classics menu. Select from items such as the Grilled Portabella-Paninni or Pan-Seared Tuna with Wasabi Aioli. The Blue Cat Cafe also makes it's mark with unique martini selections such as the now-famous Blue Cat Cosmopolitan and City Search's Best of Boston Espresso Martini. Open daily 5pm-1 am. AE, DC, MC, V.

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston, 617-262-9874. South End bistro offering Contemporary American cuisine in a comfortable European-style setting. Menu features grilled gourmet pizzas, handmade pasta and unique entrees.

The Elephant and Castle 161 Devonshire St., Financial District, Boston, 617-350-9977. English style Pub offering over 100 types of beer, great food and the financial district's most comfortable bar. Specialties include beer battered fish and chips and shepherd's pie. We also offer a great selection of single malt scotches and a variety of cigars. We have two levels of operation with our lower level providing private rooms for both business meetings and after work parties.

Henrietta's Table Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. Chef Davis, whose motto is "fresh and honest", creates a lively menu that features the freshest market produce daily. Food at Henrietta's Table is fresh, pure and wholesome. Full bar, casual dress. Outdoor dining in season. Reservations strongly recommended. Breakfast, Mon-Fri 6:30am-11:00am, Saturday 7:00am-11:00am, Sunday 7:00am-10:30am; Brunch, Sat-Sun noon-3:00pm; Lunch, Mon-Fri noon-3:00pm; Supper, Daily 5:30pm-10;00pm. For reservations and information, please call 617.661.5005.

Iguana Cantina 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

Legal Sea Foods Park Square at the MotorMart - 617-426-4444, Copley Place 617-266-7775, Long Wharf (outdoor dining) 617-742-5300, Prudential Center 617-266-6800. Indulge in Boston's freshest raw bar, our inaugural clam chowder, a succulent lobster or any of your favorite dishes in a relaxed yet sophisticated atmosphere. Legal also offers an award-winning wine list at the best value in town. Stop by for a taste of Boston's Best - our chefs have a table waiting for you.

Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., South Boston, 617-357-5825. www.luckyslounge.com. Located in the trendy artist district of Fort Point Channel, Lucky's is a den of cocktail cool with swanky spirits, traditional fare, and live music featuring the soothing sounds of Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Bobby Darrin and more. Open seven days a week, Lucky's also hosts Sinatra Sundays, a weekly tribute to "Old Blue Eyes" by the Al Vega Trio.

McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurant Boston Park Plaza Hotel ,34 Columbus Ave, Boston 617 482-3999; Faneuil Hall Marketplace, North Market Bldg. 617-720-5522. Recognized nationwide for its fresh seafood and lively atmosphere, McCormick & Schmick's offers over 40 varieties of fresh seafood, and a unique menu that changes daily. The bar is also a popular destination where all cocktails are made fresh and hand-shaken. $1.95 Bar menu served Monday through Friday 3:30-6:30 p.m. and late night every night from 10 p.m - midnight.

M.J. O'Connor's 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Ned Devine's Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of Improper's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. Whether you choose to dine in our streetside greenhouse, at the bar, in the dining room enjoying live entertainment, or snack at your pool table, expect nothing less than a first class meal from The Rack. We serve lunch and dinner from 11:30 am - 1 am. From fresh, homemade pastas and blackened center-cut tuna steaks to grilled pizzas, tasty burgers and Faneuil Hall's most original sandwiches.

Ristorante Fiore 250 Hanover St., Boston, 617-371-1176. One of the true gems of Boston's Historic North End is the fine casual dining of Ristorante Fiore...this authentic Italian experience features central-southern cuisine served in three distinctive dining rooms as well as the charming sidewalk cafe. The rooftop at Fiore's is the hottest spot in the North End...it's also the North End's only rooftop dining. A great place for dinner and cocktails any night of the week. Valet parking available.

Solas 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 380 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

Temple Bar 1688 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 02135 617-547-5055. Open Mon.-Sun. 5pm-1am, Brunch Sat. and Sun. 11am-5pm. Located just outside of Harvard Square, Temple Bar has been both a destination and a local for the educators, professionals and students of Cambridge and its surrounding towns. It's colorful European/American menu, home style Ala-Carte weekend brunch and funky interior, complete with a solid copper bar stretching the length of the restaurant, have won many awards and accolades from many local publications.

Trio Restaurant and Lounge 174 Lincoln Street, Boston, 617.357.TRIO. A unique dining experience located in Boston's Leather District. Executive Chef David Perrier, formerly of The Federalist and Grill 23, presents a new approach to creative American cuisine. Tuesday - Friday, please join us after work for cocktails 5:30 p.m. - 2:00 a.m. and dinner 6:00pm. Saturday evenings cocktail & dinner 6:00 p.m. Call for reservations. Also fully equipped for corporate functions and events. View menu and wine list at www.Trioboston.com. Excellent 2002/03 Zagat review.

BARS/CLUBS

Beer Specialty

Boston Beer Works 112 Canal St., near the Fleet Center, 617-896-BEER, 61 Brookline Ave., across from Fenway Park, 617-536-BEER and 278 Derby St., in Historic Salem, 978-745-BEER. Boston's oldest and largest restaurant brewery with 3 locations! Bold American Food. Award Winning Beer. 15 microbrewed beers always on tap. 16 American wines by the glass. 15 championship billiards tables at our Canal Street location. Complete party planning capabilities. Private Rooms. Customizeable menus. Lunch. Dinner. Late Night. Always a good time. Check out the BIGGER and BOLDER menu.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 30 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 380 microbrews and exoic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1 am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

Felt 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. Felt is located in the shadow of the new Ritz Carlton, in the heart of the buzzed about Ladder District. A tri-level venue offering sophisticated billiards, New York style lounge, a hip bar scene and fine dining. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth; while listening to a DJ accompanied by live jazz rifts. The perfect setting for a romantic dinner for two or for a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere combined with the delicious creative entrees is the perfect blend to satisfy all your cravings. American Eclectic cuisine by Chef Casey Lloyd.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers 22 gorgeous Brunswick Gold Crown tables. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Clubs

Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston, 617-482-7799. Located in Boston's trendy Theater District, Pravda 116 is a chic restaurant, bar and club. The menu focuses on contemporary American cuisine with specialties like roasted pork medallions. DJs in the bar and dance club keep the energy level high. Restaurant open Tuesday-Saturday, 5:30-10pm, bar, 5pm-2am and dance club Wednesday-Saturday 10pm-2am. AE, CB, DC, MC, V.

Roxy 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here. The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Doors at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Comedy

The Comedy Connection 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. The Comedy Connection located in the heart of historical Faneuil Hall features the biggest names in comedy with apearances by Jon Stewart, Chris Rock, Wendy Liebman and Jay Mohr. Located on the second floor of the Quincy Market Building, the Connection offers the best in local and national stand-up seven nights a week.

Dance

Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston 451-946 Boston's only Irish/Mexican cantina is a great escape the financial district! Two floors, three bars, open-dining, pool tables upstairs and live bands downstai

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-20 www. theplaceboston.com. Drink. Dance. Mingle. your hair down; see and be seen on the big screen. S ply the hippest way to spend a night of all-out fu Boston's Financial District. Come after work. Com dance. Come to go wild with your friends. There's ways something exciting happening – and you ne know who you'll bump into. Join us and experie what the buzz is all about.

The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston, 617-2 2060. Known for its great food, live entertainm and relaxing atmosphere! Menu includes Ameri and Irish specialties. Live cover bands nightly.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketp Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Impr Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub liards club offers much more than a game of p Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine c Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live b 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and John til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Sole and Zeke Martin.

Irish

The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston, 617-742-2286. Boston's legendary Irish Pub celebrates its 25th year! Considered one of the best Irish pubs in America, the menu features American and Irish specialties. Live Irish music nightly.

Hennessy's of Boston 25 Union St., Boston, 617-742-2121. Boston's most authentic Irish pub next to Faneuil Hall serves a great menu with daily specials and Irish traditions. A huge bar with an extensive beer and wine list, Hennessy's has Boston's best appetizer menu. Enjoy live entertainment five nights a week with pop bands direct from Ireland. Hennessy's of Boston, "Purveyor's of Fine Food and Spirits," are part of the Somers' Pubs Fleet.

The Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston, 617-523-1112. Hailed as the "crown jewel in the Irish pub empire of John Somers," this premiere Irish Bar features over fifty micro brews, an extensive wine list, a full international menu, and Boston's best appetizer menu. The Grand Canal hosts "Boston's Best Bands," and features Boston's only 12 foot video screen playing Bruins, Celtics, Patriots and Red Sox games. Enjoy a true "Irish Pub Experience."

Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am - 1am 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

The Green Dragon 11Marshall St., Boston, 617-367-0055. Hailed "Headquarters of the Revolution," this favorite after work meeting place is famous for it's "giant cocktail drink special menu." A comfortable place serving lunch and dinner and highly acclaimed Irish breakfast every Sat. & Sun. from 11 am to 3pm. The tavern boasts over 15 beers on tap, 20 different bottled "brewskies" and imported Irish brews. Live music and entertainment every Thursday through Sunday night.

Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11 am - 2am 7 days a week.

Mr. Dooley's Boston Tavern 77 Broad St., Boston, 617-338-5656. Hailed by the Globe as "the gem of the Financial District," Mr. Dooley's is a favorite meeting place for young professionals. The authentic Irish pub with over 13 imported beers on tap has been voted "Boston's Best Burgers" and "Best Cheap Eats." Open daily until 2am, featuring live bands every Fri. through Sun. night. "A great place for a pint and a chat."

General

The Alley Boylston Place, Boston, 617-351-7000. www.alleyboston.com. The Alley brings the best of Bourbon Street to Boston with the hottest live bands and DJs, specialty drinks, billiards, two patios and a wrap around balcony for plenty of people watching. The Big Easy, Sweetwater Café, Bishop's Pub and the Sugar Shack have something for every mood, so grab your beads and head to The Alley where it's Mardi Gras every night!

Aqua 120 Water St., Boston, 617-720-4900. Boston's newest place to be seen is now open in the heart of the Financial District. Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita on our roof deck or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV. Aqua has what you're looking for after work and late night with our resident and guest DJs spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St.,617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-227-0150, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Offering pub fare until 11:45pm. Live entertainment every Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Cheers Beacon Hill 84 Beacon St., Boston, 617-227-9605, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Full menu available until 11:45pm. Watch your favorite team on DirecTV.

Downtown Lounge 138 Portland St., Boston 617-523-8383. Tempting tapas, modern martinis and contemporary cocktails are just a few of the elements awaiting your arrival. A distinctive destination in the heart of North Station, located just one block from the Fleet Center. Share crab taquitos, shaved portobello mushrooms or grilled white pizza. Revive with a specialty martini while sinking into soft curvy seating. Spacious and sublime, Dowtown Lounge is an attractive meeting place for business, luncheons, social, after work cocktails and events.

Encore Lounge 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699 A new twist on Boston's Cabaret Tradition! Live Music 7 nights a week 9:30pm-1am (til 2am on Saturdays). Always open mike! Party where the Stars go after the Show! Tuesday: Bobby Femino (Piano Bar), Wednesday: Brian Nash & Stacey Baker (Standards/Pop), Thursday: Mary Callahan (Contemporary Cabaret), Friday: Jan Peters (Contemporary Cabaret), Saturday: Clara Lofaro (Standards/Pop), Sunday: Dorothy Miller & Michael Larson (Contemporary Cabaret).

The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston 617-722-0161. The newest edition to Boston's night scene. This New Orleans style bar is just steps away from the Fleet Center. Hurricane O'Reilly's serves up the best that Boston nightlife has to offer. Come dance the night away with the hottest music around. We will leave you yearning for Bourbon Street.

Jillian's Boston 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring more than 200 high tech games, six full bars, 50 pool tables, racing simulators, Black Jack for Fun and much more. Atlas Bar and Grill on Jillian's first floor offers full service dining featuring innovative American cuisine, a giant screen video wall and dancing every Friday & Saturday night. www.jilliansboston.com.

Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters ans steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring Live Music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesday - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

Roxy 279 Tremont St., (in the Tremont Hotel), Boston, 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Jazz

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live jazz afterwork and bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Regattabar Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. The Regattabar is the only place to hear top-flight live jazz Tuesday-Saturday nights and occasional Sunday afternoons. It's the "Diva" of Boston's Jazz Clubs at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square. Shows at 8:30pm Tues-Thurs, 7:30pm & 10:00pm Fri. & Sat. Full bar and bar menu, casual dress. Parking available at the Charles Hotel garage. Call 617.876.7777 for tickets and information, 800.881.1818 for hotel reservations and information.

Latin

Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston 617-351-7001. A multistory Latin-themed restaurant and club, Sophia's treats guests to a tantalizing Tapas-style menu, live Salsa bands and hi-energy Latin dance. From a romantic dinner and salsa lessons to hi-energy dance and mingling on the roof deck over sangria and Salsa, an evening at Sophia's is always Hot! Hot! Hot

Sports Bar - Upscale

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www.theplaceboston.com. Voted Boston's Best Sports Bar 2 years in a row by The Improper Bostonian! Mingle with your favorite sports celebrities: Brady, Thornton, Walker, Garciaparra. You never know who you'll run into. Enjoy the wildest party atmosphere in the heart of the Financial District. It's never the same experience twice – we've got exclusive sports video productions and game coverage on our state-of the-art flat screen TVs. So join us to see what the buzz is all about and find out why people in-the-know feel right at home.

BRUNCH

Dick's Last Resort Prudential Center, 55 Huntington Ave., Boston, 617-267-8080, www.dickslast-resort.com. On Sunday, Dick's has live gospel music for brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The buffet includes salads, hot entrees, carved beef and ham stations, an omelet station, waffles and desserts. Adults $15.99 and children $6.99. Live music - no cover, no dress code and definitely no class. Open daily, Dick's Last Resort is billed as "The shame of Boston."

Harvard Gardens 315 Cambridge St., Beacon Hill, Boston, 617-523-2727. www.harvardgardens.com. Cozy up to the beautiful mahogany bar or slip into a comfy booth and enjoy Harvard Gardens' menu of cool cocktails and comfort food. Brunch serves up eggs and pastrami hash, thick-cut French toast with caramelized bananas, specialty pizzas and Boston's best Bloody Mary. Harvard Gardens serves brunch Saturday and Sunday, 11:30am - 3:00pm.

Henrietta's Table Located in the Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge. It's "Boston's Best" brunch Saturdays and Sundays at Henrietta's. Saturday's a la carte brunch features mouthwatering entrees. Sunday's buffet brunch is flat-out lavish with everything from Salad of Smoked Duck to Oysters to Waffles to Omelettes. The menu changes every week so it always features what's freshest and best on the market. Outdoor dining in season. Saturday brunch: Appetizers from $5-$9; entrees $14 or all 3 courses for $21. Sundays: $42 adults; $25 ages 12 and under. Reservations strongly recommended. 617-661-5005.

Museum of Science – Skyline Room Science Park, Boston. Enjoy Sunday Brunch in the beautiful Skyline Room overlooking the Charles River at 12 p.m., then check out the latest Omni film. Combination tickets start at $32 and include on-site parking when available. Brunch only, $24. Reservations recommended. For more information call (617) 723-2500 or visit mos.org.

Sunset Grill & Tap 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beer, mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. taps, 380 microbrews.

Tonic 1316 Commonwealth Avenue, Brighton, 617-566-6699. We've created the perfect summer setting in our open-air café with comfort food and music to ease you through the weekend. Start off with a custom cocktail you make yourself at our Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar. Traditional Irish breakfast and a-la-carte American favorites served Saturdays. We roll out the works on Sundays with a truly brilliant buffet including the spectacular desserts of pastry chef Andrea Furtado. Weekends 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACTIVITIES

GLASS CLASSES / OPEN STUDIO

Simple Syrup Glass Studio is offering Glass Blowing Classes! Come visit during our Open Studio Event Dec. 6th & 7th For more information see our Ad on page 106, or call 508.588.8022.

ENTERTAINMENT MASSAGE

MATRIX MASSAGE

Metro Boston's Premier Massage Facility. Specializing in Swedish full body sensational relaxation. Open 7 days, walk-ins or appointments. All credit cards accepted. Quincy T accessible. Call 617-472-2990.

MASSAGE THERAPY

OXYSSAGE

508-424-0664. See our display on page 106.

PERMANENT COSMETICS

WAKEUP WITH MAKEUP

Call Debra 781-820-5442. See on display on opposite page.

PERSONAL CHEF

THE MAIN DISH

Personal Chef Service. Just ask Staff Writer Ezra Dyer! Eating healthy has never been this easy! Spend your valuable time doing what YOU want. Stop jeopardizing your health and |fitness goals by eating take-out or fast food. Special diets and veggie meals available. 10% off for new customers. CALL TODAY! 617-241-7635. www.themaindish.net.

RESTAURANTS FOR SALE

LIMBO BOSTON
RESTAURANT/LOUNGE

Capacity 263 Excl Lse
2AM Full Liquor & Entertainment
Owner Spent $2 Million
Ask...$625K/Terms

www.buyrest.com
NATIONAL RESTAURANT BROKERS
617-227-1919

REAL ESTATE

CD REAL ESTATE

No. Andover MA-Serving Metro North Buying? Selling? Too tired to come to my office? I'll come to you! I make house calls (in area) FREE! For fast, convenient service call Carmela Previti 978-975-4055 978-729-0847. cdrealestate.net over 23 yrs. experience.

COLLEGEPADS.COM

Collegepads is able to provide top quality leasing services to area students. www.collegepads.com.

EASY ROOMMATE / EASY RENT

Online rental service-providing privately owned and leased rentals easily viewed with photos at our website. Apts. or apt. shares will be auto emailed to you daily. It is safe & simple to use. Flexible payment plans & so much more at www.easyrent.com / www.easyroommate.com 1-888-531-6139.

PARK ASSOCIATES INC. LEASING

Park Associates Inc. has a database of over 18,000 apartment listings. 1216 Comm. ave. Boston. 617-566-2000.

SUBLET.COM

All prices; All areas Long & Short; Furnished & Unfurnished Studio, 1 & 2 bedroom $500 $3000 WWW.THESUBLET.COM 1-877-FOR-RENT.

WERENTBOSTON.COM

WRB is the newest search engine for the Greater Boston Area. Search the largest database online. WRB, your key to the city.

LET US WORK FOR YOU!

Searching for reliable childcare or pet sitting?
Putting off those odd jobs?
Need help with last minute spring cleaning or yard work?
List your jobs with us FREE and have a member of the BU Quickie Job Service work for you.

For fast, capable, temporary help, contact the

Boston University Quickie Job Service

Phone: 617/353-2890 Fax: 617/353 9200

www.bu.edu/seo Post your jobs online

You need us.

Spend your money wisely,
and good things will happen.

Our Classified Section offers you the opportunity to reach over 392,900 readers every two weeks.

What are you waiting for?
Call today @ 617.859.1400 ext 280

IMPROPER SHOPPER
Classifieds for Bostonians

ICE SKATING CLASSES
15 M.D.C. Rinks
CHILDREN AND ADULTS
Starts Soon
(781) 890-8480
Register online @
www.baystateskatingschool.org
Bay State Skating School

Applying to a top MBA program?
Find out how ready you are.
connect²
(781) 646-5687
connecttwo.com/MBA

BRYN MAWR
Bookstore
Used and rare books
Proceeds support New England Scholars at Bryn Mawr College
Tue.-Sat. 10-5:30, Thurs. until 7
373 Huron Ave., Cambridge, MA 02138
617.661.1770 • www.brynmawrbookstore.com

My Fair Lady
Choice Consignments
jewelry • accessories • clothing
1739 Centre St., W. Roxbury, MA 02132 Phone: 617-325-0908

Permanent Cosmetics
Angelbare.com
• Eyebrows • Eyeliner
• Full Lips • Beauty Marks
• Scalp / Scar Camouflage
• Areola Restoration
617 527 - 0002
Certified Advanced Instructor
Featured on Chronicle, Fox 25, Channel 4, and 56

Books With A Past
Old books bought & Sold
17 Walden St.
Concord, MA
978-371-0180
bwap@erols.com

All Red Sox Home & Away Games
TICKET CITY
Ratdog 10/18
Bare Naked Ladies 10/21
Monster Jam 10/28
(617)787-2370
OPEN 7 DAYS
128 Harvard Ave • Allston • www.coolguitars.com
OPEN 7 DAYS

VOCAL COACHING
Stage Presence • Confidence
Power • Range • Control
Jeannie Deva® Voice Studios
The Deva Method® - A Non-Classical Approach for Singers™
295 Huntington Ave - (617) 536-4553
www.DevaStudiosBoston.com
"I can't say enough good things about this method - it saved my voice!" - SM, Boston
Ask About our Private Lessons and Workshops!
AIMEE MANN • DAR WILLIAMS • PATTY GRIFFIN • CAST OF FAME • CAST OF JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR
Copyright 2003. All Rights Reserved. Studio independently owned and operated by instructors certified by the Deva Method. Jeannie Deva and The Deva Method are trademarks of Jeannie Deva Enterprises, Inc.

Trying to Kick the Habit?
Volunteers Needed to Test a New Quit Smoking Drug
If you are a healthy adult smoker who would like to quit, you may be eligible to participate in a new research study at Massachusetts General Hospital. To participate, you must be:
•A healthy volunteer
•18-75 years old
•Smoking 10 or more cigarettes per day
•Motivated to quit smoking
For more information, please call (617) 724-0736 or email: stopsmoking@partners.org
MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL

YOUR AD HERE
Call 617.859.1400
ext. 280

We've Got It ALL
Enjoy the pleasures of Boston
BYPA
BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION
Offering young professionals
•Networking
•Socializing
•Education
•Entertainment
(617) 591-1400
www.Bostonypa.com

Single?
Meet for lunch, coffee, or drinks after work.
Call 617-254-3000
or take the free survey:
www.lunchdates.com
Our 21st year!
LunchDates™

Permanent & Corrective Cosmetics
By Debra
"Wake Up with Makeup"
Cosmetic Tatooing
For information call:
781-820-5442
Eyeliner
Lips
Eyebrows
Scar Camouflage
Areola Micropigmentation
by Appointment
www.permanentcosmetics4u.com
Member AAM/Member SPCP
38 Montvale Ave. Stoneham
MA 02180

FREE ADMISSION WITH THIS AD
Aga's
Highland Tap of Boston
PRESENTING...
Modern Expressive Dance
LIVE SHOW GIRLS
Food ~ Cocktails
Entertainment ~ Relaxed
Comfortable Intimate
Atmosphere
Open 7 days a week until 2am 21+
617-427-6514
2128 Washington St. Boston

Quinex™
Private study - psychology "classes" designed just for you!
Experiences in Personal Development℠
Popular psychology, facts, and theory. Fun stuff, also serious scholarship and practical tools for hi - level health, work, social, & family functioning. Your pace via one to one teaching. Lavish attention to your interests & needs. Relaxed, Private, Confidential.
Days or Evenings
Lic. Psychologist, Dr. Robert Azrak, Quincy.
www.quinex.info
tel. 617.773.9209
www.Quinex.info

Boston's nightlife just got a whole lot hipper.
HOP ON THE BUS!
1-866-GO-BUS-GO
www.BUSTONIAN.com

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Glass Blowing
Kiln Casting
Cold Working

Register for Classes Now!
www.simplesyrup.com

simple syrup glass studio
116 intervale street :: brockton, ma 02302
508.588.8022 :: info@simplesyrup.com

Visit us during our Open Studio Event, Dec. 6 & 7. Holiday Sale featuring firsts, seconds, one-of-a-kind items and on-going glass blowing demonstrations.

"I placed a classified ad in THE IMPROPER SHOPPER to recruit wait staff. I got at least 25 phone calls in ONE week and ended up hiring one of my best waitresses. The Improper Bostonian is a great publication to recruit. It hit all people in the service industry."

Peter McCarthy
Co-Owner of 21st Amendment

GRAND OPENING

Oxyssage Therapy

Massage Therapy with Oxygen Therapy

Breath pure O^2

with your favorite natural aromas to rejuvenate, while relieving pain and stress with a gentle deep tissue massage

Try the "Oxygen Room" in our relaxing setting: breathe 96% pure oxygen as opposed to the 24% in the atmosphere

◆ $10 off first treatment with this ad ◆

RT9, Framingham
508-879-9400
www.oxyssage.com

A Natural High

Planning a PARTY, tradeshow or function to impress friends, bosses, clients and potential clients? Grab and hold their attention! Check out our elite O2 bars-we come to YOU with everything you need to be the BUZZ of the town! For info visit OxygenForce.com

OXYGEN FORCE

live forever...breathe pure O2

When your re-gifting well has run dry, Give the gift that keeps on giving all year round.

A subscription to The Improper Bostonian Magazine.

You can't read just one.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!

617-859-1400 or subscribe online @
www.improper.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

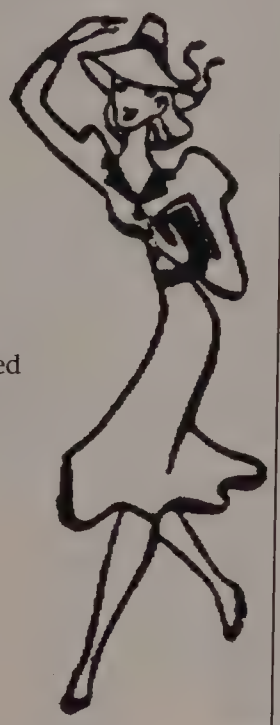
bloomingdale's

LIKE NO OTHER STORE IN THE WORLD

WE ARE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE WHO LIKE PEOPLE AND WHO LIKE TO HAVE FUN AT WORK!

The Chestnut Hill location has openings for commission sales in:

Women's Ready To Wear
Men's Sportswear/Clothing
Cosmetics
Home Furnishings



We are also looking for:
Seasonal Sales Associates

We offer an unbeatable, commission-structured environment with a generous benefit package (including a great discount!) in an exciting and energetic setting.

Please contact:
Human Resources
617-630-6611
Fax 617-630-6618
erin.turner@bloomingdales.com

Bloomingdale's is an Equal Opportunity Employer

BostonCourier.Com

24 Hour Customer Service/Dispatch: 617-457-7800

PRINT

Quality offset printing. It's your competitive edge.

alphagraphics

DESIGN, COPY, PRINT, MIRACLES

74 Canal Street • Boston, MA 02114
tel: (617) 742-9585 • fax: (617) 742-9584
www.boston541.alphagraphics.com

Free 500 Letterhead
with order of 500 or more
call for details

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At From Fenway to the Runway, top: Peggy Henry and Stacey Lucchino. Middle row: (from left) Juliana Ramirez, Manny Ramirez and Lisa Hughes; Smaiyra Million. Bottom row: Lynne Smith; Sarah Underwood; Karen Varitek and Kim Fossum.

BEHIND EVERY GREAT BALLPLAYER...

It wasn't your typical ladies' lunch. For one thing, Red Sox superstar Manny Ramirez was there. For another, the main course was roast beef, instead of some calorie-conscious spa selection. The guests, meanwhile, were women whose weekday afternoons don't normally involve sipping white wine and watching a fashion show.

From Fenway to the Runway, held at the ultra-glam restaurant Excelsior, was hosted by the Red Sox Wives and the Shops at Heritage on the Garden to benefit the Gillette Center for Women's Cancers at Dana-Farber.

Guests assembled in the downstairs bar for champagne and a fashion show starring the hometown team's other halves, modeling outfits by the likes of Sonia Rykiel, St. John, Escada, Marina Rinaldi and Anne Fontaine. Everyone then repaired upstairs for a leisurely lunch that included informal modeling by impossibly gorgeous professional clothing hangers, and a live auction of Red Sox–related items that raised a whopping amount of dough for a very worthwhile cause.

Present and accounted for: culinary supernova Lydia Shire (who had the imagination and chutzpah to come up with the surprisingly hearty menu); luscious owners' wives Peggy Henry and Stacey Lucchino; several generations of the Druker women, including the absurdly gorgeous Julie and the equally gorgeous and very pregnant Kim; Channel 4 glamazons Lisa Hughes and Sarah Underwood; the stunning and statuesque Susan Spooner; former fashion editor Julie Hatfield; Sports Club L.A. head honcha Smaiyra Million; fashion plate Jacqui Budd; uber mover-and-shaker Gloria Larson; PR czarina Lynn Kortenhaus; thematically dressed Lynne Smith; force of nature Jackie Jenkins-Scott; banking bigwig Anne Finucane; the eternally chic Nancy Eskandarian; and such babe-a-licious players' wives as Juliana Ramirez, Kim Fossum, Katie Walker, Kathryn Nixon, Tiffany Ortiz, Stacy Wakefield and Karen Varitek.

At each table, one of the guests won either a signed baseball or an Hermes scarf, and after "oohing" and "aahing" over the clothing, everyone continued to "ooh" and "aah" over the wild bidding for the items in the live auction.

Overheard during the course of the afternoon:

"Nice top she's almost wearing."

"I have an eight-and-a-half-year-old. Black's a good color for me."

"That model is like the girl in that movie Weird Science. She's freakishly perfect, so everything's going to look good on her."

"I've almost had enough wine to buy that coat."

And the following exchange, between one of the player's wives and a guest:

"That looks great on her. Where's it from?"

"You mean her body? I assume the gym."

NO PARKING ON THE DANCE FLOOR?

In our experience, a party on the roof of a parking garage most likely involves illicit drugs and, at some point in the evening, the police. So out of sheer curiosity, if nothing else, it seemed worth checking out Roaring on the Roof, the 25th-anniversary celebration for the Boston Preservation Alliance.

Held atop the newly restored Motor Mart building in Park Square (which was the world's largest parking garage when it was built in 1929), the evening involved neither contraband (that we saw) nor the police, although it did attract their boss, Mayor Menino, and equally august others. Among them: urban preservationist Roger Webb; the ever affable Todd Saunders; real estate magnates Drew Leff, Roger Tackeff and Bob Beal; thoroughbred racehorse syndicator and fiery filly Cynthia Frederick; historian and gadfly Steve Jerome; Millennium Partners man in black Tony Pangaro; catering genius and Eastern European countess Ariadne Clifton; Harvard factotum Janet Goff; and others of their rarefied ilk.

From underneath a yellow-and-white-striped tent, the city's skyline looked spectacular during an hour or so of cocktails and nibbly things, while a quartet called Four Guys in Tuxes provided the entertainment—as did the tart-tongued guest who greeted a friend by saying, "Hey! What are you doing dressed like that?"

An awards ceremony followed cocktails, after which came more merrymaking, and best of all, when the evening ended, everyone already had their parking validated. iB

At the Roaring on the Roof party, clockwise from upper right: Todd Saunders; Tony Pangaro; Steve Jerome; Cynthia Frederick.

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion?
Call J.S. at 617-859-1400 ext. 303 or e-mail at jonathan@improper.com

Self-bling-bling can be so very satisfying.

Pianegonda. The latest surprise found at Shreve's.
This stunning jewelry has the appeal of modern art with its silver circles that jingle like wind chimes as you move. Or should we say, as you float?
Exclusively at Shreve's. This collection is priced from $160 to $1325.

PIANEGONDA

Since 1796

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW

Boston • 617-267-9100
The Mall at Chestnut Hill • 617-965-2700
Toll Free 800-324-0222
www.shrevecrumpandlow.com

Wine created with passion by Georges Duboeuf ("du buff").
What are you passionate about?

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

METRO BOSTON'S STEAMING-HOT GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND TV DINNERS

HOW DO BOSTON'S RESTAURANTS RATE? CHEFS TALK TURKEY

EXTREME DINING— BIGGEST, SPICIEST, WEIRDEST AND MORE

YOU CAN COOK: THE PROS SHOW YOU HOW

THE MAN SHOW'S JOE ROGAN DISHES IT OUT FOR OUR FALL DINING ISSUE

$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
OCTOBER 22–NOVEMBER 4, 2002
www.improper.com

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW

Two floors. And who knows how many stories.

330 Boylston Street, Boston • 617-267-9100 • The Mall at Chestnut Hill • 617-965-2700

Time-out. Again.

Southern Comfort. between friends.

Enjoy your moment responsibly.

03 www.southerncomfort.com

BOSTON BALLET

MIKKO NISSINEN Artistic Director

40TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

BUY ONE TICKET,
GET ONE 1/2 PRICE!
FRIDAY OCT 31ST
see below for details

Rudolf Nureyev's
DON QUIXOTE*

FINAL PERFORMANCES! Oct 30-Nov 2

Sat, Nov 1 - 8 pm
Jennifer Gelfand's
final performanc

OPENS THURSDAY! ONLY 6 SHOWS

STARS AND STRIPES

Oct 23–26

MOZARTIANA, STARS AND STRIPES
Choreography George Balanchine

THE GREY AREA
Choreography David Dawson

GET ONE FREE!
SUNDAY OCT 26TH -

ABT Principal Dancer ETHAN STIEFEL star of the hit movie Center Stage, in:
MOZARTIANA Oct 23, 24, 25e
STARS AND STRIPES Oct 25m, 26e

*This production is funded in part by a grant from the Rudolf Nureyev Dance Foundation.

TICKETS $39-96
CALL TELECHARGE AT 1.800.447.7400
or The Wang Theatre Box Office, open Mon-Sat, 10 am-6 pm.
Student Rush Tickets $15, 2 hours before curtain.
Groups 15+ Call 617.456.6343. TTY 1.888.889.8587
www.bostonballet.org

Fidelity INVESTMENTS
2003-2004 SEASON SPONSOR

DON QUIXOTE Casting*
The roles of: Kitri, Basilio danced by:
Oct 30, Nov 1 e
Jennifer Gelfand,
Chris Budzynski
Oct 31, Nov 2 m
Larissa Ponomarenko,
Nelson Madrigal
Nov 1 m
Lorna Feijóo,
Yury Yanowsky
*casting always subject to change

- Buy one get one HALF OFF. Mention this ad at The Wang Theatre box office, 270 Trem Street, Boston, and pay full price for one ticket, get the second for 1/2 price. Offer availa only for the Fri Oct 31st 8 PM performance ONLY. Limit 4 per customer (2 at full price the discounted price). To order through Telecharge, mention code: QUAWA22
- Buy one get one FREE. Mention this ad at The Wang Theatre box office, 270 Tremont Boston, and pay full price for one ticket, get the second FREE. Offer available only for th Sunday October 26th 7 PM performance ONLY. Limit 4 per customer (2 at full price, 2 discounted price). To order through Telecharge, mention code: SSAWAN4

Please mention the ad at the time of purchase. Not valid on previously purchased tickets and not t combined with any other offer or Student Rush. Tickets are non-exchangeable and non-refundabl Subject to availability. Valid in most sections. Seating limited.

Photo of Pollyana Ribeiro and Yury Yanowsky by Marty Sohl Photograph from Stars and Stripes, Choreography by George Balanchine, ©1958 The George Balanchine Trust. Photo by Steven Caras, courtesy of Miami Ci Photo of Jennifer Gelfand by Eric Antoniou; Photo of Ethan Stiefel by Barry Wetcher.

ALPHA OMEGA

prudential center harvard square natick mall
burlington mall 617.864.1227

GUCCI

FOR TRUTH, JUSTICE AND A CHANCE TO WEAR A CAPE.
HALLOWEEN SUPERHERO PARTY — ONE NIGHT, TWO PUBS — THURSDAY OCTOBER 30TH 8PM
COME DRESSED AS A SUPERHERO. $250 CASH PRIZE FOR BEST TRADITIONAL SUPERHERO
AND $250 CASH PRIZE FOR MOST ORIGINAL SUPERHERO
THE Glynn
the Purple Shamroc
The Black R
CLERY
HURRICAN
José McIntyres
Boston's only Irish Mexican Pub
BACARDI
Coogan's
160 MILK STREET • 617.451.9460
www.IRISHconnection.com
171 MILK STREET • 617 451-74

You'll find exactly what you're looking for.

Boston Interiors has beautiful furniture, great ideas, expert advice and unbelievable prices.
It's your style...on a budget!

Your Style...On A Budget!

Fall Home Sale

Boston Interiors

www.bostoninteriors.com

90 Days
No Interest
No Payments
No Deposit
When you pay with your Boston Interiors charge card

Brookline Village
Rte. 9 Westbound
(617) 731-6038

Hanover
Rte. 3 Exit 13
(781) 871-6416

Natick
Rte. 9 Eastbound
(508) 650-9539

Westborough
Rte. 9 Westbound
(508) 870-0700

NOW OPEN!
Mashpee
Rte. 28
508-477-9010

contents

OCTOBER 22–NOVEMBER 4, 2003

FEATURES

18 SOROFF/ON THE PHANTOM GOURMET
The Phantom Gourmet reveals his favorite cocktail, the biggest mistake restaurateurs make and his identity—not. BY JONATHAN SOROFF

21 JOLTIN' JOE
Joe Rogan has two major TV jobs, hosting NBC's Fear Factor and Comedy Central's The Man Show, but he still finds time for his first love: making live audiences laugh.
BY EZRA DYER

22 TURNING THE TABLES
Do Boston diners dress like slobs? Are food and service here better or worse than in other cities? Local chefs respond to the critics.
BY ANDY LEVINSKY

26 CHEESE, GLORIOUS CHEESE
Tucked along the back roads, New England dairy farms hold a flavorful world of artisanal cheeses.
BY JULIE SURATT

30 GOING TO EXTREMES
Whether they're larger than your head, diabolically spicy or older than Faneuil Hall, we seek out foods that will challenge your palate.
BY GALEN MOORE

35 WHAT'S COOKIN'?
Professional chefs are teaching cooking classes where they feel most at home—in the kitchens of their restaurants.
BY JESSICA IREDALE

36 MOD SQUAD
The latest retro trend is a swinging scene that'll freak you out, baby.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY JESSICA PURSLEY

BERTA DANIELS

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by Wendy Idele

clothing and prop stylist: Jennifer Dunlea/Team the Agency; grooming: David Morris/Tony & Tina; jeans: Diesel; T-shirt: Hanes

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Union Bar and Grille; Billy Costa; ticket scalping shenanigans; Mad Ink; autumn brews

14 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Paul Pierce and other proper partygoers pictured
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

16 EZRA
The best part about going to a big game is rubbing it in later to your friends.
BY EZRA DYER

42 MOPSY
Scrapbooking with Sheri Park; the Attic Gallery; The Two-Income Trap
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

62 MOVIES
The subtleties of Dennis Lehane's novel are lost in Mystic River.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

72 MUSIC
Sol y Canto and Dan Zanes create children's music that adults can appreciate.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

124 LAST SCENE HERE
L'Espalier's 25th anniversary and other nights of note
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

44 DINING
Davio's delights.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

46 TASTINGS
Hell Night at East Coast Grill and other tasty tidbit
BY JULIE SURATT

47 DISH
Fathman lends a hand at Anthem; Olé spawns Onda; Vinalia replaces Dakota's
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

48 WINE
Rediscovering Syrah
BY SANDY BLOCK, MW

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Girls, Erin and Julie.
Complete listings follow page 51.
Audrey Hepburn tribute for UNICEF • Toni Morrison reads • Cambridge Latino Film Festival • Tony Hawk's Boom Boom Huc Jam • Gallery @ Green Street Mad Dash • Day of the Dead • Halloween Fun Run • Tribute bands galore • Coolidge Corner Theatre Horror Movie Marathon • City Year Serve-a-Thon

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Impersonals
Rockie Horoscope
Improper Sightings

Circulation 82,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XII, ISSUE 21

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

SIMON™

- Women's Wear
- Men's Casual
- Leather Goods
- Electricity

OPLEY PLACE

an Marcus / AIX Armani Exchange / Bailey, Banks & Biddle / Bally / Banana Republic / BOSS Hugo Boss / Christian Dior / Coach / Eileen Fisher / Gucci / Godiva
olatier / Karen Millen England / Montblanc / Kenneth Cole / Legal Sea Foods / Louis Vuitton / Lowes Cineplex / Polo Ralph Lauren / Stuart Weitzman / Tiffany &
Victoria's Secret / Williams-Sonoma / and more than 100 specialty stores and eateries / Parking available / Located in Boston's historic Back Bay /Conveniently
ected to the Westin Hotel and the Boston Marriott Copley Place / Shopping Line 617.369.5000 / New shopping hours: Monday - Saturday 10am-9pm, Sunday
-6pm Ready, waiting and wrapped to go! The new Simon Gift Card. The perfect gift for all occasions.

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

HUNGRY IN BOSTON

Just as watching food movies like Chocolat and Big Night had my stomach growling long before the credits rolled, editing the IMPROPER's twice-yearly dining issues has sent me rummaging through my filing cabinet's secret snack drawer more often than I'd care to admit.

If you're at all suggestible, Julie Suratt's story on New England cheeses (page 26) will have you ransacking your own refrigerator for some sharp cheddar or buttery Swiss. Suratt's tour of six nearby farms that produce flavorful cheese the old-fashioned way may even move you to plan a dairy day trip. For a quicker fix, make a date with a cheese plate at a local restaurant—many have added this savory option to their dessert menus.

Far from cheese's broad appeal, the dishes in Galen Moore's "Going to Extremes" (page 22) tempt a select few. In his survey of Boston's spiciest, most exotic, and other superlatives, Moore tells the daring where to find such delicacies as tongue tacos, thousand-year eggs and deep-fried Twinkies.

For a big-picture view on Boston cuisine, Andy Levinsky's story, "Turning the Tables" (page 22), gives some of the best local chefs the chance to respond to past critiques and to talk about how Boston ranks now in the national dining scene. They speak out on everything from portion size to service to dress code and the need for more foodies.

We hope it goes without saying that no Boston chef cooked up the Salisbury steak dinner in Joe Rogan's hands on the cover of this issue. (That meal is itself incentive to run screaming to a restaurant.) You know Rogan as host of The Man Show and Fear Factor, but he discovered his real passion—stand-up comedy—15 years ago in Boston. He talks with Ezra Dyer on page 21.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

FULLY BOOKED

I've just finished reading the IMPROPER's great article on Boston's bookworms (Oct. 8). A lover and collector of books myself, it's always a pleasure to read about like souls who appreciate and value the written word. I started collecting when I was in elementary school and haven't stopped yet. And bibliophile Carol Trauner is proof that bookworms can be intelligent, successful and beautiful.

WILLIAM O. DUPUIS
Worcester

MR. DYER'S NEIGHBORHOOD

I was laughing hysterically at Ezra's last [illegible] ("Player Hater," Oct. 8). I felt like I was reading about one of my normal nights living in the neighborhood. I am lucky enough to live above one of the busiest corners in the 'hood. I wake up nightly to girls yelling at each other and johns driving by, checking out the selection. It's great. Hey, at least now Ezra has some new material for his column.

—SHARON DOHERTY
Boston

Amidst the hookers, pimps, flypaper and "golden showers" cascading into Ezra's yard, he will find an apology. In the future, I will direct my party guests to urinate on the hookers and drug dealers in front of the building, thereby creating a watchdog program like the city of Boston has never seen. Cash prizes and certificates of achievement will be handed out based on number of hits, marksmanship and individual style. Being on the "garden level," Ezra is somewhat challenged in the area of range, so I extend an open invitation to join the group of vigilante homosexuals taking the law into their own hands on the third floor. We owe you beers…big time.

—DAVANT SCARBOROUGH
Boston

CORRECTIONS

In the Sept. 24 issue (page 82): The correct address for the Roxy is 279 Tremont St.

In the Oct. 8 issue: Jaime Manion is pictured with Stacey Lucchino (page 108), and author Elinor Lipman (page 22) lives in Northampton.

CONTRIBUTORS

GALEN MOORE

Galen Moore grew up in Oakland, Calif., and came to Boston to follow three unhealthy obsessions: baseball, writing and cream-filled breakfast pastries. He also writes for the Boston Globe and Yankee magazine, and he manages the wine and cheese department at the Harvest Co-op in Jamaica Plain. Moore's exploration of Boston's most outrageous edibles, "Going to Extremes," begins on page 30.

ALLI ARNOLD

Alli Arnold is a native New Yorker and graduate of Parsons School of Design.

Her clients include the New York Times, the Boston Globe, Travel & Leisure, Seventeen, Elle and New York Magazine.

In 2000, Arnold created the Barney's New York baby logo, and she recently illustrated the Kate Spade Neiman Marcus 95th Anniversary bag.

Her illustrations accompany "Turning the Tables" on page 22.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

COVER IMAGE: JOEL BENJAMIN

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITORS Erin Hagedorn, Julie Suratt

COPY CHIEF Susan Abbattista

COPY EDITOR David Plunkett

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

STAFF WRITER Ezra Dyer

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Jessica Iredale

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, Daniel Spurling

EDITORIAL INTERNS Kelli Acciardo, Katelyn Belyus, Kristen Grieco, Kate Hedgpeth, Sarah Korval

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Rita Greeley

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

ART DEPARTMENT INTERNS Marilyn Chung, Vanessa Earl

FASHION & BEAUTY EDITOR Samantha House

FASHION ASSISTANT Sara Schiano

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER Alison Morant

SENIOR ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Julie Kane, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Michael Burns, Nicole Mahoney

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT EXECUTIVE Sherry Riccio Atamian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Katie Schmic

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

V.P. PRODUCTION Jeff Gill

TRAFFIC MANAGER Karen Dana

MARKETING MANAGER Martha Brown

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Melina Legaki, Sarah McManus, Julie Milinazzo, Victoria Segal

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Bill Marks

OPERATIONS MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian

RECEPTIONIST/SALES ASSISTANT Gretchen Bostr

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3RD Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc.

Copyright©2003 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

ALPHA OMEGA
AMERICA'S WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS
DIAMONDS SINCE 1976
Flagship at Harvard Square
Natick Mall
Burlington Mall
Prudential Center
617-864-1727
XII
EBEL
automatic 60
30
15
CERTIFIED
CHRONOMETER
28
SWISS
Ebel Tara
Call 1-877-777-EBEL • www.ebel.com
EBEL
SWISS WATCHMAKER SINCE 1911

the Word

TRENDS TITTLE TATTLE PEOPLE PANACHE

EDITED BY ERIN HAGEDORN & JULIE SURATT

new in town

THE STATE OF UNION

Shortly after Seth Woods opened Metropolis Cafe in 1995, then–New York Times restaurant critic Ruth Reichl listed the South End Bistro as one of her favorite restaurants in Boston. Woods, who's since gone on to open the much-acclaimed Aquitaine and Aquitaine Bis, is at it again, hoping to lure sophisticated palates to his latest endeavor: the Union Bar and Grille on Washington Street.

This one, too, has the potential to charm a New York food reviewer—if merely for its hip, Manhattan bistro–like ambience. The Peter Niemitz–designed restaurant sports a black-and-white color scheme, with high-backed black leather booths, starched white tablecloths and black-and-white prints on white walls. From across the street, Union—with its floor-to-ceiling windows that overlook the Cathedral of the Holy Cross—looks like an old-fashioned train dining car that's briefly pulled into a station.

But comparisons to a dining car end once you step inside. The menu features imaginative, New England–inspired contemporary cuisine that reflects the dining philosophy Woods shares with his partners, Jeffrey Gates and Matthew Burns—"good food that you want to eat." Chef de cuisine Stephen Sherman's specialties include smoked Menemsha bluefish with a celery, walnut and apple salad and horseradish mustard; and lobster fricassee with sweet corn, chanterelles and potato gnocchi. What's the story behind the curiously named $10K tuna with grilled fennel, baby arugula and roasted-tomato vinaigrette? we wondered. The name refers not to the price of the dish ($27) but to Sherman's prize in a contest hosted by the Culinary Institute of America. "He won $10,000 for his seasoning," says assistant general manager Chris McMahon. "He used it for a down payment on his house." 1357 Washington St., Boston (617-423-0555). www.unionrestaurant.com. —Erin Hagedorn and Julie Suratt

Fans stand in line hoping for last-minute seats before Game Five against the Yankees.

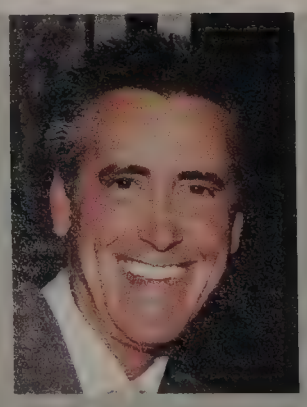
sports

THAT'S THE TICKET

So you wanted to go to the Red Sox playoff games against the Yankees? Join the club. There were tickets to be had, but with standing-room tickets selling for $400 on the black market, many Sox fans had to get creative with their online offers. Barters on the table for a pair of ALCS tickets included round-trip airfare to anywhere in the United States, a week at a lake house in Maine (a $2,500 value), a laptop computer, plane tickets to Brazil and a 1999 Mercury Sable. While the Sable's book value was $7,200, that fan wanted four box seats to all three playoff games, plus one ticket to each World Series game. With field boxes fetching more than $1,500 per pair, we're guessing he still owns the Sable. There were also plenty of single guys looking for attractive females to accompany them to the game, but the strangest date proposal didn't involve the game itself: One ticket seeker, a restaurant critic, offered sellers the chance to accompany him on a restaurant review. Keep your eye on Boston publications for an upcoming review of the Sausage Guy...—Ezra Dyer

inner view

BILLY COSTA



He's been amusing local audiences for years as news and entertainment director of KISS 108's Matty in the Morning show and, until recently, as the host of NECN's Phantom Gourmet. In September, the Phantom moved to UPN 38, while Costa stayed put at NECN with the recently launched TV Diner. Costa chatted with us about his new ventures and his views on Hub dining.

IB: How is TV Diner different from The Phantom Gourmet?

BC: I haven't seen [The Phantom's] new show yet. I'd like to think TV Diner's a little more behind the scenes and a lot more out on the road and in the thick of things. We're kind of trying to be the Access Hollywood of the restaurant business. If there's something big going on, an opening or a new chef at a restaurant, we want to be there [illegible] every week we send a viewer to [illegible] pick up the tab, and then he [illegible] the show and talk [illegible] experience.

IB: What do you think about Boston's evolution as a place to dine?

BC: I'm just blown away. It's exploded over the past 10 years, and not only in Boston but in some of the surrounding suburbs. I think we've seen some mini dining capitals open up: Cambridge and Somerville, as well as Waltham. Out on the North Shore, communities like Beverly and Ipswich have developed incredibly. Even west of Boston, you've got Ming Tsai in Wellesley.

IB: Are you a big eater?

BC: I wouldn't call myself a big eater, but I certainly am a lover of food. I think that happened the day I met my wife. I like to think of her as a gourmet cook. Between my wife and the radio business, traveling and having to eat out and going to industry parties and sampling the food, I've developed an appreciation for chefs and the whole industry.

IB: Favorite neighborhood to eat in?

BC: I've always been a big fan of the North End. Who knew that it could get any better than it was 15 years ago? There's an outstanding restaurant on every corner.

IB: What's the best hot spot you've found so far?

BC: Let me tell you, I fell in love with B & G Oysters Ltd., Barbara Lynch's new place. I went there for our weekly Hot Spot segment to pick up the tab on somebody's meal, and I couldn't leave.

IB: What's the most underrated restaurant you've dined in?

BC: Places that I think people really need to discover are Red Rock Bistro in Swampscott and Donatello in Saugus. I think if he was working in Boston, Nino [DiCenso], the chef at Donatello, would be one of the most celebrated chefs in the city.

IB: If you had your perfect day of dining, where would you go for breakfast, lunch and dinner?

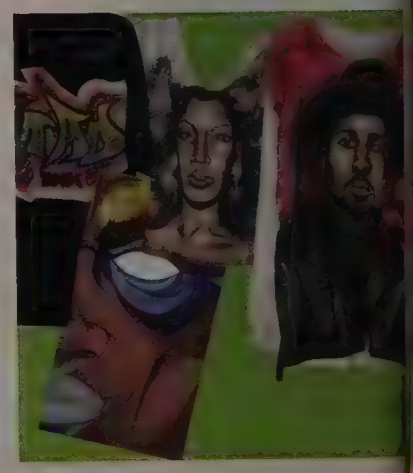
BC: Oh my. I would probably have breakfast at Aujourd'hui at the Four Seasons. I'd probably do lunch in the North End at Salumeria. I'd have them make me a nice authentic Italian sandwich. Dinner—I don't want to make any enemies here—would probably be at Prezza.—Jessica Iredale

sam says

MAD ABOUT INK



Local graffiti artists Magestik, Acoma and Diablito have turned their public art into a legit business. The trio has been airbrushing designs onto shirts, jeans, hats, jackets and bags since 2000, but recently they found a permanent home (on Tremont Street) and a brand name for their business: Mad Ink. They sell made-to-order clothing with any kind of airbrushed design—from simple text to portraits. Items can also be embellished with rhinestones and embroidery. If you can't find the right item in the studio, you can always bring your own garment in for customized work. It's the perfect way to jazz up a tired pair of jeans or an old T-shirt. Prices range from $25-$120. 652 Tremont St., Suite 1 R, Boston (617-947-2545).—Samantha House

a new concept in lounges

Toast

GRAND OPENING PARTY — HALLOWEEN NIGHT
Friday, October 31st

DJ's, Thursday-Saturday

70 Union Square, Somerville 617.623.9211 www.toastlounge.com

Tasty Tidbits

STEAKING CLAIM

Meat Lovers' Delight...Typically host to conventions and events, Boston's historic Armory Castle has been commissioned for a new project: meat and potatoes. Medieval Times might seem like a better fit for the architecture, but New York–based steakhouse chain Smith & Wollensky revealed its plans to move into the castle in summer 2004. Originally built in 1891 as the headquarters for the First Corps of Cadets, the 18,000-square-foot space in the Back Bay will seat 300 patrons. The main dining room will occupy the first-floor gun room, social hall and museum, while the mezzanine will be converted to a cocktail and dining space. The upper floor will house a banquet hall. We have just one lament: Whither the beloved J. Crew warehouse sales?

Masala Art has a new spice bar.

Spice It Up...Needham's recently opened Masala Art has added some heat to its menu with its new spice bar. Guests choose their spices, three appetizers and three entrées from either the vegetarian, meat or seafood menu. Executive chef Soni Sunil prepares the dishes while teaching patrons about the spices du jour and Indian cooking traditions, and then sends them home with sample spices. 990 Great Plain Ave., Needham (781-449-4050.)

Ticket to Ride...Boston College football fans looking to make merry at pre- and post-game tailgates (while avoiding the parking anarchy that surrounds campus) can stop at Tonic for a free ride. The Allston bar launched its Take the T to Tonic campaign Sept. 20. Eagles fans are invited to stop by 90 minutes before kickoff to gorge on free hors d'oeuvres and then hitch a ride with the Bustonian to the WEEI tailgate on BC's campus. Sounds way better than being the DD.

In the Kitchen...Foodies rejoice! Gordon Hamersley has finally dished his trade secrets in his debut cookbook, Bistro Cooking at Home. The tome, which hit bookstores Oct. 14, contains more than 150 classic and contemporary dishes from Hamersley's Bistro in the South End. "I was first asked to write this book in 1989," says Hamersley. "I was like, 'I don't have enough to say or enough food to put in a book.' With 16 years of experience under his belt, Hamersley's ready to tell all. The chef couldn't pick just one favorite recipe, but he did give a nod to braised meats. "They kind of epitomize bistro cooking for me."

Saving Sandwiches...Whether it's the old standby PBJ or a four-meat sub with chips in the middle, everyone has his or her own idea of the perfect sandwich. Maggiano's Little Italy is celebrating National Sandwich Day Nov. 3 with a little friendly competition. Members of the public are invited to submit their favorite sandwich recipe at the restaurant or online at www.nationalsandwichday.com for a chance to win dinner for 10 at Maggiano's. On National Sandwich Day, 10 semi-finalists will present their recipes to a panel of celebrity judges. The winning recipe will be available on Maggiano's menu for the month of November, and a portion of the proceeds will benefit the local charity Project Bread.

—E.H., J.I and J.S.

improper reports

AUTUMN BREWS

There's no better way to toast the change of season than with a pint of pumpkin ale or harvest lager. Head to one of these bars for an autumn beer that will quench your thirst and add a little spice to your life.

•Boston Beer Garden 734 E. Broadway, Boston (617-269-0990). Cozy up with Harpoon's Winter Warmer, a full-bodied, rich ale spiced with cinnamon and nutmeg, or the Octoberfest, made from six different malts. $4 a pint.

•Boston Beer Works 61 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-2337). Taste the Pumpkinhead Ale, a medium-bodied, pumpkin-flavored beer spiced with cinnamon, ginger and vanilla. $4 a pint. Or have an Oktoberfest beer, a full-bodied ale with a sweet malt flavor. $4.25 a pint.

•Boston Billiard Club 126 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-7665). The Blue Moon Pumpkin Ale combines the flavor of vine-ripened pumpkin with spices—clove, nutmeg, allspice and cinnamon. $4 a bottle.

•Cambridge Brewing Company 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-1994). Pure Pumpkin Ale is made from fresh sugar pumpkins, cinnamon and allspice. $4.25 a pint.

•John Harvard's Brew House 33 Dunster St., Cambridge (617-868-3585). Sample the Harvest Spiced Ale, an amber ale with cinnamon and ginger spices. $3.75 a pint. The Oktoberfest beer offers a fruitier taste. $3.75 a pint.

•Rock Bottom 115 Stuart St., Boston (617-742-2739). The folks behind the bar tell us that the flavor of the Rocktoberfest beer resembles toast. We'll let you decide. $3.75 a pint.

•Sunset Grill & Tap 130 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-1331). Samuel Adams' OctoberFest beer is a smooth lager made from a blend of four malts with a caramel taste and a nutty finish. $3.95 a pint.

•Watch City Brewing Company 256 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-4000). The Pie Eyed Pumpkin Ale is made from sugar pumpkins and spices like cinnamon and nutmeg. $3.75 a pint.

—Kelli Acciardo

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Yankee Doodler...Sometimes doodling pays off. If you're one of the roughly 1 million people who turned out for Danny DeVito's latest comedy, Duplex, you know what we're talking about. Local animator Gabriel Polonsky was recruited by friend Dave Lipson of Noodlesoup Productions and Miramax Pictures to draw caricatures of co-stars Ben Stiller and Drew Barrymore for the film's two-minute animated intro. "I didn't work with [Stiller and Barrymore] directly, but they had me revise their noses, clothing and bodies until everyone was happy," Polonsky says. So does this mean big things for the Emmy-nominated (in 1999 for Woof! It's a Dog's Life with Uncle Matty) animator? "Right now I'm waiting to hear back about an animated sandwich for a small chain of [illegible] stores," he says. "They're [illegible]

Inconvenience Store..."Oh, thank heaven" was not the response in the South End when plans surfaced for a 7-Eleven store on Washington Street several months ago. Despite the allure of 54-ounce Slurpees and quarter-pound Big Bite Hot Dogs, neighborhood residents were outraged by the impending presence of the 24-hour convenience giant, questioning its cleanliness, security and appeal to loiterers. "This is not the vision we have for the neighborhood at all," says Cary Raymond, a member of the Old Dover Neighborhood Association and co-chair of the Stop 7-Eleven Committee. The disgruntled neighborhood associations pulled out the big gun: the Boston Redevelopment Authority. Legal action was taken, and the final result will be what Raymond calls "the best 7-Eleven you've ever seen." The contract calls for: a hunter green and white awning (in place of the typical orange and green sign); no signs in the windows; pendant (rather than florescent) lighting; and a cutback of the store's hours to 6 am-11 pm. Look for the un-7-Eleven this winter.

Move Over, Beverly Hills...At some point, every office drone out there has found himself or herself lured in by a catchy link on Msn.com: 20 Most Expensive Homes or Top Ten Cities for Singles. Just the other day, we found one that struck our fancy: Forbes' Most Expensive ZIP Codes in America. We were surprised to find that not only was 90210 not No. 1, it wasn't even in the top 20. We were equally shocked to see that 02114, Boston's very own Beacon Hill, ranked 18 out of tens of thousands, with the average home costing a tidy $1,135,000. Apparently, people in Jupiter Island, Fla., have deep pockets. Its 33455 was named the toniest ZIP, with the average home priced at $5.6 million.

Notes of Note...Two local bands have dropped into the limelight via the most powerful vehicle in the biz: the tube. Papas Fritas, the trio of Tufts grads who pulled a disappearing act after their late-'90s tour with Beck, re-emerged when a song from their 2000 album Buildings and Grounds made the rounds on a Dentyne Ice commercial (the one in which a girl writes her number in frosty breath on subway window). Despite the resulting radio play, lead singer Tony Goddess is the only Papas member actively pursuing a career in music. On a slightly different note, indie-rock group the Push Stars were selected to accompany Matchbox Twenty on its fall tour despite the Stars' lack of big-label backing. The band, however, plays regular gigs and has received massive exposure by contributing to the soundtracks of Me, Myself and Irene, There's Something About Mary, Malcolm in the Middle and ER. In other music news, local alt-rock band Guster got into the holiday spirit a little early. The trio recently recorded a new version of "(Mamacita) Donde Esta Santa Claus?" for a compilation album featuring such musical heavy-weights as the Barenaked Ladies and the Dave Matthews Band. The humor isn't lost on the band members—three Jews who no hablan Español.

First and Last Chapters...After 42 years peddling new books, Brookline Booksmith is entering the used market. The independent bookseller recently opened a used-book cellar in the Writers and Readers Room. Stock mainly consists of paperbacks and some hardcovers. Meanwhile, on Newbury Street, Spenser's Mystery Books is closing up shop after 20 years due to high rents and competition with online merchants. The closing date hasn't been set, and co-owner Kathy Phillips plans to continue selling books through www.spensersmysterybooks.com. "There's always a possibility at some point I'll convince [my partner] to reopen in the suburbs," says Phillips.—E.H., J.I. and J.S.

Got scoop?
Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

Why should Saturday and Sunday have all the fun?

Take a few days off this week and experience the East Coast's premier getaway destination. Enjoy our brand new luxury hotel, pool, sun terrace and spa, spectacular gaming, gourmet restaurants, unique shops and unparalleled entertainment. For hotel reservations call 1.888.777.7922. For more information, visit mohegansun.com, or call 1.888.226.7711. Come play.

Mohegan Sun

a legendary getaway experience

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

The Runway 34 Celebrity Fashion Show was held Sept. 30 at Avalon. Boston Celtics co-captain Paul Pierce teamed up with GQ magazine and Tommy Hilfiger to raise funds for the Mark Wahlberg Youth Foundation and Pierce's The Truth Fund. Several hundred guests attended, and almost $100,000 was raised.

1. From left: Bill Costa, morning personality for KISS 108 FM; Costa's wife, Lisa; and Donnie Wahlberg, actor.
2. Rebecca Brothers, actress, and Paul Pierce, Boston Celtic.
3. From left: Ann Mary Johnson, makeup artist for Stila Cosmetics; Michael Gregorio, sales associate for United Liquors; and Lindsay Smith, makeup artist for Stila Cosmetics.
4. From left: Ed Kane, president of Eat Well Inc.; Tim Cahill, state treasurer, and Shawn Donovan, manager at Felt.
5. Andrea Casanova, founder of the Ally Foundation, and Peter Flaherty, deputy chief of staff for Governor Mitt Romney.
6. From left: Bill Thompson and Scott Grenert, investment advisor and senior vice president, respectively, of RBC Dain Rauscher; and Stephen Burm, legislative aide to Representative Garrett Bradley.

WROR's Bras for a Cause was held Oct. 9 at Avalon. More than 400 party-goers attended the first annual celebrity bra auction. Guests participated in the live and silent auctions, bidding on bras designed by national movie stars and local sports celebrities. More than $25,000 was raised to benefit the Ellie Fund, the Massachusetts Breast Cancer Coalition and Expedition Inspiration.

7. Loren Owens (left) and Wally Brine, hosts of the Loren and Wally Show on WROR 105.7 FM.
8. From left: Lind Hartney, sales associate for WROR 105.7 FM; John Powell, president of Washington Appraisal in Norwell; and Powell's sister, Anne, local sales manager for WROR 105.7 FM.
9. Barry Tatelman (left), CEO of Jordan's Furniture, and Paul Saperstein, auctioneer.
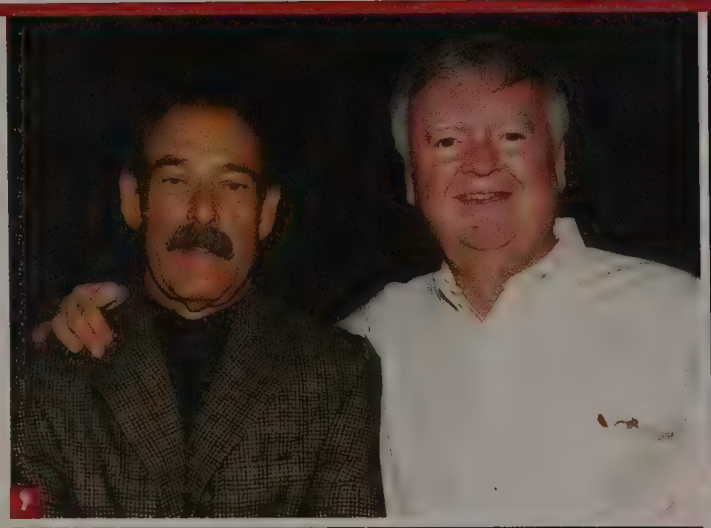
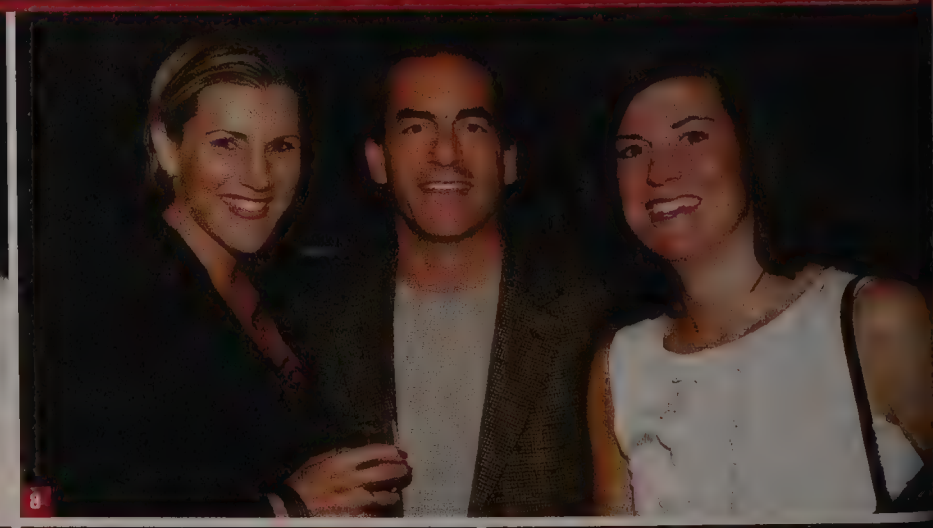
10. Lesley Lane (left), massage therapist, and [illegible], vice president of sales [illegible] Radio Group.
11. [illegible] and Tia, intern and afternoon personality, respectively, for WROR 105.7 FM.





ALPHA OMEGA

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE - 617.864.1227
SHOPS AT THE PRUDENTIAL CENTER - 617.424.9030
BURLINGTON MALL - 781.272.4016
NATICK MALL - 508.655.0700

Beauty Therapies™

Simply the Best...
BEST OF BOSTON® 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

Laser Hair Removal
Legs • Bikini and Underarms • Lip and Chin
Men's Backs • Chest and Abs
Effective for all skin types

Try THE EPIFACIAL™
- a revolutionary procedure with unbelievable results.
THE EPIFACIAL improves rosacea, brown spots, large pores & broken capillaries. Using intense pulsed light, this non-invasive facial treatment stimulates the skin, pumping up fine lines and dramatically improving the overall appearance of your skin.

Bring this ad for 20% OFF your first visit

Call today: 617-739-8888
One Brookline Place, Suite 302, Brookline, MA 02445
Next to the Brookline Village T
www.beautytherapies.com

THAT'S THE TICKET

When the playoffs roll around, Fenway should replace its turnstiles with velvet ropes

If you want to feel like a rock star, forget about dating Christina Aguilera or causing a fatal car accident, and just get tickets to an important sporting event. Having attended both Game 3 of the Red Sox's first-round playoff series and the Patriots' win over the Titans the next day, I have sipped from the golden chalice of the good life. The bad news is, I'm finding it hard to return to the plastic cup of mediocrity.

I lucked into tickets for both games. In the case of the Red Sox, my friend Neskey was taking a break from carving up cadavers in medical school and offered me his extra ticket. Neskey possessed this coveted slip of paper because Papa Neskey, who has season tickets, was out of town that weekend. I'd like to publicly thank Mr. Neskey not only for the ticket, but for planning a trip to California during the playoffs. I'd also like to add that the Chon Buri Buffalo Races, held around World Series time in Chon Buri, Thailand, are not to be missed. I'm just pointing that out.

When I go to Fenway I usually end up sitting either in the top row of the bleachers, behind an enormous stanchion, or, in one unfortunate instance, in the alcohol-free section. But Neskey's seats were six rows back on the third-base side, so close that you could almost hear Barry Zito humming Phish songs in the visitors' dugout. We didn't get our own little TV screen like Ben Affleck and J. Lo, but it was high society nonetheless. While everyone ate hot dogs, drank beer and displayed the usual enthusiasm for the Red Sox, I got the distinct impression that many of my fellow occupants in the box seats would find it useful if Fenway included a decent helicopter landing pad. I tried to act like I belonged, but my crude exuberance gave me away in the 11th inning, when Trot Nixon homered and I almost threw Neskey onto the field like an octopus after a hat trick. I consider picking up one's friends and flailing them to and fro to be a normal reaction to a postseason walk-off home run, but a quick glance around confirmed that our neighbors were wondering if Neskey had somehow lured Little Joe, the escaped gorilla, into the park for a ballgame.

The next day Neskey and I headed to Gillette Stadium on our second man-date in as many days. At the gate we met Skip, who hooked me up with the tickets. Skip works for Fox Sports Net, which I hereby endorse as the best sports network on TV, at least until someone from ESPN gives me better seats. I'd never been to a Pats game before, and I was pleasantly surprised that the crowd at Gillette made my own meathead antics the night before seem like the serene satisfaction of a 1950s TV mom who has baked a perfect blueberry pie. Everyone at the game was a bigger meathead than me, including the woman who marched up and demanded I tell her the location of the nearest ladies' room. (I apparently looked like a more likely resource for that information than any of the women milling about.) As soon as she was out of earshot Neskey muttered, "She definitely pees standing up."

One symptom of testosterone saturation is compulsive high-fiving, an activity that was in effect throughout the game. This posed a problem because I carefully wash my hands after going to the bathroom, a habit that seemed to put me in the minority at Gillette. The tattooed, pierced, jersey-wearing guys in front of our seats didn't strike me as big hand-washers, but they were big high-fivers. The hulking, screaming lunatic in front of us looked genuinely saddened when he turned around to high-five Neskey and found him entranced by the JumboTron. In an act of solidarity, I reached over and high-fived him myself, lest he notice that I refuse to use the word "cowboy" as a verb and climb into our row to give us purple nurples.

> OUR SEATS WERE SO CLOSE THAT YOU COULD ALMOST HEAR BARRY ZITO HUMMING PHISH SONGS IN THE VISITORS' DUGOUT

The rampant spread of dangerous microbes aside, going to a game has it all over watching it on TV, not least because you get to feel superior to everyone who didn't have tickets. "Yeah, I was there," I casually told anyone I heard talking about Nixon's homer the following Monday. "Yeah, I was there too," I'd say when the conversation turned to the Patriots. As I write this the Sox are playing the Yankees, and I can still say I was there, but only if you're talking about the end of the enormous line of people waiting futilely, to get into Who's on First once the ticket-holders left for their seats. iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?
Scalp hot e-mails at ezra@improper.com.

Garden terrace now open

New Bar Menu
Perfect portions at perfect prices
Nightly after 5:30 at the Bar

House Smoked BBQ'd Chicken Wings
Twice "Baked" Calamari, Thai Basil, Honey-Cherry Pepper Glaze
and more...

Wine &
Featuring our special After Nine Wine List
of value priced bottles

Dine
The New Harvest Bar Menu of the season's favorite flavors

After Nine
Available in the bar and dining room
Sunday through Thursday after 9pm

CONTEMPORARY CUISINE
INSPIRED BY AMERICAN CLASSICS

RVEST HARVEST HARVES

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
The Improper Bostonian

best outdoor dining

Lunch, Dinner, Bar Menu & Sunday Brunch 617.868.2255
[ON THE WALKWAY] 44 Brattle Street, Harvard Square
EVENING VALET PARKING ON MOUNT AUBURN STREET

Thank You Boston
for recognizing us as
Boston's Top Steakhouse,
Top Seafood Restaurant &
Top American Restaurant.
2002/2003 Zagat Survey

GRILL 23
& Bar

The Classic Steak & Seafood Grill.

161 Berkeley Street 617.542.2255 www.grill23.com

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

EXCELSIOR
Cuisine & Cocktails

The Bar at Excelsior

The Heritage
LUNCH
On The Garden
DINNER
272 Boylston Street
BAR MENU
617.426.7878

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
The Improper Bostonian

Soroff ON

THE PHANTOM GOURMET

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

The Phantom Gourmet is an anonymous restaurant critic who dines in disguise, never revealing his identity and always paying his own bills, with the goal of ensuring that his reviews are as uncorrupted, honest and trustworthy as possible. His eponymous television show, now hosted by WBZ-TV veteran Dave Robichaud, first aired in June 1993 and quickly developed a following. In February 1995, WBZ 1030 AM Newsradio added the Phantom Gourmet to its lineup. A 90-second feature airs weekdays at 10:56 am and weekends at 2:56 pm and 3:56 pm. In September, Phantom Gourmet Inc. signed a deal with Viacom, bringing the Phantom Gourmet program to UPN Channel 38 on Saturdays and Sundays at 11 am. In addition, the Phantom's "Restaurant Report Card" segments air regularly on WBZ-TV 4's 5:30 pm newscast and UPN 38's Nightcast at 10 pm, and his reviews can be found online at Phantomgourmet.com. He agreed to answer Jonathan Soroff's questions via e-mail.

I'VE TRAVELED THE WORLD IN SEARCH OF AUTHENTIC NOODLE STREET SNACKS IN THAILAND AND MU MU HOT ROCK COOKOUTS IN PAPUA, NEW GUINEA. I HAVE DISTINCT MEMORIES OF EVERY MEAL MY MOTHER COOKED WHILE WORKING HER WAY, COVER TO COVER, THROUGH THE JOY OF COOKING. AND MOST IMPORTANTLY, NO ONE KNOWS WHO I AM.

Jonathan Soroff: What qualifies you to critique restaurants?

Phantom Gourmet: I've traveled the world in search of authentic noodle street snacks in Thailand and mu mu hot rock cookouts in Papua, New Guinea. I have distinct memories of every single meal my mother cooked while working her way, cover to cover, through The Joy of Cooking. I know the business inside and out, and most importantly, no one, save the tight-lipped Andelman brothers, knows who I am, so that I can do my job from the perspective of Joe Anybody.

JS: Your favorite disguise?

PG: I've got glasses, wigs, skinny suits, and fake mustaches, but for the most part, I just try to blend in.

JS: Do you use fake accents, and if so, which?

PG: I've got the southern drawl down, plus I'm constantly studying Miss Piggy and Arnold Schwarzenegger for inno- additions to my repertoire. And h accent, she ees very beeyoo-

-and-dagger stuff a bit silly?

PG: Heck no! If people knew my face, then I'd get special treatment and my work would be corrupt. I'm taking this secret to the grave, and I'm happy to slap on some prosthetic makeup if it'll keep my identity under wraps.

JS: Ever been recognized or had your cover blown?

PG: Not once. But I've eaten out many times when the waiter has suggested a dish as "The Phantom's favorite." I just nod and say, "I'll take two."

JS: How do you determine a tip, or what's your personal tipping policy?

PG: Having been a waiter myself, I know how hard the job can be. They earn every cent, so I start at 20 percent and go higher for exceptional table-wowing.

JS: Cocktail of choice?

PG: That's a no-brainer—cocktail sauce. Nothing keeps me refreshed, regular, and revving to go like a tangy mixture of horseradish, lemon juice, Tabasco and ketchup.

JS: Most annoying current food trend?

PG: Fast-food joints turning healthy. You can't keep your sloppy Joe customers and bring in the tofu crowd, too. When I'm on the go, I want super-size fries, burgers, and un-Diet Coke. Who wants to see a grilled chicken pita when you're knee-deep in wings and nachos? It's enough to spoil an appetite.

JS: Thing that instantly turns you off in a restaurant?

PG: Mispronunciation gets me hotter than a frying pan. The t in merlot is silent, and "quesadilla" doesn't have six different pronunciations.

JS: Single biggest mistake restaurateurs make?

PG: Stationing an incompetent mumbler at the phone. It makes me nuts when I call to ask for the address and it takes three people and 10 minutes to get the info. Posting directions near the phone doesn't take rocket science!

JS: Best-kept dining secret in New England?

PG: My identity.

JS: McDonald's or Burger King?

PG: Wendy's.

JS: Guilty food pleasure—deep-fried Twinkies? Jalapeño poppers? What do you eat when no one's looking?

PG: All of the above, as well as custard doughnuts, caviar blini, and the ultimate comfort food—bologna-wrapped hot dogs smeared with mayo.

JS: Grossest food you've ever eaten?

PG: Cheez Whiz…No, haggis.

JS: Biggest gap in the Boston dining scene—either a kind of restaurant or ethnic cuisine that isn't, or is only badly, represented?

PG: We need more rotating conveyer-belt bars, like they have in Japan, where you sit around a circulating island, grab the food as it comes around, and pay according to how many empty plates you stack. It's the ultimate lazy Susan approach to eating out.

JS: If you could be one Boston chef for a day, who would it be and why?

PG: The Sausage Guy on Lansdowne Street. He's my hero.

JS: Are you a good cook?

PG: No way. There are two kinds of people in this world—the eaters and the cookers. I'm an eater, and I have the gut to prove it.

JS: Three things everyone should know how to do in the kitchen?

PG: Make coffee. Stuff a chicken. Call for takeout.

JS: What foods do you put ketchup on?

PG: The question should be, "What foods don't you put ketchup on?" And the answer, of course, is anything that's still moving.

JS: Favorite condiment?

PG: Butter.

JS: How do you feel about high-end restaurants where they don't put salt and pepper on the table?

PG: It stresses me out. No two tongues are alike, so how do they know they got it just right for me?

JS: Do you put parmesan cheese on seafood pasta?

PG: Only when it's hot in Georgia.

JS: Are you any relation to the Phantom of the Opera?

PG: Third cousin, twice removed. I'm better looking. He's a better singer.

JS: Last question: Aren't you ever tempted to scream (especially when the service is terrible), "But I'm the goddamned Phantom Gourmet!"

PG: Only every single day. IB

Sleek™ Laser Hair Removal

GREATER BOSTON'S LEADING MEDICAL SPA

Never shave again. Ever.

Fast, safe, painless and affordable! Eliminate unwanted hair on all body parts, from all skin types.
FDA approved for permanent hair reduction.
Ask about our no-hair guarantee.

Schedule your free consultation by phone or on our website today!

VISIT US AT SLEEKUSA.COM

800-SLEEK-USA (800.753.3587)

SLEEK MED SPA

228 NEWBURY STREET · BOSTON

NOW OPEN

OTHER AREA LOCATIONS: NEWTON · WESTBORO · WEYMOUTH · WOBURN

OTHER SLEEK SERVICES

SLEEK™ LASER HAIR REMOVAL · SLEEK™ VEIN REMOVAL
SLEEK™ SKIN REJUVENATION · SLEEK™ CHEMICAL PEELS · SLEEK™ BOTOX & COLLAGEN
SLEEK™ ACNE REMOVAL · SLEEK™ WEIGHT MANAGEMENT

OCTOBER SPECIAL! 20% OFF ALL SERVICES*

*One month of services on a package purchase. Not valid with any other promotions, coupons or discounts.

Halloween Party

To benefit:

Big Brothers Big Sisters

October 31st @ 10pm

$200 cash prize for best costume

4 course wine dinner for best group costume

DJ / Silent Auction

$25.00 - 21+ - Cash Bar - Costumes Required

Coffeewood

Restaurant & Cafe

222 Berkeley St, Boston

617-247-2225

JOLTIN' JOE

BY EZRA DYER

FIFTEEN YEARS AFTER HE FIRST TOOK THE STAGE IN BOSTON, NEWTON NATIVE JOE ROGAN IS ONE OF THE BUSIEST COMEDIANS IN HOLLYWOOD

Between his jobs hosting NBC's Fear Factor and Comedy Central's The Man Show, working as a commentator for Ultimate Fighting Championship, performing stand-up comedy and staying in shape with weight training and martial arts (sometimes working out twice a day), Joe Rogan doesn't have a lot of spare time. "He'll tape three shows in a day and then go to the Comedy Store for an hour. The guy's an animal," says Man Show co-host Doug Stanhope. At age 36, Rogan has never taken a vacation in his professional life.

Rogan, who grew up in Newton and has lived in L.A. since 1994, first took the stage at the Boston club Stitches in 1988 and still performs every weekend, despite his hectic schedule. "Being a stand-up comedian is the most rewarding job on the planet," Rogan says. "But if you don't constantly practice, you'll lose your edge. You have to do it. You find time to force it in."

Though he built his fame through TV—as Joe Garelli on NewsRadio from 1995 to 1999, and hosting Fear Factor since 2001 and The Man Show since August 2003—he's candid about the fact that TV work is not his passion. "Sometimes on Fear Factor I'm sitting there, wearing makeup with a camera pointed at me, saying 'Come on, you can do it!' to a chick eating a plate of animal penises, and I think, What am I doing here? Of all the things I've done in my life, I never thought I'd be hosting a show like Fear Factor."

However, the recognition Rogan has gained on TV allows him to consistently pack comedy clubs—although fans of Fear Factor and The Man Show are sometimes surprised by his live act, which is far from TV-ready. "A lot of people who see my act don't even know I'm a comedian," he says. That seems odd in the Comedy Central era, but Rogan's routines would have to be eviscerated to pass muster with network censors, and that's a step he's not willing to take. So Rogan's bit about a cloned Jesus coming back mentally retarded and his impression of Arnold Schwarzenegger getting buggered with a cucumber remain the province of clubs, Internet clips and DVDs. "HBO's not doing specials anymore, and there's too much I wouldn't be able to talk about on Comedy Central," he says. "There aren't too many places you can perform, so a lot of people have no idea what to expect."

While Rogan calls stand-up his priority, he ranks The Man Show as his most enjoyable TV job yet. "There's a really talented writing staff, including a couple of Boston guys," Rogan says. "We all sit around and come up with sketch ideas. It's a really cool environment—easily the most fun I've had on a show."

The Man Show is the Anti-Oprah, with Rogan and Stanhope constantly pushing censors' limits. In one episode, for example, the Wheel of Destiny game featured an unlucky audience member getting his temperature taken the hard way by "Nurse Angry Hand." But Rogan's own personality is decidedly at odds with the macho pretense of the show. "Martial arts is great because it releases you from the insecurity that you have to prove yourself," he says. "We're all a bunch of talking monkeys trying to protect our mating grounds. It's all driven by ego. Clean yourself of your ego and realize that you're just an organism moving around in the universe. To reach that point, you could do yoga or something, or you could do a big, fat, healthy dose of mushrooms."

The experience he's gained over the years has also helped Rogan's stand-up act. "I'm better now than I was in my 20s," he says. "When you're young, you're just a boner standing there with a beer in your hand trying to make people laugh. I understand my place in the world better now." ■

TURNING THE TABLES

Quick—what's the best city in America for dining out?

Chances are, you picked New York. With approximately 21,000 restaurants—more than all but two states—New York City is in a league of its own. San Francisco, a pioneer in the eclectic, seasonal style that came to be known as California cuisine, is probably right up there in quality of food, if not in quantity of restaurants. Then there's New Orleans, a city that's well known for its rich culinary history. All of those places are positively passionate about food.

Where does Boston fit in on the culinary spectrum? Historically, it has been dismissed for lacking a cuisine. In the 1990s, it was dissed for the one that it had. But in the past few years, something exciting has been afoot. You can feel it in the anticipation when a restaurant opens. You can see it on cooking shows that have turned Boston chefs like Todd English and Ming Tsai into national stars. You can hear it in the way "Jasper," "Todd" and "Lydia" have joined "Nomar," "Matt" and "Ben" as part of our local lexicon. And, of course, you can taste it in a cuisine diverse and sophisticated enough to attract the attention of critics and the public alike.

Consider the growing list of James Beard Foundation Award winners over the past few years, from members of the old guard like Jasper White (now of the Summer Shack) and Frank McClelland (L'Espalier) to rising stars like Ana Sortun (Oleana) and Barbara Lynch (No. 9 Park), who is described as "a hometown heroine" in Gourmet's 2003 Restaurant issue.

Tanya Steel, of Bon Appétit, credits chefs like Jasper White, Lydia Shire and Gordon Hamersley for sparking "a culinary renaissance" in the '80s. (Back then, White was chef at his own Jasper's; Shire, currently chef and co-owner of Locke-Ober and Excelsior, established herself at Seasons and Biba; and Hamersley had already opened the eponymous bistro he runs today). Now, Steel says, chefs like Lynch, Ken Oringer (Clio), Michael Schlow (Radius, Via Matta, Great Bay) and other members of the next generation are "making Boston into a world-class restaurant city."

"World class"? The phrase has long applied in education, technology and medicine, but has Boston, once a city of culinary underachievers, really cracked the top tier of foodie destinations? "I don't think there's any city in America we can't compete with," says Gordon Hamersley.

Maybe so, but it sure wasn't always that way.

BY ANDY LEVINSKY

ILLUSTRATIONS BY ALLI ARNOLD

HAVE BOSTON RESTAURANTS FINALLY MADE THE BIG LEAGUES?
RESPONDING TO PAST RANTS FROM CRITICS, LOCAL CHEFS TALK TURKEY
ABOUT DINING OUT IN BEANTOWN.

CRITICAL MASS

"Boston has become an island of lost cuisine, a refuge for chefs without a sense of reality."
—Alan Richman, GQ, September 1997

A lot has happened on our little island since food and wine critic Alan Richman, a "pretentious New Yorker" (as he was called by his friend and dining companion), put this city's cuisine on a skewer in GQ magazine. Any chef who was around town six years ago will recall "The Boston Glob," a six-page diatribe against local chefs, restaurants and even diners written by the former "Boston homesteader."

What was his beef? The preparations were too fussy. The portions were too big. The lines were too long. The attire was too casual. Oh, and then there was the service, which evoked "a smidgen of sympathy for beleaguered Boston diners. Not only are they served inedible food," he wrote, "they're scolded if they refuse to eat it."

Although he was not among the elite group Richman singled out for ridicule in his article, Steve Johnson, who recently left the Blue Room in Cambridge to plan his own restaurant, reacted to the "Glob" label pretty much as most local chefs did: "Alan has a reputation for being provocative," he shrugs. "It was designed to sell magazines."

No doubt—and yet, for a long time, certain impressions stuck. Take the whole notion of culinary overload. "Boston chefs have gone beyond the idiosyncratic to the fringes of derangement," Richman wrote. "What comes to the table at Boston's most highly regarded restaurants is mammoth portions of incompatible ingredients."

Like big hair, "big food" was not invented in Boston—it was merely practiced here. Any notion to the contrary is based, largely, on one chef whom Richman identified as the perpetrator of this trend.

"I'm a generous person," says Todd English, whose big flavors—and portions—drew throngs of Bostonians to his first restaurant, Olives, in Charlestown, from the time it opened, in May 1989. Today, the English stamp on everything from the pizzeria (Figs) to the steakhouse (Bonfire) to the seafood restaurant (Kingfish Hall in Boston, Fish Club in Seattle) continues to draw plenty of customers, along with his share of detractors, in the food world.

"Full frontal assault cooking" is how New York Times restaurant critic William Grimes describes the food at Olives New York, part of the growing English empire that spans from Aspen to Tokyo. Grimes confesses to liking some dishes very much. "But in the end," he says, "I felt sort of pistol-whipped."

It was this style—lusty, bold, generous (or sloppy, excessive and assaultive), that became synonymous with Boston throughout much of the '90s. "I don't think it was exclusive to Boston," recalls Robert Fathman, chef at Azure. Fathman observed the same trend in Los Angeles, where he worked for 10 years before arriving here in 1992. And Jody Adams, singled out by Richman for "an aberrant culinary creation" that came from the kitchen at her restaurant, Rialto in Cambridge, "standing on end like a rearing trained bear," also suggests the style was big—everywhere.

"I don't think our dishes were overwrought, any more than anyone else's," she says. "I think it was a period of time, if you look at restaurants in New York, where dishes stood a foot off the table." It was, after all, Alfred Portale, chef at Manhattan's revered Gotham Bar & Grill, who was widely known as "the king of vertical cuisine."

If Boston plates are less about form and more about function, maybe they are a reaction to this showiness. East Coast Grill chef Chris Schlesinger, who was scolded by Richman for putting "way too much food on his plates," says that sometimes restaurants "try too hard to be artful." With their more generous, casual presentations, chefs like Schlesinger and English seemed to be bucking the trend of nouvelle cuisine, which appeared more concerned with satisfying the eyes than filling the stomach.

"It's easier to make food look beautiful when it's smaller portions, but at what price?" asks Schlow, a former New York chef. He found out when he first opened Radius, in 1999. Some of his customers would order his six-course tasting menu and tell him, "I was starving afterwards." Today, Schlow says, he makes sure diners have enough food on the plate "because Boston certainly is portion conscious."

If that somehow makes our palates less sophisticated, so be it. Diners here know that quantity is no substitute for quality, but we also challenge the idea that generous portion sizes can somehow turn good food bad. So do many of the chefs here, much to their credit. Now if only our service held up as well under heavy grilling.

"WE ARE ALL COLLEGIAL BECAUSE WE KNOW EACH OTHER, BECAUSE WE GREW UP TOGETHER."

Laura Brennan, Caffe Umbria

WAITING TO BE SERVED?

When Zagat polled Boston diners for its Zagat 2003/04 Boston Restaurant Survey, whopping 77 percent of respondents cited service as the "most irritating" aspect of dining out. Food was a distant second, at 5 percent. And though Bon Appétit's Steel includes Boston on her list of the five best restaurant cities in America, she refers to the service here as "the last component to fall into place." Schlow seems less confident that it actually has. When he was first interviewing staff from other Boston restaurants for jobs at Radius, he says, something was "really wrong." He recalls thinking, "Either they're not understanding what [other owners] are teaching, or they're teaching some really bad habits."

Is the staff situation in this town really as "horrific" as Schlow, and apparently many diners, believe? Is it a difference in style—a preference for the kind of "friendly, unobtrusive, seamless service" Fathman generally finds here and actually favors over that of Manhattan, where it can be "a bit stiff." Or does service get a bad rap here simply because, as Hamersley suggests, "Bostonians like to bitch and moan about something, and they can't bitch and moan about the food as much anymore"?

The average waiter at Hamersley's Bistro in the South End is somewhere in his or her late 20s to early 40s. "That shows me that they're professional waiters," Hamersley says. "It's not like in L.A., where everybody is an actor, or New York, where everybody is a playwright, and they're doing waiting on the side."

Age and experience may be basic ingredients of good service, but what about attitude? Steve Johnson points out that if Bostonians are perceived as less friendly or more rude in general, then "there's no reason to single out restaurants." So if service is the most important thing about a restaurant, as Schlow says, where does that leave us? Probably on a par with cities like New York or Los Angeles, which have attitude and service problems of their own.

Whatever reservations we have about service apparently fade during the time we're given to contemplate our experience as we wait for our checks. According to the Zagat survey, Bostonians, along with Philadelphians, are the most generous tippers in the United States, a surprising statistic considering the stereotypes about Yankees being tightwads. Then again, Boston's chefs aren't the only ones in need of an image makeover.

> "PEOPLE COME IN IN THEIR BEST BOWLING SHIRT. I DON'T CARE. I WOULD RATHER THEY COME IN AND ENJOY THE WAY WE COOK THAN NOT COME IN AT ALL."
>
> —Michael Schlow, Radius

DRESS CODE BLUE

Let's start with the perception: When it comes to fine dining, you can take Bostonians out, but you can't dress them up. "Jeans," Richman observed in his 1997 article, "go out to eat in Boston all too often."

So it's a little surprising to hear Mark-Evan Blackman, an associate professor at the Fashion Institute of Technology in New York, describe Bostonians as "a little more formal in their approach to attire" than New Yorkers. In that city, he says, diners are more likely to wear a $2,000 blazer over a pair of jeans," whereas here, "people make a conservative effort to put on a jacket."

Never mind that the jacket was made in the disco era. "You might have somebody who comes in, who you know has been wearing that tweed jacket for 25 years," says Jody Adams, "but it's not inappropriate or disrespectful or anything like that. It's just the way it is."

"People come in [to Radius] in their best bowling shirt. I don't care," Schlow says. "I would rather they come in and enjoy the way we cook than not come in at all."

These days, any rule that might discourage a customer from coming through the door seems less palatable to most restaurant owners. But long before the current sag in the economy, dress codes were on the way out. For the Boston diner, the issue is, well, old-fashioned. We were tweedy, even seedy, long before it was cool. In our own way, we anticipated the trend toward a casual look, where practically anything goes.

"Styles have changed," says Robert Fathman. "What wasn't acceptable 20 years ago, today is acceptable." And if what we're wearing happens to be from 20 years ago, well, it seems we should wear it proudly.

BOSTON'S FOOD CHAIN

It was a perfect metaphor: Boston's community of chefs was a symbol for, well, Boston. Wasn't it Shire, after all, who worked with Hamersley, who trained Adams, who also had begun with Shire, and so on? If Boston really was, as Richman's critique suggested, "this most insular of cities," its chefs must have been products of their parochial, incestuous training.

The idea that so many homegrown, locally trained chefs led to a monolithic style of cooking is easily disproved by the differences between, say, chef Paul O'Connell of the Cuban/French bistro Chez Henri; Bob Sargent, who cooks up New American–style cuisine at Clio; and Anthony Caturano of the rustic Mediterranean Prezza. All did tours of duty with Todd English at Olives.

For those who were new to the profession, or striking out on their own for the first time, Boston's tight community of chefs was simply a good support system. Early on, for example, the city had the largest chef's collaborative in the country—larger, even, than California's and New York's. "Boston's always had a tight-knit community [where] people looked at each other as colleagues more than competitors," says the East Coast Grill's Schlesinger.

"In some ways, it was kind of nice and provincial, in that sense," Jody Adams says. "We were definitely competitive, but there was also a really strong sense that when one rises, everyone rises."

That may be changing. As Boston has become a top dining destination, more chefs with no previous connection to the area have been drawn here. The result, ironically, is that those chefs attracted here by the sense of community may be less likely to find it. "One of the reasons I moved here was the idea that this was a really tight-knit culinary community," says Schlow. "It's a little more cliquish than that. I do think that everybody's friendly to each other, for the most part. But we don't do a ton of stuff together."

Many activities in Boston's chef community are centered around charitable events, like the Super Hunger Brunch each February. Others involve the promotion of regional farmers and food producers. Whether these types of activities will be enough to sustain a strong chef's community—even with the growing number of restaurants and the influx of outsiders—remains unclear.

"We are all collegial because we know each other, because we grew up together," says Laura Brennan, the veteran Boston chef who recently struck out on her own to open Caffe Umbra in the South End. "Whether that will be different remains to be seen, as those of us who've been cooking for a long time sell or step down. Who knows what will happen in 10 years? I don't know what the next tier will do."

The early links in Boston's food chain—chefs like Schlesinger, Adams and Hamersley—seem energized by the current wave from out of town. This infusion of new talent, they suggest, has helped elevate the city's culinary standards. The challenge will be to create a balance, preserving the influence of those who helped establish our local cuisine, while encouraging those who are taking it in new and exciting directions.

ARE WE THERE YET?

What would Richman say about Boston restaurants today?

GQ's former restaurant critic dismissed diners here for "mindless devotion" to who chefs are "and not all that much thought to what they are doing," but it would be difficult to ignore the buzz coming from outside Boston. Talk to people in the culinary world today and you get a definite sense of a city on the verge.

Steel, of Bon Appétit, says Boston has "one of the finest levels of independent, chef-owned neighborhood restaurants." Veteran food writer John Mariani, at Esquire, raves about places like Great Bay, under Michael Schlow ("I think he has really taken seafood in Boston to a different level"), and Bricco, now run by Rita D'Angelo and Marisa Iocco ("the best Italian food in America"). Both writers now rank Boston among the top five American cities for dining out.

Reservations? Even Boston chefs have a few.

"Dare I be the one to say it: There just aren't enough foodies in this town," Schlow says. Compared with cities like San Francisco, where "they act is if good food is some sort of birthright, I don't think it's that important here. I think we like it, I think we enjoy it when we have it, but I don't think we are so fierce about it, and so protective of it."

At the same time, Schlow says, "I don't know of too many cities where the citizens have a first-name-basis relationship with all their chefs." That relationship, he has discovered, goes beyond just name recognition. "You can build in Boston a really wonderful, really loyal friendship with your guests here that I never really felt with my New York clientele. These people have become my friends and family."

The big leagues? Maybe that happens one New York convert at a time. He'll never be a Red Sox fan, Schlow insists. "But I threw out the first pitch at Fenway this year," he says excitedly. "That was pretty cool."

A tip of the toque to Jody Adams, Chris Schlesinger, Robert Fathman, Todd English, Laura Brennan, Michael Schlow and Steve Johnson, who contributed their feedback on the Boston dining scene for this article.

cheese, GLORIOUS cheese

CREAMY, DELICATE, PUNGENT, RICH —
SOME OF THE COUNTRY'S MOST DELICIOUS DAIRY TREATS ARE JUST A DAY TRIP AWAY

BY JULIE SURATT
PHOTOGRAPHS BY BOB PERACHIO

Six cheese farms in three states—in one day. "Why?" asks my editor, when I first propose an article about the cheeses of New England. "Uh, because they're there?" I'm serious. In recent years, many New England farms have begun to produce artisanal, or handcrafted, cheeses. But they're still a secret to most Boston gourmands.

My tour begins on a Tuesday morning in late July. I rise before dawn, stumble to my car with a cup of coffee in hand, and head west, armed with my itinerary, a map and directions like "Turn left at the general store." My first destination: Smith's Country Cheese in Winchendon, Mass.

Out past Concord, the traffic lessens on Route 2, and the drive becomes more tranquil, traversing rolling hills and passing endless stretches of cornfields. At the end of unpaved roads intersecting the highway, farmstands sell vine-ripened tomatoes and cartons of just-picked blueberries. My itinerary has me arriving at Smith's Farm by 8 am. After a few wrong turns, I eventually pull into the gravel parking lot just as rain begins to fall. So much for a beautiful day in the country.

I know that Serena Ball, the highly organized communications director of the New England Dairy Promotion Board, which represents more than 30 cheese farms, would have arranged for sunshine had she a direct line to Mother Nature. She's been amazingly responsive to my calls ever since we first met a year ago, when she was promoting New England cheeses at a tasting event. She tells me that locally produced cheeses swept category after category at the prestigious American Cheese Society's annual competition in San Francisco this year. Who knew? Not the general public, I thought. I was eager to see for myself.

Jennifer Smith meets me at the door to Smith's Country Cheese, which is known for its farmstead Gouda. The term "farmstead," Smith explains as she leads me into her family's cheese-making facility, refers to cheese made by a farmer using exclusively the milk from his or her own herd. The well-known Cabot Creamery's cheese, for example, isn't considered farmstead because Cabot uses milk from a number of cooperative farms in central Vermont. With 200 Holsteins, the Smiths have been making cheese from their own milk for 18 years.

At Smith's Country Cheese, in Winchendon, Mass., milk from the farm's 200 Holstein cows is used to make several varieties of Gouda and other cheeses. Here, curds are molded into blocks for ripening.

Smith starts off with a cheese-making tutorial. The first step in the process is to pump fresh milk into a vat and heat it slowly. The cheese maker then adds culture and rennin to make it curdle. The whey (the watery part of milk that separates from the curds) is drained away, and the concentrated curds are molded into blocks or wheels. Then the cheese is left to ripen. This is when the different flavors and characteristics develop. Farmstead cheese makers generally use raw, unpasteurized milk in their cheese because they feel the pasteurization process removes some of the character of their milk. While the cheese ripens, it builds up acids that cause it to self-pasteurize, making it safe to eat. The FDA, which regulates the dairy industry, mandates that cheese be aged at least 60 days.

When I enter the back room at Smith's, I see row upon colorful row of Gouda wheels in various stages of aging. Some are floating in brine—absorbing the salt flavor—for 12 hours. Others have been removed from the brine, scrubbed to remove extra salt and left to dry on a shelf. The next day they'll be brushed with a protective coating to prevent mold from growing. Every other day, the wheel will be turned over so that the coat dries evenly. In 10 days, the wheel is dipped into a cherry-red wax and placed on a shelf in cold storage. Two months later, it's sent to local grocers, as well as chain markets like Shaw's and Whole Foods.

Smith's two-person cheese-making operation consists of Jennifer's father, David, and head cheese maker Marcia Sims. David awakens at 4 am daily to milk the cows. Three times a week, the pair makes plain Gouda; varieties of Gouda flavored with cumin, caraway, garlic and sun-dried tomato and basil; cheddar; and various cheese spreads. I leave without trying any cheese—it's just too early for Gouda. Smith tells me that anybody who stops by can watch the process through a glass window and taste the cheese afterward.

I return to my car and drive 25 minutes northwest along winding roads to a small farmhouse perched on a grassy hill in Warwick, Mass. As I proceed down the narrow lane to Chase Hill Farm, a tall, thin man wearing a flannel shirt and jeans waves his arms over his head. I think he's waving hello, until I see a herd of cows trotting toward my car and across the road in front of me. I pull over and watch them pass. "Bet you didn't expect to hit rush hour up here," jokes Mark Fellows, who owns this organic farm with his wife, Jeannette. Mark inherited the farm from his parents, and three years ago, the couple converted the milk room into a cheese room and began making Colby and Camembert. How did they decide on these two cheeses? "I make what I like," says Jeannette, garbed in overalls and big rubber boots. She tells me that the taste and color of her Colby vary according to the season, depending on whether the cows are eating grass (deep yellow) or hay (paler yellow). That bright orange Colby sold at supermarkets is "artificial," says Jeanette. The Fellows' product is creamy and buttery.

With only 30 Normande, Jersey and Holstein cows, Chase Hill is one of the smaller cheese producers on my tour. The Fellows consider themselves farmers first and foremost. "We're not gourmets," says Jeanette. "People ask, 'Can you taste the grass and clover?' I don't know." The couple sure is friendly, though. When I leave, they thrust a paper bag full of cheese into my hands, imploring me to come again soon.

I drive about an hour north to visit with the Jersey cows of Westminster Dairy in southern Vermont. Cheese maker Peter Dixon, a lanky man who has the taut energy of a marathoner, is in the back room, stirring a huge vat of Toma (a cow's milk cheese with a washed rind). He's been doing this for 20 years, "so I should be able to make cheese and talk at the same time," he says. Dixon and co-owner Bill Acquaviva make organic Italian and French cheeses, including mozzarella, feta, ricotta, Brie and Camembert, and aged raw-milk cheeses (provolone, Parmesan and Asiago). No cheddar. "There was already too much cheddar out there," Dixon says. He makes a different type of cheese every day except Sunday, which is reserved for family time.

Dixon takes me on a tour of the farm's cellar, where hundreds of blocks of cheese are aged at a low temperature. He explains that many New England farmers have begun to convert their milking facilities to cheese making because they can make a greater profit on cheese. "The government sets the price of milk, but you can sell cheese for whatever price you want—especially if it's organic," he adds. "Committed patrons will buy organic no matter what the price."

Nothing goes to waste during the process. When Dixon makes mozzarella, for example, he uses the leftover whey to make ricotta. He offers me samples of a creamy Camembert—my personal favorite—smoked feta, Vermont pinnacle, Toma and smoked provolone until I can eat no more and retreat outside to my car, the screen door slamming behind me.

I'm Boggy Meadow bound. This huge farm situated in the Connecticut River Valley of southern New Hampshire boasts a herd of 280 Holsteins, which explains the pervasive aroma of manure as I drive down the lane. A large glass window in the general store allows visitors to watch the graceful efforts of Mark Whitney, who's been making award-winning baby Swiss since 1997. He greets me with slices of two types of Swiss on a plate. I nibble on one. It's delicious: buttery and slightly nutty. Another slice has a sweet, smoked flavor that can be traced to the maple wood used in the smokehouse. Both cheeses have tiny holes, called eyes, made by carbon dioxide bubbles that form during the cheesemaking process. When I ask, "Why baby Swiss?" I again hear the reply, "Everybody makes cheddar."

I head next toward Grafton Village Cheese, located 15 scenic but twisty miles from Boggy Meadow in the heart of what appears to be the quintessential Vermont town. After passing a historic inn and old Victorian homes with wraparound porches, I find the farm next to a covered bridge that spans the lower Saxtons River. But when I walk in, I realize this isn't like the other farms I've visited that day. In comparison, it's a big-time operation. Vice president Peter Mohn confirms this fact: Grafton Village Cheese has seven cheese makers and produces 5,000 pounds per day. But, he emphasizes, that's nowhere near the production of a company like Kraft, which produces about 900,000 pounds per day. Also, Grafton's cheeses are mostly made by hand, using milk supplied by 14 different farms.

UpStairs on the Square's cheese plate includes a range of textures, colors and flavors.

I'm happy to see the ubiquitous cheddar that everyone's been talking about all day. My mouth starts to water as Mohn brings out a plate of cheese chunks with wooden toothpicks. He's particularly proud of the company's newest focus: aged cheddars. He stabs a crumble of cheese that's been aged for four years and hands it to me. "There's so much more complexity and flavor" than in younger cheddars, he says. I put it in my mouth. Initially it's salty, and then it melts to a wonderful buttery finish. "I'm not sure Americans know what real cheddar should taste like," he says. He refers to typical shelf-brand cheddars as "3- to 6-month-old, rubbery, bland pieces of wax." Cheddar should be rich and creamy, with a complex aftertaste, Mohn says.

We bypass the window where visitors normally stand to watch the process and head for the factory floor itself. The men are just beginning to fill the giant vats (so much bigger than anything I've seen all day) with milk. We walk back into the cold storage, and I see shelves stretching endlessly down the length of the building, with huge blocks of shrink-wrapped cheese stacked on each.

I'm interested, but I'm really thinking about the store at the front of the farm where they have samples of each of the cheeses sitting on the counter. I want more of that 4-year-old cheddar.

I thank Mohn and Grafton Village marketing guru Chad Bassette for showing me around. So far, this is the most established of the cheese farms that I've visited. They even have a video of the cheese-making process, which Bassette sticks into my doggie bag. It turns out that he lives next door to the final farm on my tour, so I follow him along the back roads to Taylor Farm in Londonderry, Vt.

By now, it's 5:30 pm, and I'm exhausted. Owner Jon Wright is in the fields when I pull into the driveway. He waves and approaches the car. As I explain my purpose for being there, a calf tethered by the barn moos for attention. Wright—a cheerful man with a dark, full beard—acknowledges the calf with a wave of his hand and then shrugs his shoulders with a sheepish smile: just another one of his babies. Wright has 40 Holsteins, which he milks twice a day. He also finds the time to make 800 pounds of Gouda—plain, cumin, smoked and garlic—every week, and he hopes to expand the operation and increase production to 1,200 pounds a week. Ever industrious, he and his wife have just opened a bed-and-breakfast on the property, and they offer sleigh rides pulled by Belgian draft horses in the winter. Visitors can watch the cheese-making process and even participate.

Sensing that I'm a weary traveler on her last legs, Wright opens the refrigerator. Just in time, I'm rewarded for nearly 200 miles of travel with a slice of smoked Gouda, a delicate, sweet, creamy creation far different from the waxy chunk you get at the supermarket. Who needs crackers when you have cheese that tastes this good?

I thank Wright, return to my car—again with a goody bag of cheese. I have a three-hour journey back to Boston ahead of me. But my stomach is full of Gouda, mozzarella, Colby, cheddar, baby Swiss and Camembert. I'm happy. iB

TO BRIE OR NOT TO BRIE

To most Americans, cheese is a hunger stopgap—a chunk of bright orange cheddar sandwiched between two Triscuits to be devoured before dinner. To the French, on the other hand, cheese is a sliver of Raclette or a slice of Camembert that's savored after dinner with a glass of port. Thankfully, in recent years Americans have been catching on to the joys of this dairy delicacy. More than two dozen local restaurants offer cheese plates—and that number is growing as Bostonians become educated on the finer points of Neufchâtel, Grana Padano and Manchego.

We surveyed a number of local restaurants to find out who's doing what with cheese. Jody Adams, chef/owner of Rialto, summarizes it best: "Cheese is one of God's miracles. It has a lifespan, and it must be treated with respect and care." Amen, sister!

Where are they serving cheese? Aujourd'hui, Beacon Hill Bistro, Blu, Blue Room, Brasserie Jo, Caffe Umbra, Clio, Craigie Street Bistrot, L'Espalier, Excelsior, Great Bay, Hamersley's Bistro, Harvest, Julien, Maison Robert, Meritage, No. 9 Park, Pigalle, Radius, Rialto, Sage, Saint, Sandrine's, Sel de la Terre, 75 Chestnut, Le Soir, Troquet, UpStairs on the Square, the Vault, Via Matta and Les Zygomates all offer cheese plates.

What are they serving? Goat's, sheep's or cow's milk cheese; European or American; soft, semihard, hard—you name it, and restaurants offer it. Jason Bond of No. 9 Park seeks out hand-made "farmstead" cheeses. (For cheese to qualify as "farmstead," it must be made entirely from milk from the farmer's own herd.) "I don't use a lot of American cheeses," Bond says, preferring instead French and Italian varieties. The same is true of Brasserie Jo's Antoine Camin, a Paris transplant, who serves only imported cheeses. But, he adds, "There's a lot of very good cheese in the United States." Tony Maws of Craigie Street Bistrot tries to mix up textures: "We'll serve a runny, gooey cow, with a drier sheep and a younger goat—all French, of course." The key is to go with the flow, says Vincent Sapochetti of UpStairs on the Square. "Take advantage of seasonal cheeses. Right now, goat's milk cheeses are spectacular."

When are they serving it? Jody Adams of Rialto says she initially wanted to offer cheese as an appetizer to introduce diners to the concept of gourmet cheese: "We figured if we put it after the meal, they wouldn't order it." Six years later, Rialto's cheese plate is now listed on the dessert menu. And for good reason: "People don't realize that eating cheese as an appetizer destroys their palate for the courses that follow," says Maws of Craigie Street, who recommends cheese as a way to finish off a bottle of wine at the end of a meal. For those worried about the added calories, think of it this way: "It's the equivalent of a big piece of cake," says Sapochetti of UpStairs. "Only it's not as heavy."

How is the cheese served? Marble or wooden cheese boards, custom-built cheese carts, oversized trays. Whatever the presentation, the offerings are the same: hunks and chunks of cheeses of all varieties for the choosing. Adams serves three different cheeses—usually a blue, a hard and a soft cheese—with seasonal fruit, almond-filled dates, macadamia nuts, bulgur crackers and sliced Tuscan rolls. "I tried to take away the crackers and fruit, but people rebelled," she says.

Louis Risoli at L'Espalier offers 25 different cheeses on a tray. He can describe each cheese—where it's from, what kind of milk is used, a little bit about the flavor and the story behind the cheese. Guests can choose up to 12 cheeses (à la carte), and Risoli arranges them on a plate in a tasting order— from the least complex to the most full-flavored—paired with dried fruits and nuts.

Of course, if you're a traditionalist, you'll eat cheese without any accompaniment. "In France, it's only about the cheese," says Maws.

Who are the cheese experts? Most restaurants have one person on their staff who is educated on how to care for cheese—not an easy task, say the cheese aficionados. Chris Campbell, owner of Troquet, for example, plays the dual role of sommelier (for more than 400 wines) and cheese server. "Taking care of the cheese is a lot more work, at least two hours every day," he says. "You have to wash and rotate it daily." Rarely does a restaurant have one person whose sole responsibility is serving cheese. "I can think of only two in New York," Campbell says—but that doesn't mean the waitstaff doesn't know its cheese. Campbell points to Sapochetti at UpStairs as an example. "He knows everything about cheese, but he's also a waiter."—J.S.

THE FARM LEAGUE

All the farms I visited offer opportunities to watch the cheese-making process and, of course, purchase cheese. Call ahead. For a more complete list of New England's cheese makers, visit www.newenglandcheese.com.

Boggy Meadow Farm, 13 Boggy Meadow Lane, Walpole, N.H. 877-541-3953. www.fannymasoncheese.com.

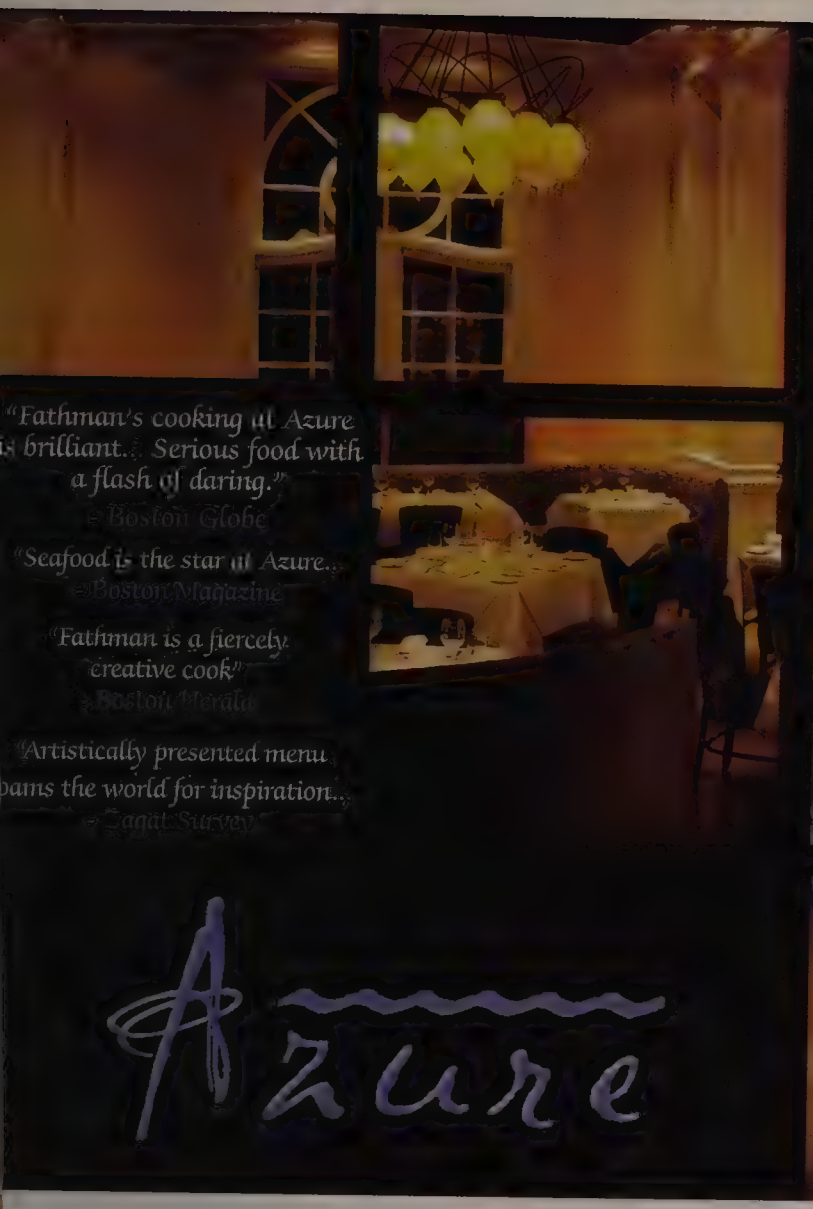
Chase Hill Farm, 74 Chase Hill Road, Warwick, Mass. 978-544-6327.

Grafton Village Cheese, 533 Townshend Road, Grafton, Vt. 800-472-3866. www.graftonvillagecheese.com.

Smith's Country Cheese, 20 Otter River Road, Winchendon, Mass. 800-700-9974.

Taylor Farm, 825 Route 11, Londonderry, Vt. 802-824-5690. www.taylorfarmvermont.com.

Westminster Dairy, 1289 Westminster West Road, Westminster West, Vt. 802-387-5110.



"Fathman's cooking at Azure is brilliant... Serious food with a flash of daring."
- Boston Globe

"Seafood is the star at Azure..."
- Boston Magazine

"Fathman is a fiercely creative cook"
- Boston Herald

"Artistically presented menu pans the world for inspiration..."
- Zagat Survey

Azure

The Lenox

CITY·BAR

Drinks at City Bar,
Dinner at Azure...

Exeter at Boylston/The Lenox • 617-933-4800

Sóláś
Irish pub

QUICK, COMFORTABLE LUNCH

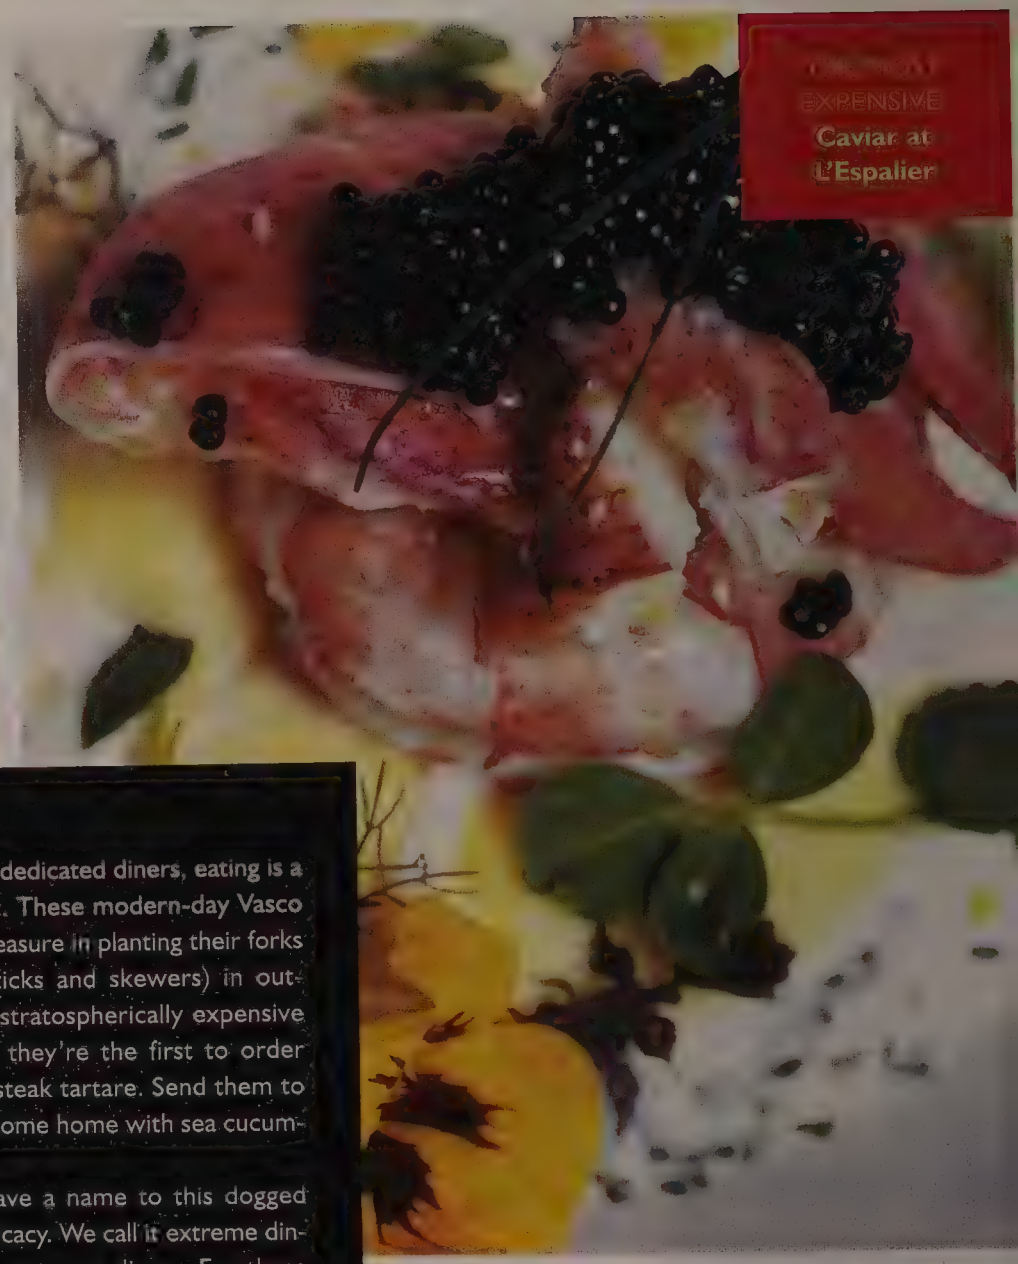
Live music every Wednesday Night.

Finest Food • Bar open until 2:00am • No Hassle.

Unique event function space available.

710 Boylston St. • 617-933-4803

THE OLDEST
Aged meats at Toscano's



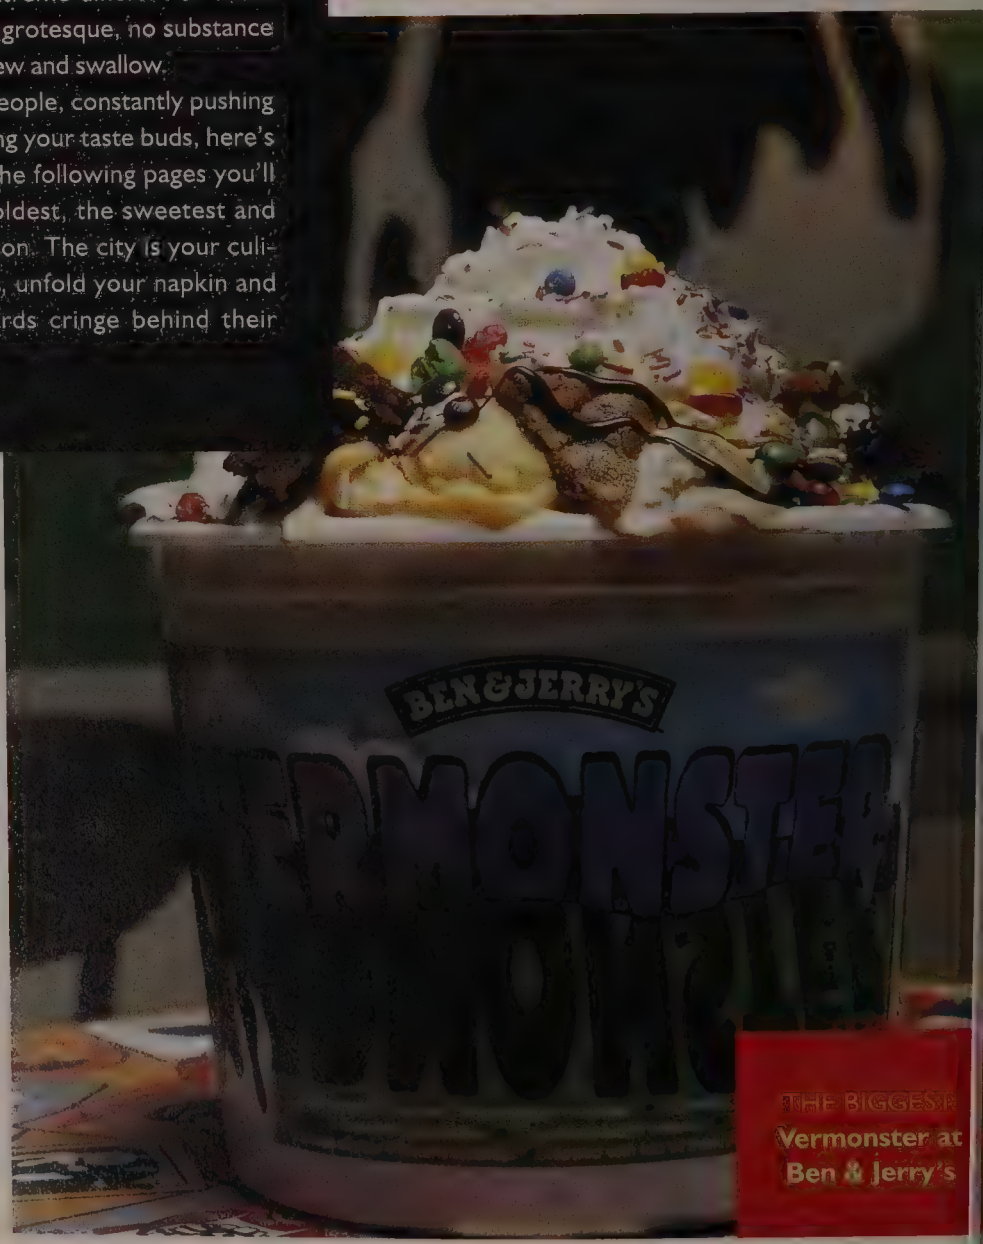
EXPENSIVE
Caviar at L'Espalier

For a rare crew of dedicated diners, eating is a form of conquest. These modern-day Vasco da Gamas take pleasure in planting their forks and knives (and chopsticks and skewers) in outlandish, exotic or even stratospherically expensive foods. At a restaurant, they're the first to order squid-ink fettuccine or steak tartare. Send them to the market, and they'll come home with sea cucumbers and pickled eel.

It's time someone gave a name to this dogged quest for the bizarre delicacy. We call it extreme dining and its practitioners extreme diners. For these folks, no animal part is too grotesque, no substance too rare and precious to chew and swallow.

If you are one of those people, constantly pushing the envelope and challenging your taste buds, here's a dining guide for you. In the following pages you'll find the spiciest and the oldest, the sweetest and the smelliest foods in Boston. The city is your culinary playground: Go forth, unfold your napkin and conquer, while the cowards cringe behind their meatloaf and milk.

[illegible]
Deep-fried Twinkies at Anthem



THE BIGGEST
Vermonster at Ben & Jerry's

GOING TO EXTREMES

BY GALEN MOORE

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA DANIELS

THE MOST EXOTIC

In our fair city (crossroads of culture that it is) one can find the hidden delicacies of a wide range of cuisines. Funky and unfamiliar as they may be, grit your teeth and give them a chance. They might join your list of regular cravings.

Tacos de Lengua at Taco Mex

"Tongue taco" is not a vulgar euphemism. It's an extremely popular Mexican appetizer, served and consumed with gusto in almost every authentic Mexican restaurant—in Boston and Jalisco.

At one time in history, tongue was prized universally. Now, sadly, most Americans are unaware of its many joys. The flavor is superb—like rare steak but far more tender and mild. At Taco Mex, in East Boston, a taco de lengua is tiny morsels of roasted beef-tongue piled high on two steaming corn tortillas, decked with cilantro and white onion, alongside lime and salsa verde.

So crack open a couple of cervezas and work up your nerve to try a tongue taco. You won't be disappointed.

Taco Mex, 65 Maverick Square, East Boston. 617-569-2838.

Les Amourettes at Baraka Café

Ah, the French—so inventive with their charming language. Les amourettes—literally, "the tiny loves"—is their term for the testicles of a lamb, a dish that is illegal to serve in the United States.

That may be one reason les amourettes are not on the menu at Cambridge's Baraka Café. But chef/owner Alia Meddeb will procure them for you with glee if you request them (at Baraka, they are called roignons blanc). A note of excitement creeps into Meddeb's voice as she describes the delicacy: "The same texture as foie gras, but lighter. They're really delicious."

Pan-seared and dressed simply with lemon preserves, crushed coriander, green olives and black pepper, they're served whole as an appetizer. Another reason they're not on Baraka's menu regularly is their relative scarcity. "You buy a lamb, you get two," Meddeb explains. "You don't get 10."

Baraka Café, 80½ Pearl St., Cambridge. 617-868-3951.

Fermented Tofu at Taiwan Café

The menu is a smorgasbord of outlandish delights: jellyfish, blood-pudding rice cakes, chilled pork intestines served three ways. Snatches of conversation drift across from neighboring tables: "The fish jumped out of the soup!" one diner enthuses.

This is the Taiwan Café. Fermented tofu is also on the menu here, but the waiters seem alarmed that anyone would order it. "It smells," cautions one.

Smell, it does. The aroma snaking up from the crisply fried cubes of fermented tofu has some of the sour, funky qualities of a wash-rind cheese like taleggio, but the dish lacks the cheese's creamy, nutty qualities. However, if you can get past the smell, this dish has its appeal. It tastes like cheesy tofu, as you might expect, and its fermented richness is cut by spicy pickled cabbage and a meaty, soy-based sauce. Recommended? Perhaps not. But if grossing out friends is your objective, this may be your ticket.

Taiwan Café, 34 Oxford St., Boston. 617-426-8181.

Cuttlefish at Hong Kong Eatery

Fish are on display in a bubbling tank in the window at the Hong Kong Eatery in Chinatown. Some are living; some are floating there, dead. A diner might understandably feel uncertain about the other items on display. Like the cuttlefish. Yellow and many-tentacled, these bulbous creatures of the sea lie roasted and spread out on sheet pans in Hong Kong Eatery's Harrison Avenue storefront. Aside from the dead fish in the tank, they are the most daunting thing in sight.

Yet they are surprisingly tasty. With swift, decisive strokes, a cook slices one specimen into bite-size pieces and packs them in a styrofoam container. They taste a lot like calamari. There, that wasn't so bad, was it?

Hong Kong Eatery, 79 Harrison Ave., Boston. 617-423-0838.

THE BIGGEST

While anyone can go and gorge themselves at an all-night buffet, the true extreme diner will look for the biggest portion: monumental dishes that would leave an ordinary gourmand quailing in fear. Your motivation? No plate is too great.

20-Ounce Steak at the Hilltop

If you didn't know what to expect at the Hilltop Steak House, the gigantic neon cactus out front should provide a hint. Inside, presiding over a menu of lesser meats, is the granddaddy of them all: the 20-ounce bone-in sirloin. Granted, the bone takes up some of the pound-and-a-quarter weight on this leviathan. Nonetheless, a 20-ounce steak will whup your butt if you don't give it the respect it deserves.

"It's definitely not for children," cautions the Hilltop's marketing director, Koren Broden.

Hilltop Steak House, 855 Broadway, Saugus. 781-233-7700.

Vermonster at Ben & Jerry's

It comes in a bucket: 20 scoops of ice cream; four bananas; four ladles of hot fudge; three chocolate-chip cookies; one brownie; and whatever toppings you want.

It is the Vermonster. It costs $28.50, and according to the scooper at Ben & Jerry's on Newbury Street, its consumption is usually restricted to fraternity pledges and bachelorette parties.

The Vermonster is understandably not the staff favorite. The massive sundae usually leaves the store, the patrons and the preparers a horrible, sticky mess.

Ben & Jerry's, 174 Newbury St., Boston. 617-536-5456.

Pasta Plates at Vinny T's

"Per uno" or "per due"—that's how each dish is offered on the menu at Vinny T's of Boston (formerly known as Vinny Testa's). But when you see the steaming plate set before you, it's difficult to imagine the "uno" they had in mind.

These plates are more like platters. A pork chop isn't one pork chop, but two—and they aren't skimpy. Penne Fiorentina comes piled before you on a long platter; in a seafood linguine dish, clams and noodles float in a swimming pool of a bowl that's piled above the rim with shrimp, mussels and calamari.

No one ever leaves hungry, the restaurant boasts. Most are probably unable even to get out of their chairs.

Vinny T's of Boston, 867 Boylston St., Boston. 617-262-6699.

THE MOST EXPENSIVE

Maybe your friends are truly hard to impress. Or maybe you take pleasure in popping into your mouth foods with price tags more suited to a jewelry store. Either way, here are a few suggestions.

Caviar Prix Fixe at L'Espalier

It must be nice to be Frank McClelland. The chef and owner of L'Espalier gets to play with many of the most expensive and rare ingredients available to the modern palate. So the self-described "caviar-addicted guy" has put a four-course caviar tasting (seven courses, if you include the cheese, soufflé and dessert) on his constantly changing menu.

The menu begins with Russian sevruga caviar served with Wellfleet oysters on the half shell with cactus-pear sorbet, and finishes with Iranian ossetra, accompanied by grilled loin of veal and flambéed calf's liver with salad of sweet corn, arugula and crisp bacon.

The Iranian ossetra is McClelland's favorite. "The Iranian has different layers of flavor—oily, nutty and all these different really amazing earthy flavor levels," he says. "And the eggs are just beautiful—almost orange in color."

L'Espalier's caviar degustation menu is $165; for $50 more, the sommelier will pour wines to match each course.

L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston. 617-262-3023.

Winter Truffles at Harvest

At $2,300 a pound, the white truffle of Alba is one ingredient that's procured rather like an illegal, mind-altering substance. Distributor Ben Maleson says he spends much of his time waiting to hear from his suppliers—usually in a van, engine running, in the alley behind Icarus, Harvest or one of his other restaurant accounts. "It's the never-ending exasperation of trying to hook up with the supply," he says.

At Harvest restaurant in Cambridge, chef Eric Brennan limits himself to black winter truffles, which usually go for about half the price of the white. Brennan uses truffles in many dishes and usually "tries to get the most he can for his money." Before he uses them, he stores them next to other foods, which pick up the truffle's exotic flavor. "It'll permeate eggshells," Brennan says.

What's this flavor like? Most people agree that it's hard to describe, because there's nothing else like it in the world. Maleson believes that it's not just the unique taste that makes diners crave the precious fungi. Apparently truffles contain chemicals that are nearly identical to human sex hormones. That might explain it.

Harvest, 44 Brattle St., Cambridge. 617-868-2255.

Bar-le-Duc Currant Jam

If you really are the toast of the town and want to prove it, break out a few jars of this stuff at your next brunch. At $26.99 for a 3-ounce container, English muffins for six could easily run you $100.

At Bar-le-Duc's jam-making factory in the tiny French village of Bar-le-Duc, hundreds of nimble-fingered workers seed each currant individually with a goose-feather quill. As each tiny fruit receives its coup de grâce, it sheds its skin, disgorges its seeds and yields up its tender pulp intact for the world's most expensive jelly.

According to Bar-le-Duc's literature, it takes three hours to produce a single kilogram of the precious product. However, it may take only 30 seconds to eat a croissant spread with the stuff.

Cardullo's Gourmet Shoppe, 6 Brattle St., Cambridge. 617-491-8888.

THE SPICIEST

Some diners overcome deeply ingrained feelings of revulsion to try new things. Others put off buying a house in order to make sure they get to taste caviar before they die. Only a chosen few will actually subject their bodies to dire physical pain in the name of extreme dining.

Hotter than Hell Night

Once a year, the waitresses at the East Coast Grill dress in costume. And the cooks in the kitchen get ready to dish out some hurt.

On the nights of Nov. 3, 4 and 5, the Cambridge restaurant will issue an open challenge to all Boston-area diners: You cannot eat this food, they say. With buckets of milk to cool their blistering hands, the cooks go to work preparing their dangerous wares—for example, a pork chop soaked in a pepper brine, studded with habanero peppers and served alongside "bad apple relish."

"It's a fight," says sous chef Jason Lord of the evening's festivities, during which cooks wear particle masks to protect their lungs. "It's a fight between kids that think they can eat it, and us that put the smack down."

East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Cambridge. 617-491-6568.

El Pelón Chili Pepper Eating Contest

After Hotter than Hell Night, you have six months to recuperate before the hot chili pepper eating contest at El Pelón Taquería, where contestants eat raw chili peppers until they can't eat them anymore.

The peppers are served in flights of three—with the relatively mild serrano and jalapeño to start, then through six other varieties, all the way up to the scorching Scotch bonnet and habanero peppers.

"We tantalize them with a glass of milk in front of them," says El Pelón owner Nate Walker. Meanwhile, the staff cheers the eaters on to tear-jerking heights of overconsumption. But Walker says the last thing he wants is for participants to go beyond their limit. "We've had some really crazy people in here," he says. For that reason, contestants must sign a document waiving their right to prosecute the restaurant for anything that happens to them as a result of eating too many chilies.

Winners receive a month of free food at El Pelón (starting as soon as they get out of the hospital).

El Pelón Taquería, 92 Peterborough St., Boston. 617-262-9090.

THE OLDEST

As America's most European city, Boston is a good place to find old food. We're not talking about HoJo's. We're talking about actual pieces of food that have been around long enough to dryly observe a few chic dining fads come and go. If you're looking for flavors that have a little history and character, here is where you may find them.

Aged Meats at Toscano's

At Beacon Hill's most venerable Italian restaurant, chef/owner Vinicio Paoli isn't satisfied with the prosciutto he imports from Italy. "If you go like this to a prosciutto you buy, it goes right through," he says, jabbing a thick finger at the unyielding surface of one of the prosciutto hams he serves in his restaurant.

Before a ham can come near a dinner plate in Toscano's, it must hang for six months in Paoli's wine cellar, which is located beneath the restaurant, alongside homemade salsiccia and pancetta. The texture of the prosciutto becomes daintier, the flavor nuttier. In comparison, prosciutto fresh from the store tastes a little salty and a little chewy.

Ristorante Toscano, 41 Charles St., Beacon Hill, Boston. 617-723-4090.

Fromage Fort at the South End Formaggio

As the cheese buyer at the South End Formaggio, Michael Lee knows about some old things. He points out tall wheels of 4-year-old gouda—deeply orange, its flavor like rich, savory candy—and 2-year-old parmigiano reggiano.

For Lee, these cheeses aren't old. They just taste the way they are supposed to. An old cheese, he says, is one that's definitely past its prime. "Cheese never really dies," Lee says. "It just comes to the point where people don't really want to buy it." When that happens, Lee grates it, adds wine and lets it sit. After a while, it becomes fromage fort, which the gourmet shop sells by the pound from a heavy stoneware urn.

With the consistency of goat cheese, fromage fort has a flavor that demands respect: powerful, straightforward and deeply mellowed. This is the kind of thing you might spread on your morning bagel—that is, if you are accustomed to drinking heavily at breakfast.

South End Formaggio, 268 Shawmut Ave., Boston. 617-350-6996.

Thousand-Year Eggs at Skipjack's

So-called thousand-year eggs are not 1,000 years old. Nor are they part of a traditional sushi chef's repertoire. Neither of those facts bothers Skipjack's sushi chef Otto Tsui in the slightest.

"If they like it, I make it," says Tsui as he deftly rolls french fries and ketchup between layers of seaweed paper and rice. The thousand-year egg is a duck egg preserved for about six months. The shell is light gray, the white a deep greenish amber, the yolk the color of spinach. (Maybe this is what inspired Dr. Seuss.) In an Asian salad, dressed with Tsui's ponzu sauce and sprinkled with scallions, they taste delicious. More rich in flavor than a regular egg, and velvety in texture.

Why are they called thousand-year eggs? Tsui is at a loss. "Maybe some people lied and said it's a thousand years old," he suggests. "It looks like it's a thousand years old."

Skipjack's, 55 Needham St., Newton. 617-964-4244.

THE SWEETEST

So you say you have a sweet tooth. Nothing's too sugary, too fatty, too rich for your blood? Care to prove it?

The Mars Bar Toastie at the Squealing Pig

The Squealing Pig, near Brigham Circle, is known for its "toasties," hot, crispy sandwiches made in a sandwich press. The list of sandwich fillings is listed proudly on a large chalkboard: turkey reuben; salmon; brie and cranberry; among other appetizing options.

Then, down at the bottom, there it is—doubtless the invention of some willful 7-year-old: the Mars Bar Toastie. Slices of Mars bar and banana laid lovingly between two Eggo waffles, grilled and topped with whipped cream and chocolate sauce.

You may feel the need to radically change your diet after eating one of these. Thankfully, the Harvard School of Public Health is right across the street.

The Squealing Pig, 134 Smith St., Boston. 617-566-6651

Deep-Fried Twinkies at Anthem

Desserts can be evil. Remember the Stay-Puft Marshmallow man in Ghostbusters? This is something like that—only a lot smaller. And possibly a lot more evil.

"[A Twinkie] is evil to begin with," says Robert Fathman, chef at the new restaurant Anthem and creator of the deep-fried treat. "And then you dip it in batter and fry it."

Fathman's disturbing concoction is on the menu at Anthem, which just opened near North Station. The chef says he doesn't know how the public will react, but he's prepared for anything. "We'll have an EMT standing by," he promises.

Anthem, 138 Portland St., Boston. 617-523-8383. IB

with a twist.

MARTINIS AND GAMBLING*
WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 29
FROM 7-11PM
UPSTAIRS AT THE BLACK ROSE

please join us as we raise money for the susan komen breast cancer foundation. tables and prizes provided by mohegan sun and the pink libations provided by seagrams vodka
DOOR DONATION $5.00

The Black Rose
RÓISÍN DUBH

*DENOTES NON-AUTHENTIC MONEY WILL BE USED

160 state street • BOSTON • 617 742-2286 www.IRISHconnection.com

THE LAST DROP

THE LAST DROP 596 WASHINGTON ST. OAK SQUARE, BRIGHTON 617.787.1111 ✦ 421 MARLBOROUGH ST., BACK BAY, BOSTON 617.262.55

WHITE HORSE TAVERN

Now offering FREE wireless internet to our customers

3 NEW 50″ PLASMA TV'S

Watch all the fall match-ups here!

Never a cover charge

WHITE HORSE TAVERN 116 BRIGHTON AVE., ALLSTON 617. [illegible] MON.-SAT. 11:30-2AM SUN. 10-2AM FOOD UNTIL MIDNIG

IN THE KITCHEN WITH COOKIE

Here's a sampling of restaurants that teach amateur chefs how to cook like a pro.

The Elephant Walk
Executive chef Nadsa de Monteiro's Fusion or Confusion class demonstrates the art of fusing Asian and Western foods. Also, pastry chef Marsha Campbell demystifies the French holiday Yule log in the fourth annual Buche de Noel class. Fusion or Confusion, Nov. 16, 10:30 am. $59. Buche de Noel, Dec. 6, 10:30 am. $59. 900 Beacon St., Boston. 617-285-1056. www.elephantwalk.com.

L'Espalier
Chef/owner Frank McClelland's master class is an intensive program for the ambitious cook. The executive chef, sous chefs, pastry chef and sommelier lead two or three four-hour sessions (for up to two people) or a daylong eight-hour lesson (for one person only). The curriculum includes first course, family meal, main courses, wine pairing, desserts and pastries, and cheese course. Pupils go home with a personalized L'Espalier chef's jacket and a belly full of McClelland dinner. By appointment only. $1,000. 30 Gloucester St., Boston. 617-262-3023. www.lespalier.com.

Radius
Chef de cuisine Brian Reimer and wine steward Scott Fraley's Saturday cooking classes cover such gastronomic ventures as the food and wine of Gasconny, the perfect Thanksgiving dinner and simmering braises, stocks and stews. Each session ends with a lunch featuring the dishes from that day's lesson. Nov. 8 and Jan. 24, 11 am. $125. 8 High St., Boston. 617-426-1234. www.radiusrestaurant.com.

Rialto
Beginning in January 2004, on one Saturday per month chef Jody Adams teaches a class geared toward entertaining. Jan. 10, Feb. 7, March 6, 11 am. $75. 1 Bennett St., Cambridge. 617-661-5050.

Sel de la Terre
Executive chef Geoff Gardner, pastry chef Michael Rhoads or assistant pastry chef Peter Merrill reveals secrets de cuisine at the weekly Saturday morning cooking class. The specialty changes each month, and brunch follows each lesson. Oct., saucisson (sausage); Nov., hors d'oeuvres; Dec., holiday breads; Jan., soups; Feb., chocolate. Saturdays, 11 am. $35. 255 State St., Boston. 617-720-1300. www.seldelaterre.com.

Les Zygomates
Chef Ian Just pairs his wine-tasting sessions with a brief cooking demonstration of a dish that complements the wines. Tuesday evenings, 6 and 8 pm. $25. 129 South St., Boston. 617-542-5108. www.vinebar.com.

WHAT'S cookin'?

LOCAL CHEFS TURN THEIR KITCHENS INTO CLASSROOMS

BY JESSICA IREDALE

It's 10:30 am Saturday morning, and instead of indulging my weeklong fantasy of sleeping until noon, I'm headed to Sel de la Terre to explore what, for me, has been uncharted territory: cooking. In day-to-day life, I'm content to rely on simple foods like sandwiches, yogurt and coffee for sustenance. In fact, the thought of measuring, mixing, folding and (yawn) simmering is about as appealing to me as a soggy burrito. But in the name of broadening my horizons, I've agreed to explore the growing trend of chef-taught, in-restaurant cooking classes.

Todd English. Jasper White. Ming Tsai. In this town, noteworthy chefs don't just feed the celebrities, they are the celebrities. So it's no wonder that, like starstruck fans crowding the red carpet in Hollywood, amateur chefs and foodies line up to learn tricks of the trade from some of Boston's most beloved hashers. Classes range from a 20-minute béarnaise demonstration over a glass of wine at Les Zygomates to an eight-hour tour de cuisine at L'Espalier, with chefs slicing, dicing and stir-frying in their native environment. Many focus on a seasonal theme, such as a Yule log (at the Elephant Walk) or winter braises, stocks and stews (at Radius), and most sessions end with a lunch or brunch (included in the course price). In the process, chefs pass on trade secrets to home cooks while also boosting visibility—and, presumably, business—for the restaurant.

L'Espalier's Frank McClelland oversees some fowl play.

At Sel de la Terre, Peter Merrill whips up a batch of sorbet.

As luck would have it, the class I'm taking at Sel de la Terre covers ice cream and sorbet. Phew! Soft, frozen foods mean that burns and cuts will be kept to a minimum. My compatriots consist of two middle-aged women whose hobbies include decorating and gardening, and a foodie couple desperate to find the secret to making unburnt caramel. Baby-faced assistant pastry chef Peter Merrill leads us to the kitchen to start on the day's recipes: vanilla ice cream and blueberry sorbet. Sandwiched between a prep cook and a busy pastry chef, Merrill takes us step-by-step through the process of creating the creamiest caramel-swirled vanilla ice cream and the smoothest sorbet ever to pass my lips.

The ice cream requires four egg yolks, heavy cream, milk, sugar, one vanilla bean and some corn syrup, which, after some scalding, whipping, mixing and chilling, go into an industrial ice cream machine. After several minutes of churning, the final product oozes out into a bowl and is ready for tasting.

The sorbet is much simpler. Merrill brings some sugar and water to a boil, cools it, combines it with blueberry purée and throws it into the ice cream machine. Voilà! Most of what he says is Greek to me, but judging from the other students' "oohing" and "aahing," he's divulging a few serious secrets. Number one on the "ooh-aah" meter is dropping a raw, uncracked egg into the sorbet mixture. If the egg floats, you've struck the right balance between puréed fruit and syrup. If it sinks, add more syrup.

From start to finish, the demonstration lasts about 40 minutes, and the only audience participation is dipping our spoons for a taste. "If someone wants to jump in and try something, I'm more than happy to let them," Merrill tells me after the class. "It depends how interested the class is. The people who come are mainly foodies but some tourists. Home bakers love it." Once the lesson is over, the class moves to the dining room for a three-course brunch.

At the end of the day, I haven't graduated a pro in the art of ice cream making, and I'm not sure a single cooking class is enough to inspire me to tie on an apron on a regular basis. But I do realize that cooking isn't a mysterious skill reserved for mothers and Culinary Institute of America wunderkinder. Once you get past the fancy name, sorbet is only fruit, sugar and water. I can do that. IB

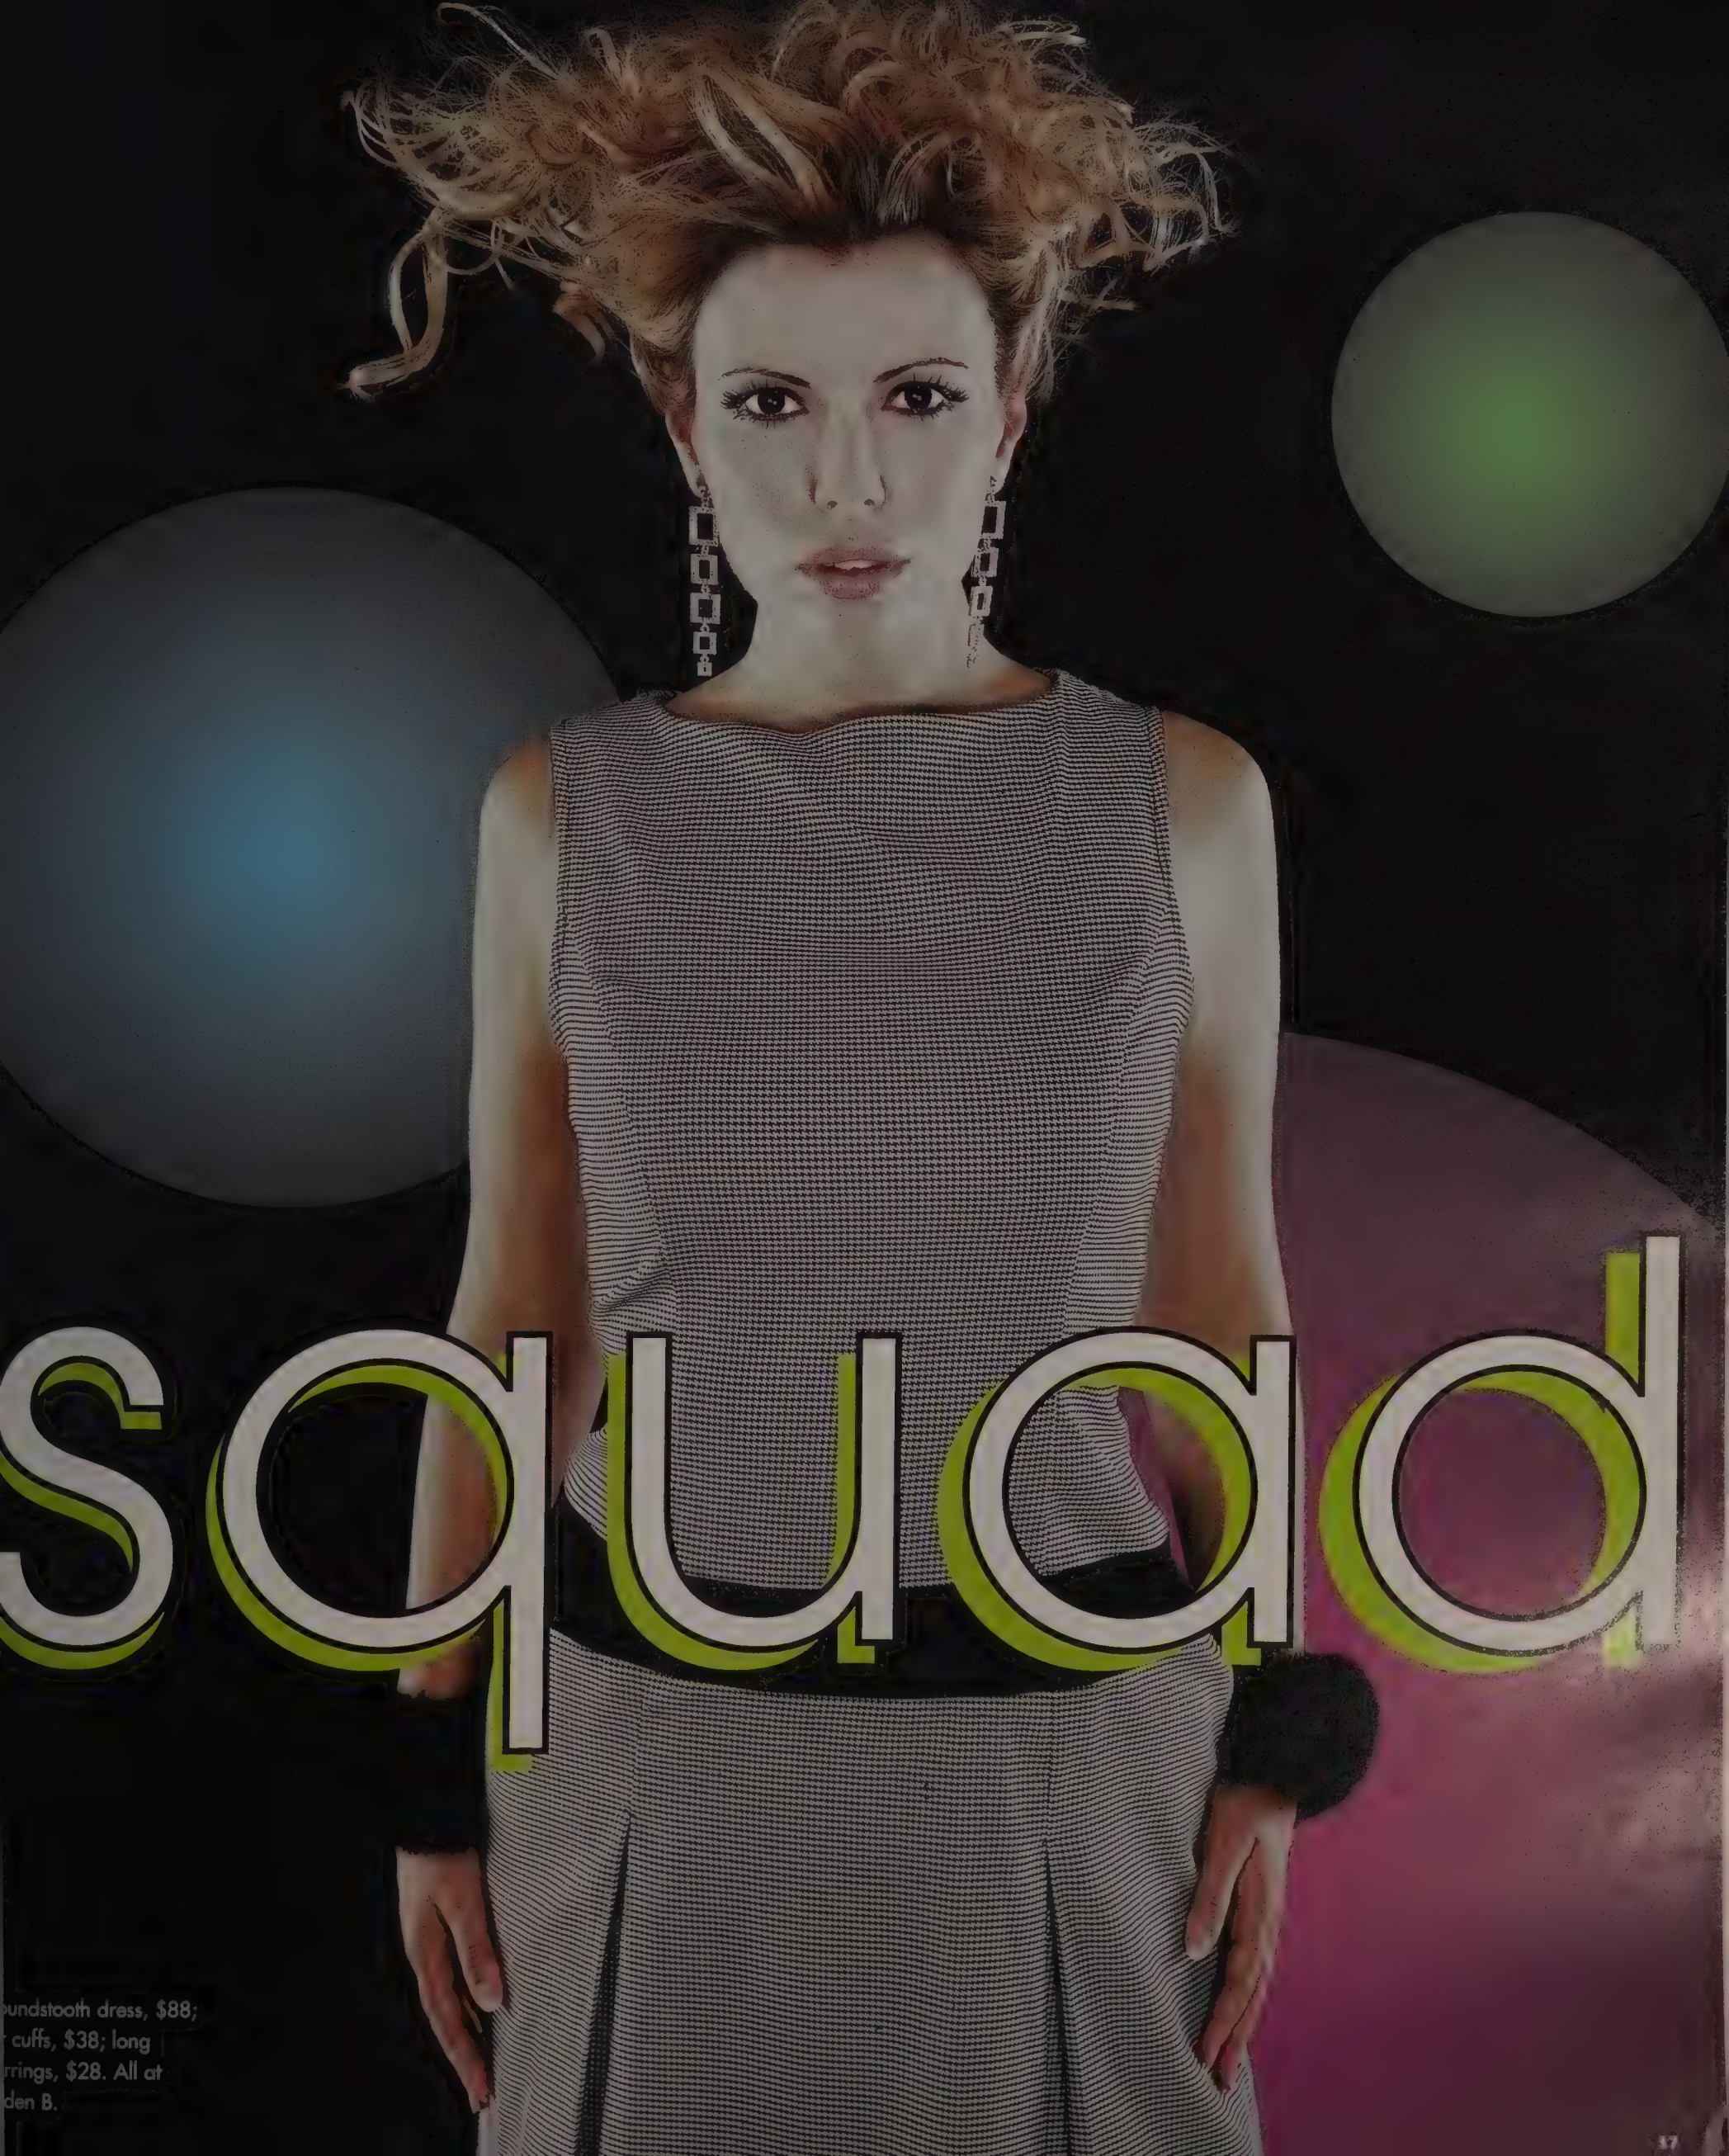
DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

Black-and-white top, $68; black skirt, $68; long earrings, $28; bracelet, $24. All at Arden B.

mod

take no prisoners in the season's hottest trend

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHED BY JESSICA PURSLE



oundstooth dress, $88;
cuffs, $38; long rrings, $28. All at den B.

Brown sweater, $78; brown and pink skirt, $88. Both at French Connection. Beaded bracelet, $24; long earrings, $28. Both at Arden B.

Contrast trim wool jacket, $128; long earrings, $28. Both at Arden B.

Pleated minidress, $78; white tights, $12; long earrings, $24; bracelet, $24. All at Arden B.

Arden B
Prudential Center
617-236-0834

French Connection
Copley Place
617-424-1819

Model: Sandra Guerara

Hair: Charles Maksou for Maksou Salon
125 Broad St., Boston
617-443-8633

Stylist: Paul Lund

anthem

a free-spirited approach to serious food

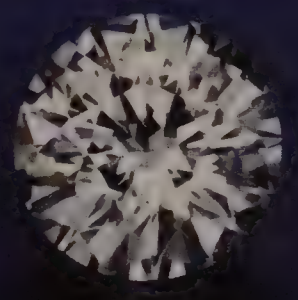
american bistro

late night lounge

lunch dinner drinks

a 138 portland street boston ma 02114 t 617 523 8383

The Jubilant Crown®
Diamond



Exclusively
at

Alex & Co.

CREATORS OF FINE JEWELRY

Ultimate brilliance "Crown" by Alex

A step above "ideal cut"

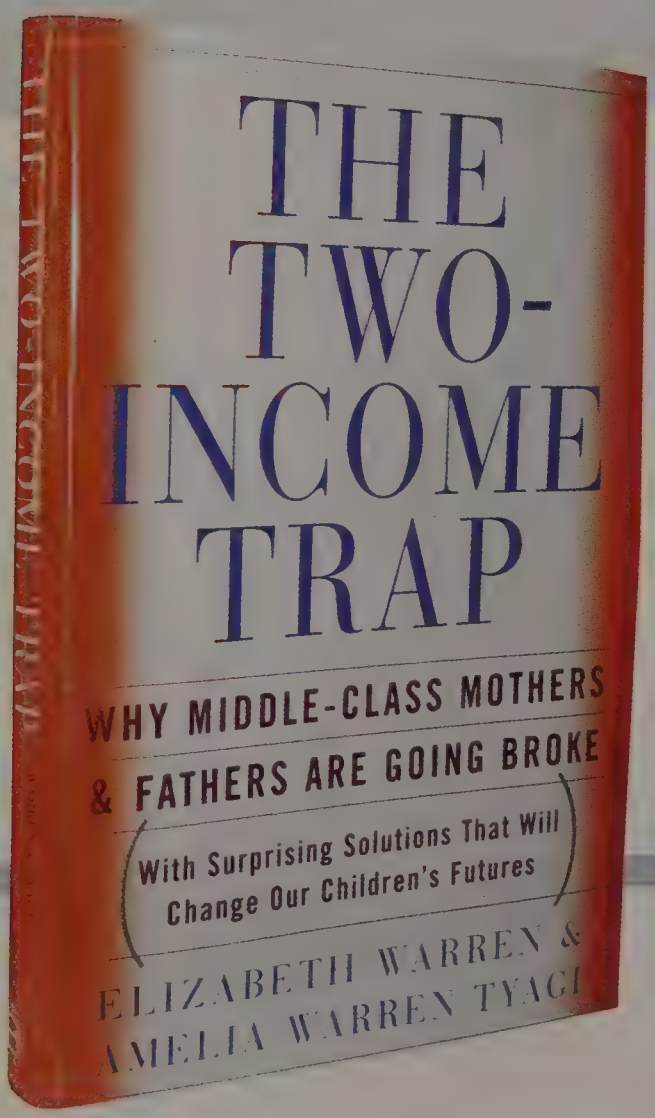
100 Needham Street, Newton 02464

(617) 965-8777

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



MORE IS LESS

Harvard Law professor Elizabeth Warren, a bankruptcy expert, and her daughter, Amelia Warren Tyagi, a business consultant, examine the complexities and disturbing surprises of working couples' finances in The Two-Income Trap.

Back when women began stampeding into the workplace, mothers included, it looked like everyone was simply going to get richer, more secure. Thirty years later, the mother-and-daughter team of Elizabeth Warren and Amelia Tyagi has exposed the disheartening paradoxes that ensued. The unpayday of it all is that many couples (even worse, the single mother) have been entangled in enormous expenses and debt that lead to bankruptcy far more often than you'd think. One disturbing statistic: Bankruptcy filings are more common than divorces. The steroids of ambition, hard work and expanded possibilities put many of these middle-class families in what Warren and Tyagi call "bidding wars" for better school districts and bigger houses that spawn a bulging budget, gobbling every two-paycheck penny. But when half of the tandem sags (for example, due to layoff or sickness) the other person is left with more than they can handle. The authors discuss debt, the disturbing rise of monster interest rates and the terrors and reality of repossession. Happily, the culprit is not the smaller indulgences. And the book's "financial fire drill" gives informed advice on how to cope.

REMEMBRANCE OF TINS PAST

The Attic Gallery, at 1110 Mass. Ave., Cambridge, is a collection of useful, original, often comic artistic creations. Call 617-566-2696.

Ingenious originality rules at the Attic Gallery, with recycling at its heart. Utilitarian metals emanate patient, secret beauty in their second lives as objets d'art. Take one yellow and red chair—erect, yet comfortable—made from old painted metal road signs: Its back fiercely declares Wrong (as in Way). A related glass-topped table has triangular metal legs with tantalizing parts of words written on them. One company that has salvaged tons of bike bits, including the slithery chatterboxes of chains, has remade them into picture frames, can openers and a sinuous CD holder that flows up from curvy bike wheel rims. Forks and spoons, those incidental beauties, fold into money-claspers, twist into candle holders and clang together melodiously as wind chimes. Old black typewriters—what elegant parts!—live on, their pretty keys reborn as earrings. And one clockmaker uses a feather minute-hand, which sweeps airily past a stern black metal base that also borrows a typewriter's orphaned keys. Yet another clock preserves the luxurious charm of a blue tin caviar box. There are several extraordinary lamps, one made from a magnificent golden saxophone, surrounded by trombones that support and illuminate little glass tables. An old gramophone with a twisty, silver stylus-holder coaxes unbelievably rich, honeyed music from LPs.

OUT OF THE BOX AND INTO THE ALBUM

Consultant Sheri Park teaches scrapbooking, helping clients organize their photos and memories. Park offers workshops and classes, as well as one-on-one sessions. Call 617-484-7271 or go to www.creativememories.com/sheripark.

Consider the dusty, evocative, overwhelming bunches of family pictures you have squirreled away somewhere in boxes. Maybe they're photos of long-lost relatives or an adventure with your children. Sheri Park of Creative Memories can help you organize them, with identifications, flavor and storylines recombobulated. Using acid-free albums and all sorts of amusing framing and decorative paper adornments—some abstract squiggles and shapes, some seasonal pictures of trees and hearts—she'll help you create a sort of magazine layout to tell the story. There's a cozy busyness to this burgeoning American activity. A scrapbook can be closely focused, capturing a child's birthday or special outing, or it might pursue larger themes such as immigration, the journey of adoption, a move or a business open[ing]. Organizing photos and giving them captions and commentary sometimes necessitates sleuthing for [more] info; that's part of the fun. Park, a grade-school teacher, exudes enthusiasm and encouragement to pursue the rewards, the "tons of fun" of scrapbooking.

Now Open!

Open 7 Days a Week

11:30 to 2 am

Eat 'til 1, Drink 'til 2

Lunch • Dinner • Drinks

617.351.2515 3 BOYLSTON PLACE, THE ALLEY

Sweetwater Cafe

FOOD SPIRITS BEER

ESTABLISHED IN 1999

Lucky's lounge

Dining

Cocktails

Live Music

Sinatra Sundays

Hosted by:

Mark Mahar & The Al Vega Trio

355 Congress Street | 617.357.LUCK | www.luckyslounge.com

IN THIS SECTION: Review: Davio's Dish Fathman's back...back again Wine: You say shiraz, we say Syrah
Tasty Tidbit: Jazz musician Herb Pomeroy records live at 75 Chestnut

REVIEW

DAVIO'S REBIRTH

Davio's has reinvented itself as a Northern Italian steak and chop house—with impressive results

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA A. DANIELS

A Niman Ranch double-cut pork chop with sweet potato and apple and onion marsala jam

Last year, Davio's moved from Newbury Street to the corner of Arlington and Stuart, anchoring the western end of Park Plaza, the virtual restaurant epicenter of Boston. Here lies a dazzling array of substantial eateries within easy walking distance of each other—from Via Matta, Legal Seafood, Bonfire and Finale, to the Ritz, Aujourd'hui and Excelsior around the corner on the Public Garden. Davio's, which has reinvented itself as a Northern Italian steak and chop house, is a welcome addition to this company.

Davio's designers have done their best to turn a space that formerly housed a furniture showroom into an upscale dining environment. Huge round columns, their capitals illuminated by small spotlights, reach to the 25-foot ceilings. The dining room seats about 125 at tables with white tablecloths and high-backed upholstered chairs, a short stretch of banquettes and a handful of booths. A large, oblong bar to the left of the entrance lies below a handsome wooden dropped ceiling. Hardwood oak flooring and other reflecting surfaces elevate the noise level, making conversation sometimes difficult, but the overall ambience, particularly on a busy Saturday night, evokes a lively urban buzz.

Once we were seated, tall stainless steel baskets brought an assortment of breads baked on the premises, including a marvelous crisp-crusted, semidark cherry-pecan bread. In lieu of olive oil or butter, a lovely crescent-shaped dish filled with substantial antipasti—a lively caponata, al dente vinaigrette-dressed mushroom caps, and a white-bean puree flavored with hauntingly delicious white truffle oil and fresh thyme—accompanied the bread.

Davio's menu takes some study to negotiate. Its classici come first, nine or 10 appetizers, pastas and main courses that Davio's lists as its traditional specialties. Among these, the crispy chicken livers with Port balsamic glaze, spinach and toasted pine nuts ($9) stood out. While the livers were not crisp, the sweet-savory sauce accentuated their richness, making this a very filling dish more suited to a main course than an appetizer. The crunch of the pine nuts and crisp spinach provided pleasant texture counterpoints. Another of the classici, bearing the simple but eloquent label "homemade sausage" ($8), was a combination of veal and pork, ground with cheese, sun-dried tomatoes and herbs, grilled over a hot flame so that its moist, flavorful goodness was sealed inside the casing.

DAVIO'S

75 Arlington St., Boston
(617-357-4810)

HOURS Mon.-Wed., 11:30 am-3 pm and 5-10 pm; Thu.-Fri., 11:30 am-3 pm and 5-11 pm; Sat., 5-11 pm; Sun., 5-10 pm

RESERVATIONS recommended

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING discounted parking at 10 St. James; valet

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

Among Davio's regular appetizers, the pan-seared Jonah crab cake ($13) boasted a golden-brown exterior encasing a luscious mixture of crabmeat, chopped sweet red peppers and onions, at once moist and light. A fluffy, sweet mound of crabmeat garnished the top of the crab cake, while swirls of piquant mayonnaise decorated the plate. Spinach salad ($10), another of Davio's old favorites, combined wood-roasted yellow and red peppers cut into strips, meaty portobello mushrooms, and garlic, with delicate, stemless leaves of young spinach. Three or four dollops of robust goat cheese punctuated the dish.

Moving to the pastas, tagliatelle Bolognese ($12) lived up to its billing as one of Davio's classics. Braised veal, pork and beef in a robust tomato sauce dressed firm, al dente fresh pasta. Although we ordered the appetizer size (all of Davio's pastas are offered in appetizer sizes for a little over half the main-course price), the substantial bowl that arrived could have served as a main course. The spaghetti with white wine and clam sauce ($13, appetizer size) was not as successful. The sauce seemed watery, with the most predominant flavor provided by hot pepper. And the clams had been simmered a trifle too long, making them slightly tough.

With the main courses, Davio's scored three clear winners. Crisply roasted Statler chicken ($22) demonstrated why this simple dish serves as such a reliable gauge of a kitchen's merits. Davio's chicken, a breast complete with wing bone, combined crisp skin with moist, succulent flesh infused with thin slices of garlic that mellowed in the roasting. The cooking juices of the garlic and chicken permeated a mound of delicious braised spinach, and even more spectacular, potato au gratin of ever so thin slices of firm potatoes, coated in butter and cheese and layered together with herbs. Potatoes gratin also accompanied the roast filet of salmon ($25), a mammoth wedge of fresh salmon, pleasantly charred on the outside, and moist and medium rare, as ordered, within. Arugula and tomato salad provided a fresh and refreshing contrast to the rich salmon.

Finally, from the carni offerings—which included several cuts of premium-grade beef, veal, pork and lamb—I chose the least expensive, the Niman Ranch pork chop ($27). This double-thick extravaganza looked somewhat naked on the plate—in true steak house fashion, Davio's pushes a la carte sides (contorni) with its grilled meat selections. But the pork lived up to its billing substantial in size, tender, rare and flavorful. Unfortunately, our waiter failed to remind us to order one of Davio's selection of sauces—Barolo wine, gorgonzola cheese, parsley (prezzemolata), pepper (pepata) and horseradish cream—that accompany the steaks and chops. The sauce probably would have significantly enhanced the dish, since the chop's only garnish, a few cloves of roasted but cold garlic, was underwhelming.

Davio's Boston takes its wine list seriously, and it has a polished and knowledg

Homemade potato gnocchi with wild mushrooms and white truffle oil

Davio's cavernous dining room formerly housed a furniture showroom.

Executive chef Eric Swartz (right) and chef de cuisine Rodney Murillo able sommelier to help explore it: Al Stankus, an accomplished food journalist in his own right. His description of the Costaripa Le Mazane, a reasonably priced ($31) Italian red grown on the shores of Lake Garda between Lombardy and Venetia, a 2001, was right on the money. This ruby red, intensely fruity wine (Stankus calls it a "fruit bomb") made from the obscure varietal Marzemino, proved a splendid accompaniment to our diverse selections of pasta, fish, chicken and pork.

Davio's delights continued through dessert. When the waiter told us that the warm chocolate cake would take 0 minutes to prepare, I ordered the assorted cookies nd chocolate mousse ($8) the meantime. These eats included three kinds of runchy biscotti, an elephant ear (a flaky, buttery, irled confection), an apricot tart and a tangy lemon uare. The centerpiece of the cookie ensemble was a demitasse cup of creamy ocolate mousse. Then came the pièce de sistance, a gooey, rich, mini chocolate ke, accompanied by three diminutive ops of vanilla bean ice cream. Fabulous!

For a restaurant of substance and seris aspirations, Davio's is remarkable in lack of pretension. Where else could you find a restaurant with prime steaks and chops and an impressive wine list (complete with urbane sommelier) that also offers a children's menu? Where better to hold a family celebration, with Dad enjoying his $37 Porterhouse veal chop while the kids chow down on burgers, spaghetti, pizza or macaroni and cheese for $6 to $8? IB

TASTINGS

BY JULIE SURATT

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Beer Dinner
Olé Mexican Grill, 11 Springfield St., Cambridge (617-492-4495). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 4. $45. This three-course meal features Mexican beers.

Belly Dancing Brunch
Argana, 1287 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-868-1247). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 26, 11:30 am. $20. Enjoy a Moroccan brunch followed by belly dancing lessons by Lily Filip.

Bistro Cooking at Home with Gordon Hamersley
Lifelong Learning, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). Oct. 27, 6 pm. $70. Gordon Hamersley of Hamersley's Bistro shares recipes from his new book, Bistro Cooking at Home.

Chalk Hill Wine Dinner
Ritz-Carlton, 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-912-3355). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 22, 6:30 pm. $135. Chef Tony Esnault and Yves Sauboua, estate sommelier for Chalk Hill Winery, offer a six-course dinner paired with eight Chalk Hill wines.

Chocolate! Chocolate! Chocolate!
Cambridge School of Culinary Arts, 2020 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2020). MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Nov. 1, 1 pm. $60. Pastry chef Nick Malgieri, author of Chocolate, Perfect Pastry, Perfect Cakes, demonstrates new chocolate desserts.

Cooking Demo and Book Signing
Best Cellars, 745 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2900). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Nov. 1, 2-4 pm. Courtney Febbroriello signs copies of her new book, Wife of the Chef: The True Story of a Restaurant and Romance, while her husband, chef Chris Prosperi of Metro Bis restaurant in Simsbury, Conn., offers a cooking demonstration.

East Coast Grill Events
1271 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-491-6568). MBTA: Red Line to Central or Harvard. A la carte pricing. •Nov. 2, 11 am-2:30 pm: Day of the Dead Mexican holiday brunch. Enjoy a traditional menu for El Dia de los Muertos. •Nov. 3, 4 and 5, 5:30 pm: Hell Night Tripleheader. Challenge your taste buds with some really hot food.

Fall Dinner
Evoo, 118 Beacon St., Somerville (781-893-8222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 27, 7:30 pm. $100. Chef Peter McCarthy offers a five-course wine dinner featuring Massachusetts agricultural products. A portion of the proceeds benefits the Federation of Massachusetts Farmers' Markets.

Jazz Dinner
75 Chestnut, 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Oct. 28-29, 6 and 8:30 pm. $75. Jazz musician Herb Pomeroy and his trio record a CD, Herb Pomeroy Live from 75 Chestnut, at this three-course dinner. Attendees will receive a copy of the CD when it's released.

Kosher Dining Extravaganza
Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-232-2300). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 26, 6:30 pm. $250. Chefs Nicole Coady of Finale, Todd English of Olives, Ed Gannon of Aujourd'hui, Gordon Hamersley of Hamersley's Bistro, Jacky Robert of Locke-Ober and Lydia Shire of Excelsior prepare dinner for this fund-raiser for Israel's Ben Gurion University of the Negev.

Legal Sea Foods Wine Tasting
Legal Sea Foods, 26 Park Square, Boston (617-530-9423). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 4, 6:30-8:30 pm. $35. Sample nine vintages of Trimbach wine at this tasting hosted by Jean Trimbach of Trimbach winery and Legal wine director David Alphonse.

Milliners' Tea Party
The School of Fashion Design, 136 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-9343). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Oct. 24, 4-7 pm. $10. Don a stylish hat and enjoy a Friday afternoon tea.

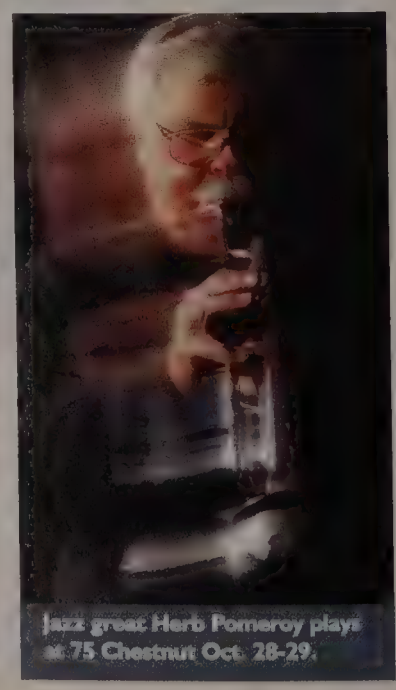
October Wine Series
Le Meridien, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900, ext. 7099). MBTA: Blue Line to State. $95. Chef Daniel Kenney hosts this four-course wine dinner. •Oct. 23: Brendan Byass of Geyser Peak Winery •Oct. 30: Devin McGarry from Maisons Marques & Domaines.

Oktoberfest Beer Dinner
Jacob Wirth Restaurant, 31-37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 27, 8 pm. $50. Enjoy a five-course meal by chef Phyllis Kaplowitz paired with Oktoberfest brews.

The Pleasures of French Wine: A Tasting Series
French Library and Cultural Center, 53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mondays, Oct. 27-Nov. 17, 6:30-8:30 pm. $75 per session. This wine-tasting series features sommeliers from L'Espalier, Le Soir, Meritage and Radius who will share their knowledge and their favorite wines.

The Seven Grand Crus of Chablis
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct 27, 7 pm. $77. Sample seven Grand Cru wines paired with seven food courses.

Wine and Oyster Tasting
McCormick & Schmick's, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-720-5230). MBTA: Green Line to Government Center or Haymarket. Oct. 28, 6 pm. $30
Sophie Daniels of Rub Wines offers a sampling Riesling and Vouvray, an chef Tindaro Losurdo di cusses oysters and offers shucking demonstration.



Jazz great Herb Pomeroy plays at 75 Chestnut Oct. 28-29.

Winetasting Party
Crate & Barrel, 48 Bratt St., Cambridge (617-54 6789). MBTA: Red Line Harvard. Nov. 1, 8-10: pm. $24 (or $44 per person) Enjoy an evening of wir music and dancing am shelves of housewares this benefit for the Ca bridge Center for Adult E ucation scholarship fund.

DISH

Blue-Eyed Anthem Man

Fathman revs up again…Vinalia is not an onion… Suburban spice

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Just hum a few bars, and he'll pick up the tuning fork. Wherever Robert Fathman goes to cook—Grill 23 & Bar, The Federalist, Azure and now the newly opened Anthem near North Station—he starts out on an upbeat note. This time, given that he's continuing to run the kitchen at Azure while co-creating the Anthem menu with chef de cuisine Sildo Junior, Fathman hopes to strike a chord with casual, quirky fare for lunch and dinner.

Casual, as in four-cheese fondue, or a fried rock shrimp po boy with bleu cheese dressing. Quirky, as in a fried Twinkie with berry coulis on the dessert menu. (Please refrain from telling Fathman that a recent state fair in Texas featured deep-fried Oreo cookies.) And irresistibly delicious sounding, as in roasted pumpkin soup with molasses, sage, brown sugar, and fried potato dumplings. Located at the site of the former Commonwealth Fish & Beer Company, Anthem also features a downstairs lounge area with a bar menu and, of course, a variety of martinis. We pray none is garnished with a sliced Hostess Snoball.

Chef Robert Fathman has his way with the menu at the newly opened Anthem near North Station.

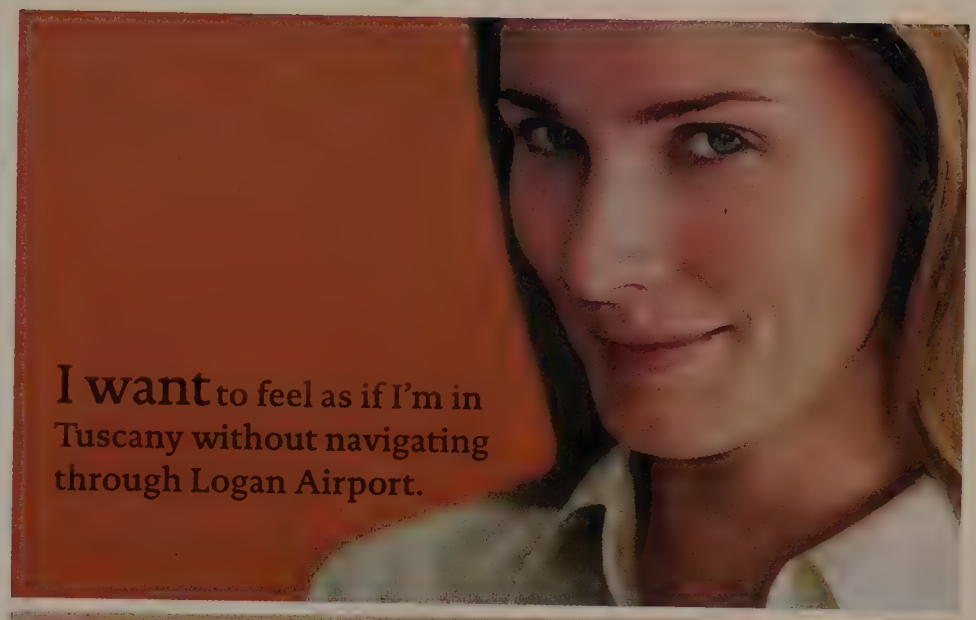
Olé Mexican Grill in Inman Square has opened a new lounge called Onda.

SECOND COURSE

Happy fifth birthday to Olé Mexican Grill. The upscale Mexican eatery in Cambridge's Inman Square is opening a new lounge within the restaurant. It's called Onda—Mexican slang for "surf's up/all is cool." How Cantabrigian... The old Davio's space on Newbury Street is being revamped and will soon open as a white-tablecloth pizzeria called Croma. Heavy metal crust?...Vinalia has opened in the former location of Dakota's on Arch Street in Downtown Crossing...Farm & charm: Chris Douglass, chef/owner of Icarus, is teaming up with Mark Gaier and Clark Frasier from the renowned Arrows in Ogunquit for a wicked special dinner in November...Blurbs from the 'burbs: Ariadne in Newtonville is now serving Sunday brunch and weekday lunch. The lunch menu includes a Cubano sandwich with chipotle aioli and flat iron steak with panzanella. More BBQ: Firefly's has opened in Framingham. Beyond Botox: The creaky old Hartwell House restaurant in Lexington is getting a culinary makeover in the extraordinarily capable hands of Mantra's executive chef, Thomas John, and pastry chef, Ernie Quinones. One World Cuisine, the consortium that owns and operates Mantra and other businesses in Greater Boston, purchased the suburban standby and is refurbishing the decor as well as the menu. John is "consulting" with executive chef Kevin Carey to create new dishes such as tatin of eggplant with leek fondue; spiced chicken and foie gras spring rolls; and pumpkin flan with fall vegetables. IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com



WHAT'S YOUR REQUEST?SM Unique, creative and healthy cuisine is yours to enjoy at Caliterra Restaurant and Bar. Caliterra blends the natural ingredients of Northern California, with classic Tuscan cooking and the freshest New England seafood. Seasonal specialty menus and a superb wine list make it a "must" on your Boston restaurant itinerary. Reservations are recommended and valet parking is available. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner daily. Sunday brunch from Noon–2:30 p.m. Conveniently located one block from the Boston Harbor and Quincy Marketplace.

Mention this ad to get a free appetizer or dessert with purchase of a dinner entrée.*

CALITERRA

89 Broad Street, Boston, MA 02110
617-348-1234
Located in the Wyndham Boston

*Offer valid through 12/30/03. Must mention this ad to redeem offer.

WINE

Que Syrah, Syrah

BY SANDY BLOCK MW

There's no doubt that Australian shiraz is a formidable presence in the wine market. It's captured top position in the category of imported red wines and its popularity cuts across all segments, impacting connoisseurs as much as novices, experts as well as newcomers to wine. Shiraz's rise is relatively recent though, so its name still conveys "cutting edge" to many wine drinkers, meaning that people can buy a bottle or order a glass and feel like full-fledged insiders.

Trendy as shiraz is, it's been around for a long, long time, though not under its current exotic name. This is an ancient grape variety that originated in France's Northern Rhone Valley. In the Rhone's steep, rocky vineyards it's known as Syrah and it labors, for the most part, in anonymity, because quality French wines are almost never named after grapes but instead are identified by the village or region where the vineyard is located, even wines that are 100 percent pure and unblended.

Aussie shiraz is amazingly versatile, producing red wines that range from light and fruity to hearty and tannic—and even all the way off the deep end to sweet and sparkling. The category's success has generated significant interest in South Africa, Chile, California, the Pacific Northwest, Italy and throughout the sweep of southern France, where vineyards are being planted, or re-planted, with Syrah in vast swaths.

What makes northern Rhone Syrah special is that for the most part the grapes are planted on steep granite hillsides overlooking the river. Here Syrah makes a densely colored, violet and spice-scented wine, full of blackberry and pepper flavors that often have complex vegetal undertones. These vigorous wines, rich in tannin and potently alcoholic, marry beautifully with wild game and are often ideal candidates for the cellar. In the not too distant past, the best of them were considered equals of top burgundy and Bordeaux in terms of price and prestige, but since only minute quantities are produced, they are not well known today. The following should constitute your best reference points for discovering what Syrah can do in its native habitat.

Côte Rotie: Often surprisingly accessible to the palate, with brilliant, rich ruby colors and a texture that approaches pure velvet, Côte Rotie may be France's most obscure great red wine. The whole appellation produces only about 75,000 cases, which is the size of no more than two or three individual Bordeaux chateaux. The wines tend to be marked by raspberry and smoky floral aromas, with whiffs of meat and tar. They're great choices with game or lamb. Côte Rotie is no longer a bargain, but consistency is very high.

Hermitage: The Rhone's greatest wine, Hermitage is rare, expensive ($50-$75 per bottle) and an unfailingly majestic expression of Syrah's warmth, but unlike Côte Rotie, it generally requires several years of bottle age before its silky essences reach their full potential. There are only about 300 acres of vineyard on the Hermitage hill, and total production is just 50,000 to 60,000 cases per year. The wines are supremely concentrated and powerfully spicy.

Crozes Hermitage: Spread out geographically and quite diverse in quality, this moderately priced, lighter, Syrah-based wine originates on flat-sited vineyards that are set back from the river. They are often the fruitiest wines of the region, and with about 500,000 cases produced annually, more widely available than the other northern Rhones. Some are basic in flavor, but particularly in great vintages (1995, 1996, 1999) they offer the same opulence you find in Hermitage, but at a fraction of the price.

St. Joseph: Another diverse appellation covering most of the west bank of the Rhone River from Condrieu to Valence and producing a wide range of Syrahs that run the gamut from sumptuously layered and fruity to hard-edged and charmless. These in general are wines to drink young, like Crozes Hermitage, but although there is a substantial amount produced (about 300,000 cases per year) St. Joseph is difficult to find in the United States.

Cornas: Cornas occupies a middle ground stylistically and in terms of price between Hermitage and Côte Rotie on the one hand, and St. Joseph and Crozes Hermitage on the other. Every bit as intense as the big two, Cornas is a great value ($25 to $35) if you like more rustic, robust and quintessentially fiery versions of Syrah with a tannic bite. It's my pick for outstanding northern Rhone Syrah value. IB

One of only 18 Americans certified as a master of wine, Sandy Block is assistant vice president of wine for Horizon Beverage.

15 MICROBREWS ON TAP.

You'll Have No Trouble Getting Into The Holiday Spirit.

Book Your Holiday Party Today, 617 896 2309

BEER WORKS — TRADEMARK

112 Canal Street	61 Brookline Avenue	278 Derby Street
Near North Station	Opposite Fenway Park	In Historic Salem
617.896.BEER	617.536.BEER	978.745.BEER

BOLD AMERICAN FOOD. AWARD WINNING BEER.

TO IMPRESS YOUR DATE, ORDER
THE Grilled Swordfish

TO REALLY BLOW HER MIND,
EAT IT WITH UTENSILS.

WWW BEERWORKS NET

JASPER WHITE'S

SUMMER SHACK

OPEN YEAR-ROUND!

HAPPY HOUR $3 MENU

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

"BOSTON'S BEST RAWBAR"

LUNCH·DINNER
LATENIGHT
THURSDAY·FRIDAY·SATURDAY

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK

50 DALTON STREET
617-867-9755

UPSTAIRS FROM KINGS

ALSO VISIT MOHEGAN SUN AND CAMBRIDGE

Korn Design, Boston

MANTRA

Fulfill your most coloful party dreams.

Private bookings now being accepted for holiday 2003

MANTRA, named among the "Top 75 Tables in the World" by Conde Nast Traveler Magazine, 20

52 Temple Place, Boston, MA 02111 • 617.542.8111 • www.mantrarestaurant.com

agenda

IMPROPER PICKS

october 22 - november 4

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			22	23	24	25
					For the next three days, the Harvard Film Archive presents the Cambridge Latino Film Festival. See Movies on page 66.	Tony Hawk's Boom Boom Huck Jam skates into the FleetCenter. See CityScope on page 56.
26	27	28	29	30	31	1
The Museum of Fine Arts' new exhibition, Rembrandt's Journey, is now open. See Art page 94.			Toni Morrison reads from her new novel, Love, at Faneuil Hall. See Books on page 100.	See award-winning TV commercials at the British Advertising Films of 2002 event at the MFA. See Movies on page 68.		All 150 pieces of art are on sale for $150 at the Gallery @ Green Street Mad Dash. See CityScope on page 56.
2	3	4
Honor the Day of the Dead at Forest Hills Cemetery. See CityScope—Haunted Happenings on page 54.	The Omni film Jane Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees shows at the Museum of Science. See Movies on page 68.

WED./OCT. 29

CityScope: Not Just a Funny Face

Any fan of Audrey Hepburn knows that the actress devoted the latter part of her life to helping children in Latin America and Africa as a UNICEF Goodwill Ambassador. This contribution—like her classic films Sabrina, My Fair Lady and Breakfast at Tiffany's—lives on. The upcoming UNICEF benefit at the Ritz-Carlton celebrates the actress' life with a reception hosted by Hepburn's son, Sean Hepburn Ferrer, followed by a screening of her movie Funny Face at Loews Boston Common. An after-party at the "Left Bank Café" (aka the Sugar Shack) concludes the evening. Signed copies of Ferrer's new book, Audrey Hepburn, An Elegant Spirit: A Son Remembers, are available, with all proceeds to benefit UNICEF programs. Ritz-Carlton, 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-227-3334, ext. 32). 6 pm. $150 including reception and signed copy of book, $25 for movie screening and reception.

THE CALENDAR GIRLS' GUIDE TO WHAT'S UP, IN AND AROUND BOSTON

CITYSCOPE 54

PERFORMING ARTS 58

MOVIES 62

MUSIC 72

CLASSICAL MUSIC 82

DANCE CLUBS 86

ART 94

BOOKS & POETRY 100

EDUCATION 102

GAY & LESBIAN 104

BODY & MIND 106

SPORTS 106

CHILDREN 108

AROUND TOWN 110

EDITED BY:

ERIN HAGEDORN

Art, Books & Poetry, Gay & Lesbian, Movies, Music

JULIE SURATT

Around Town, Children, Education, Performing Arts

ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY:

Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind

Paul Sherman Film Capsules

Ezra Dyer CityScope, Dance Clubs, Sports

THROUGHOUT OCTOBER

Music: Paying Tribute

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, and for some reason, there is a lot of flattery going on lately—an inordinately large number of bands are paying homage to their musical idols. First, on Fri., Oct. 24, Bill's Bar hosts the Boston-based band High as the Moon, which pays tribute to the Black Crowes. That's at 9 pm, $8, 21+. Then, on Mon., Oct. 27, Club Passim has a Songwriter Tribute Night to U2, featuring local singers Andrew Kerr, Daniel Barrett, Hanneke Cassel, Jake Amerding and Rachel Loy. At 7 pm, $12, all ages. Tom Waits fans won't want to miss out on a night devoted to him at the Paradise Thu. Oct. 30, when local rockers Torr Skoog (Kings of Nuthin'), Frank Morey, George (Give) and Ryan Dowd (Kicked in the Head) belt out raspy Waits songs. That's at 9 pm, $5, 21+. On Halloween night, Oct. 31, the band Run to the Hills plays Iron Maiden tunes at Bill's Bar, 9 pm, $8, and over in Somerville the Abbey Lounge features two bands in Halloween disguise: Spitzz (as the Cramps) and Coffin Lids (as the Mummies), 9:30 pm. Bill's Bar, 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). Club Passim, 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). Paradise, 967 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). Abbey Lounge, 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631).

Mayor Thomas Menino kicking off a past City Year Serve-a-Thon

SAT./OCT. 25

CityScope: Service with a Smile

For those of us who lack the time to work at a soup kitchen or sort cans at a food bank on a regular basis, City Year Boston's annual Serve-a-Thon provides the perfect solution. You can get all your do-gooder bennies in one fell swoop by donating a stretch of seven hours on Oct. 25. Meet at the Boston Common for registration, breakfast and a psyche-up session at 7:30 am. At 8, volunteers are dispatched to locations around the city to paint a skate park overrun with graffiti, landscape at a housing development or plant grass at a playground. Join the crowd of 5,000. (617-927-2300). www.cityyear.org/serveathon. 8 am-3 pm. $25 registration fee.

THU./OCT. 30

CityScope: Tricks and Treats

After jogging along the city streets at the IMPROPER-sponsored Halloween Fun Run each of the past five years, we've learned that it's no holds barred when it comes to costumes. Imagine a waiter and a restaurant patron (complete with set table), a surfer being attacked by an octopus or Crocodile Dundee with a life-size blow-up croc. The question is, How do these Halloweenatics actually run three miles encumbered by such costumes? Beats us. We don't actually stick around the back of the pack long enough to ask, cause we're sprinting to the post-race party at the Rack for pizza, wings and beer. Proceeds benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (800-966-0444). 6 pm (registration), 7 pm (race). $30 ($35 on Oct. 30).

SAT. AND SUN./ OCT. 25 AND 26

Movies: Fright Night

What do you get when you combine monsters, improvised circus music and dancing girls wearing pasties? The Coolidge Corner Theatre's Halloween Horror Movie Marathon, which features 12 straight hours of spooky Halloween-themed films, plus musical and burlesque shows. The spookalicious films include Vincent Price's House of Wax (in 3-D); the ever-funny Ghostbusters; Herschell Gordon Lewis' massacre movie 2,000 Maniacs; the Japanese zombie comedy Devil Fetus; Brian De Palma's classic Carrie; and Tim Burton's Edward Scissorhands. Interspersed between movies are burlesque acts by Black Cat Burlesque and musical performances from Beat Science (an improv sextet with an affinity for circus, tango and cartoon music) and the garage-rock band Thee Monkey Butlers. If you come in costume, you could win a prize. Oct. 25, 12 am-Oct. 26, 12 pm. $30. Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500).

Served in fine establishments and questionable joints everywhere.

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for festivals, events and benefits by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Festivals, Benefits & Events

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

Amistad Replica Ship Visit
Fan Pier, Boston (508-875-5233). www.amistadboston.org. 2-5 pm weekdays, 10 am-1 pm and 2-5 pm weekends. Oct. 22-24, Oct. 26. $5. Bring two forms of ID to enter through Moakley Courthouse. A replica of the famous slave ship Amistad docks in Boston and is open to the public for tours.

Bid for a Cure
(800-932-9253). http://pmc.cmarket.com. Through Oct. 30. Items up for bid to benefit the Jimmy Fund in the Pan Mass Challenge's annual online auction include chances to watch a Red Sox game with general manager Theo Epstein next season, announce a Bruins game on NESN and become the anonymous restaurant patron on NECN's TV Diner.

Boston Can Share Food Drive
Post offices and various other drop-off spots around the city. (617-635-4507). www.bostoncanshare.com. Through Nov. 14. Drop off tuna, beef stew and other nonperishable food items in this citywide food drive for the Greater Boston Food Bank.

An Evening With Your Favorite Authors
Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge (617-499-5098). 5:30 pm. Cocktails and dinner, $200. VIP reception with authors, $1,000. Authors Alice Hoffman and Anna Quindlen, actress Debra Winger and others read from their favorite works to raise money for the Hoffman Breast Center at Mount Auburn Hospital.

modelBOSTON Fashion Show
Gamble Mansion, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. 7 pm. $18 member, $20 nonmember. Winners of a yearlong model search strut their stuff and show off the latest fashions. A portion of proceeds benefits the Vision Awards Scholarship Fund.

Second Time Around Fashion Show
Bomboa, 35 Stanhope St., Boston (617-236-6363). 6:30-8:30 pm. Free. Bomboa sets up a runway on the outdoor patio (weather permitting) to show designer consignment shop Second Time Around's fall/winter offerings. All pieces shown are available to purchase after the show. Cash bar.

Tedeschi House Tours
55 Tara Drive, Norwell (877-746-4687. www.showhousemedia.com. Tue.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. Through Oct. 31. $30. The former home of Tedeschi grocery stores magnate Ralph Tedeschi is open for tours throughout the month to raise money for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

THURSDAY, OCT. 23

Deux Amours: A Sensual Tribute to Josephine Baker
The French Library and Cultural Center, 53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib .org. 7:30-10 pm. $35 members, $40 nonmembers. The FLCC salutes Josephine Baker with live jazz, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and a lingerie fashion show by Belle du Jour.

FRIDAY, OCT. 24

ABCD Community Awards Dinner
Boston Marriott Copley Place, Boston (617-348-6242). 6 pm. $150. Fox 25 TV news anchors Jodi Applegate and Maria Stephanos emcee Action for Boston Community Development's annual fundraiser dinner. The event includes a reception, dancing and a raffle.

Art and Sole
New Art Center in Newton, 61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3424). www.newartcenter .org. 7-10 pm. $50. Twenty-five pairs of shoes that have been transformed into sculpture are auctioned off to benefit the New Art Center in Newton. The event also features an auction of other items as well as a wine tasting and hors d'oeuvres from area restaurants.

Canstruction, part of the Boston Can Share food drive, runs through Nov. 7 at the Museum of Science.

Bindlestiff Family Cirkus
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (877-246-3537). www.bindlestiff.org. Midnight-2 am. $15, $12 for clowns in makeup. Sword-swallowers, clowns, contortionists, dancers and more perform in the Bindlestiff Family Cirkus' latest show, High Heels and Red Noses.

Faith in Action Benefit Concert
First Congregational Church, 11 Garden St., Cambridge (617-924-1212). 7 pm. $15. This silent auction and concert of Irish and American folk songs benefits Faith in Action caregivers for the elderly.

Milliner's Tea Party
The School of Fashion Design. 136 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-9343). www.fashionweek.org. 4-7 pm. $10. Creative headwear is encouraged at this evening tea party, which benefits the One Family Campaign and the School of Fashion Design's scholarship fund.

Tarbox Ramblers Benefit Concert
Emerald Isle, 1501 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-288-0010). www.dorchesterartists.org. 9:30 pm. $3. The Tarbox Ramblers perform traditional American music to benefit Dorchester Open Studios.

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

Ace Bailey Turkey Gala
John Joseph Moakley Courthouse, Onè Courthouse Way, Boston (888-454-3011). www.acebailey.com. 7 pm. $150. Courthouse requires two forms of ID for entry. A festive turkey dinner is served in honor of former Boston Bruins player Ace Bailey, who died on 9/11. The night also includes live and silent auctions and benefits the New England Medical Center's Floating Hospital.

City Year Serve-a-Thon
Various locations around the city (617-927-2300). www.cityyear.org. $25. Join more than 5,000 volunteers in community service projects at City Year's annual fund-raiser and service day.

Dorchester Open Studios
Various locations around Dorchester (617-822-8205). www.dorchesterartists.org. 11 am-5 pm. More than 75 visual artists living or working in Dorchester display their work in homes, studios and public spaces.

Eclectic Elegance Fashion Show
Aqua, 120 Water St., Boston (617-720-4900). 7 pm. Designer Kristin Michelle debuts her Saffron 2004 collection. The evening features Ciroc Vodka cocktails and benefits the Ellie Fund.

Esplanade Autumn Cleanup
The Esplanade, Boston (617-859-3088). 9:30 am-12:30 pm. The Esplanade Association and local volunteers pick up detritus along the three-mile riverside park.

FDR Humanitarian Award Gala
Ritz-Carlton Hotel, 15 Arlington St., Boston (508-663-2110). 6 pm. Local and international French master chefs prepare an array of dishes at this black tie benefit for the March of Dimes.

Silk Road Gala
Boston Marriott Copley Place, 110 Huntington Ave , Boston (617-338-2350). www.atask.org. 5 pm. $125. The Asian Task Force Against Domestic Violence hosts its annual black-tie fund-raiser. The night includes a reception, dinner and live entertainment.

Solid Gold Prom
Jorge Hernandez Cultural Center, 85 West Newton St., Boston (860-435-6464). www.solidgoldprom.com. 9 pm-1 am. $25 single, $45 couple. Put on your best

Haunted Happenings

A selection of spooky ways to scare up a good time

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

Halloween Hustle 5K Road Race and Walk
Starting line at 1589 Beacon St., Newton (617-964-2039). www.heartbreakhill.org. Walk, 8:30 am; run, 9:30 am. $17 online, $20 day of race. Prizes will be awarded not only to the winners of this 5K road race, but to the participant wearing the best costume. Proceeds benefit Partners Home Care pediatric services.

Pirates of the Caribbean Singles Dance and Cruise
Gate C, Rowes Wharf, Boston (781-283-0400). www.se-4you.com. 8-11 pm. $40. Casual or Halloween attire. Pirates encouraged. Singles ages 35 and up are invited to cruise around the harbor with guys and ghouls. The cruise includes food, desserts and music by Bruno.

Trick or Treat Trot
Register in front of Emack and Bolio Ice Cream, 2 Belgrade Ave., Roslindale (617-327-4065). www.roslindaletrot.com. 10 am. $15 in advance, $18 day of the race. Don a nonrestrictive costume and enter the only competitive race of the year that runs through the Arnold Arboretum. The 5K race raises money for the Roslindale Village Main Streets Program.

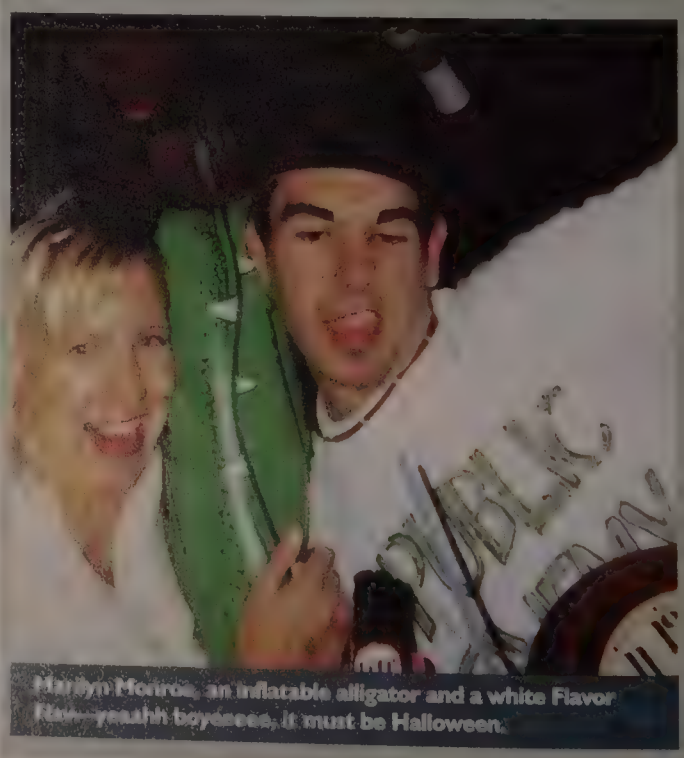
THURSDAY, OCT. 30

AAJANE Benefit Costume Party
Sugar Shack, Boylston Place, Boston (781-433-4217). www.aajane.org. 6-9:30 pm. $15 students, $25 professionals. The Asian American Journalists Association of New England hosts a benefit costume bash to raise money for scholarships. The party features light food, door prizes, DJ Chhay Chhun and performances by comedians Malissa Hunt and Myq Kaplan.

Einstein Lookalike Party
The Hotel @ MIT, 20 Sidney St., Cambridge (617-867-2208). www.hotelatmit.com. 7 pm. $7, free with costume. Dress up like the famous physicist to compete for prizes. Party includes appetizers and Halloween-themed cocktails.

Halloween Bash at the Place
The Place, 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081). www.theplaceboston.com. 9 pm-2 am. $5. Get spooked a day early at the Place. Prizes awarded for best costumes.

Halloween Fun Run
Start at the west end of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, finish at the Rack, 24 Clinton St., Boston (800-966-0444). www.therackboston.com. 6 pm. $30 in advance, $35 day of run. Put on your running shoes and a costume for a three-mile trot around Boston Common to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. Entry fee includes a T-shirt, goody bag and buffet/drink coupon for the post-party at the Rack. Sponsored by THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.



Marilyn Monroe, an inflatable alligator and a white Flavor Flav—yeahh boyeeee, it must be Halloween.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31

BSSC Halloween Masquerade Party
Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. 9 pm-1 am. $15 members in advance, $20 nonmembers or at the door. The Boston Ski and Sports Club throws its annual Halloween ball with live music from Scooby Snax and more than $500 in prizes for the top costumes.

Cottonwood Benefit Costume Ball
Cottonwood Cafe, 222 Berkeley St., Boston (617-247-2225). www.cottonwoodboston.com. 10 pm-1:30 am. $25. This costume party benefits Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Boston and includes a DJ, dancing, prizes and a silent auction.

Felt's Wicked Halloween Party
Felt, 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). www.feltboston.com. 9 pm. $10. KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts this party, which features a costume contest with a $500 top prize and performances by former Cirque du Soleil performers Imago.

Halloween Superhero Party
Jose McIntyre's, 160 Milk St., and Coogan's, 171 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460 and 617-451-7415). www.irishconnection.com. 8 pm. Two pubs host a superhero Halloween party, with $250 prizes for best traditional superhero and most original superhero.

Mayhem and Madness: Halloween at the Harp
The Harp, 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-591-1400, ext. 5). www.bostonypa.com. 8 pm. $25 in advance, $30 at the door. Mayhem and Madness includes four hours of open bar from Pravda vodka and Chambord, palm readers and prizes for scariest, funniest, sexiest and most original costumes. Ten percent of proceeds benefit the Ellie Fund.

Monster Bowl
Kings, 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). www.backbaykings.com. 8 pm-12 am. Answer Halloween trivia and participate in a costume contest to win prizes.

Pajama Jam
Tequila Rain, 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-859-0030). www.tequilarainboston.com. Break out your best jammies at this bedtime-themed Halloween party.

Purple Shamrock Halloween
The Purple Shamrock, One Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). 8 pm. The guest with the best Boston-related costume wins a $666 cash prize. A portion of proceeds benefits Boys and Girls Club of Boston.

Saint's Haunted Playboy Mansion
Saint, 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-670-1224). www.saintboston.com. 8 pm. $30. The Haunted Playboy Mansion party features a sushi bar until midnight, Moet champagne from 8-10 pm and hors d'oeuvres. Costumes or theme dress.

Spirit of Boston Halloween Cruise
Boat leaves from the World Trade Center, Boston (866-211-3807). www.spiritofboston.com. 9 pm-12 am. $25, or $40 including open bar for beer and wine. This Halloween harbor cruise for college students features a DJ, hors d'oeuvres and full cocktail menu.

33's Matrix Halloween Party
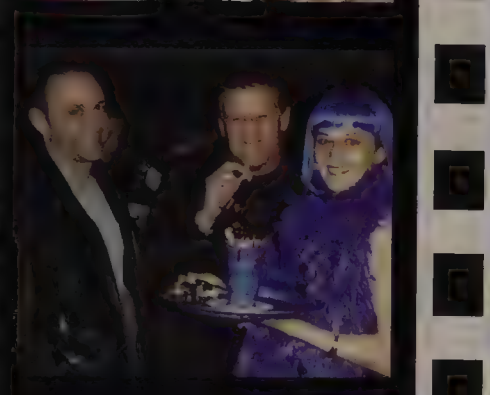
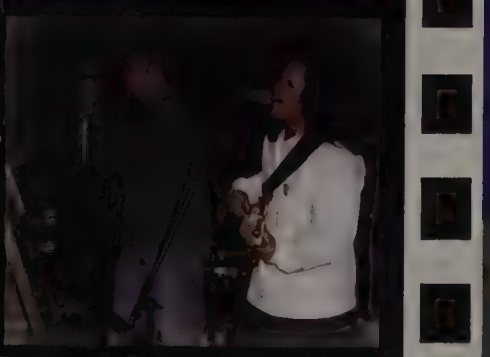
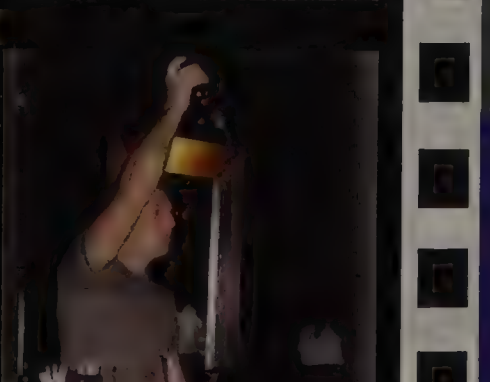
33 Restaurant and Lounge, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. No cover. This Matrix-themed party features complimentary red and blue shots, a screening of the movie and two prix-fixe dinner options before the party (the red menu and blue menu, of course). Dress is Matrix-y.

SUNDAY, NOV. 2

Day of the Dead
Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-617-524-0128). www.foresthills trust.org. 4-6 pm. Free. Forest Hills Cemetery honors the traditional Mexican Day of the Dead with a candle-lit altar, ceremonial chanting, and music and dance from the local cultural group La Piñata.







SKYY VODKA'S 4th ANNUAL "REACH FOR THE SKYY" BARTENDING COMPETITION

Skyy is for looking for New England's Best Bartenders.
The competition judges/tests on drink knowledge, drink creativity, speed, accuracy, flair and personality.

★

Interested in competing?
Go to www.bostonskyy.com to register and for competition details.

★

Top scoring "New Competitor" and top scoring "Overall Winner" will win Skyy Congratulations parties for their bar.

★

Bring this ad with you to Hurricane O'Reilly's on October 28th or November 4th and receive a Skyy T-shirt from one of the Skyy girls.

DATES:

Preliminary Dates:
October 28th & November 4th
Finals: November 11th

TIME:

All events start at 8:30 p.m.
Skyy Open Bar 8:30 - 9:30 pm
(must RSVP for open bar)

PLACE:

Hurricane O'Reilly's
150 Canal Street, Boston

To compete, RSVP and for complete event information go to: www.bostonskyy.com

All are welcome to the event.
You must be 21 to enter Hurricane O'Reilly's or to compete.

Sponsored By SKYY VODKA®

SKYY VODKA SKYY CITRUS SKYY VANILLA SKYY

HURRICANE

Design by: Art Avenue - 781.233.2772

1973 prom attire and dance to music from the International Male, Patiokings and DJ Kev Sugar. This prom benefits Planned Parenthood of Massachusetts.

Tony Hawk's Boom Boom Huck Jam
FleetCenter, Boston (617-931-2000). www.boomboomhuckjam.com. Oct. 25, 7:30 pm, Oct. 26, 1 pm. Tickets start at $25. The country's top skateboarders, BMX riders and motocross riders perform tricks to live music from the Anarchy Orchestra.

SUNDAY, OCT. 26

ALS Benefit Walk
Start/finish at the Bartlett Mall, Newburyport (978-462-8537). 1 pm. The first annual Rick Shelburne Memorial Walk for ALS is a 3-mile pledge walk that raises money for the Angel Fund, an organization that supports amyotrophic lateral sclerosis research.

Country Music Festival
American Legion Post 156, 215 Waverly Oaks Road, Waltham (781-891-7800). www.johnpennyband.net. 2-8 pm. $10. More than 10 musicians and bands, including the John Penny Band, play an all-day concert to benefit the American Liver Foundation.

Moakley's Run for Research
Start/finish on Day Blvd. at Moakley Park, Boston (617-527-5600). www.liverfoundation-ne.org. 10 am. $20. This 5-mile road race benefits the American Liver Foundation.

Sunday Singles Dance
Raffael's Restaurant, One Enterprise Drive, State Street bank Building, N. Quincy (781-446-0234). Every Sunday, 7-11 pm. $10. Single professionals ages 35 and over are invited for an evening of dancing to music by Beau Paris. Complimentary buffet. Proper business dress required.

TUESDAY, OCT. 28

Opening Doors Awards
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-698-6616). 5:30 pm. $125. This awards dinner benefits the Women's Institute for Housing and Economic Development.

Shared Benefit
Armenian Library and Museum, 65 Main St., Watertown (617-429-2900). www.healthshares.org. Through Nov. 2. This weeklong series of events includes an exhibition and auction of Sara JH Ashodian's sculpture Passages and a concert by the folk ensemble Arev. Proceeds benefit Shared's efforts to provide essential medicines in Armenia.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29

Ellis Antiques Show
The Castle at Park Plaza, Boston (617-523-8696). www.ellisantiques.com. Preview party, 6-9 pm, $225 in advance, $250 at the door. Regular admission $25. Show runs Oct. 20-Nov. 2. One of the area's major antiques shows includes a preview party, lectures, guided tours and a champagne reception. Proceeds benefit the Mass. General Hospital for Children and Ellis Memorial & Eldredge House.

Martinis and Gambling
The Black Rose, 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). www.irishconnection.com. 7-11 pm. $5. Gamble some (play) money on tables from Mohegan Sun to benefit the Susan Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. Pink drinks provided by Seagram's Vodka.

Unicef Audrey Hepburn Benefit
Ritz-Carlton, 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-227-3334, ext. 32). www.unicefusa.org. 6 pm. $150 including reception, $25 for movie screening only. Unicef celebrates the life of Audrey Hepburn with a reception hosted by her son, Sean Hepburn Ferrer, followed by a screening of Funny Face at the Loews Boston Common cinema. An after-party at the "Left Bank Cafe" (aka the Sugar Shack) concludes the evening.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30

Raising the Roof
Joseph's, 200 High St., Boston (617-423-2223). www.habitatboston.org. 6-9 pm. $25 in advance, $30 at the door. A night of music and dancing raises money for Habitat for Humanity projects in Northern Ireland.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31

Boston International Antiquarian Book Fair
Hynes Convention Center, Boston (617-266-6540. www.bostonbookfair.com. Oct. 31, 5-9 pm; Nov. 1, 12-7 pm; Nov. 2, 12-4 pm. $15 for the opening night through the weekend, $8 per day. Boston's oldest continually running antiquarian book fair returns for the 27th year with 135 exhibitors and thousands of rare and collectible books. Highlights include two books illustrated by Pablo Picasso and a 1666 edition of Shakespeare's plays.

North Bennett Street School Open House
39 North Bennett St., Boston (617-227-0155). www.nbss.org. Oct. 31, 10 am-2 pm; Nov. 1, 10 am-3 pm. The North Bennett School opens its doors to the public with demonstrations of its classes, including carpentry, jewelry making, bookbinding and more.

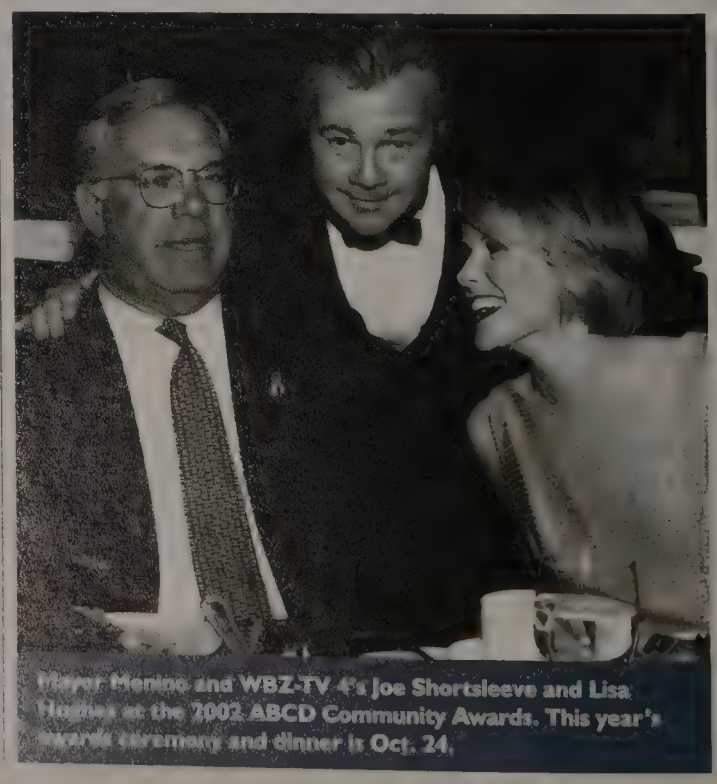
Steppin' Out
World Trade Center, 164 Northern Ave, Boston (617-442-8800, ext. 1207). Young professionals kick-off party Oct. 31, 7:30 pm-2 am, $50 in advance, $60 at the door. Feel the Rhythm concert, Nov. 1, 8 pm-2 am, $150. Steppin' Out Gospel Brunch, Nov. 2, 11 am- 2 pm, $50 in advance, $60 at the door. This three-day benefit for the Dimock Community Health Center features a young professionals kick-off party, a black-tie jazz concert with Walter Beasley, Roberta Flack and more than 20 other performers, and a gospel brunch.

SATURDAY, NOV. 1

The Gallery @ Green Street Mad Dash
141 Green St., Boston (617-522-0000). www.jameshull.com. 12 pm. The Gallery @ Green Street, located at the Green Street MBTA stop, raises money with its annual 150 x 150 Mad Dash event. All 150 pieces of art for sale cost $150.

PBNA Street Fair and Carnival
Harriet Tubman Park at Columbus Square in the South End, Boston (617-262-6209). 10 am-3 pm. The Pilot Block Neighborhood Association hosts a fall fundraiser featuring a white elephant sale, a bake sale, a raffle and more. Proceeds benefit the PBNA's community activities.

Susan G. Komen Foundation Pink Ball
Tara Drive Showhouse, 55 Tara Drive, Norwell (781-925-3459). 6 pm. $200. This benefit for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation includes a cocktail reception, dinner, dancing and silent auction.



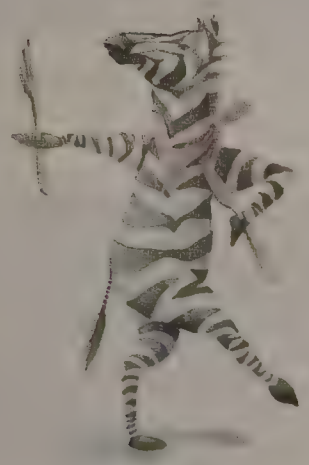
Mayor Menino and WBZ-TV 4's Joe Shortsleeve and Lisa Hughes at the 2002 ABCD Community Awards. This year's awards ceremony and dinner is Oct. 24.

Women of Means Benefit Concert
Wellesley Congregational Church, 2 Central St., Wellesley (781-239-0290). www.womenofmeans.org. 8 pm. $35. Miranda Russell and the Smokin' Hot Band perform to benefit Women of Means, an organization that provides medical care to homeless women.

SUNDAY, NOV. 2

Library Lovers' Evening
Westin Hotel, Waltham (617-796-1407). 6:30 pm. $75. RSVP by Oct. 24. This benefit party for the Newton Free Library features authors William Nova, Steve Almond and Charles Pierce, as well as cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and dinner.

UPSTAIRS ON THE SQUARE



NEW FALL MENUS
AND FOUR FIREPLACES

JOIN US FOR THANKSGIVING
&
SPARKLING CHRISTMAS PARTIES

MARY-CATHERINE DEIBEL AND DEBORAH HUGHES, Proprietors

91 Winthrop Street · Harvard Square
617 864.1933 · upstairsonthesquare.com

THE NEW CLASSICS

The word is out – bracelets are in. Dazzling by day or night
It's the new classic look that's always right
Come in and discover our exquisite stones, unique settings and outstanding service

Diamond bracelet collection $500 to $20,000

BARMAKIAN JEWELERS

DIAMONDS SINCE 1910

BOSTON	NASHUA, NH	FRAMINGHAM
617.227.3724	603.888.7800	508.872.5454

BARMAKIAN.COM

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts. Or e-mail information to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Get tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Booths located at Faneuil Hall (on the south side of the hall) and Copley Square (at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth). Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Purchase tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.coolguitars.com/tickets.htm. Open seven days a week, Ticket City sells tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater

JUST OPENED

Book of Days
Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Oct. 24-Nov. 22. $22-$41. A quiet midwestern town with more churches than bars serves as the setting for Lanford Wilson's (Talley's Folly and The Hot L Baltimore) play about adultery, theft, lies and the politics of community theater.

Boston Fringe
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-5000). www.company one.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Oct. 30-Nov. 22. $25. Company One offers a dynamic collection of plays and performances produced by Boston's leading alternative companies, including Centastage, Hysterical Performance, Mill 6 Theatre Collaborative, New African Company, Tricord Productions and Zeitgeist Stage Company. Performances feature poets, dancers, musicians and storytellers.

Boy Gets Girl
Merrimack Repertory Theater, 50 East Merrimack St., Lowell (978-454-3926). Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Oct. 23-Nov. 16. $16-$24. This thriller explores what it means to be secure in today's world, as a young man's infatuation quickly turns into obsession after a blind date. Rebecca Gilman's play follows a young career woman's gradual unraveling as she comes to realize that her safety may depend on giving up everything she has.

Butley
Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Wed., 2 pm.; Tue.-Thu. 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun. 2 and 7 pm. Through Nov. 30. $14-$64. Two-time Tony Award winner Nathan Lane stars in Simon Gray's dark comedy about a literary professor whose wife and lover both leave him on the same day.

Candide
Boston Conservatory Theater, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-912-9222). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Oct. 29-Nov. 1, 8 pm; Nov. 1-2, 2 pm. $5-$16. The Boston Conservatory Theater presents the American premiere of the Royal National Theatre's Candide, the story of a lowly man on a quest to figure out if ours is the best of all possible worlds. This version, by Leonard Bernstein, restores much of the text and original satiric intent of Voltaire.

The Girl in the Frame
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 30-Nov. 9. $32. This musical by Jeremy Desmon is about a man who falls in love with a fantasy girl from a picture frame.

Dario Fo's Accidental Death of an Anarchist plays at Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway.

Haymarket
Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant Street. Oct. 30-Nov. 16. From Zayd Dohrn, the critically acclaimed author of Shameless, comes the dramatic story of anarchist labor activists Lucy and Albert Parsons. When dynamite explodes and a riot breaks out in Haymarket, killing 11 people—seven of them policemen—the tenor of 1886 Chicago grows murderous.

High Heels and Red Noses
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (1-877-246-3537). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 24, 12 am. $15 ($12 for clowns in make-up). Bindlestiff Family Cirkus presents a burlesque comedy circus show with singing, dancing, juggling, sword-swallowing, acrobatics and more.

Paradise by the River
Dante Alighieri Society of Massachusetts, 41 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5160). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Oct. 24, 8 pm. Donation suggested, refreshments served. A group of local actors gives a dramatic reading of this play about Italian Canadians arrested during World War II.

The Peace of Wild Things
Rey-Waldstein Building, Longy School of Music, 33 Garden St., Cambridge (617-547-7819). www.cambridgeopera.org. Oct. 25, 8 pm. $20. This concert sponsored by Cambridge Opera is based on the theme of animals and nature and features the Boston debut of a song cycle (with the same name) by Houston composer David Ashley White. Many of the songs are popular poems set to music.

The Phantom Tollbooth
Wheelock Family Theatre, 180 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu/wft. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. Oct. 31-Nov. 30. $12-$18. "It seems to me that almost everything is a waste of time," laments bored protagonist Milo. But then a mysterious tollbooth appears in his bedroom and he is whisked away to the Land of Expectations. Follow Milo's magical and mysterious adventures in this musical based on Norton Juster's 1961 novel.

Porgy and Bess
Emerson College, The Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (888-889-8587). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue. and Fri., 7:30 pm; Wed., 7 pm;Thu., 8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. Oct. 28-Nov. 2. $25-$65. Set in a fishing village in 1912 South Carolina, George Gershwin's folk opera tells the story of Bess, a woman with a disreputable past who breaks free from her brutish lover to seek refuge with a cripple named Porgy.

Puppets at Night: Tiger Tales
Puppet Showplace Theatre, 32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Oct. 23-25, 8 pm. $20. Based on Chinese folktales, this shadow puppet performance deals with issues of power and the survival of the small and powerless in today's modern jungle.

ReOrientalism
Center for Latino Arts, 85 West Newton St., Boston (617-927-1781). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 22, 8 pm. $20. Inspired by the writings of recently deceased author/activist Edward Said, this mini-opera includes projected visual imagery and original and traditional instrumental and vocal music, spoken and sung in English and several Middle Eastern languages. The piece explores the themes of Said's Orientalism, especially the West's simultaneous romanticism and fear of Islam.

Rigoletto
Boston Lyric Opera at the Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-6772). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Wed., 7:30 pm; Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Nov. 5-18. $33-$152. Rigoletto will do almost anything to save his daughter from the Duke's heartless ill-use. But at what cost? His adversary controls his fate. This production is sung in Italian (with English subtitles).

The Shakespeare Stealer
Theatre I, Tufte Performance Center, 10 Boylston Place, Boston (617-824-8369). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri., 7 pm; Sat. 2 and 7 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 24-Nov. 2. $14. Based on the novel by Gary L. Blackwood, this play follows an orphaned apprentice on his quest to steal the only copy of Shakespeare's new play, Hamlet. Shakespeare's company of actors befriend him and, for the first time, he feels like a part of a family. How can he betray them now?

West Side Story
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., 8 pm; Wed., 2 and 8 pm; Thu.-Fri., 8pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 28-Nov. 23. $26-63. The modern-day version of Romeo and Juliet finds two young lovers caught between warring street gangs and opposing cultures.

NOW RUNNING

Accidental Death of an Anarchist
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 26. $22-$25. Playwright Dario Fo's political farce is based on the true story of an anarchist who was said to have fallen out the fourth-floor window of police headquarters while under investigation. The play follows a character who poses as a judge in an effort to force the truth from the police.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-6912). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed., 8 pm; Thu., 5 and 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 3 and 6 pm. Ongoing. $43 and $53. This production abandons all dialogue and focuses on making an impact through tribal rock music, humorous antics, props and three men painted blue.

The Credeaux Canvas
Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-0320). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Through Oct. 25. $25. Flat broke and newly disinherited, Jamie persuades his roommate to paint a portrait of Jamie's lover in the style of an obscure 19th-century painter. The plan: to pass the painting off as a newfound masterpiece and sell it to a wealthy art collector.

Dinner with Friends
TheatreZone at Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea Square (617-887-2336). MBTA: Green Line to Haymarket. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. Through Nov. 1. $12-$15. Donald Margulies' comedy of "modern manners" tells the story of two married couples who have been best friends for years and the ensuing fallout when one couple splits up.

Ethan Frome
Founders' Theatre, Shakespeare & Co., 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-637-3353). www.shakespeare.org. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 26. $10-$45. In this play by Dennis Krausnick, adapted from Edith Wharton's novella, a young engineer looks into the past of Ethan, a beaten and withered man who has reached middle age before his time.

Fighting Words
Leland Center, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-0320). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3 and 8 pm, Sun., 3 pm. Through Oct. 25., $20. The QE2 Players present the Boston premiere of this play by Sunil Kuruvilla about Welsh boxer Johnny Owen. The story—told from the perspective of three women—follows Owen's fight for the bantamweight world championship.

The Gulls
Machine, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri. and Sat. 8 pm. Through Nov. 8. Ryan Landry's play The Gulls, loosely based on Alfred Hitchcock's film The Birds, is the story of rebellious seagulls exacting revenge on Provincetown developers.

Hairspray
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.broadwayinboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. Through Nov. 1. $30-$97. It's 1962 in Baltimore, and 16-year-old Tracy Turnblad sets out to dance her way onto television's most popular show. Can a big girl with big dreams—and even bigger hair—change the world and still have time to win the boy she loves? Bruce Vilanch stars in this Tony Award–winning musical about a young girl's struggle with self-acceptance.

A Man of No Importance
SpeakEasy Stage Company at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. Through Nov. 9. $25-$35. Based on the 1994 film starring Albert Finney, this show with music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahrens follows a Dublin bus driver's attempts to stage Oscar Wilde's Salome at his church in the 1960s, despite protests from parish officials.

Say Goodnight, Gracie
Wilbur Theatre, 106 Boylston, Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 2. Take a guided tour through an American century as seen by George Burns (played by Frank Gorshin)—from his impoverished youth on New York's lower East side, to his career in Vaudeville, his marriage to Gracie Allen and the couple's rise to success on stage, screen, radio and television.

Sexuality in the City
The Devanaughn Theatre at the Piano Factory, 791 Tremont St., Boston (617-738-2967). Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. Through Nov.1. $20. A Sex and the City parody, this play offers a voyeuristic glimpse into the sexual dynamics of today's relationships. Can love transcend age, intellect, impotence and gender?

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6:30 and 9:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Ongoing. $30-$34. This comedic whodunit set in a unisex hair salon holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

Side Show
Riverside Theatre Works, 45 Fairmount Ave., Hyde Park (617-361-7024). Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Nov. 1. $21. Based on a true story, this Tony-nominated musical by Bill Russell portrays the story of real-life conjoined twins Daisy and Violet Hilton, who sought love and fame as they became Vaudeville stars during the depression.

Stones in His Pockets
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 26. $32. Two actors play more than a dozen roles in this comedy by Marie Jones. Discover what happens when a film crew descends upon a small Irish town to film a Hollywood blockbuster.

Tongue of a Bird
Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-1300). www.theatrecoop.org. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Oct. 25. $15-$25. This lyrical play by Ellen McLaughlin tells the story of a search-and-rescue pilot who finds herself confronting losses of her own as she sets out on the trail of a kidnapped young girl.

UNIVERSITY THEATER

Blue Window
Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. Through Oct. 26. Craig Lucas' play is about nervous Libby who is about to host a dinner party for virtual strangers both to herself and each other. The strangers talk but don't seem to communicate as an air of mystery hangs over the evening.

How I Learned to Drive
Black Box Theatre, Regis College Theatre Company, 235 Wellesley St., Weston (781-768-7070). Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Oct. 30-Nov. 2. $8. Winner of the 1998 Pulitzer Prize, this play by Paula Vogel is both a humorous and disturbing tale of survival

IT'S LIFE on a whole different LEVEL.

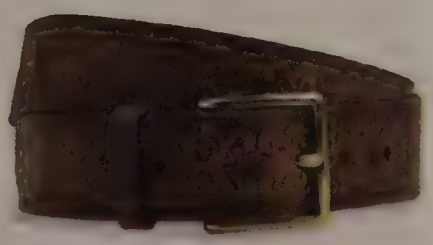
The martinis are always cold. The hospitality is always warm. An award-winning chef prepares every meal. Live jazz plays every night. And the soaring, panoramic view of Boston is, well, perfect. It's life on a whole different level. For reservations, call 617.536.1775. PRUDENTIAL CENTER, 800 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON

Top of the Hub℠



MARKETPLACE CENTER

NEXT TO FANEUIL HALL

BOSTON

AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS GAP BANANA REPUBLIC CLARKS

seen through the lens of a troubling relationship between a young girl and an older man.

Temptation
Harvard Radcliffe Dramatic Club at Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 24, 25 and 31, 8 pm; Oct. 25 and 26, 2 pm; Oct. 30, 7:30 pm and Nov. 1, 2 and 8 pm. $12. Former Czech president Vaclav Havel presents a play about darkness, religion and science that centers around a devil offering to teach magic.

Dance

Dancer/Choreographer Peter DiMuro
Sargent Dance Studio, One University Road, Boston (617-353-1597). Oct. 25, 8 pm. Free. Dancer/choreographer Peter DiMuro mines diverse materials ranging from political speeches to rap lyrics to present a new movement study based on parades and protests.

Dancing on Common Ground
Rogers Center for the Arts, Merrimack College, 315 Turnpike St., North Andover (978-837-5355). www.merrimack.edu/rogers. Oct. 24, 7:30 pm. $20. World Champion Irish step dancers, country cloggers and American tap dancers perform.

Jose Mateo Ballet Theatre's Undercurrents
Sanctuary Theatre, 400 Harvard St., Cambridge (617-354-7467). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Thu., Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 4 pm. Through Oct. 26. $28. Experience ballet with cabaret-style seating, cocktails during the show and a close-up view of the dancers. This show includes a revival of Mateo's The Last Circus (1990), set to Stravinsky's Concerto for Piano & Wind Instruments; Courtly Lovers, set to Haydn's Surprise Symphony; and the premiere of Mateo's latest work, set to music by Robert Schumann.

Naya Deep
Little Kresge Theater, MIT, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (508-981-9091). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Oct. 18, 7:30 pm. $20. This performance of traditional Kathak dance celebrates the season of Diwali, a time of renewal, light and new beginnings.

New Open Floor
Green Street Studios, 185 Green St., Cambridge (617-480-9630). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Nov. 2, 6:30 pm. $3-$5. Daniel McCusker hosts a monthly, ongoing, open floor for dancers and choreographers.

Boston Ballet commemorates choreographer George Balanchine with Stars and Stripes

Red Cross Line
The Dance Complex, 536 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-547-9363). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 24 and 25, 8 pm. $9. This performance features new works of modern dance, ballet, Irish step dancing and movement-based performance art presented by emerging local choreographers.

Rudolf Nureyev's Don Quixote
Boston Ballet at the Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 8 pm. Oct. 30-Nov. 2. $39-$96. This re-creation of Miguel de Cervantes' classic 17th-century tale is set in the heart of the Spanish countryside and features chivalry, passion and comical adventure. Principal dancer Jennifer Gelfand makes her farewell performance with the Boston Ballet.

Sprout
Green Street Studios, 185 Green St., Cambridge (617-864-3191). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, 8 pm. $15. Ryuji Yamaguchi and his dancers display seven new and recent works, using props ranging from water guns to blindfolds.

Stars and Stripes
Boston Ballet at the Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 8 pm. Oct. 23-26. $39-$96. The Boston Ballet commemorates the 100th anniversary of the birth of one of the world's greatest choreographers, George Balanchine, with a repertory production that includes Stars and Stripes and Mozartiana and a performance of The Grey Area, choreographed by David Dawson.

Stomp
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.stomponline.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat.5 and 9 pm; Sun. 3 and 7 pm. Ongoing. $45-$55. In its ongoing run in Boston, this percussion hit continues its tradition of no plot or dialogue. Performers use everyday objects such as brooms, garbage lids and their own bodies to create music for their dance numbers.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy. Or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault at Remington's features local stand-up comedians. •Fridays and Saturdays: Dick Doherty's Comedy Pro Tour •Sundays: Open-mike night.

Comedy at the Isle
Emerald Isle Bar, 1501 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-288-3481). MBTA: Red Line to Fields Corner. 8:30 pm. $10. •Nov. 1: Jim Colliton and Greg Rodrigues.

Comedy Connection
245 Quincy Market Place, Faneuil Hall, Upper Rotunda, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center; Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Wed., 8 pm, $12; Thu., 8:30 pm, $12; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm, 10:15 pm, prices vary; Sun., 7 pm, $12. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •Oct. 23 and 30: Frank Santos, the R-Rated Hypnotist •Oct. 24: John Valby, a.k.a Dr. Dirty •Oct. 25, $27: Steve Sweeney from There's Something About Mary •Oct. 27: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox, the Wildman of Comedy. •Oct. 28: Paul Nardizzi and Robbie Printz •Oct. 29: DJ Hazard.

The Comedy Studio
The Hong Kong, 1236 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $7-$9. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •Oct. 22: Tony V, Kelly MacFarland, Rob Reuter, Jeremy Turoff, Evan O'Television, Larry Starr, Matt Winninger, Corey Manning, Tony Moschetto and Amanda White. •Oct. 23: The Tim McIntire Show with James Patterson, Chris Coxen, Adam Pearlman, Nicole Luparelli, Peter Dutton, Jay Montepare and Jon Rineman. •Oct. 24: Tommy Morello, Larry Murphy, Greg Thibideau, Chris Walsh, Eric Cheung and Andy O'Fish. •Oct. 25: Kelly MacFarland, Brian Kiley, Brian Gordon, Dan Sulman, Abe Smith, Tommy Morello and Tim Kaelin. •Oct. 26: Sam Walters, Rob Asaro, Deb Darrar-Parkman, Tissa Hami, Bethany Van Delft, Jen Ruelas, JJ, Dan Sulman and Janet Cormier. •Oct. 28: The Mystery Lounge Magic/Comedy Show. •Oct. 29: The Tony V Experiment, Kelly MacFarland, Dan Sulman, Joe Wong, Steve Farrell, Will McNeill, Ku, Walter Dixon and Jesse Gersten. •Oct. 30: The Tim McIntire Show with Janet Cormier, Mikey D., Myq Kaplan, Anthony Spencer, Dan Sally and Hugh Chatfield. •Oct. 31: Mary Beth Cowan, Evan O'Television, Sandy Asai, Chris Walsh and Larry Murphy. •Nov. 1: Sandy Asai, Tammy Two-Tone, Evan O' Television, Mary Beth Cowan and Brian Gordon. •Nov. 2: Evan O'Television's Idiot Box, performance art/comedy.

Nick's Comedy Stop
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. $10-$22. •Oct. 25, 8:45 pm: Brad Mastrangelo, Tim McIntire and Chris Jones •Oct. 30, 8:30 pm, free admission: Kevin Knox and All Star Comedy •Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, 8:45 pm, : Bob Gautreau, Charlie K and Ted Barrett.

IMPROV COMEDY

Faces for Radio
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-510-4447). www.faces4radio.com. MBTA:Red Line to Central. Thu., 8 pm. $8. Improv comedians poke fun at everything, including themselves.

Improv Asylum
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA:Green or Orange Line to Haymarket or Government Center. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $15-$20. Dinner packages also available. Improvisation and sketch comedy in the North End. •Wed.-Sat.: Improv Asylum Announces the End of Major Hostilities, a new show on the mainstage.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Inman Square, Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central . $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: the characters, the stories, the settings—even the songs and dances. •Wed. 8 pm, $5: The Hump. This series for experimental and improvisational theater features ScripTease and The Tribe •Thu., 8 pm, $12: Unnatural Selection. A master of ceremonies randomly eliminates players until only one is left; 10 pm, $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and music, play short films and do character sketches in a display of sibling rivalry •Fri. 8 pm, $12: Luv Boat. Instead of washed-up celebrities setting sail, the audience members are the passengers on this cruise; 10 pm, $12: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers face off. •Sat., 6 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Family Show; 8 and 10 pm, $12: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music, audience participation and joyful chaos, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Oct. 31, 7 pm, 9 pm and 11 pm, $15: Gorefest, an improvised musical about a day at the office that goes horribly wrong.

COMEDY SHOWS

Shelley Berman
The Jewish Theatre of New England, 333 Nahanton St., Newton (617-558-6486). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre. Oct. 25, 8 pm; Oct. 26, 2 and 8 pm. $35. Shelley Berman, the first comedian to win a Grammy award for a nonmusical recording and the first stand-up comedian to appear at Carnegie Hall, takes the stage after a performance by jazz vocalist Rebecca Parris.

Haunted Dinner Theatre
Three Cheers, 332 Congress St., Boston (800-697-2583).www.mysterycafe.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct. 24 and 31, 7:30 pm; Oct. 25 and Nov. 1, 5:30 and 9 pm; Oct. 26, 6 pm. $32.95-$42.95 for dinner and show. Mystery Café and Haunted Dinner Theatre present Ghost of Bad Tabby Manor by Larry Blamire. Join Chives, Master Chef and other suspects as they search for the rare million-dollar Tom Jones stamp.

Joey & Maria's Italian Wedding
Tremont Playhouse, 275 Tremont St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm. Through Nov. 29. $49. This interactive dinner show follows Maria and Joey through their wacky wedding. Throw on a blue tuxedo or your puffiest gown and join the festivities.

Maria's Bachelorette Party
Tremont Playhouse, 275 Tremont St., Boston (800-733-5639). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. and Nov. 21, 7 pm. $42. At this dinner theater show, Maria's friends and bridesmaids throw her a bash she won't forget.

Murder Cacciatore
Ristorante Marino, 2465 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (800-697-2583). www.mysterycafe.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Oct. 25 and Nov. 1, 7:30 pm. $42.95 for dinner and show. The Gourmet Detective serves up Italian cuisine with a murder mystery.

Open Mike Night
Lizard Lounge, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon. pm. Open mike for creative talent.

Stash's Comedy Jam
All Asia Cafe, 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. www.stashcomedyjam.com. First and third Sunday of the month. 8 pm. Enjoy standup comedy at this open mike with host Stash.

Quaint, charming, cozy, larger, comfortable,
cheery, expanded, authentic, attractive, picturesque, loungier.

m.j. O'Connor's
irish pub

Dinner Served until 11:00pm
Now Two Bars Open until 2:00am
Available for Private or Corporate Functions

27 Columbus Ave. At the Boston Park Plaza Hotel • 617.482.2255

Every neighborhood
has it's hangout, come visit ours.

dedo
lounge & bistro

Great atmosphere, better food

Convenient to the South End, Back Bay and the Theater District
Late night menu

69 Church St., Bay Village 617.338.9999 www.dedo.biz
Validated parking at the Radisson Hotel

Just what we need around here...
...More beautiful italian models.

Vespa®

Vespa Boston 22 Brighton Avenue, Boston, MA 1.866.768.1871
HERBCHAMBERS.COM
HOURS: MON - THURS 10AM-7PM FRI - SAT 10AM-6PM SUN NOON-5PM
© PIAGGIO 2001 VESPA AND PIAGGIO ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS OF PIAGGIO GROUP.
ALWAYS WEAR A HELMET, APPROPRIATE EYEWEAR AND PROPER APPAREL

Muddy River

Eastwood can't reverse the curse

BY PAUL SHERMAN

Forget about The Curse of the Bambino. What about The Curse of the Filmbino? I'm sure you know that one—it's the curse that keeps turning outstanding Boston-related books like A Civil Action, The Perfect Storm and now Mystic River into routine, rather forgettable movies.

There was hope that Mystic River might turn out to be something special when Clint Eastwood came to town to film it. The drama in Dennis Lehane's novel had a slow build, which is tricky for a mainstream movie to pull off in these days of instant cinematic gratification. But its story of the murder of one man's 19-year-old daughter—with the case being investigated by one of his childhood friends and the main suspect being another of his childhood friends—dealt with crime and male bonding, familiar territory for Eastwood. And his previous movie, Blood Work, was a damn good meat-and-potatoes thriller. But there's the rub. Mystic River isn't meat and potatoes, and this story of lingering emotional scars, bitter resentments and everyday drudgery fails to play to Eastwood's strengths at straightforward storytelling.

Mystic River is instantly recognizable as an Eastwood movie. No one else's movies are as dark. Eastwood may change cinematographers every five or 10 years, with Tom Stern being his latest, but the movies are always Clint-murky. That's not such a bad thing for the Dorchester-meets-Charlestown-meets-Southie setting of Mystic River—which is heavy on drab vinyl siding, asphalt and the back porches and front stoops of triple-deckers—or for the creepy prologue. That's the 1970s sequence when three boys playing street hockey are approached by two men in a beat-up Ford who pretend to be detectives, and take one of them away. It turns out they're not cops but child molesters.

The murky look of the movie is less helpful to Sean Penn, Kevin Bacon, Tim Robbins and the rest of the cast, and is emblematic of how the movie pales their characters. Those three actors play, respectively, Jimmy Markum, Sean Devine and Dave Boyle, the three friends now grown into their late 30s, and estranged enough to be just acquaintances. Jimmy (Penn) is an ex-con who owns a convenience store; Sean (Bacon) is a detective just separated from his wife; and Dave (Robbins), the victim of the molesters as a boy and now an adult with a perpetual hurt look on his face, happens to come home covered in blood on the night Jimmy's daughter (Emmy Rossum) is murdered in a nearby park.

As is usually the case, Mystic River retains nearly all the plot of the novel but jettisons much of the detail that enriches the book. In this case, that means the movie primarily follows the investigation into the murder. But the murderer was fairly easy to pick out in Lehane's book, and the case was just an excuse to explore the emotional wounds of Jimmy, Sean and Dave. Jimmy, the most volatile of the trio, is the most reduced in the movie. He doesn't feel like the big man in the neighborhood he's meant to be, and all the concentration on the investigation means that the detective's pragmatic partner, well played by Laurence Fishburne, is on screen as much as Jimmy. Penn also looks as if he dug out his wardrobe from his late-1980s Irish-American gangster movie, State of Grace, which makes Jimmy seem generic.

Despite its all-around strong performances (from Laura Linney and Marcia Gay Harden as well), Mystic River needed to find cinematic ways to replace all of the emotional baggage it jettisoned from the book. But that's not Eastwood's way. He offers a few stylistic flourishes, like the overhead shots of Jimmy bursting with rage upon discovering his missing daughter is dead, or the intercutting between two separate violent confrontations. But Mystic River is mainly a workmanlike Eastwood production, short on mood and with a strained orchestral score written by Clint himself. As a Boston neighborhood thriller, it's the big, soggy version of Monument Avenue, the Denis Leary movie that has a gut-level kick Mystic River never musters. IB

Sean Penn plays the father of a murdered young woman in director Clint Eastwood's new movie, Mystic River

Mystic River ★★

Directed by Clint Eastwood. Written by Brian Helgeland. Based on the novel by Dennis Lehane. With Sean Penn, Tim Robbins, Kevin Bacon, Laurence Fishburne, Laura Linney and Marcia Gay Harden. Rated R. Warner Bros.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

American Splendor ★★★
The movie version of Harvey Pekar's autobiographical comic book series sticks to the comics' realism to such a degree that, in addition to scenes with a pitch-perfect Paul Giamatti as cranky Pekar, it also includes narration by and interviews with Pekar himself. That hybrid is clumsy at times, but the movie captures Pekar's search for the extraordinary in the everyday, as well as his hard-headed individualism, with precision and affection. We see Pekar at his humble file clerk job and in his legendary appearances on David Letterman's shows. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Casa de los Babys ★★
Writer-director John Sayles' movies either have narrative thrust (Lone Star, Sunshine State), or they don't. His latest just sits there in search of purpose. This story of a half-dozen American women in Mexico (waiting to adopt babies from a local agency) and the Mexicans they come into contact with feels like a first draft. The characters are sketchy, the action is tentative, and the point is fuzzy. The relationship between parenting and imperialism bubbles under the story, but never hits home. Too bad, because Sayles assembled an eclectic cast of actresses—including Lili Taylor, Marcia Gay Harden, Maggie Gyllenhaal and Mary Steenburgen—who interact well together but are let down by the script. (At Kendall Square.)

The Fighting Temptations ★★★
Here's a big surprise. Although it stars Cuba Gooding Jr. (he of the painful Snow Dogs and Boat Trip) and it's a formula film about a jaded yuppie who sees the light when he returns to his small hometown, this is actually an enjoyable ensemble comedy with great musical performances. Gooding plays a New York ad exec who's not above advising a liquor company to market malt liquor to blacks. Then he returns to his Georgia hometown for a great aunt's funeral and, as stipulated in her will, has to get her church's choir into a local competition in order to collect his inheritance. The cast is filled with singers (Beyonce, the O'Jays, Melba Moore), and the songs are often knockouts, while Mike Epps and Steve Harvey are very funny and Gooding's Jack Lemmon facial expressions of disbelief are just right for his character. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Kill Bill—Vol. 1 ★★
Before the first few minutes of Volume 1 of Quentin Tarantino's long-awaited action epic—the second half arrives in February—you get the circa-1970 Shaw Brothers' "Shawscope" logo from the team's old martial arts films, the swirly circa-1970 "Our Feature Presentation" intro that movie theaters used to show, a circa-1970 Klingons reference and a taste of the circa-1970 Ironside theme song. This instantly goes to show that Tarantino's style, cool and clever a decade ago, is now only as adventurous as an episode of VH1's I Love the '70s. Make that VH1 with literal geysers of blood. Tarantino's story is a revenge tale with Uma Thurman as a modern-day warrior seeking revenge on the assassins who left her for dead. The pop-cultural quotes come fast and hard—spaghetti westerns, Japanese manga comics, Tarantino's own Reservoir Dogs, etc.—so much so that you wish he would just settle down and let his characters and words do their jobs, as in the movie's best sequence, when the warrior enlists a philosophical Okinawan sword maker (Sonny Chiba). Let's hope the second half has more stretches like that. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Lost in Translation ★★★½
Sofia Coppola dealt with shared pain in her 2001 directorial debut, The Virgin Suicides, and she conjures up a similar funny-sad tone in her tale of two Americans (Bill Murray, Scarlett Johansson) adrift in Tokyo. He's a washed-up movie star making a bundle endorsing Japanese booze; she's the wife of a work-consumed photographer (Giovanni Ribisi). They're staying at the same hotel and killing time at the same hotel bar, and their misery loves company. The characters make a great movie couple, although their relationship is platonic (with its share of sexual tension). Murray gives a Buster Keaton–like, sad-clown performance but mainly around physical and especially facial reactions to absurd situations, and Johansson is a little heartbreaker. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and suburbs.)

Matchstick Men ★★★
If it's a Nicolas Cage movie, the more neuroses the better. He follows his self-loathing writer fro

"33 Raises The Bar In The South End"
The Boston Globe

"33 Is The Lucky Number"
Boston Magazine

"Owners Greg Den Herder And Igor Blatnik Have Created A Winner"
Improper Bostonian

"At 33, The French And Italian Cuisine Is Soaring Out Of The Kitchen..."
Newbury St& Back Bay Guide

"The Hip 138-Seat State-Of-The-Art Eatery 33, Is Packing Them In... And Is Boston's New Hot Spot"
The Boston Herald

"The Menu Features Dishes Almost Never Seen These Days And Are Excellent And Creative"
Alison Arnett, The Boston Globe

"With Its Brick Walls, Slatted Oak Ceiling And Room-Length Led-Lit Bar That Morphs Metronomically Through The Colors Of The Rainbow, 33 Becomes A Hip Happening Hot Spot..."
Mat Schaffer, The Boston Globe

33

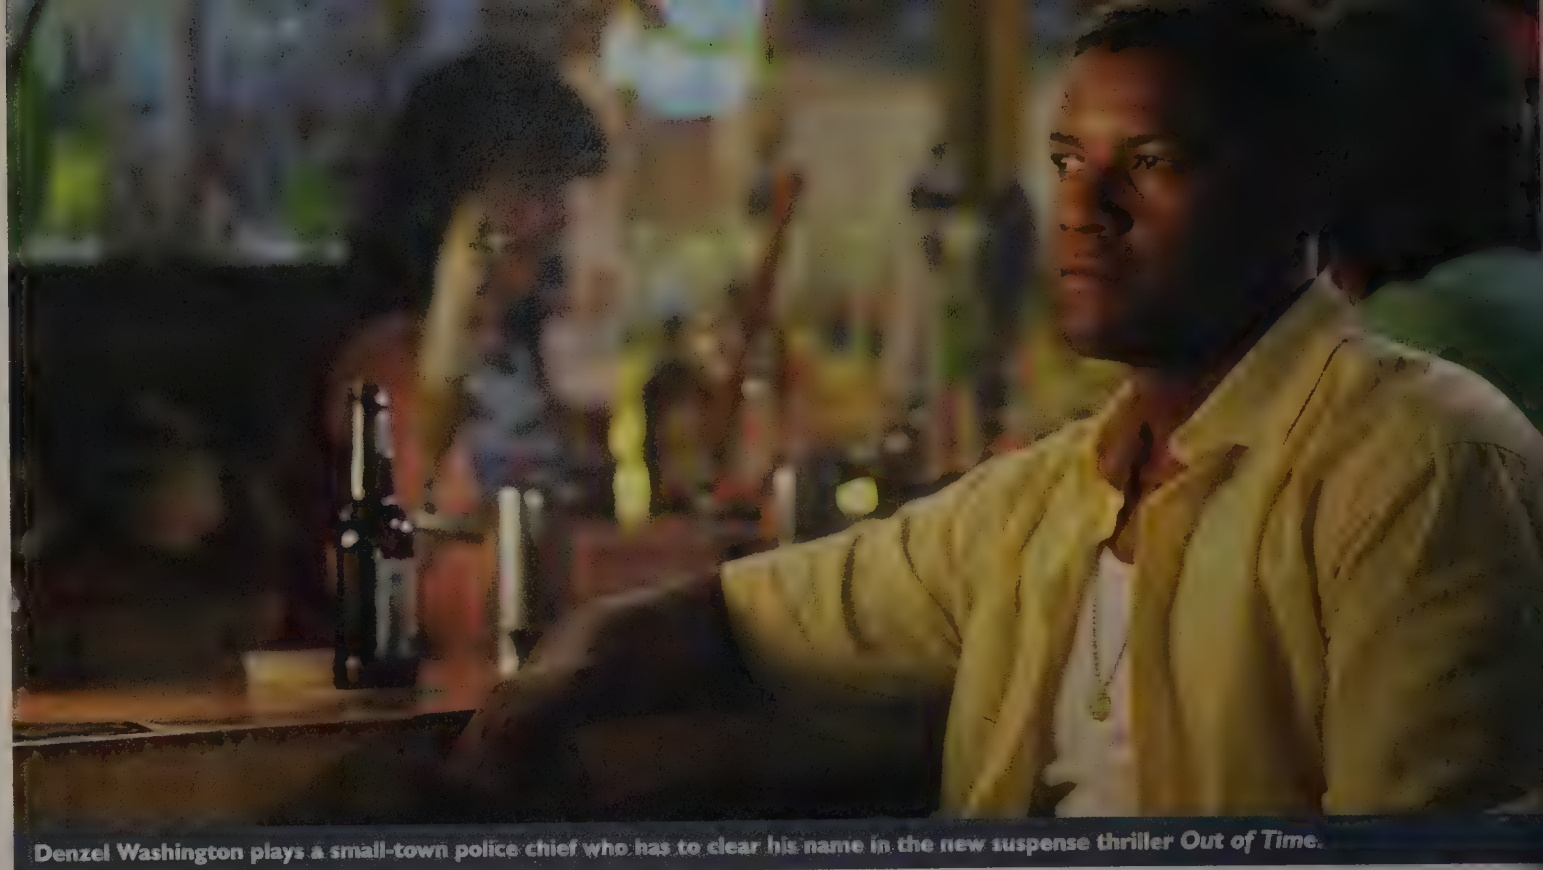
RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

33 Stanhope Street, Boston MA 02116
Reservations 617.572.33.11
www.33restaurant.com

Adaptation with an obsessive-compulsive neatnik in Ridley Scott's comedy. Cage's con man can't function if there's a speck on the carpet, and he thinks that initiating a relationship with the 14-year-old daughter (Alison Lohman) he's never seen might help. The intertwining of his professional life with his strained attempt at fatherhood makes for some amusing moments, as does Cage's trademark twisted emotionalism. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Morning Sun ★★½
Brookline-based Carma Hinton and Richard Gordon's The Gate of Heavenly Peace (1995) is the definitive documentary about the Tiananmen Square uprising of 1989. Their latest, co-directed with Geremie R. Barme, covers the Chinese Cultural Revolution of the 1960s and is always involving, though it raises more questions than it answers. The Cultural Revolution was like an extreme version of American McCarthyism, a call to root out "enemies within" carried out with mob rule. But in China it resulted in a cycle of martyrdom and scapegoating even more tragic and absurd than what happened in the United States. The movie offers some insight, with interviews from many who've never before spoken on camera about their experiences, but you can't say it actually makes sense of things. The main question that lingers is how Mao Zedong could manipulate so many people for so long; his apparent puppeteer's role in the events is never really explored. (At the Museum of Fine Arts, Oct. 22-25, 30-31, and Nov. 1.)

Out of Time ★★½
Nearly a decade ago, director Carl Franklin and star Denzel Washington made Devil in a Blue Dress, an evocative 1940s-set neo-noir that should have launched a series featuring author Walter Mosley's hero, "Easy" Rawlins—if only audiences hadn't been so indifferent. Franklin and Washington's new collaboration is another thriller involving sex, money and deceit. This one is competent but much less layered and much more conventional. (I guess the generic title is a tip-off.) Washington plays a small-town police chief who's about to be divorced from one woman (fellow cop Eva Mendes) and is sleeping with another (married woman Sanaa Lathan). A splashy crime involving the lover and a trail of evidence incriminating the chief perk the attentions of the fellow cop, and the chief has to scurry to clear his name. There are a few thrills, but there's also a ridiculously sunny ending. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)



Denzel Washington plays a small-town police chief who has to clear his name in the new suspense thriller Out of Time.

Pieces of April ★★★
Black humor and optimism blend surprisingly well in this story of the title character (Katie Holmes) fixing Thanksgiving dinner for her visiting family. While she deals with kitchen problems in her Manhattan apartment, like finding a neighbor who'll let her use a stove after she realizes hers doesn't work, we also see the family (including dad Oliver Platt and ill mom Patricia Clarkson) trekking their way downstate to see her. The feeling of dread is mutual for the black-sheep daughter and her disappointed parents, and the colorful cast pulls off the heightened reality in writer-director Peter Hedges' story. (At Coolidge Corner.)

The Rundown ★★
The Rock still makes a great action leading man, and the movie sets up his character here with a blistering prologue. But the main plot, set in the Amazon and sending the Rock after wayward rich kid Seann William Scott (who does not come off well here) just isn't that involving. Having Christopher Walken around as the bad guy helps, but this is one of those weak "when in doubt, blow something up" action movies. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

The Station Agent ★★★
This comedy about a dwarf (Peter Dinklage) who moves into an abandoned train depot in a small New Jersey town might have been a cloyingly quirky indie film. Instead, it's a pretty special experience. Dinklage's deadpan performance as Fin wryly captures how his character's expectations of his fellow man have been pounded down by their reaction to his height. Broader comedy comes from Bobby Canavale, as a food-truck owner who tries to befriend Fin, and Patricia Clarkson as a woman escaping a fizzled marriage whom Fin tries to befriend. There's a wise and endearing clash of humanity here, and an unpredictable story to go along with it. Along with Pieces of April, another brittle yet funny Clarkson performance. (At Kendall Square.)

Thirteen ★★★
In the spectrum of movies about troubled teenage girls, Catherine Hardwicke's debut falls somewhere between the clichés of the recent Blue Car and the unique emotional eeriness of The Virgin Suicides. Evan Rachel Wood, who has a Kirsten Dunst–like mix of sweetness and naughtiness, is convincing as the initially girlish seventh-grader who yearns to hang out with the popular, more physically mature girls—and gets to, by taking drugs, shoplifting and pushing her budding sexuality just as they do. Meanwhile, her frazzled mom (Holly Hunter) tries to straddle the line between being firm and friendly, while her new best friend (Nikki Reed, who co-wrote the script with Hardwicke) manipulates everyone in sight. Although the movie can sometimes come off as a pat cautionary tale, its emotional messiness is awfully realistic, with most everyone oblivious to their own faults. (At Boston Common, Copley Place, Kendall Square and Coolidge Corner.)

Unprecedented: The 2000 Presidential Election ★★★½
The next time someone rants about the so-called liberal-run media, think about why this outraged exposé of the 2000 presidential election (which ultimately condemns the Democrat leadership as well as the Republican) is playing in the 40-seat Coolidge Corner Theater Screening Room instead of being on a network in prime time. Put this one in the time capsule. Directed by Richard Ray Perez and Joan Sekler. (At the Coolidge Corner.)

Veronica Guerin ★★
Unlike his previous movies, nothing blows up in producer Jerry Bruckheimer's latest, except his pretensions of getting an Oscar nomination for making something a touch more human than Bad Boys 2. In this forgettable thriller based on a true story, the last two years of the title character, a slain Irish journalist (played by Cate Blanchett), get the slick Hollywood treatment. The story called for the stripped-down grit of director Joel Schumacher's best and most uncharacteristic movie, Tigerland, but instead we get his usual gloss as Guerin makes enemies while digging into the Dublin drug underworld. The bad guys sneer, the addicts sport their gaunt makeup and the movie's overeager attempts to make Guerin a saint (she likes music! she likes soccer!) are comical. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Zero Day ★★★½
The thought of a movie inspired by the Columbine school shooting isn't very appealing. But director and cowriter Ben Coccio's debut movie is a potent and totally involving tale of two high school outsiders (Andre Kreuck, Calvin Robertson) planning such an attack. The movie is composed of excerpts from the video diary the characters are filming to chronicle their preparations for the big day, and the action feels amazingly authentic. Kreuck and Robertson are simply tremendous. They're also smart and initially likable, which makes their characters' on-camera gun demonstrations and their climactic attack all the more tragic. (At Copley Place.)

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors
Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BRATTLE THEATRE

Boston Fantastic Film Festival
•Through Oct. 23. The Brattle and Steven Jay Schneider, editor of Fear Without Frontiers: Horror Cinema Across the Globe, team up for this festival of horror, science fiction, fantasy and cult films. See www.brattlefilm.org for a schedule.

Special Engagements
•Oct. 31, 10 pm. Evil Dead 2 1987. The Brattle continues its Halloween tradition, screening this horror/comedy about a chainsaw-wielding hero and the army of "deadites" that he must defeat before dawn. Sam Raimi directs.
•Oct. 24-30, 4:30, 7 and 9:30 pm. Carnage 2002. Delphine Gleize directs this story that traces the bizarre effects a 1,000 pound Andalusian bull has on a disparate group of characters who receive parts of the bull's body after it is killed in a bullfight.
•Oct. 31-Nov. 5, 5:15 and 7:30 pm. The Adventures of Robin Hood 1938. The original film about the famous English outlaw stars Errol Flynn. The film is presented in a new 35mm print with restored image and sound. Michael Curtiz directs. •Also showing, 9:45 pm. Tamala 2010: A Punk Cat in Outer Space 2002. In this Japanese animated feature, a cat heads for Orion in search of her mother but instead uncovers the conspiracy of Catty & Co, a multinational conglomerate plotting to rule the world. T.o.L. (Tree of Life) directs.

"One cannot think well, love well, sleep well if one has not dined well." – Virginia Woolf

photography: Darlene DeVita

the paramount

44 charles street | beacon hill | boston | paramountboston.com

Breakfast & Lunch: Monday-Friday 7AM to 4:30PM, Saturday & Sunday 8AM to 4:30PM
Dinner: Nightly 5PM to 10PM | Open Friday & Saturday nights until 11PM

THE ONLY THING BETTER
THAN SPEAKING
OFF THE RECORD

Is A Reporter

TOO DRUNK TO WRITE

★ ★ THE 21ST AMENDMENT ★ ★

Beer. Food. Politics. × Next to the State House × 150 Bowdoin St. Boston

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

Balagan Film Series

•Oct. 23, 7:30 pm. Film as a Subversive Art II. The second selection of films mentioned in Amos Vogel's book Film as Subversive Art explores how film can be used to manipulate conscious and unconscious thought and undermine existing value systems.

Boston Film•Video Foundation Special Presentation

•Oct. 27, 7:30 pm, $7. Close up in Black. Gary Dauphin, editor in chief of Africana.com, leads an evening of film clips and discussion on the roles of African-Americans in film.

Coolidge Selects

•Now showing. Tibet: Cry of the Snow Lion 2002. Tom Peosay's documentary examines Tibetan culture and the Chinese occupation through interviews with Tibetans.

•Opening Oct. 31. Unprecedented: The 2000 Presidential Election 2002. See New Releases for a description.

•Opening Nov. 7. Elephant 2003. Gus Van Sant offers an expressionistic take on the 1999 Columbine shootings, focusing on the banality and tiny terrors of ordinary high school life in general, as well as the horrific shootings.

Halloween Horror Movie Marathon

•Oct. 25, 12 am, $30. Six Halloween-themed films are shown in 12 hours, including Ghostbusters, Carrie and Edward Scissorhands. Live music and burlesque acts are also featured.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Cambridge Latino Film Festival

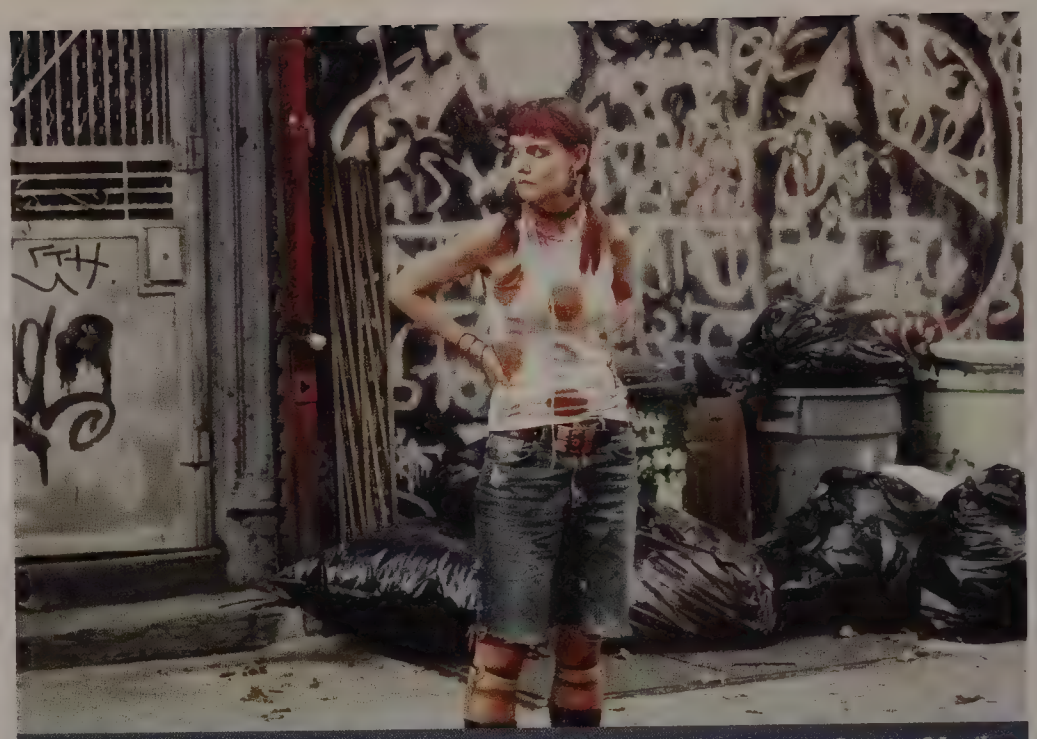
•Oct. 24-26, 7 pm. The CLFF features alternative films with social content from Latin America and films dealing with Latino issues in the United States. For schedule information, visit www.cambridgelatinofilmfestival.org.

Directors in Focus: Charlotte Zwerin

•Nov. 1, 7 pm. Thelonious Monk: Straight No Chaser 1989. Charlotte Zwerin offers an intimate look at eccentric jazz great Thelonious Monk. The film includes rare, unseen studio and performance footage, as well as interviews with Monk and others.

•Nov. 2, 9:30 pm. Running Fence 1978. In this documentary, two artists work with a skeptical community to achieve their vision: a 24-mile fabric fence in the California hills. Charlotte Zwerin, Albert Maysles and David Maysles direct. •Immediately following. Arshile Gorky 1982. Dustin Hoffman narrates this short film about Arshile Gorky, an artist whose works anticipated abstract expressionist painting.

•Nov. 7, 7 pm. Gimme Shelter 1970. This documentary is a portrait of the ill-fated Rolling Stones tour that ended at Altamont Speedway in 1969. Charlotte Zwerin, Albert Maysles and David Maysles direct. •Also showing, 9 pm. Salesman 1969. This documentary chronicles six weeks in the lives of four traveling bible salesmen. Charlotte Zwerin, Albert Maysles and David Maysles direct.



April (Katie Holmes) waits for her family to arrive for Thanksgiving dinner in Pieces of April.

Directors in Focus: Fassbinder!

•Oct. 27, 9 pm. Bremen Freiheit (Bremen Freedom) 1972. This period drama set in early 19th-century Bremen is about an abused wife turned serial killer who finds "freedom" with the help of a bottle of poison. Rainer Werner Fassbinder directs.

Film and Visual Representation

•Oct. 22, 7 pm. L'Avventura 1960. The lover and best friend of a missing woman set out to find her but become distracted from their task when they fall into a sexual relationship. Michelangelo Antonioni directs.

•Oct. 29, 7 pm. Craig's Wife 1936. Dorothy Arzner directs this adaptation of George Kelley's play about a domineering woman who marries a wealthy man for his money, then uses her new position to further her own ambitions for money and power.

Film Architectures

•Oct. 28, 7 pm. The Fountainhead 1949. King Vidor directs this adaptation of Ayn Rand's novel about an architect who refuses to compromise his purist agenda.

•Nov. 4 and 5, 7 pm. Toute une Nuit (All Night Long) 1982. On a sultry summer night in Brussels, various people in search of love collide. Chantal Akerman directs.

From Cinematic to Digital Culture

•Nov. 2, 7 pm. Forrest Gump 1994. Tom Hanks stars in this feel-good story of a Southern man with a low IQ who stumbles through the major American events of the second half of the 20th century. Robert Zemeckis directs.

The New German Cinema

•Oct. 22, 9:30 pm. Aguirre, der Zorn Gottes (Aguirre, the Wrath of God) 1972. The 16th-century Spanish explorer Aguirre searches for El Dorado in South America. Werner Herzog directs.

•Oct. 27, 7 pm. Falsche Bewegung (Wrong Movement) 1974. A young, discontented writer sets out from home to roam the country in search of adventure and inspiration. Wim Wender directs.

•Oct. 29, 9 pm. Die Linkshändige Frau (The Left-Handed Woman) 1977. A woman living in the Paris suburbs struggles with a loveless marriage and apathy toward her family and friends as she spends her days quietly wandering around her house. Peter Handke directs.

•Nov. 3, 7 pm. Der Amerikanische Freund (The American Friend) 1977. A terminally ill picture framer in Hamburg reluctantly agrees to become a hit man to ensure the future of his soon-to-be widow. Wim Wenders directs.

•Nov. 5, 9 pm. Tokyo-Ga 1985. Wim Wenders directs this cinematic scrutiny of all things Japanese, dwelling on the production and consumption of hyperreal images, then seeking out remnants of traditionalism.

Screening Modern China

•Oct. 28, 9 pm. Yangguang Calan de Rizi (In the Heat of the Sun) 1994. Jiang Wen directs this coming-of-age story about a group of adolescent boys living in 1970s Beijing, which is largely depopulated of adult authority figures as a result of Mao's rule.

•Nov. 4, 9 pm. Suzhou He (Suzhou River) 2000. A lonely videographer falls in love with a mysterious nightclub performer. Lou Ye directs.

You can stay home and go to a movie or two this weekend or you can head to Tinseltown and take a close-up look behind the scenes. All for about the cost of refreshments at your local theater, thanks to Site59® and Mastercard.® L.A. is one of hundreds of places you can escape to at the last minute via Site59. Our getaways start at under $200, and that even includes airfare and hotel. You can spend all the money you'll save on Rodeo Drive. How about a little stargazing this weekend?

Promotional code will deduct $59 from your final price only when you purchase using your MasterCard® card. Code and offer expire 11/30/03 and cannot be combined with any other offer. Code valid for Last-Minute Getaways only. Not valid for Gift Certificates or Beef and Guns. Prices are in USD for one adult based on double occupancy and include all taxes and fees. Prices may vary by departure city and are subject to change and availability. Prices shown at site59.com are the most current and supersede advertised prices. ©2003 Site59.com, LLC. All rights reserved. CST 2066904-50. MasterCard® and the interlocking circles device are registered trademarks of MasterCard International Incorporated.

MasterCard

Two by Tod Browning
•Oct. 31, 7 pm. The Blackbird 1926. A criminal in London has his eyes on jewels and a showgirl as he disguises himself between heists as a palsied English priest in charge of a charity mission. Tod Browning directs. •Also showing. Mark of the Vampire 1935. In this remake of the 1927 silent film London After Midnight, a vampire expert tries to prevent a vampire from killing the daughter of his last victim. Tod Browning directs.

VES Faculty Screening
•Oct. 23, 7 pm. Bright Leaves 2003. Ross McElwee directs this journey across the social, economic and psychological terrain of North Carolina, which produces more tobacco than any other state.

LOEWS THEATRES COPLEY PLACE

Sundance Film Series
•Oct. 31-Nov. 6, at 1, 4, 7 and 10 pm. Die Mommie Die! 2003. An ex–pop singer kills her husband-to-be with her young lover, and her daughter plots Electra-like revenge. Mark Rucker directs.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Chinese Cinema
•Oct. 22, 8 pm; Oct. 23, 5:45 pm; Oct. 25, 11 am. Ren Xiao Yao (Unknown Pleasures) 2002. Disaffected Chinese teenagers try to find meaning in bars, nightclubs and American movies. Jia Zheng Ke directs.

Cinema India
•Oct. 23, 8 pm, and Oct. 25, 3:45 pm. Naukar Ki Kameez (The Servant's Shirt) 1999. A lower-middle-class junior clerk in a provincial government office struggles to keep from slipping down the social ladder. Mani Kaul directs.

Film and Performance
•Oct. 26, 3 pm. The Coney Island of Lawrence Ferlinghetti 1996. Christopher Felver's documentary dispels the enigma surrounding Beat mythology by offering intimate glimpses into the life, art and politics of renowned poet Lawrence Ferlinghetti. Ferlinghetti will read his poetry following the screening.

French Cinema
•Oct. 26, 12:20 pm; Oct. 30, 3 pm; Nov. 1 and 2, 10:30 am; Nov. 6, 3:45 pm. Winged Migration 2001. Jacques Perrin directs this documentary following the annual migration of several species of birds.

Indie Hits
•Oct. 23, 1:30 pm; Oct. 26, 10:30 am; Oct. 30, 1 pm. Spellbound 2002. Jeff Blitz's Academy Award–nominated documentary chronicles a National Spelling Bee, as seen through the eyes of eight young participants.

New England Film Artists Present
•Oct. 22 and 30, 5:45 pm; Oct. 23 and Nov. 1, 3:30 pm; Oct. 24 and 31, 7:45 pm; Oct. 25, 1:30 pm. Morning Sun 2003. Carma Hinton, Geremie Barmé and Richard Gordon direct this documentary about China's Cultural Revolution.
•Oct. 24, 6 pm and Nov. 1, 2 pm. Floating Market 2003. Joan Kaufman's documentary follows sailors who travel 40 miles on the open sea in small wooden boats to sell fresh fruits and vegetables in Curaçao's floating market.

The World's Best TV Ads
•Oct. 30, 8 pm; Oct. 31, 6 pm; Nov. 1, 12:15 pm. British Advertising Films of 2002 2002. Peter Bigg of the British Advertising Broadcast Awards is here on opening night to present this collection of last year's award-winning TV commercials.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Mugar Omni Theater
•Through Dec. 16. Africa: The Serengeti. This Omni film depicts the 1.5 million animals that migrate across the African plains. Call for show times.
•Through Jan. 16, 2004. Space Station. Blast into space with the astronauts and cosmonauts of the International Space Station. Call for show times.
•Through March 31, 2004. Jane Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees. Enter the world of the wild chimpanzees of Africa's Gombe Stream National Park. Call for show times.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

Simons IMAX Theater
•Through Nov. 4. Ghosts of the Abyss 3D. Academy Award–winning director James Cameron takes audiences two miles beneath the sea to explore the wreckage of the Titanic. Call for show times.
•Through Nov. 4. Ocean Wonderland 3D. Explore the ocean floor of the Bahamas and Australia's Great Barrier Reef to search for sharks, sting rays and rainbows of tropical fish. Call for show times.
•Through Nov. 4. Rolling Stones: At the Max. The Stones perform 15 of their classic songs, with footage from their Steel Wheels/Urban Jungle tour. Call for show times.
•Through Nov. 4. Space Station 3D. Travel to the International Space Station and experience life in zero gravity with the astronauts from Florida's Kennedy Space Center and Russia's Baikonur Cosmodrome. Call for show times.
•Through November. The Matrix Reloaded: The Imax Experience. In the sequel to The Matrix, Neo and the rebel leaders battle the machines that have overpowered the human race. Call for show times.
•Through June 2004. Bugs! 3D. This film focuses on the world of insects in the tropical rain forests of Southeast Asia. See bugs magnified up to 250,000 times their normal size. Call for show times.

Cinema Venues

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Rd. (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Film•Video Foundation
1126 Boylston St. (617-783-9241). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.

Boston Public Library
666 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Copley Place (Loews/Sony)
100 Huntington Ave. (617-266-1300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

Wang Center
270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

BROOKLINE

Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle or D Green Line to Reservoir.

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square (617-494-9800). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060).

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square.

Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

"One of the city's most anticipated new restaurants" —Mat Schaffer, The Boston Herald, September 2003

VINALIA

RESTAURANT | LOUNGE | WINE BAR

NOW BOOKING HOLIDAY PARTIES

617.737.1777

"The Love of Fine Things"

S&R DESIGNS

Arlene AND Roberta

Specializing in European jewelry, gifts & accessories

233 Needham Street • Newton, Massachusetts • 617.527.3344

CAPRICE

restaurant-bar-lounge

french mediterranean
cuisine

full menu served
daily until 1 am seven
days a week

275 tremont street theatre district
reservations 617.292.0080
capricelounge.com

MONDAY NIGHTS JOIN NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS LONIE PAXTON AND FRIENDS!
WHERE THE PLAYERS MEET THE PLAYERS!

inside RACK

Every Monday Night, 9pm - 2am

Monday nights will never be the same! Join New England Patriots Lonie Paxton and friends! Where the Players meet the Players! Dance, party Southern Cal style and bang in sick on Tuesday! This is definitely the night you don't want to miss! To benefit the Active Force Foundation.

Every Tuesday and Wednesday Night, 6pm

After work Jazz with Boston's Best Jazz bands, Black Sole & Zeke Martin. DJ Ricky spins every Wednesday night 10pm - 2am!

Every Thursday Night, 6-10pm

Get a JUMP START on your weekend! In fact, blow off work on Friday with R&B, Jazz and Soul bands like Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin' Horns and Uneek Approach! Dance the night away with DJ Littles 10pm - 2am.

Every Friday Night, 6pm

Join us right after work for with Kiss 108's Artie the One Man Party featuring live music and DJ Johnny C.

Every Saturday Night, 8pm

The Saturday Night Dance Party just got bigger in a little way! DJ Littles spins while Star 93.7's Vinnie Peruzzi broadcasts live, 8pm-2am.

Every Sunday Night, 8pm

Dance 11pm - 2am with DJ Mike Janedy.

Thursday, October 23rd

Survivor Viewing Party hosted by Star 93.7's Fast Freddy! Come see who's next to be voted off with a surprise mystery guest!

Tuesday, November 4th

SPECIAL EVENT! Call the Rack for details!

BOSTON'S BEST 1997 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1998 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 1999 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2000 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2002 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2003 IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

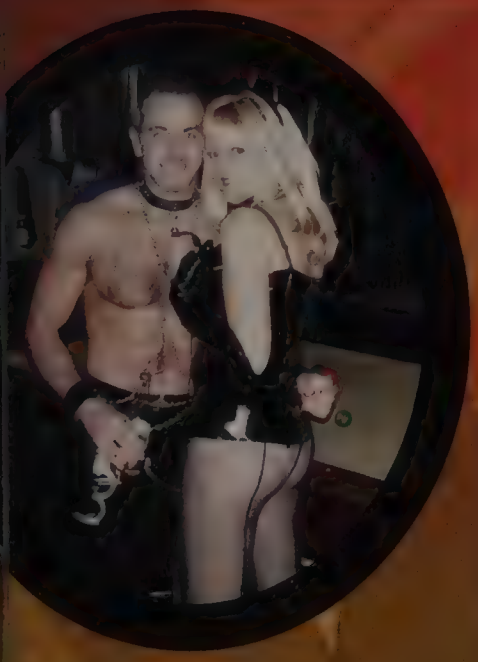
Audio & Visual Courtesy of Tweeter

Dining Room Open 11:30am - 7 days a week!

TWO NIGHTS OF WILD HALLOWEEN FUN - OCTOBER 30TH AND OCTOBER 31ST!

Thursday, October 30th The Improper Bostonian's 9th annual Halloween Fun Run to benefit Cystic Fibrosis hosted by WBCN. Featuring DJ Littles! Prizes will be awarded for best costume! 6pm - 2am.

Halloween Night KISS 108'S Artie the One Man Party is hosting the sexiest lingerie Halloween Dance Party in Boston! Featuring Sugarfoot and the Brass Kickin Horns, DJ Johnny C and many ghostly goblins! 8pm - 2am.



24 Clinton Street, Boston 02109 617.725.1051 www.therackboston.com

WATCH US LIVE ON WWW.THERACKBOSTON.COM!

THE RACK

All in the Family

Sol y Canto and Dan Zanes shift gears into a kid-friendly universe

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

All-ages shows have taken on a new meaning for Dan Zanes since his days rocking Boston clubs and parties with the Del Fuegos in the early '80s. Today, many of his fans are sucking on milk instead of beer: Zanes is a pied piper of roots music for the preschool and grade-school audience.

In his mind, it's also not much of a stretch from one setting to the other. "When the Fuegos started out in Boston, it was a very communal situation—the band was just part of the goings-on," Zanes says. "We were hanging out with people before and after. The idea was always how much we can get people to dance, and the audience was always a part of it. It was never, How great can we sound that we can get a record deal? That never occurred to us."

In turn, it never occurred to Zanes when he made a cassette of kids-friendly tunes for his daughter and friends around his Brooklyn neighborhood that it would be a much bigger sensation than his 1995 solo album, Cool Down Time.

He's since made four family-music CDs, hailed by tykes and critics alike and featuring guests from Sheryl Crow to Bob Weir. And Dan Zanes + Friends pack matinee concerts like the pair they'll play at the Somerville Theatre Nov. 23.

"I've found my calling," he says. "This is really what I'm best suited for, how I can spread my enthusiasm for music."

In turn, Sol y Canto, another Boston-rooted outfit popular with adults, has expanded to a younger crowd with its new disc El Doble de Amigos/Twice as Many Friends. Like Zanes, husband-and-wife bandleaders Brian and Rosi Amador warmed to the concept because of their daughters. Specifically, they wanted to provide their kids and other youngsters with bilingual music.

Sol y Canto (top) and Dan Zanes (bottom)

"Our approach to music has always been that it's part of life," Brian Amador says. "That's why us having children and the children's album just kind of flowed together."

The CD flows with songs about diversity, peace, learning to count, caring for the environment and flying kites—all played in the ensemble's breezy Afro-Latin acoustic style.

The title track sets the tone with its bilingual sing-along, "Twice as many friends, twice as much fun, that's why two languages are better than one." Rhythms shift from cumbia to calypso to merengue across a range of originals and favorites from the U.S. and Latin America. Some tunes also sport vocals from the couple's twin daughters and the chorus of Cambridge's Amigos School. The twins and the chorus join Sol y Canto for Nov. 2 matinees at the Somerville Theatre.

"This is a direction we've been going in a while, even though a lot of people didn't know about it," says Rosi Amador, whose group shifts into adult mode to perform her husband's Latin suite "Prisma de amores" with a string quintet at Northeastern's Blackman Auditorium Jan. 31.

"Even when it's primarily an adult audience, there's bound to be children," she says. "We often dedicate a song to the children, and the adults end up having a good time."

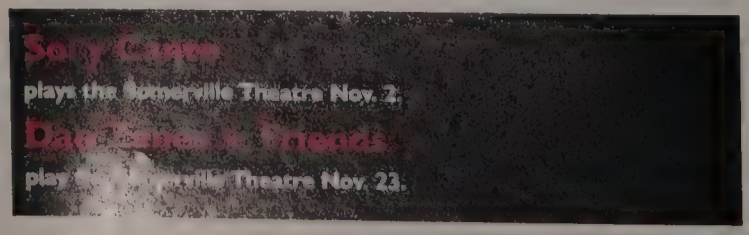
"Sol y Canto's mission has always been one of mixing entertaining with educating," says Rosi, who is of Puerto Rican heritage, while her husband has Mexican roots. "We celebrate Latin culture through music, and we like to expose both Latinos and non-Latinos to [new] genres."

Zanes, on the other hand, says, "I don't think of myself as an educator in any way. I'm pretty much a song-and-dance man in all this. But I do think music in any way, shape or form is so good for kids." He recalls how, growing up in New Hampshire, he was first exposed to music through Pete Seeger, Woody Guthrie, Leadbelly and the Clancy Brothers.

"Everybody had a bunch of songs up their sleeves for young people," Zanes recalls of that informal introduction, a model for the home recordings on his own Festival Fire label. "I thought it would be good to make records where listeners could easily picture people in a house hanging out and making music. That's really my message with all of it, that you can do this too. This is just something people do at home on their front steps or in parks or at parties."

His latest CD, in fact, is called House Party, and it includes a catchy, rustic blend of originals and international folk tunes including "Wabash Cannonball" and "Waltzing Matilda." The disc features celebrity contributions from the Grateful Dead's Weir, Blondie's Deborah Harry and Philip Glass.

"That part has been a lot of fun," Zanes says. "It makes it more interesting for parents, and it's right to consider parents in all this. I like the idea that it's a big all-ages experience where everybody's got a way in." IB



Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by email to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from different sources. Although we make every effort to provide accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead to double-check dates and times (see complete list of venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Averi and Chauncey Oct. 24, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Bouncing Souls, Let it Burn, Strike Anywhere and Tsunami Bomb Oct. 30, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Bruck Cockburn Oct. 24, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Echo and the Bunnymen Oct. 23, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Fuel, Smile Empty Soul and DJ Swamp Oct. 23, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Arlo Guthrie Nov. 3-7, Club Passim, (617-492-7679)
Herbie Hancock Nov. 2, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
Ted Leo & the Pharmacists and Weird War Oct. 29, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Longwave, Calla and Dios Oct. 25, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
Marilyn Manson Oct. 23, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Maroon 5 and Gavin DeGraw Oct. 30, Paradise Rock Club (617-931-2000). Sold out.
Monster Jam with 50 Cent, Ludacris, Chingy, D Band, Fabolous, Lil Jon, and Obie Trice Oct. 28, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Puddle of Mudd Oct. 27, Avalon (617-423-NEXT)
Soulive and Meshell Ndegeocello Oct. 22, Avalo (617-423-NEXT).
Travis Oct. 26, Orpheum Theatre (617-93 2000).
Ween Oct. 29, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Keller Williams Oct. 24, Somerville Theatre (61 931-2000).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

Abbey Lounge Abbey residency with the Drags, R verse, Goldenwest Motorlodge and Jon Craig, 9: pm, 21+.
Asgard Tom Groleau, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Avalon Soulive and Meshell Ndegeocello, 8 pm.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne.
The Breezeway Amigos, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Jessie Smith and Donna Long, 9 pm, cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Blues jam, 9 pm, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover, 2 (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGr 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Say When.
Green Street Grill Blue Rhino Jazz Group, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Gordon Stone Band, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Jimmy Tingle and Sam Hooper, 8:30 $8, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Brehan Law.
Lizard Lounge Amelia White and the Blue S venirs and Jabe, 9 pm, $6, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougal.
Middle East Upstairs: the Decemberists, Rever Glasseye and His Wooden Leg and the Roots of chis, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Pharcyde, Pe Under the Stairs, Cunninlyguists and Brassmun pm, $20, 18+. ZuZu: Fully Celebrated Orche 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Ever Present and Blue Ribbons, c varies, 21+.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Love with Arthur Lee, 8 pm, $25, Lounge: 4 Way Street and Rob Gonzalez, 7 $8, 21+.
Parris Central Basement.
Purple Shamrock Eugene Byrne.
The Rack Black Sole, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Katie Viqueira Group with N Michelin, 8:30 pm, $12, 21+.

The Place

Where People Meet

THE BEST ATTRACTION IS OUR CUSTOMERS

ne Celebrate the Holiday Season at The Place! Call Event Manager, Michael Kalil (617-523-2081) to book your Holiday Party Now.

elebrity Night!

NFL MONDAYS ARE 'CELEBRITY NIGHT'
HOSTED BY PATRIOTS
RICHARD SEYMOUR & KENYATA JONES

N US EVERY MONDAY FROM 9PM 'TIL CLOSING FOR A CELEBRITY-STUDDED NIGHT OF XCITEMENT! YOUR $10 DONATION AT THE DOOR BENEFITS THE MASSACHUSETTS BOYS STATE FOUNDATION AND GETS YOU INTO THE HOTTEST PARTY IN TOWN!

HALLOWEEN BASH!

THURSDAY OCT 30 9pm-2am

$5 COVER
PRIZES AWARDED FOR BEST COSTUMES
ITS GONNA BE A FRIGHTFULLY GOOD TIME!!!

E LIBRARY

DNESDAYS 9PM-2AM

L EVENT ON WED NOV 5TH!
YOUR COLLEGE ID TO WIN A PARTY WEEKEND
GE (AIR & 2 NIGHTS HOTEL) FOR 2 TO REYKJAVIK, ICELAND

StudentUniverse.com ICELANDAIR

SUNDAY TAILGATE BRUNCH

SUNDAYS 12PM

CHEER ON THE PATS AND GET ALL YOUR NFL ACTION AT THE PLACE! ONLY $9.99 ALL YOU CAN EAT!
DON'T MISS OUR SUNDAY SIGNATURE COCKTAILS!

Answer Sports Trivia and compete to win a grand prize trip to Super Bowl XXXVIII!

Ryles Jazz Club Ball in the House, 7:30 pm, $12; Greg Hopkins, Tim Ray, Billy Pierce and Mick Goodrick, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Cyrus Chestnut Trio, 8 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
Sky Bar A Wish for Fire, Low Skies and Farewood, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tap Bruce Jacques, 9 pm.
Toad The Heygoods, 7-9 pm; The Swinging Steaks, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Bettie Serveert and Everybody Else, featuring Carrick and Sukilove, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates David Eure and the Latin Explosion, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, OCT. 23

Abbey Lounge Awakening Stick, Meat Depressed, Necrowafers and Just Another Victim, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard New Regulars and Oneside, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Avalon Fuel, Smile Empty Soul and DJ Swamp, 7 pm doors, $17.75, all ages.
Berklee Performance Center Stanley Clarke Band and the Jean-Luc Ponty Band, 7:30 pm, $26-$36.
Bill's Bar Lost Pilot, Red Letter and Violet Nine, 9 pm, $10, 19+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne.
Bob the Chef's Zeke Martin, 7:30 pm.
The Breezeway Margo Thunder, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Burren Helena Delaney, Peter Molloy and Shannon Aaron, 10 pm, no cover, 21+; Backroom: Swingin' Johnsons, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: New Day, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Mark Simos CD-release show, 8 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort The Rockhoppers, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Mary Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Good Life Cambridge Big Daddy D & His Music Makers.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Green Street Grill Dwight Ritcher Band, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Ekoostik Hookah and Bathtub Mary, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Paranoid Social Club, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kendall Café The Douglas Fir, 9 pm; Godboxer, 10 pm; Jake Brennan, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kirkland Café International Passport, Ken Ballou, and Rebecca Weintraub Experience, $5.
Lucky's Lounge Ray Greene.
Matt Murphy's Grayson Farmer Round Midnight Jazz Session, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Don Caballero, the Constantines and Black Helicopter, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Benefit for the Mark Sandman Music Education Fund with Twinemen, 8 pm, $12, 18+. Corner: Mitchell Kalsuness, 10 pm, no cover, 18+. Zuzu: Geoff Farina, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Milky Way Lovers Rock with Gary Banton
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Orpheum Marilyn Manson, 7:30 pm, $36.50.
Paradise Lounge: Cory Brennan, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Parris Central Basement.
Purple Shamrock Jim Plunkett.
The Rack Uneek Approach, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Mark Shilansky Ensemble with Luciana Souza and Syncopation, 8:30 pm, $12, 21+.
Roxy Burning Spear, 8 pm
Ryles Jazz Club Candida Rose Quintet, 7:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Cyrus Chestnut Trio, 8 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
Sky Bar Bill Mallonee and Ian Moore, 8 pm, $12, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, 7-9 pm; Todd Thibaud, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Trio,8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place KaitO UK, the Rogers Sisters, and Runner and the Thermodynamics, 9:15 pm, $10, 18+.
Virgin Megastore Burning Spear, 1 pm; Open mike Night, 6 pm.
The Western Front The Well, 9 pm, $5.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Longwave plays at the Paradise Oct. 25.

FRIDAY, OCT. 24

Abbey Lounge Weisstronauts and My Own Worst Enemy CD-release show, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard Christie Leigh and Ryan McHugh., 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Atrium Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 5:30 pm, no cover; Bert Seager Jazz Duo, 9 pm, no cover.
The Attic Jennifer Tefft and Alternate Routes, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Avalon Paul Weller, 7 pm, $25.25, 18+.
Axis The Thrills with Adam Green from the Moldy Peaches, 7 pm, $12, all ages.
Big Easy Bob's Day Off.
Bill's Bar High as the Moon: A Tribute to the Black Crowes, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Joe Mack, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne Sunday's Well.
Bob the Chef's Groove Authority, 7:30 pm.
Boston Harbor Hotel Bill and Bo Winiker Orchestra, 7 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Tina Lech, Ted Davis and Dave Cory, 10 pm, $3, 21+. Back room: Jabe, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Rebecca Hall and Mark Erelli, 8 pm, $12.
Common Ground The Joint Chiefs, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Hit Squad, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Good Life Cambridge Brover Mooney & the Moon Unit.
The Good Life Downtown Borderland.
Grand Canal Magnus.
The Green Briar Velvet Jones.
The Green Dragon Tavern Say When.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Harp Peatmoss.
Harper's Ferry Adam Ezra Group and Jonah Smith CD-release, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5-7:30 pm, 21+.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller's Sing-along, 8 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Badfish, 9:45 pm, $8, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kendall Café The Heygoods, no cover, 21+.
Kirkland Café Melodeego, Holiday, Lake Boone and Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, $5.
The Linwood Labb, Top Heavy, Deck Eleven, and Motor Skills, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Sparkola CD-release show, 9 pm, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall.
Matt Murphy's Mike Rivard, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Young People, Singapore Sling and Exchange Students, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Death Cab for Cutie and Mates of State, 8 pm, $15, 18+. Corner: Sam Hooper Group, 10 pm, no cover, 18+. ZuZu: Latin with Giancarlo Buscaglia, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

3P's
Pool
Pizza
Pitcher
$19.99
Sunday
Monday
& Tuesday
138
Brighton
Ave.

BIG CITY
"WANTS YOU"
BOSTON'S BEER FORCE!
PIZZA KITCHEN . BEER BAR . POOL HALL

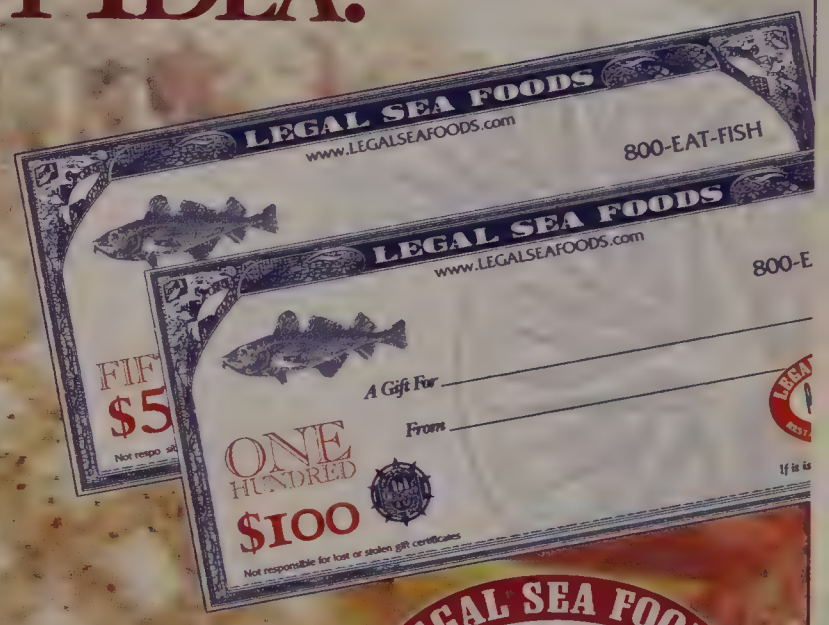
NOW OPEN
SUNSET CANTINA * 916 COMM. AVE.
617.731.8646
SO MANY BEERS
TRADEMARK
SUNSET
SO LITTLE TIME
BOSTON
130 BRIGHTON AVE, ALLSTON VILLAGE
617.254.1331

L E G A L S E A F O O D S

A Great Holiday Gift Idea!

Gift Certificates can be purchased at any of our restaurants, or can be conveniently ordered by phone or online.

For each gift certificate purchased through December 31st, Legal will make a donation to Children's Hospital Boston.



Park Square • Long Wharf • Prudential Center • Copley Place
Chestnut Hill • Framingham • South Shore Plaza • North Shore Mall
Burlington Mall • Logan Airport Terminals B & C • Kendall Square and Charles Square, Cambridge

LEGAL SEA FOODS
established 1950
RESTAURANT • OYSTER BAR

Children's Hospital Boston

If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!®

800-EAT-FISH www.LEGALSEAFOODS.com

Midway Café Gene Dante, Blasting Caps and Tokyo Tramps, 9:30 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Milky Way Either/Orchestra CD-release show, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Paradise Averi, Chauncey and Zox, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Lounge: Treehouse 3, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Parris Steamroller Picnic, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Porters Bar and Grill The Risk, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Rack Taylor Bros., 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Duke Robillard Band CD-release show, 7:30 and 10 pm, $14, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Thaddeus Hogarth, 8 pm, $9, 21+.
Scullers Nicholas Payton Sonic Trance, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22, 21+.
Sky Bar The Allstonians, the Spoilers and Beat Soup, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Jimmy Ryan, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Mickey Bones Zydeco, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Fooled by April and the So & So's, 9:30 pm, $8, 18+.
Virgin Megastore Dorian, 5 pm, no cover.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

Abbey Lounge Schnockered, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard Jack & Present Company, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Atrium Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 5:30 pm. Live Bert Seager Jazz Duo, 9 pm, no cover.
Avalon The Mars Volta, Enon and JR Ewing, 6:30 pm, $15.25, all ages.
Axis Killing Joke and Amen, 7 pm, $13, 18+.
Bill's Bar Bar Flyz, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Big Easy Bob's Day Off.
Black Horse Tavern The Monster Mike Welch Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne and Kevin Byrne; Upstairs: Sunday's Well.
Bob the Chef's Pat Loomis, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Tommy, Louise, Helena Delaney and Fabian Joyce, 10 pm, $3, 21+. Back room: Tarbox Ramblers, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Chronic Pleasure, 7 and 10 pm, $14.
Dick's Last Resort Booty, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Kezia Hirsey, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Good Life Cambridge Borderland.
The Good Life Downtown Michael Shea Trio featuring Johnny Souza, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Thomas Park.
The Green Briar Pi Alley.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Harp Peatmoss.
Harper's Ferry Mappari and Brown Couch with Town Hall, $8, 21+.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Four Piece Suit, 9:45 pm, $7, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kirkland Café Four More White Guys, Porcelain, and Purple Onion, $5.
The Linwood KubZavrod, Table Dreams, and Cherdovanie, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jake Zuckerman and Goat, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Undercover.
Matt Murphy's The Scissormen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Freezepop, Mono and Zea, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Death Cab for Cutie and American Analog Set, 8 pm, $15, 18+. Corner: the Splendid Nobodies, 10 pm, no cover, 18+. Zuzu: Ready, Steady, Go-Go, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Dogtag, the Fade-Outs and Cog, cover varies, 21+.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Paradise Calla and Longwave, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Lounge: Pocket Sauce and Motive, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Parris Steamroller Picnic, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Brick Park.
Regattabar Patricia Barber, 7:30 and 10pm, $18, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Melvin Sparks, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Scullers Nicholas Payton Sonic Trance, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22, 21+.
Sky Bar Elevation 74 and the Huda, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Symphony Hall Patti LuPone, 8 pm, $32-$67.
Toad Sam Bisbee, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Consonant and Heavy Stud, $10.
Virgin Megastore Tyler Ingram, 5 pm; Rachel Solomon, 7 pm.
The Western Front Chances, 9 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Kim Trusty, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, OCT. 26

The Attic The Coalboilers, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Axis UK Subs, Toxic Narcotic, State Control and Confront, 6 pm, $12, all ages.
Berklee Performance Center Doudou N'Diaye Rose, 7 pm, $25-$37.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne and Kevin Byrne.
Bob the Chef's Paulo Danay Jazz Quartet, 10 am-3 pm.
The Breezeway Hakim Law at the Sunday Jazz Brunch, 11 am-3 pm, $13.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan Duo, 11 am-2 pm,.
The Burren The Gannon Family, 2 pm, no cover, 21+. Tommy, Louise, Dan Isaacson and George Keith, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+. Back room: Danielle, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Blues jam, 9 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Bassists Gonzalo Silva, Seth Horan and Tom Bianchi CD-release show, 7:30 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Silver Lining Gospel, 10 am-3 pm, no cover ($15.99 for brunch), all ages.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Briar Finbar Doyle and Sunday's Well.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnsons.
Green Street Grill Balla Townkara and Groupe Spirit, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry NBFB, Red Pill and Audible Mainframe, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Danny Tucker and the Vibe Tribe Reggae Band.
Johnny D's Jazz brunch with Matt Dorko and Larry Kukers, 9 am-2:30 pm.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kendall Café Jordan Carp, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Tony McCabe.
Lucky's Lounge Sinatra Sunday, 8 pm.
Matt Murphy's Live and Direct, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: the Cuts, the Cougars, the Proper Villains and the Joggers, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: the Starlight Mints, 8 pm, $10, 18+. ZuZu: Cabaret and Goddess Pearlman, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café The Coachmen, cover varies, 21+.
Orpheum Travis, 7:30 pm, $31.
Ryles Jazz Club Sunday Jazz Brunch with Steve Rochinski, 10 am-3 pm, no cover, all ages.
Sky Bar Turkish Queen, Tim Mungenast's Pre-existing Conditions and Dreamchild, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Johnny Come Latelies, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Adam Ezra, 7-9 pm; Session Americana, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bourbon Street Paraders, 11 am-3 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Clue to Kalo and Themselves, 9:50 pm, $8, 18+.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe MacMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, OCT. 27

Avalon Puddle of Mudd, 7 pm, $15.25, all ages.
Berklee Performance Center Armsted Christian and Babrielle Goodman, 8:15 pm, $2-$5.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan.
The Burren Johnny O'Leary and Vinny Costello, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Open mike with Geoff Bartley, 8 pm, 21+. PJ Shapiro, 10 pm, 21+.
Choppin' Block Marianne Solivan Quartet Jazz Session, 8 pm, $4, 21+.
Club Passim Songwriter Tribute Night to U2, 7 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Steve Heck, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Open mike.
Green Street Grill Hot Tamale Brass Band, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

Now Booking Holiday Parties 2003

Cheers™ TM & © 2003 Par. Pic.

Faneuil Hall Marketplace

Offering Three Different Rooms:

- The Stage Bar and Café has the replica of the Hollywood set built by Paramount Pictures.
- The Lower Bar resembles the bar at the Bull & Finch Pub on Beacon Hill that inspired the setting of the TV series.
- Sam's Café was named after the Cheers character, Sam Malone, the Red Sox relief pitcher bar owner on the TV series.

Or use all 3 rooms for a party for up to 480 guests

An ideal place for

- Breakfasts
- Luncheons
- Cocktail Receptions
- Dinner Parties
- Late Night Parties

Contact
Jennifer LaBouliere
Private Event Sales Manager
617.227.1105

If you mention this ad when booking an event, you will receive 10% off your food bill!

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace is located in the west end of the Quincy Market Building

Validated Parking at 75 State Street • Proprietor: Thomas A. Kershaw

Since this is our first year offering these facilities for private parties,
No Room Rental.
Our Corporate Chef, Markus Ripperger, with 10 years of experience at the Hampshire House on Beacon Hill working with our catering staff, will design a function exactly to your liking to fulfill your needs.

www.cheersboston.com

Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Middle East Upstairs: Minus the Bear, These Arms Are Snakes and the Velvet Teen, 9 pm, $9, 18+. ZuZu: the Unhappy Hour with Jason Hatfield, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Jim McCarthy, Jon Gorey, Raven Sadhaka, Mike Delaney, Nils Erickson and Jo Henley, no cover, 21+.
Milky Way Marinate.
Paradise Lounge: Songwriters in Paradise: Chris Korwin Band, Sam Bigelow, Mick & Tom and Boys Suck, 8 pm, $3, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Scott Damgaard.
Sky Bar Regatta 69, Johnny Most and Mossberg, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Dangerous Brothers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang with Anita Suhanin, 8-10 pm; Tim Gearan Band, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Mary Reillys, Mark Robinson and Rosa Chance Well, 9:40, $7, 18+.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Sarah Brindell, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY, OCT. 28

Abbey Lounge Twisted Tuesday Acoustic: Jeremy O'Neill, 8 pm, 21+.
Berklee Performance Center Kushion and Ian Rapien, 8:15 pm, $2-$5.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
The Burren Tommy, Louise, Peter Molloy and Matt Glover, 10 pm, no cover, 21+; Back room: open mike with Hugh McGowan, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm, cover varies, 21+. True Life Bluegrass, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+. Downstairs: Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Open mike, 7 pm, $5, all ages.
Dick's Last Resort Rob Gonzales, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover.
FleetCenter 50 Cent, Ludacris, Fabolous, Chingy, Lil Jon, Obie Trice and Bad Boys: Da Band, 6 pm, $55-$94.
Green Street Grill High Plain Drifters, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard.
Johnny D's Kara Tondorf and Ryan Montbleau, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney.
Lizard Lounge Tommy Dempsey, 8:30, cover varies, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Lucky Stereo featuring Bobby Keyes.
Matt Murphy's Geoff Scott and Public House, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: the Rocket Summer, 9 pm, $7, 18+. ZuZu: Frank Morey, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Rack ZMQ, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar The Pierre Hurel Trio, 8:30 pm, $12, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra for Big Band Tuesdays, 7:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Greg Abate, 8 and 10 pm, $16, 21+.
Sky Bar The Screaming Sellouts, Pictures of Animals, the Mark and Grand Champeen, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Resophonics, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Aloud, Public, Left Hand Does and Common Thrill, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29

Abbey Lounge Abbey residency with the Drags, Shake Dog Shake, Sugabomb, and Muck & the Mires, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard Matty Metcalf, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Axis My Chemical Romance and A Static Lullaby, 7 pm, $10, all ages.
Berklee Performance Center Jazz Composition Department annual fall concert, 8:15 pm, $2-$5.
Bill's Bar Munk CD-release show, 9 pm, $10, 19+.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
The Breezeway Jeff Felder, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Blues Jam, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Richard Cambridge's Poet's Theater presents All Hallow's Eve Pyro-Poetics, 8 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Stacey Baker and Emily DeGraff, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Chixie Dicks.
Green Street Grill Blue Rhino Jazz Group, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Cast Iron Filter and Freight Train, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Blind Eye Snake.
Johnny D's Paul "Wine" Jones, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kendall Café Kate Kim, 9 pm; Sam Bigelow, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Brehan Law.
Lizard Lounge Sam Shaber and Uber Band and Wendywoo, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall.
Middle East Upstairs: VHS or Beta, Your Enemies' Friends and Moving Units, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: the Weakerthans, Maritime Plan and Mico, 8 pm, $12, 18+. ZuZu: Fully Celebrated Orchestra, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Gladys and the Mule and Audrey Ryan, cover varies, 21+.
Milky Way Mercury Lounge.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Ted Leo & the Pharmacists, Weird War, Helms and DJ Klaus, 8 pm, $12, 18+. Lounge: 4 Way Street and Jessica Tardy, 7 pm, $8, 21+.
The Rack Black Sole, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar Gargonz with George Garzone, Jerry Bergonzi, Bruce Gertz, John Lockwood, Bob Gullotti and Bob Kaufman, 8:30pm, $14, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Andy Voelker Trio, 7:30 pm, $8; Jim Robitaille Quintet, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Habana Sax, 8 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
Sky Bar Aesma Daeva, Kayo Dot and Salem Fires, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tap Bruce Jacques, 9 pm.
Toad Smooch, 7-9 pm; The Freelance Bishops, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Acrobrats, the States, Busker and Focusin, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Virgin Megastore Lunchtime jazz, 1-2 pm.
The Western Front Hey Rim Jeon Ensemble and Brian Adler Ensemble, 9 pm, $5.
Wonder Bar Barry Ries, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates David Eure and the Latin Explosion, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30

Abbey Lounge The Pickups, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard Jason Scolnick and Brogue, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Avalon Bouncing Souls, Strike Anywhere, Tsunami Bomb and Let It Burn, 6 pm, $13.50.
Berklee Performance Center Stan Strickland and Jeannie Wolff-Gagne, 8:15 pm, $2-$5.
Bill's Bar Bowman, Flynn and Andrea Gillis, 9 pm, $10, 19+.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan.
Bob the Chef's Tracey Rose, 7:30 pm, no cover.
The Breezeway Margo Thunder, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Burren Helena Delaney, Peter Molloy and Shannon Aaron, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: New Day, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Vienna Teng, 7 and 10 pm, $12.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Encore Lounge Mary Callahan and Brian Patton, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Good Life Cambridge Big Daddy D & H Music Makers.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies.
Green Street Grill Dwight Ritcher Band, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Death by Marriage.
Jacob Wirth Boston Standard Jazz Group, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Robyn Hitchcock, 9 pm, $15, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kirkland Café Webber Keefe, the Verge, and Rachel J Solomon, $5.
Lizard Lounge Club d'Elf, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall.
Matt Murphy's Grayson Farmer Round Midnight Jazz Session, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Favorite Atomic Hero and Sunday Driver, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Juniper Daughter, 8 pm, $9, 18+. Corner: Mitchel Kalsuness, 10 pm, no cover, 18+. ZuZu: Geoff Farina, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Oak Bar Sarah Brindell, 7:30 pm, no cover.

"Cheap Eats" —The Boston Globe

Chili Duck
Thai Cuisine

as featured in 2003 Zagat Survey

www.chilliduck.com

Across from Prudential Center
829 Boylston Street, Boston
T: 617.236.5208 • F: 617.236.5209
Take-out and delivery available
Open daily from 11:30am - 11:00pm

OUR
NO-SMOKING SECTION
IS CLEARLY MARKED.

EXIT

- Excellent Selection of Fine Cigars
- Wines, Beers, Ales & Ports
- Televised Sporting Events
- Cigar Lounge
- Open Mon. - Sat. 10-am - Midnight
- Open Sunday Noon - 11pm

CIGAR MASTERS®
BOSTON
Boston's First "Cigar Cafe"
745 Boylston Street • Boston, MA 02116
Tel: (617) 266-4400 • Fax: (617) 266-8388
Toll Free 1 (888) 95-CIGAR

Tequila RAIN

Bar & Dancing

TUESDAY OCTOBER 14
WAAF Mantown DVD Premiere
The making of the Mantown Calendar

FRIDAY & SATURDAY OCT 17 & 18
CUERVONATION Weekend Party

THURSDAY OCTOBER 30
FNX LINGERIE BALL

FRIDAY OCTOBER 31 HALLOWEEN
Pajama Jam

EVERY FRIDAY & SATURDAY IN OCTOBER
CASH CASINO

3 Lansdowne Street 617.859.0030 www.TequilaRainBoston.com

Begin your journey at the crossroads of civilization...

Exhilarating, poetic, mystical = that's Morocco

Tangier ino

83 Main Street, Charlestown, MA 617.242.6009
www.tangierino.com
OPEN DAILY 5PM-12:30AM

All journeys begin and end here.

Paradise Maroon 5 and Gavin DeGraw (sold out). Lounge: Tom Waits tribute with Torr Skoog (Kings of Nuthin'), Frank Morey, George (Give) and Ryan Dowd (Kicked in the Head), 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Jim Plunkett.
Ryles Jazz Club Tony Gallo Group, 7:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Scullers Lavay Smith and her Red Hot Skillet Lickers, 8 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
Sky Bar Daisycutter, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Somerville Theatre Rick Wakeman of Yes, 8 pm, $23-$35.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, no cover.
Toad Todd Thibaud, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Smokewagon, the Marvels and Rock City Crimewave, 9:15 pm, $7, 21+.
Virgin Megastore Open mike night, 6 pm.
Wonder Bar Grant Langford, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Silas Hubbard, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31

Abbey Lounge Spitzz (as the Cramps), Coffin Lids (as the Mummies) and Midnight Ploughboys, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Asgard Halloween Show, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Atrium Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 5:30 pm, no cover; Bert Seager Jazz Duo, 9 pm, no cover.
Axis Bidd and the Kids Table with Kicked in the Head, 6 pm, $12, all ages.
Big Easy Aphrodisiac.
Bill's Bar Beefy DC: A Tribute to AC/DC, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
The Black Rose Celtic Clan; Upstairs: Dave Foley.
Bob the Chef's Herman Johnson Jazz Quartet, 7:30.
Boston Harbor Hotel Bill and Bo Winiker Orchestra, 7 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Tina Lech, Ted Davis and Dave Cory, 10 pm, $3, 21+; Backroom: Jabe, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Jim's Big Ego, 7 and 10 pm, $15, all ages.
Dick's Last Resort Halloween Party, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+ (after 9 pm).
Encore Lounge Jan Peters, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
The Good Life Cambridge Grover Mooney & the Moon Unit.
The Good Life Downtown Borderland.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Seeking Homer, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5-7:30 pm, 21+; Six Shot Brody, 21+.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller's Sing-along, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Halloween costume party with Milo, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kirkland Café Just Another Victim, Girl on Top, Supachik, and Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, $5.
The Linwood Lucifuge, Officer May, Science of Yabra, and Big Bear, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Adonai and the Board of Ed, 9 pm, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall.
Matt Murphy's The Thing, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Groovie Ghoulies, BlackCat Burlesque, the Flipsides and the Humanoids, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Scissorfight, the Dukes of Nothing, Suicide Contest and Seemless, 18+; Corner: Sam Hooper Group, 10 pm, no cover, 18+; ZuZu: Latin with Giancarlo Buscaglia, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Milky Way Venus Factor 5 Halloween Bash.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Paradise The Slip (Halloween Costume Show), 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Parris Love Seed Mama Jump.
PA's Surca, Mossberg, Everything is Everything, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
The Rack Taylor Brothers, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar Ronnie Earl & The Broadcasters CD-release, 7:30 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Johnny Hoy & the Bluefish, 8 pm, $9, 21+.
Sanders Theatre Swingin' with the Chief: The Annual Dartmouth Band Concert, 8 pm, $8-$10.
Scullers Lavay Smith and her Red Hot Skillet Lickers, 8 and 10:30 pm, $20, 21+.
Sky Bar Default Outfit, Lincoln Conspiracy, Rabadango and Evil Jake, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Conelly, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Dwight Ritcher Band, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Cannibelle, Soundtrack, Baby Strange and Dear Leader, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Virgin Megastore Brian Bergeron, 5 pm; Russel Wolf, 7 pm.
The Western Front Exposition, 10 pm, $10.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Nunn sings at Waltham High School Nov. 1

SATURDAY, NOV. 1

Abbey Lounge Smorgasbord, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Atrium Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 5:30 pm, no cover; Bert Seager Jazz Duo, 9 pm, no cover.
Axis KMFDM with PIG and Bile, 7 pm, $20.
Berklee Performance Center Jane Oliver, 7:30pm, $29-$35.50.
Big Easy Aphrodisiac.
Black Horse Tavern Typoon Ferri, 9 pm, no cover.
Bob the Chef's Paulo Danay Jazz Quartet, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Suzanne Davis Jazz Duo, 7 pm, 21+.
The Burren Tommy, Louise, Helena Delaney and Fabian Joyce, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Little Joe Cook and the Thrillers, 9 pm, cover varies, 21+.
Club Passim Anne Heaton and Kat Goldman, 7 and 10 pm, $14, all ages.
Encore Lounge Kezia Hirsey, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Good Life Downtown Michael Shea Trio featuring Johnny Souza, 9:30 pm, no charge, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Vent.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Entrain, $12, 18+.
Jacob Wirth The Steve Fell Band, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Barbarito Torres, 9:45 pm, $16, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
The Linwood The Kenmores, the Real Kids, Mung, Suspect Device, the Dents, Avoid One Thing, the McGunks, Lizzy Borden and Friends, Gobshites and the Syphlloids, 10 pm, $7, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Ray Mason Band, John Haydon and the Hayseed Prophets and Jed Parish and the Mother Tongues, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: the Dwarves and AKA's; 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Oak Bar Steve Silverman Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Paradise Hybrasil, Jake Brennan and the Confidence Men, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Parris Love Seed Mama Jump.
PA's The Anchormen, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Regattabar The Donna Byrne Quintet and Herb Pomeroy, 7 and 9:30 pm, $18, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Sherrie Maricle and Diva Band, 8 pm, $28, 21+.
Scullers Livingston Taylor, 8 and 10:30 pm, $24, 21+.
Sky Bar The Bocks and New Blood, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad Yoni Gordon and the Goods, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub The Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Pills CD Release, Midnight, the Collisions CD-Release and Stevie & the Thrillers, 10 pm, $8, 18+.
Waltham High School Robinson Theatre Nunn, 7:30 pm, $50, all ages.
Wonder Bar Rusty Scott Quartet, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Adam Green of the Moldy Peaches plays Oct. 24 at Axis

SUNDAY, NOV. 2

The Attic The Coalboilers, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob the Chef's Tracey Rose, 10 am-3 pm.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan Jazz Duo, 11 am.
The Breezeway Bar & Grill Hakim Law at the Sunday Jazz Brunch, 11 am-3 pm, $13
The Burren The Gannon Family, 2 pm, no cover, 21+; Tommy, Louise, Dan Isaacson and George Keith, 6:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Ellen Schmidt and Wendy Santis, 7:30 pm, $12, all ages.
Dick's Last Resort Silver Lining Gospel, 10 am.
Encore Lounge Carol O'Shaughnessy, 9:30 pm.
Green Street Grill Balla Townkara and Groupe Spirit, 11:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harper's Ferry Sex Mob, $12, 21+.
Johnny D's Jazz Brunch, 9 am-2:30 pm.
Julien Bar Jazz Brunch Piano Trio, 11 am-3 pm, no cover; Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell.
Middle East Upstairs: Chris Brokaw, Rebecca Gates and Drew O'Doherty, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Aesop Rock, Mr. Lif, Murs, Sa Smash and DJ Fakts One, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Regattabar Inca Son, 6:30 and 9 pm, $16, all ages.
Ryles Jazz Club John Purcell, 10 am-3 pm.
Somerville Theatre Sol y Canto, 11 am and 3 pm, $15.
T.T. the Bear's Place Aspera, Nice Nice and Cex, 9:40 pm, $8, 18+.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, NOV. 3

The Burren Johnny O'Leary and Vinny Costello, 10 pm, 21+.
Choppin' Block Marianne Solivan Quartet Jazz Session, 8 pm, $4, 21+
Club Passim Arlo Gutherie.
Encore Lounge Steve Heck, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Green Street Grill Hot Tamale Brass Band, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Eamon Sheehan
Middle East Upstairs: Puny Human, 16 and the Planet The, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Electric Six and Junior Senior, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Purple Shamrock Scott Damgaard.
Sky Bar James Cleare and Bergeron, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Wonder Bar Johnny Horner and Joe McMahon, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY, NOV. 4

Axis Mushroomhead, Motograter and 40 Below Summer, 7:30 pm, $15, all ages.
The Burren Tommy, Louise, Peter Molloy and Matt Glover, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Arlo Guthrie, 8 pm, $35, all ages.
Cottonwood Café Barbara Dolan's Jazz Therapy, 9 pm.
Encore Lounge Bobby Femino, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Green Street Grill High Plain Drifters, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Felicia Brady, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Julien Bar Jeffrey Moore, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kinsale Sean Cunningham.
Middle East Upstairs: Kid Koala presents Short Attention Span Theatre, 6 pm and 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Paradise Prefuse 73, Dabrye and Beans, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
The Rack Black Sole, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Regattabar La Timba Loca, 8:30pm, $12, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra for Big Band Tuesdays, 7:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Scullers Follen Angels feat. Hildy Grossman, Jeanne Laforgia and Reiko Tanaka, 8 and 10 pm, $18, 21+.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Cash Brothers and Mike Murray, $10.
Wonder Bar Mike McKenna Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Alvin Terry Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atrium Lounge Millenium Bostonian Hotel, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-236-5300). MBTA: Green or Blue Lines to Government Center.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Big Easy Bar 1 Boylston Place., Boston (617-351-7000). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-743-2286) MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Bob the Chef's 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-743-2286). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-856-7744) MBTA: Blue Line to Government Center
The Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Boston (617-541-5400).
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-338-4400). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Choppin' Block 724 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-734-4177). MBTA: Green Line to Brigham Circle.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Dick's Last Resort 55 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Aerosmith and Kiss Nov. 26, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Avenge Sevenfold, the Suicide Machines and the Unseen Nov. 13, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
Belle and Sebastian Nov. 13, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Blind Boys of Alabama Dec. 2, Berklee Performance Center (617-931-2000).
David Bowie and Macy Gray Dec. 9, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Ani Difranco Nov. 16, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Donna the Buffalo Nov. 21, Paradise Rock Club (617-423-NEXT).
G3 with Joe Satriani and Steve Vai Nov. 12, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Ben Lee and Phantom Planet Nov. 14, Axis (617-423-NEXT).
Phil Lesh and Friends Nov. 23-25, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Lyle Lovett Nov. 9, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Dave Matthews, Emmylou Harris, Tim Reynolds and Trey Anastasio Dec. 16, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
moe Nov. 7, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Phish Dec. 2, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Primus Nov. 17, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).
Robert Randolph & the Family Band and Los Lonely Boys Nov. 19, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Saves the Day and Taking Back Sunday Nov. 21, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
Simon & Garfunkel Dec. 11 and 13, FleetCenter (617-931-2000).
Gillian Welch Nov. 8, Avalon (617-423-NEXT).
The White Stripes and Whirlwind Heat Nov. 2, Tsongas Arena (617-931-2000).

Miller Lite
TRUE PILSNER BEER

Tell it over a great tasting, less filling Miller Lite.

Tua Nua
NEW BEGINNING

835 Beacon Street, Boston • 617-262-2121

Tir na nOg
Irish Pub
Union Square, Somerville

366A Somerville Avenue, Union Square, Somerville • 617-628-4300 • www.thenog.com

THE BURREN

247 Elm Street, Somerville • 617-776-6896

©2011 Miller Brewing Company, Milwaukee, WI MillerTime.com

Live Responsibly

Miller Lite
It's MILLER TIME

Live music at The Fireplace, no cover charge.

(that should be music to your ears.)

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Live music Wednesday and Thursday evenings,
9:30 to midnight.

Open for dinner Sunday, 5 to 10 pm;
Monday through Wednesday, 5:30 to 10 pm;
and Thursday through Saturday, 5 to 11 pm.
Lunch is served Monday to Friday from 11 am to 2:30 pm, and Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday from 11 am to 2:30 pm.

The Fireplace
New England Grill

1634 Beacon Street, Brookline, MA 02446 tel: (617) 975-1900
www.fireplacerest.com

Where the locals meet to eat

ASSAGGIO

Open noon to midnight
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

29 Prince Street (in the North End)
Located off of Hanover 617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
Reservations accepted

Encore Lounge 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
FleetCenter One FleetCenter, Suite 200, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
The Good Life Cambridge 720 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-8800). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harper's Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Jacob Wirth 31-37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Julien Bar 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900). MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Way, Cambridge (617-661-0993). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Linwood 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-267-8644). MBTA: D Green Line to Kenmore.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Porter or Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washinghton St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Avenue, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Orpheum Theatre Hamilton Place, Boston (617-482-0650). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street.
Paradise Rock Club 967 Comm. Ave., Boston, (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant St.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557).
Porters Bar and Grill 173 Portland St., Boston (617-742-PORT). MBTA: Red Line to North Station.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-661-5000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
The Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Central.
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). MBTA : Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Rd., Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Symphony Hall 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
The Tap 19 Union St., Boston (617-367-0033). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300).
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-BEAR). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Virgin Megastore 360 Newbury St., Boston (617-896-0950). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Waltham High School 671 Lexington St., Waltham (617-359-0413).
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

Music in the Cathedral

Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-4826, ext. 1103). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $2. Organist Mark Keane performs.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Conductor Sergio Monterisi leads the NEC Sinfonietta in its first concert of the season, a performance of works by Dvorak, Beethoven and Mozart.

THURSDAY, OCT. 23

Harvard University

John Knowles Paine Concert Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free with pass. The Ying Quartet performs pieces by Mendelssohn, Schubert and Elliott Gyger.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. The NEC Wind Ensemble performs works by composers who have been in residence at NEC, with guest performances by the NEC Jordan Winds, the Contemporary Ensemble and the Callithumian Consort.

FRIDAY, OCT. 24

Handel and Haydn Society

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1815). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $25-$58. The chorus and orchestra, conducted by Grant Llewellyn, perform a selection of Handel's works composed during his stay in Rome.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $20. In her debut recital pianist Nareh Arghamanyan performs works by Scarlatti, Mozart, Schubert, Chopin, Ravel, Liszt and Seto Baghdassarian.

MIT Symphony Orchestra

Kresge Auditorium, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-452-2394). web.mit.edu/arts. 8 pm. $5. The orchestra features pieces from Beethoven and Stravinsky directed by Dante Anzolini.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1151). www.newenglandconservatory.edu/centennial. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free with a pass. The Best of Jazz, the first concert of Jordan Hall's three-night Centennial Celebration, features performances by NEC faculty and alumni.

Old South Church

645 Boylston St., Boston (617-267-7442, ext. 0). www.choruspromusica.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 8 pm. $20-$40. The Chorus Pro Musica performs Brahms' Liebeslieder Waltzes Op. 52.

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

Boston Camerata

First Church in Cambridge, 11 Garden St., Cambridge (617-262-5459). www.bostoncamerata.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $22-$42. Joel Cohen directs Nueva España: Close Encounters in the New World, 1590-1690, a performance of music that demonstrates how Spanish-born composers integrated Renaissance polyphony, Hispanic fiesta music, Indian dialects and African rhythms into their music.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $10. Soprano Xochitl Mendez and pianist Michael Strauss perform works by Schubert, Schumann, Faure and others.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1151). www.newenglandconservatory.edu/centennial. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free with pass. NEC president Gunther Schuller returns to conduct the NEC's top orchestral players and soloists in a Jordan Hall Centennial Celebration concert.

SARASA Chamber Ensemble

Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-492-4758). www.sarasamusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $18. Cellists Phoebe Carter, Myron Lutzke and Timothy Merton perform mu

Photograph by: Jon Miller + Hedrich Blessing

MONTAGE

The perfect place for your exquisite taste. Montage fine furnishings.

. 75 Arlington Street, Boston

Mon-Fri 10-6pm Thurs. 10-7pm Sat. 10-6pm Sun. 12-5pm

617.451.9400 www.montageweb.com

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 Phoper Bostonian

BEST OF BOSTON 2003

ARIA

SAT OCT 18 THROUGH SAT OCT 25

FASHION WEEK @ ARIA

Fashion shows every night

WED OCT 29 THURS 30 FRI 31 & SAT NOV 1

Halloween Parties

ONE NATION TUESDAYS

97.7's DJ Rocsi hosts Hip Hop and R&B

LUST WEDNESDAYS

DJ John Morris spins high energy house

Boston's greatest alternative evening

FASHION HOUSE THURSDAYS

DJ Roger M. spins Latin & International House

FLOSS FRIDAYS

DJ Thanos spins Hip Hop and R&B

CLASSIC SPIN BACK SATURDAYS

Guest DJ's spin your favorite

70's, 80's and early 90's classics

Book your holiday party now by calling 617.338.7080

246 Tremont St. Below the Wilbur Theater

Reservations & Private Party Information 617.338.7080

www.ariaboston.com

Boston Lyric OPERA New England

THE ITALIAN SEASON

Big Passions.

IT'S THE AD THAT'S SMALL.

© 2003 Florencio Yllana

RIGOLETTO

by Giuseppe Verdi

November 5, 7, 9m 11, 14, 16m, 18, 2003

A father struggles to save his daughter from the Duke's ill-use. But at what cost?

Sung in Italian with English translation.

Evening performances at 7:30pm; Sunday matinées at 3pm. The Shubert Theatre.

Tickets: $33-$152. www.telecharge.com, (800) 447-7400 or at The Shubert Theatre Box Office, 265 Tremont St., Boston, Mon.-Fri., 10am-6pm. TTY: (617) 482-5757

Free Opera Previews! Half-hour talks one hour before each performance next door at the Tremont Hotel.

www.blo.org

Worldwide exploration. Local inspiration.™

Laura Mercier
Trish McEvoy
Nars
Paula Dorf
Fresh
Darphin
Phytomer
Bliss
Creed
& more*

BEAUTYand MAIN™

Harvard Square
30 Brattle Street, Cambridge, Ma
telephone: 617.868.7171

Hingham Square
66 South Street, Hingham, Ma
telephone: 781.741.8501

Opening late October
Wellesley Center
79 Central Street, Wellesley, Ma
telephone: 781.237.1685

www.beautyandmain.com

*Lines vary by location.

by Scarlatti, Marcello, Myslivecek, Corrette, Kummer and Popper, accompanied by Maggie Cole on harpsichord and piano.

SUNDAY, OCT. 26

FleetBoston Celebrity Series

Tsai Performance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-6467). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 2 pm. $15-$25. Robert Kapilow leads the New England Philharmonic in Trick or Treat!, a presentation of some of the scariest music in the classical canon.

Handel and Haydn Society

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-262-1815). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $25-$58. The chorus and orchestra, conducted by Grant Llewellyn, perform a selection of Handel's works composed during his stay in Rome.

MIT Heritage of South Asia Concert

Wong Auditorium, MIT Tang Center, 2 Amherst St., Cambridge (617-258-7971). web.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 4 pm. $12-$25. Saxophonist Kadri Gopalnath performs with A. Kanyakumari on violin and Dhendanikottai Mani on thavil.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1151). www.newenglandconservatory.edu/centennial. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 2 pm. Free with pass. Benjamin Zander conducts the NEC's Youth Philharmonic Orchestra in a celebration of NEC composers and performers.

New England Philharmonic

Tsai Performance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-868-1222). www.nephilharmonic.org. MBTA: Green Line to BU East. 2 pm. $20. Guest conductor Rob Kapilow directs pieces by Dukas, Mussorgsky and Saint-Saens.

Retro Pro Arte 1978

Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). www.proarte.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $9-$45. Pro Arte gives a reprise of its first concert, performing works by Stravinsky, Schubert, and Dvorák to celebrate the orchestra's 25th anniversary.

MONDAY, OCT. 27

New England Conservatory

Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. The Callithumpian Consort performs music by Salvatore Sciarrino, Gerard Grisey, Helmut Lachenmann and Toshio Hosokawa.

TUESDAY, OCT. 28

Boston Lyric Opera

Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-542-4912). www.blo.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley Station. 7 pm. Free. The troupe presents a mini-performance of Verdi's opera Rigoletto, followed by a discussion.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $26-$86. Sir Charles Mackerras directs a program of music by Berlioz, featuring violist Steven Ansell.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29

Music in the Cathedral

Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-4826, ext. 1103). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $2. Clarinetist Leslie Walters performs with the Chamber Music Outreach Project of Boston.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Robert Cogan and Pozzi Escot present Visions, an evening of their own music and the music of Elliott Carter.

Charles Mackerras conducts the BSO Oct. 28 and 30.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $26-$86. Sir Charles Mackerras directs a program of music by Berlioz, featuring violist Steven Ansell.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. William Drury conducts the Jordan Winds in their first performance the season.

Parish of All Saints

209 Ashmont St., Dorchester (617-436-3520 ext. 221). MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont. 7 pm. Free. The All Saints' Choir of Men and Boys performs.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31

First Church Cambridge

11 Garden St., Cambridge (617-499-4860). www.bostonsecession.org MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $25-$35. Boston Secession presents To Hell and Back! a Halloween concert of the spookier music of Verdi, Gluck, Faure, Hugo Distler and others.

Music at the Immaculate

The Jesuit Urban Center, 775 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-536-8440). 8 pm. $10. Viennese organist Thomas Reuter presents a solo recital incorporating pieces by Walter Nussgruber, Josef Dopplebauer, Alexandre Guilmant, Augustins Kropfreiter and Theodore Dubois.

SATURDAY, NOV. 1

Longwood Symphony Orchestra

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.longwoodsymphony.org/season.html MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $15-$25. The orchestra presents the American premiere of "Wave" by Sarajevo-born composer Vuk Kulenovic

SUNDAY, NOV. 2

Emmanuel Music

Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 11 am. Free. Leonard Matczynski conducts Bach's Cantata, No. 90 as part of the Sunday church service.

Longy School of Music

Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956, ext. 500). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. $10. Vento Chiaro performs works by Berio, Nielsen, Zemlinsky, Ravel, Armand Qualliotine and Luciano Bario.

The Masterworks Chorale

Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). www.masterworkschorale.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $16-$36. Allen Lannom conducts the Chorale in a performance of music by Berlioz.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306). www.mfa.org/concerts. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 3 pm. $20-$24. John Gibbons and Daniel Stepner perform a selection of Mozart's pieces for keyboard and violin.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Guitarist Robert Paul Sullivan performs.

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Riverside. 3 pm. Free. Soprano Jean Danton, pianist Brian Mo and trumpeter Dennis Alves present a concert featuring songs by Haydn, Purcell, Gershwin and more.

Symphony Hall

301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Heath. 3 pm. $37-$67. The Brandenburg Ensemble performs keyboard concertos by Johann Sebastian Bach.

MONDAY, NOV. 3

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci. newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Riverside. 7:30 pm. Free. Cellist Jonathan Miller, violinist Sharan Leventhal and pianist Tatiana Yampolsky perform music by Haydn and Schubert.

TUESDAY, NOV. 4

The Bach Keyboard Project

Old West Church, 131 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-661-0570). www.tuesdayswithsebastian.org MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 8 pm. $10. Organist Peter Sykes performs works by Bach.

Boston Modern Orchestra Project

Moonshine Room at Club Cafe, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-363-0396). www.bmop.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7 pm. $15. The Orchestra performs pieces by Michael Torke, Steve Reich and Julia Wolfe.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-536-2412). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. The NEC Orchestra performs.

MAKSOU

HAIR & MAKE UP ARTISAN • DAY SPA

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Charles Maksou
Women's Haircut

"Charles Maksou is the man responsible for bringing John Sahag's celebrated dry-cut method to Boston... Women who go to him once are instantly addicted to the quality of his cuts."

Renée Christopher
Eyebrow Shaping

"...her advice and expertise are always worth following. Let her do that voodoo that she does so well, and Christopher will give you brows that bless your face."

Bring in this ad for 20% OFF
first time hair and spa services

125 Broad St., Boston 617/443/8633 www.maksou.com

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $5, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJ Jay Ine spinning house, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Monsta Mondays DJ Kaptain Krunch spins rock, and live bands perform, 9 pm, $6, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Martini Mondays DJ Sensae spins R&B and hip-hop, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Buddha Lounge DJ Kamel and DJ Christophe spin a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats. Classy dress, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Scott Damgaard, live music, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Dance Party with DJ Mike Janedy, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 27, Join the Patriots' Lonie Paxton and friends in a benefit for the Active Force Foundation, 9 pm.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Each week two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
S.I.N. Service Industry Night DJ Tony Moreno spins house, breaks and hip hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJs spinning top-40 tunes, R&B and dance. Downstairs: live acoustic music with Justin Beech.

Vertigo
DJ's G-Squared and Steve Austin spin hip-hop, house, old-school and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 19+ (women), 21+ (men).

TUESDAYS

An Tua Nua
What's Up Night A night of R&B, house, funk and soul music, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

Aria
One Nation DJ Chubby Chub spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Bill's Bar
Phat Tuesdays Old-school hip-hop with DJ D Sharp, 9 pm, $10, 19+, college ID required.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm, followed by live music, $5, 18+.

The Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Kells
Orange DJs Matt Diamond and John Davis bring the house music, and weekly guest DJs drop by for a spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee spins house, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Phoenix Landing
Spectrum DJs Flack, Verbnine and C combine dub, retro-futurism and breakbeats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJ Ricky spins, 10 pm. •Oct. 28, ZMQ performs live, 6:30-10:30 pm, no cover, 21+. •Nov. 4, Jose Ramos & the No Way Jose Band perform, 6:30-10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins top-40 and R&B. Downstairs: Stu Sinclair, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, $21+.

Tonic
Splash Industry Night Sir Isaac Phillips accompanies the DJ with live percussion, $5, 21+.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

Aria
Lust DJ John Morris spins progressive house for a gay and lesbian dance party. Proper dress, 11 pm, $10, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Caprice
DJ Vagellis spins Greek and international tunes. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Mod Night with DJ Vin, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Emily's
DJs pump up the After Work Rush Hour, 5-8 pm.

Felt
Weekly Therapy Party Guest DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Bobby B spins top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up R&B, top-40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Matrix
Lively A cast of DJs spin underground garage, 10 pm, $8.

Milky Way
Mercury Lounge DJs Nomadik and Timmy Allen host this evening of soul, funk and house, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
DJs Shalako, Caseroc and Skye spin deep house, trance and grassroots techno, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Beach Party night with DJs spinning top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
International Wednesdays DJ JC is in the Latin Lounge; DJs Alex and Felix are in the back. Proper dress, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
DJ Sean spins a retro mix of '70s and '80s tunes.

The Rack
DJ Ricky spins spins dance, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 22 and 29, BlackSole performs, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Cabin Stabbin' Wednesdays Dub and DJ Boogie Ba Do start the party reggae-style, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Dave Jordan spins dance and R&B. Downstairs: Live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop and top-40 hits, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Vertigo
Downstairs: Psychedelic trance music by DJs Dino, Mathwin and Dave Henshaw. Upstairs: Analog Lounge with DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tain
DJs spin hip-hop, progressive, tech and funky house, 6-11 pm, no cover, 21+.

An Tua Nua
The Skinny DJ Ren Justice spins techno, top-40 and hip-hop 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Aria
Fashion House Weekly fashion shows; DJ Roger M spins vocal house. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

Avalon
International Thursdays DJ Gee Spin and guests play rap and Eurohouse tunes, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Axis
Square One Thursdays Resident DJs Ali Ajami and John Debo host a night of progressive dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

Big Easy
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40 in this New Orleans–themed nightspot, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
On the Rocks DJ Mike spins top-40 dance and hip-hop, 7 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Preview

Tricks, Treats and Beats

It's good clean Halloween fun at Filth

Tym Ryan is the kind of guy who hands out business cards that list his profession as "Scumbag." That's not your average job title, but Ryan is not your average DJ. He's probably best known for his decade-long tenure as resident DJ and ringleader of Spin Cycle, a now-defunct Friday night party on Lansdowne Street. After a two-year absence, and just in time for Halloween, Friday nights with Tym Ryan are back in Boston. Joined by partner in crime John Davis, Ryan recently kicked off a new event called Filth, which takes place every Friday night from 10 pm to 2 am at McGann's, an Irish bar near the Fleet Center. Ryan and Davis spin everything from tech house to breakbeats alongside weekly local guests. Ryan's genre-bending take on dance music is sleazy, glitzy, fun and decadent, promising to provide an appropriate soundtrack to all your ghoulish dancing and merriment.

197 Portland St., Fridays, 10 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. 617-227-4059—Daniel Spurling

Caprice
Hip Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Everything '80s DJ Brian's Love Night mix features tunes of the '80s, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Red Velvet DJs Geespin and Master Jay spin hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, 19+ (women), 21+ (men).

Embassy
DJ JC spins international house, 10:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour 5-8 pm; live funk, jazz and electronica, 8 pm, $5, 18+.

Felt
KISS 108's DJ Randy hosts the night and spins Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Nonstop music and dancing with DJs Christian Massi, Joshua Carl, Damon and Push, ladies free, guys $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Spend Resident DJs Nailz, Taner and Tasty cue up the beats, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Rhythm Nights hosts karaoke downstairs, 8-11 pm, 21+. DJ Massi gets the dance party started upstairs, 11 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJ Edgar and DJ Mike Giosdu spin dance tunes and old-school, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Doc spins the latest tunes, 21+.

La Boom
Privilege DJ Felix cranks the noise, 11 pm-2 am, 21+.

Level
Life DJ Adilson pumps house, trance and progressive and DJ NFerna spins hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Matrix
Club Candela DJ Michael Mercado spins Latin dance, 10 pm, 18+ ladies, 21+ men.

The Modern
DJ Ricky Fatts spins house and hip-hop. 10:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Parris
Oct. 23, Central Basement performs, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Rando present drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Place
DJ Mike Janedy spins top-40 and dance, 9 pm, $ 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ David Mee spins deep house, progressive techno, downtempo and soul classics in the front lounge, night, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett performs live, 9 pm, 21+.

Q
Superstar Thursdays DJs Manolo, Paul Dail Rick Naples and Josh Carl share a weekly rotati residency.

The Rack
DJ Littles spins from 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 2 •Oct. 23, Uneek Aproach performs, 6-10 pm, cover, 21+. •Oct. 30, the IMPROPER's Hallowe Fun Run to benefit cystic fibrosis, 6-10 pm, cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali and Ross spin a mix electro, Funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no co 21+.

Saint
Deja Vu DJs and weekly guest hosts spin lou music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

711 Boylston
Play Thursdays DJ trio Groovefire spins house mu with special guests Beat Khemistry, 6 pm-2 am.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins new dance R&B; Downstairs: Justin Beech, 9 pm-1 am, 21+.

Sophia's
DJ JR Vega hosts Latin Night with live music by

Friday October 31st

Raise Hell This Halloween

FELT BOSTON

TY FOR LIFE? DRINK RESPONSIBLY.
BACARDI.com BACARDI AND THE BAT DEVICE ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS OF BACARDI & COMPANY LIMITED. ©2003 BACARDI U.S.A., INC., MIAMI

ee before 9PM $10 tickets available at the Door

Entertainment throughout the night by IMAGO, former Cirque du Soleil performers

Costume Contest with $500 Cash Prize for best costume

Special Guest Dj

Hosted by: KISS 108's Billy Costa

33 Washington Street • 617.350.5555

BACARDI® WICKED PARTY®

Latin Party Boys; free salsa lessons with Dan Marshall, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 10:30 pm, no cover, 19+ with college ID.

Sweetwater Café
Dance to top-40 tunes, 5 pm, no cover, 21+.

SW1
DJ Renel and guest MCs spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $5, 18+.

Venu
Nu-Lite Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Sender plays hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 10 pm, 21+ (men), 19+ (women).

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night, proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tain
TGIF DJ David spins hip-hop, progressive tech and funky house, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
Superlovers DJ Vinney spins disco and top-40 from the '70s, '80s and '90s, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Floss DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B. Proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 18+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest and global DJs spin progressive dance music, 10 pm, $15, 19+. •Oct. 24, 10 pm, Seb Fontaine CD release.

The Avenue
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, old-school and dancehall, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Big Easy Bar
DJ Matt Phipps spins top-40, and local cover bands play the hits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
F Night WBCN's Bradley J spins '80s classics, and alternative and rock tribute bands perform live, 9 pm, cover varies, 18+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft DJs Sensae and Johnny Walker Black spin top-40 dance and hip-hop tunes accompanied by interactive video shows, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Eddie K spins a mix of international, Latin and house music. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Circuit Girl
Anything Goes Melinda Ancillo hosts this women's night with DJ Kris Kono spinning house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Tom spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Nailz and DJ Eddie Lee spin hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $20, 19+.

Emily's
After Work Rush Hour (5-8 pm) is followed by DJ Renell spinning top-40 and dance, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $1 21+.

Felt
After-work live jazz, 5-9 pm. KISS 108's Billy Cos hosts the party and DJ Ricky Fatts spins high-ener dance, hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Bob Gallagher spins '70s, '80s, '9 and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstai with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+. •Oct. 2 Peatmoss performs live. •Oct. 31, live music wi the Catunes.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, $10, 9 pm 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Big Daddy spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins top-40, R&B an dance while DJ Mike Gioscia or DJ Edgar spi house and old favorites, $5, ladies free before mi night, 21+.

La Boom
Fashion Fridays Firefly Promotions hosts this fashio night featuring DJ Rick Naples, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Level
Secret Society DJ Hoff spins hip-hop, reggae an R&B on the fourth and fifth floors, and DJ Nik spins Greek and international tunes on the thi floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Adilson of Roxy Saturdays spins high-ener house, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

The Modern
DJ JC plays Latin rhythms, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•The Male Encounter New England's longest-ru ning all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show ru 9 pm-1 am, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Oxygen Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, proper dress, $15, 18 $5, 21+. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstrea hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; cover, 21+. •Rockpile WAAF's Jay Ferrera broa casts live, and rotating bands perform, 9 pm, $1 18+; $5, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up h from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18 no cover, 21+.

Parris
•Oct. 24, Steamroller Picnic performs, 10 pm, co varies, 21+. •Oct. 31, Love Seed Mama Jump p forms, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Shake What Your Mama Gave You DJ Ren Jus spins disco, hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

THE comedy CONNECTION FANEUIL HALL

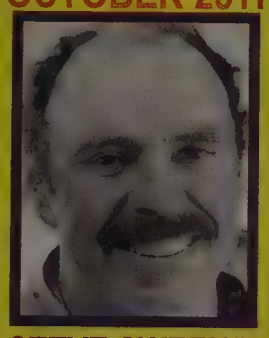
617•248•9700

"Don't Go Home and Sit on Your A@#! Come Laugh it Off With Us!"

OCTOBER 24TH

JOHN VALBY

OCTOBER 25TH



STEVE SWEENEY

OCTOBER 31ST

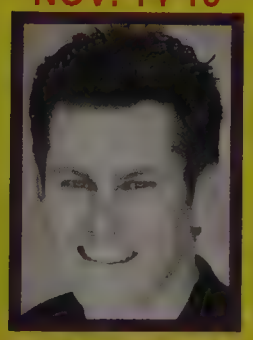
OTTO & GEORGE

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

NOV. 7-9

TOMMY DAVIDSON

NOV. 14-15



BRIAN REGAN

NOV. 21-22

ROBERT SCHIMMEL

See why Frank Santos has been a hit with fans for over 10 years!

EVERY THURSDAY!

"The R-Rated Hypnotist"

ALWAYS IMITATED! NEVER DUPLICATED!

FRANK SANTOS

Validated Parking at 75 State Street Garage

www.comedyconnectionboston.com

BOSTON ROCKS

(617) 726-1110

(Next to The Comedy Connection on the 2nd Floor of the Quincy Market Bldg.)

A Unique Blend of Entertainment!

MARTINI MONDAYS!
*Hot Video Mix
Guest DJs spinning
Hip Hop and R&B
from 10:30PM 'til 2AM

SMOOTH GROOVE TUESDAYS!
*Live Jazz Music - 7PM-10PM
*Old School Jams - 10PM-2AM
*Free Cool Buffet

BOSTON's "A" LIST PRESENTS THURSDAYS!
*Featuring Top 40, Hip Hop & Dance!

"Big Pimpin'" Phil!

THE LOFT FRIDAYS!
*Featuring Top 40, Dance and Hip Hop
*Interactive Video & Digital Picture Shows

SHOTGUN SATURDAYS!
*Boston's Own, Jacky Dalton Every Saturday at 8PM!
*Ladies Night for all Birthday and Bachelorette Parties!
*Top 40, Dance and Hip Hop!

Let Us Book Your Holiday Party!
VIP Room Available • No Room Fee!

Open 7 Days a Week • www.boston-rocks.net • 21+

Fifty-Three South
Fine Dining Restaurant & Gourmet Catering
124 Washington Street - Norwell, MA
781.792.0001 781.792.0711
www.53south.com

Bring our impeccable reputation for eclectic gourmet food to your corporate or family gathering. Let our award winning staff cater your next event and your guests will be singing your praises.

Call 781.792.0711 to start planning your next soiree!

BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Best New Restaurant South
Boston Magazine 2003
Best Fine Dining Restaurant
Patriot Ledger 2002

As seen in People magazine, March 17, 2003
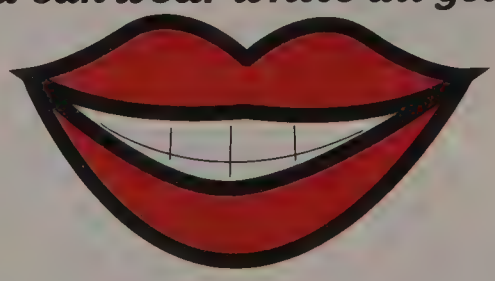
EXCLUSIVE SKIN SOLUTIONS, PC
Now you can wear white all year long!



Decadent™ Full Mouth Teeth Whitening
$300 Compare at $600-$1000
in ONE HOUR!
Special with this ad
Without trays, hassle, or UV radiation like Zoom!
Results last up to 2 years • 10-12 shades whiter guaranteed

DAY SPA SERVICES AVAILABLE, INCLUDING:
Microdermabrasion - Acne, Pigmentation, Wrinkles
Lunch Time Peel
Laser Hair Removal
20% Off All Day Spa Services
Including hair design
$250 BOTOX® Introductory Offer

Raffi Der Sarkissian, MD
Board Certified Plastic Surgeon
Gina Caruso
Founder & President

1244 Washington Street, in the "New" South End, Boston, MA 02118
www.eskinsolutions.com 617.728.0077
FREE CONSULTATION PRIOR TO TREATMENT

The Place
Hang out with VJ Laptop and enjoy Boston sports video highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
Glo Promotions hosts weekly guest DJs. Proper dress required, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Craig spins the latest hits, 10 pm.

Q
DJ Josh Spitaleri spins house, 9 pm.

The Rack
DJ Johnny C with KISS 108's Artie, 10:45 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. •Oct. 24, live music with Taylor Bros., 6:30-10:30 pm. •Oct. 31, Halloween Party with Artie, 8 pm-2 am.

River Gods
Lite Nite DJ Easy spins neusoul, scsi diisko, poplock hits, and a few feel-good classics, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Roxy
Hip-hop, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Steve Sosong spins dance; Downstairs: live music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover before 10 pm, 21+.

Sophia's
Sangria and Salsa Salsa and merengue lessons, 7-10 pm, followed by the Latin Party Boys and DJs Mike C and Zino spinning Latin dance, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin plays hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows on two floors, 5 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Littles spins, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Tim Collins spins top-40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

The Upstairs Lounge
The Pill DJ Ken spins U.S. and U.K. indie, Brit pop, mod, British invasion and '60s soul.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international house while DJ Roger M kicks things up with Latin vibes. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs spin hip-hop, house and vocals, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress a must, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tain
Old-school house with DJ Steve, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

An Tua Nua
DJ Ren Justice mixes top-40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

Aria
International Saturdays DJ Roger M spins vocal house and international hits, proper dress, 11 pm, $15, 21+ (guys), 19+ (ladies).

Avalon
Resident DJ Nailz plays house, techno and trance, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Kevin Munroe spins house and trance, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Start! DJ Gibby spins alternative rock and '80s hits, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Dance Night DJ Rob Nockshis spins dance music all night, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. VJ Johnnie Walker presents top-40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows, 11 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
Masai-Latin International Lounge DJ Franklin creates a lounge atmosphere with his international, Latin and house sounds. Classy dress, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
The Let Down DJs Brian, Ken and Boothnavy, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Ekco Lounge
Hollywood It's women's night at Hollywood with two floors of hip-hop and house music, 10 pm, $8, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Roger M spins international house, 10:30 pm, $15, 19+.

Emily's
DJ Rennel spins top-40 dance tunes, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Exchange
DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Felt
DJ Ghost spins hip-hop and house, 9 pm, no cover

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins retro favorites, disco, Motown and the latest top-40, hip-hop and vocal house. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hannah's
Dance, house and top-40 hits from DJ Artie V, 21+.

The Harp
DJ Lou is downstairs and DJ Rowdy B is upstairs with hip-hop, R&B and top-40, $10, 21+. •Oct. 25, Peatmoss performs live.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis McCarthy cues up top-40, R&B and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren Drag spins dance, R&B and top-40, while downstairs DJ O'Toole plays top-40, 10 pm, 21+.

La Boom
Wild on @ La Boom DJ Tim Collins and KISS 108 host a night of music and dancing, 10 pm, 21+.

Level
•Red Square Russian Lounge DJ Albertik spins Russian and international music on the third floor, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+. •Suspended Saturdays DJ Peter D and DJ Rob D spin mainstream, vocal house, travel and funk music on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Matrix
DJ Pedro Gonzales plays high-energy house while the back room features dance favorites from the '80s and '90s and top-40 tunes, 9 pm, $10, $21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night. DJ Antonio Ortiz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 10 pm, $7.

The Modern
DJ Eddie Lee plays hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 19+.

The Palace
•Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dance music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Willie D. Proper dress. Ladies free, men $5 before 10:30 pm; $15, 18+; $10, 21+ after 10:30 pm. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8 pm, show runs 9 pm-1 am, $15, 19+; no cover 21+. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins top-40 and hip-hop mixes. Proper dress, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Underground DJs spin hip-hop, top-40, dance, techno and reggae for the under-21 crowd, 7-11 pm, $14. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+. •Uptown DJ Freddy C mixes up hits from the '70s, '80s and '90s. Proper dress, $15, 18+; no cover, 21+.

Parris
•Oct. 25, Steamroller Picnic performs, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins 80s, new wave and disco, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Pravda 116
DJ Rick Naples spins high-energy dance. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Tom Hogan spins the groove, 10 pm, $5, 21+. •Oct. 25, live music with Brick Park.

Q
DJ Josh Carl spins house, hip-hop, top-40 and R&B.

The Rack
Star 93.7's Vinny Peruzzi and DJ Littles host the dance party, 8 pm, 21+, no cover.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Make A Pass With An Ice Cold Coors Light Downstairs at

GRANITE

284 Newbury Street, Boston
617-266-3000

Three Flat Screen Plasma TVs
Covering All Your NFL Action.
Join Us For Appetizer Specials
All Day Sunday And Monday Nights.

Coors LIGHT

OFFICIAL BEER SPONSOR

NFL

IT'S ON!

21 MEANS 21

©2002 COORS BREWING COMPANY, GOLDEN, COLORADO 80401 • BEER • MEG0510
The NFL team helmet logos are registered trademarks of the team indicated.
The NFL Shield design is a registered trademark of the NFL.

I'm a NEAT FREAK and I like to TALK DIRTY"

It's amazing what you can learn in 3 minutes!

25 THREE-MINUTE DATES IN ONE NIGHT!

Wednesday Nights 7:00

at Bars & Lounges Around Boston!

Get $5 off your first HurryDate when you enter the code "HURRY"

— Check Out —

www.HurryDate.com

For a full event schedule & to RSVP!

The Roxy
The Roxy Goes Manhattan DJ Adilson spins house and techno at this Big Apple–themed night, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

711 Boylston
Fever DJ Yorgo spins a mix of ethnic and international music. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Upstairs: DJ Tom McKenna spins dance, 8 pm; Downstairs: Kevin Kirrane, 9 pm, no cover before 10 pm.

Sophia's
DJ Zino spins salsa and merengue while a Latin band plays on the first floor and DJ Edwin Matos spins Latin dance on the second floor, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins top-40 dance in the front room and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, 10 pm, 21+, $5.

The Sugar Shack
DJ B-Spin blends hip-hop and house, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Sweetwater Café
Top-40 and acoustic shows, two floors, 8 pm, $5, 21+.

SW1
DJ Bruno plays house and funk, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Ron Stell plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vivid Lounge
Brian Roache spins top-40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs Laze and Gabe play funk and top-40 all night. Proper dress, 10:30 pm, 21+.

SUNDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Adrienne spins Brit-pop and new wave tunes, 9 pm-1 am, $3, 19+.

Aria
DJ Roger M spins international house and Latin pop. Proper dress, 11pm, $15, 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ K-Don, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Felt
Play DJ Eddy K spins the tunes at service industry night. Proper dress, no cover.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Johan Van Cauwenberghe spins acid jazz. Casual dress, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
Fluid Sundays DJs Joshua Carl and Paul Dailey spin tribal and deep house, breaks, techno and jungle beats, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
DJs Doc and Kieran spin top-40, 11 pm, no cover.

La Boom
Futurebeat: Alien Disco DJ Addambombb spins a mix of retro progressive tracks, trip-hop and synth-pop, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Level
Rotating DJs spin Latin and international on the third floor and hip-hop, reggae R&B and house on the fourth and fifth floors, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Milky Way
Mystic Reggae DJ Junior Rodigan spins reggae, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump This house-music night has a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $3, 19+.

The Place
DJs spin top-40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pravda 116
Red Square Lounge The front bar becomes a lounge, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Massi tops the weekend off with an array of tunes, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Q
In the Biz Night DJ Johnny C spins top-40 hits.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins hip-hop and top-40, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Reverie Boston DJ Shannon and weekly guest DJs spin goth, industrial and lounge, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Dave Jordan plays an array of top-40 tunes; then check out Greg Lattrell, 9 pm, 21+.

Trio
Vibe Lounge DJs provide the vibe, 10 pm, 21+.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian night as DJ Leandro spins Brazilian beats, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and world beats. Proper dress, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Whiskey Park
Cherry DJ Ricky Fatts spins rock classics, hip-hop, house and R&B.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Bill's Bar 5 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Circuit Girl Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dad's 911 Boylston St., Boston (617-296-3237).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Ekco Lounge 41 Essex St., Boston (617-417-0186).
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Emily's 48 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
The Exchange 148 State St., Boston (617-726-7601).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Hannah's 499 Broadway, Somerville (617-623-5302).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-9082).
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
La Boom One Boylston Place, Boston (617-357-6800).
Level 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Matrix 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Palace (El Copa, Male Encounter, Officers' Club, Oxygen, Rio, Underground and Uptown) 1500 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
711 Boylston 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-7001).
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Sugar Shack 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Sweetwater Café 5 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-2515).
SW1 43 Winter St., Boston (617-423-3649).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-6699).
Trio 174 Lincoln St., Boston (617-357-8746).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Vivid Lounge 148 State St., Boston (617-726-7600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

AQUA

bar • grill • music

Boston's newest place to be seen
is now open in the financial district.

Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita on our roof deck or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV, Aqua has what you're looking for.

Perfect spot for holiday, corporate, and private parties.
Call to book your events now!

Open for lunch and dinner daily.

Aqua is perfect for after work or late night with our resident and guest DJ's spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

120 WATER STREET BOSTON

617.720.4900

www.aquaboston.com

THE BLACK RHINO

The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club
is located just one block from Faneuil Hall at 21 Broad Street in the heart of the Financial District.

Now booking holiday, corporate and social functions.
Call to arrange your events now!

617-263-0101
21 BROAD STREET
BOSTON, MA 02109
www.theblackrhino.com

art

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Arts. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Arthur M. Sackler Museum

Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •Medardo Rosso: Second Impressions, a collection of the sculptor's work, shows through Oct. 26. •Where Traditions Meet: Paintings in India from the 14th Century shows through Dec. 7. •Buddhist Art: The Later Tradition shows through Jan. 4, 2004.

Boston Public Library

666 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun. 1-5 pm. •Fashion Week 2003 is an exhibition detailing historical women's wear for the workforce. Through Oct. 31. •Photographer's View of the Art of Teaching Musicians features the work of Diane Griliches. Through Oct. 31.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park

51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. •Debra Weisberg: (Sub)Surface features an architectural installation along a 40-foot elevator shaft. Through Jan. 2004. •Gifts from Stephen and Sybil Stone, an exhibition of more than 150 paintings, drawings, prints and sculptures from the Stones' collection, shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Ron Kuivila: An Outgoing Message is a sound-art exhibition of dial tones, busy signals and rings from telephone systems. Through Jan. 18, 2004. •Puppets, Ghosts, and Zombies: The Sculpture of Pat Keck shows through Jan. 18, 2004. •Joseph Wheelwright: Stone Heads and Tree Figures, a sculpture exhibition, shows through May 16, 2004. •Landscapes Seen and Imagined: Sense of Place, Part II features paintings by various artists. Through summer 2004.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum

32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sat., 10 am-12 pm. •Before Expressionism: Art in Germany circa 1903 features drawings, prints and paintings from German avant garde artists. Oct. 24-Feb. 15, 2004. •George Bellows: The Tragedies of War displays through Oct. 26. •Marcel Breuer: A Special Installation of 1930s Furniture shows through Nov. 2. •The City of Sardis: Approaches in Graphic Recording displays through Nov. 16. •Harvard Collects American Art shows through Feb. 22, 2004.

Harvard Museum of Natural History

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, $5 students and seniors; free Sun., 9 am-12 pm. •Into the Mountains features the photography of mountaineer Bradford Washburn. Through spring 2004. •The Glass Flowers features the Ware Collection of glass models of plants, including more than 830 plant species by glass artists Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka. Ongoing. •Romancing the Stone: The Many Facets of Tourmaline showcases the museum's collection of fine jewelry and rough tourmalines. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art

955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat. and Sun., 11 am-5 pm. Free admission Thu. after 5 pm. $7, $5 students and seniors. •Douglas R. Weathersby: 2003 ICA Artist Prize shows temporary installations that Weathersby created while cleaning at the ICA. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Splat Boom Pow! The Influence of Cartoons in Contemporary Art features more than 60 multimedia works that examine the influence of cartoons on contemporary art. Through Jan. 4, 2004.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, $7 seniors, $5 students, free for those under 18. Guided tour Fridays, 2:30 pm. •Raphael, Cellini, and a Renaissance Banker: The Patronage of Bindo Altoviti features a painting by Raphael, sculpture by Cellini and busts of Cosimo de'Medici and Altoviti. Through Jan. 11, 2004. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, furniture, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces, including works by Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Raphael, Botticelli and Degas. •Elaine Reichek's embroideries, which depict Biblical images borrowed from Dürer, Michelangelo and other artists, display online in the virtual exhibition Madam I'm Adam. Ongoing.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). www.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri. 10 am-5 pm; weekends 12-5 pm. $5, $3 students and seniors, $1 children. •Winning Hand: Images from the MIT Radiation Laboratory Negative Collection displays through Nov. 2. •The ZENetic Computer: The Work of Naoko Tosa and Seigo Matsuoka is an interactive exhibition that combines Buddhist principles, Asian philosophy, and traditional Japanese culture. Oct. 24-Nov. 13. •Knowing Where to Stand: Photographs by Anne Whiston Spirn shows 50 color landscapes. Through Jan. 30, 2004. •The interactive exhibit Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT is ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers explores student life and learning over the past 150 years. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic displays selections from the world's largest hologram collection. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm; Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the West Wing is open. $15 adults, $13 students and seniors, free for children 17 and under. Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, admission is reduced by $2. Wed., 4-9:45 pm, admission is free. Special exhibitions are an additional cost. •John Currin Selects, an exhibition assembled by the MFA's associate curator, displays works from the museum's collection. Through Jan. 4, 2004. •Rembrandt's Journey: Painter/Draftsman/Etcher is a comprehensive exhibition of more than 200 of Rembrandt's works. Oct. 26-Jan. 18, 2004. •Works by French printmaker Jacques Callot and artists that he influenced show in Callot and His World: Princes, Paupers and Pageants. Through Jan. 25, 2004. •More than 200 jades dating from the Neolithic period to the Qing Dynasty display in Chinese Jades from the Hartman Collection. Through Aug. 2004. •18th Century French Royal Furniture from the Swan Collection features the only complete set of 18th-century French royal furniture in the United States. Ongoing. •Arts of the Colonial Americas displays historical American masterpieces. Ongoing.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13 adults, $11 seniors, $10 children. •Canstruction features 21 cubic structures items designed by architects, engineers and students and made out of nonperishable food. Through Nov. 7. •Magic: The Science of Illusion is an interactive exhibition focusing on mind reading, levitation, transformation, and the disembodied head. Through Feb. 22, 2004. •A Bird's World explores the behavior and calls of birds in the wild. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of computers from the electronic giants of the 1940s to today's smallest laptops. Ongoing. •Dinosaurs: Modeling the Mesozoic showcases the museum's collection of dinosaur models, including the giant T. rex. Ongoing. •Making Models, an interactive exhibition, features models of a wave tank, Mount Everest and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Children's Favorites: Candy-Filled Glass Toys shows through Nov. 16. •Close-up in Black: African American Film Posters features 90 posters that chronicle black film history. Nov. 1-Jan. 4, 2004. •Generals, Admirals, and American War Leaders, an exhibition of personal and official autographs from famous American leaders, shows through Jan. 11, 2004 •Coming Up on the Season: Migrant Farmworkers in the Northeast traces the lives of the workers who harvest produce in the Northeast. Through Feb. 1, 2004. •The Enchanted Clocks of George McFadden is ongoing. •Lexington Alarm'd is an exhibition of 18th-century local history. Ongoing. •Made in Massachusetts features household objects from the past three centuries. Ongoing. •To Build and Sustain: Freemasons in American Community is ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. Sun.-Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-9 pm. Adults $12, seniors $10, students $8; children 16 and under and residents of Salem free. •Uncommon Legacies features more than a hundred 18th- and 19th-century Native American works. Through Dec. 13. •Vanished Kingdoms: The Wulsin Photographs of China, Tibet, and Mongolia 1921-1925, an exhibition of color images taken by American explorers Janet E. and Frederick R. Wulsin, shows through Feb. 29, 2004. •Under the Imperial Gaze features two large-scale Chinese scrolls. Through May 2, 2004. •Men Plow, Women Weave displays images of weaving and plowing by Chinese artists. Through May 30, 2004.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50 adults, $6 seniors and students, $5 children •Dia de los Muertos: The Day of the Dead features Aztec art and objects from the Alice Melvin Mexican folk art collection. Nov. 1-30, Sat. and Sun, 10 am-4 pm.•Portraits from China, 1923-1946: Photographers and Their Subjects features the work of Hedda Morrison, Owen Lattimore and Frederick Wulsin. Through Jan. 15, 2004. •These Shoes Were Made for...Walking?, a collection of 49 pairs of shoes from ancient to contemporary times, shows through Feb., 2004. •Painted by a Distant Hand: Mimbres Pottery from the American Southwest features artifacts from New Mexico's Swarts Ranch Ruin. Through Dec. 2004. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monuments features the museum's large Mesoamerican cast collection. Ongoing. •Encounters with the Americas is an ongoing exhibition featuring original sculpture and plaster casts of Mesoamerican cultures. •Hall of the North American Indian: Change and Continuity features art depicting the response of Native Americans across the continent to the arrival of Europeans. Ongoing. •Pacific Islands Hall, another ongoing exhibition, displays artifacts from the Pacific Islands.

Somerville Museum

One Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.losttheatres.org. Thu., 2-7 pm; Fri., 2-5 pm and Sat., 12-5 pm. •The Lost Theatres of Somerville combines oral histories, photographs, memorabilia and interactive media to explore the rise and fall of Somerville's 14 historic movie theaters, only one of which operates today. Through March 28, 2004.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Lillian Orlowsky shows her abstract work in The Fifties. Through Nov. 15.

Alianza Gallery

154 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-2385). www.alianzagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Clockwork shows sculptural clocks by 12 artists. Through Nov.

Alpha Gallery

14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Wlodzimierz Ksiazek displays large-scale abstract paintings. Through Oct. 2 •Anne Neely shows abstract paintings. Nov. 1-Dec.

Arden Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Lynda Lowe displays mixed-media works on wooden panels in New Paintings. Through Oct. 30. •John Stockwell shows paintings in New Landscapes. Nov. 3-29.

Barbara Krakow Gallery

10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Michael Beatty's Low Fat, a show of minimalist sculpture, displays through Oct. 22. •Jennifer Barlett shows

Preview

Rembrandt Roundup

The MFA surveys the artist's repertoire in a rare retrospective exhibition including lesser-known works

Rembrandt's oil painting The Visitation displays at the Museum of Fine Arts through Jan. 18, 2004.

No matter what the medium, an artist's work changes over time. Just as the Beatles' A Hard Day's Night is vastly different from the White Album, Rembrandt's early self-portraits are leagues apart from his late landscapes. But unlike music lovers who can track an artist's career by visiting a music store, an art aficionado who wants to view a master's evolution might need to visit museums around the world. The Museum of Fine Arts' newest exhibition, Rembrandt's Journey: Painter/Draftsman/Etcher, opens Oct. 26 and offers the Dutch artist's admirers the rare opportunity to view a wide range of his work under one roof. For the first American Rembrandt exhibition in decades, the MFA and the Art Institute of Chicago have gathered 20 paintings, 35 drawings and 150 etchings from collections around the world to examine the range of the 17th-century artist's career. Highlights include the first-state print Christ Preaching, the drypoint Christ Crucified, the painting Rest on the Flight to Egypt, and many early and late self-portraits, nudes and landscapes. "By bringing together works that have never before been seen together, this exhibition allows visitors to enter into Rembrandt's unique world," says exhibition curator Clifford Ackley. Most compelling may be the etchings, including tiny, emotive self-portraits. "Rembrandt was the most experimental etcher of his time," says Ackley.

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-542-4632). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 26–Jan. 18, 2004. $22 adults, $20 seniors and students, $7.50 ages 7-17.—Jessica Iredale

THE BARKING CRAB
RESTAURANT

SEASIDE SUNDAY BRUNCH
FEATURING LIVE MUSIC

Live Music
Wednesday, Thursday &
Sunday Nights

New Seasonal Beers on Tap

Serving Lunch &
Dinner Daily

Open All Year Round

On Boston Harbor
88 Sleeper Street, Boston
617.426.CRAB

Experience a true Greek cuisine

Live entertainment
Friday, Saturday and Sunday

777 Memorial Drive, Cambridge
Overlooking the Charles River
Open 7 nights a week • 617.661.6800

DIONYSOS

Fine Greek Cuisine

BAMBARA

Breakfast • Lunch • Dinner • Private Dining
Global Wines • Creative Cocktails

[illegible] Edwin Land Blvd, Cambridge • 617.868.4444
www.bambara-cambridge.com

work in Print Publisher's Spotlight: Brand X Projects. Through Oct. 22. •Generic Space(s) features paintings, drawings and prints by Mel Bochner. Oct. 25-Dec. 10. •Print Publisher's Spotlight: Edition Schellmann, a group show, displays Oct. 25-Dec. 10.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Shining Stars: Celebrating 30 Years of Gateway Arts showcases 30 years of 20 artists' work. Through Nov. 1.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Preview/Review, a group show by David Hilliard, Jocelyn Lee, Abelardo Morell, Deborah Bright, Virginia Beahan, and Laura McPhee, shows through Nov. 9.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410) www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thurs.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Homemade: Images of Home (Architectural, Domestic, and Historical), a group show of photography, sculpture, painting and mixed-media work, displays through Oct. 25. •

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4 pm. •100 Weaves of India displays through Nov. 17.

Chappell Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-2255). www.chappellgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Kathleen Holmes: Something to Say in Glass shows through Nov. 11.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •Danna Ruth Harvey shows paintings in Time and Other Times. Through Oct. 28. •Joe Piccillo shows sketches of horses in New Work. Oct. 30-Nov. 30.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA:Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm.

Picasso's Faunes Et Chévre is available at the New England Print Fair.

•Florence Robinson in Italy (paintings), Prints of the Roman High Renaissance and The Power of Myth (sculptures, lithographs, paintings and engravings) show through Nov. 16.

Clifford-Smith Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Suite 300, Boston (617-695-0255). www.cliffordsmithgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Marco Breuer shows color photographs. Through Oct. 25.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Suzanne Ulrich: An Invitational Exhibition shows Oct. 23-Nov. 15. •Maloney & Sons: William, Paul and Robert shows Oct. 23-Nov. 15.

Crump Gallery
622 East Broadway, Boston (617-268-8050). MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •An exhibition of works by Jeff Eldredge, Dan McCole and Norman Crump is ongoing.

Eclipse Gallery
164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •Gretje Ferguson's black-and-white photography shows through Nov. 1.

Equator Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4110). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. www.equatorgallery.com. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The gallery specializes in Latin American fine art, including paintings, textiles and ceramics.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-3 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. •Open Studios Group Show features works in all media. Through Nov. 9.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •An ongoing exhibition of paintings, sculpture and fine prints from the 15th to 20th centuries focuses on Rembrandt, Pissarro, Renoir, Picasso, Matisse and Chagall.

Gallery AA/B
535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617- 574 -0022). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.,12-6 pm; Fri., 11 am-3 pm •Mark Vonnegut, son of author Kurt Vonnegut, shows recent paintings. Through Oct. 31.

The Gallery at Black and White
295 Huntington Ave., Suite 205 (617-266-2641). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony or Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Mon.-Fri.-10 am-5 pm. •Photographs from the gallery's collection show through Nov. 16.

Gallery Katz
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.gallerykatz.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •David Scanavino shows his paintings in Balloons. Through Nov. 1.

Genovese/Sullivan Gallery
23 Thayer St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-426-9738). Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Craig Stockwell shows new paintings in Monogamy and Painting. Through Nov. 4.

Haley & Steele
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6339). www.haleysteele.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •The gallery displays 18th- and 19th-century antique prints. Ongoing. •Ronalee Crocker shows recent oil paintings. Oct. 24-Nov. 20.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Catherine McCarthy shows new paintings in We Walk on Jewels. Through Nov. 4.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www.internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection showcases a variety of vintage posters.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Emotional Moves, a video installation by Bebe Beard, shows through Oct. 25. •Icons: Jankowski and Amadeo-Holl features paintings by Zygmund Jankowski and Jennifer Amadeo-Holl. Through Oct. 26. •David Kupferman shows paintings. Oct. 30-Nov. 29.

Kaji Aso Studio
40 St. Stephen St., Boston (617-247-1719). www.kajiasostudio.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Tue. and Thu., 4:30-6:30 pm; Sat., 3-5 pm and by appointment. •Art on Paper shows the work of Haruko Cho. Through Oct. 24.

Kathryn Schultz Gallery
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, Sun., 1-5 pm. •Pushing the Envelope, a juried exhibition, shows through Oct. 30.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Cheryl Goldsleger shows architecturally based encaustic work. Through Nov. 1. •Graham Gillmore shows paintings in New Work. Nov. 4-29 .

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Elif Soyer shows paintings in Flowers and Germs. Through Nov. 1.

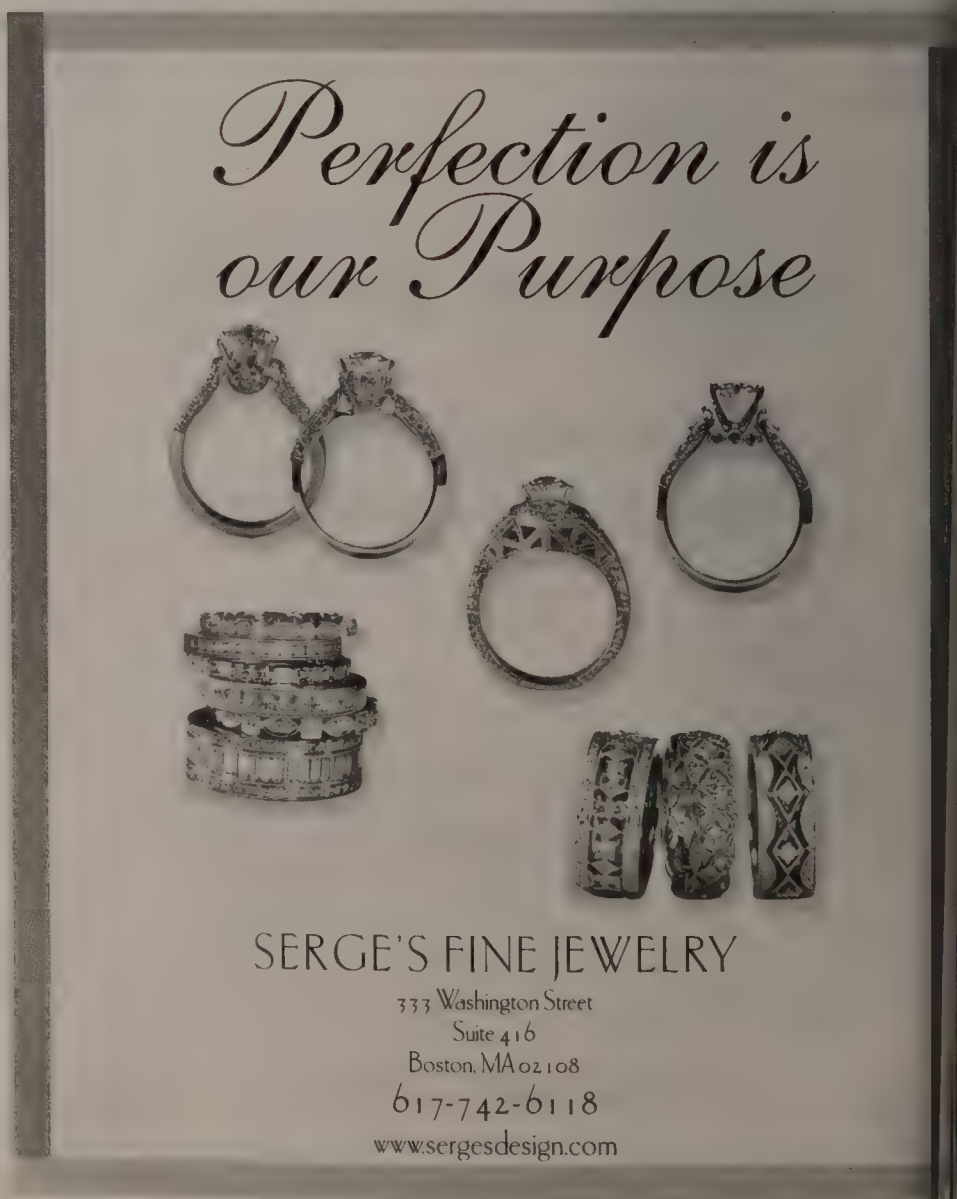
L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun.



Open for lunch & dinner
Late night bar menu
Thurs. - Sat. nights

Check Out Our SUNDAY
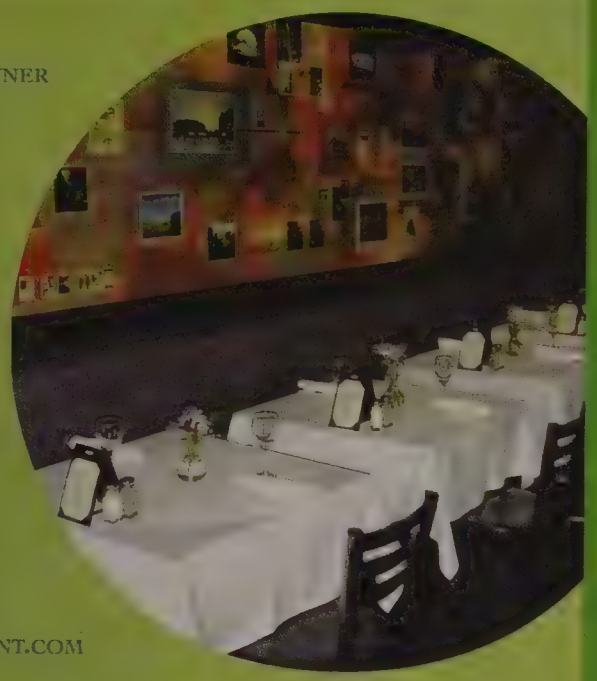
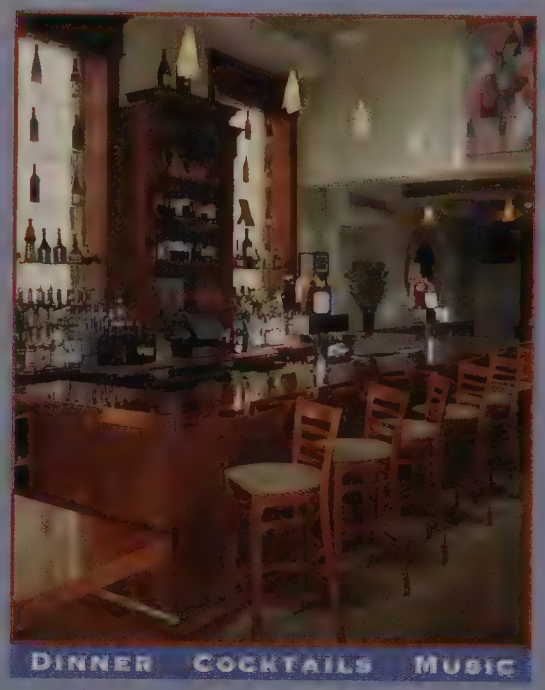
BRUNCH



65 Holland St.
Davis Square
Somerville
Parking available
P: 617-591-2100
F: 617-591-0166
www.orleansrestaurant.com

Orleans
Bar & Restaurant

Great Food
&
Amazing Cocktails



Devlin's
Bar & Bistro

FEATURING OUR NEW FALL MENU
Kitchen open until midnight, 7 days
332 Washington Street, Brighton • Parking Available
P: 617-779-8822 • F: 617-779-0028 • www.edevlins.com

L'ESPALIER

Come in and enjoy our popular
Wine Mondays
and Cheese Tuesdays
at L'Espalier

Also open for afternoon tea

30 Gloucester Street
Boston, MA 02115
www.lespalier.com
617.262.3023

Pane. Amore. Fantasia.
Boutique Italian cuisine

"...Boston's best Italian restaurant." - Travel & Leisure
"...one of the top 10 Italian restaurants in the country." - Bon Appetit

Bricco

241 Hanover St. • 617.248.6800 • www.bricco.com
Dinner seven nights - Complimentary Valet

12-5 pm. •Duet: Harmony in Oil and Bronze features the abstract oil paintings and bronze sculptures of Tom and Carol Odell. Through Nov. 6.

Mark Gallery
141 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6275). www.markartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Thu.,4-7 pm; Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 12-5; and by appointment. •Juan Jose Barboza Gubo and Bobbi Kovner show their work in Visions, Views and Vistas. Through Nov. 14.

Martin Lawrence Gallery
77 Newbury St., Boston (617-369-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. www.martinlawrence.com. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. •The gallery's ongoing exhibition includes works by Chagall, Erté, Hallam, Kondakova, Lichtenstein, Picasso and Warhol.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Philip Jones: Boston, a photography exhibition, shows through Nov. 5.

Miller Block Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4650). www.millerblockgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10:30-5:30 pm. •Joe Kievitt: Recent Drawings shows through Nov. 12

Mills Gallery
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-7700). MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Wed. and Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri. and Sat., 12-10 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •What If?, a group exhibition of video, installations, glasswork, paintings and sculpture, shows through Nov. 30.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Botanical Jewelry, a group exhibition, shows through Nov. 1.

NAO Project Gallery
535 Albany St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-451-2977). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Copley. Wed., Fri. and Sat., 11-4 and by appointment. •Juan Perdiguero shows mixed-media-on-photo-emulsion works. Through Oct. 25.

New Art on Newbury
285 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7727). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Find the Next Francis Bacon for Not a Lot of Bread, a group show of 20 local artists, displays through Nov. 9.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Artists Without Borders displays Oct. 25-Nov. 29.

108
108 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-3833). www.gallery108.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard or Porter. Tue.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm; Sun. by appointment. •Melissa Davenport, Carly Weaver and Mary Kenny show paintings and sculpture. Through Nov. 2.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., #304, Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11am-5 pm. •A group show of work featured in the 2003 New American Paintings MFA Annual is on display through Nov. 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •A local-artists showcase is ongoing.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.pepper galleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Phyllis Berman: Paintings shows through Nov. 15.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Mark Davis shows metal work in New Work, and Zevi Blum shows etchings in Artistic Equilibrium. Through Nov. 10.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •The gallery has an ongoing exhibition of 19th- and 20th-century American and European paintings.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Photography by Aaron Siskind and Carl Chiarenza displays through Nov. 15.

Rolly-Michaux Galleries
290 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-536-9898). Tue.-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Free. •Robert Sweeney: The Italian Campaign II features recent paintings and pastels of Tuscany. Through Oct. 31. •

The Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Words Text Stories, a group show of glass, wood, clay and fiber, shows through Oct. 26. •Domesticated Animals, a group show of mixed-media, displays Nov. 1-Jan. 18.

Soprafina Gallery
99 Beacon St., Somerville (617-498-0999). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sat., 12-6 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Claudia Goulette shows ink on paper and Robert Markey shows paintings and drawings in Personal-Universal. Through Nov. 2

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm; Mon. by appointment. •Kaleidoscope, a group show of paintings by William St. George, Anne Grandin, Sandra Mueller-Dick, Christina Keating and Judy St. Peter, shows through Oct. 31.

Upstairs at Johnson's Art Gallery
355 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4065). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-5:30 pm.; Sat., 10 am-1 pm. •Elusive Form features paintings and sculpture by Amanda Annis, Virginia Peck, and Guillermo Velasco. Through Oct. 27.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
59 Beacon St., Boston (617-523-0661). www.munroefineart.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park Street. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Susan Walt shows drawings. Through Nov. 15.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 8:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •David Brega shows contemporary works. Through Nov. 15

Wentworth Gallery
73 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-8770). www.wentworthgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •The gallery's collection shows through November.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. •Mustang: The Lost Tibetan Kingdom shows images by Don Gurewitz. Through Oct. 31. •Jan Staller: A Retrospective shows through Nov. 28.

New England School of Photography
Gallery One, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. •Ruth S. Nickse Memorial Photographic Exhibit shows through Dec. 5.

Panopticon Gallery
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). Commuter Rail to Waltham. www.panopt.com. Mon.-Fri. 10 am-6 pm. •B.A. King shows his work in About Children. Through Oct. 25. •A Music Show, photographs by Ron Pownall and Herb Greene, displays through Nov. 3-Jan. 3, 2004.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Dorchester Open Studios
(617-822-8205). MBTA: Red Line to Fields Corner. www.dorchesterartists.org. Oct. 25, 11 am-5 pm. •Dorchester Arts Collaborative presents Dorchester Open Studios, a showcase of the work of community artists throughout the neighborhood.

5th Annual New England Print Fair
Hynes Convention Center, 900 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-6540). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. www.newenglandprintfair.com. Oct. 31, 5-9 pm; Nov. 1, 12-7 pm; Nov. 2, 12-4 pm. $8-$15. •More than 30 international art dealers display and sell prints, drawings and photographs from the Renaissance to the 1950s.

South Boston Open Studios
(617-464-3561). MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. www.artistsfoundation.org. Nov. 1 and 2, 12 pm. •South Boston artists showcase their work at four sites throughout the neighborhood.

Before and After Mystic Tan®

MYSTIC TAN®
UV-Free Tanning!

TanningEtc.
suntanning center

485 Commonwealth Avenue
[on the Green line at Kenmore]

617-267-7744

SCULLERS JAZZ CLUB
VOTED BOSTON'S #1 JAZZ CLUB!

Weds-Thurs, Oct. 22-23
CYRUS CHESTNUT TRIO

Fri-Sat, Oct. 24-25
NICHOLAS PEYTON SONIC TRANCE
This world class trumpeter and composer brings in his hot new group which blends some groove with straight-ahead in support of his new Warner CD "Sonic Trance".

Tues, Oct. 28
GREG ABATE
Greg comes in with his powerful group consisting of Hilton Ruiz on piano, Harvie S on bass and Tony Reedus on drums.

Weds, Oct. 29
HABANA SAX
This incredible group makes their first Boston appearance. In addition to their musical wizardry, they also do choreography while playing.

Thurs-Fri, Oct. 30-31
LAVAY SMITH AND HER RED HOT SKILLET LICKERS
This saucy vocalist with her eight piece band delivers a great Kansas City style of jump, swing and R&B. They've become real favorites around here — you can join the crowd.

Sat, Nov. 1
LIVINGSTON TAYLOR

Tues, Nov. 4
FOLLEN ANGELS

Special Dinner/Show Packages
A 3-course gourmet dinner in the Boathouse Grille ... plus preferred seating the Club.

Overnight Packages

Terrace Lounge
With TV, snack menu, and fine beverages. The perfect meeting spot.

In-Club Snack Menu
A variety of tasty favorites.

RESERVATIONS: (617) 562-4111 • ON-LINE TICKETING: www.scullersjazz.com
SHOW TIMES: Tu-Thu 8 & 10 pm • Fri-Sat 8 & 10:30 pm

DOUBLETREE GUEST SUITES
(617) 783-0090 • Storrow Drive & the Mass Pike Exit

Traditional & Contemporary Greek Cuisine

MEZE

ESTIATORIO

Available for private functions and holiday parties

100 City Square, Charlestown
617.242.MEZE (6393)
www.mezeboston.com

"It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." –Bon Appétit

Prepare to be amazed. The food really is this good—contemporary grilled cuisine with honest flavors and refreshing combinations. The surroundings really are this gorgeous—copper lanterns, amber glass and whimsical murals. And the reasonable prices? Shocking! We amazed Bon Appétit...and now we want to amaze you. Join us for lunch, dinner, weekend dining and Sunday brunch.

Sidney's GRILLE

fresh flavors • good friends • great bar contemporary american grill / 20 sidney street, cambridge central square / (617) 494-0011 / sidneysgrille.com

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

$0

NO INITIATION FEE*
Through October 2003!

*Offer valid with 12-month automatic billing membership only, not available at Chestnut Hill location

www.healthworksfitness.com

BACK BAY/COPLEY 617 859 7700
BROOKLINE 617 731 3030
CAMBRIDGE 617 497 4454
SALEM, MA 978 745 7390
CHESTNUT HILL 617 383 6100

Opening in Chestnut Hill November 2003!
Special pre-sale membersip rates available - 617-383-6100

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry or e-mail to books @improper.com. Deadline is at least four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Joan Leegant discusses An Hour in Paradise, her collection of short stories that deal with contemporary Jewish life.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Jessica Hagedorn reads from her novel Dream Jungle, about two seemingly unrelated events: the discovery of a lost Filipino tribe and the filming of a movie in a Philippine rain forest. Also, Robin Hemley reads from his book Invented Eden, an account of the 1971 discovery of the Filipino Tasaday tribe, which was later reported to be a hoax.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Katharine Weber reads from her novel The Little Women, a contemporary story based on Louisa May Alcott's book about three sisters.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Heidi Schmidt reads from her novel, The Bride of Catastrophe, about a woman whose dysfunctional family gets in the way of her search for a new identity. Also, Dan Pope reads from his novel, In the Cherry Tree, about a boy whose adolescence ends over the course of one summer.

WordsWorth Books
The Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge (617-864-1200). www.charleshotel.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David Guterson reads from his novel Our Lady of the Forest, about a poor mushroom picker who claims to have a vision of the Virgin Mary.

THURSDAY, OCT. 23

Authors @ MIT
MIT Building E25, Room 111, 45 Carleton St., Cambridge (617-253-5249). web.mit.edu/bookstore/www/events. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 6:30 pm. Free. Lester Thurow reads from his book Fortune Favors the Bold, a look at how the globalization process could be changed to reduce some of the world's inequalities.

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Jon Papernick reads from The Ascent of Eli Israel and Other Stories, his collection of stories inspired by his experiences as a reporter in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Cambridge Public Library
449 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4040). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Edward Humes reads from his new book, School of Dreams: Making the Grade at a Top American High School, an account of Humes' experience as a teacher at a California public high school.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Lois Banner reads from her book Intertwined Lives: Margaret Mead, Ruth Benedict and Their Circle, a joint biography of the influential anthropologists Mead and Benedict.

FRIDAY, OCT. 24

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Harvard professor Susan Suleiman reads from the anthology she edited, Contemporary Jewish Writing in Hungary, which includes excerpts by 24 Hungarian writers about what it means to be Jewish in post-Holocaust Eastern Europe.

Dan Pope reads from his novel Oct. 22

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Newsday reporter Thomas Maier discusses his book The Kennedys: America's Emerald Kings, a look at the family's Irish roots and its relationship with the Roman Catholic Church.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Ethan Paquin and Lori Lubeski read from their work.

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Ayelet Waldman reads from her new novel, Daughter's Keeper, about a young woman who battles the legal system when she is arrested in a drug crime.

SUNDAY, OCT. 26

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Wanda Phipps, Joel Sloman and Christina Strong read from their work.

MONDAY, OCT. 27

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle Square, Cambridge (617-547-6789, ext. 1). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Glyn Maxwell reads from his new poetry collection, The Nerve, and Katia Kapovich reads from her new novel written in verse, Suflior.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Francis Bok discusses his memoir Escape From Slavery: The True Story of My Ten Years in Captivity–and My Journey to Freedom in America, about being taken from his home in Sudan and enslaved by Muslim farmers for 10 years before escaping.

TUESDAY, OCT. 28

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Boston University professor Lance Morrow discusses his book Evil: An Investigation, in which he examines the concept of evil through topics like Sept. 11 and the Holocaust.

Borders Chestnut Hill
300 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill (617-630-1120). www.borders.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill. 7:30 pm. Free. Victoria Zackheim reads from her novel, The Bone Weaver, about a woman who explores her Jewish identity and deals with the death of her friend.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Emily Franklin reads from her debut novel, Liner Notes, about a young woman who inadvertently goes on a road trip with her mother. Also, Lisa Dierbeck reads from her novel, One Pill Makes You Smaller, a story about a girl's summer experiences with sex and drugs at camp.

Cambridge Public Library
449 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4040). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Vogue magazine food writer Jeffrey Steingarten discusses his new book, It Must've Been Something I Ate, a collection of his essays about food.

Harvard Book Store
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Nobel Prize winner Joseph Stiglitz reads from his book The Roaring Nineties: A New History of the World's Most Prosperous Decade, a look at the factors that led one of the greatest economic expansions in history to collapse.

Harvard Graduate School of Education
Askwith Lecture Hall, Longfellow Hall, Harvard University, Cambridge (617-495-0740). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Sara Lawrence-Lightfoot speaks about her new book, Essential Conversation: What Parents and Teachers Can Learn from Each Other, an examination of the parent/teacher relationship.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-552-7145). 7:30 pm. Free. MIT professor Alan Lightman reads from his novel Reunion, about a divorced college professor who attends his 30th college reunion and is confronted with memories of his youth.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Mass. College of Art professor Ted Richer discusses his collection of vignettes, The Writer in the Story and Other Figurations, monologues and dialogues that center on the theme of love.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. Free. Singer Judy Collins reads from her new memoir, Sanity and Grace.

Cambridge Forum
3 Church St., Cambridge (617-495-2727). www.cambridgeforum.org. 7:30 pm. Free. Doctors Lauren Slater and Jessica Henderson Daniel read from and discuss the book they edited, The Complete Guide to Mental Health for Women, in which more than 50 experts provide information on a range of women's mental health issues.

Harvard Book Store
Faneuil Hall, Great Hall, Government Center, Boston (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Government Center. 6 pm. Free. Toni Morrison reads from her new novel, Love, about a deceased proprietor of a once thriving African-American hotel, his widow and his granddaughter.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/ harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Heidi Schmidt discusses her novel, The Bride of Catastrophe. See Oct. 22 Newtonville Books for description.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Edward Jones reads from his novel The Known World, about a former slave who goes on to own a plantation and slaves.

Old South Church
645 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1970). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Local author James Carroll reads from his new novel, Secret Father, about three students in Berlin during the summer of 1961.

Toni Morrison reads Oct. 29.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Didi Emmons discusses her cookbook Entertaining for a Veggie Planet: 250 Down-to-Earth Recipes, a collection of new vegetarian recipes.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30

Arlington Center for the Arts
41 Foster St., Arlington (781-648-6220). www.acarts.org. 7:30pm. Free. Adam Patcher, winner of the IMPROPER'S 2001 fiction contest, reads from his short story collection, Ash. Also, Christopher Castellani reads from his novel, A Kiss from Maddalena, about a young Italian boy courting a girl during World War II.

Boston Public Library
900 St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Nikki Giovanni reads from her collection of poetry, Quilting the Black Eyed Pea.

Harvard Book Store
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Jonathan Lethem reads from his novel The Fortress of Solitude, about two motherless boys growing up in 1970s Brooklyn.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Richard Sobel discusses the book he edited, International Public Opinion and the Bosnia Crisis, a collection of public opinion essays from writers during the war in Bosnia.

Schoenhof's Foreign Books
76A Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-8855). www.schoenhofs.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Local author Daniele Lévy Alvarèz reads in French from her spiritual memoir La Réparation.

WordsWorth Books
The Charles Hotel, One Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Stuart Sheppard reads from his novel, Spindrift, about a man who quits his job as a stockbroker to work as a lobster cook on Nantucket.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Brett Fromson reads from his book Hitting the Jackpot: The Inside Story of the Richest Indian Tribe in History, the story of the events that brought the first casino to Connecticut.

FRIDAY, OCT. 31

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Mark Oppenheimer reads from his book Knocking on Heaven's Door: American Religion in the Age of Counterculture, which explores how 1960s radical groups influenced the religious beliefs of mainstream people.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.bkstore.com/harvard. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Michael Wood reads from his book Shakespeare, which contains new ideas about the Bard, faith, work and attitudes toward sex.

WordsWorth Books
30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). www.wordsworth.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Sean Cole and David Kirschenbaum read from their work.

SATURDAY, NOV. 1

Paradise Lounge
969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8804). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant Street. 6 pm. $7. Cover Cover, the Saturday Night Fever edition, featuring Andre Dubus III reading a classic story by his father, and Junot Diaz reading a Denis Johnson short story. Performances follow by musicians Blake Hazard and Merrie Amsterburg who perform covers of their favorite '70s hits. Local author Tom Perrotta hosts and Steve Almond D

MONDAY, NOV. 3

Barnes and Noble at BU
Level 5 Reading Room, 660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 5 pm. Free. Elie Wiesel signs copies of his new book, Wise Men and Their Tales: Portraits of Biblical, Talmudic

When your re-gifting well has run dry,
Give the gift that keeps on giving all year round.

A subscription to
The Improper Bostonian
Magazine.

You can't read just one.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!

617-859-1400
or subscribe online @
www.improper.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

tonic

THE MET LOUNGE

BRUNCH
& BLOODY'S

A Unique Brunch Experience

FEATURING:

Fresh Berry Pancakes • Mouth Watering Fruit
Cereal, Yogurt, Bagels, Muffins • Omelette Station
Delectable Hot Breakfast Dishes • Smoked Salmon
A Wide Selection of Salads • Grilled Vegetables
Fresh Seafood • Carving Station

AND SWEET ENDINGS:

A Table Of Tempting Desserts By Our New Pastry Chef

ALL-YOU-CAN-EAT-FOR- $14.95

TRY OUR BLOODY MARY BAR

Where You Can Choose From Over
20 Mixes, Condiments and Flavored Hot Sauces
To Create Your Own Perfect Drink

1316 Commonwealth Avenue
Brighton 617-566-6699 www.tonicbar.com

Hasidic Masters, a look at the lives of prominent Biblical figures, religious scholars and rabbis.

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle Square, Cambridge (617-547-6789, ext. 1). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Rosamond Purcell reads from her poetry collection, Owl's Head. Also, Shona Ramaya discusses her book Operation Monsoon, a collection of short stories that look at the tradition and modernity in present-day India.

Harvard Book Store
Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free with ticket. Paul Johnson reads from his book Art: A New History.

TUESDAY, NOV. 4

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7pm. Free. James Zug reads from his book, Squash: A History of the Game, which gives a detailed history of the game and parallels that history with American social movements.

Harvard Book Store
Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6pm. Free with ticket. Thomas Cahill reads from his book Sailing the Wine-Dark Sea: Why the Greeks Matter, which focuses on six archetypal figures, including Odysseus, Sophocles, Plato and Aristotle.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Karen Propp reads from her memoir, In Sickness and in Health: A Love Story, about her husband's struggle with prostate cancer. Also, Jean Troustine reads from Almost Home Free, her collection of poems about dealing with cancer.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Boston Jewish Book Fair
(617-558-6442). www.lsjcc.org. Nov. 4-Dec. 19. Call for location, time and prices. Prominent Jewish authors, including Anita Diamant, Leslie Epstein and Robert Reich read and discuss their work.

Ongoing

Boston Poetry Slam (Wednesdays)
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $3. Every Wednesday night, the Cantab Lounge hosts a poetry slam downstairs in the Third Rail.

Harvard Square Coop (Sundays)
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Hear what other Boston-area poets are doing; every Sunday the Harvard Coop hosts a poetry exchange on Level Two.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway (Tuesdays)
255 Elm Street, Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jimmytingle.com. $10. 8 pm. Eight local poets perform their own work in a two-hour theatrical show every third Tuesday of the month. Directed by Michael Brown.

Lizard Lounge Poetry Jam (Sundays)
1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.poetryjam.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Poetry slam, 7 pm. $5. The Jeff Robinson Trio plays background tunes for the featured poet of the week.

O'Brien's Pub (Mondays)
3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave. 9 pm. O'Brien's presents a mix of rock and spoken word one Monday a month. The performers are all predetermined.

Out of the Blue Poetry (Saturdays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8 pm. $3. Every Saturday is poetry night—the evening is titled Open Bark—and a spoken-word event takes place on the fourth Saturday of each month.

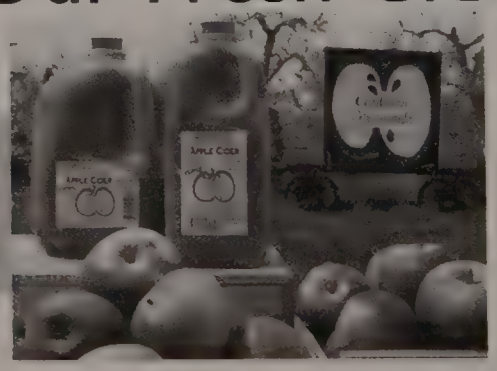
Stone Soup Poetry Night (Mondays)
Out of the Blue Gallery, 106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-227-0845). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 pm. $4. Since 1971, the Stone Soup Poets have held weekly readings.

Tapestry of Voices (Second Thursday)
Borders Boston, 10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-4995). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. The second Thursday of each month offers a selection of featured poets and an opportunity for others to take the open mike.

Carlson Orchards
HARVARD, MA

If You Love
Our Fresh Cider

try



Some of Our Apples
and Apple Sauce and Pies and Giftbaskets and Crisps and Sparkling Cider and Jams 800-286-3916

RETAIL HOURS: DAILY 10 - 6 www.carlsonorchards.com

education

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 22

Beyond Clans and Tartans: Scottish Genealogical Research
New England Historic and Genealogical Society, 99 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5740). www.newenglandancestors.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 10 am. Free. This introductory lecture will provide information on tracking Scottish roots.

Domestic Violence Forum
Brookline Municipal Court, 260 Washington St., Boston (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. 7 pm. Free with registration. Thomas J. May, presiding justice of the Brookline District Court, moderates this forum, which includes a survivor's story and details about what victims of assault need to know about the law.

Identity and the Survival of Native America
Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-553-4820). MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. What makes a "real Indian" and why does it matter? Eve Marie Garroute, an assistant professor of sociology at Boston College, discusses competing definitions of racial identity and their implications for a range of legal and cultural issues, including affirmative action on college campuses, the preservation of cultural knowledge and the protection of community resources.

THURSDAY, OCT. 23

The History of Recorded Sound
Brookline High, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $5. Musician Dan Gorn lectures on the history of recorded sound—from old wax cylinders and 78s to compact discs and MP3 players.

FRIDAY, OCT. 24

Elizabeth Peters and the Egyptian Experience
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum or Orange Line to Ruggles. 6:30 pm. $13. Barbara Mertz, known to mystery lovers as Elizabeth Peters, published her first Amelia Peabody mystery in 1975. Here she shares her lifelong love of Egypt in a discussion of Amelia Peabody's most recent archaeological adventures.

Harvard in the Caribbean: Three Centuries of Scientific Discovery
Harvard Museum of Natural History, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Harvard biology professor and entomology curator Brian D. Farrell discusses how the latest technologies in insect collecting and digital communications are bringing to light the Caribbean's stunning biodiversity.

SATURDAY, OCT. 25

The Elegant Universe
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0419). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. 2:30 pm. Free. Columbia University professor of physics and mathematics Brian Greene describes string theory and its influence on modern physics.

SUNDAY, OCT. 26

Breaking the Glass Ceiling: Women in Politics
John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1550). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 4-5:30 pm. Gwen Ifill moderates this conversation with congresswoman Loretta Sanchez, former congresswoman Geraldine Ferraro and others about their experiences in the national political arena.

Frontiers of Health Science
The Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0419). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. 1:30 pm. $13. Harvard Medical School geneticist Dr. Adrian Ivinson leads a discussion about the ethics of stem cell research.

Slide Introduction to Rembrandt's Journey: Painter, Draftsman, Etcher
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum or Orange Line to Ruggles. 1 and 2 pm. Free with museum admission ($15). This half-hour talk and slide show provides background for the exhibition, suggesting ways of looking at and understanding the work of this master artist.

MONDAY, OCT. 27

Theology on Tap
George: An American Tavern, 384 Boylston St., Boston (617-523-2377). www.friendsattheadvent.org. 7 pm. Free. Sponsored by the Church of the Advent on Beacon Hill, this program for men and women in their 20s and 30s features speakers who discuss issues involving Christian faith.

TUESDAY, OCT. 28

Treasures in Your Attic: Old and Rare Books
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-0439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 6 pm. $10. Ken Gloss, proprietor of the Brattle Book Shop, shares stories of historical finds and gives audience members a chance to have their books appraised.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 29

American Values: Understanding Patriotism in Our Time
John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1550). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 4-5:30 pm. Caroline Kennedy introduces a panel discussion with Roger Wilkins, Louis Menand and others exploring the ideals upon which the United States was founded and how those values can best be fulfilled at home and abroad.

Eating and Drinking in America
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum or Orange Line to Ruggles. 6 pm. Free with museum admission ($15). Alyce Perry looks at images of food and drink in American paintings.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30

Craft in Context Between the Wars
Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617-227-0155). www.nbss.org. MBTA: Green to Blue Line to Government Center. 6:30 pm. Free. Robert Adam, department chair of preservation carpentry at the North Bennet Street School, and Michael Lynch, vice president of properties and preservation at the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities, lecture on architecture from the Civil War to World War I.

Exploring the Salem Witch Trials
Brookline High, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $5. Amateur historian Bill Harrington discusses the Salem witch hunt and the hysteria and deceit that gripped the town. Learn the history of this event, details of why hundreds of presumably innocent people were accused of entertaining Satan, and the aftermath of this event for the town of Salem.

Monster of God: The Man-Eating Predator in the Jungles of History and the Mind
Harvard Museum of Natural History, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David Quammen explores the past, present and future of predators such as lions, sharks and crocodiles, as well as society's view of those animals.

Writing Workshop: Mining Your Life
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430, ext. 708). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6:30 pm. $35-$3
Author Elizabeth Searle leads this workshop, designed to teach participants how to identify the sometimes-unexpected aspects of their own lives that can become inspiration for fiction.

SATURDAY, NOV. 1

Symposium-Extraordinary Gardens
Mass Bay Community College, 50 Oakland St., Wellesley (508-877-7630). www.newfs.org. 9 a.m.-4:15 pm. $100, includes lunch and snacks. Join gardening experts for lectures, seminars and demonstrations on how to turn ordinary gardens into fabulous havens.

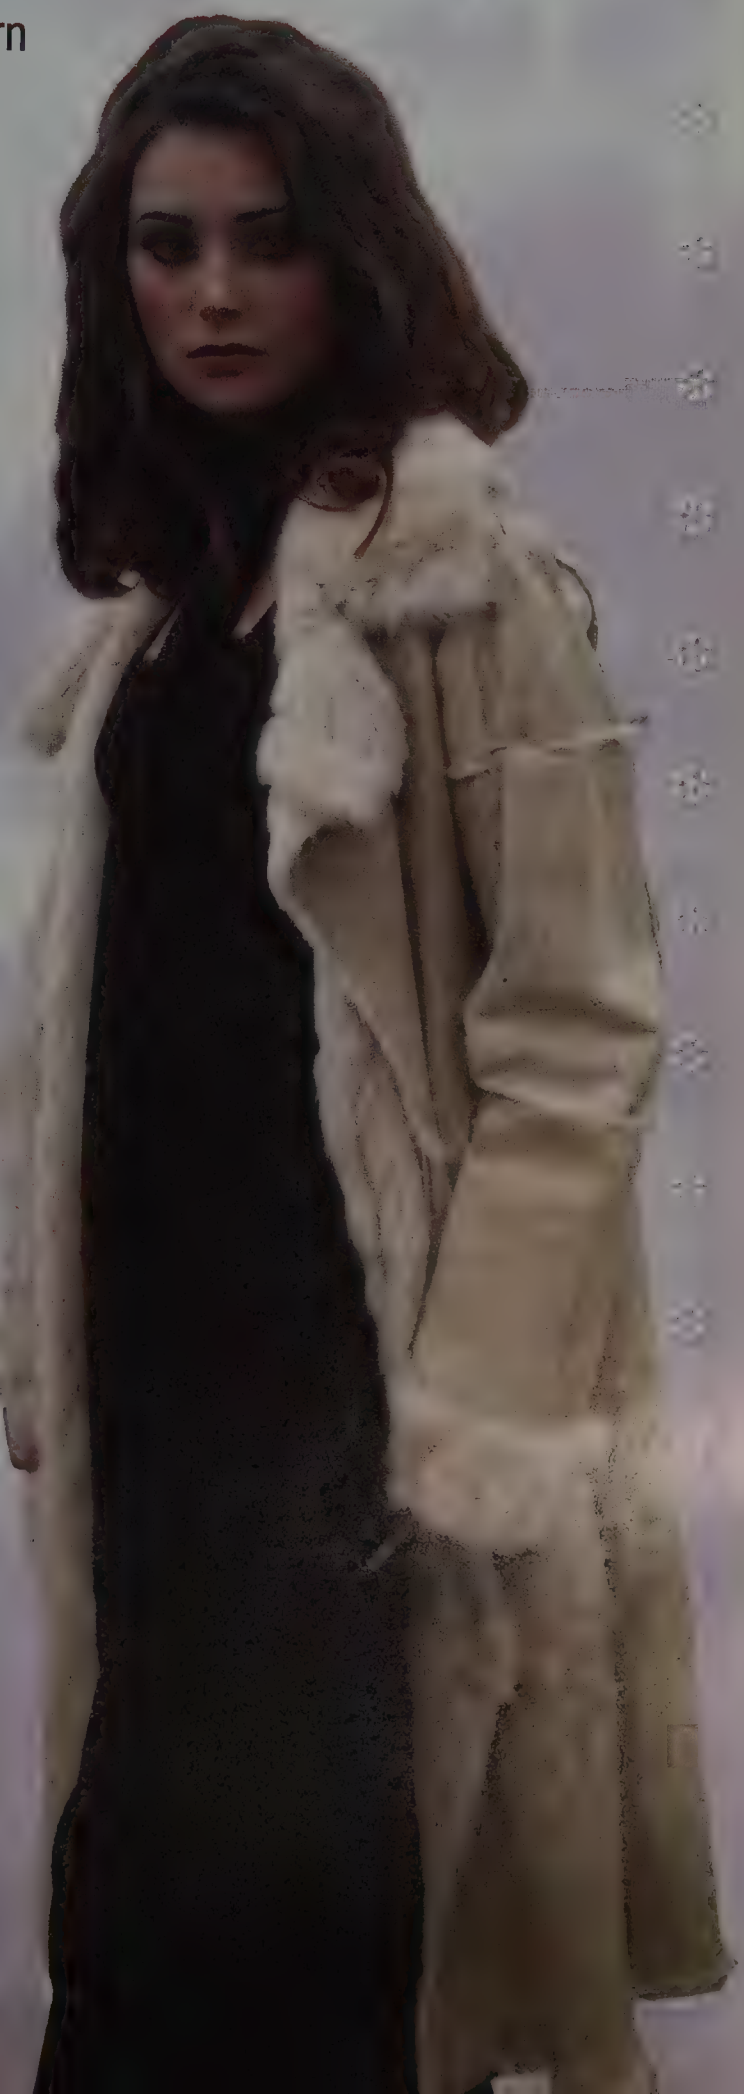
SUNDAY, NOV. 2

Enslaved and Free People of Color in New England Life Through the Revolution
National Heritage Museum, 33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. 2 pm. Free. Professor Joanne Melish examines the role of African-Americans in the American Revolution and assesses the impact of a growing free black population on the state's move to abolish slavery in 1783.

Blizzard of Beauty

When faced with yet another nor'easter, Bostonians will turn up their collars against the wind and look for something, anything, to cure their winter blues.

The Improper Bostonian's Winter Fashion Issue is the perfect remedy for those cold, blustery days. We will guide readers through winter's warm colors, rich textures and superb tailoring that give the colder months some of the most dignified clothing of the year. The Improper will also make people feel warm all over with cozy, colorful sweaters. We will also focus on quirky accessories that add fun and sparkle to a winter wardrobe. And fashion just wouldn't be the same without the season's most coveted shoes! (Just watch out for those puddles!)



Advertise now in this winter fashion wonderland!

The Improper Bostonian* reaches more than 392,900 readers every two weeks!

96% purchased a product or service advertised as a result of reading The Improper Bostonian.

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 280,
to book advertising space now.
Issue Date: November 5
Advertising Deadline: October 22

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

gay & lesbian

If you want to be listed
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest T-stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
214 Pi Alley, Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Government Center. Nightly, 5 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+. Boston's new leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as regular theme nights.

Aria (Wednesdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park Street. DJ John Morris spins progressive house for Lust, the Wednesday night gay and lesbian dance party. 10 pm, $8 for 19-20; $5 for 21+.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. For 20 years, these folks have cranked out Sunday night parties for the boys of Boston. Enjoy three separate dance floors plus drag acts. DJ Darrin Friedman spins house. 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. The glamorous Mizery hosts a drag show, and DJ Jay Ine spins progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of every month. 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. On Saturdays, Buzz's two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—pool room and lounge keep the men busy until 2 am. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

CityGirl Caffé (Daily)
204 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-864-2809). MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue.-Fri., 11 am- 9 pm; Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-7 pm. This small (five tables) laid-back café in Inman Square, lesbian owned and operated, draws a mixed gay/hetero crowd for lounging and sandwiches. Brunch is served every weekend.

Club Café and Moonshine Bar (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat., 2 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This South End spot draws a dressy bunch for dining and unobtrusive music in the front room or video entertainment in the back at Moonshine. •On Wednesdays, join VJ Cliff Cunningham. •On Thursdays and Fridays,VJ Tom Yaz hosts a nonstop show featuring new and classic music videos. •On Saturdays, it's Boys' Night Out with VJ Cliff Cunningham. No cover, 21+. •On the first Sunday of every month, join PrideSports representatives for cocktails from 7:30-10 pm.

Dedo's Lounge & Bistro (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. Tuesday nights feature show tunes, and Sunday is disco night. No cover, 21+.

Diesel Café (Daily)
257 Elm St., Somerville, (617-629-8717). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Mon.-Thu. 7 am-midnight, Fri., 7-1 am, Sat., 8-1 am, Sun., 8-12 am. Diesel is a great place for GLBT people to go for coffee, pastry and pool. All ages.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). Mon.-Fri., 3 pm-2 am; Sat., 1 pm-2 am; Sun., 12 pm-2 am. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. This quiet, friendly neighborhood bar starts hopping as it gets closer to 2 am.

Fritz Lounge (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 12 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 10:30 am-2 am. TV sets show satellite sports broadcasts, and Fritz is home base to a softball league. No cover, 21+. Brunch is served until 3:30 pm on weekends.

Ryan Landry's play The Gulls is at Machine through Nov. 8.

Here at 711 Boylston (Tuesdays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5502). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Boston's Tuesday night gay dance party features disco and pop music, guest DJs and weekly contests. 9 pm-2 am, $4-$7, 21+.

Hollywood at the Ekco Lounge (Saturdays)
41 Essex St., Boston (617-338-8283). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Chinatown. 10 pm-2 am. This lesbian bar has two floors with go-go girls and live music all night. $8, 21+.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Patrons relax with a friendly crowd and mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Tue., Thu.: Avalon bartender Miss Kris performs. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: Drag-on Showgirl Showcase produced by Diamond Dunhill. 10 pm, $5. •Mon.: Cabaret drag show. 10 pm, $5 weekdays; $8 weekends, 21+. 10 pm, $5-$8.

Machine (Tuesdays, Thursdays-Saturdays)
1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition with PJ McWhiskers. •Fri.: Best Night Out with NYC DJ/producer Darrin Friedman spinning deep house. 10 pm-2 am, $6, 21+. •Sat.: Machine with DJ Brad Gwynn playing house music. 10 pm-2 am, $7, 21+. •Tue.: Service Industry Night with DJ Afrodite.

ManRay (Wednesdays-Saturdays)
21 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-864-0400). www.manrayclub.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Wed., 9 pm-1 am; Thu. and Fri., 9 pm-2 am; Sat.,10 pm-2 am. Catering to a young, alternative clientele, ManRay features two dance floors. •Wed.: Crypt features DJ Chris Ewen in the cage and DJ Mothra in the front room. 9 pm-1 am, 18+. •Thu.: Campus is a testosterone night with DJ Brad Gwynn and DJ Chris Ewen. $12, 19+; $8, 21+. •Fri.: Rotating themes include Sin, Hell, Fantasy Factory, Ooze and scheduled special events. •Sat.: New Wave Dance Party with DJ Chris Ewen and Disco Inferno with DJ Gary Conzo. $12, 19+; $8, 21+.

Midway Cafe (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green Street. 9 pm-2 am. On Thursday nights, the Midway hosts Kristen Porter's Dyke Night, with rotating DJs, pool and dancing. $5, 21+.

Milky Way Lounge (Sundays)
401 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). www.milkywayjp.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Gay men and women, transgendered persons and their allies can start the night early at Candyland; live entertainment includes Drag Bingo, spoken-word events and jazz. A dance party hosted by resident DJ Jamila caps off the evening. 7:30 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Night Games (Fridays)
Holiday Inn, 30 Washington St., Somerville (617-628-1000). www.circuitgirl.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square. Resident DJ Kris Kono pumps the dance tunes at Circuit Girl's Anything Goes night. 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-494-0700). www. paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features top-40 tunes Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday. No cover, 21+.

Purrr Promotions at the Matrix
Matrix, 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077). www.purrrpromotions.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •Oct. 30, 10 pm, $8, 21+. This gay and bi Halloween dance party celebrates the holiday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billing itself as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is obligatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Thu.: Fire and Ice with DJ Dan Leavey. •Fri.: Leather Cruise with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Dennis Sargent. •Sun.: Mandance with house music. •Mon.: Pool tournament and pizza. •Tue: DJ Scott Thinsdale.

Vapor (Tuesdays-Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •Tue.: Lounge with DJ Michael. 19+, no cover. •Wed.: Latino night with DJ Adilson and host Evian Waters. 19+. •Thu.: The Music Factory with DJ KC spinning deep house and DJ Ron Stele spinning R&B, hip-hop, reggae and funk. $5, 21+. •Fri.: Inner Circle. $8, 19+. •Sat.: Evolution with DJ Jay Ine. •Sun.: T-Dance party with DJs Danae and Michael Sheehan. 21+.

Books

Calamus Bookstore
92B South St., Boston (617-338-1931). www.calamusbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-7 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Boston's bookstore for gays, lesbians, bisexuals and transgendered people.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon.-Fri., 12-8 pm; Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The New Words Live series features an array of feminist and lesbian author events.

We Think the World of You Bookstore
540 Tremont St., Boston (617-574-5000). www.wethinktheworldofyou.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-7 pm; Sat., 10 am-6:30 pm; Sun., 11:30-5:30 pm. Opened in 1994, this community-centered gay and lesbian bookstore stocks literature, art books, DVDs and videos.

Shows & Events

The Credeaux Canvas
Boston Center for the Arts Theater, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.bcaonline.org. Through Oct. 25. Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 5 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. $25, $20 seniors and students. The Zeitgeist Stage Company's production of Keith Bunin's The Credeaux Canvas follows three aspiring New York artists ensnared in a love triangle.

The Gulls
Machine, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Through Nov. 8. Fri. and Sat. 8 pm. $25. Ryan Landry's play The Gulls, loosely based on Hitchcock's The Birds, is the story of rebellious seagulls exacting revenge on Provincetown developers.

Lunafest
Simmons Main College Building, 3rd floor conference center (617-521-2840). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 23, 7 pm, $7. Simmons College Feminist Union, Department of Women's Studies and Institute for Leadership and Change sponsor the third annual Lunafest festival of films by, for or about women. Screenings include: Grace Lee's Barrier Device, Daniela Zanzotto's Kissed by Angels, Erin Flannery's Judy's Time, Eva Saks' Colorforms, Tiffany Shlain's Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness and Stephanie Morgenstern and Paul Fleck's Remembrance.

Sirens Wild Ride Tour
Midway Cafe 3496 Washington St., Boston (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green Street. Oct. 23, 8 pm. $5-$10. 21+. The Midway Cafe's Dyke Night hosts the Sirens Wild Ride Tour, featuring four female artists: Athena Reich, Karen Grenier, Emily Zuzik and Denise Barbarita. Live music and dancing with DJ Mix Mistress follows.

Transcending Boundaries: Celebrating the Spectrum of Sexuality, Gender and Sex
University of Mass., Amherst (413-545-0154). Oct. 24-26, $55. This two-day conference, co-sponsored by the UMass Pride Alliance, addresses issues faced by those who do not fit into the categories of gay/straight or male/female.

Ongoing

Atención Latina Lesbians
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (800-834-3242). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. FCH has collaborated with the Elizabeth Stone House to provide the safe, confidential space to discuss healthy relationships, domestic violence and other issues.

BAGLY
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313) www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wednesdays, 6-9 pm. The Boston Alliance for Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, Transgendered and Questioning Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-288-1552). 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesdays.

Bi-Curious Men's Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6032). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 7 pm. This group meets the second Tuesday of every month for a discussion with bisexual men.

Bi Rap
The Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). Tuesdays, first and third week of the month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group is open to all bisexual, bi-friendly and questioning women.

BOSS
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 6-8 pm. This group for gay and bisexual men of color meets the last Friday of each month to discuss culture, lifestyle, creativity and health.

Boston Bay Blades
www.bayblades.org/boston. All are welcome to join this competitive, recreational group of rowers and scullers.

Boston Boasts Squash
(617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue. pm; Sat. 10 am-12 pm, 9-10 am beginners. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay and Lesbian Contra Dancers
1st Church of Jamaica Plain, Jamaica Plain (617-522-2216). 7:30-11 pm. Square dancing and English country dancing lessons are available for lesbians, gays, bisexuals and their friends, $8.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-424-8990). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year.

Boston Glass Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm, Fri, 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning young people, ages 13-25.

Boston Ironsides Rugby Football Club
Moakley Field, South Boston (617-524-5814). MBTA: Red Line to JFK. Mon. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Rugby players of any level, age, race and orientation are welcome to play.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. www.lesbianavengers.org. Thu., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain. www.lcfd.org/bu. Orange Line to Green St. Wednesdays, 7 pm A gay and lesbian square-dancing group.

Cambridge/Boston Volleyball
(617-633-2180). www.gayvolleyball.net. This drop-in, play-when-you-can league costs $6 per session.

Chiltern Mountain Club
(888-831-3100). www.chiltern.org. A 1,400-member gay club with outdoor activities.

Coming Out Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. A short-term group for men and women to discuss issues related to coming out.

Cosmetically Correct
Masa, 439 Tremont St., Boston. This social group for lipstick lesbians meets on the first Friday of each month, 6:30-10 pm. Lipstick encouraged.

Dagger
Cambridge Multicultural Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-542-4214). The Theater Offensive's guerrilla theater group, Dagger, gathers on Wednesdays from 6:30-9:30 pm to create performances representing women's perspectives.

The Down Low
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6235). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. First Friday of the month. 7-9 pm. A discussion group for gay and bisexual men of color to address heritage, lifestyle, culture and health.

East Coast Wrestling Club
(401-467-6737 or 617-937-5858, ext: 6). www.eastcoastwrestlingclub.org. This club for gay male wrestlers has more than 160 members.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Explore Gender in a Safe Place
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. An ongoing support group for people born into female bodies or who have grown up being viewed as biologically female.

GLAG Flag Football
www.flagflagfootball.com. Saturday mornings. Join Boston's GLBT Flag Football League for a casual spring season, followed by a formal fall season. All are welcome, regardless of skill level.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). Tue., Wed., Sat. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay and Lesbian Helpline
(617-267-9001 or 888-340-4528). Mon.-Fri., 7-11 pm; Sat. and Sun., 5-10 pm. This toll-free hotline is confidential and provides support for gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered and questioning callers.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham. (617-642-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. First and third Tuesdays, 8-10 pm. $2. This group is for gay/bisexual fathers and men in child-nurturing roles, and their partners.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games, singles mixers and a date-matching system.

Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual & Transgendered Professionals Building Community
(617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join in this business-networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals.

Gaymes Group
(508-339-4250). Gaymes is a social group for gay men and lesbians. Members get together on a regular basis to play board, card and parlor games.

Gender Questioning Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6202). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Biological males meet on Monday evenings. The groups are moderated by psychologist Randi Kaufman.

Girlz 2 Girlz
(617-482-1078). This mentoring program for girls aged 13-19 who identify as gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgendered or questioning meets the second and fourth Friday of each month, 6-8 pm. Contact Jayms Battaglia.

GLBT Seniors
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-927-6272). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mondays. Support group for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered seniors ages 60 and over.

Greater Boston Business Council
PO Box 1059, Boston (617-236-4222). www.gbbc.org. All are welcome to join this business networking organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgendered professionals. The group meets on a monthly basis.

HIV Counseling and Testing
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston. (617-267-0159). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Anonymous HIV testing and pre- and post-test counseling.

LGBT Considering Parenting Group
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6243) www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. A short-term (eight-week) group for LGBT persons who are considering becoming parents. Sliding fee scale available. Call for information.

Liquid Assets Swimming
www.swim-lanes.org. Tue., Wed. and Thu. evenings and Sat. and Sun. mornings at either MIT or South End Fitness Center. This predominantly gay and lesbian swim team is open to both competitive and fitness swimmers of all ages and abilities.

Meow Boston
groups.yahoo.com/group/Meow_Boston. This social group caters to feminine bisexual women and lesbians in the Boston community.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Peer Listening Line
(800-399-7337). Trained GLBT volunteers provide confidential information, referrals and support.

Project 10 East
402A Highland Ave., Somerville (617-864-4528). GLBT youth and their straight allies meet regularly to organize projects, which include making communities safe.

Somos Latin
somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com. The only social and networking group for GLBT Latinos and Latinas in the Boston area. Viernes Sociales take place every month. E-mail for more information.

Support Group for HIV-Negative Gay and Bisexual Men
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-967-6231). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. First three Tuesdays of each month. Discuss new safe-sex practices, strategies for managing risk and communicating with sexual partners.

Support Group for Lesbians with Cancer
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6243). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed. evenings, twice a month. Free. For those who want to discuss the impact of this disease, and its treatments, on their lives. Also offered: Support Group for Partners of Lesbians with Cancer.

Swingtime Boston
Brookline Academy of Dance, 185 Corey Rd., Brookline (617-364-7207). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Street. First Saturday of each month. 8-9 pm, lesson; 9-11:30 pm, dancing. $8. Swing, Latin and ballroom dancing classes are offered for the lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered community.

Violence Recovery Program (VRP)
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6250). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. VRP provides free support groups for GLBT people.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/wonder_women_boston. WWB is a social group for lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s. It meets the first Thursday of every month.

With three new Boston centers, it doesn't get any better than Fitcorp!

Enjoy the best in fitness now through Thanksgiving for only $99!*

For a limited time, enjoy the best in fitness with an offer that's simply the best! Save big on the most convenient and comprehensive fitness network in greater Boston including new centers at Prudential Center, 125 Summer Street and in the Longwood Medical Area, plus nine additional locations.

So hurry in today because the sooner you join, the better the value.

★ fitcorp.com ★

BEST OF BOSTON 2003

fitcorp
Where fitness gets down to business

© Fitcorp, 2003 *Regular EFT membership applies with first monthly dues debited for 12/03. First time joiners only. Cannot be combined with any other offer.

Our members say it best @ fitcorp.com/members

McCORMICK & SCHMICK'S
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

October is
NATIONAL SEAFOOD MONTH

Explore our DAILY Changing Menu
Featuring the FRESHEST
Seafood Available

• The Fresh Seafood Authority •

"McCormick & Schmick's is a seafood heavyweight."
~ Improper Bostonian

Boston Park Plaza Hotel
34 Columbus Avenue
(617) 482-3999

Faneuil Hall Marketplace
North Market Building
(617) 720-5522

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Holistic Expo
Holiday Inn Newton, 399 Grove St. Newton (617-527-0247). www.centerforbalance.org. Nov. 2, 9 am-5 pm. $5. Lectures on various holistic methods take place throughout the day. Visitors can meet practitioners in the fields of bodywork, yoga and nutrition.

Sacred Link Healing Revolution Tour
First Parish, 3 Church St., Cambridge (508-835-1176). www.himalayaninstitute.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 25, 2 pm. $15. Pandit Rajmani Tigunait, spiritual head of the Himalayan Institute, talks about how to quiet the mind and practice heart-meditation.

Sane Wisdom for an Insane World
Hynes Auditorium, 900 Boylston St., Boston (1-800-998-2324). www.lorettalaroche.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Oct. 30, 9 am-4 pm. $149. This daylong mind/body conference features authors Loretta LaRoche and Joan Borysenko and TV journalist Liz Walker, who will discuss stress management, self-help and well-being. Seminar proceeds benefit Self Esteem Boston's programs for at-risk women.

Sweat Your Prayers Dance Jam
Dance Complex, 536 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-9363). www.dancecomplex.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Nov. 3, 8-9:30pm. Sliding scale: $11-8. This freestyle dance workshop features deep listening, improvisation and other exercises designed to stimulate creativity. All levels welcome.

Lectures

The G-Spot and More Explained
Grand Opening Sexuality Boutique, 318 Harvard St., Suite 32, Arcade Bldg., Brookline (617-731-2626). www.grandopening.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 22, 7:30-9:30 pm. $34. Discuss the myths and realities of the G-spot. Open to all.

Workshops

The Body and Soul of Tai Chi
Brookline Tai Chi, 1615 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-2975). www.brooklinetaichi.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Sq. Tai Chi for Your Spirit: Oct. 23, 7-10 pm. $60. Tai Chi for Stress: Oct. 24, 7-10 pm. $60. B.K. Frantzis teaches these workshops that focus on tai chi's spiritual and meditative qualities and how they can be used to alleviate stress and improve physical health.

Introduction to Anusara Yoga
Karma Yoga Studio, 1132 Mass. Ave, Cambridge (617-547-9642). http://karmayogastudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Square. Nov. 1, 12:45-2:15 pm. $25. Learn anusara yoga's unifying principles of alignment. All levels welcome.

Intro to Reiki Energy Healing
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Commonwealth Ave., Boston (781-648-9334 or 617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 27, 6-7:30 pm. Free. Learn about this ancient hands-on method for reducing stress, relieving pain and facilitating personal growth.

Managing Back and Shoulder Pain Naturally
Bailey Therapeutic Massage, 14 Nason St., Suite 201, Maynard (978-897-0110). http: web.maynard.ma.us/biz/bmassage. Nov. 2, 2-4:30 pm. $35. Learn self-care techniques that may help ease pain without drugs and prevent future pain.

Mindful Modern Dance
CasaNia Studio, 46 Porter Rd., Cambridge (617-876-9211). www.casania.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Oct. 25, 2-5 pm. $8. Modern dance movements are slowed down to focus on body alignment, breathing and centering. The class includes some partnering and hands-on work.

Reiki Energy Healing Clinic
Arlington Reiki Associates, 366 Mass Ave #304, Arlington (781-648-9334). www.arlingtonreiki.com. Oct. 24, 6:30-9:30 pm. $10. Experience a reiki energy healing treatment.

The Soul of Your Career
Brookline (617-739-5353). www.yoursoulswork.com. Oct. 25, 10 am-6 pm. $60. Spend a day exploring the spiritual side of work. This workshop is designed to help participants find meaning and purpose in their career endeavors.

Thai Yoga Massage
Charles River School of Shiatsu,180 Mass Ave., Arlington (781-643-1545). www.charlesrivershiatsu.com. Oct. 25-26, 9am-5pm. $225. This class explores Thai yoga massage, which is a blend of Chinese and Ayurvedic (East Indian) medicine that focuses on balancing one's energy patterns.

Yoga Asana According to the Sutras
Living Yoga, 613 Mt. Auburn St., Watertown (617-924-6085). www.livingyogactr.org. Oct. 25, 2-5 pm, $45. Register in advance. This asana-based workshop explores the sutras of Patanjali and focuses on customizing yoga practice to the individual. All levels welcome.

Ongoing

Lunchtime Yoga on Beacon Hill
The Paulist Center, 5 Park St., Boston (617-970-5320). www.yogame.com. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park St. Tues. and Wed., 1-1:45 pm. $10. Fit yoga into your schedule at lunchtime. All levels welcome.

Personal Protection for Adults
Brookline Community Center for the Arts, 14 Green St., Brookline (781-405-1248). www.busseystyle.com. MBTA Green C Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon., 6-7:30pm or Fri., 3-4:30 pm. This class teaches adults the Bussey style of self-defense. Learn practical self-defense moves as well as concepts to help improve confidence.

Yoga for Fitness of Body, Mind & Spirit
YWCA, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (781-648-0722). www.innerfocusyoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Tue., 7:30-8:45 pm. Suggested donation: $10. All levels welcome. Kripalu-certified yoga instructor Dee Greenberg teaches participants to experience breathing as the body's link with the mind.

Yoga/Newton
The Green Planet, 22 Lincoln St, Newton Highlands (617-320-9792). www.thegreenplanet.com. Sun., 9-10:30 am. $16/class. Or at Myrtle Church, 21 Curve St, West Newton (617-320-9792). Wed., 6-7:15 pm. $12/class. This yoga class is designed to assist with developing movement awareness to improve balance, strength and flexibility.

Yoga/South End
South End House, 48 Rutland St., Boston (617- 522-7199). www.angelfire.com/ma/patrice. MBTA: Orange line to Mass Ave or Back Bay. Mon. and Tues., 7 pm. $15-$17. These mixed-level yoga classes are taught by certified Kripalu yoga instructor Patrice Flesch. Drop-ins and beginners welcome.

B.K. Frantzis teaches two tai chi [illegible] Oct. 23-24 at Brookline Tai Chi

sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Sports. Or e-mail information to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, dates and times, and a brief description of the league or event. Deadline is four weeks before publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Home Games

Boston Bruins
•FleetCenter, Boston.
Tickets: 617-931-2000
Oct. 23, 7:30 pm vs. Carolina Hurricanes
Oct. 30, 7 pm vs. Montreal Canadiens

Boston Celtics
•FleetCenter, Boston.
Tickets: 800-462-2849
Preseason: Oct. 22, 7 pm vs. Minnesota Timberwolves
Preseason: Oct. 24, 7:30 pm vs. New Jersey Nets
Home opener: Oct. 29, 7 pm vs. Miami Heat

New England Patriots
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 800-543-1776
Oct. 26, 1 pm vs. Cleveland Browns

New England Revolution
•Gillette Stadium, Foxboro.
Tickets: 877-438-7387
Oct. 25, 4 pm vs. MetroStars

Events

Oktoberfest Blues Run and Barbecue Bash
VFW James Logan Post, 1192 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-2140). www.clydesdale.org/BAEvents/harpoon/oktoberfest.html. Oct. 30. $15. This 3.2-mile road race concludes with a barbecue, beer from Harpoon and live music from the Cat Sass Blues Band. In the spirit of Halloween, there is also a contest for the best Blues Brothers costume and impersonation.

To Play

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL

BSSC Basketball
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Coed year-round basketball. All levels. Leagues exist in Watertown, Brookline and Dedham. Teams and individuals welcome.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333) www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. The club offers amateur Olympic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

FENCING

Boston Fencing Club
110-112 Clematis Ave., Waltham. Adult classes evenings and Saturdays (781-891-0119). www.bostonfencingclub.org. Learn the basics of fencing.

FLOOR HOCKEY

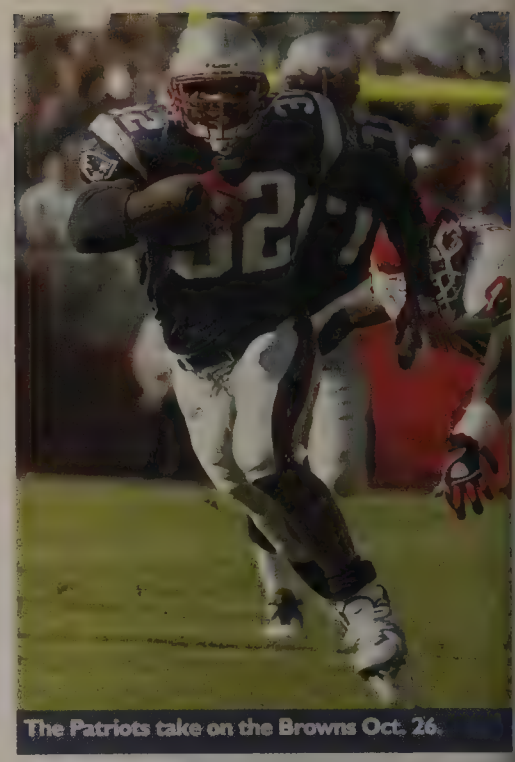
BSSC Coed Floor Hockey
Leagues are held in Newton and Brighton (617-789-4070, ext. 238). www.bssc.com. All levels, individuals and teams are welcome.

FOOTBALL

BSSC Coed Indoor Flag or Touch Football
Games are played in Brighton. (617-789-4070, ext. 242). Sign up individually or with a group of friends.

KICKBALL

BSSC Kickball
Games are played Tuesdays in Brighton. (617-789-4070). Relive your grade-school glory days by playing kickball. Teams and individuals welcome.



The Patriots take on the Browns Oct. 26.

RUGBY

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.bostonirishwolfhounds.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New and experienced players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players for its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mysticrugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club welcomes both new and experienced players who want to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Saturdays. New and experienced players are welcome to tape up their ears and jump in the scrum.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, then consider joining these self-proclaimed "serious drinkers with a running problem."

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Friday nights, 6 pm.

Khoury's Thursday Four-Mile Fun Run
Khoury's Pub, 118 Broadway, East Somerville (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Weekly runs on Thursday nights, 7 pm.

SKATING

Bay State Skating School
Various area MDC rinks (781-890-8480). www.baystateskatingschool.org. $108.50 for a seven-week class. Check Web site for schedules. Skating classes for adults and children teach the fundamentals using either figure skates or hockey skates.

SOCCER

BSSC Indoor and Outdoor Soccer
(617-789-4070). Teams forming now. Games played in Charlestown, Cambridge, Brighton, Reading and Canton. Individuals and teams are welcome.

VOLLEYBALL

BSSC Volleyball League
Boston Ski & Sports Club (617-789-4070, ext 222). Sun.-Thu. Coed teams forming in Cambridge, Watertown, Brookline and Newton. Teams and individuals are welcome to set and spike their way to glory.

WRESTLING

Boston Union Wrestling Club
(617-868-8379). bostonwrestling@yahoo.com. Amateur folk-style wrestling group open to all skill levels. Weekly practices held year-round.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

presents

the 4th Annual

Holiday Gift Guide

The gift of results this season, results for your business.

Holiday Gift Guide Issue Dates	Advertising Deadlines
November 19	November 5
December 3	November 19
December 17	December 3

Call today to reserve your space
617.859.1400 ext. 280

Let Us Be Your Jewish Mother...

ZAFTIGS

BREAKFAST • LUNCH
DINNER • CATERING

335 HARVARD ST.
COOLIDGE CORNER, BROOKLINE
617-975-0075

BOSTON'S BEST 2002
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

ANNa's TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

Boston's Best Burrito
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—The Improper Bostonian

Best Burrito in Boston
1998, 1999, 2001, 2002 & 2003
—Boston Magazine

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Things to See

Family Concert
Merrimack College, The Rogers Center, 315 Turnpike St., North Andover (978-837-5355) www.merrimack.edu/rogers. Oct.25, 2 pm. $10. Television and radio personality Red Grammer performs children's songs with his guitar.

Kids Variety Show
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-738-6533). www.coolidge.kidsshow.info. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Sat., 10:30 am. $10, $8 children. •Oct. 25: Nancy Tucker sings songs and tells jokes.

Pocket Full of Tales Theatre Company
The Center for Arts, 14 Summer St., Natick (617-842-7927). www.pocketfulloftales.com. Sat., 11 am. $8, $5 children. •Oct. 25: The Knight Who Was Afraid of the Dark. •Nov. 1-22: Participate in Silly Sketches, an afternoon of sketch comedy where children supply the topics for the commercial breaks.

Poems That Go Bump in the Night
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Oct. 25, 10 am. $5 children, free for children. David Zucker performs a selection of poems tailored for the Halloween season, including works by Edgar Allan Poe, Ogden Nash, Edward Lear, Hillaire Belloc and James Whitcomb Riley.

Puppet Showplace Theatre
32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $8.50. Reservations recommended. •Oct. 22 and 23, 10:30 am. Ages 3-6. Deborah Costine performs a shadow puppet show of The Three Pigs and Other Tales. •Oct. 25 and 26, 1 and 3 pm. Ages 4-10. Dress in costume for the Halloween celebration of Under the Night Sky, a shadow puppet show. Prizes and refreshments for all. •Oct. 29 and 30, 10:30 am. Ages 3-6. Paul Vincent Davis performs Bingo the Circus Dog. •Nov. 1 and 2, 1 and 3 pm. Ages 4-10. The Tanglewood Marionettes perform An Arabian Adventure with special stage effects and elaborate scenery.

Story Hour at the Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Every Sat., 11 am. Preschool age. Free. Story hour for children.

Story Hour at the JFK Library
Smith Hall, John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Dorchester (617-929-1250). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Sat., 10:30 am. Ages 5 and older. Free. The JFK Library holds a weekly story hour for kids and their parents.

Story Time
FAO Schwarz, 440 Boylston St., Boston (617-262-5900). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 1 pm, 3 pm & 5 pm. Free. Ages 2-7. Kids can listen to stories read by Mother Goose, Raggedy Ann and other characters.

The Witching Hour Story Hour
Village Books, 751 South St., Roslindale (617-325-1994). Tue., 4 pm. Free. Ages 5 and under. Children's book illustrators read and doodle. •Oct. 28: Illustrator Elicia Castaldi reads from Miss Polly Has a Dolly.

Things to Do

Borders Books and Music
Cambridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere or Red Line to Kendall (transfer to shuttle). Sat., 12 pm. Staff members read from new and classic storybooks.

Boston by Little Feet
Faneuil Hall, 77 North Washington St., Boston (617-367-2345). www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Green Line to Government Center. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Sun. 2 pm. $6. Walk the Freedom Trail and learn about the history and architecture of Boston's neighborhoods.

Boston Public Library Children's Tour
Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat. 11 am. Through Nov. 29. Free. Ages 5 and older. Take a tour of the art and architecture of the Boston Public Library, and then enjoy an art activity in the Sargent Gallery.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. •KidStage: Children are introduced to live theater with 20-30 minute participatory performances. The schedule changes daily. •Oct. 25, 11 am-4 pm: Dare to Engineer. Use common household items to create, design, build and problem-solve. •New exhibition: Making America's Music: Rhythm, Roots & Rhyme. Interactive exhibits let kids conduct at Symphony Hall, rock at the school dance, sing jazz in a nightclub, jam in a traveling tour bus, mix some tunes and hear celebrities' stories about why they love music. Through May 2004.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. $5, $1 children. •Holography, the Light Fantastic. The MIT Museum displays the largest collection of holograms in the world and describes the artistic and scientific facets of the medium. •Robots and Beyond. Take a look behind the scenes of MIT's artificial intelligence research labs in this interactive exhibit.

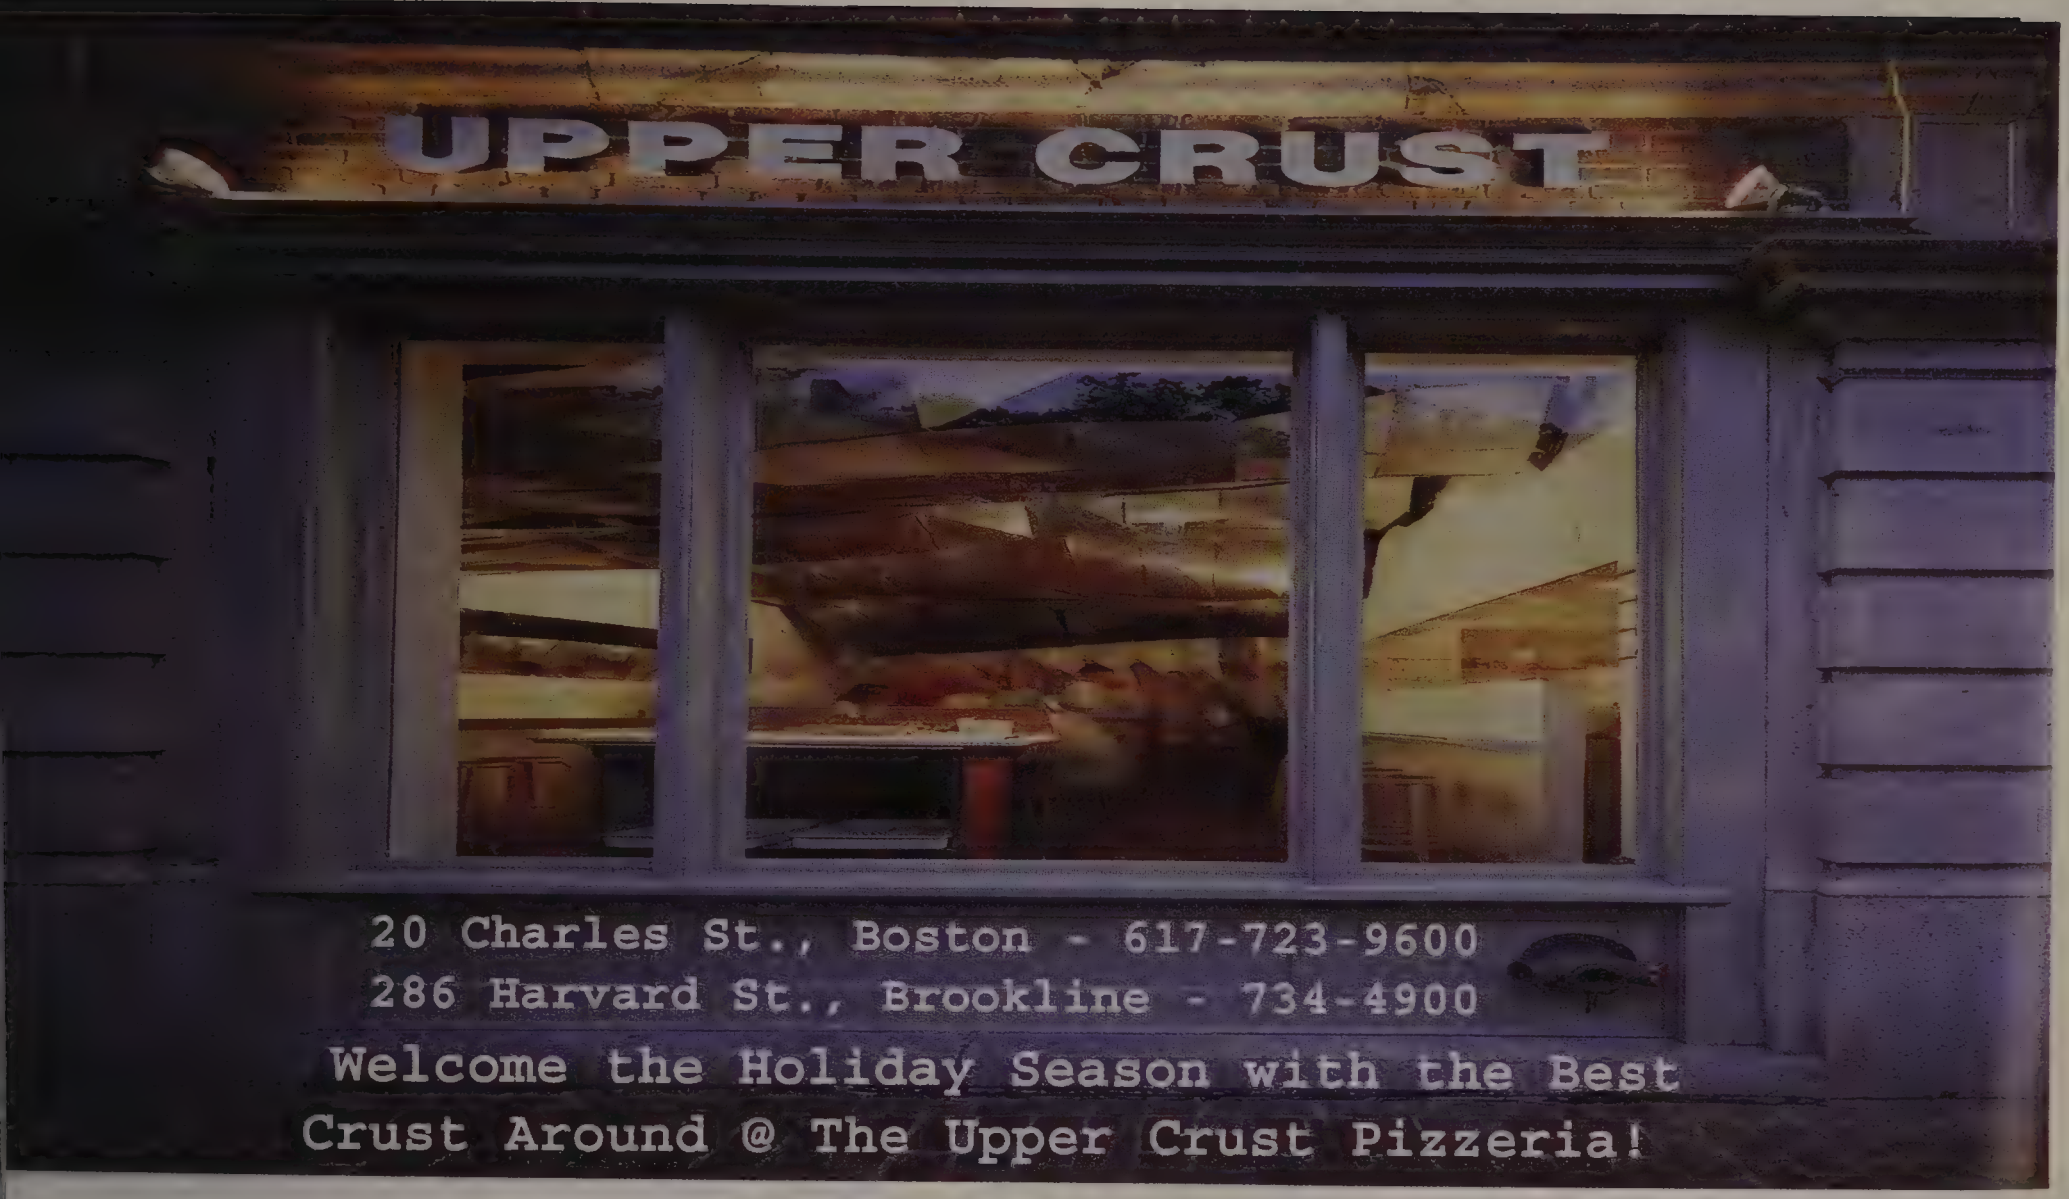
Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3448). www.mfa.org/calendar. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. $15, children under 17 free. •Tue. and Wed., 3:30 pm: Books Bring Art Alive. Museum instructors read books, poems and stories to bring the paintings to life and encourage kids to talk about what they see

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon. Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 children •Sat. and Sun., 11 am-12 pm. The museum's Sci ence Theater Program offers Animals and Storie Alive!, featuring professional storytellers who com bine folk tales and myths with visits from live ani mals. •Magic: The Science of Illusion. Discove how illusions come together through science, math psychology and the art of performance at this ne exhibition. Through Feb. 22. •Charles Hayde Planetarium: Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 3:30 an 7 pm; Sun., 1:30 and 4 pm. Free. Learn to identif stars, planets, constellations and celestial even during the presentation The Sky Tonigh •Gilliland Observatory: Fri., 8:30-10 pm (weath permitting). Free. Use the observatory's two tel scopes to find the moon, stars, constellations ar planets. •Mugar Omni Theatre: Mon.-Sun., 12 pr 4 pm, 7 pm and 9 pm. $8.50, $6.50 children. Jar Goodall's Wild Chimpanzees and Africa: Tl Serengeti •Theater of Electricity: Daily at 12 and pm. The Van de Graaff generator provides a risk-fr lightning show.

Museum of Transportation
Larz Anderson Park, 15 Newton St., Brookline (61 522-6547). www.mot.org. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 p $5. The museum has a large collection of rare a antique cars as well as exhibits on automobile h tory. •The Evolution of Speed exhibit explores t history of American auto racing with race cars a displays. •Racing of Our Youth lets kids explore t world of slot cars, Hot Wheels and soapbox raci with go-carts to climb in, tracks to build and ra to compete in. •Daily: Join the Family Scaven Hunt through the museum and receive a prize.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www. newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to New Highlands. Registration required •Oct. 28, 3 pm, age and older: The New England Aquarium's travel tide pool offers an opportunity for hands-on disc eries. •Oct. 30, 4:15 pm, ages 7 and older: M some witches and enjoy a craft and a snack at l with Folktales. •Thursdays, 3:30 pm, ages 4 older: Pajama Storytime. Through Oct. 30. • 10:30 am, through Oct. 24: Preschool Films.

Saturday Scholars
Harvard Museum of Natural History, 6 Oxford Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harva edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Saturdays. Discover dinosaurs, animals, minerals, inse oceans, ancient civilizations and the microworl this class taught by museum science educat •Nov. 1, 9-11 am, ages 4-5: Color Your World! L at the different colors of birds, snakes and other mals. •Nov. 1, 9 am-12 pm, ages 6-7: Whooo (There? Take a night hike around the museu learn the secrets of bats, owls and moths.



THE MOST COLORFUL BLACK TIE
JUST BECAME MORE ENCHANTING

THE 13TH
ANNUAL GALA

PLEASE JOIN US ON THE EVENING OF
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2003
at the FAIRMONT COPLEY PLAZA HOTEL
138 St. James Street, Boston
7 to Midnight

SILENT & LIVE AUCTION
COCKTAIL RECEPTION
HORS D'OEUVRES
SIT-DOWN DINNER
DANCING

TICKETS ARE
$175.00

Live Music By
THE FAT CITY BAND

TO BENEFIT
Children's Trust Fund
Strengthening Families * Preventing Child Abuse
www.mctf.org/gala

For more information please call Randace Moore,
Director of Special Events at 617-727-8957 ex. 326

around town

Sights to See

Boston University Observatory
725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wednesdays (on clear nights), Oct.-March, 7:30-8:30 pm; April-Sept., 8:30-9:30 pm. Free.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-8855). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept.-June, Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm, Fri., 10 am-9 pm; June-Aug., daily, 10 am-5 pm, Fri. until 9 pm. $5, $3.

Dreams of Freedom
One Milk St., Boston (617-338-6022). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 9:30 am-6 pm. $7.50.

Forest Hills Cemetery
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Daily, 7:30 am-sundown. Free. Tours: May-Oct., 2 pm on the last Sunday of the month, $5.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $6.50, students and seniors $5, children $4; free to all Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

John F. Kennedy Library & Museum
Columbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $8.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-2 pm. Free.

Mount Auburn Cemetery
580 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-8 pm.

Museum of Afro-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-739-1200). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park Street. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm. $5, $3 students, seniors.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $13, $10 seniors and children.

Museum of Transportation
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5, $3 children.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Sept. 2-June 30: Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 9 am-6 pm. July 1-Sept. 1, Mon.-Thu., 9 am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.50, $8.50 children.

Old Faneuil Hall
Boston (617-635-3105). MBTA: Blue Line to State, Orange or Green Line to Haymarket, or Green Line to Government Center. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Tours start at 9 am. Free.

Old North Church
193 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange or Green Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. $3 donation requested.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Weekdays, 10 am-4 pm; weekends, 10 am-5 pm. $3.

Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-3290). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $3.

Prudential Center Skywalk
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA or E Green Line to Prudential. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-10 pm. $6, $4 seniors.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Open daily 8 am-6 pm. $3.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-242-5671). Museum open daily, 10 am-5 pm. Summer ship hours: Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-695-2441). Mentor an adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-450-1235). Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers
(617-956-0281). www.bbmb.org. Be a big brother.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Befriend a girl.

Boston Cares
(617-263-2273). More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012). HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen, office work, special events.

Cambridge Cares About AIDS
(617-661-3040). Educate the public about HIV.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). Volunteer in Cambridge schools for one or two hours per week.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support to children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). Help adults living with cancer.

Everybody Wins Power Lunch
livmates@rcn.com. Spend your lunch hour reading at an elementary school in Cambridge or Somerville.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900). Play with homeless children.

Hospice Home Volunteers
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). Share your time with an elderly individual, mentor children or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). Teach an adult to read.

March of Dimes
(508-663-2100). This maternal and child health care organization seeks volunteers.

Mass. Association for the Blind
(800-852-3029). Read or shop with a blind person.

Mass. Substance Abuse Info Helpline
(617-536-0501, ext. 201). Talk over the phone with people affected by alcoholism and substance abuse.

MATCH-UP Interfaith Volunteers
(617-536-3557). Volunteers are needed to assist elder

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

Parental Stress Line
(617-528-5800). Telephone counselors needed.

Pine Street Inn
(617-521-7626). Serve breakfast to homeless guest

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111). Record textbooks in digital format

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). Work at a battered-women's agenc

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). Help in the dining room.

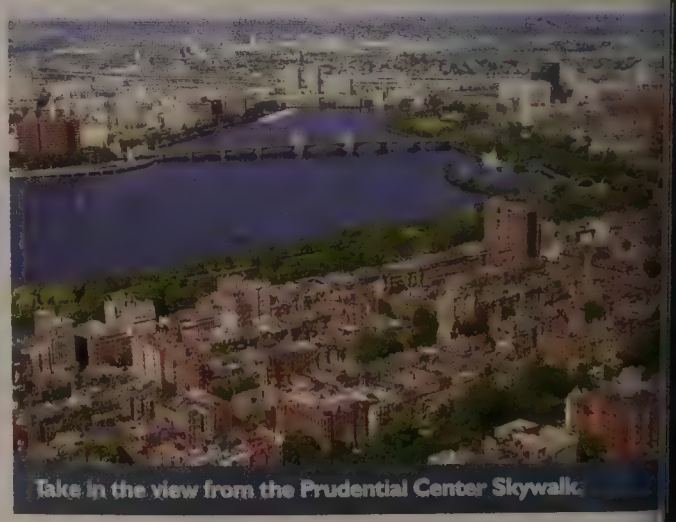
SafeLink
(617-521-0114). Volunteers needed for 24-hour d mestic violence program.

Samaritans of Boston
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship to lonely pe ple over the phone.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young professiona

StandUp for Kids
(800-365-4543). Help rescue homeless children.

VNA Care Network
(617-547-2620). Support terminally ill patients.



Take in the view from the Prudential Center Skywalk.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Presents the

9th ANNUAL HALLOWEEN FUN RUN

There's only ONE place to go for the best time this Halloween.
Join The Improper Bostonian, WBCN and The Rack for the 9th Annual Halloween Fun Run,

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30

t the West end of Faneuil Hall Marketplace. Following the three mile ghoulish jaunt around the Boston Common, join your fellow runners at The Rack for the official post-race party.

DON'T FORGET YOUR COSTUME!

REGISTRATION IS AT 6PM
FUN-RUN BEGINS AT 7PM.

$30 ($35 on October 30) includes T-shirt, goody bag & post party at The Rack. Post party includes buffet and one drink coupon.

Must be 21+
For more information please call 1-800-966-0444.

COMPUTERIZED TIMING BY YANKEE TIMING
Prizes awarded to top three male and female times

Cystic Fibrosis Foundation · WBCN 104.1 FM · The Rack · Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston · The Improper Bostonian Magazine

BAR CLIF · Guinness Draught · Altus · Bayer · A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc.

Learn YOGA!

- 20 years on Beacon Hill
- Hatha, Iyengar, Dynamic Vinyasa, Svaroopa & Viniyoga styles
- Most experienced teachers in Boston
- Free Meditation Classes
- Teacher Training
- Barbara Benagh, director

74 Joy Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02114 www.yogastudio.org
Call for more information 617.523.7138

GOT WORK?

Are you hungry and self-motivated with a great attitude?

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

is looking for an account executive.

Send your resume to:
The Improper Bostonian
142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116
attn: Robyn Sarkisian
or email to robyn@improper.com

GIVE THE GIFT OF COOKING!

CALL OR CLICK-N-COOK TODAY TO PURCHASE A GIFT IN GOOD TASTE!

WWW.CAMBRIDGECULINARY.COM
THE CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL OF CULINARY ARTS
2020 MASSACHUSETTS AVENUE
CAMBRIDGE, MA 02140
617.354.2020

ACCREDITED BY A.C.C.S.C.T.
LICENSED BY THE
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

upcoming issues

November 5, 2003
Winter Fashion

November 19, 2003
Holiday Shopping Guide

December 3, 2003
Boston Charities

December 17, 2003
Year-End Double Issue

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Call 617-859-1400 to advertise

improper impersonals

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Hostess

I talked to you at a restaurant in Inman Square where I am a hostess on Sept. 19, a Friday night. You were having dinner with another guy. We talked before you left the restaurant but I didn't get your name because it started to get busy. You are tall, blond and you were wearing black-framed glasses. I am 5'4" with long brown hair and hazel eyes. If you read this and are interested in getting together, send me an e-mail.
—Southernhazel@hotmail.com

To the Great Triumvirate of Insurance Dunces:

You backstabbing neanderthals. You think you hurt me and had the last laugh in the way you used me to do your work, packing up my office for me and giving me five minutes to leave? Let me tell you something—you did me the biggest favor ever! Not only did I leave the worst job I ever had in this and any previous life, but I got a great new career that I love, making more money then I ever thought I could. I wake up every morning with a smile and am happy for all I have.

But as I finally close that prior chapter of my life, there are a few things I need to say to you, since you ran like rats before I had a chance to say it to your faces.

No. 1: You are a pathetic soul and pathological liar. No one thinks you are funny and no one believes a thing you say. Sadly, it is only you that believes in yourself. Pitiful.

No. 2: You are truly the dumbest man I've ever met in my life. If God Himself didn't piss on you with luck, you would still be selling beer and trying to add 21 years to the ID you have been handed. And if you want to screw around with a guy, just do it. You are hardly my type to begin with, and being married with children makes you that much less desirable. It was really tiring of you to keep rubbing your willy in my office. I don't care how big you said it was.

No. 3: Where to start with you? You are likely the saddest person I have ever met. You are unable to retain a friendship longer than a person's ability to tolerate you and your drama. I mean, really, I could tell all of Boston about your extramarital affair, the man you married for money over love (whilst carrying on with the one you did love), the one-night stands throughout Boston, waking up in strange men's apartments and the social climbing with people you thought were the elite of Boston. I am here to tell you: You aren't their friend and you aren't one of them. You don't know what a friend is. I was a friend to you. And you know it. Maybe that's why you are too ashamed to even call and see how I am. This is why you are over 40, divorced, friendless and raising a kid you have to medicate to keep sane. You deserve everything you get and I couldn't wish it on a better person.

You three deserve each other. I can only hope that you all spend many miserable hours trapped with each other. I can't think of three people that deserve it more.
—Happily Employed

Quincy Goodlooking

You: SWM, tall, dark (possibly darker than me), wicked haaat, a smahhty pants and a genuinely great guy. It wasn't until our second meeting that you caught my eye, yet you've held my gaze ever since. With one look from those piercing blue eyes you unravel me, like pulling a string and I'm open. I love being near you, feeling the essence of your vapor trail. I may seem coy and aloof on the surface but inside I'm seething with energy. Summer was sultry and steamy...care to make fall cozy and intimate?
—Miss Gropez

Matt from Portland, Maine

We met Sept. 20 at Phoenix Landing. You approached me and we spoke many times that night. You took my number and never called, even though I was nice enough to drive you to your friend's house. And you wondered why I'm suspicious of men who hit on me at bars...
—redeemyourself2003@yahoo.com

Shamrock Girl

You and your friends were at the Purple Shamrock for Game 3 of the Yankees–Red Sox. My friend and I ordered food so you could keep your table. I thought you were dating the guy next to you, but my friend thinks I'm wrong. If that's true, I'm an idiot. Any girl who can work up that much utter hatred for the Yankees is a girl I'd like to spend more time with. Drop me a line if you want someone to watch the World Series with.
—Shyallstonboy@aol.com

Laura/Laurel

When I was in Boston in early September I read about a bar named Harvard Gardens and decided to go there. I didn't know what to expect. I just wanted to try it. So I ordered a Coke and spent that evening there. I got to know different people who introduced themselves and obviously enjoyed talking to someone from a faraway country. I liked this friendly, open-minded way of the Americans. As you can imagine, due to the fact that I haven't gone out much in the past, I am a little bit shy when it comes to talking to other people. When I attended a reception given by the governing mayor of Berlin in June, I had no problem talking to the U.S. ambassador to Germany and other distinguished guests, but it is something very different to talk to a woman—especially when you are completely inexperienced in things like that. So I was really happy that some other people made the first move and I found someone to talk to. And then came Laura. I had noticed a woman standing next to me for some time as she was talking to some friends, but I would never have the courage to talk to her. So I was surprised when she turned to me and asked, Do you have a cigarette? "No. I don't smoke," was my response and so there was no conversation yet. I wondered what I could do and a few minutes later I asked the barkeeper for a cigarette. He gave me one and I turned to that woman and gave it to her. I mentioned that I was from Germany and that was the beginning of a nice conversation. We talked about many different things. I have to say that I had the impression that it was fascinating for her and her friends to meet someone from Germany. She offered me a sip of her drinks and I did it ■ she held my arm. "You smell good," she said, and asked me which perfume I was wearing. She mentioned that she had a German last name but I can't remember it. Again, I don't know what made that night so special, but I just felt close to her in a way. It wasn't more than a meaningless flirtation like hundreds of thousands of others, but for me it was something very special. I just can't forget her. I left America, but my heart remained in Boston.

By the way, I was in Boston because I'm interested in JFK. I have published texts on President Kennedy, and because of my interest I have visited the United States thre times. I also held lectures, and in June I had the chance to talk about JFK in front of thousands of Berliners as the German capital celebrated the 40th anniversary of the president's historic visit. I met with the U.S. ambassador t Germany and other important people. Many newspapers, radio stations and even nationwide television have reporte about my work.

I am writing this because I don't know what else I can do to find Laura/Lauren. I just can't forget her. Of course, don't know if my search will be crowned with success, but at least I can say that I tried everything possible. I don't even know what to expect if I find the right woman. I just hope it could be the beginning of a friendship.
—alexanderdensow@web.de

OH, WHAT A FEELING!

EFX 5.23

*Save 10% on any of our resident anti-aging machines.
The one and only: The Elliptical Trainer.

Anti-aging because exercise keeps you feeling young, healthy and happy. When you work out on an elliptical trainer you'll burn more calories, and you won't feel any joint or injury discomfort. And boy what a feeling, because you can finance your purchase for one whole year and not pay a dime until October 2004.

PRECOR TOTAL FITNESS

33 Newbury Street • Boston • 617-236-1742
www.totalfitnessequipment.com

COMMERCIAL UNITS EXLUDED

OPEN 7 DAYS

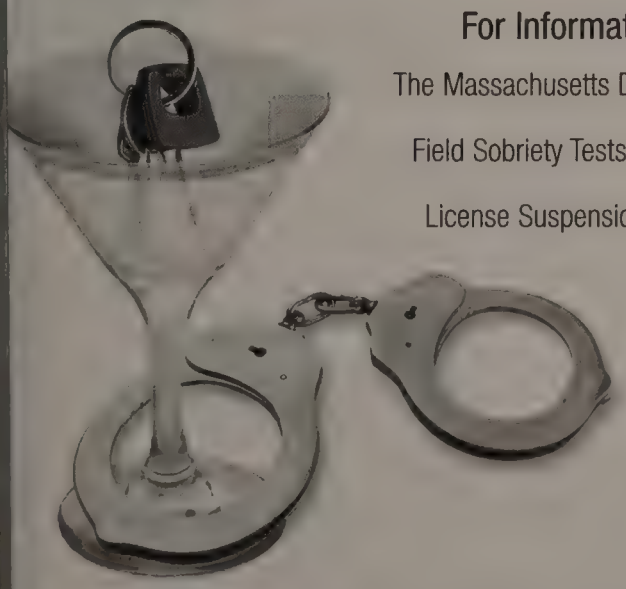
Drink Responsibly Drive Safely

...But know your rights before it's too late!

www.bostonDUIlawyer.com

JACK DIAMOND

Toll Free 24 hours 866-770-1100



For Information About
The Massachusetts Drunk Driving Law:
Field Sobriety Tests • Breath Tests
License Suspensions • Penalties

Boston • Quincy • Plymouth

JACOB WIRTH RESTAURANT

Celebrate Oktoberfest at Jakes.

Oktoberfest 2003

With more Oktoberfest beers than ever before including:
Warsteiner, Paulaner, Harpoon, Ayinger, Hofbrau, Spaten, Sam Adams, Newport Storm

Join us for an exclusive
Oktoberfest Dinner
OKTOBER 27, 8 PM
Sample from a special seasonal menu prepared by Executive Chef Phylis Kaplowitz matched with our hearty Oktoberfest Beers
Space is limited. Call for reservations.

"Jacob Wirth vigorously soars into its third century."
- Alison Arnett -
The Boston Globe

JACOB WIRTH
33 - 37 Stuart St.
Boston, MA 02116
617.338.8586

proud recipient of:
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
Awarded by Boston magazine

LOOK YOUR BEST

COSMETIC DERMATOLOGY AND ADVANCED SKIN CARE

BOTOX • LASER HAIR REMOVAL • MICRODERMABRASION
CHEMICAL PEELS • FACIALS • LASER TATTOO REMOVAL
LASER COLLAGEN RENEWAL • FACIAL AND LEG VEIN TREATMENTS

Experience counts. Come visit our SkinHealth Centers™ and see why we have thousands of dedicated and satisfied clients.

SkinHealth™ CENTERS

CALL FOR A FREE SKIN ANALYSIS CONSULTATION
TOLL FREE 1-877-703-7546 www.skinhealthcenters.com

BOSTON – 100 CHARLES RIVER PLAZA, BEACON HILL
BROOKLINE – 1101 BEACON STREET
ANDOVER • FOXBORO • QUINCY • WELLESLEY • WESTFORD • AND MORE

A great Mexican taqueria

BOCA GRANDE

The Best Burrito in Boston

BEST OF BOSTON®

BURRITOS
TACOS
ENCHILADAS
QUESADILLAS

3 Locations:
1728 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 617.354.7400
149 First St., Cambridge, 617.354.5550
1294 Beacon St., Brookline, 617.739.3900

rockie horoscope

OCTOBER 22 – NOVEMBER 4, 2003 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

SCORPIO OCTOBER 23-NOVEMBER 21

Finish what should get done before the Scorpio new moon on the 25th. That's when you come into season, so to speak, and inaugurate a new agenda, hopefully one based almost exclusively on what you desire. There's a time to compromise, usually during Libra, and a time to be true to your inner nature, and Scorpio is it. Expect to encounter diversions and reversals as major planets change direction—Neptune goes direct, Saturn retrograde—and allow some time for them to settle down. Hint: Halloween weekend.

SAGITTARIUS
NOVEMBER 22-DECEMBER 21

The heat is off and no sign is openly seeking your advice. Whether this pleases or annoys you depends in part on how involved you are in the process of reinventing yourself. Pluto in your sign discovers what isn't working and either suppresses it or makes it too painful to ignore. And no, Pluto isn't going away anytime soon; however it's pretty much finished with natives born in the first 15 days of Sagittarius. You guys are as sick, healed, rehabilitated and transformed as you're going to get in this lifetime. Now it's our turn.

CAPRICORN
DECEMBER 22-JANUARY 20

A lot of attention is currently centered on your accomplishments, reputation or family's good name and how those things can translate into more income. Since your Saturn ruler is getting ready to turn retrograde in Cancer on the 25th, be prepared to encounter resistance from a partner or coworker. Something from the past is bound to come up that could thwart your present plans. If possible, nip it in the bud, because on New Year's Eve when the Capricorn sun opposes Saturn, it can rise up and bite you in the ass.

AQUARIUS
JANUARY 21-FEBRUARY 18

You may still be online with visionary or long-distance travel sites. While a majority of the personal planets converge in your house of spirituality and philosophy, it might be difficult to feel that you're involved in the daily grind or to care about those who are. Since this elevated state of mind is temporary at best, make the most of all the altruism you can muster. After five months of dozing off, Neptune turns direct in your sign on the 22nd, adding a heady mixture of idealism and imagination to whatever else you're consuming.

PISCES
FEBRUARY 19-MARCH 19

Progress of sorts: Once your Neptune ruler turns direct on the 22nd, you can anticipate enjoying the feeling that you're moving on, even if, realistically, you aren't. Well, not for a while. Illusion and delusion is the realm Neptune rules with such reckless abandon, especially when it inundates you with wave upon wave of conflicting emotions. Such may well be the case when Neptune stops looking at your past and tries to show you an alternative future. Pay extra attention to your dreams during this sensitive period for revealing clues.

ARIES
MARCH 20-APRIL 19

Take a deep breath before making decisions while idealistic Neptune and realistic Saturn change directions. Saturn, the ruler of older relatives and restrictions, flipping backward through your domestic scene can put a family or household matter on hold until spring. However, Neptune turning direct should release you from whatever spell you've been under since it flipped in mid May. A project that's been on the back burner suddenly becomes hot again and you see light at the end of the tunnel.

TAURUS
APRIL 20-MAY 20

Even if a problem seems fairly heavy at first glance, sweetness, a lighter approach and reliance on luck will probably see you through it. Because your Venus ruler makes nice with the planets granting all the above, don't bother wringing your hands for effect or kvetching except in jest. For Bulls born on the border of Gemini, a new day is dawning; for the rest, a deeper understanding of your creative process helps you express one of your fondest ideals. After Scorpio gets under way, you could be rewarded for it.

GEMINI
MAY 21-JUNE 20

Maybe it's the nip in the air, maybe the new clothes, but the general atmosphere can seem a lot hotter than before. Could it be Mercury, your ruling planet in your Libra house of romance and risk, presenting interesting possibilities, or is it Neptune in your house of sex and magic coming out of a five-month stupor? Or is it because you're able to see beyond the obvious and take chances you previously wouldn't? Enjoy this interlude, because soon enough Mercury will move into Scorpio and you'll become passionate about something else, like an assignment at work.

CANCER
JUNE 21-JULY 22

Goodness and goodies are heading your way because patience, i.e., having Saturn in your sign is (no matter what the sages say) not its own reward. You need tangible treats and genuine displays of affection to convince yourself that Venus approves of what you're doing. But if you don't receive special favors as a result of the trine between the goddess of love and the lord of retribution, try to be patient a while longer. A supportive trine from the Scorpio sun and another from Mars in Pisces are coming soon.

LEO
JULY 23-AUGUST 22

This week the urge to break free and act unpredictably can underlie what you do and how you react to what significant others do too. Rebel with or without a cause; it makes little difference when you're imbued with iconoclastic, independent Uranian energy. But because the relationship between Uranus and your sun ruler is a positive one, you won't cause too much havoc along the way. Think of yourself as a source of enlightenment, in touch with all the higher powers, especially while Mercury prepares to inform the sun for their meeting at the new moon.

VIRGO
AUGUST 23-SEPTEMBER 22

Money still matters, but instead of more questions, you'll find answers if you look for them. It's not that you're avoiding the truth or the consequences either, but sometimes a detail-driven Virgo can't focus properly and stumbles into a "can't see the forest for the trees" situation. But after Mercury moves into Scorpio on the 24th and merges with the sun, mysteries get solved and down-and-dirty facts surface. Even though Jupiter in your sign isn't claiming bragging rights at the moment, it's still coming up with opportunities to grow.

LIBRA
SEPTEMBER 23-OCTOBER 22

Although you may be deluding yourself a little—Neptune struts his stuff this week—you're also willing to take responsibility for wishfully thinking aloud about a career matter. Since your Venus ruler is on friendly terms with the other forces (and other people) at work, it's likely that nobody will get hurt by a simple indiscretion. However, someone's weird behavior can suddenly change the rules of the game. Stay focused on personal priorities; now is not the time to make sacrifices for the good of the group.

Curious about the future? Order a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months. Send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405, www.rockiehoroscope.com. Read my daily forecast online at www.laweekly.com.

What could be scarier than a naked Steinbrenner?

Come as your favorite George

(clothing optional)

BEST GEORGE COSTUME WINS $500 CASH!

And appear in our next George ad!

Halloween - October 31st
7pm-1am

George — An American Tavern
384 Boylston Street, Boston • 617-859-8555

Smash a pumpkin • Steal some candy • Toilet paper the place, it's the Amercian way.

Bacardi cocktails, grown up treats & door prizes

GEORGE
AN AMERICAN TAVERN

Bring your script, screenplay, headshot or just you to Boston's own
PROJECT GREEN LIGHT NIGHT

Come meet
Dan McCarthy - Hollywood writer/producer/director of Irish Eyes
Angela Peri - Owner of Boston Casting - New England's premiere casting agency for commercials, movies, voice-overs and reality TV

So you want to be a star?

Sponsored by ROCK Green Light the lowest in Carbs and Calories for the Hollywood look right here in Boston

October 27th, 6-10pm

PLUS

Bring your ticket stub from Irish Eyes, an action-packed [illegible] starring Daniel Baldwin & Jon Novak opening on Friday, October 24th for a:
Personal consultation with Dan & Angela
A chance to appear in Dan's next big movie being filmed in Boston, MA!
Other great prizes that could make a star out of you!

Want to learn the inside secrets to making it in Showbiz?

Join us every Monday night for appearances by directors, producers, writers, casting agents, advertising agencies and movie critics

GEORGE
AN AMERICAN TAVERN

384 Boylston Street, Boston • 617-859-8555

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

James M. Blake finds that in Iraq, the IMPROPER's paperboys sometimes throw the magazines at people's doorsteps a little too forcefully.

Luke Zhang stands in front of the Huangpu River in Shanghai, China. Shanghai was designed entirely by one architect, PBS's Commander Mark.

Brian Rice and Alethea Pieters, both budget analysts for the Mass. Senate Committee on Ways and Means, found the way to some mean magma at the Kilauea volcano in Hawaii.

Waleed Meleis toted an IMPROPER to the wall of the Corniche in Alexandria, Egypt. "Corniche" means "protecting the beach of much patio furniture" in ancient Egyptian.

Jane Talanian (front row, fourth from left) celebrated her 50th birthday party with friends, family and plenty of IMPROPERS at Davio's in September.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Desperately trying to find out whatever happened to Silverchair at the Australian Bush Music Festival, held late November in Glen Innes, New South Wales, Australia.

Send color or b&w prints (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116.
Please include your name, address, phone number, e-mail and photo location. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned.

ATTACK OF THE

MONSTER BOWL!

1ST ANNUAL MONSTER BOWL

8PM- WITCHING HOUR(12AM)
OCTOBER 31,2003

Win flights To NYC! Late Night Halloween Trivia!
Costume Contest! Prizes! Games & More!

KINGS lanes • lounge • billiards

10 Scotia St. Back Bay 617.266.2695

www.backbaykings.com

21 + after 6pm

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Saturday, October 4, The Improper Bostonian was a sponsor of Cooking for a Cause at The Union Club. The evening of food and wine benefitted the East End House.

1. Marlo Fogelman, vice president of public relations for CM Communications; Carconnie Spinos, board member of East End House; Tom Berry, executive chef at Bambara; and Steve Barone, line cook at Bambara.
2. Jennifer Hart, event committee member for East End House; Carmen Quagliata, executive chef for The Vault; and Marko J. Karakasevic, winemaker and owner of Charbay Flavored Vodka.
3. Arvind Saraf, Neda Vukmirovic and Nick Tsui, all students from MIT and volunteers for East End House.

On Sunday, September 28, Manulife Financial sponsored the running of the Ollie Road Race to benefit the South Boston Neighborhood House. Post-race festivities were held at the FleetBoston Pavilion.

1. Suzanne Daley, account executive for Arnold Worldwide; Brad Hoglund, director of IT for South Boston Neighborhood House; Jackie Pelton, teacher for Boston Public Schools; Sue Destefanis, accounting for AAA; Paul Tsimikas, MBA student; Kelly Ferrone, business analyst for Electric Insurance Marketing and Ray Destefanis, fiscal advisor for the City Providence.
2. Kevin Rice, Cisco Systems, and Stephen Sullivan, accounting for State Street.
3. Ken Seaman, workflow coordinator; Matt Gendron, quality control; and Stacy Evans, S annuity services representative, all of Manulife Financial.

On Wednesday, October 1, Soho hosted an FHM model search sponsored by Coors Light.

1. Juan Acevedo, principal for State Street Global advisors, and Joseph Henry, daytrader.
2. Pat Ryan, logistics for TJX Companies; Renee Satterwaite, Ford model; and Jamie Asselta, account executive for Marriott Hotels.
3. Corina Birta, Ford model; Vida Guerra, model for FHM; and Julie Bannerton, Ford model.

On Sunday, September 28, The Improper Bostonian was a sponsor of the Four Annual Celebrity Hat Trick at the FleetCenter. The hockey event was presented by the EMC Corporation to benefit the Leary Firefighters Foundation.

1. Ray Bourque, hockey legend, and Nick Patti Jr., owner and president New Floors Installers.
2. Bobby Orr, hockey legend, and Denis Lea founder of the Leary Firefighters Foundation.
3. Jennifer Clarke, fishin captain; Lenny Clarke, actor and comedian; Ph Barrineau, Lenny Clark spiritual advisor; and Adam Ferrara, actor a comedian.

PHOTOS: EAST END HOUSE, JULIE KANE; OLLIE ROAD RACE AND SOHO, MIKE BURNS; CELEBRITY HAT TRICK, WENDY SEMO

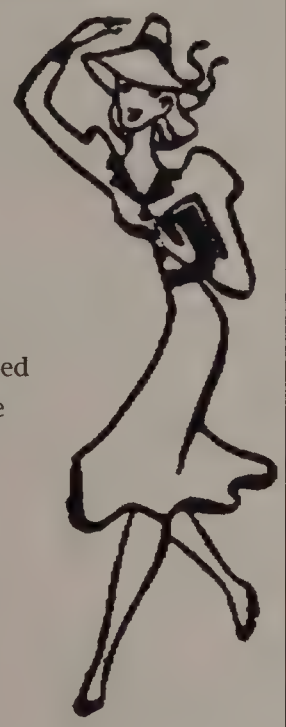
bloomingdale's

LIKE NO OTHER STORE IN THE WORLD

WE ARE LOOKING FOR PEOPLE WHO LIKE PEOPLE AND WHO LIKE TO HAVE FUN AT WORK!

The Chestnut Hill location has openings for commission sales in:

Women's Ready To Wear
Men's Sportswear/Clothing
Cosmetics
Home Furnishings



We are also looking for:
Seasonal Sales Associates

We offer an unbeatable, commission-structured environment with a generous benefit package (including a great discount!) in an exciting and energetic setting.

Please contact:
Human Resources
617-630-6611
Fax 617-630-6618
erin.turner@bloomingdales.com

Bloomingdale's is an Equal Opportunity Employer

BostonCourier.Com

24 Hour Customer Service/Dispatch: 617-457-7800

PRINT

Quality offset printing. It's your competitive edge.

alphagraphics

DESIGN, COPY, PRINT, MORE

74 Canal Street • Boston, MA 02114
tel: (617) 742-9585 • fax: (617) 742-9584
www.boston541.alphagraphics.com

Free 500 Letterhead with order of 500 or more call for details

Restaurants, Bars, Clubs & Brunch

RESTAURANTS

75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston, 617-227-2175, www.75chestnut.com. Providing regional American cuisine served in an intimate setting. Bar opens at 5pm. Dinner served from 5:30pm - 10pm.

Backstage 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. Faneuil Hall's hottest restaurant and nightclub offers the very best in Americana food. Located adjacent to the Comedy Connection you can dance the night away every Wednesday through Sunday with Top 40 and dance classics by DJ's Jonny and Freddi C. For more information call 617-726-1110.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For more info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Blue Cat Cafe 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. A hip restaurant with a jazz-infused atmosphere, the Blue Cat Cafe's signature it it's cool jazz tunes and American classics menu. Select from items such as the Grilled Portabella-Paninni or Pan-Seared Tuna with Wasabi Aioli. The Blue Cat Cafe also makes it's mark with unique martini selections such as the now-famous Blue Cat Cosmopolitan and City Search's Best of Boston Espresso Martini. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC, V.

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston, 617-262-9874. South End bistro offering Contemporary American cuisine in a comfortable European-style setting. Menu features grilled gourmet pizzas, handmade pasta and unique entrees.

The Elephant and Castle 161 Devonshire St., Financial District, Boston, 617-350-9977. English style Pub offering over 100 types of beer, great food and the financial district's most comfortable bar. Specialties include beer battered fish and chips and shepherd's pie. We also offer a great selection of single malt scotches and a variety of cigars. We have two levels of operation with our lower level providing private rooms for both business meetings and after work parties.

Henrietta's Table Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. Chef Davis, whose motto is "fresh and honest", creates a lively menu that features the freshest market produce daily. Food at Henrietta's Table is fresh, pure and wholesome. Full bar, casual dress. Outdoor dining in season. Reservations strongly recommended. Breakfast, Mon-Fri 6:30am-11:00am, Saturday 7:00am-11:00am, Sunday 7:00am-10:30am; Brunch, Sat-Sun noon-3:00pm; Lunch, Mon-Fri noon-3:00pm; Supper, Daily 5:30pm-10;00pm. For reservations and information, please call 617.661.5005.

Iguana Cantina 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

Legal Sea Foods Park Square at the MotorMart - 617-426-4444. Copley Place 617-266-7775, Long Wharf (outdoor dining) 617-742-5300, Prudential Center 617-266-6800. Indulge in Boston's freshest raw bar, our inaugural clam chowder, a succulent lobster or any of your favorite dishes in a relaxed yet sophisticated atmosphere. Legal also offers an award-winning wine list at the best value in town. Stop by for a taste of Boston's Best - our chefs have a table waiting for you.

Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., South Boston, 617-357-5825. www.luckyslounge.com. Located in the trendy artist district of Fort Point Channel, Lucky's is a den of cocktail cool with swanky spirits, traditional fare, and live music featuring the soothing sounds of Frank Sinatra, Ella Fitzgerald, Bobby Darrin and more. Open seven days a week, Lucky's also hosts Sinatra Sundays, a weekly tribute to "Old Blue Eyes" by the Al Vega Trio.

McCormick & Schmick's Seafood Restaurant Boston Park Plaza Hotel ,34 Columbus Ave, Boston 617 482-3999; Faneuil Hall Marketplace, North Market Bldg. 617-720-5522. Recognized nationwide for its fresh seafood and lively atmosphere, McCormick & Schmick's offers over 40 varieties of fresh seafood, and a unique menu that changes daily. The bar is also a popular destination where all cocktails are made fresh and hand-shaken. $1.95 Bar menu served Monday through Friday 3:30-6:30 p.m. and late night every night from 10 p.m - midnight.

M.J. O'Connor's 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11 am - 2am 7 days a week.

Ned Devine's Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere inthe heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of Improper's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. Whether you choose to dine in our streetside greenhouse, at the bar, in the dining room enjoying live entertainment, or snack at your pool table, expect nothing less than a first class meal from The Rack. We serve lunch and dinner from 11:30 am - 1 am. From fresh, homemade pastas and blackened center-cut tuna steaks to grilled pizzas, tasty burgers and Faneuil Hall's most original sandwiches.

Ristorante Fiore 250 Hanover St., Boston, 617-371-1176. One of the true gems of Boston's Historic North End is the fine casual dining of Ristorante Fiore...this authentic Italian experience features central-southern cuisine served in three distinctive dining rooms as well as the charming sidewalk cafe. The rooftop at Fiore's is the hottest spot in the North End...it's also the North End's only rooftop dining. A great place for dinner and cocktails any night of the week. Valet parking available.

Science Street Café Science Park, Boston, 617-723-2500, www.mos.org. Looking for something different to do this Friday night? Check out Boston's newest nightspot - The Science Street Café at the Museum of Science. Try our out-of-this world signature martinis, gourmet appetizers and decadent desserts - all while listening to live music. Perfect before or after an Omni film. Open 6-10pm. Parking available

Solas 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 380 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

Temple Bar 1688 Mass Ave., Cambridge, 02135 617-547-5055. Open Mon.-Sun. 5pm-1am, Brunch Sat. and Sun. 11am-5pm. Located just outside of Harvard Square, Temple Bar has been both a destination and a local for the educators, professionals and students of Cambridge and its surrounding towns. It's colorful European/American menu, home style Ala-Carte weekend brunch and funky interior, complete with a solid copper bar stretching the length of the restaurant, have won many awards and accolades from many local publications.

Trio Restaurant and Lounge 174 Lincoln Street, Boston, 617.357.TRIO. A unique dining experience located in Boston's Leather District. Executive Chef David Perrier, formerly of The Federalist and Grill 23, presents a new approach to creative American cuisine. Tuesday - Friday, please join us after work for cocktails 5:30 p.m. - 2:00 a.m. and dinner 6:00pm. Saturday evenings cocktail & dinner 6:00 p.m. Call for reservations. Also fully equipped for corporate functions and events. View menu and wine list at www.Trioboston.com. Excellent 2002/03 Zagat review.

BARS/CLUBS

Beer Specialty

Boston Beer Works 112 Canal St., near the Fleet Center, 617-896-BEER, 61 Brookline Ave., across from Fenway Park, 617-536-BEER and 278 Derby St., in Historic Salem, 978-745-BEER. Boston's oldest and largest restaurant brewery with 3 locations! Bold American Food. Award Winning Beer. 15 microbrewed beers always on tap. 16 American wines by the glass. 15 championship billiards tables at our Canal Street location. Complete party planning capabilities. Private Rooms. Customizeable menus. Lunch. Dinner. Late Night. Always a good time. Check out the BIGGER and BOLDER menu.

Sunset Grill & Tap: 30 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 380 microbrews and exoic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

Felt 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. Felt is located in the shadow of the new Ritz Carlton, in the heart of the buzzed about Ladder District. A tri-level venue offering sophisticated billiards, New York style lounge, a hip bar scene and fine dining. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth; while listening to a DJ accompanied by live jazz rifts. The perfect setting for a romantic dinner for two or for a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere combined with the delicious creative entrees is the perfect blend to satisfy all your cravings. American Eclectic cuisine by Chef Casey Lloyd.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers 22 gorgeous Brunswick Gold Crown tables. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Clubs

Pravda 116 116 Boylston St., Boston, 617-482-7799. Located in Boston's trendy Theater District, Pravda 116 is a chic restaurant, bar and club. The menu focuses on contemporary American cuisine with specialties like roasted pork medallions. DJs in the bar and dance club keep the energy level high. Restaurant open Tuesday-Saturday, 5:30-10pm, bar, 5pm-2am and dance club Wednesday-Saturday 10pm-2am. AE, CB, DC, MC, V.

Roxy 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Comedy

The Comedy Connection 245 Quincy Market Place, Boston, 617-248-9700. The Comedy Connection located in the heart of historical Faneuil Hall features the biggest names in comedy with apearances by Jon Stewart, Chris Rock, Wendy Liebman and Jay Mohr. Located on the second floor of the Quincy Market Building, the Connection offers the best in local and national stand-up seven nights a week.

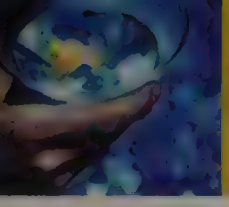
Dance

Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston 451-9460. Boston's only Irish/Mexican cantina is a great escape in the financial district! Two floors, three bars, open-air dining, pool tables upstairs and live bands downstairs!

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www. theplaceboston.com. Drink. Dance. Mingle. Let your hair down; see and be seen on the big screen. Simply the hippest way to spend a night of all-out fun in Boston's Financial District. Come after work. Come to dance. Come to go wild with your friends. There's always something exciting happening – and you never know who you'll bump into. Join us and experience what the buzz is all about.

The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston, 617-227-2060. Known for its great food, live entertainment and relaxing atmosphere! Menu includes American and Irish specialties. Live cover bands nightly.

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002



Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Irish

The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston, 617-742-2286. Boston's legendary Irish Pub celebrates its 25th year! Considered one of the best Irish pubs in America, the menu features American and Irish specialties. Live Irish music nightly.

Hennessy's of Boston 25 Union St., Boston,617-742-2121. Boston's most authentic Irish pub next to Faneuil Hall serves a great menu with daily specials and Irish traditions. A huge bar with an extensive beer and wine list, Hennessy's has Boston's best appetizer menu. Enjoy live entertainment five nights a week with pop bands direct from Ireland. Hennessy's of Boston, "Purveyor's of Fine Food and Spirits," are part of the Somers' Pubs Fleet.

The Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston, 617-523-1112. Hailed as the "crown jewel in the Irish pub empire of John Somers," this premiere Irish Bar features over fifty micro brews, an extensive wine list, a full international menu, and Boston's best appetizer menu. The Grand Canal hosts "Boston's Best Bands," and features Boston's only 12 foot video screen playing Bruins, Celtics, Patriots and Red Sox games. Enjoy a true "Irish Pub Experience."

Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11 am - 1 am 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

The Green Dragon 11Marshall St., Boston, 617-367-0055. Hailed "Headquarters of the Revolution," this favorite after work meeting place is famous for it's "giant cocktail drink special menu." A comfortable place serving lunch and dinner and highly acclaimed Irish breakfast every Sat. & Sun. from 11 am to 3pm. The tavern boasts over 15 beers on tap, 20 different bottled "brewskies" and imported Irish brews. Live music and entertainment every Thursday through Sunday night.

Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11 am - 2 am 7 days a week.

Mr. Dooley's Boston Tavern 77 Broad St., Boston, 617-338-5656. Hailed by the Globe as "the gem of the Financial District," Mr. Dooley's is a favorite meeting place for young professionals. The authentic Irish pub with over 13 imported beers on tap has been voted "Boston's Best Burgers" and "Best Cheap Eats." Open daily until 2am, featuring live bands every Fri. through Sun. night. "A great place for a pint and a chat."

General

The Alley Boylston Place, Boston, 617-351-7000. www.alleyboston.com. The Alley brings the best of Bourbon Street to Boston with the hottest live bands and DJs, specialty drinks, billiards, two patios and a wrap around balcony for plenty of people watching. The Big Easy, Sweetwater Café, Bishop's Pub and the Sugar Shack have something for every mood, so grab your beads and head to The Alley where it's Mardi Gras every night!

Aqua 120 Water St., Boston, 617-720-4900. Boston's newest place to be seen is now open in the heart of the Financial District. Whether relaxing with a martini in one of our cozy booths, sipping a margarita on our roof deck or watching your hometown favorites on our high definition plasma TV. Aqua has what you're looking for after work and late night with our resident and guest DJs spinning your favorite mixes through our state of the art sound system all night long.

The Black Rhino 21 Broad St., Boston, 617-263-0101. The Black Rhino Bar, Restaurant and Club is located in the heart of the Financial District just one block from Faneuil Hall. With four floors, a roof deck and a patio, it is an ideal venue for corporate and social event planning. Live music and resident DJs Wed. through Sat. nights. For mor e info, please call or e-mail info@the blackrhino.com

Cactus Club 939 Boylston St.,617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Improper's Best in 2002. Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

Cheers Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-227-0150, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Offering pub fare until 11:45pm. Live entertainment every Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Cheers Beacon Hill 84 Beacon St., Boston, 617-227-9605, www.cheersboston.com. Open daily from 11-2am. Full menu available until 11:45pm. Watch your favorite team on DirecTV.

Downtown Lounge 138 Portland St., Boston 617-523-8383. Tempting tapas, modern martinis and contemporary cocktails are just a few of the elements awaiting your arrival. A distinctive destination in the heart of North Station, located just one block from the Fleet Center. Share crab taquitos, shaved portobello mushrooms or grilled white pizza. Revive with a specialty martini while sinking into soft curvy seating. Spacious and sublime, Dowtown Lounge is an attractive meeting place for business, luncheons, social, after work cocktails and events.

Encore Lounge 279 Tremont St. Boston (in the Tremont Hotel), 617-338-7699 A new twist on Boston's Cabaret Tradition! Live Music 7 nights a week 9:30pm-1 am (til 2 am on Saturdays). Always open mike! Party where the Stars go after the Show! Tuesday: Bobby Femino (Piano Bar), Wednesday: Brian Nash & Stacey Baker (Standards/Pop), Thursday: Mary Callahan (Contemporary Cabaret), Friday: Jan Peters (Contemporary Cabaret), Saturday: Clara Lofaro (Standards/Pop), Sunday: Dorothy Miller & Michael Larson (Contemporary Cabaret).

The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston 617-722-0161. The newest edition to Boston's night scene. This New Orleans style bar is just steps away from the Fleet Center. Hurricane O'Reilly's serves up the best that Boston nightlife has to offer. Come dance the night away with the hottest music around. We will leave you yearning for Bourbon Street.

Jillian's Boston 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring more than 200 high tech games, six full bars, 50 pool tables, racing simulators, Black Jack for Fun and much more. Atlas Bar and Grill on Jillian's first floor offers full service dining featuring innovative American cuisine, a giant screen video wall and dancing every Friday & Saturday night. www.jilliansboston.com.

Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters ans steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring Live Music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesay - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

Roxy 279 Tremont St., (in the Tremont Hotel), Boston , 617-338-7699. We've got it ALL right here! The hottest dance venue in the City! Thursdays: THE LATIN QUARTER, salsa, merengue and contemporary latin dance. Doors at 10:30, proper dress & I/D. Fridays: MONDO BAR, international and house spun by DJ Felix of Boston Beat and Eddy K. Doors at 10pm, proper dress & ID. Saturday: ROXY SATURDAY NITES, high energy house, dance mixes, spun by DJ Adlison. Door at 9pm, 21+, No jeans, sneakers, hats or athletic wear.

Jazz

The Rack 24 Clinton St., Faneuil Hall Marketplace Boston, 617-725-1051. Winner of The Improper Bostonian's 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 & 2002 Boston's Best awards. This restaurant/ nightclub/ billiards club offers much more than a game of pool. Come enjoy a delicious meal, a martini and a fine cigar. Casual indoor & outdoor dining until 1 am. Live jazz afterwork and bands 7 nights a week, dancing with DJ Littles and Johnny C til 2 am. House bands include Sugarfoot Horns, Black Sole and Zeke Martin.

Regattabar Located in The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square, One Bennett St., Cambridge. The Regattabar is the only place to hear top-flight live jazz Tuesday-Saturday nights and occasional Sunday afternoons. It's the "Diva" of Boston's Jazz Clubs at The Charles Hotel, Harvard Square. Shows at 8:30pm Tues-Thurs, 7:30pm & 10:00pm Fri. & Sat. Full bar and bar menu, casual dress. Parking available at the Charles Hotel garage. Call 617.876.7777 for tickets and information, 800.881.1818 for hotel reservations and information.

Latin

Sophia's 1270 Boylston St., Boston 617-351-7001. A multistory Latin-themed restaurant and club, Sophia's treats guests to a tantalizing Tapas-style menu, live Salsa bands and hi-energy Latin dance. From a romantic dinner and salsa lessons to hi-energy dance and mingling on the roof deck over sangria and Salsa, an evening at Sophia's is always Hot! Hot! Hot

Sports Bar - Upscale

The Place 2 Broad St., Boston, 617-523-2081 www.theplaceboston.com. Voted Boston's Best Sports Bar 2 years in a row by The Improper Bostonian! Mingle with your favorite sports celebrities: Brady, Thornton, Walker, Garciaparra. You never know who you'll run into. Enjoy the wildest party atmosphere in the heart of the Financial District. It's never the same experience twice – we've got exclusive sports video productions and game coverage on our state-of the-art flat screen TVs. So join us to see what the buzz is all about and find out why people in-the-know feel right at home.

BRUNCH

Dick's Last Resort Prudential Center, 55 Huntington Ave., Boston, 617-267-8080, www.dickslast-resort.com. On Sunday, Dick's has live gospel music for brunch from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The buffet includes salads, hot entrees, carved beef and ham stations, an omelet station, waffles and desserts. Adults $15.99 and children $6.99. Live music - no cover, no dress code and definitely no class. Open daily, Dick's Last Resort is billed as "The shame of Boston."

Harvard Gardens 315 Cambridge St., Beacon Hill, Boston, 617-523-2727. www.harvardgardens.com. Cozy up to the beautiful mahogany bar or slip into a comfy booth and enjoy Harvard Gardens' menu of cool cocktails and comfort food. Brunch serves up eggs and pastrami hash, thick-cut French toast with caramelized bananas, specialty pizzas and Boston's best Bloody Mary. Harvard Gardens serves brunch Saturday and Sunday, 11:30am - 3:00pm.

Henrietta's Table Located in the Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge. It's "Boston's Best" brunch Saturdays and Sundays at Henrietta's. Saturday's a la carte brunch features mouthwatering entrees. Sunday's buffet brunch is flat-out lavish with everything from Salad of Smoked Duck to Oysters to Waffles to Omelettes. The menu changes every week so it always features what's freshest and best on the market. Outdoor dining in season. Saturday brunch: Appetizers from $5-$9; entrees $14 or all 3 courses for $21. Sundays: $42 adults; $25 ages 12 and under. Reservations strongly recommended. 617-661-5005.

Sunset Grill & Tap 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; Cantina, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar including a free Sunday paper and your first Bloody Mary or mimosa. Full menu [illegible] taps, 380 microbrews

Tonic 1316 Commonwealth [illegible] 566-6699. We've created the perfect summer setting in our open-air cafe with comfort food and music to ease you through the weekend. Start off with a custom cocktail you make yourself at our Bloody Mary and Mimosa Bar. Traditional Irish breakfast and a-la-carte American favorites served Saturdays. We roll out the works on Sundays with a truly brilliant buffet including the spectacular desserts of pastry chef Andrea Furtado. Weekends 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACTIVITIES

GLASS CLASSES / OPEN STUDIO

Simple Syrup Glass Studio is offering Glass Blowing Classes! Come visit during our Open Studio Event Dec. 6th & 7th For more information see our Ad on page 123, or call 508.588.8022.

PERMANENT COSMETICS

WAKEUP WITH MAKEUP

Call Debra 781-820-5442. See on display on opposite page.

PERSONAL CHEF

THE MAIN DISH

THE MAIN DISH Personal Chef Service. Healthy eating has never been this easy! Nutritional information and vegetarian meals available. FALL SPECIAL-10% off stuffed picnic baskets. Perfect for that fall weekend get away and Head of the Charles! Call today for pricing and menus! 617-241-7635. www.themaindish.net.

RESTAURANTS FOR SALE

LIMBO BOSTON
RESTAURANT/LOUNGE

Capacity 263 Excl Lse
2AM Full Liquor & Entertainment
Owner Spent $2 Million
Ask...$625K/Terms

www.buyrest.com
NATIONAL RESTAURANT BROKERS
617-227-1919

REAL ESTATE

EASY ROOMMATE / EASY RENT

Online rental service-providing privately owned and leased rentals easily viewed with photos at our website. Apts. or apt. shares will be auto emailed to you daily. It is safe & simple to use. Flexible payment plans & so much more at www.easyrent.com / www.easyroommate.com 1-888-531-6139.

GRAND CENTRAL APARTMENTS

617-342-7118. For more information see our display on this page.

SUBLET.COM

All prices; All areas Long & Short; Furnished & Unfurnished Studio, 1 & 2 bedroom $500 $3000 WWW.THESUBLET.COM 1-877-FOR-RENT.

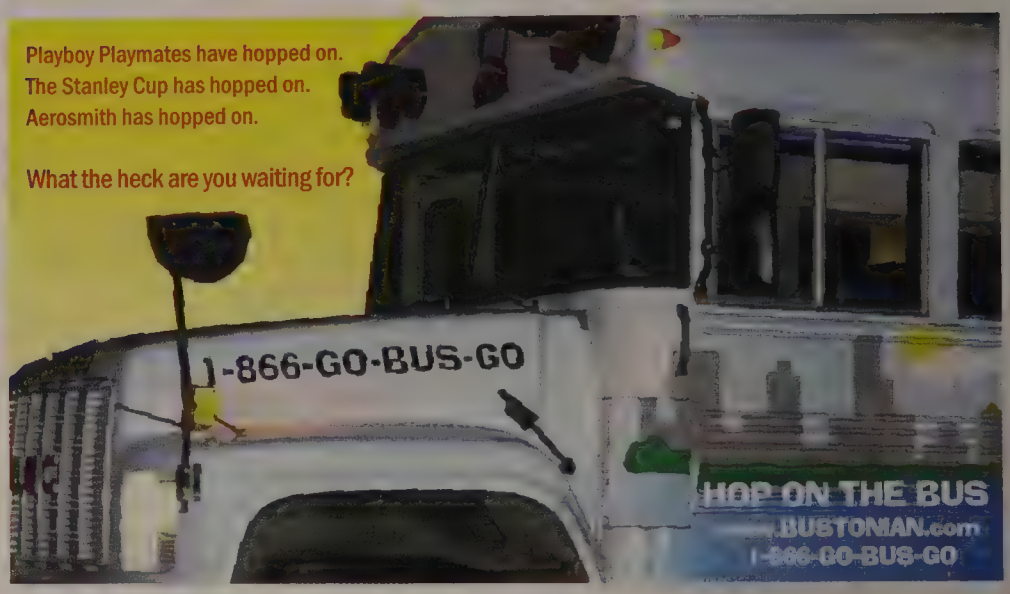
grandcentralapartments.com
617-342-7118 OPEN WEEKENDS
No broker fees, no wasted time. Just pure results.
Boston's safest, fastest, easiest way to find a roommate.
OPEN WEEKENDS 617-342-7172
grandcentralroommates.com

Do you want to make things better?
Telefundraising
Raise awareness and funds for:
The Environment • Gay Rights
Political Organizations • Animal Welfare
For both PT & FT, we offer: $10–15/hour average, flexible schedules and benefits.
Convenient Davis Square location!
For consideration, please call Jill at: 617-629-4571; fax: 617-629-4510; or e-mail: jgolden@sharegroup.com
SHARE
THE BUSINESS OF SOCIAL CHANGE
EOE

The Improper Shopper
Classifieds and Real Estate Listings.
Get in today!
Call 617.859.1400 x280

Playboy Playmates have hopped on.
The Stanley Cup has hopped on.
Aerosmith has hopped on.

What the heck are you waiting for?



IMPROPER BOSTONIAN READERS ARE LOOKING FOR A PLACE TO LIVE.

The Improper Bostonian has a readership of 392,900*.

137,700* of our readers earn over $75,000 a year

62,400* make over $50,000 a year and plan to buy a house in the next two years

64,300* of our readers will be looking to rent an apartment within the next year.

Reach your target audience.
Call 617-859-1400 x280.

"I placed a classified ad in THE IMPROPER SHOPPER to recruit wait staff. I got at least 25 phone calls in ONE week and ended up hiring one of my best waitresses. The Improper Bostonian is a great publication to recruit. It hit all people in the service industry."

Peter McCarthy
Co-Owner of 21st Amendment

Help Dreams come to life.

Help infertile couples become parents by donating your eggs — and help make dreams come true. Dream Donations is looking for healthy women between the ages 21 and 32. Donors will be required to take medication and undergo a minor surgical procedure.

Generous compensation for time & effort.
Participation is completely confidential.

www.dreamdonations.com

Call Dream Donations Toll Free:
1-866-Dream Donor
(1-866-373-2636) Mon. thru Fri. 9-5 pm
www.dreamdonations.com

ICE SKATING CLASSES
15 M.D.C. Rinks
CHILDREN AND ADULTS
Starts Soon
(781) 890-8480
Register online
www.baystateskatingschool.org
Bay State Skating School

Applying to a top MBA program?
Find out how ready you are.
connect²
(781) 646-5687
connecttwo.com/MBA

DANCING SHIVA YOGA STUDIO
ARE YOU DOING IT YET?
Hatha, Power and Vinyasa Flow Yoga
Student Discounts
M,W,F 5:45, 7:30; T,Th 6:15,9,12,
5:45, 7:30; Sat, 9,2,5:45; Sun,10,2
Private and group instruction
297 Newbury Street, Boston 617.266.0770

ATTENTION
RESTAURANTS, BARS, HOTELS
The Improper Shopper is the best place to recruit help in the hospitality industry.
Call 617-859-1400 x280

All Red Sox Home & Away Games
TICKET CITY
Phil Lesh & Friends 10/23-25
Aerosmith & KISS 10/26
Monster Jam 10/28
OPEN 7 DAYS
(617)787-2370
128 Harvard Ave • Allston • www.coolguitars.com
OPEN 7 DAYS

My Fair Lady
Choice Consignments
jewelry • accessories • clothing
1739 Centre St., W. Roxbury, MA 02132 Phone: 617-325-0908

VOCAL COACHING
STAGE PRESENCE • CONFIDENCE
POWER • RANGE • CONTROL
Jeannie Deva® Voice Studios
The Deva Method® - A Non-Classical Approach for Singers™
295 Huntington Ave - (617) 536-4553
www.DevaStudiosBoston.com
"I can't say enough good things about this method - it saved my voice!" - SM, Boston
Ask About our Private Lessons and Workshops!
AIMEE MANN • DAR WILLIAMS • PATTY GRIFFIN • CAST OF FAME • CAST OF JESUS CHRIST SUPERSTAR
Copyright 2003. All Rights Reserved. Studio independently owned and operated by instructors certified in the Deva Method. Jeannie Deva and The Deva Method are trademarks of Jeannie Deva Enterprises, Inc.

Trying to Kick the Habit?
Volunteers Needed to Test a New Quit Smoking Drug
If you are a healthy adult smoker who would like to quit, you may be eligible to participate in a new research study at Massachusetts General Hospital. To participate, you must be:
•A healthy volunteer
•18-75 years old
•Smoking 10 or more cigarettes per day
•Motivated to quit smoking
For more information, please call (617) 724-0746 or email: stopsmoking@partners.org
MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL HOSPITAL

Permanent Cosmetics
Angelbare.com
• Eyebrows • Eyeliner
• Full Lips • Beauty Marks
• Scalp / Scar Camouflage
• Areola Restoration
617 527 - 0002
Certified Advanced Instructor
Featured on Chronicle, Fox 25, Channel 4, and 56

Single?
Meet for lunch, coffee, or drinks after work.
Call 617-254-3000
or take the free survey:
www.lunchdates.com
Our 21st year!
LunchDates™

Permanent & Corrective Cosmetics
By Debra
"Wake Up with Makeup"
Cosmetic Tatooing
Eyeliner • Lips • Eyebrows
Scar Camouflage
Areola Micropigmentation
by Appointment
www.permanentcosmetics4u.com
Member AAM/Member SPCP
For information call:
781-820-5442
38 Montvale Ave. Stoneham, Ma.02180

MOVIE EXTRAS/MODELS NEEDED
Earn up to $200 per day
No experience/
Age required
1-888-820-0165

LOOKING FOR RENTERS AND BUYERS?
List your property with the Improper Bostonian.
Our readers live, work and play in Boston. They know that parking is not always included--and they still want to live there!! Call today for rate information.
617-859-1400 x280

Glass Blowing Classes
Cold Working
Kiln Casting
simple syrup glass studio
Register for Classes Now!
www.simplesyrup.com
simple syrup glass studio
116 intervale street :: brockton, ma 02302
508.588.8022 :: info@simplesyrup.com
Visit us during our Open Studio Event, Dec. 6 & 7. Holiday Sale featuring firsts, seconds, one-of-a-kind items, and on-going glass blowing demonstrations.

Quinex™
Private study - psychology "classes" designed just for you!
Experiences in Personal Development℠
Popular psychology, facts, and theory. Fun stuff, also serious scholarship and practical tools for hi - level health, work, social, & family functioning. Your pace via one to one teaching. Lavish attention to your interests & needs. Relaxed, Private, Confidential.
Days or Evenings
Lic. Psychologist, Dr. Robert Azrak, Quincy.
www.quinex.info
tel. 617.773.9209
www.Quinex.info

We've Got It ALL
Enjoy the pleasures of Boston
BPA
BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION
(617) 591-1400
www.Bostonypa.com

YOUR AD HERE
Call 617.859.1400 ext. 280

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the Celebrity Chef party at Radius, clockwise from top left: Alisyn Camerota; Suzanne Logan; Sally Beach, Rainbow Brite and Kenn Gray; Linda Schwabe and Pascal and Irina Aguirre de Navarre; Dan Schwinn and Caterina Bandini.

A REFRESHING ALTERNATIVE TO COCO CRISPIES AND VODKA...

The only problem with a raging party on a Sunday night is that Monday morning feels like cruel and unusual punishment. That said, it was worth the a.m. agony to attend the Big Sister Association's Celebrity Chef Event at Radius.

In addition to cocktails and kibitzing, there were the obligatory silent and live auctions and a smorgasbord of finger-lickin' good grub by such notable hash-slingers as Marc Orfaly of Pigalle, Evan Deluty of Torch (with his mom, Marcia), Joanne Chang of Flour and Kevin Long of Tosca.

Seen milling about, drinks in hand, were the evening's co-chairs, Sally Beach and Kenn Gray; the latter's de-facto Vermont-type husband, gifted graphic designer Christopher Gray Ellsworth; the TV news triumvirate of Channel 7 minx Caterina Bandini (with her other half, Dan Schwinn), Fox News blonde bombshell Alisyn Camerota and WB weather babe Bonnie Schneider; super-hot personal trainers Stephanie Weston and Isaiah Truyman of the Sports Club L.A.; Euro-cuties Pascal and Irina Aguirre de Navarre; Radius partners Michael Schlow, Chris Myers and Esti Parsons (the evening's hosts); the latter's rockstar husband, Drew, of American HiFi; tag-teaming PR princesses Alicia Gordon and Anne Lower; a drag queen named Rainbow Brite, whose false eyelashes looked like something that escaped from a coral reef; and one utterly objectionable person who insisted on trading shirts with chef Brian Reimer in the middle of the party.

The evening raged on long after the auction was over, the food was gone, and the bartenders had finished fixing cocktails; in fact, everyone relocated to Peking Tom's. Whether or not this was a good idea is open to debate, but at least there were some memorable moments, like when the interior designer took a sip of a watermelon martini and said, "I think this is going to be my new breakfast drink."

PASS THE ALKA SELTZER...

If allowed to, a goldfish will eat itself to death.

This fact came to mind at L'Espalier's 25th-anniversary party, a 10-course dinner to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Copley Society, hosted by Moncef Medeb, and owner Frank McClelland.

The menu was accompanied by wines almost as distinguished as the guest list, which included some of the biggest names in the restaurant business and sundry rich and influential types.

Among them: James Beard award winner Barbara Lynch; TV cooking god Ming Tsai and his delightful other half, Polly; the incomparable Lydia Shire and the gifted Jacky Robert; potential Bachelor contestant and Clio owner Ken Oringer with the delectable Nancy Cutler; tall drink of water Gordon Hamersley; Rialto sorceress Jody Adams; Upstairs on the Square's Deborah Hughes and Mary Catherine Deibel, and so on and so forth.

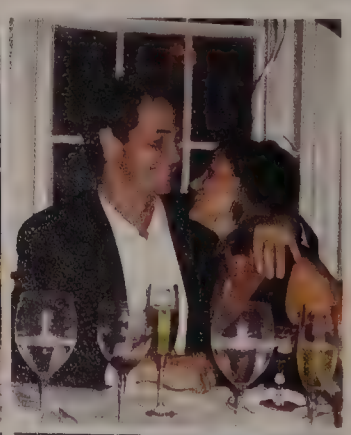
Watermelon gazpacho with Maine crabmeat was followed by Hudson Valley foie gras, after which came roasted monkfish, and then a crepinette of Scottish grouse, grilled lamb with white truffles, a cheese course, sorbet, and something called "Three Decades of Chocolate," which would have been more aptly called "Three Decades at the Gym."

Amazingly (or not, given how tasty each dish was), everyone seemed to eat every bite, and if there were any complaints to be heard, they had to do with having worn pants a few sizes too small. Throughout the evening, people offered toasts and recollections about the restaurant, and by 1 am, many of the guests were beginning to slip quietly into a food coma, at which point the party broke up and everyone went home, safe in the knowledge that evenings like that come along only every quarter of a century or so.



At L'Espalier's 25th-anniversary party, clockwise from upper left: Richie and Maureen Balsbaugh; Nancy Cutler and Ken Oringer; Lydia Shire; Ming and Polly Tsai.

A SURE SIGN OF FALL...

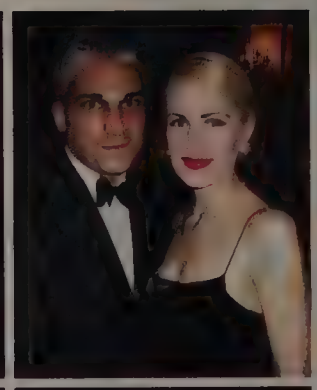
Given that his is the only name carved into the proscenium arch at Symphony Hall, the all-Beethoven program that kicked off the Boston Symphony Orchestra's 123rd season was eminently appropriate for Opening Night.

The black-tie gala, which marks the unofficial start to Boston's social season, began with a cocktail reception in the Higginson Room, where one longtime Symphony supporter was relieved to find that while Seiji Ozawa might be gone, the tradition of serving sushi as an hors d'oeuvre before the Opening Night concert carries on.

The performance, led by guest conductor Bernard Haitink and featuring pianist Dubravka Tomsic, was followed by a formal dinner for benefactors and bigwigs in the ballroom of the Copley Plaza Hotel.

Present and accounted for: soignee socialite Gale Minot, squired by the affable Cabot Henderson; event chairs Judy and Roger Feingold; transplanted Bostonian (to Seattle, of all places) David Endicott Gannett; mega-music lovers Gabriella and Leo Beranek and Chet and Farla Krentzman; catering vixen Susan Callendar and Channel 4 factotum Don Lowery (sporting the Super Bowl ring he earned when he worked for the Patriots); power couple Joan Wallace-Benjamin and her handsome husband, Milton; legal eagle Jack Zalkind; uber-philanthropists John and Marilyn Keane; and board chairman Peter Brooke, who referred to the orchestra, with characteristic understatement, as "an extraordinary band."

However, the evening's most entertaining comment came from a fetching brunette who, looking down at her décolletage, said, "I really can't blame men. I get distracted by my cleavage." IB



At the BSO Opening Night, clockwise from upper left: Gale Minot; Ramsey and Nicole Alsarraff; Susan Callendar and Don Lowery; Michele Cotler and Dave Gannett.

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion?

Call J.S. at 617-859-1400 ext. 303 or e-mail at jonathan@improper.com

Dior

ALPHA OMEGA
WATCH & DIAMOND SPECIALISTS
DIAMONDS SINCE 1976
LINGTON MALL • NATICK MALL • PRUDENTIAL CENTER
HARVARD SQUARE • FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE
617.864.1227

Dior
JOAILLERIE

CHAMBORD
CHAMBORD MARTINI
1/2 oz. Chambord 1 oz. Vo pineapple juice Add lemon twist.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

TRO BOSTON'S LUXE GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT,
LTURE AND BUNDLED-UP BEAUTIES

WINTER FASHION

NOVEMBER 5-18, 2003
OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
43
74470 79832 3

the puma store

NEW YORK BOSTON SANTA MONICA
SAN FRANCISCO SOUTH COAST PLAZA
BELLEVUE LONDON PARIS ROME
TOKYO MELBOURNE

333 newbury street, boston 617 369 7091

PUMA
puma.com

You're World Beat

Yesterday, your outfit was from Tokyo, your shoes Milanese, your bag from Mumbai, your dinner was Thai. You danced to German-Senegalese technokalimba music at a purely American club. Your John Hardy jewelry was right in sync. John Hardy's Kali and Dot Silver Collections are priced from $95. to $2,295.

JOHN HARDY

Since 1801

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW

Boston · 617-267-9100

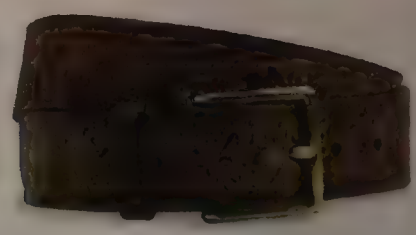
The Mall at Chestnut Hill · 617-965-2700

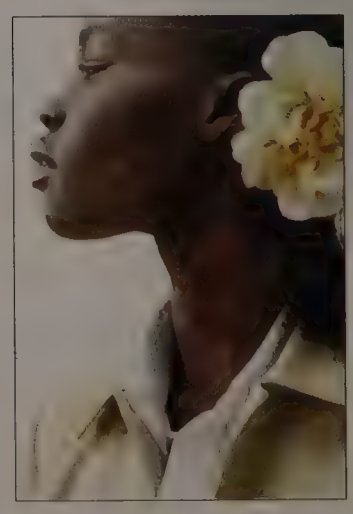
Toll Free 800-324-0222

www.shrevecrumpandlow.com

AMERICAN EAGLE OUTFITTERS BANANA REPUBLIC CLARKS GAP

MARKETPLACE CENTER, NEXT TO FANEUIL HALL, BOSTON





ALPHA OMEGA

prudential center harvard square natick mall
burlington mall 617 864 1227

GUCCI

GUCCI

40TH ANNIVERSARY SEASON

BOSTON BALLET

MIKKO NISSINEN Artistic Director

NOV 28 • DEC 30, 2003

the NUTCRACKER

Music: P. I. Tchaikovsky

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

TICKETS $19-77

CALL TELECHARGE AT 1.800.447.7400

Tickets also available at The Wang Theatre Box Office, open Mon-Sat, 10 am-6 pm.
Groups of at least 25 call 617.456.6343. TTY 1.888.889.8587

www.bostonballet.org

FILENE'S
always something exciting

Photo of Adriana Suárez and Paul Thrussel by Jennifer W. Lester; Photo of Nutcracker Children by Kent Dayton Concept and design: Sametz Blackstone Associates, Boston

VICHY
LABORATOIRES

Now available in Boston for the 1st time in the U.S.

The No.1 skincare brand in European pharmacies

Created in 1931 in France, Vichy Laboratoires offers unique skincare products including:

- Vichy Thermal Spa Water to soothe and help reinforce the skin's natural protective function
- Latest dermatological ingredients

Vichy products are 100% allergy-tested and dermatologist recommended for sensitive skin.

Available at select pharmacies

Brooks Pharmacy
710 East Broadway
Boston
Tel. (617) 269 5780

Brooks Pharmacy
393 Highland Avenue
Somerville
Tel. (617) 776 7736
Opening November 2003

Brooks Pharmacy
350 Cambridge Street
Woburn
Tel. (781) 933 4410

CVS Pharmacy
8 Washington Street
North Attleboro
Tel. (508) 695 0657

VICHY. HEALTH IS VITAL. START WITH YOUR SKIN.

For more information, call toll-free 1-877-37-VICHY
or log on to www.vichy.com

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

WHAT TO WEAR?

In one of the features in this issue, devoted to bettering your wardrobe, we've combined the topic of fashion with one that many of our readers say they can't get enough of: dating in Boston. For "Clothes Call" (page 30), we recruited a few men and women, ages 23 to 40, and quizzed them about what the opposite sex should wear to hold their attention. Sure, a stylish jacket can't do for you what a great sense of humor or a fascinating life story can, but in those sometimes awkward getting-to-know-you moments, confidence in your appearance can't hurt.

There were a few surprises in our meeting with the fashion panel. For one thing, the men in our group put the lie to the notion that guys don't care much about clothes. In reacting to eight different dinner-date outfits we put together, they proved nearly as opinionated as the women, offering Blackwell-worthy quips from "Burn the sweater" to "I love the boots. Everything else has to go."

Other feature stories offer looks at the latest styles in sweaters, coats, shoes, accessories and more, plus tips from fashion editor Samantha House on wearing them. Fur is one of the season's strongest trends, and we've featured it on a few pages this issue. But if you're against real fur, there is of course the faux (or no) fur option. As designer Lana Bilzerian tells Jonathan Soroff (page 18), "Fashion is self-expression." That's what makes deciding what to wear and which fashions to follow a creative pursuit as well as a fun one.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

...AND AN ANGIOPLASTY ON THE SIDE, PLEASE

I really enjoyed reading your piece on extreme foods in the Oct. 22 issue. I thought the categories were great, except one category seemed to go unacknowledged: "Most Heart-Stopping." And I'd like to be the first to nominate Bennigan's (I know they're a chain and not as highbrow as most of the restaurants you feature) and their outstanding Monte Cristo sandwich. It's a typical Monte Cristo, with the ham, turkey and cheese, but then they deep-fry that bad boy. You're likely to have chest pains just looking at its picture on the menu.

A second entry should be the Irish breakfast at Mul's Diner in Southie. Four kinds of meat! What's not to like?

I hope you can work this into an upcoming issue, as I may not be around for next year's installment. Or at the very least I'll be on doctor's orders eating nothing but wheat grass and soy.

Keep up the good work.

—ERICK BAKSTRAN
Attleboro

HUNGRY FOR THE NEXT COURSE

As a young, obsessive foodie, I have known since my freshman year of high school that I want to be a chef. I am now a senior in high school and am ready to earn my bachelor's degree in baking and pastry arts. I especially loved your Fall Dining issue—it showed me that with enough innovation and talent, it's possible to rise to the top. Thanks for the inspiration!

—LAURA LO
Malden

MMMM...HAGGIS

OK, I am a huge fan of eating, and Boston has so many wonderful places to offer—it's almost too much to choose from and definitely raises the question, Why do we cook for ourselves?

The Phantom Gourmet is great, but I do have a slight issue with one of his answers in Jonathan Soroff's interview (Oct. 22). In response to the question, "Grossest food you've ever eaten?" the Phantom replies, "Cheez Whiz...no, haggis."

I'm in total agreement with the Cheez Whiz comment, but come on, haggis? Has he even tried it? I'm Scottish and I love haggis.

If the Phantom Gourmet wants to have a great night out, he should join me and my friends in January for a Burns Supper (as in Robert Burns, the poet). Haggis is great, although most people are turned off by the idea of it (originally cooked in sheep's stomach, now synthetic products). Get over it. Don't knock it until you try it. After all, what's in bologna?!

—ROSLYN MCLEAN
Charlestown

ONE CATEGORY SEEMED TO GO UNACKNOWLEDGED IN YOUR "EXTREME FOODS" ARTICLE: MOST HEART-STOPPING. I NOMINATE BENNIGAN'S DEEP-FRIED MONTE CRISTO.

—ERICK BAKSTRAN
ATTLEBORO

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

COVER IMAGE: WENDY IDELE

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITORS Erin Hagedorn, Julie Suratt

COPY CHIEF Susan Abbattista

COPY EDITOR David Plunkett

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

STAFF WRITER Ezra Dyer

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Jessica Iredale

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, Daniel Spurling

EDITORIAL INTERNS Kelli Acciardo, Katelyn Belyus, Kristen Grieco, Kate Hedgpeth, Sarah Korval

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Rita Greeley

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

ART DEPARTMENT INTERNS Marilyn Chung, Vanessa Earl

FASHION & BEAUTY EDITOR Samantha House

FASHION ASSISTANT Sara Schiano

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGER Alison Morant

SENIOR ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Julie Kane, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Michael Burns, Cheryl Jackson

BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT EXECUTIVE Sherry Riccio Atamian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Katie Schmidt

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

V.P. PRODUCTION Jeff Gill

TRAFFIC MANAGER Karen Dana

MARKETING MANAGER Martha Brown

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Melina Legaki, Sarah McManus, Julie Milinazzo, Victoria Segal

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Bill Marks

OPERATIONS MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian

RECEPTIONIST/SALES ASSISTANT Gretchen Bostrom

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3RD Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc.

Copyright©2003 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

MONT BLANC

THE BEST WAY TO SHAPE THE FUTURE IS TO INVENT IT.
STARWALKER. THE NEW GENERATION OF WRITING
INSTRUMENTS CRAFTED BY THE MIND.

ALPHA OMEGA

FLAGSHIP AT HARVARD SQUARE - 617.864.1227
SHOPS AT THE PRUDENTIAL CENTER - 617.424.9030
BURLINGTON MALL - 781.272.4016
NATICK MALL - 508.655.0700

new in town

A FESTIVAL OF WINE

Vinalia should win an award for the Most Difficult Restaurant to Find (or at least share one with blu, hidden away in the Sports Club/LA). Located on the second floor of a nondescript office building in Downtown Crossing, Vinalia isn't likely to lure in passersby unless they: a) have a very good sense of direction, or b) have dined at the space's former occupant, Dakota's.

But given the crowd at Vinalia's two bars and in the dining room on a recent weekday, clearly the word has gotten out. It was filled with neighborhood suits sipping wine and nibbling on crispy flatbread with herb white bean dip.

Vinalia, which means "wine festival" in Latin, certainly lives up to its name: It boasts a 2,500-bottle wine collection, serves more than 40 wines by the glass and hosts weekly wine tastings. This focus on wine makes sense given that co-owner and general manager Ed Costa ran the Boston Wine Festival at the Boston Harbor Hotel for 10 years before going off on his own with Vinalia.

Costa has turned a restaurant with passable food (Dakota's) into a hip wine bar. It's now got sleek slate and blond hard-wood flooring, deep mustard yellow walls and a glass-backed bar. And Costa has added a 20-seat martini bar where guests can invent their own libations with ingredients like olives, herbs, chocolate shavings and espresso beans. Prices are reasonable (nothing's over $20), and the simply prepared entrées are quite tasty. We tried pan-seared yellowfin tuna over crisp Bibb lettuce with black olives, tomatoes and broccoli and a sesame vinaigrette, and an oven-roasted barbecue chicken breast with eggplant ratatouille and garlic whipped potatoes. Next visit, we'll splurge on the nightly four-course wine-pairing menu for $55. 101 Arch St., Boston (617-737-1777). —Erin Hagedorn and Julie Suratt

sports

HOT OR NOT?

HOT

Steve Nicol

The Revolution coach leads the team to a strong finish, triggering his contract extension for next season.

Bank of America burgers
Served at the soon-to-be-renamed home of the Celtics and Bruins?

The Patriots defense
The D is a big reason the Patriots led the division at the season's halfway point, despite losing Lawyer Milloy and Tebucky Jones.

Patrice Bergeron
The 18-year-old Bruins rookie scored seven points in his first nine games, a total that took Joe Thornton 55 games to reach in his debut year.

NOT

Grady Little
Fenway gains its first self-proclaimed ghost.

Yankee dogs
Much to our bittersweet satisfaction.

Kenyatta Jones jerseys
The Patriots tackle was released by the team after allegedly scalding his administrative assistant with hot water, raising a disturbing question: Football players have administrative assistants?

Anything else...
...that has to do with ice or the onset of winter.

—Ezra Dyer

inner view

MITCH ALBOM

Detroit Free Press sportswriter–turned–sentimental author (and Brandeis alum) Mitch Albom topped national bestseller lists with the 1997 phenomenon Tuesdays with Morrie, his memoir about reconnecting with one of his Brandeis professors after he learns the professor is terminally ill. Six years, a play and a made-for-TV movie later, the enduring patience of Oprah's Book Club devotees is finally rewarded with Albom's follow-up book. The Five People You Meet in Heaven is a novel about an amusement park mechanic who dies thinking his life was a failure but then meets five people in heaven who show him how he affected others. Albom, who signs his new book at Borders Boston Nov. 11, took a few minutes to chat with us about fiction, the afterlife and rooting for a losing team.

IB: Why the long wait for another book after Tuesdays with Morrie?
MA: Well, mostly because I didn't want to write Wednesdays with Morrie. The publishing industry didn't want to publish Tuesdays with Morrie at the beginning. I wrote it to pay Morrie's medical bills. But when I took it to publishers I had [worked with] before, they said they didn't want it. And after it became what it became, then I had the opposite problem. They all wanted more Morrie. I never did that book for money, and I wasn't going to do another book in that style. I decided to wait a while for another idea that moved me as much. If it took a year, it took a year. If it took six, it took six.
IB: How has your career changed after Tuesdays with Morrie's success?
MA: Prior to Tuesdays with Morrie, I was primarily a sportswriter, and most of my work was in sports and most of my conversations were in sports. After, most of that shifted. People stop me and say, "My dad just died of cancer, and we read your book together before he died." Now when I get asked to speak, it isn't just rotary clubs asking about the ALCS. A lot of my concerns and concentrations moved away from sports and onto weightier issues. I cut out all freelance and television work. Everything got sliced off just to have more time to think and put into effect some of the things I learned with Morrie. So I guess the answer would be: Everything changed completely.
IB: What's the message you hope people take from The Five People You Meet in Heaven*?*
MA: Everyone's more connected than they realize. We live in a world where if you're not rich or famous, you don't get noticed. People come up and say, "Hi, I'm nobody, but I love your book." And I say, "Why do you say you're nobody?" I realize that we live in a world where if you're not Ben Affleck and Jennifer Lopez, you don't count. The character in this book is an old guy that fixes roller coasters, and he found out he touched all these lives.
IB: Do you think that if you hadn't reconnected with Morrie that you'd ever have written fiction?
MA: I doubt I would've written a book like this. I would've written more sports books and continued to work 600 hours a week and not thought anything of it.
IB: What's your next project?
MA: I hope to write more fiction if this book is received well, and early signs are it will be. I've written a few plays. That's sort of become an interest of mine. I wrote the play for Tuesdays with Morrie, and I wrote a play for Jeff Daniels.
IB: Has Oprah read The Five People You Meet in Heaven yet?
MA: I think so. I sent her a couple copies, and the woman who made the movie, her right-hand woman, has read it.
IB: Now for a sports question: How come a team that the Red Sox scored 14 runs against in one inning gets to be in the World Series?
MA: [Laughs.] 'Cause life isn't fair.
—Jessica Iredale

INK WET RESPONSIBLY

WET BY BEEFEATER

tidbits and morsels

SWEET STUFF

Back to the Alley...Much to the dismay of summertime partyers, the Sweetwater Café shut down for the spring and summer in order to renovate its interior and prep for an early-October reopening. Now, the new and improved Sweetwater has re-emerged with a casual restaurant/tavern feel that its drunkapalooza counterparts lack. The kitchen is open seven days a week for lunch and dinner, and owner Eric Aulenback says the food quality and atmosphere are much more along the lines of Harvard Gardens and Lucky's (also Lyons Group establishments). Although Sweetwater served food before the renovations, "It was really just a bar," says general manager Adam Hawk, referring to the room's party atmosphere. "Now it's much more toned down."

Got Id?...Les Zygomates has been keeping oenophiles happy with its option of reasonably priced or super-fancy reserve wine lists for nearly a decade. But this fall, sommelier Geoffrey Fallon decided to strike a happy medium between the two by introducing his "id list"—Fallon's choice of wines priced between $20 and $60. Selections range from his personal favorites to bin ends and "downright funky wines." All are available in limited quantity, so it's a new experience every time (the list has already changed more than 16 times in the past two months).

Piggly Wiggly...When Cambridge's House of Blues closed in September, many wondered what would become of the Harvard Square landmark. The answer should set mouths watering: New York–based barbecue joint Brother Jimmy's announced plans to takeover HOB's former haunt in early November. Jimmy's promises to "put some South in yo' mouth" with three types of Southern-style ribs and other Southern specialities that have caught on like wildfire in NYC. The pitmasters swear allegiance to BBQ, booze and the ACC and plan to offer live music and catering. 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-547-7427).

On the Move...Beloved South End chef/restaurateur Andy Husbands is expanding his domain to Rhode Island. But don't worry—he's not leaving Boston. Come Dec. 1, the man behind the magic at Rouge, Tremont 647 and Sister Sorel swings open the doors of his latest venture, Kestral, in Providence's theater district. Joy Richard, a bartender at Tremont 647, says the two-floor bistro will aim for Tremont's "fun and funky" atmosphere. In fact, Kestral is a Boston endeavor through and through—Husbands' partners are his wife Gretchen, Rouge co-owner Peter White and former Tremont 647 executive chef Jason Santos. Meanwhile, Matthew Audette is graduating from sous to executive chef, replacing Santos at Tremont 647.—E.H., J.I. and J.S.

sam says

PREP RALLY

When Wellesley-based accessory designer Abby Ackerman launched Blue Dragonfly in spring 2001, the label's signature preppy look took off nationwide. Two seasons later, the breezy, bamboo-handled canvas bags and belts remain a summer staple from Nantucket to Palm Beach. Now, Ackerman is warming up her look with a debut mini fall/winter line of cosmetic bags and belts. Preppy still reigns (and always will in Boston), so I suggest choosing the colorful corduroy and ribbon belts embroidered with a classic monogram or with tiny patterns of high heels, martini glasses or tiaras. For a little more glitz, pair the black corduroy belt with rhinestone buckle with jeans or a little black dress. www.shopbluedragonfly.com. $35-$48.
—Samantha House

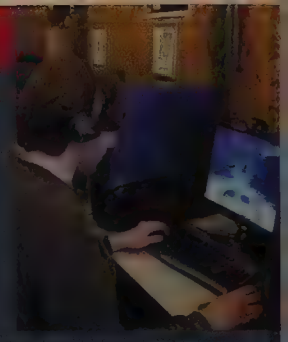
around town

GAME TIME



Solitaire has its virtues, but the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat are more poignant when they involve an opponent. In that spirit, the new Game On! LAN (local area network) Center and Internet Café has linked together 24 Alienware Area-51 PCs (and connected with the outside world via two T1 lines) to create a social environment where video game players can congregate and challenge one another. On a recent weekday we fired up NASCAR 2004, connected to the Net and found three races in progress. "The races could be going on in Cambridge or in Africa," says Ken Parker, Game-On executive operations manager.

Seat time in one of the Herman Miller Aeron chairs stationed at each computer runs $20 for three hours, but you can take a 20-minute test-drive for free. An Internet café room also offers e-mail access and business applications, and computer education classes will soon begin on the building's second floor. However, the name says it all: who wants to work in Microsoft Office when you could be getting your game on? 52 Broad St., Boston (617-261-0460). Ezra Dyer

improper reports

A STICH IN TIME

Julia Roberts has been doing it for years, and word has it Cameron Diaz, Kate Moss and Madonna are recent converts to this low-impact activity. Nope, for once it's not yoga but good old-fashioned knitting. Even Hollywood is a little behind the curve, though. Knitting groups have been popping up all over Boston the past few years. Whether you're looking for a great slip stitch or a little company, here are places that offer both.

- Greater Boston Knitting and Crochet Guild The College Club, 44 Comm. Ave., Boston (781-235-1499). Third Thursday of each month, 10:30 am-2:30 pm. $25 yearly membership (includes newsletter, guest speakers and store discounts).
- Knitsmiths Brookline Booksmith, 279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). Sun., 4-7 pm. Free.
- Mind's Eye Yarns Knitting Group 22 White St., Cambridge (617-354-7253). Wed., 7-9 pm. $30 six-month membership (includes weekly classes).
- Stitch 'n' Bitch Boston Visit www.groups.yahoo.com/group/stitchnbitch-boston for weekly locations. Sites include Borders Books, Peet's Coffee and Trident Booksellers & Cafe. Free.
- West Branch/Somerville Public Library Knitting Group 40 College Ave., Somerville (617-623-5000). Mon., 6:30-8:30 pm. Free.
- Woolcott & Co. Stitch 'n' Bitch Redline, 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851). Wed., 6-8 pm. Free.

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Looking for the Limelight...Virtually all of the Hollywood A-listers who hail from Boston had to hightail it to NYC or LA before making it big. Why? According to Boston-based actress Diane McNamara, it's because of the lack of networking in Beantown. So she's taking the lessons she learned as an actress in the Big Apple and Southern California and sharing them with Boston wannabes in her new networking program, Project Green Light Boston (no connection with Ben Affleck and Matt Damon's similarly named HBO project). Aspiring actors, screenwriters and directors can convene Monday nights at George to share their ideas, head shots and scripts. The series kicked off Oct. 27 with Irish Eyes director Dan McCarthy and Boston Casting owner Angela Peri. McNamara says, "In New York and L.A. you bump into people in the industry everywhere. But in Boston you need to create a place for people to go." 384 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-8555).

Crunch Time...Since its fall 2002 opening in Downtown Crossing, Crunch Fitness has been a work in progress. The transition from Planet Fitness to Crunch's state-of-the-art facilities was neither quick nor pretty, but the final product seems to be worth the wait. The two-story, 20,000-square-foot gym was unveiled in late October and features a Japanese rock garden, a grassy Astroturf stretch area, a new boxing ring, a stadium-seating cycling studio and funhouse mirrors that promise to motivate even the laziest member.

Survey Says...T's Pub, home of the perennial Tuesday night karaoke party, is adding some "family" fun (for 21-and-overs of course). The Comm. Ave. watering hole debuts a version of Family Feud Nov. 18. DJ Dan McCarthy promises it'll be almost exactly as it is on TV, with two big buzzers and a 12-foot screen. There will be a featured team each night, followed by rounds with contestants from the crowd. "It's my goal to pit a lot of the rivalries in Boston against each other," says McCarthy. The debut match pits the Coyote Ugly gals against the Hooters girls, and McCarthy hopes to follow it up with UPS against FedEx, and Staples vs. W.B. Mason. The series is set for Tuesday nights from 8-11 pm followed by karaoke. One hundred smackers are up for grabs in each round.

Oh Brother, Where Art Thou?...Take it from Paris Hilton—every now and then it's good to get back to the simple life. The Monastery Guesthouse, the sanctuary of the Episcopalian Brothers of the Society of Saint John the Evangelist, has revamped its old-school approach to the three S's (serenity, silence and simplicity) with completely refurbished guest quarters. Needless to say, after 67 years in the retreat business, it needed a little spiffing up. The working monastery features 15 revamped units overlooking the Charles for those who seek a little R & R in a (very) peaceful environment. Packages include three daily meals with the Brothers, 24-hour access to the private chapel and a spiritual guidance option. All faiths welcome. 980 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-876-3037).

Nice Rack...Scantily clad bartenders, a wazillion televisions, Lonie Paxton and killer steak tips...As it is, Monday Night Football at the Rack is the red-blooded American male's dream. What could make it better? Complimentary limo service within the Boston-metro area, courtesy of bar owner Paul Barclay. A one-way ride to the Faneuil Hall sports bar is free (with a few hours notice) Monday nights between 7 and 11 pm for the duration of the football season. And word has it Tom Brady's a regular at the Rack. Call 617-725-1051 or email info@therackboston.com.
—E.H., J.I. and J.S.

Got scoop?

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

Why should Saturday and Sunday have all the fun?

Take a few days off this week and experience the East Coast's premier getaway destination. Enjoy our brand new luxury hotel, pool, sun terrace and spa, spectacular gaming, gourmet restaurants, unique shops and unparalleled entertainment. For hotel reservations call 1.888.777.7922. For more information, visit mohegansun.com, or call 1.888.226.7711. Come play.

Mohegan Sun

a legendary getaway experience

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

1

2

3

6

4

5

7

Funny Women…Serious Business, a benefit for Rosie's Place, was held Oct. 22 at the Marriott Copley Place. The annual event brought together more than 1,200 supporters of Rosie's Place, a sanctuary for poor and homeless women. Highlights of the luncheon included special guest, Academy Award–nominated actress Rosie Perez, as well as a cast of Boston media women including Susan Wornick, Caterina Bandini, Lisa Hughes, Karen Marinella, Emily Rooney, Maria Stephanos and Sara Underwood. More than $275,000 was raised.

1. Kip Tiernan, founder of Rosie's Place, and actress Rosie Perez.
2. From Left: Sara Underwood, news anchor for UPN-38; Emily Rooney, host and executive editor of Greater Boston on WGBH-2; and Lisa Hughes, news anchor for WBZ-4.
3. Pamela Copeman (left), principal of the Pamela Copeman Design Group in Hingham, and Amy Mills Tunnicliffe, director of the Proper Manor in Hingham.
4. From left: Marie Turley, executive director of the City of Boston Women's Commission; Charlotte Golar Richie, chief of housing and director of the Department of Neighborhood Development; and Conny Doty, director of jobs and community services for the mayor's office.
5. From left: Stacey Lucchino, Angela Menino and Maria Stephanos, news anchor for Fox-25.
6. Karen Marinella (left), news anchor for WB-56, and Caterina Bandini, news anchor for WHDH-7.
7. Lynne Smith, Rosie's Place supporter, and Susan Wornick, news anchor for WCVB-5.

The Harvard School of Public Health's (HSPH) Inaugural Leadership Council Luncheon was held Oct. 21 at the Charles Hotel in Cambridge. The event honored Katie Couric, co-anchor of the Today show and contributing anchor for Dateline NBC, with the Julius Richmond Award for her colon cancer prevention work.

8

9

10

11

8. Dr. Howard Koh, associate dean for public health practice and professor of health policy and management at HSPH, and Katie Couric, co-anchor of Today and contributing anchor for Dateline NBC.
9. Robin Herman and Steve Gortmaker, director of communications and professor of society, human development and health, respectively, at HSPH; and Jane Draper, writer and supporter of the Harvard AIDS Institute.
10. Dr. Julius Richmond, John D. MacArthur professor of health policy emeritus at HSPH, and Deborah Prothrow-Stith, professor of public health at HSPH.
11. Walter Willett, chair of nutrition at HSPH, and Mollie Katzen, author of the Moosewood Cookbook.

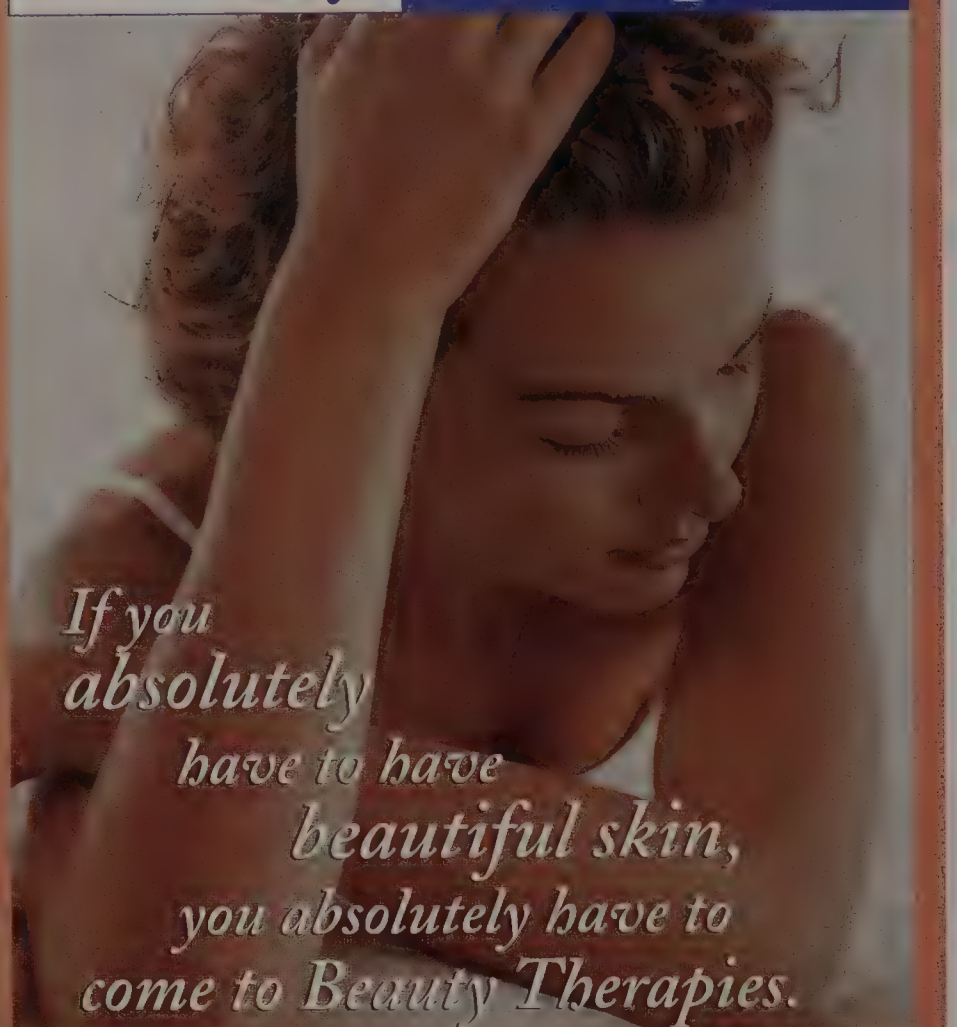
Dior
ALPHA OMEGA
WATCH + DIAMOND SPECIALISTS
DIAMONDS SINCE 1976
ARLINGTON MALL + NATICK MALL + PRUDENTIAL CENTER
HARVARD SQUARE + FLAGSHIP at HARVARD SQUARE
617.864.1227
Dior
JOAILLERIE

Beauty Therapies™



Simply the Best...

BEST OF BOSTON® 2003

Awarded by Boston magazine

Laser Hair Removal

Legs • Bikini and Underarms • Lip and Chin

Men's Backs • Chest and Abs

Effective for all skin types

Try THE EPIFACIAL™

- a revolutionary procedure with unbelievable results.

THE EPIFACIAL improves rosacea, brown spots, large pores & broken capillaries. Using intense pulsed light, this non-invasive facial treatment stimulates the skin, pumping up fine lines and dramatically improving the overall appearance of your skin.

Bring this ad in for 20% OFF your first visit

Cannot be combined with other offers

Call today: 617-739-8888

One Brookline Place, Suite 302, Brookline, MA 02445

Next to the Brookline Village T

www.beautytherapies.com

A NICE LITTLE SATURDAY

Please don't make me go to any more well-stocked stores with plentiful parking

I thought the worst of it was behind me after moving day was finished. All my stuff was in my apartment; it seemed I just needed to organize it. But once all your crap is finally unpacked and put away, you realize that there are a couple more finishing touches you need, and the pursuit of these items will consume your every spare moment until you're a wild-eyed shell of a human being, staring vacantly at a Bed Bath & Beyond catalog and wondering how anyone gets along without a $100 over-the-toilet shelf system.

I mention that item specifically because I am now the proud owner of just such a bathroom accessory. Roommate Scott and I decided that we needed an over-the-toilet shelf because our new bathroom is even smaller than our old one, which is to say it would probably fit nicely under the deck of one of those beginner sailboats that you see capsizing regularly on the Charles. So we went to Bed, Bath & Your Soul on a Platter to see what was available, and not surprisingly there were many options. What was surprising was that all the cheapest models looked like they aspired to find homes in fancy European mansions, assuming that owners of fancy European mansions go for toilet furniture. They were tacky, faux wrought-iron numbers with lots of curlicues, and matching magazine holders. I never suspected I'd have an opinion on above-toilet shelving, but I strongly disliked these. They were pretentious, and if you need shelves over your toilet you have no right to assume an air of gentility. That's like carrying around your Kraft mac-and-cheese coupons in a fake gold money clip.

The only decent-looking option (simply a metal frame with wooden shelves) was also the most expensive, at $100. But I bought it because I care what my toilet shelves say about me. This piece says, "Prominently display some Kiehl's products on me, for I am equal to the task. Men, admire my sturdy, austere form and covet me for your own apartment while taking a leak. Women, though you are facing in the wrong direction to gaze upon my purposeful lines, perhaps you may linger upon me for a few moments while washing your hands."

While B, B & B also furnished me with two bedside tables, two sets of sheets, a bicycle wall rack and a Jelli board, our needs went beyond the bed and bath. My next trip took me down to the second ring of hell, Home Depot. I needed to get a propane tank filled, and the charming independent local hardware store had none. Maybe Mom and Pop are too distracted by the foreclosure notices to keep track of their inventory.

Home Depot keeps the propane tanks in the garden section, which is outdoors and contains nearly as much plant life as is burned each day by Amazon cattle farmers or Snoop Dogg. There was one woman working the entire department, and Lewis, Clark and Sacagawea couldn't have found her with a GPS and a team of police dogs. (I suspect she was hiding overhead in the lipstick plants.) So I dragged my propane tank through the aisles aimlessly, eventually stopping to rest at a beautiful gazebo oasis. When I regained my strength, I took my bearings and began the trek to the entrance, where I persuaded a security guard to radio for help. After about 20 more minutes, an orange-vested minion of Lord Depot arrived with a full tank, which was at least nice and new. I always get a lot of satisfaction from exchanging a rusty propane tank for a new one—it makes me feel like I'm getting away with something.

I DON'T WANT TO GO TO HOME DEPOT—I WANT TO GO TO THE HOME DEPOT SECTION OF ULTIMART AND RIDE THE AISLES IN MY GOLF CART

I still had some more shopping to do, so the next stop was Target. As I trudged past the in-store Taco Bell I wondered why all the companies in the Everett retail park don't just cut the pretense and put it all under one roof. Right on, Target and Taco Bell. Give me one store that's so big and comprehensive I'll never have to go anywhere else. Have a big old orgiastic merger and get it over with. I don't want to go to Home Depot—I want to go to the Home Depot section of UltiMart and ride the aisles in my golf cart, shopping for lumber and Old Navy ringer tees. If I'm going to kill my day shopping for boring-yet-necessary merchandise, just let it be over with as quickly as possible. I need all the time I can find to talk to my shrink about the Red Sox and how to beat post-traumatic stress disorder. iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Tighty-whities are always on sale at ezra@improper.com.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME THAT REFLECTS YOUR PERSONAL STYLE...

Fall Home Sale

YOUR STYLE...ON A BUDGET!

Boston Interiors

WWW.BOSTONINTERIORS.COM

90 DAYS
NO INTEREST
NO PAYMENTS
NO DEPOSIT
WHEN YOU PAY WITH YOUR BOSTON INTERIORS CHARGE CARD

BROOKLINE VILLAGE
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND
(617) 731-6038

HANOVER
RTE. 3 EXIT 13
(781) 871-6416

NATICK
RTE. 9 EASTBOUND
(508) 650-9539

WESTBOROUGH
RTE. 9 WESTBOUND
(508) 870-0700

NOW OPEN!
MASHPEE
RTE. 28
(508) 477-9010

Soroff ON

LANA BILZERIAN

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Knitwear designer Lana Bilzerian was raised in Newton, the daughter of fashion design duo Alan and Be Bilzerian, who own and operate the Newbury Street boutique that bears his name. After graduating from Chestnut Hill's Beaver Country Day School, Lana majored in acting at NYU's Tisch School of the Arts. As an actress, she appeared on stage in New York and Vermont as well as in the feature films The Winslow Boy and State and Main. Before graduating from college, she was named head designer of an Italian knitwear company and transformed its small conservative line into a hip, modern cashmere collection targeting women of all ages. Building on her success in revitalizing someone else's company, she launched her own knitwear label, Lana Bilzerian, last fall. Her designs have been featured in Elle, W and O magazines and they have been carried by such retailers as Barney's in New York and Fred Segal in Los Angeles. In Boston they are available at Alan Bilzerian. Splitting her time between the United States and Italy, she is currently showing her fourth collection in New York and Paris.

JS: Who's your favorite designer, other than yourself?
LB: Yohji Yamamoto, and my mom. She's by far the best knitwear designer that ever lived. She designed for Cuccinelli, Benetton, Missoni.
JS: Worst current fashion trend?
LB: I'm not a fan of the leg warmers, and there's a lot of leg warmers going on right now. It just doesn't work for me.
JS: Most annoying thing about the fashion business?
LB: Trends. Following them. Being late on them.
JS: One thing you'd never be caught dead wearing?
LB: Those pants with whales on them. I don't think I could pull that one off. Because I'm small, I can usually get away with a lot, but that's just not gonna work for me.
JS: Single favorite article of clothing?
LB: My Yohji Yamamoto linen jacket. I wear it all the time. I try to work it into winter. It's ridiculous.
JS: Linen after Labor Day?! Isn't that illegal?
LB: I wear white shoes in the winter. I'm breakin' all the rules. I have this new thing—I wear white jazz shoes. You can't find good shoes anywhere. I can't stand the shoes that are out there. So I wear kind of weird stuff.
JS: Three things every woman should have in her closet?
LB: A black cardigan. A jacket or blazer you can throw over anything. And a great pair of boots.
JS: Not a little black dress?
LB: No. Not necessary.
JS: One thing I'd be shocked to find in your closet?
LB: If you knew me, you wouldn't be surprised by anything. I collect a lot of vintage clothing, even if I can't wear it, so I have really random stuff in my closet. Maybe you'd be shocked to see a college sweatshirt. I have one from NYU, and some people think that's strange for me.
JS: Is Boston a fashionable place?
LB: It is. There are a lot of really cool, very interesting people in Boston. In my opinion, New Yorkers can be just as conservative as a lot of Bostonians, but it just so happens that in New York, the fashion business is there, magazines, music, everything. So it's an environment with people from all over and it seems very fashionable. You can't compare Boston to New York, but if you compare Boston to other cities, it's a fashionable place.
JS: Why are Europeans so much more stylish than Americans?
LB: The environment. Everything in Europe—the architecture, food, everything—is more aesthetic. We're so casual in the U.S. You go out to lunch with a friend—you don't even dress up to see her. You dress down. Or you go shopping, and you dress down. It's cooler in the U.S. to wear a pair of running shoes and a sweat outfit with sunglasses, and act like you're incognito or something, or to buy an outfit for I-don't-know-when because you never dress up anyway. In Europe, you actually put your best outfit on to go shopping.
JS: So which do you relate to?
LB: Well, Europe. There's a tradition of looking your best for your friends or family. You dress up to go to the theater, whereas in the U.S., if you're overdressed, you're lame.
JS: Well, if you're wearing white tie and tails to a baseball game…
LB: That would be cool to me. That's the person I'd be talking to.
JS: Item of men's clothing you wish women wore?
LB: Good question. A lot of stuff has crossed over, like the tuxedo. I think women should wear them more often.
JS: How about thong underwear on men?
LB: Ummm, no. That's all I have to say. [Laughs.] Next question.
JS: Three things you can't live without?
LB: Oh my god. I'm so high maintenance, this is gonna be hard. All right. Pretty much my entire bathroom with all my cosmetics…ChapStick…Do they have to be material things?
JS: No. Whatever you want.
LB: OK, then ChapStick not at the top of my list. Now I'm thinking of something like, the love and acceptance of the world. OK. I couldn't live without laughter, my family, and my Agent Provocateur perfume.
JS: Worst decade in fashion or fashion faux pas?
LB: I really didn't like the '90s. I felt like the whole time we were waiting to find out what was going to happen next, and whatever it was never happened. Then everyone was like, "Oh, 2000. Good. We don't have to worry about the '90s anymore."
JS: Finish this sentence: _____ is the new black.
LB: I'm gonna have to say yellow.
JS: If you were going to be abandoned on a deserted island, what one item of clothing would you take?
LB: My boots that lace up all the way to my knee, because I could take them apart and use the laces, or the hooks for different things.
JS: Most chic person you know?
LB: Besides my mother? Her best friend! [Laughs.] She's an old family friend who owns a modeling agency, and she's super super chic.
JS: Trend prediction for next season?
LB: I don't really follow trends that closely. I'm a practical person. I like clothing that fits someone's lifestyle, or stuff that will stand the test of time, without being conservative. Classics with a twist. But let's see. Next season. It's knit-crazy. There's knits everywhere—pants, skirts, bathing suits. Also leggings. They're big. Wearing brightly colored leggings under skirts or dresses, with heels.
JS: A fashion from the past that you wish would come back?
LB: Hats. Look at an old picture of New York City. You can't see the tops of anyone's head. Everyone's walking around in a hat. I think it's so romantic.
JS: Best backstabbing story from the rag trade?
LB: There's this restaurant called Davé in Paris. Every season, it's where the shit goes down. The entire fashion business is there—every designer, every editor, every store—and people are so cutthroat to get a table, because if you're not seen there, it's a total catastrophe. So people will walk in and tell the owner "So-and-so is not coming. Give me his table." Then so-and-so shows up and can't have a table. It's hilarious. It's so insane.
JS: One thing most people don't realize about the fashion business?
LB: It's not as glamorous as they think.
JS: What's more important: good shoes or good hair?
LB: Good shoes. Definitely. With hair you can just pull it back in a ponytail or whatever.
JS: Last question: Isn't fashion silly?
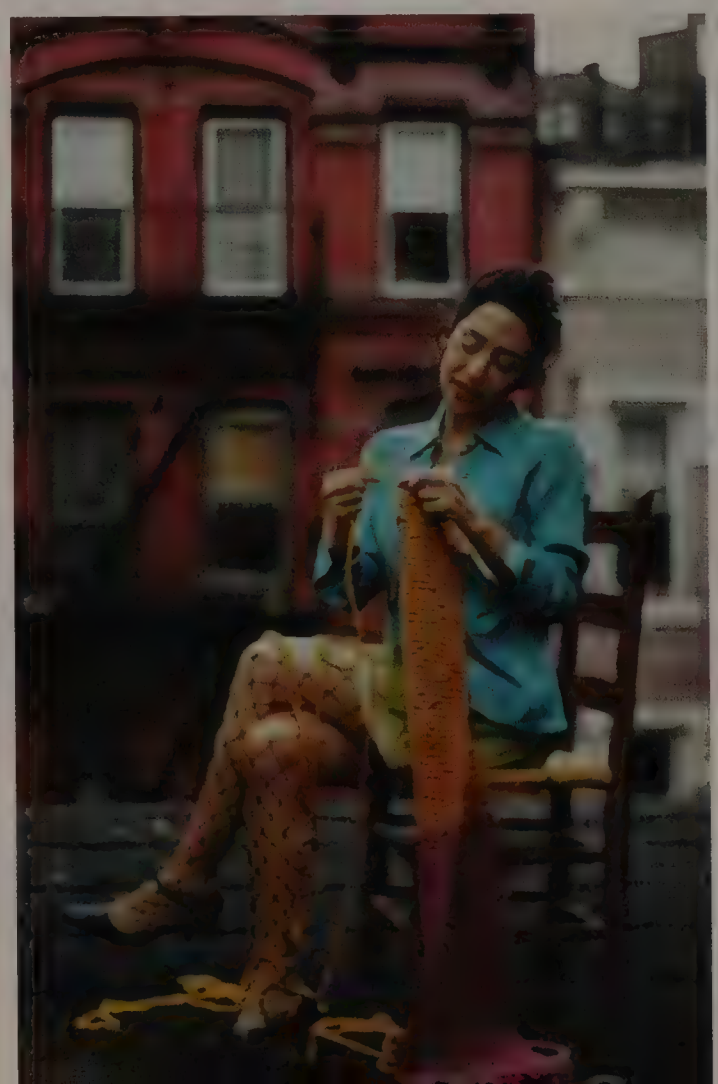
LB: No. I mean, it can be, with the way people go crazy over who's wearing what and labels, and all that stuff, but fashion is self-expression. It's how you present yourself to the world. I'm not saying looks are everything—and fashion isn't all-important—but personally, I think it's the coolest thing. IB

FASHION IS SELF-EXPRESSION. IT'S HOW YOU PRESENT YOURSELF TO THE WORLD.



IN ESTONIA WE SAY:

Pole vaja uhket kuube, kui hing on puhas.

IN AMERICA YOU SAY:

ONE NEED NOT WEAR A FANCY VEST WHEN ONE IS PURE OF SPIRIT.

WE PROUDLY INTRODUCE OUR FINE ESTONIAN VODKA.

EMBRACE LIFE. DRINK RESPONSIBLY. TÜRI VODKA GLASS BOTTLE AND THE T DEVICE ARE TRADEMARKS ©2002 IMPORTED BY CASDON IMPORTING COMPANY MIAMI, FL. VODKA - 40% ALC. BY VOL.

Martinis, perfectly "shaken not stirred"
20 Unique Venues
Innovative fare and some old classics too

Now Booking for the Holiday Season

For a memorable holiday party, call Diane at 617.351.2510

BostonsBestEvents.com
Unique Venues ◇ Catering ◇ Entertainment

WINTER FASHION

Although most of us concentrate on staying warm in winter, there is no reason you can't do that with style. The following pages offer tips—from the toastiest coats and sexiest sweaters to the trendiest accessories and most stylish boots—for looking your best as the temperature falls. Feeling the budget crunch? Our Shop and Save section offers some real steals that look great. Even the simple purchase of a new lipstick can perk up your look, as well as your outlook, as the days grow shorter. So curl up by the fire with the IMPROPER's Winter Fashion issue and join us as we embrace the season. Let it snow.

22
JUMPER CLASSIC

28
SHOP AND SAVE

30
CLOTHES CALL

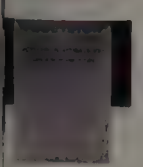
34
A FLASH OF COLOR

36
IT'S A WRAP

38
SHOE-INS

40
I ON STYLE: FUR

42
RED ALERT



44
SKIN DEEP

jUMPER

THIS WINTER, STAY WARM IN SEXY SWEATERS

Green sweater, $78; green skirt with embroidery, $138. Both at Anthropologie. Smoky quartz and aquamarine necklace, $440; sterling silver and crystal quartz earrings, $90. Both by Blue Sky Collection at Long's Jewelers.

Floral sweater, $128; lace skirt, $168. Both at Anthropologie. Eighteen-karat gold lariat necklace with diamonds, $3,750; matching earrings, $1,350. Both by David Yurman at Long's Jewelers.

CLASSIC

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE
PHOTOGRAPHED BY BILL STREICHER

Full-length sweater with rhinestone clasps, $288 at Anthropologie. Eighteen-karat white gold and pavé diamond bracelet, $2,900; aquamarine pendant on blue cord by Barry Kronen, $1,350. Both at Long's Jewelers.

velvet skirt, $138 at Anthropologie; handmade pink tourmaline and diamond earrings, $6,000 at Long's Jewelers

Black sweater with rhinestone buttons, $139; tiered lace skirt, $189. Both at Holiday. Toggle heart necklace, $1,350; matching bracelet, $1,600; buckle bracelet with diamonds, $1,500. All by Scott Kay at Long's Jewelers.

Anthropologie
799 Boylston St.
Boston
617-262-0545

Holiday
127 Charles St.
Boston
617-973-9730

Long's Jeweler
60 South Ave
Burlingtoi
781-272-540

Model: Lindsey Smit

Hair: Monrüd fc
Mitchell John Salo

Makeup: Jenny Brow

SANCTUARY
Tapas Restaurant / Bar
OPENING IN DOWNTOWN BOSTON DECEMBER 200

SAVE AND SHOP

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY TRACY POWELL

EXPRESS, 617-227-8264; H&M, 617-482-7001; MARSHALLS, 617-262-6066; OFF 5TH, 508-384-9309; RAINBOW APPAREL, 617-451-6460; WET SEAL, 617-695-3590. MODELS: PHARA AND MARGAUX FOR MAGGIE

SEVEN OUTFITS THAT WILL SPRUCE YOU UP—WITHOUT CLEARING OUT YOUR WALLET

Finding stylish clothing that won't break the bank isn't difficult; you just have to know where to look. These seven outfits—perfect for a power meeting or a night on the town—are all under $300 and are easy to scoop up from stores in the area. You'll even have money left over to celebrate your fantastic purchases with a martini at the Ritz.

Black dress, $88; s necklace, $16. Bot
Express. Black pa
leather heels, $39.
black tights, $3
Both at Mars
Total price: $1

Pink wrap shirt, $74; tweed skirt, $149. Both at Off 5th at Wrentham Village Premium Outlets. Black boots, $39.99; black tights, $3.99. Both at Marshalls. Silver necklace, $22 at Express.
Total price: $288.98

Pink top, $14.99; striped skirt with rhinestone star pin, $19.99; pink ankle-high boots, $16.99. All at Rainbow. Long earrings, $22 at Express.
Total price: $73.97

Brown jacket with piping, $39.99; matching skirt, $24; brown sling-backs, $29.99. All at Marshalls.
Total price: $93.98

White turtleneck, $19.50; pink vest, $34.50; pleated skirt, $34.99. All at Wet Seal. Black tights, $3.99 at Marshalls. Black suede shoes, $69.90 at Off 5th at Wrentham Village Premium Outlets.
Total price: $162.88

Sequined dress, $19.90; fishnet thigh-highs, $4.50. Both at H&M. Black patent leather heels, $39.99 at Marshalls.
Total price: $64.39

Satin halter, $9.90; black satin pants, $29.90. Both at H&M. Black ankle boots, $199 at Off 5th at Wrentham Village Premium Outlets. Earrings, $22 at Express.
Total price: $260.80

clothesCALL

FIRST IMPRESSIONS CAN MAKE OR BREAK A FIRST DATE

BY JESSICA IREDALE PHOTOGRAPHED BY BRIAN SILVERSTEIN

Top: IMPROPER staffers listen in as panelists debate the outfits.

Inset: The panel. Front (from left): Julie, Kerna, Doreen, Catherine and Ashley; back: Ryan, Leigh, Andrew, David and Alex (absent: Debbie)

You met him last weekend, he called on Tuesday to ask you out to dinner, and now it's Friday and he's knocking at your door. Before you answer, you send up a final prayer that you like what you see on the other side (you can be sure the guy on your door-step is doing the same).

For most of us, clothes are hardly the make-or-break issue in a budding romance, but the way a date dresses does count when we're sizing him/her up for the first time. And if that impression is a bad one, the first date could be the last.

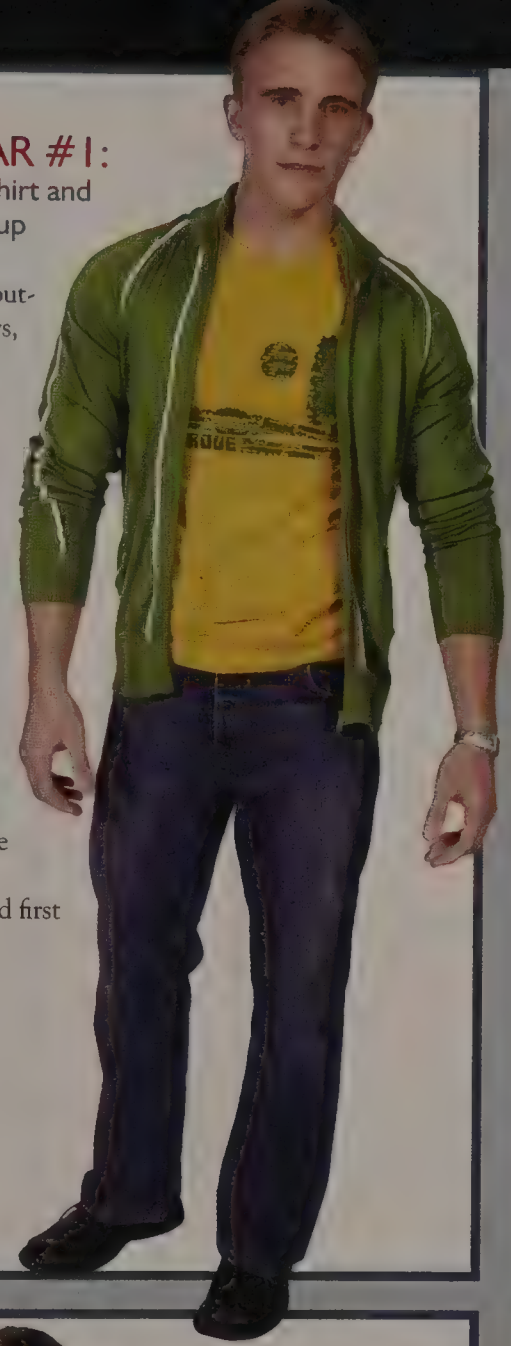
But just what are the right and wrong things to wear in the eyes of the ever mysterious opposite sex? To find out, we recruited 11 men and women, ages 23–40, to play Joan Rivers for a day. We brought them into our offices, plied them with wine and quizzed them on what they'd wear to dinner and how they'd like to see their date dress—and we even invited them to say which Boston fashion trends they'd eighty-six forever. Then we put on a little fashion show, dressing a male and female model in four different outfits each and inviting our judges to give each look the thumbs-up or thumbs-down. (You can read their opinions in the boxes at right and on the next page.)

Knowing that one person's hot is another person's not, we chose panelists with varied personal styles. So when you're reading their opinions below, consider which is the type of guy or gal you'd most likely want to date. Living by the "it's better to be overdressed" motto, for example, attorney Leigh, 35, delights in a pair of well-oiled Cole Haan calfskins and a three-piece Brooks Brothers suit. Younger musicians Andrew and Ryan, on the other hand, are happier in a pair of 501 Blues (circa 1994) and are most likely to respond to the brand name Jimmy Choo with "Gesundheit," while 30-something professionals David and Alex fall somewhere in the middle.

As for the women, professionals Kerna, 30, and Debbie and Ashley, both in their 20s, are more casual. They favor jeans paired with a casual but flirty shirt. Catherine, a 20-something fashionista, prefers the Prada shoes–with–classic Levis look, while Julie, 34, goes for a sophisticated look, like knee-high boots with a sharp and perfectly coordinated skirt and sweater. Among the women, Doreen was the fashion moderate.

Who knew what to expect from a bunch of strangers discussing sartorial issues? Sure, sit a couple of women down with a bottle of wine, throw in the initial "love your shirt," and you're guaranteed a fashion powwow. But men at the roundtable? Can you hear the pin drop? Surprisingly enough, the boys rose to the occasion. Before the models even suited up, the five men were speaking with fashion

MENSWEAR #1:
Jeans, fitted T-shirt and kelly green zip-up

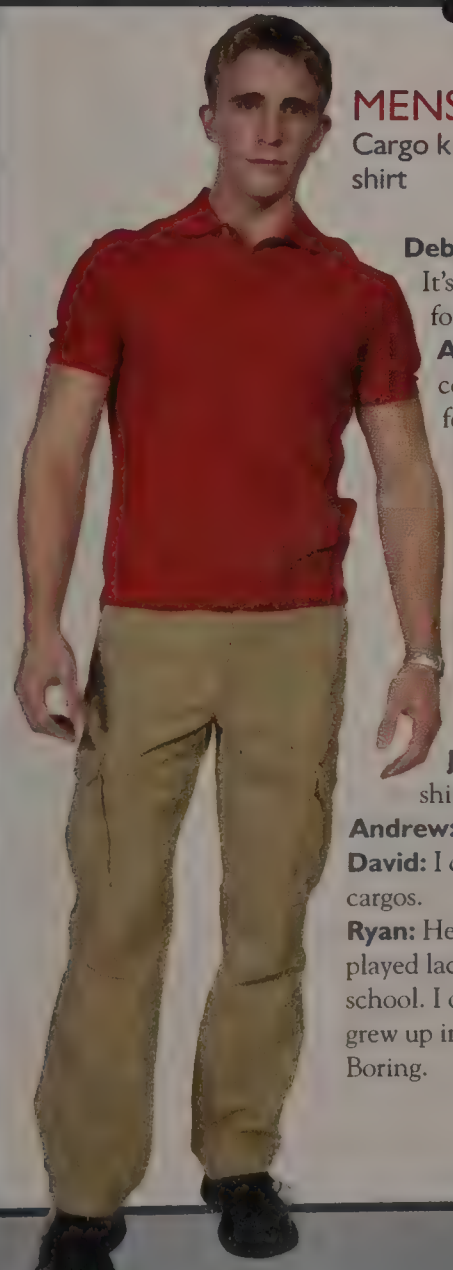


Catherine: His outfit is stylish. It says, "I didn't try too hard," yet it's apparent he made an effort.
Julie: If I was 24, I'd be psyched. At 34, I'm like, "The playground is that way."
Andrew: It's $40 Urban Outfitters BS. Be real or be gone, dude.
Ryan: He's trying way too hard to be casual.
David: Not a good first impression.

WOMENSWEAR #1:
Jeans, fitted turtleneck sweater, strap heels

Ashley: Cute, but it shows a lack of effort to make a great first impression. Anything denim says you're all about your own comfort.
Catherine: Cute, but very daytime. I wouldn't wear it on a first date.
Doreen: It's nice, simple and casual, but I wouldn't wear jeans.
Alex: It's more appropriate than the guy's outfit, but it's still too casual for a first date.
Ryan: Burn the sweater! I like the jeans, but this outfit is way too safe. There should always be a theme of sex.
Andrew: It's adorable; it looks so comfy. If she showed up looking like that, we might not even leave the house.

MENSWEAR #2:
Cargo khakis and a polo shirt



Debbie: Very boring. It's a little too preppy for me.
Ashley: It's the conservative uniform of Boston.
Doreen: It's less trendy and more collegiate than the first, but still too young and casual.
Catherine: Not a big fan of the cargos.
Julie: And the shirt's too small.
Andrew: Yawn.
David: I do not like the cargos.
Ryan: Hey, look at me. I played lacrosse in high school. I drive a Jeep and grew up in Greenwich. Boring.

WOMENSWEAR #2:
Suit jacket and pinstripe skirt

Julie: It's almost too severe businesswoman on top. I'd soften it up with a sweater.
Kerna: I like the jacket.
Ashley: It's conservative, but there are accents of sex. Maybe a little cleavage would help.
Andrew: It's the mullet of outfits. All business on top, party on the bottom. That skirt is pure weapons-grade cute-tonium.
Ryan: It says, "I'm well put together." And it's a little provocative.
Alex: I like the look, but it's conservative and needs more sex appeal.

conviction that would have made Joan and Melissa proud.

Once we discovered that our men did indeed have an opinion on how women should dress, we got right to the juicy question of turn-offs. On that subject, the responses were personal rather than universal. A few of our panelists agree it's time to send designer logo accessories where the sun don't shine. "Fendi bags, Louis Vuitton, whatever—you're boring," says Andrew. Alex has three major female fashion pet peeves: "annoying J.Lo sunglasses," clunky shoes and low-rise pants on the wrong body.

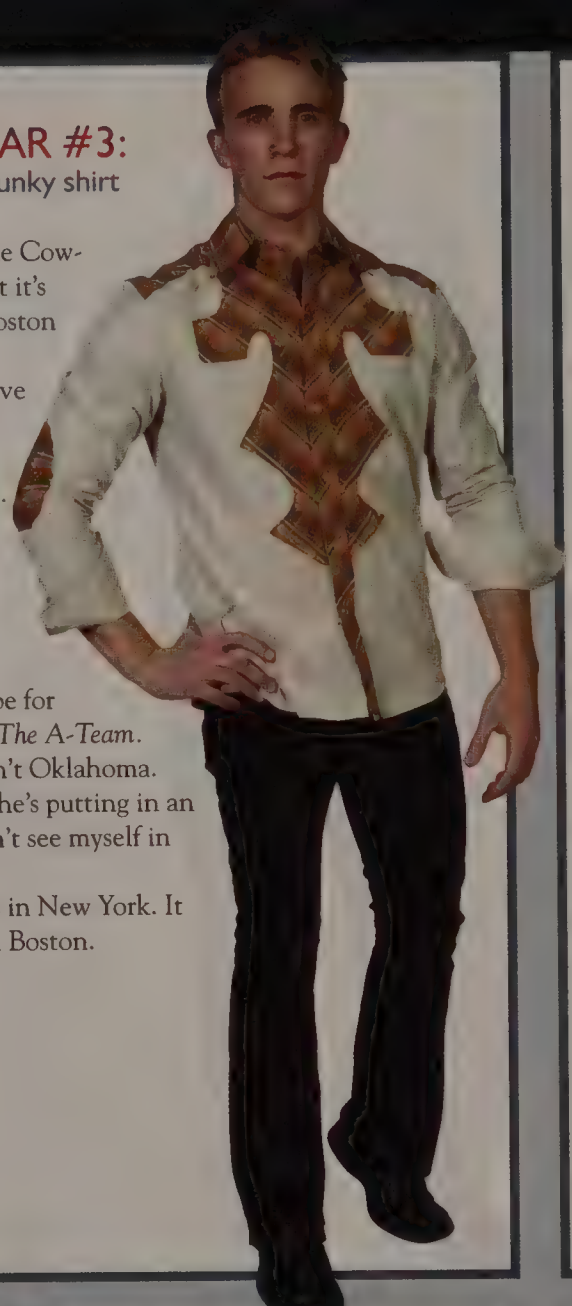
As for turn-ons, David looks for "something feminine," and Ryan says he fantasizes about stiletto heels and leather mini skirts. "Oh, and more women should wear their hair long," he adds. Leigh wants to see some attention to accessories (jewelry, shoes and hats) "that complement the clothes, not overwhelm them." But before you upgrade your entire view of men's appreciation for women's clothes, keep Andrew's words in mind: "Speaking as an average guy, we never, ever notice your shoes."

Men, meanwhile, can take this advice from the women: Know your size and find a tailor. If the women have one shared peeve it's ill-fitting clothes; pants that are too baggy or too short don't cut it. Catherine loathes jean tuxedos (jean jacket with jeans). "Take it back to Jersey," she says, adding that "turtlenecks on guys are only good for hiding hickeys." Julie (and just about everyone else in the room) says sayonara to cargos. And Doreen thinks it's time men (and women) ditch the junior high uniform of athletic-inspired wear. And sorry guys, women will never understand men's inclination toward company logo polos or, worse yet, pleated pants (though, according to Leigh, the latter is "just a matter of comfort").

Interestingly enough, on the narrower topic of what they themselves would wear on a first date to a nice restaurant, you could barely tell the difference between the sexes. The majority of both the men and women said they would most likely don some version of dark, classic slacks and a simple but stylish shirt, with the exception of Julie, who was stepping out in a wrap dress, knee-high boots and fishnets.

Whatever their personal sense of style, most of our panelists agree that Boston is (surprise) a conservative and rather casual town. "People dress on the safe side here. They're not really willing to take a fashion risk unless it's over the top, like college kids trying trends," observes Julie. Ryan agrees. "Trends here are watered down. Nothing's too dramatic. Everything pretty much stays the same." iB

Got a fashion opinion? Write to letters@improper.com



MENSWEAR #3:
Suede pants, funky shirt

Doreen: It's like Cowboy Up. At least it's not the usual Boston boring.
Catherine: I give this person credit for their fashion courage. The pants are cool, but the shirt looks like he's going to a hoedown.
Andrew: Maybe for Knight Rider or The A-Team.
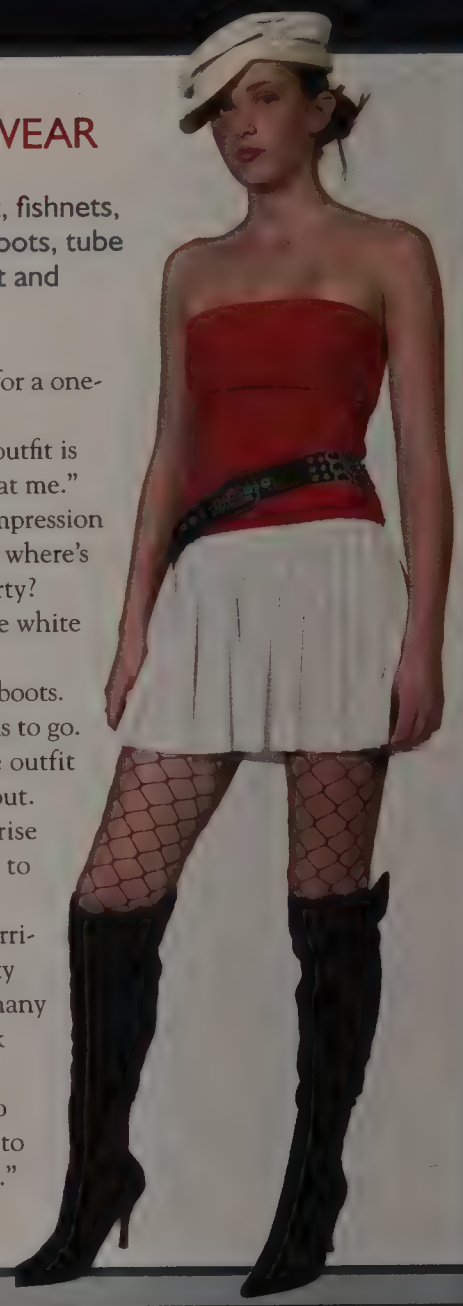
David: This ain't Oklahoma.
Alex: It shows he's putting in an effort, but I don't see myself in suede pants.
Leigh: It works in New York. It doesn't work in Boston.



WOMENSWEAR #3:
Pleated miniskirt, fishnets, over-the-knee boots, tube top, studded belt and newsboy cap

Ashley: It's great for a one-night stand.
Catherine: This outfit is screaming, "Look at me." The overall first impression is it's trampy. And where's the Halloween party?
Kerna: I don't like white for fall.
David: I love the boots. Everything else has to go.
Leigh: This is the outfit I'm going to ask out. But it would surprise me on a first date to a restaurant.
Alex: This is a horrible outfit. It's slutty and there are so many other ways to look sexy.
Ryan: This says to me, "We're going to have so much fun."

MENSWEAR #4:
Suit and tie

Julie: Five words: When are we getting married? I love it. It says success. It says, "I care about this date."
Doreen: Classic and a great first impression.
Debbie: On a Saturday night? No, too much.
Kerna: Without the tie, it might be more appropriate.
Leigh: I like a guy in a three-button suit. This is right on target. And it's always better to be overdressed.
Ryan: It says, "I'm the man. I'm not here to play games."

WOMENSWEAR #4:
Polka-dot dress and heels

Doreen: This is the best of the women's outfits. Dresses are best.
Catherine: It's flirty and fun. Perfect for a first date.
Ashley: Adorable! Jackie O with playful flirtiness.
Debbie: Sexy and cute.
David: I don't like polka dots.
Leigh: Perfect. This is what I want my date to wear.
Alex: I like it.
Andrew: Two words: debutante ball.
Ryan: Yada yada. Obviously it looks nice.

Holiday shopping evolved.
ENJOY SPECIAL HOLIDAY SAVINGS ON THE MOST FABULOUS BRANDS WITH OUR COMPLIMENTARY 2003 HOLIDAY COUPON BOOK. JUST VISIT PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM TO PRINT OUT YOUR FREE VOUCHER FOR HOLIDAY SHOPPING AT ITS BEST.
170 STORES FEATURING Banana Republic Factory Store, Barneys New York Outlet, Brooks Brothers Factory Store, Cole Haan, Gap Outlet, Guess, Hugo Boss, Kenneth Cole, Le Creuset, Mikasa, Nike Factory Store, Off 5th-Saks Fifth Avenue Outlet, Polo Ralph Lauren Factory Store, Puma, Reebok, Samsonite, TSE, Timberland, Tommy Hilfiger Company Store, Versace Company Store, Villeroy & Boch, Waterford Wedgwood, Williams-Sonoma Outlet, Zales Outlet and more AT SAVINGS OF 25% TO 65% EVERY DAY... SHOP BETTER.
WRENTHAM VILLAGE PREMIUM OUTLETS®
WRENTHAM, MA • I-95 TO I-495N, EXIT 15 • (508) 384-0600 • MON-SAT 10-9, SUN 10-6 • EXTENDED HOLIDAY HOURS: NOV. 28 7AM-10PM, NOV. 29 8AM-10PM, NOV. 30 9AM-8PM
PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM • CHELSEA PROPERTY GROUP • NYSE:CPG • GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE AT THE INFORMATION CENTER OR ONLINE

A FLASH OF COLOR

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY TRACY POWELL

TOO MUCH BLACK IN YOUR WARDROBE? COLORFUL ACCESSORIES ADD A FESTIVE TOUCH.

If you're like most women, your winter wardrobe has always been built around one color. Black dominates cold-weather fashions—from sweaters and skirts to coats and boots—like no other hue. Although it's versatile and slimming, black can get a little boring when you wear it every day from daylight-deprived November through snow-blown February. It's time to reinvigorate by inviting color back into your winter wardrobe. Don't worry: You don't have to donate your little black dresses to charity. Instead, focus on adding some well-placed accessories. It doesn't matter whether you prefer subtle pastels or bright shades—both are great ways to turn any outfit from drab to fab. Try one of Target's yellow scarves with bright blue gloves, or DKNY's elbow-length leather gloves in lavender. Add some glitter with big, colorful gemstones (real or costume) or some jingle with Chanel's charm bracelet, which tinkles with four different pastel colors. You'll be surprised how much spark a little color can give your look.

Model: Laura Marx
Shot on location at Sophia's

Fluorescent pink pumps, $79 at Steve Madden. Pink leather bag with rose detail, $1,595; cloth logo belt, $445; logo cuff, $670; logo charm bracelet, $785. All at the Chanel boutique.

a new concept in lounges

Toast

Chef Petal Joseph: World cuisine integrating tastes, textures and food culture from around the world.

70 Union Square, Somerville 617.623.9211 www.toastlounge.com

IT'S A WRAP

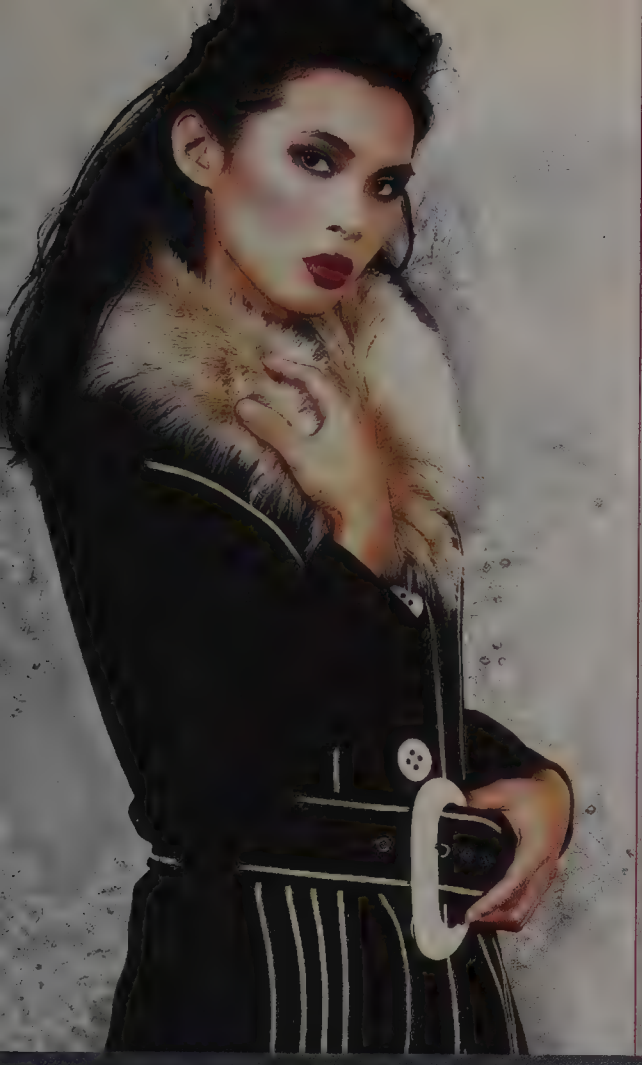
BUNDLE UP IN A COAT THAT COVERS YOU BUT NOT YOUR STYLE

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

Coats this winter run the gamut from sporty bombers to fur-lined, floor-length overcoats, so it's easy to find one that fits your lifestyle. If you're looking for the hot new look, though, go for a floor-length wool overcoat that nips in at the waist, just like the one your grandmother once wore. Pick a classic color like winter white, powder blue or jet black. The best part about this style is that it works equally well for casual or dressy situations. Button it up over a sweater and jeans or layer it over a cocktail dress, with a pretty ribbon tied around the waist. If your look is more sporty, a quilted jacket is the way to go. Choose a pastel or bright color to liven up gray winter days. Following are some suggestions on how to stay warm while looking great.

Black velvet coat with satin deta
at waist, $315 at Fil



Brown tweed coat with fur collar by Jungal
$920 at Matsu

White fur coat with leather trim,
$2,100 at DKNY

Pink large-weave wool coat by L.K. Bennett $459 at Holiday

Pale pink coat by Prada,
$1,350 at Saks Fifth Avenue

Green wool coat with hood and faux fur detailing, $69.90 at H&M

Black wool coat with ribbon detailing by Edward An, $480 at Holiday

DKNY
37 Newbury St.
617-236-0476

Filene's
426 Washington St.
617-357-2100

H&M
350 Washington St.
617-482-7001

Holiday
27 Charles St.
617-973-9730

Matsu
259 Newbury St.
617-266-9707

Saks Fifth Avenue
The Prudential Center
617-262-8500

Model: Angie Lim for Maggie. Makeup: Jenny Brown. Hair: Monrüd for Mitchell John Salon. Stylist: Sara Schiano.

SHOE-INS

CAN YOU CHANGE YOUR LIFE WITH SEXY BOOTS AND PRETTY PUMPS? YOU BET!

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPH BY BOB PERACHIO

If diamonds are a girl's best friend, then shoes are a close second. Most women will agree: New shoes can make a bad day good and change your outlook on the world. Lucky for us, this season has loads of fun shoes in store. Over-the-knee boots are the strongest trend for work and play, and the ones you'll see this season are a little less Pretty Woman and a little more Catholic schoolgirl, all grown up. If you wear them to work, simply wear a skirt that covers the tops (making them look a little like leather stockings). For evening, throw on a miniskirt with those boots and watch the guys go nuts.

For long walks to work, try Kors shearling boots by Michael Kors, at Lord & Taylor. They're flat, padded inside and, when weatherproofed, will make you glad that you have them on a snowy day. (You can change into your fave heels at the office, and it certainly beats the stockings-with-socks-and-sneakers look—ick!)

Boots and pumps are pretty much the way to go this winter. Don't even try to get away with open-toed shoes, even for a black-tie event. It's passé, and you will just freeze your tootsies off. When choosing pumps, go for classic shapes—Nine West has a great selection right now. I like to have a pair of black ones as my staple and then collect bright colors, like the hot-pink or neon-yellow ones from Steve Madden. They look great with an all-black outfit. And if you take the plunge with Technicolor shoes, you'll be ahead of the curve, considering they'll be next spring's hottest trend.

Top to bottom: Black fishnet stockings, $4.50 at H&M; black heels with bows, $188 at DKNY. Hot-pink opaque tights, $8.50 at Wet Seal; black ankle boots, $295 at DKNY. Striped over-the-knee socks, $2 at H&M; pink pumps by Christian Dior, $440 at Saks Fifth Avenue. Textured tights by Ellen Tracey, $18; black strap heels by Gucci, $460; both at Saks Fifth Avenue. Black leggings, $4.50 at H&M; black pumps with ankle strap, $198 at DKNY.

1. Suede boots with fur trim, $335 at Stuart Weitzman. 2. Tan leather boots by Prada, $615 at Saks Fifth Avenue. 3. Suede boots by Prada, $380 at Saks Fifth Avenue. 4. Black suede boo with pom-pom by Jimmy Choo, $895 at Saks Fifth Avenue. 5. Grey denim low boot by Dior, $530 at Saks Fifth Avenue. 6. Black lace pumps by Manolo Blahnik, $495 at Saks Fifth Avenu 7. Pink suede pumps with round toe and bow by Marc Jacobs, $260 at Saks Fifth Avenue. 8. Brown suede ankle boot, $160 at Ecco. 9. Asian pumps, $69.99 at Aldo. 10. Leather and nyl boots, $99 at 9West. 11. Red patent leather boots, $119 at 9West. 12. Black boots with snaps, $159 at 9West. 13. Silver pumps, $69 at 9West. 14. Orange faux croc pumps, $69 at 9We 15. Black lace boots by Manolo Blahnik, $745 at Neiman Marcus. 16. Purple suede pumps by Christian LaCroix, $285 at Neiman Marcus. 17. Off-white leather pumps, $69 at 9We 18. Black-and-white pumps by Dior, $565 at Neiman Marcus. 19. Black pumps with bow, $69.99 at Aldo. 20. Black knee-high boots with lace-up backs by Peter Kent, $395 at Moxie.

Boston Event Solutions

Exceeding expectations through distinctive destinations

Indulge Delight Quench

Let us make your special event spectacular. With our array of distinctive destinations, we'll help you make that lasting impression on clients, employees and personal friends. Whether planning a corporate product launch, society fundraiser, training seminar, gala evening or intimate social affair, Boston Event Solutions has exceptional event venues to showcase your event in style.

www.BostonEventSolutions.com

Telephone 617.248.9933

I ON STYLE: fur

Satin and fox fur coat; $2,700; feather hairpiece; $350; Both at The Altered Bride. Pony hair belt; $105; black satin and fox fur bag; $295; both at Arden B. Hair: Mitch Derosa for Mitchell John Salon; Makeup: Jenny Brown; Model: Laura Marx.

A TIMELESS FAVORITE GOES UP-TO-DATE

Although fur has never really gone out of style—and probably never will—this year, it seems to be everywhere. Perhaps that's because fur complements the 1940s clothing style that has been popular since last year. Whatever the reason, fur—both faux and the real thing—is at the top of the style charts. You'll find everything from traditional looks to ultramodern silhouettes and more unique items.

If you want something that will stand the test of time, try the more traditional fur items like full-length coats, shrugs and handbags. IJ Fox has thousands of fur coats that add glamour to any outfit, and DKNY has several fur handbags that pair with just about anything. For just a hint of fur, opt for a fur collar on a tailored coat or long sweater. You can find these almost anywhere. Among my favorite of the season's many fur accessories are the flowers I found at the Altered Bride. Irresistibly soft and pretty, they pin right on anything and come in several colors.

If you prefer to wear the fake stuff, Arden B sells faux fur cuffs that wrap around your wrists to complement a long-sleeved shirt. Add fur to a little black dress and glam it up a bit—you'll be ready for a night on the town.

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHED BY TRACY POWELL

SHOT ON LOCATION AT MANTRA

Come and Take Advantage of Our Private Viewing Rooms,
For Parties of 25 or More.

SOHO

www.sohoboston.com

WIN $500!

Guess the final outcome of the Patriots game and WIN.

Come watch the game on one of our two 10 foot screens, two 42" Plasma screens or our ten 32" flat screens.
We show all sorts of sports. And you can always ask us to show whatever event you are interested in.
Our sound system is second to none! 44 Speakers, 4 massive sub-woofers.

Prize may be split if multiple winners. Entry must be made before game starts. Must be present to win.

617-562-6000
386 MARKET STREET, BRIGHTON MA

RED ALERT

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

Cold weather brings lush fabrics, romantic clothing and tons of black-tie events and swank dinner parties. Not every day is full of long gowns and air kisses, but you can have a bit of glam in your life any day in the form of red lipstick. It adds elegance to a black dress, but it can just as easily dress-up jeans and a T-shirt. Now, which red will best complement your coloring? As women who've bought lipstick after red lipstick searching for that perfect shade can attest, it's a harder question to answer than you might think. I searched the shelves for the most beautiful reds and found the following winners.

The best brownish reds

Old Flame, at Fresh, $21. More brown than red, and a bit sheer. #15 lipstick by Giorgio Armani, at Saks Fifth Avenue, $22.50. Burgundy-brown with a hint of pink. Burgundy lip color by Bobbi Brown, at Neiman Marcus, $19. Creamy burgundy with a touch of orange.

The best pinkish reds

Sun Red lipstick, at Kiehl's, $16.50. Three-dimensional color with pink and gold sparkle. Matador lipstick by Chanel, at Saks Fifth Avenue, $23. Hot pink with red overtones.

The best deep reds

Sweet Love by Lola, at the Beauty Mark, $20. Blood red, with lots of shine. Rouge de Monde, at Fresh, $21. The deepest wine color around.

The best true reds

Shu Uemura Red Lip Rouge M165, www.shuuemura.com, $18. Apple red. Flamenco by Clinique, at Filene's, $13.50. Fire engine red with a tiny bit of gold. Rediculous by Lola, at the Beauty Mark, $20. Cherry red with the tiniest hint of pink. Scarlet by Chanel, at Saks Fifth Avenue, $23. Sheer and sparkly red.

WARNING: THE HOLIDAYS ARE APPROACHING.
FROM TRADITIONAL IRISH TO A TASTE OF MEXICO OR THE LOUISIANA BAYOU, WE HAVE A VENUE SURE TO PLEASE ALL TASTES. WE CAN ACCOMMODATE GROUPS OF ALL SIZES AND CUSTOM FIT A MENU TO SATISFY EVERYONE. THIS HOLIDAY SEASON TREAT YOUR EMPLOYEES TO AN UNFORGETTABLE HOLIDAY CELEBRATION AT ANY OF OUR UNIQUE LOCATIONS. CALL TODAY FOR BOOKING AND AVAILABILITY INFORMATION.
THE Glynn
HOSPITALITY GROUP
McIntyre's
the Purple Shamrock
The Black Rose
Coogan's
CLERYS
HURRICANE
617.451.7400 • IRISHCONNECTION.COM

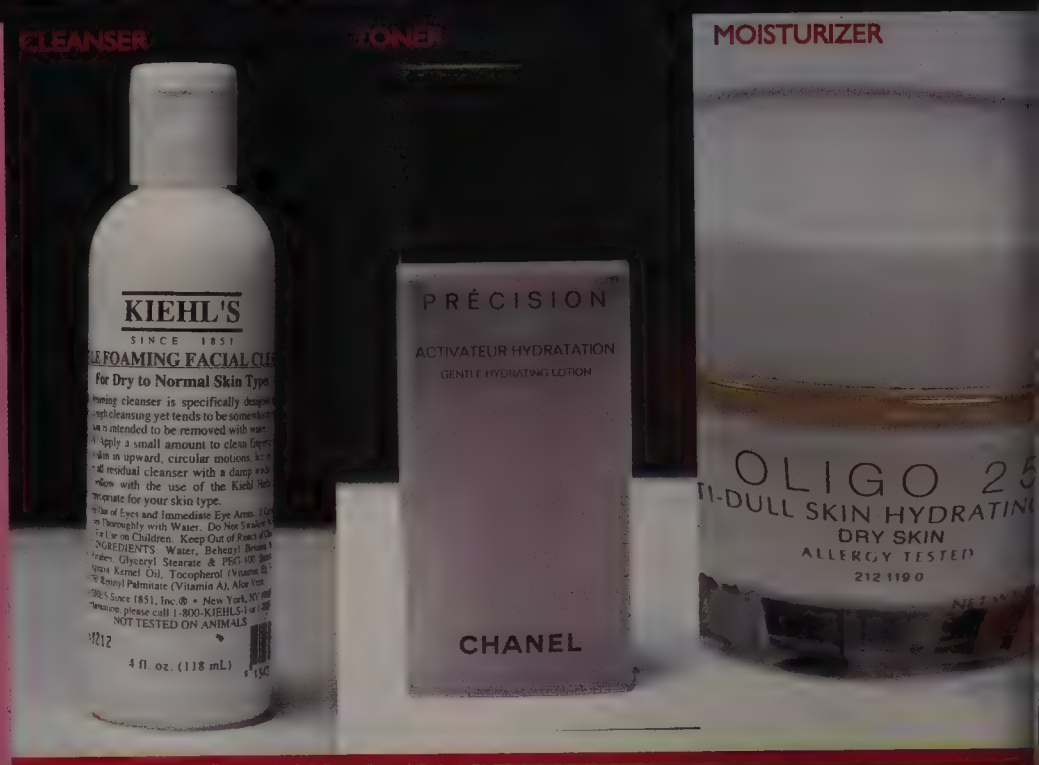
SKIN DEEP

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE PHOTOGRAPHED BY DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

Keeping skin in perfect shape can be a challenge, especially in winter. But most aestheticians recommend a simple approach: Cleanse your skin to remove dirt, tone it to remove excess residue and moisturize it to keep it smooth and supple. So, when we go shopping, why do we feel the need to complicate things? Here are some great skin-care regimens for morning and night to help you pare down to essentials.

NORMAL/COMBINATION

CLEANSER Repechage Hydra Dew Gentle Cleansing Mousse, $25 at Repechage.com
TONER Elemis Aromapure Rehydrating Ginseng Toner, $30 at Elemis.com
MOISTURIZER Fresh Rice Face Cream, $75 at Fresh



DRY

CLEANSER Kiehl's Gentle Foaming Facial Cleanser, $10.50 at Kiehl's
TONER Precision Activateur Gentle Hydrating Lotion, $35 at Saks Fifth Avenue
MOISTURIZER Vichy Laboratoires Oligo 25 Anti-Dull Skin Hydrating Care, $19 at Brooks Pharmacy

OILY

CLEANSER Fresh Milk Face Cleanser, $35 at Fresh
TONER Kiehl's Blue Astringent Herbal Lotion, $9.50 at Kiehl's
MOISTURIZER Kanebo IB Oil Control, $40 at Saks Fifth Avenue

ALL SKIN TYPES

For extra special treatment, try these repair products for all skin types once a week:
LIP CARE Vichy Laboratoires Nutrilogie Lèvres, $9 at Brooks Pharmacy
DEEP CLEANSING MASK Origins Clear Improvement, $18.50 at Filene's
EXFOLIATOR Lush Ocean Salt Facial Scrub, $14.40 at Lush MOISTURIZING MASK Kiehl's Imperiale Repairateur Treatment Line Formula "MM" Moisturizing Masque, $20 at Kiehl's

LIFE'S FINEST MOMENTS

They happen when you're together. We help make them memorable.
Breathtaking diamond pendants and cutting-edge designs paired with classic elegance. Our pieces are stylish for years to come with quality that will last a lifetime.

Diamond pendant collection $200 to $20,000

BARMAKIAN JEWELERS

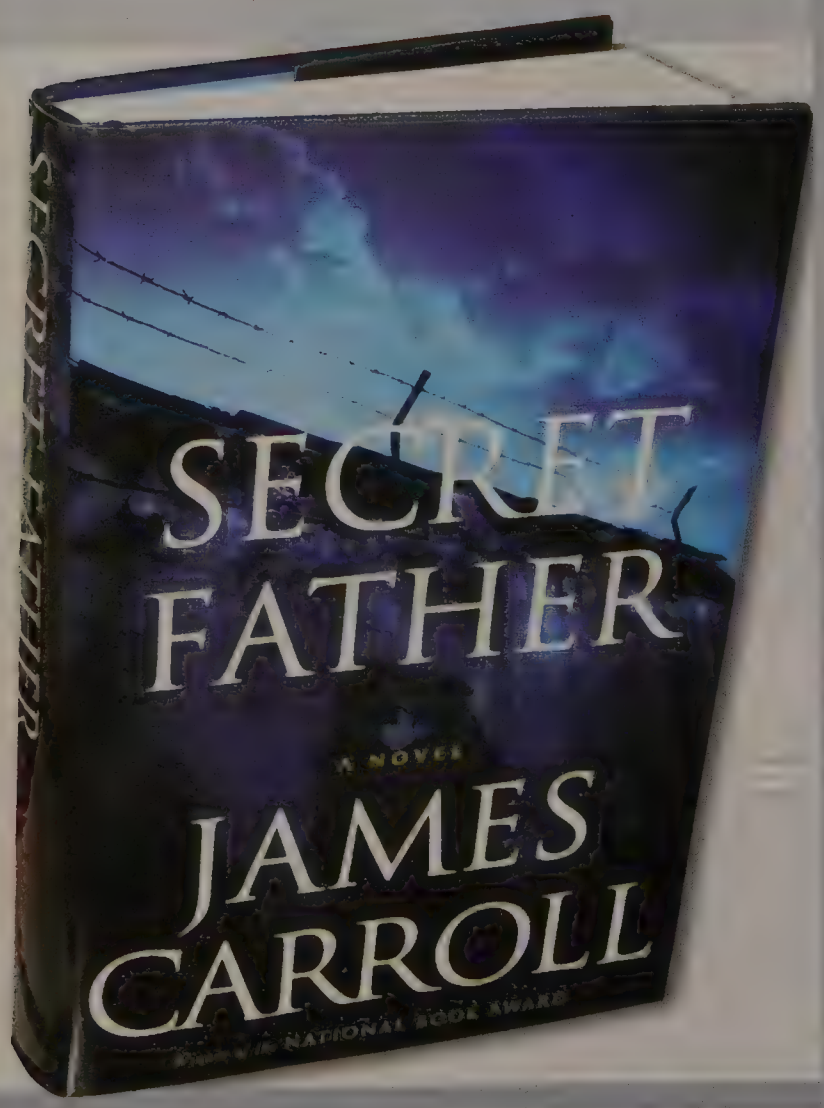
DIAMONDS SINCE 1910

BOSTON	NASHUA, NH	FRAMINGHAM
617.227.3724	603.888.7800	508.872.5454

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



WHO IS "EIN BERLINER"?

Secret Father*, by Boston Globe columnist and novelist James Carroll, takes place in 1961, in divided Berlin.

The personal is political and vice-versa to a great degree in James Carroll's new book, Secret Father. The novel is set in Berlin in 1961, when the famous Wall was constructed and tensions between East and West were sizzling. Three teenagers, idealistic and fecklessly larky, go into East Berlin for the Communist celebration of May Day. German-born Ulrich, traveling as Americanized Rick, is the stepson of an American general, and the story has spooky undertones. But murkier yet, Ulrich's biological father is a long-dead German whose sinister dealings at the end of World War II are painfully revealed. Ulrich's mother and the widowed father of Michael, a limping polio survivor, go in search of their sons and their friend Kit after the three are detained by the East German Stasi. At every turn, the layers of political duplicity thicken the plot and throw each relationship—between the two parents, the three teenagers, the Berlin guides and drivers who may or may not be quite as they seem—dangerously off-center. Themes of tormented fatherhood—a preoccupation Carroll has explored in his memoir An American Requiem—loyalty, rebellion and discord run through the book, with divided Berlin as the metaphor.

RAISING SWEET DOUGH

You can sell Krispy Kreme doughnuts to raise money for a worthy cause. Call 781-393-6844 or go to Krispykreme.com.

At certain sweet moments, the traffic on Route 16 in Medford tells you there's a celebrity in town: Krispy Kreme doughnuts. When the red neon "Hot Doughnuts Now" sign is on, you get handed a free sweetie to help you through your salivating wait, then follow your own personal conveyer belt of desire to buy more. Now your organization can raise funds through this joyful indulgence. Groups can buy doughnuts by the dozen at half-price and resell them, or buy fund-raising certificates for $3 and sell them for $6. Krispy Kreme redeems the certificates for the full price, and the fund-raising organization keeps the extra $3. If your organization is within a 30-minute drive of the local shrine, you can buy partnership cards for $5 and resell them for $10. A partnership card gets the holder a free dozen doughnuts for each dozen purchased, up to 10 times. (Organizations must purchase a minimum of 50 certificates or partnership cards.)

PLEASING ZZZZZZ'ING

"Easier, Deeper Sleep" is a three-hour class at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education, on Nov. 16. Therapist Merle Bombardieri, who teaches the class, offers further classes and consultations. Call 781-862-1662.

Whether it's a restless night's sleep or trouble getting to sleep at all, there are times when sleep doesn't quite do the job of knitting up that old raveled sleeve of care. Therapist Merle Bombardieri teaches a class that provides behavioral, hypnotic and practical approaches to help you learn to fade into the happy horizontal. Habits in the daytime—coffee, exercise, alcohol—affect sleep, so you'll learn to do advance planning in those departments. Likewise, you'll structure that honeyed twilight zone before bedtime. Myths and sleep-research realities are discussed—crises, menopause, a snoring spouse and obesity can affect sleep, and sleep-deprived people are dangerous drivers. Mostly, however, Bombardieri trains clients to "empower themselves to engage in behaviors they already know about." Gentle visualizations expand on the benign pretense that beautiful sleep has already occurred. Self-hypnosis and affirming self-talk can come to replace the drill sergeant of the superego, which only reinforces wakefulness. Bombardieri aims to help sleep-seekers "put their worries to bed," so that a refreshing night can help them "be replenished and healed to think more clearly."

From Scotland,
she could have gone
anywhere in the world.

But she chose Boston.

Nikki Rusk – Creative Director

Schedule your appointment with Nikki Rusk today!
1.877.323.4700

bumble and bumble · AVEDA · Bio-Ionic Japanese Hair Straightening East Coast Center · BOSTON'S BEST 2003 The Improper Bostonian

LORD'S & LADY'S
INTERNATIONAL SALON

Locations throughout New England

450 Belgrade Avenue • One Lord's & Lady's Way • West Roxbury, MA 02132
617.323.4700 • fax 617.323.4059 • Locations throughout New England

www.LordsandLadys.com
www.Biolonic.com

15 MICROBREWS ON TAP.

You'll Have No Trouble Getting Into The Holiday Spirit.

Book Your Holiday Party Today, 617.896.2309

BEER BREWERY TRADEMARK EATERY WORKS

112 Canal Street
Near North Station
617.896.BEER

61 Brookline Avenue
Opposite Fenway Park
617.536.BEER

278 Derby Street
In Historic Salem
978.745.BEER

BOLD AMERICAN FOOD. AWARD WINNING BEER.

TO IMPRESS YOUR DATE, ORDER
THE Grilled Swordfish

TO REALLY BLOW HER MIND,
EAT IT WITH UTENSILS.

WWW.BREWWORKS.NET

IN THIS SECTION: Review: Bambara Dish: Au revoir, Maison Robert Tasty Tidbit: Gingerbread House Competition

REVIEW

BLOSSOMING BRASSERIE

With its newly revamped menu, Hotel Marlowe's Bambara shows flashes of brilliance

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY BERTA A. DANIELS

BAMBARA

25 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge
(617-868-4444)

HOURS Mon.-Thu., 7-10 am, 11:30 am-2 pm and 5:30-10 pm; Fri., 7-10 am, 11:30 am-2 pm and 5:30-11 pm; Sat., 8-11:30 am and 5:30-11 pm; Sun., 8-11:30 am and 5:30-9 pm

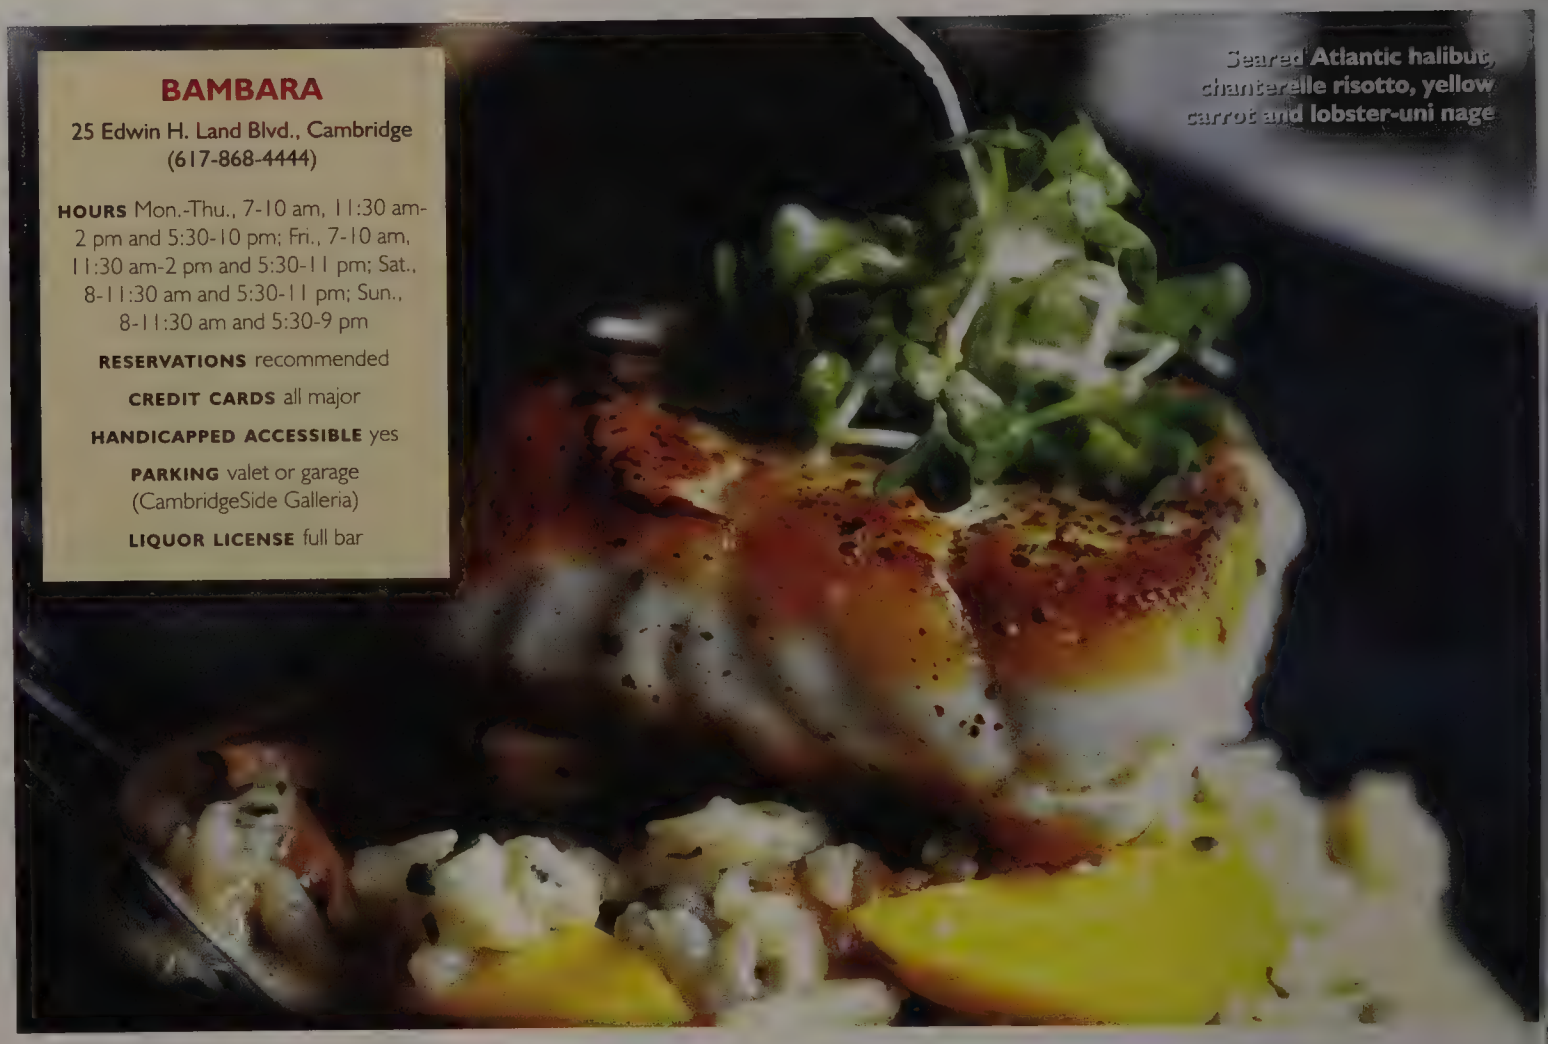
RESERVATIONS recommended

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING valet or garage (CambridgeSide Galleria)

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar



Seared Atlantic halibut, chanterelle risotto, yellow carrot and lobster-uni nage

Ensconced in a newly constructed building next door to the CambridgeSide Galleria, across the street from the Sonesta Hotel and the Charles River, Hotel Marlowe aspires to the personalized service and gracious atmosphere associated with small European hotels. From the looks of hotel guests enjoying a complimentary early-evening wine reception in the eclectically and extravagantly decorated, mirror-filled drawing room/lounge, it looks like a success. To give culinary expression to its studied ambience, the Kimpton Hotel Group brought in Tom Berry, Ming Tsai's former sous chef from Blue Ginger, who created and presides over the Marlowe's restaurant, Bambara.

Bambara got off to a rocky start earlier this year, with critics almost unanimous in lambasting its cutesy menu groupings (like "soupy," "leafy" and "crabby"). One critic went so far as to add his own category: "dopey." Bambara soon abandoned these flights of fancy imposed upon it by Kimpton management and restructured its menu in a more traditional format, with starters, salads, entrées and sides. Relieved of its menu baggage, Bambara serves some mighty fine food.

One evening I started with the steamed Prince Edward Island mussels ($8). About a dozen and a half plump, tender, impeccably clean mollusks cohabited a large bowl with a delicious combination of smoky bacon, white beans, garlic, onions, tiny pear-shaped tomatoes and pleasantly bitter escarole. The meaty chunks of mildly salty bacon and the creamy bean puree gave the dish substantial body, making it into a veritable stew. Indeed, it could have sufficed as a main course. The same could be said of the Maine crab cake ($12), a remarkably fat patty (nearly the size of a flattened baseball) of almost pure crabmeat, with delicate, sweet flavor, expertly seared to a crisp golden brown on the outside with moist goodness within. Accompanied by a vinaigrette-dressed salad of baby arugula, hefty cubes of roasted yellow beets and balsamic vinegar, it delighted the mouth with its combination of sweet, tart, crispy and smooth. The delicate sweetness of the warm crabmeat provided a subtle contrast to the earthy sweetness of the beets.

In a category by themselves were an assortment of stuffed mini rolls ($12), ever so sweet and eggy toasted brioche buns. Of the four different fillings, we chose the whole-belly fried clam, sweet scallop ceviche and Maine crab. In the first, four or five flash-fried clams burst from the buttered brioche roll, making it one of the more distinguished clam rolls I have ever had. The ceviche, with sea scallops "cooked" in acidic, citrusy lime juice and accompanied by a cilantro-laced avocado puree, refreshed and stimulated the taste buds, while the sweet crabmeat with small slivers of mango was a soothing counterpoint. A single one of these rolls would have sufficed as an appetizer, and the ensemble, complete with a scoop of well-balanced coleslaw, begged to be shared.

Among the main courses, the North Atlantic halibut, chanterelle risotto, yellow carrot and lobster-uni nage ($22) deserved star billing. Served in a large, square bowl, the halibut's firm yet delicate texture and fresh flavor would have been superb standing on their own, but they were elevated to new heights by the rich, mouth-filling flavor of the creamy risotto, redolent of lobster and sea urchin, and the slightly earthy nuances of the chanterelle mushrooms. While the sublimity of its halibut was hard to match, Bambara did a pretty good job with its crispy-skin organic chicken breast ($17). Presented in the form known as Statler, with a single wing bone protruding, the chicken had rendered cooking juices that, combined with white wine, garlic, carrots and herbs, produced what the menu describes as "drunken chicken sauce." A formless creamy polenta formed the base for this dish, alongside a scattering of pearl onions.

The excellence of Bambara's high scores with its halibut and roast chicken made its disappointing hanger steak ($18) and pommes frites all the more surprising. The steak arrived under a prodigious tangle of thin, limp, slightly greasy and less than hot French fries. While they were not bad tasting, the combination of their poor presentation and their lukewarm temperature dampened my enthusiasm. I asked for a separate plate so I could remove the frites and get at the steak. Although reasonably moist, the steak was even more coarse and chewy than I expected in this particular cut, and the "lemony rocket" sauce did nothing to redeem it. The French fries doubly disappointed in view of Bambara's characterization of itself as an American brasserie. One thing that a competent French bistro or brasserie can be trusted to turn out with some consistency is hot golden-brown, freshly cooked frites—a far cry from what Bambara tendered. Fortunately, the same evening Bambara's beef short rib ($22) rescued the beef genre. Described on the menu as "melt in your mouth," this rich, soft-textured, robust cut of tender beef fully lived up to its billing. Accompanying roasted Kabocha squash puree and baby bok choy profited from their association with the rich sauces rendered by the beef.

Bambara's desserts brought large, filling portions at customer-friendly prices ($6.50). The flourless chocolate cake came with a quartet of accompaniments—semi-sweet whipped cream, toothsome crème anglais, bittersweet chocolate sauce and raspberry coulis—that mitigated its somewhat dry texture. Pineapple upside-down bread pudding proved moist and delicious, but the toasted-coconut ice cream that accompanied it was almost cloying in its sweetness. "Three little profiteroles," despite their name, were the size of tennis balls. Each was filled with a different flavor ice cream—strawberry, vanilla and chocolate—and drizzled with a skimpy but scrumptious tease of chocolate sauce. Finally, the warm seasonal fruit crisp with brioche crust and vanilla-bean ice cream brought luscious wedges of apples but no crispness; the pastry was more of a crumble.

Chef Tom Berry was Ming Tsai's sous chef at Blue Ginger.

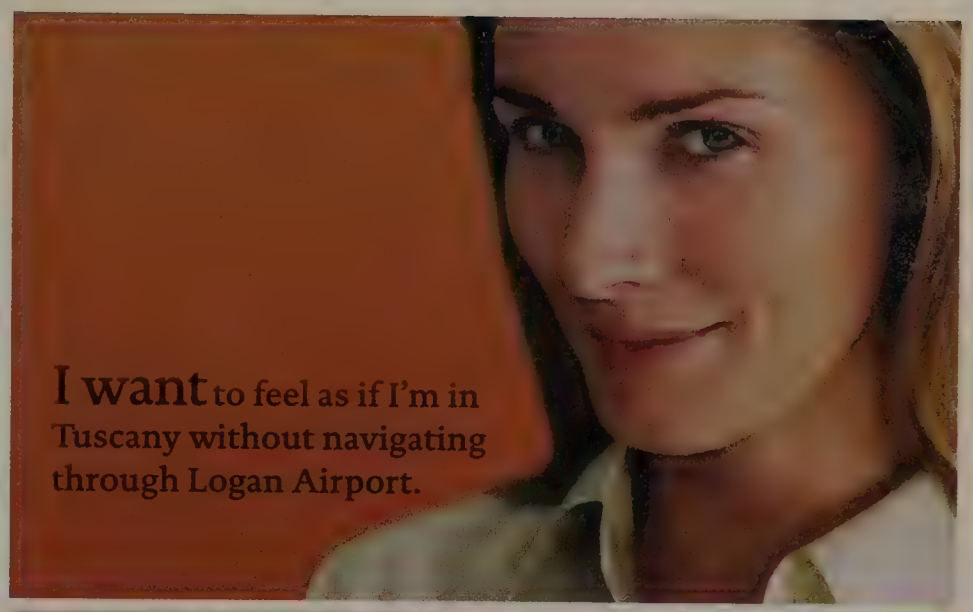
The restaurant offers a reasonable selection of wines by the bottle, though it's a little sparse in the lower price ranges. I chose a Gigondas from the southern Rhone, 2000 Domaine les Bosquets ($28), which made an especially good accompaniment to the hearty beef dishes, well structured with good acid and lacking the sometimes unpleasant peppery overtones of cheaper Rhone reds.

The dining room's layout is large and sprawling. The upper area near the entrance struck me as cramped, perhaps due to a low ceiling and busy, almost labored decor. A more comfortable dining alcove in the rear of the restaurant seemed more spacious and included a colorful assortment of fisherman-themed oil paintings by artist Marshall Crossman. It's difficult to identify or classify the style of the restaurant's design, which includes elements that could be called art deco (swirls in the tableware, funky geometric shapes of the plates and bowls), an eclectic mix of woods and veneers, and a less than eye-easing carpet. In a clichéd attempt to evoke brasserie ambience, Bambara covers its white tablecloths with butcher paper.

Fried native goat cheese, chilled ratatouille and yellow tomato vinaigrette

The upper dining area overlooks the open kitchen.

Critics have praised and panned Bambara's design and décor, but love it or hate it, the restaurant's physical setting plays second fiddle to the generally high level of its cuisine and its value-priced menu. As a hotel restaurant, Bambara may not reach the heights of Great Bay, Meritage and Azure, but it is definitely in the same league. IB



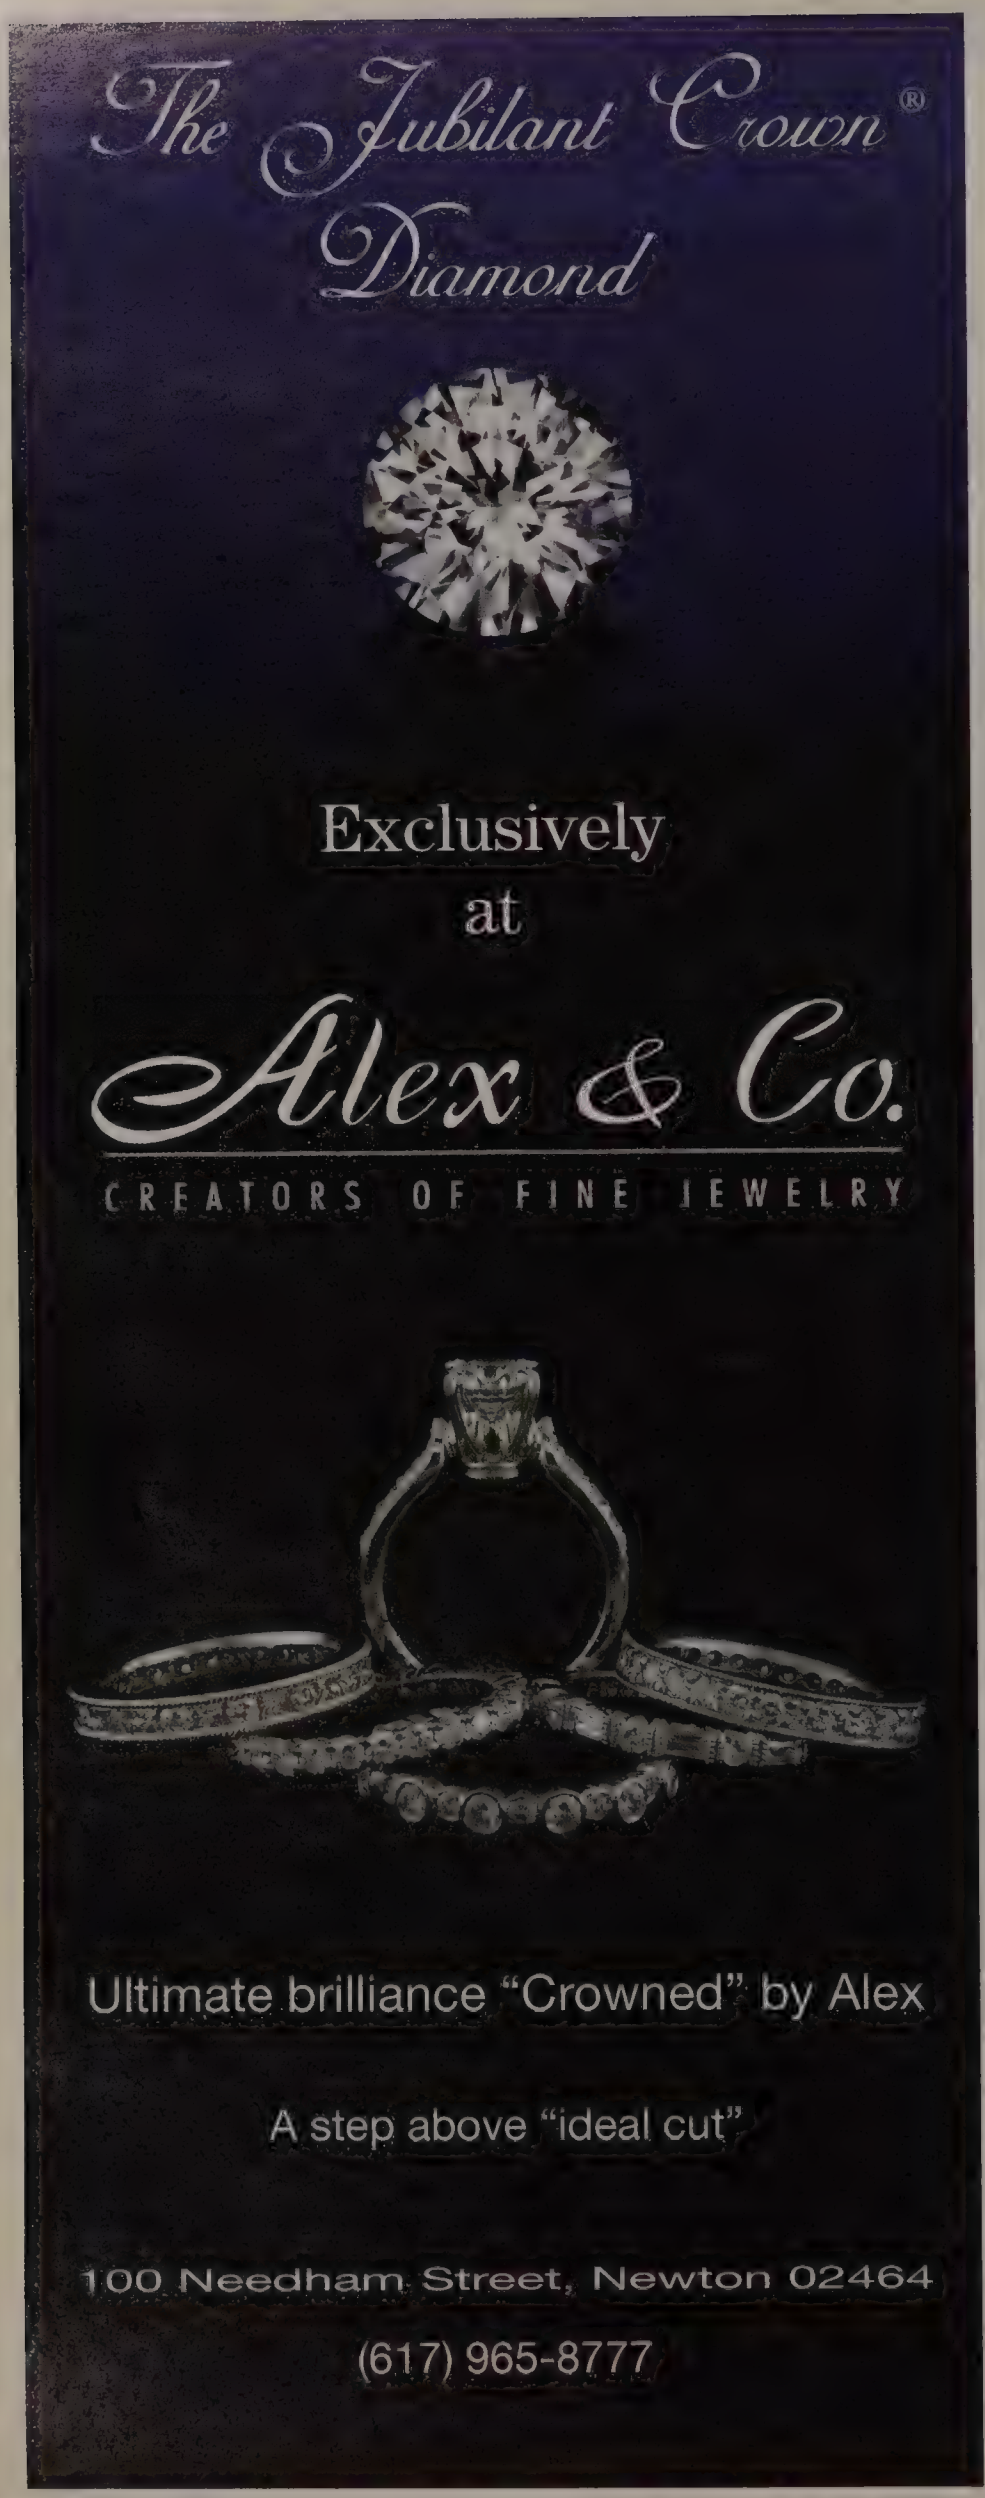
WHAT'S YOUR REQUEST?℠ Unique, creative and healthy cuisine is yours to enjoy at Caliterra Restaurant and Bar. Caliterra blends the natural ingredients of Northern California, with classic Tuscan cooking and the freshest New England seafood. Seasonal specialty menus and a superb wine list make it a "must" on your Boston restaurant itinerary. Reservations are recommended and valet parking is available. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner daily. Sunday brunch from Noon–2:30 p.m. Conveniently located one block from the Boston Harbor and Quincy Marketplace.

Mention this ad to get a free appetizer or dessert with purchase of a dinner entrée.*

CALITERRA

89 Broad Street, Boston, MA 02110
617-348-1234
Located in the Wyndham Boston

*Offer valid through 12/30/03. Must mention this ad to redeem offer.



TASTINGS

BY JULIE SURATT

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Beer Dinner
Argana, 1287 Cambridge St., Cambridge. www.beersummit.com. Nov. 6, 7 pm. $35. Chef Younes Rouzky prepares a four-course Moroccan meal paired with Paulaner beer.

B-Side Lounge Bistro Night
B-Side Lounge, 92 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-354-0766). Nov. 5. A la carte pricing. Guest chef Jamie Bissonnette joins B-Side chef Tōmas Garcia for a night of favorites.

$48 for 48 Months
Bomboa, 35 Stanhope St., Boston (617-236-6363). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 12, 7 or 9:15 pm. $48. Bomboa celebrates its fourth anniversary with an à la carte dinner featuring favorites and staples.

Gingerbread House Competition
World Trade Center, 164 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-445-7777). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Nov. 7-9. One-of-a-kind creations from local pastry chefs are available for purchase. Proceeds benefit Community Servings.

Harvest Review
Harvest, 44 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-868-2255). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 18. $35. Executive chef Eric Brennan introduces guests to New England farmers, purveyors and seafood authorities at this five-course tasting event. •Nov. 18, 6 pm: Bluefin tuna with Bob Kliss and Jeff Jendras of North Atlantic Traders.

Hotter Than Hell Night
East Coast Grill, 1271 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-491-6568). MBTA: Red Line to Central or Harvard. Nov. 5, 5:30 pm. A la carte pricing. Challenge your taste buds with some really hot food.

Jake's Spam Challenge
Jake's Dixie Roadhouse, 220 Moody St., Waltham (781-894-4227). Nov. 10, 6-10 pm. Sample the results as chefs from Jake's Dixie Roadhouse, the East Coast Grill, Blu and Blue Ribbon BBQ prepare dishes using Spam as the main ingredient.

Jason's Last Supper
Tremont 647, 647 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-4600). Nov. 17, 6:30 pm. $75. In honor of his last days at Tremont 647 before he leaves for Providence to head up Kestral, chef Jason Santos creates a five-course meal.

John Hancock Memorial Wine Tasting
Old State House, 206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Nov. 7, 6-8 pm. $45, $50 at the door. Sample from more than 100 imported and domestic wines in the historic surroundings of the Old State House, where John Hancock was tried by the British for smuggling Madeira wine. Proceeds benefit the Bostonian Society.

October Wine Series
Le Meridien, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-451-1900, ext. 7099). MBTA: Blue Line to State. $95. Chef Daniel Kenney hosts this four-course wine dinner. •Nov. 13: The IMPROPER's wine columnist, Sandy Block, comments on wines from Cakebread Cellars.

100 Barrel Series Beer Dinner
Aura, Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Lane, Boston (617-385-4300). MBTA: Red Line to South Station; transfer to shuttle to World Trade Center. Nov. 10, 6 pm. $40. Celebrate Harpoon's 100 Barrel Series with a three-course meal paired with Harpoon Oatmeal Stout, the Harpoon Wit and Harpoon Abbey Style Ale. Brewers Al Marzi, Jaime Schier and Sean Cornelius discuss the beers.

Oyster-ology Nights
McCormick & Schmick's, Park Plaza, 34 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-482-3999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 7-9 pm. Free. Chef Eric Naruszewicz and general manager Paul Tietge offer shucking lessons and discuss the differences among the wide array of oysters served at the raw bar.

The Pleasures of French Wine: A Tasting Series
French Library and Cultural Center, 53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Copley. Mondays, Nov. 10 and 17, 6:30-8:30 pm. $75 per session. This wine-tasting series features sommeliers from L'Espalier, Le Soir, Meritage and Radius who will share their knowledge and present their favorite wines.

Radius Fall Cooking Series: Prepare the Perfect Thanksgiving Dinner
Radius, 8 High St., Boston (617-426-1234). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Nov. 8, 11 am-2:30 pm. $125. Learn the art of coaxing flavor from a turkey, one-minute gravy and simple stuffing.

Rialto Fall Wine Classes: It's Party Wine
Rialto, One Bennett Street, Cambridge (617-661-5050). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 8, 11 am. $45. Whether your goal is to pair wines with an intimate dinner or host a cocktail party for 100, wine director Patrick Dubsky gives advice on finding moderately priced wines that work.

Ultimate Dinner
Davio's, 75 Arlington St., Boston (617-357-4810) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Through Dec 30. $150. Chefs Stephen Brown and Eric Swartz create a four-course menu followed by a special tasting of the Grande Champagne Cognac, Louis XIII de Rémy Martin (which retails at $1,40 a bottle).

Wine and Dine
75 Chestnut, 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. $85. Limited to 1 guests, this biweekly wine table offers a three-course food and wine pairing menu. •Nov. 17: Tuscany (Italy).

The World of Sake Part
One Milk St., Boston (617-451-0726). MBTA: Blue Line to State. Nov. 5, 6:30 pm. $5
John Gaunter, writer and director of the Sake Export Association, discusses the beverag Taste sake from a variety breweries around Japan.

Harry Potter's Hogwarts Castle won the Kids' Choice award at last year's Gingerbread House Competition.

DISH

Wham, bam, thank you, Spam!

Au revoir, Maison Robert… Spam-o-rama…Tuna on trial…

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Boston will lose a little bit of its romance when Maison Robert closes its French doors for the last time in mid February. On the other hand, general manager Andree Robert, who has also cooked at the elegant restaurant owned by her parents during its 30-plus-year history, will gain more of a life.

"First, I'm going to relax," she says. "I want to do some other things." The restaurant, in Boston's Old City Hall, has played a key role in Boston's culinary history since its 1972 opening. Now the venue is being shopped around to a gaggle of high-profile chefs, rumored to include Emeril Lagasse. So if you crave a quiet, civilized Valentine's Day dinner overlooking the Granary Burial Ground, this could be your last chance.

From the sublime to the ridiculous: On Nov. 10, five chefs from illustrious eateries such as Blu and East Coast Grill compete in the first annual Spam Challenge at Jake's Dixie Roadhouse in Waltham. And the trophy will most definitely not go to the likes of a casserole made with Easy Cheese or Bisquick. "Someone's going to be doing Spam Wellington," says owner Don Yovicsin. There's also been talk of "Spam-palaya," which entails (entrails?) stuffing smoked Spam into sausage casings to create a substitute for andouille sausage. Jake's own recipe is "garlic-rubbed, herb-crusted Spam shanks with a red wine reduction gravy." Shanks for the memories, for sure.

The case of the incredible shrinking tuna tartare at Kingfish Hall has been solved.

SECOND COURSE

Dish CSI (Culinary Scene Investigation): A financial services executive asked Dish to get to the bottom of a mystery: the incredible shrinking tuna tartare at Kingfish Hall.

"It used to be a rectangle, the best thing in town, about five inches by two inches," he recalled wistfully. "Then they chopped it in half. And now it's a little circle on a big circular plate." After months of observing the process, he was as bemused as he was mystified. Recently, when this regular diner was served the tiny tuna by a regular waitress, he said, she scurried off in embarrassment when he pointed at the petite portion and gave her a questioning look.

So how endangered is the tuna? Kingfish Hall manager Carolynn Jordan acknowledges that "it's definitely changed shape, through experimentation with different plateware and garnishes. The size is probably more regulated now, more standard, not necessarily smaller. It used to be served on a very small rectangular plate."

Well, how big is it then?

Jordan checked with the kitchen and reported: "It's a four-ounce portion size. It's exactly the same every time now." Case closed…till next time.

Hot ticket bargain alerts: At the edge of the Theater District, Pigalle is offering a three-course Sunday Night Regional Tasting Menu now through December for $35. Choose your favorite fall flavors from the likes of terrine of confit duck with dried fruit and brioche; brandade de morue rosti cake with stuffed zucchini and garlic aioli; and rum-raisin ice cream. But wait—there's more! Add a sampling of wine from France's Languedoc region for another five bucks. A few blocks away, 33 Restaurant & Lounge is featuring a pre-theater dinner special. Thirty dollars gets you the entree of the day, salad or dessert, coffee, and...complimentary valet parking! The catch: You must show your theater ticket to qualify. IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

Globe Sofa, by Cassina. Offered exclusively by Montage.

MONTAGE

Lifestyle less ordinary. Montage fine furnishings.

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 The Improper Bostonian

75 Arlington Street, Boston Mon-Fri 10-6pm Thurs. 10-7pm Sat. 10-6pm Sun. 12-5pm
617.451.9400 www.montageweb.com

BEST OF BOSTON 2003

m.j. O'Connor's

irish pub

For a cozy, upscale, Irish experience

Now Welcoming Thanksgiving Reservations

Newly expanded function space to accommodate holiday parties and corporate events

27 Columbus Avenue, Park Plaza Hotel 617.482.2255

agenda

IMPROPER PICKS

november 5 - 18

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			5	6	7	8
			Diane Middlebrook reads from her biography about Sylvia Plath and Ted Hughes at WordsWorth Books. See Books on page 92.		The three-day Christmas Craft Festival at the World Trade Center starts today. See CityScope on page 56.	The Boston Jewish Film Festival is in full swing. Tonight, the Coolidge Corner Theatre screens three films. See Movies on page 66.
9	10	11	12	13	14	15
Porn star Ron Jeremy hosts Grand Opening's tenth anniversary celebration. See CityScope on page 56. 				Belle and Sebastian with Rasputina play at the Orpheum. See Music on page 76.	Purchase paintings at the Boston International Fine Art Show at the Cyclorama. See Museums & Galleries on page 90.	The GIFT Foundation's Fall Fandango features live music, dancing and a silent auction. See CityScope on page 56.
16	17	18
	The 1930s screwball comedy Bringing Up Baby screens at the Boston Public Library. It's free. See Movies on page 66.

NICK HORNBY: JIM PILKINGTON

TUE./NOV. 11

Books & Poetry: Personal Playlist

In his hit novel High Fidelity, Nick Hornby showed us the world through the eyes of a music snob who evaluates anyone and everyone solely on the basis of their musical taste. A music geek himself, Hornby throws the fiction pretense out the window with his new work, Songbook, a collection of essays about his 31 favorite songs (with many humorous asides). At his reading, you'll have a chance to pick up a copy of the book (the hardcover version comes with an 11-song CD). Another reason to buy the book: Profits benefit the autism organizations Treehouse Trust and 826 Valencia. The event, sponsored by WordsWorth Books, is at the First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-354-5201). 7 pm.

THE CALENDAR GIRLS' GUIDE TO WHAT'S UP, IN AND AROUND BOSTON

CITYSCOPE 56

PERFORMING ARTS 58

MOVIES 64

MUSIC 72

CLASSICAL MUSIC 78

DANCE CLUBS 82

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . 88

BOOKS & POETRY 92

EDUCATION 93

GAY & LESBIAN 94

BODY & MIND 96

SPORTS 96

CHILDREN 97

AROUND TOWN 97

EDITED BY:

ERIN HAGEDORN

Books & Poetry, Gay & Lesbian, Movies, Music

JULIE SURATT

Around Town, Children, Education, Performing Arts

ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY:

Ezra Dyer CityScope, Dance Clubs, Sports

Jessica Iredale Museums & Galleries

Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind

Paul Sherman Movie Capsules

Nathan Lane stars in the Huntington Theatre Company's production of Butley.

THROUGH SUN./NOV. 30

Performing Arts: From Bialystock to Butley

On stage, actor Nathan Lane has made his mark in the role of the lovable scoundrel: Think Max Bialystock in The Producers and Nathan Detroit in Guys and Dolls. This month, however, he takes on a more complex, darkly comic role in Simon's Gray's Butley at the Huntington Theatre Company. Lane rises to the challenge as Butley, a bitter, sharp-tongued literary professor whose estranged wife and lover both desert him on the same day. "I can't think of a better actor to play Butley," says artistic director Nicholas Martin, who worked to make the production happen after learning that one of his pal Lane's lifelong dreams was to star in the show. The two-time Tony Award–winning actor plays a man out of sorts as his wife announces that she intends to marry a mutual friend whom Butley can't stand, and his live-in male lover moves out to be with another man. 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). Through Nov. 30. $14-$64.

FRI./NOV. 7 AND MON./NOV. 10

Tastings: Winos and Lagerheads

The Calendar Girls are of two different minds on the subject of beverages: One of us loves lager; the other dreams of nothing but a glass of shiraz at the end of a long day. So we're highlighting two different events for beer and wine fanatics. On Nov. 7, you can sample from more than 100 imported and domestic wines at the John Hancock Memorial Wine Tasting, held in the Old State House, where Hancock was tried by the British for smuggling Madeira wine. Three days later, on Nov. 10, the Seaport Hotel hosts a celebration of Harpoon's 100 Barrel Series. These one-of-a-kind beers are made by a Harpoon brewer, and each batch is limited to 100 barrels. So once the last beer has been poured from a batch, that's it. Chef John Merrill of Aura prepares a three-course meal paired with Harpoon Oatmeal Stout, Harpoon Wit and Harpoon Abbey-Style Ale, and the individual brewers will be on hand to discuss their beers. See Tastings on page 50 for more information.

WED./NOV. 5

Music: Super Saul

A hip-hop Renaissance man, Saul Williams has been lurking below the mainstream radar for some time now. Known for his high-intensity live performances, Williams cut his teeth in the NYC slam poetry scene of the early-to-mid 1990s. As versatile and multifaceted as hip-hop itself, he's an author (She) and a visual artist as well as an MC who creates his own stunningly multilayered beats. Most recently Williams collaborated with UK DJ legends Coldcut on an antiwar EP titled Not in My Name. For something a little less politically minded, check out his brilliant album, Amethyst Rock Star. Described as "genre-defining" by the jaded, seen-it-all types at the record stores and college radio stations, the album is a shining example of the power of hip-hop to move the mind and the heart as well as the body. Paradise Rock Club, 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-423-NEXT). 8 pm, $15, 18+.

NOV. 4–9 AND NOV. 5–DEC. 7

Performing Arts: Curtain Calls

Goodness, it's blockbuster season in the Theater District. On the heels of Hairspray and Say Goodnight, Gracie come Chicago to the Wang Theatre (Nov. 4–9) and Les Miserables to the Colonial (Nov. 5–Dec. 7). We know why everyone's geared up for seeing Chicago (blame it on the wildly popular movie version that took home six Oscars), and well, people just can't seem to get enough of Les Mis (if you haven't already seen it, like, three times, you're a novice). Both are solid bets for the preholiday season. You'll find us as close to the front row as we can possibly afford (read: balcony) at both shows. For the uninitiated, Les Miserables is based on Victor Hugo's novel about fugitive Jean Valjean, and Chicago features murderesses Velma Kelly and Roxie Hart, along with their slick lawyer Billy Flynn, in their quest for headlines and a moment in the spotlight. See Performing Arts on page 58 for more information.

Do you hear the people sing? Les Miserables is at the Colonial Theatre.

Baseball is over! Let's move on.

IT'S TIME TO GET BACK TO FOOTBALL! The official Monday Night Football party at Hurricane O'Reilly's featuring WEEI Big Show hosts Glen Ordway and Fred Smerlas. Every Monday Night at 7pm. Come and watch the first half with Glen, Fred and special weekly guests to Learn how you can win a trip to the BIG GAME. COLLEGE FOOTBALL FANS, watch your favorite team play on a big Screen at any one of our locations For details call: 617.451.7400. Now featuring a brand new menu.

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN'S BEST PRE-FLEET CENTER BAR

WEEI 850AM SPORTS RADIO

BUDWEISER

SMIRNOFF Twist

HURRICANE O'Reilly's

MONDAY NIGHT MATCH-UP

150 CANAL STREET, BOSTON • 617.722.0161

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for festivals, events and benefits by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Festivals, Benefits & Events

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 5

Alzheimer's Charity Event
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.spiritalive.us/alzheimers. 7 pm. $20. This party raises money for Alzheimer's treatment and research. Open bar, 7-9 pm.

Arthritis Foundation Lifetime Achievement Award Dinner
Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston (617-244-8225). www.arthritis.org. 6:30-9:30 pm. Hill, Holiday CEO Jack Connors Jr. is honored for his charitable work in the Boston community. Proceeds support arthritis research.

Boston Can Share Food Drive
Post offices and various other drop-off spots around the city. (617-635-4507). www.bostoncanshare.com. Through Nov. 14. Drop off tuna, beef stew and other nonperishable food items in this citywide food drive for the Greater Boston Food Bank.

New England International Auto Show
Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Columbia Point, Boston. (800-322-4821). www.bostonautoshow.com. Nov. 5-7, 1-10 pm; Nov. 8, 10 am-10 pm; Nov. 9, 10 am-7 pm. $9. Thirty-nine different car manufacturers display hundreds of new models and concept cars under one roof. Highlights of the show include Mark Martin's NASCAR stock car (Nov. 8-9), the new Ford GT and the Ferrari Enzo.

The Ferrari Enzo (left) and Ford GT are two stars of the New England International Auto Show, Nov. 5-9 at the Bayside Expo Center.

THURSDAY, NOV. 6

Big Brothers/Big Sisters Big Bash III
Joseph's on High, 200 High St., Boston (617-236-4634). www.bigsister.org. 6-10 pm. $10. Big Brothers/Big Sisters hosts a party with hors d'oeuvres, raffles and a cash bar.

Charity Jam
Pat Flanagan's, 79 Parkway St., Quincy (617-899-4740). 8 pm. $5 donation at the door. The bands Stop the Wombats, Doc Holliday, Mersa and Decadence play a concert to benefit the Miami Foundation, an organization that funds paralysis research.

HEAR Benefit
TechSpace, 580 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-275-7000). 7-9:30 pm. $20. Elizabeth Steen, singer and keyboard player for Natalie Merchant's band, performs at this benefit for Hearing Education and Awareness for Rockers, an organization dedicated to preventing hearing loss among musicians. Adam Hirsch also performs.

Spring in November Luncheon
Grand Ballroom, Hyatt Regency Hotel, Boston (617-632-5091). 11:30 am. $300, $2,500 to sit at Oscar de la Renta's table. Designer Oscar de la Renta debuts his spring 2004 collection to benefit the Women's Cancers Program at Dana-Farber. A trunk show at Neiman Marcus follows on Nov. 8.

A Sterling Affair
Long's Jewelers, Middlesex Turnpike, Burlington (877-845-6647, ext. 254). 6:30-8:30 pm. High-end platinum jewelry designer Scott Kay debuts his new sterling silver collection. The event includes cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and music. Guests may enter to win a piece from the new collection.

FRIDAY, NOV. 7

Alliance for Children Foundation Benefit Screening
Copley Theatre, 100 Huntington Ave., Boston (781-431-7148). 7 pm. $20. This private screening of Casas de los Babys raises money for the ACF's projects for children in Latin America.

Christmas Craft Festival
World Trade Center, , Boston (617-385-5000). Nov. 7, 12-7 pm; Nov. 8, 10 am-7 pm; Nov. 9, 10 am-5 pm. $10. More than 350 artists and crafts people sell jewelry, clothing, accessories and other gift-worthy items for the holiday season. The festival also includes a gingerbread house competition—sales of the entries benefit Community Servings.

Global Citizens Circle Dinner
Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Lane, Boston (617-267-8862). Dinner follows discussion in Cityview Ballroom of the World Trade Center, 3-5 pm. $150. Global Citizens Circle celebrates 30 years of encourging civil discourse with a reception, dinner and entertainment by satirist Mark Russell.

PRC Benefit Auction
808 Gallery, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-975-0600). www.prcboston.org. 6:30 pm. $35. The Photographic Resource Center auctions more than 200 photographs from 150 artists, with values from $50 to $5,000.

Learn some ballroom dancing moves at the Copley Soiree Nov. 9.

SATURDAY, NOV. 8

Jewish Family & Children's Service Black Tie Fund-Raiser
Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Lane, Boston (617-227-6641). 7 pm. This annual fund-raising party for JF&CS includes dinner, dancing, a silent auction and a live auction hosted by Christie's auctioneer George McNeely.

SUNDAY, NOV. 9

BAC 5-Mile Benefit Road Race
Start/finish at the Boston Athletic Club, 653 Summer St., Boston (617-269-4300). 11 am. $20. The Boston Athletic Club hosts a 5-mile run and 3-mile walk to benefit several organizations, including the Boys and Girls Club.

The Copley Soiree
Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-227-9009). 7-10 pm. $30 in advance, $35 at the door. Singles and couples are invited to this evening of ballroom dancing, which includes a dance demonstration, Latin and swing music, hors d'oeuvres, cash bar and a door prize from DePrisco Diamond Jewelers. Singles seated together. Semiformal attire, black tie optional.

Grand Opening 10th Anniversary Party
Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-731-2626). www.grandopening.com. 3-7 pm. $10 in advance, $15 at the door. Grand Opening celebrates 10 years in business with Brother Cleve spinning lounge music, FetishDiva Midori tying up volunteers and an erotic ice cream–eating contest. Ron Jeremy is the guest host.

Sunday Singles Dance
Raffael's Restaurant, One Enterprise Drive, State Street Bank Building, N. Quincy (781-446-0234). Every Sunday, 7-11 pm. $10. Single professionals ages 35 and over are invited for an evening of dancing to music by Beau Paris.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 12

Concert for a Landmine-Free World
Harvard's Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). www.vvaf.org. 7:30 pm. Tickets start at $42.50. Nancy Griffith, Julie Gold and others perform to benefit landmine survivors.

The Night Is Ours Benefit
Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge (617-248-0922). www.barcc.org. 6:30 pm. $175. The Boston Area Rape Crisis Center hosts a silent auction and cocktail reception, followed by a dinner and awards ceremony. Proceeds, which will help offset recent funding cuts, benefit the BARCC's counseling and advocacy services for victims of rape and sexual assault.

Poliform-Boston Party
Poliform-Boston, One Design Center Place, Boston (617-896-2700). www.poliform-boston.com. 6:30 pm. Poliform-Boston celebrates its grand opening with a reception hosted by Architectural Digest. A portion of the proceeds benefits the Boys and Girls Club of Boston.

THURSDAY, NOV. 13

Adopt-a-Student Foundation's Young Professionals Pre-Holiday Kickoff
Felt, 533 Washington St., Boston (617-563-9113). 6 pm. $50. This early holiday party features live music from the Love Dogs, free pool and appetizers and a cash bar. Proceeds benefit the Freshman Literacy Project at Cathedral High School in the South End.

Boy Scouts Awards Breakfast
Hyatt Boston, One Avenue de Lafayette, Boston (617-723-0007). 8 am. $125. Area leaders are recognized at this benefit breakfast for Boston Boy Scouts programs.

The Fine Art of Living Gala Preview
The Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-988-2518). www.bcaonline.org. 6-9 pm. $100. This preview party for the Boston International Fine Art Show (which runs Nov. 14-16) includes food and wine, and attendees get the first chance to purchase art. Proceeds benefit the Boston Center for the Arts.

FRIDAY, NOV. 14

ALS Benefit Concert
Regent Theatre, Arlington (781-646-4849). 8 pm. Tickets start at $30. Edie Carey headlines and Kesenia Mach opens at this concert to raise money for amyotrophic lateral sclerosis research.

A Night out on the Town
Charles Hotel, One Bennett St., Cambridge (617-886-9156). 7:30 pm-12 am. $100, $175 per couple. The Rusty Scott Quartet and the Men in Black Band play this benefit for Bridge Over Troubled Waters, an organization that helps at-risk young people. The evening features a martini bar, cigar lounge and silent auction.

SATURDAY, NOV. 15

Earth Night 2003
Black Falcon Cruise Terminal, Boston (508-698-6810). www.earthnight.org. 6:30-11 pm. $75. The Environmental League of Massachusetts hosts a party and auction to benefit environmental advocacy programs. Among the items up for auction are a Toyota Prius, a chance to ride the Zamboni during a Bruins game and a walk-on part on the TV show Judging Amy.

GIFT Foundation Fall Fandango
Children's Museum, 300 Congress St., Boston (617-226-3180). www.thegiftfoundation.org. 8 pm-12:30 am. $65 in advance, $75 at the door. This Carnivale-themed benefit for the National Black College Alliance features live music from the Evan Goodrow band, desserts, dancing, a silent auction and an open bar. Black tie or masquerade attire optional.

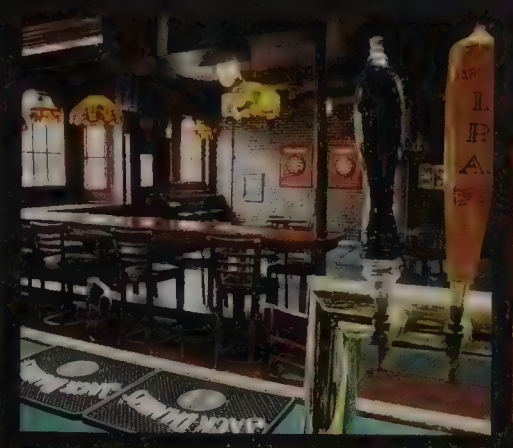
Joslin High Hopes Diamond Gala
Boston Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St., Boston (888-567-5462). 6:30 pm-12 am. $300 for the evening, $150 for a chance at the diamond. The Joslin Diabetes Center's annual fund-raiser features a chance to win a $10,000 pair of earrings from DePrisco Jewelers (there are 299 boxes of cubic zirconia earrings, but one contains a pair with real diamonds). The evening also includes live and silent auction and live music from the Platters.

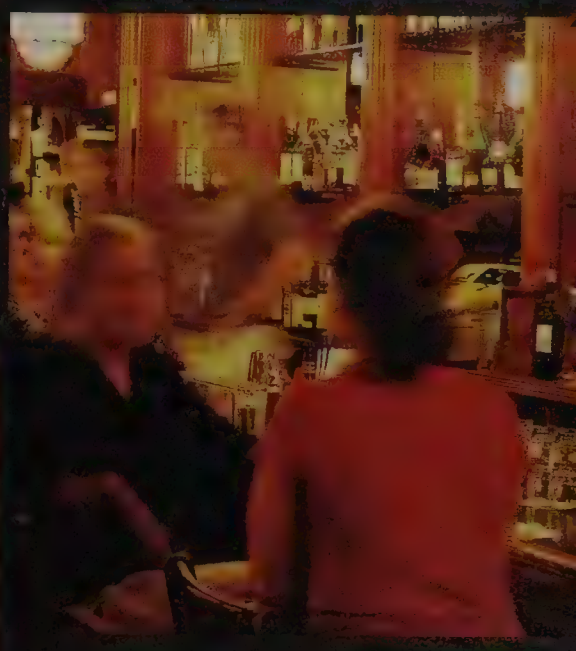
Just Wish for It!
The International, 184 High St., Boston. www.acteva.com/go/chioboston. 8 pm. $25. The Greater Boston Chi Omega Alumnae Chapter hosts this benefit party for the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

Tag Sale
Cambridge Friends Center, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-876-5312). www.afsc.org. 9:30 am-2 pm. $3. Sales of clothing, jewelry and other items at the tag sale raise money for the American Friends Service Committee's emergency aid to people in need.

MONDAY, NOV. 17

Benefit Wine Tasting
Morton's, 1 Exeter Plaza, Boston (617-624-1923). www.bostonbruinsfoundation.com. 6-8 pm. $75. This benefit for the Boston Bruins Foundation includes wine tasting, steak sandwiches, appetizers and an autograph session with Bruins players Hal Gill, Marty Lapointe and Sean O'Donnell.





THE LAST DROP

THE LAST DROP 396 WASHINGTON ST., OAK SQUARE, BRIGHTON 617.787.1111 ✦ 421 MARLBOROUGH ST., BACK BAY, BOSTON 617.262.5565

WHITE HORSE TAVERN

Now offering FREE wireless internet to our customers

50″ PLASMA TV'S

Watch all the fall match-ups here!

Never a cover charge

THE WHITE HORSE TAVERN 116 BRIGHTON AVE. ALLSTON 617.254.6633 MON-SAT 11:30-2AM SUN 10-2AM FOOD UNTIL MIDNIGHT

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts. Or e-mail information to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Get tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Booths located at Faneuil Hall (on the south side of the hall) and Copley Square (at the corner of Boylston and Dartmouth). Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Purchase tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.coolguitars.com/tickets.htm. Open seven days a week, Ticket City sells tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater

JUST OPENED

As You Like It
Wilbur Theatre, 106 Boylston, Boston (617-931-2787). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. Nov. 11-Dec. 21. $25-$67. Shakespeare's play tells the story of Rosalind and her cousin Celia, who have run away to the idyllic Forest of Arden. This production is directed by Sir Peter Hall, founder of England's Royal Shakespeare Company.

Blanche and Her Joy Boys
New Repertory Theatre, 54 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands (617-332-1646.). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Wed., 2 and 7 pm; Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Nov. 12-Dec. 14. $33-$42. Chris Calloway, daughter of famed big band leader Cab Calloway, performs this one-woman show about her aunt Blanche (Cab's sister). This show features a jazz combo with Calloway singing the songs that made Blanche popular, including "I'm Just Wild About Harry" and "I Need Lovin'."

Blue Hair Troupe
Tremont Theatre, 276 Tremont St., Boston (866-443-2248). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 2 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Nov. 7-Dec. 7. This musical revue takes place at a senior center for the performing arts where the retirees create and perform their own shows.

Chicago
Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue., Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 1 pm. Nov. 4-9. $28-$75. In this Tony Award–winning musical by Bob Fosse, murderesses Velma Kelly and Roxie Hart compete not just for headlines, but also—with the help of their slick lawyer Billy Flynn—for a lasting moment in the spotlight.

Creation of the World and Other Business
Theatre Cooperative, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617-625-1300). www.theatrecoop.org. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Nov. 14-Dec. 13. $20. Arthur Miller's play, which alternates scenes of humor with absorbing confrontations between God and Lucifer, and God and his fallible creations, explores a basic human dilemma: When every person wants justice, why do people go on creating injustice?

Critical Acclaim
SouthCity Theatre Company at the Actor's Workshop Black Box, 327 Summer St., Boston (781-724-0316). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Nov. 7-8, 13-15, 8 pm. $12. This play by John Michael Manship, about two undergraduate psychology majors, explores the nature of human behavior, discovery and creation.

Preview

Retiree Revue

Rockport's most vivacious senior citizen dazzles in Blue Hair Troupe

Many people would consider Gloria Stanton old. After all, she is 63, has some gray hair, adores her grandchildren—and even qualifies for senior citizen discounts. Yet, the actress (pictured bottom right), who's currently starring in the musical comedy Blue Hair Troupe at the Tremont Theatre, exudes a youthful energy and attitude. "There's a line I sing towards the end of the show that really sums up how I feel about aging," she explains. "It says, 'If I refuse to grow old, I will never be old.'"

Blue Hair Troupe* follows the retirees of the Rula Lenska Senior Center for the Performing Arts as they put on their dancing shoes and strut their stuff. Stanton, a Rockport native and career actress who's performed in theaters as far away as San Francisco and London, embodies BHT's "stay young" motto and lives her life accordingly. She jokes that she has been acting for "200 years," and she has also found time to write, produce and act in her own one-woman shows that focus on events in her life.

Stanton says that Blue Hair Troupe's older cast is a lot of fun. "At this age, no one needs to be a diva any more," she says, "and everyone is willing to make a great show." To those a little younger and a little less wise, Stanton offers some advice: "Never give up on your dreams. I was 57 when I resumed the pursuit of my acting dream after taking time off to raise my children, and it means more to me now than it ever has. You are never too old."
Tremont Theatre, 276 Tremont St., Boston (866-443-2248). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 2 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Nov. 7-Dec. 7.

—Heather MacNeil

The Crucible
The Salem Theatre Company, St. Peter's Church, 32 St. Peter St., Salem (978-790-8546). Thu. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Nov. 6-22. $15. Arthur Miller's play confronts issues of principle, paranoia and passion within the historical context of the Salem witchcraft hysteria of 1692.

Dylan Thomas: Return Journey
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Nov. 6-8, 8 pm. $20-$25. Originally directed by Sir Anthony Hopkins, this show commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Welsh poet's death at age 39.

Fiddler on the Roof
Turtle Lane Playhouse, 283 Melrose St., Newton (617-244-0169). www.turtle-lane.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Nov. 7-Dec. 30. $22. Based on the stories of Sholom Aleichem, this musical tells the story of Tevye, a Jewish peasant in pre-Revolutionary Russia who must cope with the day-to-day problems of shtetl life.

Follies
Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Nov. 14, 21 and 22, 8 pm. $30. In this fully staged version of Stephen Sondheim's 1971 musical, a group of Follies girls holds a reunion at their old theater on the night before it's scheduled to be leveled to make way for a parking lot.

G.R. Point
Hovey Players, Abbott Theatre, 9 Spring St., Waltham (781-893-9171). Nov. 14-15, 21-22 and 28-29, 8 pm; Nov. 16 and 23, 2 pm. $15. David Berry's war drama is set at a Graves Registration Point in Vietnam in 1969, where bodies of combat victims are processed before being sent home. Through the experience of a young draftee and the situation he and others are thrust into, the play explores what leads decent young men to commit horrible acts.

Les Miserables
Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.broadwayinboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 1:30 and 7:30 pm. Nov. 5-Dec. 7. $30-$87. Based on Victor Hugo's novel, this musical by Alain Boublil and Claud-Michel Schonberg tells the story of the fugitive Jean Valjean, who is pitted against the cruel and self-righteous Inspector Javert in a lifelong struggle to evade capture.

Lettice and Lovage
Founders' Theatre, Shakespeare & Co., 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-637-3353). www.shakespeare.org. Fri. and Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Nov. 7-Dec. 14. $27-$42. Lettice Douffet lectures as a tour guide at one of Britain's least stately homes in this play by Peter Shaffer. The house has so little relative importance that she begins to embellish its history. This gets her in trouble with an inspector from the Preservation Trust. But eventually the two women forge an alliance to "awaken their fellow citizens to the dreariness of their lives."

Moving Target
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Nov. 5, 12, 19 and 26, 8 pm. $18. Local singer and actress Celia Slattery offers this one-woman show with music about growing up in the '60s and '70s.

Oratorio of the Possibilitarians
Cambridge Family YMCA Theatre, 820 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-9622). First week: Thu.-Sun., 8 pm; second week: Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. Nov. 13-23. $10. Bread & Puppet Theater director Peter Schumann and his band of seven Vermont puppeteers are joined by 25 local puppeteers. The show addresses social, political and environmental issues.

Rigoletto
Boston Lyric Opera at the Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-6772). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Wed., 7:30 pm; Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Nov. 5-18. $33-$152. Rigoletto will do almost anything to save his daughter from the Duke's heartless ill use. But at what cost? His adversary controls his fate. This production of Verdi's opera is sung in Italian (with projected English translation).

She Loves Me
St. John's Episcopal Church, Central and Prospect streets, Saugus (781-231-5204). Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Nov. 14-29. $15. The Theatre Company of Saugus performs this romantic musical by Joe Masteroff (book), Jerry Bock (music) and Sheldon Harnick (lyrics). Set in a European perfume shop in the 1930s, the story revolves around two of its clerks who feud daily but, unknown to both, are romantic pen pals.

The Silent Movie Play
Boston Center for the Arts, Leland Center, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Nov. 22. $10-$12. Rough & Tumble Theatre presents this original physical comedy about a lowly shop boy and his trials and travails.

The Star Keeper
Somerville Theatre, 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-876-4275). MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Nov. 8, 11 am and 3 pm. $15. Theatre de L'oeil's wordless story combines visual poetry, music and fantasy. A character named Pretzel ventures into celestial and underwater realms to return a fallen star to its proper place. Along the way, he encounters a multitude of eccentrics in the form of more than 30 intricate puppets.

A Streetcar Named Desire
Fiddlehead Theatre Company, 106 Central St., Norwood (781-762-4060). Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Nov. 9. $22. Tennessee Williams' sultry story of reality and illusion is set in New Orleans' French Quarter.

Sunrise, Sunset: The Songs of Sheldon Harnick
Jewish Theatre of New England, 333 Nahanton St., Newton Centre (617-558-6480). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. Nov. 13, 2 and 7:30 pm; Nov. 15, 8 pm; Nov. 16, 2 and 7 pm. $28. Broadway actress Maureen Brennan stars in this revue based on the music of Tony- and Pulitzer Prize–winning lyricist Sheldon Harnick (Fiddler on the Roof, Fiorello and She Loves Me).

West Side Story
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Tue., 8 pm; Wed., 2 and 8 pm; Thu.-Fri., 8pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Nov. 23. $26-63. The modern-day version of Romeo and Juliet finds two young lovers caught between warring street gangs and opposing cultures.

The Women
Footlight Club, 7A Eliot St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3200). Nov. 7-8, 14-15, 21-22, 8 pm; Nov. 16, 2 pm. $12-$15. Author, editor, playwright, journalist, congresswoman and diplomat Clare Boothe Luce's 1936 play satirizes upper-class New York women.

You Must Not Speak! The Language of Human Rights
Boston Arts Academy, 174 Ipswich St., Boston (617-635-6543). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Nov. 13-15, 7 pm. $5. Conceived by director Rosalind Thomas-Clark, this original dramatic production about human rights is based on her work as a Surdna Arts Teachers Fellow in Brazil.

NOW RUNNING

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-6912). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed., 8 pm; Thu., 5 and 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 3 and 6 pm. Ongoing. $43 and $53. This production abandons all dialogue and focuses on making an impact through tribal rock music, humorous antics, props and three men painted blue.

Book of Days
Lyric Stage Company, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed., Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. Through Nov. 22. $22-$41. A quiet midwestern town with more churches than bars serves as the setting for Lanford Wilson's (Talley's Folly, The Hot L Baltimore) play about adultery, theft, lies and the politics of community theater.

Boston Fringe
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-5000). www.companyone.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. Through Nov. 22. $25. Company One offers a selection of plays and performances produced by Boston's leading alternative companies, including Centastage

CAPRICE

restaurant-bar-lounge

french mediterranean
cuisine

full menu served
daily until 1 am seven days a week

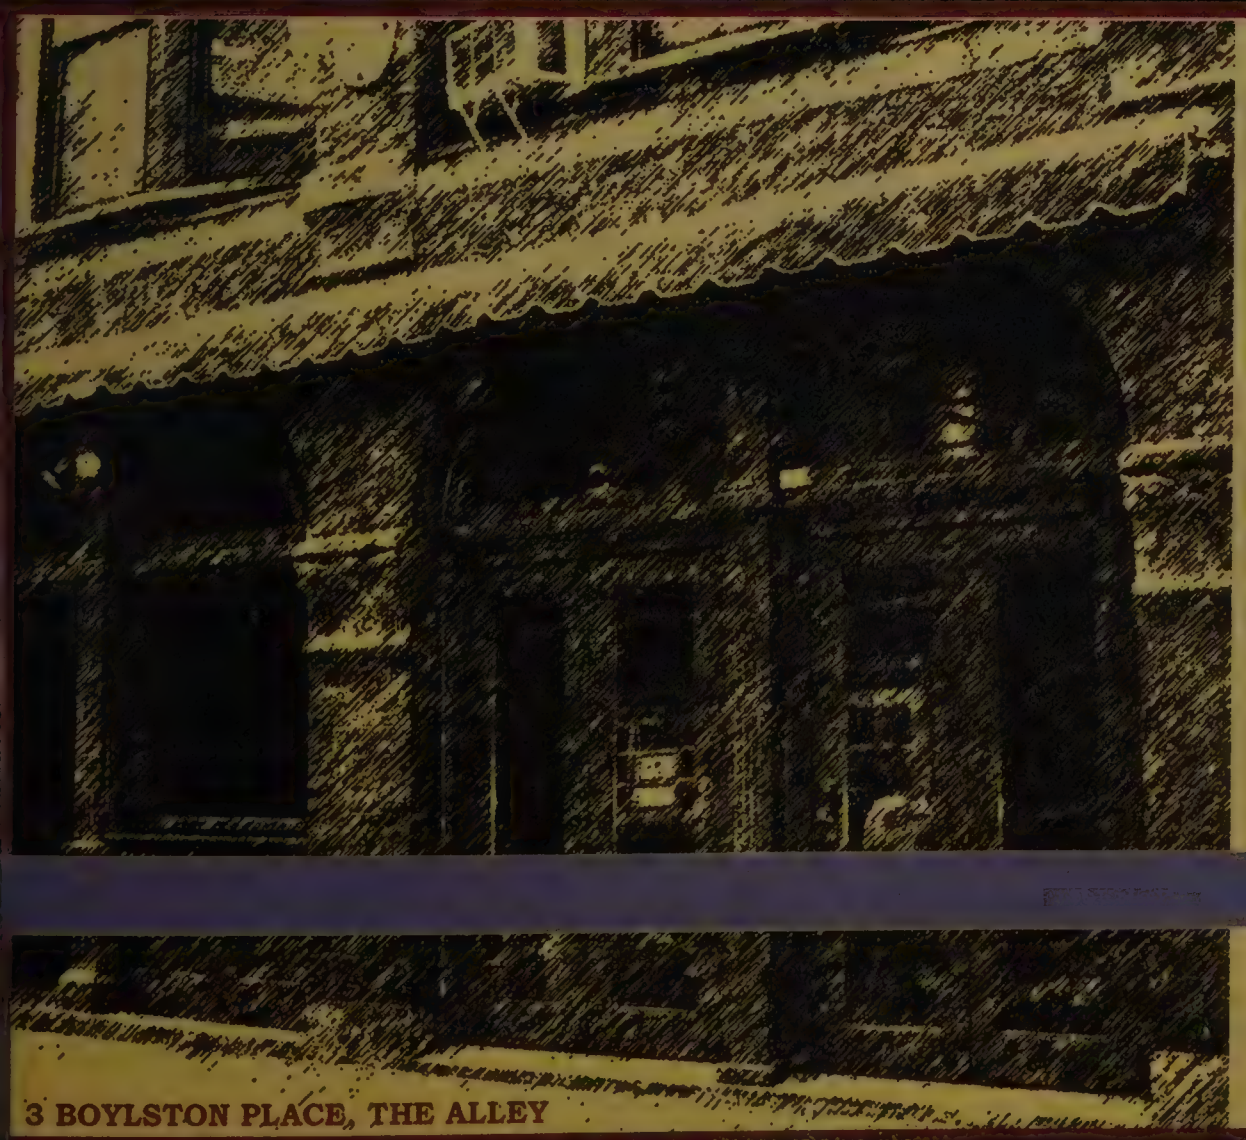
275 tremont street theatre district
reservations 617.292.0080
capricelounge.com



Now Open!

Open 7 Days a Week

11:30 to 2 am

Drink 'til 1, Eat 'til 2

Lunch • Dinner • Drinks

Sweetwater Cafe
FOOD SPIRITS & BEER

3 BOYLSTON PLACE, THE ALLEY

WWW.SWEETWATERCAFEBOSTON.COM

Hysterical Performance, Mill 6 Theatre Collaborative, New African Company, Tricord Productions and Zeitgeist Stage Company. Performances feature poets, dancers, musicians and storytellers.

Boy Gets Girl

Merrimack Repertory Theater, 50 East Merrimack St., Lowell (978-454-3926). Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. Through Nov. 16. $16-$24. This thriller explores what it means to be secure in today's world, as a young man's infatuation quickly turns into obsession after a blind date. Rebecca Gilman's play follows a young career woman's gradual unraveling as she comes to realize that her safety may depend on giving up everything she has.

Butley

Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Wed., 2 pm.; Tue.-Thu. 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun. 2 and 7 pm. Through Nov. 30. $14-$64. Two-time Tony Award winner Nathan Lane stars in Simon Gray's dark comedy about a literary professor whose wife and lover both leave him on the same day.

The Girl in the Frame

Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 pm; Sun., 2 pm. Through Nov. 9. $32. This musical by Jeremy Desmon is about a man who falls in love with a girl from a picture frame.

The Gulls

Machine, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri. and Sat. 8 pm. Through Nov. 8. Ryan Landry's play The Gulls, loosely based on Alfred Hitchcock's film The Birds, is the story of rebellious seagulls exacting revenge on Provincetown developers.

Haymarket

Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-7529). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant Street. Through Nov. 16. From Zayd Dohrn, the critically acclaimed author of Shameless, comes the story of anarchist labor activists Lucy and Albert Parsons. When dynamite explodes and a riot breaks out in Haymarket, killing 11 people—seven of them policemen—the tenor of 1886 Chicago grows murderous.

The Boston Lyric Opera performs Rigoletto.

A Man of No Importance

SpeakEasy Stage Company at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun. 7 pm. Through Nov. 9. $25-$35. Based on the 1994 film starring Albert Finney, this show with music by Stephen Flaherty and lyrics by Lynn Ahrens follows a Dublin bus driver's attempts to stage Oscar Wilde's Salome at his church in the 1960s, despite protests from parish officials.

The Phantom Tollbooth

Wheelock Family Theatre, 180 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu/wft. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. Through Nov. 30. $12-$18. Bored Milo laments that "almost everything is a waste of time." But then a mysterious tollbooth appears in his bedroom and he is whisked away to the Land of Expectations. Follow Milo's magical adventures in this musical based on Norton Juster's 1961 novel.

Shear Madness

Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6:30 and 9:30 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. Ongoing. $30-$34. This comedic whodunit set in a unisex hair salon holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

UNIVERSITY THEATER

Don Quixote

Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. Nov. 18-23. $16-$20. Double Edge Theatre partners with Brandeis University to create a unique version of Miguel Cervantes' Spanish tale.

The Fabulous Invalid

Emerson College, The Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (888-889-8587). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 14, 15, 20-21, 8pm; Nov. 16, 2 pm; Nov. 22, 2 and 8 pm. $8-$21. In 1903, a famous acting couple dies on stage during the opening night performance of a new theater. The pair stays and haunts the theater in a new adaptation of this play by George Kaufman and Moss Hart.

Temptation

Harvard Radcliffe Dramatic Club at Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 8 pm. $12. Former Czech president Vaclav Havel wrote this play about darkness, religion and science that centers around a devil offering to teach magic.

Dance

Boston Conservatory Dance Theatre Presents

31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-912-9222). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Nov. 13-15, 8 pm; Nov. 16, 2 pm. $16. The program includes two premieres: Knowing We Can Never Know, by Diane Arvanites-Noya and Tommy Neblett, and Missa Brevis, by José Limón.

Complexities: A Dance Complex Faculty Showcase

Dance Complex, 536 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617 547-9363). Nov. 15, 8 pm; Nov. 16, 7 pm. $15. Th Dance Complex presents this show featuring ne works from faculty choreographers.

Experimental Dance Concert

Greene Theatre, Tufts Performance and Productio Center, 10 Boylston Place, Boston (617-824-8369) www.ticketweb.com. Nov. 5-7, 8 pm; Nov. 8, 2 and pm. $5. Emerson's Dance Program presents a perfo mance of student choreography.

Kirov Ballet and Orchestra

Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (888-447 7400). www.celebrityseries.org. Nov. 13, 7:30 pm Nov. 14-15, 8 pm; Nov. 16, 3 pm. $45-$90. In cel bration of the 300th anniversary of the founding the city of St. Petersburg, the Kirov Ballet and O chestra perform a program of works by choreographi and St. Petersburg native Michel Fokine.

The Shaolin Warriors

Orpheum Theatre, One Hamilton Place, Bosto (617-876-4275). MBTA: Green or Red Line Park. Nov. 8, 8 pm. $30-$40. The Songsha Shaolin Martial Monks Troupe's 20 warriors ha have made hand-to-hand and weapons combi into an artform. The Shaolin Warriors' perfo mance combines gymnastic skill with the grace ballet and a touch of Cirque du Soleil.

Stomp

Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Bosto (800-447-7400). www.stomponline.com. MBTA Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri 7 and 10 pm; Sat.5 and 9 pm; Sun. 3 and 7 pm. O going. $45-$55. In its ongoing run in Boston, th percussion hit continues its tradition of no plot dialogue. Performers use everyday objects such brooms, garbage lids and their own bodies to cr ate music for their dance numbers.

Things That Go Unsaid

Green Street Studios, 185 Green St., Cambridge (61 864-3191). web.mit.edu/kdonovan/www. Nov. 7- 8 pm. $15. Kelley Donovan and Dancers present th program of contemporary dance that investigat community, spirituality and transformation, explo ing the energy of movement and gestural vocabul as a form of nonverbal communication.

THE Comedy CONNECTION FANEUIL HALL

617•248•9700

"Don't Go Home and Sit on Your A@#! Come Laugh it Off With Us!"

NOVEMBER 7-9

TOMMY DAVIDSON

NOVEMBER 9TH

JIMMY KEYS

NOVEMBER 14-15

BRIAN REGAN

BOSTON'S BEST 2003
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

NOVEMBER 28-29

NOVEMBER 22-23

NOVEMBER 21-22

ROBERT SCHIMMEL

SOMMORE

CRAIG SHOEMAKER

See why Frank Santos has been a hit with fans for over 10 years!

EVERY THURSDAY!

"The R-Rated Hypnotist"

ALWAYS IMITATED! NEVER DUPLICATED!

FRANK SANTOS

Validated Parking at 75 State Street Garage

www.comedyconnectionboston.com • Gift Certificates Available!

BOSTON ROCKS

(617) 726-1110

(Next to The Comedy Connection on the 2nd Floor of the Quincy Market Bldg.)

A Unique Blend of Entertainment!

MARTINI MONDAYS!

*Hot Video Mix
Guest DJs spinning
Hip Hop and R&B
from 10:30PM 'til 2AM

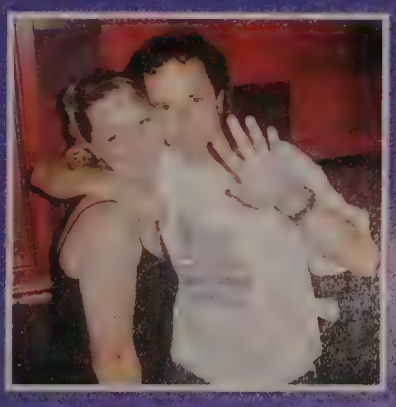
THURSDAY ON THE ROCKS!

*Featuring Top 40, Hip Hop & Dance!

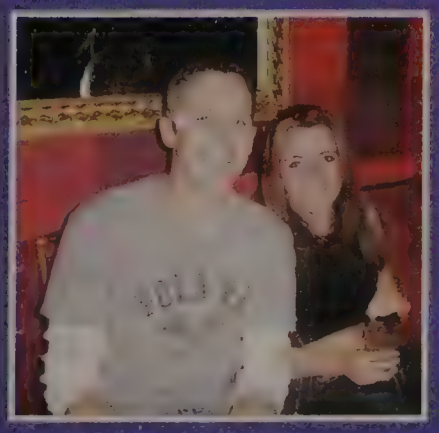
THE LOFT FRIDAYS!

*Featuring Top 40, Dance and Hip Hop
*Interactive Video & Digital Picture Shows

Booking Holiday Parties!
VIP Room Available!



Pauly Shore after his Comedy Connection performance!



SHOTGUN SATURDAYS!

*Boston's Own, Jacky Dalton
Every Saturday at 8PM!
*Ladies Night for all Birthday and Bachelorette Parties!
*Top 40, Dance and Hip Hop!

Open 7 Days a Week • www.boston-rocks.net • 21+

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy. Or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault at Remington's features local stand-up comedians. •Fridays and Saturdays: Dick Doherty's Comedy Pro Tour •Sundays: Open-mike night.

